1965 Borough Master Plan To Decide Land Use, Mayor Wilhelms Says

Nineteen sixty-five, which will see the adoption of a master plan in Mountainside, will be a year of decision for the borough. Mayor Frederick Wilhelms Jr., told citizens assembled last Saturday in Echbrook School for the annual organizational meeting of the Borough Council.

a one-family community. It will also decide if additional business, commercial or industrial development is to be permitted, what non-residence land use should be allowed and how property values of residential properties adjoining non-residential use areas can be maintained, he continued.

needs and the ability and the desire of the community to pay for them.

complex matter," is also under consideration, the Mayor said. Preliminary plans are being developed for the entire borough, he stated, so realistic budget estimates can be obtained.

He will shortly appoint a citizens' committee charged with forecasting future financial structure and tax costs. This forecast and study will be "invaluable to the planning of the Council and all borough agencies," Mayor Wilhelms said.

This citizens' committee will be the first of several such committees which he will appoint to assist the Borough Council on specific matters, the Mayor stated. Appointees to all such committees, each of which will be small in size, will be chosen for their individual talents, training and experience, according to the Mayor.

Five candidates for the Mountainside Board of Education filed their petitions on Wednesday and Thursday of last week, just beating the Dec. 31 deadline for filing for the Feb. 9 election. This brings the total of announced candidates to six since one of the incumbents, Walter H. Rupp of 359 Dogwood lane, announced that he would seek re-election some weeks ago.

Public Hearing On School Budget Slated Thursday

A public hearing on the proposed budget for the Mountainside Board of Education for the 1965-66 year is scheduled for next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the all-purpose room of Deerfield School.

Council Names Ditzel President

Councilman William Ditzel was unanimously elected president of the Mountainside Borough Council at the 1965 organizational meeting, which saw major shifts in Council committee assignments.

Borough Building Tops Two Mill Johnson Reports

Building permits were issued for an estimated total of $2,256,270 in Mountainside during 1964, Building Inspector Chester Johnson reported. This week, well over half of that figure, $1,483,500, was for new homes.

69 Newcomers Boost Borough's Population

A total of 69 babies were born to Mountainside residents in 1964, according to a preliminary report issued this week by Mrs. Maxine Buck, secretary for the borough's Board of Health. This figure is not final, Mrs. Buck explained, since the births occur outside the borough and reports on them "dribble in" until well after the close of the year.

ECHO PROFILE - Walter R. Betyeman

Walter Betyeman doffed his blue shirt last Friday and donned a white one, replaced his silver badge with a gold one and as quietly and inconspicuously as that, started his new duties as a Police Sergeant in Mountainside.

Herrgott, Wester, Others Are Commended By Council

The Mountainside Borough Council passed a resolution last Saturday commending outgoing Councilmen Raymond J. Herrgott and Henry P. Wester for their service to the community while on that body.

Publicity chairman and individuals are urged to observe the Friday deadline of this newspaper for other than spot news. Thursday is even better. Include your name, address and phone number.

THE VOTE

Recommended were Thomas A. Hyde, who has served on the Planning Board for 13 years, Everett Perkins, a member of the Adjustment Board for ten years, Gloria S. Johnson and David H. Smith, both members of the Recreation Commission, Ronald Mays, a member of the Shade Tree Commission, Robert Helm of the Board of Health and William H. Tetley, a ten-year member of the Library Trustees.

PBA Asks Court To Nullify Action In Police Exam

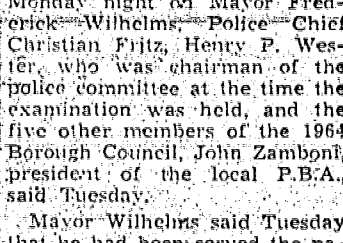

Mountainside's local of the Police Benevolent Association has filed a prerogative writ in Superior Court in Trenton asking that body to rule that the police sergeants' examination held Dec. 21 in Deerfield School is null and void. As a result of that examination, Walter R. Betyeman was appointed sergeant.

Legal papers were served Monday night on Mayor Frederick Wilhelms, Police Chief Christian Fritz, Henry P. Wester, who was chairman of the police committee at the time the examination was held, and the five other members of the 1964 Borough Council, John Zamboni, president of the local P.B.A., said Tuesday.

Bypassed

Zamboni said the P.B.A. suit is based on the fact that certain sections of local ordinances were bypassed in the selection of the sergeant, and that the Council in making the appointment "did not take into consideration seniority, service, record and general qualifications."

ECHO PROFILE

During that time, with typical Betyeman efficiency, he started studying criminology at Seton Hall University, studies which he continued for 18 months.

Born in Orange, Betyeman spent his early childhood years in Dutch Neck, a small town near Princeton. At the outbreak of World War II, his father, now a sanitary and safety engineer for General Foods, was sent to Camp Breckenridge, Ky. Walter, his mother, brother and younger sister joined him there a few months later.

The Betyeman family moved to East Orange after the war was over and Walter attended Holy Name Grammar School there. Later at Clifford J. Scott High School, also in East Orange, he made an outstanding record for himself in athletics. Weighing only 140 pounds, he played quarterback on Scott's football team and collected letters and trophies in football, baseball, basketball and other sports.

He joined the U. S. Navy in 1955 and after a year of aviation service was transferred to the Naval Air Station at Lakehurst. During his years at Lakehurst he played baseball with the base team, performing so well that he was offered a professional contract with the Baltimore Orioles. He turned down that offer and has no regrets that he did so.

He also played on the basketball team while at Lakehurst. A trophy, one he collected in 1958 when his team defeated the team from Port Lyautey, French Morocco, for the North Atlantic Regional Championship, occupies a place of honor in the Betyeman home at 920 Mountain ave., Mountainside.

After winning that year, his team went on to compete in the All-Navy Basketball Championship held in 1958 in Pearl Harbor. One of the five top navy teams competing in that event, Betyeman's team lost that round. But he and his team members, he recalls with a wide grin that breaks the disciplined lines of his chiseled face, did get to spend "14 wonderful days in Hawaii."

SPORTS ARE STILL his hobby. For a time he combined his interests in sports and his interest in young people by coaching youth teams, including the C.Y.O. basketball team of Our Lady of Lourdes Church. But the pressure of his job and home duties forced him, reluctantly, to give up such activities for the present.

Walter and his wife, the former Annemarie Schulte, and their three children, Walter, 3; Donna, 20 months, and Kevin, nine months, live in a small rented house in the rear of a lot at 930 Mountain ave. They moved into the house last August from an apartment in Scotch Plains where they had lived since they were married in December, 1960.

Although during his Navy service, Walter visited almost every country in Europe while assigned to the U.S.S. Forrestal that was back in Mountainside that he met his future wife, a native of Lintig, Germany. Annemarie, who came to this country with her family in 1955, was working in Echo Lanes in 1959 when Walter was discharged from active duty. Walter strolled in one evening and soon he and blonde Annemarie were dating steadily.

An Aviation Storekeeper 2/C when discharged, Walter kept that rank in the Naval Reserve and still attends once-a-month weekend drills in the Brooklyn Naval Air Station.

An efficient, disciplined police officer, Betyeman is gentle and soft-spoken with his children. His voice, normally authoritative and resonant, softens when he speaks to them.

"Give that to Donna," he says to diminutive Donna, a blonde wisp of a child who moves with the swiftness of the wind, as he dislodges a small whistle from her hand. "You know you shouldn't chew on that."

Small Walter falls loudly to the floor, apparently the victim of bullets shot from the gun he carries in his cowboy holster.

His proud father turns to smile at Annemarie, sharing with her his pleasure in their son.

"Annemarie is teaching them some German - I want them to learn that."

Annemarie keeps her German fluent with daily talks with her parents, who now live in Scotch Plains.

Donna, now the proud possessor of a larger and safer whistle, blows a loud blast and then tells herself admonishingly: "Nein, nein."

"Nein," gentle little Walter echoes, smiling at his parents to show his appreciation of his small sister's mischief.

"That's right, Walter," his father says gently. "Don't blow the whistle, Donna; that's a good girl."

Donna hands over the whistle, smiles cheerfully at her brother and parents; then jumps about gaily.

"They are such good children," Annemarie says quietly.

Mountainside's newest Police Sergeant nods proudly in agreement.

Commentary On Current Events and Personalities

By TRUDINA HOWARD

ambassador is subject to lose her vote in the General Assembly. The United States believes Russia should pay and Adlai Stevenson, the United States ambassador to the United Nations, has voiced his opinion at the UN. The USSR refuses to pay and says it might walk out of the United Nations if it loses the vote and Nikolai Fedorenko, the USSR ambassador to the United Nations, has voiced this opinion at the UN.

And Stevenson in his tux, and Fedorenko in his vest, had just settled their brains for a Christmas recess.

When out on the plaza there arose such a clatter; They sprang from their chairs to see what was the matter. Away to the window they flew in a flash.

The lights on the bend of the U. N. front road Gave lustre of midday to objects below.

When what to their wondering eyes should appear, But a miniature troika, and three tiny reindeer.

With a driver called "Comrade" who would make no discussion, They knew in a moment it must be a Russian.

Now, Josef, how Nicky, now Ivan, come on! We have 52 millions to give to U Thant.

To the top of the place! to the top of the wall! Now dash away! dash away! dash away all!

As wet leaves that lie on the ground in the fall When they meet with an obstacle, move after all, So up to the 30th floor 'did they rise.

With a sleigh full of rubles in dollar disguise, And then, in a twinkling, there was heard on the roof The prancing and pawing of each little hoof.

As Adlai and Nicky were turning around Down the staircase came "Comrade" with a belligerent frown.

He was dressed all in red, from his head to his knees, And his uniform was covered with medals and keys.

A bundle of rubles he flung on his back, and he looked like he hated to open his sack.

His eyes — how they glistened! his dimples how narrow! His cheeks were like ashes, his nose like a sparrow.

His pale little mouth was drawn very tight, and the beard of his chin was as black as the night.

The stump of a pipe he held tight in his lip, and the smoke it encircled his head like a whip.

He had a broad face and a little round belly, that shook when he sobbed like a bowl full of jelly.

He was chubby and plump, and a bit over-wrought, and they stared when they saw him, and what he had brought.

A blink of his eye and a twist of his face, soon gave them to know he had no time to waste.

He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work, and paid all the bills; then turned with a jerk, and laying his finger aside of his nose, and giving a sob, up the staircase he rose.

He crept to his sleigh, to his team gave a shout, and away they all flew to America, no doubt, but I heard him mutter, ere he strode from the men, "Peace to all — Goodwill to all; otherwise even more rubles for the UN!"

When at last the General Assembly began on Dec. 10 it was agreed by all not to take any votes until after the Christmas recess. She only will say that she may talk to U Thant. The United States still states that it will maintain its policy. And so, it looks as though the poker hand will have to be called one way or the other very soon after all.

Unless some other procrastination is "agreed" upon. All of which, plus the arrival of Russian Christmas today, brought on this thought: (with apologies to Clement C. Moore whose famous poem "A Visit From St. Nicholas" or "The Night Before Christmas" is used here as a pattern.)

'Twas the night before Christmas, when all through the halls, Not a nation was voting, not even De Gaulle's; The statements were placed by the podium with care, In hopes that late Russia soon would be there.

The nations were nestled, considering the "Reds"; While visions of money danced in their heads;

New Phone Hours Are Effective Feb. 1

New Jersey Bell Telephone Co. has announced that the time periods of reduced rates on long distance calls within the state will begin at 8 p.m. instead of 9 p.m. and will be in effect all day on Sundays. EARLY PREJUDICES
People acquire prejudices during a lifetime. Since the earliest impressions and experiences happen in the home, it is the home that is the first and most important source of bias.

Adults often are not conscious of the many casual influences they exert on children. Father says he doesn't like a certain vegetable; Junior refuses to eat it. Mother comments on the carelessness of a worker of a specified category or race, color, religion or ancestry; the child believes that everybody of that category is careless. A youngster generalizes from little information. Even when the parent is not prejudiced, it is easy for the child to take a careless remark seriously. If a person is careless or ignorant, why not say exactly that? There is no need to add parents realize this, and give Protestant, Catholic or Jew. Nor some thought to their comments, does adding nationality or color children will not acquire prejudices against special categories. Children learn much more by of people, and will take a long example than by being told to stride toward improved human do or not to do something. When relationships.

Subdivision Okay Given By Planners For 17 New Homes

Final approval was given at the December meeting of Mountainside's Planning Board to a major subdivision of the Plain Building Corp. of Roselle and Spraino Construction Co. The subdivision involves 17 lots on Cherry Hill rd. on two of which houses are already standing.

The companies plan to build one-family homes on the 15 remaining lots which will sell for about $35,000 each. A new road, Peachtree lane, will be built on the property by the developers.

The tract has been known as the Scheder-Clark property.

The board also approved a subdivision for Charles Collins of 442 New Providence rd., to make four lots from one on New Providence rd. The Collins application brought before the board a request for realignment of lot lines at Summit Lane and New Providence rd. for Maureen and Henry Nielsen.

The Nielsen application, which was approved by the Planning Board, involved a small triangle of land abutting the Collins' property; the triangle was needed to straighten the Collins' property boundaries.

PBA Action

of the meeting but that it was not necessary to read it publicly.

Councilman Daniels asked if Zamboni had anything else he wished to say on the matter. Zamboni answered "not at this time," adding that the P.B.A. was instituting legal proceedings and that the Council would be notified.

The P.B.A. letter also stated that none of the six other patrolmen who took the sergeant's test with Zamboni had been furnished information on the gradings prior to Zamboni's promotion.

Zamboni told the Echo Tuesday that all the voting members of the local are behind the legal action and that "threats of reprisals" will not turn them from their position which is "firm and unwavering." The six voting members of the P.B.A. are Patrolmen John Broderius, William Ayres, Joseph Mazur, Jerome Rice, Charles Kushwara and Zamboni; all of whom took the Dec. 21 promotional examination.

Although police department officers from sergeant on up to chief can be members of the local, Zamboni explained, they do not have voting privileges in the organization. The other three patrolmen on the department are still in their probationary periods and so not eligible for membership in the P.B.A., he added.

According to Zamboni, Chief Fritz, Mayor Wilhelms and the Council members have 20 days to answer the charges. Mayor Wilhelms said the matter will be turned over to the borough attorney, Nicholas St. John La-Corte.

'DESERTED VILLAGE'

Historical Booklet Is Available To Public

A revised history of "The Deserted Village," an area located in the Watchung Reservation, is now available to the public. A booklet by this title, prepared and edited by James B. Hawley of Summit, chairman of the Trailside Museum Association's program committee, was recently placed on sale at the Union County Park Commission's Trailside Nature and Science Center, Mountainside, by the Association.

The publication, which contains a discussion of Indians, the early settlers, and the former prosperous mill and community, is expected to interest thousands of visitors to the Watchung Reservation.

Hawley began his research work on the "Village" in the fall of 1948 and as his source of information he used Dr. Arthur L. Johnson's original booklet on this area, old photographs and maps, and informal talks with many of the older people of the area, who, in turn, would refer him to other people.

Some of the other source material Hawley used included: "Genealogy of the First Settlers of the Passaic Valley" by John Littell, published in 1852; United States Census for 1850, 1860, 1870, and 1880; a road book by Samuel Badgley, dated 1816; maps taken from the State Atlas of 1845 and 1872; Gazetteer of the United States by John Hayward, dated 1853; the wills of Peter Wilcox and Peter Wilcox, Jr.; the New York City Business Directories from 1842 to 1857 and 1873; and others.

Hawley also visited the New York Historical Society, the New Jersey Historical Society, the Plainfield Historical Society, and the Summit Public Library, for additional information.

The booklet covers the area of the "Deserted Village" in a chronological order beginning with Indian life in the Blue Brook valley; Peter's Hill, 1736-1845; Felville prosperous, 1845-1860; Felville failing, 1860-1882; Felville known as Glenside Park, 1882-1916; Felville as a deserted area, 1916-1930; Felville, known as Glenside Village, 1930-1964.

The 40-page booklet is illustrated with 25 sketches, photographs, and maps. The artwork, the illustrations, and maps were prepared by Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Young of Pitston, formerly of Westfield, both members of the Trailside Museum Association.

The "Deserted Village" is located in a valley between the first and second ridge of the Watchung Range.

Mountainside Squad Answers 280 Calls

Mountainside's Rescue Squad responded to 280 calls during 1964, Captain John Keuler, captain of the squad, announced this week. The last call for the old year was received Dec. 31, around 11:40 p.m., Captain Keuler said, when an accident occurred at the intersection of New Providence rd. and Standish ave.

The 280 figure breaks down into 160 emergency calls and 120 transportation calls. The ambulance traveled over 5,300 miles and the squad members put in a total of 1,218 man hours on calls during 1964.

The Rescue Squad responded to 44 calls during December, almost double the average for the other 11 months of the year. According to Captain Keuler, the squad during the last year has had 11 drills and conducted four American Red Cross courses. A new resuscitator was purchased.

During 1964, the Rescue Squad operated on a duty roster system for day and night crews. Captain Keuler, whose term of office was up yesterday, expressed the opinion that this system worked out very effectively and is far superior to the former system.

Commonwealth Co. Manager To Retire

Thomas W. Coleman, manager of Commonwealth Water Co. for the past 20 years and a veteran of 40 years in the public water supply profession, announced his retirement effective March 1, 1965.

He will be succeeded by Jack H. King, who has been manager of the Muncie (Indiana) Water Works Co. Company. President Kenneth B. Earhardt praised Coleman's many years of outstanding service with the American Water Works Company system of water companies, which include Commonwealth Water Company of the Summit Chamber of Commerce and has been active in chamber activities and service organizations in the area served by Commonwealth. He is married and has one son, T. W. Coleman Jr., who, as manager of Armstrong Water Co. in Kiltanning, Pa., is following in his father's footsteps.

Coleman and his wife are planning to move to Florida after he retires. King, a native of Iowa, joined the American Water Works System as a chemist in 1943. In 1948 he became resident engineer for the St. Joseph Water Co. in Missouri and has held various positions in the American System since then.

President Earhardt also pointed out that the new manager has more than 22 years' experience in the water service field. A native of Alabama, Coleman began his career in water service as an efficiency engineer for the Birmingham Water Works Company in 1925. He held the position of resident engineer and later assistant manager of the City Water Co. of Chattanooga before being assigned to the position of assistant manager of Commonwealth in 1940. He was appointed manager in 1944. Coleman is a past president of the Summit Chamber of Com-

2. Monthly Check Plan...

Using your passbook as security, an advance will be made to you each month. The monthly check will be equal to 1-1/2 of the anticipated annual earnings of your account.

This plan is limited to accounts with minimum savings of $5000 in the amounts listed below, although larger accounts in multiples of $1000 can also qualify. The chart below is based on our current rate of earnings.

Savings Amount	Monthly Income
$5,000.00	$16.66
6,000.00	20.00
7,000.00	23.33
8,000.00	26.66
9,000.00	30.00
10,000.00	33.33

3. Monthly Income Plan

A partial withdrawal from your account is sent to you automatically every month. The amount of each check and the term of years is your choice, within the limits of the plan: $5000 or more in multiples of $1000 to begin the plan which can run from 4 to 10 years.

If you open your account for $10,000, you can have an income of $100 a month for 120 months (10 years). A $5000 account would provide you with $50 a month for 10 years. (Figures based on current rate of earnings.)

This is an excellent plan for a retirement budget or for regular payments to schools, nursing homes, and others.

4. Quarterly Check Plan

This plan works in the same manner and within the same limits as the Monthly Check Plan except that you receive your income checks quarterly — January, April, July, and October — in time to help you with quarterly obligations such as taxes, insurance premiums, etc.

Based on current and anticipated earnings, a $5000 account will bring you a check for $50 each quarter; a $10,000 account will bring you $100 each quarter, etc.

61.1 Percent Of Population In Union County Are Native-Born

Of Union County's 304,255 total population, 61.1 percent are native-born, while 10.8 percent are foreign-born. The balance of the population is of foreign-born or mixed parentage. The figures, released in a research report of the Department of Conservation and Economic Development and entitled, "Population: Nativity and Parentage," are based on 1960 census figures.

According to Gladys W. Ellsworth, chief of the Research and Statistics division of the department, the category "native" comprises persons born in the United States, Puerto Rico or possessions of the United States. Also included in this category, Miss Ellsworth explained, is the small number of persons who, although they were born in a foreign country or at sea, have at least one native American parent. Persons whose birth place was not recorded are, for the purposes of the report, assumed to be native. All others are classified as foreign-born.

In Union County the percentage of native born who are white are listed at 87.9

whites of foreign or mixed parentage are listed at 99.6 and white who are foreign born constitute 99 percent. Although Puerto Ricans are termed "native-born" according to the report, they are also listed separately and the total population of Puerto Ricans in the country is tallied at 1,649.

In New Jersey, the report states, 3,958,017 people are of native parentage and 87.1 percent of them are white. In turn, 65.2 percent of the total population of the state were born of native parents. This, it is pointed out, is well below the national figure of 81 percent of the total population of native parentage.

Union Township's total population as of the 1960 census is listed at 51,439. Of this number 28,237 are native-born; 16,977 are of mixed (native and foreign born) parentage and 6,285 are foreign-born, according to the report. Of the native-born population of the township 89.3 percent are white, those of mixed parentage constitute 99.8 percent and of the foreign-born, 99.5 percent are white. The township is listed as having a population of 65 Puerto Ricans.

Linden is reported to have 21,360 native-born persons, 13,500 of mixed parentage and 5,071 foreign-born of a total population of 39,931. The percentage of whites listed as native-born is 87.9, of mixed parentage, 99.7 and foreign-born, 99.4 percent. Linden boasts 77 residents born in Puerto Rico.

In Roselle Borough the report indicates that of the total population of 21,032, 13,081 are native-born, 5,744 are of mixed parentage and 2,207 are foreign-born. Native born whites constitute 78.9 percent in that category, while there are 99 percent of mixed parentage and 98.4 percent foreign-born whites, the report states. It is reported that there are 25 Puerto Ricans in the borough.

Roselle Park's total population of 12,546 is comprised of 7,466 native-born, 3,793 of mixed parentage and 1,287 who are foreign-born. Of Roselle Park's native-born, 100 percent are white; whites of mixed parentage constitute 99.7 percent and of foreign-born, 99.4 percent are white. There are 15 Puerto Ricans in the Park.

Springfield's total population of 14,467 is broken down as follows: 8,527 are native-born, 4,482 are of mixed parentage and 1,458 are foreign-born. Of the number of native-born, 96.2 percent are white; those of mixed parentage constitute 99.9 percent, 99.7 percent of the foreign-born are white. Five Puerto Ricans are listed as residents.

In Mountainside with its total population of 6,325, there are 3,861 listed as native-born, 1,867 of mixed parentage and 597 foreign-born. There are no percentages of white population listed for Mountainside, but the report states that 12 residents are Puerto Rican.

Kenilworth with a total population of 8,379, according to the report, has a native-born population of 4,822, a population of persons of mixed parentage of 2,518 and 979 foreign-born persons. There is no breakdown of white population and no Puerto Ricans residing in the borough.

The report noted that New Jersey is fourth in the nation in the total number of foreign-born residents.

Park Plastics Co. Promotes Monte

Andrew Monte has been appointed administrative vice president of Park Plastics Co. of Linden. The appointment of Monte, a resident of Union, was announced by the board of directors of the company this week. Also announced was the appointment of Charles A. Dolbier as vice president in charge of sales.

Monte started his career with Park Plastics in 1949 as office manager. He has also served as credit manager and treasurer. He is past chairman of the Toy Manufacturers Credit Group (Eastern Division) and a current member of the National Credit Committee. He is a member of the board of governors of the Colonia Country Club.

Monte was a member of an air crew in the U.S. Air Force from 1941 to 1945.

Ampeg Company Reports Sales Up

In figures released this week, The Ampeg Co., Inc. of Linden, manufacturers of amplifiers for musical instruments, reports a 61 percent sales increase in 1964 over the previous year.

Although net sales as of May 31, 1964, indicated an increase from the same period of the prior year — from $736,481 in 1963 to $1,212,709 last year, the earnings after taxes showed a decrease below 1963.

This, the company pointed out, was due to a change-over to automated methods and a move to larger quarters and are not to be considered a recurring expense. With no further technical or engineering changes expected, management states, it feels the percentage in sales and earnings will increase proportionately as efficiency improves during the next six months.

The reasoning was reflected in the Nov. 30, 1964, figures against those for the same period for 1963, the company notes. Earnings after taxes for the 1964 period was listed at $31,374 against $23,224 for the previous year.

Liquor, Cash Taken In New Year's Theft

Thieves broke into the Nadel Lumber Co., 1520 W. Elizabeth ave., Linden, New Year's Day and escaped with 10 bottles of liquor and about $10 in cash. According to police, entry was gained through a rear boiler room door.

About an hour earlier, thieves apparently were frightened away from the Allied Lumber Co., 101 W. Elizabeth ave., Linden, when a burglar alarm went off. Linden police, who responded to the ringing alarm, said they found burglar's tools at the rear of the building.

Rahway Woman Hurt In Two-Car Collision

ARM OF THE LAW CATCHES UP WITH ELUSIVE DRIVER

The long arm of the law waited six years before grabbing Enrique Rodriguez.

Rodriguez, 26, of Newark, was motoring through Linden on June 29, 1958, when he was stopped by Patrolman John J. Zych and given a summons for driving 60 miles per hour in a 25 mile zone.

Rodriguez failed to appear in court to answer the summons and, consequently, forfeited $50 — he had put up as bail and lost his driver's license by direction of the State Motor Vehicle Director.

Last week Newark police picked up Rodriguez on another charge and checked with Linden police who said they were still interested in having him appear in court.

So after six years, Rodriguez appeared before Linden Magistrate Joseph C. Monaco last week to answer the traffic summons.

Magistrate Monaco fined Rodriguez $25 on the speeding charge and, as a penalty for being so tardy in appearing, assessed him an additional $150 for contempt of court.
