League Gathers 1,600 Signatures Anti-Apartments

Nearly Every Street Covered By Group In Petition Campaign

More than 1,600 Mountainside residents have signed the petition against multiple-dwelling now being circulated by the newly formed League of Civic Associations, Harry Swensen, coordinator of the group, said this week.

The signatures were tallied at a meeting held last Thursday night at the home of Clive Van Allen, 217 Pembroke rd., and will be presented to the Planning Board in the near future, Swensen said. Further action is awaiting the results of tonight's private meeting of the Planning Board, he said.

Pointing out that the petition drive was an attempt to gain a cross section of opinion in the borough, Swensen said that almost every street in the borough was contacted. Field workers reported that less than two percent of those contacted declined to sign, the coordinator announced. This indicates, he claims, that the great majority of residents wish to maintain the one-family residential character of Mountainside.

Are Opposed

Robert Lawrie of the Concord Estates, who is serving as chairman of the Civic League, declared the petitions prove conclusively that the overwhelming majority of residents of Mountainside are opposed to multiple-dwellings in the borough.

Signatures are still being added to the petition and the total will be turned over to the planning board to aid it, Swensen said. In their preparation of the master plan, The Civic League Association will hold a meeting shortly after the results of tonight's private meeting of the Planning Board are announced, he added.

Questioned as to the possible rise in taxes with the continuation of the one-family character, Swensen said that he assumes other people moved to Mountainside, as he did, because of the quiet residential atmosphere. He feels that other residents will be, as he is, willing "to bear the tariff to keep it that way."

MAYOR TO SPEAK TO GOP WOMEN TUESDAY-NIGHT

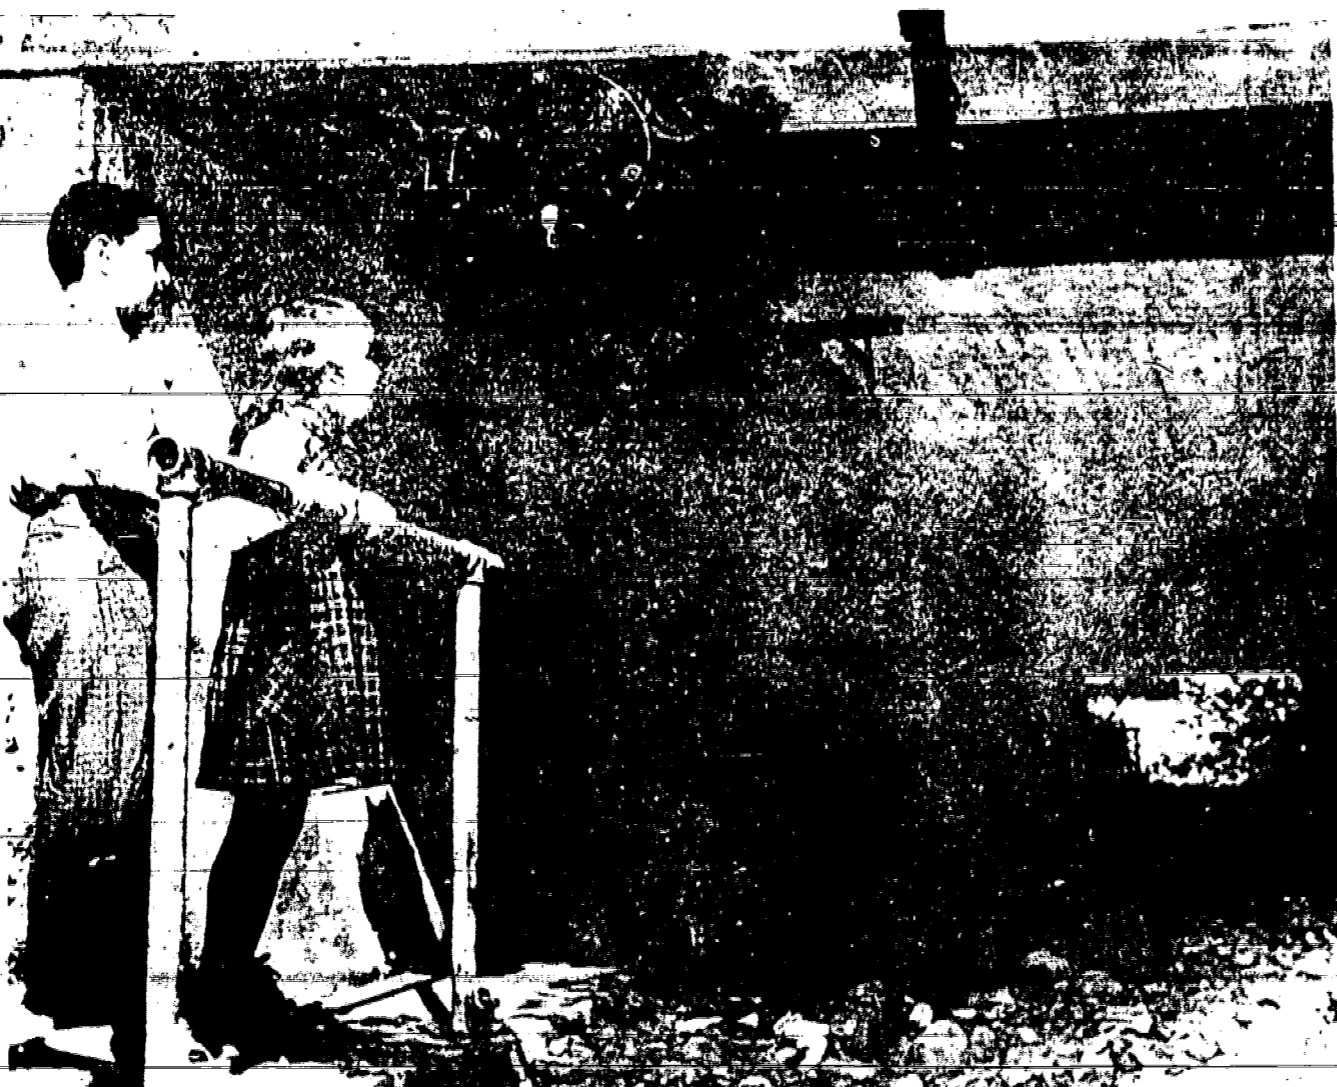

Frederick Wilhelms Jr., the newly appointed mayor of Mountainside, will be the guest speaker next Tuesday evening at the first general meeting of the Mountainside Women's Republican Club. The meeting will open at 8:30 at the home of Mrs. Harold Becker, 350-Creek Road, Mountainside.

Mayor Wilhelms will review the major problems of the borough and present his views for their solution. A question and answer period will follow.

Mrs. Gene Simpson has been appointed parliamentary of the women's club, Mrs. Howard Dexter, transportation chairman and Mrs. Joseph Barry, clerk.

Interested women are invited to attend Tuesday's meeting. Further information may be obtained by contacting the membership chairman, Mrs. Walter Christoffers, AD 2-3128.

Consultants Recommend Use Of Tract For Tower Apartments Suggest Considering 3 Sites For 'Garden Type' In Future

CATWALK TO BIRD SANCTUARY Richard Bellitto and Cathy Irwin, both students at Echobrook School Mountainside, explore the old catwalk under Highway 22 which was installed by the state to provide children in the Newark Orphan Asylum, (which years back was housed in the present Wilson building) safe access to their chapel. The land on which the orphanage chapel was located was separated from the main grounds when the highway was built. The state highway department has held a revocable permit from the Newark association since 1947 to operate a bird sanctuary on the tract, which has been considered as a possible site for a community pool. Cathy and Richard are at the west end of the catwalk.

PLANNING BOARD MEETS TONIGHT ON FINAL REPORT

The Mountainside Planning Board will meet tonight for private discussion of the final and controversial report of the Herbert H. Smith Associates which recommendations have been previously removed the creation of multiple dwellings in the borough.

One of the main items on the agenda according to Albert J. Hartung, chairman of the board, will be setting of a date in October for the first of a series of public meetings on the full report, portions of which had been previously released.

Hartung anticipates no further action on any part of the report everything he said is still in the "discussion stage." No attempt will be made to develop the master plan until after the public hearings, the chairman stated.

Hartung Voices Multiple-Dwelling Opposition Again

Albert J. Hartung, chairman of the Mountainside Planning Board, voiced his opposition to multiple-dwelling in the borough during a meeting of the board last night.

225 Capacity

Echobrook School has an operating capacity of 225 students and a maximum of 270, compared to the recommended maximum of 400 students for the optimum operation of a public elementary school. With full enrollment, in our Lady of Mount Carmel (see Page 4).

Fire Alarm Bids Held For Study In Mountainside

Bids for an alerting system for volunteer firemen, presented at last week's meeting of the Mountainside Borough Council, were held for further study by the Council. The bids, which range from $4,200 to $5,845, were submitted by four different firms on specifications outlined in advertisements published as the result of an ordinance introduced at the July 21 meeting of the governing body.

The specifications called for the installation of a transistor-type radio alarm system to replace the present telephone system. The new system would be brought out at the September Council meeting, permit the two present fire companies to alternate on alerts, probably on a one-month basis for each company.

The alarm system would operate through police headquarters, thence to the chief of the fire department, then to the deputy chief of the fire company designated for duty that month. The chief and deputies would receive all calls, but police would simultaneously sound the alarm in the homes of the members of the company on duty.

The alternating system would prevent the calling out of the entire fire department for minor emergencies or small fires. Bids included: Frank Linder of Kenilworth, $5,845; North-east Communications of Pequonock, $5,845; Universal Fire (Continued on Page 4)

Recreation Groups Plug Ice-Skate Rink

Richard Counts, chairman of Mountainside Recreation Committee, and Edward Mace, a member of the committee, attended an area meeting held in New Providence for the purpose of taking preliminary steps aimed at securing an artificial ice skating rink in the western part of Union County.

Counts said that one of the purposes of the meeting was to discuss the possibility of the Mountainside Recreation Committee sponsoring a rink in the area.

Counts said that the rink would be located in the area of the old orphanage chapel, which was separated from the main grounds when the highway was built.

Counts said that the rink would be a "garden type" and would be suitable for children and adults alike.

ECHO PROFILE - Harold Nelson

Fund raising is not a new thing for Harold Nelson, 1964 chairman of the Mountainside Community Fund Drive. Nelson, a tall, thin, young man, has served in past years on the borough-wide drive and he says, with an engaging grin, for the past nine years has been busy raising funds for his family — his wife, Terry, and their three children, Beth Ann, Ricky, 6, and Mary Jo, 3.

Dems Won't Have Mayor Candidate

John Rose and Joseph Stupa Democratic candidates for election to the Borough Council in Mountainside, announced this week that the ticket will not include a mayoral candidate.

They were quoted as saying that they believe the chances for election are strengthened by maintaining an "open ticket."

"This is a realistic approach and it stems from our desire to insure opposition to the present one-party system," they said.

Wester 'Satisfactory'

The condition of Mountainside Councilman Tom Wester was described as "satisfactory" at press time by a spokesman for Overlook Hospital. Summit Wester has been confined at the summit hospital since he sustained a fracture of the right leg at a Borough Council meeting.

Red Light Figures In Rt. 22 Collision Injuring Trucker

A traffic light along Rt. 22 at the New Providence rd. intersection in Mountainide was laid at least partly to blame by police Monday for a three-vehicle collision that caused injuries to one truck driver.

The victim, William A. Hoffman, 34, of Somerville, suffered cuts of the head, police said. His truck struck the rear of a car driven by Joseph O'Connor, 46, of Scotch Plains, which in turn struck the rear of a car driven by Ernest W. Faucher, 42, of Plainfield.

The accident happened at 7:40 a.m. at a curve in the east-bound lanes. Faucher had stopped for a red light, police said. According to the police report, the traffic light "causes the traffic on Rt. 22 to back up, which in turn causes the stopping of vehicles some distance from the light."

9 New Cars, Trucks In Rt. 22 Collisions

Nine new cars and three trucks were damaged in a Rt. 22 collision in Mountainide last Thursday, and a police patrol car was damaged shortly afterwards, when a curious motorist drove into it while the officer was investigating the first crash.

According to Mountainide police, the complicated situation began, when a loaded new-car carrier driven eastbound by Robert D. Bell of Davison, Mich., struck the rear of a similar vehicle driven by Lavern Voelker, also of Davison. This vehicle in turn was struck in the rear by Donald Skinner of Flint, Mich.

Nine new cars on the carriers were damaged in the chain reaction collision, police said. Bell told police his brakes failed at the intersection with Lawrence ave., where the traffic signal was red.

While Patrolman Joseph Mazur was investigating the 1:40 p.m. accident, a car driven by Robert E. Sadowski, 25, of Plainfield rammed the rear of the parked police car, Mazur said.

Sadowski told Mazur he was watching a wrecker crew at work. Mazur said the police car's red flasher was in operation. The vehicle received minor damage to the trunk lid and "lower trunk panel."

The patrolman issued a summons to Sadowski for careless driving.

One-Woman Show It's A Mountain Of Work

BY RELY ZEISS
The "paid, too," she grins with characteristic frankness, "the paid for it."
The studio was a wall of windows on the north side and from the house, with the exception of the studio which is starkly white, is painted in a pecky cypress, a paneled panelling into which the artist reports happened to hammer nails which she had picked them.
On the main hang, in addition to many of Mrs. Souder's paintings, works of other artists, Maxwell and his companion and Frank, and by many other artists, including Robert H. Kelly, John Pellarno and Halley Dannerstein.
Mrs. Souder and their children, a senior at the University Regional High School, lived for five years on Whipperwill way in Mt. Pleasant before moving to their present home 11 years ago.

Mrs. Souder, who also studied under Gerald Foster, is distressed, as she feels many other traditional artists are, about the current "social protest" trend in art circles. She feels the chaotic discords so interpreted are "not art" and could endanger "lasting values which should be preserved. We should not close our eyes to newness but let it at least have some artistic value."

Among the 30 or more paintings which will be in her East Orange show are several which she did this summer when she and her husband were in Spain. The show, which will run to Oct. 14, will be open Tuesdays through Saturdays from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. and on Thursday evenings.

An artist, Mrs. Souder reveals, before show-time gets something akin to a performer's first-night jitters.
You feel scared — a little bit proud but very humble. You think of all you have still to learn. And you hope people will like what you have done, for after all that is the function of an artist — to please the eye of the viewer."

Lourdes School, which is not yet operating at its full capacity for 270 students, it is not expected that the borough will have to build any more classrooms to meet peak enrollment unless there is an additional home building boom, the report states.

If required, new classrooms should be added at the Beechwood School, which is within the area, where the most residential growth is likely to occur, the consultants claim.

Where one-family homes may produce between 0.6 to 1.0 school-age children per dwelling unit, studies show that garden apartments produce between 0.15 to 0.28 students per dwelling unit and lower apartments between 0.05 to 0.10 students. Any proposed alternative uses are not likely to account for any radical changes in school enrollments, the report states.

He's installed Gas Heat 24,723,000 times.***

Let's ask him why it's better.

Gas is clean. Cuts cleaning and decorating bills. Reduces housework.

Gas equipment is quiet. There are no moving parts in a gas burner. So modern in fact that out of 10 brand new homes in this area have it. You should, too. For a FREE HOME HEAT SURVEY, call Elizabethtown Gas or, if you prefer, call your plumbing or heating contractor. You'll get a written estimate on the yearly cost of heating your home with gas and also learn how reasonable it is to install a new, modern gas heating unit.

He's every quality-minded plumbing and heating contractor in the U.S.A. All rolled into one.

He's your neighbor. A local business man. A man with his eye on the long haul and a sound reputation. He's the man who knows and recommends gas heat where quality is demanded.

Gas equipment is simple. Simple to install. Simple to operate. So simple and trouble-free that annual service contracts are not required.

Gas heat is dependable. Piped directly to your home, there are no delivery or storage problems.

Regional High School Pioneered In Several Fields

By WARREN W. HALSEY
Second of a series.

The facts contained in this history have been taken for the most part from official sources. Interpretations are the opinions of the author, who was superintendent of the Union County Regional High School District from its inception until he retired in June, 1956.

REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL marks a milestone. The Union County Regional High School was the first regional school in New Jersey to be created by having a number of small communities combine to support a regional school. While Mount Holly and Penns Grove had formed regional districts, high schools had existed in these districts and the purpose of becoming regional districts was primarily to secure additional state aid.

The Union County district was a pioneer in many respects; in establishing such a district, in building a large addition to the original structure and in building a second high school in a second district. When the State Department of Education was faced with the need for providing leadership in solving the problem of tremendous growth in the high school area in the post-war period, the example set by this regional district was of great assistance in providing a solution.

It has been amply demonstrated in this district that the pooling of resources of several small districts can provide the equipment, curricular offerings and services far beyond those of the small high school.

SELECTING A NAME FOR THE HIGH SCHOOL: At the suggestion of Dr. A. L. Johnson, the Board of Education named the school after Jonathan Dayton, who was in command of a company of militia during the Battle of Springfield during the Revolution.

Jonathan Dayton grew up in Elizabethtown and was a captain in his father's regiment at the time of the battle. Part of this engagement took place near the northern edge of the school property.

Jonathan Dayton had the distinction of being the youngest member (27) serving as a delegate at the Constitutional Convention of 1787. In 1798, he was elected to the U.S. Senate and served from 1799 to 1805. Later he became actively interested in the settlement of the western territory and held title to vast tracts in Ohio. As a tribute to this interest, the city of Dayton, Ohio, was named for him.

MAKING PREPARATION FOR OPENING IN 1937: After the formation of the Regional District in 1935, the Board of Education met in the office of the County Superintendent of Schools in the Court House in Elizabethtown until the high school opened in September, 1937.

Dr. A. L. Johnson acted as the educational consultant for the board until the appointment of a supervising principal. The long delay in selecting a supervising principal was not due to a scarcity of applicants but probably due to Dr. Johnson's desire to hold the reins of authority as long as possible since he had been with the project since its inception.

Today, the superintendent of a newly formed regional district has at least a year to build a curriculum, select a staff, and aid in the preparation of a budget, select equipment and take care of the infinite number of details required in the operation of a high school.

The minutes of the Board of Education of Feb. 5, 1937 list the qualifications expected of candidates for the position of supervising principal. It is interesting to note that the person finally selected must be willing to render voluntary service without compensation prior to July 1, 1937, an indication that there were depression years. On March 23, 1937, Warren W. Halsey was selected by a unanimous vote of the Board of Education.

When the supervising principal was appointed, he was given a sizeable cardboard box which contained teachers' applications which had accumulated over the preceding two years. The Board established this policy in interviewing candidates:

1. Minimum experience of 1 year;
2. The courtesy of an inter-applicants from Union County;
3. Unless circumstances were unusual, married women would not be employed;
4. Salary range: women, $1,300 to $2,000, men $1,600 to $2,000.

Interviews with candidates were conducted in Garwood where Halsey was supervising principal. Candidates selected for recommendation to the Board of Education were interviewed by the board at the James Caldwell School in Springfield, usually on a Saturday afternoon.

As soon as school closed in Garwood in June, the supervising principal and secretary set up an office with borrowed equipment in the as yet unfinished Regional High School. The newly appointed teachers were in and out of the building throughout the entire summer.

Enough praise cannot be given to this group who gave so unflinchingly of their time in preparing courses of study, scheduling students and taking care of all the details which make for the smooth operation of a high school.

On the opening day, one of the older residents of Springfield was present because he wanted to see the first students transported to Springfield rather than to another community for high school education.

Brushing Up On Plans In Advance Can Save Effort In House Painting

That old adage, plan ahead, is especially valuable when it comes to painting a house.

WARREN W. HALSEY

rollment grows. The following list indicates two significant facts about the size of the high school population:

1937	849	1938	953	1939	1038
1940	1006	1941	1072	1942	1143
1943	1200	1944	1275	1945	1348
1946	1411	1947	1485	1948	1558
1949	1636	1950	1708	1951	1771
1952	1841	1953	1907	1954	1974
1955	2041	1956	2107	1957	2174
1958	2241	1959	2307	1960	2374

1. For the first 13 years, there was practically no change in the number of students enrolled despite the large increase in the lower grades of the elementary schools.

2. After the population was struck the high school in 1950, the increase mounted in geometric proportions and has made rapid growth in high school population one of the outstanding features of this Regional District ever since.

FINANCIAL PROBLEMS ARISE!

When this Regional High School opened in 1937, the district had no balance carried over from preceding years. The Board of Education had to depend upon the six local districts turning over the taxes collected locally. As late as March 20, 1939, the minutes of the board indicated that requests for further payments due were made to three of the districts in arrears.

In order to encourage the formation of regional districts, the legislature wisely put in the original legislation state aid of $60 per pupil. The first budget of the district totaled $166,930, of which $25,825 was anticipated from state aid and $77,045 or 46 per cent was raised from local taxes.

Over the years, the proportion of state aid decreased so that in 1956, 76 per cent of the budget of $1,239,470 was raised locally. State aid over most of this period was liberal, however, especially when compared with other school districts.

Union County Regional High School has been in a fortunate position financially over the years. Many industries have located in the several districts and in a great many areas, and a large amount of help has been given.

As a result, while the school enrollment rose from 849 in 1937 to 2374 in 1960, the assessed valuation of the district increased from $15,938,765 in 1937 to $6,267,127,000 in 1960, an increase of more than fourfold.

Since New Jersey depends so largely on the property tax for the support of schools, the Regional District with its large increase in assessed value has been able to finance good schools.

THE EDUCATIONAL PHILOSOPHY

of the Regional High School was prepared by a committee of the Board of Education of the Regional High School District.

The Board of Education is progressive. For many years it has been a leader in the state of New Jersey in the field of education, and has been recognized as the educational center of the region.

ional skills. We should provide media for acquiring an awareness of social responsibilities and learning to use them in the community.

The curriculum system covers a wide range of subjects and is designed to be in line with the students' needs and interests.

We must take care of the present in order to prepare for the future. We must provide a program of continuing education for the staff and the community.

Books should be paid for. Books should be paid for. Books should be paid for.

THE HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARY

expands. A high school library should be one of the educational centers of the region.

a secondary school in 1837. Jonathan Dayton Regional High School had a trained faculty and a large amount of help from the English teachers and librarians. The library was no longer used as a study hall, except during the hours.

The library was a laboratory for putting into practice the theories learned in library instruction since students were allowed to use the library by permission. The collection had become the largest in the history of the school.
