OK PAL!
THE NEXT ONE'S ON ME

The grim specter isn't kidding. That "one for the road" may well take you all the way into eternity. Holidays and weekends are the times of greatest danger... the highest casualty lists. More drivers are on the road in more of a hurry, traffic's congested, driving strain increases. Add to this potion, the "drinking driver" and the mixture is DEADLY!

It's hard to convince a person who has had a few drinks that he shouldn't drive. Alcoholic stimulation engenders a false confidence in his ability. In reality his reactions have slowed down, his perception and judgment are lowered—driving alertness is gone. Soon the road blurs and lights blind, as he fights drowsiness. Finally he loses control. Result: tragedy. Keep out of this grim picture. If you drink, don't drive... if you drive, DON'T DRINK!
