Municipal Taxes Almost The Same For Coming Year

Rt. 278 'Inevitable,' Highway Could Split Town Into Two Parts

By ABNER GOLD

A vivid picture of Springfield as the "most financially sound highway intersection in the state" was outlined by members of the Township Committee on Tuesday night.

Introducing the municipal budget for 1965, they expressed bipartisan praise for the township's financial soundness, indicated by an unchanged tax rate for municipal purposes and a minute increase in the total amount to be paid by each homeowner.

At the same time, they expressed bipartisan concern over the possibility that Rt. 278 could "cut a 300-foot-wide path right through the center of town."

Stressing the inadvisability of believing anything that State Highway Commissioner Dwight R.-E. Palmer might say in order to pull us into inaction, the committee called for mass action by local residents to achieve an alternate route for the superhighway which would avoid a second battle of Springfield. (The British "lost the first one.")

The budget, as presented, calls for a total general appropriation of $1,496,882 for the coming year, as compared with the present figure of $1,410,882.

When the amounts required for local and regional school county taxes and veterans and senior citizens are included, the net result is estimated as a tax rate of $5.75 per $1,000 of assessed valuation. Property is currently assessed at 50 percent of actual market value.

As an example of the tax rate, the administration stated that the 1965 tax on a house with a current market value of $20,000 would be $575, as compared with a $560 tax for 1964. They stated that changes in the assessment base made any comparison of the official rate structure of little value.

Of the $5.75 tax rate it was noted, $1.20 will go for municipal operations. This figure remains the same as it is now, despite a $76,000 increase in the amount of $1,200,185. The difference is absorbed by increased rates and funds from a growth.

Fair Housing Unit To Discuss Drive Seeking Pledges

The Springfield Fair Housing Committee will hold its monthly meeting at Temple Sharey Shalom on Tuesday evening at 8:30 p.m. The group, which is conducting a pledge campaign, announced that volunteers will canvass the community on Sunday afternoon, in an effort to bring the number of pledges signed to 1,000.

The committee began its community-wide pledge drive on January 31, asking Springfield residents to sign a pledge stating, "We believe that the foundations of American democracy rest on the enthusiastic support of the human rights and dignity of all people."

"We believe in the principle of open housing."

"Therefore, we express our willingness to accept as our neighbors persons on their own merit without regard to race, religion or national origin."

Approximately 500 Springfield residents signed the "pledge for peace" on the opening day of the drive. "The reception of our pledges by the people of Springfield was very good," a spokesman for the committee stated.

"The clergymen made special mention of the drive at their Sunday services, which was instrumental in making our initial day a success. We look forward to obtaining a like amount of signatures in our next concerted drive this Sunday afternoon. This should very easily bring our total pledges to well over the 1,000 mark."

The group will list the names of the persons signing the pledge in a full-page advertisement in the March 4 issue of the Leader.

In order to allow for preparation of the advertisement, the group has announced that all pledges must be turned in at Tuesday's meeting, at which an evaluation of the drive will be made.

Since the recent departure from Springfield of Irving Sarnetsky, who was chairman of the group since its inception in October, 1964, Joseph Bonie has been acting chairman.

Mr. Philip Lewis, who is coordinator of the drive, announced that volunteers acting as area canvassers are Mrs. Lissy Aronson, Mr. Milton Goldstein, Mrs. Audrey Kressel, Mrs. Jerry Kramer, James Marshall, Joseph Marcell, Stanley Miller and Sylvia Zisman.

Judgment Issued On Valco Permit; Reversal Upheld

The previous decision reversing a special exception permit granted to Valco, Inc. to build a nursing home on the Fadam Farm property at Mountain ave. and Shilpke rd. was reaffirmed in a final judgment issued recently by Judge John E. Barger of the Superior Court of New Jersey.

Judge Barger had based his decision last Nov. 6 on a finding that the zoning hearing was held in violation of the township administration. An informed source this week stated that no decision had been reached by the administration on whether or not to appeal the verdict.

The decision criticized Township Committee member Arthur M. Falkin, Donat Rotwein, chairman of the Planning Board, Stanley Green, attorney for the Board of Adjustment, and James M. Cawley, township attorney.

Commenting on his decision, Judge Barger cited opinions of the State Supreme Court on matters involving the behavior of attorneys holding municipal positions. He added, "This is true of any public official, regardless of the occupation, calling or profession involved."

The Supreme Court had declared, "Just as in the case of a municipal attorney representing a private client before a municipal agency, the losing litigant or the public in general will be troubled by the suspicion that his adversary's success in the matter was attributable to his position or influence as a municipal official."

Judge Barger went on to say, "The same suspicion can arise on the part of the public whenever a public official personally benefits from a public matter under consideration by the municipality."

Billboard Promotes Drive For Industry

The Springfield Industrial Committee this week signed up for what is predicted would be a year of intensive municipal promotion by erecting a large sign along Rt. 22 advertising the township's virtues.

The sign, beside the west-bound lane near the Rahway River, is placed on land made available by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown, real estate operators in Springfield and other communities.

The committee estimated that it will be seen by more than 250,000 motorists each week.

Leslie I. Rosenbaum, committee chairman, also announced that plans are being mapped for newspaper advertising designed to bring new industrial firms to Springfield. Sanford Wellen heads the advertising committee. The publicity committee, directed by Jack Stiefelman, plans to question all industries now in the township to secure information for use in the advertising campaign.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown were guest speakers at a committee meeting held last week, joining in discussion of methods to attract new industries. The committee plans to invite other real estate developers in the area to take part in its deliberations throughout the year.

BLASTS OF HORN, RADIO, PTA MOMS SAY, 'NO SCHOOL'

The Board of Education this week renewed its appeal to parents not to call municipal agencies to learn whether schools have been closed because of bad weather. The sign on top of the Municipal Building will sound two blasts at 7:30, 7:45 and 8 a.m. to announce that schools have been closed for the day.

School closings will be based on the John Gamblin program over radio station WDAU, under the category of "Springfield Public Schools Announcements." It is a 4-4-4 Springfield Township refer to a community in Ocean County, it was stressed. In addition, school closing information may be obtained, after 7:10 a.m., from mothers designated by the PTAs. Above all, parents are urged not to call the police or fire departments, the schools or the Board of Education.

The medical society urged that all families have a family doctor so that "medical protection will be assured at all times."

In the Newark Academy debating Gershwin and Tasher were undefeated in a three-round tourney, while the Meisel and Budish team lost one to a team record of five to one. Eighteen schools participated in the event. Gershwin and Meisel were presented "best speaker" awards.

CHARLOTTE SINGER

"When I think back — back to my childhood years, I can't remember ever wanting to be anything but a teacher," declared Charlotte Singer, guidance director — advisor on college admissions at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School.

CHARLOTTE SINGER

She became the only woman in the summer session of the Springfield school and worked in a similar position from 1938 to 1940. She returned to the Springfield school in 1941 and has been in the position of guidance director since that time. She has been in the position of guidance director since that time. She has been in the position of guidance director since that time.

MISS SINGER STRESSED the importance of counseling as a vocation, profession or career as early as possible. She said that she had been in the position of guidance director since that time.

"Basically, we try to help them to develop a sense of responsibility and a set of values and to learn something about themselves so that they know what direction they're going in."

The guidance director has been at Dayton for 10 years, she taught Spanish, English and guidance work, and has been a guidance counselor for six years.

"When I first started as a counselor," she recalled, "I worked with freshmen. The main problem there was the adjustment of the new student in high school. In elementary school, the youth was used to being a part of a small class."

"Here at regional, there was a big increase, much more than he was normally used to. Students came in from all six towns. At that time our courses and offerings were not as varied as they are now, however."

"IN WORKING WITH the student, I would say my program was not as complicated. There wasn't the pressure as far as college was concerned."

"Of course, now," Miss Singer stated, "my job has changed. I deal with all problems connected with guidance. I work with seniors now as far as time is concerned, basically, we do not have a strict counselor group. I do college transcripts mostly, I work with seniors' counselors."

"As any kind of problem comes up, the counselor asks me to sit in with the student, as he or she works with the problem. 'Actually,' she said, 'we have a variety of problems. This school tries very hard to give a student the best background and subjects pertaining to whatever the student chooses as a vocation.'

"In the case of someone who wants to go to college, the problem is one of selecting the college that is right for him — where we feel he is going to be successful, where he is going to get the most value and where he is going to contribute the most of himself."

"IF A STUDENT is not college-bound, then it is our job to determine what courses he should take."

Miss Singer explained that she and her staff "would like to prepare the student in his first three years of high school. Then we can go into a work program in his senior year, so that he can go on with his same job."

"Sometimes we find it best to prepare a schedule of academic subjects for four years with the idea of an interesting job situation or further training — not necessarily college."

"Many of the girls," she continued, "invariably go into jobs as soon as they are graduated from high school. We prepare a business course for them which will give them a certain amount of preparedness for the business world."

"Then there are some girls who might want further business or secretarial training when they leave regional, and they go on to a specialized business or secretarial school."

"WE WORK DILIGENTLY with them work out assignments in general, then work on a grade-level basis rather than from the time they enter regional. We divide the same number of boys and girls into each classroom."

"We tend to keep on as counselor with a freshman, from his first to his fourth year. Many times, however, we pick up a group of sophomores and follow through. In other words," Miss Singer explained, "one counselor tries to stay with them through their junior and senior years."

Three Teams Tie For League Lead In State Matches

A tight, three-way tie still remains in the Recreation Department's State Basketball League. All the league leaders won their games last week as the league competition moved past its fifth week. Iowa, Wyoming and Oklahoma all remained at the top of the loop with records of four wins against a single loss.

In the first of five State League games played at the Gaudineer Gymnasium last Saturday afternoon, California took the measure of Utah by the overwhelming score of 22 to 8. Patrick Burns with 10 big markers paced the victory for the California forces. Jeff Morris with six points was also effective for the winners, as were Sal Mucario and Don Lan. Mitch Wolff was the pace-setter for the Utah team.

Wyoming kept its position of first place by downing Florida by the count of 22 to 12. Dave Miniman with nine points was the top-gunner for Wyoming. Henry Zachau with six points was right behind Dave in the scoring for the winners. Steve Dorsky with seven points was high point man for Florida. The middle game last Saturday afternoon featured Kansas against first place Iowa. Iowa won the game by the score of 17 to 14. Kansas staged a second half rally in this contest which fell three points short of winning. Phil Stokes led the winners with 10 markers. Tommy Campbell led the Kansas rally and scored seven points for the afternoon.

In a close, high-scoring contest last Texas defeated Ohio by the score of 23 to 21. Texas broke the game open in the third period, losing 10 points through the hoop. Six Texas players participated in the scoring, which was led by Jay Silverman's seven points. Steve Max was the high scorer for Ohio, as Tom Husted with five points was also effective for the Ohio team. In the final game of the day, another co-holder of first place, Oklahoma, took a decisive 14 to 7, victory over Idaho. Bob Vaughan with six markers, and Alan Scholinger with four paced the Oklahoma attack. John Baragill, Steve Tompenbaum and Stan Mazelska shared the scoring for Idaho. Next Saturday's games at Gaudineer feature: Idaho vs. California, Ohio vs. Oklahoma, Iowa vs. Texas, Wyoming vs. Kansas and Utah vs. Florida.

Fellowship Joins In Area Institute Next Two Weeks

The Senior High Methodist Youth Fellowship of Springfield Emanuel Methodist Church will participate this Sunday and next in the Elizabeth Subdistrict mid-winter institute at Epworth Methodist Church in Elizabeth.

The Rev. Wilbur Thomas, pastor of Epworth Church and a former resident of Springfield, will be the guest speaker. The theme selected for this year's institute is "The Bible — The Book That Is Alive". Each session will include a 55-minute discussion led by ministers on various books of the Bible. The program will conclude with refreshments. Pastor James Dowart of the local Methodist Church will lead a discussion on "God's Spokesman," the book of Micah, at the Junior High Institute held the same weeks at the St. James Methodist Church in Elizabeth. The Youth Group will meet at 8 p.m. at the church both Sundays to leave for Elizabeth.

Town Meeting

Local Schools Biggest item in the budget is local school support. The township schools will get $2.24 of each $3.75, a total of $1,818,975 and an increase of 18 cents in the tax rate.

The Regional School Board will get $1.51, with an unchanged total of $887,000. The county will receive 78 cents, virtually unchanged at $530,000. Some 13 cents will go for with substantially the same total of 98,000.

Plans were announced for the public hearing on the projected budget March 9, with an informal hearing scheduled for March 8. The complete budget will appear next week. The projected budget includes a three-percent pay raise for all municipal employees, an added two percent for those with 10 years of service, provision for a new policeman and fireman and added manpower for the recreation department. The recreation budget is up $13,500 to $7,000.

Highway Threat Termining the threat of Rt. 278 "a certainty unless the people of Springfield do something about it," the town officials presented a letter written by Gov. Richard J. Hughes which appeared to contradict recent assurances by Highway Commissioner James E. Hagan that there were "no present plans" to extend Rt. 278 north of Rt. 1 in Linden.

The governor's letter, in a resident of Hoelle, said the state will "make no determination of a route before a study" of traffic conditions in the area is completed. Rt. 278 was originally projected as a link between the Georgia Bridge and Rt. 78 in the general vicinity of Springfield.

One possible path for the 300-foot highway right of way was described at the meeting as from the Railway River, along Laurel dr., down either Waverly ave. or Clinton ave. and then across tracks, wiping out either the Hawthorne-Henshaw area or Toker ave. This path would end with a "tremendous interchange" with Rt. 78 and the Rt. 24 Freeway in the vicinity of Baltusrol way.

Another possible route would take the highway along the Railway River, between Springfield and Union, between Milton ave. and the river and on into Union, to reach Rt. 78 along Springfield ave.

Letters To The Editor

ZONING A LA DR. SEUSS

This is the story of Theodore Dive, who bought a new house in Jan S-75.

He worked very hard there, spring, summer and fall. Growing grass, bushes, flowers — Oh, he had a ball! Until that Thursday evening, that telephone call. It seems that some people, the other side of the creek, Were annoyed at a variance granted that week. So they called Mr. Dive. Was he mad when they phoned? It wasn't his business how their street was zoned.

He meant what he said and he said what he meant, "I mind my own business — 100 per cent."

Well sir, that was the start. Each time there was a mess, It was, "Come to the meeting." "I couldn't care less! My neighborhood's fine. I don't dig all that stuff. I vote at elections; I think that's enough."

He meant what he said and he said what he meant, "I mind my own business — 100 per cent."

The time came, years later, when he heard someone say That some garden-apartments were coming his way. Or a real home — oh motel — or a lot full of parking. . . Whatever it was, it sure started him barking.

He meant what he said and he said what he meant. And this was his business — 100 per cent. He went down to Town Council and voiced his complaint. Take they were the sinners and he was the saint! Calm down, calm down, Mr. Dive, was told. Remember, your house is three years old. You can take it to court, sir, but you'll never win it. Because you can't stop progress, no, not for a minute. And so, to be sure, when he looked around, Hardly a section could ever be found — That didn't have things there that didn't belong in it. While he'd been paying his taxes, with the paid bill to show it. The town changed around him, but he didn't know it. And when he complained that they ruined his section. Why this was the start then, and not the exception.

Do we mean what we say folks, did we say what we meant? Isn't Springfield your business, 100 per cent? There will be another public hearing on the variance requested by the Evergreen Lodge at Town Hall, Tuesday evening, Feb. 16.

YMCA Branch Offers Children Live Showing Of 'Cinderella'

The Kenilworth-Roselle Park, Union Branch of the YMCA will hold a "blanket party" for children Saturday, when those attending will see a stage showing of "Cinderella" by the Theatre 300.

Children of ages three through 10 may bring a blanket to sit on during the showing. The YMCA branch is at 218 Salem rd., Union. Curtain time will be at 11 a.m., and reservations may be made by calling 687-5570.

"This is truly remarkable entertainment," according to George W. Hoffmann, executive director, who said that "many of the children will be getting their first taste of legitimate theatre, and they will be positively spell-bound." He suggests making immediate reservations.

Hoffmann reported that about 250 persons attended the Y's recent open house at the Program Center, saw displays and watched a demonstration of judo and the Junior High School's gymnastic exhibition. He said the center is planning other such events.

City Federal Up In National Bank

The American Banker announced this week that City Federal Savings, Elizabeth, is ranked 150th in the "List of 300 Largest Savings and Loan Associations in the U. S.," published annually by that daily newspaper of the financial world. The announcement was made in a telegram to Everett C. Sherburne, president of City Federal Savings. Ranking is by savings capital of the institutions.

Sherburne said, "The jump in net standing is the result of two factors. First, the merger Dec. 31 with Triumph Federal Savings, 54-year old Morris and Essex County association, added $24,000,000 to our total savings. Federal experienced the best growth year in its history. During the period Dec. 31, 1963, to Dec. 31, 1964, total savings increased by $11,853,000, a 17% gain. Together, these factors enabled us to move up 98 places in the national ranking of savings and loan associations with a total savings figure of $103,205,000."

In addition to the national ranking, City Federal now becomes the second largest savings and loan association in New Jersey. It is the largest federally insured institution in the state, with offices in Elizabeth, East Orange, Whippany, Parsippany and six other Union County Communities.

County CD Group To Start School

The Union County Civil Defense and Disaster Control organization will soon inaugurate a new auxiliary police training school. The school, which will be developed in cooperation with the New Jersey State Police and the Union County Police Chiefs' Association, will be designed for personnel who have completed the Basic Auxiliary Police Course.

Plans for the new school, the first of its kind in the state, were discussed last week at a workshop held in the county court house in Elizabeth. Attending the workshop were members of the state Civil Defense and county CD staffs.

Further details of the new school will be presented at the next meeting of the Union County Police Chiefs' Association by Cranford Police Chief Lester W. Powell, dean of the county police academy and police coordinator for the county CD and DC group.

FAMILY LIFE TODAY

By PHYLLIS GREEN

Specialist in Human Relations at Rutgers

SOCIETY CONFORMITY

Most parents are all too familiar with the teen-age cry, "But everybody does." There are various viewpoints about this teenage pattern of social conformity. A parent who studies adolescent growth and development understands the physical and emotional changes that put pressure on teenagers. Along with these changes, they note the teenagers' need to grow up—to become adult with self-direction and independence, from other adults. In many ways, the adolescent looks to other adolescents for direction and support.

The adolescent feels that only those going through the same change can understand the many problems. This is a basic reason for the strong teen-age need to be with and to be like other young people. The adolescent who is left out is indeed miserable. Being left out can seriously affect the person's later life; in some instances, he or she may leave school or seek an early marriage.

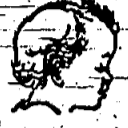

Today's world is very different from twenty years ago. Parents need to keep active and continue to grow. They need to know what is going on now and realize that because some things are different does not necessarily make them undesirable.

Be aware that the word "everybody" is sometimes used as a bluff or a threat. A good answer is, "Tell me exactly who?" Then discuss the problem with other parents and make a group decision. This is the time for wise, understanding parental guidance rather than rigid authority.

ALL ABOUT BABIES...

A Public Service of the National Baby Care Council

BABY'S TEETH

By H. K. ADDELSTON, D.D.S., Professor of Pedodontics, N. Y. University College of Dentistry

It is commonly assumed that baby is born without teeth. This isn't so at all. Deep within baby's jaw are 20 primary teeth that began forming early in baby's prenatal life. At birth, the crowns of these primary teeth are almost completely formed.

Shortly after birth, the enamel of baby's first permanent teeth start to form in his jaw. These particular teeth are sometimes called "six-year-teeth" because they appear at about the age of six. They do not replace any primary teeth but come in just behind them.

The earliest teeth to appear in baby's mouth are the four primary central incisors. These are located in the front of the mouth, two upper and two lower. They appear approximately between six and eight months of age. The lower teeth usually will appear first.

Between seven and 11 months of age, four more teeth, upper and lower, will appear. These are the lateral incisors at either side of the central teeth. Between 13 and 16 months of age, the back teeth or first primary molars will appear. Then the cusps will appear. At about the age of 24 months the second primary molars will appear.

Dental care is needed when baby's first teeth begin to appear. Mother can start cleaning baby's mouth with a soft piece of gauze or a swab tip right after each feeding as soon as baby is on semi-solid chewing food. "Tooth brushing" begins as soon as the child will accept the brush. A young child who has the opportunity to see other members of the family use a tooth brush will "ask" for one. The child should be encouraged to brush after each meal, but mothers should remember to supervise the brushing and continue to clean food debris from all surfaces of all teeth until the child is able to brush correctly, as a dentist teaches the child.

Correct eating habits and keeping the teeth clean are effective home-care weapons against tooth decay. Preventive dentistry should be started when a child is still young. If a child's teeth are properly cared for, a strong foundation is laid for minimizing dental troubles in later years. Children's teeth are meant to last a lifetime. With the right care, they can.

N.J. Chairman Named By Sclerosis Society

David Kislak, president of the J. I. Kislak Mortgage Corp. of Newark, has been named New Jersey State 1965 campaign chairman of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, Roy W. Moore Jr., national campaign chairman, announced this week.

Kislak will work closely with Kenneth J. Hanau Jr., the society's northeast regional chairman, to gain support of industry and commerce in the campaign. The society must have funds to continue its patient service programs conducted by the New Jersey chapters, as well as for nationally coordinated research programs.

SAFE TRUCK DRIVERS

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Woodrow W. Given, chosen current Driver of the Year by the American Trucking Association, has driven more than 2.3 million miles without an accident. Figuring an average of 10,000 miles a year, the average private motorist would take 230 years to equal that record.

Money Used Early

Several early civilizations used the word for "expenditure" as a form of money. According to the New Standard Encyclopedia, the Egyptians used gold, silver, and other metals as long ago as 2500 B.C. And the Chinese used measured cubes of gold to buy goods in 2200 B.C.

DRAINAGE WORK BEGUN

Rt. 22 Resurfacing Avoids Inconvenience

The State Highway Department's five-and-one-half mile resurfacing project on Rt. 22 from New Providence rd. to Mountside, to Vauxhall rd., Union, will be accomplished with a minimum of inconvenience to commuters, a spokesman for the department said this week.

Johnson Named Director By Bank

Orlin E. Johnson, former mayor and Board of Education president of Mountside, has been elected a director of the National State Bank in Elizabeth.

Johnson, who is vice-president and director of manufacturing of the Bristol-Myers Products Division in Hillsdale, replaces William M. Bristol III on the board.

After serving 18 months as Mountside mayor, Johnson resigned last July, when he moved to Far Hills. He also served as board president for 18 months. A native of Ogema, Wis., he is a graduate of Northland College in Ashland, Wis., and served as principal of high schools in Mason and Siren, Wis.

Drainage construction now under way in Mountside is performed on the shoulder of the road, out of the way of passing autos, and construction crews, working from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. are off the highways by the time the evening rush hour traffic starts to build up.

Curbing installation along the center island and the actual repaving will begin around April 1, according to the spokesman. Crews will work at night from 9 p.m. to a.m. to keep traffic delays to a minimum. One eastbound lane and one westbound lane will remain open at all times. The entire project is expected to be completed sometime this summer.

The project, which will involve the communities of Mountside, Springfield and Union, will be accomplished in three phases: drainage, curbing and repaving.

Some 50 area merchants attended a public information center held by the Highway Department at the Springfield House last week. It was the first information program set-up in this manner by the department for business men alone. Questions asked of highway department officials concerned the type of construction and the work schedule.

Name Co-Chairmen For Cancer Drive

Herbert W. Samenfeld, Ph.D., and Mrs. Robert L. Heald, both Scotch Plains, have been appointed chairmen and co-chairmen, respectively, for the 1965 educational and fundraising crusade of the Scotch Plains cancer crusade of the American Cancer Society's Union County chapter. The announcement was made by Andrew A. Klepich, chapter president, after his appointments were approved by the local board of managers.

Samenfeld, dean of students at Newark State College, has been active in educational and civic organizations. Mrs. Heald has been affiliated with the American Cancer Society for 10 years and has served as co-chairman of the Scotch Plains cancer crusade.

Each of the last three county crusades has surpassed its goal. Last year the crusade reached a total of $141,000—topping its $137,750 goal by $3,250.

"We are still short of the amount we need," Klepich said in prepared statement, "to give the people of Union County the comprehensive program of cancer control they demand. Each year we have raised our goal, and each year costs have risen and more requests for help have been received. We have a know-how, the volunteer workers and an impressive record of achievement. All we need is more crusade dollars to finance our work."

Brown On Committee At Univ. Of Michigan

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—Fred Brown of Far Hills top court, Springfield, N. J., a student at the University of Michigan here, is serving on an unusual committee for liaison contacts between home clubs, the university and students on campus from the areas covered by the high school district.

It is called the "Student Governors" program. The governors are appointed by their hometown alumni or alumnae clubs to perform a variety of functions.

Spring Mixer Dance

A spring mixer dance for all Union Junior College students will be held Saturday at 8 o'clock at the Old Heidelberg Inn, Route 22, Scotch Plains. The annual student mixer dance will be sponsored by the Evening Session Student Council. An orchestra will play for dancing, and a buffet supper will be served.

ASK FOR MR. MOSKOWITZ

Dear Amy:
We have a couple that comes over to our house nearly every Saturday. She'll say, "Are we in time for supper?" They do this every time. Late at night, we prepare something to eat (sandwiches, coffee, and pie), and in between time we serve a soft drink and chips. They also come over during the week. She says to her husband, "Well, come on, honey, this isn't Saturday night." She invites us to come over to her place, but they come over so early that we play don't have a chance to get out of the door.

When we do get the chance to come over, she'll set her table with chipped cups, dishes and old silverware. She has other nice dishes and silverware but doesn't put them out. Why does she do this to me? What can I say to her and not hurt her feelings?

A Friend
Dear Friend:
If you want your hospitality reciprocated, call this couple Saturday morning and tell them what time you and your husband will be over. Then they can't beat you to it. And if you really liked these people and enjoyed their company, you wouldn't care about the condition of their dishes and silverware. If a better break bread on a chipped dish with a true friend than eat cake on a perfect plate with a false one.

Dear Amy:
I am a married man without children of my own as yet, but some of our friends do have children. When these friends visit us, frequently their children are in danger while crawling about the other rooms of my apartment. How can I lessen the danger to their children without offending the parents? I have considered purchasing a play pen, but the idea sounds don't have a chance to get out of the door.

Dear Perplexed:
It seems that the people who should be concerned about the welfare of their children are not. Since you are concerned about their safety, I see nothing wrong in either closing or locking the doors to the adjoining rooms in your apartment. If your friends find your actions offensive they should leave their children at home.

To go to the expense of buying a play pen seems unnecessary to me.
Dear Amy:
The person who signed herself "Unfortunate" sure doesn't know the meaning of morality. This woman must be one, big slob and certainly is a disgrace to womanhood. This boast calls herself a wife and mother! Some people would give their liver to have children of their own and would be proud, decent parents. But instead, this boast was blessed with children. Oh, what a pity!
Tell this uneducated fellow to go to the veterinarian. Maybe he could help her. Dogs run wild — she should run with them.

on quite a few issues. UNICEF (United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund) is one of them.
If you choose to follow his beliefs, that's your business. I do not.

Dear Amy:
Where I work the employees get health check-ups twice a year. I had mine last week and to my surprise they found I had diabetes. I haven't told my wife because she is not in the best of health herself and gets excited easily. I love her very much and I don't want her to worry. Shall I keep my problem to myself for a while or tell her?

Dear Mr. D.:
Tell her as soon as possible. Your illness is her problem, too. You will find a woman is strong when you need her the most!

WOODY HERMAN PLAYS IN LINDEN

Woody Herman and his band will be playing the Club Am-Lal at 800 Roselle st., Linden on Sunday night. Herman's band, one of the few rebuilt from the 1940s — the era of the big bands — will play a one-night engagement. The club is open to the public.

The basic complement of the new Herman band began to form in 1962, according to the leader, "and it caught on like fire." Herman says that although most of the "big bands" have withered and died, he bases his success on the formula of "retaining contemporary and putting the emphasis on youth."

Two months ago we cleaned out Maytag's 1964 showroom samples, and the response was so overwhelming we asked for more such extraordinary bargains. They searched throughout the country for additional items stored in their warehouses, and came up with a limited quantity of 1 and 2-speed automatic washers, electronically controlled electric and gas dryers and sold them to us at one low bulk price. If you've been looking for a great buy in a top-quality washer or dryer, now's the time to get it while these special low prices are available. We've added some slightly scratched floor samples from our own stocks — all mechanically perfect — to make the selection greater, but there are so few of these 1964 models still available that it can only be for these three days. Winter Doesn't Stop Bugs With Built-In Anti-Freeze

Bugs which move their own anti-freeze, mice which grow specially thick fur coats, and insects which take a protective sleep when the temperature drops—these are among the reasons why even the coldest weather isn't always a real help in man's never-ending fight against insect and rodent pests.

While insect and rodent activity may be slowed down by sub-freezing temperatures, entomologists of the National Pest Control Association point out that cold weather doesn't exterminate troublesome pests, for which nature has worked out ingenious methods of beating the cold.

In fact, a winter of sustained cold weather may be more beneficial to man's insect foes than one of alternating cold and mild spells, say Dr. Philip J. Spear, Technical Director of NPCA.

One of the reasons why insects can withstand cold weather, Dr. Spear points out, is that many of the most troublesome, including flies, ants, beetles and mosquitoes have the unusual ability to manufacture their own anti-freeze.

Studies made by several entomologists, including Lauritz Somme of the Canadian Agriculture Research Station in Alberta, have demonstrated that a wide variety of insect pests can manufacture their own glycerol, an effective anti-freeze similar to the product made by man for the same purpose, when temperatures drop below the freezing point.

When the mercury goes down, these insects by some "exclusive" process not yet fully understood, gradually adjust to it. They manufacture glycerol which gives them the hardness to withstand all but the most extreme cold weather. This isn't true of all insects, but it has been found among many troublesome pests including certain species of ants, beetles, aphids, caterpillars and flies.

Making their own anti-freeze, however, is only one of the methods insects have of beating the weather, Dr. Spear notes. Most insects also go through a metamorphosis which includes a dormant period or diapause. When the weather is severely cold, the dormant period often takes care of the weather problem and the insect population survives in pupal or larval stage through the cold weather.

Laboratory studies of insects under extremely cold conditions have been confirmed by findings of species in solid ice. Damp wood termites, for example, have been found in blocks of ice and thawed to full activity.

Animal pests, too, can survive extreme cold, says Dr. Spear. When mice settle down in such places as cold storage vaults, they simply grow thicker fur. Many species of squirrels, hibernators and other warm-blooded animals can hibernate when the mercury drops.

"Insect and animal pests," Dr. Spear says, "have learned, like man, to live within their environment and extremely cold weather is rarely an effective means of control."

More effective than cold weather, he added, are the modern pesticides handled by trained pest control operators.

Officials To Meet With Rep. Dwyer

WASHINGTON — Rep. Florence P. Dwyer (R-6th Dist.) has invited Mayors, Freeholders and other public officials in Union County to meet with her on Saturday to consider ways in which "we can all help each other do a better job of serving the people we represent."

The conference will be held in the Freeholders' chambers in Elizabeth beginning at 10 a.m. it was announced.

"I have in mind," Mrs. Dwyer wrote to the invited officials, "discussing programs, problems and areas of interest in which you, as officials at the county and local levels of government, feel that the Federal Government can be of assistance or, conversely, where you believe it has unduly intervened or unnecessarily handicapped you in some way."

As examples of such subjects of mutual concern, she cited: highways, mass transit, flood control, air and water pollution, mental health, the anti-poverty program, education, and urban planning and development.

hospital for 11 months after an accident in Springfield, has been moved from the intensive-care unit at the hospital to a regular room.

A spokesman for the hospital said that, although Theresa's condition remains unchanged, she was moved to provide room for more acute cases. The sustained care Theresa requires can be provided in a regular room, it was explained.

Theresa, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Gargalowitz, of 2532 Hawthorne ave., was critically injured last April, when the car she was driving skidded on trolley tracks in Morris ave., Springfield, and hit a bus. She was a freshman at Fairleigh Dickinson University.

A fund to help the Gargalowitz family with its staggering hospital expenses has reached more than $9,000, according to Philip Portnoy, of Union, chairman of the fund. Contributions may be sent to: The Theresa Gargalowitz Fund, P.O. Box 4, Union.

Dayton Ends Disastrous Season Tomorrow

4-14 Quintet To Face Cranford, 20-Point Conqueror Last Time

The basketball team of Dayton Regional dropped three more games this week to make its record for the season four victories and 14 defeats.

The first loss last Wednesday 48-36, came at the hands of a Hillside High team that had not won all season. The second came last Friday night at Rahway High, 76-57, and the last on Tuesday afternoon as the Bulldogs fell to the Raiders of Scotch Plains, 84-54. The Raiders are the second place team in the Watchung Conference.

Dayton will close the season tomorrow night at Cranford High in their first encounter with the Cougars on Jan. 29. Dayton lost to the Conference leaders by 20 points. The Bulldogs will be playing without high-scoring Keith Neigel, who suffered two dislocated toes in a fall during the first Cranford game.

Cosch Ray Yanchus of Dayton good at the Hillside game last Wednesday "I didn't expect trouble but they got hot. We still have not won a game at Hillside in all the years I've been here." He said that the Dayton team had "utterly collapsed in the second quarter. We couldn't handle the pressure. We made adjustment after adjustment but some of them just didn't seem to get across to the boys." He added, "Our boys were not aggressive enough. They also took too many long shots."

Dayton was not taking many long shots in the Scotch Plains game last Tuesday, but could not seem to score on the shots they did take. As the game opened, Scotch Plains, led by Mike Felmister and Bob Burgess, roared off 10 points before the Bulldogs were able to score. Finally Mike Kreutzer broke the ice with a two-point layup. Kreutzer went on to score a total of 20 but his accuracy from all over the court was not enough to save the Bulldogs.

By halftime Scotch Plains had taken a 36-13 lead. As Burgess continued to roll, the Raiders increased it to 42-30 by the end of the third period. Stolen balls and a full court press were hurting the Bulldogs.

In the fourth quarter the Raider lead was increased by only two as the Scotch Plains second division came onto the court. Steve Hirschorn did some fine feinting to Mike Kreutzer, enabling Kreutzer to put in seven field goals in the period. Tom O'Brien was also scoring for Scotch Plains; however, the Raiders closed with their 30-point margin.

Upset By Hillside

Last Wednesday the Dayton Bulldogs met the Hillside Comets in a game that had been postponed one day. The Comets handed Dayton a frustrating 48-30 defeat.

After Hillside opened the scoring with two field goals, Dayton grabbed a five-point lead in the first quarter. Dayton's play-making guard, Alvin Greenberg, put out his highest scoring effort this season by sinking five baskets for 10 points. With the aid of forwards Mike Kreutzer, who scored 18 in the game, and Keith Neigel, who scored 13, the Bulldogs led, 27-22, at halftime.

As the second half opened, Dayton seemed on the threshold of its fifth victory. With Kreutzer's shots from the outside, the Bulldogs added another seven points to their lead. With the score 35-23, the Comets took off on a meteoric scoring binge, putting in 10 points to the Bulldogs' three. Three foul shots in the fourth period by Chet Atkinson gave the Hillside men a four-point lead which they held until the final seconds.

Hillside's full-court press seemed to be the major factor in the scoring drive. Greenberg and Kreutzer, assigned the task of bringing the ball upcourt for Dayton, found themselves bogged by Hillside players. Stolen balls resulted in scores for the Comets.

RAHWAY TRIUMPHS

In last Friday night's match at Rahway, Kreutzer was the leading scorer of the game with 20 points, but Rahway's Terry Sweeney from the outside and Bob Glover underneath the basket combined to score 33 points and beat the Bulldogs, 76-57.

With the score tied, 11-11, in the first period, Dayton's Neigel had to be taken from the game because of a leg injury. The Indians of Rahway surged on to take a four-point lead at the end of the first quarter. In the second quarter, Sweeney and Glover controlled the ball to add another 10 points to that margin, making the score 35-24 at half time.

In the third quarter, Dayton was able to pick up a point on Kreutzer's scoring. Hard-driving Al Lobato pitched in several scores for the Bulldogs in the final quarter, but Rahway's fired-up squad scored 24 points to win, 76-57.

No previous reservations are required.

Minutemen Face St. Mary's Team At Home Tonight

The Springfield Minutemen will meet a good basketball team from St. Mary's of Elizabeth tonight at 7:30 at the Gaudineer School gym. Springfield will be looking for its seventh victory of the season and sixth in a row in this contest. Saturday evening, Springfield will face a tough Mountaineer team in another important game.

The Minutemen won their sixth victory of the season against a single loss as they tripped a good Nutley club last Saturday evening at the Gaudineer School Gymnasium. The Minutemen got off to a slow start in this contest but rallied in the second half to chalk up an important victory. The final count was Springfield, 88, and Nutley 61.

Springfield players broke the game up in the third quarter as they tallied 20 points to Nutley's 14. Ralph Losanno once again led the Springfield scorers as he tallied 28 points. Captain Losanno was again a lower of strength defensively as he blocked shots and rebounded off both boards.

Ralph has been leading the team in every department in the last few weeks and is fast becoming the top player ever to don a Minuteman uniform. Joel Schwartz again complemented a line Springfield offense as he passed with remarkable accuracy. Joel also hit 11 points to keep Springfield in the game throughout.

Teddy O'Connell, with nine points, came off the bench in the second half to help pace the Springfield victory. Tom Carroll also played a strong game for Springfield. Tom chipped in with six important points.

Eddie Goode and Billy Thompson were the top guns for Nutley. Goode was particularly effective for Nutley as he earned many early points in this game. Goode was in serious foul trouble early, and this hurt the Nutley squad.

GAMES ARE CLOSE BY SMALL STARS

The Plains and Bulls opened the Caldwell School Small Fry basketball play with a tight game. The combination of Jim Schoch and Billy Steffany, who scored nine points and two points, respectively, was too much for the Bulls. High scorer of the game was Phil Norwalk, with six points. The final score was Pistons, 13-Bulls, 9.

The Knicks came through with a good victory over the Aggies, 18-11. Leo Kronert and Howie Fleishman were high men for the Knicks, scoring seven points and six points, respectively. Jeff Chisholm and John Wentz each scored four points for the Aggies. Dennis Holler did a good job as a ball handler.

The Lakers defeated the Billikens, 12-6. Jeff Slater scored 10 points and Dave Chester scored 2 points. Ken Mercer, Rich Robinson and John Gacos divided the scoring for the Billikens.

The Nationals defeated the Celtics in the closing game, 18-7. Leon Margules was high man for the Nationals with 10 points. He was aided by Mike Steadler, Howie Levine, Jeff Kamp and Roy Greenberg in the scoring. The Celtics, who are improving weekly under the good coaching of Richard Greene, had Don Astley score all their points. This is an improved team.

Ehrhardt Wins 2 For 2 1/2 Game Gap

Ehrhardt won two games from Milton Liquors to retain a two-and-one-half game lead in the Springfield Sports bowling league. Ehrhardt is still the league leader with 40 1/2 victories and 29 1/2 losses to his credit.

Ron Daniels was high scorer in the league with a 217, 202-227-648 tally for his three-game series. Other high scorers were: Harold Burdett, 217; George Brenn, 215; Mike Buffo, 213; Joe Pope, 212; Dick Weber, 209; Ed Kay, 204, and William Taus, 203.

Regional Athletes Will Attempt To Pin Power-Laden Plainfield

By JOHN SWEDISH

Plainfield's powerful Cardinals, coached by veteran John Pepe, will provide the opposition for Jonathan Dayton's Bulldogs on Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. in the finale at home. The Bulldogs must beat Berkeley Heights and with a winning season.

If Coach Jerry Sachsel of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School could eliminate the last three weight classes in his wrestling team, his record would read 10-0 instead of 4-5-1.

This "10" was illustrated last Friday before a full house at Springfield, when his Bulldogs dropped a 26-18 match to the Cougars of Columbia High School, coached by an ex-Dayton wrestler, Al Hector, after leading, 16-15, going into the last three events.

Coach Sachsel gained some solace from the performance of his three outstanding wrestlers. Jeff Karlin (105) knifed his way to his 10th straight victory by outpinning Bob Espalio, 4-2. Gary Furze (128) was great in his 7-4 decision over Bob Crockett for his ninth victory in 10 tries, and Mike Geoghegan (147) bulled his way to a 4-4 draw with Jack Heunewitz to bring his total to 7-7-2.

Other results in Friday's match were: Stu Cohen (87) dropped a 3-4 decision to Charley Mackey for his 11th straight victory by outpinning Bob Espalio, 4-2. Gary Furze (128) was great in his 7-4 decision over Bob Crockett for his ninth victory in 10 tries, and Mike Geoghegan (147) bulled his way to a 4-4 draw with Jack Heunewitz to bring his total to 7-7-2.

Regional Wrestlers Seek Mythical Title

The varsity wrestling team of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School will meet the Governor Livingston matmen for the unofficial championship of the Union County Regional High School District today at 3:30 at Berkeley Heights. The Bulldogs, under Coach Jerry Sachsel have defeated Clark, 30-11, and a victory over the Highlanders would give them the district championship.

The Dayton Regional wrestlers climbed to a 4-4-1 record against Cranford by winning 24-22 in a closely contested meet last Tuesday. The Springfield victory was sparked by Jeff Karlin who pinned Dundy Gansmiller in 1:36 for his ninth straight triumph.

Gary Furze, in the 120-pound class, captured his eighth victory by pinning Bill Lovely in 1:38, and Mike Geoghegan, 147 pounds, pinned Jerry Friedman in 5:22. Furze has an 8-1 record, and Geoghegan's record stands at six victories and one loss.

Stu Cohen, in the 97-pound class, dethroned Tom Grote, 8-0. Mark Muller dethroned Dave Fielder at 123 pounds; Mike Koenig topped 140-pounder Ed Gill, 8-5; Harland Bower was defeated by Dave Von Brunt, 4-0, in the 167-pound class, and Al Silverman at 177 pounds, lost to Russ Olawski, 6-0.

In other bouts, Pat Scorse dropped a close match to Dave La Dayne, 3-2, in the 114-pound group; Richie Basta, at 155, led to Doug Norstrom, 4-0; Ed Koresky was pinned by Roland Scholler in 1:18, and Ernie Millman, heavyweight, was pinned by Slep-Burr in 3:10.

The Bowlettes won two games from the league-leading Bowling Bluebirds. This pair of victories by the Bowlettes narrowed the Bluebirds' league lead to a slim two games. Barbara Crump with a 205 series and Jeanne Palmer with a 198 series were the pace-setters for the Bowlettes. Jeanne Spangler rolled a 210 series to lead the Bluebirds.

The final match of the day saw the Lucky Charms move out of last place for the first time this season by downing the Knockouts in two games. Donna Potruzzello rolled the highest series of the afternoon, a 213 series for two games, to lead the Charms to a pair of victories. Eileen Francis with a 183 series also had a fine afternoon for the winners. Helen Quirin was high for the Knockouts.

Nancy Morlino continues to pace the league in averages. Nancy is rolling at a 107 season average. Sharon Gagnon with a 101 average is in second place. The third-place bowler with a 96 average is Michelle Widom. Pat Browne is in fourth place with an average of 95. Joanne Spangler is the fifth spot bowler with an average of 90.

REALTOR OF THE WEEK John McMahon Enjoys Hosting Civic Groups

There aren't many nights in the year when the lights don't burn late at John P. McMahon's real estate office building in Union. Long after the regular business of the day is finished, Realtor McMahon plays host to local civic and social organizations who use the spacious basement of his building for a meeting place.

JOHN P. McMAHON

"It's my hobby," says McMahon who donates the use of his facilities to some 25 different organizations at no charge. A large high ceiling room, it includes a complete kitchen and can hold up to 120 people comfortably.

"There were about four other real estate brokers in town then," he says. During World War II the real estate business was slow but good" the post-war boom arrived and he really got in those days. Six years ago he built his present office at 1585 Morris ave. He now has 10 sales associates.

REAL ESTATE Real Estate is the most important investment you will ever make and deserves the most searching scrutiny before you buy.

For the Birds

By FARRIS S. SWACKHAMER
Instructor, Union Junior College Institute, Cranford, N. J.

A column on turkeys would, perhaps, be more seasonal in November. However, this one was occasioned not by Thanksgiving but by a wild game dinner party I attended several weeks ago. My host had been hunting in south Jersey and had brought home several pheasant and a wild turkey. Knowing of my interest in wildlife, one of the ladies asked about the wild turkey and its relation to the familiar bird, now grown on huge farms and available in the local market.

According to Austin L. Rand, chief curator of zoology of the Chicago Natural History Museum, there are only two species of turkeys. One is the ocellated turkey which makes its home in Central America, and the other is the common variety which ranges from Mexico into the woodlands of the southern and eastern United States.

Markings vary somewhat and it was this one with white-tipped upper tail coverts that the early Spanish explorers found domesticated by Indians in southern Mexico. They were introduced into Europe shortly after the discovery of the New World and were the ancestors of the domestic turkey which the early colonists brought back across the ocean to America. It interbreeds readily with our wild bird.

Once the wild turkey roamed New Jersey and the surrounding states but arrows of the Indians, guns of the settlers, and the press of civilization soon wiped it out except in the more remote areas. The last turkey in Connecticut was seen in 1813, a few remained hidden in the Vermont hills until 1842 and they were said to be numerous along the southern border of Ontario as late as 1858. According to old reports, they were still to be found in the mountains of Sussex County in N. J. as late as 1825 and a few remained in the more remote areas of Orange and Rockland counties, N. J. until about 1840.

Birds from the south and southwest and even some domestic stock have been reintroduced at various times. The Pocomos were restocked in 1950 and the number had increased by 1953. Some of these birds crossed the Delaware River into New Jersey and flocks have been seen in the northwest corner of the state several times in recent years.

One of the new phases in their reintroduction is a project of the wildlife experts at Cornell University. Twenty wild turkeys will be "bugged" set loose in the woodlands of upper New York State, and their movements followed by radio.

The birds to be used are being strapped to the backs of the turkey by means of a plastic harness. These will send out automotive impulses constantly which will be monitored on portable receivers. The sets sending information of the whereabouts of the birds are powered by mercury batteries and are about half the size of a cigarette package.

Dr. Daniel Q. Thompson, in charge of the project, said, "We will be able to tell the distances traveled, the direction traveled, how closely they stay to each other and what adventures they have." Perhaps someday the wild turkey, the bird Benjamin Franklin thought should be our national emblem, will once again roam the forests of our state.

Ninth Ward Park To Be Renamed

Ninth Ward Park in Linden will soon be known as Thomas J. Wieser Memorial Park in honor of the former city clerk who died in 1937.

City Council recently authorized the city attorney to prepare an ordinance to make the name switch possible. The request to honor Mr. Wieser came to council from the Ninth Ward Democratic Club. The park is located at Raritan rd. and Wood ave.

Mr. Wieser served as city clerk from 1937 until his death. During this period he also served as chairman of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board.

Tenen To Move Plant To Linden

Tenen Quill and Pillow Co. of Progress at Union, has entered into a long-term lease with Associates Five, Inc., for a new building at 345 Dalzell rd., Linden. The building, situated on a large plot, has an area of 11,000 square feet.

The new building is part of a three-building complex which has just been completed by Associates Five, Inc. Max Sladowsky is architect and engineer for the project which is being completed by Nadel Lumber Co. of Linden.

Ralph Henig of the Industrial Department of Ensis Schiesinger Co. conducted the negotiations.

SITUATION 'DUCKY' BUT BIRDS NEED FOOD IN WINTER

The Union County Park Commission this week appealed to residents using the county park facilities, not to forget to "feed your web-footed friends."

A spokesman for the commission noted during the year, one may observe family groups standing on the shore of Echo Lake throwing food to the ducks.

"However, during the winter months less than 100,000 visit the area but the ducks still need the same amount of food. Save your bread crumbs and plan to visit the park areas soon," the spokesman added.
