School board votes, 5-2, for newly reduced budget

By JEFF FEINGOLD

The Mountainside Board of Education, by a vote of 5-2, approved a revised budget of $2,089,262 for the 1977-78 school year, an increase of 3.3 percent over the previous year's budget, at its monthly meeting Tuesday night at the Deerfield School.

The budget, represents a cut of $30,600 from the original budget the board had proposed. The increase in the tax levy, which had previously been estimated to be 3.7 percent will now be 2 percent, or $11 in annual taxes on a home assessed at $50,000—because of the budget cuts.

The expenditure portion of the budget—the part that will be sent to the voters for their approval on March 29—is $1,966,686.

William J. Biunno, president of the board, explained that the cuts came about because of reduced enrollment which allowed the board to cut the art and library programs each by three-tenths of a teacher. The decreased enrollment also allows the dropping of a physical education teacher.

Biunno also said that the board was able to save four-tenths of an English teacher's salary because the teacher will now be devoting that portion of his time to remedial reading. The money for that portion of his salary will be paid from the compensatory education account of the budget—money that had been already budgeted but not allocated.

We made a mechanical change in the budget," Biunno said, "that came about because of the compensatory education plan."

Speth to seek reelection to school board

R. Charles Speth of Woodvalley road has announced he will seek a second three-year term on the Mountainside Board of Education.

Speth said, "It is important that the residents of Mountainside be given the choice of an independent thinker, in addition to those who represent private interest groups. I believe a candidate makes a total commitment when seeking a board post. This means being willing to devote all the time and effort necessary for the job—being available for questions and suggestions and having the interest to study and research through authoritative sources all school policies."

Speth, who has lived in Mountainside for 20 years, added, "I have been very gratified by the interest citizens from all segments of the community have had in my positions and decisions on education issues, whether they agreed or disagreed with me. And I have never been ashamed to change my mind when shown to be wrong."

"My phones, both at home and office, have always been accessible and will remain so. If prior to the election there are groups of citizens who would like to hear or discuss my positions on school questions, I will be glad to meet with them at their convenience."

"As in the past," Speth continued, "my goals will be to apply sound business principles to Board of Education matters, and to provide the best education at the least possible cost to the taxpayer."

Superintendent of Schools Dr. Levin Hanigan, in answering questions from the audience, stressed that the cuts would not hurt the art and library programs, saying they will "pretty well proceed as they have now" because the other teachers will be able to pick up the slack left by the cuts in teacher time.

In another action related to the budget, board member Scott R.

Schmedel made a motion that the board appropriate $450 for "preparation and mailing of a letter to the residents of Mountainside, urging people to go to the polls and vote for the budget." But his motion met opposition from the two members who voted against the budget, R. Charles Speth Jr. and Gertrude Palmer.

Speth said the board could not send the letter because "only a majority of the board voted for approval. The vote was not unanimous." Biunno also added that he could not vote for Schmedel's motion because he wanted "this budget to pass. I don't want the budget defeated because of a $450 news release."

Schmedel then defended his motion by saying "it is the duty of this board to get this budget passed. This board has (Continued on page 2)

Pat Knodel announces candidacy for Bd. of Ed.

Pat Knodel, a member of the Mountainside Board of Education for five years and a resident of Mountainside for 14 years, has announced she will seek election to the board.

Mrs. Knodel said she opposes the tracking system in Mountainside's schools. "For years," she said, "I have fought the grouping of children according to ability."

"Because of tracking," she said, "a number of parents have removed their children from our schools. Many parents complain that their children are being called 'dummies,' and others feel their children are being unduly pressured in the top classes."

"Our tracking system does not provide for the underachievers," she said. "Many children with high IQs are removed from top classes because they did not perform. (Some do not perform because they are bored.) And serious (Continued on page 2)

Biunno also noted that Tuesday's was the last meeting for two members, Palmer and Rupp. Palmer is leaving the board because she is moving from Mountainside. Rupp, after 18 years of service on the board, has decided to retire from board activity. Biunno wished both members "the best of health, long life and happiness."

problems occur when these children are "dropped" into a track where the work is easier.

"In some cases, tracking can be discriminatory. For example, four years ago a student who received the highest average in the eighth grade was denied being the valedictorian at graduation because he was not in the 'top' class.

"Another problem with tracking is that it does not provide for children who excel in math but are average or slow in reading (or vice versa). The system also defeats the fast learner as well as the slow learner. For example, 25 bright youngsters in the same class can put a lot of pressure on each other—sometimes to the point of destroying the joy of learning.

"Tracking may also create discipline problems," Mrs. Knodel said. "A 'hidden' problem with tracking is that it creates an elitist society, which is contrary to democracy. Children should be taught that people have different talents. When bright children are removed from a class because of tracking, for instance, they may never realize that other students who are slow in math and reading may be gifted in other areas such as art and music.

"At the high school level a natural grouping takes place through course selection. By this time, of course, children are more mature and are able to accept the grouping, or tracking, process."

Mrs. Knodel stated that the Mountainside Board of Education at its December meeting announced that it would survey residents regarding tracking in January. "To date," she said, "nothing has been done."

"My candidacy," she said, "hopefully will rectify this situation."

CONSUMER GUIDELINES

Cookware Efficiency When choosing cookware, look for signs of energy efficiency, convenience and durability. Energy efficient pans have straight smooth sides and close-fitting lids for quick and even heating. Cookware that is convenient to use has heat resistant handles and knobs that won't loosen with use. Smooth, rounded interiors are important for easy cleaning. Durability is determined by the material used to make the cookware. For example, thick metal pans are more durable than thin.

Not usual FISH story

Service group now seven

(The following history of FISH, local area social service organization which is celebrating its seventh anniversary this week, was provided by a spokesman for the group.)

Seven years ago a small group of people decided that they needed an outlet to express their commitment to their neighbors. And so, they organized themselves into a unique organization. They called themselves FISH. They decided that their organization would not have elected officers, dues, card parties or monthly, weekly or semiannual meetings. They would not advertise their organization or attempt to actively recruit large numbers of members on any regular basis. That is what they decided and that is the way it still is today. It is a small, busy, vital organization, hard at work in Westfield, Scotch Plains, Fanwood and Mountainside.

FISH has a long history of diverse stories to tell. Usually FISH does not tell, but because this is FISH Week, we will share with you a few calls that our volunteers answered in our towns.

One day an 80-year-old man who just lost his wife called and asked if we would pack her clothes so they could be donated to the poor. We did.

When a woman had to enter the hospital, we helped by getting her two children off to school in the morning.

A distressed lady with 15 pets called us to help her find homes for them. We found them shelters.

A 90-year-old lady called to say that her washing machine was making a loud noise. We listened.

We drove a bright, vivacious college student to a New Brunswick Hospital for 10 weeks so she could receive cancer therapy.

We picked up two truckloads of furniture that were donated to FISH. We delivered two truckloads of furniture to a family we knew had a permanently disabled father.

We sat and talked with a 99-year-old blind lady many times.

We drove at midnight in a snowstorm to the hospital to pick up a stranded 82-year-old woman.

When a Vietnamese couple came to town and had jobs in Union, we drove them for three weeks until they could get a car.

Two of us, who are retired, drove a woman to Columbia Presbyterian Hospital in New York City.

We typed a blind person's dissertation—hundreds of pages.

We provided food to unemployed families and clothes to burned-out families.

We have been very busy since 1970 doing many other ordinary things that help our neighbors. We could tell you more stories—over 6,000 more.

WHAT'S NEW

RESEARCHERS SAY ELECTRICITY CAN BE GENERATED BY FLOWING SUPERWATERS SINKING IN VAST AMOUNTS OF WARM SURFACE WATER TO HEAT A LIQUID THAT BOILS AT 70° AND TURNS TO VAPOR WHICH DRIVES A TURBINE GENERATOR TO MAKE ELECTRICITY. THE VAPOR IS THEN COOLED BY DEEP WATER AND CONDENSED TO LIQUID AGAIN, SO THE PROCESS WOULD KEEP REPEATING ITSELF.

CONSUMER GUIDELINES

Cookware Efficiency When choosing cookware, look for signs of energy efficiency, convenience and durability. Energy efficient pans have straight smooth sides and close-fitting lids for quick and even heating. Cookware that is convenient to use has heat resistant handles and knobs that won't loosen with use. Smooth, rounded interiors are important for easy cleaning. Durability is determined by the material used to make the cookware. For example, thick metal pans are more durable than thin.

Raise 'hue and cry' Crime fight tactic urged

To combat the nationwide increase in crime, especially crimes against the individual, will require community cooperation, according to Dr. John Wolf, chairman of the Criminal Justice Department at Union College and director of the Union County Police Chief's Training Academy.

Dr. Wolf proposes a return to the "hue and cry" as one solution to the increase in street crime. In early England, where American democracy had its roots, it was the responsibility of every citizen, Dr. Wolf stated, to raise the hue and cry when he or she observed a crime in progress. Further, he said, those who knew of a crime or criminal and who did not report it to the police were considered as guilty as the criminal.

The custom of Blockwatching or ward watching, Dr. Wolf added, was established early in colonial history. In Philadelphia, he reports, all citizens were obliged to take their turn as ward watchers.

In the evolution of the modern day police department, the blockwatcher and the ward watchers disappeared.

"It is now, perhaps, time to revive the custom," the educator stated. "It is society's laws that are being broken and all elements of society should cooperate in the prevention of crime," he said. However, Dr. Wolf asserted, the ninth amendment protects societal or community rights and this amendment must be upheld as well as the first amendment, which assures individual freedom.

"There is a need to balance individual freedom with the rights of society," he said, "is a most challenging task."

There is also a need for programs that will educate the community as to how it can cooperate with the police in reducing crime, Dr. Wolf believes.

But there are also simple rules an individual can follow that can be helpful in crime prevention.

"Be aware," Dr. Wolf said. "Be alert to strangers in the neighborhood. Watch for loitering, people drawing or taking notes in front of a home, people sitting in parked cars. And if you can't account for their presence or activities, call the police. It is better to be too cautious than not cautious enough."

Oriental art collection put on exhibit at Seton

With an initial assemblage of more than 80 pieces both modern and ancient, Seton Hall University, South Orange, has established a permanent Collection of Oriental Art which will be on rotating display in the University Art Center. The first exhibit culled from the Collection — 24 selections representing "A Thousand Years of Chinese Art" — is now on view to the public weekdays from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m.

The new Collection has been designated the Wang Fang-yu Collection of Oriental Art, honoring Prof. Wang, artist, collector and longtime professor of Asian Studies at Seton Hall.

Prof. Wang, who along with Dr. Louis de Foix-Crenascol, chairman of the Department of Art and Music and Director of the Art Center, has been responsible for originating and developing the collection, will serve as research curator of Chinese art in connection with the collection.

At present the collection, comprised of items from Japan, China and Korea, ranges from various types of paintings including several antique silk scrolls and fine Ukiyo-e prints to such art objects as vases and jars in cloisonne and porcelain and intricate netsuke carvings in ivory, antler, and wood. There are palace and temple articles including ritual vessels, embroideries, incense burners and candlesticks. A group of Samurai swords and sword fittings dating to the 16th century contrast with such personal objects as a delicate decorative hairpin with flowers and butterflies in silver and coral.

The collection extends from ancient art — such as two unglazed pottery pieces from seven centuries before Christ — to contemporary works — such as an ink and color painting by Chou Chian Chi made to celebrate the U.S. Bicentennial. A large selection of items date from the Sung, Ming and Ching dynasties from 10th through 18th century China.

"A Thousand Years of Chinese Art" consists of precious objects from the pre-Christian era to the late 19th century. Included are figurines, containers and other household articles in porcelain and other materials, decorative roof tiles in the form of a dragon and a phoenix, and pottery with aubergine and blue peacock glazes.

The collection, acquired from private holdings of a number of collectors and artists, is intended primarily for study and research purposes for Seton-Hall students, faculty and scholars, explained Dr. deCrenascol. It will not be confined to certain periods or forms of art but will include examples from throughout the history and scope of the arts of the region.

Program for JNF

Jewish National Fund will sponsor an informal supper in commemoration of the 10th anniversary of the liberation and reunification of Jerusalem by the defense forces of Israel, Sunday evening, April 17, 6:30 p.m. at the YMHA, Green lane, Union.

Arie Halpern, of Union, president of the Eastern Union County Jewish National Fund Council, has appointed Seymour St. Lifer of Hillside, general chairman of the event.

Jewish National Fund is responsible for land reclamation, soil improvement, forestation, water exploration, preparation of sites for new settlements throughout Israel and construction of roads connecting settlements with main arteries. Founded in 1901, its objectives were to buy land in Palestine, reclaim and settle Jews upon it as the first step in the Zionist plan to reestablish a Jewish State after 1850 years of exile.

THE RUBETTES

DISC 'N DATA

By MILT HAMMER

Pick Of The LP's ... RUBETTES (STATE RECORDS MCA-2193). This is the group's first record to be released in America. The LP is a collection from their first two State albums and serves well as an introduction to five fellows who have captured music audiences across Britain and Europe with polished performances and gem-like songs through which they shine.

Numbers include: "Sugar Baby Love," "Rock Is Dead," "I'm Just Dreaming," "Way Back In The Fifties," "Foe Dee O Dee," "Dark Side Of The World," "Judy Run Run," "Put A Back Beat To That Music," "Tonight," "Sha Na Na Song," "Juke Box Jive," "It's Saturday Night."

The band was born in 1974 when it was assembled to record "Sugar

Baby Love," which soon became number one on the charts in the same year. Their second single, "Tonight," made the top ten, and their third, the rocking "Juke Box Jive," released later in 1974, hit the top three and stayed in the charts through January '75.

By the end of 1975 The Rubettes' top hits included "Sugar Baby Love," "Tonight," "Juke Box Jive," "I Can Do It," "Foe-Dee-Oh-Dee," and "Little Darling." In Europe, particularly France, Holland and Scandinavia, they enjoy huge success winning gold records in France for their singles and albums while selling 800,000 copies of a 45 on average. Thus far their sales have exceeded seven million copies worldwide without a record released in America until now.

Columbia wins Ivy League title as Blue tops Princeton, 59-53

Columbia captured the Springfield Ivy League regular-season crown, finishing with a 59-53 triumph over Princeton to give them a record of 7-2, one game better than second-place Dartmouth.

The Light Blue held thin leads throughout the game, and held on for the victory, as Don Meixner once again paced his club. Don was unstoppable in the final quarter, accounting for six big baskets in the final eight minutes. He finished with 28, as well as 18 rebounds and a number of blocked shots under the boards. Dave Geltman, at guard, had a strong game, scoring 10 points and feeding off for five assists, while fellow guard Larry Maier had six points. Forward Tom Schmidt did his usual tough job off the boards, grabbing 12 and scoring four points. Mike Trapani also tallied four and Chuck Hackley hit for three.

For the Tigers, Todd Leonard was high man with 21 points and six assists, and Pete Ard scored 14. In addition, Pete, who is not one of the league's taller players, pulled down 23 rebounds and played strong defense. Courtney Bachus, the Princeton center, contributed 11 points and eight rebounds, and Tom Ard tallied six. Steve Kaish rounded out the Princeton scoring column with one free throw.

Dartmouth took second place with a 53-50 victory over Yale, in a game which saw the Bulldogs come from 10 points down in the final quarter and pull to within two in the last 10 seconds before bowing. Yale cut the margin to five, at 52-47, with a minute left on a basket by Larry Walker. Ten seconds later, Jay Soled hit a free throw and with 10 seconds remaining Walker sank another hoop to make it 52-50, and Yale called their last time out. On the ensuing inbound play, Don Magers was fouled in the backcourt and sank one of two free throws with five seconds left to ice the contest.

Ray Zitomer of Dartmouth, the league's scoring king, finished with 25 points to put his season mark at 210, while teammate Rob Steir knocked in 18 to finish fourth in the scoring race. John Apicella scored five while Magers had three and Lou DeMauro had two. Walker had 16 points and 18 rebounds to lead Yale, while Jack Chin scored 15 points and racked up six assists. Eric Rutstein hit for 12 and Soled finished with seven.

Cornell, playing without the services of its two top players, Al Berliner and Jeff Cohen, was steamrolled by Harvard, 66-40. The Crimson moved to a 32-18 lead at the half, led by 13 at the end of three quarters, and pulled away in the final stanza, behind the double-barrelled effort of Bill Condon and Steve Altman. Condon finished with 29 points, many coming on the end of a fast break, while Altman tallied 19 and grabbed 15 rebounds, many of which triggered the Harvard break. Bill Meyer, the other forward, scored 11, and grabbed another 11 rebounds, and John Sivolella finished with six. Vin Morrocco hit a free throw to close out Harvard's scoring.

Cornell was paced by the play of Ed MacDonald, who accounted for 18 points and 13 rebounds. Howie Feintuch moved to guard in Berliner's absence and contributed 10 points, while young Mike Berliner tossed in eight and Bill Boogar had four.

Brown defeated Penn, 54-47, for its second straight triumph after seven consecutive losses and showed every sign of being one of the teams to be reckoned with in the playoffs, now that the club is at full strength after a season full of injuries and illness. Center Bill Chesley of Brown led his mates with 16 points, 20 rebounds and four blocked shots, while backcourtmen Danny Circelli and Kenny Palazzi, a pair of seventh graders, hit for 14 and 10 points respectively and were responsible for running the offense and pulling a number of steals on defense. Andy Peskin gave Chesley lots of help underneath, with eight rebounds and four points, while John Bellitti, Steve Bloch, Mike Isaacs and Butch Jackson each contributed two.

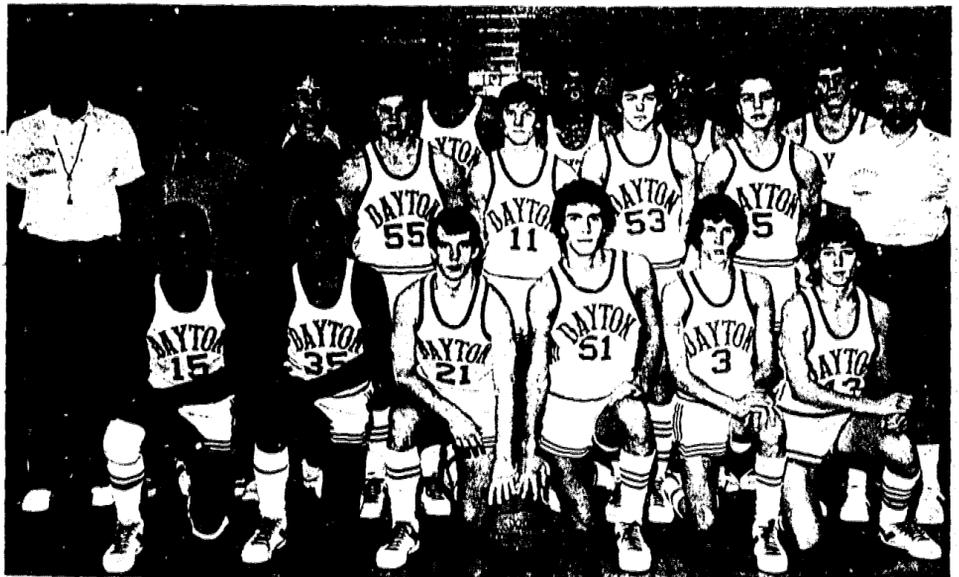

Jerry Blabolil of Penn, the league's second-highest scorer for the season, had another of his fine all-round efforts, amassing 23 points and 15 rebounds. Ronnie Fusco, in Penn's backcourt, again did a fine job, being credited with seven assists and three steals, as well as scoring six points.

Kyle Hudgins also hit for six points for Penn, while Mike Kyritsis and Danny Schlager scored four apiece and Gary McCormick and Rich Hinkley each hit a basket.

Playoff action begins on Saturday, with four quarterfinal round matchups: Penn - Cornell, 1:00; Harvard-Princeton, 2:15; Yale-Dartmouth, 3:30, and Brown - Columbia, 4:45.

League scoring honors went to Roy Zitomer with 210 points, followed by Jerry Blabolil (176), Todd Leonard (157), Rob Steir (139) and Don Meixner (135). Bill Condon (132), Al Berliner (127), Ed MacDonald (121), Steve Altman (118) and Larry Walker (99) round out the top 10.

Juniors end season with 23-0 mark

By CRAIG CLICKENGER
The Junior Minutemen of Springfield finished the 1976-77 regular season last week possessing a perfect 23-0 mark. The Juniors rolled past Westfield, 84-58, and St. Bartholomew, 76-30 in two easy victories to complete this year's schedule. The seventh-graders, directed by Fred Marech in his first year as head coach, became only the second Minuteman team to remain undefeated throughout regular season play.

The Juniors will attempt to carry their unbeaten streak into postseason play by competing in the Summit, Springfield and Junior Division of the AAU tournaments.

Westfield was able to stay close to the Juniors until the fourth quarter of the contest last Wednesday. The Juniors opened the game up in the last quarter with a 30-point performance. Sharp shooting by Kenny Palazzi and Robert Steir led the seventh graders to victory. Kenny, who hit 11 of his 13 points in the fourth quarter, also stole three passes. Robert knocked in six of his 22 points in the last quarter. Steir also led his team in rebounding with 20 and in assists, recording a career-high total of 10.

Danny Circelli and Peter Ard were both instrumental in the victory. Danny was second in the scoring column, netting 14 points and Peter was strong on offense, pulling in 10 rebounds, making seven assists and scoring 11 points. Thomas Ard contributed to the Junior offense with seven points, going three-for-three from the foul line. Tom was also tough on defense as he swiped three passes.

Larry Maier played a superior game on the floor. Larry recorded seven assists and led his team in the steal category with five. The Minuteman point man also knocked in six points. John Sivolella and Jon Usdin each hit four points in the contest while Kyle Hudgins hit a basket and Robert Horwood converted a foul shot to round out the scoring. Ron Fusco, David Johnson and Marlon Jackson also saw action.

The Minutemen's last victory of the season was a one-sided affair from the very first minute of play. The Minutemen crushed St. Bartholomew's 76-30. In their usual powerful fashion, the starting five of John Sivolella, Danny Circelli, Peter Ard, Larry Maier and Robert Steir jumped to an early 27-6 first-quarter lead. The rest was easy as they cruised to victory.

All of the Minutemen scored in the contest. Leading the scorers was Peter Ard with 12 points. Peter also pulled in five rebounds. Kenny Palazzi and Danny Circelli were next in the scoring column with 10 apiece. Danny was the Junior leader in assists with six, and eight points were scored by both Robert Steir and Ron Fusco. Robert also ripped down eight rebounds as he exhibited his strength off the boards while Ron knotted four assists, proving himself in that category.

Tom Ard and Larry Maier each hit seven points in the contest. Both of the Minuteman guards surprised the fans with previously undiscovered rebounding talents. Tom led all of his teammates with 11 rebounds while Larry pulled in an impressive total of seven rebounds from his point position. John Sivolella continued to play the excellent defense that he has shown throughout the season and he also netted six points.

David Johnson was the top thief for the Juniors, grabbing four steals and he was a big playmaker with three assists. David, along with Kyle Hudgins, shot in three points. Marlon Jackson was another scorer for the Juniors as he hit a basket in the contest.

JV wrestlers end fine season with 10-4 mark

By MICHAEL PETRO
The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School junior varsity wrestling team completed its season with a 10-4 record.

The Bulldog JV team produced many outstanding wrestlers this season. Don Calabrese, at 101 pounds, completed the season with a 15-1 record and was runner-up in the novice tournament in the district championships.

Steve Tannebaum, at 108 pounds, finished the season 13-2 and was also runner-up in the district novice tournament. Other JV wrestlers included Mat Apicella, who had a 5-2 mark and was 2-2 in varsity competition; Tim Harrigan, 5-8 for the year; Kirk Kubach, 9-2-1; Tom Poulos, 9-2; John Ferry, 6-2, and John Halpin, 10-3.

The Dayton Freshman wrestling team also ended the season but on a frustrating note. The team was unable to win a dual meet all season because of a large number of forfeits. In actual competition, however, wrestlers won more bouts than they lost.

Some of the outstanding athletes on the team were Richard Bantell, Steve McQuire, John Meisel, Mike O'Connell and Ben Scaturro.

boys' gym, DIPPER Director John Swedish has announced. The league champion White Demons (8-0-1) will meet the fourth-place finisher, determined by a playoff game between the Blue Blazers and Gold Rovers. The second-place Red Crusaders (6-2-1) will play the third-place team Monday.

The basketball league playoffs will start Tuesday when the first-place team takes on the fourth-place team in the best-of-three series. The STP-5 and Lead Bullets, tied at 8-3, will meet this week to determine the first-place ranking. The Black Wings, third with a 5-7 record, will take on the second-place team Wednesday.

The Bullets defeated the fourth-place Red Tigers, 67-49, in the final regular-season game. Bob Conte's 23 points led the Bullets while teammates John Kronert, Rick Weber, Jim Stadler and Carmine Apicella added eight, 15, eight and 13. Tigers scorers: Paul Kanengizer, 13; Bill Mulley, 10; Joe Blabolil, 12; Doug Grant, eight; Larry Grant, four, and Mike Kane, two.

The Blazers posted a 6-2 victory over the STP Eagles in makeup floor hockey action. Ed Fasulo (two goals), Tom Bergeski, Dave Flood, Paul Abend and Dave Zarra added single scores for the Blazers while Dean Gerber tallied both goals for the Eagles.

John LaMotta slammed in a three-goal hat trick to lead the Crusaders over the Blazers, 5-3, in another makeup contest. Frank Zahn and Ed Johnson accounted for the other Crusaders' goals. Paul Abend, Willie Wilburn and Mike Harmon scored for the Blazers. Swedish expelled Crusaders' star Ron Scoppetuo from DIPPER play for the rest of the year for unnecessary rough play.

The final game of the week, the Gold Rovers eliminated the Eagles from playoff competition, 2-0, as Mike Blackman and Joel Gelwarg scored.

Floor ball league play will start in March as soon as the playoff championships are determined in basketball and floor hockey. Players and teams desiring to enter competition are requested to contact the director during the week of playoff action in the boys' gym.

George Bayard, president of the Union Pleasure Circle Club, the oldest club in Union County, announced that the club will sponsor a benefit party with all proceeds going to the New Jersey Foundation for the Blind. The club was organized in 1886.

The affair will be held Saturday night, March 26, starting at 8 p.m. Hot and cold buffet will be served.

Girls ousted by W. Side in state play

By MIKE MEIXNER
The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School girls' basketball team advanced to the second round of the state tournament before losing to powerful West Side, 71-35.

Dayton topped Hanover Park, 58-56, in the first round. Sue Tacovsky and Cricket Franklin each tallied 13 points to lead the Bulldogs. Mary King added 12 points, while Ellen Stieve had 11. Kathy Gerndt was the top Dayton playmaker.

West Side rolled over Dayton, thus ending the successful Dayton season. Coach Ruth Townsend's team, winner of the Suburban Conference title, was led by the scoring of Ellen Stieve and Sue Tacovsky. Stieve, a sophomore, scored 14 points while Tacovsky, playing her final basketball game for Dayton, added 12. King led in rebounding and Gerndt, a freshman starting on the varsity level, played a good floor game.

Dayton, ahead by 13, falls to Hanover Park

By MIKE MEIXNER
The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School basketball team, after holding a convincing 44-31 halftime advantage, fell to Hanover Park, 65-59, and was eliminated from the state tournament. Dayton finished the season with a 7-14 record.

In the opening-round contest, the Bulldogs were excellent for 16 minutes.

Golfers ready to start practice

By MIKE MEIXNER
The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School golf team will begin practice for the coming season when weather conditions are acceptable. Once again, the squad will be directed by Raymond Yanchus.

This year's captain will be senior Michael Rosenberg, who is hoping to become one of the top golfers in the Suburban Conference. The 1976 team had one freshman, David Gechlik, who will be a key factor in this year's squad.

The third quarter, however, was a disaster. The Dayton players committed 10 turnovers, mostly from carelessness, and the Bulldog lead evaporated.

Dayton was led by the shooting of Steve Pepe, who scored 25 points, 11 of 12 from the free throw line. Kevin Doty scored 16 points, but his strongest function was defense. Doty held Hanover's Dave Sowinsky, brother of Princeton's Frank Sowinsky, scoreless. It was the first time Sowinsky had been shut out in his three-year varsity career. Juniors Willie Wilburn and Kevin Walker each netted six points; Ted Parker, co-captain Brian McNany and Ken Fingerhut added two. Skip Liguori and Dave Ironson turned in fine performances.

Woman's Club gifts featured at public library

Gifts from the Mountainside Woman's Club have made it possible for the Free Public Library of Mountainside to purchase a microfilm cabinet for storage of the New York Times on microfilm, covering the period from 1970 to the present.

Gift books also placed in the library by the Mountainside Woman's Club will be on display today through next Thursday, March 17.

"House and Garden's Complete Guide to Creative Entertaining" is for the person who wants to give more successful parties. "The Endangered Ones," by James A. Cox, is the story of more than 300 mammals, birds, reptiles and fish which are threatened with extinction by human civilization.

"The Horizon History of the World in 1776," by Marshall B. Davidson, tells the story of an age that was on the verge of tremendous changes.

"Rebel! A Biography of Tom Paine," by Samuel Edward, recreates the political issues of the American Revolution as seen and influenced by a man who was largely responsible for swaying popular opinion in favor of the war.

"The Birth of America," by John Lewis Stage, recreates the day-to-day struggle of settlers in a new land.

"Tall Ships," with text by Maldwin Drummond, is divided into the past, the present and the future, with each section containing illustrations, descriptions and photographs of each of the ships featured.

"All The Queen's Men, Elizabeth I and Her Courtiers," by Neville Williams, recounts the life of the queen and shows the relationship between the court and the life of London.

"Byron's Greece," by Elizabeth Longford with photographs by Jorge Lewinski, is the fruit of their trip which evokes Byron's Greece in words and pictures.

"Art: A History of Painting, Sculpture, Architecture," contains two volumes, with Volume I covering prehistory, the ancient world and the Middle Ages, and Volume II covering the Renaissance, baroque and the modern world. Both volumes are by Frederick Hartt.

"Frederic Remington," text by Peter Hassrick, describes in detail the artist's life and work.

"Understanding Picasso," by Domenico Porzio and Marco Valsecchi, was produced for the layman who wishes to comprehend Picasso's works. "History of Aviation," edited by John W. R. Taylor and Kenneth Munson is the full story of flight.

Also selected by the club was a set of five books describing daily life in five eras: "Horizon Book of Daily Life in the Renaissance," by Charles L. Mee Jr.; "Horizon Book of Daily Life in Ancient Egypt," by Lionel Casson; "Horizon Book of Daily Life in the Middle Ages," by Clara and Richard Winston; "Horizon Book of Daily Life in Victorian England," by Christopher Hibbert, and "Horizon Book of Daily Life in Ancient Rome," by Lionel Casson.

New program spurs additional adoptions

Human Services Commissioner Ann Klein said this week that a two-month-old program to encourage private adoption agencies to find homes for hard-to-place children has already shown results.

Since January, when a new reimbursement plan went into effect, private agencies have been able to arrange adoptions for 14 hard-to-place children. During the previous five years, a total of only 42 children in this category had been placed for adoption by private agencies.

Hard-to-place children include those who are physically handicapped, mentally retarded or emotionally disturbed, as well as older children and groups of brothers and sisters who should remain together.

The commissioner explained that, under the new plan, the Division of Youth and Family Services provides reimbursement to agencies for the actual cost of placement services, up to $1,800. Previously, the division paid a flat fee of $500 for each placement.

The flat fee system, in effect since 1971, did not recognize or adequately compensate for the escalating costs involved in trying to find an adoptive home for a hard-to-place child, Klein added. The maximum reimbursement was set at $1,800 because that is the approximate direct cost to the state for each year that a child remains in foster care.

The work of the private agency includes recruitment and screening of families, orientation of applicants, home studies, review of available children, taking prospective adoptive parents to see the child before placement, and regular supervision, counseling and referral services after placement, Klein said.

Three private agencies have agreed to participate in the program to date. They are Spaulding for Children in Westfield, Children's Home Society in Trenton and Children's Aid and Adoption Society (CAAS) in Bogota. Spaulding has placed 13 children and CAAS has placed one under the new agreement.

College to give 2-day program

The second in the series of workshops addressing current problems in education will be offered by the Bureau of Educational Services at Kean College, Union, on Thursday and Friday, March 24 and 25, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Entitled "Individualizing Instruction," the workshop will focus on strategies and materials which can be helpful in personalizing the classroom experience. Specific activities will include the writing of task cards, designing, managing learning centers and uses of manipulative materials.

Mobile center requests rising

Organizations interested in having New Jersey's Mobile Information Center visit their areas should contact the New Jersey Office of Tourism and Promotion and list the date requested with two alternate dates, according to John J. Horn, acting commissioner of the N.J. Department of Labor.

"To date, more than 750,000 persons have visited the center to view the interior displays which highlight the state's vacation and recreational facilities," the commissioner said. "And because of the increasing demand for the center, scheduling is made on a first come, first served basis. Organizations are asked to make their requests as soon as possible. All requests will be answered promptly and a definite date confirmed," he added.

Interested groups and schools can write to the N.J. Office of Tourism and

Millstone units offer energy-saving luxury

In a setting reminiscent of the horse country sections of northern New Jersey, builders Thomas Ferraro and John Mattaliano of Living Systems Inc. have built custom-type homes on one to three-acre wooded tracts in Millstone Township, just south of Rt. 33. Four-bedroom homes, 2,000 square feet and larger, are being delivered from $62,900. Five home plans are offered in two-story colonial, ranch and bi-level designs. Raised-hearth brick fireplaces are standard in all homes. All include features like half-inch sheetrock, oak floors, a choice of aluminum siding or cedar shakes, ceramic tile baths, full-thick insulation (including six-inch ceilings), wood double-hung windows, deluxe wood kitchen cabinets, sheetrocked garages and oak stairs and railings. "Living Systems has managed to counter the sales picture in Central Jersey in the last year by keeping a very lean organization and extremely low overhead," said Ferraro. Mattaliano's concern during the last few years has been to create spacious, luxury homes that are also energy-efficient. "Our homes today are some of the best insulated dwellings in the state of New Jersey. Insulation plus special

Dover Heights opens its final section of lots

Dover Heights, a new home community in Toms River, has opened its final section of lots for spring construction.

This section, according to Josh Popkin, president of Landmark Construction and Development Corp., developers of the community, offers "the most naturally beautiful parcels; with an abundance of oak, and pine trees enhancing the minimum 15,000 square foot lots."

Popkin said, "We've developed Dover Heights with two basic housing concepts foremost in mind. First, to distinguish our development with diversified models, with both exterior and interior modifications to keep a custom community atmosphere for our residents. Secondly, pricing, an important factor with the new home buyer market, has been efficiently kept down to maximize our home buyers' value within a development which has experienced substantial value appreciation through the years. These factors have established Dover Heights as a prestigious yet modestly priced community in a rapidly developing area."

Eight models are available at Dover Heights, including an English Tudor, traditional and modern Californian designs. Amenities included in the base price of each home are baths finished in ceramic tile with built-in cultured marble-topped vanity, full thick insulation and insulated double glass throughout. Popkin noted, "Dover Heights homes are constructed well beyond minimum building codes. We've gone beyond the standards of the industry to encompass better building materials and comprehensive quality control to assure maximum value in each home."

Dover Heights' location also has played a role in the success of the community. Financing for Dover Heights homes, including 30-year mortgages, 10 percent down and "attractive interest rates," can be arranged through the builder.

Dover Heights is located on Indian Hill road off Hooper avenue north of the Ocean County Mall.

MILLSTONE WOODS in Millstone Township offers this two-story colonial which includes four bedrooms, 2½ baths, family room with raised hearth fireplace, formal dining room, front-facing living room, kitchen with dinette, entry foyer and two-car garage on large wooded lots for $62,900. Builder is Living Systems, Inc., of Freehold.

The year we build your home.

Barrymor schedules open house Sunday

Barrymor Enterprises, developer of Barrymor Estates and six other custom home communities, will hold its fifth annual catered spring open house this Sunday at noon at the company's model home site on Rt. 526 in Lakewood.

The celebration, with buffet and refreshments, marks the introduction of the new Barrymor L-shaped ranch home and the announcement of a new Barrymor community location. The new model represents the firm's seventh home style. According to Murray Weshnak, president of Barrymor, the new ranch is expected to attract prospective homebuyers from throughout New Jersey and New York. "Details concerning the location and particulars of the new custom community will make the visit all the more worthwhile," he added.

Of the six models now available, the Darby three-bedroom ranch is one of the most popular, priced at $36,990. Chuck Moore, Barrymor's sales director, attributes this model's success to its "attractive appearance, solid construction, reasonable price and financing arrangements." Barrymor Enterprises now offers to qualified buyers, 30-year mortgages, down payments from five percent and interest rates from eight percent.

All seven models—including ranch, Cape Cod, bi-level, colonial and split level styles—feature within the base price full thick wall and ceiling insulation, all wood double-hung windows, carpeted or hardwood floors, 150 amp electrical service, complete choice of color coordinated interior and exterior, gutters and leaders, and choice of six hardwood kitchen cabinets.

Buyers may also have the interior floor plans customized to suit individual needs and wants. "We sit down with every buyer and discuss exactly how his new home is to be customized before construction begins. We can rearrange our suggested floor plan to suit the customer at no additional cost in most cases," Weshnak said.

Barry Weshnak, vice-president of the firm, also expects medical specialists to attend the celebration so they may tour Lakewood's new Medical-Professional Center built by IMF Associates, a subsidiary of Barrymor Enterprises.

The 17,000-square-foot center, located opposite Paul Kimball Hospital, will serve as offices for specialists and distribution facilities for medical supply businesses. He reported that two physicians have already leased space. Doctors practicing general dentistry, psychiatry, orthopedic surgery, radiology, and a general practitioner specializing in family health are currently negotiating for space, he reported. A pharmacy and surgical supply house also will occupy space by April 1.

The center, upon completion, is expected to ease northern Ocean County's current need for physicians, Weshnak noted.

The Barrymor spring open house celebration will be held at the model home area, located off Garden State Parkway Exit 91 on Rt. 526 and will run to approximately 6 p.m.

STRATEGY MEETING—Martin Santini, center, architect for Mariner Estates in Toms River, explains the new model home to builders Patsy Aversa, left, and Henry Graff, Mariner Estates premiered two models recently and is planning two additional models. Mariner Estates is located at Windsor and Coolidge avenues, Toms River.

AT WEATHERLY—The Sturbridge model is featured at Scarborough's Weatherly home development in the Pleasant Plains section of Dover Township, Toms River. The Sturbridge is a four-bedroom salt box colonial with 2½ baths, garage and patio. Basement is available. There are five models at Weatherly-Sturbridge: West Brook, Lexton and Nantucket priced from $39,900 to $50,900.

County 'first': cluster zoning at Weatherly

In July 1975, the first single-family housing project using the cluster zone concept was approved by officials of Dover Township in Ocean County. The approval was granted to developer Bob Scarborough of Cherry Hill, who has a regional office in Toms River. While cluster zoning was not new to Scarborough Corp., its Weatherly complex was to be the first of its kind in Ocean County.

The site, located off Whitesville road (Rt. 571) between Clayton and Sunset avenues in the Pleasant Plains section of Dover Township, consists of approximately 76 acres.

Shortly after their purchase of the site, the Scarborough Corp. applied to the township for re-zoning to the Cluster concept. The new plan, while retaining 154 homesites, also provided an 11-acre park with basketball courts, tot lot, benches and landscaping and a broad "greenbelt" around the perimeter. Walking paths would be cleared through the trees and greenery, that would otherwise have to be destroyed if the original zoning plan had been followed.

The key consideration in cluster zoning is being able to reduce the minimum lot size, while not increasing the total number of lots. The extra land can then be spared development and used by all, with ownership deeded back to the township or retained by the future homeowners. In the case of Weatherly, the land is to be deeded back to the township as parkland. All rear yards about the park or greenbelt area, providing privacy.

"The final result is peace of mind, knowing your children don't have to play in the streets; quiet and privacy, with nature right in your rear yard," a Scarborough spokesman said.

Windmill Club designed for young at heart

The Windmill Club in Howell Township, a one- and two-bedroom detached home community, offers immediate occupancy of homes priced as low as $25,990.

The Howard Siegel Companies, Monmouth County's builder, considers the Windmill Club one of its "most imaginative creations."

"The homes are spacious, yet built exclusively for singles and couples who are young at heart," said a company spokesman. "Our residents range in age from 25 to over 50."

In introducing the "singles" concept to New Jersey, the Howard Siegel Companies chose a setting of rolling and wooded landscape around spring-fed Windmill Pond.

In addition to enjoying the tax and equity benefits of private home ownership, buyers will find available financing with an as low as five percent down payment, an 8 1/4 percent, 30-year mortgage and no closing costs—a saving of approximately $1,300 to the buyer.

The Windmill Club, on Locust avenue off Rt. 9, is near entrances to both the Garden State Parkway and New Jersey Turnpike. New York City is little more than an hour away. Regularly scheduled express and local buses are available to the northern metropolitan centers.

For those who wish to remain closer to home, there is social and recreational activity within the Windmill Club's acres. For social affairs, or just meeting friends, there's the clubhouse with its lounge and card rooms. There's a community tennis court, swimming and wading pools and jogging areas through tree-lined paths to Windmill Pond.

The community is composed of small neighborhoods of individual homes on cul-de-sacs. No through traffic reaches these areas, augmenting the atmosphere of seclusion.

To reach the sales offices, which are open daily, except Thursday, from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m., take the N.J. Turnpike south to Exit 11, or Garden State Parkway to Exit 123, then go south on Rt. 9 to Locust avenue, which is directly across from the Moon Motel. Turn left on Locust to the Windmill Club.

If you're 55 or over...

The Only "In-Town" adult community in New Jersey.

One of the very special things about A Country Place is its location. Unlike other adult communities in the middle of nowhere, A Country Place is in the middle of everything. We're just 5 minutes from the center of Lakewood with its movies, shopping, nearby hospital and great municipal facilities. We don't have to tell you how important that can be.

A Country Place is special for many other reasons. One is size. We're small as adult communities go—only 376 homes. That somewhat explains our very friendly, relaxed, low-key atmosphere—a far cry from that "institutional" feeling at so many larger communities. Life somehow seems easier here.

But just because we're small doesn't mean we're limited. We've got everything the big boys have. That is, everything you want. We don't have room after room filled with unused equipment but no people. We do have a fabulous Country Hall activity center that's always bustling, day and night. A gorgeous olympic-size pool. A golf course a mere mile away. And a unique facility that outsparks them all: sparkling Lake Carasajo for superb boating and fishing right in your own backyard.

Our homes are different too. Not faceless "barracks" you've seen all too often, but each a distinctive single-family ranch. There are no stairs to climb... no overhead neighbors. There is luxury—plenty of it. Central air conditioning and wall-to-wall carpeting. Attached garage. Color-coordinated kitchen with oven-range, dishwasher, garbage disposal. Even a clothes washer and dryer. You get it all at A Country Place.

It all boils down to one fact: In town or out of town, there's just no place like A Country Place. That's why 85 percent of our homes are already sold. That's why you'd better hurry if you want to take advantage of the few homes left. With all we have going for us, we think they'll be going fast.

The last of the no steps ranches at the lake in Lakewood.

Mrs. Chisholm to talk at Kean next Thursday

Shirley Chisholm, the first black Congresswoman in the United States, will appear at Kean College's Wilkins Theater Thursday, March 17, at 8 p.m. Chisholm's constituency, the 12th Congressional District, is known as New York's largest ghetto. Since her election to Congress in 1970, she has co-sponsored or been closely involved with legislation concerning national home health care, Indian and bi-lingual education, Title IX (women in sports), higher education and senior citizens. She currently serves on the Select Education, Post-secondary Education, and Elementary, Secondary and Vocational Education subcommittees. She is also a member of the Congressional Black Caucus.

Chisholm was the first woman from a major United States political party to campaign actively for the Presidency. She received 152 delegate votes at the 1972 Democratic convention. Historical unit picks director

Clifford L. Lord, a former director of the Wisconsin State Historical Society and former president and chancellor of Hofstra University, will become director of the New Jersey Historical Society in September.

Lord will succeed Robert M. Lunney, who is retiring after serving as director for 21 years.

Lord also has served as dean of the School of General Studies and professor of history at Columbia University.

Expanded aid to disabled vets

The Veterans Administration reports that 400,000 disabled veterans have potential eligibility for increased medical care from the VA as a result of recent legislation.

The expanded benefits were included in the Veterans Omnibus Health Care Act of 1976.

Included in the new law was extension of outpatient care for treatment of any medical condition to veterans with 50 percent or more service-connected disabilities. Previously, outpatient treatment for any condition was limited to veterans with service disabilities rated at 80 percent or higher.

Morton St. alumni plan 50th reunion

Members of the June 1927 class of Morton St. School, Newark, will hold a 50th class reunion in the fall.

Jack Bomberg of Union, who is planning the event, is seeking class members whose whereabouts are not known. Anyone belonging to the group, or knowing of someone who does, may contact him at 688-9240.

Reunion is planned by Weequahic '46

The class of June 1947 of Weequahic High School, Newark, will hold a reunion reception Sunday, June 5, from 1 to 5 p.m. at the Cedar Hill Country Club, Livingston. The class of more than 350 also held reunions in 1951 and 1961.

Persons interested in attending the reunion may call Robert W. Kirshbaum at 379-1687.

Payment rules eased by banks in energy crisis

The energy crisis of this winter appears to be over for the moment but the pocketbook effects of the experience still linger.

A survey by the New Jersey Bankers Association of its member banks showed that some areas throughout the state suffered immediate financial repercussions from the plant shut-downs and job layoffs caused by the weather-related fuel shortages.

Most banks, while they didn't publicly announce the fact, made allowances in the cases brought to their attention for loan customers who suffered a loss of income and were unable to make scheduled repayments. Such a position was also publicly announced by one bank, United Counties Trust Co. of Elizabeth, in a series of newspaper advertisements and radio announcements.

Among the bank responses to such instances was to grant an extension on loan payments of up to 30 days without any penalty for late payment; to change the borrower's repayment schedule or extend the maturity period of a loan.

Youthful filmmakers of Jersey in contest

Budding moviemakers from six to 18 years of age will take part in the second statewide filmmaking contest to be co-sponsored by New Jersey Public Television and the New Jersey Institute of Technology—in Newark.

Films will be judged in three age divisions: primary, six-10; junior, 11-14, and senior, 15-18. Applicants must be born after Jan. 1, 1959, and before Jan. 1, 1971. Deadline for entry is April 9.

The Young Filmmakers' Festival will give filmmakers a chance to exhibit their works, to have them viewed by film experts and by the public, to vie for prizes up to $100, and to take part in a special film workshop in May. The workshop will be held at the Student Center of NJIT in Newark.

Students may submit as many films as they like, on any theme and in any style. Each film must be accompanied by a separate entry form. Films may be color or black-and-white, super 8, 8 mm, 16 mm, with sound or silent. All entries must have been produced after Jan. 1, 1975.

Entry blanks have been made available to film teachers in schools throughout the state. They are also available at the Instructional Media Center of the N.J. Institute

Phone line set up for MV inquiries

Because of interest in the provision of new motor vehicle laws recently signed by Governor Byrne, the Division of Motor Vehicles has set up a special telephone line for citizens to call for detailed answers to their questions.

Calls are coming in to DMV central office at the rate of about 1,000 a day. The number is (609) 394-0050. Fifteen persons are on duty to answer the calls during regular business hours, 8:30 to 4:30, Monday through Friday.

Irvington '42 grads plan class reunion

The January and June 1942 graduating classes of Irvington High School will hold a 35-year reunion banquet at the Westwood in Garwood, on Saturday, June 18.

Members of the 1941 and 1943 classes and other interested persons also have been invited to attend.

For information readers may phone Marion Gechtman Mansbach, 736-4024, or Elinor Paetzold Schmalstich, 686-2343.

State TV to be cited

"Equality," a film produced by New Jersey Public Television, has been chosen as a national finalist for an Emmy award by the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences.

The program, first aired on the four NJPTV channels last November, is one of eight television productions competing for an Emmy in the community service category to be presented on the national awards telecast Sunday, May 15.

"Equality" is a 60-minute documentary on equality of race, age, sex and economic opportunity in the United States. It includes comments by Gloria Steinem, Jesse Jackson, Jeremy Rifkin, Herbert Gans and leaders of the Klu Klux Klan and American Nazi Party.

Ken Stein, formerly with NJPTV, was executive producer. Filmmakers were Paul Buck and Art Ciocco of "The Visionaries" in Philadelphia.

Poetic advice

The famous Japanese poet, Basho, was approached by a young man of little talent. "I don't know whether to be a doctor or a poet," the young man said. Basho advised him to be a poet. A friend asked why and Basho replied, "The world is safer with him writing bad verse than treating the sick."

Special plates made available for 'amputees'

Special issue license plates designed to aid amputees and other severely disabled people with parking problems are now available from the Division of Motor Vehicles for a one-time fee of $10. The distinctive tag bears the National Wheelchair Symbol and the registration number—the prefix "H" followed by four digits.

Motor Vehicles Director John A. Waddington said the plates are available to handicapped persons who qualify as an "amputee" as defined by state law. This includes people who have lost parts of their arms or legs or are otherwise disabled and must use artificial aid to walk.

The Division will continue to issue free stickers for license plates and windshield to qualified persons who choose not to buy the wheelchair plates. The stickers serve the same purpose as the special plates.

In addition to identifying handicapped drivers who use extra wide parking spaces reserved for them in many public parking lots, the plates or sticker permits handicapped drivers to park overtime (but not for more than 24 hours at any one location) anywhere that parking is restricted by length of time only. It does not permit parking where entirely prohibited or limited to certain hours of the day. Applications for the special plates or sticker can be made by writing to: Special Plate Unit, Division of Motor Vehicles, 25 S. Montgomery st., Trenton, 08666.

Visitors can pick up applications at 137 E. State st., Trenton, on the sixth floor.

Leukemia unit gets $82,536

Mrs. Seymour Meskin of Union, Radiothon chairman for the Leukemia Society of America's Northern New Jersey Chapter, announced this week that the recent 22-hour broadcast over station WOR raised a total of $82,536.

The broadcast from the ballroom of the Belmont Plaza Hotel in New York City was a blend of theatrical talent, doctors, researchers, political personalities and Leukemia Society volunteers.

According to Mrs. Meskin, "all monies will be used to fund research efforts to find the cause and cure of leukemia."

The metropolitan area effort was part of a nation-wide radiothon producing $538,660—an increase of more than $100,000 over last year's total.

Radiothon contributions may still be mailed to the Leukemia Society of America, Northern New Jersey Chapter, 1855 Springfield ave., Maplewood.

Magazine seeking New Jersey verse

"The Journal of New Jersey Poets," a magazine published in association with the creative writing program of the Department of English at the Florham-Madison Campus of Fairleigh Dickinson University, is seeking full-length submissions of poems for its next two issues.

Manuscripts may be sent to the "Journal of New Jersey Poets," Department of English, Fairleigh Dickinson University, 285 Madison Ave., Madison, 07940, and should be accompanied by a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Should you get fired up when a good teacher is fired?

He didn't get fired because he did anything wrong. In fact, he did a lot of things right. He motivated his students. He made his classes crackle with energy and excitement. He helped turn stale minds into fresh, inquisitive minds. The problem was money. They claimed there wasn't enough of it to keep him on. So they fired him. And as great as that loss is to him, it's even greater for the students he no longer reaches. Should the "no money" excuse be allowed to destroy education? If you get fired up now, maybe they won't fire a good teacher later. Call your school board. Contact your state legislators. Tell them how important quality schools are to you.

Do something now, before it's too late to do anything.
