THE FAIR FANS—The 1,200 people who braved threatening skies Saturday morning and the steady rain later that afternoon helped make the annual Mountainside PTA Fair a success. The bicycle contest, held at Beechwood School at 10:30 a.m. was followed by a parade over to the primary site of the festivities, Deerfield School. Although most exhibits were outside, spirits were not dampened as children happily stood in line to ride ponies, bounce in the trampoline-like moon bubble, play games and get a thrill on one of the rides.

Pupils march in opposition to final exams

By HELEN REYNOLDS

About 70 of the 310 seniors at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School boycotted classes for 90 minutes Monday morning in a protest aimed primarily at final examinations, which are scheduled June 14 through 20.

Police, called onto campus at 8:45 a.m., peacefully disbursed the demonstrators from the rain-wet lawn beside Mountain avenue. Detective Ed Kisch, juvenile-division Sgt. Del Tompkins and Patrolman Dan Maidling advised the students to use established grievance procedures of the school system. Kisch and Tompkins negotiated conditional amnesty from school suspension for students who went inside by 10:15. Student leaders thanked the police before the whole crowd marched indoors.

Principal Anne Romano said she granted conditional amnesty on a one-time-only basis. She said she would order a five-day suspension for the students if there should be another boycott.

Kim Walls, one of the spokespersons for the 70 students, said they demonstrated because they feel exams at the end of the school year "serve no educational purpose at all" for seniors. She said seniors believe the exams will not help them get into college and will interfere with summer-work plans.

She said college-bound seniors already have received replies to their applications for admissions. Many students already have started summer jobs on a part-time basis "because, if you tell an employer you aren't available until after June 20, he'll just hire somebody else from a high school that gets out earlier," Walls added.

"With jobs, final projects and final exams, we just won't have time for a lot of the things people say we're supposed to remember for the rest of our lives," Walls said.

Another spokesperson, Pam Werfel, said many students feel "they (administrators) are just telling us it doesn't mean anything special to be a senior, and they don't care what kind of memories we'll have."

Werfel, acting class president, said

Badges for pool ready to pick up

Mountainside Pool members were reminded this week that badges must be picked up at the Recreation Office. The office will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. from this Monday to Friday and from 8 to 9 p.m. next Wednesday and Thursday.

Readers may call 232-0015 if in need of additional information.

Nitrogen tank given Planning Board OK

The Mountainside Planning Board approved an application by TRW Palnut Division for an above ground nitrogen tank on the Glen Road site Thursday night after a committee reported no evidence of solid waste emissions into the air by the firm.

Preliminary site plans for two office buildings on Rt. 22 were also approved. A committee appointed at the April meeting of the Planning Board visited the Palnut building to try to determine if ashes, liquid material which causes a film on automobiles in the area or offensive odors were coming from the firm. The committee, composed of Chester A. Johnson, construction official, Frank Torma, a local resident, Joseph Motley, Board of Health member, Ron Huter, fire sub-code official and Robert Koser, borough engineer, told the Planning Board that they found no evidence of emissions or odors coming from Palnut as a result of the manufacturing process.

The nitrogen tank, the first above-ground unit at the Glen Road site, will stand 25 feet high and is eight feet in diameter, Sham Khan, plant engineer said. The reason for the liquid nitrogen, he said, is as an additional safety precaution. The inert gas has been used in the Palnut facilities in the past, Khan said, and is widely used for safety purposes by a variety of companies.

A preliminary site plan for two office buildings and a parking lot proposed on the Drewette's Nursery property on Rt. 22 was also approved by the board. Trans Net Corporation, a Union Township based firm, will have to come before the Planning Board for final site plan approval before work can begin on the project.

Robert C. Doherty, attorney for Trans Net Corp., said that the firm hopes to complete construction and occupy the first building before the end of the year. The rest of the more than $1 million project, he added, will consist of a second office building, 318 parking spaces, a one-way ingress into the property from Rt. 22 as well as an egress back onto the highway, a one-family home which will be used for storage, and open air courtyard with a fountain between the buildings. The entire project, Doherty said, will try to capture "the campus look."

Board organizing for coming year

The reorganization meeting of the Mountainside Board of Education will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Deerfield cafeteria. Bart Barre and Carl Marinelli, elected in February, will begin three year terms.

The board will elect a president and vice-president for 1979-80.

Council irked on flood project

The Mountainside Borough Council, irked at the Springfield Township Committee's attempt to withdraw from a cooperative flood-control project, voted Tuesday to send a letter requesting a joint meeting of the two communities' governing bodies.

The project, in the Charles street-Sunny Slope area of Mountainside and the Briar Hills circle-Baltusrol golf course area of Springfield, had been under discussion since 1973 as a cooperative proposal. County government would have reimbursed the two municipalities for half of the actual construction costs after completion of the work.

The Springfield Township Committee advertised for bids on that community's share of the work, but rejected all the bids last November. The bids for the Springfield phase of the work ranged from $328,520 to $585,000. A four-man majority of that community's governing body, saying this would mean a cost of about $20,000 per home protected in Springfield, voted for the rejection.

Mountainside Borough Attorney John Post, in the letter addressed to Springfield officials, said previous commitments by all participants to implement the project, and assurances that it would be implemented, "may well render your current refusal to fund the project (legally) actionable." He requested a joint meeting to review the matter before any action is taken.

In other business, strong approval and disapproval by residents to the Nomahegan Brook Project were reported by Council President Bruce Geiger. Because of erosion from the Nomahegan Brook, Geiger said, a tree fell on a resident's property, nearly hitting the house. But he said some people do not want the project completed because it might take a portion of their property or eliminate a favorite tree.

Buddy poppies to benefit vets will be on sale

The Mountainside VFW Post 10136 will be selling poppies tomorrow, through May 28.

A spokesman said: "The hospitalized veterans are the men who assemble the poppies and pack them in boxes for shipment to some 8,000 veterans of foreign war posts throughout the nation. The veterans posts pay the disabled veteran for his work. This money provides extra income for the disabled veteran to pay for the little luxuries which make hospital life tolerable.

"From the time the poppies leave the hospital until they grace the coat lapel or dress front of the individual citizen, the poppies provide care for the widows and orphans of deceased veterans at the VFW National Home in Eaton Rapids, Mich. It also creates funds for veterans rehabilitation services on the state and national level and gives direct relief to the families of needy and deceased veterans.

"The annual sale of Buddy Poppies is the only public solicitation conducted by the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Most of the money that is collected in this sale will remain in our community to help finance the relief and welfare work which is undertaken in behalf of our own veterans in need and their families."

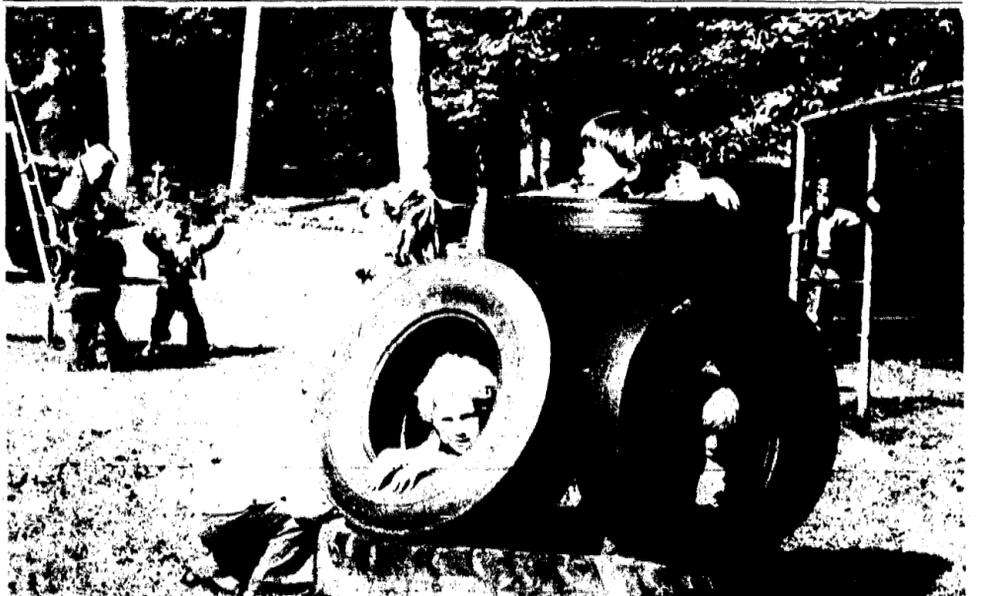

others will sue us if we don't," he said. "I think it's to the benefit of all the adjacent land owners."

This $700,000 project is slated to run on both sides of Rt. 22—from the Children's Specialized Hospital on New Providence road to Force Drive—and would be completed in two phases. One phase would involve channel improvement and a county-funded widening of the bridge across New Providence road, while the other would be a pipe job on the north side of the highway, Geiger said. The council president added that, as soon as easements are secured, the borough will be ready to go out and get bids for

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School varsity girls' track team's hopes of a Suburban Conference championship, fell short last week. Led as usual by Trish Taylor and Maria Samino, the Bulldogs finished second to Millburn in the competition at Madison High School.

Taylor took three firsts and a second, breaking two records in the 100-yard dash (11.7) and the high jump (4 feet 10 inches). She won the long jump with a leap of 15 feet 5 inches; her 220 time of 27 flat earned a second.

Samino was third in the discus, second in the shot put and javelin.

In the 100, sophomore Laura Clarke took sixth place. In the quarter-mile, Kathy Kelly finished second with Debbie Keller fourth. Linda Spina took second in the 110-yard low hurdles in a time of 16.3 seconds.

The mile relay crew of Sue Clarke, Laura Clarke, Debbie Keller and Kathy Kelly finished second; the 440-yard relay squad of Carol Wingard, Sue Clarke, Debbie Keller and Linda Spina was third.

The Jaguars edged the Pumas, 18-17, with pitcher Kathy Rickerhauser striking out six and hitting a triple. Barbara Pettiti's catch helped the Jaguars. The Pumas were sparked by Elaine Dixon's four hits Tricia Marrone's home run. ## Vargas two-hits Madison, 2-1; Regional beats Caldwell, 10-6

By MIKE MEIXNER

The Dayton Bulldog baseball team won two games this week to make its record 5-6. Coach Bob Lowe is happy with the hitting (.319 team average), and pitching (2.40 team ERA), but noted that 25 errors in 11 games have led to 35 unearned runs.

Dayton opened the week with a 2-1 victory over Madison behind the two hit pitching of Dave Vargas. He game up the hits to Dave Jeffrey a first-inning homer and a single to left. Dayton tied the game in the second when Dave Lauhoff single and scored on errors. Mark D'Agostini reached on an error, stole second and scored on the deciding run on error.

Lauhoff had three hits. Tommy Huelbig two and D'Agostini, Joe Policastro, Jim Wnek and Ed Johnson one a piece.

Dayton's Ken Klebus has yet to allow an earned run in 11 innings pitched yet he was beaten, 6-4, by West Orange. All six runs were unearned. Sophomore John Baumgartner, unscored upon in three appearances, mopped up successfully in relief.

Dayton took a 4-0 lead in the top of the first. D'Agostini singled, stole second and advanced to third on a passed ball. Wnek then walked and stole second and Johnson walked to load the bases. Lauhoff hit a two-run single up the middle; Johnson scored and went to third on errors. Huelbig's third successful squeeze bunt of the year brought in the final run. The Cowboys tied the score in the second inning and won with two runs in the fourth.

Dag and Lauhoff each had two hits. Johnson and Wnek had the other hits. Huelbig did not receive an official at-bat, sacrificing twice and walking. Baumgartner belted two 330-foot drives his two times up but was foiled by great catches.

Dayton beat the Caldwell Chiefs, 10-6, to give Policastro a complete-game victory. The Bulldogs scored three in the first. D'Agostini singled, was sacrificed to second on Huelbig's bunt, went to third on an error which let Lauhoff reach base and scored on a sacrifice fly by Baumgartner. Lauhoff stole second and scored as Wnek reached on a two-base error. The final run came on a single by Johnson.

In the second, Policastro hit a bunt single, stole second and went to third on a single by Adam Williams. Dag then squeezed in a run with a bunt. Williams scored on Huelbig's single to right, making it 5-2.

The final runs came when Lauhoff doubled, went to third on a single by Baumgartner and scored on a hit by Wnek. ## Bulldogs now eighth in county net ratings

By MIKE MEIXNER

Despite dropping two of three matches this week, the 11-5 Dayton tennis team vaulted to eighth place among county teams. Coach Rick Iacono's squad is third in the Suburban Conferen-

Dayton salvaged the week with a 5-0 victory over West Orange after successive losses to Millburn (ranked ninth in the state), and Summit (12th in the state). The team will be host to New Providence this week and will travel to Madison and Caldwell as the season draws to a close.

At second singles Greg Wanner, master of the two-handed backhand and forehand, was the only Bulldog to win a set against Millburn and swamped a highly-favored foe from Summit, 6-3, 6-2, for the team's only point in a 4-1 loss. Wanner capped the week by blanking his West Orange opponent, 6-0, 6-0, in a record 54 minutes. The highly-improved senior, will be missed in 1980.

In the 5-0 loss to Millburn, first singles Gary Nestler fell in two sets, winning five games. Sophomore Al Berliner, at third singles fought hard but lost in two sets. The doubles dups of Mark Dooley and Mike Clarke and Dave Gechlik and Jim Reiner played close, respectable sets despite losing.

Berliner and Nestler lost in two sets to Summit. The doubles tandems won one set before losing.

Dayton turned the tables against the West Orange Cowboys. Nestler, despite dropping eight games, won in two sets. Berliner was nearly perfect, losing just two games. Dooley and Clarke needed just two sets, one a shutout. Gechlik and Reiner completed the blanking by winning handily.

Dayton beaten again by Millburn in track

Deerfield girls win first

The Deerfield School girls' softball team began its season with an 18-11 victory over Watchung's Valley View School.

In a rematch with Valley View, the Mountainside girls lost, 12-11, largely due to errors, according to Coach Debora Clifford. Against Roselle Park, the Deerfield nine succumbed, 8-6.

Playing under different league rules, the girls could not rely on their usual offense of bunting and stealing.

"The team really played well in the Roselle Park game," noted their coach, "and we're looking forward to continuing this in our next games." Kathy Rickerhauser pitched all three games.

Their next home game is against Roselle Park on Tuesday.

PRaise for Band

On May 4, 5, 6, I had the distinct pleasure of accompanying the Jonathan Dayton Marching Band to the Washington, D.C., area in order to participate in the Winchester Virginia Apple Blossom Festival Grand Parade, as well as three days of sightseeing. As representatives of their school and respective towns, they did one fine job both musically as well as upstanding young citizens. They were extremely well behaved at all times; as hotel guests, tourists and bus passengers and deserve the highest of praises. Outstanding conduct and good manners should not go unnoticed. These are very fine young men and ladies and deserve our praise as well as support in all their activities, be they for raising funds and/or performing throughout the school year. Bravo J.D. Bandmembers. You're terrific!

Deerfield nine tops Garwood; mark now 3-2

The Deerfield boys' baseball team routed Garwood, 13-3, for its third victory in five games.

Mountainside scored its 13 runs on seven hits, Coach Ed Sjonell reported. Joseph Sefack had two hits and four RBI. Glenn Delaney pitched an outstanding game, allowing three hits and striking out nine in the four innings played before curfew. Michael Kontra batted in three runs, Delaney two and Charles Kachulis and James Dascoli one each.

A 7-2 victory over Berkeley Heights was marked by the excellent defensive play of Kontra, Dascoli, Kachulis and John Alder. Delaney pitched a five-hitter. Patrick Esemplare and Andrew Grett each had two hits; Grett, Delaney and Sefack each contributed two RBI. Deerfield clinched the game in the sixth inning. Kontra led off with a single, Julian walked and Esemplare singled in a run, then stole second. A single by Grett drove in two more runs.

In the season-opener, Deerfield beat Garwood, 9-8. In the fifth inning Thomas Perrotta singled and James Merklinger ran for him. Grett doubled in Merklinger to tie the score, 8-8, before stealing third and scoring on a wild throw. Doug Torborg led with two RBI. Delaney pitched three innings; reliever Perrotta was credited with the victory.

Deerfield lost twice to Clark teams—Brewer Junior High won, 6-3, and Karl Kumpf Junior High, 9-3. Brewer used five walks to score five runs in the first. Esemplare had two RBI and Grett had three hits, including two doubles. He leads Deerfield with three doubles. Delaney, the losing pitcher, was relieved by Perrotta.

Kumpf used a combination of walks, errors and strikeouts to beat Deerfield, which was held to three hits, a double by Esemplare and singles by Delaney and Kachulis. Richard Julian started and took the loss.

OLL sponsors Mass for sick

A concelebrated Mass for the Anointing of the Sick will be held at Our Lady of Lourdes Church in Mountainside, Saturday at 10:30 a.m. During the Mass, priests will confer the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick on any Catholic man, woman or child who may be suffering from a chronic illness or handicap, who may be terminally ill or who, due to advanced age, is desirous of receiving the Sacrament.

Anyone attending in a wheel chair was requested to use the rear parking lot entrance to the church, where there will be a ramp to aid in gaining access.

Refreshments will be served in the auditorium following the Mass. In order for the committee to plan for this occasion, participants were asked to call the rectory no later than today (232-1162).

194 calls listed for mobile unit

Overlook Hospital's mobile intensive care unit has responded to 194 calls in Mountainside since it got under way in 1975.

The program, which operates the Medic I and Medic II vehicles, will end June 30 unless a bill providing continued funding is passed by state legislators.

The Mountainside calls were among 4,640 answered by the Summit hospital's program. Supervised by physicians, the unit is staffed by volunteer paramedics, nurses and drivers.

Suspect admits two break-ins, detective says

A burglary suspect arrested in Union Township Sunday has admitted to at least two break and entries in Mountainside as well as others in Roselle and Somerset County, Mountainside Detective Sergeant Jerome Rice said.

Joseph Coppola, 30, of Orange, was charged with the break and entry of an Orchard road home on March 8 and stealing money and property valued at more than $200 after, police said, Coppola admitted being responsible for the burglary.

Rice said that additional charges including assault may be pressed by the Orchard road residents. The burglar, who was surprised by the homeowners at 7:10 p.m., knocked down one resident, causing a sprained ankle, Rice added.

Coppola also may face additional burglary charges within the borough, because, the detective said, Coppola admitted involvement in at least one other Mountainside burglary. Police will take the suspect around the borough and allow him to point out any homes he broke into.

Atlantic City police have been alerted that Peter Popovski, believed to be part responsible for at least two burglaries in Mountainside, may be living in the resort city. Rice reported several concrete leads.

Popovski, suspected of involvement in break-ins on Old Tote road and Woodacres court on May 4, was traced through Amitri Sandhu, 25, of Atlantic City, police said. Sandhu was arrested on May 4 and admitted, police said, to the two burglaries that night.

Another Old Tote road residence was burglarized, police reported, this one discovered at 3:30 p.m. on May 8. A neighbor who saw a green truck with two black males in it alerted police. Missing items include a color television and a stereo.

Patrolman Richard Osieja was flagged down at 7:30 a.m. Tuesday by an employee of Halfway House who reported a break and entry. The burglars, according to reports, entered sometime between 12:30 a.m. and 7:30 a.m. and took $200 worth of liquor. The rear door had jimmy marks on the molding and the liquor room door was kicked in, police said.

Final exams

Walls said seniors also believe scheduling of final exams "so late in the school year just defeats the whole purpose, if there ever was one, of having standardized exams."

The demonstrators also included Karen Pomo, president of the Student Council.

Students throughout the Regional High School District are taking a standardized test in each course this year as the final exam. The standardized tests will be used at the Dayton campus in Springfield, which also serves Mountainside, and at campuses in Berkeley Heights, Kenilworth and Clark.

"We know they must prepare standardized tests ahead of time..." said Walls. "If seniors have to take final exams at all, they could be given earlier...Why ruin our last week of high school by giving us exams then?"

Werfel said the disgruntled seniors plan to follow police advice and "go through channels." She said seniors will wait for recommendations from campus and regional administrators before sending a delegation to a Board of Education meeting on June 5.

Principal Romano said the demonstration came as "a total surprise" to administrators and teachers. She said the seniors had not previously tried to use established grievance channels.

The Regional District has experimented with many approaches to giving or not giving final exams to seniors, Romano said. Regional administrators and the board reinstated final exams for seniors, she said, because they are considered "a valuable educational experience." She pointed out that college students are subjected to final exams regularly.

Mustangs win twice; Stars beat Dodgers

Major League action in the Mountainside Little League saw a solid attack featuring a tape-measure home run by Chris Carpeny enable the Blue Stars to beat the Dodgers, 8-4. Mike Tomko, Mike Perry and Tommy Jackson each contributed two hits as Bob Alder got credit for the victory. The Dodgers continued to show a potent offense with Steve Burton contributing three hits and Kyle Wissell and Brian Dailey two each.

The Mustangs remained undefeated by edging the Cubs, 11-10. John Fischer, Darren Iaione, Brian Moran and Steve Sokohl delivered clutch hits to overcome four hits by the Cubs' Jeff Ahlholm and three hits by Matthew Miller, including a long home run.

Council meets

The council also introduced an amendment to the land use ordinance which Post said would provide for the changes recommended by Chester Johnson, construction official, to the zoning code approved late last year. The changes, as explained by Post, include: permission for residents to park vans for non-commercial purposes in driveways; authorization for the building inspector to accept surety bonds; expansion of permitted limited non-residential uses to all residential zones and a requirement to face the finished side of a buffer fence on a commercially zoned lot toward an abutting residential property.

The N.J. Board of Public Utilities advised that complaints with the Somerset Carting Co., the primary garbage-disposal contractor for the borough, should be referred to investigators at 648-2067. In a letter, Alex Lawrik, chief of the Bureau of Movers and Refuse, said, "All complaints can be properly recorded and evaluated to ascertain if any particular pattern is being established...I have instructed my staff to monitor the situation and take appropriate action in the event of any violation of law or rules and regulations."

Councilman Tim Benford said that the Department of Transportation will conduct a study of the traffic on the corner of New Providence road and Rt. 22 to try to determine if a staggered traffic light might help to unclog some of the rush-hour traffic at that intersection. Kurt Winston of the DOT is due to report back with study results by June 15.

At the request of Councilman Abe Suckno, the governing body instructed Johnson to keep checking on the gasoline situation in the borough. Suckno said the borough should keep watch on potential developments, such as gasoline lines that impede traffic, especially on Rt. 22, or illegal parking of cars at service stations or on neighbors' property and the street. Suckno said the council should be kept up to date on information to improve handling of potential problems.

The Mustangs romped to a 14-3 victory over the Vikings as Jim Thorlakson, John Fischer and Shane Connell led the Mustangs. Steve Sokohl hurled a strong game for the Mustangs. The Vikings were sparked by the play of Jay Mishkin, Mike Stoffer and Kipp Levinson.

In Pony League play, the Broncos behind the complete-game pitching of Stu Jurczak, beat the Mustangs, 16-8. Joe Sefack, John Crilly and Glen Delaney provided the offensive thrust for the Broncos while Mark Dougherty was the hitting star for the Mustangs. Andrew Grett turned in a strong relief job.

Hearing officer rules Crivelli off June ballot

Joanne Rajoppi of Springfield has been declared the only candidate legally entitled to have her name on the ballot in the Democratic primary for the state Senate seat from the 22nd District.

A hearing officer for the state Office of Administrative Law last Thursday invalidated the nominating petition of Rajoppi's would-be opponent, Joseph Crivelli of Scotch Plains. Administrative Law Judge Thomas Clancey, who conducted the hearing in the Elizabeth courthouse, struck 28 of the 118 signatures from Crivelli's petition. That left only 88—12 short of the legal requirement for a senate candidate, who has to have signatures of 100 registered voters from his own political party to qualify for a spot on the primary ballot.

Clancey ruled that 20 of the signers were not registered voters, three were registered as Republicans and four signatures were illegible. Rajoppi, a county freeholder and former Springfield mayor, had filed the petition challenge.

Crivelli, an English instructor at Essex County College, blamed state actions for his petition problems. He said candidates for the Senate seat had to circulate petitions hastily for a special primary planned Feb. 27.

The Senate rescinded its plans for the Feb. 27 primary, and the filing period was extended to April 26. Crivelli said he could have obtained many more signatures in March and April if he had known his February petition was being questioned.

Freeholders praise Children's Hospital

The Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders has commended Children's Specialized Hospital, Mountainside, on the completion of its major construction and expansion program, almost doubling bed capacity.

In a resolution presented to the rehabilitation hospital for physically handicapped children and adolescents, the Freeholders said they were "aware of the service that the Children's Specialized Hospital has provided to the residents of Union County for over 85 years."

This board is especially aware that the hospital has served the special needs of physically handicapped children since 1891 and that the hospital now offers a modern, 60-bed inpatient wing, augmented by greatly expanded therapy and support areas.

The formal resolution was presented to Paul C. Bosland, president of the hospital's board of managers, by Joanne Rajoppi, vice-chairperson of the board of freeholders.

In accepting the resolution, Bosland said it was "indeed gratifying that the freeholders support the quality of health care given to the children at the hospital. We are very grateful."

Two get summonses after Rt. 22 mishaps

Summons were issued to drivers in two separate accidents last week on Rt. 22 in Mountainside.

Risa Boltax of Scotch Plains was charged with careless driving after a 4:41 p.m. accident on May 7, police said. Reports said that Peter F. Horst of Veitshoheim, Germany, was in the right turn lane of Rt. 22 west between New Providence road and Evergreen court when Boltax's car hit his car on the right side. According to police, Boltax said she was attempting to pass the vehicles stopped at the red light.

A summons for having no insurance card in his possession was issued to Mario Piazzolla of Middlesex at 3:57 p.m. Saturday after a two-car accident on Rt. 22, police said. Merle Paul of Plymouth, Pa., told police that she was traveling west when the car in front of her suddenly braked, forcing her to swerve into the left lane. Piazzolla said that he applied his brakes but could not avoid hitting Paul's car.

Alan M. Platoff of Summit road told police that he was in a patch of fog when his car struck a utility pole near the corner of Woodvalley road and Central

A "Sewing for Kids" course will be held Wednesdays, May 23, 30, June 6, 13 and 20, from 1 to 3 p.m. and repeated in the evenings from 7:30 to 9:30. Both sessions will be held at the Cooperative Extension Service, 300 North ave., East, Westfield and will be taught by Mrs. Carolyn Y. Healey, Extension Home economist.

Mrs. Healey has announced that mothers, grandmothers and even fathers can learn to sew for children. Mrs. Healey has explained that "kids clothes are very simple and easy to make." She is requested interested

THREE-MODELS-IN-ONE are represented by the Dartmoor model home of Greenbriar II, the new adult residential-recreational community modeled after and located across from the original Greenbriar. There are three floor plan variations of this two-bedroom, two-full-bath home. The variations have such features as Florida rooms, country kitchen and formal dining rooms along with eat-in kitchens.

Second Greenbriar reports 70 deposits

Joan Harding, marketing director of U.S. Home Corp., New Jersey Division, said response to Greenbriar II, the adult residential-recreational community modeled after and located across from the original Greenbriar in Brick Town, has made it an instant sales success. She reported that 70 deposits for purchase have already been taken at Greenbriar II, even before the official opening. A construction schedule has been initiated for deliveries of purchased homes in June. The Greenbriar II home models are priced in the low $60,000's.

"The bulk of these early-bird sales resulted from recommendations by residents of the original Greenbriar," she explained. "Others came from people who were revisiting the original Greenbriar, not knowing it has been sold out."

"But we are also beginning to experience the effect of the lower qualifying age for Greenbriar II residency,"

she added. "In effect, the lowering of age from 52 to 48 for at least one household member has substantially expanded our potential market."

Greenbriar II social and recreation facilities include the following: six-acre recreation center with a 12,000 square-foot clubhouse; main lounge with woodburning fireplace; swimming pool and sun decks; shuffleboard courts; separate men's and women's sauna and whirlpool baths; an auditorium with stage, kitchen facilities, library and card room, and rooms for wood working, ceramics, sculpture, painting and sewing.

Like its model, Greenbriar II offers full-sized single-family homes on separate lots. There are three models, with a total of seven variations. Each is a two-bedroom home with either aluminum or brick exterior and attached garage.

All of the Greenbriar II homes come equipped with air conditioning; wall-to-wall carpeting; baseboard heating with zone controls; big kitchen with color-coordinated self-cleaning oven with hood, dishwasher, no-frost refrigerator-freezer, decorator cabinets and counter tops; laundry room with clothes washer and dryer; color-coordinated baths with ceramic tile floors and tub-shower area, cultured marble-topped vanities, medicine chests, decorator-lighted mirrors and water-saving toilets and shower heads; patio with insulated sliding glass doors, and insulated windows and screens.

In addition, other no-extra-cost features are smoke detector; light fixtures, electrical door chimes and 200-amp electrical service; 3½-inch and nine-inch insulation; 240-pound, self-sealing roof shingles; aluminum siding, gutters and leaders; termite-treated sill and ground; front hose bib; attached garage; sodded lawn and shrubs; paved driveway; under-ground utilities; and curbs, sidewalks and sewer.

Pool, tennis being added to Countryview

As New Jersey locations are increasingly sought as backdrops for motion picture products, filmmakers should be notified that a plush Gatsby-era recreational scene is in the making in the state. At Panther Valley, the private 1,500-acre luxury community off exit 19 of Rt. 80 in Allamuchy, the newest swimming and tennis facilities are being constructed in a dream setting on a landscaped peninsula that juts into Lake Sparrowhawk below tall stone mountain walls.

A technicolor shot if ever there was one, the recreation area will be the play place of residents of the community's Countryview section, which is comprised of the Westgate and Country Townhome neighborhoods, where the townhomes prices start at $53,740. When ready for use by the end of June, the new facilities will bring the totals up to four neighborhood pools and four tennis courts along with separate platform tennis courts, within the community.

"Residents of the single-family homes, priced from $133,900, also enjoy their own recreation areas," explained Charles Knoeller, sales director for Panther Valley. "And also within Panther Valley is the private Panther Valley Golf and Country Club and its championship 18-hole course designed by Robert Trent Jones."

Testimony to the overall appeal of Panther Valley came last year when it was reported that the people who know the most about the community were sold on the product. The construction project manager—who knew most about the building materials, the energy-conservation measures and the craftsmanship that goes into all the homes—purchased a Granville, a traditional two-story townhome with three bedrooms, 2½ baths and a two-car garage.

The interior decor consultant purchased a Georgetown two-story townhome in the Country Townhome neighborhood series. This model has three bedrooms, 2½ baths, two-car garage, deck and a basement with recreation room. One of the more dramatic aspects of the Georgetown is the family room with cathedral ceiling that reaches up to the heights of the second floor.

Two other Panther Valley staffers, an administrative assistant and a salesperson, purchased Westgate Townhomes. Both selected the Baronet I model, which has two bedrooms, 1½ baths, porch, patio and basement.

The townhomes are especially attractive because with their purchase, come the same pleasures and opportunities offered owners of the more expensive Panther Valley residences. These include the same trails, the same encompassing views of the surrounding high stone mountain walls, the same private tennis, swimming and platform tennis.

All residents also have enhanced freedom to take advantage of the facilities since road, snow removal, lawn work and exterior maintenance chores on the townhomes are serviced provided through the homeowners' association. And all residents share the peace of mind resulting from the 24-hour manned gatehouse and the security patrols that watch over privacy and safety within the community.

Known as "The New Jersey homes for families who can afford to live anywhere," Panther Valley is situated 55 miles west of Manhattan via express Rt. 80. A charming Colonial-motif shopping center is just outside the community entrance, and children attend either public schools or the choice of private academies. To visit Panther Valley, reach Rt. 80 west. Proceed west to the Andover-Hackettstown exit. Turn and the community entrance will be on your left at the end of the ramp.

Ex-astronaut speaks at Realty World rally

Wally Schirra, a former astronaut, was the featured speaker at the Realty World-New Jersey spring sales rally recently at Pines Manor, Edison. Ronald T. Blair, Realty World regional director, said that Schirra, a native of Bergen County, is a "special ambassador" for the international Realty World network of independent real estate brokerage organizations. "Wally Schirra has seen the entire world from a lofty position," Blair stated, "but, as evidenced by his continuing public involvement, he has kept the nation's basic interests in perspective. As a Realty World ambassador, he participates in the network's sales program in the United States and Canada."

The sales rally marked the first mass gathering of Realty World brokers in New Jersey since the state office roster rose above the 50-member level. Currently, the Realty World national network is comprised of more than 1700 members. New Jersey's growth is attributed by Blair to "the excellent sales tools and other backup programs provided by national headquarters and, above all, the training program which is far superior to any other in the franchise field."

The New Jersey regional office is equipped to assist members through a business development department which helps them recruit personnel and then trains the new employees. Realty World has a comprehensive, seven-course educational and training program in addition to seminars for brokers.

Realty World Corp. was created in October, 1974 by a group of executives from other real estate franchise companies who felt their talents were not being utilized to the fullest; who believed brokers could profit from more sophisticated training and backup programs.

Realty World is an organization of independent brokers who, through collective resources, "can offer as good or better services to the public than the big chain operators and have the added advantage of being local businessmen," Blair explained.

Golf devotees 'linked' to tees at adult condos

The popularity of the Rossmoor and Clearbrook condominium golf courses is very much in evidence these days as pros and duffers alike are out on the on-premises links.

Residents of the two leisure-oriented communities, just off Exit 8A of the New Jersey Turnpike in Monroe Township, rapidly are shedding their boots and winter clothing, exchanging them for the lighter weight golfer's jacket, cap and spiked shoes. The two courses—18 holes at Rossmoor and nine at Clearbrook—are enjoyed year-round by hardy souls who play regardless of the season.

The golfing season officially has started here, with old friends pairing up and the cry of "fore" heard once again throughout Rossmoor and Clearbrook.

An increasing percentage of the residents continue to work while enjoying the many pleasures, sports and recreational activities available at Rossmoor and Clearbrook. Many of them from their front door. There's no rushing back into the car to buck traffic to get to the links. Along with gas savings, residents also appreciate the savings in human energy enjoyed by not having to drive a distance away from home. While the golfers are making their way towards the courses, the tennis players also may partake of on-premises facilities. Tennis is a beautiful sport to start with, but it's even better so close to home. Rossmoor and Clearbrook offer a choice of 20 home designs to choose from at prices ranging from $33,290 to $95,000.

No words available for Holly Oaks homes

William Steinfield, vice-president of Countrywide Development Corp. (CDC) is looking for the right word to describe Holly Oaks, the successful single-family home community off Rt. 70 in Manchester Township where more than 175 homes now priced from $54,900 have already been purchased.

"The only word we have in our industry that the public is used to hearing is 'development,' but to call this community a development is totally wrong," Steinfield explained. "A development makes one think of a group of carbon copy units erected on land that has been made unrecognizable from its original natural state."

Steinfield thinks that "neighborhood" is more appropriate, but still not perfect.

"It's rare for a new community to have a charming, rural and settled-in feeling so quickly, just as it is unusual for a community to be so quickly successful," he stated. "We can take credit for a bit of this, since we protected so many of the tall trees and so much of the natural environment. But, the first buyers themselves have made it seem like this neighborhood has been here for a much longer time."

Maybe "customized neighborhood" would be more accurate, since each home is a reflection of the choices made available to their owners. Buyers are offered four basic models, and then several variations of each. And along with the custom-style craftsmanship with which the homes are constructed, the owners have been responsible for a great portion of the neighborhood population.

"We knew we had a prime location at Holly Oaks," Steinfield added. "But we expected the bulk of buyers to come from nearby. Instead, we're getting buyers from all over New Jersey and down to Philadelphia. We made a survey and the majority said, 'Friends who live here told us about Holly Oaks.'"

Holly Oaks has more going for it than volunteer salespersons, of course, including fine local schools and extremely low taxes. Also, Manchester is near the center of Ocean County, with lakes, trout-filled streams, the Atlantic Ocean, Freehold Raceway, numerous golf courses and other amenities nearby. Along with two local grammar schools, there is the new Manchester High School, and Ocean County Community College is in the immediate area.

"It is one of the finest natural recreation areas in the East, so that residents have the best of two worlds—rapid commuting to cities for work and cultural pursuits, and clean air, safety, relaxation and recreation at home," Steinfield pointed out.

Holly Oaks is located on Rt. 70 and Wilbur avenue. From the north, take the Garden State Parkway to Exit 88, drive west on Rt. 70 toward Lakehurst for about five miles and you'll see Holly Oaks on your right, about a mile and a half after the Rt. 527 intersection.

Shadow Lake Village shows sales increase

Shadow Lake Village, the adult community in Middletown, has been consistently appealing and prestigious no matter how relatively rare the opportunity to purchase a residence at the community. Yet, lately, as the number of homes left available drops rapidly toward a precious few, the pace at which Shadow Lake Village homes are being purchased has certainly stepped up.

Del Purscell, director of sales for the Hovnanian Enterprises, Inc., communities in New Jersey, reports that an incredible one out of five persons who visit Shadow Lake Village buy one of several townhome and villa model homes which are now priced from $42,390 to $57,500. It's a batting average of Pete Rose proportions in the homebuilding industry, and Purscell attributes it directly to the fact that less than nine per cent of the homes at the private community are left for purchase.

"Gold may have soared in recent years," Purscell quipped, "but not like the value of the equity in Shadow Lake Village homes. They were originally priced from $22,990."

On a 158-acre site that was formerly the private estate of a multimillionaire, Hovnanian Enterprises maintained the natural course and quality of Thimble Brook which runs gracefully through the property, and upgraded the facilities and quality of mile-long Shadow Lake. Famous golf course architect Rox Ern was brought to design the nine-hole, par-three course.

No motorboats are permitted on Shadow Lake, so that it remains unpolluted. On hot weather days, one may loll on the sun decks around the Olympic-sized swimming pool and watch residents in rowboats on the lake battle with trout and other annually stocked gamefish. And these are just some of the amenities which are included in the residents' association fee.

There are shaded walks, but also paved areas for cycling, woods, but also landscaped gardens and open spaces for barbecues and outdoor dancing. In the clubhouse are a library, card rooms and a billiard room, as well as lounges and catering facilities for parties. An auditorium serves for banquets, dances and special entertainment.

From the beginning, these facilities attracted adults who were used to the best in life. Typical were executives from such nearby towns as Rumson, Middletown, Fair Haven and Red Bank—people who had always been involved in civic and philanthropic activities. When children are grown and moved away, the adults sold their estates and larger area homes to continue their style of life without the headaches normally associated with the ownership.

To qualify for residency at Shadow Lake Village, only one member of a household has to be at least age 52. Approximately 70 per cent of the households have at least one member still employed, in large part, as executives and professionals.

To discover Shadow Lake Village, take the Parkway to Exit 114, then left on Red Hill road for two-tenths of a mile to Dwight road. Turn right for approximately three miles to the entrance, where the guard in an attractive gatehouse will direct you to the model homes. Models are open daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Following the best first quarter in its history, sales are continuing to run 100 percent ahead of last spring at Covered Bridge in Manalapan. It was announced by Del Purscell, sales director of THE New Jersey Division of Hovnanian Enterprises, Inc., one of the nation's premier developers of residential-recreational adult communities.

"Covered Bridge is now 85 percent sold," Purscell states, "and, judging from the acceptance so far of our final sections, it won't be too long before we hang up the 'Sold Out' sign."

Purscell ascribed the increase in sales to two principal reasons:

"First, the 6,000 series of models—one and two-bedroom homes which were designed at the suggestion of residents—are probably the most attractive in the community. It turns out we saved the best for last.

"Second, we've managed to hold down prices in the face of inflation. Homes, including the 6100, 6200 and 6201 models, are priced from $35,790.

Another reason for the significant sales increase, he said, is that some of our homes are ready to move into. All a couple or singles have to do is pick out the color scheme, carpeting and special equipment they want and, in a few weeks the home is ready for them. This can be a major consideration for persons who've already sold their present homes, or who want to move out of their present apartments or neighborhoods right away."

"Perhaps even more important than the homes to many persons are the many amenities and recreational and social facilities available at Covered Bridge, the famous-for-fun environment for all seasons. There's the clubhouse, however, where residents meet to play cards, billiards, take part in some 60 hobby clubs, or hold dances, or attend professional entertainment. The clubhouse also has an exercise room, saunas and a library.

Outdoors are the resort-sized swimming pool, sun decks, illuminated tennis courts and paths for cycling, jogging or taking walks. An 18-hole championship course, the Covered Bridge Golf Club, is next door to the property and may be used by residents for a nominal fee. The residents' golf club, in fact, is one of the most popular clubs in the community.

Since either the husband or wife must be at least 52 years old to be eligible to purchase a home—"a very young age today," Purscell points out—Covered Bridge is an environment considered "a retirement home for the future." More than 60 percent of the residents continue to work, many of them commuting daily to New York City by express bus which departs from the clubhouse. It's a 55-minute ride from the covered bridge at the entrance to the property from Rt. 9 to the Manhattan bus terminal. Model homes may be viewed seven days a week. To reach Covered Bridge, take the New Jersey Turnpike to Exit 11 or Garden State Parkway to Exit 123 and continue south on Rt. 9, following signs to the entrance.

The goose is still alive.

You don't believe in fairy tales? Or golden geese? Well, you should. Because you really can find a golden egg today. In the form of Florida's one true golden opportunity: Pine Ridge.

Smart buyers have been snapping up these 1 and 2 bedroom condominium apartment homes by the hundreds. Literally. But success hasn't killed the golden goose. Not yet.

Hovnanian has driven his planners, engineers and construction crews to open a brand new section. The third in just three months. A full year ahead of schedule. So your golden opportunity hasn't vanished yet.

But with homes like these, how long can your luck last?

We're talking about the most exciting new condominiums in Palm Beach County. And one of the most remarkable prices in all of southern Florida. From $31,500 to $36,500. Including all the luxury you'd expect from a builder like Hovnanian. Central air-conditioning. Screened terraces. Plush carpeting. And ultra-modern, equipped kitchens. Plus a private swim club, shuffleboard courts, picnic groves and acres of nature, lakes and landscaping.

If you don't think this kind of value is possible these days, then you're wrong. And here's another pleasant shocker. Read it carefully. And read it sitting down. Hovnanian also guarantees—in writing—that your maintenance costs will stay at $29 a month for at least the next 5 years. Now if that's not like finding a golden egg in your backyard, we don't know what is.

You've still got your chance to catch the golden goose. At Pine Ridge. Today.

To get to the sales exhibit in Manalapan, take the Garden State Parkway south to Exit 123 and proceed south on Route 9 for 9 miles to Hovnanian's Covered Bridge.

To reach the sales exhibit in Middletown, take the Garden State Parkway south to Exit 114. Turn left on Red Hill Road for 2/10 mile, then right on Dwight Road (which becomes Nut Swamp Road/Hubbard Road after 1/2 miles) and proceed approximately 3 miles to Hovnanian's Shadow Lake Village.

Open every day until 6 p.m. Or call (201) 536-5440 (Manalapan) or (201) 842-9402 (Middletown). Displays and information are located in our Manalapan sales exhibit, and a "near-model" is open for inspection at our Middletown office.

2 adult communities offer many activities

What has saunas, Olympic-sized pools, golf courses, tennis courts, spacious clubhouses, its own patrolmen and medical staff and its own private roads? Would you guess a private country club or a hidden resort retreat? How about a principality in some remote corner of the globe?

Wrong. All of these features are very much a part of two of New Jersey's most popular adult condominium communities—Rossmoor and Clearbrook.

The Monroe Township communities, both of which are owned and managed by the Guardian Development Corp., as separate and very much distinctive complexes, offer all of these amenities and more to its residents, who are 48 years of age or older. For homeowners at the planned 2,600-unit Rossmoor and the 3,200-unit Clearbrook, it is a new way of life—security plus the freedom from house chores to pursue a life of tennis, golf, swimming, shopping and dining. John G. Andriessen, director of marketing and sales at the two diverse developments, says the two complexes offer similar leisure-oriented ways of life.

Rossmoor has a charming Williamsburg atmosphere with its early American-styled manor homes. New England type white steeped meeting house and its magnificent Colonial Mansion clubhouse.

Clearbrook, only a bike ride away from Rossmoor, has a different architectural treatment, embodying the contemporary design, yet providing the designer's touch to satisfy the staunchest traditionalist.

Rossmoor has convenience shopping—interior decorating, gifts, a golf pro chop, delicatessen, bank, barber and beauty shop. Both have a mini-bus service to nearby shopping area on regularly scheduled trips.

Both communities are just off the New Jersey Turnpike at exit 8A, about 1,000 feet east, and are conveniently located to shopping malls and other recreational complexes from the famed beaches of the Jersey Shore to Great Adventure the nationally known amusement center just off exit 7A of the turnpike.

The 560-acre Clearbrook now has more than 1,000 residents. The major attraction, of course, is the 25,250-square-foot clubhouse with Olympic-sized pool, saunas, tennis, shuffleboard and other facilities. A low monthly charge includes a 24-hour security guard, staff nurses, all exterior maintenance, fire insurance, water and sewerage, trash collection and a seven-channel master TV antenna.

Plaza units at Clearbrook include the Timberline, a two-bedroom, two-bath home; the Braeburn, a two-bedroom, study, two-bath home; the Everglade, one-bedroom and bath; and the Master Lodge, two-bedroom, two-bath.

Homes feature garbage disposals, ceramic tile baths, full vanities, wall-to-wall carpeting, generous room sizes, oversized garages, impressive entry foyers, separate dining rooms, laundry and storage areas and generous closet space.

The Timberline model has a foyer, which leads to the 12-foot 8-inch by 21-foot living room and the 10 by 10 dining room with sliding glass doors leading to the FORE—Golf at Clearbrook, the adult condominium community off exit 8A of the New Jersey Turnpike, is enjoyed by residents at their private on-premise golf course with a PGA teaching pro always in residence. A magnificent swim club and tennis court also are provided. Shown enjoying their game are Clearbrook residents Mary Cross and Lewis Thompson.

TRADITIONAL STYLE of early American architecture is best exemplified in this photo of the Club House at Rossmoor, the adult community in Monroe Township, off exit 8A of the New Jersey Turnpike. Residents may participate in a variety of social, educational and physical activities.

counter space. It has a GE appliance package including an oven and range with hood and a garbage disposal.

At Rossmoor there are eight models to choose from and homes include air conditioning, individual room controlled heat, washer and dryer, finished floors, storm windows and screens and a GE package that includes stove, hood, refrigerator, self-cleaning oven, dishwasher and patio area. The 8 by 10 kitchen is conveniently located next to the dining room and features lots of disposal.

Residents enjoy the club house facilities which include a library, social rooms, sewing room, woodworking, painting, billiards, ceramics and a photo studio. There's golf, a tennis court, shuffleboard courts, heated swimming pool and many other items. The monthly maintenance fee covers the security guards, all exterior work, fire insurance, landscaping, club house, recreational amenities, medical center (on a fee basis), water, sewerage and trash collection.

The two communities have become showcases of what adult condominiums can offer in terms of recreation-oriented amenities. And while residents living there may live the lives of potentates, the communities are modest in price. They might well adopt the theme: Live like kings and queens, even if you don't make a princely sum.

We're about to stop building a legend.

(If you want to share in it, you'd better hurry!)

This is it.

The very last section ever to be built at Shadow Lake Village - the community for people 52 or over that's become a legend in its own time. Many of these magnificent last homes are already spoken for. But if you hurry, you can still share in the glorious quality of life our residents enjoy:

A superb location.

Far north of other adult communities (right off Exit 114 of the Garden State Parkway), making it much closer to all those places you still hold dear and dear in North Jersey and New York. And we're just minutes from buses, trains and marvelous shops. When it comes to location, no other community comes close.

An incredible lifestyle.

It's more than just great facilities like lighted tennis courts, private golf course, huge swimming pool, mile-long Shadow Lake for sailing, and an extravagant clubhouse. More than the security of a gatehouse and guard patrols. More than the ease of professional maintenance of exteriors and grounds. It's our friendly and carefree atmosphere that sets our community far apart from the crowd.

Again, these homes won't be available for long. Nor will these prices: Construction costs are skyrocketing and we don't know how long we can hold the line. So, if you want to share in the remarkable legend of Shadow Lake Village, we urge you to act now. See Shadow Lake Village today.

Shadow Lake sell-out could be in summer

For adult homebuyers seeking a residence in a private community that combines location, physical attractiveness and luxury facilities, the fact that Shadow Lake Village may be sold out by this summer is going to be a reality. Earlier analysis projected that the Middletown Township complex would be sold out by the end of this year, but the sales pace during the first quarter of 1979 has been so intense that less than 9 percent of the homes now priced from $42,390 remain available.

"For the first three months of this year, sales averaged just under one per day," reported Del Purscell, director of sales for the New Jersey Division of Hovnanian Enterprises. "As of mid-April, only 83 homes are unsold, following 104 sales since January."

"In the last two weeks alone, more than 30 were purchased," he added. "A great number of adults are going to be disappointed because Shadow Lake Village just won't be available to them when they are ready to make their decision or by the time they qualify for residency with at least one member of the household having reached age 52."

The situation drew a similar response from Middletown Mayor Robert J. Eckert, who lamented, "As their children grow and move out to lives of their own, couples in the Middletown area sell their homes and move to Shadow Lake. Unfortunately, home sites will be sold out before some of us have an opportunity to do that."

The increasing rarity of Shadow Lake Village homes is expected to be sufficient motivation for perpetuation of the fast sales pace. Add to that incentive the notice by Hovnanian Enterprises that by June 15, at the latest, prices on the remaining homes will have increased by from $1,400 to $1,700 to reflect continuing hikes in labor and material costs. Remaining homes are being sold for delivery between now and February 1980, leaving the purchaser with adequate time to sell his present home.

"An educated guess is that Shadow Lake Village will now be sold out by the end of July," Purscell stressed.

Shortly after work began for the creation of Shadow Lake Village on a former 158-acre private estate of a multi-millionaire, the community was commended by the Middletown Conservation Commission for its comprehensive protection of the environment.

Hovnanian Enterprises maintained the natural course and quality of Thimble Brook, and upgraded the facilities and quality of mile-long Shadow Lake. A famous golf course architect was enlisted to design the nine-hole, par-three private course. And the luxury ranch-style and apartment home units were designed to reflect the elegant nature of the rolling property.

Still today, no motorboats are permitted on Shadow Lake. From the sun deck around the Olympic-sized swimming pool, residents watch other members of the community in rowboats on the lake or other fishing for the game stocked annually.

Shadow Lake Village is a private neighborhood of friends. There are shaded walks, as well as paved areas for cycling, landscaped gardens and open spaces for barbecues and outdoor dancing. In the clubhouse are a library, card rooms and a billiard room, along with lounges and catering facilities for parties. The auditorium is the scene of dances, banquets and entertainment.

Situated in one of the most picturesque areas of New Jersey, Shadow Lake Village is close to shopping centers.

Pick Of The on the "Cowtown LPs..SHINE ON ME: by Hoedown." Because he John Wesley Ryles (ABC was so young, John RECORDS A-1056). Wesley had to addition to prove he was "professional" enough for the broadcast, but his rendition of "Billy Bayou" landed him a regular spot. When the family moved on to the bigger "Big D Jamboree" in Dallas, John Wesley again had to prove his mettle in a talent contest 10 times before they would put you on as a regular," he recalls. "I won once, and the next week they put me on as a regular." In fact, so impressive was his audition that he soon became the tenor banjo player for the Lightcrust Doughboys, a now-famous band begun by Bob Willis and employed by the Lightcrust Flour company as part of its promotional effort. Only 12 at the time, John Wesley admits that the traveling involved was somewhat hard on his educational life.

By 13, Ryles was playing regularly in Dallas clubs and at 16, persuaded his dad to move to Nashville. Immediately signed, he was employed as a "studio engineer" and demo singer. When a song called "Kay" came along to be recorded, John Wesley took it to Columbia Records. Within a few weeks of his signing with the label, John Wesley had a Top 10 record on both the pop and country charts and was eventually named "Most Promising Country Artist" of the year by a couple of music trade magazines. While his followup Top 10 record ("I've Just Been Wasting My Time") was still moving up the charts, Ryles left Columbia in a management shakeup.

A confused 19-year-old, he moved to Missouri to think the situation over and contemplate his career. It was there he met Johnny Morris, an employee of a local radio station. A couple of years later Morris called John Wesley to come to Muscle Shoals where he produced "Tell It Like It Is" and "When A Man Loves A Woman," both released on the Music Mill label. The success of those records and "Reconsider Me," which was a Top 20 country record, led to a contract with ABC Records.

2 dance programs Bond issue is called vital for state's roads

The Dance Theatre Club of Kean College will offer two free performances on May 25 and 26 at 8 P.M. in the Wilkins Theatre. The public is invited to attend.

The Dance Theatre Club, under the direction of Bill Chaisson, has been offering full-staged performances for two years. Chaisson is dance captain of the Eleo Pomare Dancers, and a former member of the Alvin Ailey Company.

Chaisson was hired by Kean College in the fall of '77 as a full-time dance instructor in the physical education department. Since his arrival, enrollment in modern dance classes has more than doubled.

Last year the Dance Theatre Club performed with Chaisson and members of the Eleo Pomare Company. This year the student dancers will perform works choreographed by themselves.

Gambaccini noted that if the bond issue is approved, $245 million would be used to repair and improve state highways, $80 million in state aid would be designated for local roads and $150 million for public transportation.

"New Jersey has the most heavily-travelled road system in the country, with more vehicles per mile of road than any other state," he said. "Our transportation system, however, is rapidly deteriorating due to lack of funds. Proceeds from the last transportation bond issue in 1968 are virtually gone and New Jersey has been unable to match all the federal road funds available to it since 1975," he added.

Gambaccini cited a resurfacing backlog of more than $100 million on the state system and noted that roads are wearing out faster than they can be repaired. He added that 1,800 bridges on the state, county and local road system require $120 million in repairs.

Transportation Commissioner Louis J. Gambaccini said this week that approval of the proposed $475 million transportation bond issue by the voters this November is crucial to the future of the state.

"Approval of the bond issue would result in improvements to the state's roads, bridges and mass transit system, relieving existing congestion, reducing air pollution and conserving petroleum," he said.
