PARIS SETS THEME FOR THE SIXTH ANNUAL FASHION SHOW and dessert-bridge sponsored by the Rosary Altar Society of Our Lady of Lourdes Church, Mountainside. Giving preview of the annual event, which will be held next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings in the school auditorium, are, in the usual order, Sandy Karwoski, Brian Mooney, Mrs. William Grau and Donna Wishbow. Close to 900 people attended last year's affair; more are expected this year. Proceeds go to the church's building fund.

Wasch To Appeal For Reversal At Council Meeting

Milton Wasch whose plans to build six houses on a tract of land between Rt. 22 and Nottingham way were denied approval by the Planning Board, will appear before the Mountainside Borough Council next Tuesday night seeking a reversal of the planners' decision. The session will be a special meeting held specifically for hearing the Wasch case.

Wasch will be represented by his attorney, Irving Silverlight of Plainfield, who also represented him on the same matter in a series of appearances before the Planning Board.

When the application was initially reviewed at the January meeting a score of residents in the Nottingham way area were on hand to protest, claiming that the construction of a road called for in Wasch's plans, would "peninsularize" homes in that area.

At the February meeting members of the board pointed out that three of the proposed lots would be below the required minimum size and that adequate buffer zones were not provided.

Silverlight declined to supply additional maps, as requested by the board, saying that those submitted were sufficient for the preliminary plans.

Eiffel Tower, Gendarmes Set Parisian Theme At Lourdes'

A six-foot reproduction of the Eiffel Tower, Parisian gendarmes, a flower lady and a balloon man will help set the Paris in "The Spring" theme next Tuesday and Wednesday nights for the sixth annual dessert, bridge and fashion show sponsored by the Rosary Altar Society of Our Lady of Lourdes Church, Mountainside.

Vivid scenes of "Gay Paree" will provide the background for the dual parties which will be held in the auditorium of the school on Central ave.

Close to 900 people turned out last year for the affair, which is run annually for the benefit of the parish's building fund.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of the Rosary Society or after Sunday's Masses. However, the general chairman, Mrs. Thomas Carey, said last week that the tickets are going rapidly. She urged those interested in attending to obtain their tickets as quickly as possible.

Winner of the top prize, airplane tickets and a six day vacation for two in Puerto Rico, will be announced Wednesday night at 11 p.m. Special prizes will be awarded Tuesday evening.

Music By Trio Jimmy and Peter Dabrowski will be dressed as the gen-darmes and Mrs. Paul Schaaf will serve as the flower lady. The balloon man has not been identified. Music will be provided by a trio consisting of Randol Masters, William Kaplan and George Coughlin.

Modeling the adult and children's fashions will be Mrs. William Grau, Mrs. Angelo Di Giorgio, Mrs. George Fischer, Mrs. Leon Chrzan, Mrs. Nicholas Byron, Mrs. Joseph Mazur, Miss Sandy Kawoski, Miss Maureen O'Brien, Miss Donna Wishbow, Miss Mary Beth Menk, Master Brian Mooney and Robert Youngmans. Mrs. Garrett Wishbow is fashion coordinator.

The ticket chairman, Mrs. Eugene Sauerborn, reminded prospective guests that tables will be made up both evenings for those who do not have a complete complement for card games.

Mrs. Howard Reilly and Mrs. Howard Gillospie are prize chairmen.

Hundreds To Attend PTA Fair Saturday

The PTA fair, the annual borough-wide event which draws hundreds of Mountainside residents to Deerfield School, opens Saturday at 10 a.m. with a full length feature film, "The Pied Piper of Hamelin." The movie will be shown in the all-purpose room. Admission is 35 cents.

Young are in charge of tickets. Gene Simpson will serve as master of ceremonies.

Serving in various capacities are Mrs. Herbert Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dexter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ricciardi, Mrs. John Baker, Mrs. Paul James, Mrs. Earl Goodling, Mrs. Bernard Seligman, Mrs. Gilbert Richman, Mrs. Richard W. Smith, Mrs. Paul Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Seager, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nelson, Mrs. Frederick Wilhelms Jr., Peter Weidenbacher, Mrs. William Branstatter and Mrs. William Shallers.

Real live ponies will be on hand in the amusement area to carry young visitors. The ferris wheel and whip will also be located there.

Prizes will be awarded for drive-in, nail weight-guessing and other games.

The handicrafts chairman, Mrs. John Flechtel and Mrs. Arthur Olson, stated that aprons, curler bags, head bands, place mats, hand puppets, candles, pennant, pencils, shower caps, book marks and other craft articles will be on sale. Home-baked goods, plants, jewelry, stamps and coins, goldfish, books and white elephants will also be on sale.

Mrs. Lewis Winkler and Mrs. Peter Renzi are general chairmen of the event, which has "A Small World" as its theme. Mrs. C. D. French is in charge of the movie program. Mrs. Thomas Reich will entertain with singing and Mrs. William Stanke and Mrs. Walter

Betyeman Keeps Sergeant's Post As Borough Wins

Court Rules Against PBA In Attempt To Invalidate Promotion

The validity of the promotion of Police Sgt. Walter R. Betyeman, which was challenged by the Mountainside Patrolmen's Benevolent Association, was upheld in Superior Court last Friday.

Judge Ervin S. Fulop ruled that the Borough of Mountainside was within its rights in promoting Betyeman, who has been on the department over four years, to the sergeant's rank.

The P.B.A. had filed a motion for summary judgement and brought suit against Police Chief Christian Fritz and the members of last year's Borough Council in which they asked that the promotion be ruled invalid because it violated borough ordinance and state law. The borough filed a cross motion.

Fulop ruled that the promotion was valid because the borough's Police Department is not under Civil Service and so is not controlled by that department's regulations.

Betyeman was appointed to the sergeant's post Dec. 28 at a large-dunk session of the Borough Council, eight days after a promotional test was held in Deerfield School. The test, which was not a Civil Service test, was conducted by the Union County Police Chiefs Association.

PBA Challenges

The P.B.A. challenged the promotion in a letter submitted to the Borough Council on Dec. 28. The organization's president, John Zamboni, attempted to enter a verbal protest that night but the Council ruled that instead the letter would be entered in the minutes of the meeting.

The P.B.A. letter claimed that the performance record of the seven qualified candidates was not reviewed with each candidate before the promotion was made; that the ratings on the test were not determined by percentage or normal curve markings; and that the promotional list was not prepared or certified prior to the institution of the suit.

The PBA brief also charged that "there was an unusual and irregular preference exhibited by the Chief of Police for appointment of Police Officer Walter R. Betyeman, thereby defeating the meritorious promotion of other qualified candidates."

It was brought out at Friday's court session that Betyeman had ranked first in the promotional test.

Zamboni said last week that regardless of the outcome of Friday's hearing the P.B.A. was considering going to the voters in November on a referendum asking to be placed of Civil Service status. Zamboni said at that time such a move would be in line with the P.B.A.'s aim.

Move To Purchase Tract For Pool Site

Mountainside has signed an agreement of sale with the Child Service Association of Newark for the purchase of a tract of land to be used as a site for a community pool. The tract, a four- and a half acre site, fronts on the eastbound lane of

Rt. 22, adjoining the playing field of Echobrook School.

According to Councilman William Ditzel, who, as chairman of the recreation committee heads the pool committee, the agreement sets a purchase price of $8,500 for the entire tract, Irving Johnstone, former Borough Attorney, acting on the instructions of the Borough Council, secured a six-month option on the land for that price last December.

Ditzel said the committee is now in the process of interviewing the architects and that he hopes to present the name of the architect selected for the Borough Council's approval at the May 18 meeting.

The pool committee is aiming at a June date for a public hearing on the project, Ditzel stated. Efforts will be made at that time to determine the number of residents interested in becoming members of the community pool.

The date of the hearing is dependent on many factors. Ditzel pointed out, principally the satisfactory completion of the search on the land. The land, originally owned by the Newark Orphan Asylum Association, was tax exempt for some years due to the fact that the association had given the N. J. State Highway Department permission to operate a "bird" sanctuary there. The tax map showed that the land belonged to the Highway Department. The Child Service Association secured the land as the result of a series of mergers between the Newark Orphan Asylum Association and other charitable organizations.

If things go on schedule, Ditzel said he hopes that construction of the pool will start around Aug. 1 to enable the contractors to complete 75% of the work before cold weather sets in.

The borough presently has on its books an ordinance which forbids swim clubs within its boundaries. Since the proposed pool is a community project, it will not be affected by this ordinance, Ditzel stated.

The proposed pool stirred up a good deal of favorable reaction last summer. A study conducted by the pool committee showed that over 60 borough families were interested in becoming members of the facility.

Spain Succeeds Daniels; Vacate Land To Lourdes

B. Dean Spain of Outlook dr., one of the two Republican candidates for seats on Mountainside's Borough Council, was appointed to that body Tuesday night. He succeeds former Councilman Albert O. Daniels, who resigned his seat last month because of personal reasons.

Spain, like his running mate, Wilfred H. Brandt of 1203 Wyonning dr., has lived in Mountainside since 1962. Spain's resignation from the Recreation Commission, a post to which he was appointed at the Jan. 2 organizational meeting, was announced at Tuesday's meeting.

A native of Texas, Spain attended Texas Christian University. He has been a New Jersey resident since 1956 and served as Councilman in Old Tappan in 1961. He is president of Baker

Planners' Head Gives Testimony On Master Plan

Court Seeks Report On Plan's Progress In Relation To Tract

Robert F. Garrett, chairman of Mountainside's Planning Board, appeared in Judge Milton Feller's court last Thursday in connection with the case between A. A. Wilson, owner of a large tract of land fronting on the westbound lane of Rt. 22, and the Borough of Mountainside.

Garrett appeared at Judge Feller's request to give a formal statement of progress on the master plan as it involves the Wilson tract. Judge Feller has continued the case, in which Wilson seeks to erect a 150-unit garden apartment and retail store on his land, since March 19 pending outcome of settlement discussions between Wilson and representatives of the borough. Judge Feller reserved decision when the case first came up in his court last September.

Wilson and the borough have been engaged in litigation over the tract in question for the past 10 years.

The master plan recommends

Master Plan Hearing

A continuation of the public hearing on the proposed master plan for Mountainside has been set for May 19 at 8 p.m. in the all-purpose room of Deerfield School. The hearing, held April 14, was continued after the majority of the 150 residents attending vigorously protested the rezoning of the Wilson tract as recommended in the master plan.

The rezoning of the tract from its present one-family residential to a new classification, non-retail, preferred restricted commercial. The new zone would allow low density occupancy offices, research laboratories and rest home or similar use on the Wilson tract and in one other area, a tract of approximately 10 acres which also fronts near the westbound lane of Rt. 22 between Summit rd. and Central ave. Reliable sources have reported that such a rezoning would be agreeable to Wilson if it could be implemented.

Majority Against

About 150 residents attended the first hearing on the master plan held April 14 in Deerfield School. The great majority of them voiced strong opposition to any rezoning of the Wilson tract. The hearing was continued in response to the protestors' request for more time to study the plan. Garrett announced Friday that the continuation of the hearing has been scheduled for May 19 at 8 p.m. in the all-purpose room of Deerfield School. New

Pembroke Plans Rezoning Battle

The Pembroke Civic Association will hold a borough-wide meeting on the proposed master plan for Mountainside Monday at 8 p.m. in Beechwood School, the organization's president, Harry Swenson, announced early this week.

Although all aspects of the proposed plan will be discussed, specific discussion will be held on the proposed rezoning from residential to preferred restricted commercial of the Wilson tract and another tract between Central ave. and Summit rd., the president stated.

Swenson was one of scores of objecting residents who protested the rezoning at the April 14 public hearing on the plan. He was also one of the organizers of the Civic League Association, a group formed last summer by the three leading civic organizations in the borough for the specific purpose of preserving the one-family residential character of Mountainside.

Monday's meeting will be an attempt to "marshal forces" opposed to the recommended rezoning, Swenson indicated.

Keyed To Harmony

Judith Reich Wins Contest

"You can play a tune of sorts on the white keys and you can play a tune of sorts on the black keys but to get a really good harmony you must use both the black and the white."

Quoting these words from the famous Negro scientist, George Washington Carver, Judith Reich, a seventh grade student, won the ninth annual speech contest held recently in Deerfield School, Mountainside.

Judith said she chose the excerpt from Carver because it gave her a new understanding of the Negro problem and made her realize that the Negro problem is an American problem.

Two eighth-graders, Susan Saloom and Donald Kuchnie, won second and third place, respectively. Susan blessed her speech on the famous words of patriot Nathan Hale, "I only regret that I have but one life to give for my country." Donald quoted three of the main points of the Monroe Doctrine.

The annual contest, entitled "Famous Excerpts," was open to all sixth, seventh, and eighth grade students in Deerfield School. Finalists were chosen in each class after every student delivered a speech. He or she had prepared a speech to be read before a panel of teachers selected the winner when the finalists competed in an ensemble program.

ECHO PROFILE -- Gene Simpson

Gene Simpson will be either on top of the world or down in the dumps today. His mood will depend on how the kick-off meeting for the fund drive for Mountainside's new public library went last night.

Simpson, who confessed one day last week that he "honestly had no idea" what kind of reception the library drive would get, went enthusiastically out on a limb when he set up the unusual plans for raising funds for a municipality facility. However, judging by the response organizations and individuals in the borough have given to general discussions on the need for a library, he thinks, he says (crossing his fingers hopefully and prayerfully) "we have a chance."

By "we" he means Harry Devlin, vice-president of the Library Trustees, who is serving on the library redevelopment committee under Simpson's chairman-

Simpson, who in his assignments in the advertising department of McGraw-Hill Publishers, travels all over the country, finds it "appalling" that Mountainside is the only community in Union County that does not have a library building.

"This is a reading community," he points out, his serious face furrowing in concern. "Do you know, each person, adult and child, in Mountainside takes out on the average one book every six weeks out of our present library. If you compare this with averages in other towns, you'll find it very much higher. That's one of the many reasons we need a new library, we must have it." He emphasizes those last words, enunciating each word.

English Motorist Pays For Sneed; Revokes Fined

A motorist from London, England, zipped through the traffic signal at Rt. 22 and Lawrence ave., Mountainside, at a 70 mile an hour clip and it cost him a total of $33 in fines last week in Municipal Court.

Issac Sofair, was stopped by a State Trooper on April 22 and charged with speeding and disregard of traffic signal. Magistrate Bauer fined him $25 on the speeding charge and $8 on the other charge. Sofair also paid $10 in court costs.

Two men were fined $200 each last week in Municipal Court for driving while on the revoked list and eight other motorists paid a total of $75 in contempt charges for not answering summonses some of which dated back to 1963.

Hit with the $200 fines were Anibal Rodriguez of Newark and Michael J. Mansolino of Belleville. Both were stopped on Rt. 22. Rodriguez on April 19 of this year and Mansolino on Jan. 17.

Magistrate Bauer levied fines and contempt charges against the following: Charles Moody of Newark, no registration in possession, $10 fine, $20 contempt; Charles E. Faust of Easton, Pa., passing on right, $5 fine, $5 contempt; William Topar of Cleveland, O., improper passing, $5 fine, $5 contempt; Joseph J. Cavalcante of Plainfield, passing on right, $10 fine, $10 contempt; Edward Biancavilla of Brooklyn, N.Y., disregard of traffic signal, $8 fine, $5 contempt; Anthony Costarella of New York City, disregard of traffic signal, $8 fine, $5 contempt; Harold E. Smith of Easton, Pa., disregard of traffic signal, $8 fine, $5 contempt; Patrick J. Izzo of Bound Brook, unsafe changing of lanes on Rt. 22, $10 fine, $20 contempt.

Other motorists fined included: Carl Raskin of Teaneck no inspection, $10; James H. King of Newark, operating unregistered vehicle, $10; Randall R. Rossilli of Newark, operating unregistered vehicle, $10; General Cleaning Contracting Co. of Newark, unregistered vehicle, $10, and President Container Inc. of Moonachie, no inspection, $10.

Contacted this week, Zamboni indicated that any final decision on such action will be reached only after further deliberations.

Borough Attorney Nicholas St. John LaCorte represented the borough officials. Matthew Grayson, an Elizabeth lawyer, represented the P.B.A.

The case was originally scheduled for Judge Walter Hetfield's court. It was transferred to Fulop's due to the illness of Hetfield.

At Tuesday night's Council meeting, Councilman Gilbert Pittenger, who heads the Police Department stated that Judge Fulop "in dismissing the PBA suit that it had "no basis in fact or law" and that the borough's "procedures were not shown to be unfair or illegal."

Two Accidents Occur At Same Borough Corner

Two accidents occurred at the intersection of Rt. 22 and New Providence rd., Mountainside, during the past week.

On Friday Anthony J. Danowsky of Ringtown, Pa., was hit in the rear of his 1962 Chevrolet by a station wagon driven by Hugh B. Campbell Jr. of Manville. Two days earlier a tractor truck, driven by Carl A. Meola of Brooklyn struck the rear of a dump truck driven by Albert S. Esbrandt of Scotch Plains.

According to the police report, Danowsky claims he stopped his car when the car in front of him stopped, suddenly and was struck by the station wagon. Campbell said he stopped suddenly because of highway construction, applied his brakes and skidded into the rear of Danowsky's car.

Meola, the police report shows, attributed the accident to the failure of his brakes. When he saw the brakes were not working he ran his vehicle against the curb in an attempt to stop it. The truck jumped the curb and struck Esbrandt's vehicle.

 Mountainside is also, he says, an "educationally minded" community. Its adult citizens have a high level of education and they are concerned with raising the educational goals of their children. It is such concern, he feels, that has helped Mountainside gain an excellent school system. It must be supplemented with an excellent library, he insists.

The educational and cultural facilities of Mountainside have a deeply personal importance for Simpson and his wife, Lillian. Their two daughters, Carol Lee, 13, and Mary Jane, 11, are both students at Deerfield School. Their only son, Roy, a busy and bouncing four-year-old, who is nicknamed "Tuffy," started nursery school classes last week.

The Simpsons moved to Mountainside in September, 1956, living first on Wyoming dr. before moving to their present home on Ledgewood rd. last year. A huge fawn-colored dog, who answers to the name of Heidi, is the official guest greeter. Heidi, a "Wienmenner," a breed imported from Germany, looks something like a small Great Dane but she thinks she's a house dog. One of her favorite pastimes is watching television with Tuffy, a recreational pursuit that sometimes becomes almost as hectic and harrowing on the near side of the picture tube as on the performing side.

Heidi, despite her domestic inclinations, is really a hunting dog. That is the reason she was purchased by Simpson, who has loved hunting since he was a boy growing up in the hills of Pennsylvania. He and Lillian, who is also Pennsylvania born and bred, purchased about 100 acres of farmland in the western portion of that state some years ago. Simpson, who is a handy man with tools, built their summer home on it. He started working on it seven years ago and "it still not finished." It is, he says laughingly, beginning "to sprawl all over the place now."

Lillian and the children spend their summers in the sprawling house finding plenty to keep them busy and amused on the broad acreage. Simpson joins them on weekends when he can, doing a lot of fishing in the lake on their property and streams in the area. Heidi joins him on his expeditions around the property. He is careful to say she joins him; her master has no illusions about Heidi's hunting prowess.

SIMPSON ALSO has business interests in Pennsylvania. He is on the board of directors to two corporations there, the Idle Hours Realty Corp. and the Idle Hours Bowling Lanes.

A graduate of Lafayette College, he did a teaching stint in Haddonfield before joining McGraw-Hill 11 years ago. His present position keeps him hopping about the country on various assignments. He drew up rough drafts of the letter sent to local organizations on the library drive in the mid-west some days ago. His children accept his airplane hops about the country casually, daddy's goings and comings are routine living for them.

His wife has adjusted her schedule around his, glad however when he is home and can fill in on baby-sitting chores while she goes to choir rehearsals for the Community Presbyterian Church. Lillian, a graduate of Keystone Junior College, Pennsylvania, is soloist for the choir.

Music is an important part of the Simpsons' life. Carol Lee and Mary Jane are both studying piano and both enjoy singing. Simpson enjoys hearing the three of his ladies perform. He picked up a zither on a recent trip to California. Both the girls are experimenting with it, fascinated by the keening sound of the old time instrument.

A member of the American Industrial Advertising Association and the American Business Press, Simpson is presently serving as president of the Mountainside Republican Club. He has unsuccessfully one year for the Republican nomination for Councilman and is a strong supporter of Mayor Frederick Wilhelms Jr., whom he describes as "a strong leader, a man who can do a fantastic amount of work."

However, he claims to have no political ambitions, says his interest in politics is limited to the local level.

Like many Mountainside men, he has been active in the borough's P.T.A. and served for a time as president of that organization. A member of the Baltusrol Golf Club, he says his scores are not very good as his work and many other commitments make it impossible for him to get out on the course as often as he would like.

He does not foresee much chance of getting out on the links this summer. He's hoping that he'll be too busy with the library project to spare the time. He's hoping also that the people of Mountainside will answer the "challenge — for it is a tremendous challenge," he says soberly — which he planned to issue last night — a challenge which will ask them to help raise $60,000 through personal and joint purchases of shares at $100 each.

"I think we can do it," Gene Simpson says quietly. "I know the people of Mountainside — they do fantastic jobs. I feel they'll do a bang-up job this time and we'll have a new library." His voice rings with conviction and confidence.

(And we hope he's sitting on top of the world today).

WALTER H. RUPP

Rupp Addresses Technical Group

Walter H. Rupp of Dogwood way, Mountainside, spoke at "Information Retrieval" at the technical seminar of the Lehigh Valley Section of American Institute of Chemical Engineers held recently in Bethlehem, Pa.

Rupp is a member of the national committee charged with studying and putting into action advanced methods of technical information access for engineers. Sectional meetings on this subject are held all over the United States by chemical engineers.

A member of Mountainside's Board of Education, Rupp is head of the Engineering Information Center of Esso Research and Engineering Co., Florham Park.

 and Taylor Co., Hillside, a book distributing firm with which he has been associated since 1960.

Harold Nelson Jr., of Ridge dr., an unsuccessful candidate last year for the Republican nomination for Councilman, was appointed to succeed Spain on the Recreation Commission. Nelson, who headed the Community Fund Drive last year, is assistant production manager for Phelps-Dodge, Elizabeth. His term on the committee will expire Dec. 30, 1967.

The resignation of Albert D. Lueddeke from the Board of Adjustments was also announced. William Gutman of 333 Short dr. was appointed to complete Lueddeke's term, which will expire at the end of this year.

The Council passed an ordinance vacating a 26 foot strip of borough-owned land running from Central ave. back to Saw Mill rd. in favor of Our Lady of Lourdes Church. The ordinance was introduced at the May meeting of the Council.

Two residents questioned the vacation expressing their concern about the eventual building of a road entrance and exit at Saw Mill rd. Mayor Frederick Wilhelms said that Rev. Gerard J. McGarry, pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes, had assured him that no such road would be built.

Wilhelm said no building would be erected on the vacated strip, but sufficient setback would be provided by it to allow the parish to proceed with construction of a building. Our Lady of Lourdes some time back announced plans for building a rectory.

Questioned as to the church's possible long range plans, Wilhelms said he had seen no maps but that there was a possibility that the parish would eventually build a convent in the rear of its property near Saw Mill rd. At that event, the mayor stated, a drive would in all probability be built with exit and entrance on Saw Mill rd.

In answer to one of the residents questions on whether such a drive would be connected with the church's parking lot, Wilhelms said that such a private drive could be built. He emphasized that Father McGarry had assured him no public road would be constructed there.

Garrett Testifies

 and clearer maps showing the proposed zoning for the entire borough will be available in the office of Borough Engineer Robert Koser prior to that date, Garrett said.

At the April hearing, Mayor Frederick A. Wilhelms said that borough officials and Wilson's representatives are now seeking to settle the dispute out of court. Wilhelms cautioned that if such a settlement is not made, the Borough could lose the case and residents would be faced with the prospect of having garden apartments and retail store on the Wilson tract.

The master plan does not provide for garden apartments or any other multiple dwellings. It also recommends that any extension of the retail commercial zone be made adjacent to the present retail sections.

Garrett this week expressed the hope that interested residents have had time to study the proposed plan in detail so that they will have "more constructive comments" to offer at the May 19 hearing.

The master plan offers many other recommendations which the board feels will benefit the borough, he said. The hassle over the Wilson recommendation on April 14 almost eliminated discussion on any other points, he indicated.

The chairman also pointed out that implementation of any portion of the master plan must be carried out by the Borough Council.

Report From Trenton

by State Senator Nelson F. Stamler (R-Un.)

Through research, experimentation and patience, man has met many of the world's most feared diseases head-on in open combat and has won.

Many killers of past centuries and even past decades have been reduced to minor threats and are now treated as matter-of-factly as the common cold. But as is the way with this world of ours, there is still a great deal to be done. There are still many mysterious illnesses taking their tolls as science searches for the answers that will eliminate them. Some of these diseases strike often, others are rare, but all must be conquered as they are discovered.

While a state legislature cannot take an active part in direct scientific experimentation and cure, it can stand by to give whatever aid is needed to the medical profession in its fight against sickness. It can also make certain that the public will benefit immediately from whatever legitimate discoveries are made.

Such was the case last year when a number of legislators in Trenton sponsored a bill that would require the testing of newborn children for the purpose of early detection of phenylketonuria. The sum of $10,000 was asked to initiate the program.

Phenylketonuria, or PKU for short, is an inherited disease of newborn babies that has been found to be more widespread in this country than first believed. In a 29-state study in 1962-63, 400,000 infants were tested for PKU in 505 hospitals. One case in every 10,000 births was found. It had previously been estimated that the disease occurred

Honor Fraternity Initiates Heine

Lt. William A. Heine III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Heine Jr. of 27 Bayberry lane, Mountainside, was initiated Sunday afternoon into membership in Tau Beta Pi, all-engineering honorary fraternity at Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind. Heine, who is presently serving in the Civil Engineering Corps of the U. S. Navy, is scheduled to receive his master's degree in civil engineering from Purdue on June 6.

Heine was commissioned by the Navy in 1962 when he was graduated from the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md. The Navy later sent him to Purdue where he received his bachelor's degree in civil engineering last January.

Lt. Heine, a graduate also of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Springfield, is scheduled to go to California immediately after receiving his master's degree and to the Philippines in September.

2 Car Accidents Black Out Areas In Mountainside

Portions of Mountainside were blacked out early Saturday and the community was without fire alarm protection for a time when motorists in two separate accidents knocked down utility poles on Rt. 22.

An area around Summit rd., was without power for a time when a car driven by Roosevelt Beachum, 34, of Newark, slammed into a pole on Rt. 22 near Summit rd. at 4:50 a.m. Beachum told police he fell asleep at the wheel.

John B. Rice, 22, of Upper Montclair, struck a utility pole on Rt. 22 near Parkway at 1:15 a.m. when his car went out of control on the highway and rolled over four times. Rice was uninjured. Beachum was treated in the emergency room of Overlook Hospital and released.

Both men were given summonses for careless driving. Both are scheduled to appear in Municipal Court next Wednesday night.

Power was restored in both areas within a short time.

Pool Purchase

 A citizen group, headed by Herbert Ross, collected over 300 signatures on petitions circulated in favor of establishing a community pool. The petitions were later presented to the Borough Council.

A group of 14 people, most of whom are residents near the area of the proposed site, submitted a petition to the Council opposing the project.

MRS. RALPH BRANDWENE

Speaks Tuesday At UJA Luncheon

Mrs. Ralph Brandwene, a member of the national board of the United Jewish Appeal, Women's Division, will speak in support of the 1965 campaign at a luncheon to be held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Herbert Paskow, 1040 Wyandotte trail, Westfield. Her appearance locally was arranged by Mrs. Lawrence Breibart and Mrs. Morse Shepard, co chairmen of the community luncheon for the Westfield - Mountainside Women's Division, UJA.

Mrs. Brandwene recently visited Israel as a member of the eighth study mission to Europe and Israel sponsored by the National UJA Women's Division. There she witnessed first hand the workings of UJA supported agencies and acquired knowledge of the existing needs which UJA must meet.

Flo Dwyer Guest At B'nai B'rith's Award Reception

Congresswoman Florence P. Dwyer will be the guest speaker Sunday evening at a reception given in honor of this year's recipient of the citizenship and civic affairs award given by the Westfield-Mountainside Lodge of B'nai B'rith.

Frank J. Crepeau, a Westfield policeman, was selected for the honor for his work in organizing the PAL in Westfield and for his work with young people.

Other speakers at the reception, which will be held in Temple Emanu-El, Westfield, will be Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ross of Mountainside, presidents of the lodge and the women's chapter, and Police Chief James J. Moran of Westfield.

Others who will participate in the program are Mrs. Dorothy Gowdy, Mildred Harner, Rev. John Flanagan of Holy Trinity Church of Westfield, Rabbi Bernard M. Honan of Temple Emanu-El, David Levy, Jack Loshin, Mrs. Aidan Markson and Sidney C. Mele.

Mountainside residents who serve on the panel of judges who selected Crepeau for the honor are Mayor Frederick Wilhelms and Sidney Mele.

School Registration Urged For Retarded

Mentally retarded youngsters who will be five years old by the fall must be registered with the local public school, states Joseph D. Ruddle, executive director, Union County Unit, New Jersey Association for Retarded Children.

He points out that state law calls for mandatory placement in appropriate classes of all educable and trainable retarded youngsters between the ages of five and 20. Some schools have made it a practice not to accept retarded children below the age of 7, says Ruddle, but such cases are decreasing as more schools observe the Board of Education Act passed in 1954.

"Forward-looking school superintendents, principals, school psychologists and school boards have helped blaze a trail which recognizes the ability of the retarded child to learn and profit from education. Five out of six retarded children will grow up to become at least partially self-sufficient citizens," Ruddle states.

He urges parents of retarded children to contact the principal of the elementary school the child would attend if he or she were normal. "You may be referred by the principal to the supervisor of special education who will make every effort to advise you about your child's education," he goes on to say.

Further information can be obtained from the County Unit at 552 Boulevard, Kenilworth, 276-6792.

THE FEMININE LOOK

Commentary on a recent National Editorial Association Study Mission Around South America

By TRUDINA HOWARD

Tenth of a Series STROESSNER'S PARAGUAY

"I do not have the people in my pocket, they have me in theirs."

So said the man who is called by some "the dictator of Paraguay," but who is the president of Paraguay and General of the Army, Alfredo Stroessner. He was speaking to 14 selected members of the National Editorial Association Study Mission Group at a meeting in his office in the capital city, Asuncion, early this year. The group, totaling 46, was on a study tour through South America.

There are many who feel, however, that Mr. Stroessner, who gained the presidency by a military coup in 1953 and has been at it ever since, not only has the people in his pocket, but right up his political sleeve as well.

For those Paraguayans who do not like that "location" there is prison or exile. When we asked about these political prisoners and exiles at a later briefing, we were told that there were only a few prisoners and only about 25 to 30 exiles. But why even "a few" and 25 to 50? "Because," General Stroessner has said succinctly, "they have said they will kill me."

There is a report however, that about 300,000 to 600,000 Paraguayans do not live in Paraguay, and in a country that only has a million and a half to begin with, that is a considerable amount. These are mainly "economic" exiles though, it was stated, since better salaries are offered elsewhere.

"Why," said one American, "you can say that I am an exile from Maine because I get a better job elsewhere." Well, you might say it, but you hardly would, for the American was the Ambassador of the United States.

Ambassador William P. Snow seems to be pro-Stroessner. At least he seems to feel that things are not as bad as "they are painted even though they may not be as good as they ought to be. He seems to feel that the president is doing as good a job as possible and is perhaps the only man in Paraguay that can.

President Stroessner himself apparently thinks the same thing. After attaining the presidency through the military coup in 1953, he was elected to office for a five-year term in 1958— which then made two terms. The laws of the land state that a president cannot exceed two terms, but El Presidente Stroessner liked the job so well, he wanted more of it. So it was declared that the first term "did not count" because it was not by election, and he ran again in 1963 and won. This then made two elected terms, one un-elected term but three total terms no matter what you call them.

When we asked the president if he would seek yet another term in the 1968 election he answered that "as in the United States, the people would determine that."

It is a general opinion that President Stroessner will find that the people will determine that he should. No one asked him how he would get around the two-term law this time though.

AT ANY RATE, it must be added that despite the dictator-labeled president, Paraguay is considered to be among the most anti-communist countries in South America and is progressing in its internal stability and in its meagre economy (agriculture, cattle and forestry). What's more, its money has been stable for seven years and that's something practically no other country in South America can say.

At least before Stroessner there were so many presidents, one after the other, that Paraguay could barely get on its feet. "That isn't democracy," Stroessner has said, "that is chaos." Perhaps the Paraguayans agree with him and find that a steady diet of one man is a relief.

Stroessner's regime, in any case, has never been as oppressive as his opponents have claimed and the government has settled down a great deal.

The 53-year old president is the son of a German-immigrant but it is said that he knows Paraguayans better than they know themselves, and that if everyone is 100 percent for Paraguay, Stroessner is 102 percent.

Paraguay strangely enough, is a blending of people that do make "Paraguayans." It may be the step-child of the Southern area in that it has vast wastelands, lack of transportation facilities, retarded agricultural methods, low literary rates and low income rates, no industry, no sea coast and no vice-presidents but it is about the only country in the continent that has a successful fusion of two different races—the Guarani Indian and the Spanish—to make one national people. This is unusual enough, but it also has an honest lack of class-consciousness and no dangerous gap between the very wealthy and the very poor. Paraguay does not possess resources to attract potential millionaires and raises enough to feed and clothe her people to avoid poverty in extremes. In Paraguay, there are almost no pure whites and no pure Indians with the exception of some recent immigrants from Europe and the remote native Indians in the Chaco and some pure Guarani. It is a case where two peoples have fused to become one nation and that is something many nations aspire to but few achieve.

BUT BESIDES the step-child problems, Paraguay is also handicapped in that it receives limited foreign aid. Branded as a dictatorship practically, it is regarded with almost as much uneasiness by the West as by the communists. The Alliance for Progress has assisted in the agricultural field and educational field and helped build some roads. There are no Peace Corps members in the country, however.

GRADUATES' CLUB TO DANCE SUNDAY

The College Graduates' Club, an organization for single men and women between the ages of 20 and 27, who are college graduates, students or who hold jobs with professional status, is sponsoring a dance Sunday night in the Regency Room of the Coronet, Irvington.

Music for the affair, set for 7:30 p.m., will be provided by the Colonials. Objective of the group is to help young collegians and grads in northern New Jersey to become acquainted.

Teacher Association Leader On Panel

Pat Donatello, president of the Union Township Teachers Association, will be among panel members discussing "Teachers—Are We Really Experts?" at the third open membership meeting of the Essex County Education Association, Tuesday at Montclair State College. The panel session, slated for 5 p.m., will precede a buffet supper.

Antiques To Be Sold

The 1965 Basking Ridge Antiques Show and Sale will open Wednesday and run for three days at the Bishop James Methodist Church in Basking Ridge.

EARLY COPY
Publicity chairmen and individuals are urged to observe the Friday deadline of this newspaper for other than spot news. Thursday is even better, include your name, address and phone number.

AT A MEETING WITH THE PRESIDENT of Paraguay, Alfredo Stroessner, in his office in the capital city, Asuncion, Trudina Howard, who is touring South America with the National Editorial Association Study Mission Group is at the left, the president is at the right. Miss Peggyann Hutchinson of Medford, Oregon, is in the center.

First Church Of Christ Scientist

292 Springfield ave. Summit
The question of whether mankind can actually exist without God will be explored in depth at all Christian Science churches this Sunday. The subject is "Adam and Fallen Man."
The Responsive Reading includes this line from James: "Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you." The theme is carried through in the Bible Lesson to the final citations from Psalms: "He shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday."
Related readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include these lines: "Let us rid ourselves of the belief that man is separated from God, and obey only the divine Principle, 'Love and Love'" (p. 91).

Women Observe Fellowship Day

Church women of the Mountainside-Westfield area will observe May Fellowship Day tomorrow at the Westfield Presbyterian Church. The theme of the day will be "People, Poverty, Plenty."
Dr. Jane Sprague, winner last year of the outstanding citizen award given by the local branch of Beta Beta Beta, will be the principal speaker at a luncheon which will mark the opening of the observance. Dr. Sprague, a charter member of the Congress of Racial Equality, is the wife of Dr. Howard Sprague, a Congregational minister, pastor of one of the earliest integrated churches.
The husband and wife team worked for a time in Puerto Rico among the rural poor. Since their return to Westfield, Dr. Jane Sprague has been a member of the board of directors of the Community Center and participates in the tutorial program there, has been active in the work of the Westfield Area Committee for Human Rights, and for many years worked one day weekly in the Planned Parenthood Clinic in Plainfield.

Presbyterian Unit Sets Ladies Night Saturday Night

A "Ladies Night" gala will be held by the Men's Club of the Springfield Presbyterian Church Saturday evening in the Presbyterian House.
A catered buffet dinner will be served in the dining room of the Parish House at 7 p.m. Sandwiches and punch will be served prior to the dinner. Ralph J. Heller Jr. will be at the piano during the dinner hour. Both the dining room and auditorium will be decorated for this occasion by members of the Westminster Fellowship.
Following dinner, entertainment is planned with Robert D. Hardgrove as master of ceremonies. Effand Goodell of Ridgewood will sing a selection of popular favorites. There will be a demonstration of ballroom dance steps by Bill and Bobbie Davies, international dancing champions. From 9:30 to midnight the guests will dance to the music of the Gene Warza quartet. Door prizes are to be awarded at 10:30 p.m.
Leonard W. Heller is general co-ordinator of this event. Working on the plans have been Walter Anderson, president of the Men's Club, Stanley Kroeger, Guther Lindenfelser, George Klein and Hardgrove.

Sermon Will Put Focus On Family

"Focus On The Family" will be the topic for Sunday's sermon by the Rev. Walter A. Reuning, pastor of the Redeemer Lutheran Church of Westfield. The sermon, which will be delivered at both the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services, will continue Redeemer's observance of Christian Family Month which will be noted throughout May.
Literature to assist in the home observance of Christian Family Month will be distributed to all families present at either service. Copies may also be obtained at the church office or by calling the church office, 232-1517. All the literature is intended to help guide parents who wish to bring into focus the many subjects which come under the theme of the month, "The Christian Family and Morality," the pastor stated.
Sunday School sessions are held at 9:45 a.m. The superintendent, Arthur Kravling, invites all children aged three through high school age to enroll for regular study of the Bible.

Square Dance

A square dance will be held tomorrow evening at the Central Presbyterian Church, Summit. Sponsored by the Central Club, the dance will feature professional caller, Dick Meyers. Single adults between the ages of 22 and 40 are urged to join.

Voter Opinion Still Important, McDonough Tells County PTAs

Abstinence from participation in public life is the right of each citizen, but certain related obligations cannot be bypassed. Assemblyman Peter J. McDonough of Plainfield is scheduled to tell the Union County Council of PTAs tonight at Chi Am Cha-teau, Mountainside. McDonough is to discuss the PTA objective of "adequate laws for the care and protection of children." "I respect the wish of any citizen not to work directly in politics, but still each has a vested interest in and personal responsibility to let his thoughts be known to the lawmaker," he said in a speech prepared for delivery tonight. "Each opinion, as each vote, is important and may wield an influence far beyond the realization of the individual expressing it. Letters and public utterances guide and influence the course of any measure through the Legislature.

"Nothing is as disheartening to the legislator as to be told later by someone 'I didn't like your vote on that matter.' A letter or a telegram or a telephone call might have changed the lawmaker's own view."

Assemblyman McDonough assured the PTA group he has no magic device, no formula for writing to legislators. He did counsel citizens to be direct and simple. "Write it. Say something. Ask a question if you want to be sure of an answer."

McDonough reminded the meeting of the election of President Rutherford B. Hayes over Samuel J. Tilden in 1876 by one electoral vote. In recent years, elections in South Plainfield and Linden, for instances, were decided by the narrowest of margins. These examples dispel the myth "my vote doesn't count, my voice won't be heard."

McDonough is chairman of the commission appointed to study the student drop-out problem in public schools of New Jersey. He is also chairman of the education committee of the Assembly.

Mrs. William Oplinger, of Elizabeth, is to preside at the business meeting, at which time the following officers are expected to be elected for a two year term:

PALSY SOCIETY TO HOLD DANCE IN SPRINGFIELD

Group Sets PTA Film Festival

Plans for the Union County PTA Film Festival to be held from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. on Wednesday, May 19, at the Union County Extension Center, 7 Centre Street, Springfield, are being formulated, according to Mrs. Sturmund Kohl, president.

The festival will be a day-long program of films and slides on a wide range of subjects. The program will be completed with a luncheon at the society which will be held at 11:30 a.m.

Women interested in joining the society or wishing further information about the dance may contact Mrs. Robert Deniston, president, at HL 6-0033, or Mrs. Russell Romeo, chairman, at AD 3-5117.

Leukemia Meeting Set

The monthly meeting of the Union County Leukemia Society, Incorporated, will be held tomorrow at 3 p.m. in the main hall of the YMCA of Union County, 212 Salem ave., Union.

Joseph Karkowski, a member of the National and New Jersey Chapters of the Association to Advance Ethical Hypnosis, will be guest speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Fireside Group of the Springfield Presbyterian Church on Wednesday. The meeting will be held in the dining area of the Presbyterian Parish House at 8 p.m.

Karkowski has experience using hypnosis as a means of aiding distressed persons, having worked closely with clergymen and physicians in this field. He will call on volunteers from the audience to assist him in his presentation.

Arrangements for the appearance have been made by Salvatore Falcone, president of the Fireside Group, and Sven Hedstrom, program chairman.

Ethical Society

Dr. Harry Roekberger of Livingston will address the Ethical Society on Sunday at 11 a.m. at 516 Prospect st., Maplewood. Dr. Roekberger, a psychologist, will speak on "The Stifling of Human Potentials." Dr. Herbert Weinstein will conduct the meeting.

Tips for Today's Homemaker

From Mary Armstrong, County Home Agent

MAPLE SYRUP, HONEY, MOLASSES OFFER SWEET VARIETY

Those who depend always on plain white sugar for sweetening in foods miss pleasant flavor variety. They also lose out on some other qualities such as desirable minerals in molasses and the moisture holding factor of honey in baked goods. Molasses is a staple item all year round, but both maple syrup and honey deserve special attention at certain times of the year. Right now while both these products are in the news, smart housewives will lay in a supply. Molasses at most seasons provides flavor interest at thrifty prices.

The fragrance of early spring blossoms drawing honey bees to their appointed task reminds us of the good supplies of honey on hand from last year's exceptionally plentiful production. This is a time to be generous in using honey in baked goods, as toppings for desserts; as a spread for French toast, pancakes and waffles; in honey ambrosia drinks; for glazing a baked ham; and in salad dressings, or other preparations.

Honey devotees are about equally divided in their preference for light and dark honey. The flowers that provide the nectar for the bees to make honey affect the flavor, aroma and color of the product. Sweet clover honey is one of the mildest and lightest honeys and buckwheat honey probably the strongest flavored and darkest honey. Distinctively flavored honeys also come from orange blossoms and other tree and bush flowers. But much honey in today's market is a blend of floral types resulting in more uniformity of color and flavor.

Honey that has been graded for quality carries a grade designation on the label. Top U.S. Department of Agriculture grade for extracted honey—the most commonly sold honey in this country—is U.S. Grade A or U.S. Fancy. Next is U.S. Grade B or U.S. Choice. The most important factors in grading liquid honey are flavor and clarity.

Honey gives good keeping qualities to hot breads and cakes. The following substitutions suggestions for sugar in recipes may be helpful: If a recipe calls for 1/2 cup sugar or less, you can omit the sugar and use an equal amount of honey in its place. In recipes calling for one or more cups of sugar, omit the sugar and use the same amount of honey, but reduce the amount of liquid called for by 1/4 cup. Add a little extra salt to bring out the sweetness of the honey and to prevent over-browning. Lower baking temperature by 25 degrees.

around, it is produced in the spring, and this year prospects are for a good supply. Maple syrup is expensive to produce. But new methods to gather and process sap have helped to produce a better syrup at less cost. For example, plastic pipelines collecting sap from several trees have replaced wooden buckets in some areas.

According to law in New York, top maple syrup producing state, all 100 percent maple products are marked pure. Color is an important factor in grading and classifying maple syrup. Buying by grade helps to get the type of syrup desired. Top grade syrups, such as New York Fancy or No. 1, is light amber in color and mild in flavor.

Fund Near Half Mark

The library fund drive of St. Peter's College, Jersey City, has reached the $200,000 mark. It was announced this week by fund chairman T. Edward Gavin. Overall goal was set at $750,000 which with a federal grant of $250,000 will enable the construction of the facility, Gavin said.

Ready for trouble before it strikes (one of the secrets of providing dependable electric service)

We could wait for a lightning storm to cause damage and then start working on repairs. But we don't. We start getting ready before it hits. Thanks to a unique electronic warning system we know when a storm is approaching. Storm-activated indicators, strategically located throughout our service area, pick up danger signals when a storm is many miles away. This is part of the system we use to mobilize our forces in advance when trouble is approaching. It costs money. It takes time and effort. And occasionally the standby emergency crews we call on are not even used. But this is one more way we can guarantee dependable service to you — and one more reason why you can Live Better . . . Electrically.

Ask Amy

BY AMY ADAMS

Dear Amy:
We have a dog, a common, ordinary mutt, that we love very much. He is not permitted anywhere in the house except the playroom or the kitchen. We have some friends who also have a dog, a poodle with a yard-long pedigree. When they visit us, they are usually accompanied by the dog and they permit it to have the run of OUR house.

My son resents this very much, and so do we, but I hate to hurt the feelings of my friends. But one day, after their dog wet my rug, I told them that they would have to keep it in the kitchen or playroom. It didn't help. Their feelings weren't hurt nor do they control their dog when they visit us.

I can feel friction in our house everytime they leave. My little boy starts to cry because their dog wanders in all the rooms and ours cannot. My husband complains about my cleaning up after their dog. We don't think it's worth having their company if it is going to cause this contention in our home.

Amy, Please tell us what is the right thing to do?
Mr. & Mrs. & Son
Dear Mr. & Mrs. & Son
In my opinion, friends who go visiting with their pets have a nerve and those who ignore the rules and regulations of the house are even nerver. Ask them to leave their dog at home. If they don't have the courtesy to respect your wishes, I don't think it's worth having their company, either.

Dear Amy:
I am a sponsor (or Godmother) to a boy who is going to be 19 this month. He will graduate in June.
I have given him a gift for his birthday up to his eighteenth and also a Christmas gift every year including last year. I am now wondering when does the gift-giving stop?
I have children of my own, and as they are getting older, they need so many things that sometimes I feel I can't afford these extra gifts.
This young boy was confirmed at age 14 (I gave him a cash gift at that time), and someone once told me the gift-giving stopped after the person was confirmed.

Your opinion on the above matter, please?
Mrs. R. W.

Dear Mrs. R. W.:
You were never obligated to give the young man gifts. The only gift expected from you was at his birth. Godparents are to oversee the spiritual education of the godchild up to his confirmation. At this time in his life, remain his friend, confidant and advisor.

Dear Amy:
For some time now when my phone rings and I answer it, no one is on the other end, and honestly, I'm sick and tired of it. There must be an adult some where in my vicinity who is sick in the head.

This happens mostly during the day or late in the evening. At first I thought it was some child's prank, but at this point, I know better. Children are either in school or in bed at these hours.

The telephone company cannot help me. We do not want an unlisted number for a good reason. Is there some other way I could stop these very annoying disturbances?
High Pressure

Dear High:
Yes, You can request the telephone company to give you a new number.

Dear Amy:
I am writing to ask if there are any clubs for English "war brides." I am from England and would love to meet some girls from home.
Mrs. D. S. (Roselle)

Dear Mrs. D. S.:
I haven't heard the term "war bride" since the 40's, nor do I know of any such clubs. However, if the readers from Roselle will inform me, I'll inform you.

SUMMER PLANS

What must you consider in order to make the most of a summer? Look over the various possibilities for summer activities and make a choice among them. Perhaps you have not felt like planning because of the cool weather, but don't delay—summer is almost here.

The choice is wide: from getting a sun-tan in the back yard to foreign travel, from cultivating new friends to strengthening old friendships, from improving skills already possessed to learning something new that you've always wanted to know how to do. The first step toward making a summer satisfying is to make a choice and develop a plan.

It is difficult for individuals to choose, but what of a family where each member wants to do something different? Father wants to go fishing. Mother wants to go to the shore. Bill wants to go to camp with the gang. Sally wants to stay home to be near her new beau.

Parents can put their foot down and say, "You will go where we tell you!" Even if it works, everybody is unhappy; the parents because they feel guilty, the youngster because he feels insulted and angry.

Making summer plans in a family group can be simplified when all the members get together and discuss what each would like to do. This means that everyone—from the oldest to the youngest—has a voice, and his opinion is respected. The selection of a final plan will not be so difficult a choice when everyone has a chance to say what he thinks, and has the opportunity to understand why some of the activities desired are impossible.

REALTOR OF THE WEEK

Her Part-Time Job As Saleswoman Eventually Led To Full-Time Career

Little did Helen M. Gorczyca realize 11 years ago that her part-time job as a real estate saleswoman would lead to a full-time career. Her idea at the time was to put aside some money to help in the upcoming college education of her eldest son, Walter.

MRS. HELEN M. GORCZYCA

Born and raised in Elizabeth, Mrs. Gorczyca has lived in Roselle for 15 years. She was "simply a housewife" prior to entering the business world...

this subject her enthusiasm can be quite contagious. She is a strong believer in real estate as an investment. "Almost anyone can be an investor," she claims. She will recite chapter and verse on how people in all walks of life "have made their money work for them."

Teachers Of Tots Slate Workshop At Scotch Plains

The New Jersey Association of Kindergarten Educators is planning a workshop, "Using the Children's Environment Through Exploration and Movement," for all persons interested in this phase of education. The workshop will be held Wednesday at 4:30 p.m. in the Scotch Plains High School.

The program will be led by Dr. Gladys Andrews, former professor at New York University; Dr. Robert Fleming, assistant commissioner of education; Yvonne Jans, music consultant for Bergen County, and Sal Abitanta of the New Jersey department of Elementary Education.

Everyone attending will be expected to help create rhymes, melodies and rhythmic activities and expressions.

County Unit To Hold Camp For Retarded

The Union County Unit of the New Jersey Association for Retarded Children will sponsor a day camp, Camp Star, for mentally retarded children during July and August at Echo Lake Park, Mountainside. There will be three sessions of two weeks each, beginning July 6. Children can be enrolled for one, two or three periods.

Facilities for the campers will include the lake for fishing and boating, a shelter, lavatories, water fountains, shade trees, a wooded area with tables and benches, playground equipment, a ball field and a hiking area.

The camp director will be Carol J. Price, a teacher of retarded children in the Scotch Plains-Fanwood school system. A staff of 25 counselors and eight volunteers will assist her.

Campers will be grouped with others of similar age and capability. Each group will be in the charge of a teacher of retarded children. This counselor will be aided by two college students majoring in special education or related fields.

Games, handicrafts, singing sessions, nature walks, callisthenics, cookouts, story sessions, boating and dramatics will be included in the schedule. There will also be special events and trips. Swimming will be included twice a week in an indoor pool.

Transportation will be provided from a point near the campers' homes. The children bring lunch, with milk and snacks provided by the camp. On rainy days, activities will be held at the Harry W. Kohler Day Care Center, Winfield Park.

Further information can be obtained from the Union County Unit at 562 Boulevard, Kenilworth.

Two Hikes Slated For Walking Club

Two hikes are scheduled for the members of the Union County Hiking Club over the weekend.

On Saturday, Leo Zappe, East Orange, and Robert Gage, Summit, will lead a trail clearing expedition. Each hiking club associated with the New York-New Jersey Trails Conference is responsible for maintaining a section of trails used for hiking.

The Union County Hiking Club is responsible for maintaining approximately 13 miles of the Appalachian Trail in the area of Greenwood Lake. The group will meet at the Administration Building of the Union County Park Commission, Warinanco Park, Elizabeth, at 8:30 a.m.

On Sunday, Nat Coyne, Irvington, will lead a 10-mile hike in the area of Butler. This group will meet at the park commissioner's Administration Building, Warinanco Park, Elizabeth, at 8:30 a.m.

Pingry Alumni Dance To Be Held Saturday

J. Lloyd Harbeck Jr., chairman of dinners and reunions of the Pingry Alumni Association, has announced that the annual spring tea dance will be held this Saturday from 5-8 p.m. at the Short Hills Club, Lake Shore dr., Short Hills.

A similar affair last year was held and the organization is expecting at least as many alumni to attend this season's event, an announcement said.

Mrs. Dwyer Cites Perils For Youth

The nation faces "truly difficult years" if the source of youthful corruption and the growth of juvenile delinquency are not curbed, Rep. Florence D. P. Dwyer of Union, R-6th Dist., told a gathering of Boy Scout leaders recently.

Mrs. Dwyer said she has urged Congress to back up the Boy Scouts and others working with young people by tightening laws against dangerous drugs, teen-age drinking and obscene mail.

In her talk before the Ranger District awards dinner at St. Johns Lutheran Church in Summit, Mrs. Dwyer said that government's role in youth reform, although vital, is secondary to the duty of parents.

Parents, she stressed, "must provide guidance, discipline, order and the opportunity to grow carefully into adulthood."

Dr. Mary C. Wright, Yale University authority on the history of modern China, will speak on "Communism and the Chinese Civilization" at the fourth Townsend Lecture Series program at Newark State College, Union, tomorrow at 2 p.m. The program is free and open to the public.

In addition to teaching graduate and undergraduate students at Yale, Dr. Wright contributes to numerous publications. She is currently preparing an analysis of the 1911 Chinese revolution.
