200 Club cites our unsung heroes

BY PETER GAVIGAN

Every day, the members of Union County's many public safety organizations — local and county police departments, fire departments, ambulance and first aid squads and the State Police — put their lives on the line to ensure the quality of our own lives.

Their work in fighting crime, combatting fires and administering on-the-scene assistance to injured citizens often goes unnoticed. But one group of county residents and business people has been striving for the past 14 years to make sure that these unsung heroes are recognized.

The 200 Club of Union County is a non-profit organization formed in 1970 to honor outstanding performance by public safety personnel and to provide financial assistance to the dependents of those slain in the line of duty.

"Thank God there are not many widows (of public safety personnel) here in Union County," noted Patrick Gallagher, a club member.

When a public servant is killed in the line of duty, Gallagher explained, the club contacts the widow to offer financial assistance.

"Most of the widows are surprised and amazed that this is done," he said, adding that the club's services in these cases are provided with no strings attached.

"We extend our condolences, help out in what way we can and move on," Gallagher said.

"Fortunately," added Ed Kammler, one of the original organizers and first president of the group in Union County "nobody is getting killed. What we've been doing mostly is concentrating on our scholarship program for the children of police and firemen. We'd rather spend money this way than on a funeral."

The scholarship program aims at providing assistance to "children of actively serving public safety personnel in their desire to attend college or vocational school or to acquire other post-high school education."

According to a brochure explaining the program, the club will award up to eight scholarships of $1,500 each for the fall 1984 semester. Applicants will be judged on the basis of SAT scores, class standing, citizenship and financial need. Applications are limited to high school seniors who have a parent actively serving Union County in one of the following branches of public safety: police and law enforcement; fire department, including volunteer departments; volunteer ambulance corps/first aid squads and the State Police.

To qualify, applicants also must: be a resident of Union County as of Sept. 15, 1983; be a bona fide member of the graduating class of 1984 and be eligible to receive a high school diploma prior to Sept. 1, 1984; be a student in any public, parochial or private school located in or out of Union County; have a definite plan to pursue a post-high school program of education or training; have exhibited good citizenship traits and be of sound moral character; plan on the pursuit of his post-high school program on a full-time basis, and provide evidence that he has pursued all other sources of financial assistance, such as educational and bank loans, part-time employment and local scholarship programs.

Another program offers assistance to public safety personnel who wish to study subjects in their field in greater detail.

Twice each year, public safety personnel who "perform heroic acts above and beyond the call of duty" are honored by the 200 Club at its Valor Awards Luncheon. Some 85 police officers, firefighters, state troopers and first aid squad/ambulance corps members have received awards from the group.

Valor Award recipients are chosen partially on the recommendation of the club's public service advisors, which include members of Union County police departments, fire departments and the New Jersey State Police.

The luncheon also offers "an opportunity to take a few minutes to reflect on the lives of the uniformed protectors that have died in the line of duty while protecting the public."

"Our sole purpose," Gallagher said, "has been to encourage police and firefighters as best we can."

He notes that the group prides itself on keeping a low profile and on having no political affiliations.

But, by keeping out of the headlines, Gallagher admits that the group has had a problem with informing public safety personnel of some of the club's programs that would benefit them or their family.

This year's Valor Award Luncheon will be held May 25 at L'Affair in Mountainside. Both Gallagher and Kammler expect the luncheon to be the biggest to date. It is, they said, "one of the ways the 200 Club says 'thank you' to the county's outstanding public servants."

County reveals conversion plan with a plant to be built by 1988

A long term plan for resource recovery, (conversion of waste to energy), has been announced by Union County officials.

An advanced waste to energy plant will be constructed on private property in Rahway and completion is targeted for 1988, said Joseph Kazar, solid waste planner for Union County. A private construction firm will be selected this summer, he added.

The ultimate goal is to construct a plant which would incinerate all the county's garbage and generate electricity from it. The plant will be constructed to meet stringent state standards set forth by the N.J. Dept. of Environmental Protection, said to be the strictest in the country.

"Some $400,000 has been included in the county's 1984 budget for site acquisition costs and another $260,000 has been allocated to cover engineering and legal experts to negotiate agreements with the contractor," said Charlotte DeFilippo, chairman of the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders. DeFilippo indicated that while the State's plans would see Union County's refuse sent as far south as Ocean County, county officials feel this would be too costly to the county's 21 municipalities and has requested the state assistance in seeking other alternatives closer to Union County's borders.

In recent meetings with county and state officials, Marwan Sadat, director of the DEP, indicated that interest-free loans to finance the project may be available through the 1980 Resources Bond Issue. Similar funding has been committed to Bergen and Essex counties for their proposed resource recovery plants.

State Senator Raymond Lesniak and Assemblyman Thomas Deverin were also involved in the county/state meetings and pledged to support the county's efforts to secure funding for the project.

Director Sadat told the group (including County Manager Arthur J. Grisi, Chairman DeFilippo, Freeholder Paul O'Keefe, Senator Lesniak and Assemblyman Deverin) that the fate of the Middlesex County landfill, Union County's present disposal site, is uncertain in the coming year. Therefore, Kazar said, alternatives must be sought at the local level that will keep disposal costs at a minimum.

"Finding the most efficient, clean and cost effective manner in which to convert the county's waste to energy has been a top priority of Union County government," said County Manager Grisi. "We are in contact with the state on a continuing basis to assure that the county's solid waste disposal needs are being met."

Tax consultations are offered Wednesday for senior citizens

Free consultations on preparing one's taxes will be available Wednesday for any senior citizen (age 62 and over) who is a Union County resident.

The Union County Department of Parks and Recreation is offering the service through the newly formed and very successful Oak Ridge Senior Citizens Club, held daily during the golf off-season at the Oak Ridge Golf Course Clubhouse, Clark.

Joseph Dunn of the American Association of Retired Persons will assist seniors in filling out tax returns and answering any questions between 10 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. Wednesday.

The club, which opened in January, offers a variety of activities, seminars, lectures, films and special events for area seniors. Participants meet Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and all programs are free of charge.

For additional information or calendars of events, call Marianne Terry at 527-4918.

County senior citizens council sets meeting on car insurance

A public meeting for clarification of the new law concerning car insurance will be held by the Senior Citizens Council of Union County, N.J., Inc., on Saturday, April 28, at 9:30 a.m. at the F. Edward Biertuempfel Senior Center, 2155 Morris Avenue, Union.

For clarification of the new law concerning car insurance, a study meeting will be held by the Car Insurance Reform

Committee on Thursday evening, March 29, 7:30 p.m. at the F. Edward Biertuempfel Senior Center.

Arthur Guarriello is serving as the committee chairman. He is a retired Prudential agent with 50 years of experience as an agent and broker. He also serves as volunteer deputy coordinator of Emergency Management Services in Union Township.

All civic and interested agencies are invited to send a representative to the study meeting. All mayors of Union County have been requested to send a representative. Evelyn Frank, president, said, "since the car insurance increases affect all people, we urge everyone of driver age to attend the public meeting, and, if interested, the study meeting."

"We are contacting the sponsors of the bill, recently passed in Trenton, to attend the April 28th public meeting. We are writing them to bring with them statistics of the past, current and future charges as it relates to one specific area so that an easy comparison can be made. All drivers should be aware of the difference between the old premium structure and the new. Other legislators from our districts will also be invited."

For further information, contact the Senior Citizens Council office, 2165 Morris Avenue, Union, 964-7555.

From the pulpit

BY THE REV. ROBERT PAUL

An aged Indian, half-naked and famished, wandered into one of our western settlements, begging for food to keep him from starving. While eagerly devouring the bread bestowed by the hand of charity, a bright colored ribbon, from which was suspended a small dirty pouch, was seen around his neck.

On being questioned, he said it was a charm given him in his younger days and opening it, displayed a faded, greasy paper, which he handed to the investigator for inspection. It proved to be a regular discharge for the federal army, entitling him to a pension for life and signed by General George Washington.

As I thought about this incident I wondered about the many who are properly clothed, but starved for the bread of life. Remember the words of St. Matthew 4:4 "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." God's invitation for you is to come and dine at the master's table. There is plenty for all who come in faith believing. "I am the bread of life; he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst." St John 6:25. Have you read the gospel of St. John? If not, start today. No need for you to starve.

DONALD TORESCO, chief executive officer and board chairman of Toresco Enterprises, owner and operator of Dodgeland, has been named 'Ambassador Extraordinaire' by the Chrysler Corp. for achieving the status of Top Volume Import Dealer nationally for 1983.

Dodgeland sets records for its sales in February

Dodgeland broke all time sales records in February as the Route 22 dealership reports that sales figures for the month shattered all previous records. Total units sold in February numbered close to 1100.

Since opening its doors in 1969, the Springfield dealership has had dramatic annual increases in sales, with figures that not only broke Dodgeland's own records, but those of the competition as well.

February's record breaking sales comes on the heels of the announcement from Chrysler Corporation that Donald M. Toresco, chief executive officer and board chairman of Toresco Enterprises, owner and operator of Dodgeland, has been named "Ambassador Extraordinaire", citing him as the Top Volume Import Dealer Nationally for 1983. This prestigious award is presented for achieving record sales of Mitsubishi manufactured Dodge Colts, Challengers, and trucks.

Toresco has been the recent recipient of a number of industry awards including the coveted Chrysler Award For Excellence. This award, the 12th consecutive Award for Excellence Toresco has received in as many years, is presented only to a select group of executives who have attained the highest degree of professionalism in sales, customer service, administration, facilities, and community relations.

Toresco attributes the consistent increase in sales and the numerous awards to the concept that stands behind Dodgeland. When Dodgeland opened its doors, Toresco pledged that the dealership would serve customers better than any other dealership, providing them with better selection, value, service and dependability than they could find anywhere else.

Toresco maintains that Dodgeland not only provides the customer with the best price possible, but also with the best in service. The Service Team Concept was pioneered by Dodgeland to provide the consumer with personalized car care service in the form of their own team of experts.

Finally, Toresco sees the overall awards and excellent sales as a reflection of the outstanding service and professionalism exerted by the Dodgeland sales, service and parts departments.

Toresco classifies 1983 as a banner year not only for Dodgeland but for the other Toresco Enterprise dealerships as well. Towne and Country Chevrolet, Dom's Toyota and Fordland all surpassed anticipated sales projections. Citing the opening of RV Land for recreational vehicle sales and February's sales records as an example, Toresco predicts 1984 to be no less than record setting.

Food 'insensitivity' seen as problem to large group

If eating meals frequently leaves you feeling drowsy or bloated, nauseous or constipated, even irritable or depressed, your daily diet probably includes too many "healthy" foods.

In fact, according to findings released by clinical ecologists, you suffer from a somewhat underpublicized ailment called food sensitivity. However, you are not alone in suffering.

Each day, countless millions are also plagued by severe headaches, sore throats, gastric discomfort, sinus problems and dozens more telltale symptoms of food sensitivity, including those mentioned above.

The fact is, food sensitivity strikes most Americans daily. And many of these people are unaware they have a food related problem.

It is small wonder, too, because the foods doing the harm are the same foods most people have been taught are good for them. They are the foods most often consumed. And they are at the root of the problem.

Wheat and other grains, milk and dairy products, red meats, sugars and similar "good foods" are the culprits that cause you, and other sufferers of food sensitivity, to feel miserable. Fortunately, there is a way out of this dietary prison.

If you live almost anywhere in the metropolitan area you can go for help to a private center called New Outlook Nutrition, Inc., located at 355 Chestnut Street, Verona. Under the care and supervision of licensed physicians, New Outlook Nutrition has devised a treatment program for sufferers of food sensitivity.

If you believe you suffer from food sensitivity, all you have to do is arrange an initial meeting with New Outlook Nutrition in its offices. Prior to the first consultation, you'll be asked to complete a questionnaire which will help the New Outlook physician assigned to your case determine if you have a food related problem.

If your answers indicate that you need help, New Outlook Nutrition will take you on as a patient for their 3-step, six week program.

UCC slates 50th Celebration Ball for Schackamaxon C.C. April 13

The 50th Anniversary Committee of Union County College will host a Celebration Ball on Friday, April 13, at the Schackamaxon Country Club, Scotch Plains, it was announced by Mrs. Linda Leifer, executive director of the year-long celebration.

"The Celebration Ball is designed as the gala event in our year-long series of activities and will recognize the founding of the college in 1933," Leifer said. "This is the event when we truly celebrate the spectacular development of Union County College over these past 50 years.

Mrs. Leifer said members of the Board of Trustees, the Board of Governors, former trustees and former governors, faculty, staff, alumni and friends of the college will be invited to the Celebration Ball.

A cocktail hour will precede the ball at 7 p.m.

and dinner and dancing will begin at 8 p.m., the 50th Anniversary director said. Black tie is optional.

Union County College was formed on Aug. 17, 1982, through a consolidation of Union College, Cranford, and Union County Technical Institute, Scotch Plains. Union College was founded on Oct. 16, 1933, as an Emergency Relief Administration project designed primarily to provide employment for out-of-work professors and higher education for recent high school graduates who could not afford to go to college.

Union began classes in the evening in Abraham Clark High School in Roselle in 1933, and added a day program in a rented house there in 1941. The college moved to the former Grant School in Cranford in 1942 and to its own campus on a 50-acre site off Springfield Avenue in Cranford, opposite Nomahegan Park in 1959. The college opened a branch campus in Elizabeth in 1970, which is currently maintained at 10 Butler Street, in the former corporate headquarters of Thomas & Betts.

Today, Union County College serves some 9,000 full-time and part-time students at the Cranford, Elizabeth and Scotch Plains campuses, who are enrolled in some 60 programs or options in the areas of liberal arts, biology, business, criminal justice, engineering, physical science, and the business, engineering and health technologies. It also conducts cooperative programs in professional nursing and radiography with Elizabeth General Medical Center and Muhlenberg Hospital, Plainfield.

Mrs. Joan Corbet of Westfield, a member of the Board of Governors, is serving as chairperson of the planning committee for the Union County College Celebration Ball. Serving on the committee with her are: Frank D'Antonio of Cranford, an alumnus; Mrs. Joan Blatz of Scotch Plains, wife of former Mayor Frank Blatz, Jr., vice chairperson of the Board of Governors.

Dog show scheduled

The Chinese Shar-Pei Club of the North East will be holding point shows one for each, the Chinese Shar-Pei, Australian Shepherd and Chinese Crested. The Chinese Crested come in two coats. This show will be held at the 4H Center in Somerset on Sunday, April 1.

These three breeds are unique in the fact that they are all "rare" breeds. This is an unusual opportunity to see these canines at one location on the same day.

Frank Langraf of Bloomfield, will be judging the Chinese Crested and the prestigious "Best In Show." Langraf is an American Kennel Club "Best In Show" judge. The Chinese Shar-Pei Club of the North East is honored to have him judging at this show.

The judging will begin at noon. Parking and refreshments will be available. For more information, call 832-7407.

County develops 1st fitness trail to be utilized by the handicapped

In an example of intergovernmental cooperation, the County of Union, the borough of Mountainside, Children's Specialized Hospital of Mountainside and the N.J. Department of Health have joined forces and funds to construct the first Fitness Trail for handicapped persons while improving their overall health services.

The project was announced this week by Joan D. Smith, director of the Department of Human Resources and Thomas L. Nolan, director of the Department of Parks and Recreation, the two Union County government departments involved in this unique undertaking.

A wooded section of Echo Lake Park, a county facility adjacent to Children's Specialized Hospital, will be cleared for the trail and work is expected to begin in April/May with completion tentatively scheduled for Fall, 1984. The 18 designed "fitness stations" along the trail will be marked with signs describing each exercise so participants may use the trail on their own, or in groups.

A 10-station "Wheelchair" course for the wheelchair bound, including its own signs and stations, will also be installed. The county's Division of Parks Maintenance will clear the land and supply the necessary equipment and labor to install the Fitness Trail, as well as provide ongoing maintenance.

The Borough of Mountainside has purchased the signs for the course and will supply the funds for the necessary lumber and hardware for each fitness station. A footbridge will connect the trail to the hospital for easy access for patients.

"This is the most effective use of our available resources to benefit the greatest portion of the population," said Thomas L. Nolan, director of the Union County Department of Parks and Recreation. "Providing quality recreation for the handicapped has become as important as all our other efforts to bring the best in cultural and recreational opportunities to the population as a whole. Being able to bring this fitness trail to the patients of Children's Specialized Hospital is as vital as it is gratifying." He pointed out that the trail will be open to the general public as well and may be used by anyone just by following the instructional signs at each station.

The county's Department of Human Resources will be involved in the project through the provision of case management services. A contract for "Special Child Health Services" has been entered into between the county and the N.J. Department of Health, with the county providing $45,000 and the state adding another $25,000.

These funds will ensure that coordinated, comprehensive services for the handicapped and potentially handicapped children are provided, Smith explained. Counseling, identifying each child's needs, making referrals and monitoring the success of these efforts will all be undertaken through the case management service.

"In the past, families with handicapped children didn't know where to look for various services," Smith said. "Now, it's like one-stop shopping." She went on to explain that those who would benefit most from the centralized effort will be any child who receives or requires services from more than one agency, such as children with complex medical/social/developmental problems, or any disabled child under 16 who receives Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits. Priority is given to those who might require special medical equipment and nursing or other special services.

"Case management services go far beyond the current system by providing a means of following and coordinating the child's treatment while at the same time counseling his/her family on related matters," Smith said.

According to 1982 statistics, some 3,986 children in Union County are qualified for or are in need of the Special Child Health Services Program.

To find out more about how your child may take advantage of this cooperative effort to provide health services to children, contact Children's Specialized Hospital, Mountainside, at 233-3720.

Acting Studio schedules registrations for spring

The Acting Studio, affiliated with the New Jersey Public Theater, Cranford, will hold registrations for the spring term April 2 and 3. Classes will begin, for adults and children, on April 9 and run for 10 weeks.

The basic acting class, "The Actor Prepares," is structured to build self image, get rid of inhibitions, and introduce fundamental techniques for stage or TV acting. Other acting classes are "Character Creating," "Building a Scene" and "Scene Study." There also is a special class for "Television Acting Technique."

Other types of classes offered at The Acting Studio are "Speech and Diction," which is for anyone who wants a more beautiful voice and clearer diction; "Dance for the Theater," a dance class aimed at actors who want to be able to move better on stage in a musical, and "Improvisational Acting," which involves pantomime and imagination.

Musical classes also are offered. They are "Musical Performance," which is an acting class for singers; "Singing Technique," for voice training; "Voice and Performance," combining the two above classes, for advanced "Voice and Performance," combining the two above classes, for advanced students; and "Sight Singing," to teach ear training and reading music.

There are comparable classes for children, seven through 12 years of age.

David Christopher, who has been running The Acting Studio for six years is the primary acting teacher. Angela Intili is the singing teacher, and all her classes are private lessons, except for the combined "Voice and Performance" class which she shares with Christopher. The "Dance for the Theater" class is taught by Carol Schneider.

Additional information can be obtained by calling Christopher at 276-0276.

Comedian set this Saturday in Livingston

Comedian Robert Klein will perform Saturday at 8 p.m. in Temple B'nai Abraham, Livingston. He will appear as part of "Celebration of the Stars," a series commemorating the congregation's 130th anniversary.

The final program of the series will feature pianist Alicia de Larrocha, April 26.

Klein appeared in four Broadway shows, received a Tony Award nomination for his performance in the hit musical, "They're Playing Our Song" and has been nominated for two Grammy Awards for best comedy album of the year. He also appeared in movies including "Hooper" and "The Owl and the Pussycat," and is writing a screenplay for Warner Brothers.

Tickets for the event may be purchased at the temple office, 300 East Northfield Road, or by calling 994-2290.

Gallery exhibit set in Millburn

An exhibit and sale by artists Christine Hess and Sonja Kuhfahl is being held now through April 22 in the Renee Roosner Art Gallery, Paper Mill Playhouse, Brookside Drive, Millburn. Mediums will include sculpture, watercolor and acrylic.

Viewings make take place one hour before performances and during intermissions of "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat." The gallery also is open from noon to 3 p.m. on Fridays.

'Godspell' due in St. Elizabeth

"Godspell," a musical celebration of the Gospel as told by Saint Matthew, will be presented by the College of Saint Elizabeth, Convent Station, in four performances Thursday, March 22 through Sunday at 8 p.m. in the Octagon of Mahoney Library.

The play will be directed by Dr. Lorraine Casella, chairman of the music department at the college. Additional information can be obtained by calling 539-1600, ext. 265.

Disc 'n' Data

By MILTHAMMER

Pick Of The LPs "Go For the Ride," by Fallen Angel (MCA Records).

Charles Simmons first set eyes on Sophia Loren Bibbs in a Canadian nightclub in 1982. So impressed with her, he promised to make Sophia a star and have her first album out within a year, a rather bold promise from a young man whose claim to fame at the time was a famous cousin and that, as a Gary, Ind. youngster, his Domestic Four placed second to The Jackson Five in a now famous talent show with Diana Ross in the audience.

With the release of "Go For the Ride," the debut album by Fallen Angel on MCA Records, Charles, who began singing as an eight year-old soprano with the Gary Tabernacle Choir, seems right on target in living up to his promise to the lady of whom he says, "she sings with a flair like no other female artist you've ever heard."

Sophia, so named out of her father's love for the actress, and Charles, a young man determined to make it without riding on his Grammy decorated cousin's coattails, had become tired of the "play the hit's club circuit." Profitable as it was, Charles remembers, "I was wasting my time singing Peabo (Bryson) and everybody else when I could be singing my own songs."

Band members in Charles' Seattle based group, Crosswalk, didn't agree with him. As long as the money was coming in, they thought, why should he bug them about cutting demos that would never be heard? "I made the stipulation that we had to devote time to recording demos. But the group became the hottest thing in Seattle and Tacoma. The more offers came in for gigs, the less time we were in the studio."

Crosswalk did have its pluses for Charles. It was on one of those many Crosswalk work nights that he first spotted Chain Reaction's beautiful and talented lady singer. By the time she met Charles, Los Angeles-born Sophia had been around the world as a singer and professional disco roller skater who had appeared in such film and TV shows as "Charlie's Angles," "Skatetown USA," and "Roller Boogie." Once a member of the 401-voice International Denominational Choir, Sophia juggled singing in clubs between her many roller skating appearances with the likes of Donna Summer, Eve Gabor, and former President, Gerald R. Ford.

After meeting Charles and the chemistry clicked, Sophia decided to follow the yellow brick road with the man whose "talents can be overpowering and he's just exciting to watch!" Goodbye, Crosswalk. Goodbye, Chain Reaction. Hello, MCA. But it wasn't that easy.

A spicy mix of urban contemporary, pop and funk rock, "Go For The Ride," produced by Phillips and associate Skip Adams, is an album that has more going for it than just finger pop. The material written by Phillips, Adams, Simmons, Jackson, Paul Richardson and Ira Antilles offers a provocative and enjoyable look at human relationships and society.

Speaking of the "Fallen Angel" the track, Charles says: "That's the song the MCA heard that got us the deal. We didn't have a name and everone at MCA kept referring to us as 'Fallen Angel' or as 'Mr. and Mrs. Angel'. Next thing we knew, that was our name."

As his famous cousin advised, "There is nothing you can't do. If you really believe, let your mind and spirit lead you to your goals, you will succeed." Charles and Sophia are right on course to success.

Charles' cousin? His Aunt Lula has a son named Stevland Morris. Most people call him Stevie Wonder.

Jazz quintet slated

The Crossing Point, a Cedar Grove based jazz quintet, will play at 12:30 p.m. March 28 at the Sloan Lounge in the College Center Building. It is free of charge.

'Barnum' show sets auditions

The Metropolitan Musical Theater in association with the Summit YMCA has announced open auditions for its 20th anniversary show, "Barnum."

Actors, actresses, singers, dancers, jugglers, tumblers, acrobats, clowns, specialty acts, gymnasts, banjo players and musicians are needed, it was announced.

Auditions will be held at the Summit YMCA, 67 Maple St., Summit, March 28 and 29 from 7 to 9:30 p.m. and April 1 from 7 to 9:30 p.m. Auditions are open to all ages. A musical score and a pianist will be available.

"Barnum" will be presented June 1, 2, 3, 8, 9, 10, 15, 16 and 17 in the Summit Y auditorium.

Cellist to star on UCC stage

The fourth program in the Mostly Music Concert Series conducted at Union County College, Cranford, will feature cellist, Eugene Moye. He will perform with the chamber ensemble Musica Da Camera, Saturday in the College's Theater on the Cranford campus at 8:30 p.m. He will be assisted by violinist David Kim.

Moye will present a pre-concert talk at 8 p.m.

Remaining tickets for the Mostly Music concert can be purchased at the door or reserved in advance by calling 654-3226.

'Sea' is making waves in fashion

The heady aroma of the salt sea air is one of the fragrances wafting along Seventh Avenue, these days, with a large number of designers gazing seaward for inspiration in their spring '84 collections.

Middy collars, snappy stripes in vibrant colors, and buttons embossed with anchor and rope, are among the details signaling the romance with the ocean which so many designers are enjoying this spring.

Navy and white are in the fashion forefront, with touches of a bright, perfectly right red to liven the picture.

Even when the sea is miles, or even half a continent away, there's a certain snap and snazzy appeal to spring's fashions, with clean lines, singing colors and a general air of sophistication tempered by the excitement of some good, clean fun.

Stripes and checks share the runway with bold solids in colors that are as classic as red, black and white, or as contemporary as marigold, fuchsia and a strong, shocking pink.

White continues strong, with white-on-white featured in many collections for polish and romance. And, along with white, there's cream—the new prestige color for spring.

Some designers feature color-blocking; others, color-on-color textured fabrics which add a certain dimension to the overall appeal.

Fabrics run the gamut from featherweight silks to nubby linens, to fine, year-round weight wools, to crisp, cool cottons, and there's even a little suede, from the savvy designers who are looking forward to the delights of early fall.

Sweaters are popular in a wide range of cotton and silk knits, including traditional cardigans and cable-stitched pullovers, as well as intricately patterned knits whose allure lies in their complexity.

Short or long length adherents will be happy with the hemline news: skirt lengths are "as you like it," and whatever looks good and feels comfortable is right.

While some designers feature narrow, knee-skimming skirts, others prefer long, loose luxurious skirts and culottes for their wearers to get lost in: companions to the easy, flowing pants which made their appearance in many designers' collections.

The lack of consensus on skirt lengths was so striking that, while many designers leaned one way or the other, a large number committed themselves to neither alternative exclusively, but showed an attractive array of both.

However, the amount of short, short skirts was limited, and basically only made an appearance to demonstrate some aspect of fashion fun. They are emphatically not meant for sporting on city streets.

Siblings on the shorty play skirts are a bevy of shorts which, fun to wear, still mean business with their clean lines and clear colors.

Spring's biggest accessory is the scarf—tied under shirt collars for a sporty look, or long, flowing, loosely knotted for a look that's city casual, carelessly elegant.

Overall, the look, whether in pants, skirts or dresses is uncluttered; for the most part, lean and slender, with fullness used sparingly for special effects, or by certain designers who design to a different drummer.

Layered style: 'new' hair look

One of the newest hair looks for spring is a medium-length, layered style with height at the crown and volume at the sides. This new design complements spring fashions with its soft, sophisticated effect.

Versatility is a built-in bonus: hair can be worn full during the day, and pulled up at the back for a romantic evening look. It is also a great style for women on-the-go, particularly the active sportswoman, who doesn't want to spend a lot of time primping.

If your hair does not have natural "lift" or movement, as curly or wavy hair does, the experts at the Rave Hair Care Center recommend a regular formula soft perm to achieve the results you want. By following the package instructions carefully, it's simple to get that added flattering height you've been looking for.

And, if you're thinking about updating your look for spring, now there's a totally new and exclusive way to find the hairstyling Makeover Service. It provides three hairstyle makeovers tailored to your specifications, plus hair care advice and hairstyling directions. For your personalized program, send $1 for handling plus name and address for Personal Styling Questionnaire and following Makeover Brochure to: Rave Makeover Service, Box 944 Madison Square Station, Department NP, New York, NY 10159.

Denim gaining in popularity

Denim, the fabric that jeans are made of, is probably one of the most popular fabrics manufactured today, with over one billion square yards sold every year, including countless billions over the last few years during the jeans "rage".

True denim is constructed from a special strain of cotton which can be found only in the United States. Actually, one third of the nation's annual cotton crop goes into the making of the world's best denim.

The "real" denim is constructed of one hundred percent cotton twill, with white and blue threads interwoven.

RELAXED SOPHISTICATION—This pattern mix of four different Italian linen fabrics by Alexander Julian creates a look of relaxed sophistication. The designer layers an oversized shirt in a hyacinth, petrol blue, cactus green and dusty pink weave over a sleeveless, round-neck blouse in gray with a striated weave. The deep-pleated pants in gray are also striped in the same color palette and cinched with a multi-colored box weave sash.

'Eye-deas' will highlight the face

If your vision is out of focus, don't let the thought of wearing glasses ruin your point of view. Today's exciting collection of fashion right frames, plus the right makeup know-how, will help give your eyes a better outlook.

Here, the experts at Cover Girl Make-Up have compiled a list of face-flattering eye-deas to help you look your spectacular best.

•When choosing frames, look at your self in a full length mirror, not just from the neck up. You want to keep in mind your overall body proportions when deciding on a suitable frame: Small figures look best in delicate frames, while heavier figures need more sizeable frames.

•Remember that the best shadown application scheme for making up your eyes should be the same as for women who don't wear glasses: Use a highlighter on browbone, shadown shade on lid, and contour shade in crease.

Cover Girl has a beautiful new collection of "SpunSatin" Shadows, shimmery 3-color coordinated shadow kits you should look into. It takes the guesswork out of combining the right highlighter, shadow and contour tones!

Each new shade combination comes in a soft-satin formula that creates the subtle look of softly shimmered satin, perfect for emphasizing your eyes with lovely luminous color. For the complete look, rim your lower lashes with Cover Girl Pro-Lining Pencil, then softly smudge and blend the color with the special sponge-tip-edge.

•Since glasses reflect light away from your eyes, select shadow colors in the medium-to-light color range to bring them "out." Avoid dark, murky shades which tend to make eyes appear smaller.

•To make lashes lusher, more visible, use several coats of mascara. Try Cover Girl Professional Mascara, designed with a contoured "curibrush" that lifts each and every lash—helps keep lashes from brushing against your lenses, too. And Professional Mascara thickens and lengthens without fibers—an added beauty bonus since you won't have to worry about tiny fibers flaking onto your lenses.

•Don't think your glasses will hide those dark circles or shadows. On the contrary, glasses tend to magnify every little flaw, so make them "disappear" with an invisible concealer cream.

Also be sure to keep unruly eyebrows properly groomed by tweezing when necessary and brushing them into place after apply your makeup.

•Finally, aim for a balanced makeup look by wearing lipstick and cheek color in complementary shades. Don't just concentrate on your eyes. A balanced look will help offset the top-heavy appearance of large glasses, too.

•Remember, these are general guidelines to follow when selecting and wearing glasses. Don't forget, though, your mirror is the ultimate test—you might break all the rules, and still look spectacular!

Linen remaining popular as a superb spring fabric

Linen is one of fashion's favorite spring fabrics. However, as devotees of it know all too well, it wrinkles when it's looked at—no less sat upon—needs tender a lot of care to look its best.

The reasons for its popularity are many. It is durable, porous (therefore, comfortable during the summer heat), and does not create fuzz or lint.

Also, it is a fabric which improves with age; the more it is laundered, the more lustrous it becomes.

Most linens carry a dry clean-only tag. However, according to The Fashion Encyclopedia (St. Martin's Press) by Catherine Houck, it can and should be carefully hand-laundered, in order to avert the possibility of pristine white linen becoming gray or yellow as it ages.

Houck advises that linen should be washed in a mild soap with lukewarm water, and ironed while still damp, on both sides (this increases its shine).

Colored jewelry big hit for spring

As the cold of winter comes to an end and we look for the fresh new colors and fabrics of spring, so can we also look for colors in jewelry to brighten our wardrobes for the warm weather months ahead.

The Jewelry Industry Fashion Advisory Committee, a group of jewelry leaders and experts, is enthusiastic about the wave of new and exciting colored jewelry fashions that are designed to coordinate perfectly with the many new shades and hues of spring clothes.

Gold is combined with red, blue, yellow and green precious and semi-precious stones so that there's color for every pocketbook.

In the red's: ruby, garnet, pink topaz and carnelian; blue: sapphire, tanzanite, blue topaz and lapis lazuli; yellow: "fancy" diamond, topaz, amber; green: emerald, tourmaline, peridot, jade, malachite. And the forever favorite white: diamonds, pearls, opals and ivory.

There are many "fun" combinations that your local jeweler can show you: Combine a strand of cultured pearls and a gold neck chain accented with stations of colored stones of your choice.

Think of "stackable" rings...each gold band accented with a different color stone.

Is black your basic? Try gold tantalized with black onyx...or frosted crystal...have you seen the beauty of black and grey pearls together? For drama and contrast, nothing is more beautiful than onyx combined with pave diamonds.

If you're into pastels this spring, you have a rainbow of pale-color stones to choose from: pale aquamarine (icy-blue), amethyst (purple), and citrine (yellow). They are subtle and provocative.

Think of having one pastel stone attached to a pearl choker. Or surround a gemstone with pave diamonds for drama.

Also, if you are interested in further information about colored gemstones and other fine jewelry, Jewelers of America (JA), the national association representing nearly 13,000 jewelers across the country, offers a series of brochures—free of charge. Simply send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to: Jewelers of America, Dept. MNS2, 1271 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10020.

Shoes tell a lot about person

On the average, one spends three-fourths of waking hours in shoes.

That means your shoes say a lot about you. To make a positive fashion statement this spring, your first footwear purchase should be one of the smartest styles around—Velcro.

Already a hot-selling fashion accessory for men, women and children, Velcro is becoming increasingly popular with all ages, from tots to teens, from young adults to hip senior citizens. Why the growing demand?

"It's fast, it's easy, and it's uncomplicated," says Curt Kelly, men's buying vice president at Kinney Shoes. "It's new and people like new things."

The buyers at Kinney expect Velcro to be a sensational spring seller. There are many new styles, from joggers to deck shoes, in everything from leathers and suedes to canvas and synthetics, in an assortment of colors.

Women can choose from pretty pastels and vivid brights, while men have a selection of earthy spring tones, with light gray a big favorite this season.

For kids, Velcro is fun and exciting. For their mothers, it's a dream come true. No more tying and untying and retying. And no more scarred knees from tripping over frayed laces.

Once you adhere the Velcro tabs, they stay put until you undo them. They don't loosen like laces can.

Velcro, initially placed on performance shoes for serious athletes, has come a long way in the footwear world in a very short time.

Men's fashions are 'adventurous'

The fashions men will wear for spring and summer of 1984 have been sparked by the current uptrend in the nation's economy, according to the Men's Fashion Association.

With more expendable income now available, men are presently willing to experiment with new stylings and to step out in more adventurous clothes than those that have prevailed during the past several years.

Some of the most marked as well as the most appealing new ideas will be found in the new shirts and ties. However, there are also some notable style advances to be found in the coming warm weather suits, sport coats and slacks.

It has long been observed that when men's fashions evolve, those evolutions usually are initiated in the less costly categories such as shirts and ties.

As a rule, men are more deliberate in their choices when making major expenditures such as for suits, sport coats and slacks. Thus, the present style updatings found in shirts and ties will soon be followed by equivalent innovations in other areas.

A few seasons ago men began to express interest in shirts that carried white collars on colored bodies. That style, which was but a trickle at first, now has developed into a virtual torrent.

That trend has now evolved into one in which some shirts will have collars of small patterns, larger versions of which will be used on the shirt bodies.

For instance, a finely striped collar will be used on a broadly striped body or a mini-check collar will be used on a graph-check body.

Additionally, there are some definite color changes to be seen in the new shirts.

The pastel hues that have been so popular for the past few seasons have been made a bit deeper and many have been "grayed-down" to offer dusty effects.

There are also more assertive stripings, and there are many multicolored stripes on both white and colored grounds.

But, there is still more. There has been a marked increase in the collar styles offered.

In support of the always popular button-down collars and the much worn pincollars and spread collars, there will be tab collars and short rounded collars that may be worn either pinned or plain.

The changes in suits are more subtle. Fashion-oriented men and young men are evincing renewed interest in suits, the shoulders of which have a more tailored look.

These have a rather straight effect as opposed to the soft shoulders of the traditionalists and they have a suggestion of a forward pitch which is often accented by a slight "lip" at the sleevehead.

These styles are less extreme than the silhouettes found in either European or

Men's fashions are 'adventurous

Name Designer suits which are more closely fitted to the body.

The new suits aimed at mature men are more roomy, despite the fact that they definitely indicate the waistline.

Double-breasted suits are also due for greater acceptance in the fashion category. Stripes continue to be the most wanted patterns in suits but the array of stripes now stretches well beyond the familiar pin-and-pencil stripes. Look for bolder and multi-colored stripes, quite a few of which will be on mixed grounds.

Silk and silk-type suitings as well as many linen looks continue to be highly favored. There will also be some glowing fabrics that get their sheen from the use of silk yarns, mohair and the use of trilobal polyester yarns.

The use of cotton and cotton-blend fabrics is also on the rise, and there will be many choices in wash-wear suits including seersuckers, pin-feathers and chambrays as well as poplins.

Sport coats forsake bold patterns for neat, textured weaves to be found in linen and silk effects and a host of herringbones and self-weave patterns.

Pure silks, blends including silk and silk looks are outstanding. They will be found in both traditional and fashion sport coats, they will be even more popular than they were last year.

Linen blends continue to be among the most wanted sport coats, and many carry herringbone patterns as well as neat self-patterns.

There is also the beginning of a return to stripes in sport coats. The new stripes are relatively bold, and include chalk stripes, striated looks and some ombres.

All of those vertical patterns offer a refreshingly new look.

Of course, blazers are still the top favorites with American men and they are presently made in every conceivable fabric and some are offered in as many as 20 colors.

The favorite is the classic navy blue and many will be worn in the smart double-breasted versions which are slated to be even more popular than double-breasted suits.

The extremely popular knitted sports shirts are due to get heavily increased competition from woven casual shirts.

The woven shirts not only offer new and attractive colors and patterns, they also come in a host of models.

Many fall in line with the dress shirt trend and make excellent use of contrasting collars, sometimes using knitted collars on woven bodies.

Also very good looking are sport shirts with pajama collars, military-type shirts with epaulets, safari-type shirts and updated tropical shirt-jackets.

Look for a variety of both soft and bright colors, many combinations of colors and in knitted shirts, many models with sectional patterns.

Dress slacks trend to solid colors and unpatterned mixtures of collar. But many borrow the bright hues usually seen on golf courses and those look great with blue blazers.

For the style-conscious fellows there are themed slacks embroidered with designs of boats, tee flags, ducks, racquets and other sporting motifs.

A new or revived trend is the wearing of striped slacks. One can select from either belted or self-supporting models and young men increasingly go for pleated slacks.

Bright colors match perfectly for spring

Springtime freshness and vitality are contagious. It's the time of year when thoughts are focused on the great outdoors and warm weather.

Naturally enough, one thinks of bright new clothes to replace those winter woollens. And nothing could be brighter than Garanimals' 'spring '84 collection—coordinated separates that feature stylish color and design combined with comfort and durability all at down-to-earth prices.

Garanimals, pioneers of the color matching animal hangtag system that helps children select their own clothing and learn to dress themselves, makes clothes that look good and last long!

Here are some of the new silhouettes and trends that make spring a good time to celebrate:

•Color is big news this season—ice cream tints that run the spectrum of the rainbow, and look good enough to eat!

You'll be seeing lots of sherbet pink, lilac and aqua for girls, and khaki, grey and bold blue and red for boys.

•An exciting silhouette is the "skort"—a combination skirt/short that means greater ease, styling, and comfort, with a very contemporary look. The skort is short length, but flares at the bottom like a skirt—it's just like getting two-for-the-price-of-one.

•Self-belted pants for boys are being seen every where. They give a dressier, more finished look to an outfit—perfect for Easter. Other popular styles include sporty elastic waist pants with contrast piping, and "safari" shorts with functional cargo pockets and key clip on belt loop—a fun extra.

•Kid's tops mirror fashion trends from the adult market this season. Styles like mesh tank overlays, v-insert necklines, boatneck tops and snappy fashion collars have filtered down into children's wear, and they're favorites.

'Actionwear' has become a big business in 1980's

Actionwear for participating sportsmen is a rapidly growing category of fashion. The old drab utilitarian look is giving way to colorful coordinated tops and bottoms, and the new ideas are so appealing that they are often worn for loungewear as well as for sports.

The trend in tennis garb is to white trimmed with touches of color. Swimwear extends from the minimal bikinis to surfer styles and the more sedate cabana sets with either matching or coordinated tops and trunks.

There is also fashion news in formalwear. The trend there is to the classics, but to a wide array of classics. Peaked labels, notched lapels and shawl collars can be had in both fashion and traditional tuxedos.

CASUAL LOOK—Pictured here is a beige cotton striped shirt-jacket and matching pants. This shirt is accentuated with a khaki black striped shirt with pajama collar and leather sandals.

"Cool, crisp" are keys for men's apparel

The message from the top men's fashion experts for this spring and summer is "crisp, cool and comfortable."

The winners of the prestigious Cutty Sark Men's Fashion Awards, voted by the nation's fashion press, are designing new styles for the active man who wants elegance without looking fussy.

Ron Chereskin, named Outstanding Sportswear Designer in the last Cutty Sark Awards, recommends "pulled-together sports clothes" as the look for 1984. "For example, I like a cotton open-knit V-neck pullover coupled with a short-sleeved cotton-knit sports shirt and pencil striped herringbone walking shorts."

As easy—almost negligent—look, highlighted by ultra-stylish fashion touches, is the contribution from Italy's Guanni Versace, winner of Cutty Sark's International Designer Award. His unstructured knitwear, for example, features such details as steel and enamel buttons and the mixing of natural fibers—linen, cotton, cord and burlap.

Warm-weather clothing should be of the highest weight and the least amount of construction," according to Sal Cesarani, two-time nominee for Outstanding U.S. Designer. His new 1984 looks draw their inspiration from the flamboyant 1920's. "A suit of lightweight cotton-shirting fabric, worn with a madras shirt and a cotton pullover sweater vest, can be worn to the office or tieless as sportswear," he says.

The versatile sweater plays an important part in the experts' spring collections, but none more so than with Laura Pearson, whose Tijuca sweaters won her the Cutty Sark Most Promising U.S. Designer title.

"Brand new for spring are my 'fragment' sweaters," she reports. "They feature abstract graphic designs of black-and-white broken lines, with color accents of azulila, which is a combination of blue and lilac. They're designed in pullover, vest and cardigan styles."

And, now that your wardrobe is up-to-date, gentlemen, how about a toast to these fashion experts with the scotch for which their awards are named.

WEDDING STORIES

Wedding stories and photos must be submitted to this newspaper within eight weeks of the wedding date.

ACTIVE OUTFIT—This outfit features active shorts featuring snap pocket trim and asymmetrical zipper treatment. Fabric piecing in the vest combines mesh and cotton sheeting for a textural mix. Top stitching detail and 3-D bellows pockets add visual interest. Functional details, such as metal zippers and snaps, are now considered fashionable.
