review of events will prove. Early in the year, speculation about the Board of Education's plans to close the school ended with the announcement that, because of dropping enrollment, the doors would not be open to students in September. Then, the mayor's advisory council on a new borough hall issued a report urging use of the building as a municipal complex, opening up discussions between the Borough Council and the board on

Other events concerning the board saw the lection of Charles, Speth, Trudy Palmer and Walter Rupp—and the second defeat in as many years for the proposed budget.

On the municipal political front, Nicholas Bradshaw and Abe Suckno began terms in January as councilmen, and Ruth Gibadlo started hers as tax collector, while in November the Republicans once again swept to victory, this time led by William Cullen and receive any academic credits in his home country of Nerway for his year's studying at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, but it doesn't seem to bother the American Field Service exchange student one bit.

"So many people, when they learn I can't earn credit for work here, ask me why I am wasting a year but it is not that way at all, he declared. "I feel I am learning very much, it is not a waste. There are so many things I am learning both in school and out of school that I never could have in Norway."

Georg, who hails from "just outside Oslo," is spending his year in America with the family of Donald Lan of Springfield, who is executive secretary-to-Gov. Brendan Byrne-and he's already paid a visit to the State House in-Trenton to meet the governor. In addition, he's

The 93rd Congress ended, as usual, with a score of major and minor bills passed. The year was a memorable one politically but, although significant progress was made on the legislative front, much was left undone. For example, I regret that this Congress took no action on hadly needed tax reform and I hope we can make some substantive progress in this area next sear ...

One major accomplishment deserves special mention. This year Congress took steps to put its fiscal house in order.

In the past, after the Administration had sent its annual budget to Capitol Hill, the budget was divided up among more than a dozen ap-propriations subcommittees Each subcommittee has acted without rigard to what the other subcommittees were doing. This kind et fragmented congressional action on the tradget has made it difficult not only to review tuch basic economic questions as whether we should have a surplus, a balanced budget or a deficil, but also to look at the whole question of social policy in terms of spending priorities.

The Hudget Reform Act, passed by both breases this year and signed by the President, is draigned to mort these problems. The act sets up Budget Committees in the House and Senate whose chief function will be to recommend appropriate budget ceilings to guide Congress in its allocation of tax dollars. Congress may adopt or change the figures as it sees fit. But core adopted, these figures establish guidelines for the Appropriation's Committees of each house

Some programs, of course, will be generally unaffected by changes in the congressional budget procedure. More than a third of the trudget, for example almost $110 billion, goes to the sick the piderly or the distilled in the form of Social Security, railroad retirement civil service and military retirement, medicare and medicaid and veterans benefits. More than to million people receive assistance through

Hal other elements of the budget are subject to an annual traces and decision-making process, and competing interests, worthy as they may be, must realize that some programs will not get all they desire .

This year's delenge appropriations till was ever 140 tallion, excluding 137 tallion for persorted synta. Non-defense spending came to reagely 125 tellion With a 120 tellion payroll for federal employees, that leaves 115 follow-confi fire prevent of the total hadget-to spend to rital programs ranging all the way from abilities energy insearch to aid to education to bealth transacte and training In fact the total of the rooms in the year a foreign and tell; one of the rooms in the and controversial programs is the federal budget was order $7 billion.

And an additional very large chunk of the tradget more than $10 tillion in fact, will be 158%! the year for prospear contractual chargations that is sproduce authorized by rather brandalson. #### AFS student here from Oslo

That drive in from Kennedy Airport when I first arrived shocked me. There were five lanes going in each direction, while the maximum on the roads in Norway is two. And when I first went into a supermarket here I couldn't believe We have stores called supermarkets back home, but nothing like that. I never thought there could be so much food in one place."

Discussing economic differences between Norway and this nation, Georg noted there is it as striking a difference between the lifestyles of rich and poor in his country, since the latter are exempt from taxes. He added that during the July bus trip, students are given the chance to stay with families of various economic means, "so we don't get the impression everyone lives the same way. I think the standard of living is higher in Springfield than in other areas," he noted

"Everything else is pretty much as I expected it to be," he commented, "except that the students are so much more active in sports here. In Norway, school is for classes only There are no sports, although there are a great many private sports clubs.

Academically, school in Norway "is not more difficult, only different," George said, explaining that there a student spends the first nine years of his educational career in basic. background" studies, and then "specializes" for three years. Following those 12 years, one may enter college-but only after spending one year in the military service, mandatory for all Norwegian males, "School during the first nine years is all free," he noted, "after that, even in college, you just have to pay for the books." #### THE STATE WE'RE IN

By DAVID F. MOORE,

Governor Brendan T. Byrne recently signed a bill authorizing expenditure of funds remaining from the 1971 Green Acres bond issue; figuratively clearing the fiscal decks for expenditures from the $200 million Green Acres bond issue approved by voters in November.

Public approval of a third Green Acres program proves a lot of things, including, as we've said before, that the public is running ahead of the politicians in concern over the future environment of New Jersey.

Something a little more subtle, but just as sharply proved, is that the public liked the way the first two Green Acres programs were ad ministered and fully expects this one to be handled the same way. That's something for renton to think about I'm not implying that anything less is to be expected from Governor Byrne, or Com-missioner of Environmental Protection David J. Bardin, of course

But sometimes decay can invade a good program. Heaven forbid, for instance, that it should ever be administered along strongly political lines, with the juiciest grants going to owns governed by a favored party:

Heaven forbid also that Green-Acres money should be spent on bureaucratic salaries, which could happen, say, if the Bureau of Parks dipped into the fund for its capital improvement budget. That would mean that money provided by the public to buy and develop open space wasn't being used the way the public intended. Those are just two examples of what I'm sure won't happen

On the other hand, if administrators decide to pump Green Acres open space development money into urban areas which voted heavily-for the bond issue, they might feel justified on the hasis of a public mandate, or to satisfy demands of organized labor. To my knowledge, no city or major urban center in New Jersey is. anywhere near achieving a basic plan for redevelopment around open apace; Pulling some awings on a paved lot may look good. politically, and serve some immediate recreation needs, but it does not live up to the Green Acres promise the votors are entitled to #### subject or in economics when he gets to college 'In 'high school' in Norway, I would not be able to take as many elective courses as here," he continued.

"At home I selected English and business administration, but the rest of the courses were assigned. Testing is different, too. In addition to small tests given throughout the year, we have 10 days of final exams, one subject each day, with each exam lasting four to five hours. There really is no time to read up on the subjects in between. I'm happy its not like that

Georg speaks fluent English, probably since he's been studying it since he was in the fifth grade. ("You have to take at least five years of it," he noted.) In addition to that and his native tongue, he can also converse in German and

HE SAID he is having no major difficulty etting along with 24-hour-a-day English, although sometimes he needs help in translating slang expressions. "It was funny," he said, "but a while ago I met a Norwegian girl who is also an AFS student and we found that although we began talking in Norwegian, every second word was coming out in English. just didn't seem right to be speaking

The teenager, who heard about the AFS program through some friends at school, noted that selection as an exchange student is "not a. reward for good grades."

"I think they look more for what type person you are, if you are open and outgoing, I was interviewed by people from AFS and then had to fill out a four-page form, which had questions on it such as 'What are your friends like?' How do you answer that," he laughed. But, in any case, I was picked. I guess no one who is picked really understands why he was. -Georg-said-he-would-like-to-return-to-the United States sometime, but it would not be for several years. "AFS requires that exchange students spend at least two years in their own country after they go back," he explained. "I guess that's because someone from a very poor country who is sent to live with a wealthy family might not want to return to his own home. They don't want you to forget that you have your own family in your own country.

And then he echoed the thoughts, of other exchange students we have spoken to about how they feel toward their host families. He said, "It is wonderful, being treated not as a guest but as a son. It's like I have gained a # second mother and father."

"Check: your 1975 property assessments early," urges the New Jersey Taxpayers Association. Taxpayers wishing to learn the value placed on their property for 1975 local property tax purposes, should take advantage of the opportunity to obtain first hand in-formation on the assessed valuation which will help shape their June tax bills. State law mandates Jan. 10 as the deadline for local assessors to file their complete assessment list and duplicate with the County Board of Taxation. The law also requires that to days prior to filing the assessment rolls, the assessor advertise in a newspaper serving the taxing district, the time and place the assessment list will be available for examination by taxpayers. If a taxpayer thinks he has missed the ad, he should contact the assessor's office to check the date and time the assessor will hold open session. This are filing meeting permits the taxpayer to discuss with and to correct any errors before the documents All taxpayers, and especially those in a municipality which has recently undergone a comprehensive revaluation, should avail themselves of this opportunity to confer with property owners lodge their protests in earlier discussions with representatives of the revaluation firm, the (ma) arbiter is the local assessor. Should the taxpayer disagree with the assessor's valuation, the taxpayer may file an appeal to the County Board of Taxation by Aug 15. Next level of appeal from the county is the State Division of Tax Appeals with a filing deadline of Dec. 15. Taxpayers may examine the entire assessment list in the office of the County Tax Board subsequent to filing by the assessor. One of the products of a revaluation is a property record eard for each parcel of property. In recentlitigation over classification of the cards as public records, the New Jersey Superior Court (1972) held that such eards, though not while records under the definition in the High! to Know Law, should be open to inspection by a taxpayer with a pending tax assessment discrimination appeal.

The uncertainty resulting from any new state school financing method and predictions of cutbacks, in state aid to local governments should encourage taxpayers to confirm assessments early. The knowledgeable taxpayer, familiar with the tax rate formula property tax levy divided by taxable valuations equal tax rate - realizes the tax levy mart of the formula usually includes tax -requirements of at least three governmental budgets - municipality, county, and school district.

An increase or decrease in taxes for any of these budgets, or in the amount of taxable ratables, can affect the total tax rate on which the mid-year bills are calculated. Taxes are the result of spending decisions. Officials tend to place too much emphasis on the lax rate impact of a budget, rather than on the spending level, observes the Taxpayers Association, which further stresses that "the principal way to control taxes is to control spending

UC'Great strides' for year noted in president's report

"Looking back over the past year, I'd say Union College made great strides in 1974," Dr Saul Orkin, president, said this week. "And we ook ahead to the future with great optimism.

President since August, Dr. Orkin noted he has seen three new programs added to Union College's offerings, planning for the establishment of New Jersey's first English Language Learning Institute at the College, a perceptive change in the composition of the student body. and an increase responsiveness on the part of the College to serve specific community needs.

The past year saw also Union College's Elizabeth and Plainfield campuses designated 'Urban Educational Centers" to reflect to a greater degree the community service roles hey play; the production of a monthly public affairs program, "Union County Forum," by the College Relations Office and Media Center in cooperation with Channel 14 Cable Television of Elizabeth; the expansion of programs and courses for Union County's Spanish-speaking population; the affiliation of the Union County Basic Police Training Academy with Union College, and tailor-made courses offered for senior citizens at Plainfield's Richmond Towers and other sites.

"At Union College, we're intent upon making the community college concept a reality," said Dr. Orkin, "and 1974 brought us closer to that goal. I hope that we reach it in 1975."

UC to introduce Plainfield Center Saturday classes

Saturday morning credit courses will be offered for the first time at Union College's Plainfield-Urban Educational-Center, 317 E. Front st., with the start of the spring semester, it was announced this week by Douglas

The Saturday morning courses will be in addition to those offered Mondays through Fridays during daytime and evening hours. Sedelmeyer said. Beginning Wedn sday, Jan. 22, credit courses will be offered during the day in the areas of English, education, history, criminal justice, mathematics, psychology and piology. Accounting, business, economics, English, history, criminal justice, psychology, and sociology courses will be available in the Sedelmeyer said the Saturday morning classes will include accounting, English, Black history, psychology and seciology. He pointed out these three-credit courses will be held only once a week for those persons who find this scheduling more convenient.

"Community Television Production,"
"Psychology of Personal Adjustment," "Jazz Appreciation Workshop," and "New Jersey Comes Alive" will be offered as non-credit evening courses beginning in March, Sedelmeyer added.

Other non-credit courses are offered in conjunction with Union County Technical Institute of Scotch Plains: "Introduction to Computer Science," typing, bluepring, reading, stenography, "Introduction to Refrigeration," and "Introduction to Com-"Introduction to Refrigeration," and mercual Art,"

Educational needs of adult subject of UC open house

"Helping adults to keep some of their New Year's resolutions will be a major objective of two open houses for adults planned by Union College for Wednesday at 10 a.m. and Thursday, Jan. 9 at 7:30 p.m.," George P. Lynes, director of recruitment said this week.

"Adults who would like to begin or continue their college education in 1975 or who have just promised themselves some intellectual stimulation in the coming year are invited to attend either open house to find out what is available to them and how to go about achieving their goals.

"In an informal setting, over a cup of coffee, adults will be able to find out just what Union College has to offer them in terms of traditional and non-traditional college programs, selected courses and non-credit educational and recreational programs," Lynes said.

In addition, free interest inventory tests will be made available to those attending either

The adults only open house program was instituted two years ago and has been well received by the adult community, Lynes said. "What we have discovered is that there are many adults in Union County, including college graduates, who enjoy learning and find the return to school stimulating," he said. Those who are not able to attend either program are welcome to call Lynes or Mrs. Patricia Wusthoff, coordinator of admissions for fadditional information. They may be reached at 276-2600.

All-woman radio show Seton airs program weekly

'Everywoman," a new weekly program heard on Seton Hall University's radio station WSOU, is definitely an all-woman show. It was originated by women students, is produced, directed and written by women, even has a woman engineer and it presents discussions with women guests on topics about women. However, it definitely is not meant only for femining cars.

'Women's concerns and achievements need to be made known to the general public," says Seton Hall junior Shelley Kusnetz of West Orange, who developed the program and is now its producer and moderator. "Everywoman' is completely written and engineered by women but is not exclusively presented for women because othe feminist movements affects

The free hearing tests will be given at Beltone, 11 Broad St., Elizabeth on Monday and Tuesday. If you can't get there on Monday or Tuesday call 353-7686 and arrange for an appointment at another time

Acting as engineer and co-supervisor of the program is Diane Volpe of Philadelphia, who is also student news direct of the station.

"Everywoman" is also the first completely all-woman program that has been broadcast by WSOU. Heard every Sunday from 9:30 to 10 p.m. at 89.5 on the FM dial, "Everywoman" is discussion program between "women who are doing things," especially examing more active participation of women in social and political activities and in such areas of sports. The show focuses on strides that women have made in occupations as well as social and political issues affecting women. Some of the topics that have been covered include ideology of feminism, socialization of women, sexism and consciousness raising, women's roles both traditional and changing, literature's view of women, psychology's treatment of women, and omen's contributions and achievements in all fields and spheres of life.

The show deals with topics and situations as they exist right at hand on the University campus as well as in society in general and draws on the University community, both faculty and students, as well as outside sources for guest speakers.

"Women have a voice that needs to be heardand this is what we are attempting to accomplish with 'Everywoman'." Kusntez. A 1969 graduate of Millburn High-and now a sociology major at Seton Hall. Based on technology similar to that developed by University of Chicago physicist Albert V. Crewe in his work with the scanning electron microscope, the proton microscope can be used at both the cellular and the molecular Jevels.

At the cellular level, the microscope will provide images of density variations in tissue far beyond the ability of conventional x-ray microradiography. This ability is particularly promising for the study of cancer cells, which are known to have anomalous density distributions compared with healthy cells.

Setti explained how the new instrument should make such investigations possible: "The microscope is designed to operate at 100

Star declines bid in London: she can't take animals

By NANCY ANDERSON HOLLYWOOD - Zsa Zsa Gabor, has

about decided to decline a hid to star in "Forty Carais" in London because she can't take her pets into Britain.

Her role in the play which she did on Broadway is so perfect for her she could make. a career of playing it, but she won't if it seperates her from her adored dogs. Besidesent would get monotonous.

"I'd love to have a new play that's right for me," the Hungarian queen of diamonds sighs 'Forty Carats' is so bullet proof that David Merrick told me, 'As long as you live you can make money in this " "But I don't want to do it forever."

For the past year, Zsa Zsa has been pouring thought and money into redecorating and enlarging her new house, previously his. Howard Hughes Jean Peters love next

She calls it "cozy," but it's hardly that, since if encompasses, among other features, a walk in closet "bigger than the Paramount wardrobe department" (to quote Aliss Gabor) and a bathroom spacious enough to accommodate a life-size, wooden horse from a Parisian

Zsa Zsa says she doesn't know how many kowns, hals, shors, etc., are stored in her super-sized closel which is equipped with a refrigerator for her makeup

This is my last wedding hat," she says displaying a Bonnet. "It came from a picture I made with Tony Curtis

"When I first saw this house, it was like a hotel, all dark gray and red satin. Howard Hughes had a terrible bathroom, but I enlarged

The dark gray and red satin have theen replaced by fresh, garden colors

Her bedroom, which opens onto a garden, is alive with greens, while the principal color in her informal sitting room is sunny apricot Among her treasurés are novel fan letters from a woman named. Edna Hulbert who' embroiders her messages on pillou tops. Two of. Edna's billets deux are tossed on one of Zsa

Miss Hulbert's needlework notes make no demands of the star, but numbers of Zsa Zsa's female fans write for romantic guidance

"My advice is given serrously," Miss Gater says. "When a woman writes that she's bored with her husband. I tell her to look into her

'Pelham' thriller with 'Juggernaut' shown in Rahway

"The Taking of Pelham One Two Three," a screen thriller about a New York City subway car which is hijacked by four ruthless men, who hold 17 passengers and the conductor hostage for $1,000,000, with the threat that one hostage per minute will be killed if the ransom is not paid within one hour, is the latest screen offering at the Old Rahway Theater, Rahway.

The associate feature is "Juggernaut," starring Richard Harris, Omar Sharif and Shirley Knight.

"Pelham" stars Walter Matthau, Robert Shaw, Martin Balsom and Hector Elizondo Joseph Sargent directed the movie from a screenplay by Peter Stone, based on the best selling novel by John Godey.

The movie was filmed principally in the subways of New York City and on the city streets. The words, "Pelham One Two Three" are derived from Metropolitan Transit Authority vernacular. Each train is identified by the name of its starting station and the time of its departure.

"Juggernaut," a sea thriller, concerns bomb experts who race the clock to defuse explosives board a ship carrying 1,200 passengers, while Scotland Yard tracks down the extertionist.

Leading scorer for the varsity was Ted Johnson, a junior, who has led the Bulldogs with a 20-point scoring average.

Ken Conte led the alumni with 13 points. Senior Kevin Mercer pulled down 14 rebounds and Scoppetuolo grapped seven. Kevin Doty: had three. Scoppetuolo also contributed three assists. Burns two and Presslaff, Mercer and Johnson one each.

The alumni team included Joe Pepe, Dayton's all-time leading scorer, Bill Palazzi. Gavin Widom, Steve Brumer, Mark Hollander, Bob Hydock and Dennis Lester

Other varsity scorers were Billy Nevius (two points), Tom Wisnewski (three points), Steve Pepe, Bob Fleischman, Andy Herkalo and Jack Graessle (each two points)

ON DEC. 27, in the second game of the Holiday Tournament, the Bulldogs were, beaten, 72-61, by Middlesex. The bright spot for Dayton was Burns' 25-point effort. Johnson, Dayton's most consistent scorer, added 21

Syton jumped off to an early lead in the opening minutes and held a 23-12 lead at the close of the initial period. Victory seemed on the horizon since the Bulldogs have been trounced in the opening periods of previous games, putting themselves in "catch-up" situations. The first quarter lead was

In the earlier Tournament match, Roselle-Park erased Brearley, 79-62. Middlesex-last. Thursday edged Roselle Park for the title, 52-

ON THE FOLLOWING EVENING, Dayton lost the tournament's consolation game to Brearley by the "uncomfortable" score of 81-57. Many of the starters were rested on this occasion, however. Johnson contributed 24 points and Robert Fleischman added 14 points. Johnson led all rebounders with five. John Kronert and Johnson had four assists each.

Also scoring for the Bulldogs were Brian McNany (four points), Ted Parker (eight points), Kevin Mercer and Larry Burns (two points). Although the Bulldogs have gotten off to a slow start this season, the team has performed well under adverse conditions and with minimal experience

Last year, coach Ray Yanchus was reluctant to play under-classmen in varsity games; as a consequence, this year's team started the season with little or no varsity playing experience. Only Johnson and Mercer saw action, although very little, last season and South Orange, 57-48. Saturday morning at 10, the Nettes make their debut in the Junior Girls Suburban Basketball League, meeting South Orange at the Florence Gaudineer School. In addition to South Orange, the league consists of Livingston, Maplewood, Millburn, Caldwell, Cedar Grove, and Verona. The regular season will consist of seven games, and will be followed by a single-elimination league playoff.

The opening game of the season, against the Caldwell Colts, started slowly, with each team playing very cautiously. Six minutes elapsed without a point being scored, until Michele Gan of the Nettes came off the bench and hit on two fast break layups to break the ice and give Springfield a 4-0 lead at the end of the quarter

In the second quarter, the Nettes increased their lead as Gan hit three more baskets and Lori Gabay scored twice from the field. Cricket Franklin also contributed a field goal, for a 16-7 halftime lead. Franklin and Ellen Stieve took down 15 rehounds during the half to give Springfield control of both backboards.

Springfield continued to dominate the game in the third quarter, as Laney Schiller, the Nettes' tallest player, made her presence feltgrabbing rebounds, blocking shots, and tallving six points, including four of five from the foul line. Franklin and Stieve also came to life offensively in this period, as each hit a pair of baskets and rebounded well, while Springfield extended its margin to 31-15 at the end of three quarters. The last quarter saw much action by the reserves of both squads, as Springfield maintained its lead.

Franklin, with 11 points, and Gan, with 10 paced the Nettes' scoring, while Schiller and Gabay each tallied six. Randi Kessler, playing Santa Claus made two appearances at Farcher's Grove last week, On one occasion he helped Vistula down the Elizabeth Lancers, 2-1. in a semi-final round of National Challenge Cup play for New Jersey. FC Hoboken and Ocean County played to a 1-1 draw in the other New Jersey match. That game will have to be replayed at some other date.

Santa Claus first showed up at the 25-minute mark when an Elizabeth defender tried to pass the ball back to goalie Jerry Sulars but it went to an oncoming Vistula player. Mirek Chodakowski didn't waste any time and put the ball into the net from 11 meters out Elizabeth dominated play throughout the game and the Passaic 11 didn't have many more scoring opportunities at all. Elizabeth couldn't score either in the first half, and the score held at 1-0 at the turnabout.

This is the time that Santa Claus made his second appearance at Farcher's Grove, only this time it was back in the ballroom where wives and children of the Elizabeth SC members were having their Christmas party. I wonder why Santa made it just at halftime?

Meanwhile back on the field, the pressure on Vistula got too much for them. A hands violation was committed in the penalty area and the Lancers were awarded a penalty kick. a new ball game at t-1. Jerek Dreweryk scored the winning goal on an assist from Rudi Sacher at the 75 minute mark?

This ends this season's quest for a third Dewar's Oup for the Farcher's Grove booters: They won it in 1970 and 1972.

The Virtula backfield withstood everything that the Lancers could throw at them, and if they get the forwards working a little better they might surprise some of the teams they will meet on the way up to winning the Cup. The Scharfer indoor tourney starts on Friday

Springfield's points, with two baskets apiece. Barbara Calamusa, a starter at guard, and Barbara Martino, another guard, supplied the Nettes with aggressive defense and steady floor play in the back court, while Debbie Scelfo and Moira Halpin contributed strong play from the forward and center positions Lauren Gelayder and Tina Segall, making their debut in Nettes' uniforms, played aggressively and showed promise of making substantial con-

In their second game of the season, against a tall South Orange team, the Nettes once again started slowly, as the Villagues raced to an early 7-0 lead. After a basket by Kessler broke the ice. Springfield settled down and closed the gap to trail by only two points at the quarter, 11 9, as Gan hit on a 50-footer at the buzzer. The ball had been inbounded from the endline with three seconds showing on the clock, and after one dribble. Gan let go with the shot two steps beyond the midcourt line. The ball was in the air as the buzzer sounded, and cleanly cut the cords as the referee signalled the basket good

The shot seemed to give the Nettes new life. they responded with a 15-point second quarter to take a 24-22 lead into the lockerroom, at halftime. Six players scored in this period for the Nettes, with Schiller hitting a pair of rebound baskets and Calamusa converting three free throws as a result of her driving attempts to the basket.

The Nettes ran their lead to 38-32 at the end of three quarters, as Kessler scored twice off steals and fast-break layups, and Schiller and Stieve each hit twice from close range, while the Springfield defense choked off the inside game of South Orange. The Villagers also lost. two starters via the personal foul route during this quarter.

In the last quarter, six points each by Franklin and Stieve, coupled with four points apiece by Kessler and Gan, kept the game out reach of South Orange standing offensive performance by Colleen Kroll, who hit for 12 points in the final stanza and took individual game honors with 26; coming on nine field goals and eight from the Springfield once again received a very balanced offensive effort, as nine Nettes shared in the scoring. Stieve led the team with 12, while Kessler hit for 10. Franklin, Schiller, and Gan each tallied eight while Calamusa scored five, and Halpin, Martino, and Gahav each hit once from the field.

Green team beats Blues' six, 13-4, in holiday tourney

The Daily Intramural Program Physical Education Recreation (DIPPER) floor hockey league halted play last week because of the Christmas break but 16 DIPPER players and alumni hired Warinanco Park ice arena for their second annual "DIPPER" on Ice hristmas tournament

The Green team (Goalie Steve Perlestein Tom Marino, Rob Delaney, Rich McDow-Bruce Burnett, Gregg Prussing, Tom Moen, Tom Ronco and Bill Bjorstad) -- scored a 13-4 victory over the alumni-laden Blues. Bjorstad and Delaney slammed in five goals each while Martin, Ronco and Moen added single goals

The Blues (Mark Ronco, Tom Russoniello, Tom Botte, Bob Hagenbush, Lapta Maxwell. Joe Natiello and Goalie Jerry Ragonese) were in the contest in the first hour of play that wilted in the second hour because of the lack of reserves. Russoneillo scored a three-goal hat trick for the Blues while Botte tallied the other

DIPPER Director John Swedish said that floor hocky action would resume in the boys gym on Tuesday, Jan. 7, with the White Demons and Black Hawks kicking off the week's schedule, followed by Purple Kops and Green Rockets, Gold Cougars at Red Devils and Blue Blazers at Demons DIPPER activities take place in the boys' gym every school day from 7 to 8:20 a.m. with open basketball featured when floor hockey games are not in progress.

Dayton wrestlers home to Brearley tomorrow

BY SEFF GOLDSTEIN
The Dayton Grapplers develed to Berkeley Heights ast week to compete in the Governor Livingston Holiday Tournament and the Bulldogs compiled 211; points to place seventh in a field of eight teams powered by strong individual performances from Bill Frances, Tony Francis and Mitchell Kotler. The teams, in order of finish: West Essex, Plainfield, Governor Livingston, Billside, Bloomfield Bound Brook, Dayton Regional and South Hunterdon. West Essex dominated the meet producing eight individual champions.

Undefeated Billy Francis was the champion in the 101-pound weight class. Billy, who had previously beaten the defending regional champion in his first victory, struggled through the first round of competition, defeating Bound Brook's Schyler in a 1-0 decision. In the second round, however, Billy pinned his opponent at :59 of the second period. In the final bout Francis earned the championship by defeating Mark Russo of Bloomfield on a fall at 4:57

Tony Francis, co-captain of the squad, placed lourth in the 108-pound weight class by defeating. Mike Jannome in the initial round Together, the Francis brothers provide needed strength for Dayton and are often depended upon for points because of the lack of firepower in the heavier weights

Mitch Kotler was perhaps the outstanding wrestler for Dayton in the tournament Mitch. who had not lost a single match this year, overwhelmed his first two opponents with 6-0 and 16-10 victories. In the championship match Mitch fell short, when an apparent victory was spoiled by a reversal in the final 30 seconds. The final score was 6-5.

David Citron, Dayton's lightest grappler. finished third in the 91-pound weight class Although David's effort was not tallied in the final team standings he was awarded a medal

The 1974 Holiday Tournament marked the first victory for Dayton wrestlers in several years, as they overcame South Hunterdon by 1612 points. Through the energy of three fine coaches headed by Rick Tacono and the hard work of many young men, the wrestling program at Dayton has laid a foundation but it will take time to build a winner because of the lack of experience in younger wrestlers Tomorrow the squad will play host to David

Dayton's kegler coach expects to bowl 'emover

By MICHAEL MESKIN

With four lettermen returning and last year's third place finish in the Suburban Conference standings, Coach John Swedish of the Jonathan Dayton bowling team is anticipating a highly Having practiced for more than a month, the keglers will open the season Thursday at 3:30 against Millburn at Plaza Lanes. Madison. All seven conference teams play solely at these alleys throughout the season. On Monday and next Thursday the Bulldogs meet Summit and Caldwell, respectively.

Though last year's 22-14 squad had lost one key bowler to graduation, the five probable starters are captain Lee Zeoli, Glen Halbsgut Paul Krystow, Donn Fishbein and Ron Frank Il have experience on the varsity level

Zeoli had a 168 average last year, while leading the team with eight 200 or better games, a contest among the squad, Halbsgut, a first team conference selection, compiled a 172 mark, relying beavily on his ability to connect on spares. In a spare situation the bowler knocks down the required ten pins but in the second of his two tries, while a strike takes the roller only one chance.

Rounding out the squad will be Krystow (a consistent 164), who throws the "hardest ball on the team," though this is not always advantageous. Fishbein, the only underclassman on the starting team, compiled a 175 average. but this "smooth and graceful" kegler did not qualify for high average because he spent half the season on the junior varsity. Frank oceasionally-filled-in-for-the-varsity-but-bowledmost of the year, a level lower, recording a__ respectable 160 mark.

Ably filling in when needed on the varsity will be jayvee keglers Bill Leber, Rich Miller, Bob Groder, Jeff Bahr and Rick Cohen, They also open today at Plaza Lanes against Summit Last year's learn (inished two and a half games out of first behind Summit and Verona

These two teams, though hampered by graduation, remain Dayton's chief foes summit is aided by an extensive program of three junior varsity teams, while Verona is traditionally tough Dayton also made the Union County Tournament last season finishing sixth.

The team will play 12 matches, two against each conference club. A match is comprised of three games, whereby the combined total of the five bowlers is compared to the total of the opposition. The "hot" squad can come tiway with a 3-0 record in one day

According to captain Zeoh, "The squad has a strong possibility of comming 30 games with each member averaging around 155 Though we just missed the title last year. I feel this definitely could and should be our season to go

"SHELL ANGELOLOGY," a collection of nearly 100 unusual angel sculptures made of seashells and other sea-related materials ranging from barnacles to pearls, is on display at Seton Hall University's McLaughlin Libracy, South Orange, until March. The artist, Mrs. William Y. Dear of Morristown, shows one of her creations to Msgr. William N. Field, university librarian. The collection, which is designed to amuse and delight, includes figures and scenes depicting trained seals, clowns and other circus acts. magicians, Oriental personalities, and illustrations from nursery rhymes; folklore and mythology as well as angels in both whimsical and traditional poses.

Hearing planned on fare hike pleas

The N.J. Department of Transportation's Commuter Operating Agency has authorized hearings for 25 percent fare increases on the four state-subsidized passenger railroads.

Commissioner Alan Sagner said that "while this is completely contrary to the department's position of attempting to hold fares at present levels, it is part of the department's plan to meet future shortages in operating subsidies." He pointed out that there is a $32 million deficit this fiscal year, and indications are that fiscal 1976 will be worse if the Department subsidy budget is not increased to meet 1976 operating costs.

The Commissioner added that "the fare increase, if approved, would go into effect only if additional funds are not provided by the legislature to maintain commuter service." Petitions to increase fares were received -Thursday, January 2, 1975-

from the Penn Central Transportation Company, Erie Lackawanna Railway, Central Railroad of N.J. and the Pennsylvania-Reading Seashore Lines.,

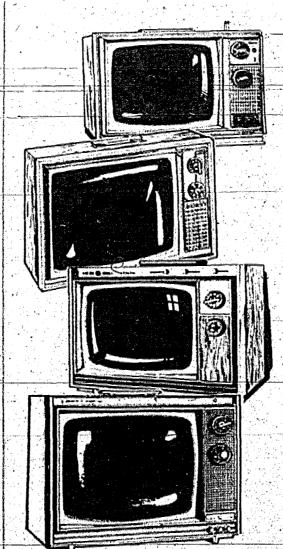

The hearings, to be scheduled early next year, will be held in various parts of the state.

BUYMEATTHEWAY MOUR BUTCHER BUYS II.

Save on large quantities of meat, and have it cut to order free.

Most likely, you've never bought a Beef Outside Round or a Whole Beef Rib. That's because they're the big "primalcuts" your butcher buys from the packing plant.

Well, now at Grocers' Food Depot, you can buy your meat that way too. Then our butchers will custom cut these pieces for you free of charge. You end up with individual, meal size cuts at substantial savings.

If you don't think you can handle a big "primal cut" all by yourself, buy it with a friend Or two friends. Or more. That way everyone saves.

Here's what some of our "primal cuts" vield. For example, buy a Whole Beef Rib and get 1 Rib Roast, 6 to 8 Rib Steaks, 3 to 4 Boneless Club Steaks, 2 packages of Short Ribs, 2 packages of Ground Beef, and three packages of Lean Stewing Beef.

* A Beef Top Sirloin vields 2 to 3 Boneless Steaks, 5 to 6 Thin Sliced Sandwich Steaks, 1 to 2 Roasts, and 1 package of Ground Sirloin. A Whole Pork Loin yields 1 Rib End Roast, 5 to 6 Loin

End Pork Chops, and 24 to 28 Center Cut Pork Chops.

Just shop Grocers' Food Depot once. You'll see how much you can save when you buy meat the way your butcher buys it.
