Firehouse placed on the auction block; consultants hired for Rt. 78 study

By KAREN ZAUTYK

Anyone want to buy a used firehouse?
If so, the Borough of Mountainside has one for sale, complete with property bordering Rt. 22—but minus fire alarm horn.

The Mountainside Borough Council at its monthly meeting Tuesday evening in the Beechwood School, unanimously passed a resolution authorizing advertisement for sealed bids on the old borough firehouse property, Rt. 22 and Mountain avenue, which this year was made obsolete thanks to the construction of a more modern facility on New Providence road.

Sealed bids, with a minimum price of $51,000 (the appraised value), will be opened and read in public at the Borough Hall at 2 p.m., Tuesday, Sept. 30. The building is included in the lot price, but Mayor Thomas Ricciardi noted, in response to a resident's question, the old fire horn is to be removed first.

In other action at the session—which also saw the swearing in of Donald Halsbgt to fill the unexpired term of Peter Simmons (who resigned last month to become director of the Delaware State Lottery), and the appointment of Bruce Geiger to replace Simmons as Council president—the governing body once again dealt with the Rt. 78 issue.

Approved unanimously was a resolution authorizing the hiring of the Cranford firm of Dames & Moore, consultants in the environmental and applied earth sciences, as consulting engineers to assist the borough in presentation to state and federal authorities of its position on the proposed highway alignments. That study and presentation, with a $25,000 maximum price tag, was authorized at last month's meeting.

Other fiscal matters included a $5,000 emergency appropriation for the Mountainside Community Swimming Pool, to help that facility meet its expenses for this season.

The emergency arose because of a decrease in family memberships, from 650 in 1974 to 597 in 1975, and failure to provide for this loss of revenues in the budget. Recreation Commissioner William Cullen noted the borough will be reimbursed for the $5,000 from the pool's surplus, and the Commission will discuss the possibility of either increased fees or a membership drive program for next season.

Children's Specialized Hospital, which in December was granted a variance to construct an addition to the facility—with work to begin within six months of approval date—was granted a six-month extension on that variance.

A hospital representative was in attendance at the meeting and explained delay in start of construction was due to red tape involved in obtaining authorization of federal funds for the project. He advised council work is expected to begin by mid-October. The addition already has been approved by the Board of Adjustment.

Council also granted a request by Robert Ruggiero, attorney representing William J. Klueber and Seymour Simon, that his clients be allowed to refile with the Planning Board their applications for subdivisions of property on Prospect avenue, with a clarification of the site plans.

Mayor Thomas Ricciardi explained the owners had requested permission to bring the matter before council, but two scheduled hearings on the plans were adjourned—the first because other residents objecting to the proposal were without attorney; the second, because of legal technicalities brought forward during the session.

Council reported that, at a special meeting held Sept. 9, a contract was awarded to H. Guerriera Co., West Orange, on a bid of $8,500, for construction of a sanitary sewer line on Coles avenue. At Tuesday's meeting, an ordinance was adopted authorizing expenditure of $640 for the acquisition of easements. The cost of the project, when completed, is to be

Our Lady of Lourdes opens additional pre-school class

The Board of Education of Our Lady of Lourdes School, Mountainside, this week announced the institution of a second class in the multi-age pre-school program which was introduced at the parochial facility last year.

Two separate sessions are now held for youngsters aged 3 to 5, with classes meeting from 9 to 11:30 a.m. and from 12:30 to 3 p.m. A total of 39 youngsters are enrolled.

Citing the success of the project, a school board spokesman noted, "The purpose of the multi-age program is to provide a stimulating environment which will help the child develop within himself a foundation for creative learning.

"The goals of the program are many: to develop a positive attitude toward school, to stimulate self-confidence as an independent learner, to foster inner security and sense of order, to help the child develop his sensory-motor skills, and to help the child develop socially.

"The program gives full recognition to the differences in the rate of development and the varying patterns of abilities which characterize each child."

The students are provided with special educational materials, and, in the math and reading sessions, are grouped according to ability, "offering a situation which gives each child an incentive to do his best."

The multi-age group instructor is Carol Welsch, assisted by Rosemary Conley.

Further information on the program may be obtained from Sally Donelan, OLL principal.

Woman to face borough charge as drunk driver

A 21-year-old woman was arrested by Mountainside police Monday night for drunk driving after she smashed into two other vehicles while driving the wrong way on Rt. 22. She and another motorist were injured in the accident.

Police said Elizabeth Sheehan of Avenel was travelling east in the westbound lanes of the highway near the Hotel 29 at approximately 11:30 p.m. when her car hit the side and rear of one operated by Josephine Siciliano, 20, of Raritan. According to police, Miss Sheehan continued eastbound and smashed head on into another auto, driven by Joseph T. Cesare, 24, of Plainfield. A fourth car, operated by James R. Stephens, 27, of Westfield, became involved when it was damaged running over the bumper and fender of Cesare's auto.

Miss Sheehan was taken to Overlook Hospital, Summit, by the Mountainside Rescue Squad for treatment of facial cuts. Also treated at the hospital was Cesare, who suffered a knee injury.

In addition to a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol, Miss Sheehan also was issued summonses for reckless driving, driving in the wrong direction on the highway, and failure to have driver's license, registration and auto insurance identification card in her possession. She was released on $250 bail, pending an appearance in Mountainside Municipal Court Nov. 5.

Vehicle mishaps injure 2 persons

A three-car pile-up on rain-slicked Morris avenue and a two-vehicle mishap in a Rt. 22 parking lot left two persons injured this week, Springfield police reported.

The first accident occurred at 5:30 p.m. Friday on Morris avenue between Colonial terrace and Battle Hill avenue. Police said one eastbound auto, operated by Thomas Elliott, 39, of Union, was attempting to halt for traffic, but skidded on the wet pavement, striking the rear of the car ahead. That vehicle, driven by Henry J. Weinstein, 70, of Troy drive, Springfield, was pushed into another, operated by Allen J. Huelsenbeck Jr., 50, of Elizabeth.

Police said Weinstein complained of head pains following the crash, but said he would see his own physician.

James D. Stratton, 17, of Cranford, suffered arm lacerations when his car was struck broadside by another in the Bamberger's parking lot, Rt. 22, at 6:03 p.m. Saturday. The other driver, Ignacio Marti, 40, of Union City, was not hurt. Police said Stratton stated he would see his own doctor for treatment of the cuts.

Mrs. Burton's appointment as voter-registration chairwoman was announced by Billie Jean Tulchin, Mountainside coordinator for the Wilson campaign. "When Betty Wilson first ran for election two years ago," Ms. Tulchin recalled, "she emphasized the need to make registration easier. And as a high school teacher, Betty has long urged 18-year-olds to register and participate in elections. In her first term, she supported the state legislation that has made it possible to register by mail." Mrs. Burton, who also is in charge of distributing absentee ballots, pointed out that mail registration is both a convenience and a money-saver, because local government offices no longer have to stay open for evening distribution. Mrs. Burton is the wife of Gilbert Burton, a research chemist, and the mother of Steven, a second-grader at Deerfield Elementary School. She invited new voters, new residents and voters who will be away on election day to call her at 233-9839 for information about registration and absentee ballots.

Grand jury to hear charges against Mountainside suspect

The case of a Mountainside man, accused of possession of marijuana with intent to distribute, was referred to the Union County Grand Jury after a preliminary hearing Sept. 10 before Judge Jacob R. Bauer in Mountainside Municipal Court. The defendant, Steven J. Goorin of Foothill way, was arrested Aug. 1 in a Mountain avenue parking lot after he allegedly sold three pounds of the drug to an undercover agent of the Union County Narcotics Strike Force. Also ordered bound over for grand jury action was Charles W. Drisdorn Jr. of Plainfield, arrested Sept. 4 for receiving a stolen motor vehicle. Drisdorn was halted for a routine vehicle check on Rt. 22 and was found by borough police to be driving an auto reported stolen Aug. 25 in Plainfield. He also was issued summonses for driving without registration and driver's license in his possession. Heading the list of motorists fined at the court session was Robert J. Ryan of Allston, Mass., who paid $215 for driving on Rt. 22 while under the influence of alcohol. Others fined, their offenses and penalties, included: Rafael A. Ramirez of New York City, disregard of a traffic signal, unlicensed driver, Rt. 22, bail forfeit of $100; Thomas R. Jordan of East Orange, without current registration, Rt. 22, $15 fine, contempt of court, $20; Luis Perez of Plainfield, allowing an unlicensed driver to operate his car, Rt. 22, $30. In other court action, Morton Reich of Elston drive, Mountainside, charged with permitting his dog to run at large, was given a suspended sentence and paid $5 court costs.

Asleep at wheel, he avoids injury

A Plainfield man escaped unhurt Friday morning when his car struck the center divider on Rt. 22 in Mountainside after he apparently fell asleep at the wheel. A passenger in the vehicle required treatment at Overlook Hospital for facial injuries. Borough police said Ronald W. Carter, 19, was driving east on the highway near Pembroke road at 2:30 a.m. when the accident occurred. He was issued a summons for careless driving. The passenger, Steven Richardson, 21, was taken to the Summit hospital by the Mountainside Rescue Squad.

Police arrest suspect in try at cash box theft

Mountainside police reported the arrest Sunday of a Phillipsburg man who allegedly attempted to steal money from a gas station cash box while his auto was being serviced. Police said Patsy Cantalupo, 27, stopped at the Mountainside Exxon station, Rt. 22 and New Providence road, at 8:15 p.m. and asked for $2 worth of gas. While his auto was being filled, he walked into the station office, where an employee allegedly observed him reaching into an open cash box on a desk. Cantalupo was charged with attempted larceny and was remanded to the Union County Jail, Elizabeth, in lieu of $500 bail. His court appearance was scheduled for Oct. 8.

CONSUMER INFORMATION By Charlotte Mitchell Director of Consumer Information Elizabethtown Gas LAUNDRY ROOM TIPS Many customer complaints about laundry room problems with washers and dryers are related to the use of the appliances rather than a mechanical malfunction. One area that seems to cause a great deal of concern is fraying. Articles such as towels, washcloths, sheets, pillowcases, and some clothing usually begin to fray and become ragged around the edges due to age and normal use. Collar tips and cuffs of permanent press shirts may begin to fray when the article is still relatively new. This is not the fault of the washer. When permanent press finish is applied, it weakens the fabric somewhat. The fraying occurs from abrasion during normal wear. Laundry procedures which will help retard this process include: 1. Always use at least a "normal" fill when laundering permanent press. The clothes need room to circulate freely. 2. Don't overload. This creates excessive abrasion. Permanent press loads should be smaller than regular loads. 3. Sort carefully. Don't wash heavy, abrasive articles such as towels or sweatshirts with permanent press. Drying a mixed load will result in longer drying time, which creates more wear on the permanent press garments. 4. Don't overdry — this not only wastes fuel, but also sets excessive wrinkles, and can cause excessive shrinking.

Bulldog booters at home tomorrow for Carteret

By AMY GELTZER
The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School soccer team will begin its fall season against Carteret tomorrow at home. Carteret, the Middlesex County champions, beat Dayton the last two years. Tomorrow, the Bulldogs hope to start the season off with a kick in the right direction and defeat Carteret.

Dayton harriers will open season at Roselle Park

By AMY GELTZER
The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School cross-country team will open its season tomorrow. The team will compete against Roselle Park in an away meet.

Last week the team had several scrimmages. Coaches Martin Taglienti and William Jones said they are pleased with the performance of the team. The boys learned a great deal about their potential and capabilities from these scrimmages.

Jones expressed pleasure about the returning participants. Billy Bjorstad, captain of the harriers, will lead the team this season. Juniors Gary Sherman and Charles Kiel and sophomores Danny Smith and Brad Weimer will provide first-rate back-ups for the team. Jones also expressed optimism over junior Robert Phillips and sophomore Greg Rusbarsky, who are running cross-country for the first time. He feels that both boys show excellent potential.

Jones also said, "The freshmen are all working very hard and adapting to the strenuous demands of cross-country running. They all have an excellent attitude. With additional hard work and practice, the team can have a winning season."

in Bayonne by a score of 1-0. The team also tied Rahway, 4-4.

In the Rahway game the teams played for five quarters. Dayton dominated in two of the quarters, Rahway took control for two quarters and in one quarter both teams seemed to be evenly matched. Gary Scheick scored two goals for the team, and Brian Mercer and Joe Frank scored the others. Sid Kaufman, the goalie for Dayton, played as excellent defense for the team. Harry Irwin, the fullback, and Steven Hechtle, a halfback, also played a good game. Coach Arthur Krupp said that the fullbacks did not put forth enough effort in the game. Too many individual mistakes were made, but the team defense was good, he added.

In the Bayonne game, the team showed a great improvement. The boys played with more skill and accuracy. In the first two periods there were five break-away shots that were missed. Dayton had the ball at the goal for about 32 minutes in the first two periods. Severe rain made the last two periods uneventful for both teams. Gary Scheick, was the sole scorer for the Bulldogs. Krupp said that the offense dominated and controlled the ball extremely well.

Krupp said, "the strength of the team will be goalie Sid Kaufman, fullback Harry Irwin, halfback Steven Hechtle, right inside Joe Frank and left inside Gary Scheick. Frank and Scheick should have super seasons." Krupp expects to have a good season.

He predicted that the team will excel in scoring this year. His biggest concern is the fullbacks. If the fullbacks come through for the team, the bulldogs will have an excellent chance in the conference this season, he added.

The team was scheduled to play Berkeley Heights in a scrimmage on Tuesday. This game will tell Coach Krupp how well the team has progressed, and what their potential can be.

The Union County Sport Club was rained out last Friday night and the Elizabeth Lancers were tied, 1-1, by Doxa in the closing minutes of play.

Last week the Greek Americans came back to tie the Lancers, 2-2, in the last minute of play. This week it was Doxa, another Greek backed team, which tied the score with eight minutes to go. After a scoreless first half, Jan Swirnak hit the net for the Union booters at the 50-minute mark.

The Elizabeth Lancers will meet Palermo at 2:30 p.m. at Fereher's Grove this Sunday. Palermo, just up from the second division this year, got off to a slow start by dropping their first two games this season but then defeated Blue Star and Hellenic.

The Lancers have declared this Sunday as "Youth Sunday" at the Grove. Both Union Junior High School soccer squads will be guests of the home team. All students will be admitted free on proof of age and school.

Soccer fans from Springfield and Mountaintide might also be interested to know that the reserve team will play in the preliminary game and the last time I watched the reserves play, I saw John Esposito, the former coach of Springfield Regional High School.

BETHLEHEM, Pa.—Ken Rampolla, a freshman at Moravian College and son of Mr. and Mrs. Salvio Rampolla, Short Drive, Mountaintide, N.J., is a candidate for an offensive line position on the football squad.

Rampolla, a graduate of Gov. Livingston High School, was named most valuable lineman, all-area guard and received honorable mention on the all-metro team last year.

Coach Rocco Calvo, in his 21st season, emphasizes that "he has a lot of hustle and determination to make up for his lack of size." Rampolla is 5-9 and weighs 180 pounds.

Moravian opens its season Saturday with Dickinson College at Carlisle, Pa., and has its home opener Sept. 27 with Delaware Valley in a 1:30 kickoff at Steel Field.

Dayton dominates foes in football scrimmages

By LOUIS FASULO
The Jonathan Dayton Football team scrimmaged both Kenilworth and Columbia this past week. The Dayton Bulldogs seemed to dominate the better part of both scrimmages. Coach Dave Oliver seemed quite excited and optimistic about the team's performances.

With an impressive show of offensive power, it was quite evident that the Bulldogs are an improved team. In the Kenilworth scrimmage, the Dayton offense moved the ball down the field in long running gains by Brandon Gamble, who had nine carries for 57 yards and Teddy Parker, who had five carries for 27 yards. Carries by Mike Flood, Jack Flood, Mark Lamb and Rob Bohrod and a touchdown by Hugh Cole also aided the offense.

Quarterbacks Joe Graziano and Brian Burke were quite successful. Graziano completed three out of five passes for 61 yards, with a 46-yard touchdown pass to Joe Mirto. Burke completed two out of four attempts for 29 yards. Jimmy Stadler led the receivers with two fine catches while Carmen Apicella and Mike Flood each had a reception.

The defense was led by linebackers Mike Flood, Frank Bladis and Jack Flood who collected a total of 14 tackles. They showed that they have been constantly improving during the early weeks of practice. Steve Pepe, Carmen Apicella and Robert Conte provided extra defensive strength. Sophomores Dave Flood, John Feary, Don Lusardi, Jack Hershberg and Bill Young played well and should add a much needed depth to the team.

On Saturday, Dayton traveled to Maplewood and continued its fine performance. The highlights of the offense included a strong job by the line which includes center Joe Ragucci, guards Jim Rice and Bob Potomski, tackles Bob McGurty and Greg Lies and tight end Mark Tryon. The line's performance gave quarterback Graziano much-needed time in setting up for the pass.

Wide receiver Jim Stadler and running back Hugh Cole turned in excellent performances. Cole showed the running style he had manifested in his sophomore year and added necessary speed to the backfield. Stadler made a few excellent receptions and key blocks. Mike Flood, who showed much improvement over the first game, combined with Jack Flood and Ted Parker in dazzling the opposition's defense with fine fakes and well-executed pass blocks.

The defense did a fine job against the Maplewood Cougars. However, they did display some weaknesses which can easily be corrected before their home scrimmage against Montville High School on Saturday.

Younger players vie for berths on girls' tennis team

By LOUIS FASULO
The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School girls' tennis team continued to seed out the better players this week. The team coached by Edward Jasinski, feels that this season they are more experienced and aware of the kind of play to expect within the Suburban conference.

The girls are still playing games of elimination to bring the team size down to meet the conference limit. Donna Lies, leading player on last years team, has continued in her path and should be quite hard to beat for any other girl in the conference. Laurie Weeks and Cathy Plout have both been playing excellently. Sue Ostrich's style and capability has given Coach Jasinski the needed depth.

There are many spots open for the younger players to break into. The hopes of a successful season have been augmented by the tough competition in the elimination matches. Most of the positions will be decided tomorrow. However, the young players who are eliminated will become back-ups for the starters.

Coach Jasinski feels that this year's team will play well enough to defend their conference banner. The Bull-dog netters will see how good they really are when they meet the conference co-champions Millburn, two days after their opening match against Johnson Regional tomorrow.

Phillips named by UC as cross-country coach

The appointment of Irwin "Wynn" Phillips of Westfield as coach of the Union College varsity cross-country team was announced today by Bill Dunscombe, athletic director.

Phillips, who has been varsity basketball coach for the Owls since 1970, will get his first cross-country test when the Red and White opens its season Sept. 20 at home against Brookdale Community College. Union added cross-country to its varsity program two years ago. The return of some seasoned veterans and the availability of some talented newcomers could bring Union its first winning season, the new coach feels.

League plans clinic for umpires Sunday

The Springfield Junior Baseball League will sponsor an umpiring clinic Sunday at noon at Ruby Field.

The program is designed specifically for all those who plan to officiate in Youth League and Senior League games next spring, but it is open to all who are interested in any aspect of the game. Details are available from Sey Shindler evenings at 351-6862.

GOP freeholder ticket raps Democrats on building plans

The three Republican candidates for the Union County Board of Freeholders this week scored the Democrat controlled county board for "spending an inordinate amount of time figuring out ways to build bigger and plusher offices for themselves and other county employees at a time when many of those who are paying the freight are desperately attempting to find a way to keep a roof over the heads of their families."

The charge was made by Freeholders Walter Ulrich of Rahway and Herbert Heilmann of Union and former Freeholder Rose Marie Sinnott of Summit.

Freeholder Ulrich said that he and his Nov. 4 running mates were referring to current county board discussions "that have run the gamut from proposals to build additional floors onto the Court House Annex to the leasing or buying by the county of any of six other properties."

Costs, he said, for each individual project have ranged from $3.6 million to $9.5 million.

"The Democrat majority," he said, "apparently aren't satisfied that government now has its hands in the taxpayers pocket up to the elbow. They want to dig in up to the shoulder." According to Ulrich, the proposals under consideration by the county board, which he and his running mates oppose, include the addition of two floors to the Courthouse Annex at an estimated cost of $3.6 million or the possible buying or leasing of any of six Elizabeth properties.

Freeholders Ulrich and Heilmann and former Freeholder Sinnott each said that they "are not objecting to efforts to improve the economy. It certainly needs it."

"But," they maintained, "if it is the intention of the majority party on the board to put people to work through construction projects the direction might be better and the money better spent by construction of such projects as adequate housing for our senior citizens where they can live in dignity at a price they can afford."

Freeholder Heilmann, a labor union leader, said, "With 13 per cent of this county's work force unemployed and inflation eroding the pay checks of those who still have work, I cannot in conscience ask the taxpayers to pony up money for building projects whose sole function, in reality, is as a monument to the county government."

He added, "If giving people jobs is the main concern of the Democrat majority, I can't understand why we have had to fight so hard to get them to spend the money already given us by the Republican Administration in Washington to provide employment in this county."

Heilmann said he was referring to federal Comprehensive Employment Training funds which had been supplied to Union County and which a federal investigation last spring disclosed that the Democrat controlled county board had failed to pump into the economy to relieve the unemployment situation.

Former Freeholder Sinnott said, "People are being bombarded with statements from politicians on every level of government telling them that times are hard and they must tighten their belts."

She added, "Well, I think it's about time county government started leading the way in this austerity program and not just leave it up to the county's housewives who are being driven up a wall trying to stretch the family paycheck, or what's left of it after taxes, from one pay day until the next."

KEEP PANS COVERED
It makes energy sense to boil water in a covered pan or kettle. Open pans take more time to bring the water to a boil, requiring more energy and more of your money when it's time to pay the utility bill.

August was 'average'

After several months of record-breaking rainfalls and unseasonable temperatures, August was hardly noticed with its incredibly "average" statistics.

According to the monthly summary issued to the National Weather Service by Union College's Meteorological Station, a cooperative station of the U.S. Weather Bureau, August brought typically hot temperatures, slightly below normal rainfall, and an occasional thunderstorm.

The mercury soared to the month's high of 97 degrees on Aug. 2 and dropped to a low of 49 degrees on Aug. 23. However, the mean temperature for the month was 73 degrees, which is standard for the month.

The retirement of Dr. Kenneth C. MacKay as executive director of the Union County Coordinating Agency for Higher Education was announced this week by James S. Avery of Scotch Plains, Agency chairman.

Additional adult special programs are being planned in life saving, karate, swimming instruction, modern dance, synchronized swimming, yoga and belly dancing.

UC is proclaimed Bicentennial unit

Union College has been designated a Bicentennial Institution by the American Revolution Bicentennial Administration, Washington, D.C. It was announced this week by Dr. Saul Orkin, president of the college. The college will be presented with its Bicentennial flag and scroll on Sept. 24.

Union College, he said, has been designated because of its participation in the Bicentennial Colleges and Universities Program. Union College is planning a number of special events marking the nation's 200th anniversary. They will represent the three Bicentennial themes—Heritage, Horizons and Festivals.

A Bicentennial committee, composed of faculty, students, administration and alumni, was appointed last spring to plan, organize and coordinate the college's role in the national celebration. Dr. Donald Schmetkeopf, member of the economics, government and history department, is chairman.

Dr. MacKay, a resident of Madison, was appointed executive director of the Coordinating Agency shortly after its creation in 1969. He had previously served as president of Union College, Cranford, for 22 years.

The Union County Coordinating Agency for Higher Education was created to determine the higher education needs of Union County and to contract with Union College and Union County Technical Institute to meet those needs in lieu of a community college.

Dr. MacKay, a graduate of Columbia College, with a master's degree from Montclair State College and a doctorate in political science from Columbia University, joined the Union College faculty in 1935 as an instructor in government and history. He was appointed dean in 1941 and president in 1947.

Dr. MacKay has often been called the father of two-year college education in New Jersey because of his leadership in promoting the two-year college concept in New Jersey and nationally and for his service on the Governor's Committee, which in 1961 recommended a system of two-year county colleges for the state.

Dr. MacKay served for six years as a national director of the American Association of Junior Colleges and is the only two-year college president to head the New Jersey Association of Colleges and Universities.

Dr. MacKay has written extensively on the two-year college field and the field of history and government.

He served as a cooperating observer for NASA on Project Lion (observing transient lunar phenomena) and also took part in training observers for artificial satellite observing teams in the U. S. Moonwatch program.

Stein is a fellow of the Royal Astronomical Society and a member of the American Astronomical Society, the Association of Lunar and Planetary Observers, the International Oceanographic Foundation and the Middle Atlantic Planetarium Society.

Students eligible for Bicentennial grant competition

"Bicentennial Seniors," a nationwide $250,000 scholarship program for high school seniors who will graduate with the Class of 1976, is being launched this month by the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

One national winner will receive a $10,000 scholarship and 102 state winners will receive $1,000 grants under the program.

Winners will be selected first locally, then on a statewide level, with two graduating seniors being chosen in each state and the District of Columbia. Each will receive an all-expense-paid trip to Williamsburg, Va., Jan. 16-19 to attend seminars on educational and social issues facing this country. The national winner will be selected during the Williamsburg conference.

Students taking part in the competition must demonstrate an undertaking of America's past and possible directions for the future and an involvement in the social and community issues faced by America today.

Competition will include the preparation of a minute-long television script to be patterned after the CBS television network's "Bicentennial Minutes"; a commentary discussing the significance of the "minute" for today and the lessons it contains for the future, and a current events examination emphasizing issues and events from the past year.

High school seniors should see their principal for details on how to participate in the scholarship program. Applications must be filed no later than Oct. 6.

The program is administered by NASSP and is funded by the Shell Oil Co. "Bicentennial Seniors" is endorsed by the American Revolution Bicentennial Administration.

Walkathon listed by Hand in Hand

Hand in Hand, Inc., which has for the past two years held festivals for the mentally retarded, is planning its first walkathon for Sunday, Oct. 5.

The walk will begin and end in Roosevelt Park, Edison, with a route of 20 miles through Edison and South Plainfield townships. Sponsor sheets will be available in area high schools, stores, and libraries. Prizes will be given to those walkers having the highest sponsorships.

Collection of pledges will be handled by the Acudata Computer Co., Greenbrook.

Hand In Hand festivals have, in the past, provided a day of fun and activities for New Jersey's retarded citizens as well as brought to the public attention the achievements and needs of our retarded citizens.

Proceeds from this walk-a-thon will help defer the costs of future Hand In Hand festivals and also aid in the expansion of Hand In Hand assistance programs.

For further information, readers may contact Judy Pizzolato at 754-2681 or at the Hand In Hand office, 145 Plainfield rd., Metuchen, 08840.

County GOP sets $100-plate dinner

Union County Republicans will hold their annual $100-a-plate dinner at the Chanticleer Restaurant, Millburn, Friday evening, Sept. 26. The party's major fund-raising event of the year, GOP Chairman Barbara Claman of Westfield said, provides most of the funds to finance the campaign for the November election.

"There will be no speeches, no 'head table' and no hard-sell politicking," she said. "This is our prestige event of the year and I sense that many people who 'sat out' supporting the party the past two years are ready to help us out in 1975."

The event is sponsored by the party's finance committee and several hundred supporters are expected to attend. Music will be provided by the Andy Mingione orchestra.

Greenbelt park to run along river

A comprehensive plan for the future development of a 25-mile regional greenbelt park along the Whippany River was released this week by the New Jersey Conservation Foundation.

The project, known as Patriots' Path, is being planned and implemented entirely by the six Morris County municipalities through which it will pass—Morristown, Mendham Borough and the townships of Morris, Mendham, Hanover and East Hanover. NJCF is coordinating the work of the towns.

Patriots' Path will connect six sites listed on the state and national Registers of Historic Places and link three of the four sections of Morristown National Historical Park.

The plan also includes proposals for development of interpretive areas, such as a nature observation area at the Black Meadows inland wetland in Hanover Township; recreation centers, including expansion of the overcrowded rehabilitation of Speedwell Dam, the old Speedwell Iron Works and the original stone arch Speedwell avenue bridge in Morristown.

Sign-up extended for Seton course

Seton Hall University, South Orange, has extended registration for the first course of offerings in its new graduate program of the Institute of Judaean-Christian Studies. Msgr. John M. Oesterreicher, founder and director of the Institute, points out that the two-year program, which leads to a master's degree in Judaean-Christian Studies, is also open to Congregate students wishing to audit courses without working toward a degree and that registration will continue for such auditors.

The new program, conducted by an ecumenical faculty or religious scholars, is distinctive for its stress on the relationship between Jews and Christians, including both links and conflicts through the ages, unlike other programs which usually emphasize Judaism.

Further information and details may be obtained from the Institute of Judaean-Christian Studies, Seton Hall University, South Orange, 17079.

USDA forecasts less pork, turkey, more beef in '76

Demand for broilers in the first quarter of the 1976 will be boosted by a sharply reduced supply of pork, a smaller supply of turkey, and higher real disposable consumer incomes. Broilers will face more competition, however, from a larger supply of beef.

These views are contained in the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) publication "Broiler production at the same per capita level as in first quarter 1975—considering the prospective supply-demand conditions for competing meats and general economic activity—should result in an average price of 46 cents per pound, about five cents higher than a year earlier.

This analysis takes into account the August forecast for a record 5.85 billion-bushel corn crop and a soybean crop of 1,458 million bushels. With prospects for strong export and sluggish domestic feed demands, corn prices could average about $3.30 a bushel during the November 1975-January 1976 period, eight cents below the year-earlier ingredient purchase price. Soybean meal prices could average near $130 a ton, some $8 lower than in the same period of 1974-1975. These corn and soybean meal prices would decrease feed cost of producing a pound of ready-to-cook broilers about one cent from a year earlier.

Antiques show set Sept. 27 at historic Morristown site

More than 30 antique dealers from the metropolitan area will participate in a show and sale Saturday, Sept. 27, at the Speedwell Village, Morristown.

The event, staged to raise funds for the historic site's restoration program, is expected to attract dealers in antique buttons, fine china and glass, military objects, dried flower arrangements, plaques made from old shingles, quilts, dolls, clocks and Englishware.

"This is a genuine antique show and sale—not just a flea market," stressed Mrs. Adele Perina, chairman. "We expect well-known specialists from Shrewsbury, Sparta, Livingston, Boonton, Hillside, Bernardsville, Summit and many other locations. People who truly appreciate and know genuine antiques will be delighted when they visit the show."

The Speedwell Village, a national historic landmark, is located on Route 202 at Corey Road. It is the site of the Stephen Vail homestead, centering around the Vail mansion, restored to its 1830 appearance.

Here, Vail's son Alfred and Samuel Morse developed and perfected Morse's electric telegraph, which revolutionized communications in 1844. The mansion contains Vail memorabilia and furniture contemporary to the 1800s.

A separate building—the Factory—exhibits various early models of the telegraph and traces its history. The Carriage House contains examples of the senior Vail's inventiveness and relics of the iron industry which he brought to Morristown. A gigantic overhung water wheel, 24 feet in diameter, provided power for the homestead's various enterprises. The wheel still turns for visitors.

The Village is also the site of historic Morristown homes, moved there for preservation. Among them are the Nathaniel L'Honnmedieu house, built in 1771, and the Moses Esty home, constructed in 1780.

The antique show and sale will be open from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Admission ($1.25) includes a tour of the Village as well as the show. Food service will be available on the grounds.

Elizabeth was in the throes of the "times that tried men's souls" during period from 1775-1783.

Exposed to the attacks of the British quartered on Staten Island and sometimes left only with small forces of men for its defense, it was a place of terror for the inhabitants. Between battles, raids by the enemy were frequent. Houses were plundered and its residents were kidnapped. After three years of war, privation had begun to oppress the people.

The original First Church, built by the first settlers, was still standing, as was its newer neighbor, St. John's Episcopal Church. There was a fort in Elizabethtown Point, erected at the outset of the Revolutionary War and there were ditches and ramparts thrown up across all the roads and paths leading to the town.

On the rising ground in Cherry Street was a building three stories high, extending from the street to the Elizabeth River, facing south. This was the Continental Army's barracks.

On Broad Street, in addition to the churches, there were the Academy, adjoining the Presbyterian cemetery, the Courthouse, and a half-dozen houses. Down at Elizabethtown Point was a ferry house, owned by a man named Stephen Crane operating a ferry to New York.

Other buildings in existence then were the mansion at 1073 East Jersey Street, home of Elias Boudinot; the First Church parsonage and the Hetfield House in Pearl Street, and the Belcher Mansion at 1046 East Jersey Street, whose revered occupant, Jonathan Belcher, had long since died.

Less than a year later, most of these buildings were in ashes, burned by raiding British.

The first to be destroyed were the barracks, the parsonage, used as a hospital, and the Academy, serving as a store house after its teachers and students joined the army.

All three were put to the torch February 25, 1779, while the enemy returned from "Liberty Hall," disappointed in its failure to capture its distinguished resident, Gov. William Livingston. "Liberty Hall" still is standing on what is now the Keon estate in Union.

Such were the heartbreaks which beset the townsfolk of Elizabethtown.

There were other troubles, too, brewed by greediness among the town's own patriots. These took the form of "London Trading," a despised practice carried on by both the Whigs and Tories.

Through "London Trading," the British received provisions for which they paid high prices. Historians regretfully record that even the most ardent friends of their country frequently were caught at midnight on their way to Staten Island with fresh foodstuffs of all kinds.

Of this, Gov. Livingston wrote to Gen. Washington: "This evil, instead of being checked, has grown to so enormous a height, that the enemy, as I am informed, is plentifully supplied with fresh provisions; and such a quantity of British manufactures is brought back in exchange, as to enable the persons concerned to set up shops to retail them. The people are outrageous, and many of our officers threaten to resign their commissions."

Although this offense was serious enough, there were other residents of Elizabethtown who actively aided the British cause, and an effort was made in August of 1779 to banish from vicinity all those who were suspect. This was opposed, however, by Gov. Livingston, who warned it would be "impolitic."

And so Elizabethtown struggled on, upheld mainly by the greatness of those in whom the war had brought out the best.

Your Guide To Better Living in the SUBURBAN REAL ESTATE MART

• City • Suburbs • Farm Country • Lake • Shore

THE CHATHAM RANCH—one of seven home models available through Barrymor Enterprises, custom home builders, Lakewood, features only genuine materials including 100 percent vinyl asbestos, ceramic tile, all wood doors, and custom fruitwood cabinets. The firm offers two building locations, Barrymor Estates, E. County Line road; and Barrymor on the Green, adjacent to the Lakewood Country Club. Home prices start at $34,790. Models may be inspected at the Estates location from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily.

THE BARCELONA—is one of eight home models offered at Dover Heights, a custom housing community in Toms River. It features four bedrooms, continuous cleaning oven, carpeting and large recreation room. Homes may be inspected Monday through Friday by appointments and on weekend from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

New homesite is opened at Dover Heights project

Landmark Construction Company, developer of Dover Heights, a custom housing project-off Indian Hill road, Toms River; has opened an additional section of building sites ranging in size from 15,000 square feet.

Dover Heights offers prospective home buyers eight models including two-story, bi-level, ranch and chalet styles which may be customized to suit the needs and desires of the buyer.

SUBURBAN PUBLISHING CARRIES MORE REAL ESTATE DISPLAY ADVERTISING THAN ANY OTHER NEWSPAPER (Daily or Weekly) BASED IN UNION COUNTY!

Josh Popkin, president of Landmark, said, "We offer a large variety of styles all having contemporary design, solid construction and other features the majority of new home buyers want."

Among the standard amenities included in the base price of each home are carpeting, baths finished in ceramic tile and built-in cultured marble-topped vanity, heavy insulation and insulated double glass throughout. A Westinghouse continuous cleaning oven with range is also included in every home.

Optional amenities such as air conditioning, central vacuum system, intercom with AM-FM radio, humidifier and Westinghouse appliance package are available through the builder.

Popkin noted that location is another desirable feature of Dover Heights. "The area off Indian Hill road offers a pleasant, quiet atmosphere surrounded by greenery, yet it also allows easy access to major roadways, schools, Jersey shore recreation spots and the new Ocean County Mall now under construction.

Financing for Dover Heights can be arranged by Landmark Construction. The builder offers 30-year mortgages at 7 1/2 percent. Home prices start at $40,500.

Models are open for inspection Saturday and Sunday 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., and may be seen during the week by appointment.

Sales rise at Rivervale; first building near finish

Sales have been on the upswing at Rivervale—the Country Condominium in Bergen County for the past few months. One of the important reasons, according to the developers, Paddock Associates, and a local representative, is the sophistication of the buyer.

"Buyers at Rivervale have demanded a combination of value and luxury as well as convenience, and they find it here at Rivervale. People say, 'I can actually plan how my home will look from the models,' 'I can feel the security of the grounds,' 'I really will enjoy the natural beauty of the area,'" a spokesman reports.

As building one of the three five-story buildings nears completion, the swimming pool is being installed, the tennis courts have been started and move-in dates are for early November.

The one and two-bedroom homes each have individual 29-foot terraces, with as much as 1,741 square feet of living space, large living rooms, foyers, entertainment size dining rooms, eat-in kitchens with the latest in time-saving appliances, and hand-crafted cabinetry, large airy bedrooms with ample closet space and color coordinated baths and powder rooms.

Security is stressed at Rivervale with an attended gate house, the latest in closed circuit security systems, protected parking and doorman.

Accessibility to shops, schools, houses of worship and other recreational facilities has also been one of the keys to its success. Commuters are within four miles off the Garden State Parkway, and Manhattan buses stop at the property entrance.

Prices start at $43,900 to $72,900 with the models and sales office open seven days a week from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and on Thursdays and Sundays until 8 p.m. To inspect the models, from the George Washington Bridge travel west on Rt. 4 approximately six miles to exit at Kinderkamack road, turn left at intersection and continue north on Kinderkamack road (Rt. 503) approximately five miles to Piermont avenue, then turn right at Piermont, and continue approximately one mile to Rivervale on right (opposite golf course).

RIVERVALE complex is shown by a scale model. The County Condominium in Bergen County has reported a sales upswing lately. Building one of the three-building complex is nearing completion, with move-in dates slated for early November.

Pine Ridge lists sales gain in '75

"Don't talk to me about recession, double-digit inflation, scarcity of cash, and tight mortgage market. Those are just a smokescreen to camouflage poor merchandising and sloppy salesmanship. We're having our biggest year since opening."

The speaker is Jerry J. Kokes, a representative of Pine Ridge at Crestwood in Ocean County. He was referring to the 20 percent gain in sales posted by his manufactured-home retirement community thus far this year over the same period in 1974.

"And this in the face of the worst real estate year since the end of World War II," he continued, "if you believe those 'prophets of gloom and doom.' Unfortunately, or fortunately, we don't go by what we hear. We're just continuing to give the home-buying market the best value for the dollar, and they continue to buy from us."

Kokes cited the Beacon, Pine Ridge's budget-priced model ($13,450) as an example. "It's still a two-bedroom home, with GE kitchen, with full insulation, quality construction, carpeting and draperies still included in its price—and in many ways, it's an even better home than we were selling last year for $14,950. No wonder we get the buyers."

Eight two-bedroom models are being exhibited at Pine Ridge II at Crestwood, ranging from the home at $13,450 to a ranch at $21,950. Financing is available on all Pine Ridge homes.

Regardless of price, all homes offer two-bedrooms kitchens equipped with appliances, paneled and carpeted interiors with draperies throughout, a concrete patio and off-street parking.

Homes are sited on paved, curved streets, in a landscaped setting. Two clubhouses, one each for Pine Ridge I and Pine Ridge II, are in full operation.

Homes are sited on paved, curved streets, in a landscaped setting. Two clubhouses, one each from Pine Ridge I and Pine Ridge II, are in full operation. Both are two-story structures, fully air-conditioned, with auditorium, ballroom, banquet kitchen, meeting rooms, club rooms, lounges and outdoor recreation facilities for horseshoes, barbecues, and shuffleboard.

A fee of $100 or $115 per month, depending on home chosen, pays for heating fuel, taxes, community TV antenna, site rental, minimum city water and sewer, street cleaning and snow removal, trash collection, courtesy bus service, and all the facilities of the clubhouse.

Pine Ridge II is on Rt. 530, near Whiting, in Ocean County, and is reached via Garden State Parkway, Exit 80 near Toms River. The model area is open Monday through Saturday, 9 a.m. to 7 p.m., but is closed Sundays.

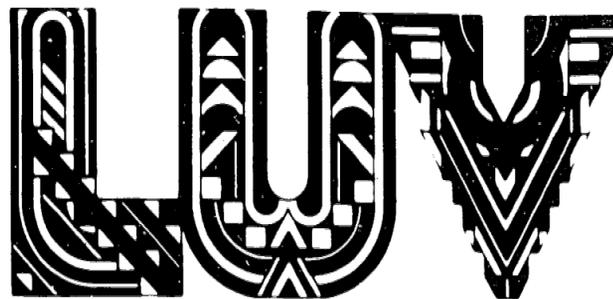

7 homes at low cost

Old Farm Village, Neptune, announced the opening of its final section. Saul Dreier, builder, is offering the seven remaining homes in Old Farm Village at drastically reduced prices.

Homes offered range from four bedroom bi-levels, four bedroom Cape Cods, and three bedroom ranch plus four other models. 7 1/2 percent of mortgage money has been obtained by Dreier, with 10 percent down.

"I'm about to enter into one of the largest building ventures in the state of New Jersey, and in doing so, am allowing the public to share in my fortune," Dreier said. More than 30 families now reside at Old Farm Village. Only minutes from beaches and vacation spots, the Village is only one hour from Manhattan, at exit 100A of the Garden State Parkway.

Realty firm lists sales since July

Stirling Thompson and Associates, one of the largest real estate companies in Central New Jersey, reports over $1 million in total dollar volume handled by its office in Somerset since acquisition of the former Vogel Realty of Trenton in July.

The firm with corporate headquarters in Middletown, maintains nine other regional sales offices in Middletown, Middlesex and Somerset counties.

Max Heller, vice president, reports the number of sales registered in Somerset topped $1 million and in addition, 241 homes for sale were marketed in the past two months.

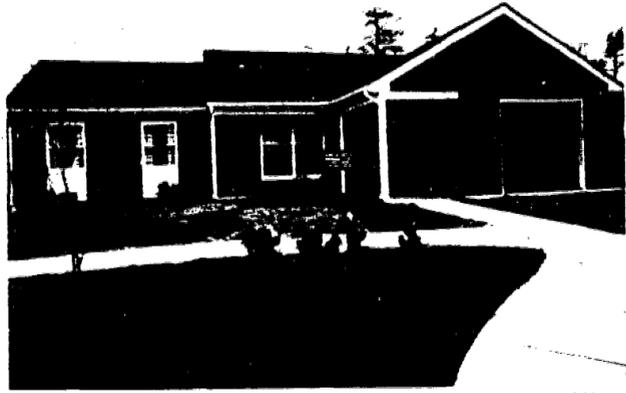

Max Heller attributes the opening in the summer real estate market to the growing confidence in the economy on the part of potential homebuyers, adding that many large companies are transferring an increasing number of their employees to this region.

In addition, our professionally trained sales associates are able to offer our clients a choice of many available homes in an area noted for its fine school systems and easy access to mid-Manhattan," she says.

A 40 percent increase in total business volume for the first eight months of the year $14 million up $11 million over last year is reported by the firm's corporate marketing director Larry Finzelstein.

Stirling Thompson and Associates, in addition to its office at 901 Easton Ave. in Middletown, has branches in Manalapan, Matawan, Marlboro, Howell, Hazlet, Ocean, Bricktown and South Brunswick.

THE SANDALWOOD—This single-level home is just one of the varieties of styles available at the Timbers, a home community at Barnegat. The Sandalwood features three bedrooms, one and a half baths, family rooms and attached garage. This and other models are offered in two exterior designs, the traditional (shown above) and the contemporary.

Timbers homes follow Ecology Master Plan

The Timbers at Barnegat is one community that offers open space and trees forever, according to the developer of the home community.

The Timbers was conceived, designed and developed in accordance with an "Ecology Master Plan" made by leading social planners and residential architects. The Ecology Master Plan was designed to conserve the community's natural resources and inhabitants, including fresh air, trees, wildlife, fewer people and more acres of pure uncrowded nature. Despite its natural surroundings, the Timbers is conveniently located close to modern shopping, schools, houses of worship and professional services as well as sailing, fishing, crabbing and clamming on Barnegat Bay only three miles away.

There is a wide variety of homes available—two-bedroom ranches with a garage to five-bedroom dual-levels with two baths and a garage. The Timbers offers traditional exteriors of color coordinated aluminum siding.

All homes feature all-electric kitchens with over-range and hood in buyer's choice of color, self-edged laminated countertops and sink, decorator furniture finished wooden cabinets, spacious rooms with generous storage space and closets, fully padded wall-to-wall carpeting available in choice of colors, clean modern electric heat, separate thermostats in every room for control of energy, color coordinated ceramic tile bath with vanity, wide mirror and medicine cabinet. They also include insulated sliding glass doors, concrete porch and walks, paved driveways and a written warranty against major structural defects. Additional features such as central air conditioning,

LUV at Stanhope offers price relief

"Although we've built thousands of big small and medium sized homes in the past few years, we continually probe to determine exactly what today's families most want in a home." So said Marty Newman, president of LUV at Stanhope, one of America's most advanced concepts in condominium.

"In today's uncertain economy," Newman added, "Every prudent investor in a new home wants assurance that taxes, maintenance and other related expense items will remain stable.

"We owe the tremendous success and popularity of LUV at Stanhope to the fact that we can, through our experience in the field, offer more for less.

"For instance, our 'Decorate-and-Finish-it-yourself' options allow smart buyers to save literally thousands, as the whole family has fun finishing the interior decor and details, and all materials are made available at wholesale prices. "Paint, wall paper, paneling, carpeting and other accessories, when provided at today's high labor cost, add tremendously to the cost of building. However, when completed by the buyer, the savings reduce the total cost, down payment and interest, because of lower mortgage payments."

All LUV units are equipped with total electric kitchens, central air conditioning, oil hot air heat, tiled baths, insulated silent privacy and all utilities are underground.

To reach LUV at Stanhope, where models are open seven days a week, readers may take Rt. 80 west to Rt. 206 north, approximately one mile to Stanhope—Newton exit, bear right on ramp, follow signs to Rt. 183 to end, then cross 183 onto Dell road, continue up hill on Dell road and into LUV, Stanhope.

Prices start at $29,990, but can be shaved by the "Do-it-Yourself."

The New Evergrade (shown above) typifies Clearbrook's new look. Just one of 4 new models now available in 3 existing new elevations which feature harmonizing combinations of brick, fieldstone and aluminum siding. Models at the site are ready for viewing.

What's new at Clearbrook?

A whole new section with a fabulous new look. 112 exciting new Plaza Condominiums and Garden Homes with more drama, more value than ever before. Low-maintenance aluminum siding. Sturdy brick and sparkling fieldstone facades. Wrought iron railings and trim. Private atriums in some models.

What else is new?

We've repainted the existing Clearbrook homes in refreshing new colors - a stroke of genius if we say so ourselves. Come see these colorful changes. And all the things that haven't changed, as well. Our 25,200 square-foot clubhouse. Olympic-size swimming pool. Tennis and shuffleboard courts. Private golf course (nominal greens fee). They're all still in top condition and in full swing. Just like our more than 1,000 active residents - many in business or professions, all very much in the mainstream of life. 80% of the heads of households here work. Not surprising, considering our average age is just 57.

All of this makes Clearbrook an adult community rather than a retirement community. A place where busy people can enjoy the ease and financial benefits of condominium ownership... plus the comfort of 24-hour security and health services. It all adds up to a truly outstanding way of life at a surprisingly moderate price... just 42 miles from Manhattan (Lincoln Tunnel) by car or regularly scheduled bus. They make Clearbrook an even more attractive alternative for people on the go who want to get more out of life.

Statewide in-school television starts fifth season of service on Sept. 22

New Jersey Public Broadcasting launches its fifth season of instructional television programming Sept. 22. Each weekday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. series for in-school instruction will be telecast on Channels 50 and 58.

According to Mary Jane Phillips, director of educational services, 18 new series will be broadcast and 55 series will be repeated. All but two of the programs are in color, and 49 are award winners.

Mrs. Phillips noted a preview of some of the programs will be aired during the week of Sept. 15-19, which has been named Television for Learning Week. It is designed to give administrators, teachers and legislators a preview of things to come and the ways in which they can best be utilized.

Among the new programs for the primary grades (kindergarten through 3rd) is "Science Processes," which offers children introduction to the world of science based on a process-inquiry approach.

"When I Grow Up" will provide career education.

An overview of history, geographical distribution and economic uses of basic food items is featured in "Economic Geography," aimed at the intermediate level (grades 4 through 6).

For students in secondary schools, New Jersey Public Broadcasting will feature a number of programs. "We The People" examines the American political system and emphasizes the relationship of the three branches of federal government.

The skills and knowledge necessary for effective and correct money management are presented on "Consumer Education."

"Minorities" is aimed at high school and college students and is designed to help them become aware of the problems of minority groups and to understand some of the causes of discrimination and prejudice.

"Energy" is a survey on the current problems the world faces in trying to increase its energy supply. It examines present types of fuel usage and the development of new sources of energy for the world's ever-increasing rate of consumption.

The human experience is the theme of "Humanities," which makes use of such disciplines as English, history, world culture, science and fine arts.

A new series for adults, and teachers in particular, is "Human Relations and School Discipline," which combines theory, practical strategies and new ideas for improving student-teacher relationships. The program is being provided through the New Jersey Education Association. Credits are being offered by Monmouth College for those enrolled.

"What Do You Think?" is a high school health education program which probes the problems of drugs, alcohol, venereal disease and tobacco.

Along with the new programs, New Jersey Public Broadcasting will welcome back a number of favorites from last season which received high ratings from teachers.

"The World of B.J. Vibes," for grades 4 through 6, explores music through the eyes and ears of a disc jockey. Students learn the various components of rhythm and melody, pitch and tone, and harmony and musical expression.

"National Munch" deals with the nutritional quality of the food we eat and establishes the relationship between good food and good health. The program is aimed at the secondary level students.

"Mulligan Stew" provides information on nutrition for students in intermediate grades.

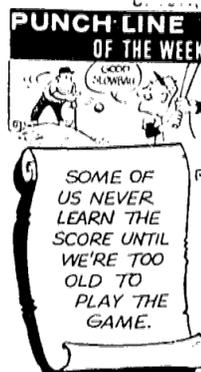

"Bread and Butterflies" also will return. Focusing on career development, the program features youngsters who encounter various situations requiring them to make a judgment and assume responsibility for their actions.

The widely-used health series, "Inside-Out" also will be repeated for 8 to 10 year olds. The emphasis in these programs is on the affective domain and helps youngsters to cope with such emotions as love and anger, sibling rivalries, family break ups, and fantasy and reality.

According to Mrs. Phillips, other programs run the gamut from mathematical relationships to tribal traditions, Spanish, ecology and American heritage.

Other parts of the instructional service include high school equivalency programs, training for those in business and industry and a series for higher education.

The theater is casting for Edward Albee's "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" Harold Pinter's "Old Times," Neil Simon's "The Gingerbread Lady," and James Goldman's "The Lion in Winter."

It was announced that there are parts available for men and women of all age ranges. Additional information may be obtained by calling 273-6233. The present stage offering is "Happy Birthday, Wanda June," a comedy by Kurt Vonnegut Jr. Performances are Fridays and Saturdays at 8:30 p.m. and Sundays at 7:30 p.m., now through Sunday.

Starlet has dream role

DEBORAH RAFFIN plays the adoring daughter of Kirk Douglas in Jacqueline Susann's "Once Is Not Enough," now showing at the Park Theater, Roselle Park, with "The Gambler."

Deborah Raffin describes her role as January Wayne in "Once Is Not Enough," now at the Park Theater, Roselle Park, as "a dream part." She says "it's something you dream of as an actress in my age category. This girl is a human being, with all different sides and facets to her personality. It's very demanding and has real depth. Plus I have great people to work with."

The people she has "to work with" include Kirk Douglas, Alexis Smith, David Janssen, George Hamilton, Melina Mercouri, Gary Conway and Brenda Vaccaro.

"Once Is Not Enough," adapted to the screen from the late Jacqueline Susann's last best-selling novel, was directed by Guy Green. The music is by Henry Mancini, and the picture was made in color.

The Park Theater's companion feature this week is "The Gambler," starring James Caan.

THE FORTUNE OF SATURDAY

AND

THE WACKY WORLD OF MOTHER GOOSE

Pat Carroll, Emmy Award-winning star of television variety shows, series and game shows, opens the fall season at the Paper Mill Playhouse, Millburn, Wednesday as the lady detective in "Something's Afoot," a pre-New York musical comedy.

Louisiana-born Miss Carroll has appeared on such television shows as "The Red Buttons Show," Sid Caesar Hour and the Danny Thomas Show. In "Something's Afoot," she plays the English Miss Tweed, with the help of some weekend guests, tries to solve a murder or two.

The show, the first pre-New York musical comedy to play at the Paper Mill Playhouse in the theater's history, will run through Oct. 19. It will be staged Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 8:30 p.m., Saturday at 5 and 9:30 p.m., Sunday at 7:30 p.m. and Thursday afternoons at 2. In addition, a special matinee performance will be given Sunday, Sept. 28, at 3 p.m.

Additional information may be obtained by calling 376-4343.

Cafe-type theater now

Sergio's Restaurant, East Orange, which has been featuring a dinner theater in its lower level theater, has announced a change in format.

The management is converting the dinner theater to a cafe-type theater and is now called "Sergio's Cabaret Playhouse." Patrons may purchase wine, cheese or mixed drinks, and those who still want the combination of dinner and theater may dine in Sergio's Restaurant upstairs, then come down to their reserved theater seats one flight below.

The change in format was announced by co-producers Robert Slatnick and Richard Zavaglia. The fall season will begin tomorrow with the stage musical, "The Fantasticks," Friday and Saturday nights until Oct. 18, with an 8:30 curtain. The Tom Jones-Harvey Schmidt musical fantasy is directed by Peter Palame.

The next play to be presented are "When You Comin' Back, Red Ryder?" by Mark Medoff, starring Robert Ritt.

'Pool' film in Rahway

Paul Newman co-stars with his real wife, Joanne Woodward, in "The Drowning Pool," which opened yesterday on a double bill with "Badlands," at the Old Rahway Theater, Rahway.

The movie, in color, concerns a private eye named Harper (Newman recreates his original role), who is hired by a New Orleans woman and becomes involved with a ruthless oil tycoon and other unsavory types.

HITMAKERS—The Captain (Daryl Dragon) & (Toni) Tennille, whose single, 'Love Will Keep Us Together,' topped record charts around the nation, have just released an album of the same title—and predictions are for another hit.

DISC 'N DATA

Pick of the LPs... LOVE WILL KEEP US TOGETHER, by the Captain and Toni (A&M RECORDS SP-3405). The young duo's good sounding selections on the LP include: "Love Will Keep Us Together," "Disney Girls," "The Way I Want to Touch You," "Cuddle Up," "The Good Songs," "God Only Knows," "Honey Come Love Me," "Feel Like a Man," "Brody Bounce," "Gentle Stranger" and "I Write the Songs."

It was a classic story, a fantasy that could only come true in the pop-record business. A young couple goes into a tiny studio in the San Fernando Valley and cuts a passionate love song embracing the romantic idealism of their relationship. Since they don't know to whom to send the record, they decide to spend $250 and press 500 records to send to radio stations.

The Captain, Daryl Dragon, is responsible for playing all the instruments and arranging the track, while his girlfriend (now his wife), Toni Tennille, has done all the vocal parts. This happened in September 1973, and the song, "The Way I Want to Touch You," became a Top 10 seller in the Los Angeles area without the aid of a major record label or formal distribution.

Nicholson in 2 films

The Five Points Cinema, Union, is featuring two first-run motion pictures this week. They are "The Fortune," starring Jack Nicholson and Warren Beatty, and "Easy Rider," also starring Jack Nicholson, Peter Fonda and Dennis Hopper.

A kiddie matinee show, "Snow Queen," will be screened Saturday and Sunday at the Cinema. In "The Fortune," an offbeat roaring-twenties film, two men set out to murder a young heiress after one has married her to sidestep the Mann Act. Stockard Channing is featured. The movie was directed by Mike Nichols.

"Easy Rider," which Hopper directed, offers a chilling example of deep-rooted violent attitudes in America against people who are different. It concerns two loner motor-cyclists who travel through the Southwest and are accompanied by a liberal attorney. The picture was filmed in color.

Julia Phillips to direct 'Fear'

HOLLYWOOD—Julia Phillips will direct the screen version of Erica Jong's runaway best-seller, "Fear of Flying," for Columbia Pictures. She also will serve as co-producer with her husband Michael Phillips. Mr. Phillips is the first woman producer to win the Oscar for best picture for "The Sting."

ELEVATED TO SAINTHOOD—Mother Elizabeth Seton, for whom Seton Hall University was named, was canonized Sunday by the Roman Catholic Church of ceremonies in Rome. A number of Seton Hall students, faculty members, administrators and alumni travelled to Italy for the ceremonies.

Seton Hall officials visit Rome for sainthood rites

A contingent of Seton Hall University representatives, led by university president Msgr. Thomas G. Fahy, was in Rome this week to mark the canonization last Sunday of Mother Elizabeth Seton, after whom the South Orange school was named.

"With great joy the Seton Hall family celebrates the canonization of the beautiful woman for whom our university was named by her nephew, our founder, Bishop James Roosevelt Bayley," Msgr. Fahy said in a statement issued from Rome.

"Rome was the scene of her conversion to the Catholic faith. The United States was the scene of her devoted work and the heroic virtue which has earned her a place among the canonized saints of the Church."

"Seton Hall University students, faculty, administrators and alumni have the great privilege of being here on this great occasion - great for our country and for our many American nuns who labor for learning and the care of the sick," he continued.

"Mother Seton is an inspiration for these women, as she is for us and must be for all the world. In this year which honors women, their works, their thoughts and their aspirations, it is fitting that this should be the time of proclaiming the sainthood of Mother Seton. She was a woman of great beauty, physical as well as spiritual, a loving wife and mother."

Seton Hall University was founded in 1856 by Bishop Bayley of Newark and was the first diocesan university in the United States. It is now the largest, with an enrollment of 10,000 graduate and undergraduate students.
