CHANGES IN MAPS CAUSE FOR DELAY OF MASTER PLAN

Springfield's long-expected Master Plan for future development should definitely be unveiled within a month, it was learned this week from an authoritative source. The plan had been held up because of corrections being made on several maps which were included.

The corrections are being completed, it was indicated, and the copies of the Master Plan should be returned to the township authorities by March 15. Plans for distribution of the 175 copies available for the public should be announced at the April 1 meeting of the Planning Board. A public hearing will follow shortly.

Red Cross Drive Ends First Week; $600 Is Received

Donations in the first week of the Springfield Red Cross fund drive for $8,000 were approximately $600, Claire Dannheimer, campaign chairman, reported at a chapter board meeting Monday night at the Cannon Ball House. Mrs. Robert G. Laurencelle, chapter chairman, presided.

Latest crisis to confront the chapter stems from the condition of the 10-year-old station wagon used by the motor corps in transport local residents for medical treatment. It was reported by Mrs. David Weinstein, motor corps chairman.

The drivers must be given credit," Mrs. Laurencelle declared, "for it is becoming an extremely difficult car to drive. Like the wonderful one-horse shay, it is just falling apart."

"We have been saving money for many years to purchase a new wagon, but every time we come close to our goal we must use some of the money to continue our work and maintain our chapter. This year, with a successful fund drive, we just might make it."

Miss Dannheimer stated that she has more than 100 volunteers at work, ringing doorbells throughout much of the township. Other residents will be solicited by mail during the month-long campaign.

"Reaching our goal is of the utmost importance," the fund drive chairman added. "Over half of this money supports our

TESTING THE PUMP — Mrs. Nathan Liserman checks the blood pressure of Fire Chief Ormond W. Mesker in preparation for the Red Cross bloodmobile visit to the Holy Cross Lutheran Church on Mountain ave., Springfield, on Tuesday. Looking on are Mrs. Daniel B. ADVICE TO DOGS: TOWNSHIP TO PUT BITE ON MASTERS

Noting that the deadline for renewing dog licenses was passed last week, Mrs. Eleanor Worthington, Springfield township clerk, warned that summonses will now be issued to the owners of all unregistered canines. She commented that 800 1965 dog tags have been issued to date, and estimated that some 200 unlicensed dogs currently reside within the township.

Rather than look up innocent pups, Mrs. Worthington stressed, official policy is to fine humans guilty of contributing to their delinquency. Dog tags can be obtained from Mrs. Worthington's office at Town Hall.

Open Heart Patients Need 2 Blood Types

With the Springfield bloodmobile session scheduled for Tuesday at Holy Cross Lutheran Church, the local Red Cross Chapter has received an urgent call from the New York regional blood program for donors needed by two patients from this area who are shortly to undergo open heart surgery.

The need is for 20 units of AB positive blood and 20 units of B positive, according to Mrs. Daniel Kalem, Springfield blood bank chairman. She added that blood for this purpose must be donated no more than 24 hours before the operation.

All potential donors with these blood types who have not signed up for Tuesday's blood bank session were urged to call, immediately, the Red Cross Chapter at DR-6-1876 or Mrs. Kalem at DR-6-0582.

"Although the blood from these donors will go immediately to specific patients," Mrs. Kalem stressed, "credit for the donation stays with the donor or his donor group."

She added that anyone else who wishes to make a donor appointment for Tuesday's bloodmobile visit may still do so by calling either of the numbers listed above. Donors of all blood types are always needed, the Red Cross blood bank chairman declared.

Bloom Hits Payment Of Fee To Lawyers Aiding In Valco Suit

By ANNE GOLD

Final approval of the municipal budget for 1965 is still in the future, despite a complete absence of opposition at the Township Committee's budget hearing Tuesday evening at Town Hall.

A late amendment was offered by Committeeman Arthur M. Falkin, who disclosed that a clerical error had omitted a $5,000 item from the Fire Department salary appropriation. Formal approval of the entire budget must await final hearings on the amendment at the Township Committee's March 23 meeting.

The display of harmony which had existed since Democrat Jay B. Bloom joined the four Republicans on the governing body Jan. 1 came to at least an interruption when Bloom objected to payment of a bill for legal fees related to the case of Montano vs. Springfield. The case is the one which resulted in a reversal of the special exception permit granted for Valco, Inc., to build a nursing home on the Padam Farm property at Mountain ave. and Shunpike rd.

Opposes Payment. Bloom objected to a $250 payment to Lorentz and Stinner, Newark law firm retained to enter final judgment in the case. Outside services became necessary when James M. Cawley, township attorney, was cited for his actions in the legal decision.

Objecting that the legal services were designed to benefit "not the people of the township, but certain individuals named in the suit," Bloom quoted from the firm's legal presentation. Lorentz and Stinner had argued that part of the decision had been used as "unfair ammunition" in public statements by political opponents of the administration.

He added, "It is not in the interests of the township to pay legal fees so people might not have political ammunition."

Payment was approved by the four Republicans, who all stated that the fee was proper. They stated that public officials must be given legal protection for actions undertaken in the course of their official duties.

Falkin, one of the individuals cited in the decision, issued his "final statement" on the issue, "There is no question about a conflict of interest," he declared. "The judge merely felt that the abstentions were not complete enough."

"I acknowledge that there was a conflict on my part, and I abstained from voting on the advice of an attorney," Falkin went on to say that he saw

TOWN MEETING

Rt. 78 Bulldozers May Start In 1965

The sound of Rt. 78 bulldozers may be heard at the Springfield-Union line as early as late summer, it was learned from the N.J. State Highway Department this week.

A spokesman for the department said construction of the highway interchange at Springfield ave. at the Springfield-Union boundary would start when right-of-way negotiations are completed in Union.

Union property owners whose lands lie in the path of the 10-lane interstate highway, have been notified as the first step in acquiring land for the 10-lane superhighway.

Police Chief Warns Speeders, Lists Test For New Patrolmen

With a new system of point assessments for speeders and other traffic law violations announced recently by the State Division of Motor Vehicles, Springfield Police Chief Wilbur C. Selander this week warned drivers that vehicular cowboys now run an increased risk of coming pedestrians.

At the same time, the chief announced that an examination to fill three possible vacancies for patrolmen in the Police Department will be held Wednesday, March 24, at 8 p.m. at Police Headquarters.

The major innovation in the point system is a new six-point penalty for speeding less than 20 miles per hour but more than 20 mph above the legal limit. As in the system used for fast lane drivers charged with 12 points within three years faces a hearing and probable suspension of his (or her) license.

Chief Selander pointed out that a driver tagged for speeding at 47 mph in almost all of Springfield faces the six-point penalty, thus putting him halfway along the path to suspension.

Other point penalties now include: leaving the scene of an accident, 8 points; reckless driving, 6; racing on highway, 6; speeding, other than that previously listed, 4.

Also, passing on a curve or hill or otherwise unsafely, 3; passing a stopped school bus, 3; following too closely, 3; and other moving violations, 3.

Under the former point system, the maximum penalty was 4 points for reckless or careless driving, Chief Selander noted. A 3-point penalty was assessed for speeding and other major moving violations, as well as for violations such as passing moving violations had cost their perpetrators 2 points.

Stressing that a 47 mph ride through Springfield could be costly, the chief said, that almost every street in the township has a 25 mph legal maximum. The limit on Rt. 22 is 50, however.

The only other exception is Morris ave., where the limit is

Members Advised To Pool Resources

With the March 31 deadline approaching for renewal of membership in the municipal swimming pool, the Springfield Recreation Department this week reminded residents who were in the swim last year that they have only three more weeks to be sure of those places in the sun.

On April 1, pool membership will be opened to residents who did not become last summer. Membership is limited by attendance to 5,500 persons, and recreation officials predicted that the full quota of 1,300 families will be on the rolls by mid-April.

A number of improvements are on the drawing board for this summer at the pool, it was stressed. The recreation staff at the pool will be enlarged, and increased activities are being planned for all age groups. The membership fee is $60 per family.

LEADER PROFILE

MRS. ROBERT D. HARDGROVE

One of the most active people in Springfield is a lady named Mrs. Robert D. (Hazel) Hardgrove. She heads numerous organizations, is chairman of even more committees and has a voluminous record as past officer of various services and PTAs that drives a reporter into a frenzied merry-go-round during a whirling-but-stimulating interview.

Her overwhelming capacity and enthusiasm for community activities—drives, benefits, are an inspiration to many Springfield citizens and her indefatigable energy could indeed put some laggards to shame.

Just to list a few of Mrs. Hardgrove's current activities should serve as sufficient evidence that Springfield has a valuable citizen. Currently she is president of the Florence M. Gaudineer PTA, secretary of the Springfield PTA Council, chairman of Union County PTA audio-visual services, bylaws and procedure chairman for the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School PTA.

She is involved with aiding and preparing a future card party at Caldwell School PTA, is past Springfield PTA community advisor and has held various chairmanships in this capacity in the past.

ALSO — MRS. HARDGROVE is past president of Springfield's American Legion Continental Unit No. 228, is unit girls' state chairman ("there are two from Regional this year"), is Union County historian of the American Legion Auxiliary, serves as Union County Americanism chairman and was last year's Union County junior activities chairman ("Roselle Unit No. 229 won nationally for Junior Auxiliary handicraft display") and she occasionally serves as an aide at East Orange Veterans Hospital.

She is past president of the Springfield Woman's Club, serves as secretary of the Past Presidents' Club of the Seventh District of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, is Seventh District youth conservation chairman and is the local club's emergency planning and safety chairman.

In addition, she is a charter member of the Springfield League of Women Voters and served on its first executive board, is a charter member of Springfield Historical Society, and, for two years, served as Springfield Fourth-of-July committee baby parade chairman. She is publicity chairman for Springfield Youth Employment Service.

Mrs. Hardgrove is a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Springfield and its Fireside Group, and she has "attended" with fund drives in the past for Heart Fund, Cancer, Red Cross, Girl Scouts and the Red Cross Bloodmobile.

Mrs. Hardgrove is the wife of the former mayor of Springfield, Robert D. Hardgrove. They have three children, Francis, 14, a student at Regional; Lucille, 12, a seventh-grader at Gaudineer School; and Robert, 6, a first grade pupil at James Caldwell School.

HOW DOES Mrs. Hardgrove manage to be so active in the community and still be able to maintain household chores and responsibilities?

"Moving around as much as I do," the amiable Springfield dynamo said, "one manages to attain a certain speed and a double-duty schedule. For example, I press clothes while watching an important discussion taking place on a current events program on TV.

"At the same time, I manage to watch the dinner on the stove and keep an eye on whatever experimental recipe I am currently baking for the evening's dessert. Trying experimental recipes is one of my hobbies."

Hobbies, too? "When I shop in the super market, I am a real speed demon. I can pick up $20 worth of groceries in 10 minutes at all," she laughed.

Through the years, Mrs. Hardgrove explained, "I have been very fortunate with baby sitters. Pat Dreker, the girl next door, sat for me for six years. A number of other girls have also been extremely reliable."

Mrs. Hardgrove indicated her intense interest in youth. "More than anything else," she said, "I have a great deal of confidence in youth. I have been conducting interviews for the Youth Employment Service here.

"THEY'RE REALLY a great group of youngsters. I know there are problem areas in other communities, but so far, we have no problems here at all."

The fact is that I am active in many organizations, but the majority of my feelings concern youth — the PTA, school and home. That's paramount.

"I've taken a great deal of interest in civic betterment. I suppose if you belong to an organization and take a chairmanship, you really become interested."

COEDS TO SPEAK ON NATIVE MORES AT PTA MEETING

The Thelma L. Sandmeier PTA International relations committee will present three exchange students from Montclair State Teachers College at the PTA meeting Monday at 8:15 p.m.

The students will discuss the education, dress, culture and food of their native countries. Ingrid Major and Sheila Sun will be the representatives of Austrian culture and Marjorie Kavcuk will represent Thailand.

Mrs. Sidney Sklar and Mrs. Norman Saltz are chairmen of the meeting. The meeting will be headed by Mrs. Marvin Fish, president of the PTA.

"political motives" in the latest attack.

Mayor William Koonz, following the exchange of views, said that the bill must be paid. He added that he was determined that "this chamber will not be used as a political forum, by any party."

More On Rt. 278
Koonz read a letter from State Highway Commissioner Dwight R. G. Palmer on possible paths which might take the proposed Rt. 278 through Springfield. Palmer stressed that he has no "firm idea" as to just where the highway will go.

"Don't be concerned with maps created by a wide variety of people," Palmer wrote, "and let us have your own ideas on a suitable corridor for this highway to take."

Koonz commented that "people have been subjected to this anguish for many years." He added that he hopes to present personally to Palmer a "more definitive proposal" which "will not go through so many heavily populated areas."

Committeeman Robert G. Ploner reported on statements by Frank Parker, assistant highway engineer, at a mass protest meeting attended by Ploner and Koonz last week in Roselle Park.

Parker told him, Ploner said, "The Rt. 278 coming from the Coatsville Bridge, quite possibly connect with Rt. 278 near the Club Diana, on Springfield ave. in Union. This path would take the highway across a small corner of Springfield."

Bloom expressed support for the alignment first proposed seven years ago by Warren Stadden, a highway engineer and now mayor of Roselle. Stadden has declared that this path generally along the Elizabeth River would save $150 million in land acquisition and construction costs as compared to the other proposed alternatives. Bloom added.

Donation To Overlook
The only real highlight during the budget discussion came over Bloom's suggestion that the township contribute a "reasonable amount" to Overlook Hospital's $6-million expansion campaign.

Bloom urged that Springfield give perhaps $2,000 or $3,000 this year, with the hope that future Township Committees follow this precedent.

Committeeman Philip De Vito said that state law currently forbids long-term pledges by Township Committees, but does authorize one-time contributions. The other Republicans backed his suggestion that they concentrate their efforts on amending the law to permit a pledge that might more nearly approach the $4,000 asked by Overlook, even if it should take a number of years to pay.

The committeemen voted to approve Stanley Wnek of 118 Irwin st. as manager of the municipal swimming pool for the coming summer. He replaces Lou De Rosa, manager the first two years, who is now unavailable. Wnek is basketball coach at Irvington High School.

In the public discussion period, Irv. Rosen suggested that the township cancel all permits to burn trash and leaves. He said this would cut down on air pollution, particularly in the autumn when the problem becomes acute for those with allergies and asthma. Committee members expressed interest in the idea, and said that they would investigate it fully.

PTA PLANS TASTE ON 'SPRING TONIC'

Dr. John O'Meara, audio-visual director at Newark State College, will speak at the regular meeting of the James Caldwell PTA of Springfield on Monday at 8:15 p.m. His topic will be "Audio-Visual Variety — Spring Tonic for Learning."

"With so many things to be learned in school these days, not only fine teachers required, but also active learning, accomplished with the aid of audio-visual methods, or instructional communication," says Dr. O'Meara. Mrs. Stanley M. Kröeger is program chairman.

Architects' Show Plans For Future

An exhibit with its theme centering upon "Directions in Architecture" is being featured at the Short Hills Mall on the lower-level beneath Stouffer's Restaurant. The exhibit is open from 12 noon to 5 p.m. on weekdays and from 11 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Saturday.

The exhibit, sponsored by the Suburban Society of Architects, includes the 1964 national award winners of the American Institute of Architects. Also shown in the display is "Our Town, 1970." The exhibit will close March 31.

Red Cross Drive

The Springfield Chapter, so that we may continue to have a blood program, lend convalescent equipment, give transportation to doctors' offices, hospitals and clinics, help to obtain emergency leave for members of the armed forces and give first aid training.

In a direct appeal to all residents of the township, Miss Dammheimer declared, "Please, if no one has rung your doorbell and you haven't given a contribution as yet, please send what ever you can give to Springfield Red Cross, Springfield, N. J."

This past fall, the chapter disclosed that it was faced with dissolution for two reasons — a lack of funds and a desperate shortage of volunteer workers to carry on necessary activities.

Enough men and women volunteered their services to permit the continued existence of the Springfield Chapter, but its future is again at stake, with further existence depending on the results of the fund drive, chapter officials stated.

Dangers Of Poisoning Noted

Luctus A. Bowser, chairman of the poison control committee of the Union County Pharmaceutical Society, revealed this week that between 10,000 and 14,000 accidental poisonings occur in New Jersey annually because of consumption of things not meant to be swallowed. Bowser's report was made in conjunction with the county's third annual National Poison Prevention Week program beginning Monday. He said the danger lies in improper use of thousands of new household items. According to the report, most of the cases involve children under five years of age. Primary cause of poisoning is improper use of aspirin tablets. Bowser said more children under five die from accidental poisoning than any childhood disease. To help reduce the problem, the pharmacists have set up three poison control and information centers in the county, one each at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Elizabeth; Memorial General Hospital, Union; and Overlook Hospital, Summit. Cases range from intake of aspirin to cleansers, insecticides, polishes and chemicals. Bowser advised five steps be taken to prevent such poisoning: "never take medicines in the dark; always separate internal and external medicines; always separate edible and inedible substances; keep medicines and household products in original containers; keep medicines and household items away from children."

NEW VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

Board Will Consult Expert On Building

The Union County Vocational Board of Education will utilize the services of an educational building to be constructed for the vocational facilities, Leonard W. Simmons of Roselle, board president, said this week. The board, headed by George H. Baxel, institute director, has recommended a "shared-type" educational program in which students will spend a half day at the institute and the remainder at the high school which they also attend.

Members of the board, several high school principals and school superintendents and industrial arts supervisors together with Baxel and the county superintendent have visited the facilities of the Sussex County Vocational-Technical Center in Sussex County, Del., it was reported.

Simmons said the layout there is similar to that which will be constructed by the Vocational Board of Education at its 42-acre site in Harrison rd., Scotch Plains. He said the problems which will be encountered by the board are similar to those which have been solved at the Delaware institute, including scheduling, transportation and calendar conflicts with sending schools.

He pointed out that the Sussex County facility has approximately 600 students. There are 14 sending districts involved which is approximately the number that would participate in Union County. Students there divide the day between the vocational center and their home high schools.

Simmons said school board members as well as representatives of the potential sending districts believe the Delaware situation will be an excellent pattern to follow. A decision on the program type is expected at the board meeting Monday night.

Political Theorist Slated To Speak At Newark State

Dr. Russell Kirk, chief philosopher of the new American conservatism, speaks at Newark State College, Union, next Wednesday on "The Future of American Conservatism". He will speak at 2 p.m. in D'Angola Gymnasium.

Although Dr. Kirk's lecture is intended primarily for students and faculty of the college, interested members of the public are invited to attend and admission is free, a college spokesman said.

Dr. Kirk, writer, lecturer, editor, and professor, is the author of many books, including "The Conservative Mind" published in 1953. The book is considered by many to be the most widely read and reviewed work of political theory to be published in this century. "The college said."

He is followed by the Archduke Otto von Habsburg to have probably the best mind in America; and by the late Hugh G. Gallagher, leader of the British Labor Party, to have set back socialism a generation," the announcement said.

Dr. Kirk's daily column, "The Point," appears in more than 100 newspapers throughout the United States. He has spoken on nearly 150 American college campuses and to many other audiences.

Among his other books are "A Program for Conservatives" in 1954, "Academic Freedom" in 1955, "Beyond the Dreams of Avarice" in 1956, "The Intelligent Woman's Guide to Conservatism" in 1957, and "The American Cause" in 1957.

Dr. Kirk has written critical introductions for a number of standard scholarly reprints. Some 400 of his essays and short stories have appeared in the leading periodicals of this country, Great Britain, Canada, Australia, Norway and Austria.

He was the founder of the quarterly journal "Modern Age" and now is the editor of the quarterly "University Bookman." He is research professor of politics at C. W. Post College.

Prospective members may obtain additional information about the association from Mrs. Casserino, 2385 Seneca rd., Westfield, AD 3-3662.

Will Head Drive For Membership

Mrs. John Casserino of Westfield will head the March "Membership Month" drive of the Union County Unit of the New Jersey Association for Retarded Children.

"Membership in the association is open to anyone interested in helping the mentally retarded of all ages in Union County," said Mrs. Casserino. "We would like to enlist professional workers, such as teachers, doctors and the clergy, as well as friends, relatives and, above all, parents of retarded children."

Temple To Honor Men Taking Part In Daily Services

Every March Temple Beth Ahm, Springfield, observes the anniversary of the establishment of its daily services with a special weekend of activities. The observance is being conducted March 19-21 by the religious affairs committee, of which Louis Spitzer is chairman, and by the "Minyanaires" — the group of men who maintain the "Minyan" or twice-daily worship service.

Rabbi Reuben R. Levine, spiritual leader of the congregation, announced that the observance will be threefold: A Sabbath supper on Friday night at 8, the Sabbath service at 8:45 and a special breakfast-lecture on Sunday morning at 9:30.

The Sabbath supper is open to all members of the congregation and their friends, and reservations can be made through the temple office, he added. Chazan Israel Weisman, Beth Ahm's cantor and musical director, will assist the rabbi in the ceremonies of the meal.

At the service following the supper, members of the Minyanaires group will take part in conducting worship and the men in the group as a whole will be honored for their diligence in maintaining the daily worship program.

Featured as speaker at the Sunday breakfast will be Abraham Carmel, a scholar, lecturer and author, who is a convert to Judaism and "speaking" in comparative religion. He will address the group on "Converting Jews to Judaism." Husbands, wives and teenagers will attend the breakfast which will be one

Girl Scout Dramatic Playets Perform At Court Of Awards

The dramatic group of the Edward V. Walton School Girl Scout troop presented two choral readings entitled "Red, White and Blue," and "The World Is Smaller Now," and a play, entitled "The Dolls" at the troop's court of awards last week.

The dramatic group consists of Bonnie Bernstein, Margi Geoghegan, Randi Speizer, Meryl Granick, Linda Gianitsas, Kathi Summerer, Linda Mutschler, Natalie Johnson, Judy Consales and Frank Rosenbaum.

The following girls received badges: active citizen, Linda Mutschler; cooking, Holly Huncke; hospitality, Carol Matthews; pets, Laurie Ross; toy-maker, Sherri Moreines; skater, Meryle Granick; troop dramatics, Kathi Summerer; water fan, Lucetta Losanno.

Badges were presented by Mrs. Henry Huncke, co-leader. Mrs. Howard Ross, the other co-leader, presented "Sign of the Arrow" awards to Bonnie Bernstein, Margi Geoghegan, Carol Matthews, Linda Mutschler and Kathi Summerer.

Mrs. Harold Moreines presented skating certificates to girls who completed an eight-week course at Warinanco Park. Mrs. William Geoghegan presented 50th anniversary Girl Scout pins to the entire troop.

The welcome speech was given by Rene La Morze. The "Sign of the Arrow" awards, symbols of the cultural and social highlights of Beth Ahm's program, Rabbi Levine added.

Tickets for the breakfast are available at the temple office.

Lions Club Hears Guest Speakers

Kenneth Rogers, a staff member of the United States Information Service who has recently returned from Burma, was guest speaker at a recent meeting of the Springfield Lions Club, held at the Mountside Inn, Mountside.

Rogers, who was graduated from Jonathan Dayton Regional High School in Springfield, spoke to the group on his work with the USIS and accompanied his talk with slides.

At a preceding meeting of the club, Peter J. Campion, former mayor of Binghamton, N.Y., N.Y., spoke on the heritage of the United States.

Rocket To Moon Subject For Talk By NASA Official

An official of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration will present an illustrated lecture for adults and teenagers Monday evening at the Raymond Chisholm School, Springfield, under the sponsorship of the school's PTA.

The man from NASA will present slides showing the achievements and plans of Project Apollo, this nation's effort for the first manned trip to the moon. He will display and explain several large-scale models of lunar rockets.

High school and junior high school students will be admitted if they are accompanied by a parent, according to Mrs. Alfred Silverstein, chairman of the Chisholm PTA.

She explained that the program had originally been planned for adults only, but that the response to similar lectures elsewhere in the country had prompted the PTA to open its doors for teenagers. Mrs.

Mrs. Garner, At 99; Founder Of Church

Funeral services were held Monday at Antioch Baptist Church, Springfield, for Mrs. Rachel Garner of 87 Diven St. Mrs. Garner, who would have been 100 on April 29, was believed to be the township's oldest resident. She died last Thursday at her home. Her husband, Aaron Garner, died in 1966 at the age of 98.

Mrs. Garner was born in Baltimore and lived in Hampton, Va., Newark and Short Hills before coming to Springfield when she was married in 1887. Mr. and Mrs. Garner headed a campaign in the 1920s which culminated in construction of the Antioch Baptist Church.

Mr. Garner used two horses from his farm to help dig out the cellar for the church, and Mrs. Garner collected contributions for building supplies. They personally donated 100 foundation blocks for the church building.

From that time, the Garners were known as the "Father and Mother of Antioch Baptist." Mrs. Garner continued to attend services at the church until she broke

With the PTA, Mrs. Hardgrove explained, "we are working on lowering the age of beginning school children to six years. Do you know that in some towns here in New Jersey, children do not start school until they are eight years old? Our PTAs are working for the welfare of all youth, not just our own children."

"Another example," she added, "is that the PTA is against the use of tobacco by minors."

"We'd like to establish a family court, too. Right now children are brought into regular courts, which is rather unfair. But as long as we now have at our disposal psychologists and sociologists, we see a remedy to help children become better citizens."

ON THE NATIONAL level, she commented that the PTA is interested in Tocks Island, a recreational area. "It's in its planning stage now. The island is located in the Delaware River area. As our population continues to swell, we'll need more recreational areas."

"There are four bills in Congress now," she said, "that are ready to be passed."

Mrs. Hardgrove expressed her feelings about working with organization executives and board members. "Their cooperation has

As Parent and Family Life education chairman, Mrs. Hardgrove explained that all the local PTAs and chairmen are working cooperatively to set up a meeting on March 28. "It's a community effort in way. We want to include not only the parents in Springfield but all the adults. We are meeting at Gaudineer School, and we will have as our guest speaker Dr. Bertram Vogel, a clinical psychologist."

"Actually, this is an experimental project and, following the speech, there's going to be a question-and-answer period in order to help us become better parents."

Mrs. Hardgrove was queried on whether or not the attendance of friends and organizational members were expected when her husband was mayor of Springfield last year. (Robert Hardgrove is an electrical engineer by profession. He works for Public Service Electric and Gas Co. in Elizabeth.)

"There was no change among my associates and friends," she mused. "Actually, the people were always most cordial. I did meet a lot of interesting people, and it was fun while it lasted. I was, and still am, proud of my husband, and the telephone rang quite a bit."

"But then," she grinned mischievously, "that wasn't too strange, now that I come to think of it."

TRI-COUNTY TRAFFIC COUNCIL

Wester To Meet With Newark Mayor On Rt. 78 Traffic

all communities located on or near Rts. 22, 1-9, 21, the turnpike and the new east-west highway.

An estimated half-million cars will pass daily in the giant interchange complex that will tie in Rt. 78, which is now under construction, with nearly a half dozen major highways ring Newark Airport, according to Wester. The chairman based his figures on studies conducted by the tri-county Council on the present traffic flow and the anticipated use of the new highway.

In his meeting with Addonizio, Wester said he will ask the Newark Mayor to take the lead in finding out how to avert the traffic hazards and the accident hazards and Henry P. Wester, chairman of the Essex-Hudson-Somerset Traffic Safety Council, will meet next week with Mayor Hugh Addonizio of Newark to discuss measures needed to deal with the massive traffic problems that will arise when Rt. 78 is completed in 1970.

Wester, a former Mountain-side Councilman and an unsuccessful candidate last year for the Union County Board of Freeholders, said the meeting is a step aimed at trying to avert what Council studies show could be the biggest, most hazardous traffic jam in the history of the country.

Wester emphasized that the predicted traffic jam would affect not only Newark but all the attendant difficulties which will undoubtedly occur in the interchange area. He will ask Addonizio to initiate a move which would bring the heads of other municipalities affected into a cohesive group to study and plan for the expected problems.

The $35 million interchange complex will be three miles long from McClellan st. and Rt. 1-9 to the New Jersey Turnpike entrance north of the airport. It will connect Rt. 78 with Rt. 1-9, the turnpike, Routes 21 and 22 and Port st., Newark.

Wester pointed out that the new highway will be heavily used by inter-state trucks and cars. The accident potential will be pushed up by that fact, he said, since drivers will be unfamiliar with the area and will be confused with the hundreds of signs and over and underpasses and merging lanes.

The Safety Council is seeking the answers, Wester said, to the following questions: What agency or branch of government will take on the responsibility of providing for the safety and welfare of the half million or more people who will be passing in the area daily, including the protection of more than $500,000 worth of rolling stock?

Who will carry the expense of enforcement, fire, emergency and rescue action in this area?

How will emergency equipment get into an area when it gets tied up as the result of an accident—snow or other traffic interference?

$9,022 Hospital Bill Faces Union Family

A hospital bill totalling $9,022 faces the Union family of 26-year-old Theresa Gargalowitz who was critically injured in an auto crash in Springfield in April, 1964. The family, which lives at 2530 Hawthorne ave., Union, is still awaiting additional doctor bills.

Payment of the bill from Overlook Hospital, Summit, where Theresa has been in a coma ever since the accident, will just about deplete the fund which was set up to help meet hospital and doctor bills, according to Philip Portnoy, of Union, chairman.

According to a report from Portnoy this week, incomplete figures show that the fund has now approximately $10,000. Money to pay the hospital bill will come from this. Portnoy pointed out that the bill is an accumulation of many months.

The girl's father was not covered by health insurance at his place of work.

A total of at least $250, profits from a wheelchair-basketball benefit game played in Union on Saturday, has been added to the fund. Portnoy said expenses and payment to the Jersey Wheelers, a team made up of paraplegics, brought the total profit to $2507 Union Council Knights-of-Columbus, were sponsors.

A benefit dance sponsored by the Teenage Republicans of Springfield and Union, will be held April 2 at the Mountainide Inn from 8-11 p.m. Tickets may be obtained from Paul Penard of 39 Lyons pl., Springfield, and Nancy Arneso of 231 Longview rd., Union.

Tips for TODAY'S HOMEMAKER

From MARY ARMSTRONG, County Home Economist

VARIED SAUCES ENHANCE POPULAR FISH FILLETS

Since earliest times fish has provided a "gold mine" of food for man. All kinds grow naturally and some can live in regions too cold for agriculture. Fish can be caught with a minimum of equipment, and through the ages, has generally been an inexpensive source of food.

When buying whole fish allow 1 pound per adult and a little less for children. Fish fillets can be prepared in a variety of ways. The simplest is to roll in crumbs and fry or saute. They also may be baked in a very hot oven (500 degrees F. or more) for about eight minutes. If more time is available, in just an hour you can prepare and serve rolled stuffed haddock fillets. The filling may be herbs and crackers, cheese and bread crumbs, or mushroom stuffing.

With a variety of fish sauce recipes at hand, you are prepared to serve fish fillet in a dozen or more different ways during the weeks before Easter. Tomato Curry Sauce is a tasty simple one. An elegant Baked Fish Fillet Dish is also suggested.

- Tomato Curry Sauce
 - 3 tablespoons butter
 - 3 tablespoons flour
 - 1 teaspoon curry powder
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1 1/2 cups tomato juice
- Melt butter and stir in seasonings. Add tomato juice. Bring to boil, stirring constantly. Serve immediately over fish and rice. Make 1 1/2 cups.
- Baked Sole in Casserole
 - 3 pounds sole or other fish fillets, fresh or frozen
 - 3 cups thinly sliced cooked potatoes
 - 1 can (4 oz.) sliced mushrooms, drained
 - 1 teaspoon paprika
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1/4 teaspoon pepper
 - 1 cup sour cream
 - 1/2 cup dry white wine or 3 tablespoons lemon juice
 - 2 tablespoons flour
 - 1 tablespoon grated onion
 - Chopped parsley

and pepper. Sprinkle half of remaining over potatoes and mushrooms. Combine sour cream, wine or lemon juice, flour, and onion. Spread half of cream mixture over mushrooms. Top with fish. Sprinkle fish with remaining seasoning and spread with remaining cream mixture. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 35 to 45 minutes or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. Remove from oven and let stand 10 minutes for easier serving. Sprinkle with parsley. Serves six.

THE FEMININE LOOK

Commentary on a recent National Editorial Association Study Mission Around South America
By TRUDINA HOWARD

WITH THE PRESIDENT OF PANAMA, His Excellency Marco A. Robles, takes at the Presidential Palace in Panama City in January. Now, a firmer hand...

No one we met in Panama seemed to hate us. "Aha!" you will say, "that is wishful thinking." But it was true. The people were friendly. The average Panamanian — the shop-keeper, the maid, the taxi-driver, the man in the street, the entertainers, the waiters, the children — all were friendly. It is the extremists and the university students who seem to hate us, but we did not meet any of them. They are few by comparison, though, or at the rebellious age, and they are stimulated by a crop of dissatisfied communists.

They are, however, the angry young men of Latin America, and they are a new factor in the political scene, but at a briefing in Miami before leaving for Panama, we were cautioned to remember to keep them in perspective. These people are just a small group and are being stirred by communists trying to make a big noise, and they are "against" everything and "for" nothing, we were told.

At the briefing in Miami three men presented the Latin American picture to us. There was Dr. Ernest Halperin of MIT and a consultant at the University of Miami who is considered an expert on Communism in Latin America; Dr. Raoul Shellen of the University of Miami staff who gave a Cuban resume; and Dr. Manolo Reyes, a Latin American news editor for a television station in Miami who gave political comments.

IN A WORD, our greatest problem in Latin America is the hatred held for us by extreme nationalists who would rouse the few "angry young men" and their own few members to dissatisfaction, and use communism to attain their own ends. (And, the over-all problem of income information in the news of all that is happening.)

You may bear in mind, Dr. Reyes said, that the vast majority of people in Latin America want peaceful evolution rather than violent revolution. They want an opportunity to live quietly without anything happening to their sons, and a chance to advance their position to some extent. And I would add that it seems that the countries too want to solve their many individual problems with the least amount of trouble and advance their position. It is true that they want to do things in their own way, but isn't it always so? Also, what is right for one isn't necessarily right for the other. A problem in Uruguay may have to be handled differently than a problem in the United States.

But again, it is the actions of the extremists and the students that have been written about in the news. The quiet, unadorned, friendly Latin Americans, like so many other people in so many other countries and ours, have not made the headlines.

BUT THERE IS something in Panama that makes for action. Panamanians love an anniversary. They will celebrate the anniversary of anything at the drop of a hat — or a flag — and that can be wild. This year, in mid-January, at the "anniversary" of the students' flag burning of last year, the American Embassy staff sat in bated breath as the flag approached and wondered if it would be a celebration demonstration.

But Panama has a new president this year and the new president has a stronger and firmer hand. When a handful of students began a march toward the Embassy, National Guards were promptly told to quiet them, and in no uncertain terms they did. The demonstration was dispersed before any damage could be done and ended a few hours before our jet plane landed at Panama.

So we saw no demonstration and heard no insults. It is true we were there only two days and we did not go into the University, but we went everywhere else and wandered at will in the city, sometimes alone, sometimes not. We went from coast to coast and walked through both Panama City and Colon, on the beaches, in the shops, in the churches and had no problems. As a matter of fact, Panama was quite a pleasure. The canal itself was special to see; the weather, at about 85 degrees, was ideal; the scenery was beautiful; the invitations glamorous,

He praised the United Nations and its lofty purpose saying it was organized at a very good time. He hoped, however, that it "would not lose its good purpose because of the egoism of larger nations."

He stated that he felt the Agency for International Development (AID) was doing very well and that the Peace Corps "is a very magnificent organization which is doing a beautiful job." There are 131 members of the Peace Corps in Panama and some are located in such remote areas that there is no means of transportation to get there. One walks or rides a mule, or one doesn't go. But the Peace Corps is there!

THERE WAS ONE subject, however, on which President Robles would not elaborate, and that was on the second most controversial subject in Panama, namely: What about another route for the canal?

He would only say that when the United States presents its aspirations, "we will say what we think of locations other than Panama. The United States aspirations must be made first." But the general feeling in Panama naturally seems to be a profound desire for the canal to stay in Panama — but there are different views on how.

Ask Amy

by AMY ADAMS

Dear Amy: It is a shame that "Almost Pinched" was subjected to those indignities, but, because of a few dishonest people, many of us — People from ages nine to 70 attempt to pilfer, shoplift, defraud (call it what you like) stores of merchandise or money. I have been a security officer for 30 years and I realize more and more each day that this dishonest minority is constantly cooking up new schemes which cost the stores three to five percent of their business.

Some shoplift for profit, some for kicks, and others out of desperation. But whatever the reason (and there is no real reason), the law views this act with more and more severity. My job exists because of this type of person, but I would include them in my badge if people would pay for what they take!

Dear Amy: In reference to your letter from "Almost Pinched," may I state some of the reasons for scrutinizing our customers' purchases and packages very closely? A discount store operates on a very low profit percentage, so that there is little money to hire adequate floor personnel. Some people take advantage of this fact to live their purses and pockets with unpaid merchandise. Consequently, the suspicious-looking person, honest though he or she may be, is suspect. This is unfortunate but true.

A Discount Manager
Dear Amy: I have a problem about kissing on first dates. There is a real cute boy who wants to date me, but before I accept, I want your advice about kissing on first dates. My older sister tells me not to kiss, and my cousin tells me to kiss. My cousin says if I don't kiss them, they will never be back, because if you don't kiss some boys, they will get mad. I want to continue dating this boy. What should I do?
Mixed Up
Take the advice of your sister.

Dear Gladys: His reasons for bothering you don't sound like he's trying to "make time" with you. But if you want to make sure he knows you're married, tell him your husband has what ever he wants — a divorce. If she has any questions, be sure to answer them. Gladys

MOTOR-VEHICLE QUESTION BOX

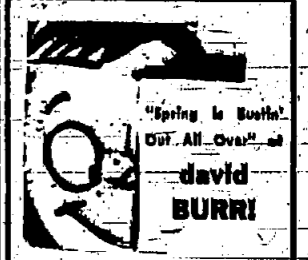

QUESTION: How much does it cost to register an automobile in New Jersey?
ANSWER: Passenger registration—fees are based upon manufacturer's shipping weight: (a) Less than 2700 pounds - $10.00; (b) 2700 pounds to 3800 pounds - $15.00; (c) Vehicles over 3800 pounds - $25.00. The fees for non-passenger registrations are many and varied. The motor vehicle agent will provide the necessary fee information. If the vehicle is not covered by liability insurance at the time of registration in the amount of $10,000-$20,000 for bodily injury and $5,000 for property damage with a company authorized to write such insurance in New Jersey, an additional fee must be paid to the Unsatisfied Claim and Judgment Fund. (Official reply from N. J. Division of Motor Vehicles.)

Board Approves Graduate Studies

The State Board of Education has approved the setting up of programs of study at Montclair State College for college graduates who wish to become certified teachers in New Jersey. One program will lead to a teacher's certificate in secondary education and in special subjects; the other will qualify college graduates for a master's degree. In approving the programs, the board explained that there is a need for such courses for college graduates who have appropriate backgrounds in subject matter, but who have not prepared themselves adequately for teaching in this state.

Sandman's Bid For GOP Nod Boosts Stock Of Sen. Stamler

The entrance of Cape May Sen. Charles Sandman into the Republican gubernatorial nomination chase this week has boosted the stock of Union County Sen. Nelson F. Stamler, some political watchers said this week.

With Sen. Wayne Dumont of Warren County holding the trump card of organization backing, Sandman's decision to make a primary contest could divide the GOP regulars and leave the way open for Stamler to slip in, the political observers feel. However, Essex County Sen. Robert Barcone holds the key to any successful Stamler bid, it is said. If the Essex lawmaker enters the race, he would make it difficult for Stamler to gain substantial backing that he needs in the populous northern-New Jersey counties.

Meanwhile, Stamler has taken on the hustings seeking support for his candidacy. He said his appeals for financial help have shown "fair results, while response to requests for other support were 'good.' He opened his drive Sunday with a talk to 75 persons at the Park Hotel in Plainfield. The vote quest will take Stamler to Monmouth, Camden, Bergen, Essex and Passaic Counties in coming weeks. Sunday he reiterated his opposition to a state sales tax, a stand that would make him a clear-cut alternative to Dumont, who has been pumping for adoption of the levy for seven years. And, in a statement regarded as a deep bow in the direction of the powerful Bergen County GOP organization, Stamler said he did not believe the 600,000 residents of New Jersey who already pay a New York income tax should be penalized by a new state sales tax.

Exam Slated At NSC Evaluates Teachers

How does a prospective high school science teacher find out how qualified he is to teach? How can a future elementary school teacher assess his effectiveness in the classroom before he actually begins teaching? How can a school system measure the general education background of college graduates they intend to employ?

The National Teachers Examination given at Newark State College, Union, on March 20 and July 17 is designed to give the answers to these and similar questions. Applications may be obtained by contacting the Educational Testing Service, Princeton.

New Jersey school systems requiring teachers to submit scores on the National Teacher Examinations include: Elizabeth, Newark, Atlantic City, East Brunswick, Hoboken, New Brunswick, South Orange, and Maplewood.

The examinations have been prepared and administered since 1950 by Educational Testing Service, a non-profit educational organization. The program was started in 1940 by the American Council on Education at the request of large-city school systems to aid them in selecting teachers.

Shortly after colleges began using the test results in connection with their teacher education programs, some state departments of education now use the test results for teacher certification. Many candidates take the tests to evaluate their professional development.

In conducting the examinations, ETS acts simply as a service agency. It has no authority with regard to rules and regulations established by state and local school systems, colleges, or graduate schools.

Leaders in education from all parts of the country serve as advisors to ETS in shaping the character and policies of the NTE program. Specialists in various teaching fields outline the content of the examinations and write or review the questions.

Diamond Coach At Dayton Has Polished Many Rough-Cut Gems

ED JASINSKI

By DONALD LEWIS
Mr. J is the quiet teacher at Dayton Regional with a winning smile. He also has a happy look of a winning baseball coach. Ed Jasinski, called Mr. J by his U. S. history students, has been teaching at the high school in Springfield since 1957 and has been head coach of the Dayton varsity baseball team since 1961.

Jasinski is married and lives in Hillside, where he was born. He is the father of two girls and a boy, ranging in age from seven years to seven months. Mr. J says, though, "I'd like to have some more boys if I could find any around."

After graduating from Hillside High School, where he played varsity baseball and basketball, Jasinski went to the University of Vermont to pursue his interests in history, political science and baseball. While he was playing ball for Vermont, a scout from the Philadelphia Phillies spotted Jasinski and sent him to the Montpelier, Vt. team in the New England League to play summer ball. For the next three years, Mr. J spent his winters pursuing education in college and his summers gaining experience for a hoped-for professional career.

JASINSKI FOUND playing for the New England League much different from play in school or college ball. "It was like playing for money," he said, "even though we were only amateurs." In addition, although he had speed, Jasinski was a little too short for a right-handed pitcher. "There are few right-handed pitchers in the major league," Jasinski said, "who are under six feet."

After graduating from the University of Vermont in 1952, Jasinski was drafted, and that ended his baseball playing career. After getting out of the service, however, he returned to the sport as an assistant coach at Bowdoin High School in Southern Jersey. Bowdoin was in an agricultural area, and Mr. J found that the boys there were more interested in athletics and all after-school activities than they are here in Springfield. "Boys here are more interested in getting a job after school," he said.

In 1957, Jasinski came to Dayton Regional as a history teacher and assistant baseball coach. In 1961, the same year that the regional high school baseball league opened, he became head coach here.

In his first year as head coach, a one-in-a-million accident occurred which gave Mr. J some nervous thoughts. In high school, a just-pitched ball spun off Jasinski's bat, ran up his arm, and almost caused him to lose his eye.

THE SAME FREAK accident happened in 1961 to Dayton's all-state football tackle and baseball player, Marty Sica.

Such bad omens were quickly forgotten, however, as Jasinski's baseball teams went on to successful seasons in '61 and '62. It is with glowing pride, then, that Jasinski refers to his 1963 season, when the Dayton Bulldogs won 23 straight ball games and almost captured three area tournaments.

"My 1963 team was a coach's dream," Jasinski said. "We had many boys who had a lot of experience, both in school ball and during the summer. It was a once-in-a-lifetime season for me."

Some of the stars from that squad were Danny Mascera, whom Jasinski remembers as the "finest hitter I've ever had"; Joe DiMario, catcher; Butch Bell, third baseman and Jack Apper, shortstop. Billy Kreizer was the outstanding pitcher of that team.

JASINSKI SAID that his greatest enjoyment in coaching is seeing the latent ability of the boys develop into real playing ability. Of Bill Kreizer, he said "Bill's raw ability turned him into a developed, thinking pitcher."

Jasinski thinks that all the playing experience a boy can get helps him to develop as an athlete. He thinks that one result of today's Little League, which wasn't around when he was growing up, is that there are more long ball hitters in school baseball now.

He also believes that television, as it has affected the professional leagues, has affected the attendance at high school baseball games.

With good weather and a good team, however, he still feels that baseball is a popular sport with fans, although, he admits, "In spring a young man's fancy..."

Oklahoma State League Song: 'Oh, What A Beautiful Pennant'

The State League completed its regular season on Saturday afternoon. The State League is conducted at the Gaudinier Gymnasium every Saturday afternoon as part of the Springfield Recreation Department's youth basketball program.

Oklahoma took the regular season crown by finishing its schedule with a record of 22-10. Kansas and Iowa tied for the second spot with identical records of six up and three down. The teams will now enter the all-important playoffs.

In the opening contest last week, Kansas tripped California in a closely-contested contest by the final score of 16 to 14. Tommy Campbell with five points led the attack for Kansas, while Chris Gacos hit four points to aid the Kansas cause. Scott Prussing also played well for the winners. Danny Silverman gathered six points for California to post the game high for all scorers. Jeff Morris with four points was also effective for California.

Texas produced the highest scoring effort of the season in downing Florida by the score of 36 to 14. Texas is a team which can score the points and will be heard from in the playoffs.

Ricky Revitz had his finest scoring day for Texas as he tallied 11 points. Jay Silverman and Robert Meisel shared honors with Revitz as each boy hit for eight points. Howard Koskowitz scored five points.

for Texas before Gacos forced him to leave the game. Jay Schullman with nine markers paced the attack for Florida.

Oklahoma protected its championship by nipping last-place Utah by the score of 16 to 15. A seven point outburst in the final period saved Oklahoma from a stunning upset. Alan Schanger with eight points paced the offense. Richard Frensdorff had a hot day for Utah as he tallied eight points. Bob Sasse with a good floor game played well for Utah.

After four losses at the opening of the season, Idaho completed its schedule last week with its fifth consecutive victory, as it overwhelmed Wyoming by the final score of 28 to 8. Alan LeBeout, Bill Hartman, John Baraglia and Mark Tannenbaum all scored heavily for this Idaho squad. Bobby Reichman was the top scorer for Wyoming with four points.

The final game of the regular season saw Iowa roll in an easy 20 to 6 victory over Ohio. By virtue of this victory, Iowa tied Kansas for the league's second spot. Iowa showed a very well balanced scoring attack in this victory, as seven players hit the scoring column. John Edwards, Phil Stokes, and Ray Danziger paced the scorers as each boy tallied six points. Mark Hollander with three points was Ohio's top man.

The State League playoffs will open tonight with a pair of first round games. Florida will meet Ohio in the first game starting at 7 at the Gaudinier Gymnasium. The second contest will pit high scoring Texas against Utah. Starting time for this contest is set for 8.

The playoffs will continue on Saturday, with four quarter-final games. The opening game set for 1 p.m. at Gaudinier will have the Florida-Ohio winner meeting Oklahoma. The second contest will feature Wyoming against California. Idaho will meet Iowa, and the Texas-Utah winner will play Kansas in the final game of the day.

ST. JAMES BOYS TAKE CYO CROWN AS TOP BOWLERS

The St. James Catholic Youth Organization bowling team of Springfield won the county CYO junior championship on Sunday by defeating St. Ann's of Garwood, two games to one, in a playoff at Federal Lanes, Elizabeth.

Both teams had finished the regular season in a tie, with records of 31-8.

Team members received trophies at a dinner held Sunday evening at the Cranwood, Garfield. They are Gary Ruffington, Ralph Benkus, Drew Miller, Jeff Spangler, John Brennan, Stanley Pitynski and Larry Roland. Pitynski also received an award for the highest gross game in the recent county CYO tournament.

Ivy League Title For Harvard; Playoff Rounds Start Saturday

The Springfield Recreation Department's Ivy League concluded its regular season schedule last Saturday afternoon at the Dayton Regional High School Gymnasium. Harvard topped the Ivy League for the 1965 season finishing with a final record of 9 victories against 2 losses.

Harvard will now be seeded number one for the all-important playoffs which start this Saturday at Regional. Cornell and Princeton tied for second in the Ivy League race, as both squads posted season records of 7-3.

In the opening game Saturday Cornell topped Dartmouth by the score of 43 to 27. This loss completed a season for Dartmouth in which it failed to win a single game. Steve Reichman scored 14 points to lead the winning Cornell team. Joel Schwartz scored 6 points for Cornell and played an outstanding floor game.

Dave Margulies, captain of the Dartmouth team, once again sparkled for his squad as he hit for 15 points and played a strong defensive game.

The second game of the afternoon saw Princeton roll to an easy 42 to 15 victory over Yale. Yale, without the services of Gary Haydu to rebound, could not cope with Princeton's super, showed a well-balanced scoring attack and Dennis was of great value to his club as a rebounder and passer.

Joel Schwartz of Cornell finished third in the individual scoring race as he tallied 90 points for the season. Joel's total is particularly significant in that he is primarily a ball handler and passer.

Dave Margulies, the lone bright spot in a dismal season for Dartmouth, tallied 77 season points to place fourth among all the league scorers.

The fifth place spot in the Ivy League race went to the Bulldogs of Yale. Frankie is a first year man in the Ivy League and handled himself very well. Frank tallied 75 points for the season. A late season slump held him back from scoring more points. Teammate Tom Carroll of Yale tallied 73 points to become the sixth highest scorer among Ivy League players.

Top scorer finishing in the top 10 were: Bob Janukowicz of Columbia with 67 points; Steve Reichman of Cornell with 57 points; Steve Jupa of Harvard with 50 points; and Lee Rothfeld also of Harvard, with 48 points.

Other towns participating in this recreation basketball tournament are Millburn, Livingston, Morris-town, Whippany, Florham Park, and Chatham.

The Springfield starting squad of Dennis Lester, Tom Carroll, Ralph Lozano, Joel Schwartz and Dave Margulies opened up an early 31 to 12 lead in the Hillside contest, and the reserves took the team to victory over the remainder of the game. The combination of Lozano scoring and Schwartz assisting was once again the most effective part of Springfield's attack. Lozano led all scorers as he tallied 21 points for the Minutemen. Carroll scored 14 points, while Margulies hit for 10 points. Schwartz again played a strong floor game for the Springfield squad. Paul Levinson, with 15 points, was the top scorer for Hillside.

Minutemen Beat Hillside Players; Tournament Next

The Springfield Minutemen played their final regular season game of the 1965 schedule last Saturday evening at the Gaudinier School. In this contest the Minutemen turned back a good Hillside P.A.U. team by the score of 57 to 43.

The Minutemen have now closed their regular season with a final record of nine victories against three losses. The Springfield team will now ready itself for a post-season tournament to be played in Florham Park.

Raiders Top Chiefs; Rockets Trip Tigers

The Sandmeter Small Fry Basketball League completed the semi-final round in play-offs last Saturday afternoon at the Sandmeter School in Springfield. The final game will be played Saturday at the school between the Raiders and the Rockets.

The Raiders, undefeated, beat the Chiefs last Saturday, 14-12. The Chiefs, on the strength of Dick Lutz's two baskets, took a first half lead in this game and seemed on their way to an upset victory.

Tom Lowy, however, hit three straight baskets in the third period to tie the game for the Raiders.

The Raiders won in the final session on a basket by Jeff Sarokin and two free throws by high scoring Kenny Baroff.

Tom Lowy with six points was high scorer. Dick Lutz and Jeff Cohen paced the Chiefs with four points each.

The Rockets rolled to an easy victory over the Tigers, 29-9. Mark Weber and Barry Popp completely dominated this game for the Rockets. Mark tallied 13 points, while Barry scored 10. The Rockets, paced by Mark and Barry, scored heavily in each period to put the game out of reach very early.

Bob Zucker with four points also played well for the winners.

Gary Weber was a bright spot in this defeat for the Tigers. Gary was all over the court in an effort to rally his team, but the bid fell far short of victory.

Next week the Tigers will meet the Chiefs in a consolation game starting at 1 p.m. The Rockets will then meet the Raiders for the championship.

Basketball Team Of Regional Girls Defeats Summit

By DIANE SCORBY
Last week, the four girls' teams at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School traveled to Summit for a display of their basketball skill.

The seniors were the only ones to come out on top with an 18-15 victory against the Summit senior girls. Diane Scoby led all the scoring of field goals in the first half and Ann Marie Boylan made a team shot, to give the Dayton team a 12-7 lead.

In the second half, Sheryl Baldwin scored a foul shot, and Ann Marie Boylan and Diane Scoby scored the rest of Regional's points.

The juniors were not so fortunate and lost to Summit, 11-21. Mary Franklin scored on a foul shot and Lisa Moore and Pat Twitty did the remaining scoring.

The sophomores had a lead in their game against Summit up to the fourth quarter, when Summit made a quick recovery to beat Dayton, 12-10. Jane Etzold did most of the scoring while Chris Melchior and Linda Kisch also scored baskets.

The Freshman game was the closest of all and ended in regulation time as a tie, 18-18. In the three-minute overtime, Doris Jhalls scored two late and the Summit freshmen won, 24-20. Debbie Hurston and Carol Cornfield scored the only foul shots, and Linda Walker and Dorie Ingalls made the field goals for the Dayton freshmen.

The Atoms continued their sensational bowling by tripping the Pirates in two games. Once again, Matt Denner and Jay Silverman paced the Atoms. Denner rolled a 255 series, while Silverman hit 261 for two games.

Look To Sky Instead Of Calendar For Date Of Easter

You can look to the sky instead of your calendar to find the date of Easter. The full moon is the key to determining the date of Easter, which can come as early as March 22 or as late as April 25.

Not just any full moon, of course, but the first one after the vernal equinox which occurs about March 21. Easter then falls on the first Sunday following the first full moon after the vernal equinox, according to the Standard Encyclopedia. This year Easter is scheduled for April 18.

Other confusing dates, such as Ash Wednesday, can also be figured out easily. Ash Wednesday, which was last week, March 3rd, this year comes 40 days before Easter, excluding Sundays. It is the beginning of Lent and of the Easter season.

In the early church, ashes were sprinkled on the heads of persons who repented their sins on Ash Wednesday. The ashes were obtained from the burning of palms consecrated on Palm Sunday of the previous year and were to remind the faithful that "man is but dust."

In the Christian Church, Lent is the period of penitence, prayer, and fasting in preparation for Easter. The Lenten season extends from Ash Wednesday until Holy Saturday, the day before Easter—and commemorates Jesus Christ's 40 days of fasting and prayer in the desert. During Lent, which comes from an old English word for spring, Christians are required or encouraged to fast, avoid amusements, and engage in special worship.

Holy Week in the Christian church is the week preceding Easter and is observed as a period of devotion to the last days of Jesus Christ and to his death on the cross. Holy Week, the most important of the Christian year, begins with Palm Sunday which commemorates the triumphal entry of Jesus into Jerusalem. Maundy—or Holy—Thursday is the anniversary of the Last Supper, and Good Friday recalls the Crucifixion. Holy Saturday is the day before Easter and the end of Lent.

Easter is the festival celebrating the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. It symbolizes the key-stone of Christian faith and hope—the immortality of man. The crucifixion of Jesus occurred during the Jewish Passover. The early Christians, being Jewish, observed Easter as part of Passover. Later, as non-Jews came into the church, some Christians insisted that Easter should be celebrated on Sunday, the day of Resurrection. Western churches generally celebrated the festival on Sunday, while eastern churches followed the Jewish tradition. New Standard Encyclopedia points out that the first ecumenical council, the Council of Nicea, in 325 decided that Easter should always be on Sunday, and adopted the rule for establishing the date. Easter derived its name from Eastre, the Anglo-Saxon goddess of spring. And many of the customs of the Easter festival were incorporated from heathen rituals welcoming the spring season. The egg has long been a symbol of Easter. But long before the birth of Christ, the ancient Egyptians and Persians had the custom of coloring and eating eggs during their spring festival as a symbol of fertility and of renewed life. The Christians paraphrased this ancient significance of the egg as a symbol of new life, and the egg became a symbol of resurrection.

The sunrise service so much a part of Easter is also rooted in antiquity. According to an old superstition, the sun rising on Easter morning dances in the heavens. This belief has been traced to the old heathen festival when the spectators danced in honor of the sun.

The Eastern Parade, seeming entirely worldly, may be traced to an old belief that it was unlucky not to wear some new article of clothing or personal adornment on Easter. Or it may stem from the universal feeling that the Easter tide is the time of casting off the old and the beginning of the new. And those families who, by custom, eat ham on Eastern Sunday are unwittingly following an old practice of the Roman Catholics of England who ate a gammon of bacon on Easter to show their contempt for the Jews, to whom pork is forbidden.

TEEN AGE CROWD

"Where are you going?" is a usual query from parents. The usual answer, "Out with the crowd," is an unsatisfying one because parents would like more detail. But parents of the high school age young adult should be thankful this answer is given. The importance of a youngster belonging to a "crowd" should not be underestimated.

The need for association with others of the same age is greater during adolescence than at any other time. To be accepted by others of the same age, to have a sense of belonging, is essential. Younger children need security within the family group, but as adolescence needs this family sense of security (although it isn't always obvious to parents) plus the need to feel a part of his age group.

Adults are often puzzled by adolescent groups. Usually the group doesn't do much — just sit around and play records. The chatter isn't really conversation — it doesn't seem to be about anything or go anywhere, but it is loud.

To the young adult, these groups are meaningful and important: he gains experience in getting along with other people — in a very different relationship than a youth-adult one, he develops experience in social skills in a situation where all are equal. In the youth-adult social situations, the cards are stacked against the youngster because of the greater experience and maturity of the adult. To really learn the skills of social behavior, youngsters need experience with others whose abilities are no better than his own.
