CHOKED UP ON IT — Mrs. Raymond Herrigott, president of the Girls' Softball League, instructs Nancy Gabriel, 10, on the technique of holding a bat. Some 30 youngsters report Tuesday evenings for informal softball games at Deerfield School.

Boys And Moms Join The Fun Playing Girls Summer Softball

Participants in the girls' summer softball program are having so much fun that a half dozen boys have joined them Tuesday evening games and even spectators are getting into the act.

"It's the informality of it that we all enjoy," said Mrs. Raymond Herrigott, president of the Girls' Softball League, who is in charge of the program, along with Edward Moore, Recreation Commission member.

Thirty to 50 youngsters report to the Deerfield School for informal softball games supposed to be a summer softball program for girls "for fun," Mrs. Herrigott said.

Moore throws a stone and the one who catches it is team captain. Then he throws another stone to determine the other captain. The captains then choose teams.

"Mrs. Stolarich and I are always chosen last, because we aren't as good as the youngsters," Mrs. Herrigott said. "Mrs. Stolarich works with the girls' spring softball league and reports regularly for the summer sessions with her daughter, Lisa, and younger children, Nora and Billy."

"You see, summer softball has become a family affair," Mrs. Herrigott said.

She credits Ed Moore with the success of the program, saying, "He comes only be-

Another unusual age group has been drawn into the summer softball program — mothers.

Outing Scheduled For Sen. Williams

Wednesday, Sept. 9, has been set for a full day's outing at the Shackamaxon Country Club in Scotch Plains in honor of United States Senator Harrison A. (Pete) Williams Jr., who is seeking re-election Nov. 3.

The day's activities will include golf with prizes and awards for the players, swimming in the club's pool, one of the largest in the state, luncheon and a full course dinner to top off the full day's program.

Only 820 can be accommodated in the country club dining room. Requests for reservations have started to come in to Arthur C. Fried of Westfield, dinner and ticket chairman, who said indications are that many of the state's top industrial bankers, professional men, and women will be on hand.

Some Go Overboard, Others Want To See Pool Proposal Go Dry

"My mother would love it; she has six children," said Susan Grau, 14, of 224 Old Brook rd.

She was answering questions put to her in an opinion survey on talk that's been echoing across the mountains that some folks think there ought to be a municipal swimming pool in Mountainside.

Susan's parents weren't home to report their opinions themselves, but Susan thought it would be a "gift to have a pool."

Names were picked at random from the telephone book for the sampling. Of 14 names there were only two who were not in favor of the pool. Most were enthusiastic, and two, who said they would not use the facility themselves, thought it would be good for their neighbors. Some did not wish to comment and are not included in the sampling.

Frederick Bauer of 1133 Cornine ter. is one of those who favors construction of the facility because he thinks it would be enjoyed by his neighbors. He says he's too old to use it himself, but his wife is an invalid, but that didn't prevent his wanting the best for his neighbors.

Mrs. William P. Boyle of 342 Rolling Rock rd. has two daughters. She thinks a pool would provide excellent recreation during the hot summer months when the children are home from school. "This would be better than tennis courts," she said, adding that she heartily endorses swimming lessons and classes in life saving for all children.

Joseph Boylan of 1341 Scott Brook rd., however, thinks a pool is "not necessary." He called statements to the fact that the facility would not be held for out of towners in a "showing wedge." He said the through would "eventually go back for us."

B. R. Bartlett of 257 Evergreen crest has five children and endorses the pool idea. "I see nothing else to do in the summer," he said.

Jack A. Baumer of 1134 Plaza ter. is in favor of a pool and has signed a petition saying that she is. But she too, would like to find out more about the idea. She has four boys.

Mrs. Barbara Howe of 1181 Ridge dr. would like to know more about the idea. What she heard of it "wasn't wonderful," she says. She has two children.

Mrs. Bertha Kroome of 8 Mountain View dr. predicts that taxes will go up if a municipal pool is built. She is "not in favor of the idea at all," she says. Her own children are grown, she says, adding that even if they were not she would not be in favor of the pool. Parents should learn to entertain their children themselves," she said.

Mrs. Arthur K. Olson of 1181 Plaza ter. is in favor of a pool and has signed a petition saying that she is. But she too, would like to find out more about the idea. She has four boys.

Fred J. Filler of 284 Arctic Tree ln. also signed a petition against construction of a pool, although he has no children. "It would be good to have a pool in town," he said.

William S. Flinigan of Rt. 22 said he will decide after a public meeting has been held on the issue. He has no children.

Allan Dehls of 1491 Deer Park rd. said he is "certainly in favor of a pool," he thought he added that it must be in an area close to "off the beaten path" and not too close to private homes. He has five children who could use it, he said, but he added that his decision would depend on the choice of site.

Mrs. Betty Korley of 361 Hedges row has three children and heartily approves of the idea of a pool. "The children need something like this," she said.

Mrs. Lorraine Leber of 1220 Cedar ave. also has three children and also favors the idea. "It would be nice for the children," she said.

A man whose mother couldn't come to the phone and who didn't seem to know his name, although he said his age is 40, said only "I want to go swimming."

Wind Up Playground Program

A week of tournaments and will include a watermelon party special events will wind up the general clean up of the summer playground program at Deerfield School next week.

A tennis tournament will climax that program Tuesday and Thursday mornings.

A baton twirling exhibition will be held by the girls Wednesday afternoon.

Junior Olympics and amateur hour Friday, Aug. 14, will be part of an all-day program that Daniels and Dayene Costello Wayne Cantagalo and Bill Styler were winners in a basketball skills tournament.

CAPT. ROBERT STEDMAN
Robert Stedman
Wins Air Medal
In Vietnam Duty

Army Capt. Robert W. Stedman, 27, of 385 Creekbed rd., Mountainside, received the Air Medal for meritorious achievement while engaged in aerial combat support of ground forces of the Republic of Vietnam recently.

Capt. Stedman is assigned to the U.S. Army Support Command in Vietnam. He entered the Army in 1957 and arrived overseas in November, 1963, on this tour of duty.

A native of Mountainside, he was graduated from Westfield High School in 1954 and attended Pennsylvania State University in University Park. He was graduated from Officer Candidate School in Fort Still, Okla.

He and his wife, Linda, have a three-month-old daughter, Cynthia Lee, whom he will see for the first time when he returns in September. He will be stationed at Fort Monmouth upon his return.

Capt. Stedman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis H. Stedman of New Vernon.

Helps Prepare Engineering Book

Walter H. Rupp, Mountainside Board of Education member, participated in the preparation of a recently published book, "Treasures of Engineering Terms."

He served on a panel of engineers to draw up the first reference guide of its kind for technical writers, engineers and information specialists. The book was published last month by the Engineering Joint Council, representing 29 major engineering societies and institutes.

The purpose of the book is to improve communication among engineers and assist them in preparation of reports and in the use of technical literature. The 310-page volume contains 10,000 terms commonly used by all branches of engineering.

Rupp is an engineer on the staff of East Research and Engineering Co. at Florham Park and a member of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers.

He has a strong interest in law and is fond of talking with lawyers. A complete law file, the New Jersey Statutes Annex, is lodged in the bookshelves that line his pine-paneled office in police headquarters.

This area of private study has become a valuable complement to the more formal courses he has taken.

* * *

HIS FIRST JOB after completing high school courses was a salesman with the Union County Buick Co. of Westfield. The general manager was Robert W. Davidson, mayor of Mountainside at that time.

Although he had a good job, the childhood yen to be a policeman was still strong. At this point in his life fortune struck twice at the same time, and he was forced to make a decision. Davidson offered him a job with the Mountainside police force, and he was also offered a job with the New York Port Authority police.

The passenger, Constance Capko, complained of pain in her right arm, but she told police she would see her own doctor.

The driver, Edward R. Caprio, 17, of 841 Remmert ave., Union, lost control, according to police. The vehicle spun around and struck the center island. The accident happened on Saturday.

Route 22 Accident Jars Driver, 71; Summons Issued

Mrs. Helen V. Jacobs, 71, of 102 Crawford ter., Union, was taken to Mountainside last Thursday night, when her car was struck in the rear by another and driven onto the center grass island of the roadway, Mountainside police reported.

Mrs. Jacobs, a widow, was taken to Overlook Hospital, Summit, for a check-up, police said.

John R. Egger, Jr., 21, of Chatham, who was driving his father's car, said he was driving eastbound in the fast lane. Coming around a bend in the highway, he saw a slower traffic in front of him, applied brakes and skidded sideways into the center car, which was in the slow lane, according to police.

Policeman William Ailes stopped Egger and his passenger, John R. Egger, Jr., of Chatham, driving. Both cars were towed from the scene.

ECHO PROFILE

As there was no radio either, he built the present Borough Hall and was borough tax assessor at a system of lights on the roads.

He died when his son of 11 years old, the chief grandfather was a borough councilman in 1900.

Chief Fritz has seen many changes in Borough Hall. He lived next to school there while the Echobrook School addition was being constructed and some 50 youngsters crowded into the borough meeting room for split session classes.

Twenty years ago the meeting room was used for dances, weddings and firemen's chicken suppers, the chief explained.

The white masonry building was constructed around the turn of the century shortly after the borough was incorporated in 1893. Until 1940 the fire department used quarters now occupied by police and garage doors opened on to the highway.

The police chief's office was formerly occupied by the judge and borough clerk and the clerk's office was a combination court and police headquarters. The unoccupied offices were built last year.

Chief Fritz attended Echobrook School through the sixth grade, when Mountainside youngsters were sent to Westfield for junior school and high school. He attended Farrel School of Fingerprinting in New York City, Union County Police Chief's School for Instructors, Rutgers University for courses in community relations and numerous police courses in investigative procedure and traffic.

He has a strong interest in law and is fond of talking with lawyers. A complete law file, the New Jersey Statutes Annex, is lodged in the bookshelves that line his pine-paneled office in police headquarters.

This area of private study has become a valuable complement to the more formal courses he has taken.

ACCIDENTS THAT INCLUDE fatalities or possible fatalities must be photographed and investigated. The automobile must be checked and an autopsy arranged. Victims must be identified — a job that sometimes takes several days of intense investigation. Deaths of a suspicious nature require special investigation, and the body cannot be removed without an okay from the county medical examiner.

Chief Fritz lives at 296 Indian trail with his wife, the former Virginia Meiley of Plainfield and daughter, Barbara, a record analyst with the New York Port Authority.

Mrs. Fritz is a first grade teacher at Deerfield School. The couple met when she was teaching at Echobrook and he was a traffic officer stationed at the crossing there.

Fritz is a member of the Juvenile Conference Committee, which seeks to guide youngsters in trouble with the law. Other members of the committee are Dr. Henry Lainghein, chairman, Charles Wadis, principal of Echobrook School, and Mrs. Charles Jerome.

He is treasurer of the Union County Police Chief's Association and has been a member of eight motor vehicle summonses and placed in jail.

The action occurred at 2 p.m. July 28 and the next night Scott appeared before Magistrate Jacob Bauer. The Chicago man was found guilty, fined a total of $400 and sentenced to ten days to serve.

Driving while suspended for one month, no license

in possession, one month, no

registration for the trailer, one month, no tractor registration

in possession, one month, no

license, one day, a maximum of 10 days.

Scott, who has spent almost half of his 52 years in jail and prison, according to police, was then in jail or prison most of the time, according to his police record, the latest instance being a two-year term in New Jersey State Prison for breaking, entering and larceny in Union.

Scott, who was described as a professional house burglar, was issued a summons.

The case last October in Mountainside against Scott who at one time lived in Westfield, was for suspected breaking and entering and larceny.

He posted $100 bail.

He never appeared in court.

Scott first went to jail in 1934 at the age of 22 for larceny of a car, price said.

At the time he has been in jail or prison most of the time, according to his police record, the latest instance being a two-year term in New Jersey State Prison for breaking, entering and larceny in Union.

Scott, who was commanded by Police Chief Christian

Fritz, who described him as the type of policeman "who is of great value to any police department."

The case last October in Mountainside against

Scott

for driving while his license was revoked, and another

$205 for operating a vehicle without a license, was suspended.

He was found not guilty on a charge of trailer registration suspension.

Other motor vehicle violators fined follow:

Ramon Tomassini, 39, New ark, careless driving, $10;

Michael S. Sciarro, 56, 283 Garrett rd., Mountainside, impeding traffic, $15; Donald R. Verry, 27, Livingston, expired registration, $15; Robert H. Schlaggenhaft, 37, Loyal, Wis., traffic signal violation, $13, and James W. Koch 28, Nixa, Mo., failure to keep right, $10.

MORE SINGAPORE:

In 1819 a bright Britisher named Stamford Raffles commanded an armed company of 800 men to land in the south of Malaya. He had trading posts for the East India Company and many started something. It was the beginning of modern Singapore.

Today Singapore is a great city, one of the world's five greatest seaports. It is the most vital state in the new country in Malaya. It is a port and a city and a state. It is a shipper of rubber, a producer of bananas, a born every seven days, a port to 100 countries.

As part of the new Federation of Malaya it is one of 14 states which include Sarawak,
