School board, teachers reach tentative pay agreement

Staff to get an average $900 raise

New scale of $6,400 to top level, $12,200

By PAT DONALDSON

The essentials of a tentative salary agreement between the Mountainside Board of Education and the borough Teachers' Association were outlined at the board's meeting Tuesday evening at the Beechwood School.

The guide for next year, which represents an average increase of some $900 per teacher, was tentatively accepted by William Petrillo, president of the Association, pending further discussions within his group, scheduled for yesterday.

The new wage guide calls for a starting salary of $6,400 for a teacher with a bachelor's degree and no experience, up from the present figure of $5,900. The maximum pay for a teacher with a bachelor's degree will increase by $1,000 to a total of $11,200. Salaries for each level of training will rise in 15 annual steps.

The range for those with bachelor's degrees will run from $6,400 to $11,200, an increase of $500 to $1,000 over the present $5,900 to $10,200.

With a master's degree, the range will be $6,900 to $11,700, an increase of $500 to $1,000 over the present $6,400 to $10,700. Teachers with six years of training will receive $7,400 to $12,200, an increase of $700 to $1,200 over the present $6,700 to $11,000.

ROBERT BRITTON, board president, told the audience of more than 50 teachers, parents and interested residents that "it will be consistent with the board's salary policy to first, attract and retain a capable staff, and, second, to be competitive with other Union County districts."

He emphasized "This policy has, as its primary goal, the best interests of the student. We want to maintain quality standards of a top educational program for Mountainside and that means, to a large part, retaining a superior staff and stimulating its pride and professional advancement."

Highlights of comparison figures used by the Mountainside board at the meeting showed this pattern for the number of other Union County districts.

Chairmen named for cookie sale of Girl Scout group

Mountainside chairmen have been appointed for the annual Washington Rock Girl Scout Council cookie sale scheduled for Feb. 2-17. Mrs. Alfred Hofsaes, chairman of the Mountainside Girl Scout Community Association, said this week.

Mrs. Stephen Eskoff of 1186 Blazo terr., has been named community cookie chairman. She will direct the sale, assisted by the cup-board chairmen Mrs. Henry Pfriender, Mrs. Thomas Keis, Mrs. Earl Goodling and Mrs. E.J. Mullin, and by 10 troop cookie chairmen.

Receipts of the annual door-to-door sale by Junior, Cadette and Senior Girl Scouts are used for the development and maintenance of Girl Scout camp sites and to supplement council income from United Funds for services to troops. Each troop retains a percentage of the profit to help finance troop projects.

Troop cookie chairmen are: Senior Troop 389, Mrs. John Miller; Cadette Troops 424, Mrs. E.J. Laidoff Jr., 466 Mrs. A.E. Mander Jr. and 661, Mrs. George Fischer; and Junior Troops 137, Mrs. J.V. Board president retires; 7 file for 4 school seats

Seven candidates had filed petitions by deadline time last Thursday, for the four vacant seats on the Mountainside seven-seat Board of Education.

Robert H. Britton, president, last week announced his plans to retire. He said in a statement to the board that he wanted to give someone else a chance and with business pressures increasing, he wanted more time to devote to his family. He said he would not seek a second term.

Walter Rupp of 359 Dogwood way, an incumbent, whose three-year term is expiring, filed for re-election to a three-year term. Donald Jeka and Mrs. Gloria Johnson, also incumbents, filed for three-year and two-year terms, respectively.

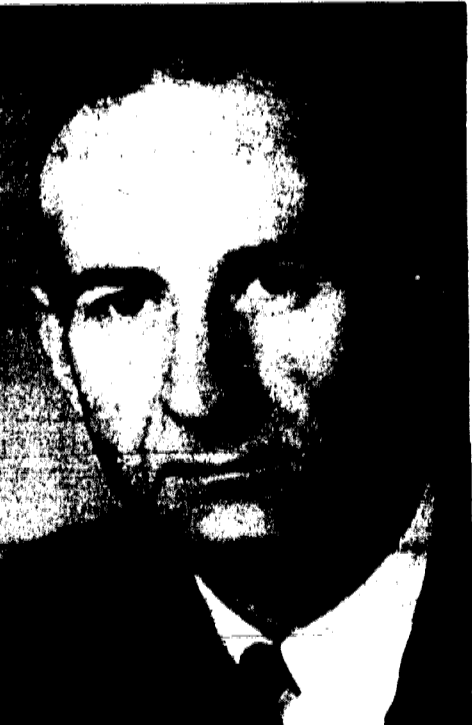

Jeka, of 298 Bridle path, was appointed a member last summer to fill the place of Richard Krebs, who moved to Illinois. Mrs. Johnson, of 1358 Birch Hill rd., was appointed last July to replace Mrs. Mary Rosenquest, whose husband had been transferred by his company.

Newcomers filing as candidates were: Allen W. Dehls of 1491 Deer path; Mrs. William Gutman of 334 Short dr.; Mrs. John Miller of 278 Pembroke rd. and Mrs. Alan Rehbock of 1412 Orchard ln. Mrs. Gutman is a candidate for the two-year term.

Members William J. Biunno and Grant Lennox will serve until 1969, and Abe Suckno's term will expire in 1970.

Britton, a graduate of Lafayette College, where he majored in economics, has spent his business life in the investment securities field. As a candidate for membership on the board in 1965, he said, he felt his experience in investment banking and financial counseling would tend to "lend a balance to the board" and would help him serve effectively in the areas of financial management and long-range planning.

He has been a resident of the borough for more than 17 years and his two children, Bruce and Pamela grew up here and attended public schools.

Regional schools assign Jan. 23 for budget debate

The Regional High School District Board of Education will hold a public hearing Tuesday, Jan. 23, at 8 p.m., at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Springfield, to discuss its proposed budget of $6,628,523 for the 1968-69 school year.

The budget will be presented for approval by the voters at the regional school election on Feb. 6. The district operates four high schools to serve students from Springfield, Mountainside, Berkeley Heights, Kenilworth, Clark and Garwood. The schools are Dayton, Gov. Livingston Regional in Berkeley Heights, David Brearley Regional in Kenilworth and A. L. Johnson Regional in Clark.

The largest single item in the new budget is $3,427,316 for teacher salaries, an increase from $3,030,408 for the present school year. This would pay for a new teacher salary scale being considered by the board, but not formally adopted.

The new pay scale would call for a starting annual salary of $6,400 for a teacher with a bachelor's degree and no previous experience. It would run to a top of $12,200 for teachers with six years of study. The present pay scale runs from $6,000 to $11,450. The new guide is approximately the same as the one under consideration by the Springfield Board of Education.

OTHER MAJOR ITEMS in the new budget, as well as their counterparts in this year's expenses, include:

Administration salaries, $159,626, up from $141,220; libraries and audio visual materials, $68,950, up from $61,258; teaching supplies, $132,000, up from $119,000; other instructional expenses, $79,460, up from $63,260; contracted transportation services and public carriers, $493,734 (including transportation for private school students), up from $410,760;

Also, operational salaries, $244,600, up from $223,525; utilities, $89,536, up from $82,886; maintenance salaries, $51,586, up from $30,475; contracted services, $79,382, up from $42,246; replacement of equipment, $54,292, up from $42,559; employee retire-

Mayor promises to lead 'working administration'

Mayor Frederick Wilhelms Jr., re-elected to office in November and sworn in at the organization meeting which was held last Tuesday evening, promised a "good and working administration" for the borough of Mountainside in 1968.

His speech, noting the accomplishments of 1967 and listing his three-point goals for this year, follows in its entirety:

"The year 1967 was a year of favorable accomplishment for Mountainside. These accomplishments were attributable to the hard work and dedication of the many citizens of the borough who served on our various boards and agencies and our borough employees.

"One of the most pleasant aspects of serving as your mayor has been the opportunity to work with such capable, talented and public-spirited men and women as we are privileged to have in Mountainside.

Borough's swim pool not meant for skating

The Mountainside Municipal Pool does not have skating facilities, nor is it adaptable to ice skating, William Ditzel, chairman of the recreation committee, stated last week. Ditzel made the statement in answer to the many inquiries he has received from residents about the possibility of using the pool for skating.

Moxon Pond, which is county park property, on Deer path, has been cleaned out and is free of logs and debris, is suitable for ice skating and residents have been urged to take advantage of the pond's facilities.

"Be assured that as long as we can continue to attract such a fine caliber of citizen to community service, Mountainside will continue as one of New Jersey's finest communities. "On the occasion of this organization meeting, I want to publicly express my gratitude and thanks to all our citizens who have served on borough boards and contributed to community improvement."

MMA announces dates in March for annual stage show

The Mountainside Music Association has announced that plans have been made to present its "now traditional" variety show on Friday and Saturday evenings, March 15 and 16, in the auditorium of the Gov. Livingston Regional High school, Berkeley Heights.

The show, a musical revue, will be written and produced by two veterans of past shows, Mrs. Frederick Wilhelms Jr. and Mrs. Aden Lewis, music coordinator for the Mountainside school.

Mrs. Stephen Bumball, president has invited anyone interested in working on, or participating in, the presentation, to contact her at 232-4590.

A spokesman for the group stated that in past years, funds raised through the association's activities have made possible donations of grants, scholarship and equipment to local schools. The group has also been responsible, on a non-profit basis, for bringing professional entertainment of a cultural nature to the community, according to the spokesman. She further stated that the association has chosen as its primary project to date, to equip and help maintain the music room in the new Mountainside Public Library.

Fund drive off to a good start, says chairman

The Mountainside Community Fund drive is off to a good start and many of the resident industries have already made generous contributions to the campaign, according to Walter Degenhardt of Woodacres dr., who is in charge of the industrial solicitations.

Degenhardt also said that contributing companies consider themselves full residents and good neighbors and as such, take their responsibilities seriously and feel it is important to support the eight service organizations included in the Community Fund.

One representative summed up the sentiment this way: "Although our company does not benefit directly from all the services included in this drive, we feel it is important to insure each one's continued activity in Mountainside through this one donation." Degenhardt stated that each home-owner and industry will be approached individually, and will be contacted by him, Ted Ruberti or Bud Roach.

"These men have volunteered their time for the Community Fund drive, and set aside their own work in order to help us reach our goal. To these men, as to all those who are working in this endeavor, the time and effort involved represent their personal efforts in keeping such vital organizations as the District Nursing Association, the Youth and Family Counseling Service, and Youth Employment Service in Mountainside," he added.

The over-all fund chairman, Gerard Dille-muth, said that "it is because of the work of such men as Degenhardt, Ruberti and Roche, and the understanding cooperation of industrial residents," that the "Eight for One" Community Fund campaign will succeed."

License suspended

The license of Richard C. Frost, 17, of 374 Old Tote rd., Mountainside, was suspended for 30 days, effective Dec. 5, 1967, under the state's 60/70 excessive speed program.

PROFILE--Philip Rizzo

A descendant of Italian immigrants who earned their living by diligence, hard work and a commitment to learning their craft in order to excel in their skill, Philip Rizzo of Mountainside knows no other way to achieve the goals he has set for himself in life.

He was recently named New Jersey special gifts chairman for the library development campaign of Franklin Pierce College in Rindge, N.H. If the hard work, patience and optimism which are inherent qualities in this man are put to use, he will achieve his goal and play an important part in helping to raise the $1,250,000 needed by the college to develop the library.

Born in East Orange, he was graduated from East Orange High School and then enrolled in Newark College of Engineering, hoping to make engineering his career. After two years, he decided this was not for him and he entered the field of designing and manufacturing of women's suits and coats. For a time he devoted all his energies, while maintaining his own factory in Newark to the field of designing. Always seeking new fields of challenge, five years ago he opened the Biltmore Realty Co., in Springfield.

As the sole owner and operator of the company, his specialty in the real estate

SUNDAY'S SERMON

ONE WORD
One word provides the answer to the ills of a seething world. It is a simple word, but it implies many things. Take this word and meet the challenges of difficulty with your neighbor. Take this word and give it to those who have known a history of hatred. Make this word -- and all that it implies -- the keystone of a man's relations with his neighbor, of a nation's relationship with contemporaries, and the answer to any dilemma emerges crystal clear. The word is charity. If there is charity in your heart, there is no room for selfishness. Charity will not permit hatred, nor will charity tolerate false motives. Charity demands honesty -- honesty with self, and with others. It is contingent upon recognition of the rights and privileges of others. Take charity with you, wherever you go, whatever you do. Do this and you may be certain that you walk always toward a better world.

TWO ARE NEW
Two new small appliances with expected promising futures are the beautifying-mist hair dryer and the steam-press valet. The hair dryer moistens the hair before drying. The valet is book-shaped and garments are pressed between teflon-coated plates as the valet is moved along the fabric.

"I AM PLEASED TO REPORT to you the following significant improvements in our community in 1967."
The first phase of our storm sewer installation, the section east of Summit road, was completed this summer. Under the direction of Councilman Brandt and Borough Engineer Koser, this project was completed with dispatch and economy. The cooperation and understanding of our residents who were inconvenienced during the construction period was commendable and most appreciated.

"2. During 1967, construction of our new library was started. Because of a combination of bad weather conditions in the spring and a labor strike in the summer, we failed to meet our anticipated opening date. Our library board plans the dedication and opening of our new library on Sunday, Feb. 11. This facility which will rank with the finest in New Jersey will meet a long felt need in our community, and will serve our young people and adults adequately for many years to come. Our library trustees, led by the president, Sid Mele, and inspired by the enthusiasm and dedication of the librarian, Emily Hoffarth, have done an excellent job.

"3. Our municipal swimming pool enjoyed its second successful season which also saw the construction of the bath house. Acclaimed by AAU and visiting swim club officials, our pool is recognized as one of the finest in New Jersey. In 1968, we hope to be able to expand the land area available for pool use. Without question, this facility, which imposes no tax cost, has added to the value of every home in the borough. In 1967, our municipal tennis courts were constructed and experienced a full and busy season. The Recreation Commission, under the leadership of the chairman, Bill Ditzel, has contributed much to our community.

"4. Codification and modernization of all borough ordinances made continued progress in 1967 under the direction of former Councilman Gil Pittenger. This task, which far exceeded the complexities that I envisioned when I recommended in 1966 that it be undertaken, will be completed in 1968. The Planning Board, with chairman Jack Dryer, and the Board of Adjustment, with Tom Ricciardi as chairman, have done a tremendous job on the ordinances affecting these important boards.

"5. All other boards and agencies of the borough conducted their responsibilities in an exemplary manner. It is difficult to dramatize the efforts and accomplishments of many of our boards which serve without notice in our community. However, all have contributed to the betterment and improvement of Mountain-side and earn our gratitude."

"6. In 1968 I anticipate that the following matters will receive the greatest attention and emphasis from your borough officials:

"IT HAS BECOME quite evident that Mountain-side has outgrown the pastoral atmosphere once enjoyed by the community. Increasing traffic volume has created safety hazards not only on Rt. 22, but also on our interior streets. "Recent studies by our Police Department, Borough Engineer Koser and the PTA indicate that a coordinated effort of all concerned will be required to make our community safer for pedestrians and motor traffic. "I intend to call a meeting shortly to coordinate the efforts of these groups.

Library to benefit from club donation
The Rotary Club of Mountain-side will present a check for $200 to the new borough library at the weekly luncheon meeting, which will be held at the Chi-Am Chateau on Rt. 22, Mountain-side next Monday at 12:15 p.m. James Capone, Rotary president, also announced that a book "To Grandfather's House We Go" which was written by Harry A. Devlin of 443 Hillside ave., will be presented to the children's department of the library, and that the Youth's Employment Service of the borough will be provided with letterheads, envelopes and cards by the club. Members and guests were urged to attend.

Robert Wagner will be chairman. Rizzo says he hopes to attract other big names to participate in the variety show following the dinner.
Interested parents have been asked to get four other couples, and parents of students at the college will be asked to contribute money and time, and also to bring guests. Businesses and industries will be contacted in Union County, as Rizzo feels they should have an interest in the drive because of the many young people from this area who attend the college.

Married to the former Phyllis Glameo of Livingston, Rizzo lived in Hillside and Union before moving to Mountain-side eight years ago. They reside at 1440 Forest ct., with their three children: Nicky, 19, who is a sophomore majoring in business administration at Franklin Pierce and who hopes to study business administration at Franklin Pierce and who hopes to study business law at Seton Hall upon graduation; Maria, 17, a senior at Gov. Livingston Regional High School, who hopes to be a teacher and Andrea, 10, a pupil at Beechwood School.

MRS. RIZZO is active in the Foothills and Women's clubs of Mountain-side and is a member of the Seton Hall Women's Auxiliary, an organization which also works in the field of fund-raising.

County districts above or below Mountain-side in the following degree levels:
For a teacher with a BA degree in 1966-67, starting salaries were seven above, five below; for 1967-68, seven above, seven below, and for 1968-69, five above, four below.

In explaining the situation, Britton stated that the board seeks to improve salaries each year, consistent with considerations of the total budget. The total 1968-69 budget "reflects the impact of the new addition at Deerpark school and increased expenses for transportation and other fixed charges," he added.

The board was explicit in emphasizing that it must always think in terms of the "total program" to give Mountain-side the best possible educational system consistent with one that the community will approve, and teachers' salaries represent a substantial portion of the budget.

IN OTHER BUSINESS, the board reported the county Superintendent's approval of the budget, upon which a hearing will be held on Tuesday, Jan. 23, in the all-purpose room at the Beechwood School.

In noting that the election of board members will be held on Tuesday, Feb. 13, in the gymnasium at the Deerpark School, the board added that the regular meeting the same night will also be held at the Deerpark School.

GARY'S CORNER

A REGULAR WEEKLY FEATURE

by GARY LESSING, Manager SOMERSET TIRE SERVICE

He was losing oxygen trying to pump his bike uphill. It was afraid the youngsters in the race would win. He was high in the Alps in a grueling match that stretched 2,640 miles. He wore the rainbow shirt of world champion, but like other old pros, he couldn't ride the mountains.

He was English, and like other riders from England and many other countries except Spain, he was plagued by mountains. So he took stimulants to help him get over the high roads.

His name was Tom Simpson, a lanky Yorkshireman who admitted to officials who searched his room that he took drugs. He said almost all riders took them. He said he couldn't be like a Spanish mountain goat. He was a bike racer since he was 16, rode the Olympics at age 19, turned pro at 21 and won the world championship in 1965. But he never won a Tour de France. The mountains were too much for him, and in July of 1967 he died trying to complete this race. He was 28.

It was a long climb up Mont Ventoux and he was ahead of Julio Jimenez of Spain. The temperature was 94 that July day and he was one day up from a terrible spill when, in great pain, he was unable even to squeeze the hand brake. The mountains and Jimenez were his nemesis.

He was a mile and a half from the summit when he stopped, leaned on his bike, then fell over. By the time he was brought to a hospital he was dead.

"Look," he had said, in one of his last interviews, "I'm the son of a British miner. My family never knew a vacation. Now, my wife, my children and I take a winter vacation every year. We have a car. Where else could we get where we are except by my bike riding?"

At SOMERSET TIRE SERVICE, we don't stock tires for bikes, but we do carry the finest tires for cars. Open daily 9-9, Saturdays to 4, our phone number is MU 8-5620 and our address is Rt. 22 at Springfield rd., Union.

Saint Barnabas Medical Center, Livingston, announced that approval for a School of Practical Nursing at the Medical Center has been received from the New Jersey State Board of Nursing. The School of Practical Nursing will admit both female and male students.

Mrs. Ruth Greenspan, associate director of Nursing Education, who has administrative responsibility for the School of Practical Nursing, said, "A hospital based school offers a much broader education in practical nursing because the student is receiving not only theory in nursing care but is actively involved in developing nursing skills in direct patient care."

The practical nursing course will be open to qualified high school graduates, ages 17 to 25, with the first class beginning this September. Interviews for applicants may be arranged immediately, she said. More information regarding applications can be obtained by writing to the Saint Barnabas Medical Center of Practical Nursing, Old Short Hills Road, Livingston, 07039 or by telephone 992-5500, ext. 220.

JOHN R. WESPER

campus on Morris avenue and Green lane and further construction is being planned. The current enrollment is about 3,200 full-time undergraduate students.

Wesper named to direct college building program

John R. Wesper has been transferred from the State Department of Higher Education in Trenton to Newark State College, Union, where he will take charge of the building expansion program, according to an announcement by President Eugene G. Wilkins.

His appointment by Chancellor of Higher Education Ralph A. Duncan to the newly-established position of co-ordinator of construction and utilization at Newark State will become effective on a full-time basis Monday. He has served the college on a part-time basis since Nov. 1, dividing his time between the college and the chancellor's office.

Wesper held the position of assistant co-ordinator of colleges construction for the State Department of Education from 1961 until his transfer to the chancellor's office upon the formation of the State Department of Higher Education.

At Newark State he is responsible for developing for the rapidly-expanding college and over-all building plan that will provide greater advantage for existing programs, make room for a steadily increasing enrollment and facilitate the growth of the college from a primarily teacher-training institute to a multi-purpose college, Dr. Wilkins reported.

In announcing the appointment Dr. Wilkins said, "Mr. Wesper's appointment will enable the college to develop a plan of program and plant projection for the next 10 years. His transfer from the college construction program at Trenton to Newark State brings to the college a wealth of background and experience. His work should be of invaluable aid, not only in long-term planning, but also in following through the day-to-day program of plant utilization."

BEFORE JOINING THE Office of Colleges Construction, Wesper served the State Department of Education from 1959 to 1961 as research assistant under Dr. David Winans, director of research, and in 1958 as auditor.

Prior to this he worked as a group leader for All-State Design and Development Company, Trenton, and as an engineer for I.T.E. Circuit Breaker Company, Philadelphia, Pa., where he designed a high voltage switch gear.

Wesper holds a BS degree in business administration from the Drexel Institute of Technology, Philadelphia, Pa., and is working toward an MA degree in education at Trenton State College. He has studied civil engineering at the Fort Belvoir School of Engineering, Fort Belvoir, Va., and with the International Correspondence School.

He lives in Hightstown with his wife, Jean, and their two children, Karen, 14, and Deborah, 12.

SWALLOWS THE BAIT --- Stanley Bell of Springfield and Union Realtor, poses with Tarpon he caught recently from a bridge in the Florida Keys. The angler used a 40-pound test line with live mullet for bait.

Stan Bell lands 85-lb. tarpon in fight from bridge

Stanley Bell of 24 Archbridge lane, Springfield, will be the first to say that one of the most difficult feats in tarpon fishing is to land it from a bridge.

Bell, who operates Ray Bell & Associates, Realtors, in Union, battled a tarpon from a bridge in the Florida Key for an hour and 15 minutes recently.

During his battle with the 85-pound tarpon, Bell said he became sort of a tourist attraction. A sightseeing bus stopped and the passengers watched the struggle. Bell said another dozen cars stopped along the Overseas Highway and watched.

Bell said he succeeded in keeping it clear of the bridge piling until it was beaten and then led it off the bridge and landed the tarpon on the adjoining shoreline a quarter-mile away.

The tarpon, nearly six feet long, is now at the taxidermist and will soon join several other trophy fish in his main office at 1921 Morris ave., Union.

FOR THE BIRDS

By FARRIS S. SWACKHAMER,
 professor, Union Junior College

Stretching from the Yugoslav border to the Black Sea, lie the Balkan Mountains. Here Boreas, god of the north wind, was thought to live in a cave high on Mount Haemus. When he shook his wings, hair and beard, snow fell to the ground. Today we know he doesn't live in the temperate climate of Thrace but, rather, near the North Pole. When he puffs his cheeks, blowing the snowflakes from his bears, he sends the master storm of winter our way.

Generally it comes in January. "If the Old Man of the North had but sent us his couriers and errand boys before, the old graybeard appeared himself at our doors on this occasion," writes John Burroughs. Sometimes with the snow, he sends flocks of his feathered subjects. These are the invasion species, the Boreal birds, that visit during occasional winters when Arctic food supplies are scarce.

In 1954, boreal chickadees were first tallied in Maryland although most years they don't venture far south of northern New England. If you spot unusually large numbers of black-capped chickadees at your feeder this winter, look for their boreal cousins about a month later. Sporting brown derbies to go with their brown coats and black bibs, they feed with their more familiar relatives.

Among the feathered climbers, the red-breasted nuthatch is like a dumpy little boy among his white-breasted elders. He appears on a more or less every-other-year schedule. In flocks, red-breasts sound like a band of "merry penny trumpeters," their call more nasal than that of their more familiar cousins.

If you spot a robin-sized rosy-red finch with two white wing bars throwing a white spray of snow over himself as another bird would throw water, you have a rare pine grosbeak in your yard. He nests in the northern coniferous forests of Scandinavia, Russia and Siberia as well as in the spruce forests of Canada. An accomplished ventriloquist, he frequently lures your attention to the wrong perch.

COMMON REDPOLLS USUALLY associate with goldfinches during their short winter visit. Only occasionally do they come to our feeders. Gray-brown streaked little fellows with bright red forehead caps and black chins, they breed up to the edge of the trackless Arctic tundra. Redpolls arrive with the snow and, through some prescience of the coming of spring, go north before we've shed our mufflers and ear-warmers.

White-winged crossbills are quite tame and prefer a touch of salt on their food. Crossbills' beaks are uniquely designed for wrenching scales from cones, after which the bird picks out the tasty seed with his tongue. He also uses crossed bills as an aid in climbing and is sometimes seen to hang by it like a parrot.

No other songbird shows as much white as the snow hunting nor nests any further north. While walking along ocean beaches, sand dunes or open fields in winter, you may take them unaware by an apparent flock of giant snowflakes wheeling in union through the air. Beaches are the snowbirds' favorite habitat even above the Arctic Circle for there is where they find most of their food and a helping of sand to aid digestion.

If you spot a stranger in your backyard this winter, it may be one of these friendly boreal visitors. A variety of seed, including sunflower, may prolong their typically short visit.

Union CD shelters: room for all but only half stocked

Even though there's enough fallout shelter space for every Union County resident, only about 50 percent of the facilities are stocked. William J. McBride, coordinator of Civil Defense and Disaster Control for the county, blamed the lack of stocking on space requirements for supplies.

In his annual report to the freeholders, McBride said 1,282 buildings have been approved as having fallout protection requirements above the minimum established by the federal government. He said the shelters can accommodate 832,000 persons.

"...when compared to the state-wide stocking program, which is under 30 percent, it becomes clear that we lead the state in this development," McBride said.

"The achievements of directors in Elizabethtown, Westfield, Linden, Summit, Union, Rahway, Plainfield, Cranford, Hillside and Roselle Park during the past year, have contributed greatly to meeting our goal of a stocked shelter space for every citizen of the county," he added.

McBride also said that a small structure survey was started recently to identify fallout protection in smaller buildings, other than private homes, that might accommodate 10 to 50 persons in the event of attack. He said the survey, being conducted in conjunction with the Community Shelter Planning Program, has located spaces for about 2 million persons throughout the county. The Union County survey was started this past summer and the results are expected shortly.

Chester L. Frankel, chairman of the affair announced the decor and theme would be "The American Scene." His committee consists of Mrs. Frank Brown, Mrs. Mary O. Knerim and Mrs. Robert Bloom. Alton Van Horn of Elizabethtown will be toastmaster. Along with realtors and salesmen of the board, attending will be a number of state and local officials Frankel said.

CLOSED TIGHT
Many motorists make the mistake of driving with all the windows tightly closed during the winter, says George G. Traver, executive vice president of the New Jersey State Safety Council. He points out that this increases the danger of carbon monoxide poisoning, and recommends keeping one window open "just a little" to admit fresh air. It's a good way to stay alert and awake!

Ask Amy

By AMY ADAMS

Dear Amy:
As a man, I don't care too much about writing to a woman for advice, but I thought you being a woman, you might have the proper insight on my wife.

The problem is my wife. One of us is crazy so I want you to tell me which one is. Understand, I'm not trying to get rid of her, I'm just trying to understand her. She likes people but dislikes them in some ways. I don't care for many people, especially those who are sinful. Though I don't go to church often, my wife goes every Sunday. The thing that bothers me the most is that she is always trying to do something. Like the time she tried her hand at painting. She was terrible. Then another time she wanted to work in a hospital. Oh, she made out fine, but then she said she wanted to do something else. Now she's on a writing binge.

I must give her credit, though, as she doesn't smoke, drink or run around and she has done a wonderful job with our 3 children. But why can't she be like other women who sleep till 12 and then lie around all day? I don't understand my wife at all!

If you think my wife needs help, please publish the place where I should take her, and, further, I would like to hear from other men to whom this has happened.

I Am Sunk

Dear High:
Yes, you can request the telephone company to give you a new number.

Bell gets a line in on record number of annoyance callers during 1967

A marked increase in the number of annoyance callers who were apprehended last year, was reported this week by New Jersey Bell Telephone Company.

The phone company said that in cooperation with police agencies through the state, using electronic techniques to pinpoint the sources of annoyance calls without monitoring conversations, identified 628 annoyance call suspects, compared with 442 in 1966.

New Jersey Bell's $2.2 million communications center in New Brunswick topped the list of major construction projects begun by the company in its Raritan division during 1967. The division, covering a 518 square mile area that includes all or sections of Middlesex, Union, and Somerset counties, is part of the company's metropolitan area, largest in population of New Jersey Bell's four operating areas.

Statewide, the company spent $165 million on construction last year, bringing its total plant investment to nearly $2 billion.

The six-story communications center in New Brunswick, scheduled for completion in 1969, will house equipment to handle an estimated 250,000 long distance calls a day.

Projects completed in the Raritan division under the company's 1967 construction program include the new Brownstown central office in Madison Township; an information center in Elizabeth; an employment center in Elizabeth; an employment center in New Brunswick; extensive additions to central offices in Perth Amboy, Rahway, Somerville, Edison, Murray Hill, Roselle, Unionville, and South River; and the installation of thousands of miles of wire in cable to interconnect central offices and to link customers with local switching centers.

J. Kenneth Louloian, vice president and general manager of New Jersey Bell's metropolitan area, said the new facilities were needed to keep pace with telephone growth and increases in the number of local and long distance calls.

State troopers on UC campus

Three members of the New Jersey State Police including a Kenilworth resident, have been on the Union College campus since September, but their presence has nothing to do with a narcotics investigation or any other investigation—except those ordered by their professors.

They are enrolled in a special program which gives them up to 12 academic credits for their work at the State Police Academy. The program was developed by the Office of Two-Year and Community Colleges of the State Department of Higher Education, the Division of State Police of the Department of Law and Public Safety, and the state's two-year colleges.

In addition to receiving credit for work done at the State Police Academy, the state troopers qualify for scholarship aid.

Among those attending Union College under the program is William C. Black of Kenil-

New transmission available on VW

Volkswagen has announced the availability of a new transmission for its "beetle" passenger car and Karmann Ghia which eliminates the clutch pedal and makes shifting virtually automatic.

Known as an "Automatic Stick Shift," the three-speed torque converter transmission—an optional extra with a suggested list price of $135—eliminates the need to change gears in traffic yet allows shifting for those who want it, said Peter T. Liebman, president of Douglas Motors Corp., authorized VW dealership at 430 Morris Avenue, Summit.

The shift lever remains on the floor and the pattern encompasses three speeds, not only two gears—"Drive 1" and "Drive 2"—are needed for normal driving. The third speed is found in a "Low" range gear and is designed for steep hills and hard pulls with full loads. Shifting is fully automatic as there is no clutch pedal to depress, Liebman noted.

Open houses slated at UC

Another in a series of open houses for high school juniors and seniors and their parents will be held Saturday, Jan. 20, from 10 a.m. to noon at Union College, Cranford, it was announced this week by Dr. Kenneth W. Iversen, dean.

Dr. Iversen said that two previous Saturday open houses in November and December were so well attended another has been scheduled for January 20.

In addition, open houses will be held each Thursday in January and February from 2 to 4 p.m. to give high school students and their parents an opportunity to visit the Union College campus.

Dr. Iversen said the open houses are designed to provide an opportunity for high school students and their parents to obtain information on educational programs, admissions requirements and procedures, and financial aid. Members of the admissions, counseling and financial aid staffs will be on hand to greet visitors and to provide information about college admissions and financial aid, Dr. Iversen explained.

Emlen Roosevelt, president of the National State Bank, this week announced that an additional NCR 315 computer, set to begin functioning Monday, has been installed at the bank's computer center in Linden. Unesco Gift Coupons fighting hunger in India

Unesco Gift Coupons worth $70,000 - the largest single donation ever made under the Gift Coupon Program - have been given to help fight hunger in India by the Unesco Centrum Nederland. The contribution is part of a total of $490,000 raised by the Netherlands Food for India Foundation to provide community receiving sets for the Unesco and FAO-aided Radio Rural Forums. The Foundation has already sent shipments of fertilizer worth $420,000 to India. The Indian Government will sell this fertilizer to farmers and use the resulting rupees to buy locally made radio receivers which it will distribute free to the villages. But some components for the sets have to be purchased abroad - and this is what the Unesco Gift Coupons, which are in convertible currency, will be used to pay for. The $70,000 will buy parts for more than 25,000 receivers and so help to bring the broadcasts to some half million villagers. The Radio Rural Forums are an important part of India's Fourth Plan strategy to increase agricultural production by promoting high-yield crop varieties in selected areas.

The Unesco Centrum was founded by the Netherlands Commission for Unesco to stimulate interest and support for Unesco activities throughout the country.

645 is the number of officers and staff members (men and women) who spend an important part of their lives working for the National State Bank in the communities we serve throughout Union County. When compared with the large figures appearing in our statement, it is small... almost tiny. But its importance cannot be overestimated for these are the people who take care of the banking needs of some other very important people... our customers. These are the human beings who cheerfully perform the "thousand and one" day-to-day tasks that enable our bank to meet the financial requirements of Union County industries, businessmen and families.

We salute them!
And when you read the figures above, remember... it's people who make a bank's operations efficient—and profitable.

AMONG THE PLEASANT MEMORIES OF AFRICA: The children of Africa and their wonderful full-blossomed smiles. Making them smile in glee and joyful anticipation is chewing gum, a great favorite among them. Here Trudina Howard discovers a supply in her purse and suddenly finds herself surrounded. (Photo taken at Goree Island by Bernice Alice, Flemington).

A FEMININE LOOK ...At AFRICA 1967

(Commentary on a National Newspaper Association Study Mission to eight African countries south of the Sahara.)

By TRUDINA HOWARD

Thirty-fourth In A Series
THE END OF A JOURNEY
If you were speaking Luganda to a Baganda in Buganda in front of the kubaka—you would be in what Winston Churchill ("My African Journal") called, "the pearl of East Africa."

In other words, you would be in the country of Uganda.
Luganda is the language in Uganda, Baganda are the people, Buganda is the largest area in the country, and a kubaka is a king.
Today the last Buganda kubaka and former president of Uganda (until 1966), King Freddy, is in exile in London, and a new president, Apollo Milton Abote, the former prime minister, is head of government.

UGANDA IS ONE OF THE MOST Christian countries in Africa, outside of Coptic Ethiopia, with the population being one third Catholic, one third Protestant and one third other beliefs such as Moslem and Animist.
According to many reports, it is also one of the most promising of countries for the tourist.

Within its borders are parts of Lake Victoria considered to be the head waters of the White Nile, a large part of the White Nile itself, Murchison Falls, modern Chobe Lodge and its game park area on the White Nile, endless other game parks, the capital city of Kampala with its highly respected Makerere University, Entebbe on the shores of Lake Victoria, King Freddy's ancestors' tomb and so on and on.
The "tomb" of the kubakas of King Freddy's line is unusual and worth a visit. It is not marble, nor stone, nor even wood. It is a massive elegant grass hut, and it is elegant, thatched roof and all, inside there are deep soft grass rugs and nothing more. No shoes are allowed and you sit on the floor in the sweet stillness while the guide softly tells you the story of it all.

THE TRIP TO THE WHITE NILE is not as comfortable. It is some 200 miles over hot, dusty, dirt roads, but once you arrive at Chobe Lodge you are back to the comforts of electricity and air-conditioning and good food.
Yet it is alone in the wilderness.
It is a building plunked in the middle of an untamed area, and if you are not careful an elephant might even step on your toe. The staff of the hotel has trained a family of elephants to "come and get it" and every day at noon, Mom, Dad and Junior elephant prance up to the lodge for snacks. There you are munching on a delicious beef Stroganoff and an elephant sashays past your table. It can surprise you.

Chobe Lodge also has a verandah that almost hangs over the Nile where you can sit and have cocktails while you watch hippopotami play in the river. It was on this verandah that I experienced the most thrilling, yet somehow unfeared, thunder storm of my life.
Just about twilight time, as we sat watching the glorious sky, the wind and clouds came up with great chains of lightning in the distance, and it was a spectacular show.
One word of advice: if you go to Chobe, reserve a seat on the small plane that services the area from Entebbe (Entebbe is the city in which Kampala's airport is located, ten miles from Kampala) and the long dusty hot trip can be avoided.

POLITICALLY, UGANDA is considered progressive and on the way to unity. Its president is considered "one of the best in Africa," according to the U.S. Information Service informants there. He is very respected by his people although there is some dissatisfaction with his government and the attempt to abolish the entrenched positions of power in the tribes and to limit the kubakaships. But President Abote "has adroitly not eliminated the kubakaships entirely. Dr. Abote does not wish to be a dictator and wants a united Uganda," our informants in Kampala told us, "but since many Ugandans do not wish to give up preferred positions or kubakaships, the president's task is difficult."

Even our driver who was with us on safari to the White Nile said that since independence (1962) he did not like it as much as before. Things were more certain before, he said. "Now you can't tell what will happen from day to day."

Be that as it may, whatever troubles the president may have or the kubakas or the drivers, Uganda is no problem to the traveler. Outside of the tons of flying insects on the shores of Lake Victoria at Entebbe and that long drive to Chobe, it is quite a pleasure.

But Uganda was our last stop and it was sad to have to leave Africa, for Africa too, is a pleasure for the tourist. I hope I meet it again.

Next Study Mission: Mexico and Central America.

ON THE WAY TO SAFARI. We stop and pay a visit to a Masai family on the way to Teavo Game Park in Kenya. This little farm is about 100 miles from Nairobi. Father was out hunting. The house consists of one room of adobe type mud with a thatched roof. It is a tradition in Masai tribes that a man must kill a lion single-handed before he can win a bride, but here he was obviously out-to-win dinner. Some other natives live in houses only some two to three feet high, just tall enough to sleep in. During the day, the open sky is home.

WHILE SOME ANIMALS get hand-fed, here a family of hippopotamus—mi—eat some salad on their own. They have just come out of the White Nile in Uganda for a bite of lunch. Tales were heard in Africa that the hippo is rapidly disappearing because of the eating and hunting habits of the Africans, but from what we could see while gazing on the Nile here, it seemed unlikely. There were thousands of the beasts all around.

UC says 80 pct. of students receive financial assistance

Eighty percent of the 758 students enrolled in Union College's Day Session are receiving some form of financial assistance in the current semester, it was reported this week by Mrs. Paul W. Selby, financial aid officer.

The 800 students with some form of financial aid qualify for 763 separate financial aid programs.

"It is easy to see some of our students are attending college by qualifying for three or even four different means of financial assistance," Mrs. Selby said. "We have one student, for example, who is a veteran who qualified for aid under the so-called Cold War G.I. Bill, a scholarship awarded through our college, and qualified for federal work study assistance. There are many more who are combining scholarships, loans and employment to finance their college education."

Mrs. Selby said the 80 percent figure does not include scholarship aid obtained outside of Union College, off-campus employment, or non-federal or non-state guaranteed loans.

The 80 percent figure includes students who hold tuition aid grants financed by the Union County Board of Freeholders, state scholarships, state incentive scholarships, on-campus employment, state loans, federal loans, and Union College set-aside funds.

"Surveys we have made in the past show that 80 percent of our students hold off-campus employment of some kind," Mrs. Selby said. "In fact, we are concerned that too many of our students work too many hours a week. The result of the major reasons the tuition aid plan was developed with the Union County Board of Freeholders."

Under the tuition aid plan, all Union County residents qualify for annual grants of $480 if they win admission to Union College's Day Session as a full-time student. There are 512 students who qualified for this assistance this semester.

MRS. SELBY SAID the next largest category is 103 students who are attending Union College under the G.I. Bill.

"Financing a college education is becoming increasingly more difficult for our young people and their parents, as skyrocketing costs force our colleges and universities -- increase their tuition and other fees," Mrs. Selby said.

Dr. Kenneth C. MacKay, Union College president, said he foresees an effort to establish in New Jersey a program of tuition grants to students to help them attend the New Jersey State College of Education, and other institutions. Similar programs are already under way in New York, Wisconsin, Illinois, and Michigan, he pointed out.

"New Jersey must make maximum use of all its institutions of higher learning -- public and private -- if it is to meet its obligations to the young people of our state," Dr. MacKay said.

A system of tuition grants to students who attend independent colleges would "continue our heritage of providing the individual the freedom to select the particular institution -- public or independent -- which best meets his specific needs and goal."

27th annual skeet shoot Sunday at county range

The 27th annual Union County Open Skeet Championship, conducted by the Union County Park Commission, will be held at the Union County trap and skeet grounds, off Kenilworth Boulevard, Cranford, on Sunday, beginning at 2 p.m.

A 6-7-8 grocery event will be held with the championship. The Union County Park trap and skeet grounds are open for public shooting on Saturdays and Sundays, from 1 to 5 p.m. Shells of all gauges are available at the grounds, a spokesman said.

2 weekend hikes planned by group

Two hikes are scheduled for the members and guests of the Union County Hiking Club for the weekend.

On Saturday, Dave Sutter of Clifton will lead an afternoon ramble in the Garret Mountain Reservation outside of Paterson. The group will meet at the Lambert Castle parking lot in Garret Mountain Reservation at 1:30 p.m.

On Sunday, Marjorie Gasser of Annandale will lead an eight-mile hike in the hills around Hibernia past old mines and the remains of the Split Rock furnace. The hikers will meet at the administration building of the Union County Park Commission, Warinanco Park, Elizabeth, at 8:30 a.m.
