Little action in primary on Tuesday

Mountainside voters will go to the polls Tuesday to cast ballots in the annual primary election, but those of Democratic affiliation will have fewer choices to make than will the GOP supporters.

The local Democratic organization this year failed to file candidates for the office of mayor and for two seats on the Borough Council. On the Republican side of the ballot, citizens will be able to support the candidacy of three incumbents, Mayor Thomas Ricciardi and Councilmen Peter Simmons and John O'Connell. Ricciardi and Simmons are seeking their third terms on the governing body, while O'Connell is running for election to his second.

The borough's Democrats will have the chance to approve candidates for members of the New Jersey General Assembly and the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders. William A. Wolf and incumbent Betty Wilson are seeking the two two-year terms in the legislature. Candidates for the three three-year freholder terms are Leda Pereselay, Anthony Amalfi and Abe Rosewig of the Regular Democratic Organization of Union County, and William A. Pagano, representing the No State Income Tax Unit.

The Republican contest for the General Assembly seats is between William J. Maguire and Donald DiFrancesco of the Regular Republican Organization, and Arthur A. Manner and Linda Wuuck of Regular

Unemployment still high in borough, Labor Area

March unemployment in Mountainside and the Newark Labor Area held near the previous month's levels, according to estimates by the New Jersey Department of Labor and Industry.

State officials, however, were unhappy with the continued high rate of unemployment—12.1

percent in the state, 11.5 percent for Newark and 10.2 percent for Mountainside in March because the beginning of spring is also the beginning of increased activity in the construction trades. The failure of the unemployment rate to drop in March, according to state labor analysts, means the construction industry is continuing to be in a state of depression.

An analyst in the Department of Labor and Industry's Newark research office cautioned that specific employment figures for municipalities and counties are based on the 1970 census and computer in relationship to other towns in the county. The state and labor area estimates—based on original data and surveys—are more reliable, he said.

Unemployment among Mountainside residents for March was listed at 10.2 percent; the rate was 10.0 percent the previous month. Estimates for March: 3,088 in labor force, 2,773 employed, 315 unemployed. February: 3,082 in labor force, 2,775 employed, 307 unemployed. The estimates for Union County—March, 247,573 in labor force, 231,095 employed, 26,478 unemployed, 10.3 percent unemployment rate. February, 257,054 in labor force, 231,232 employed, 25,822 unemployed, 10.0 percent unemployment rate.

Newark Labor Area (Union, Essex, Morris and Somerset counties)—March, 939,100 in labor force, 830,700 employed, 108,400 unemployed, 11.5 percent unemployment. February, 938,000 in labor force, 828,500 employed, 109,500 unemployed, 11.5 percent unemployment.

New Jersey—March, 3,337,800 in labor force, 2,934,600 employed, 403,200 unemployed, 12.1 percent unemployment. February, 3,316,900 in labor force, 2,918,700 employed, 398,200 unemployed, 12.0 percent unemployment.

Pool begins its 10th season, has membership openings

The Mountainside Community Pool opened for its 10th season Saturday morning, with a full program of events planned for the coming months.

As of Tuesday, 512 family memberships had been obtained, with that total expected to increase as the hot weather continues. Those memberships, carrying a $100 yearly family fee regardless of the number of members, singles memberships at $50 per year, and senior citizens memberships at only $15 per season, may be applied for at the Borough Hall, Rt. 22, any weekday between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. To date, 49 singles memberships and 51 senior citizens have been issued.

For the first year of membership only, an additional $20 registration fee is required. During subsequent years, previous season members receive application cards by mail. This year, thanks to a recently-adopted ordinance, fulltime Mountainside municipal employees who reside elsewhere may apply for membership. They will pay the full fee, and if the 825 family-membership limit is ever reached, borough residents will be given priority.

In addition, guest cards may be issued for $6 per week for persons under 21 and $12 per week for those over 21.

THE POOL OFFERS a wide choice of swimming and diving lessons. Registration for swim classes, to be offered in four sessions—9:05-9:35 a.m., 9:40-10:10 a.m., 10:15-10:45 a.m., 10:50-11:20 a.m.—began on Saturday and will continue until all sessions are filled.

Classes will be divided into four categories: Preschool, with lessons beginning June 30, July 14, July 21 and Aug. 11. Eight lessons with parent will cost a total of $3.

Yanks trip Cards, 14-11; Padres subdue Angels

By RICH REITER

Mountainside Little League American League action this week saw the Yankees get their first win of the season, defeating the Cardinals, 14-4. The game was called after three innings because of darkness, wild pitching and excessive walking. Yanks pitcher Ricky Braun allowed two runs in the first inning, but came back in the second inning to retire the side, 1-2-3. Anne Bunin and Ricky Julian pitched the last inning. Peter Feltman hit a home run, Bob Miecek a triple, Ricky Julian, Rick Braun and Paul Vetter doubles, Drew Greeley two singles and Matt Ryan, Ann Bunin and Chris Carpeny each had one single. The Cards had only one hit, a double by Eric Weiss. Tom Perotta pitched a scoreless third inning for the Cards.

The Padres-Angels game was a duel to the end, the Padres getting three runs in the last inning to win, 3-0. In the top of the third, the Angels had men on first and third with no outs. Chuck Van Benschoten struck out the next three batters. In the top of the fourth, the Angels loaded the bases with one out, but Van Benschoten struck out the next two. In the Padres' half of the inning, they loaded the bases and the Angels made a good foreplay at home for the second out. Van Benschoten then hit a hard shot to the outfield to score three and end the game.

In a close one, the Royals edged the Reds behind the pitching of Ed Mayer and John Schon. Tom Kurz and Jeff Burrows kept the Reds three runs ahead until the final inning, when Anthony Mazuca's grand slam homer put the Royals on top.

The Brewers won their third game, beating the Reds, 4-1. Mike Daulhauser pitched two no-hit, no-run innings and contributed two hits. Stewart Jurezak pitched and hit a two-run triple in the top of the fourth. Kenny Mueller and Colin Scholes had singles in the fourth inning. Pitching for the Reds were Tom Kurz and Jeff Burrows.

In the Major League, the Mets defeated the Giants, 12-5, behind the pitching of Tom Postell. Charley Bunin hit a double and Joe Sefack and Steven Scholes also had hits with Bunin and Peter Klaskin playing well on defense. Patrick Esemplare hit a home run for the Giants.

On 11 hits, the Dodgers beat the Blue Stars, 14-11. Kevin Betyan was the losing pitcher. John Magno was the winning pitcher. Hitters were John Brantley, Pete Bisio, Frank Gagliano and Jeff Bradshaw.

Community Fund workers 'shocked' at poor response

The Mountainside Community Fund trustees this week echoed such sentiments as "surprised" and "shocked" as they reviewed their index card directory of borough residents who have been remiss in supporting the local fund to date.

Thus far, slightly more than 40 percent have contributed, and the trustees said that the lack of response from the rest of the community may be attributed to procrastination rather than lack of interest.

"We're in an uncomfortable position," one trustee said. "Some of those who haven't responded yet are people who are very active in community affairs, and we just can't believe they would ignore giving to the local fund," adding that most of the trustees want to avoid embarrassing residents by having to call and remind them that they may have overlooked sending in a contribution.

The local trustees stressed that residents should put support for the Community Fund above other drives conducted in the borough, noting that revenue collected here, for the most part, is put to use here.

"Almost one third, $7,500, of this year's goal provides round-the-clock services of the Rescue Squad for emergencies and accidents, with transportation to and from hospitals for those who need the special equipment of an ambulance. Overlook Hospital, has no ambulance service of its own. They rely completely on the Rescue Squad who, in turn, rely on the Community Fund for support," Nancy Rau, chairman, stated.

In addition, the fund will aid seven other county agencies: Visiting Nurse and Health Services, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, Mental Health Association, Retarded Children's Psychiatric Council and Youth and Family Counseling Service.

"We really want to avoid door-to-door canvassing or a telephone drive," Mrs. Rau noted, "but we're getting down to the wire and we feel there are a lot of good people in this index file who appreciate the work the fund does and need a little nudge. I hope that's true."

Checks should be made payable to Mountainside Community Fund, Box 1175, Mountainside.

Dr. Hanigan says Botter school ruling too expensive with current financing

The Mountain side superintendent of schools, Dr. Levin B. Hanigan, at the request of Mayor Thomas Riccardo, has released a statement on the Botter decision regarding "thorough and efficient" education and the approval process and evaluation program related to it.

Hanigan's remarks originally were made at the May 5 meeting sponsored by the Borough Board of Education and IFA, at which Dr. William Brokaw, state deputy commissioner of education, was the guest speaker. Mayor Riccardo was the first to address the meeting. He requested permission to read the superintendent's statement at last week's Borough Board session and to release it to the press. It reads in full as follows:

"As superintendent of schools and the educational leader in Mountain side, I feel that I have an obligation to speak out on the subject at hand. The things I am about to say are in no way criticism of Dr. William Brokaw, the assistant commissioner of education, or his deputy, Dr. William Brokaw, our speaker. They are simply being the job that have been assigned to them by the Governor, Dr. Fred Barker. I have no quarrel with the definitions of thorough and efficient education, nor do I take exception to the educational process plan that Dr. Brokaw has presented and which the Board of Education has adopted. My practical evaluation of these highly qualified people is that I believe that the implementation of them would be an expensive in terms of additional school personnel, revised paper work, and staff writing red tape that I do not believe adequate funding in terms of state and/or local budget approval has the slightest chance of materializing.

"In terms of the educational program, I believe the provisions are stated beautifully, but if past history of educational funding from the state and local level is repeated, there isn't a ghost of a chance that the implementation can be locally realistic. Increased voter and legislative resistance to additional materials and equipment, guidance for all children, preschool through continuing education, resource rooms, learning centers, bilingual programs, highly individualized instruction and comprehensive education for all handicapped children indicate plain talky thinking and planning that will be paper provisions only.

"Equal educational opportunity as discussed in this document is like mother love. All agree that it is highly desirable, but when the concept must be locally supported by taking state aid money away from communities like Mountain side by a state imposed income tax and given to urban areas, the idea becomes repugnant and politically impossible. Granted that additional local support must be provided by the state, local communities will not support the idea until they are convinced that state expenditures have been curtailed to a defensible level and that accurate monitoring procedures guarantee that state aid money is indeed wisely and carefully spent for its intended purpose, the thorough and efficient education of children.

"Staffing ratios, school plant facilities and sites, and school and community relations are all expensive and ideal, but where are the large sums of money needed for implementation to come from?"

"Finally, I come to the approval process for the public schools. Their efforts are to be monitored by the state commissioner's representative and his staff in each county. If these people do not agree with the program and budget provisions of the local schools, the commissioner would have the power to force compliance with his decisions in these matters. In other words, local control of education would vanish and the state would take precedence. Such a state of affairs would be completely unacceptable to most local school districts.

"According to these 'thorough and efficient' provisions, every one of the 2,500 local schools in New Jersey would have to be evaluated each year by State Department of Education personnel serving completely at the whim of the commissioner. They would have no tenure or term of employment. Can anyone imagine that these people would be independent, capable, experienced school administrators or supervisors?"

"The magnitude of the task defies an accurate appraisal of cost, but those who seem to be most familiar with budgets estimate an increase of 200 to 300 percent over the present cost of the offices of the county superintendents of schools. Yet the commissioner continues to state that he can do the job with the personnel he has now in Trenton. With the poor track record of State Department of Education personnel who are poorly paid and inferior in quality to those who have been hired by local school districts, I cannot see how the monitoring job can be done successfully. Even with adequate financing, I can see no possibility that the required number of highly qualified, competent personnel can be recruited for the commissioner's staff.

"In summary, I agree with the proposed definitions of thorough and efficient education. However, the doubt that the fiscal and staff potential are likely to be available for implementation is still present. I strongly oppose state control of local education through the approval procedures outlined in the present proposal. Mountain side does not want or need this control. I further believe that if the State Department of Education still maintains that this plan is a panacea for real or imagined problems in public education, I suggest that it take over the Newark school system and run it with the 'thorough and efficient' proposal as a pilot project.

Assemblywoman WILSON reports

The State Department of Transportation is developing a revised Transportation Master Plan for New Jersey. This plan will have far reaching socio-economic and environmental impact on the state. I recently presented testimony on the plan to the DOT.

I believe that the major need in northern New Jersey is for mass transit. Uncertain energy supplies make it imperative that we become less dependent on the individual automobile. I support the extension of the PATH into Plainfield because this project would enhance present access to New Jersey and New York in a most efficient, safe, clean and inexpensive manner.

In addition, I testified against the proposed widening of the Garden State Parkway through Union County. Widening the Parkway would represent adherence to policies reminiscent of earlier times when energy supplies seemed unlimited, expediency was the order of the day and planning appeared to be an afterthought.

The township of Clark, for example, has suffered unusual burdens from the existence of the parkway. Feeder roads are overcrowded now and would become more so if the Parkway were widened. Residents of homes in the area would suffer intolerable levels of noise and pollution. Such a proposal is not in the best interests of our citizens.

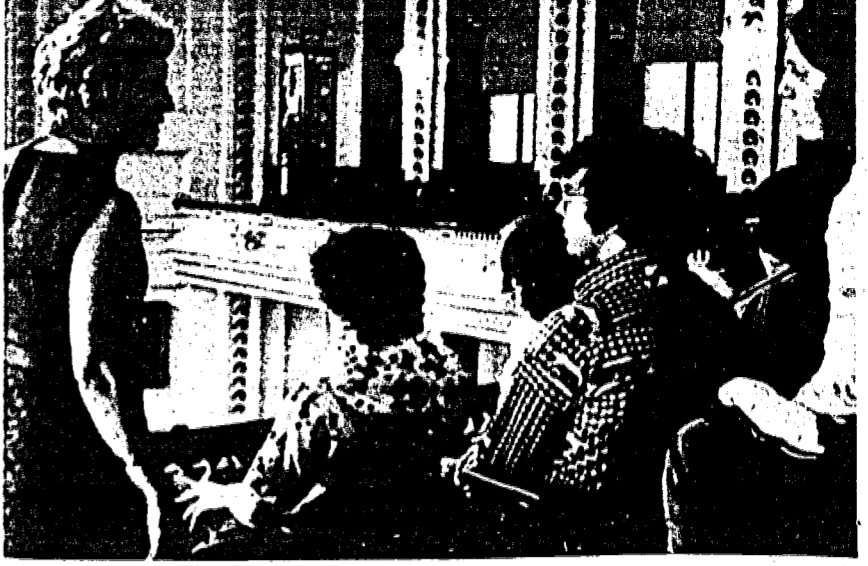

The transportation system in New Jersey has suffered from the lack of a master plan that reflects current needs and resources. The public has demonstrated a ready willingness to shift to mass transit if it is planned for and provided. The State Department of Transportation has the responsibility of developing viable alternatives to overcrowded highways.

Girl, 13, injured in bike-car crash

A 13-year-old Westfield girl was reported injured Saturday when she collided with an automobile while bicycling on Rt. 22 in Mountain side.

Borough police said the motorist involved, Dominick J. Petrucelli, 51, of Hillside, told them he was traveling west on the highway at 1:20 p.m. when two cyclists pulled out of a U-turn and crossed the road. He swerved to avoid them, but one cyclist, Diane Hynes of Westfield, reportedly struck the right rear door of the car.

She was taken to Overlook Hospital, Summit.

Grand jury will deliberate burglary counts against two

Two men arrested last week for a break-and-entry at the Mine Safety Appliance Co., 1100 Globe ave., Mountain side, were ordered held for the Union County Grand Jury after their cases came before Judge Jacob R. Bauer at the May 21 session of Mountain side Municipal Court.

Homert L. McConaughy and Jerry White, both of Newark, are accused of breaking into the firm's offices and stealing a television set and an adding machine, receiving stolen property and possession of burglar tools. They were apprehended May 15, the date of the crime, in an auto at Globe avenue and Mill lane.

In other court action, Lino Robles of the Bronx was found innocent of charges he failed to give a good account of himself when stopped by police officers May 15 on Rt. 22. Robles, however, was fined a total of $65 for driving an unregistered vehicle, being an unlicensed driver and misuse of license plates. John Luszcz of Jersey City, arrested April 16 for possession of a stolen automobile, was found innocent of that charge.

by the Mountain side Rescue Squad for treatment of a back injury. No charges were filed against Petrucelli.

Barry C. Ott of Knollwood road, Mountain side, was fined $65 and given a two-month suspended jail sentence for committing assault and battery against Jack Best of Mountain side April 4 at the Echo Lanes. Best was found innocent of charges he had assaulted Ott.

Motor vehicle cases heard at the session included that of Garland Y. Crouch of Wappinger Falls, N.Y., who paid $215 for driving on Rt. 22 while under the influence of alcohol.

Careless driving resulted in an accident on Rt. 22 brought a $25 fine to Guy Anson Potter of Chipping, Fla., while Mary R. Horton of Cranford paid $30 for careless driving resulting in an accident at Deer Path and Fox Trail.

Frank W. Gantt of Plainfield was fined a total of $40 for passing on the shoulder of Rt. 22 and for failure to have his driver's license in his possession.

Can nuclear energy hold down the cost of electricity?

Coal and Gas prices... Nuclear power is a great deal cheaper than oil and coal used in generating electricity in PSE&G's system. In fact, PSE&G presently pays one penny more for oil and six times more for coal than the equivalent amount of nuclear fuel. These savings in nuclear fuel costs are automatically passed on to you in your monthly bill.

Growing reliance on nuclear power

As power produced 28% of the electricity produced for PSE&G's customers. This growing nuclear influence is expected to stabilize your electric bill in the face of skyrocketing costs for oil and coal. Best of all, nuclear power will continue to play an important role in providing electric energy economically. This is true even though nuclear plants cost more to build than ordinary coal or oil burning units.

Nuclear power also plays an important conservation role

Nuclear produced electricity for PSE&G's customers saved the equivalent of 32 million gallons of oil during a recent month. Savings like these will become especially important in the days to come as heavy new taxes are now being added to PSE&G's

Summer Session at Union College begins on Monday

The first of Union College's two Summer Sessions will open on Monday at the college's main campus in Cranford and its Urban Educational Centers in Elizabeth and Plainfield. John Wheeler is director of the Summer Session.

Students who regularly attend Union College, students from other colleges and universities, a number of high school juniors and seniors, and many adults and part-time students are among those who will attend the session.

Classes will be conducted Monday through Thursday, in morning and evening sessions, Wheeler said. Morning classes will generally be held from 8:30 to 10:05 and from 10:15 to 11:50. Evening classes will be conducted from 6:30 to 8:05 and from 8:15 to 9:50. A few specialized courses are scheduled in early and late afternoon to accommodate certain groups, such as police officers, Wheeler added.

Summer Session I, which continues for six weeks, until July 10, will feature credit courses in the fine arts, humanities, natural and social sciences, foreign languages, business, criminal justice, mathematics, and education, and developmental courses in reading, mathematics, physics, chemistry and English. Developmental courses are for those who need a refresher or for those who lack the high school background to take the credit-level course, Wheeler explained.

Four levels of English for Speakers of Other Languages will also be offered for non-English speaking people. Placement tests will be given to determine at which levels the student should begin, Wheeler said.

The second, six-week session will open on Monday, July 14, and continue through Thursday, Aug. 21.

A brochure outlining all of Union College's summer credit programs, course descriptions and schedules, and application procedures may be obtained by contacting the Admissions Office at 276-2500, ext. 231.

Summer work sought for youth

The approach of summer has brought an appeal from the Union County Youth Employment Coalition for employment for thousands of young people between the ages of 14 and 18 who are looking for work.

Many of them have already started looking and have found job opportunities scarce this year, a coalition spokesman said.

Reporting that many industries and businesses which hired young people the previous summers are not planning to do so this year, the spokesman said. "If we are to make this summer a profitable one in experience as well as monetarily, then we must do all in our power to make jobs available for these youths."

He asked anyone with a job opening for a young person to call the coalition. The number for those in Union is 666-6150; in Westfield, 232-4759; in Elizabeth, Linden, Rahway, Roselle, Roselle Park, Kenilworth, Hillside, Colonia, Clark and Cranford, 352-8360.

This computer tunes up Then it plays real music

A senior electronics technology student at the Union County Technical Institute (UCTI) Scotch Plains, has designed and built a digital electronic computer that plays music.

Norman Compton of Pompton Lakes designed the entire system as a special project in the UCTI Digital Electronics Laboratory course.

Compton's music computer can play an entire three- or four-minute-long musical composition of more than 1,000 musical elements. With a range of four full octaves, the computer develops the full chromatic scale and memorizes the exact pitch and length of each note of the song in order.

The computer must be programmed using a special coded language developed by Compton. Then the musical composition plays automatically from start to finish at any speed selected by the operator.

"It does take a bit of time to get the computer properly programmed," Compton commented at a recent demonstration. "But once the computer is tuned and the various notes of a song programmed in, playing the song back is simple."

The tuning-up session for the music computer is not at all reminiscent of the expectant cacophony which precedes a symphony concert. It's quite the opposite. One note at a time, Compton taps in several pieces of data about the note desired and certain electrical parameters into his pocket calculator. Then, the answer is carefully tuned using a digital frequency counter.

The computer is completely solid state—that is, there are no moving parts. The entire machine uses tiny integrated circuits, each of which is comprised of several individual transistors, resistors, capacitors and other electronic components. The whole unit fits in a cabinet about the size of a cassette tape recorder.

What does Compton plan to do with his music computer? "Break it down for parts," he says. "There's quite a lot of money tied up in various integrated circuits, and I need some of the parts for other projects I am building in class."

But, he says, he does have the circuit diagram and if he feels "musically inclined" in the future, the music computer may well return.

Tax Act checks for $50 to go out

The Tax Reduction Act of 1975 recently enacted into law provides for a special $50 payment to every recipient of Social Security, Supplemental Security Income and Railroad Retirement benefits residing in the United States. These checks will be sent starting soon.

"The payment will be made to anyone who received one of these benefits for March" according to Robert E. Willwerth, manager of the Elizabeth Social Security Office.

The monthly payment for March must be received by August 1975 for the recipient to be eligible for the special $50 checks.

Willwerth said people who work intermittently and wait until the end of the year to request payment for months in which they did not work, should request payment for March now if they are eligible for a check for that month.

The $50 payment will be sent automatically by the Treasury Department. Willwerth said that, "No action is necessary to receive the payment; the checks should all be received by the end of June."

Pagano asks cut in spending levels

William A. Pagano of Elizabeth, Democratic primary candidate for freeholder, has called upon government at all levels to curtail spending.

Pagano said, "The reason for high prices and high taxes is the continual spending of government at all levels for services most of the people don't want, can't afford and don't need. When the federal government runs a deficit it just prints more money, thereby making every dollar in your pocket worth less. When the state, county and towns want to spend more money than they normally take in, they raise your taxes."

Pagano said, "You don't have to be an economist to know we are going broke and that it is about time government started listening to the people."

"What we need is a complete belt-tightening. If the taxpayer must live within a budget and curtail the many things they once considered as necessities then so should government."

Chinatown, colony for artists among tours planned by UC

Seven one-day tours, a weekend in Tanglewood and a week of painting on location in Rockport, Mass., are planned by Union College's Department of Continuing Education.

According to Weyman O. Steengrafe, director of the department, the tours are designed "to bring together those with similar leisure interests who would enjoy the opportunity to visit places of historical, intellectual and social value."

"What better way to enjoy a vacation or one-day trip than by having all the transportation, tickets and other arrangements handled by someone else?" commented Steengrafe. "The coordinator, Mrs. Kay Weiner of Westfield, also provides background and guidance so that each trip may be fully appreciated."

All of the trips are open to area adults, whether they are Union College students or not, Steengrafe noted.

"Continuing education programs are all geared for adults who turn to their community college for personal and professional enrichment," he said.

"Landscape Painting in Rockport" will feature a week in a fishing village which has become an artist colony, Steengrafe said. Three hours of art instruction will be provided by Michael Stoffa during the mornings. Afternoons may be spent painting, sightseeing, visiting art galleries or relaxing. Accommodations may be made at the Ralph Waldo Emerson Inn or at a motel of the student's choice. The trip is scheduled from Sunday, July 13, through Saturday, July 19.

"Weekend in Tanglewood" will be held from July 11 to 13. Among the special attractions at Tanglewood, located in Massachusetts' Berkshire Mountains, are summer concerts by the Boston Symphony Orchestra. A sightseeing tour of Stockbridge, Chesterwood Studio and Georgian homes in the area is also planned.

One-day trips are planned to the Sleepy Hollow Restoration, home of Washington Irving, in Tarrytown, N.Y., on Wednesday, June 11; Waterloo Village, an 18th century New Jersey settlement, on Saturday, June 14; behind-the-scenes in Chinatown, New York City, including luncheon, on Wednesday, June 18, and Wednesday, July 2; and Boscobel and Dicks Castle, classical dream houses in Cold Springs, N.Y., on Saturday, June 21.

Also, Pleasantville, N.Y., including the Oriental Stroll Garden and Hammond Museum, on Wednesday, June 25; behind-the-scenes on Broadway, including a performance and backstage tour of "Sherlock Holmes" on Saturday, June 28; and Peters Valley, N.J., featuring an arts and crafts demonstration and shop tour, on Wednesday, July 9.

Additional information about any of the tours may be obtained by contacting Steengrafe's office at Union College at 276-2500, ext. 238. A brochure outlining all the trips, in addition to other summer programs at the college, including tennis, fine arts, psychic awareness and conversational Italian, may also be obtained by contacting Steengrafe's office.

UNDERSTANDING ALCOHOLISM

Morris E. Chafetz M.D., Director National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism

The proportion of American teenagers who drink alcoholic beverages has been steadily increasing so that currently drinking is almost universal among youths by the time they are seniors in high school.

Alcohol is used much more frequently than marijuana by high school seniors. Approximately 40 percent of senior boys have used marijuana, while 33 percent have used alcohol. For senior girls, 36 percent have used marijuana and 37 percent have used alcohol.

Here are some suggestions from NIAAA for adults:

(1) Be a good example. If teenagers see parents or other adults with whom they identify and for whom they have respect drinking in a responsible manner, they are more likely to become responsible drinkers themselves.

- (2) Examine your own use of other drugs, such as tranquilizers and "pep pills." Excessive use of any drug can establish a pattern in the eyes of youths which they may feel free to copy.
- (3) Make factual information available to your kids. Alcohol is available to your kids. Teach it yourself.
- (4) Watch for signs of irresponsible drinking. Early identification may prevent a teenager from becoming a problem drinker as an adult.

(5) Get professional help for diagnosing a suspected drinking problem.

Columbia tabs Overlook: 1st suburban 'classroom'

Overlook Hospital in Summit has been selected as the first suburban community hospital to become a teaching affiliate of Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons, according to a combined announcement from both institutions this week.

"Quality patient care is the prime goal of this affiliation. It will insure a continuing supply of outstanding young physicians for the Overlook area," commented Robert H. Mulreany, Overlook's board chairman.

Under the Columbia affiliation, each year 18 young doctors who have completed their medical school training would come to Overlook for a broad-based clinical experience before entering their residencies at other Columbia-affiliated hospitals in fields such as anesthesia, radiology, psychiatry, ophthalmology and obstetrics-gynecology.

Columbia students desiring a residency in that field. "Columbia has a particular interest in exposing its students at the earliest possible stage to family practice, in the hope that many will choose to practice general medicine instead of specialties," commented Dr. Donald Tapley, dean of Columbia College of Physicians and Surgeons.

"At Overlook we have found a hospital that is forward-moving and community-minded, a hospital that can offer the full range of sophisticated services important to the good practice of medicine," he pointed out. He added that the high level of teaching faculty on the Overlook Medical Staff had been another important factor in Columbia's decision.

Dr. Donald F. Kent, director of Family Practice at Overlook, will be appointed director of a new division of Family Medicine at Columbia and many of Overlook's physicians will now receive faculty appointments at Columbia.

Physicians on the Overlook medical staff will be involved in the training of the young doctors, making daily rounds, holding weekly conferences in every specialty, strengthening their own continuing medical education through symposia and other teaching assignments, according to Dr. William F. Minoque, director of medical education at Overlook.

Overlook now has 27 full-time physicians on its staff, either in charge of specialized services or holding the posts of directors of education in their various specialties. By July the hospital expects to have 85 residents in training in its programs.

Many married women who fail to make a will deprive themselves of an opportunity to dispose of their property in the appropriate manner. Most married women—and men too—believe that the husband's will is enough for one family. That may not be the case. In fact, many women possess valuable real and personal property including such things as jewelry, furs, paintings, heirlooms, life insurance policies, stocks, bonds, and real estate.

Recommendations for women traveling alone at night were published by the National Safety Council. Among their valuable tips they advise that the lone lady on dark streets should:

- Carry a flashlight.
- Avoid walking near bushes, alleys and other shadowy areas.
- Stick to the brightly-lit main thoroughfares.
- Be on the lookout for uneven sidewalks, broken curbs and holes that could cause stumbling.
- While passing through lonely, dark stretches in an auto keep doors locked and windows closed.
- When unknown persons sighted, proceed to a well-lighted area such as a gas station before pulling over.

Candidates endorsed

Union County Republican chairman Mrs. Barbara Claman of Westfield has urged all Republicans and Independents in the 22nd Legislative District to vote for State Assembly candidates William J. Maguire of Clark and Donald DiFrancesco of Scotch Plains.

She said these two organization candidates are "the best qualified and strongest team to turn the district's two Assembly seats to the Republican column in November."

She added, "While Republican Sen. Peter J. McDonough was elected to the upper house in 1973, the district's two Assembly seats went Democratic for the first time during that landslide year. I believe strongly that if the voters really want to say 'no' to Gov. Brendan Byrne and his rubber-stamp Assembly, Maguire and DiFrancesco are clearly the best choices."

"The overwhelming 66-14 Democratic control of the Assembly has resulted in the income tax being passed and several other programs that simply don't represent the point of view of the citizens in the 22nd District."

Mrs. Claman noted that Maguire and DeFrancesco earned the endorsement of the District 22 committee and the "overwhelming" endorsement of the county GOP executive committee.

The Minute Man statue that will once again stand in front of Harmonia Savings Bank at Union Square commemorates the 16 day battle in which a small band of Continental Minute Men fought a force of 6,000 British and Hessian troops.

Col. Elias Dayton, in command of the New Jersey Brigade, had left a dozen minute men in command of Ensign Moses Ogden, 19 year old Elizabeth youth, to observe and report on, and, if possible, check any British advance. They had stationed themselves at what is now Union Square, and at daybreak on June 7, 1780, heard the tramp of an approaching column.

The troops of the British marched in full splendor up Old Point road, now First Avenue, unaware of impending opposition, and in view of the unresisted raids which they had previously conducted during the winter, evidently expecting none.

Young Ogden gave the command to fire, and on the first volley General Thomas Sterling fell, with a bullet wound in his right thigh, from the effects of which he died, nearly a year later. The troops were thoroughly demoralized, not even attempting to return the fire, and in obedience to commands given by Colonel Dayton, Ogden and his minute men retreated up Water street, now known as Elizabeth Avenue. At Broad Street Colonel Dayton received word of the approach and numbers of the enemy, and leaving skirmishers to harass the column from vantage points, retreated out West Jersey street, old Westfield road and Galloping Hill road to Connecticut Farms where the battle took place in which young Ensign Ogden was killed.

The following morning, at a point just east of the present Union Square, General Hand, of the Continental forces, engaged in another battle, the outcome of which was the dislodging of the British from strongholds near the Cross Roads, and their subsequent falling back to their station near the sound, while Hand took up a position in West Jersey street, near the present Cherry street intersection. Skirmishes on this ground continued until the British retreated to Staten Island June 22nd.

There is little doubt among historians that the checking of the British advance, first launched by the little group at the "Cross Roads" resulted in preventing an attack on the important stronghold of Morristown, where Washington was encamped, and caused the British officers to receive a much higher estimate on the fighting qualities of the minute men and the militia. This estimate was still further raised a few weeks later, when the battle of Springfield was fought.

'Alice' film leading man has 'desire' to be novelist

Kris Kristofferson is starred with Ellen Burstyn and Alfred Lutter 3rd in "Alice Doesn't Live Here Anymore." Warner Brothers movie for which Miss Burstyn was awarded an Oscar for Best Actress. The picture continues for a second week at the Five Points Cinema in Union and the New Plaza Theater, Linden.

KRIS KRISTOFFERSON

The comedy-drama, which was produced by David Susskind and Audrey Maas, and written by Robert Getchell, was directed by Martin Scorsese. Kristofferson, a Rhodes scholar, had studied English literature and decided to write. He even had a position offered to him at West Point to teach literature, but he turned it down to go to Nashville and write music.

However, he says he has that "deep-down" desire to write a novel and thinks perhaps he will once he's got the acting bug out of his system. "I guess," he says, "once I've finished these movies and get my concert tours finished, I'll take a year off and see if I can cut it with a book."

Give till it helps.

Heide leads Dayton to 2nd in section; squad earns Suburban championship

By GARY SHERMAN

The Dayton track team, led by senior Bruce Heide, compiled an impressive total of 30 points last Saturday to finish second in the 1975 North Jersey Section 2 Group 3 track and field meet, at Williams Field, Elizabeth.

This Saturday, the top five finishers in each of the events in the 16 sectional meets will journey to Highland Park to participate in the 1975 Group 3 meet. On Tuesday, the Dayton squad concluded its 1975 season against Roselle Park. In dual meet competition last week, the trackmen defeated Millburn High 78-53. With this victory, Dayton Regional became the 1975 Suburban Conference champions. The team record now stands at 12-1.

In the sectional meet, which included 15 schools, the top four schools were Parsippany

(35), Dayton and East Orange (30), West Essex (26) and Millburn and Morris Hills (24). Eighteen out of Dayton's total of 30 points were attributed to Bruce Heide's three first place finishes in the shotput, discus and 120 high hurdles. In the shotput, Bruce threw 62-1, breaking the old meet record of 55-9 held by Tom Watson and Morris Knolls in 1972. Also placing in the discus event was senior Bart Zabelski. In the high hurdles, senior Jeff Spolarich placed fourth behind Heide. In the two-mile run, junior Billy Bjorstad finished 4th, while in the 330 yard intermediate hurdles, Bruce Blumenfeld took a fifth. Other finishers for Dayton included Vic Vitale, fifth in the pole vault; Gary Zarin, fourth in the javelin, and Rainer Malzbender, fourth in the high jump.

Against Millburn, Heide and Mark Pezzuto finished 1-2 in the high hurdles, while Joe Natello, Ben Galtzeller, and Brandon Gambee sweeping the 100-yard dash. In the mile run, Gary Werner and Chris Clunie placed 2-3. The 400 yard dash had Galtzeller and John Geiser finishing 1-3, while in the intermediate hurdles, Bruce Blumenfeld was second. In the 880, John Keenan was second, Joe Natello and Larry Burns placed 1-3 in the 220, while in the two-mile run Billy Bjorstad was first. Millburn's mile relay team defeated the Dayton mile relay team.

In the shotput, Heide and Bob Potomski placed 1-3, while Heide also finished first in the discus. Gary Zarin finished second in the javelin. Vic Vitale and Carmen Apicella were 2-3 in the pole vault, while Rainer Malzbender and Pezzuto finished 1-2 in the high jump. In the long jump, Blumenfeld and Natello placed 1-2.

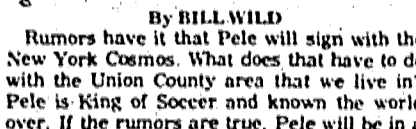

Net squad blanks New Providence; Summit wins, 4-1

By GARY SHERMAN

The Jonathan Dayton tennis team increased its team record to 8-4 last week with a 5-0 victory over New Providence. The teams dropped a 4-1 decision to Summit.

Against New Providence, Chuck Hobbs won his first singles match 6-1, 6-3, while in second singles, Jess Greenstein defeated his opponent 6-3, 6-1. Playing third singles, Joel Allen recorded a 6-0, 6-1 victory.

The first doubles team of David Garner and Scott Mayerson won their match 6-3, 6-3, while the second doubles team of Donn Fishben and Rich Simon defeated their opponents 4-6, 6-3 to complete the 5-0 shut-out for the Dayton netters.

Rumors have it that Pele will sign with the New York Cosmos. What does that have to do with the Union County area that we live in? Pele is King of Soccer and known the world over. If the rumors are true, Pele will be in a Cosmo uniform on Wednesday when the Cosmos meet the Hartford Conn. Bicentennials.

Hartford and the Cosmos keep trading places as No. 1 and 2 in the standings of the Northern Division of the North American Soccer League. Rochester has a few make-up games to play and might challenge the top two but it looks as if it will be between New York and Hartford.

If Pele plays in that game on Wednesday I don't think he will be an outright goal scorer but will give the Cosmos such a lift, that they will roll over Hartford.

The town of Union has a steak in this coming match because, as we all know by now, Unionite Manny Schelleid is the player coach of the Hartford squad.

My son Christopher reports to me that George Chapla, his gym teacher in Central Six has been off his foot for the past few weeks but now is ready to go. Chapla injured his foot while playing an exhibition game on the U.S. Olympic team and expects to be in good shape when he plays with the Hartford team against the Cosmos on Wednesday.

If the Cosmos use Pele in his usual spot in the lineup he will be coming right down the middle of the field to give Hartford goalie Mauser a rough night.

The King is coming, who will stop the King? You can bet Chapla will have something to do with it because he is the center fullback.

Now all we have to do is sit back and see if this will happen. See you all at Randall's Island Wednesday night at 7:30. Just head for the Tri-Borough Bridge and you will find it.

The Athletics ripped the Yankees, 12-11, in a season battle. The As scored six times in the first four innings but the Yanks got eight runs in their half of the fourth on doubles by Linda Graziano and Terri Scelfo. As regained the lead in the fifth with three runs, but the Yanks moved ahead in their half as Graziano's homer made it 9-9 and Perri Teitelbaum and Gloria Yee hit safely for the go-ahead run.

In the top of the sixth, the As' Carol Lombardi singled and Dawn Della and Roth Brown followed with back-to-back home runs. The last-inning Yankee rally fell one run short, ending with the bases loaded.

Brown (homer, double and single) paced the victors; Robin Kobrin, Katie Bernstein, Janet Kelly and Lombardi each contributed two hits. Della, Donna Baln, Susan Archman, Barbara Marintio and Karen Teitba, also hit safely for the As. Graziano and Teitelbaum, each with three hits, led the Yankees; Donna Baltus, Yvonne Burroughs and Gloria Yee had two hits apiece. Debbi Swenson, Christine Martino, Julie Lauton and Terri Scelfo each had one hit.

The Twins defeated the Yankees, 14-8, rapping out 22 hits. Nancy Hammel (with three hits including a home run), Melissa Monteicello

Floorball playoff s late listed: Arts-Keys, Basbers-Norms

Playoff action in the Dayton Daily Intramural Program Physical Education Recreation (DIPPER) early morning floor ball league will start this week when the undefeated Red Arts take on the Silver Keys and the second-place Blue Basbers tackle the Gold Norms in best-of-three series.

Last week, the Gold Norms (3-2-1) beat the Silver Keys (2-3-1) by a 5-1 margin to win the third playoff spot behind the scoring of Tony Francis (two), Harry Irwin (two) and Jeff Rockoff (one), and assists by John Irwin and Rick Morris. Gary Scheich scored the Keys' tally with an assist by Alan Layton.

The Basbers (3-2) sewed up second place with a 7-0 victory over the Green Mikes (0-5). Scoring were Ron Frank (three goals) and Frank Coelho, Steve Hechtle, Tom Grimm and Hee Young Lee. Assists went to Paul Barretto, Paul Klinefelter and Tom Grimm. Joe San Gregorio, Mike Wittenberg, Mike Simmons, Jeff Lubash and Al Haimowitz played well for the freshman sextet.

The Gold Vanguards (4-1) secured the first-place playoff spot by downing the White Whats (2-3) in the final regular season game, 45-35, behind the scoring of Mike Rosen (six), Wayne Halbgut (eight), Glenn Halbgut (11), Mike Mitsch (two), Rene Schneider (six), Paul Klinefelter (four) and Bill Witowsky (seven). White Whats scorers included: Joe Mirto (17), John Ferry (one), Larry Grant (two), Doug Grant (one), Rick Tryon (10), Mike D'Achille (two) and Mike Kane (two). Both teams face each other in a best-of-three playoff series since they finished first and fourth respectively. The Green Kaps (4-1) captured the second-place spot, since their loss came at the hands of the Vanguards, and they oppose the third-place Silver Ciscos (3-2) in a best-of-three series.

Last Thursday, the Kaps opened their series by edging the Ciscos, 44-41, in a game that went down to the last minute. Student teacher Lou Spirito (eight), teacher Bob Kozub (eight), teacher Tom Kaptor (seven), students Roger Dow (15), Steve Bumbal (four) and George Krugg (two) led the Kaps. Scorers for the Ciscos included: Mark Seymour (10), Mike Lemmerman (six), Tom Brennan (two), Mike Baumrind (four) and Rick Morris (19). The second game of the series is scheduled today at 7:15 a.m.

Glenn Halbgut's clutch one-on-one foul shooting with 30 seconds remaining enabled the Gold Vanguards to capture a 38-37 thriller from the White Whats in their opening game last Friday. Halbgut tallied 10 points, Wayne Halbgut 10, Paul Klinefelter 10, Bill Witowsky four, Mike Mitsch two and Ed Rosen two for the Vanguards while Mark Tryon (14) and Joe Mirto (19) were the big guns in the Whats' offense. John Ferry and Doug Grant had a basket apiece. The series resumes tomorrow at 7:15 a.m.

The first annual flag football classic will be held on the front lawn at 3:30 p.m. on Tuesday, June 3. Regional nine drops last two, finishes at 7-6 in conference

By AMY GELTZELER

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School baseball team lost its last two games of the season—to West Essex, 4-3, in a state tournament game and then to Summit, 3-0. The

Graziano fans 12 for 10-9 victory

Ward and Company edged Carter Bell, 10-9, in a closely matched Springfield youth baseball Senior League contest as Carter Bell came back from a three-run and later a five-run deficit to finally tie the score.

Ed Graziano, the winning pitcher, struck out 12 as he went the distance. Frank Zahn came in to pitch for Carter Bell in the first, and struck out eight over the last five and two-thirds innings. He pitched well in defeat, but some poor fielding hurt his team.

The Ward-attack was led by Graziano, a single and a double; Paul Kiesel, a single, double and two RBI, and Dan Pepe, who had two RBI singles. Jim Wnek and Pat Piccuto also hit for the winners.

Carter Bell was paced by Danny Kirschner who knocked in four runs with two singles; Steve Shindler drove in two runs with a long double to left; and Mark D'Agostini added two hits. Bob McCrossen, Mike Clarke and Dave Goldstein also had hits.

team finished with a 7-6 conference record, 9-12 all around.

In the loss to West Essex, Larry Maxwell and Eddie McCane each had one RBI. Jerry Ragonese and Tom Graziano hit doubles. Excellent pitching by Joe Graziano, Gary Presslaff and Billy Nevius was offset by the team's bad day in the field—committing six errors.

In the Summit game Gary Presslaff pitched a three-hitter for Dayton.

Coach Edward Jasinski was extremely disappointed that the team had lost its last six games: "The boys could not perform well as a team. Hitting and pitching were not as good as usual and too many errors were made."

Key Club defeats Fire Department

The Springfield Instructional League was paced by the power hitters in last week's action.

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School Key Club defeated the Fire Department, 27-21, on a 21-run third inning. Key Club collected 35 hits, highlighted by two triples by Craig Kobrin and Brett Yormark. Brett Walsh and Danny Spotts each belted five hits.

The Key Club defeated the Springfield Jaycees, 16-8, for their fourth straight victory. Crisp fielding by Kobrin, Charles Trunciale and Walsh, along with timely hits by John Smith, Eric Zara, Peter Sommer, Jay Siegel and John Zucker were the key to success.

Peter Pepe and Mike Meixner each had two hits.

Atlantic's Ed Johnson gained the victory against VFW, whose John Riccardi gave up five hits to Joe Policastro, four hits each to Jim Wnek and Ed Johnson and three hits to Bob Waryn, including a home run.

Ed Johnson again was the winning pitcher for Atlantic against Liberty and hit a home run. Peter Pepe and Joe Policastro pitched for Liberty.

VFW's John Haws gave up only two hits to Farinella. John Riccardi had two hits off Farinella's Kevin Coyle.

Atlantic rips VFW, Farinella in Major Division second half

The Little League Major Division, sponsored by St. James Church, Springfield, began the second half of the season with Atlantic Metals winning its first two games.

Atlantic Metals beat VFW, 29-1, and Liberty Movers 8-1. Farinella beat Liberty, 9-6, and VFW took Farinella, 4-0.

Farinella's Dave Szymanski, the winning pitcher, was backed by good plays from Ken Todd at first base and John Kelly who, on a fly ball to right field, threw out the runner trying to score from third. Matthew Smith had three hits. Drew Lator was losing pitcher as Liberty's

Rangers drub Brewers; A's shade Yanks, 12-11

In Springfield Girls' Softball American League action, the Rangers, behind a 20-hit attack, pounded the Brewers, 18-6. The Brewers, who administered the season's only loss to the Rangers, gave up seven runs in the first, three in the second and eight in the sixth. The Brewers scored a run in the fourth and five in the sixth.

Cathy Markwith, hitting for the cycle (single, double, triple, home run), led the Rangers. Gina Rile contributed four singles; Cynthia Souza, Lisa Agrillo, Janis Levine, Karen Hudgins and Lynn Morelli each had two hits. Valerie Bromberg, Amy Horn, Valerie Ragonese and Lisa Wallach also singled for the winners.

Maureen Smith, Lisa Schnee, Roseann Menza and Karen Semel each had two hits. Bonnie Brecher and Lisa Vargas had singles.

The Athletics ripped the Yankees, 12-11, in a season battle. The As scored six times in the first four innings but the Yanks got eight runs in their half of the fourth on doubles by Linda Graziano and Terri Scelfo. As regained the lead in the fifth with three runs, but the Yanks moved ahead in their half as Graziano's homer made it 9-9 and Perri Teitelbaum and Gloria Yee hit safely for the go-ahead run.

In the top of the sixth, the As' Carol Lombardi singled and Dawn Della and Roth Brown followed with back-to-back home runs. The last-inning Yankee rally fell one run short, ending with the bases loaded.

Brown (homer, double and single) paced the victors; Robin Kobrin, Katie Bernstein, Janet Kelly and Lombardi each contributed two hits. Della, Donna Baln, Susan Archman, Barbara Marintio and Karen Teitba, also hit safely for the As. Graziano and Teitelbaum, each with three hits, led the Yankees; Donna Baltus, Yvonne Burroughs and Gloria Yee had two hits apiece. Debbi Swenson, Christine Martino, Julie Lauton and Terri Scelfo each had one hit.

The Twins defeated the Yankees, 14-8, rapping out 22 hits. Nancy Hammel (with three hits including a home run), Melissa Monteicello

3-car crash hurts woman

Springfield managed to get through the Memorial Day weekend relatively unscathed as far as traffic accidents were concerned. Only one injury—resulting from a three-car smashup Saturday on Mountain avenue—was reported.

Township police said the 2:35 p.m. mishap occurred when one southbound driver, Albert DiGiorgio, 45, of Mountainside, swerved to avoid a vehicle which was exiting from a parking lot between Remer and Mapes avenues. Both DiGiorgio's car and the one leaving the lot, driven by Natalie Klinger, 60, of Evergreen avenue, Springfield, struck a northbound auto, operated by Myrna M. Miller, 36, of Tree Top drive, Springfield, which was waiting to make a left turn into the lot.

Hurt in the crash was a passenger, Antonia DiGiorgio, 39, of Mountainside, who was taken to Overlook Hospital, Summit, by the Springfield First Aid Squad for treatment of shock, abdominal pains and a possible back injury.

The Indians had to rally from a four-run deficit to nip the Athletics, 7-6, with three runs in the last of the sixth. Cynthia Kremp's double was the game-winning hit, following a walk to Cheryl Pittenger and singles by Jackie Pecoraro and Sandy Albert.

Ann Marie Cook, with a homer and two singles, led the Tribe while Eileen Haws, Angela Pinos, Maureen Weir, Pecoraro and Albert each had two hits. Tracy Geiger had a single for the winners.

Roth Brown (homer and single), Robyn Kobrin (triple and single) and Susan Archman (double and single) led the As. Carol Lombardi, Donna Baln, Dawn Della, Janet Kelly and Lisa Salsido accounted for the rest of the Athletics' attack.

'Pick-your-own' farms listed in new Rutgers publication

If you think the middleman has something to do with high supermarket prices, a new Rutgers University publication may be to your liking. It tells you where you can pick your own produce right on the farm.

Prepared by N.J. Cooperative Extension Service specialist Frederick A. Perkins of Rutgers' Cook College, "Where to Find Pick-Your-Own Fruits and Vegetables in New Jersey" is a free leaflet listing nearly 60 farms in 14 Garden State counties. Available commodities include strawberries, blueberries, cherries, flowers, herbs, peas, snap beans, sweet corn and tomatoes, among others.

The leaflet contains a map showing the locations of the farms and supplies the names of the owners, with addresses and telephone numbers for each. Also included are a list of the crops grown on each farm and a schedule of approximate harvest dates, although these may vary due to weather conditions.

Perkins suggests a call to the farm prior to your visit to ask about charges, the availability of containers, directions and whether the crop is ripe and ready for picking.

Bikeways funds urged

N.J. Transportation Commissioner Alan Sagner this week announced that for the second year his department has applied for $2 million in federal funds for the development of bikeways in the state.

This amount is the maximum allowed each state under the Federal Highway Act of 1973 which permits use of the money for bikeways on or near federally-aided highways.

Sagner said the department has received 115 requests for constructing 513 miles of bikeways from counties and municipalities interested in obtaining funds for fiscal 1976.

The new leaflet is the second "pick-your-own" publication written by Perkins and is available from your county Extension Service office or by mailing a stamped, self-addressed, business-size envelope with your request for Leaflet 520 to the Publications Distribution Center, Cook College, P.O. Box 231, New Brunswick 08903.

Standards for students

The 1974 amendments to the Fair Labor Standards Act allow colleges and universities to employ students at rates under the federal minimum wage if they follow regulations developed by the U.S. Department of Labor to prevent abuses.

Museum to show 54 artists' work

Work by 54 New Jersey artists will be on display in the 10th Annual Art from New Jersey exhibition, opening in the Main Galleries of the State Museum, W. State Street, Trenton, on June 14. The exhibition will continue through Labor Day.

The 54 pieces were chosen from a total of 790 paintings, graphics, sculptures and constructions submitted in April by artists from all parts of the state. Jurors were Allan D'Arcangelo, New York painter, and Peter F. Blume, Pennsylvania art curator.

A Governor's Purchase Award of $5,000 has been designated for acquisition of one or more works from the exhibition for the museum's permanent collection. The recipient or recipients of this award will be announced at a public reception for the exhibitors at the Museum from 7 to 10 p.m. June 14.
