

VIEW FROM THE BACKYARD — Amateur astronomer Roger Tutbill of 11 Tanglewood is adjusting a 16-inch reflector telescope that he made himself. A 12-inch telescope that he made will be donated to Union Junior College when an observatory is completed there in the spring.

Star Gazer Started With 20c Now His Telescopes Cost Thousands!

Policy Is Outlined By School Board On Transportation

When Roger Tutbill was assistant scoutmaster for Boy Scout Troop 176 some five years ago, he accompanied a group of Scouts on an outing to Olympic Park.

There was a telescope there through which one could view the heavens for 20 cents. The boys took the view of the astronomical wonders quite much in stride, but Tutbill has never been the same.

Since then he has been an "astronomy nut" to quote the parlance of Amateur Astronomers Inc. of which he is president. (The 115-member Union County group meets every Friday night at Surprise Lake, telescopes in tow and attention skyward. It also holds monthly meetings in individual homes.)

Telescopes of varying sizes now sprout in Tutbill's backyard and basement. He has made all of them himself.

One of his do-it-yourself efforts, a 12-inch reflector telescope, has been donated to Union Junior College in Cranford and is one of the two pieces of equipment that will be moved into the William Miller Sperry Memorial Observatory when that building is completed in the spring. The other temporary piece is a three-inch refractor telescope owned by UJC.

The major instruments that will be mounted eventually are a 24-inch Newtonian-Cassegrainian reflector telescope — New Jersey's largest — and a 10-inch refractor instrument. They will be built by A. A. I. members over the next five years and will be valued at $40,000 upon completion.

had to order 35 of them from a wholesale firm in Pennsylvania. My wife will never forget the day the trailer truck drove up to the house with 35 telescopes. I was the only one who knew what a supply on hand.

His first project was a refractor telescope. It cost $20.00. He has since built several more. The most expensive is a 24-inch Newtonian-Cassegrainian reflector telescope which cost $40,000.

ECHO PROFILE - Herbert J. Brown

HERBERT J. BROWN

When one considers that the superintendent of the Union County schools is a person who appears to be most pathetically not surprising that his choice of an assistant principal at Deerfield School last year and to fill his own previous role as principal this year should be a person who spent his childhood on other roads.

Herbert J. Brown, who was born in 1915, is now the principal of Deerfield. He has toured with dance bands, operated a music store, participated in radio shows and served as bandmaster with the 22nd Marine Band.

good study lighting

Because good homework skills are vitally important to scholastic achievement, your child deserves his own well lighted private study area. Planned lighting lets a student relax, concentrate better. Homework is finished faster, more accurately, with less nerve and eye fatigue.

Study areas tips: Provide a flat top desk or table with a non-glossy top that is light in color. Place the desk or table against a wall (never facing a window). Eye position should be at least 14 inches above the work surface. Books and other reading matter should be propped up about 30 degrees toward the eyes. The study lamps should provide at least 150 watts of light.

Help Given To Persons Suffering Nerve Deafness

Persons suffering from nerve deafness are not just "deaf" but they are also "deaf-blind" because they are unable to see. A remarkable new hearing device is now being developed by the public hearing service of the State of New Jersey. This device is called the "Beltone Hearing Service" and it is making a difference in the lives of many persons who are deaf-blind. The device is a small, portable unit which is worn on the head and is connected to a hearing aid. It is free of charge to persons who are deaf-blind and who are unable to see. The device is available to persons who are deaf-blind and who are unable to see. The device is available to persons who are deaf-blind and who are unable to see. The device is available to persons who are deaf-blind and who are unable to see.

MRS. JAMES E. RAVALLI

Miss Tierney's Wedding Held In St. James Church

Miss Tierney's wedding was held in St. James Church on August 23rd. The bride was Miss Tierney and the groom was Mr. Tierney. The ceremony was officiated by the Rev. Father. The wedding was a beautiful affair and was attended by many guests. The bride wore a beautiful white gown and the groom wore a tuxedo. The reception was held at the church and was a very enjoyable affair. The bride and groom are now happily married and are expecting a baby in the near future.

Area Poll Suggests Civil Rights Issue May Decide Presidential Vote

By ALLEN GOORWITZ
If the opinions expressed by Union County area residents in a survey conducted last week are indicative of the nation's political pulse, the issue of civil rights will prove a determining factor in deciding whom voters will elect President of the United States in November.

The question asked of all 18 persons in Union, Linden, Springfield, Mountaineer, Roselle and Roselle Park was as follows:

"Will the issue of civil rights in your opinion, be a factor this November in deciding who will be elected President of the United States? (Feel free to elaborate.)" Four of the 18 called declined comment.

Carol Weisman, 71, of 1499 Village rd., Union, stated she felt civil rights "will be a very essential issue" in deciding the outcome of November's general election. She is a graduate of Rutgers University, Newark, and this fall begins studies towards a master's degree in English at the University of Connecticut, Storrs, Conn.

Miss Weisman contended, "I believe President Johnson would have a 60-40 advantage were the election held today. But by election day this margin could drop to 55-45, and the 'white backlash' we've read and heard so much about may well decide which man is elected President."

"So many people," Miss Weisman added, "tell me they're voting for Senator Goldwater because they want an end to civil rights riots. They think he will quell the riots. He won't. He can't. They can't be quieted. The time has come for complete equality for the Negro to become a reality, and when every white accepts that fact, that's when the riots will end — not before. And certainly not with the election of Senator Goldwater as President."

"This will be my first time to vote," she said, "and I consider it a great responsibility. Although I will be away studying in Connecticut, I will definitely send in a write-in vote."

Another Unionite, Erwin F. Wittmann, 33, of 1510 Vauxhall rd., stated, "I feel civil rights will certainly be an important issue in this election. Whether it will be the deciding factor... well, I should hope not. There are other areas — our foreign policy, for example — which merit the strong consideration of the voters." Wittman is a self-employed insurance agent.

"The Civil Rights Bill, however," stated Wittmann, "is superfluous legislation. One's unalienable rights are guaranteed by our Constitution. Therefore, it is the Justice Department — rather, its laxity — which has made the Constitution a 'piece of paper' as far as the Negro is concerned. And, if the Justice Department lets the Civil Rights Bill slide, and does not enforce it forcefully, that, too, will become a worthless document."

"While I agree with many of Senator Goldwater's axioms," said Wittman, "I believe he's pleasing too many people. And the Republican party, at present, does not show a sense of consolidation. In another month or so, it may have trodden out its difficulties."

"I haven't decided as yet," said Wittmann, "whom I will vote for. But I do feel President Johnson has taken a lot of the 'thunder' away from Senator Goldwater with his strong stand in the recent Vietnam crisis. It's still early, though. So much can happen in just the two or three days before the election."

Jacob Lavroff, 77, of 91 Garden Oval, Springfield, commented, "I'd say the civil rights issue will definitely be a significant factor in deciding this Presidential election, what with racial disturbances popping up in different parts of the country now." The Springfield man is proprietor of a Newark sign-painting company.

"The fact that President Johnson and the present administration has pushed strongly for the Civil Rights Bill," observed Lavroff, "will benefit Johnson at the polls. I believe, I think people want a President who they feel will sincerely see to it that the Civil Rights Bill is enforced, and they won't elect a man who might just push it aside."

"They're going too fast." To my way of thinking, 100 years is not too fast."

"And, if what is called the 'white backlash' votes for Goldwater out of rebellion to the cause of civil rights, and if it is sufficient for a Goldwater victory, I really and truly feel it would be a sad situation for this nation. If whites think Goldwater, if he is elected, is going to put the Negro back 100 years, forget it. That's out, and the time has come for accepting a and learning to live alongside one another."

"I would like to say," the Springfield woman continued, "I have more admiration and respect and confidence in President Johnson now since he has sworn in as President — than I have ever had before. And, I'm proud of him."

William Kegreiss, 39, of 517 Brook St., Linden, forecasted, "Goldwater will win in a landslide, and the deciding factor will be the civil rights issue, and the brand he has taken on it. Kegreiss is a welder at the Universal Corrugated Box Machinery Corp., Linden.

Kegreiss contended, "I think the Negro people are going too far in their demands and with the demonstrations. I bought a home in Linden for $31,000 — and my main concern was my children's schooling at that time — and my nine-year-old girls go to School No. 8. Now they're talking about transferring the school kids far away from their homes."

"If they transfer my little girl," said Kegreiss, "I'll take her out of school. Why should she have to go three miles away to another school, when we live three blocks away from the school she goes to now?"

"I'm sure," Kegreiss declared, "Goldwater would do the best job in halting the race riots breaking out now. And, I think the voters will elect him for that reason, plus the fact I think he would put his foot down more than Johnson on foreign policy."

Linden housewife Mrs. Ole Skjoldal, 72, of 1120 W. St. George ave., observed, "I can't guess at this point whether civil rights will be a factor. I know, personally, I believe in civil rights. I happen to be a religious person and I feel deeply that we are, indeed, one nation under God."

Mrs. Skjoldal explained, "I am really a Republican — and for that reason I suppose I should want Goldwater to win — but I am for civil rights, and Goldwater voted against the Civil Rights Bill, so I don't know what to do. I think Johnson will win in November. He's been a fine President, and I like him."

Rhonda Winfield, 21, of 602 Chestnut st., Roselle Park, "Yes, I think the issue of civil rights will be a great factor in deciding the outcome of the Presidential election. And, I hope the civil rights groups leaders — such as Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King — and our political leaders can successfully inhibit the potential race rioter from rioting in the months ahead, because I feel continued racial disturbances might prove harmful to President Johnson at the polls in November."

Miss Winfield, a June, 1961 graduate of Union High School, and now a student nurse at Beth Israel Hospital, Newark, stated, "I'd be so scared if Goldwater were elected — I really think he's so sick — I'd like to do a 'case study' on him. But seriously, I believe Goldwater is a danger to our nation's future; that is, if he is elected President."

"I don't believe it will be a close election," she added, "I think Johnson will win by a clear-cut margin. Goldwater has not taken a firm stand on civil rights and Johnson has. And, therefore, everyone eager to see civil rights instituted in every-day living will vote for Johnson. And, I'm quite excited about this election for President. I'll be voting for the first time."

any party allegiance — but Goldwater's too radical for my tastes."

Howard Gillings, 82, of 564 Newark ave., Kenilworth, said, "I think civil rights will be a factor in deciding the outcome of the election. I don't know if we've got the laws to provide civil rights for all on the books, but neither side is ready. That's the trouble. We're trying to do something in one day that's going to take 10 years because we started so late." Gillings is a retired manager of an asphalt concern.

"What worries me," said the Kenilworth man, "is the racial disturbances. I feel much of the racial situation at present is being inspired by outside influences. And, if these disturbances continue, I feel Goldwater will strongly benefit in terms of votes."

"In the end," he said, "education will rid our nation of racial injustices — not more laws or injustices of rebellion — but then again, if the riots do increase, the end result might well be a reversion."

Kathleen Moulder, 72, of N. 10th st., Kenilworth, commented, "I feel the civil rights issue will be the major issue which will decide the winner in the November Presidential election." Miss Moulder is employed by an art and engraving firm in Union.

"I feel there will be a Goldwater landslide victory in November," Miss Moulder said, "and I think his personal stand regarding the Constitutionality of the Civil Rights Bill will be a determining factor in his favor."

"Plus, will be the first time I'll be voting," she added, "and I really don't know who to vote for. I don't know for Johnson, and I'm afraid Goldwater's too radical. I think Goldwater will pull a good deal of the college scampus vote. He's a radically-minded man, and usually young people are intrigued by a radical, but I personally feel he should be more stable. Inasmuch as he is running for the most important post in our country."

A Mountaineer housewife, Mrs. Charles J. Richard, 32, of 1092 Saddle Brook rd., said, "I suppose, to a certain degree, civil rights will be a factor. I expect it will be a close election, but I feel Johnson will win. At least were the election held today, I think he would."

"And," she added, "I think Johnson will carry the South, regardless of the fact he — and not Goldwater — has been the one who has pushed for civil rights legislation. The Civil Rights Bill, I might add, is a step forward in the right direction. It should have been drawn up and passed and enforced a long time ago."

Another voting for the first time for President Philip Vozzo, 23, of 1104 Saddle Brook rd., Mountaineer, observed, "Most certainly civil rights will be my mind — the deciding factor of this election."

Vozzo is employed by an airline company at Newark Airport.

"Frankly," Vozzo stated, "I go along with a lot of Senator Goldwater's theories regarding foreign policy and states' rights. I am in favor of home-town government, and I like it or not, I feel I would have to vote for President Johnson, because I am worried by Goldwater's apparent break-down to war."

ident Johnson, because I am worried by Goldwater's apparent break-down to war."

the next generation, and the ones to follow."

Christian Winter, 55, of 33 Independence dr., Roselle, commented, "Civil rights could be a factor this November. I think the racial disturbances could have quite an effect on the voters, in that it might cause people to review our civil rights program to see if we are moving in the right direction. Winter is employed by American Cyanamid, Linden, as a chemical department superintendent.

"If the election were tomorrow," said Winter, "I think Johnson would be a close winner. But the polls are changing from day to day."

The Johnson vote for the first time, the Roselle housewife concluded, "but the race issue may prove the deciding one. I'm definitely for Johnson."

Mrs. Catherine Ortyl, 43, of 711 Harrison ave., Roselle, stated, "The civil rights issue will definitely be a contributing factor in deciding which man wins. I feel President Johnson will be a landslide winner."

"Voter Nam and the race issue will be important factors," the Roselle housewife concluded, "but the race issue may prove the deciding one. I'm definitely for Johnson."
