Voters ratify school budget; Wood and Biunno selected

42.8 percent of electorate cast ballots

By KAREN ZAUTYK

For the first time in three years, and by a margin of little more than 150 votes, Mountainside residents Tuesday approved a local Board of Education budget. Total ballots cast on the 1975-76 tax levy of $1,529,715 were 1,003, yes: 849, no.

Winning election to three-year terms on the board were Ronald Wood and William Biunno, with tallies of 1,291 and 1,272, respectively. Patricia Kaplan lost her bid for a board seat, drawing 920 votes, while John Farinella, who withdrew as a candidate but whose name remained on the ballot, received 585.

The total 1975-76 budget is $1,981,247, a figure $1,655 lower than the $1,982,902 tally for the current school year. In drawing up the budget, the board had noted it was making an effort to break the trend toward school budget defeats which seemed apparent in the borough.

This week's victory came as a surprise to some observers, despite the lowered total, since heavy school budget defeats had been predicted throughout the state in light of current economic difficulties. Another harbinger of defeat appeared to be the results of last week's Union County Regional High School Board of Education budget defeat, the first in the 38-year history of that district. But apparently, the austerity strategy of the local board paid off.

Of the 5,120 registered voters in Mountainside, 2,098 came out to the polls. Absentee ballot counts on the budget were 67, yes; 19, no. Those for the four candidates were as follows: Biunno, 66; Wood, 64; Kaplan, 27; and Farinella, 19. Including both ballots cast Tuesday and absentee ballots, 42.8 percent of those registered voted in the election.

The new board will hold its organization meeting at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Deerfield School. At that session, it is scheduled to vote on 1975-76 teacher contracts.

Prior to the closing of the polls, the present board held its last session. Among the business conducted was the awarding of $7,420 order for general and art supplies to the J.L. Hammett Co., and one of $2,771 for paper and duplicating supplies, to be shared by J.L. Hammett, Paper Mart, Inc., and Repeat-O-Type Stencil Manufacturing Co.

Mayor proclaims April 'Cancer Control Month'

CANCER CRUSADE — Mountainside Mayor Thomas Ricciardi helps Ariana Fairbanks, head of the borough's 1975 American Cancer Society fund drive, place poster with the organization's slogan. borough resident to give generously to the American Cancer Society and to listen to the message from the volunteer who visits his home during the drive," he stated.

Congress also has designated April as Cancer Control Month, the time when the Society starts its intensive fund-raising and educational crusade towards its goal of "Wiping Out Cancer In Your Lifetime."

The 1975 drive for Mountainside is headed by Ariana Fairbanks. She and 216 volunteers will call on every home in the borough with pamphlets about cancer.

The goal in Mountainside has been set at $4,500 for this year. "These funds are desperately needed to continue the American Cancer Society's program of research, education, and service for the cancer patient," stated Mrs. Fairbanks. She called attention to the fact most borough residents are aware that the disease has struck the wives of the president and vice-president of the United States. "Through early detection they were able to be helped. It can strike anyone any time," she said.

Besides asking all Mountainside residents to support the crusade, the proclamation from Mayor Ricciardi underlined the need for an annual health checkup as a step towards helping to safeguard families against cancer.

Residents wishing further information on the "roundup" may call Marilyn Nelson at 233-1845.

Headed by Mrs. Ricciardi, the "roundup" will be held Monday at the Beechwood School from 9 to 11 a.m. and from 1 to 3 p.m., and Wednesday at the Deerfield School, also from 9 to 11 a.m. and 1 to 3 p.m. Children may be registered at either site, regardless of which facility they will attend in the fall.

For a youngster to be eligible to enter kindergarten in September, he must have been born on or before Dec. 1, 1970; birth certificate must be presented at time of registration. Children must be present at registration to take a vision test; appointments will be made for a hearing test at a later date.

Contributors were asked to sort glass by color and remove all metal tabs. Newspapers should be bound and separated from magazines. Citizens were also warned not to dump any glass, paper or aluminum after closing time. Violators will be prosecuted.

Regional school board will meet soon with municipalities on fate of budget

The Regional High School District Board of Education will meet in the immediate future with the governing bodies of all six constituent municipalities to decide the fate of the 1975-76 high school budget, which was rejected by the voters on March 4. Theodore White of Mountainside, finance chairman, disclosed at the board meeting last Wednesday at the Deerfield School, Mountainside.

Any cuts in the proposed current expense budget of $11,814,544 must be made by a unanimous vote of all six town and borough councils, board members told the audience — which consisted of one person, Dr. Fred Hagedorn of Berkeley Heights, former board president.

In other business, the board authorized preparation of a feasibility study for construction of four tennis courts on the front lawn of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, adjacent to Mountain Avenue, Springfield. The action was proposed by Natalie Waldt of Springfield, buildings and grounds chairman. It was strenuously opposed by Sonya Dorsky, the other board member from Springfield.

Mrs. Dorsky objected on esthetic grounds, stating that the courts, even if surrounded by shrubs, would mar the appearance of Mountain Avenue. She suggested other sites on the school grounds.

Mrs. Waldt and other board members emphasized the need for speed. They said that the Springfield Recreation Department had reluctantly agreed to let the Dayton boys' team use the Irwin Playground courts for practice and meets only one more season, this spring.

Girls' loop to hold clinic for umpires

The Girls' Softball League, in cooperation with the Mountainside Recreation Commission, will sponsor an umpire clinic April 12 and 17. It will be open to managers and assistants in the girls' and women's leagues. Attendance for umpires is mandatory. A review of the basic rules as well as changes in interpretations will be covered.

Anyone interested in umpiring may contact the recreation office, 232-0015, or league president Harriet Gernold, 232-1258. Umpires are paid $1 per game. Individuals must be in at least the ninth grade to be eligible to work as umpires.

and that the school must have its own facilities for the girls' season in September.

They noted that negotiations with the township over a site for new courts had been going on for five years. They added that the board and township had been unable to agree on plans for courts at Ruby Field, a block from the high school.

Mrs. Waldt reported that bids for construction of a new gymnasium at David Breenley Regional in Kenilworth had been far above expectations. She said the board will restudy the problem.

Virginia Muskus of Clark, safety chairman, voiced concern over the new fire doors at Dayton, which are of a type required by the state for this building. She said the doors are very heavy, with small windows and poor visibility. Several students have been injured when struck by doors pushed open from the

Regional board reelects Vitale

The Union County Regional High School District Board of Education Monday night unanimously reelected its two officers for the coming year. They are Charles E. Vitale Jr., of Kenilworth, as president, and John E. Conlin of Garwood as vice-president.

Board members disclosed that they were scheduled to meet yesterday with the governing bodies of the six constituent municipalities to discuss possible reductions in the 1975-76 high school budget, which was rejected by the voters last week.

The board will hold a regular session Tuesday at 8 p.m. at its headquarters at the Keyes-Marlin Building, 811 Mountain Ave., Springfield. The meeting is open to the public.

2 tennis courses slated this spring; registration open

The Mountainside Recreation Commission will again sponsor a series of spring tennis lessons for adults. Recreation Director Sue Winans announced that two series of lessons will be offered, from April 14 to May 7 and from May 12 to June 9.

Tom Kaerber, a member of the U.S. Professional Tennis Association and a registered teaching pro, is scheduled to teach both sessions. Tom has instructed in Mountainside for several years. He is an instructor in the Project Jersey tennis program under the direction of George Baeso, Charles Lundgren, Ken Owen and Alex Mayer.

Lessons for beginners through intermediates are scheduled for Monday and Wednesday evenings and evenings. The evening session is offered for the convenience of working people, students and others who are unable to register for the daytime classes. The registration fee for the eight-lesson series is $11.

Registrations will be accepted at Borough Hall weekdays, beginning Monday from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Enrollment in classes is on a first-come, first-served basis. Students will be limited to six per class.

A special evening registration will be held on Wednesday from 8 to 9 at Borough Hall. For additional information, readers may call the recreation officers, 232-0015.

Dayton to present concert by David

Robert David will sing in a concert at the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School auditorium tomorrow at 8 p.m. The concert, presented by the senior class, marks David's first appearance in a New Jersey school.

David, originally from Canada, has recorded an album and released two singles for RCA. His music has been compared to that of Cat Stevens and John Denver. His act includes a second guitar, an occasional piano, a slide show and a dancer.

David, who has been performing in Virginia, plans to appear at several eastern schools before embarking upon a national tour in the spring.

Tickets for the concert ($2) may be purchased in advance at the high school or at the door. The public has been invited.

Rescue Squad honors Mrs. Flynn for service

Carol Flynn of Summit road has been cited by the Mountainside Rescue Squad for a decade of service with the first aid group.

She was presented with a 10 year service pin by the squad's president, Wilfred Brandt, at the regular monthly meeting held on March 5. Mrs. Flynn's husband, Joseph, is also a member of the Rescue Squad.

Dayton music unit to hold plant sale

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School vocal music department will hold its third annual spring plant sale on Saturday, March 22, aided by the Choral Parents Society. Chairmen of the day are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Christoffers of Mountainside, who will be assisted by Mrs. Frank DeRosa, Mrs. Hugh Gardner McKay, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jeka, and Mrs. George Yogy, all of Mountainside, and student chairman Jeff Marshall of Springfield, with assistants Bess Morrison of Springfield and Chris Bunin of Mountainside.

Potted tulips, hyacinths, lilies and azaleas, all in bloom, will be sold door to door in Springfield and Mountainside from 9:30 a.m. until 5 p.m. Plants will also be available for sale at 294 Central Ave., Mountainside. Prices will range from $2 to $5. Discounts will be given on large advance orders, including free delivery. To place advance orders, readers may call Mrs. Christoffers at 232-3126.

Proceeds from the sale will be used to assist students with their concert trips and to purchase needed equipment for the music department.

Badgley House will be restored

The Mountainside Cultural and Heritage Committee has engaged Charles H. Detwiler Jr., an architect-historian, to draw up plans for the restoration of the Old Badgley House, Mountainside's oldest historic site. Detwiler will also prepare an application for placement of the Badgley House in the National Register of Historic Sites.

The Badgley House dates back to pre-Revolutionary days. It is located on the Trailside Museum site in the Watchung Reservation. The committee said it hopes to obtain federal funding for this restoration, as part of the continuing program of Mountainside's Bicentennial celebration.

Dog owners advised to purchase licenses

Mountainside dog owners who have neglected to obtain 1975 licenses for their canines have been asked to do so as soon as possible; registration should have been done in January.

Licenses may be obtained at Borough Hall, III, 22, any weekday between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Proof of rabies inoculation must be presented.

Paper, aluminum drive Saturday

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School Key Club will hold its regular monthly glass, paper and aluminum collection in the Echo Plaza Shopping Center this Saturday from 8 a.m. until 2 p.m.

Contributors were asked to sort glass by color and remove all metal tabs. Newspapers should be bound and separated from magazines. Citizens were also warned not to dump any glass, paper or aluminum after closing time. Violators will be prosecuted.

Rock dance Saturday for CYO at Lourdes

The Catholic Youth Organization of Our Lady Lourdes Church, Mountainside, will sponsor a rock n'roll dance on Saturday in the school auditorium. Music will be by the Stars, a group of six musicians — five male and one female. Admission is $2. The dance will start at 8. Proceeds of the dance will go to Children's Specialized Hospital. All high school students have been invited.

STUDENT STARS — Ronnie Kamen, Laurie Wisniewski and Chris Bunin (from left) have leading roles in Jonathan Dayton Regional High School's production of "Carousel," to be presented at the Springfield school April 12, 18 and 19 at 8:15 p.m., and April 13 at 6 p.m. Ronnie, who is a senior, will appear both weekends; Laurie and Chris, also seniors, will alternate roles. Tickets for the musical are priced at $2 and $2.50; they may be obtained by calling the school at 376-6300.

School board member Rupp issues budget surplus report

Walter H Rupp, a member of the Mountain Board of Education, this week issued a report on the board budget surplus, as listed in its official audit. His statement reads as follows: "The official audit report of Suplee, Clooney & Co., CPA, covers Mountainside Board of Education financial operations for the school

The board voted final approval for two policy changes. One gives the principal final authority over plans, activities and schedules for all student activities, including varsity and intramural sports.

The other authorizes the administration to assign up to 10 faculty members each year to serve on Middle State Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools evaluation teams for other high schools.

Board members approved a number of special activities for the coming months. The Dayton and Arthur L. Johnson (Clark) Kiwanis Key Clubs will attend the district convention March 21-23 at Mt. Airy Lodge in Pennsylvania. The board will pay transportation costs of $290 for 35 boys from Dayton and six from Johnson.

The Dayton Band Parents Association will sponsor a "tournament of champions" Oct. 26 at Meisel Field in Springfield.

The Dayton Vocal Workshop and La Chansonniere will hold a choral weekend workshop April 25-27 at the Central N.J. YMCA Camp in Blairtown, with expenses to be paid by the Choral Parents Society. A group of 25 Dayton students will take part in the National Choral Competition Festival in Washington, D.C., May 31 to June 3, with costs to be paid by the students and parents.

A group of 33 students and their advisors from all four high schools will attend the Columbia Scholastic Press Association conference this weekend in New York.

Election

(Continued from page 1) conducted over an eight-week period in the spring, with two 90 minute after-school sessions held each week. "There will be coed opportunities in the program," he said, but explained a decision has not yet been made as to whether there will be one joint program, or separate ones for boys and girls.

A request by the borough Recreation Commission to approve installation of a temporary backdrop at the opposite corner of the Beechwood School softball field was tabled until the March 18 meeting to give board members an opportunity to inspect the site. Members of the commission appearing at the session noted the present area used for the girls' softball program is "unsafe for play" because of poor grading.

DAYTON DISPATCH

By MARC BLOOM

Last week, the Dayton student body was twice informed that there would, effective immediately, be a security clampdown in two areas: the school library (instructional media center) and student parking.

Evidently, the school administration is concerned that students are stealing books and parking spaces.

For now, let's forget about stolen books and talk about stolen parking spaces.

There are a certain number of parking spaces surrounding Jonathan Dayton, the majority of which are reserved numerically for teachers, with the remaining few being reserved for students. It seems that spaces reserved for teachers are being used by students and this, of course, the teachers do not like.

Were this writer a teacher, he probably wouldn't like that either. This writer is not a teacher however.

A recent memo distributed to the student body warned that students who park in a reserved space will be year, July 1, 1973 to June 30, 1974. This audit is available for all to read in our board secretary's office.

"I promised to call to the attention of Mountainside taxpayers the facts and numbers describing actual surplus resulting from board operations. For the school year 1973-74, the board conducted its operations to under-spend by $26,739.90, as listed on page 14 of the official audit. This sum was added to surplus, plus $13,430.44 excess revenues, plus $2,482.54 for prior year order adjustments, to give a total increase added to surplus of $42,652.88. With the large addition obtained by close control of operations, the unallocated surplus at the end of the school year was $122,408.68.

"Claims were made that the surplus would be in range of $200,000 to $241,000. These predictions are thus almost twice the actual figures. Now our citizens can measure credibility with these actual audit figures.

"Carrying on for school year 1974-75, the surplus will be reduced by $70,000 according to presented budget. The $122,408.68 figure will then become an unallocated surplus of $52,408.68. However this figure can only be firm for audit when actual results of expenditures, revenues and order adjustments become available on June 30, 1975.

"From actual costs to date, the budget reduction of $100,000 to $130,000 claimed by board antagonists for the present school year were completely impossible.

"I hope these audit figures will now close the circle and restore credibility by reporting actual audit surplus compared to campaign claims. We owe our taxpayers this much consideration."

Similar incidents of damage noted

Two similar incidents of malicious damage to autos were reported by Mountainside police last week; both occurred the night of March 6 or the following morning.

Police said a station wagon parked in front of a Poplar avenue home had its front fender dented and its driver's window shattered by a rock, resulting in approximately $60 worth of damage. The rear window of a car parked in front of a Puddingstone road residence also was broken with a rock, which was discovered in the vehicle. Police said a neighbor reported hearing glass breaking at about 2 a m

Officer escapes unharmed after ramming vehicle

A Mountainside patrolman escaped injury March 5 although he tried to halt a stolen auto, occupied by two burglary suspects by ramming the vehicle with his patrol car after a two-mile high-speed chase from Westfield on Rt. 22.

According to police, Officer Jack Yerich spotted the vehicle, a station wagon stolen from a Westfield home, on Barchester way in that town. When he attempted to pull it to the side of the road, the vehicle fled east on Rt. 22. The wagon attempted to negotiate the east-to-west U-turn near Mountain avenue and Yerich rammed the rear of it with his car, which then stalled. The wagon fled west on the highway, and was later found by Yerich abandoned in a parking lot of Anthony's Pools, Rt. 22, minus its two male occupants. A witness said they fled on foot toward Oak Tree court, but a search of the area failed to reveal their whereabouts.

Police said the saga began on Rising way in Westfield shortly before 9 p.m. when officers, investigating a burglary on that street, halted an auto reportedly to be used as a getaway car for the thieves. They apparently saw their alleged accomplice being questioned by police, and ran to nearby Kent place. On that street, they saw a woman standing in a garage and confronted her, demanding her station wagon. Her son, who came to her aid, was struck by one of the men before they fled in the vehicle, police said.

As they were driving toward Rt. 22, they were spotted by Yerich, and the chase began. The driver of the auto which was halted in Westfield was held by police there as an alleged accomplice.

Letters to Editor

SKIER'S THANKS

To all Mountainside residents: I wanted to take this opportunity to say thank you to all of you for your help in the fund drive to send me to Lake Placid for the World Winter Games for the Deaf. Your enthusiastic response in aiding me left me speechless. I only wish my performance had been better and that I could have brought some gold, silver or bronze home.

However, I did learn something at Lake Placid, and that was that I would have to work harder to win the next time. I hope there will be a next time, and I also hope that the next time will enable me to bring home a "solid" thank you.

Again, thank you for your absolutely super support.

ROGER A. SWANSON

Swanson chosen as vice-president

Roger A. Swanson of Mountainside has been appointed executive vice-president of Pyrotronics, a Baker Industries Inc. organization. The announcement was made by Joseph E. Johnson, Pyrotronics president.

Swanson will be responsible initially for the manufacturing operations of Pyrotronics' two plants at Cedar Knolls and at Dublin, Ga. Pyrotronics manufactures a complete line of early warning fire detection systems. He joins Pyrotronics from Weston Instruments of Newark, a subsidiary of Schlumberger Limited, where he had been president since 1970.

Swanson holds a B.S. degree from Harvard University where he majored in engineering sciences and applied physics, and an M.B.A. degree from the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration. He is a former officer in the U.S. Navy. A native of Massachusetts, Swanson lives in Mountainside with his wife and four children.

Owens accepted into honor society

MARIETTA, OHIO — Marietta College junior Elizabeth C. Owens of Mountainside, N.J., has been initiated into membership in Omicron Delta Kappa, the national leadership honorary society. She was one of 20 Marietta students, including 14 women, selected for membership in the formerly all-male body.

Miss Owens, a 1972 graduate of Governor Livingston Regional High School, is involved in a number of activities at Marietta. A dean's list student, she is a cheerleader, president of the Pan-Hellenic Council, vice-president of her sorority and a freshman orientation leader.

She is the daughter of Dorothy C. Owens of Tanager way, Mountainside.

Parents to form advisory unit for Title I program

The Title I Parent's Group of the Union County Regional High School District will hold a public meeting at 8 p.m. next Thursday, March 20, in the Instructional Media Center, David Brearley Regional High School, Kenilworth, according to Mrs. Betty L. Ruffley, Title I director.

The purpose of the meeting will be to select a Parents Advisory Council consisting of Title I parents, interested members of the Regional District community and high school personnel.

Mrs. Ruffley said: "The Regional program has two main thrusts. The first is designed to improve computational skills of the students while the second program will attempt to provide the youngsters with a wide variety of language experiences. Title I funds are made available to school districts for projects which are geared to prevent or eliminate educational disadvantages for the "educationally disadvantaged."

Faculty members taking part in the program will be available at the meeting to answer questions and to explain the wide variety of learning materials and audio-visual aids that will be used in the program.

Interested persons who desire further information may contact Mrs. Ruffley at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School on Mountain avenue, Springfield. School phone number is 376-6300.

Rotary luncheon for 'Old Timers'

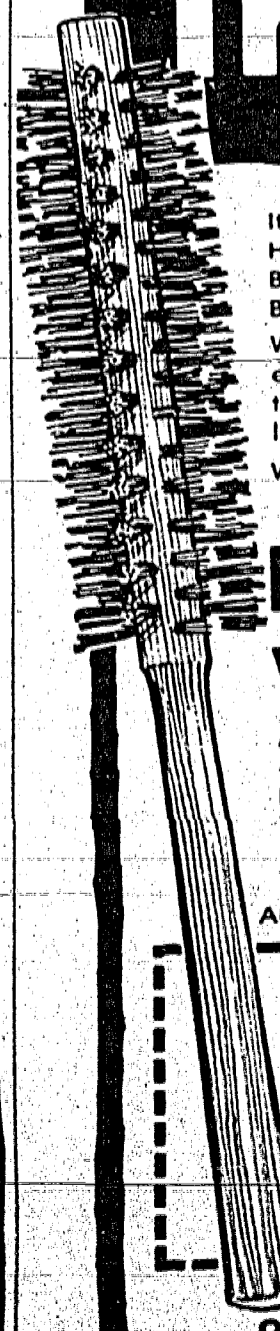

The Mountainside Rotary Club will hold an Old Timers' Day Luncheon in conjunction with its quarterly Rotary Ann's meeting Monday at noon at the East Winds Restaurant, Rt. 22, Scotch Plains. All former Rotary Club members, as well as members of the now-defunct local Lions and Kiwanis chapters, have been invited to attend.

"The Lions and Kiwanis have disbanded their organizations," a Rotary spokesman said, "and this is an opportunity to look at the only remaining association of similar endeavor. With the economy being as it is, participation in a local service organization is a vital necessity for the betterment of the community."

The Mountainside Rotary holds its regular meetings every Monday at 12:15 p.m. at the East Winds.

Stone is an associate member of the International City Managers' Association and a past president of the New Jersey Municipal Management Association. He formerly served as a member of the City Council of Elizabeth and established the first centralized purchasing department for the City of Elizabeth. Prior to his present position, he was administrator for Paramus and Rahway, responsible for their overall operation and the implementation of the policies of their governing bodies.

An invitation to attend this meeting has been extended to all township residents by Leslie Zucker, president of the Springfield League. "Since our League has endorsed the establishment of the position of ordinance administrator for our community, we would like the people of Springfield to join us in this excellent opportunity to hear and question a person who has a great deal of experience in the field of municipal administration," she said.

FRIDAY DEADLINE
All items other than spot news should be in our office by noon on Friday.

Director will speak at YWCA

The New Jersey Shakespeare Festival, located at Drew University, Madison, will be discussed by its artistic director, Paul Barry, at the Summit YWCA Kaffeeklatch program on Wednesday.

Part of the program will be devoted to the festival slide show and part to a general discussion about the festival program and the value of theater to a community. Questions will be welcomed from the audience.

Barry founded the festival in 1961 and has served as its artistic director since, staging almost all of its 16 productions. The N.J. Drama Critics Association named him best director of a play in 1973 for his work on "Coriolanus," and his "Summer and Smoke" was named best New Jersey production.

As an actor, Barry was named (with festival actor Albert Sanders) best leading actor in a play in 1973 for the title role in John Osborne's "Luther."

His abilities include directing, acting, fencing, choreographing, lecturing and playwriting. Besides directing the festival, Barry is a guest professor at Drew University teaching an advanced acting course.

Open to the public, Kaffeeklatch begins at 9:45 a.m. with coffee and conversation and ends at 11:15. Newcomers to the area have been urged to attend. Babysitting for infants 18 months and over and 10-15 min. advance classes for children 3-5 are both available at a nominal fee. Further information may be obtained by calling the YWCA, 275 4742.

JCPL rate decreased

Jersey Central Power & Light Company has announced a decrease in the March energy adjustments charge to its 650,000 customers.

Shepard Hartnett, JCPL president, said, "The energy adjustment for March will be 77¢ per kilowatt hour, a reduction from the February charge of 80¢ per kilowatt hour."

The JCPL executive said the reduction was attributable to several factors. The most noticeable was the continued reliable operation of the Oyster Creek Nuclear Station and of the Three Mile Island Nuclear Station in Pennsylvania in which JCPL owns a 25 percent share. These two plants produced more than 50 percent of the generation needed in the three-month period in which the energy adjustment was issued.

Hartnett also noted that the cost of fuel oil burned by the company's steam plants decreased slightly.

He explained that the energy adjustment factor does not increase the company's net income, but is the means by which the utility passes on to its customers increases in the cost of the energy needed to generate electric power. It can change from month to month and is subject to approval each month by the New Jersey State Board of Public Utility Commissioners.

Two men arrested for burglary at Runyon Sales Co.

Two West Orange men, one a former employee of the Runyon Sales Co., were arrested by Springfield police March 6 allegedly while in the act of burglarizing that Rt. 22 firm.

According to Det. Dominick Olivo, one of the arresting officers, police reported to the building at 11:20 p.m. in response to an alarm. Apprehended inside were William Reinhardt, 25, and Joseph E. Kane, 28, who reportedly had broken into the premises through a rear overhead door.

Both were charged with break and entry and larceny, possession of burglar tools and possession of less than 25 grams of marijuana. Kane, who police said had been employed as a driver for Runyon until about a year ago, also is accused of possession of dangerous weapons—brass knuckles and a billy club. Reinhardt faces an additional charge of being under the influence of marijuana.

Det. Edward Kisch and Officers Daniel Madding and Robert Polewka assisted in the arrests. Kane was released on $2,600 bail; Reinhardt, on $2,000 bail. Both are to appear in Springfield Municipal Court on March 24.

Banking unit to be host for public speaking test

Salsano, vice-president and treasurer, Springfield State Bank, Springfield, and president of the Middlesex-Somerset-Union Chapter of the American Institute of Banking, has announced that the MSU Chapter will be host for the New Jersey-New York District II public speaking contest at the Coachman Inn, Cranford, this weekend.

McDonough hits Byrne's budget

State Senator Peter J. McDonough, whose district includes Springfield, Mountainside and Kenilworth, claimed this week that the priorities outlined in Governor Brendan T. Byrne's new budget are a "thinly veiled attempt to coerce the legislature to support his income tax program."

"According to testimony by officials of the state's Office of Fiscal Affairs, the governor has underestimated revenues from many existing tax sources by over $143 million," McDonough said. "This underestimation helps create an enormous budget gap which the governor is using to help force legislative approval of a new income tax program."

Consumers' Corner
Numerous new laws dealing with consumer credit are fast becoming effective. Among the highlights of legislation passed by the last Congress, and signed by the President: Under the Equal Opportunity Act, sex discrimination is banned in the granting of credit. Historically stores, lending institutions and credit card companies have often denied credit to applicants simply because they were women. This is now illegal. Women applying for credit must now be judged, as male applicants are, on the basis of whether they have steady incomes and qualify in other respects as good credit risks.

County seniors council to honor founder at fete

Mrs. Evelyn Frank, founder and president of the Senior Citizens Council of Union County, will be honored at a testimonial dinner at Roland's, Roselle Park, on Wednesday, April 9.

Victor Kruza, Josephine Parris, Mary Caruso, John Murphy and Joseph Walsh, all members of the county group, are on the committee in charge of the dinner, which is scheduled for 5:30 p.m. Raymond O'Day (925-6674), county council vice-president, is in charge of reservations.

Among speakers at the banquet will be Mayor James C. Conlon of Union, Assemblyman Joseph L. Garrubio, Freeholder Director Thomas W. Long and Jack Voloshin, executive secretary of the New Jersey Council of Senior Citizens.

A resident of Union, Mrs. Frank organized the county council five years ago.

She is president of the Federation of New Jersey Senior Citizens Councils, secretary of the New Jersey Coordinating Council of Organized Older Citizens, on the executive board of the New Jersey Senior Citizens Council, chairman of the Union County Advisory Council on Aging, secretary of the board of directors of Union County Opportunities Industrialization Center Inc. and chairman of the Senior Citizens Committee, Union Township Community Action Organization.

Mrs. Frank is a member of the Retired Senior Volunteer Program Advisory Committee, Nutrition Council of Union County, Union County Manpower Advisory Council, Union County Transportation Advisory Committee, Union Township Community Relations Committee and Union Senior Residents Housing Corp.

In addition, she is second vice-president of the Adult Community Development Corp., a member of the Union Township Senior Citizens Department and the Union Township Senior Citizens Center and the Committee for Continuing Education at Kean College.

She is a former chairman of the Union County Anti-Poverty Council, United Jewish Appeal and Jewish Community Council, formed the Senior League of Union, is a past president of B'nai B'rith Women of Union and has served on the Union County Legal Services Board and the Lay Committee of Education.

Among awards she has received is a citation presented in 1964 for her work on a drug addiction program and the Mariners Award of Union Council, Knights of Columbus, for 1973.

Hospital group criticizes county's plan to cut funds

The Union County Hospital Society's Crisis Contingency Committee is scheduled to report Thursday, March 20, on steps the eight private, non-profit member hospitals should consider in view of the County Board of Freeholders' decision to reduce its 1975 appropriation for the care of the medically indigent.

The freeholders' proposed cut of $350,000 — the 1974 appropriation was $1.5 million — will present the hospitals and the people of Union County with "the grim prospect of reduced or eliminated community health services," the society said.

The 1974 appropriation did not cover the total costs incurred by the hospitals for indigent care, the society said. It noted that the eight hospitals "jointly lost $944,000 by rendering inpatient and outpatient care to those unable to pay. Altogether, 18,775 inpatient days and 27,992 outpatient visits were provided to medically indigent citizens from all Union County municipalities in 1974."

The society breakdown by municipalities (number of medically indigent patients admitted and the total of days these patients were hospitalized in parentheses) included:

- Kenilworth (18 for 214 days), Linden (155 for 1,093), Mountainside (3 for 87), Roselle (103 for 1,025), Roselle Park (22 for 150), Springfield (10 for 133), Union Township (68 for 615) and Winfield (5 for 49).

To render this inpatient care, the society said, the hospitals incurred costs amounting to $2,146,589. Services were also provided on an outpatient basis at a total cost of $491,145.

Hospitals which make up the society include: Alexian Brothers, Children's Specialized, Elizabeth General, Memorial General, Muhlenberg, Overlook, Rahway and St. Elizabeth.

Teachers told NJEA will fight school cutback

Union County teachers were assured last week that the New Jersey Education Assn., with its 81,600 members, "will vigorously oppose the elimination of vitally needed school funds for 1975-76 school year in order to protect the quality of the public schools."

Miss Kathryn E. Stilwell, NJEA president, told a legislative dinner meeting sponsored by the Union County Conference of Teachers' Associations at the Grand Centurian Club in Clark Friday evening that the NJEA will seek to kill any legislation designed to cut back or "freeze" normal increases in state school funding, "and we will work with equal determination to convince the legislature to pass the necessary taxes to insure full funding of our schools."

Also speaking on the program was Dr. Frederick L. Hipp, executive director of the NJEA.

Hipp recapped some of NJEA's successes in education legislation, but noted that "our severest test comes this year in seeking passage of an income tax plan that will assure adequate financing of public schools as mandated by the State Supreme Court order for a 'thorough and efficient system of education.'"

Hipp noted that the governor's message calling for $300 million in additional school aid was offset by a loss of $256 million in local property taxes under the "homestead" exemption proposal.

In addition, he said, the plan to "freeze" state school aid at last year's level, by not appropriating the $120 million needed to insure full funding, would severely hamper all school districts in the State, and not just the urban cities and the large suburban communities.

"Union County alone would lose about $4.5 million in anticipated State aid to local schools if the proposal (Assembly Bill A-3082) were allowed to pass," noted Hipp.

In Union County, the proposed cutbacks would mean:

- the loss of $550,900 for Elizabeth schools
- the loss of $277,855 for Linden schools
- the loss of $1,687,745 for Plainfield schools
- the loss of $220,250 for Scotch Plains-Fanwood Reg. schools.
- the loss of $241,242 for Union Twp. schools.

"Freezing state aid at the 1974-75 level," said Hipp, "would mean an end to a 20-year era of good faith in which the state has honored its commitments to local schools."

"The proposed-elimination also would run counter to the Supreme Court decision on Jan. 23, 1975, which ordered continuation of current school aid formulas to prevent 'chaos and confusion' in school budgeting," Hipp added.

The NJEA, he said, "cannot conceive of legislators being asked to adopt an income tax plan if none of the proceeds will be used by the State to maintain quality school systems and relieve local property taxpayers of this ever-increasing burden."

County Teen Arts Festival receives Bicentennial grant

The 1975 Union County Teen Arts Festival has been awarded a $650 grant by the New Jersey Bicentennial Commission through the State Teen Arts program. It was announced this week by Mrs. Garrett M. Keating, chairman of the Union County Cultural and Heritage Commission, sponsors of the festival.

The Teen Arts Festival will be held March 25-28 from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Vaughn-Eames Hall, Kean College, Morris Avenue, Union.

The grant will be used for special events during and after the festival. A selection of teen art works with Bicentennial heritage and horizon themes will be chosen at the festival for exhibition throughout Union County this spring and summer.

Based on the "Reader's Theater" techniques of Dr. Peggy Dunn of the Department of English (Speech-Theater) of Kean College, drama and history students from Abraham Clark High School, St. Joseph Carpenter and other Union County schools are presenting original dramatic sketches of Union County history at the Teen Arts Festival. The Bicentennial grant will be used for transportation to bring these historical dramas to schools and community groups around Union County.

Another portion of the grant will be used for workshops highlighting cultural heritage.

William Higginson, poet-in-residence of the N.J. State Council on the Arts, will emphasize the "old county" influences in American creative writing, and artist Eleanor True will demonstrate African arts and mask making.

Joseph Clinton, on the faculty of Kean College Department of Industrial Studies, will spend three days at the Teen Arts Festival. He will work with several hundred teenagers each day building a 7-by-14 foot geodesic structure, a model of the future in which all will share in the construction.

By means of the Bicentennial grant, video tapes will be made of the above mentioned and other festival events: student performances and art exhibition, workshops and master-classes. The filming will be done by students in the Union Township High School video program.

Teenagers participating in the festival come from county public, parochial and private schools and community groups. All events are open to the public and county residents are urged to come to the festival and see the artistic accomplishments of Union County teenagers.

Further information about the festival may be obtained by calling the Union County Cultural and Heritage Commission office, 272-3140 or 276-2600, ext. 306.

Basketball game at Kean College to help retarded

Geraldo Rivera of WABC-TV news will bring a team of "superstars" with him to Kean College of New Jersey on Monday to play a benefit basketball game for mentally retarded citizens against a team of college faculty and administrators. The game will be played in D'Angola Gymnasium beginning at 8 p.m. Admission is $2 and open to the public.

Rivera is best known for his expose of the substandard treatment of the mentally retarded at New York Institutions and his subsequent "One to One" festivals for the retarded.

All proceeds of the Kean College benefit will help support the 1975 One to One Festival, where each mentally retarded person is paired with a volunteer for a days activity and enjoyment. The One to One Festival also supports smaller private care centers for the retarded where they receive greater assistance and attention.

The Kean College Chapter of the Council for Exceptional Children, an organization of persons interested in the advancement of all exceptional children, is sponsoring the game and handling the ticket sales. Tickets are available at the C.E.C. office in the College Center Building on campus today from 1:30 to 3 p.m. or at the door Monday night.

Leading the faculty and administrators team will be college President Nathan Weiss, vice-president of administration John Korley, director of development Foster Diebold, dean of students James Benson Parks, associate dean of students Patrick Ippolito and assistant director of development Arthur Kirk.

Also playing will be director of business services Ed Callaghan, faculty members Charles Murphy and Donald Krall, librarian Mark Ferrara, recreation director Charles Murphy, assistant director of business services Walt Jablonski and budget analyst Dave Morgan.

Psychiatric clinic will hear Menza on mental health

"The Future of Mental Health in New Jersey" will be discussed by State Senator Alexander Menza (D-Union) and Benjamin H. Haddock of Scotch Plains at the annual meeting of the Union County Psychiatric Clinic March 24 at the Community Center in Cranford.

Senator Menza of Hillside is chairman of the Joint Legislative Committee on Mental Health. Haddock is chairman of the State Mental Health Planning Committee and executive director of the Clinic.

Senator Menza will discuss the state mental health program and the purposes of his proposed legislation in that field. Haddock will speak on the progress of county and state planning for mental health. Senator Menza is on the State Mental Health Planning Committee which Haddock chairs.

Dr. George Jones, clinic president, will report on the Clinic's current program and its activities during the year and will conduct the meeting at which the Clinic's trustees and new officers will be elected. The Cranford Community Committee of the Clinic will be the host.

Then I decided to take a leave of absence and get my master's degree in rehabilitation at Boston University.

My essential goal would be to get myself out of a job," she laughed, explaining that a large part of her work involves teaching the floor nurses to incorporate rehabilitation methods into their daily care of patients, and to teach families.

Rehab takes time. Nurses are busy. It's hard to stand by and wait while a patient does things when you are pressed for time with other patient needs or floor emergencies.

But patients need to be encouraged to try to do as much as they can themselves. If the patient is learning to feed himself in occupational therapy, it is important to continue to do it in the hospital so he will not do it for him in the home.

Simple things like eating or dressing are very important to the patient's daily living. They are things that are so important to the patient's daily living.

Miss Sweeney keeps the floor nurses in touch with the patient's progress in physical therapy and occupational therapy so they can coordinate their activities with the therapy goals.

For the nurse, emphasis for Miss Sweeney is on the patient's family. They have to be taught to do things that the patient can do. They have to be taught to do things that the patient can do.

It is very important when someone has the time to explain. In the beginning, the future seems bright, but as you see positive results, you are motivated to keep trying.

As part of the rehabilitation team, Miss Sweeney works with the physical and occupational therapists to help patients and their families to learn to function so they can cope with their problems.

Kalem to perform in Mozart opera

CLINTON, N.Y. Rachel Kalem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Kalem of Henshaw Avenue, Springfield, N.J., is performing in a chamber opera festival to be held this Saturday and Sunday at Hamilton College.

Ms. Kalem and a group consisting of Hamilton and Kirkland College students and one Kirkland professor will perform selected scenes from Mozart's opera, "The Magic Flute." The opera, first produced in Vienna in 1791, is a mixture of the comic and the serious. It is both a pantomime and an allegory of the Free Masonry and the struggles of the Masons under Maria Theresa.

The festival is staged by Carol Bellini Sharp, assistant professor of drama at Kirkland. Next Program, Kirkland's associate professor of voice is the vocal director.

NIH THE SEARCH FOR HEALTH
A REPORT FROM THE NATIONAL INSTITUTES OF HEALTH

FRAMINGHAM EYE STUDY
The Framingham Eye Study is the first large-scale epidemiological investigation attempting to identify risk factors associated with eye disease. Supported by a contract from NIH, National Eye Institute (NEI), the study is specifically aimed at determining possible risk factors for the prevalence of four leading causes of adult blindness and visual disability in the United States: cataracts, glaucoma, age-related macular degeneration, and diabetic retinopathy.

Cataracts is a clouding or opacity of the naturally clear lens of the eye, which in turn causes a progressive loss of vision. It is the most common cause of blindness in the United States and also leads to severe visual impairment. Cataracts usually develop when an individual is in the middle of the age range 40-70 years. The increased prevalence of cataracts with age is due to the progressive loss of lens material. Cataracts is a degenerative disease and its development is a function of the aging process.

The study participants are the survivors of the population living in Framingham, Mass., in 1948. The study has been conducted in three waves, with the first wave in 1948, the second in 1963, and the third in 1972. Girls' five wins last two to take Suburban second

By GARY SHERMAN

The Jonathan Dayton girls' basketball team concluded its season two weeks ago in state tournament competition by losing to Phillipsburg. The squad finished the season with record of 11-8 and finished second in the Suburban Conference with a 9-2 mark. Before facing Phillipsburg, the team beat Caldwell and Madison to finish Suburban play.

Dayton handed Caldwell's conference champions a 41-39 defeat as Randi Schnee, who contributed six assists during the game, sank a 20-foot shot with four seconds remaining. Laura Hockstein scored 16 points and Maria Johnson 10. Sue Tacovsky paced the team with 13 rebounds. Laura Hockstein grabbed 11. Outstanding on defense honors were Hockstein and Tacovsky, who displayed their hustle at both ends of the court. According to Coach Townsend, "The team played great defense—it was the best-played game of the season." Caldwell finished the conference season with an 11-1 record—their only loss coming against Dayton. Coming into the game, Caldwell had a 15-0 record.

Dayton posted its 11th victory of the season against Madison. Maria Johnson led with 24 points and Sue Tacovsky added 15. Sue Tacovsky, Melanie Owens and Irene Arnold each grabbed six rebounds. Maria Johnson was cited for her outstanding play on offense; Melanie Owens was cited for her outstanding defensive work. Melanie recorded seven assists, four steals and three interceptions.

In the state tournament, Dayton lost to Phillipsburg, 66-32. Maria Johnson (20 points and 17 rebounds) and Sue Tacovsky (9 points) paced the team; Melanie Owens grabbed 8 rebounds.

In 19 games played this season, Dayton averaged 47.6 points per game, while giving up 44.8 points per game to the opponents. The high total this season was 82 points against Madison.

Playoffs will start on Monday in DIPPER floor hockey loop

The third annual Dayton Intramural Program Physical Education Recreation (DIPPER) early morning floor hockey league closes its regular season with the league leading Red Devils (11-0) taking on the Blue Blazers (5-4-1) this morning at 7:15. Playoff action is scheduled Monday and Wednesday when the Devils take on the number three team. The second place Black Hawks (9-3) will oppose the fourth place team on Tuesday and Friday of the week of March 17th in a best of three series. The winners engage in a best of three series starting on March 25. Trophies will be donated by the DIPPER Director John Swedish to the league winners.

The Devils prepared for the playoffs by shooting down the 4-5-2 Green Rockets (who are currently in fourth place) by a 9-0 margin, led by John Montana (three goals, two assists), Carmen Scoppettuolo (three goals—four assists), Larry Maxwell (two goals, one assist), Joe Natello (one goal, one assist) and Jim Plytynski (one assist) supplying the scoring punch while Goalie Jerry Ragonese, Derek Nardone and Andy Cohen on defense. Rockets were led by Tom Moore, Mike Flood, Bob Lofredo, Tom Martino, Joe Pulice and Mike Lofredo.

The second place Black Hawks defeated the 1-10-1 Purple Kops, 5-2, and the third place Blue Blazers (5-4-1) by a 3-2 margin in other games. The Blazers have two remaining games in regular season play and could drop out of the playoffs if they lose both and the White Demons (4-6-1) win their remaining game against the Gold Cougars (2-8-1).

The Hawks scoring barrage against the Kops was led by Jim Hotte (two goals, one assist), Tom Ronco (two goals), John Flood (one goal, one assist) and assists by Bill Bjorstad, Mike Rossiter and Frank Bladis. John LaMotta and Bob Schneider scored for the Kops.

The Blazers lost to the Hawks on a sizzling line shot off the stick of Tom Moen in the final seconds. Bill Bjorstad and Tom Moen had scored the first Hawks tallies. Scott Andrus and Bill Bohrod scored for the Blazers. Chris Barry and Bohrod were credited with assists.

Florida will meet Oklahoma for State League title tonight

Florida will meet Oklahoma this evening at the Florence Gaudiner School for the championship of the State League. In last Saturday's semifinals, Florida topped California and Oklahoma upset Alabama on last-second shooting of Roy Zitomer. Florida captured the regular season championship of the State League while Oklahoma, which won only two games during the regular season, has posted consecutive upset victories to reach the championships round.

Oklahoma upset Alabama, 41 to 43, on a bucket by Zitomer with five seconds remaining. Zitomer, who is having a sensational play-off series, hit tow clutch free throws with 12 seconds remaining to draw the Okies to within one point. A few seconds later Zitomer stole an Alabama pass and went the length of the floor to score the winning bucket on a driving lay-up. In addition, Roy led all scorers with 18 points.

Barry Sherman was again very effective for the Okies. Barry tallied 12 points and was the receiver and scorer on many of Zitomer's play-making passes. Wayne Lewis played well at the center position for Oklahoma, tallied eight points and was strong off the boards. Don Magers also played well for Oklahoma. Don was strong on defense, rebounded with authority and tallied three points. Jay Bruder and Steve Warner also scored for Oklahoma.

Alabama was led by Larry Walker, who hit the boards well and played excellent defense. He led both teams in number of blocked shots and scored 13 points to lead the offense. Jerome Pulliam played well in the back court, scored 10 points, handled the ball very well and paced Alabama in assists. Vince Ceroose was effective in the pivot for Alabama until early foul trouble limited his playing time. Vince scored five points. Alabama also received strong games from Doug Freeman and Jeff Rosenberg. Doug tallied nine points and rebounded with authority. Jeff tallied six points and was also strong off the boards.

For the second consecutive week Florida needed a strong final period to win. Last Saturday, Florida used its press defense to score a 45-33 victory over California. The Floridians tallied 16 points in the last quarter, holding California to eight. Billy Condon was the leader for Florida. Condon stole the ball, set up plays, played strong defense, rebounded and scored 11 points in pacing his team to victory. Robert Steir was Florida's top rebounder and led the scorers with 14 points.

Florida's defensive specialist, Jack Chin, spearheaded the defensive press in the final period and tallied seven points. Damon Clark's aggressive play also assisted in the victory. Clark scored four points and forced many turnovers with his hustle and tough play. Tony Parker and Bob Meskinia were also strong for Florida.

California held the lead for most of three periods. John Lanza again paced California. Lanza was very effective in the back court, with many good moves, and finished as high scorer in the game with 15 points. Jim Craver, who hit the boards well at both ends of the court, tallied eight points. David Lerner and Mike McIntyre were both strong rebounders for California. Lerner also hit six points in the game. Danny Cereelli played aggressive defense and tallied three points. Steve Wright and Mike McIntyre both scored for California. Mike Trapani and Brian Silbert played sound floor games.

Nettes beaten by Maplewood in Suburban tourney, 51-50

The Springfield Nettes lost to Maplewood, 51-50, in the battle for third place in the Girls Suburban Basketball League Tournament. In the championship game, Cedar Grove repeated its regular-season triumph by defeating South Orange.

The Nettes' game was a see-saw affair. Springfield took an early lead which was seven points at halftime, see the Maples rallied for a tie at the end of three quarters, moved in front, by seven points late in the game and then withstood a Springfield which fell a point short.

Michele Gan came off the bench early in the first period and tossed in three baskets to spark the Nettes to a 15-7 lead at the end of the first period. In the second quarter Cricket Franklin took over, scoring five field goals as Springfield built an 11-point lead which was cut to seven at the half. Springfield maintained this spread through most of the third stanza until Maplewood scored the final eight points of the quarter to erase a 35-27 deficit.

Franklin opened the final period with a basket to give the Nettes their last lead of the day. The Maples then took command and opened a 51-44 lead with less than two minutes remaining. At this point, Franklin hit a free throw and a layup. Gan followed with a basket to make it 51-48 and, after winning a jump ball with 23 seconds left, Ellen Steve pumped in a short jumper to cut the lead to one. However, Maplewood successfully inbounded the ball, got it upcourt against the press and held it until the final buzzer.

Regional loses to East Orange in season finale

By GINNEY ALENSON

Ted Johnson scored the first two points for Springfield and that was the only time Dayton led in its state Group 3 loss to East Orange, 135-83.

The Panthers shattered their own state tournament scoring record by hitting for at least 32 points in each quarter of the game played last Wednesday at East Orange High School gym. The previous record (122 points) was set by East Orange against Mendham, in last year's state tourney.

Johnson, the game's leading scorer with 27 points, led off the scoring but the Panthers retaliated with the next 10, eight by Mike Booker, who ended up with 24 points, and two by Rod Williams (13).

Six points by Johnson lifted Dayton hopes momentarily—closing the margin to 13-10—but Tyrone Miles pumped in six points and Booker four more for East Orange and the score was 23-10.

East Orange scored on 15 of 28 field goal tries in the first period for a 35-23 lead, 15 of 41 in the second quarter to make it 67-45, 17 of 33 in the third stanza for a 101-69 bulge and in the final quarter shot 15 of 34. All in all, that's 62 for 136 from the floor. The Panthers also out-rebounded Dayton, 59-29, and the East Orange press forced 30 turnovers.

Springfield ended its season with a 4-17 record. Members of the Dayton squad who will be lost to graduation include Kevin Mercer, Tom Wisniewski, Bill Nevius, Larry Burns, Gary Preslaff and John Baranek.

Promising players who will be returning next year include Johnson, Jack Graessle, Tom Graziano, Bob Fleischman and Kevin Doty.

Junior Olympics 85-lb. mat crown captured by Smith

Springfield sixth grader Matty Smith took first place in the 85-lb. Junior weight class in the fifth annual AAU Junior Olympic wrestling tournament held at Plainfield High School last Sunday. Matty's victory was Springfield's first ever in the Junior Division (11-12-year-olds).

Seven local wrestlers reached the semi-final round with Matty being the only winner for Springfield. Other wrestlers who competed in the semifinal round included Brandt Feuerstein (55 lbs.), Frank Colatruglio (70), Chris Smith (119), David Szymanski (90), Pat Picciotto (95) and Joseph Roessner (80), who was unable to wrestle because of an injury.

Two weeks ago Matty won the first two rounds of this tournament. In the final round last Sunday, Matty lived up to his growing reputation as one of Springfield's most exciting wrestlers as he battled his way to an 11-8 victory. Several times he had to come from behind. In the final round Matty outclassed his Berkeley Heights foe in a 3-1 decision.

Matty's season record is now 9-4, second only to fourth grader Joe Roessner (9-2-1). This Sunday Matty will travel to Rutgers University to wrestle in the State AAU tournament as the only Springfield wrestler still competing for possible State Championship honors.

Heide wins shot put in Eastern meet with best toss by schoolboy this year

By GARY SHERMAN

Bruce Heide of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School won New Jersey's only gold medal at the Eastern Interscholastic track meet Monday night at Princeton, dominating all competition with a shot put of 64-5 1/4. Heide had four tosses of more than 62 feet as he whipped the favorite, Bob Will of Lynbrook, N.Y. His winning mark was the best in the nation this year.

The Dayton indoor track team concluded its season last week with a 3-1 dual meet record. In the Meet of Champions, which is composed of the top five finishers in each event in each of the four group meets, Dayton was represented by seniors Heide (shotput), Rainer Malzbender (highjump) and Ben Geltzeiler (880-yard run). When the meet concluded, Dayton's Heide was the 1975 state indoor shotput champion.

WINNING FORM — Mitch Kotler of Springfield, on top, tries to roll Delman Gannon of Irvington onto his back in early action at the Region 4 wrestling championships held Saturday in Union. Kotler went on to win the match and was a runner-up in the 158-pound weight division, good enough to earn himself a trip to Princeton this weekend for the state finals. (Photo-Graphics)

Kotler defaults in region final but advances to state tourney

By GARY SHERMAN

Last week, seniors Mitch Kotler (158 lbs.), Harold Manner (135) and Mike Rossiter (122) and junior Billy Francis (101) traveled to Union

High School to participate in the Region 4 wrestling championships.

Frosh wrestlers showing promise

The Jonathan Dayton freshmen wrestling squad, under the leadership of first-year coach Steve Cohen, did not finish the season with an impressive record but did gain experience and is expected to add depth and strength to next year's jayvee and varsity squads.

Dan Solazzi and John Ferry, wrestled on the freshman, Jayvee and varsity levels during the season. Rich Lofredo, Kevin Lalor and Tom Poulos also competed in Jayvee matches.

Other freshmen who competed in the seven meets included John Powell, Jay Fine, Steve Bleznick, Steve Bumball, Robert Hudak, Alan Grossman and David Zarra.

Wrestling at 101, Francis (20-0 this season) won in the preliminary round before being defeated by Tom Sloan of Roxbury and eliminated from the tourney. It was Billy's first loss of the season.

Rossiter and Manner, two seniors who came on strong in the latter part of the season, were both defeated in their preliminary round matches.

Wrestling at 158, senior co-captain Kotler defeated his opponents in the preliminary and semi-final rounds, but he had to default in the final round due to a knee injury.

Since the top two finishers in each weight class in each of the 8 regions advance to the state championships, Mitch will be ready to wrestle in the tournament at Princeton on March 18, 20 and 21.

With the graduating seniors leaving the varsity squad this year, many Jayvee wrestlers will be called upon next year to step up and fill the vacancies.

Bowling league includes parents, students, faculty

DIPPER Director John Swedish has announced that the first annual Dayton Regional students teachers-parents bowling tournament will be held at Echo Lanes in Mountaintide starting at 10 a.m. on Saturday, April 12. It is open to all students (present and past), teachers and parents in the Dayton Regional school system and will feature three different bowling groups so that it will be a family affair for 10 consecutive Saturdays.

Everyone is eligible to sign up either by contacting Swedish at 376-6300 or by coming to the Echo Lanes on April 12 and 19. Group bowling will be available on eighth and ninth grade student levels, 10th and 11th grade levels, and senior plus parents and teachers levels. Friends of Dayton are also welcome to participate. Team and individual competition will be available and appropriate trophies will be awarded by the Director.

Each person will bowl three games every Saturday with a $2 fee for each session. Bowling shoes will be available on a free loan basis from the alley. Applications will be available at the Deerfield School, Gaudiner School and Dayton Regional.

Anyone who cannot join during the first two weeks of the tournament are requested to contact the director so that arrangements can be made to include them in the remaining weeks of competition.

Local girls to compete for figure skating title

Audrey Pluskal and Melissa Schatz, both of Springfield, will represent the South Mountain Figure Skating Club in the 12th annual free skating and dance championships. This event, sponsored by the N.J. Council of Figure Skating Clubs, will be held at the Union County Skating Rink in Wanarano Park, Roselle, this Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The dance competition will be held Sunday from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Admission is charged at the door and the competition is sanctioned by the U.S. Figure Skating Association.

33rd antique show and sale next week at Parish House

Both floors of the Parish House, 37 Church Mall, Springfield, will be turned over to our 33rd annual Antiques Show and Sale, sponsored by the Ladies' Benevolent Society of the Presbyterian Church next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

As a spokesman added "It is a known fact that we will have one of the best collections of wares available in the area. Lamp shades (hand-crafted) to match a particular lamp base and room decor — beautiful antique jewelry like your grandmother wore and which is now "the thing". Our old silver is exquisite, what about starting a collection of coffee spoons for the adorable grandchild? Come look at the old prints and frames available for framing.

"This is a good year for antiques and we will have them. This year we are having more than 30 dealers from the Northeast plus many new ones who will be bringing their wares and setting up their booths for the three-day show. Last year furniture was in such demand that we plan to have more than the usual beautiful pieces of antique cherry, pine and maple furniture. Besides these items we will have articles of silver, copper and brass, dolls, combs, pictures, linens and we are hoping to have our country store to tempt the appetite.

"As all who have attended before can testify our Ladies' Society, which sponsors this show, is for the benefit of its mission work — not only abroad but in the U.S.A. will be serving hot and cold lunch each day, from noon to 2:30 p.m. A tea room will be open from 2:30 p.m. and a coffee shop will serve dessert and beverages on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings from 7 to 10 p.m. There will be a flower booth, boutique, and home baked goods also available.

ROGER MOORE plays the title role in Ian Fleming's The Man with the Golden Gun...

DISC 'N' DATA

By MILT HAMMER

Pick of the LP's... TO THE DOOR OF THE SUN: by Al Martino (CAPITOL RECORDS ST-11366)...

Al's 10 ear-soothers include: "To The Door Of The Sun," "Walking In The Sand," "Shadows," "Mary Go Light," "I'm Still Not Thru Missin' You"...

The big break came to Al Martino in 1952. Success, when it came, came too suddenly. After a start in nightclubs...

The sudden fame—and attached responsibilities—resulted when the smash single sold more than a million copies...

Martino spent the next seven years living in England, "doing what I knew best—singing."

In 1959, he returned to America, and raised every dollar he could—$14,000 in all—and made an album which he submitted to Capitol Records...

In 1972, Martino not only sang the theme song, but played a major role in "The Godfather," portraying Don Corleone's godson, singer Johnny Fontane...

The making of the movie wasn't a totally pleasant experience for Al. "I was promised the part, then scrubbed, then finally did it."
