Local Candidates Meet Next Week At Annual Forum

Bi-Partisan Program Set Thursday Night In Beechwood School

Mayor Frederick Wilhelms, his Democratic opponent, William C. Seeds, and the four candidates for seats on Mountainside's Borough Council have all accepted invitations to the "Candidates' Night"—scheduled next Thursday night at Beechwood School.

The forum, an annual event, is sponsored by the Mountainside branch of the American Association of University Women and is open to the general public. The program will begin at 8:30.

The two mayoralty candidates and their running mates, Councilman B. Dean Spain and Wilfred Brandt, Republican candidates, and Joseph Stypa and John Wroblewski, the Democratic hopefuls, will each speak for five minutes. They will center their talks on two questions previously submitted to them by the AAUW.

The moderator, Mrs. Fred Monley of the Westfield League of Women Voters, will then open the meeting to questions from the floor. Candidates will be allowed two minutes in which to answer any question from the floor.

The questions the six will attempt to answer in their prepared speeches are: "Why are you seeking public office?" and "If elected, what do you think is the most important question to be considered by the Mountainside Borough Council?"

Slate Open House At Regional High

The Parents Teacher Association of Governor Livingston Regional High School will sponsor the sixth annual "Back to School Night" next Thursday at the school in Berkeley Heights.

After securing their child's schedule in-home room, the parents will follow a typical day capsule into two hours. Each teacher will explain class activities and routines, such as subject matter to be covered, materials used, grading procedures, homework requirements and the general aims of the course.

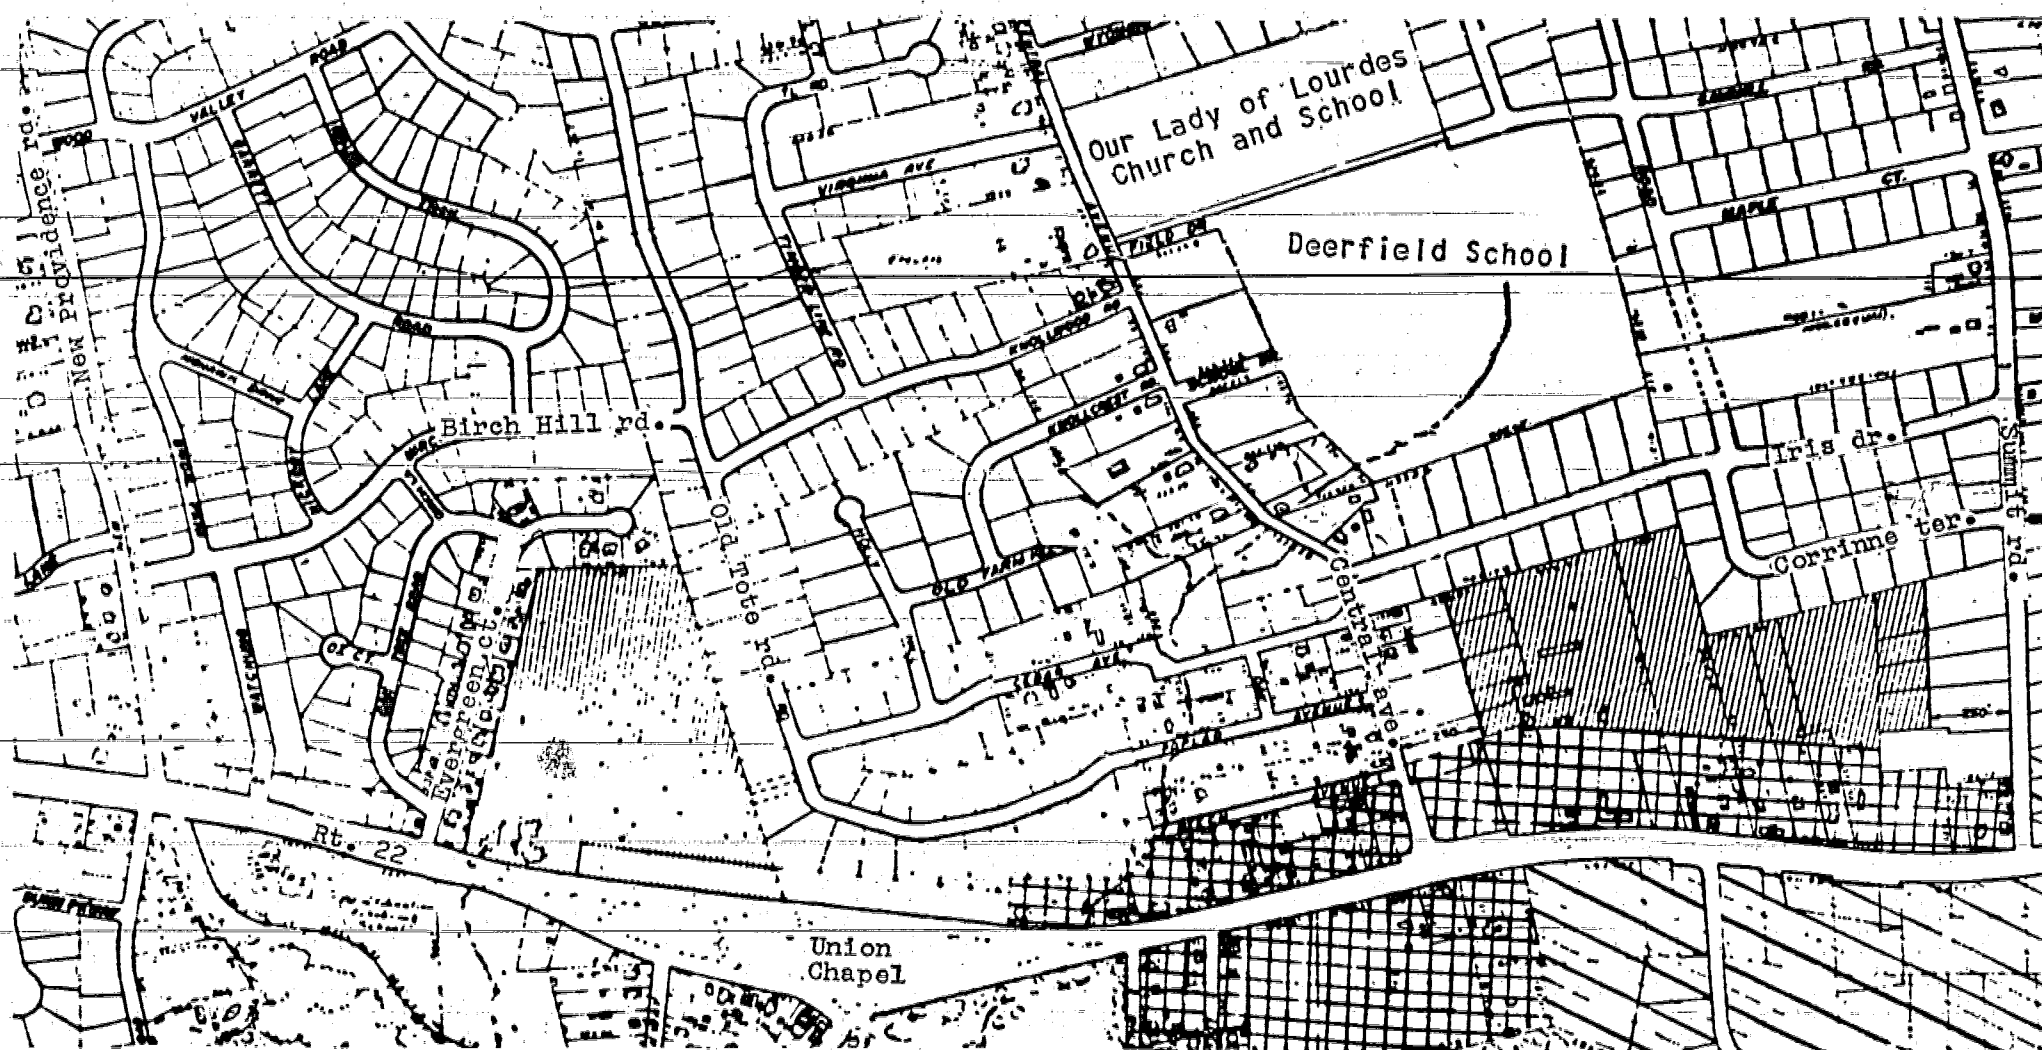

The program will begin at 7:30 with a short PTA meeting in the auditorium. Mrs. Byron Dimmick will preside. Frederick Aho, principal, will present the schedule—for the evening which will begin with a home room period at 8:10 and seven subsequent classes. All areas of the school will be open for inspection by the parents.

Following the classes, the Parent PTA will serve refreshments in the cafeteria.

Library Trustees

The Board of Trustees of the Mountainside Public Library will meet next Monday night in the library in the basement of Echobrook School. It has been reportedly reported that the trustees may act at that meeting to hire a professional consultant to guide them in their attempts to plan for a new library. The Borough Council has indicated to the trustees that such action is desirable at that point, the source stated.

Fireworks Expected At Rezoning Hearing

Shaded areas between Summit rd. and New Providence rd. show tracts proposed for rezoning to new commercial "A" zone.

Crowd Expected At Public Airing Tuesday Night

Democratic Hopefuls, Civic Clubs Prepare To Battle Passage

The controversial rezoning ordinance, which would change approximately 22 acres of Mountainside land from residential to "preferred, restricted commercial A" classification, comes up for public hearing next Tuesday night in Echobrook School. A large crowd is expected to attend.

Passage of the ordinance will be vigorously opposed by at least two civic associations, Pembroke Civic and Concord Estates.

The Democratic candidates, who have made opposition to any such rezoning one of the major planks in their platform, have stated they will be on hand to battle against the ordinance.

However, informed sources say the Council will approve it with possibly one dissenting vote.

The ordinance was approved 4-1 on first hearing at the September meeting of the Borough Council. Councilman Gilbert Pittenger voted against the measure saying he wanted to keep the area near Rt. 22 and east of Chapel Island "as green as possible."

Councilman B. Dean Spain, who is seeking reelection to the post to which he was appointed last spring, abstained from voting but said he would be prepared to vote "for or against" the bill at the public hearing. To date, he has given no public indication as to how his vote will go.

Councilmen William Dizal, George Stillwell, George Couglin and William McCurley are expected to approve the ordinance as they did at the September meeting. Mayor Frederick Wilhelms, out of town at the September meeting, will undoubtedly back the action should he be expected to vote.

If passed the ordinance, which would amend the 1955 zoning ordinance, will change approximately 12 acres of land fronting the westbound lane of Rt. 22, near Chapel Island, and another tract of about ten acres between Summit rd. and Central ave. and backing into Corrinne ter. from residential zoning to the new commercial classification.

The two tracts, which lie less than a mile apart, are pictured on the map published on the first page of this issue.

The Pembroke Civic Association is now circulating a petition among those residents whose property adjoins either of the two tracts involved. Harry Swensen, president of the group, said earlier this week Swensen estimated that about 50 private home properties directly abut the two areas.

Harry Bernstein, a Plainfield attorney, has been hired by the Pembroke Civic Association to guide the members in their fight against the rezoning. The Concord group voted last Friday to join in the battle against it.

The rezoning of the two tracts was recommended in the master plan which was passed last spring. The rezoning ordinance is the first attempt to implement any portion of the master plan.

Mayor Wilhelms has indicated at several public meetings, including the public hearings on the master plan, that the rezoning is necessary. On several occasions

GOP Candidates Say Dems Make False Statements

Mayor Frederick Wilhelms, Jr., Councilman B. Dean Spain and Wilfred Brandt, Republican candidates for office in Mountainside, this week charged their Democratic opponents, William C. Seeds, Joseph J. Stypa and John Wroblewski, with "making false and misleading statements to Mountainside voters."

Mayor Wilhelms claimed that the Democrats willfully disregarded the numerous studies on the library, borough facilities and storm sewer that he invited them to review on Sept. 11.

"The Democratic candidates," the Republican release states, "in their fervent pursuit of votes choose to tell the voters that the Mayor and Council plan a 'municipal complex' that will cost $631,000. They don't tell you that they know that in March, 1965, Mayor Wilhelms wrote two communications to Council in which he stated that he was unequivocally opposed to any such expenditure and that the Council confirmed his opinion."

"They don't tell you that Wilhelms made available to them and explained to them the numerous possibilities and studies being investigated. These possibilities include three different plans far less expensive — combined library and borough hall facilities; a plan for separate borough hall; information on possible alteration to present borough hall; a study on how Echobrook School could be utilized if it ever becomes surplus; and even how we investigated the possibility of buying the house next door to borough hall for office use."

Political Fur Flies As Candidates Meet

Political fur flew last Friday night when the six candidates for office in Mountainside met at a forum sponsored by the Concord Estates Civic Association. Association members described the session as "active and hectic."

The Republicans, Mayor Frederick Wilhelms, Jr., Councilman B. Dean Spain and Wilfred Brandt, accused the Democrats of "making false and misleading statements to Mountainside voters."

The Democratic candidates, William C. Seeds, Joseph J. Stypa and John Wroblewski, countered with charges that the "GOP platform is intended to deceive the public." The Democrats' stated the campaign claim of Mayor Wilhelms and his running mates that they want to maintain the residential nature of the community is disproved by the rezoning ordinance which was approved by the Borough Council last week and which comes up for public hearing next Tuesday night.

The two sides crossed swords on many points, including the "municipal complex" which the Democrats claimed last week that the present all-Republican government, headed by Wilhelms, is attempting to "foist" on the borough by using the proposed new library as a "wedge."

Wilhelms, the first speaker, overran the five minutes allotted to him by the moderator, Henry Lutz, president of Concord Estates Association. Lutz then ruled that all the candidates were entitled to equal time for their presentations.

Wilhelms scoffed at the Democrats' charge that cost of a plan to erect a $631,000 municipal complex after the November election. Wilhelms said he was "unequivocally opposed to any such expenditure and that the Council confirmed my opinion." (Continued on Page 3) POLITICAL FUR

Mayor's Attack Is Deplored By Democratic Slate

William C. Seeds, Democratic candidate for mayor, and John A. Wroblewski and Joseph J. Stypa, Democratic candidates for Mountainside's Borough Council, this week deplored the "emotional diatribe hurled at them" by Mayor Frederick Wilhelms last Friday night.

The opposing candidates faced each other publicly for the first time in the campaign that night at a meeting sponsored by the Concord Estates Civic Association.

The Democrats charged that the mayor took advantage of his first place spot on the program to launch a "name-calling, personal attack" on them rather than facing the issues of the campaign.

"Personal Attack" "Taking advantage of his being the first speaker," the Democratic release states, "the mayor launched a name-calling personal attack on the Democratic candidates, rather than addressing himself to the issues confronting us. Mayor Wilhelms' ungentlemanly, vituperative attack was the result of his dissatisfaction with our article in the Oct. 7 issue of the Mountainside Echo in which we charged the mayor and his running mates with inconsistencies between their actual position and their printed platform. We regret the mayor saw fit to indulge in this unbecoming approach. It served no purpose in answering what we believe to be the real issues in this campaign — the issues our Oct. 7 press release presented."

"We reiterate — the GOP platform is intended to deceive the public. They state in their platform that they will maintain (Continued on Page 3) DEMOCRATS VOICE

6 Member Agencies Benefit From Drive

The division among member agencies of the $15,700 goal set by the Mountainside Community Fund Drive was announced this week by the drive president, John Keenan. The annual fund-raising drive opens Oct. 23.

In announcing the fund division, Keenan stressed that these agencies can continue their activities in the borough only with the help of funds allotted to them from the annual Community Fund Drive.

The Mountainside Rescue Squad, a volunteer group which provides transportation to and from hospitals free of charge on a 24-hour basis, will receive $3,500. The Rescue Squad responds to all emergencies within the township and its members are trained to deal with all types of accidents and emergencies.

This past summer, Rescue Squad members administered mouth-to-mouth resuscitation to a borough tow who had fallen into his family's backyard pool. Their action was credited with saving the child's life, Keenan said.

The Watchung Area Council Boy Scouts, which has 460 Mountainside boys participating in Scout Troops and Cub Packs, will receive $4,540 as its pro-rata share. The Boy Scouts' yearly program includes summer camps, weekend camps and sporting events, Keenan pointed out. Several borough Boy Scouts attended the national Boy Scout camp in Philmont, N. Mex. this past summer, he added, an expedition made possible through the scouting program as carried out in the borough.

The Washington Rock Girl Scout Council is providing an educational and constructive program for 318 Mountainside girls, a program which stresses character growth and good citizenship. One Mountainside Senior Girl Scout attended the International Round-Up held last summer in the west. The Girl Scouts' share is $2,540.

The District Nursing Association, which provides bedside nursing care, special treatments, rehabilitation and baby care, public health education and instruction, made 514 visits in Mountainside in 1964. Their share of the Community Fund total is $2,150.

The Union County Psychiatric Clinic will receive $1,700 from (Continued on Page 6) FUND DRIVE

'SHINDIG' PLANNED NEXT WEDNESDAY BY 2 GOP CLUBS

A "Republican Shindig" will be held next Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. in the Mountainside Inn. The affair is co-sponsored by the Republican Club of Mountainside and the Women's Republican Club of Mountainside.

Mrs. Thomas Ricciardi, president of the women's group, is chairman of the event. Serving on the committee are Mrs. A. F. Staunton, Mrs. Bruce Geiger and Mrs. R. C. Speth.

The affair was planned to give the voters of Mountainside a chance to meet the Republican candidates informally, according to Mrs. Ricciardi. There will be music for dancing and free refreshments.

All borough residents are invited to join in the fun, the chairman stated.

Series Of Profiles

These are the second in a series of profiles on the candidates for Mayor and Councilmen in Mountainside. Next week Mayor Frederick Wilhelms Jr., seeking reelection on the GOP ticket, and his Democratic opponent, William C. Seeds will be profiled. The other two candidates, John Wroblewski, Democrat, and Wilfred Brandt, Republican, were written up last week.

JOSEPH STYPA

Joseph Stypa

Joseph Stypa, moved up in two areas of his life in the past year. He, his wife, Betty, and their four children moved last month from their home at 1088 Willow pl. to 1081 Sunny Slope dr., a new house higher up the mountain slope. And he moved up the career ladder with his company, International Telephone and Telegraph Co. of West Palm Beach, Fla.

Sales manager last year for the New York state area of ITT, he has been advanced to the post of regional manager for the entire eastern area. The position holds added responsibilities, demands more travelling but is, Stypa says with evident gratification, more challenging and more rewarding.

The Stypas moved to Mountainside in 1956 shortly after Joe received his degree in electrical engineering from Newark College of Engineering. He had married his high school sweetheart, the former Betty Lou Streisel, the January before graduation. They now have four children, Billy, 9, Kathy, 7, Diane, 3, and Paul, not yet two.

Betty and he had dated since high school days in Roselle and for almost eight years more before marrying. After collecting his high school diploma from St. Benedict's Preparatory School, Joe had worked for four years with a construction firm before deciding to go back to school. He took his first two years of college at Union Junior College, Cranford, transferring to NCE.

He collected his master's degree in electrical engineering from Newark College of Engineering in 1962. He did it the hard way, working full time in the day and attending evening classes.

ECHO POLITICAL PROFILES

B. Dean Spain

Mountainside's Borough Councilman B. Dean Spain, who is now seeking election on the GOP ticket to the seat to which he was appointed last spring, is a Texan and a Republican.

There is not, he states positively, anything unusual about that. Eisenhower carried Texas in the presidential elections and the Lone Star State now has a Republican sitting in the U.S. Senate, Spain points out.

"There are a lot of Republicans down there," he says with a deep chuckle.

Spain was born on a farm in Texas. He and his four brothers and four sisters went to school in Waxahachie, Tex., and after all these years Spain still pronounces that tongue-twister with ease.

Growing up on a farm was a wonderful life for a boy, especially with all those built-in playmates. However, by the time he was 16, Spain was beginning to feel slightly disenchanted with his surroundings so he and a friend ran away from home.

"We rode the rails, we were real hobos," he recalls.

Fourteen days of that life sent the two back home.

"Nobody said a word when I got back home," astonishment is still in his voice when he speaks of it, "my mother and father didn't even ask where'd I been. My brothers and sisters didn't either. Of course, they'd made it up between them not to let on they hadn't noticed I'd gone."

The drastic treatment cured him for the time of any notions of taking off for far places again. The next time he left home was for classes in Texas Christian University.

Dine Graciously At Any Of The Fine Eating Places Listed Here

(Continued from Page 1) a lot since he first entered the political ring last year. In 1964 he spoke earnestly about "politics being every voter's business." This year he reports, albeit in some astonishment, that many residents are not even aware that a master plan has been designed for the borough. This despite the fact that many of those unaware voters live in residential areas that will be directly affected by the zone changes recommended in the plan, he reports.

Joe has been a regular member of the audience at Borough Council meetings for over two-and-a-half years. Before he had any idea of entering politics he had a deep interest in seeing how the community operated. He found, he says, that attending Council meetings didn't help him acquire much knowledge along those lines. All the important decisions, he says, were made in caucus sessions, the public had no knowledge of how these decisions were reached.

A registered Republican last year, he changed his party affiliation to run on the Democratic ticket. He firmly believes that local elections should be non-partisan. When that ideal cannot be achieved, the only way representative government can be achieved on the local level is by a two-party system, he claims.

He learned a lot in last year's campaign, he reports, and he gained a great deal. Crossing verbal swords with political foes, as he did last year at candidates' meetings and has done with regularity since at Borough Council meetings, has helped him "to think on his feet," to crystallize into quick words his opinions and his criticisms. His political activity has also, he reports, pushed him into thinking analytically and objectively on different issues. He has acquired, he feels, an ability to cut through the fat of words that oftentimes cloak local issues to the hard core of the problem. His gains are many, he says sincerely. He has gained many friends, people whom in the ordinary course of events he might never have known. He cherishes these friendships, and thus "rewarding" and "stimulating."

Last year he and his running mate, Jules Rose, spent their evenings before the election pushing doorbells, explaining their platform to all those who would listen, listening sympathetically to the problems that plague different areas of the town.

This year he and John Wroblewski, his 1965 running mate, are pushing those same doorbells and many more. Stypa is gratified at the number of people who remember him, the scores who tell him they voted for him last year, bringing him within 178 votes of capturing a seat on the Borough Council.

Board Returning Trampoline To Deerfield Gym

The trampoline will be returned to use in the gymnasium classes of Deerfield School, Mountainside, within the next few weeks. The return of the equipment was approved by the Board of Education Monday night on the request of Dr. Leona B. Hanigan, School Superintendent.

The action was taken only after the school body was assured by its insurance company that its liability insurance covers the use of the equipment. The trampoline was removed from Deerfield's gym classes in 1964 when a suit was brought against the Board of Education of Chatham after a student in that town was severely injured on one.

In other action the board voted to reimburse Joseph Petrucci, a music instructor at Deerfield School, for two graduate courses he took at New York University. It also voted to increase his annual salary $100 in recognition of his graduate work and his four years on the faculty. The resignation was accepted by the board, Frank Kueli, a Mountainside resident, was appointed in his place. Kueli's appointment became effective immediately.

'PEANUT' PEOPLE SET TO APPEAR AT SCHOOL DANCE

Characters from the "Peanuts" comic strip will make personal (-) appearances Saturday night at the senior class dance in Governor Livingston Regional High School, Berkeley Heights, the class president, James Caldwell, announced this week.

The "Peanuts" bunch, the Rogues of Westfield and root beer will all add up to a happy time, the dance chairman, Ginny Young and Donna Mytelka report.

The affair will open at 8 o'clock and end at 11:30. The price of admission is 75¢ stag and $1.25 drag.

Echo Political Profile - - - Spain

(Continued from Page 1) By the time he was 20, Spain was getting restless again. He left college to accept a position with Montgomery Ward Co. By the time he was 23 he was a supervisor, the next year he was heading a department.

He married the former Pauline Walton of Fort Worth. In 1948 his company transferred him to Kansas City. Three years later he was assigned to the Chicago office. In 1952 he was reassigned to the Kansas City office.

"By that time," Spain says with something of an edge on his Texas drawl, "I'd had enough of the east coast. So when they first came to this area, the Spains house-hunted in Long Island and finally settled on Fort Washington as a home base."

Spain remembers that their sons, Jon Barton, now 14 and Michael Douglas, 13, objected strenuously when they were told the family was moving from Old Tappan.

Spain is now a freshman in Governor Livingston High School and Michael is in the eighth grade at Deerfield School. Both boys have been active in Little League and have participated in the Recreation Committee.

Golf is Spain's favorite sport, one he doesn't get as much time to indulge in as he would like. Although he describes himself as a mediocre golfer, he recently won a tournament at his club, Colonia Country Club. He hasn't come anywhere near duplicating his winning 73 and 80 scores since. "I'm getting worse," he says dolefully. He likes to play bridge too — "fun" bridge not serious bridge.

Mrs. Spain enjoys both types of bridge. She plays in a New-comers' group.

Spain gets back to Texas at least once or twice a year to visit his mother who still lives near the home place. He sandwiches the visits in during business trips that take him all over the country.

Mrs. Spain and the boys spent almost six weeks in Texas this summer. Jon, who is already over six feet tall, also spent part of the summer with friends in Florida and at a lake resort in New England. "He's growing up," his father says, "and we have to let him learn independence."

Spain has the gold-tongue, the easy sure approach of the "pro." Those qualities, he picked up, he says, in more than 25 years in business administration.

His experience in business should help him to do a good job, in administering borough affairs, he feels. "Besides," he says with disarming simplicity, "I'm a willing worker."

He stands squarely on the GOP platform, announced two weeks ago. If elected, he and his running mates, Mayor Fredrick Wilhelm and Wilfred Brandt, will do their best to show they deserved the support.

"After all," he draws "Republicans have been running Mountainside for a long time and it's a darn good town to live in."

Plastic Company Leases Building

Daval Plastics, Inc., supplier of Tupperware home products in New Jersey, has taken a long-term lease on the former Adler Home Mart building on Rt. 22 in Mountainside. The building will be used as a warehouse and distribution center. The transaction was negotiated by the J. I. Klisak Organization, Realtors, of Newark.

The Mountainside plant, comprised 6,000 sq. ft. of floor space, replaces a much smaller facility formerly occupied by Daval in Bloomfield. Albert L. Novak is president of the firm. Owner of the structure is Leon Adler of Irvington.

Bowling Jewels Leading League

Mrs. Pierce Fountain, a member of the Mountainside branch of the American Association of University Women, will have several poems and an oil painting on display at the annual arts festival which will be held Saturday at Montclair State College, Montclair.

Rezoning Hearing

(Continued from Page 1) sions he has warned that if borough officials do not take some action on the Wilson property the decision "could be taken out of their hands." He referred to the court action brought by A. A. Wilson in which he seeks reversal of the local Board of Adjustment's refusal to grant him a variance to erect a store and a 150-unit garden apartment on his land. Judge Milton Feller has reserved decision on the pending an out-of-court settlement by the borough and Wilson.

The current suit is part of litigation between Wilson and the borough which has gone on for the past several years. The Mountainside Democratic Club last weekend distributed a handbill urging residents to attend Tuesday night's hearing to voice their opposition against the rezoning. The handbill stated that additional encroachment of commercial and industrial land use hurts home property values.

Gene Simpson, co-chairman of the Republican Club of Mountainside, charged this week that the Democrats' handbill contained "errors of fact and mis-statements of truth." According to Simpson the ordinance makes "no change in industrial zoning but would create a new, preferred restricted commercial zone classification."

Political Fur

(Continued from Page 1) The Democrats said after the meeting that the $631,000 figure was the estimate submitted by Kaufman and McMurray, architects commissioned by the Borough Council, for adequate buildings to meet the space needs of borough facilities. The report was submitted to the Borough Council some months back, no figures have ever been officially released.

FIVE BOOKS BACK; AFRICAN VOLUME IS STILL MISSING

Five of the books which disappeared from the tables at the Fun-D dance, held recently in the Mountainside Inn, have been returned to their owner, Malcolm Graham, the dance committee reports. One volume on Africa is still missing. The owner, whose name and address is printed on the first page of the book, is still hopeful that it will be returned.

The books were used as part of the table decorations at the dance for the benefit of the borough library. Several of the guests took the books in the mistaken impression that they were table prizes.

For the Birds

By FARRIS S. SWACKHAMER
Instructor, Union Junior College Institute, Cranford, N. J.

How many of you have looked out on the lawn after a summer shower or when you're sprinkling the grass and seen a robin hopping about pulling a worm out now and then? How many of you have wondered how the robin locates the worm? Does he see them, hear them or smell them? Whatever the process, he seems to be reasonably successful.

Apparently the same questions have occurred to others too. Finally, someone has done something about it. In a recent issue of The Condor, the journal of the Cooper Ornithological Society, Frank Heppner of San Francisco State College presented the results of some research he did.

Like all good researchers, he first looked over the literature for references about the feeding of robins. He found that little had been done beyond mere speculation on the means for locating the earthworm. Robins' diets had been checked by examining the stomachs of birds. One author determined 15 percent of the diet of the American robin consisted of worms and another, working with the western race of the species, found they ate 8.68 percent worms in summer, reaching a high of 20 percent in July.

Heppner then made field observations on the campus of the University of California and in Tilden Regional Park. On the football field wild birds were captured in mist nets. Although 13 birds were caught, only six lived until the end of the experiment. They were kept in outdoor cages measuring two by three feet by two feet high. There was free access to water and the robins almost always drank after feeding. They were wild at first but after one or two weeks in captivity, settled down and cooperated nicely.

The aged birds were found to have individual foot preferences. Some would eat a quarter of a banana a day, whereas others wouldn't accept the fruit even if no other food were offered. The diet acceptable to all the captives consisted of a gruel made of minced apple thickened with Gerber's high protein baby food, raisins and a drop or two of a vitamin formula.

Captive birds were allowed to feed on an experimental lawn which had been seeded with extra worms. In 47 tests, using four birds, the mean number of worms captured in 25 minutes was 5.13.

The noise made by the burrowing worms was analyzed with electronic equipment. Then the robins were put to work locating food against background noise that completely blanked out the sounds from the earth. This experiment ruled out hearing as the technique used by the birds.

Worms were then treated with noxious chemicals to mask any odor they might have. This did not deter the robins, so the sense of smell was eliminated.

Fake worm holes were drilled in the ground, but the birds ignored them. However, when parts of worms were placed slightly below the surface in the man-made holes, the robins found 98 percent of the food.

It was concluded that the robins looked for visible signs of worms in their burrows, when the latter are forced to the surface by moisture in the ground or at dawn and dusk when the worms forage close to the surface.

Now when you watch the robins you'll know they're using their keen eyes to locate a luscious meal.

'SIMPLEST' — This is a copy of the medicare application, called by President Johnson "the simplest form in the history of the Government," which is now being mailed to all social security beneficiaries 65 or older. To get medicare's voluntary medical insurance protection, the beneficiary just checks "YES," signs his name, and returns the card in the postage-free envelope which comes with it.

Medicare Application Forms In Mails To Senior Citizens

"Every person in the Union County area who is 65 or older and is getting social security or railroad retirement benefits will receive through the mail full information about the new 'medicare' program; and a card to use in applying for this protection," Ralph W. Jones, social security district manager in Elizabeth said this week.

The medicare application form, which was recently described by President Johnson as "the simplest form in the history of the government," is now being mailed out to two and one-half million beneficiaries across the country each week, he said.

With it is a leaflet containing information on the two-part program—hospital insurance to pay hospital and related expenses, and a voluntary medical insurance plan to help pay doctors' bills.

"Because this huge mailing will be spread out over several weeks," Jones explained, "some people may get their information tomorrow, while others may not get theirs for more than a month. However, we hope to reach all of the Elizabeth office beneficiaries by December." The program goes into effect in July of 1966.

All social security and railroad retirement beneficiaries who are 65 or older qualify automatically for basic hospital insurance benefits; however, a beneficiary will get the added protection of medical insurance available at a cost of $3 per month — only if he applies for it. To do this, he should just check "yes" on the enrollment card, sign his name, and return the card in the postage-free envelope which came with it. Then, when the program starts in July, the $3 premium will be deducted each month from his benefit check.

Jones emphasized that most people 65 or older who are not getting social security or railroad retirement benefits, are also eligible for health insurance benefits. They should write, telephone, or visit a social security office to register for hospital insurance benefits, and, if they wish, for medical insurance also.

Anyone 65 or over who wants medical insurance protection should enroll no later than March 31, 1966, in order to be covered as soon as the program starts in July, Jones added.

"Additional information on the health insurance programs and other changes in the social security law is available from the social security office at 268 N. Broad st. He also announced that the office would be open every Monday evening in October from 5 to 8 p.m. for the convenience of persons who cannot visit it during the regular daytime hours.

Recruiter Tells Facts On Officer Training
The Army recruiting station in Elizabeth this week announced that men under the age of 28 who are college graduates are eligible for enlistment in the Army's Officer Candidate School.

The announcement said that recruits must meet the prerequisites of enlisting. The OCS program is for two years.

Officer candidates schools are located at Fort Benning, Ga.; Fort Sill, Okla.; Fort Knox, Ky.; Fort Belvoir, Vt., and Fort Gordon, Ga.

Gavan Promises New Legislation On Compensation

"Archaic laws governing workmen's compensation should be revised with the view to putting them in line with increased living costs," Henry F. Gavan of Linden, Democratic candidate for the State Assembly, said this week.

Gavan said statutes governing compensation regulations "badly need revision." He pointed out that in many instances disabled workers, their families and other dependents must live on awards which are narrowly restricted and do not conform with their needs.

The Democratic assembly candidate said he will introduce legislation embodying needed revisions if elected.

Gavan also said there is need for a state law to ban the use of strikebreakers.

"Several municipalities already have taken this step," he pointed out, "but a statute is needed to make certain that this anti-labor practice is outlawed in New Jersey."

Gavan also stressed the need for an investigation by the legislature to determine the need for revision of child labor laws with the intent to make inspections more frequent and more comprehensive.

Bedside Telephones Available To Patients

Patients in private and semi-private rooms at the Elizabeth General Hospital may now choose to have telephone service at their bedside, it was announced this week.

The New Jersey Bell Telephone Company has completed the installation of special equipment to make this service possible. Additional trunk lines have been installed to give improved service on incoming calls and provide adequate facilities for the additional load on outgoing calls, the hospital said.

On February 15, the hospital changed its number to 289-8600 in anticipation of the change-over and the greater number of calls to be handled.

Insure your nest egg before it hatches with a guaranteed savings plan at City Federal

It's this simple: set your money goal for the next 5, 10, or 15 years. Or for any period of time you wish. For example, you may want to save $3,000 over a 5-year period. Or $9,000 over a 10-year period. The amount and time are up to you. Tell us the total you're aiming for. We'll tell you just how much to save per month to reach it. And remember, to reach $3,000, you need only deposit $2,700 regularly over the 5 years. Your dividends take care of the rest.

Most important, if you die before the goal is reached, your beneficiary receives the total amount, even though you haven't saved it. Insurance is the reason: incredibly low-cost insurance, issued by the Pension Life Insurance Company of America. A 30-year-old wishing to save $3,000 would pay just $10.80 per year for the insurance. A 40-year-old would pay only $17.55 per year. The premiums are deducted directly from the savings account. And you can save by mail: we pay postage both ways. You can also close out your account at any time and still collect full dividends to that date.

WEEDER'S DIGEST

By Your Rutgers Garden Reporter

If you're putting money and work into a new lawn this fall, you naturally hope to succeed. One way to insure the success of a lawn seeded this late is to use mulch.

Dr. Henry W. Indyk, extension turf management specialist at Rutgers, says a mulch will hasten seed germination and establishment. It will protect the new grasses over the winter.

It also helps to control the washing away of seed and soil, particularly on a terrace. Also, it shades the soil surface and so reduces weed growth.

You won't have to water so much because the mulch helps to keep the seedbed moist.

Not only will seeds germinate more quickly, but chances are good that the stand will be more uniform.

So now are you convinced that your new seedbed needs mulch?

Dr. Indyk leans toward salt hay as a mulching material. Fine-textured and generally quite free of weed seed, it does its job well. Grass hay and straw free of weed seeds also can be used.

Spread your mulch thin enough so that you can see the soil through it, the lawn specialist cautions. A hundred-pound bale should be enough for 2,000 to 2,500 square feet.

A too thick mulch will smother the young seedlings and you'll have to remove it. A thin mulch can stay.

Watering the hay or straw at once mats it down and keeps it from blowing away.

Burlap, cheesecloth and such also help a new lawn get started. But don't use neat moss, manure, sawdust or other heavy organic materials.

Know What The Favorite School Lunch Is?--Pizza!

Pizza is the favorite lunch of New Jersey's elementary and secondary school students. Hoagies, spaghetti, hamburgers and hot dogs are also popular foods in the 961 State schools participating in the National School Lunch program, Mrs. Miriam Hughes, supervisor of the program for the State Department of Education, announced this week.

"We're glad to serve foods the students like most as long as each meal is balanced," Mrs. Hughes said. "For instance, the pizza lunch includes tossed salad, milk and cherry coliche," she added.

The Big Meal For Some
"For some students, the school lunch is the main meal; for many, it is the only balanced meal of the day," Mrs. Hughes noted.

To assure all students the opportunity to eat a good lunch, the National School Lunch Program helps reduce the cost of lunches. The average cost of lunch in the State's elementary schools is 30 cents. Secondary schools charge about 35 cents. About a million of the 38 million lunches served during the 1964-65 school year were provided free to needy students who couldn't buy a balanced lunch from home, Mrs. Hughes said.

Last year State and local district contributions to the lunch program totaled a little over two million dollars. The federal government donated funds valued at six million dollars to the program. About 20,000 cases of turkeys, valued at $353,000, were distributed to New Jersey schools last year, she said.

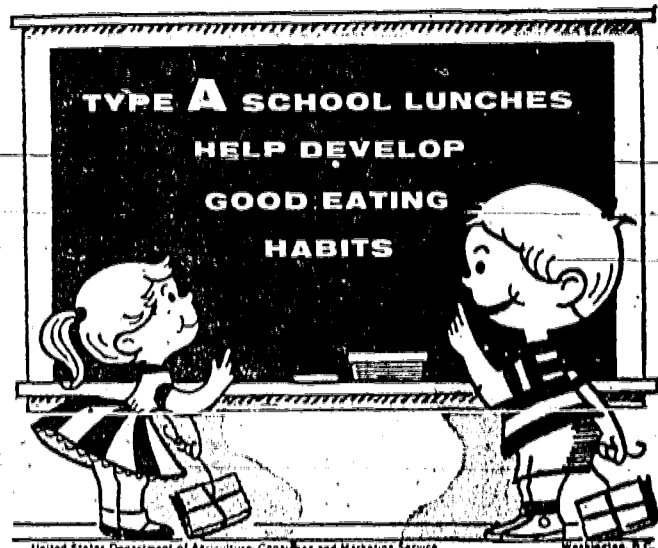

Turkey lunches are more popular with students than other offerings including barbecued beef, oven-fried chicken and meat-loaf.

Vegetables Downgraded
As parents might guess, vegetables meet with less popularity than other foods. Corn and peas are the least disliked in the vegetable category.

French-fried potatoes, peaches and fruit cup are other food favorites.

As part of National School Lunch Week Oct. 10-16, Mrs. Hughes emphasized the efforts being made in schools to make lunches part of the educational and health program. "Students can learn about balanced diets, and proper eating habits and manners at lunch," she commented.

The "Type A Lunch," a product of the National School Lunch Act of 1946, is served daily. It provides students one-third to one-half of their daily food needs. School lunch managers adjust amounts of food according to the age groups of students but the basic lunch includes: two ounces of lean meat, fish, poultry or other protein-rich food; 1/4 cup of two or more vegetables and/or fruit; two teaspoons of butter or fortified margarine; a portion of enriched or whole grain bread; and a half-pint of fluid whole milk.

Red Cross Slates Bloodmobile; 250 Donors Needed

The Westfield-Mountainside Chapter of the American Red Cross announced this week that the Bloodmobile will visit this area on Nov. 9. The Bloodmobile will be stationed at the Presbyterian Church, 140 Mountain ave., Westfield, from 1 to 6:30 p.m. on that day.

Mrs. Harvey C. Gibney, chairman of the blood program, said 225 donors are needed to give blood to the badly depleted blood bank. The failure to reach quota in the spring Bloodmobile makes it "imperative" for Westfield and Mountainside residents to respond on Nov. 9, Mrs. Gibney said.

Any person between the age of 18 and 29 may contribute to the Bloodmobile. Individual donors may call the Red Cross office, 232-7090, for appointments.

Groups participating in the blood bank are: The Presbyterian Church; First Methodist Church Men; Jewish Community Council; Family Life Apostolate of Holy Trinity Church; First Baptist Church; Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. (Westfield office); and the Westfield-Mountainside Community Group.

Any civic or church organization may establish a group by getting 20 donors together.

LOURDES' DANCE SLATED: PRIZES TO BE AWARDED

A buffet dinner, included in the price of the ticket, will be served.

Tickets or further information may be obtained by calling the ticket chairman, Leo Moran, Stony Brook dr., 232-1432.

Cancer Drive Passes Goal; Final Tally $564 Over '64

The annual Mountainside Cancer Crusade, conducted by volunteers of the American Cancer Society, exceeded its 1965 goal by $440,059 according to an announcement made this week by Mrs. J. Brooke Gardiner of 1364 Stony Brook lane, chairman of the drive.

In her statement on the success of the local campaigning, Mrs. Gardiner noted that the community not only exceeded its goal of $3,000 but also raised the largest sum of money ever realized in Mountainside for the American Cancer Society. She said, "A final tally of the contributions from industrial and business sources combined with the donations received during the residential drive amounted to $3,440.59, an increase of $564.34 over the funds raised in 1964."

Mrs. Gardiner emphasized that the successful campaign was the result of the combined effort of more than 100 volunteers and the support given them by the local businessmen and residents. She attributed the increased public response to the Cancer Crusade as indicative of the growing concern throughout the nation for increased action to control and eliminate this disease.

"The public is beginning to realize the role the American Cancer Society has played in the development of the 'pap' smear test for uterine cancer, its pioneer work in establishing the relationship between cigarette smoking and lung cancer and the encouragement of large government programs for cancer research," said Mrs. Gardiner. She continued to say that there are many other unpublicized bene-

GOP Candidates

The Democrats' use of "municipal complex" to describe needed facilities, in questioning the Democrats on the origin of this term, he (Wilhelms) asked Stypa to define "municipal complex." Sty-pa answered - "a group of buildings." When asked by the mayor if any of the plans and studies contained in borough files indicated a group of buildings Stypa had to admit that they did not.

"In the knowledge of all these facts," Mayor Wilhelms charged "they (the Democratic candidates) make reckless and false statements to gain your vote."

The release also stated that Wilhelms at a later meeting with campaign workers indicated his "displeasure with Democratic tactics."

"The choice for the Mountainside voters is clear," Wilhelms is reported to have said, "They can choose responsible Republican leadership or accept the whatever it is our opponents can't sell or give away, but are desperately trying to foist on Mountainside."

"Where Extra Convenient Service Is A Fact Not A Promise"

Press Conference With FRED E. FEDERAL

A MONTHLY FEATURE

Q: I've just moved into Westfield and I still have some money left in out-of-town banks. How do I transfer it here?

A: No problem, we offer FREE TRANSFER service for all savers. Free, prompt, and efficient arrangements are handled by First Federal. When you get a chance, drop off your pass-books at either office, we'll take it from there.

Q: As you know Fred, I'm in business here in town. Now, is there any way I might be able to have a business savings account?

A: Indeed there is Tom. Many of our local Westfield businessmen have CORPORATION accounts with us. All these accounts earn the same high rate as paid on regular savings.

Q: Excuse me Fred, I have another question. What's your rate here?

A: First Federal's dividend rate is 4% a year paid quarterly.

Q: I have a question. What's this bit about insurance on your savings accounts at First Federal?

A: Very simply it means this... In 1934 on June 27th, Congress passed an Act that automatically insures each First Federal savings account against loss up to $10,000 by an agency of the U. S. Government. No better protection than this for your money.

Q: Just one final question Fred. What are a couple of extra convenient services that you have for customers?

A: Here I'd like to mention our Drive-up Window at both offices, please check below for exact hours. Also we offer lots of Free Parking and for further savings convenience, First Federal has a FREE Save-By-Mail plan.

PONTIAC'S GTO — The popular GTO is a new Pontiac series in 1966 and is available in the convertible model shown above as well as in a sports coupe and hardtop coupe. GTO is available at Maxon Pontiac, 1477 N. Broad st., Hillside.

Pontiac '66 Models Offer Advancements

Pontiac Motor Division's 1966 models, from the Tempest to the Grand Prix offer extensive advancements in automotive styling, engineering, safety and model availability, a spokesman for Maxon Pontiac, 1477 North Broad st., Hillside, said this week.

The entire Tempest line has been redesigned, expanded by the addition of five new models including a new GTO series, and for the first time in an American passenger car, an overhead camshaft six-cylinder engine is offered as standard equipment on all Tempest models except the GTO.

A new series, the 2 Plus 2 with two models, and a new Star Chief Executive sports coupe has been added to the Pontiac line-up and all models, including the Grand Prix, incorporate both refinements in profile and complete changes in the front and rear, the spokesman said.

"Our new models are a true reflection of Pontiac's policy of continuous and evolutionary progress in automotive design and with our new overhead cam engine we feel we are presenting a major engineering break through as well."

The Catalina, 2 Plus 2 and Grand Prix have an overall length of 214.8 inches, 0.2 inches longer than last year, and a wheel base of 121 inches. The Star Chief Executive and Bonneville measure 221.8 inches overall, a 0.1-inch increase, and their wheelbases are 124 inches. All Tempest models are one-half inch longer overall, measuring 208.4 inches, and have a 115-inch wheelbase.

Model Line-Up

Pontiac has increased the number of models from 26 last year to 33 in 1966. The Tempest series includes a sports coupe, four-door sedan and station wagon.

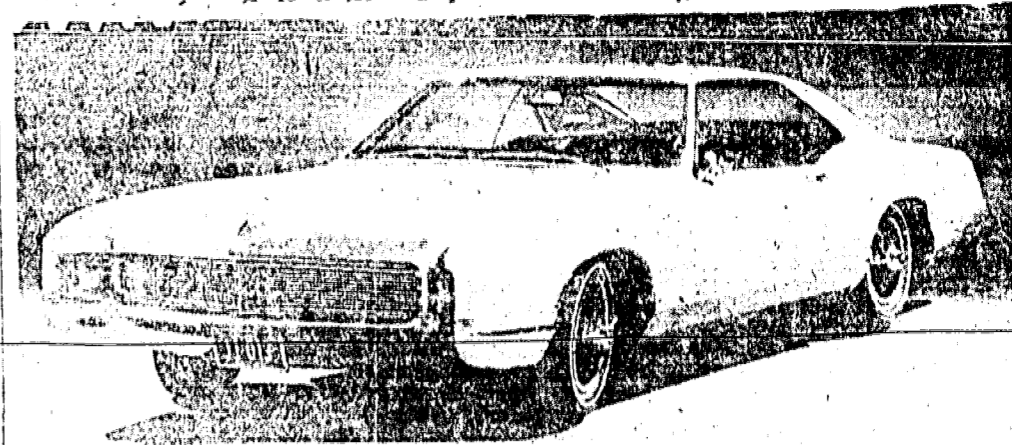

A LeMans four-door hardtop is also new for 1966 and it joins a sports coupe, hardtop coupe and convertible in that series.

The new GTO series includes a sports coupe, hardtop coupe and convertible.

The Catalina series has a two and four-door sedan, a hardtop coupe, four-door hardtop, convertible and both a two-seat and three-seat station wagon.

The new 2 Plus 2 series offers a hardtop coupe and a convertible.

A four-door sedan, four-door hardtop and a new model, a two-door hardtop coupe, are available in the Star Chief Executive series.

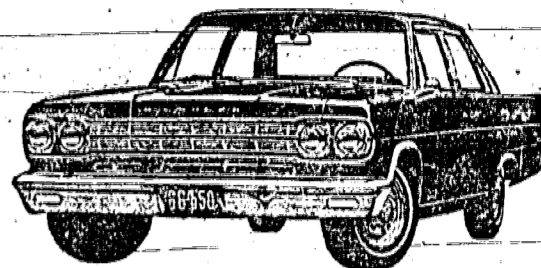

BUICK'S 1966 RIVIERA introduces an entirely new ventilation system, eliminating the familiar side window vents. Another feature is a new headlight design. Parking lamps and turn signals are located in the fenders. Power plant for this car is Buick's 425 cubic inch V-8 with a new quadrajet carburetor. It is featured by Jerry Clasulli, company president, during this week-end's new model showing at Gaylin Buick, 2140 Morris ave., Union.

A Bonneville hardtop coupe, four-door hardtop, convertible and station wagon are offered in that series and the Grand Prix hardtop coupe tops Pontiac's new car list.

New Electric System

Improvements in the 1966 Dodge Polara engine electrical system include better ignition coil construction, new distortion-proof, right-angle spark plug terminals and new plastic ignition cable positioners.

RAMBLER FOR '66 — Richard V. Crosta, president of Richards Rambler, 595 Chestnut st., Union recently announced some of the new features on the '66 Ramblers including two braking systems instead of one and a ceramic armored exhaust system.

Pontiac Designs New 6 For Tempest, LeMans

According to Charles Nezgood, general manager of Mallon Irvington, 1128 Springfield ave., a new six-cylinder engine, added safety factors and increased reliability are among the many features engineered into Pontiac Motor Division's 1966 models.

He pointed out Pontiac's engineering advancements and announced a new overhead cam engine as standard equipment on all Tempest, Tempest Custom and LeMans models. "Unique in concept and design, the Pontiac overhead cam engine is smoother, has larger output capabilities, increased fuel economy and provides greatly improved ease of servicing," he said.

Most significant in design of this engine, and the first time it has ever been used in domestic automobile industry, is the belt driven overhead cam using a rocker arm and an hydraulic lash adjuster.

Also an industry first for Pontiac is that the new L-6 engine utilizes a neoprene timing belt reinforced with fibre-glass cords. Bore and stroke on the 230 cubic-inch engine are 3.875 inches and 3.250 inches respectively. The standard single barrel carburetor provides 165 horsepower at 4700 rpm. The compression ratio is 9.0:1 and it is available with either manual or automatic transmission.

IMPRESSIVE DESIGN — This 1966 Bonneville hardtop coupe again represents the styling and engineering offered by Pontiac. Other Bonneville models available are the convertible, four-door hardtop and station wagon. The elegant Brougham is also available as a Bonneville option. All models offer the Pontiac V-8 engine as standard equipment. All 1966 Pontiacs are now on display at Mallon Irvington, 1128 Springfield ave., Irvington.

The new timing belt is installed outside the crankcase and connects the cam, crankshaft and accessory drive sprockets. Tensioning of the belt is achieved through a sliding die cast aluminum accessory drive housing. It contains the fuel pump, oil pump and distributor. Also attached is the oil filter assembly. The entire timing belt drive mechanism is housed within an aluminum die cast cover.

Pontiac also announces it is making available an added performance option, the Sprint option. The Sprint includes a four barrel carburetor with a compression ratio of 10.5:1. The engine is rated at 207 horsepower. It will be available with a three-speed manual transmission fully synchronized in all forward speeds as standard equipment; with a four-speed, or automatic transmission optional. The new four barrel carburetor is called the "Quadrajel." It features small primary venturi used in conjunction with large secondaries which utilize air valves rather than venturi to control secondary fuel flow. This combination provides excellent low speed operation, at both part throttle and full throttle. Pontiac's highly-rated V-8 engines both the Tempest 326 cubic-inch option and the 389 and 421 cubic-inch engines available on Pontiac models, have been refined with the emphasis on smoother operation and greater economy.

Variations of the optional Tempest V-8 include a regular fuel two-barrel carburetor engine which delivers 250 horsepower up to a high output engine with four-barrel carburetor and rated at 285 horsepower. The standard GTO engine is 389 cubic-inch, four-barrel carburetor and 335 horsepower. The GTO option is rated at 360 horsepower and has three two-barrel carburetors.

Three basic engines and a complete list of options, with a horsepower range from 256 to 376, are available in the Pontiac line-up.

The standard Catalina and Star Chief power team is a 389 cubic-inch engine with two-barrel carburetor and three-speed manual transmission. All Bonneville and Grand Prix models are equipped with four-barrel carburetor and manual transmission. The standard 2 Plus 2 engine is 421-inch-displacement, four-barrel carburetor and a compression ratio of 10.5:1.

At a recent meeting at Trinity Episcopal Church, Elizabeth, more than 50 members, prospective members and guests of the Elizabeth branch of the American Association of University Women were present to hear about the experiences of three of their associates who attended the International Federation of University Women conference in Brisbane, Australia.

They discussed the Flying Doctor Station, which provides medical care for people living in the Australian Outback and the I.F.U.W. concerning the problem of the world population explosion.

What was the meaning of Jesus' suffering and sacrifice? How does it apply to us today? These are the questions to be taken up at Christian Science church services this Sunday.

A chapter in the Christian Science textbook on "Atonement and Eucharist" will supply several passages for the Lesson Sermon readings, including this one: "Every pang of repentance and suffering, every effort for reform, every good thought and deed, will help us to understand Jesus' atonement for sin and aid its efficacy but if the sinner continues to pray and repent, sin and be sorry, he has little part in the atonement."

The passage from Philippians (2:12) will be among the many Bible readings: "Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling."

The Bab himself was persecuted and imprisoned and finally shot to death in the public square of Tabriz. His remains are now interred in a shrine on Mt. Carmel in Haifa, Israel.

"The search led an outstanding student of these prophecies to the city of Shiraz, and there one evening he met the Bab, who took him to his home.

"The numbers of followers multiplied rapidly and in due course aroused animosity of the clergy to such an extent that more than 20,000 Babis followed him to Persia, Oct. 20, 1849.

Hyde are also members of the historical society. The panel discussion was one of the highlights of the three-day convention which closed Sunday.

Day-To-Day Operating Costs Above Average

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The 1965 edition of "Financial Statistics of New Jersey Local Government", just published by the New Jersey Taxpayers Association, provides a wealth of tax and expenditure data on local governments in this area. The article below combines totals on Union County's 21 municipalities and also for its 21 school districts to present an overall fiscal picture of these important governmental levels in this County.)

Day-to-day "operating costs" of all municipalities in Union County last year totaled $39,615,820. This represented a per capita expenditure of $72.80 for the 544,150 residents of the County, and compared with a statewide per capita average of $70.64 for municipal operating costs, which comprise the bulk of municipal spending.

Other items making up total 1964 spending by all municipalities within the County included capital outlays for various improvements in the amount of $7,130,924 and debt service payments aggregating $2,764,178. These added to grand total $49,519,922 spent by municipalities in the County last year.

School Districts

Operating costs of all school districts within the County during the 1963-64 school year totaled $51,467,170. On the basis of the total average enrollment of 100,325.4 pupils in the County, this averaged $513 per pupil. Statewide, the operating costs of 580 school districts totaled almost $600 million in the 1963-64 school year. This averaged $480.34 for each of the 1,247,149 pupils in the statewide average enrollment.

The trend in school costs is shown in operating budgets adopted by this County's school districts totaling $55,516,854 for the 1964-65 school year and $59,749,883 for the current (1965-66) school year.

In all, the County's school districts expended $67,808,953 during the 1963-64 school year, including $909,043 in "other operating costs"; $8,545,252 for capital improvements; and $6,885,598 for debt service.

The expenditure totals are from among a wide variety of data reported in "Financial Statistics of New Jersey Local Government," published by the New Jersey Taxpayers Association.

Stamler Hits No-Bid System; 'Alarming Proportions' Seen

Senator Nelson F. Stamler of Union, charged this week that "buying without bidding at the state level is reaching alarming proportions."

Almost $5 million was spent without competitive public bidding last July, he said. "Legally," he said the State Purchasing Department can buy without taking bids, but this does not mean the practice should be permitted to proliferate. We should try to hold such spending to a minimum.

Bids can be waived on major expenditures under the following conditions, Stamler said: if there is an emergency; if there is only a single supplier available; if technical or professional services are needed; and if Federal, State or local agencies are involved.

Nor are bids necessary on items under $2,500.

In July bids were waived on $4.8 million worth of gas, water and electricity and the State was forced to deal with the single utility company involved.

There should be some guarantee for the taxpayer that the State is getting the most reasonable price possible," he added.

Stamler said he would suggest to the State Purchasing Department that when bids are waived, it obtain from suppliers a "good faith" pledge.

"In this contract with the State, the supplier should guarantee that he is dealing in good faith, and that his price is not unreasonable. He should further agree that if investigation reveals an overcharge, he will refund the proper amount to the State," Stamler said, explaining the "good faith" pledge.

"From the looks of things, 1965-66 will be a banner spending year," Stamler said, "and the very least we can do is guarantee that we pay no more than the fair market price for goods and services."

Two Hikes Scheduled By Union County Unit

The program committee of the Union County Hiking Club has scheduled two hikes for the members and guests of the club for Saturday and Sunday.

On Saturday, Robert Gasser of Annandale, will lead an eight-mile strenuous hike in the area of Mount Taurus and Breakneck Bridge outside Cold Spring, New York.

On Sunday, Carl Richards of Springfield and Leonard Gols of East Orange will lead a seven-mile hike in the area of Bearfoot Mountain, Ridge Trail, and Surprise Lake in Passaic County beginning at the New York-New Jersey State line. The hikers will meet at the Administration Building of the Park Commission, at 8 a.m.

Poultry Experts Invited To Attend National Contest

Jonathan Dayton Regional High School's poultry-judging New Jersey State Future Farmers of America team of Phillip O'Conor, Walter Banfield, Willis Rutz, and Peter Danilo, advisor, has been invited to attend the annual national poultry-judging contest at the PFA Convention in Kansas City, Mo., this week.

The Pioneer Chapter of the PFA of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Springfield, won the New Jersey championship at Rutgers University last April with Upper Freehold and Freehold Regional High Schools runners-up in the school competition. They will represent the state of New Jersey for the national championship in poultry which consists of poultry breeding stock, egg producing classes, market birds, and egg classification.

The week long convention features tours to points of interest and participation in meetings concerned with Future Farmers of America program. Dayton Regional has one of the longest and most active agriculture programs in New Jersey.

Stanley Grossman is Coordinator of the industrial and vocational education department in the Union County Regional High School District No. one.

Chamber Member Is Subject Of Article

John A. Bullock, member of the Springfield Chamber of Commerce and owner of the local Sip and Sup Restaurant and a similar establishment on Rt. 10 in Morris Plains, has recently been written up in the "Drive-In Management" magazine. This magazine is published in Duluth, Minn., and its circulation is spread over the United States, Canada and many foreign countries. It is published primarily for the drive-in restaurant business.

There are over 40,000 drive-in restaurants serving hot food in the United States. Bullock is considered an expert in the field, the article said, and in 1964 and 1965 was a guest speaker at the National Restaurant Association conventions in Chicago. Last September, he also addressed the Ohio State Restaurant Association Convention in Columbus, on the operation of drive-in restaurants.

The title of the magazine article is "A Happy Marriage" and its theme is that teenage and adult customers are happily wed because of controls he has established which encourage teens to accept adult responsibilities. To quote from the article:

"Operator J. A. Bullock does his best to preserve the tranquility up in the quiet hills around Morris Plains, N. J. And in turning down the volume on teenagers at his Sip and Sup Drive-In, he has turned up the volume of his business."

"Mr. Bullock — who also has another drive-in on the main street of nearby Springfield — declares. Teenagers are just as much a part of our bread and butter as the businessmen who come in here at lunchtime."

An after-dark security plan in effect at both drive-ins has helped to quell the noise and swell the crowd, and the dollars-and-sense philosophy of the ebullient Mr. Bullock has done the rest.

Regional District Releases Figures On All-Time High

Total enrollment figures for the Union County Regional High Schools and for the elementary schools within the district climbed to a new high with the release of Sept. 30 figures. It was announced this week by the office of the superintendent. These figures include all of the public and parochial schools in the district except Mother Seton, which draws students from a number of communities not all of which are within the regional public school district.

The total figure of elementary and high school pupils stood at 18,155, a figure which is likely to go higher the end of the year, a spokesman said. Of these, 4,438 were in the regional high schools, up from 4,380 the preceding year. The public elementary schools showed 10,530, up 107 from 1964-65. The parochial elementary schools gained from 2,988 to 3,187.

RED CROSS TRAINING

Welfare Aide Course Offered

Eastern Union County Chapter, American Red Cross, is offering a social welfare aide training course for persons who wish to serve as volunteers in the Red Cross "service to military families" program. It was announced this week.

"Increases in United States military manpower in Viet Nam have already caused increases in the need for Red Cross services to the armed forces—and their families. Additional volunteers with appropriate background and training are needed to respond to emergency calls for compassionate leave and financial assistance and to verify reports of illness and family conditions in connection with such requests," a spokesman said.

The course is open not only to those residing in the chapter area, comprising Roselle, Roselle Park, Linden, Hillside, Union, Winfield and Elizabeth. Anyone interested, including members of other North Jersey chapters and social welfare groups, may enroll.

Starting next Tuesday, classes will be held from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays at Eastern Union County Red Cross headquarters, 203 W. Jersey st., Elizabeth. Lessons are scheduled twice a week for six weeks.

Mrs. Blanche Zibulsky, director of the chapter's services for military families, will be the instructor. Those wishing to enroll may call the chapter. The telephone number is 353-2500.

GOP CANDIDATES SCHEDULE SHOW OF FALL MODES

State Assembly candidates Frank McDermott, Loree Collins, Nicholas St. John LaCorte, Philip Del Vecchio of Springfield and William Weaver will be hosts to the ladies of Union County at a fashion show Wednesday, it was announced this week by Mrs. Leslie I. Rosenbaum, 55 Shelley rd., Springfield.

The show, to be held at the Westwood Lounge, 438 North ave., Garwood, at 8 p.m., will feature fashions from Stan Sommer of Union, and models from towns throughout the county.

Refreshments will be served, and we're inviting husbands too," said Mrs. Rosenbaum. "There will be favors and prizes, and tickets may be purchased at the door."

To Propose Bill For Aid Offices

Republican Assemblyman Peter J. McDonough announced this week he will introduce legislation in the next assembly session to authorize counties to establish an office to provide municipal officials with information and assistance about state and federal grant-in-aid programs.

McDonough, a candidate for state senate from Union County, said he conferred at length with Rep. Florence P. Dwyer (R-6th dist.) about problems faced by local governing officials in determining which federal and state programs would be useful to their communities.

BUILDING REAL ESTATE HOMES FOR SALE HOME IMPROVEMENTS
BUILDER OF THE WEEK

10 Years Of Advances In Tract Housing
Stressed At Kaplan's Oak Tree Village

The dramatic changes and advances in the typical tract-built home between 1955 and 1965 can best be gleaned from comparing the offering of one specifically building organization which was handling tract sales ten years ago and is handling a similar product today, says Nathan Kaplan of Kaplan and Sons Construction, currently developing four tracts in Sayreville, Madis-son Township, East Brunswick, and Millington.

According to Kaplan, back in 1955 he commenced his New Jersey home building career with a 66-home community in Highland Park.

"It is most interesting to compare the features, the conveniences and the styling which were standard in that tract with those which are included with homes at a community such as our Oak Tree Village tract.

Kaplan prepared this comparison chart directly from the architect's specifications sheets for the 1955 Highland Park tract and for the current Oak Tree community.

"This list, Kaplan points out, is only a small part of the overall story. The changes in construction materials, most of a technical nature, are even more important, although most buyers would not understand the nature of the sweeping improvements which they have wrought.

"One of the most interesting sidelines which came about as a result of this 1955 vs. 1965 study made by the Kaplan organization was the tremendous dollar

BUILDING REAL ESTATE HOMES FOR SALE HOME IMPROVEMENTS
BUILDER OF THE WEEK
10 Years Of Advances In Tract Housing
Stressed At Kaplan's Oak Tree Village

NATHAN KAPLAN

vs. space value the 1965 buyer receives at a typical Kaplan-built tract.

"Despite soaring material and labor costs over the past decade, says the building executive, "the square foot cost for actual liveable space at Oak Tree Village is only 79 cents more than it was at our original Highland Park tract ten years ago. While the costs have risen on homes, the ratio of price increase to amount-of-liveable-space increase is significantly low. Modern, improved construction techniques have enabled us to build much more house in less time."

All of the above facts, points out Michael Kaplan, don't take into consideration the major benefits which the 1965 home purchaser gets above and beyond those of his 1955 counterpart.

"These are the fantastic strides which we and most other home builders have made in eliminating "development look" by judicious use of varied exterior finishing materials and through more attention to the orientation of home to site."

He went on to point out that at Oak Tree Village, even more attention was paid to the environment factor by the use of underground wiring. Factors such as these add intrinsically to the value of a home, even though they may not show up on a comparison chart, he added.

The builders are continuing their policy of giving purchasers the widest possible selection of details because, as Nathan Kaplan says: "These are the items which customize a home." Offered are a choice of colors, textures, woods, floor coverings, front elevations, countertops and patterns.

Reeh Shows '66 Studebakers,
Also Agency For Toyota Cars

Styling details of the 1966
Studebaker have been disclosed
by Adolf Reeh, owner of Adolf Reeh, Inc., 681 S. Grove St., Irvington, who is currently displaying the new models in his showroom.
According to Reeh, the 1966 Studebaker cars have all new front and rear end appearance and all new interiors. He particularly called attention to the new passenger compartment ventilating system which will enable motorists to drive with all side windows and vent-panels closed during inclement weather and still bring in fresh air through intake louvers.
This is the second model year year since Studebaker shifted its automobile manufacturing to a modern plant in Hamilton, Ontario.
Production on the 1966 model line began in August after a shutdown of six weeks for vacations and model retooling.

Ice Skating Rink Open Oct. 29

Ice skating in October? In Union County? Yes, with the opening of the Union County Park Commission's Warinanco Park Ice Skating Center on Friday, Oct. 29, ice skating will be available to the middle of March for approximately 135 days, except for rain, snow or extreme warm weather.

The Warinanco Park Ice Skating Center, with its own ice-making equipment, will enable ice skating enthusiasts to enjoy their favorite pastime without waiting for the necessary four inches of ice to form on the lakes, streams and ponds, throughout the Union County Park System, a Commission spokesman said this week.

The Warinanco Park Ice Skating Center opened to the public in 1961 and during the past four seasons played host to over 178,000 skaters. The

St. Elizabeth Alumnae

The Union County Chapter of the Alumnae Association of the College of Saint Elizabeth will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m., at the offices of the Arthur Vennert Company, North Ave., Westfield. Refreshments will be served by the hostesses, Mrs. Charles Doolley and Mrs. Robert Ruggiero, both of Mountainside. The next meeting will be a Christmas cocktail party on Dec. 5. Details will be announced later.

public facilities building offers skaters a modern warming room featuring an open-hearth fireplace, snack-bar, skate shop, locker rooms and sanitary facilities.

In addition to general skating sessions it is planned to have a complete instruction program available for children and adults. Instruction classes for girl scout merit badges and a hockey clinic will be offered to children.

"Skating parties are welcome at the Ice Center. Contact the recreation department of the park commission for further information and special group rates. Skaters may rent ice skates at the Skating Center," the spokesman said.

September Was Dry Temperature Also High

It was warmer and drier in September than normal, Harold Duflocq, meteorologist at the Union Junior College Meteorological Station, said in his monthly report to the U. S. Weather Bureau.

Duflocq said the average temperature in September was 68.4 degrees as compared with the estimated normal of 66.3 degrees. Precipitation in September totaled 3.20 inches, while the estimated normal rainfall is 4.30 inches.

Temperatures in September ranged from a maximum of 92 degrees on Sept. 10 to a minimum of 39 degrees on Sept. 28. The warmest day was Sept. 21 when the temperature averaged 80 degrees.

During the month, 52 degree days were recorded as compared with 61 in 1964.

Measurable amounts of rain were recorded on six days with 1.15 inches on Sept. 24, the greatest amount in a 24-hour period. September's precipitation of 3.20 inches compares with 1.35 inches in 1964 and 5.99 inches in 1960.

Total precipitation this year through Sept. 30 totals 22.78 inches, as compared with 29.14 inches during the same period in 1964.

Thunderstorms occurred on Sept. 18 and 24. There were 11 clear days, seven partly cloudy days, and 12 cloudy days. The prevailing wind direction was southwest.

Del Vecchio Asks Nuclear System For Desalinization

Philip Del Vecchio of Springfield, Republican candidate for State Assembly from Union County, called for the creation of a state nuclear authority to build a prototype nuclear powered desalinization plant in the Newark-Elizabeth area to alleviate that area's chronic water problem.

"We are still thinking of water supplying the same terms as the ancient Romans who built aqueducts and reservoirs to bring water into their cities," said Del Vecchio. "With a rapidly expanding urbanization of our whole state, reservoir sites are becoming harder to find, while our industrial and private demands for water are increasing."

"It seems futile to me, in our age of technology, not to use our new-found knowledge to determine new means of water supply. It is senseless to use valuable lands for reservoir sites, when one of the world's largest reservoirs, the Atlantic Ocean, lies only one to five miles from Metropolitan Essex and Union Counties."

Del Vecchio pointed out that New York state is developing a pilot nuclear plant now in Riverhead, L. I., including a reactor evaporator and turbine generator. American Machine and Foundry Co. is the design agent.

Hobby Exhibition Set By Trailside

The annual Adult Hobby Show, including an exhibit of antique autos, will be held at the Union County Park Commission's Trailside Nature and Science Center, in the Watchung Reservation, Mountainside, on Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m.

Many exhibits will be on display with the hobbyists demonstrating and explaining their projects. Some of these are: Wire sculpture, wool weaving, country scenes, mosaic clay tile work, copper-enameling, chair caning, peach pit carving work and a fly-tieing exhibit.

This annual display of hobby projects, according to James B. Hawley, Summit, chairman of the annual program, "will offer appeal to most everyone and in previous years has attracted thousands of visitors and hobbyists."

Admission to the exhibit and to the Trailside Nature and Science Center is free. On Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, at 4 p.m. each day, Dr. Harold N. Moldenke, director of Trailside, will conduct one-half hour nature talks for children. The topic selected for the four days is "Bees and Honeybees." The lectures will be illustrated with color slides.

Teachers Invited To Space Talks

Teachers from all schools throughout Union County have been invited to attend a free program of two lecture-demonstrations on space projects.

The program will be held in Elizabeth's Elmore School No. 12 from 4 to 6 p. m. on Oct. 19 and 20. It will be sponsored jointly by the Elizabeth Board of Education and the New Jersey Wing of the Civil Air Patrol. The programs will be presented by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Technical and biological aspects of space flight will be discussed by John R. Bannister, a representative of the Goddard Space Flight Center. Registrants were asked to contact the Thomas Jefferson High School, Elizabeth.

Civil Defense Slates Management Course

The Union County Civil Defense and Disaster Control organization will conduct a management course for county and municipal staff members on Dec. 4 and 5 and again on Dec. 11 and 12 at the Elizabeth Naval Reserve Training Center, Jack R. Carel, M.D., county coordinator, announced this week. The course will be conducted by the Rutgers University Extension Service.
