Retiring employees honored at luncheon

The Mountainside Board of Education and the Mountainside Teachers Association joined the Mountainside PTA last week honoring three retiring teachers and eleven others who had reached service milestones. The occasion was the annual PTA luncheon, presented by the parent group each year to show appreciation to the school staff.

Special guests at the luncheon were retiring teachers Irene Buchner, Mildred Herron, and Mary Porter, and retiring custodian Dominic Ramaccio.

Honored with service awards from the Board of Education were Evelyn Holcombe, language arts teacher, 25 years; Ken Johnson, social studies teacher, Edwin Sjonnel, guidance counselor, and Marilyn Webb, supplemental instructor, 20 years; Andrew Ray, mathematics teacher, and Edith Ross, first-grade teacher, 15 years; Carolee Garcia, first-grade teacher, and Henry Ruerup, custodian, 10 years; and Dr. Debora Clifford, reading and language arts teacher, Daniel Fiadino and Morris Finkelstein, custodians, 5 years.

Herron, known as "Buddy" to her many friends, has spent her 28-year teaching career in the first grade. Even more unusual is the fact that 23 of those years have been spent in the same Beechwood classroom.

Far from being bored, she has found teaching first-graders challenging, and she characterizes all her 28 years in Mountainside as "bright and beautiful, shining and happy."

With a B.A. in English from Elmira College, she was originally trained to teach on the high school level, but she quickly realized she was meant to teach small children. She found her niche at Deerfield, when it was still a small school.

She recalls her desire to prove herself equal to the challenge in her first year of teaching, and her dismay at contracting polio from one of her students. "The board generously didn't count the time against my sick leave," she notes. "That was only one of many thank you notes written over the years to the board and the superintendent for kindnesses shown to me."

Her career spans many accomplishments, as she taught in the ITA pilot project, focused on the ability to do creative writing in the first grade and shared her techniques with other teachers, and served the community through participation in the PTA, the New Jersey School Development Council, the MTA, and the MMA.

Porter's 18-year career as a teacher was a second career, the achievement of "a dream I'd had all my life," she remembers. Her mother was a teacher, but she graduated from school during the Depression and went to business school and worked as a secretary.

The dream was launched when her youngest child entered second grade and Porter entered college. She graduated cum laude from Kean College, and following her senior student teaching experience at Beechwood, she began teaching fifth-grade there.

Twelve years later she began a two-year stint as a sixth-grade mathematics teacher at Deerfield, and then at her own request, was transferred back to the fifth-grade.

"I like having a self-contained classroom," she comments. "You get to know each child better, and you can build a cohesiveness in the class. Fifth-grade is an interesting age, between childhood and adolescence."

She laughs to recall her first day of teaching, when a child brought in an injured bird rescued from a cat. "Nothing in my methods classes had told me how to deal with that! I finally, in desperation, took it outside, where it took wing and flew away from my hand. Prayer in the schools may be illegal, but I uttered a silent prayer of thanksgiving anyway!"

Teaching was a second career for Irene Buchner, also, who worked originally for Brookings Institution on a journal for international affairs. Her degree from Carleton College was in international relations, so it was an easy step to teaching social studies once her children were in school.

She earned her master's degree in education from Rutgers and has since completed more than 30 additional hours in history.

Her 17 years in Mountainside have found her teaching social studies for 13 years, and then initiating the gifted and talented studies at Deerfield School. Begun four years ago as a pilot program, the "G-T" workshops and activities have been expanded each year. In 1979-80, she was named Enrichment Coordinator and relinquished her last social studies class.

will receive no credit for that course. An excused absence is missing class because of a death in the family, for a school related function, such as a field trip, or for a prolonged illness, more than five days, accompanied by a doctor's note. If a student fails a course, he will remain in that course for the remainder of the class and has the option of making it up in summer school. This applies to all students, regardless of their class grades or teacher recommendations.

According to Pereira, the policy has been working quite effectively. Not many people have failed, while the monthly attendance, for every month since September, has shown an improvement over the 1980-81 year. For example, the April attendance for ninth-graders this year was 93 per cent after being 92 per cent in 1980. The

IRENE BUCHNER

"I have loved being with the students," she says. "I've enjoyed knowing almost every child in Mountainside, as they all came through my 'clutches' at some time. I remember that one year I taught 176 kids during the course of the week. Even though the number of students was large, in some ways teaching was easier then. You were more free of paperwork and could concentrate on teaching."

Her teaching memories include some highly competitive academic quiz games in social studies and her part in beginning the Olympics of the Mind competition and the school's participation in the Johns Hopkins Talent Search, where seventh-graders along the Eastern seaboard take the Scholastic Achievement Test.

All three teachers have ample plans to fill their retirement, with increased travel a common denominator.

Herron plans to pursue her varied interests in reading, knitting, photography, calligraphy, sewing and the piano. She contemplates a return to playing the cello and looks forward to more time to enjoy her two grandsons.

Porter looks forward to exercising in the morning rather than after dinner, and she plans to spend time with her grandchildren, all nine of them. She will take golf lessons and is considering going back to school.

Buchner has her mind cast toward a possible third career as an advocate for juvenile rights, and is considering entering law school. Her travels in the past have included every continent except Australia, and she has already planned a trip to the Northwest for the summer and a European trip for the fall.

All three teachers will be very much missed in the Mountainside schools, but their accomplishments and dedication to the students have left a lasting mark on the lives of many.

They were applauded at the PTA luncheon with fond farewell remarks and gifts from the Board of Education, fellow staff members, and the PTA, in addition to the fine food prepared and served by PTA members.

sophomore attendance percentage was 93.4 per cent up from 92.8 per cent last year. Juniors were in school 92.6 per cent this April after being in school only 91.3 per cent of the time in 1981. And finally, senior attendance was up to 88.6 per cent this year from 86.4 per cent last year.

Most teachers at Dayton are in favor of keeping this attendance policy, believing that it helps the students get a better education. However, there were slight problems that had to be dealt with in this first trial year. One such problem may be that five days is too long a minimum for excused absences.

All in all though, the administration is pleased with the policy. Besides helping to build responsibility, it also makes their jobs much easier. A teacher cannot teach if the student is not in school. They do not look at the policy as a form of punishment and believe that nine days per semester is a generous number of absences.

A negative side effect of the policy is that many students who have absences left at the end of the semester feel that they should use them all and take extra days off from school.

Also included in the attendance policy is a section dealing with students who arrive late without an excuse. The policy states that one such incident will result in one day of office detention and the second incident and all following will be punishable by one day in Saturday school.

The policy was put into effect in compliance with a state mandate, requiring an attendance policy. The actual writing of the policy was left up to the principals, vice principals and superintendents of each school.

Mall revenues would reach a million by '85

By PHILIP HARTMAN

Annual tax revenues of about $1 million would be generated by a retail center at the site of the proposed Bamberger's-Alexander's shopping mall, according to a professional planner who appeared before the township Planning Board on June 23.

Peter Abelies, representing the development company of General Growth of Des Moines, Iowa, explained that those revenues would be realized by 1985. The township would receive $212,000; county, $197,000; local schools, $325,000, and the regional high schools, $266,000.

Industrial development of the land off Route 22 and South Springfield Avenue would generate about $67,000 by 1985, Abelies figured.

Not only would the tax revenues be larger with a retail center, but they would be generated in a shorter time, the planner contended.

Basing his figures on the current tax rate, Abelies reasoned that an industrial complex would yield less money as it is developed lot by lot while a retail center would develop the entire 52-acre tract as a single plan.

"A regional center is not built in pieces, but as a single unit in time," he said.

Explaining his testimony, the planner said the township could reasonably expect to have four acres of industrially developed land at the site by 1985. Allowing for roads, land and parking one third of the area would amount to approximately 72,000-square-feet of building space.

The 85-store, bi-level center would cover 725,000-square-feet.

The board also questioned Abelies if industrial development was about one acre per year, would it take 52 years to complete the site.

Abelies' response was it would not take that long, but said: "Assume it took 26 years to develop with two individual units per year; in 13 years (it would be developed) half way."

He warned the township may not be able to afford to wait that long to realize the revenues. "The tax base will shrink, but what Springfield will need to continue the quality of life ... will be increasingly difficult to pay for."

However, board members reasoned that the revenues may be larger but township services for a retail center, including police and fire protection, would annually cost the township additional tax money.

The cost of a retail center to the township would be $60,000 annually while an industrial park would require $17,000 in services, Abelies said.

Board member Robert Weltchek asked how the $60,000 figure was arrived at by Abelies. The planner said he calculated the need for additional personnel, but said the township "won't be adding new buildings, hardware or equipment."

Abelies also agreed with Weltchek that the mall would increase the cost of operating the Municipal Court.

Robert Podvey, attorney for the applicants, said an expert will be brought before the board to testify on services the township would have to supply.

From the audience, Westfield Town Councilman Garland Booth also said he was concerned with the costs of services. He argued that Westfield and Cranford would not receive any taxes from the mall, but would have to provide additional police and fire services because of the center's location near the border of those towns.

The Westfield Town Council voted June 22 to spend $20,000 in an emergency appropriation to aid community opposition against construction of the mall.

Audience members in favor of the center claimed it would financially benefit the town.

According to Mike Bufo of Henshaw Avenue the additional services would be worth the added cost to the town considering the construction jobs created by the center.

Robert Cull of Battle Hill Avenue said the mall would be a convenience for residents and with the completion of Route 78, traffic congestion caused by the mall would be eased.

The next hearing of the application will be at 7:30 p.m. July 21 at the Florence Gaudinier School. A witness representing Bamberger's and Alexander's may testify then on whether the site was offered for sale as industrial since it was bought by the applicants.

Podvey told the board the property was listed for sale sometime between 1975 to 1977, but the applicants never received an offer for it.

County unit warns on use of fireworks

The Union County Division of Consumer Affairs warns that for years fireworks present a serious safety hazard, particularly to children. Ellen Bloom, director, adds that "Deaths, blindings, amputations and severe burns have been all too often the result of fireworks misuse. Last year over 11,000 people were treated for injuries associated with fireworks — three fourths of the injured were less than 25 years of age."

Robert P. Horner III of the Union County Arson Investigative Squad warns consumers that all fireworks are prohibited in the state of New Jersey.

The only exceptions are paper caps that do not contain in excess of 25/100ths of a grain of explosive content per cap, or auto flares usually used in cases of car breakdowns.

Bloom requests that all incidents of fireworks without the proper license or authorization be reported to local fire departments. "Remember that fireworks are not toys for children, she said. The sparkler, considered by many as the ideal safe firework for the young, burns at a very high temperature and can easily ignite clothing. Children cannot appreciate the danger involved and cannot act correctly in case of emergency. When clothing ignites on a child, the usual reaction is to run to the aid of an adult, causing even greater damage."

Citizens group seeks volunteers

A group of citizens in Mountainside calling itself "Concerned Citizens for Mountainside" has taken it upon itself to maintain the well-kept nature of the borough.

The group meets at 8 a.m. Saturday and works for two to three hours cutting grass and picking up debris at intersections along Route 22.

The group is composed entirely of volunteers and seeks more volunteers to join the effort.

Those wishing to volunteer have been asked to come to the firehouse on new Providence Road any Saturday at 8 a.m.

Special events planned at borough pool Sunday

The Mountainside Community Pool will hold its annual July 4th Holiday Program Sunday.

Swimming events — 50-foot and 50-meter freestyle, under water swim, treading water and an obstacle course — will be contested in 10-and-under and 11-through-14 age groups, beginning at 11 a.m.

Afternoon events will include the Pepsi-Cola "Hot Shot Shootout," at 1 p.m. on the basketball court adjacent to the pool parking lot, followed by horseshoes, shuffleboard and a men's free-throw shooting contest. Mixed volleyball games will be held at the conclusion of the basketball contest.

Ribbons will be awarded to first-, second- and third-place finishers in each event.

Pre-registration is not required, but sign-ups are being taken by the secretary at the pool. There is no charge for these events. Further information is available from the secretary at the pool.

Holiday closing

Our offices will be closed Monday in observance of Independence Day. Because of the holiday, it is particularly important that all copy be received by the deadline of 5 p.m. today.

Iaione's bat leads boys to 9-3 record

MOUNTAINSIDE—An unbelievable performance by Darren Iaione led the Deerfield boys' baseball team to a 9-3 season record.

Iaione batted .750, connecting on 27 out of 36 tries, and drew 11 walks. His hits included three home runs, three triples, and six doubles, and he garnered 26 RBIs. He stole 26 bases, scored 19 runs and struck out only twice in the entire season.

"I can't say enough about Darren's outstanding play," says Coach Ed Sjonell, "but his record speaks for itself."

The depth of the team's hitting was equally incredible, with eleven other team members batting over .300.

One of those hitters, Steve Burton, who batted .321, led the pitching staff with 5 wins and 1 loss. He held the Kumpf team to two hits, and he boostered his pitching efforts as a batsman, with 11 walks and 11 RBIs.

Other leading hitters were Kevin Everly, .563; Duane Connell, .556; Mike Wood, .476; Chris Dooley, .462; Billy Quandt, .444; Steve Birnhak, .429; Jim Clifford, .375; Shane Connell, .367; Robbie O'Neill, .333; and Dave Martignetti, .333.

Wood contributed two wins as a pitcher. Catcher Greg Torborg had 10 RBIs. Everly had 9, Shane Connell had 8, and Myles Carter, 7.

The coach felt the team played together well, for a real team effort. He praised defensive standouts Carter and Torborg, along with Marc Franciosa, Tom Jackson, Tom Genkinger, and Mark Walters.

Outstanding seventh-graders who will return next year are Everly, Duane Connell, Quandt, and Martignetti.

In Assembly

On the same day the Assembly gave final legislative approval to New Jersey's new death penalty statute, a jury in Washington found John Hinckley not guilty of attempted murder in his shooting of President Reagan, Jim Brady and others.

The legislature cited "deterrent to crime" as its reason for approving the death penalty, and the jury cited "insanity" in refusing to convict Hinckley. I disagree with both.

It happens I was ill when the death penalty vote was taken, but, had I been in Trenton, I would have voted no. In addition to moral grounds, my vote would have reflected my disagreement with those who believe a death penalty statute will deter the criminal. There is no clear evidence one way or the other. In fact, Connecticut has had the statute for many years, no one has been executed for some 22 years and that state continues to suffer its share of murders just as we do.

AAUW to join demonstration

MOUNTAINSIDE—New Jersey members of the American Association of University Women, including the Mountainside branch, and other national organizations, such as the League of Women Voters, New Jersey Organization for the Women's Plan of Action, YWCA, Women's Political Caucus, Labor Unions and NOW, will gather today at noon at the state capitol building to demonstrate their support for principals of equality for women and the formation of a new nationwide network on related issues, to be called A NEW DAY: BEYOND ERA.

The date coincides with the first day past the deadline for the ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment and signals the beginning of a new period of intensified vigor in the historic and continuing struggle for women's rights, according to a spokeswoman for the Mountainside AAUW.

"We have invited all persons interested in the cause of equity to join the other organizations in launching this new and important network," she said.

Many members and state officers of the groups and state officials will join the demonstration, the spokeswoman said.

Tests to screen hypertension

MOUNTAINSIDE—The Board of Health will conduct a blood pressure screening clinic from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. tomorrow in the Courtroom of the Municipal Building on Route 22.

"There are some 23 million Americans who have high blood pressure and at least 30 percent are unaware they have it," a spokesman for the board said. "High blood pressure most often does not produce any symptoms or discomfort."

According to the spokesman, persons should be screened for high blood pressure if they are 35 years old or older; have not had their blood pressure check in a year or longer; are not under the care of a physician for high blood pressure; have a family history of high blood pressure, and have stopped taking blood pressure medication without their physician's approval.

The spokesman emphasized the procedure is a screening test only; a confirmed diagnosis can be made only by a physician. Anyone found to have an elevated reading will be referred to his or her family physician for a confirmed diagnosis and follow-up.

Firm announces total purchases

MOUNTAINSIDE—Western Electric, the manufacturing and supply unit of the Bell System, purchased $7,899,560 in supplies and service from borough firms in 1981.

In Union County alone, according to a spokesman for N.J. Bell, the company paid out more than $50,046,498 to local suppliers.

Maureen Ogden

I was impressed by the point made during the debate that the new death penalty statute will cost the taxpayers more than $16 million annually, reflecting the cost of the "double trials" which will not be the law in murder cases. Persuasive arguments were made that that money could be effectively used to curb some of the underlying causes of crime such as drug, alcohol and child abuse, jobs creation, etc. I was also impressed by the point, conceded by the proponents of the bill, that it would weigh most heavily on the poor who are often represented less ably than the wealthy.

I disagree strongly with our laws that fostered the Hinckley verdict. It is simply unthinkable that a man could shoot the President of the United States in front of scores of witnesses, be found not guilty and walk the streets a free man six months later. It is time we abolished the insanity plea as a defense in murder cases and I have co-sponsored legislation to accomplish that in New Jersey by amending our Criminal Code. I believe guilt or innocence should be established by the facts of the case with the mental competence of the accused to be considered only at the time of sentencing.

Identifying gifted subject of lecture

The methods and theories involved in the identification of giftedness and creativity in children was the topic of a talk by Dr. Marianne Rippe, Westfield psychologist, at a parent information meeting sponsored by The Linn Hill School, Westfield.

The school, designed to meet the special needs of gifted children in grades one to six, held its first information program June 15. The school will open in September for the 1982-83 academic year.

Rippe, a practicing clinical psychologist, is the consulting and testing psychologist for the school. She discussed the identification of the gifted child and intelligence and associational style as determinants of creativity in children.

It was announced that Linn Hill School students will be involved in an independent research study by Dr. John Michael Murphy, formerly of the Harvard University Graduate School of Education. The study will follow the effects of the tutorial method and the homogeneous group on elementary academic achievement in identified gifted students.

It also was announced that the school will purchase a computer for the classroom which will be used for mathematics enrichment and general studies for all grade levels. All students will receive special computer instruction in a fall workshop, one of a series of special workshops the school will offer throughout the year.

Franks: Death penalty will work as deterrent

Assemblyman Bob Franks of Berkeley Heights said today his vote in favor of re-establishing the death penalty in New Jersey reflects his "overriding concern" regarding rising crime statistics and his belief that the statute will be a deterrent to murder.

The Assembly gave final legislative approval to the death penalty bill by a vote of 54-19 last week.

Franks said both sides gave persuasive argument during the 4 1/2 hour debate on the Assembly floor and that every legislator "agonized" over the vote.

"I believe every Senator and Assemblyman considered the vote to be among the most important of their legislative careers," Franks said. "That was certainly the case with me."

Franks said the bill provides for two trials in every murder case. The first establishes guilt or innocence of the offense and the second determines if the death penalty is warranted in the particular case.

"The majority of members in both legislative Houses agreed with me that adequate safeguards are built into the bill to assure the death penalty will be invoked in only the most heinous situations," Franks said. "In those cases, or where a 'contract' is involved in the murder, I believe the penalty fits the crime."

TRENCH MOUTH

Trench mouth (also known as Vincent's Infection) is an inflamed infection of the gums with the formation of ulcers. It is often accompanied by fever and a "blah" feeling. The bacteria which cause the trench-mouth infection are found in the mouths of all of us, so anyone can get it under the right circumstances. These factors include the neglect of oral hygiene, lack of sleep, alcoholic excess, poor nutrition and stress. That is probably why so many of our soldiers had this disease during World War I, when it became known as "trench mouth."

In contrast to other types of gum disease which develop over a long period of time, in trench mouth, the gums become swollen, tender and sore suddenly. While the bacteria of trench mouth are always present in the mouth, infection takes place only when general resistance is lowered and oral hygiene is poor.

If the symptoms of trench mouth occur, see your dentist at once. The disease is helped by antibiotic treatment in its early stages, but the most effective treatment is thorough and repeated dental cleanings and home care.

Summit Y offering conditioning classes

The Summit Area YMCA has invited junior and senior high school girls and boys interested in improving their sports performance to join its summer weight training and conditioning programs. Using the Y's universal gyms, running track, weight training equipment and YMCA professional know-how, a spokesman said, athletes active in all kinds of sports will find that their performance can be improved remarkably.

The Y also has announced it will be host for two soccer coaches from Haiti this summer who are coming through the sponsorship of the New Jersey/Haiti Partners of the Americas organization. They will be joining the YMCA professional staff in teaching a soccer clinic at Memorial Field in Summit July 26 to July 30. The Soccer clinic, available in either half-day or full-day sessions, will focus on both individual and team skills with a daily scrimmage game to practice in team situations.

The conditioning classes — two six-week sessions are offered — are scheduled to begin the week of July 12: Boys on Mondays and Wednesdays from 3 to 4 p.m., and Girls on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 3 to 4 p.m. An optional free recreational swim in the Y pool is offered after the conditioning class.

"Everyone, including highly skilled, well-trained athletes, can make tremendous gains and improve their performance through weight training and overall body conditioning," comments Ron Coleman, YMCA Physical Director. "This program is designed to concentrate on getting maximum performance from your muscles for a specific sport. If you want to be a better skier or basketball, football, or tennis player next fall, come to the Y now and let us show you how to develop your potential."

Registration began Monday. There are still spaces left in all the YMCA SPORTS CLINICS for boys and girls entering grades 1-7. In addition to soccer, clinics also are offered in lacrosse, basketball, baseball and gymnastics.

More details and registration information is available from the Y at 273-3330 or the Berkeley Heights Branch Y at 464-8373.

"New Jersey consumers are fortunate that a person of Mrs. Romano's demonstrated ability and commitment has accepted this post," Barry said.

Until Romano accepted the new post, she was treasurer and corporate secretary for Commercial Refinishers, Inc. of Springfield and served as legislative aide to state Senator Louis Bassano, R-21.

Red Cross to conduct blood drive Saturday

The Summit Area chapter of the American Red Cross, in cooperation with New Jersey Blood Services, will host a blood drive on Saturday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The drive, which is being held as part of the Summit-Summer Fair, will take place on Springfield Avenue. A Bloodmobile will be on site for donors.

Ann Farrow, blood program chairperson for the Summit Red Cross, noted the importance of this particular drive's scheduling. "Because most people will be celebrating a long July 4 weekend," Farrow said, "blood supplies are expected to become a very low. To ensure against a shortage, we want to encourage area residents to make an extra special effort to donate a pint of blood before they leave on vacations."

The greatest demand throughout the summer will be for Type O Negative blood. O Negative is known as the "Universal Donor" and is used when other blood types are in short supply. Donors who possess Type O Negative are requested to donate blood at the July 3 drive or to arrange to donate blood later in the summer. Donors can safely give blood every 56 days, the time required for the system to replace all the components taken during a donation.

Anyone between the ages of 17 and 66, weighing at least 110 pounds and in good health, can donate. Seventeen-year-olds require the written consent of a parent or guardian to donate; donors 66 and older must have permission of a physician to give blood. For further information, contact the Summit Area Red Cross at 273-2076, or call NJBS at 828-9101.

'Echoes' from heart are aid in diagnosis

In much the same way that a bat sends out beams which rebound from the body of a moth to reveal the moth's shape and location, the state's most technically advanced two-dimensional echocardiograph at Saint Barnabas Medical Center, Livingston, records the dimensions and movement of the structures of the heart. This method provides physicians with information about the interior of the heart that was previously available only through surgery.

Valve or heart wall damage, enlargement of heart chambers and the presence of heart disease or tumors can be diagnosed from high frequency sound waves which pass painlessly through the chest. The "echoes" bounce off the heart structures based on their absorptive characteristics. The image they produce appears in a cross-sectional slice of different views and is recorded on a screen or on specially treated paper. A permanent record can be maintained on videotape.

"Previous techniques show a graph of the heart's motion in relation to time, but not an interior picture of the heart," said Robert Thorsen, associate director of applied clinical technology. "For example, conventional x-rays project only the silhouette of the heart. As a result, the presence of many heart diseases or problems cannot be visualized by x-ray. In addition, the echocardiograph does not emit radiation."

Echocardiograms are performed by registered echocardiograph technicians under the supervision of physicians who are specially trained in this procedure. A patient lies on an examining table in the cardiac testing laboratory and adhesive discs are placed on three areas of the chest. There is no preparation for the procedure, which requires about 30 minutes to perform. All results are interpreted and diagnosed by a cardiologist. This procedure is available to hospital patients and to outpatients by physician referral.

"The information obtained is so extensive that the need for additional tests is frequently eliminated," Thorsen said. "The result is less anxiety and discomfort and lower costs. The speed of administering this test makes it particularly beneficial for seriously ill or difficult patients."

The cardiac testing laboratory performed 36,126 non-invasive, diagnostic tests last year. Other areas of diagnostic testing include stress tests, pacemaker evaluations, electrocardiograms and halter monitors.

MAKING WAVES — Kathy Koeller of Union, a special testing technologist in the department of applied clinical technology at Saint Barnabas Medical Center, Livingston, monitors the dimensions and movement of the structures of the heart on the state's most technically advanced two dimensional echocardiograph.

Rutgers offers credit for prior learning

College credit for prior learning, including job-related knowledge, is now offered in a new program at University College-Newark, one of the evening undergraduate colleges at Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey.

Students at the college may earn up to 45 credits toward a degree for prior college-level knowledge. This knowledge can be demonstrated by taking an examination or assembling a portfolio of evidence.

"Many adults have gained a great deal of highly advanced knowledge during the course of their careers," said Dr. Charles Nanry, dean of University College-Newark. "If this knowledge is equivalent to what they could learn in a college classroom, then it certainly deserves to be recognized."

By combining credits earned in this way with evening classwork, Dean Nanry added, students can obtain a bachelor's degree in one of the following disciplines: accounting, criminal justice, education, economics, English, labor studies, management, marketing, mathematics, philosophy, political science, psychology, social work, sociology, Spanish or urban studies.

Inquiries on the program may be directed to assistant dean Marc Mapen at 648-5952.

HILP program offers low-cost financing

If your summer dreams include visions of a new look for your old house, the N.J. Mortgage Finance Agency's Home Improvement Loan Program can help make your dreams come true. The Home Improvement Loan Program (HILP) provides low-cost financing for owners to make improvements on their one-to-four unit homes.

In Nutley, the Delfuto residence received a facelift as well as some other major improvements with financing help from HILP. "We thought we couldn't afford to get everything done at once. Then we found out we could qualify for HILP," according to Mrs. Delfuto.

The Delfuto's added a new front porch and aluminum steel siding to their home; they also replaced their worn out furnace and closed in some screen windows.

"Our neighbors say it looks like a different house," said Mrs. Delfuto, "and we are very satisfied."

The HILP loan was made through Carteret Savings and Loan Association, one of 81 lending institutions in the state that participate in the program.

HILP loans carry an interest rate of 14.65 percent and can be repaid over a period as long as 15 years. The combination of below-market interest rate and long-term produce a low monthly payment.

Homeowners who occupy a one-to-four unit residential property, are credit worthy and meet the program's income limits can apply for a HILP loan of up to $15,000. Any improvement which will eliminate health and safety hazards, conserve energy and improve the livability of the property is eligible.

More than 12 million dollars in loan funds are still available through participating lenders. For a complete list of the other participating lenders and further information on the program contact the N.J. Mortgage Finance Agency, 1180 Raymond Boulevard, Newark, New Jersey 07102 (201) 648-2774.

The N.J. Mortgage Finance Agency is an independent state agency which provides home improvement and mortgage financing through the sale of tax-exempt mortgage revenue bonds. No state appropriations are used to fund the Agency or its programs.

Veterans office lists new mortgage plan

James R. Purdy, director of the Newark Veterans Administration Regional Office, has outlined a recent innovation in mortgage financing.

The director said that although traditional 30-year mortgages continue to be most advantageous to veteran-borrowers, one innovative financing procedure known as the GEM (Growing Equity Mortgage) appears to offer certain favorable aspects to both borrower and lender.

The GEM plan provides for a gradual increase in monthly payments, with all of the increase being applied to the principal balance, resulting in a relatively rapid accumulation of equity and an accelerated maturity.

The GEM plans typically provide for a 30-year loan maturity. However, the principal balance reduction caused by payment may be fixed or tied to an appropriate index.

Under one GEM plan, the monthly payments to principal and interest for the first year are based on the standard amortization plan for a 30-year mortgage. Beginning with the second year and continuing through the 10th year, the monthly payments are increased by three percent each year. From the 11th year onward, the payments to principal and interest remain constant. The escalating reduction in the principal balance results in a payoff of the loan in the sixteenth year based on an interest rate of 12 7/8 percent.

The director said another GEM plan bases payment increases on a percentage of a Commerce Department index that measures per capita, after tax disposable personal income in the United States.

MOST PEOPLE SPEND MORE TIME SHOPPING FOR A $50 LAMP THAN A $50,000 LOAN.

Let's say you need a new lamp. You go to a few stores. Check out different styles. Compare all the prices. And after that, you make a decision. A well thought-out decision.

The funny thing is, a lot of people don't take the same time and care when they shop for a homeowner loan. They go to one lender and learn about one loan. Which is why a lot of people end up paying more than they should.

The fact is, the cost of the same loan can vary greatly from lender to lender. That's why at HFC, we feel you owe it to yourself to shop around. It's the only way to be really sure you're getting the best deal. And it's the best way to really see what HFC can offer you.

Start with a little arithmetic. First sit down with a pencil and paper and work out a rough estimate of how much equity you have in your home. Equity is the amount of money you get when you sell a home, after paying off your mortgage. Just subtract the amount you still owe on your home (your last mortgage statement should have this information) from what you could sell it for today. Check newspaper real estate ads or ask neighbors what similar homes in the area have sold for.

The amount you get is your equity. And most homeowner loans could be as high as $50,000,* depending on your equity.

How to shop. Now make some calls. You can check with consumer finance companies, banks, and savings and loans. Call at least three places.

And find out exactly how much of a loan you could get. How much your monthly costs would be. And what the actual cost would be.

A few pluses about an HFC Equity + Loan Naturally, if we've been encouraging you to shop around, we must feel rather good about our HFC homeowner loan.

We do. It's called the HFC Equity + Loan. The + is because you get the use of your money plus all the financial expertise HFC has built up for over 100 years. Every HFC manager goes through special Equity + training to answer all your questions clearly and completely. If an Equity + Loan is the best loan to suit your needs, you'll know it. And you'll see why so many people have made a tradition of counting on HFC.

Give us a call. If you would like to discuss an Equity + Loan give us a call or stop in at any of our offices. Please look in The Yellow Pages to locate the office most convenient for you. The way we figure it, the more you know, the more you'll know to come to HFC.

*In New Jersey, loans above $2,500 are secondary mortgage loans.

State council plans to quiz candidates

The executive board of the New Jersey Industrial Union Council, AFL-CIO has voted unanimously to prepare a series of issues to be presented by a special screening committee to the Democratic and Republican candidates for the U.S. Senate from New Jersey, it was announced by Maurice M. Veneri, president.

"Once the issues have been formulated, they will be mailed to Frank Lautenberg, the Democratic candidate, and Millicent Fenwick, the Republican candidate," he added. "These issues will be so framed as to demand specific answers to specific problems so that we can avoid glittering generalities and soft soap, which of times are substituted as responses to nagging questions."

"Following the submission of these 'issue papers,' the candidates will then be invited to an enlarged executive board meeting of the IUC, where their answers will be solicited, recorded and weighed."

"There executive board will then make its decision for the candidate whose specific responses deal most effectively with the problems at hand."

"Glamour and bankrolls will play no part in our selection. What we want to do is to ascertain which candidate will be best for working people and best for New Jersey."

"Once we have the answer, we will spread the word among our 200,000 affiliated members."

The screening committee will be made up of representatives from the United Automobile Workers, the International Union of Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers, the Communication Workers of America, the Amalgamated Clothing and Textile Workers Union, the Newark Teachers Union, the International Ladies' Garment Workers Union, the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers, the American Federation of Government Employees, the Service Employees International Union, the Retail, Wholesale Department Store Union, the United Furniture Workers of America, the Women's Affirmative Action Committee and the Committee of Interns and Residents.

Insure finances before sorrow

By GWEN WARANIS
Extension Home Economist

Death is not a pleasant thought, particularly death of a much-loved husband. But, it is an important subject for wives to consider, especially those who work mainly in the home. It is vital to plan now to insure financial stability should your spouse die. Here are some guidelines on which to base your plan:

1. Both you and your husband should have a will to insure that your estate is divided and distributed as you wish.
2. Prepare a list of important documents and where they are kept. This includes bank accounts by number and branch office; insurance policies such as health and disability, group insurance from work, G.I. and homeowners insurance; birth and marriage, citizenship and military records; and ownership papers for stocks and bonds and other investments. You should also know the names, addresses, and phone numbers of your insurance agents, attorney, and any other legal or financial advisors.

3. Have a savings or checking account in your name enough to cover daily expenses for a few weeks. This gives you and your family something to live on while your estate is being settled.

4. Take your turn at balancing the checkbook, filling out tax returns, paying the monthly bills, balancing the budget, or whatever financial tasks you usually leave to your husband.

5. In the same vein, try your hand at the various household and automotive jobs your spouse usually takes care of. Learn now how to change the car's oil, or fix a leaky faucet.

Following these guidelines should make it easier to live without a spouse.

Post 228, Roselle play to 3-3 county league tie

By BOB BRUCKNER
Big baseball games are nothing new to Springfield American Legion Post 228's powerful team.

Post 228 came through with a pair of important wins in the Tri-County Baseball Tournament last weekend in Springfield and then followed that up with a top effort against Roselle, the No. 1 team in the Union County American Legion Baseball League.

First of all, the Legion reached the Tri-County Tournament finals by defeating Caldwell, 4-2, last Saturday in the quarterfinals and then edging Florham Park-Madison, 2-1, in Sunday's semifinals.

Captain Harry Weirnerman's team now meets Scotch Plains in Sunday's title game at 10 a.m. at Ruby Field.

Also last week, Post 228 traveled to Linden and routed the hosts, 14-2. John Baumgartner started for Springfield and held Linden to just three hits in just five innings, before giving way to reliever Larry Zavodny.

The winners put the game away early, scoring eight times in the second inning, and followed that with six more in the seventh. Kirk Yogy's two-run double was a key hit, as was a double by Barry Blackwell. Six straight singles scored all the runs in the seventh.

Against Caldwell, the winners scored three in the first and were helped by key defensive plays by Vinnie Cocchia and Paul Clarke. Pitchers Frank Gagliano and Larry Twill were the beneficiaries of the tough fielding.

Then the next day, Springfield went extra innings before beating Florham-Madison behind the strong pitching of Jeff Kopyta. The Brearley hurler pitched a three-hitter while walking only two and striking out 12.

After the visitors scored in the first on consecutive doubles, Baumgartner's home run tied the score. Then in the eighth, Blackwell singled home Gagliano with the winning run.

The week's victories brought Post 228's record to 4-1 in the Union County American Legion Baseball League and 15-3 overall. The team's earned run average is 1.34, thanks in part to 158 strikeouts in just 130 innings. And at the plate, Fran Broskoskie leads the team with a .515 average.

And those three victories set up a big showdown between Springfield and unbeaten Roselle on Monday in Roselle. The result was a 3-3 tie, as the game was called because of darkness.

Post 228 fell behind 1-0 in the first but got to Roselle ace Jay Perez in the third when John Cocchia walked and David Crane and Kirk Yogy came through with clutch singles.

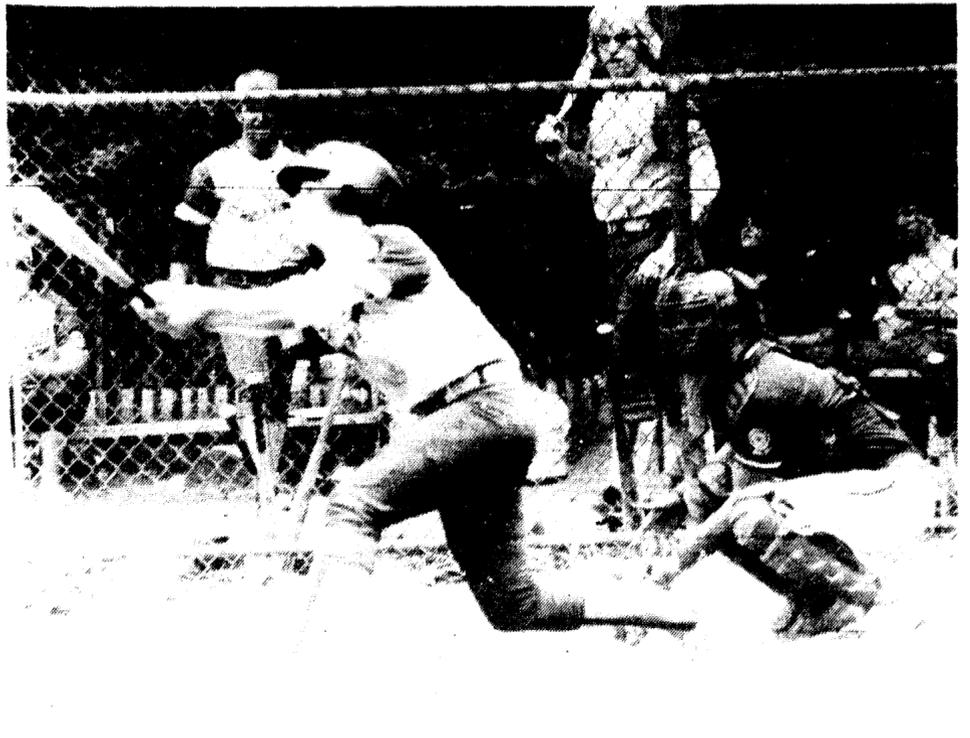

Springfield made it 3-1 in the sixth on Baumgartner's single, Blackwell's double and Broskoskie's two-run single. Roselle managed to tie the game in the seventh on a pair of doubles.

"Both teams are loaded with talent," said Post 228 assistant coach Mel Vargas. "The entire game was very well-played by both teams."

The tie kept Roselle (6-0-1) in first place in the Union County league, with Springfield (4-1-1) right behind and followed by Union and Scotch Plains.

"Every team is ready to play well against us," Vargas said. "There are no easy touches in this league at all."

Springfield won't see any easy touches on Saturday when they compete in the Meadowlands tournament in Secaucus against South Amboy. And on Sunday, they'll shoot for the Tri-County Tournament title.

North loses all-star game, 16-7

Lots of fun in the sun for Parent

By WAYNE TILLMAN

The fact that the North lost to the South, 16-7, last Saturday in the fourth annual New Jersey High School All-Star Game at Rutgers Stadium didn't mean that much to Dayton's Jack Parent and some of the other area players who competed on the North squad.

The fact that they truly enjoyed themselves was more important. It was a fun week for all as they played with and against the best high school football players in the state.

"It was a lot of fun," said Roselle Park's Mike Shriner, summing up the week's activities. "It helped get me back in the groove and get ready to play at New Hampshire."

Shriner is the second Park player to play in this game. His brother, Bob, played fullback in the very first one. Mike made seven tackles on defense, punted twice for a 30-yard average and excelled on the very hot day.

Mike also was bestowed with the honor of being named one of the North's co-captains, along with Tim Doherty of Bergen Catholic, Roger Remo of Mahwah and Jeff Lucas of Hackensack.

Shriner alternated with Dayton's Parent at linebacker. Parent also shined with a couple of tackles and fine overall play in the middle. He was a major force in Dayton's best football season in years last fall and helped the Bulldogs get to the Section II, Group II final against Hackettstown.

The all-Mountain Valley Conference and all-state honoree will continue his academic career across the country at Stanford University in California.

Another area player who sparkled on defense was Linden's Troy Stratford, who spent the afternoon at defensive back despite playing most of the high school season at tailback.

"It was really nice, I enjoyed it," he said. "It wasn't easy learning to play with 40 other guys for a week, but we did and had a good time at it. I never laughed this much before," he added.

It wasn't a nice way to close a high school career by losing, but he will have a chance to do some winning next fall when he goes to Boston College, where he will play tailback.

Tom Wilk, the big (6-5, 245) lineman from Union, called playing in the game "a good experience." "These are really super guys and great to be around," he said. "I had only wished we could have won."

Next fall, he enrolls at a school that knows all about winning: Penn State.

"I really like everything about PSU," said Wilk, who reports on Aug. 10, "Coach (Joe) Paterno plans on using me a tackle and I am looking forward to playing for him."

One player who didn't have as good a game as he wished was Brearley's talented Steve Ondrof, a 1,000-yard runner this year when the Bears won the sectional Group I championship and posted an undefeated record. The starting punter, he kicked three times for a total of 36 yards and had another partially blocked. He also carried for little yardage.

"I have to expect those things," he said. "But practicing was very tough, what with graduation and all. I just ate, slept and played football in between. But these are good people to be with and it was a good week."

"It's been a thrill coaching in a game like this and working with great kids," added his coach, Brearley's Bob Taylor, who was one of the state's top coaches this year.

All in all, everyone agreed, it was more a week of enjoyment more than a week of work.

Bland single ruins DiPalma bid for no-hitter in softball league

Ben DiPalma tossed a one-hitter last week in the Springfield Men's Softball League as Shallcross/Creative shut out the Knights of Columbus, 4-0.

Leadoff hitter Jeff Bland's single in the first was the lone hit by the losers, as DiPalma faced just 23 batters. Bob Renga and Roy Devries had two hits each for the winners, with the latter smacking a two-run homer in the third.

Custom Floors scored four runs in the bottom of the seventh inning to nip Ehrhardt TV, 9-8. John Powell led off the seventh with a hit, followed by singles from Pete Pepe and Ron Scoputullo. Ed Johnson then doubled home Powell for the winning tally.

Frank Pulice was the winning pitcher. Ehrhardt was paced by three hits by Rob Dempster and two by Jeff Vargas.

Libco scored five times in the second inning and held on to defeat M and M Automotive, 5-4. Steve Libonotti, Tom Bay, Rich Jacobs, Trip Davis and Tom Stillman all hit safely in the big frame. Neil Kamler was the winning hurler. Ira Tauber and David Cohen had two hits each for the losers.

Masco Sports defeated Master Blaster, 9-4, as Harry Kolb had two hits, one of them a three-run homer. Also hitting safely for the victors were Ed Graziano, Jim Maxwell, Ken Palazzi and Joe Pepe, Sr. Ray Schramm was the winning pitcher. Carlos Olivera had two hits for Master Blaster.

M and M bounced back to rip Master Blaster, 18-4, as Bob Bohrod had three hits, including a three-run homer. Stuart Falkin, Steve Max and Keith Brovlie each had two hits. Neil Berger pitched a three-hitter to get the win. Eric Wasserman homered for the losers.

In the week's final game, Custom Floors banged out 13 hits in an 8-4 win over Shallcross. Ron Scoputullo had three hits for Custom, while Frank Zahn, Ed Johnson and Dave Lauffoff chipped in with two hits each behind winning pitcher Bob Esposito. Roy Devries had two hits for Shallcross.

Hamilton and Fichera team up for town tennis championship

Maureen Hamilton and Jim Fichera teamed up to win a two-hour struggle over Larry Malin and Carole Littenberg for the Springfield mixed doubles championship and to advance to the sectional tourney of the Lipton Mixed Doubles Championship on Aug. 8 at Tennis World in Caldwell.

The scores of the hard-fought final were 6-4, 5-7 and 6-1 for Hamilton and Fichera, who advanced to that match with a 6-1, 6-4 victory over Regina and Sy Kahn. The Kahns reached the semifinals by ousting Susie and Donald Eng. Littenberg and Malin reached the finals by stopping Doris and Harold Bass, 6-3, 6-2.

Championship trophies, donated by the Springfield Recreation Department, were presented to the four finalists.

In other local tennis action, Moun-tainville posted a 3-1 victory over the B team of Springfield's women's program. Marie Morrocco and Ojoaj Chung were the only winners for Springfield, while Claire Falkin, Julie Liem, Shirley Ross, Eve Buzin, Arlene Diamond and Corinne Kay all played well.

Springfield's A team suffered its first loss of the season last Monday, falling to Summit, 4-0, in a Suburban Women's Tennis League match.

The women did knock off Edison, 3-1, and New Providence, 4-0, last week.

Lucy DeVries and Simone Gechlik teamed up for a 6-7, 6-2, 4-3 win against Edison. Lucille Clunie and Marlene Koonz won by scores of 6-4, 3-6, 6-2 and Susie Eng and Sylvia Kosnett triumphed, 6-1, 6-0. Ellen Zarin and Doris Bass lost a 4-6, 4-6 struggle.

Against New Providence, Koonz and Clunie rolled to a 6-1, 6-1 win, DeVries and Gechlik won 6-1, 6-2. Bass and Pat Horowitz breezed to a 6-4, 6-2 decision and Eng and Kosnett won, 6-4, 6-0, to round out the victory.

Burkhardt and Salzano spark Unico to LL crown

Unico won the minor league playoff series last week in the St. James Little League as Chris Burkhardt and Ronnie Salzano combined to no-hit the Knights of Columbus, 7-0.

Tom Miskewitz drove in two runs to lead the winners, who went undefeated in the double-elimination tournament. They only lost once this year, and that was to Atlantic Metals, the only team to ever go unbeaten in previous years.

The league's all-star game was played last month, with the best players of Unico and the Knights meeting the best of Spring and the Rick Richards Band. The latter won on a double by Matt Lynch that scored James Morrisson from second in the final inning. Lenny Saia was the winning pitcher.

The major league all-star game saw the Red team beat the Blue, 13-7. The winners were made up of players from the VFW and Liberty, while Atlantic Metals and Farinella players made up the Blue squad.

Tom Kisch, Joe Graziano and Frank Sandrini led the victors with two hits each, while Tom Ellenberger, Angelo Palumbo and Joe Colatruaglia had two apiece for the losers. The Blue scored seven runs in the third inning before the Red rallied.

Awards for sponsors, coaches and players for Unico and Liberty were presented at a league awards dinner.

SEAL OF QUALITY—The familiar sign pictured above bears the name of the noteworthy restaurant that has pleased customers for 25 successful years. Clare & Coby's Inn, located on routes 9 and 34 in Old Bridge, is the home of delicious food, excellent service and fine cocktails.

A history of success at Clare and Coby's

By GAIL CASALE

In these ever changing, troubled times, it's rewarding to know that there are some worthwhile pleasures still around to enjoy. Clare and Coby's Restaurant, located at routes 9 and 34 in Old Bridge, is certainly one of them.

For 25 successful years the restaurant has been under the careful expertise of owner Andrew Arbes. As your host, he cordially welcomes his customers, visiting table-to-table, assuring that everyone is well satisfied from start to finish.

And why shouldn't you be? As your first impression, the immaculately kept stucco building gives just a hint of the matching warm interior, quality food and service that awaits you inside. The decor is trimmed with attractive touches like wall tapestries, shiny mirrors, hanging plants, a fireplace and overhead globe lights that appeal to your senses and help make your dining at Clare and Coby's a truly memorable experience.

When you enter, the spacious U-shaped dining room features cozily arranged tables for two by the window—an appropriate seating scheme for couples. Each table is set with fresh linens and polished silverware to provide cleanliness, a factor you probably look for when dining out.

The food itself is the main attraction. Different varieties listed on both lunch and dinner menus are sure to please many tastes ranging from the extravagant to the more basic.

For lunch, select something from the sandwich board. One unique possibility is the monte cristo sandwich, composed of Virginia ham, swiss cheese, sliced turkey breast and special cheese sauce.

There are also many kinds of refreshing fruit and vegetable salads to choose from as well as chef's specialties, omelettes and seafood dishes.

Why not indulge yourself for lunch at Clare and Coby's? A hearty one such as any of the kinds mentioned will make the day go enjoyably smoother. The lunch hours are from 11:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Dinner is really something special. We took Dad to Clare and Coby's for Father's Day and he thoroughly loved it. Allow me to give you several reasons.

Try, for starters, the tangy cracker barrel cheese served with assorted crackers. Accompany this with some goodies from the refreshing relish dish. Nothing but the finest crisp radishes, celery, carrots and fresh vegetables go into this before dinner snack. Cocktails and fine wines are served too.

There are many kinds of seafood, meat and poultry dishes to choose from as your entree. I would like to share some of my favorites with you. A lean cut of roasted prime ribs of beef au jus, cooked to your request, is a natural delight served in its own juices. Try the tender veal cordon bleu, topped with a special cream sauce or broiled cut lamb chops with mint jelly.

Dinner is served from 4 p.m. to 10 p.m. complete with the appetizers described above, tossed salad, fresh baked rolls and butter, and your choice of potato and vegetable of the day.

Remember to try one of Clare and Coby's homemade treats from the dessert cart. Oh, what a delight they are too! Chocolate mousse topped with whipped cream, cheesecake and strawberry chiffon pie are merely a few. You might want to get there early to taste a generous piece of chocolate cream pie before it's all gone.

Three complete dinner specials are featured each Sunday and "Early Bird Specials" are served Tuesday through Friday from 4 to 6 p.m.

Upstairs, there are private banquet rooms available for parties from 20 to 80 persons. The dimly lit cocktail lounge leads the way for entertainment Wednesday through Saturday evenings and Sunday afternoons with music by organist Chris Lytle.

By all means, bring the children along. Clare and Coby's offers a complete dinner menu for them, too. For your convenience, major credit cards are accepted and there is ample parking space available.

So take the Parkway south to routes 9 and 34 to enjoy this dining magic that Clare and Coby's has proudly upheld for 25 years. The restaurant is open daily, except Monday, from 11:30 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Imagine something that has remained consistently good for a quarter of a century. I suggest you call for reservations before visiting Clare and Coby's. Something as superb as this will undoubtedly want to be shared by many a diner.

Mickey Mouse will star in Disney's Ice Odyssey

Walt Disney's Mickey Mouse, celebrating his 55th year in show business, will star in Disney's Great Ice Odyssey in a debut performance July 20 to Aug. 1 at New Jersey's Bryne Meadows Arena, East Rutherford. The world premiere edition, produced by Irvin Feld and Kenneth Feld, also will play Long Island's Nassau Coliseum, Aug. 3 to 8 and New York's Madison Square Garden, Aug. 10 to 29. For the first time, Mickey will depart from his lifetime traditional role as debonair "mouse about town" to become a heroic voyager traveling through time to save the world from the forces of evil. He and his Disney pals will encounter fire-breathing dragons and the Evil Queen.

Accompanying Mickey and his Disney friends in their all-new adventure on ice will be John Carlow skating the role of the Handsome Prince and Jamie-Lynn Kitching as Cinderella.

JOHN DAVIDSON, host of a television talk show, will entertain Monday evening at the Garden State Art Center, Holmdel. Additional information can be obtained by calling 264-9200.

Free cinema event planned by college

Felician College, Lodi, will sponsor an admission free summer cinema program at 7:30 p.m. in the College Theater.

Films scheduled are "The Odessa File," Sunday; "Camelot," July 11; "Somewhere in Time," July 18, and "The In-Laws," July 25.

THE BROOKLYN, BRONX & QUEENS BAND

Pick Of the LPs—"The Brooklyn, Bronx & Queens Band" (Capitol ST-12155).

You can call them the Brooklyn, Bronx & Queens Band. Or, you can call them BB&Q. Whatever you call them, this band is more fun than a July picnic. And their debut album, a platter filled with seven tasty funk cuts spiced up with the BB&Q's chefs' secret jazz sauce is just as delicious.

Lead vocal of The Brooklyn, Bronx & Queens Band is Lucious Isiah Floyd, who started performing when he was five, singing with his sisters' gospel group in numerous churches. He began singing lead when he turned nine and left North Carolina for New York when he was 18. Since then, he has fronted several groups of his own and worked as a backing vocalist on jazz violinist Michal Urbaniak's sessions.

PeeWee Ford is bass, and he began his career at the age of 15, playing bass in his cousin's jazz band. Within a year, he made his recording debut with the group Kenyatta.

Abdul Wali Mohammed, who plays guitar, started to play guitar when he was 10. His style was greatly influenced by jazz, and he has performed with Lonnie Liston Smith, Stanley Turrentine and Bobbi Humphrey.

Kevin Nance, who plays the keyboard began studying music and playing piano at the age of 10. He created his own group, "Trans Rock 'n' Roll," played in the New York area and was invited to open several shows for Capitol recording artist Natalie Cole.

Music festival set in Waterloo Village

The Waterloo Music Festival 1982 will begin its seventh season Saturday with guest pianist Lorin Hollander and a fireworks display following the 8:30 p.m. performance. Gerald Schwarz will conduct the orchestra.

The afternoon concert series on Sunday will feature the Waterloo Chamber Ensemble conducted by Mark Gould.

Additional information can be obtained by calling 347-4709.

Folk night is slated

"Polka Night," a folk music event, will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Echo Lake Park's natural amphitheater, Westfield. It will be part of the 1982 Summer Arts Festival.

John Praz and his Orchestra, featuring John Przaszynski, will provide the music. They have recorded about 20 albums and recently appeared at the Polish Festival at the Garden State Arts Center and on television.

In the event of inclement weather, the concert will be held at 7:30 p.m. July 8 at Echo Lake Park, a Union County Department of Parks and Recreation facility. In the event of rain on July 8, the concert will move to the Trailside Nature and Science Center, Coles Avenue and New Providence Road, Mountainside.

The annual Union County Summer Arts Festival is made possible through a grant from the American Federation of Musicians Local 151, budget appropriations and donations from the local industry.

Additional information can be obtained by calling 352-8431.

'Widow' play set to July 10

The 20th anniversary season of Plays-in-the-Park, sponsored by the Middlesex County Department of Parks and Recreation, which opened last week at 8:40 with a production of Franz Lehár's "The Merry Widow," will continue through July 10.

All performances are free to the public and presented at the Roosevelt Park Amphitheater, Edison. There will be no performance on July 4.

Valorie Goodall stars in the production which is directed by her husband, William Mooney.

A cast of 36 singers and dancers is featured. The Garden State Symphonic Pops Orchestra provides the musical background. Choreographer is James Brennan.

FDU campus to host year-long activities

A schedule of special events is planned as part of a year-long celebration commemorating the 25th anniversary of the founding of the Florham-Madison campus of Fairleigh Dickinson University.

The anniversary celebration will officially get under way this month. One of the first activities for the anniversary year will be the exhibition of a Fairleigh Dickinson University float in the Fourth of July parade, sponsored by the Borough of Florham Park. The University float is being built around the theme, "History of the American Flag." Members of the Residence Hall staff will construct the float under the direction of Joseph Caffarelli.

Coordinating the efforts of the anniversary celebration are four members of the Florham-Madison campus community: Dr. Bernard Budish, of Livingston, professor of business management; Dr. Byron Lambert, of Hackettstown, professor of philosophy; Marian Trent, of Madison, assistant to the provost; and Cynthia Atkins, of Chatham, coordinator of purchasing and budgets.

The Florham-Madison Campus was established in 1958 when the Board of Trustees purchased 187 acres of what had been the Twombly estate "Florham," thus becoming the University's third campus.

The 100-room former Twombly mansion currently houses administrative offices as well as classrooms and academic departments. Designed by architect Stanford White, it was intended as a Georgian-style replica of part of King Henry VIII's Hampton Court. The mansion is surrounded by English gardens, fountains and gazebos.

Classes at the Florham-Madison campus began Sept. 10, 1958, with an enrollment of 675 students. The present enrollment is approximately 5,000 undergraduates and graduate students.

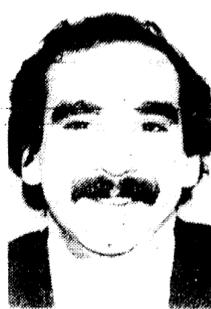

This past June 5, the 25th anniversary celebration was formally launched with the display of an anniversary flag at commencement exercises. Emblazoned on the white flag was a blue logo depicting a free-form rendition of the columns of the Mansion. It was designed for the occasion of the Voy Fangor, professor of art.

The coordinating committee has scheduled a variety of events throughout the year as salutes to alumni, area educational administrators, representatives of industry and commerce, faculty, staff and students, high school counselors and campus founders. The festivities will culminate with the 25th annual commencement exercises and a special salute to the graduating class next June.

Campus activities throughout the year will be geared toward the anniversary theme.

Feature events include an Octoberfest, sponsored by the Florham-Madison Alumni Chapter; a new production of "Il Trovatore," to be presented by the Jersey Lyric Opera Co.; a concert titled "Mozart's First-Beethoven's Last," by the Fairleigh Dickinson University Symphony Orchestra and a month-long exhibition of editorial and satiric art from the Chesler Collection at the Florham-Madison Campus library.

Officers of IUC rap Fenwick's vote

The officers of the New Jersey Industrial Union for Council, AFL-CIO, have charged that Congresswoman Millicent Fenwick, with her vote in favor of the 1983 budget, is following the lead of the Reagan Administration in tearing down programs which provide a safety net for the elderly and the unemployed, those in need of decent housing, and those requiring medical care, and which once again provide tax breaks for the wealthiest individuals and corporations.
