Surplus may steady tax rate

A 1980 municipal budget surplus of approximately $600,000 is expected to allow the municipal portion of the current tax rate to remain at the 1979 level, according to Lee Voorhees, deputy borough clerk and business administrator.

The budget was introduced by the mayor and council in Borough Hall Tuesday night. A tentative date of April 15 has been set for the public hearing.

Voorhees said.

According to the budget submitted by the auditor, the municipal tax rate will stay the same; the county tax rate will rise 3 points; the regional high school tax rate will rise 6 points, and the local school tax rate will not change for 1980. The 1980-81 school budget itself calls for a 4.5-point increase in the tax rate. The auditor calculated the 1980 tax rate at $3.45 per $100 assessed valuation, a 9-point rise from 1979, according to Voorhees.

The 1979 budget, which raised the municipal rate 1 cent, included a $400,000 surplus.

The 1980 budget total is $2,462,980.50, an increase of about $169,000 from the 1979 budget. Included in the 1980 budget is $458,552 in the reserve for uncollected taxes, which is a cushion for uncollected municipal, local school, regional high school and county taxes. Last year the reserve was $414,463.03, which was based on an estimated tax collection rate of 92.77 percent. The total figure for the amount to be raised by taxes for support of the municipal budget was not available for 1980. The 1979 figure, including the reserve, was $947,839.36.

Other major appropriations for this year include $120,000 for a new fire pumper truck. The 1979 and 1978 budgets appropriated $9,000 each for the truck, and the remaining $102,000 will be funded through bonds, Voorhees said.

Police expenses, a large part being fuel costs, show a $20,547 increase for 1980, from $69,208 to $89,755. The 1979 figure was a $700 reduction from 1978.

Varsity faces faculty on court

The 1 1/2 hour Deerfield School Varsity-Faculty benefit basketball game will be held tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School gymnasium, Springfield.

Proceeds from the game will go to a scholarship fund for a deserving Mountainside student. The game is an annual project of the Mountainside Teachers Association.

Half-time entertainment will be provided by the Hwang Karate Studio in Springfield. Hyun Hwang is chief instructor. Also offering their talents in this benefit performance will be the Kathleen Louisi School of Dance, Springfield, and the Albatross and Co. Theater Group doing excerpts from their musical review, "Musical Decades."

Advance ticket sales are $1 for students and $2 for adults. All tickets at the door will be $2.

High School honors 7 borough students

Seven Mountainside students were named to the honor roll for the recently completed second marking period at Gov. Livingston Regional High School, Berkeley Heights.

They are: Craig Blackwell and Kenneth Mueller, ninth grade; Steve Dalmen, William Hobbis and Heather Truhbower, 10th grade; Lisa Grace and Erik Jaffe, 11th grade; and Tim Harrigan, 12th grade.

2 break-ins put '80 total at 19 --rate is 50% above last year

Mountainside police investigated 75 burglaries of homes and businesses in 1979, according to the police department's annual report.

In the first two months of 1980, 19 such incidents have been reported to police, according to Lt. Joseph Mazur, which would mean an increase of more than 50 percent if the rate keeps up.

The latest incidents were two attempted burglaries last week.

In response, Mountainside police increased patrols last year, and twice this year issued requests for residents to report suspicious persons to police, beef up their house security systems and move their valuables from the obvious storage places.

"On an average, we get maybe two or three calls during an eight-hour shift,"

Mazur says. But evidently that's not enough. In a recent burglary, a neighbor saw an unfamiliar car, with a man inside, parked in front of a house. She also saw a second man walk up to the front door of the house.

Police discovered the witness while canvassing the neighborhood after the burglars and the stolen property were long gone. "Sure, we could get a description," the lieutenant said, "but the ones we really want we don't get."

Some residents are unwilling to call police about a suspicious person, Mazur said, because of a fear of getting involved. "The individual who calls," he says, "isn't really getting involved. The name isn't revealed."

Mazur also said callers shouldn't fear offending the suspicious person if his reason for being in the area is

Programs to be cut in regional schools

By TRACY SCHROTH

The regional high schools have really felt the pinch resulting from increased energy costs and inflation, it was stressed at Tuesday's public hearing on the regional school budget.

Although the budget, approved by the Regional Board of Education Tuesday, reflects an increase over last year, school programs will be curtailed substantially.

The board unanimously approved a total of $17,149,579, an increase of approximately 7 percent over the current budget. Price increases in energy-related areas make up approximately 10 percent of the budget increase in 1980-81.

Although school programs will be substantially cut back, the board voted Tuesday to amend the budget as originally proposed to devote $11,000 for a summer school for seniors who need credit for graduation, as well as $30,000 in capital outlay to be used for the implementation of a regional, school-wide energy conservation study. The $11,000 will be taken from funds originally allocated for purchase of equipment, the board resolved. The $30,000 will be added to the capital outlay portion to be raised by taxes, bringing the total capital outlay to $110,000.

The total amount to be raised by taxes is $12,805,254. That will mean a 7-point increase in the tax rate in Mountainside, a 4-point increase in Springfield and a 3-point increase in Kenilworth. The increases on a home assessed at $50,000 translates into a $35 tax hike in Mountainside, $20 in Springfield and $15 in Kenilworth.

Major increases in the budget are a result of increases in energy costs — up from $302,100 to $514,000, a 70 percent rise, salary hikes, a 30 percent increase overall, and fixed charges, which are up 10 percent. Fixed charges include insurance, unemployment compensation and pension funds.

The severe financial crunch will result in a decrease in the teaching staff by 15 positions, and the administrative staff by three jobs, Dr. Donald Merachuk, superintendent of schools, said. Nine course offerings, six in English, three in science will also be eliminated. He said that several departments and programs will be combined in an effort to save money. Transportation will be reduced, excluding bus services for athletes between their homes and school for afternoon practices, after games, and on week ends and holidays.

Summer school, offered in the past for students who needed remedial help before entering the ninth grade, has been eliminated. Merachuk said summer workshops also will be reduced. Funding for additional sports will not be included in the budget, he added.

"We have to resort to belt tightening procedures," Merachuk said. "We can't be expected to be all things to all people. The theme for 1980 is learn to do with less," he said.

Merachuk said declining enrollment has to be "seriously considered." He stated that the school anticipates a decline of 1.2 percent from one year to the next. Next year, he said, the enrollment will decline by 191 students. He added, however, that the kindergarten enrollment in the various towns served by the regional board has shown an increase for the first time in 10 years.

"That may reflect a continuing trend," he said.

Merachuk assured the gathering of approximately 60 people present at the public meeting Tuesday that the budget still allows for many positive programs. He stressed the school's commitment to special programs, such as the gifted and talented and special education. He said a new program will be established for non-chronically impaired children.

Residents at Tuesday's meeting expressed their concern with the elimination of the summer school, which urged the board to expediate the purchase of new uniforms for the school bands at David Brearley and Jonathan Dayton high schools.

Board members said the summer school would be an impossibility. "We have met more than six times to consider this budget," said board member Ronald Hecker. "We have given all the items serious consideration."

Some residents complained that the summer school program should have priority over the school band, since it is an academic program. The board has appropriated funds for new uniforms for the David Brearley school during the next two years.

"We are going for the education of the whole person," Hecker said.

"You'd be surprised how many people think that sports are just as important, if not more than, several academic programs," added board president Charles Vitale.

School budget passed

By SAM FINNELL

The Mountainside Board of Education Tuesday night adopted the 1980-81 school budget, 5-2. The vote was taken at a special meeting at the Board of Education offices.

The resolution called for a total budget of $2,173,461, and for $1,736,159 to be raised in taxes, which is the amount to be voted on at the March 25 school election.

Board members Pat Knodel and Charles Speth voted against adopting the budget. Knodel said, "I can't support the budget because of expenditures in excess of $50,000 and in conscience can't support it."

Speth called the budget an "excessive amount" in view of the number of students and said, "Imagine what that's going to mean when the subject of consolidation comes up in Trenton." He cited figures on cost per student in Kenilworth and Watchung and said the two towns pay less per student. Speth, who will step down from the board after six years this spring, also said, "It has been a pleasure to serve on the board." Knodel will be seeking her third full term on the board in the upcoming election.

Responding to Speth's figures, board member Carl Marinelli said it would be worthwhile to examine the quality of education in the other towns, examining such things as college placement.

Board President Dr. Art Williams, who also will seek re-election in March, urged all board members to support the budget. "It is a reasonable approach to dollar expenditures," he said, comparing the 4.1 percent total budget increase to the nation's double digit inflation rate. He also said board members should support the budget because they have had ample time to work on it.

In a prepared press release, board member Bart Barre also mentioned that, although board members do not concur on each line item in the budget, board members have had "ample opportunity for input throughout budget discussion and formulation."

Emphasizing that much of the budget is based on salary agreements previously settled, necessary maintenance and the rising costs of such things as heat and insurance, Barre said, "The most important point is that the budget is an estimate. It does not dictate monies that will be spent. Every expenditure must be approved by the Board of Education in public."

In an agenda meeting following the vote, PTA members brought up the problem with student loitering in a wooded area in front of the Deerfield School on Central Avenue. The members said evidence of beer drinking and marijuana smoking is apparent. A recent visit by Mayor Thomas Riccardi and PTA members before school surprised two female students in the area, a member said.

The property is privately owned and board members suggested that the area be examined to find out exactly what is board or private property. Williams suggested a meeting be called between

Clinic tests seek blood illness

The Mountainside Board of Health will hold its monthly hypertension and diabetes detection clinic tomorrow from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. in the Municipal Building, Route 22.

Hypertension—high blood pressure—is found in all age groups, according to a board spokesman. Diabetes is ranked as the third leading cause of death by disease and the leading cause of new cases of blindness, the spokesman said.

Because the diabetes test is designed to identify people with a high risk for the disease, known diabetics will not be tested, the spokesman said.

Those interested in being tested for diabetes are asked to eat one of three breakfasts calculated to contain the proper amount of carbohydrates for accurate testing, the spokesman said. The meal should be eaten two hours before testing.

Breakfast choice number one includes half a grapefruit or four ounces of orange juice; one cup or more of cooked or prepared cereal; one or two cups of coffee, and four level-teaspoons of sugar with the coffee or cereal.

A second breakfast choice comprises half a grapefruit or four ounces of orange juice; two slices of toast; two teaspoons jelly; one cup of coffee or tea, and one level-teaspoon of sugar.

The third option includes half a grapefruit or four ounces of orange juice; two jelly doughnuts; two sweet rolls or three plain doughnuts; one cup coffee or tea, and one level-teaspoon sugar.

Paper drive set by Little League

The Mountainside Little League will conduct a paper drive Saturday, March 15, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Deerfield School front parking lot. Information is available at 233-1866.

YOUNG SCIENTISTS—Jonathan Dayton Regional High School's second-year chemistry team placed second in the area in two competitions sponsored by the N.J. Chemistry League. From left are Ellen Weinstein; Neal Spivak, scoring highest in the area in the second meet; Jim Craner, Devesh Kanjarpane and Claudine Cohen.

THEY'RE NUMBER ONE—Jonathan Dayton Regional High School's first year chemistry team has captured the No. 1 area spot in each of two competitions sponsored by the N.J. Chemistry League. From left are Joe Cohen, tied for second highest score in the area in the second meet; Jeff Dreed, Marc Parmet, Helle-May Ebrek, Leon Liem, Jay Schneider and Michael Funk.

FOLKSINGER BOOKED—Shirley Keller, composer and folksinger, will perform 'Folksong Tapestry' at a noon, March 19 meeting of the Mountainside Woman's Club, Inc., at L'Affaire Restaurant, Route 22 east, Mountainside. Keller, who has sung in England and Haiti the past two years, also is a recording artist. She plays autoharp, banjo, guitar and Appalachian dulcimer. At the same club meeting, Eileen Walsh will hold a boutique featuring jewelry, summer handbags, tablecloths and other items.

PULLEY MAKERS — With various pulleys they constructed to show how machines make work easier for human beings are third-grade students of Ann Matko at Mountainside's Beechwood School. From left, are Eric Zimbaum, Michael Jackson and Glenn Knierim. They studied machines as part of their science curriculum.

PROGRAM PLANNING — Members of the Senior Auxiliary of Children's Specialized Hospital in Mountainside, prepare the souvenir journal for their annual spring parties on April 15, 16 and 17 at L'Affaire on Route 22. Seated, from left, are Mrs. Leslie F. Naulty Jr., co-chairman of the event, and Mrs. H. Harding Brown of the Program Committee. Helping them are Lois Wright (standing left) and Mrs. Jerry A. Lott, also members of the committee responsible for printing the journal.

Dayton students will join Spaulding 'walk-a-thon'

Students from Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Springfield, will be among the junior and senior high school students participating in the annual fund-raising walk-a-thon April 13 for Spaulding for Children, a Westfield based tree adoption agency.

Participants will enlist sponsors to pledge a sum of money for each mile walked. The contributions, which are tax-deductible, will help the adoption agency find homes for children with special needs, according to an agency spokesman. Spaulding has found homes for older children, sibling groups, minority or mixed heritage children and those with mental, emotional or physical disabilities, the spokesman said.

Walkers will follow a 15-mile course through Westfield, Scotch Plains, Fanwood, Mountainside, Cranford and Garwood. Refreshments will be served at selected check points; rest facilities will be available and a care caravan will cover the course.

Walkers may begin any time between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m.; the walk is scheduled to end at 6 p.m.

Sponsor forms are available from Spaulding, 36 Prospect St., Westfield. Information is available from 233-2282.

This will be the walk-a-thon's fifth year. Other high schools planning to participate, along with persons representing church and community organizations, are Arthur Johnson Regional, Cranford, Fanwood-Scotch Plains, North Plainfield, Westfield, Union Catholic and Mother Seton.

Suspects being held in stolen trucks case

Two men arrested Sunday in Mountainside on charges of possession of two stolen Mack truck cabs were being held in Union County jail earlier this week in lieu of $5,000 bail.

William Deebie, 21, of North Bergen; Harry Travis, 24, who gave no known address, and a juvenile have been charged with hindering apprehension and receiving stolen property. The juvenile and Deebie, who were driving the tractors, also were charged with failing to obey a stop sign, according to police reports. The juvenile was released to the custody of a parent.

The two 1966 and 1974 tractors, both red, were valued at a total of $39,000, police reported.

According to arresting officer Sgt. Herman Hakeken's report, he observed the two vehicles go through a stop sign at Route 22 West and New Providence Road. He followed the two vehicles through several residential streets before stopping them on New Providence Road near Route 22 West, according to the report.

Police said they were told that the trucks were being delivered to someone at a truck stop in Somerville from the Alpha Illinois Trucking firm, Secaucus. The owner of the firm denied having employed the suspects, police said.

Police said the juvenile later told them the vehicles were taken from a North Bergen trucking firm. North Bergen police confirmed that the vehicles at the firm carried the same name as the two vehicles, but whether two vehicles were reported missing was not immediately known, police reported.

(Continued from page 1) the board's and Borough Council's attorneys to discuss the matter. Williams said the meeting could occur before the regular board meeting Tuesday. It was suggested at the meeting that a possible solution would be to cut away the shrubbery around the area to expose it, but any move like that must await a decision on property lines.

The board also discussed possible methods for selecting a new superintendent to replace Dr. Levin Hanigan, who will retire at the end of this school year. The consensus among several board members who expressed an opinion was not to hand the selection of candidates over to a professional service, but to review resumes and select the finalists itself with limited help from a professional adviser.

Board discussion also touched on the possibility of a state-mandated family life program, which would include sex education and human growth and development. Knodel spoke against the program, emphasizing that human growth and development courses already exist in Mountainside schools and that the program would represent a threat to local control. Williams said the program has generated a great deal of reaction throughout the borough and the board should elicit more public opinion.

Meeting slated by garden club about boutique

The Mountain Trail Garden Club will meet at 11:30 a.m. Tuesday, March 11, at the home of Mrs. Walter Stegall, Mountainside.

There will be a discussion of plans for the club's spring boutique and plant sale, Friday, April 25. The boutique will offer hand-crafted items by club members as well as a variety of flower and vegetable plants for the home and garden. Following the business meeting, the group will work on "tinsel" paintings for the boutique.

Later this month, several club members will participate in the flower arranging at Lyons Veterans Hospital.

Ball scheduled by OLL group

The Home and School Association will hold a Shamrock Ball Saturday, March 15, from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. at Our Lady of Lourdes School auditorium, 304 Central Ave., Mountainside. Tickets ($12) are available at the school office, 233-1777.

The Cristal Band will entertain at the Home and School Association's main fund-raiser.

Champagne and hors d'oeuvres will be served from 8 to 9 p.m. Refreshments will be served at midnight.

Red Cross unit opening March members drive

The Westfield-Mountainside Chapter of the American Red Cross has opened its annual March membership drive. Ernest S. Winter, fund chairman, stated, "All Red Cross services and programs are financed through voluntary contributions. If it were not for the generosity and complete support of the United Fund of Westfield and residents of Mountainside, the Westfield-Mountainside Chapter could not have served so efficiently during the past years."

The numerous Red Cross programs and services could not have operated without the willing hands and hearts of more than 380 volunteers in our chapter. If the more than one million Red Cross volunteers across this nation were to cease work tomorrow, we would sorely feel the loss," said Winter. "Your responses to the March campaigns in the past have been generous. Help your Red Cross Chapter continue its work with a prompt return of the membership envelope that will be received in your mail. Be the good neighbor—we are counting on you."

The theme for this campaign is 'Keep Red Cross Ready for 1980.'

Children's Hospital accepts registration for health clinic

Registration is open for a free community education program on proper nutrition to be held at Children's Specialized Hospital March 4, 11, 18 and 25.

The four Tuesday sessions, from 7:30 to 9 p.m., are being run in cooperation with the Westfield Adult School, according to Sallie Comey, inservice instructor at Children's Specialized.

Those interested in taking part in the program may call Mrs. Comey (233-3720) or the Westfield Adult School.

The topics and speakers: diet in childhood and how it can help prevent diseases later in life, Mary Ellen Kazar, registered dietician at the hospital, and Dr. Mary G. Boyer, director of patient services; diet and the allergist, Dr. Frederick Alan Schulman; diet and dermatologist, Dr. Thelma G. Warshaw; diet and the dentist, Dr. Olivier Campbell; the possible harmful effects of fad diets, Dr. Marylyn Broman; sports diets, Dr. Joseph I. Boylan; dieting and pregnancy, Rosemary Littmann, R.N.; and diet and behavior disorders, Dr. Lewis Sank.

Case moves to grand jury

The case of a 22-year-old New Providence man, charged with four criminal offenses and six traffic violations, was forwarded to the grand jury last week by Mountainside Municipal Court Judge Robert Ruggiero.

Theodore Conklin, who has been released on $1,000 bail, has been charged with disorderly conduct, possession of a dangerous weapon and two counts of threatening Sgt. Raymond Della Serra on Feb. 5 at about 11 p.m.

Traffic summonses include speeding, failure to notify the state of a change in address, driving without headlights, reckless driving and two counts of disregarding a stop sign.

Environment topics popular with young

A lot of young environmentalists, according to the National Wildlife Federation's 1979 "best sellers" list, are learning at an early age about such conservation issues as geothermal energy, pesticides and air pollution.

During 1979, the NWF offered 129 educational publications — most of them free of charge — and all but one of the most-asked-for publications were reprints from the Federation's monthly publication for children, Ranger Rick's Nature Magazine. NWF, the nation's largest non-profit conservation organization, received requests for a total of 482,784 publications in 1979.

Tops on last year's best sellers list, with 85,214 requests, was "The Best Present of All." Second was "A Place for the Children," with 81,465 requests. Both these publications are fables concerning the good King Oliver who seeks to ensure that the children living in his kingdom will grow up in a safe, warm, and beautiful place.

"The Best Present of All" emphasizes the importance of geothermal and solar energy. "A Place for the Children" teaches youngsters what happens to the environment when land use planning is ignored. Both were written by Oliver Houck, NWF's vice president for conservation and education.

"What Do You Know About the Big Dipper?" was third on the best seller list with 22,371 requests. This illustrated pamphlet tells amateur stargazers how to find the Big Dipper and other constellations.

The fourth most popular publication (21,465 requests) was "Birdwatching," a 16-page booklet written by famed ornithologist Roger Tory Peterson to introduce children to birding.

Number one on the 1978 best seller list, "Invite Wildlife to Your Backyard," was fifth in '79, although there were more requests (20,623) for it last year than in '78.

Most NWF publications are available free of charge for the first copy with additional copies 5 to 30 cents each. A free listing of all publications offered can be obtained by writing Education Catalog, National Wildlife Federation, 1412

16th St. NW, Washington, D.C. 20036.

Bradley to talk at 'convention'

U.S. Senator Bill Bradley (D-N.J.) will be the featured speaker and temporary chairman when Kean College, Union, opens its third mock presidential platform and nominating convention in the Wilkins Theatre for the Performing Arts March 17 at 7:30 p.m.

Bradley, the state's junior senator, will preside as 1,000 "delegates" from Kean and other colleges elect a convention chairman for the simulated three-day Democratic Party event.

Dr. Michael Israel, a Kean political science professor and an advisor to the Political Science Club which is staging the convention, predicted that this year's political excitement will be generated beginning 7:30 p.m. Tuesday when "the party" is scheduled to nail down its platform.

Special interest groups, he said, can be expected from the women's caucus, the Third World caucus and several other special interest groups, some related to the area of criminal justice.

Nomination of candidates and roll call balloting of the 50 states will begin at 7 p.m. Wednesday and continue until the presidential and vice-presidential selections are made.

Students on the mock convention committee include Louis Gogal of Roselle Park, who is chairman, Chris Wiley, Carol Rafferty and Wendy Calder.

Seniors top West Essex for 14-9 log

By CRAIG CLICKENGER
The Springfield Junior Midgets basketball team made its season record 19-4 with victories over Westfield and West Essex while losing to Wayne last week.

The Juniors won at Westfield, 63-61. The Juniors took a 26-10 first quarter lead and led at the half, 36-34. The Juniors extended their third period lead to 57-52, against a zone press and slowed down the game in the final period to win.

Pete Petino led the Juniors with 16 points and 16 rebounds. Carlos Hernandez had 13 points and 14 rebounds. Each had four assists. David Cole had 12 points and four steals.

Danny Klinger had seven assists, seven steals and 11 points. Mike Blabolil added nine points and Mitch Nenner two. Joe Graziano, Anthony D'Alessio, and Joel Greenberg also played.

The Juniors beat West Essex, 71-61, using a tough defense and accurate foul shooting. The Juniors' 17-7 third quarter built the lead to 47-37. Hernandez led Springfield with 18 points and five steals. Petino had 15 points, 12 rebounds and five steals. Nenner and Klinger had 14 each and tied for the lead in assists with six. Cole had six points, Blabolil three and Barry Shipitofsky one. Anthony D'Alessio, Joe Graziano and Eric Kahn also played.

Last Saturday, at home, the Juniors lost to Wayne, 55-50. Pete Petino had 19 points and seven steals, Hernandez 13 points and Nenner 10 with four steals.

Cole had nine rebounds and seven points. Klinger one point and eight assists. Shipitofsky, Blabolil and Joe Graziano played well.

Cornell beats Harvard in Ivy; Brown, Yale, Princeton also win

The last week of regular season Springfield Ivy League season play was marked by Cornell, Brown, Princeton and Yale victories. The quarterfinal matchups: Pennsylvania Brown, Princeton Yale, Harvard Dartmouth and Cornell Columbia. The Ivy League scoring leaders:

Joe Blanda and Ken Savage scored four each. Eric Zata had six points and five rebounds. John Fabricant, Dave Edelereck and Jeff Pollack had strong floor games.

Harvard's Barry Shipitofsky had six points. Mike McNammy four points and six rebounds. Carlos Hernandez two points. Tony D'Allesio, Pablo Gutierrez, and Pete Petino rebounded well. Hal Zemel had two assists.

Princeton finished second by turning back Columbia, 45-36. Doug Colandrea had 14 points and nine rebounds. David Cole 13 points and six rebounds. Craig Kobrin had eight points, Brett Walsh six, Billy Markstein four and Tom Ellenberger two. Jared Fleischer, Jon Simon and Gary Binstock had strong games. Columbia's Andy Rosenthal had 26 points and 10 rebounds. Eric Wolf eight points and Mitch Levine two.

Brown upset Pennsylvania, 49-44. Brown's Walter Clarke had 14 points and six rebounds. Danny Spotts and Danny Klinger 10 points and four assists each. Anthony Graziano had nine points. Joe Graziano two and three assists and Ron Bromberg four. Strong rebounding by Anthony Romano and dribbling by Brank Romano helped Mark Baranek had 10 rebounds and 12 points for Penn. Mitch Nenner had nine points and two assists. Robert Daniel added 11 points. Garty Schlager six. Tom Wioland four and Dirk Schobel two. Matt Localetti had a strong floor game.

Yale rolled over Dartmouth, 57-35, on 13-2 second period. Yale's John Baber had 14 points and four assists. Mike Blabolil and Anthony Romano seven each. Dartmouth's Mike Nicholson had 16 points and 10 rebounds. Jay Siegel added 10. Rich Policastro five and Steve Littenberg four. Joel Greenberg and Kathy Meixner played well.

California, Florida, Ohio and Texas win

The 1980 Springfield State League regular season ended Saturday with California, Florida, Ohio and Texas winning. Next Saturday, the quarterfinals schedule lists California Texas, Ohio Oklahoma, Florida Alabama and Utah Kansas.

Scoring leaders for this year: Gregg Kahn, Utah, 109; Tom Kisch, Florida, 74; Ken Gargulo, California, 63; Robert Fusco, Alabama, 55; John Lusardi, California, 54; Alan Gross, Texas, 51; Adam Jacobs, Kansas, 48; Brian Cole, Ohio, 45; Levent Bayrasli, Oklahoma, 45; Chris Clemons, Oklahoma, 43.

California upset No. 1 Utah, 21-19, in overtime on David Littenberg, Tom Ellenberger and Ken Gargulo free throws. Gargulo and Littenberg had six points apiece. John Lusardi 11 rebounds and Barry Rodburg four each and Ellenberger one. Mark Gross played well. Kahn led Utah with 11 points. Mike Calhoro had three, Gilon Rubanenko and Tom Meixner two each and Bruce Schneider one. Mark Semel aided the attack.

Kansas, seeking its first season victory, lost to Florida, 18-16. Tom Kisch and Jim Roberts each scored six points. Adam Cohen had four and Andy Wasserman two. Adam Jacobs had six points and Jeff Femberg five for Kansas. Bruce Oberhand 3 and Courtney Benner 2 also scored. Craig Parker and Dave Rockman provided support.

Texas came from behind to beat Alabama, 23-22. Down at halftime 17-7, Texas scored nine in the third quarter for a two-point advantage. The Texans won on Allan Gross' last second shot. Rich Framer led Texas with seven points. Gross, Brian Bromberg and Jason Weinstolz each had four and Todd Wasserman and Jeff Ginsberg two apiece. Alabama's Robert Fusco had nine points. Anthony Botta seven. John Lynch four and three steals and Chuck Sata two points and three steals. Nick Ruggieri blocked several shots. Chris Schramm played well.

Watchung Hills falls to Bulldog wrestlers

By David Gold
A 42-18 home victory over Watchung Hills ended the Jonathan Dayton wrestling season last Friday night, giving the Bulldogs an 8-8 dual meet season.

Dayton came on strong at the end, achieving pins in three of the final four bouts, to down Watchung Hills. Dayton finished with four pins, by Steve Tenenbaum, Steve Salemy, Jack Parent and Ron Butman. Other Bulldog winners were Bill Giordano, John Caracado, Ben Scituro and Ben Murto.

The Bulldogs' next challenge is the district tournament tomorrow and Saturday when Dayton will be defending its championship. Bulldogs with hopes of medals are Tenenbaum, Scituro and Parent.

As predicted by coach Rick Iacono, Dayton came on strong in February to finish at 5-0. The coach is pleased with his team. The wrestlers' technique has improved, they look more comfortable on the mat and, as always, the Bulldogs have great morale, according to Iacono.

The Jonathan Dayton junior varsity wrestling program also is winding down to a close. The objective of the JV program is to prepare wrestlers for the varsity level so the team does not have as many organized matches as the varsity. Some of JV Coach Angelo Senese's better wrestlers who have made the varsity team are Chuck Bell, John Caracado, Tim Black, Ben Murto and Paul D'Andria.

The Jonathan Dayton freshmen wrestling team concluded its season last Friday, also with a 5-0 record. Some outstanding freshman wrestlers are Charles Kachulis, Joe Roesner, Matt Kuperstein and Anthony Castolone. In the recent Governor Livingston Tournament, Roesner placed second and Kuperstein and Castolone finished third.

Coach Ed Tranchina noted that the entire team has improved a great deal. Most of his wrestlers had little or no experience but worked hard to overcome that. The Dayton freshmen were physically equal to any of their opponents explained Tranchina. The team has excellent spirit and always does its best.

Bulldogs upset N. Providence in UCT opener

By PENNY LEVITT
The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School basketball team opened Union County Tournament play by upsetting 12th ranked New Providence last Monday, 53-41.

The Bulldogs' ballhandling was superb as they made up a 12-point deficit to win. The team's determined effort avenged two conference losses to New Providence.

Adam Joseph led the Bulldogs with 22 points. Larry Walker added 15, Don Meixner eight, Craig Clickenger six and Anthony Circelli two.

Defensively, the team held New Providence to six points in the fourth quarter.

Later in the week, the Bulldogs lost to Elizabeth, 80-60. Dayton took a 17-15 first-period lead before Elizabeth's strength and speed took their toll.

Joseph finished with 16 points, Meixner 14, Walker and Clickenger 10 each, Circelli eight and Ken Klebous one. Dayton lost to Caldwell, 61-48, in its final Suburban Conference contest.

Nettes win two to build streak to nine in row

The Springfield Nettes girls basketball team beat Summit and Cedar Grove last week to extend their winning streak to nine.

The Nettes' 10-3 had no trouble turning back Summit, 49-20, after an 18-6 start. Jill Demark had 13 points, Kathy Meixner 12 and Linda Hockstein 11. Kathy Dahmen added five and Lori Pohlman and Mary Pat Parducci four each.

The Nettes defeated Cedar Grove, 49-26. The Nettes led at halftime by a point. Then, head coach Phil Karnos said, "The Nettes put on an awesome second half display of team defense and offense and overwhelmed their opponents."

Demark had 12 points. Traci Karr 10 and four steals, Hockstein nine points, Parducci eight, Meixner six points and 12 rebounds and Cathy Drummond four points. Dahmen and Pohlman played well.

Softball umpires clinic planned

Weekly clinics for those who wish to become registered Amateur Softball Association (ASA) umpires begin Monday at 7:15 a.m. in the Union County Department of Parks and Recreation Administration Building, Acme and Canton Streets, Elizabeth.

Sponsored by ASA and the Department of Parks and Recreation, classes will be held each Monday through March 31, the day of the qualifying exam. Nick Franciella, Metro Essex commissioner, and Dick Archer, New Jersey State ASA umpire-in-chief, will teach classes on softball rules and their interpretation.

The $25 fee is payable at the first session. Further information is available by calling 352-8431.

Lakers, Jets, Celts, Rockets are victors

The Lakers finished the 1980 Springfield Small Fry regular season with a 7-2 record for first place. Other victors in the last week before the playoffs were the Rockets, Jets and Celts.

The scoring leaders:
Gregg Walsh, Celts, 85; Adam Miller, Raiders, 84; Paul Taher, Lakers, 81; Michael Elson, Lakers, 63; Kamanan Bayrasli, Jets, 60; Matthew Lynch, Rockets, 51; Chris Monaco, Pistons, 51; Spencer Panter, Rockets, 41; Roger Bassin, Raiders, 38; Lenny Saia, Pistons, 37.

The Lakers turned back the Billikens, 19-6. Paul Taher had 10 points, Mike Alson five and Andy Greenman and Ivan Novich two each. Eric Storch led the Bills with four and Pete Glassman had two. Dave Spillane was tough on defense.

The Rockets edged the Pistons, 23-21. The Pistons took a 15-10 first-half lead behind Chris Monaco and Lenny Saia but the Rockets won with 11 points in the fourth. Matt Lynch had 13 points and seven rebounds for the Rockets. Spencer Panter had six points and Barry Teitelbaum four. Jeff Gyus had several rebounds. Monaco (13) and Asis (six) led the Pistons. Scott Summers had two points and Seth Hammer and Tom Miskewitz were tough on defense.

The Jets rolled to a 14-7 victory over the Bullets, scoring all their points in the second period (six) and fourth (eight). Kay Bayrasli had all 14 points for the Jets. Scott Leonard and Danny Francis played well. The Bullets' Stan Federovitch had four points, Mat Zucker two and Eric Schobel one.

The Celts won their sixth game, beating the Raiders, 25-12. Gregg Walsh had 15 points, Staci Weinerman and Mike Zucker four apiece and Nick Di Girolamo two. Greg Wioland rebounded well. The Raiders' Adam Miller had eight points and Roger Bassin four. David Blum and Richard Houseman played well.

Dayton girls' five loses to Madison in last game

By DAVID GOLD
The Jonathan Dayton girls' basketball team concluded a 1-20 season with a tough loss to Madison, 39-36.

The game was a very close, see-saw battle all the way. The Bulldogs outscored Madison in the first and fourth quarters. Until the final moments, neither team had led by more than a basket. Dayton led most of the game but foul trouble and illness took its toll on the Bulldogs late in the game. The zone defense was very effective for Dayton.

The Bulldogs Kathy Clarke scored 18 points, Linda Graziano and Theresa Young eight each and Debbie Barron two.

Overall, Coach Ruth Townsend is extremely proud of her team. It improved and developed steadily all season. With one senior on the team, Dayton was one of the most inexperienced squads in the conference. Townsend noted that "not many teams in the area had this type of varsity schedule and was this young. The girls performed well and deserve a lot of credit." She called the squad "one of the most strongly spirited teams" she has ever had.

The Bulldogs' strong point was defense. They played a 2-1-2 zone throughout the season.

BY MILT HAMMER
Johnson and keyboard player Perry Kibble, burst onto the music charts last year with their No. 1 across-the-board hit, "Boogie Oogie Oogie," which went on to become Platinum. The group's debut album, A Taste Of Honey, mined Platinum.

The album retains an up-tempo dance flavor on riveting infectious dance tunes, such as "Do It Good" (the first single), "Take The Boogie Or Leave It" and "Dance," and then stretches and showcases the band's musicianship and sense of melody on elegant and jazzy up-tempo numbers such as "The Rambow's End" and "Race."

Janice and Hazel combine to give the album's stirring vocal presence which is highlighted on ballads such as "Your Love" and "Let's Begin." A Taste Of Honey capped their phenomenal debut year.

CHUCK NORRIS — Actor plays karate champion in 'A Force of One,' which continues its run at Linden Twin II Theater.

Ritter held

"Hero At Large," starring John Ritter as an actor, who inadvertently becomes a New York hero while making a publicity appearance as Captain Avenger, continues for another week at the Five Points Cinema, Union. Anne Archer also stars. Martin Davidson directed the film.

Bette Midler at Sanford

"The Rose," starring Oscar-nominee Bette Midler in the title role, opens tomorrow at the Sanford Theater, Irvington, on a double bill with "The Dark."

In "The Rose," Miss Midler plays a 1960 rock star who is falling apart. Alan Bates and Frederic Forrest also are starred. Mark Rydell directed "The Rose."

Comedies at Elmora

Two movie comedies will begin tomorrow at the Elmora Theater, Elizabeth. They are "Going in Style" and "The Goodbye Girl."

George Burns, Art Carney, and Lee Strasberg star in "Going in Style," a film about three senior citizens, who tire of the park bench and social security, and plan to rob a bank. Martin Brest directed.

Marsha Mason, Oscar-nominee and Oscar-winner Richard Dreyfuss share starring roles in "The Goodbye Girl," a Neil Simon comedy. Miss Mason is Simon's wife in real life.

READING SCRIPT — Stan Kaplan of Linden, left, who will portray Mayer Rothschild in the Edison Valley Playhouse production of "The Rothschilds," goes over play with Colin Wyatt, who will play one of the sons in the musical every Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:30 now through March 29. Ticket reservations may be made by calling 756-4488.

GIRLS TREATED DIFFERENTLY
A recent study revealed many inconsistencies in the treatment of teen-aged girls and boys by American laws, courts and correctional agencies.

In fact, 55 percent of the girls were status offenders as compared to 28 percent of the boys with the arrest ratio of girls to boys being one to four, but detention placement is one to three.

THE WIZARD OF AHHHS.

Enter the world of Benihana. Feel the warmth of the graceful oriental decor, the soft relaxing samisen music. And get ready for an oriental masterpiece Ahhh.

In the main course, four choice of entrees. Like tender boneless breasts of chicken. Specially selected steaks. Plump lobster. Plus fresh bean sprouts, Mushrooms, Zucchini, And onions. Sliced and a red into-tender, mouth watering sivers. And rice. And piping hot green tea. Ahhh.

Suddenly your chef appears and the feast begins. Prepared on a hibachi grill right before your eyes.

For openers, there's onion soup, Japanese style. Next, crisp green salad. Sizzling succulent shrimp. Ahhh.

ESPLANADE HIGH-RISE CONDO—Newest conversion to condominium for Adeline Schofel is the 50-unit Esplanade facing Sunset Lake in North Asbury Park. She points out distinctive terraces of each apartment to Bob Edwards, administrative assistant and sales manager. Prices at The Esplanade will be from $58,300 to $147,300 during preview showing.

Apartments converted to condominiums

Adeline Schofel, condominium converter of oceanfront properties, does not credit her success to being a woman. But the extra, unexpected touches that she has added to the properties she has converted do offer that credit.

Schofel has created year-round homes from rental apartments, decorating and expanding, adding a swimming pool at one, and changing the overall character of the properties before opening sales.

She is now making the first condominium conversion in Asbury Park, a seven-story terraced high-rise structure to which she has added more than $500,000 in amenities and which she has renamed the Esplanade.

"There is only one ocean, and it is beautiful to live near it," Schofel said. "I enjoy it, and I enjoy offering homes on or near the oceanfront."

Her first venture in condominium conversion came almost by accident. She was renting a home in Deal Ocean Apartments, and heard that the building was up for sale. At first, she attempted to organize the tenants as purchasers of their own homes. When that failed, she accepted the encouragement of her banker and moved to purchase the building on her own. Several tenants who had refused to join with her in the purchase later purchased the apartments they were living in.

That was in 1972, a time when real estate sales were hit by a recession. "But I had confidence in the oceanfront, and in the building," Schofel said. "I never doubted that it could be done, and today the same apartments are re-selling for three and more times the original price."

At the time, she said, her main worry was to pay the enormous loans she had taken to acquire the property, and so she sold the first several apartments "for almost any amount that was offered." The structure has 36 units, and she did not relax until the first dozen were sold and she began to realize that her estimate of the building's value was accurate.

Schofel's second venture was in Sea Bright, again on the ocean front. It is a 60-unit garden apartment complex, now completely sold out. The name Runaway Beach Villas was chosen to accent the resort atmosphere, and a large swimming pool with decks was built adjacent to the sea wall and overlooking the ocean beach. A sauna room was built next to the pool, and several barbecues were installed on a grassy area nearby.

Runaway Beach Villas opened sales in late summer of 1978 to immediate success. In fall of that year, as the buyer picture emerged as year-round residents, the promotion of the condominium stressed that year-round aspect, so that sales continued strong until sell out just one year from opening.

Now Schofel has moved her conversion activity south to Asbury Park, again to an oceanfront city known for its stretch of ocean beach. In fall of 1979, she acquired the 52-unit Sunset Terrace Apartments, facing Sunset Lake and Sunset Park. The condominium conversion has been filed with the state, and non-binding reservations are now being accepted on what is the first such conversion in the seashore resort city.

"I drove past the building and was struck by the beauty of its architecture," said Schofel, who at that time did not realize that the structure is of classic Bauhaus design. "It was though the building were waiting for me, and my instincts told me to go ahead with confidence."

Schofel did not even see the interior of the building until negotiations to purchase it were almost complete. "The apartments were more beautiful than I had expected, with high ceilings, natural wood parquet floors, and the weather-protected balcony of each apartment offers spectacular views of the oceanfront and the surrounding area," she said.

What next? "Another condominium conversion," she said, "near the seashore. But first the Esplanade has to be completed, with the pool and garden in, lobby and hallways completely redecorated, and sales well on their way."

U.S. MILITARILY VULNERABLE
The United States is now militarily vulnerable as defense used to be almost 50 percent of its federal budget and is now only 20 percent.

Also, the Russians have spent $20 billion a year on strategic forces and the United States has only spent $10 billion.

was too young to work legally in the banking profession she hoped to join. Then, last year, when she and husband Albert were looking for a pre-retirement home, they found they couldn't get into the great majority of New Jersey's planned adult communities which require at least one member of a household to be either 55 or 52.

Greenbriar II became the answer. The Vargos saw the ads explaining that U.S. Home Corp. has lowered the required age at Greenbriar II, located off Burnt Tavern Road in Brick Town, to 18.

Despite a fire that was going flat and cold, windy weather, things worked out perfectly for the couple. After their first short visit, they came back a week later to find an ideal location for the Alpine model home they selected from the three basic choices of single family homes on private lots offered at Greenbriar II.

While the couple made a deposit, four other couples were in line behind them hoping to purchase the same site. Clearly, the Vargos were not the only metropolitan area adults who have appreciated the opportunity to move into the Greenbriar way of life at an earlier age. According to Joan Harding, marketing director of U.S. Home Corp., New Jersey Division, more than 150 Greenbriar II homes have been purchased since the community opened less than a year ago across the road from the original Greenbriar Greenbriar II, with homes now priced from $64,990, has room for only 150 more homes.

Former residents of Midland Park, Alice and Albert Vargo feel that moving to Greenbriar II is the beginning of a new life—especially Albert, who is looking for a new full or part time position in the area where he can combine work with his religious life. He already has his own volunteer non-profit Prison Christian Ministry. He corresponds with four convicts in prisons in San Quentin, Cal., Leavenworth, Kans., and Jefferson City, Mo. He also belonged to a Bible fellowship group on his street in Midland Park, and he is hoping to start a Bible class at Greenbriar II.

Earlier in his life, after attending Fairleigh Dickinson University, Albert was assistant vice president of Irving Savings and Loan Association in Paterson. He then was a general accountant in a laminating firm, where he learned enough to start his own business in Clifton.

The couple met when they both worked for Citizens First National Bank of New Jersey in Ridgewood. She was a secretary in the savings investment accounts department.

Interested in crafts, needlework, sewing and knitting Alice has offered to teach classes within the multi-faceted Greenbriar II country club facilities. She is also interested in becoming involved in the community's ceramics classes, swimming and poolside relaxation.

Albert's other avocational interests include 23 years as secretary-treasurer of a bowling league in Fairlawn. He was in the local Boosters Club for a decade, and its president for three years. Always interested in kids, he was a Little League baseball manager.

HERE WE GO AGAIN, NEW JERSEY.

Hovnanian's done it again, New Jersey.

If you missed the greatest homeowning opportunity of 1979 — if you missed Pine Ridge in Florida's Palm Beaches — you'll be glad to know you've got one more chance. One last sun-drenched opportunity to get in on the good life at a great price.

Introducing Pine Ridge South. The new adult condominium community that offers seven of Hovnanian's famous, full-featured models. Studio, one bedroom, one bedroom/den and two bedroom apartment homes. For $32,950 to $41,950. Want to read that last sentence again to make sure it wasn't a misprint? Okay. $32,950 to $41,950. This includes extras you don't pay extra for, like central air-conditioning. Screened porches. GE appliances. And wall-to-wall carpeting. For openers.

Pine Ridge South also offers a private swim club, sun decks, shuffleboard courts, picnic groves and acres of lakes and landscaping.

For closers, there's Hovnanian's incredible guarantee. The one that fixes your maintenance costs at $39 a month for at least the next five years. Think about it. Five years of inflation-proof maintenance costs.

It's value like this that convinced over 500 New Jerseyans to buy at Pine Ridge last year. It's value like this that sold out Pine Ridge in record time. And it's value like this that's got everybody talking again. About Pine Ridge South.

Don't miss this extra chance. Visit Florida today. Right here in Middletown, New Jersey. Hovnanian has an actual furnished model right in their office building at 10 Route 35.

To reach the Pine Ridge model display in New Jersey, take the Garden State Parkway south to Exit

117. Then take Route 35 south for 12 miles to the beautiful gold office building before Route 35 crosses the bridge into Red Bank. The model exhibit is on the second floor and it's open Monday-Friday 10-5:30, Saturday and Sunday 10-6. Or call (201) 842-9402.

Shadow Oaks' exclusive features

Just outside Princeton, in Cranbury Township, Shadow Oaks is building a small community of exclusive homes which company spokesmen feel is an exceptional value in eight major ways.

First is location. In the last 18 years, Shadow Oaks is the first builder to obtain building permits in the township. Although the small community dates back to Revolutionary days, few builders have been able to meet the requirements for approvals in recent times. Shadow Oaks' motto of "Old World Craftsmanship," helps explain why it has been one of the fortunate few. The town is easily accessible from the New Jersey Turnpike (Exit 8A), Route 130 and Route 1.

Second, Cranbury has the lowest taxes in Middlesex County. One can afford to purchase a home for many thousands of dollars more than elsewhere and still have the same or lower monthly carrying costs, due to lower taxes. Current tax rates mean taxes of only $2,200 on a $130,000 home.

Third is the availability of mortgages. In addition to a ready supply of money for qualified purchasers, the company has a way of assuring 10 percent interest rates. Fourth is Shadow Oaks' quality of construction. According to S.M. Bernard, company president, purchasers will get homes for which they would expect to be paying up to $20,000 more. Standard features include air conditioning, oak floors, fireplace, Andersen brand twin-pane insulated windows (which mean no storm windows), removable window grills for easy cleaning, real slate foyers, crown and dentil molding, painted or stained, chair rails, ceramic tiled bathrooms, double ovens, deluxe wood bannisters, six paneled colonial doors, marble sinks, wood hand-crafted cabinetry and much, much more. Building gigantic houses in the $130,000 range, the company claims incomparable value with all these features standard at no extra cost.

Fifth is the emphasis on name-brand products. In addition to the Shadow Oaks name which goes back three decades, name brands such as GE, Tappan, Alean, American Standard, Formica, GAF and others assure the purchaser of high quality.

Sixth is the maintenance-free exterior of every Shadow Oaks home. In addition to the choice of aluminum siding, vinyl siding or natural cedar shakes, all windows are vinyl clad to eliminate future painting of the exterior. Shadow Oaks can provide a virtually maintenance-free exterior.

Seventh, the house is designed in an energy-conscious manner. Thick insulation is provided throughout. All exterior doors are fully insulated and thermal weather-proofed. The garage windows are two-pane insulated glass. Even the door saddles are easily adjustable to prevent drafts now and in the future. The whole house is air tight.

Eighth is Shadow Oaks' attention to detail. The entire community is planned in the early American, Williamsburg tradition of Cranbury Township. There will be no look-alike homes. The feeling is carried throughout the house where items such as chair rail, crown and dentil molding, real wood rustic panelling and a custom made rough sawn rustic mantle are standard, as is the large fireplace with a raised hearth. Kitchen cabinets are handcrafted wood with spring loaded hinges and felt stops. All light switches are silent. All archways are individually trimmed. The entire house is slowly trimmed and painted by hand to exacting standards. On top of all that, the houses are even pre-wired for cable TV if the purchaser wishes to install it at a later date.

Ninth, as a result of Shadow Oaks craftsmanship over the years, the buyers also have a 10-cent large modern kitchen, huge closets and all the conveniences normally found in prestigious homes. Shadow Oaks will customize the homes in virtually any fashion the purchaser desires. Sales office is open every day from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. and weekends from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Shadow Oaks is easily accessible off Exit 8A of the Turnpike; follow the signs to Cranbury, go down Main Street, just past the lake. Bear right at the fork, then right on Old Trenton Road to the models.

Eight different elevations are available. All have huge rooms, dramatic entry foyers, open staircases, magnifi-

Harbour is being built

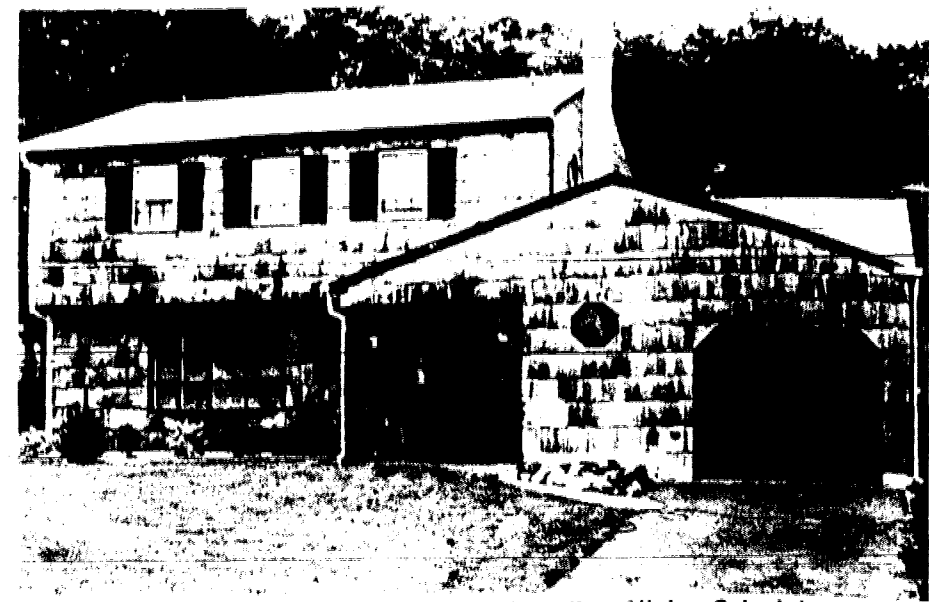

Cedar Harbour models are under construction. The advance stage of construction with maximum R factors (Energy Saving) is under way in Little Egg Harbor. The developers of Cedar Harbour are building Shulz Homes, the nationally known home designs that more than 50,000 families have purchased. Pre-model completion deposits are being taken by Cedar Harbour sales office formerly Mystic Island sales office.

The homes are only 21 miles from Atlantic City and offer commuting service between the two communities. There is a 10-year H.Q.W. warranty included, as well as features found in homes selling for double the $59,990 opening price at Cedar Harbour.

There are a wide choice of models from 3 to 4 bedrooms and up to 2 1/2 baths and 2 car garages. One quarter acre lots are standard but luxury lots are available with bulkhead and bay frontage. Underground sewer, water and electric are there with underground gas expected.

Based upon the sampling of customer response, the developers anticipate a steady sell-out of their 300-home tract. They intend to hold the opening prices for six weeks. Sales office is open seven days a week, from 9 a.m. to dusk.

PLUMBERS ATTENTION! Sell your services to 30,000 local families with low cost. Want Ads. 686-7700.

HEARTHSTONE COMMUNITY—The top-of-the-line Allaire Colonial, one of six models offered at Barrymor's Hearthstone Community in Lakewood, is priced from $73,490. Graduated, 10 per cent down-payment mortgages are available to qualified buyers. Other models from $62,990 can be seen at the Hearthstone model area on Countyline Road off Parkway exit 91.

Wick's policy on mortgages boosts sales

Lou Cyktor, president of Wick Builders of East Brunswick, reports that the company's new policy of offering 11 percent mortgage financing has produced immediate results. Sunburst Hills Twin Homes in East Brunswick and Sheffield Mews Townhomes in Sayreville registered immediate sales directly attributable to the policy.

"At Wick, we tend to take a combative approach to any new development in the real estate market. When we saw the higher interest rates continuing, we decided to fight. Our customers seem to agree with our policy," declared Cyktor. "Wick is guaranteeing an interest rate for every purchaser of a new home from our existing inventory or homes under construction of 11 percent for the first two years of occupancy. If the interest rates drop below that level, the buyer may simply re-mortgage at no penalty to him. If the interest rate should rise, the buyer has lost nothing. If interest rates continue to climb or even level off that will be an indication that inflation is continuing and, after two years, the buyer will have had sufficient time to cushion the incursion of a higher interest rate through higher earnings. Our theory is really very simple and most buyers we see are tending to agree with us. Traffic and sales at both our sites were up nearly 100 percent last weekend."

An innovative building organization, Wick currently is marketing two new communities — Sheffield Mews (137 townhomes on Main Street, Sayreville, offering two and three-bedroom townhome style condominiums priced from $64,490 to $75,490) and Sunburst Hills (a 108 "twin home" community off Racetrack Road, East Brunswick). There is also a limited number of luxury single family homes in the East Brunswick area to which the new mortgaging policy will apply.

As the area's first "twin home" community, Sunburst Hills features the individual ownership and freedom common to single family home ownership, but features duplex design. The campus like setting of the new community in East Brunswick is marked by features like bicycle paths, acres of open space and fine landscaping. Aside from energy-efficient design, the homes feature patios, three bedrooms, up to 2 1/2 baths, country kitchens, spacious living rooms and family rooms.

Exclusive sales agent for both communities is the Wick Agency of Forde, Sheffield Mews sales office is open Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Fridays from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sunburst Hills sales office is open Saturday, Sunday, Monday, Thursday, and Fridays from 11:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Model homes still on sale at community

What's in a name? Several thousand dollars, if it's one of the last remaining 6000 Series of model homes at Covered Bridge, the adult community off Route 9 in Manalapan, about half an hour from urban centers in northern New Jersey.

One- and two-bedroom homes in the 6000 Series are still available at last year's prices—because they were constructed before materials, furnishings and labor costs soared, explains Del Purscell, director of sales for Hovnanian Enterprises Inc., developer of Covered Bridge.

"This represents a saving of several thousand dollars," provided homebuyers act quickly. Fewer than 80 homes remain, though," he warns, "and they are being sold at a rapid rate. It's the last chance, really, for anyone to purchase a home in a community which has all the facilities Covered Bridge offers, in a location this close to New York and northern New Jersey."

Purscell credits the energy crisis, especially the rising cost of gasoline, for the speed-up in sales at Covered Bridge. Most new residents want to live as close as possible to families, friends and jobs in the greater metropolitan area, he points out.

A recent survey showed that about 60 percent of Covered Bridge residents continue to work—the eligibility rule for purchase is that one member of a household be at least 52 years old. For commuters, express buses along Route 9 take less than an hour to Manhattan. Some of the more than 60 hobby clubs also take chartered buses to the theater, opera, sports events and other types of entertainment.

Location, however, is by no means the only reason for wanting to live at Covered Bridge. There are numerous facilities such as a clubhouse with a health club, meeting rooms, lounges, an auditorium for entertainment and a large hall for dances and parties; an Olympic-sized swimming pool with sun decks; illuminated tennis courts; paths for jogging, cycling and walking; landscaped grounds, and much, much more, according to Purscell.

Model homes may be viewed seven days a week. To reach Covered Bridge, take either the Garden State Parkway to Exit 123 or the New Jersey Turnpike to Exit 11, then continue south along Route 9 following signs to the property. You'll see the Covered Bridge at the gateway to your right.

GRAND OPENING

Introducing our very first ad. For Foxwood II. At Morris Plains.

You would have heard from us before now. But Foxwood I sold out completely before we could announce our grand opening.

The terrace homes that bring the merriment of Tudor England to the Morris County countryside

Our first Tudor-styled condominium terrace homes at Foxwood were a complete success. They brought affordable homes of comfort, elegance and character to New Jersey's prestigious hunt country countryside.

Now we're merrily introducing our second section of homes. With the same great styling, construction quality and energy-conscious engineering. We're also building Foxwood II in an equally beautiful, landscaped setting. Where the pool, tennis courts, picnic and play areas will be maintained splendidly by the Foxwood staff.

Foxwood II continues the great custom features. Like our immensely popular Foxwood I, Foxwood II has everything. The kitchens are superbly and completely equipped by General Electric. And appointed with such elegant touches as recessed down-spot counter lighting and fine, furniture-quality cabinetry.

The baths and closets are both well designed and generous in size. But the most important feature of each home at Foxwood II is its living space, layout and the lovely private terrace just outside that transforms each exemplary residence into a true terrace home.

Energy conservation that pays off in comfort. At Foxwood II, beauty goes deeper than appearances. 6" full thick R-19 insulation, triple-glazed thermal barrier windows, weather sealed terrace doors, a sound-retardant denserock flooring and 2 x 6 (instead of the usual 2 x 4) exterior wall construction framing are a few of the features that will make your home at Foxwood II a comfort on these cold winter days. And all that extra insulation will conserve fuel throughout the community for a saving you'll appreciate every winter month. And the heat's included in your monthly charge!

Country life with rising gas prices? Yes, it's still possible. And affordable. Because Foxwood II is just 4 minutes from the Conrail station. So you can get to a number of big cities without emptying your gas tank or your wallet.

You can also get everywhere else in a jiffy. Shopping, schools, banks, restaurants, golf and country clubs, lakes, parks and movie theaters are all nearby.

So come over to Foxwood II at Morris Plains at once. You'll get the best selection, the best prices, the best country living, a bundle of tax breaks and a new way of life.

And you won't have to worry if we're sold out before we can publish another ad!

Riverview Point, the first luxury multi-residential community to be developed on the banks of the Toms River, has opened fully-furnished models for personal viewing.

Years of engineering and architectural planning have created a fashionable 24-unit midrise complex that blends in with its historical and environmentally clean landscape. Not only modern and functional, Riverview Point abounds in the personal and warm touch which will give condominium owners that comfortable, at-home feeling.

Byron Kotzas, president of Crossroads Realty, exclusive agents for Riverview Point, explains that the project, which features units in the $86,000 to $125,000 range, was developed under the strictest environmental standards. He says keeping these standards was necessary to gain the required approvals from concerned local and state officials and to make living at the community safe and clean. The community, centrally located in the heart of the seat of Ocean County, offers a number of extraordinary features, says Kotzas. "The staggered, low angular design of the condominiums paints a soft picture, and the natural brick, rough hewn wood siding and rustic roof make the entire complex blend in with the rolling riverbank," he explains. "Each condominium features 1,400 square feet of roomy living space that includes two spacious bedrooms and two cozy baths."

A gracious dining area and livingroom open onto a 120 square foot balcony that overlooks the quiet and peaceful Toms River," continues Kotzas, "and a sweeping wind wall affords another spectacular view."

Ample on site parking, covered walkways and elevator to all floors of the three-story complex encompass Riverview Point. Condominium features are designed to accommodate most individual customized tastes. They include a rich bluestone entry foyer and modern and convenient kitchen and utility space. Cathedral ceilings top off the penthouse units while other amenities include sturdy oak hardwood or wall to wall carpeted floors, efficient central heat and air conditioning, full wall and door insulation, wiring for cable television and municipal sewer and water service.

Private entrances for each unit and a private pool and sundeck are also featured. Optional boat slips which can accommodate vessels up to 35 feet long are also available.

"And if condominium owners feel the need for a relaxing stroll, they need go no further than the 500-foot-long boardwalk on the complex's property that winds along the water's edge," adds Kot-zas. "Interested parties should know that 25 year mortgages are available to qualified buyers with a minimum 20 percent downpayment," notes Kotzas.

Ocean County's leading community on genuinely historic land which has seen the battles of the Revolutionary War. Located on land that puts out into the river, Riverview Point was the site where many militiamen guarded the river cove and the Toms River village. The land eventually evolved as the site of the famous River view Point Hotel and now serves as the land upon which engineering and architectural history has been made. Only a few minutes away is the downtown business community with its quaint little shops while the modern Ocean County Mall is only a few minutes away by car. Along Water Street, Victorian architecture winds its way through the downtown village area.

Thursday, March 6, 1986 creating a serene atmosphere. Riverview Point is nestled at the foot of Hooper Avenue along Water Street and is accessible from Parkway East - Rt. 41, east or from Route 549 south (Hooper Avenue) from Route 37.

Barclay Woods gives you huge rooms, a fireplace, trees, wildlife and time to enjoy them.

Save $45,000*

At Barclay Woods, you won't be cutting the grass, shoveling the snow or painting the trim anymore. A professional staff does all that for you.

And that gives you lots of time to enjoy all the luxury and comfort your new home has to offer.

Luxuries like huge rooms, plush carpeting, a full basement, private garage, a large greenhouse window in a kitchen full of appliances and even a wood burning fireplace, just to mention a few.

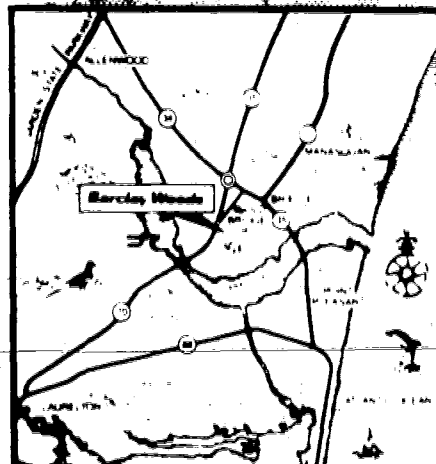

The warmer months give you the opportunity to explore Barclay Woods' 35 rolling acres of trees and wildlife. Or perhaps you'll play tennis at the racquet club and then relax by the private pool. That is when you're not taking advantage of nearby fishing, boating and golf.

Barclay Woods gives you more of what you live for.

Five residents of the Twin Boroughs, employed by National Color Laboratories Inc. of Roselle, were honored during the firm's biannual Service Club party.

Thomas Guinee of Roselle Park, the firm's personnel director, was cited for 15 years' service. Honored for 10 years of employment were Frances Zdziarski of Roselle, of the incoming processing check in department, and Anna Harlow of Roselle, who in her 10 years in the company's custom department, has not missed a single day of work. Admitted to membership in the club upon completion of five years' service was Regina Beckman of Roselle Park, supervisor-billing, at the Roselle plant.

More than seven decades ago, a small paint store was opened in Jersey City by a young Russian immigrant named NATHAN SUPERSTEIN. Today the sons and grandsons of that man are preparing for the formal opening of a new store in Toms River, bringing the total number of operating units to an even dozen in a multimillion dollar chain. The Union store alone has been doing business for more than 8 years.

In 1927, the family gave up contracting painting and concentrated on selling paints and wall coverings. As an adjunct, they also sell all painters' supplies and sundry items associated with the craft. RICHARD HAMILTON, VW dealer at Jenewen VW 900 E. Elizabeth Ave. Linden, and service manager JOHN HUDACK have been named award winners in Volkswagen's national "We Care" Service Excellence Program. Hamilton's dealership, which services 6 cars each day, was ranked among the highest in the tri-state area served by World Wide Volkswagen. In recognition of his outstanding performance, Hudack and his wife will spend a weekend at a resort as guests of Volkswagen.

Energy-saving award given

The Center for Technology Assessment at New Jersey Institute of Technology has received the Governor's Award for Energy Conservation from Gov. Brendan Byrne for its participation in an energy program of national significance.

Dr. Sanford Bordman, director, and Professor Arthur Gordon, associate director, accepted the award on behalf of the center for technology assessment, which operates under a nonprofit foundation affiliated with the public technological university.

The Center for Technology Assessment is working with the New Jersey Department of Energy on the state's implementation of the National Conservation Police Act. The act makes available an estimated $25 million in matching grant funds to reduce the cost of energy supply in public buildings such as schools, hospitals, municipally-owned buildings and public-care institutions through more efficient use and conservation of energy. More than 1,200 schools (K-12) and all public higher education buildings in the state have received energy audits. All public institutions throughout the state are eligible.

Frankel again will lead association of builders

At a recent annual in-station dinner and dance at the Florham Park Country Club, the Builders Association of Metropolitan New Jersey installed Chester Frankel of Summit as president for a second term.

Frank Farinella, life director of the National Association of Home Builders, administered the oath of office to Frankel and his associate officers for the year 1980. Acceptance of a second term in office has placed Frankel in the forefront of the problems that to day's builders must try to solve.

"Inflation and over regulation leading to higher costs," he stated.

"Today's high interest rates on mortgages, which our government condones, is fueling inflation and eliminating people from the home buying marketplace."

Examples he gave to make his point were:

"Less than a year ago at a 9 percent rate, a 30-year, $60,000 mortgage required a $483 monthly payment. At 11 percent it is $572. If 14 percent is a reality, this same monthly payment jumps to $711."

"This is the same $60,000 loan," remarks Frankel, "but you can see how many people would be squeezed out of the picture by no longer qualifying."

Frankel did warn however, that even with the higher interest rates it makes sense to buy now. "Waiting will only increase prices and that in itself will erase the difference of interest that is being charged and what it may eventually come down to."

Among the solutions he pointed to were the use of graduated payments or flexible rate mortgage loans. Also longer terms would bring down the monthly cost to the buyer.

"The tight money approach penalizes those who are most vulnerable in our society—the young and the elderly, the poor and the disadvantaged, and millions of working families who are pinched first by the hidden tax of inflation and then by the misguided attempt to cure it," he said.

On the subject of over-regulation, the newly installed second-term president stated, "Certain politicians and bureaucrats have pushed regulations on our industry so far that costs on new building have skyrocketed."

"So much of this is unnecessary and expensive," Frankel went on to explain, "They're doing this under the guise of watching out for the people's interest, but at the same time they are taking new-home prices beyond the reach of most of their constituency."

"People require housing and we, as an association, will do our best to see that it is provided," Frankel concluded. "We hope that it will never become unaffordable to anyone seeking shelter."

Examples he gave to make his point were:

"Less than a year ago at a 9 percent rate, a 30-year, $60,000 mortgage required a $483 monthly payment. At 11 percent it is $572. If 14 percent is a reality, this same monthly payment jumps to $711."

"This is the same $60,000 loan," remarks Frankel, "but you can see how many people would be squeezed out of the picture by no longer qualifying."

Frankel did warn however, that even with the higher interest rates it makes sense to buy now. "Waiting will only increase prices and that in itself will erase the difference of interest that is being charged and what it may eventually come down to."

Among the solutions he pointed to were the use of graduated payments or flexible rate mortgage loans. Also longer terms would bring down the monthly cost to the buyer.

Club lists display of rail layout

The Model Railroad Club will hold its fifth annual layout show March 7-9, 14-16 and 21-23 at the club headquarters, Jefferson Avenue, south of eastbound Route 22, Union.

A 1600-square-foot HO scale model railroad (with four continuously operating trains, including one 100-car coal train) an enlarged N-scale layout (with 26 scale miles of operating main line track) and displays of railroad artifacts and models, such as caboose markers and switch lamps, will be on display.

The Model Railroad Club is in its 31st year and ninth at this Lenape Park location as a joint venture with the Union County Park Commission. The 40-by-40 foot HO scale railroad and N-scale railroad are expected to be the beginning of the largest model railroad in the world. The remaining three-fourths of the layouts will be housed in a future addition. A computer, designed and built by club members aid in controlling this miniature railroad empire, will be displayed.

Tickets are $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children under 12.

Vacation class set

A course on affordable vacations, "Exploring New Jersey," will be offered this spring by the Center for Continuing Education at Kean College, Union.

Dr. Frank Esposito, assistant dean of education at Kean, will teach the course from 7:40 to 9:10 p.m. on eight Wednesdays beginning March 19. Registration closes March 12. The fee is $35.

Esposito, author of "Travelling New Jersey," will describe dozens of day trips.

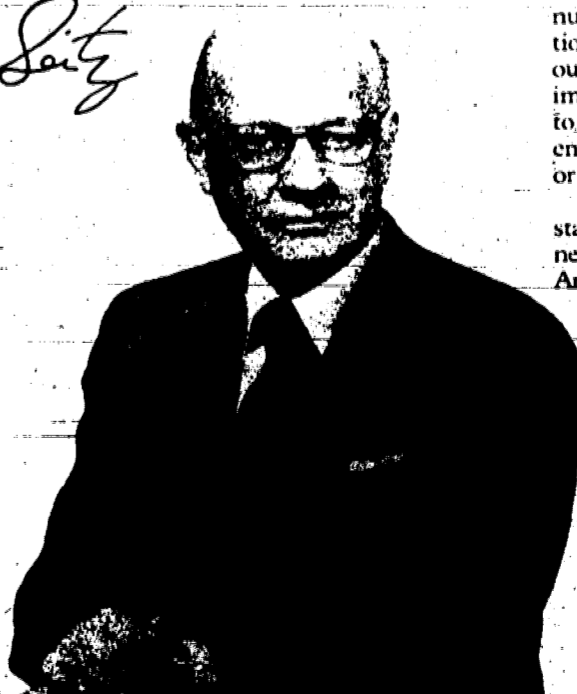

DR. FREDERICK SEITZ ON ENERGY INDEPENDENCE.

Nuclear Energy Forum
Public Service Electric and Gas Company has invited distinguished scientists to participate in this forum of views on nuclear energy. No personal fee or payment of any kind has been made to individuals expressing their opinions here. In lieu of personal payment, PSE&G has made a contribution to Scientists and Engineers for Secure Energy.

DR. FREDERICK SEITZ ON ENERGY INDEPENDENCE.

"Nuclear energy is vital for reducing our dependence on expensive foreign oil."

Frederick Seitz
Dr. Frederick Seitz, President Emeritus Rockefeller University and Past President National Academy of Sciences

"America basically depends on oil, coal, gas, and nuclear energy as fuels to generate electric energy. President Carter declared that the U.S. must reduce its oil imports by nearly a half. To accomplish this we must rely more on other fuels, but especially nuclear.

"Coal is abundant in America, but it is associated with potentially serious environmental problems. Health, transportation and labor problems are also frequently related to coal.

"Natural gas is a valuable source that is getting more difficult to find. Its clean burning qualities make it better suited as a home fuel and for certain production processes.

"Solar energy holds promise for the future, but we still haven't found an economical way to generate electricity from it.

"Of all our alternatives, nuclear energy is in the best position to move ahead to help achieve our goal of reducing foreign oil imports. Furthermore, it costs less to generate electricity with nuclear energy than it does with oil, coal, or gas.

"Last year nuclear generating stations saved the equivalent of nearly 20 billion gallons of oil in America. In New Jersey alone, nuclear energy saved one billion gallons of oil. Nuclear energy also saved $285 million in New Jersey simply because nuclear fuel costs less.

"Clearly, we must reduce our dependence on foreign oil. Just as clearly, we need to rely on nuclear energy to help meet that goal."

Formed in 1976, Scientists and Engineers for Secure Energy is a society concerned about incorrect, confusing and untrue information being spread by organized groups against nuclear technology. The efforts of these groups are designed to scare, bewilder and mislead Americans into abandoning a domestically available nuclear resource that's been thoroughly tested and proven over the past thirty years. Nuclear energy has kept the lights on in much of the country during coal strikes, oil embargoes and natural gas shortages. The society does not claim that technology, including nuclear energy, are free of faults. It also encourages frank and vigorous debates in search of better understanding. The society hopes this series of statements will contribute to the understanding that nuclear energy has the potential to bring enormous benefits to America and the world. It has served us well for a third of a century. The society supports the maturing of our best thoughts—not our worst fears—to continue to utilize this potential wisely and safely.

INTEREST CHECKING IS HERE!

Earn 5% on your checking balance with an Interest Checking Account at the Howard.

Interest Checking. It's a new and exciting checking service from the Howard, and you can sign up for it right now! Interest Checking works just like a regular checking account, but with a bonus! Your checking account balance will earn 5% interest every day from day of deposit to day of withdrawal! And the Howard compound is that interest and credits it to your account the day your monthly interest checking statement is prepared. Even if the interest you've earned is as little as one penny. That means you earn the highest interest and yield allowed by law on this type of account.

Interest Checking is free at the Howard, as long as you keep $1,000 or more in your account. If your balance goes below $1,000, there's a small service charge for that month only, but you still earn interest on your entire balance, whatever it is, every day. We'll even give you checks with your name imprinted on them for free. With Interest Checking, you'll receive a statement each month, along with your paycheck checks, showing all the transactions you've made during the month and the interest your money has earned. But up to the $1,000 limit, a statement is prepared for you. So how do you open your Interest Checking account at the Howard? Just stop by any office that has an ATM card, and make an initial deposit of as little as $10. If you already have a Howard checking account, you can convert it to Interest Checking simply by coming in and signing an authorization card. You'll keep the same account number, so you can use the checks you already have. But you must sign an authorization card to convert your account to interest checking.

The government calls it a NOW (Negotiable Order of Withdrawal) account. We call it "Interest Checking," and we've waited a long time to be allowed to offer it to you. You can open your interest checking account at any Howard office, so plan to stop by soon for full details.
