From The Editor's Notebook

The Oxford American Dictionary defines reaction as "the occurrence of one condition after a period of the opposite..."

I think of the word reaction when I think of the actions of two governing bodies in Union County during the last two weeks regarding the Joint Meeting of Essex and Union Counties. Within that time period, the Hillside Township Committee and the Roselle Park Borough Council "reacted" to the controversy that has been occurring within the sewerage authority.

In Roselle Park, on reorganization day, the councilman who had served as the Joint Meeting representative last year voted against the appointment that seated someone else for the position. Democrat Gregory Kinloch was replaced by Republican Bob Milici when the GOP took control of Roselle Park government on Jan. 1.

In Hillside, the Township Committee passed a long-winded resolution Tuesday night which petitions Joint Meeting to look at its business practices to reduce the cost of its maintenance, provide for a viable audit of its financial records and develop a budget for this year based on the "actual needs" of the sewerage authority without overcharging its members.

Reaction?
I'd say so. In Roselle Park, when was the last time there was dissension on the appointment? In Hillside, why all of a sudden is there a resolution criticizing the sewerage authority?

Reaction.
As I've written before, there's a power struggle going on at Joint Meeting; and Democratic forces have been trying to maneuver to oust Executive Director Michael Brinker and replace him with an appointee of their own. By the way, I'm not even saying allegedly anymore, because even some Democrats are willing to go off the record to confirm this.

I believe no one ever expected that Joint Meeting would become the political hotbed it is — given all the media attention it has received during the last month — and now that the political shenanigans have been exposed, opposing forces are trying to strike back as hard as they can.

The attempt to remove Brinker was prevented during the December session of Joint Meeting, when one of its members had the action postponed until a committee of the 11 member communities could study a possible contract for Brinker and return with its recommendations.

How convenient that Hillside passed the resolution Tuesday, just in time for that committee meeting yesterday.

The full Joint Meeting is scheduled to meet Jan. 19 at 4 p.m. in Maplewood Town Hall. We're not sure if those recommendations will be presented, but it should be an interesting session.

I'm sure we'll see more of the "reaction" played out there.

Freeholders considering historic home purchase

By Sean P. Carr
Staff Writer

The Board of Chosen Freeholders is considering a purchase of the Andrew Hampton Homestead-St. John's Parsonage in Elizabeth from the Elizabeth Historical Foundation.

County Chief of Parks and Recreation Daniel Bernier said the department is recommending the purchase of the historic house and its 4-acre lot on Pearl Street and the Elizabeth River.

Bernier said the county pays the foundation about $23,000 annually for renting the house as office space for the Office of Cultural and Heritage Affairs.

The office will be moving out of the house by Jan. 31. On an interim basis, it will be housed at the United Jersey Bank building purchased as the future site of a juvenile detention center.

Bernier said the county nearly entered into an agreement with the foundation several years ago to purchase the house for $290,000 and also take over two other historic buildings, the Belcher-Ogden Mansion and the Nathaniel Bunnell House. A deal this year would likely include only the parsonage house at a lesser cost, he said.

Susan Coen, director of the office of cultural and heritage affairs, said the county will seek state Green Acres funds to defray purchasing costs. Bernier said a Green Acres application would necessitate additional appraisals of the property and delay any purchase date.

Michael Yesenko of Union, president of the Union County Historical Society, said the house was built in 1696 for Andrew Hampton, a tailor by trade who oversaw highways and roads in the county. At that time, Essex County included modern-day Essex and Union counties.

Hampton and his wife, Lady Margaret Commie, emigrated from Scotland via Long Island in 1688, Yesenko said. He was a friend of Thomas Clark, grandfather of Declaration of Independence signer Abraham Clark, for whom the township is named.

Hampton also administered the estate of Dr. William Robinson, part of which remains a historic site in Clark today, Yesenko said.

"People wore many hats in those days," Yesenko said.

He said the house's cornerstone includes the names of both Andrew and Margaret Hampton, which is unique since wife's names were rarely included on marks of ownership.

The house later passed to the Emmott family, and in 1750 to Rev. Bradbury Chandler, a minister at St. John's Episcopal Church on Broad Street, who married Jane Emmott, Yesenko said.

The house became a parsonage for St. John's in 1765, when a new wing was added.

The parsonage was remodeled twice in the 19th century, as a school and mission house in 1817 and as an expanded mission house in the 1870s, Yesenko said.

In 1902, an Italian immigrant family, Pasquale Girolamo and his wife, Carmelo Tavormina, acquired the property. In 1953, a widow, Rose Genova, who had joined them as part-owner, remodeled the house into a three-apartment building, Yesenko said.

The Kean family's Elizabethtown Historical Foundation bought the property, which was put on the Historic American Buildings Survey in 1940, in 1960, he said. The foundation restored the house to its 1870-1920 period look.

"It's a very lovely place," Yesenko said.

He said the periodical Architecture in New Jersey once described the house as "light and graceful, with an overall feeling of refinement."

Ice skating available at Warinanco

Warinanco Ice Skating Center, a facility of the Union County Division of Parks and Recreation, is available for skating by the public six days a week.

"I am pleased so many people have been utilizing this marvelous park facility in Union County," said Freeholder Edwin Force. "In spite of the mild weather we experienced in December, hundreds came out and enjoyed this winter sport. Ice skating is well-suited for all members of the family and is a great way to exercise."

General skating sessions are held:

- Tuesdays, 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
- Wednesdays, 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 3:30 to 5:30 p.m.
- Thursdays, 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

- Fridays, 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.; 3:30 to 5:30 p.m.; 6 to 8 p.m., a family session; and 8:30 to 10:30 p.m.
- Saturdays, 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.; 1 to 3 p.m.; and 8:30 to 10:30 p.m.

- Sundays, 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.; 1 to 3 p.m.; 3:30 to 5:30 p.m.; and 8:30 to 10:30 p.m.

For the family session, no one under 17 will be admitted without an adult.

Admission to the general public is $4 for adults, $3 for children age 17 and under, and $3.60 for senior citizens age 62 and over with proper identification.

Discount cards for Union County residents who plan to skate on a regular basis are also on sale. For those who are interested, semi-private and private lessons are available. Skate rentals, a pro shop and a refreshment stand are other features of the Center.

The Warinanco Ice Skating Center is located off Thompson Avenue in Warinanco Park, Roselle. Park entrances are located on St. Georges Avenue, Thompson Avenue and Third Avenue. For more information, call (908) 298-7850 for a recorded message.

Loan program weighed

The Assembly Commerce and Regulatory Professions Committee approved legislation last week to establish a student-loan redemption program for pharmacists who work in underserved areas.

Assemblyman Neil Cohen, D-Union, is the sponsor of the measure, A-2236.

The bill, cosponsored by Assemblyman Jeff Moran, R-Ocean, would create a "Pharmacist Loan Redemption Program" within the state Office of Student Assistance. The program would provide a method for qualified pharmacy students to redeem a portion of their student-loan expenses for each year of service they provide pharmaceutical work in an underserved New Jersey community.

The maximum loan redemption would be 15 percent for one full year of service, 20 percent for a second full year, and 40 percent for a fourth full year. The total redemption of student loans may not exceed $70,000.

Lions Club treats patients with holiday gifts

Patients and residents of Rumlells Specialized Hospital of Union County were treated to the Lions Club of New Providence-Berkeley Heights and the Rumlells Hospital Volunteer Guild Annual Christmas Gift Distribution, held in December, announced Union County Freeholder Chairman Linda DiGiovanni, who helped pass out the gifts.

Also acting as Santa's helpers were Freeholder Vice Chairman Ed Force and Freeholders Walter McLeod and Linda-Lee Kelly.

Santa was there, of course, and entertainment was provided for the patients, residents, their friends and families and Rumlells' staff by Pat-Dee Kings of Rhythm.

"We have 345 patients and residents who received gifts this holiday season from the Lions Club of New Providence-Berkeley Heights, and the hospital's Volunteer Guild members," said DiGiovanni.

said he was "glad that I came to help in some small way, which I know made our patients and residents happy. All you had to do was look at the smiles on their faces."

"The Lions Club of New Providence-Berkeley Heights do many things for our people here at Rumlells, but it always seems to be something special at Christmas time," said McLeod.

Freeholder Kelly echoed all the comments, and added that "the Lions Club and the Volunteer Guild do more than give out gifts. They give their time, and that's not easy during the holidays, when everyone has so much to do."

Bassano cited for work with disabled

The Arc of New Jersey, formerly known as the Association for Retarded Citizens, recently named Senator C. Louis Bassano Legislator of the Year for his leadership in fighting for increased funding and services for the developmentally disabled.

Bassano received the award based on a career long commitment to the developmentally disabled that culminated in his sponsorship of a $160 million bond issue approved by the voters on Nov. 8, 1994 to expand the availability of residential housing for the more than 4,000 families of a state waiting list.

"The passage of the bond act will eventually bring to an end the nearly interminable wait experienced by those families with developmentally disabled children who are desperately struggling to provide the constant care and attention these individuals need while trying to maintain a home and livelihood," Bassano noted.

The bond legislation, which provides $160 million in funding to be utilized exclusively for services to reduce the community residential waiting list, appeared to have little chance of becoming a reality as late as June 1994 during the Legislature's combative budgetary process. But with fate of the governor's budget hanging in the balance, Bassano decided to hold his potential vote in support of the administration's budget "hostage" until he received assurances from Governor Whitman and legislative leaders that they would commit to moving the legislation forward so that the issue could ultimately be decided by the state's voters in the form of an Election Day referendum.

The Bassano proposal, which gained final legislative approval in the fall, was supported by an overwhelming majority of voters on Nov. 8, 1994, thereby clearing the way for the state to issue $160 million in bonds, the proceeds of which will go to the Division of Developmental Disabilities for residential placement programs.

Bassano stressed that he had to employ this politically risky strategy in order to help the cause of the bond issue "because at least one fourth of the 4,000 developmentally disabled whose families are considered so desperate for residential placement are in danger of harm or serious regression. Often these cases involve an adult with severe disabilities being cared for by an elderly parent with limited resources. As the saying goes, desperate times require desperate measures; I knew that the cause was one that any state lawmaker with a heart could not possibly ignore."

The Arc of New Jersey represents more than 5,800 members and member families in New Jersey. The organization consists of 20 chapters devoted to various education, medical, respite, intervention, family training and employment programs.

County college releases breakdown of students served

Union County College in 1993-94 served 25,761 individuals in its credits, noncredit and community services offerings at its campuses in Cranford, Elizabeth, Plainfield and Scotch Plains and at off-campus locations.

According to the college's annual report issued last week, the college served 6,071 full-time and 8,699 part-time students in Degree programs, and 10,991 in continuing education, noncredit offerings, including students in the Career Institute, the Union County Police Academy, and the Industry Business Institute.

Elizabeth sent the largest number of students to Union County College in 1993-94, 4,068. Union County College enrolled 1,778 students from Union, 1,695 from Plainfield, 1,618 from Linden, 1,354 from Cranford, and 1,246 from Westfield.

A highlight of the 1993-94 year was the observance of the 60th anniversary of the college's founding on Oct. 16, 1933. The activities included a gala concert and auction, a dinner-dance, lectures, concerts, student-conducted birthday parties on each campus and dedication of new facilities.

"It has been my privilege and pleasure over the last year to serve as host of the college's 60th anniversary celebrations," said Thomas H. Brown, UCC president. "Our 60th anniversary year was made special by the cementing of ties with two of Union County's largest corporations, Merck & Company and Schering-Plough Corporation. These companies made possible the creation of new science laboratories in the Elizabeth campus. The synergistic merger of academic and corporate resources is the cornerstone of an employed and productive community. Our corporate partners are an increasingly vital component in our growth and in the continued fulfillment of our mission."

A major accomplishment during the year was the establishment of a Regional Health Education Center at the Scotch Plains Campus utilizing the Health Technologies Building in cooperation with the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey. The college and the university will offer jointly health professions programs leading to a joint associate in arts degree.

Another major accomplishment was the establishment of the Jobs/Port Educational Institute to provide educational and training services for workers at Port Newark/Port Elizabeth. This is a joint project of Union County College, Essex County College and the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey.

During this year, the college designed and awarded contracts totaling $3 million for an addition to the campus center building at the Cranford campus to provide state-of-the-art fitness center, dance studio, and classrooms.

At the Cranford campus, the college also renovated and modernized the chemistry laboratories to serve about 1,000 students taking introductory to advanced chemistry courses; replaced a portion of the roof of the Nomahegan Building, which was opened in 1959, and designed and constructed a courtyard with extensive landscaping and seeding the area within the Nomahegan Building, Science Building and the Commons. At the Elizabeth campus, the elevators were renovated and modernized.

Under a National Science Foundation Grant, the college installed a gateway to Internet, the fiber optics superhighway system, provided customized training for faculty and staff to use the system and published and distributed a booklet, "UCC: Navigating the Internet." The college also installed a new, state-of-the-art automated library system, providing access to library holdings and other services from all college personal computers and from home-based computers.

During the year, the college raised $2,219,857 in private gifts and contributions, and county, state and federal grants and contracts. It also received a grant of $913,000 from the New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority and a special appropriation of $1.3 million from the New Jersey Legislature from the addition to the campus center.

The college also developed additional articulation agreements with Caldwell College, Caldwell, St. Peter's College, Jersey City, Kean College of New Jersey, Union, and Fairleigh Dickinson University in Rutherford, all in New Jersey, and Mount Aloysius College, Cresson, Pa.; Tuskegee Institute, Tuskegee, Al., and Widener University, Chester, Pa.

The Two Plus Two Tech Prep Consortium was expanded to include 11 Union County educational institutions for articulation in professional nursing, office systems technology, mechanical engineering technology, electro-mechanical technology, computer science/data processing, account data processing, and marketing.

Other major accomplishments include awarded $6,068,524 to 2,550 students in federal, state and institutional financial assistance; implemented long range plan to provide a computer in every faculty office and retained excellent financial condition per audit report of Ernst & Young.

Bill transfers costs from county to state

A bill sponsored by Assemblyman Monroe Jay Lustbader, R-Union, that will transfer Judicial and Probation employees from county payrolls to the state payroll, and consequently yield significant savings for taxpayers in Essex and Union, has been signed into law by the Governor Whitman.

"The intention of the measure is two fold. It will address such issues as Pension Benefits, and Collective Bargaining with no strings attached relief," said Lustbader.

The bill, A-2381, establishing "The Judicial Employees Unification Act," implements the constitutional amendment approved by state voters in November 1992, which called for the assumption of certain court-related costs and functions, presently borne by the counties, by the state government. The amendment also mandated that the savings from this transfer be passed on to the taxpayers.

The counterpart of this bill, S-1548, was introduced in the state Senate by Senate President Donald DiFrancesco, and Senator William Gormley. According to the Administration Office of the Courts, total statewide savings from the implementation of this act will reach $106 million by 1996, and continue to rise.

The same statistics show that Essex County will save $15.8 million for the next fiscal year. Union County will save $9.2 million in its 1996 fiscal budget. Also, according to the administrative office of the courts, Essex will transfer 1,087 employees to the state, and Union will transfer 506.

Lustbader said, "This new law has balanced the interests of government employees, the judiciary, and the taxpayers."

The Whitman administration has said that it will be able to cover the costs of the transfer, without negatively impacting the overall state budget, through other cost-saving measures.

"In introducing this bill, I wanted to ensure that Essex and Union counties, and other counties, would be relieved of an inequitable burden, which should more fairly be assumed by state government," explained Lustbader.

Women for Women offers workshops

Women for Women of Union County Inc., has added three new eight-week programs to its support groups which start on Jan. 16 or Jan. 17, at 7:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall of Westfield Presbyterian Church, 140 Mountain Ave., Westfield. The programs are as follows:

Westfield: "A New Self-Image" — Tuesdays beginning Jan. 17. For those who are ready to address issues of self-esteem, self-care, weight management and life style. Body/mind connection will be addressed.

Book Discussion Group. Call 232-5787 for further information.

"Women Who Love Too Much" — Tuesdays beginning Jan. 17. A self-help group for women whose relationships with men up to now have been usually destructive. Bring a copy of "Women Who Love Too Much" by Robin Norwood.

Single Parenting — Mondays beginning Jan. 16. Single parents play a key role in family stability. The development of the needs of parents and children will be addressed. In the support group, participants will learn new parenting skills and techniques by sharing with other single parents.

"Building Self Esteem" — Mondays beginning Jan. 16. Interactive experience in a trusting environment group will help participants to communicate directly and openly, respond to manipulation and criticism, reduce anxiety, increase self-esteem and present a positive self.

"Coping With Separation and Divorce" — Mondays beginning Jan. 16. A support group for separated and divorced women and those contemplating these decisions. The group will discuss loss, rejection, guilt, anger and loneliness.

Leadership Training — A training program for those who have been in a support group and demonstrated leadership qualities. Participants will learn about group dynamics and how to facilitate a group. Call 232-5787 to register.

Roselle Park: Community United Methodist Church, Chestnut Street, Roselle Park. "Systematic Training For Effective Parenting" — beginning Jan. 18. STEP is designed to help parents learn new parenting skills and techniques. Participants work together in small support groups to discuss common concerns. The fee is waived if unable to pay.

Community Education Monthly Workshops, Westfield: "A New Year's Renewal: Letting Go of the Old, Restoring Your Self-Image" — today. This program will be an overview and preparation for the "New Self-Image Group" starting on Jan. 17. Leader will be Dorothy Van Dyke.

"Menopause and The Baby Boom-er" — Feb. 2; snow date Feb. 9. As an entire generation of women approaches menopause, many are already experiencing discomfort and stress. Women can find out how they can "manage your own menopause" and enhance the quality of their life.

"I Can't Relax, I Don't Have Time!!!" — March 2. Leisure is often difficult for women to incorporate into their lives. In a world filled with work, commitments and fatigue, they sometimes prevent themselves from joyfully playing and embracing the life around them. If they feel guilty when they relax, this is an opportunity to enjoy an evening "play shop" of fun exploring and have the time of your life. The leader is Laraine Cox Reedy.

Speedy Car Wash outshines the rest It's located in an industrial area on Lehigh Avenue — not exactly the kind of place you might expect to find a car wash; but somehow the Speedy Car Wash has managed to do quite nicely over the past 20 years. "The thing that's been interesting is that there's no other commerce on the street," said owner Gene Rooney, "but there are people who go far out of their way to come to us." According to Rooney, who has operated the business for the past 20 years, the customer receives the best possible service at a reasonable price. During winter months, Speedy Car Wash completely removes road salt from vehicles. At Speedy Car Wash, an exterior wash goes for about $2 less than the average car wash, a competitive price in a business where customers can be charged $7 simply for an exterior wash, not to mention amenities such as hot wax. Rooney, though, at his totally "brushless" operation, provides more than just a lower price, while providing personalized service in what can be a very impersonal, high volume business. In addition, the Speedy Car Wash offers free, self-service mat washing equipment, something many other car washes dispense only for an extra charge. Speedy also offers coin-operated, self-service vacuum cleaners. Rooney always keeps his equipment up to date, replacing washing equipment as part of an ongoing commitment to giving the best wash for the money. "There's no equipment in the world that will do an absolutely perfect wash," he explained, adding, however, that a little extra effort can produce a superior service. At Speedy Car Wash, Rooney's employees take time to wash off excess dirt from every vehicle before it even enters the conveyor — and the workers must greet each customer courteously because it is their job to do so. When the car wash is not operating, Rooney is still busy keeping all equipment in working order. "We've really done a lot of maintenance on our equipment," he said. "I think that our assemblage of equipment is superior to most other car washes in the area." During winter months, Speedy Car Wash is open seven days a week from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

COUNTY NEWS

Counseling is topic

"Counseling the Addicted Person and Family in the Group Setting" will be the topic of a seminar on Jan. 20 by the National Council on Alcoholism and Drug Dependence of Union County Inc. at its office at 300 North Avenue East in Westfield.

Taught by James O'Connell, a licensed psychologist in private practice in Metuchen, the course is $45 in advance, $50 at the door.

To register, call NCADD of Union County at (908) 233-8810.

Course offered for CPR

Anne Dashevsky, Health and Safety Coordinator, announces that the Eastern Union County Chapter of the American Red Cross will conduct an instructor course in "CPR for the Professional Rescuer" with an optional basic level CPR and first aid instructor session.

The course runs a total of five days — all weekends — or about 30 hours. The cost ranges from $175 to $265. The deadline for registration is April 8. The instructor certification is recognized nationally by all American Red Cross chapters.

For more information, call (908) 353-2500 between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. weekdays or leave a name and complete address with the answering service after-hours at the same phone number.

Volunteers sought

Literacy Volunteers of Union County will hold a tutor-training workshop for new volunteers to teach English as a Second Language. The six-session workshop will be held on Saturday mornings starting Jan. 21 through March 4 from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

The sessions will be held at the New Providence Library, 377 Elkwood Ave., New Providence.

Volunteers aged 18 and older are needed to tutor non-English speaking adults in Union County. Students can learn techniques for teaching adults how to read, write and speak English. No prior teaching experience is necessary.

For more information and to register, call (908) 925-7755, or write to: Literacy Volunteers of Union County, 926 N. Wood Ave., Linden, 07036.

Grant received

The Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders have announced that the county's Division of Parks and Recreation is the recipient of a grant from the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs which will underwrite recreational activities especially for people with disabilities.

The $9,000 Recreational Opportunities for Individuals with Disabilities grant will supplement the county's ongoing efforts in this regard. Programs being planned for 1995 include crafts, golf, post-stroke exercise classes, volleyball and square dancing. Funds will also be used by the Office of Cultural and Heritage Affairs to present a conference titled, "Arts Across the Ages: The Year of Access." The focus of the conference will be on encouraging senior adult involvement in recreational artistic activities.

"Union County has a long-standing commitment to providing recreational opportunities to all county residents," said Freeholder Edwin Force, liaison to the Parks and Recreation Advisory Board. "While our goal is to have all our programs accessible to all members of the public, we recognize that there are members of our community who need or desire activities designed especially for people with special needs. This grant will enable us to offer these activities."

"Joining us in this effort in 1995 are many local recreation departments and YMCAs," noted County Manager Ann M. Baran. "Cooperating agencies include the Linden Recreation Department, the Arc of Union County, the City of Summit's Recreation Department and the YMCAs in Scotch Plains and Five Points in Union."

In addition to the programs funded by the grant, the county's schedule includes fishing derbies, a barn dance and swimming. A bimonthly listing of upcoming activities is available free of charge by calling the Division of Parks and Recreation at (908) 527-4900.

Stewards named

The Rutgers Cooperative Extension of Union County 4-H Program announced that the following people have completed training to be 4-H Master Tree Stewards: Ida Breitbart and Robert Markey of Rahway, Bean Chambers of Summit, Jeanne Lindquist and Minna Sberling of Linden.

To become a 4-H Master Tree Steward, one needs to complete a 20-hour course in arboriculture and pledge 30 hours of volunteer time to teaching youth about shade trees and their care.

For more information, call James Nichnadowicz, 4-H Agent, at (908) 654-9854.

Great 1950s music is a treat

By Bea Smith
Lifestyle Editor

The romantic, memorable songs of the 1950s and 1960s are rejuvenating and entertaining audiences at the Paper Mill Playhouse in Millburn, as four young men harmonize favorites in a concert-like show called "Forever Plaid." It's an enjoyable treat to those of us who grew up with that kind of music and a special new treat to the young who are hearing it all for the first time.

Surrounded by a medley of such splendid music as "Three Coins in a Fountain," "Love Is a Many-Splendored Thing," and "Catch a Falling Star," warbled by four versatile, extremely talented young men, the production was cleverly written, directed and choreographed by Stuart Koss. It comes to the Paper Mill directly from its lengthy four-year off-Broadway run. It also was staged in 30 major cities across the world.

Most unusual is the story line which concerns four innocent young men who, like thousands of other young men of that period, formed a "guy group" and tried to emulate the jukebox sounds of the Ames Brothers, The Four Coins, the Four Lads, the Four Freshmen and the Four Aces. These four, who call themselves Forever Plaid, maintaining full-time jobs and singing their hearts out at weddings, Bar Mitzvahs, church functions, supermarket openings, and so on, finally get their big break. On their way in to pick up their beloved plaid jackets, their "plaidmobile" is struck by a school bus filled with Catholic school girls and nuns on their way to see the Beatles on the Ed Sullivan Show. And the quartet of young men are killed.

In the opening scenes, they are seen in the shadows of the Paper Mill stage explaining that "by a twist of heavenly fate, and expanding holes in the ozone layer," they have been sent back to earth for one night only to do the show. So, they invite the audience to their one big effort.

What endears these average young men — all of whom are re-creating

their original New York roles — Sparky, played by Jonathan Brody, Jinx, played by Roy Chicas, Smudge, played by David Engel and Frankie, played by Robert Lambert — to the audience are their talents, their simplicity, their ailments and their foibles. One young man suffers from bloody noses, another has asthma — but when all four get together, everything is forgotten in their earnest effort to entertain.

And entertain, they do. Before long, in a theater decorated with plaid colors, they give forth an extravaganza of music as they hug their four microphones. Even the ushers wear plaid bowties — accompanied by a tuxedoed pianist, who also is the music director, David Gursky, donning a pair of plaid sneakers, and Andy Eulau, bass player. One could hear many in the audience singing along to "Anniversary Song," "Dream Along With Me," "Gotta Be This Or That," "Heart and Soul," "Lady of Spain," "Magic Moments," "Moments to Remember" and "Rags to Riches."

There also is audience participation, some really fun moments, and an outstanding Calypso scene where the boys entertain in a medley of songs and comedy such as "Matilda" and "Kingston Market." Also outstanding are the production numbers accompanied by "Papa Loves Mumbo," "Perfidia," "Sixteen Tons," "Temptation," "Sh Boom (Life Could Be a Dream)," and "Undecided." The marvelous imitation of Johnny Ray's "Cry," and the rendition of "Sing to Me, Mr. C.," a tribute to Perry Como, can really tear a theater-goer's heart out.

However, the real show stopper — and what a whopper it is — is the Plaids' interpretation of the Ed Sullivan Show, which was the most popular Sunday night television show in the history of the 1950s and early 1960s. It hits the audience with a memory-throbbing awareness of the variety of the Sullivan shows, from the imitation of Sullivan mumbling "...a rilly big shew..." to a dozen Senor Wences' Johnnies, and the Bancho head in the box, to To Jo Gijo, to tumbling acts, balancing dishes, everything that made up the Ed Sullivan Show.

The musical continuity and vocal and musical arrangements are credited to the late James Raitt. Much credit is due to the marvelous lighting by Neil Peter Jampolis and Jane Reisman, with Debra Stein in charge of costume design, David Paterson, sound design, and Lora K. Powell as stage manager.

The most gratifying part of the show is when the foursome receive a gift package of their plaid jackets. And then they really do some big time harmonizing — reaching their goal — becoming famous.

They are saddened by the fact that they must now return to their heavenly endeavors, but to the minds of their audiences in the story and the theater, they are "Forever Plaid."

The audience is placated, however, by reminiscence, envisioning and remembering the innocent decade before rock 'n' roll took over. And where else, we ask, are we going to hear "Love Is a Many-Splendored Thing" sung with quite such vitality and harmony ever again?

Show gone

"Restless Heart," the country music show originally scheduled for Feb. 18 at Union County Arts Center, Rahway, has been canceled, it was announced.

Ticket holders are requested to call the Arts Center box office at (908) 499-8226 for refund information.

The Arts Center is offering two options in addition to cash refunds. They are an exchange for tickets to the Doug Stone/Tim Gillis concert on April 28 or an exchange for an Arts Center gift certificate.

Ginger Brady, the Arts Center box office manager, can be contacted.

'Forever Plaid' harmonizers, from left, David Engel, Robert Lambert, Jonathan Brody and Roy Chicas, play a 1950s musical group in the concert-like show at the Paper Mill Playhouse, Millburn. The production, which has added another performance on Jan. 31 at 8 p.m., will run through Feb. 5.

Vereen set for college

"An Evening with Ben Vereen" will be held at Kean College of New Jersey in Union as the actor and dancer "showcases his artistry" Feb. 9. The program, which is part of the college's Cultural Arts series, will be held in the Wilkins Theater at 8 p.m.

Vereen, who starred in the Broadway hit, "Jelly's Last Jam," will be featured in a dramatic re-creation of his Chicken George role from television's "Roots."

Drawing on the "personal odyssey of his recovery from a near fatal truck accident," Vereen will share a message about "overcoming adversity."

He has performed on the Broadway stage, the concert circuit and the small screen of television. Vereen's performance will include live music, dance, dramatic interpretation, as well as dialogue with the audience.

For further information, one can contact the box office at (908) 527-2337.

Concert scheduled

The Westfield Symphony will resume its 1994-95 "Season of Favorites" Jan. 28 with an all Beethoven program at Westfield High School, Rahway Avenue and Dorian Road.

The concert will feature a guest appearance by the Eroica Trio, who will perform the solo parts in the "Triple" Concerto. Music director Brad Keimach will conduct the orchestra in the Concerto and also in the "Overture to King Stephen" and the Symphony No. 4. The concert will begin at 8 p.m., and Keimach will offer a pre-concert talk at 7 p.m.

The Eroica Trio includes pianist Erika Nickrenz, violinist Adela Pena and cellist Sara Sant'Ambrogio.

Tickets for the Eroica Trio's appearance with the Westfield Symphony are available from the symphony office at (908) 232-9400. The price is $21 with discounts to $18 for senior citizens and $12 for students.

The symphony is offering a spring mini-subscription, to include the all-Beethoven concert, an all strings program March 4, and a concert performance of "La Boheme" on April 8. Prices start at $51.

The Westfield Symphony is a professional orchestra serving northern and central New Jersey with concert presentations and educational programs. The symphony has been named a "distinguished arts organization" for 1994-95 by the New Jersey State Council on the Arts.

Senior Y Choral Group to stage concert

The senior Y Choral Group will be directed in concert by Molly Serbin on Jan. 31 at noon at the YM-YWHA of Union County, 501 Green Lane, Union.

There will be no charge for the concert and the public is invited to come in by 11 a.m. and sign-up for lunch, which will be served at 11:30. A meatball and spaghetti luncheon will be served for a fee of $1.50. No prior reservations for the concert are necessary and sign-in for lunch is on the same day.

For additional information, one can call Myrna Friedman at (908) 289-8112.

January 15-21

ARIES — March 21/April 20
The old saying, "what comes around, goes around," applies this week. So keep your spontaneous side at bay and think before you act. Plan out a strategy before taking on a major project. Otherwise, you could end up doing extra work. Travel arrangements need careful attention.

TAURUS — April 21/May 21
Time will be a valuable commodity this week. Use it well. Although you probably want to sit back in front of the television and relax, you probably won't get a chance for such luxuries. Good news will come from an unexpected source. You will learn something new on Friday.

GEMINI — May 22/June 21
A satisfying week. With your stamina at an all-time high, you will successfully tackle projects that demand more than the usual amount of time and effort. This will certainly get you noticed in the workplace. A romantic weekend is in store.

CANCER — June 22/July 22
An excellent week for success. If you are involved in any type of scientific work, you could make a major breakthrough, while Cancers in creative fields will be able to put innovative ideas into action. Romance is looking good, too. Make sure you show loved ones how you feel.

LEO — July 23/August 23
Stay away from large investments and contracts of any kind. This is not the week to make any type of financial dealings. Instead, focus your energies on the simple things in life. Share quiet moments with family and friends.

VIRGO — Aug 24/Sept 22
You may have to do more of the giving than the taking in a romantic relationship this week. Although this may seem frustrating at first, you'll feel good about it later on. News of a birth or engagement will be a pleasant surprise. Ignore gossip; especially if it's in the workplace.

LIBRA — Sept 23/Oct 23
A happy week overall. You'll realize that life is good. Your work schedule may be a bit more hectic than usual, but you'll find great satisfaction in your creative pursuits. There are many happy and romantic moments to be enjoyed this weekend. Your partner may have a special surprise for you. Always strive to be your best.

SCORPIO — Oct 24/Nov 22
Your intensity and drive will get you exactly what you want this week. After all, hard work is no stranger to you. Problems may arise in a romantic relationship. Patience will be needed in this area. A good week to enter contests and play lotteries. Make the time for exercise.

SAGITTARIUS — Nov 23/Dec 21
A new activity will be the source of stress and excitement at the same time. All you need to do is relax, and you will be able to really enjoy yourself. Accept unusual social invitations if a new romance is what you desire. Financial success will only come to those who are serious about saving.

CAPRICORN — Dec 22/Jan 20
An unexpected expense may set your finances back this week. You may have to make some sacrifices if you wish to balance your budget. A chance meeting with an old flame reminds you of the past. A feeling of nostalgia will warm your heart. A good time to catch up on correspondence.

AQUARIUS — Jan 21/Feb 18
Your enthusiastic nature helps a friend get through a hard time. A few words of advice and encouragement will go a long way. Try not to put tasks off until the last minute as they may take longer than you expect. A creative endeavor turns out a lot better than you'd ever imagined.

PISCES — Feb 19/March 20
An unreliable friend does something else to disappoint you. You'll realize that there are some people you just cannot count on. Good news from an unexpected source brightens the latter part of the week for you. If a change of scene is what you desire, now's the time to take a trip.

YOUR BIRTHDAY THIS WEEK
The next 12 months:
The year may start off a bit slowly, and at some point may even be quite aggravating, especially if you're working towards long-term goals. But remember, what you sacrifice now will pay off doubly in the year to come. Wedding bells will be ringing this year. A close family member may decide to tie the knot and you'll probably be asked to take part in the ceremony. You'll feel honored by such a request. If single, the best months for new romance are June and July. However, lasting love is most likely found in the fall. New friendships are also likely with Leos and Scorpios.

DINING REVIEW

By Pia Wilson

The mysteries of the Orient have unfolded before American eyes for hundreds of years. From the discovery of silk to exotic spices, Asian countries have provided a motherlode of cultural phenomena. One of the first cultural exchanges between countries is often recipes.

Chinese food has become assimilated into the ethnic melting pot of this country, and the phrase "getting some Chinese" is almost as American as getting a piece of mom's apple pie. At the Double Dragon, located at 1230 Morris Ave. in Union, a person can satisfy a sweet tooth with an almond cookie or calm an empty stomach with any one of 181 dishes.

Appetizers range from four types of egg rolls to cold sesame noodles. Seafood lovers can take advantage of the fried seafood platter for two.

The wonton soup, which is very popular, is well-made. Served piping hot, the soup has a smooth consistency, is not too salty and has plenty of dumplings.

The hot and sour soup lives up to its name and is for the brave of heart or tongue. Thick with bean curd and other staples, this soup is an open invitation to an adventurous companion.

All of the capable chefs at the Double Dragon dine-in or take-out restaurant put their hearts into and their reputations behind any dish they serve.

One item listed on the seafood menu is of superior quality. The shrimp with cashew nuts is loaded with an abundance of nicely-sized shrimp, water chestnuts, cashew nuts, mushrooms and snow peas, all in a delightful sauce.

Mushroom egg foo young serves as a wonderful complement to the shrimp fried rice. The omelette packed with mushrooms comes with a gravy — which can be put to the side and added at the patron's discretion — that is delicious when mixed with the rice. Succulent shrimp litter the dish and can be a surprise to the mouth when found under the cover of the gravy.

The prices at the Double Dragon are more than reasonable and better than competitive. A special lunch menu is available Monday through Saturday, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

which is an even bigger bargain. If you're looking for some of the best Chinese food in the area, Double Dragon fits the bill. A person can make his or her fortune there — or at least get a good fortune cookie.

This column is intended to inform our readers about dining opportunities in the area.

She devotes life to helping people

By Bea Smith
Lifestyle Editor

Roslyn Curry of Union, singer, songwriter, humanitarian, who feels that religion has played a major role in her life, is devoting a large portion of her life to helping other people.

The lovely woman with the kind face discussed her new foundation the other afternoon during a visit to this office. "The best part of my life is music and the people I meet to share it with." And she is doing just that by establishing a nonprofit organization called The Random Act of Kindness Foundation. "Its goal," she explained, "is to provide necessary gifts such as clothing, shoes, sneakers or educational supplies to Single Parent Households. This goal is being achieved through the kind donation of broadcast time by WMTR AM, WQCD and WHQT radio stations. Right now, the foundation volunteers are working hard to raise $6,000 for the scholarship fund."

Curry said that "since my best friend, Barbara Pompey, was killed in a car crash in December 1993, I have broadened my interaction with people even more by establishing a nonprofit organization. Actually," she admitted, "I was inspired by Oprah Winfrey's suggestion to America to perform a random act of kindness — that was her challenge to America. I have always helped people and I wanted a legacy to my life. Now, my legacy is the foundation and my musical talent."

Curry, who last performed on Dec. 10, 1994 at the Meadowlands Convention Center in Secaucus for the KISSMAS Holiday Expo and Stars of Tomorrow Talent Showcase, said that "I had asked God for the blessing to sing this year, since my last performance for the Apollo Show-Off Competition in Harlem in 1993. I had been busy writing music for producers in New York.

"Even my mother, Mary Curry, who is known for writing music, is a writer for my foundation. She writes for the Building Bloxx Music."

Curry has been "graced with the kind donations of Geraldo Rivera, Andrew Lofton of All Be Grovin' Productions in Philadelphia, and Noel S. Morgal, a poet and humanitarian right activist for global causes. When I started this organization," she recalled, "I decided on who would receive charity and I wanted to focus on people who were striving in education. In order to contribute to life, I wanted those people who had experienced the disadvantages. So, I decided it should be single parent households."

"So," she smiled, "I wrote a business plan, then registered it with the official offices of the state that would allow me to give charity and solicit donations in the states of New Jersey and New York. And I began implementing my plan by contacting companies and multi-media radio stations — the Network Television, the Community Calendars of ABC, CBS, NBC and channels 11 and 5. They were responsive.

"We've gotten significant donations from them that allowed me to buy educational gifts for children in 1994, and in 1995, we are going to give more gifts. This is an ongoing project, not a seasonal fund raiser because the need is infinite. We have to help all the time. The foundation is to benefit all of humanity because we are one humanity."

Curry's own education is impressive. She graduated magna cum laude from Rutgers University, where she received a bachelor of arts degree in business administration marketing speciality, and completed an Essex County College Gospel Seminar. She trained in theater arts at Rutgers and in television, movies and commercials from the Adult School of Maplewood. Curry has written pop, jazz, rhythm and blues, raggae, rap, gospel and country music, and she not only writes, she types, has computer software knowledge, sews, paints, does business consulting and teaches. She has performed professionally from Atlantic City, the Metropolitan Opera Co. to local New York and New Jersey churches.

Now, she is completely involved in her foundation. "Our kindness is free to everyone. We just want to be a global, diverse nonprofit organization. I'm planning," Curry said, "to have a benefit concert as a fund raiser, and we're pursuing a grant from the New Jersey Arts Council and the governor's office to provide the estimated $60,000 expense needed."

Curry explained that "I'm going to invite minority and disadvantaged people who have an interest in public relations, advertising and marketing to be trained and implement their training through the production of this concert.

"Our foundation will have a single record release that will be produced by the students. The whole demonstration of the concert will be the proven training of the students. In the record that is produced, a significant portion will go to the Random Act of Kindness Foundation for charity." Curry smiled her kind smile. "I will write it. I will sing it. And the students will develop the distribution, the marketing, the packaging, the promotion.

"Furthermore," she added, "I will make a public appeal to anyone interested in free instruction and implementation of their knowledge in a tangible art form — which is the concert."

The musician-writer explained that "we will use the training facilities in Newark — whatever's available. And the public libraries have offered their facilities, both in Newark and Union. I'm glad that there is a place for this," Curry declared. "They charge something, but it's worth it."

Curry admitted that she, too, is "writing songs for Building Bloxx Inc., a music production company in Brooklyn. I'm writing Kwanzaa songs, which is an African heritage celebration that follows Christmas. And for the foundation, I'm contacting Tito Puente to participate in the musical production of one of the songs and to raise money. Also, Danielle Pompey, the sister of my friend, Barbara, who was killed in an auto accident, is the director and creative consultant of the video which we will submit to the television networks.

"I made a promise to God that I'm going to help people. And," she said determinedly, "I will."

Laboratory granted accreditation

Union Hospital's laboratory has been granted a two-year accreditation by the Commission on Laboratory Accreditation of the College of American Pathologists. The CAP accreditation applies to several laboratory services including hematology, coagulation, clinical chemistry, urinalysis, pathology, histology, blood banking, arterial blood gases, microbiology, serology, and clinical toxicology/therapeutic drug monitoring. The commission found that those areas have met the standards for accreditation and cited the continued excellence of the department's services under the supervision of the laboratory's Medical Director Dr. Santosh Raina and Administrative

Director of Diagnostic Services Tina Ilao. "It is a great honor that for the second time in a row, the laboratory has had a virtually flawless CAP accreditation survey," said Union Hospital Executive Vice President Patricia Polansky. "To have this kind of survey required a daily vigilance and high level of professional acumen."

Info Trac available at hospital

Info Trac, a health information system which provides the user access to more than 150 journals, magazines and pamphlets, is now available to visitors of Union Hospital's Medical Library.

Info Trac is specifically designed to speed and ease the information and resource gathering process. With the touch of a button, the user can instantly access volumes of information on a particular subject or topic.

By simply entering a topic, Info Trac immediately begins to search for a match. Once a match is found, the computer then lists various information regarding the entry. It will provide lists of articles, books, and related materials on the topic. Much like a card catalog, it will give a brief description, and provide the name of the author, the date it was written and name of the publication in which it appeared.

"Info Trac is an extremely valuable tool for anyone conducting research on a particular subject," said Union Hospital Medical Librarian Doris Eaton. "The time-saving abilities of this system are a tremendous help in speeding-up the process of gathering information. Info Trac provides pages of information in seconds and makes researching periodicals the easy part of gathering information."

The system is updated on a monthly basis in order to provide the most current information. Info Trac is easy to use, it has been designed to ease the anxiety of those who do not use computers on a regular basis by providing step-by-step directions.

The Medical Library is not just for doctors, nurses and hospital staff, it is also open to all. Area residents may use the library and its resources anytime, whether it be to find information or facts on a particular topic or to just stop in and read a book or magazine. Library hours are Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The library offers a variety of services, including a reference service, online literature searches and interlibrary loans. The library's journal collection covers all aspects of medicine as well as nursing and allied health. There is also a newly established Bereavement Center which contains periodicals regarding death and dying and how to deal with the scope of emotions and situations involved.

To learn more about the library or the Info Trac system, call 851-7234.

Editorial deadlines

Following are deadlines for news: Church, club and social - Friday noon.

Essex Journal - Friday noon.

Sports - Monday noon.

Letters to the Editor - Monday 9 a.m.

General - Monday 5 p.m.

They're the tops

All of Union Hospital's Employees of the Month from the past year gathered for a luncheon in their honor, at which the hospital's Employee of the Year was announced. From left are Otto Monaco of Union, Kelly Quinn of Old Bridge, Sharon Varenkamp of Roselle Park, Employee of the Year Raquel Antunex of Howell, Stephanie Pasciak of Union, Patricia Sutherland of Union and Michael Otchy of Elizabeth. Not Pictured are Gregory Miller of Newark and Gloria Desones of Elizabeth.

Appointments made at health center

The Central New Jersey Medical Group announced two recent appointments to the Union Health Care Center, located at 2401 Morris Ave., in Union.

Dr. Kerry Kilkenny has joined the staff of the Internal Medicine Department. Kilkenny brings three years of training and clinical experience at Norwalk Hospital in Connecticut to HIP Health Plan of New Jersey members.

Kilkenny graduated from the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey in 1991 and did her internship and residency at Norwalk Hospital.

Dr. Chiu-Man Poon has joined the staff of the Pediatrics Department. Poon, who is board certified in pediatrics, will bring more than 15 years of medical experience to HIP Health Plan of New Jersey members.

Poon, a native of Hong Kong, graduated from the University of Hong Kong's Faculty of Medicine in 1978. He did his internship at Queen Mary-Queen Elizabeth Hospital in Hong Kong from 1978 to 1982, then served as Government Medical Officer for Queen Elizabeth Hospital. In 1990, Poon enrolled in the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey, graduating in 1993. He did his residency at Beth Prime Care, Beth Israel Medical Center in Newark.

HIP Health Plan of New Jersey is the state's largest not-for-profit health maintenance organization with 16 health care facilities. More than 171,000 enrolled members receive quality health care from providers in associated medical offices throughout New Jersey and at Plan facilities in Union, Mountainside, Jersey City, Paramus, Union City, Somerset, Piscataway, New Brunswick, Edison, Hamilton, Princeton, Lawrenceville, Sewell, Cherry Hill, Medford and Voorhees.

Blood drive set for Kean College

Faculty, staff, students, alumni and friends of Kean College are invited to participate in a campus-wide blood drive on Feb. 8 from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the Main Lounge of the College's Douglass Hall.

Pre-registration will be held in the lobby of the college's Student Activities/Bookstore building on Feb. 1 and 2 from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Walk-ins are also welcome the day of the drive.

This year's drive will coincide with upcoming Valentine's Day celebrations as participants will be thanked "from one heart to another for being a blood donor." The first 100 eligible donors will receive a personalized photo mug courtesy of Schering-Plough Pharmaceuticals.

Sponsored by New Jersey Blood Services, a non-profit agency, and its parent corporation, the New York Blood Center, NJBS supplies blood to 74 hospitals in the state.

All donors must weigh a minimum of 110 pounds and be in good health. They are also encouraged to eat prior to donating. Some form of ID is required. Donors who are 17 must have signed parental permission.

For more information, contact Susan F. Gordon, blood drive chairperson and assistant director of the Office of College Relations, at 527-2371.

Seniors offered pamphlet

The New Jersey Health Products Council is offering a revised public service pamphlet titled "A New Jersey Directory for Senior Citizens."

The updated edition lists more than 100 telephone numbers, including toll-free numbers, that provide a direct link for senior citizens to state, county and private agencies. These agencies offer information for solving financial, legal, health and welfare problems.

Since 1979, when the NJHPC directory for senior citizens was first published, more than 500,000 copies have been distributed. The directory has large type for increased legibility.

The directory is available upon request. Copies may be obtained by writing to the New Jersey Health Products Council, P.O. Box 3789, Union, NJ 07083.

NJHPC is a nonprofit trade association sponsored by New Jersey's major research-based health products companies. Together, its member companies spend more than $2 billion each year in the search for new medicines.

Do you suffer from a DIABETIC FOOT ULCER?

Union Hospital podiatrists Michael and Joel Lerner, DPM of the Lerner Podiatry Group in Kenilworth are seeking volunteers to participate in a clinical research study to promote healing of diabetic foot ulcers.

The doctors are testing a treatment which may aid in increasing vital cells to allow accelerated healing of these ulcerations. All fees for accepted patients paid by sponsor. Diabetics interested in participating in this study should call:

The alternative method to 'painful' electrolysis

With the GHR hair removal process, women and men can enjoy the benefit of permanent hair removal without the use of needles. "GHR offers the only permanent, needle-free form of electrolysis," said Bina Roffman, owner of New Jersey Center for Permanent Hair Removal in Union. "When most people hear the word 'electrolysis,' they think of needles. Permanent hair removal is traditionally done with needle electrolysis, a technique that employs a fine needle inserted into hair follicle," Roffman said.

"Electrical current is passed through the needle and directed toward the hair root, or bulb. The application of current sets off a chemical reaction with the body fluid and forms lye around the needle, which decomposes the tissue it touches. When properly administered, the electrolytic reaction permanently destroys the hair root and prevents regrowth of the hair."

The GHR device also uses electrical current, but no needle. A tweezer is used to grasp the hair that has been softened and conditioned, using GHR treatment procedures to make it less resistant to the flow of current, Roffman said.

"Electrical current is applied through the tweezer," Roffman said. "The current then travels down the interior shaft to the root, which is permanently decomposed while the client rests or naps."

New Jersey Center for Permanent Hair Removal is located at the Millburn Mall, 2933 Vauxhall Road, Suite 10, Union. The telephone number is (908) 688-8224.

Passing time

Former Union Hospital employee of the month Sharon Varenkamp places a time capsule in the wall of the hospital lobby. Two capsules were buried, each containing various items which were contributed by departments throughout the hospital. The burying of the capsule marked the final event held in honor of Union Hospital's 50th anniversary. The capsule will remain buried until May 14, 2044.

Dones wins scholarship to Chicago dance center

Mary Dones, a student and assistant teacher at All That Dance, recently won a dance scholarship to the Gus Giordano Dance Center in Chicago, Ill., during a jazz dance audition sponsored by Star Power Workshop in Hasbrouk Heights.

She will be attending the school in September and will be studying with the King of Jazz, Gus Giordano, with hopes of becoming a member of the renowned Gus Giordano Dance Company.

Giordano has taught around the world and has organized the popular Jazz Dance World Congress.

Dones is a member of the All That Dance dancers, a national and international show team. She has performed on the East Coast, in Las Vegas, in the opening ceremonies of the 1994 Goodwill Games in St. Petersburg, Russia, and will be performing this summer at several cities in Italy.

She has won several state and national championships. She is directed by Michele Selvanto-Kowalski.

Wendy Henderson, a former student and now teacher at All That Dance in Elizabeth, recently became a member of the 1995 NBA New Jersey Nets "Jersey Girls" dance team.

Henderson attended an open audition with 104 girls and became one of the 21 members to be chosen at the Meadowlands. She is a former All That Dance dancer and has performed on the East Coast and in Las Vegas, winning several state and national championships.

She was asked to perform with the 1994-95 All That

Mary Dones

Dance dancers in several cities throughout Italy this summer. She instructs acro-gymnastics, jazz and tap while attending college. She is directed under Michele Selvanto-Kowalski.

LaDanse offers fitness classes to suit the needs of everybody

Another new year is upon us, and that means making more new year's resolutions.

If your resolution is to become more fitness minded, don't quit before you begin. Being physically fit is a goal that can be achieved painlessly without spending a lot of your hard earned money, but that means finding a fitness program designed to fit your needs.

Everywhere we turn today, we're reminded to eat more nutritiously and exercise regularly. In today's hectic lifestyle, that's often easier said than done.

The LaDanse School of Performing Arts and Fitness Center makes choosing an exercise program that's right for you, easier by offering more programs at reasonable rates, in a smaller, friendlier atmosphere with no hard sales pitches, no contracts, and convenient hours. The school offers courses in Bellics & Buns, a program that combines low impact cardiovascular exercise and toning to work on those difficult areas such as the abdomen, buttocks, thighs and hips.

Step-N-Stretch I utilizes bench stepping for an invigorating low impact aerobic workout and adds stretching, limbering, and toning exercises for an overall fitness workout for the beginner.

Step-N-Stretch II is offered to those with prior exercise experience who want to increase their cardiovascular workout adding more strenuous exercises to improve their stamina.

The Body Shop is a great overall body sculpting and fitness program combining bench stepping, stretching and toning through the use of hand weights, rubber bands, and isometrics.

Seniorcize is offered for those requiring a fitness program that doesn't overtax the body. It offers cardiovascular workout through the use of isometrics, yoga and gentle stretching and limbering techniques. Nutrition is an important factor to maintain overall body fitness and it is strongly recommended that anyone embarking in a fitness program consult their physician about proper nutrition and exercise right for them.

To help you begin 1995 on a better road to fitness, LaDanse will offer a New Year's special — 10 classes for $25. All classes are limited in size so enroll now to ensure your place in the fitness course of your choice. For a schedule of classes and further information, call (908) 862-6887.

PC ED promises high learning level

The PC ED Philosophy and Mission: Anyone can achieve a high level of computer competence given the proper learning environment. Our goal is to deliver the highest quality training in a comfortable educational setting at the most affordable price.

Learning Computers the PC ED Way:

PC ED is a high tech, yet friendly, computer education firm. From president to instructors, all PC ED associates are professionals dedicated to ensuring our students master the skills they have come to learn.

Many students come to PC ED viewing the computer as an obstacle instead of an effective tool. Our personalized teaching methodology and relaxed learning environment make the difference. Our students leave PC ED with the skills and confidence to use the computer with proficiency and comfort.

Why Choose PC ED? — PC ED promises no boring instructors, no mindless repetition, no stark classrooms. From the moment students enter our newest training center in Cranford, they encounter the charm of a Victorian home. Our five years of training in a relaxed, hands-on environment has proven successful.

How PC ED Can Help You:

At PC ED, we bridge the gap between complicated users' manuals and the day-to-day needs of our students. Our introductory, intermediate and advanced level courses provide students with practical, state-of-the-art training. Our classes explore the use of software as it relates to the professional needs of our students.

To accommodate varying schedules, PC ED offers both day and evening classes. Comprehensive manuals and data disks are used during our courses and also serve as invaluable reference tool after the class is completed.

Additionally, we can tailor courses to your specific needs or to those of your organization. Such customized courses can be conducted at your facility or at PC ED sites in Clifton, Cranford and Edison. For more information on how PC ED can help you or for a schedule of classes, call (908) 276-8866 or (201) EDUCATE.

When choosing business profession, seek Berkeley Colleges for success

There is one sure way to get a head start on success. Choose a business profession.

The world of business is exciting, dynamic, rewarding and demanding. Success in this world is no accident. It takes education, motivation and skills.

Whether you're interested in starting a whole new career or just improving your computer skills, you can get "on-the-job" training in today's modern classroom.

"Businesses no longer have the budget to train employees so they look for applicants with career specific skills," said Maria Pace, executive vice president of Berkeley Colleges. "Berkeley is committed to putting students in the work force — working in positions with better pay and advancement opportunities.

"In fact, when we compared various colleges and programs, we found Berkeley College offers a number of unique advantages not found at other institutions. Each of their classes includes a foundation in business attitudes and ethics. That extra edge seems to produce a significant success difference in their alumni," Pace said.

The college also enforces a business dress code that provides students with basic business dress skills right from the start. So students actually start building a professional wardrobe in school and are better prepared for the job market.

Classes are kept small so students get personal faculty instruction. Convenient scheduling provides courses during the day, evening or on weekends. Associate degree programs can be completed in as little as 18 months while shorter, more intensified programs can be completed in three to 12 months.

Berkeley has five campuses in New York and New Jersey with locations in New York City, White Plains, Woodbridge, Waldwick and West Paterson. To find out more, call 800-446-5400, Ext. NE6.

How to avert sports injuries for young athletic school kids

While contusions, sprains, tears and fractures may be common among professional athletes, such injuries are occurring with alarming frequency in youth sports. As school children across the country start another year of active intra- and intermural sports programs, concerned parents can't help but wonder if their children will make it through the season injury-free.

While countless injuries are avoided each year due to rule changes in youth sports and better equipment, statistics show that 4 million children are treated in hospital emergency rooms each year for sports-related injuries. Another 8 million youngsters are seen by family physicians for sprains, cuts, abrasions and other minor complaints.

The American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons maintains there are marked differences in coordination, strength and stamina between a youth and an adult. In young athletes, bone-tendon-muscle units, growth areas within bones, and ligaments experience uneven growth patterns, leaving them susceptible to injury. During growth spurts of younger children, muscles may be temporarily shorter than the bones they are attached to, making muscles tight and strains and tears possible.

Dr. Jacob Rozbruch, chief of orthopaedic surgery at New York's Beth Israel Medical Center North Division, says that the most frequent injuries he sees in young athletes are (in descending order): 1) ankle sprains and fractures, 2) finger and wrist sprains and fractures, 3) knee cap bruises and dislocations, 4) collarbone fractures and separations, 5) shoulder sprains and dislocations, 6) cartilage tears of the knee and 7) back sprains.

To reduce the frequency and seriousness of these injuries, Dr. Rozbruch, a specialist in athletic trauma and consulting physician for the athletic teams of several New York City schools, suggests pre-season, assessment physicals for every student participating in competitive sports. Such physicals are mandatory in professional sports and can be very helpful in prognosticating potential problems before beginning training.

"These exams enable the physician to ascertain the strengths and weaknesses of each youngster and to determine the presence of any pre-existing condition," says Dr. Rozbruch. During the season, this information will help the physician monitor the player's physical condition and help the team's coach determine what exercise program is needed to help prevent serious injury.

Dr. Rozbruch notes that in screening the football team of one New York City school, out of 25 players, only 10 percent had a perfect exam. A preliminary analysis found one player with a torn knee ligament, many with weak trapezius muscles, one with a leg-length discrepancy and one with scoliosis. Having detected these conditions prior to participation, corrective measures were taken to help minimize injury during the play.

In addition to getting pre-season prognoses, Dr. Rozbruch prescribes other preventative techniques, such as learning appropriate playing techniques, wearing protective equipment, proper conditioning, such as flexibility exercises, and warming up before a game and cooling down afterward.

Dr. Rozbruch also cautions that if a youngster feels pain, it generally indicates something is wrong. Don't ignore it. Take him or her to a physician. In the meantime, treat the injury with rest, ice, compression and elevation (RICE).

For a free brochure on steps young athletes can take to avoid, reduce and treat sports-related injuries, write to Young Athlete, P.O. 205, 103 Godwin Ave., Midland Park, NJ 07434.

Word to the wise

They're the new words for the wise. "Mommy track," "diss," "tiramisu," and "virtual reality," are just a sampling of the new words and meanings found in the 1995 editions of Merriam-Webster's Collegiate Dictionary, 10th edition. Ideal for high school and college students, the new copyright of this 1,600-page reference book provides an up-to-date vocabulary that covers a broad range of current curricula. These new words are drawn from Merriam-Webster's citation file, which now numbers more than 14½ million, and is considered by many to be the largest in the world. Check local bookstores for the dictionary.

Watchung Cooperative School has a play class for toddlers

The Watchung Cooperative Pre-school, 71 Mt. Hebron Road, Montclair, announces the formation of an additional Creative Play Class for 2½ year-olds.

The class will meet on Wednesdays and Thursdays from 12:30-2:30 p.m. Lead teacher and director Mona Buccheri cites increased parent interest as the reason for expanding the school's offerings in this age group.

Children will have free play opportunities to explore the giant block corner, experiment with the water table, pound nails on the workbench, solve puzzles and create one-of-a-kind art pieces. The youngster's natural exuberance is always an asset during group songs, dances, marches and pretend play.

For more information, call 783-4535.

Concorde sees boom in hair industry

Despite the depressed condition of the economy, the future looks beautiful at the Concorde School of Hair Design. That's because business is booming in the field of cosmetology. Hair styling and design is listed among the 50 fastest-growing professions in America by the Government Bureau of Statistics, and the Concorde School in Bloomfield — with a branch school in Wanamassa — is setting the pace.

Concorde is the only authorized member school of the Pivot Point of North Jersey. Pivot Point is a national organization with an international reputation for innovative curriculum and techniques in hair and beauty training.

A complete curriculum of hair styling and design, facial and skin care, manicure skills, and business management and preparation for state licensing is administered by Concorde's award-winning staff of professional trainers.

But far beyond practical experience in the latest technology and trends, the curriculum focuses on the individual student's self-realization and fulfillment, and the acquisition of people skills. These are the keys to any successful career.

Cosmetology is no longer a field for the young exclusively. In a shrinking job market, more and more experienced workers are making a career change, and pursuing their futures in the field of hairstyling. They are attracted by the creative challenge, flexible hours and the lucrative potential of both full- and part-time positions.

The full curriculum can be completed in 10 months. Financial assistance and payment programs are available to qualified applicants. New classes begin the first of each month.

Cornerstone Counseling offers career inventory

Cornerstone Counseling Center Inc. is pleased to announce the offering of a career interest inventory to high school and college students as well as working adults. The goal of the inventory is to help students or adults learn about themselves, their job choices and their careers.

This inventory will help students or adults explore what occupations they are best suited for. If they have already made up their minds about an occupation, it may support their ideas or suggest other possibilities. If they are uncertain about what occupation to follow, the inventory will give them a precise group of occupations to explore.

For convenience, Cornerstone Counseling has arranged for the inventory to be either self-administered in the student's own home or administered in a group setting at a designated testing location. The inventory only takes 35-45 minutes to complete. Once students have taken the career interest inventory, they will receive a comprehensive 10-12 page report.

This tests being offered at a special introductory price of $25.

If you have any questions or require further information, call 669-1115 or write Cornerstone Counseling Center Inc., 47 Park Ave., West Orange 07052.

Montclair dance school offers quality training

Since 1966, The Montclair Academy of Dance has offered quality training in ballet, tap, jazz, stretch and piano. Director Sharon Baker concentrates on ballet.

Luther Fontaine, a well known tap and modern dancer who has starred on Broadway and in film, provides tap instruction. Beginner, intermediate and advanced private piano is given by conservatory trained pianists Rimma Altshul and Laura Berezovsky. Jazz and stretch classes are given by Lorraine Salerno.

Baker feels strongly about properly educating the young dancer and has developed programs of Creative Movement, ages 3-4, Pre-Ballet, ages 5-6, Introduction to Ballet, age 7, and Ballet, ages 8 and up.

Advanced levels of ballet and pointe are available for students wishing to continue their training. All ballet classes are conducted with piano accompaniment. Children in creative movement are able to enjoy and investigate the elements and qualities of all dance. Classes in pre-ballet teach children specific exercises designed to help them develop the beginning physical and mental skills required in later training.

Automotive

'95 Aurora — awesome example of bold domestic engineering

Aurora is more than just another new vehicle for Oldsmobile. Aurora is the first product that reflects the changes the division is undertaking not only in the product itself but also in the division's culture and business practices. Aurora represents the "renaissance" of Oldsmobile. This flagship vehicle for Oldsmobile is the benchmark for the division's future product direction.

The Aurora is specifically positioned to offer many features that have been exclusive to the top import luxury class models at a price that's comparable to the entry-level contenders in that market. The typical Aurora target customer will be an import-brand interender with an open mind. Market research conducted by Oldsmobile indicates that potential buyers are relatively affluent, well-educated, married professionals in their early 40s.

A highly refined power source is the heart of any modern touring sedan. GM Powertrain engineers designed and developed a new 4.0-liter DOHC V-8 especially for the Aurora. With horsepower and torque peaks of 250 horsepower at 5600 rpm and 260 lb-ft at 400 rpm, this engine has the spunk to show taillights to the V6-powered competition. With 90 percent of the peak torque available between 1700 and 5600 rpm, flexibility for quick passing maneuvers is also in the Aurora's portfolio. Estimated EPA mileage ratings are 17 mpg in city driving and 24 mpg on the highway, sufficient to keep Aurora owners from paying any gas guzzler tax.

Extra attention was invested in providing a clean and sophisticated exterior appearance for the Aurora engine. The Aurora V8 and other members of the Premium V engine family are manufactured using high-precision tools and techniques at GM's Livonia, Michigan, engine plant.

Backing up the Aurora V8 engine is a state-of-the-art 4-speed electronically-controlled automatic transaxle. This is a heavy-duty design with the highest combined speed and torque capacity of any front-drive transaxle in the world to support the quick reflexes of a powerful luxury performance sedan. Called the Hydramatic 4T80-E, this transaxle delivers impeccable reliability and consistently smooth shifts through the full range of operating conditions.

The Aurora's poised, powerful V8 engine and state-of-the-art 4T80-E transaxle are world-class in every respect. Luxury sedan customers who thought they could be satisfied with a conventional V6 powertrain are in for a surprise.

Aurora was planned and engineered to feel and be as safe and secure as any vehicle on the road. The foundation for Aurora's extensive safety systems is a very robust body structure. The substantial sound and feel of the door latching tells the customer that he or she has entered a private security zone. The vibration resistant body structure contributes to interior comfort and quietness in several ways. Rubber-isolated front and rear subframes contain powertrain and suspension noise and vibration so it isn't passed on to the passenger compartment. A quiet, controlled ride in combination with orthopedically correct seat design and ergonomically efficient control layout keeps the driver rested and alert on long or short journeys. To further quiet the interior, climate control equipment is mounted inside the car, instead of under the hood, to avoid large and difficult to seal front of dash apertures. Side glass seals do a superior job of avoiding with and water leaks because doors are more securely supported in their openings.

The same structural integrity that resists squeaks and rattles also provides a very substantial base for the suspension to do its job. State-of-the-art low profile radial tires, independent front and rear suspensions, and speed-variable rack-and-pinion power steering all contribute to the Aurora's superb road holding and maneuverability. Traction control helps keep the Aurora on the roll in inclement weather by limiting wheel slip on wet or icy pavement. Anti-lock brakes are standard equipment to maintain directional stability in the event an emergency stop is necessary.

Three-point seat belts are provided in all outboard positions. The inboard buckle for each front seat occupant is attached to the seat base assuring a proper fit whether the occupant is short or tall. A slack-set feature allows passengers to relieve the upper torso restraint belt tension. Inflatable restraints are provided for supplemental protection of both the driver and the front seat passenger. Supplied by the Inland Fisher Guide division of General Motors, these air bags are designed not only to prevent serious injuries but also to avoid minor injuries such as burns and scrapes. Inflation gasses are first filtered and cooled and then vented away from possible contact with occupants. Special bag folding techniques eliminate the creases and seams that cause facial abrasions in poorly designed air bags.

The standard GM Pass Key II anti-theft system greatly reduces the likelihood an Aurora will be stolen.

The Aurora's extensive safety system work harmoniously to make this luxury performance sedan a personalized sanctuary on wheels.

Domestics lead AAA AutoTest

Domestic-made vehicles like the Chevrolet Cavalier, Dodge Intrepid and Oldsmobile Aurora dominate the top 10 picks in the American Automobile Association's 1995 annual ranking of new vehicles, according to the AAA New Jersey Automobile Club. AAA AutoTest — the motoring federation's annual guide to new cars — selected six models from the United States, two from Sweden and one each from Germany and Japan for its top 10 list.

The Cavalier replaces Dodge's Neon as the best new-car model under $12,000, and the Aurora weighs in for the second year as an alternative to foreign luxury imports.

Only one Japanese model—Lexus GS 300 — is included on the 1995 top 10 list, while Saab returns after a one-year absence with a pair of best buys.

"These vehicles exhibit exceptional engineering, styling, workmanship, comfort and convenience," said Dave Van Sickle, AAA director of Automotive Engineering.

AAA ranks the following cars best in their price class: Chevrolet Cavalier, under $12,000; Geo Prizm, $12,000 to $15,000; Oldsmobile Cutlass Supreme, $15,000 to $20,000; Dodge Intrepid, $20,000 to $25,000; Saab 900, $25,000 to $30,000; Oldsmobile Aurora, $30,000 to $35,000; Saab 9000, $35,000 to $40,000; Lexus GS 300, $40,000 to $45,000; Cadillac Seville, $45,000 to $50,000; and Mercedes S320, over $50,000.

Van Sickle said the Cavalier is an example of the quality, performance and value common to the 1995 top picks.

Value also is evident in the higher-priced Oldsmobile Aurora that scores as high or higher than vehicles costing $10,000 to $20,000 more. AAA AutoTest says the Aurora "shows a lot of promise" in a market where competitors are not pushovers.

AAA AutoTest rates vehicles 1-10 points in 20 categories including workmanship, safety, handling and fuel economy.

Van Sickle said the judges looked for overall quality, performance and value — how well everything fit together rather than just flat-out acceleration and braking.

"Across-the-board quality has improved," Van Sickle said. "Because the market is so competitive, no one manufacturer has a clear-cut leadership position."

Total points represent a car's overall score, with a 200-point maximum. The Oldsmobile Aurora and Mercedes-Benz S320 tied for the top score with 173 each.

"AAA AutoTest is a good starting point in the hunt for a new car since it helps consumers narrow their choices before visiting new-car dealers," said Rick Town, assistant vice president of automotive services for the Florham Park based Club.

The 1995 AAA AutoTest reviews 128 vehicles, representing all price ranges and most popular models of cars, trucks, minivans and sports utility vehicles. Each two-page review includes photographs and easy-to-read tables that point out vehicle strengths and weaknesses.

The book also contains advice on selecting a new car and information on safety, test driving, negotiating the best deal, auto maintenance, warranties and how to resolve disputes.

AAA AutoTest is available through book stores and participating AAA clubs. The cover price is $12.95.

The AAA New Jersey Automobile Club, through offices in Florham Park, Randolph, Springfield and Verona, provides automotive, travel, insurance and financial services to residents of Essex, Morris and Union Counties.
