Campaign Releases Blast, Laud Town Operations

DEMOCRATS
Henry Grabarz and Donald Mantel, Democratic candidates for the Township Committee, this week are demanding that a municipal code of ethics be approved and adopted by the Township Committee.

"It is interesting to note that when the present Republican administration took office in 1962, they pledged passage of a code of ethics as one of their first actions. In the promised code was a plank stipulating that no elected or appointed official should have any personal interest in any decision before the town. The ethics code that played such a prominent place in the program of the present administration as office seekers has been strangely absent in their programs as office holders," they stated.

"Although general ethical conduct of township officials is assumed, the presence of a code of ethics specifically designed to guide township officials," they stated, "have a controlling effect on the actions of such officials."

"Further, such a code would greatly contribute to the elimination of activity exemplified by a 1964 county court case involving township officials in Springfield and the elimination of other activities which were discussed last year to the people of this community.

"Honest and dedicated public officials will have no fear of a code of ethics because it will correspond with their own private principles. Only those men who cannot subordinate their own interests for the community's welfare will rebel against these rules of official conduct.

"We heartily subscribe to a code of ethics. Its absence leads to general demoralization in all departments of government, particularly when a bad example is set by the elected officials.

"Failure on the part of the Republican administration to adopt a code of ethics is another example of the do nothing policy which has been in effect since Jan. 1, 1962."

Grabarz and Mantel added "During the campaign, we will continue to bring the need of a code of ethics to the attention of the voters, and we will also seek our opponents' why, despite the need, they have failed to adopt such a code."

Progress Listed By Tax Collector

Fred Braun, Republican candidate for tax collector, stated this week that "Progress with economy will be the keynote of my office." He offered the following platform for "progress with economy":

"Completing his first term in office, Fred Braun has achieved for Springfield one of the lowest tax rates in the county throughout the Union. County Treasurer Braun's office, a system was established for collection of delinquent taxes bringing more than $2,000,000 in back taxes into the township treasury since he took office in 1962.

CHURCH SURVEYS MEMBERS' VIEWS ON SOCIAL ISSUES

William Rossett, chairman of the Christian social concerns commission of Springfield Emmanuel Methodist Church, this week announced that his commission has distributed a social concerns questionnaire to every family in the parish to determine the degree of awareness of social issues in the community and nation.

The essential purpose of the Christian social concerns commission is to create greater social awareness in the total congregation, said Rossett.

The questionnaire ranges in interest from knowledge of local political and community affairs to broader national and world issues. Each member has been asked to return the questionnaire, unsigned, by this Sunday. The commission will then review the questionnaires to determine the areas of emphasis for the coming year.

REPUBLICANS
"Progress with economy" will be the keynote of the Republican Township campaign, according to an announcement this week by the two GOP candidates, Robert G. Planer and Robert D. Hardgrove.

"Our fiscal policies have made it possible for our township to sell its capital improvement bonds for 3.05 percent interest, an exceptionally low rate, while we are able to invest our surplus at rates up to 4 1/2 percent. This is the type of efficiency in government that we advocate."

Planer and Hardgrove pledged, "We will continue the type of administration for the voters of Springfield."

They concluded by saying, "We are proud to live in Springfield, and we are proud to serve Springfield, and with pride we offer a program that will continue to make Springfield a desirable place in which to live.

"Your vote on our behalf will insure Springfield of a sound foundation on which to build for the future."

For Department Of Missing Toads

"Lost, horned toad, between Twin Oaks oval and Christy Lane, on Saturday. Please return to John P. Browne, 64 Twin Oaks oval, 376-7275."

That's the way the notice read when it arrived from the 12-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Browne. In the interests of complete coverage, a telephone call to Mrs. Browne elicited some additional information.

The toad is named Henry, or Henrietta, just in case, and had resided with the Brownes for the previous three weeks. It (to be safe) is ten, speckled on top, with little horns, and a very tight tank on the bottom.

"He doesn't jump," Mrs. Browne reported. "He only runs. He was lost among the white oak leaves in our back yard; he resembles one very closely."

"John is heartbroken, and he would like to offer a reward. He thought 50 cents would be ample."

The Brownes also have two chameleons, four turtles, one goldfish, one hamster, Sugar, one kitten named Fluffy and one little sister named Patsy, aged nine. All but Henry-Henrietta are present and accounted for.

The Springfield League of Women Voters will conduct its annual finance drive in the next two weeks. It was announced this week by Mrs. Henry Humeke, president.

Assisting her in the campaign are Mrs. Stephen Beno, finance chairman, and Mrs. Charles Gersl, membership chairman.

Calling on the public to contribute, they declared:

"The League of Women Voters is a community enterprise. Its members are public-spirited citizens who serve without compensation. They believe that the true spirit and practical operation of our democracy is based solely on an informed voter."

"The League's activities, in this community, and throughout the nation consist of making information available to the voter on local, state and national issues. This information is based on surveys, interviews, printed material — in short, any source that will contribute to a better understanding of the issues involved.

"Another objective of the League is to encourage voting by removing obstacles that might stand in the voter's way. For example, the League holds a non-partisan candidates' night where the public can question the candidates on pertinent issues. Candidate sheets with complete details on the candidates are distributed to the voters.

"At the last election, members of the League transported voters to the polls and acted as baby-sitters for mothers who otherwise would be confined to their homes during the hours of the election."

Problems Listed On S. Springfield, Mountain Avenue

No Partisan Politics Despite Closeness Of General Election

BY ABNER GOLD

Traffic problems on Springfield's two major north-south roadways, described as carrying an ever-increasing number of vehicles, was stressed by speakers from the audience at the Township Committee meeting Tuesday evening at the Municipal Building.

The meeting was generally uneventful and comparatively free of partisan political overtones, even though the general elections are now less than two months away.

"The first traffic problem was described by Irv Rosen of 4 Maps Ave. who cited hazards on Mountain Ave. in the business area from Hillside Ave. south to Edgewood Ave.

Referring to plans to install curbing in the area, Rosen asked how this would affect slopes which have open access to head-in parking areas just beyond the sidewalk. He declared that drivers backing out into the street, which is a county road, create a variety of hazards and add greatly to congestion.

Continuous Curbing

Committeemen tended to agree that county highway experts would require continuous curbing with gaps only for driveways leading into parking areas not directly open to the street. They referred the problem to Ensey Bennett, township traffic consultant, for further study.

Robert Johnson of 21 Ruby St. told the governing body that extremely heavy daily traffic on S. Springfield Ave., a county road, causes extended delays and frequent near-accidents when drivers attempted to enter the main road from Ruby, Meckes and Diven streets.

With traffic slowed by lights at Hillside Ave. and Millburn rd., Johnson said, and an added influx at the corner of Meisel Ave. and S. Springfield Ave., drivers sometimes wait for as much as 15 minutes to get out of the side streets.

Termining the problem complex and not susceptible to an easy solution, the Township Committee referred this matter also to Bennett for investigation.

Suggestion Extension

Committeeman Jay Bloom suggested that Diven St. could be extended along the Edward Walton School property to Mountain Ave. to ease access to the area in question.

In the business session, the committee authorized a contribution of $800 to the Chamber of Commerce for decorations in the Morris Ave. and Mountain Ave. business districts. Instead of overhead Christmas lights, as had been installed in the past there, will be Christmas plaques which will be filled with seasonal shrubs, to be changed several times this year.

On the recommendation of the town auditor, an ordinance was introduced setting a fee of $5 to $5 for various Reclamation Department permits. The ordinance formalized fees already being charged participants in the athletic and cultural programs.

Bond Ordinances

Three bond ordinances were also introduced, appropriating a total of $108,000 for paving and curbing of all or part of Lyons pl., Crescent rd., Wabeno and Saturdays, 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

PUZZLE NO. 881

Ask Amy

BY AMY ADAMS

Dear Amy:
A few months ago at my request you sent me 'tips' on how to keep the mut. I married happy. Since then, it has been lent to some of my friends, and everyone who has read it, liked it, of course.

I wonder if you would print it in your column so that every one can read it. I have a sister-in-law in Chicago who I hope gets to see it, too.
Mrs. Artlenne
Dear Mrs. Artlenne:
With pleasure. Here it is:
"The following information is not a recipe that you put into a bowl and, with luck, turns out just the right shape, size and color to please you. It is merely my own experiences and observations of a male member of my family whom I please to call my husband (for 21 years) and the gathering over the years from hundreds of letters from women such as you and me who have put good common sense into practice and are happier because of it.

"The basic ingredients are love, consideration, appreciation, gratitude, respect and a very important touch of flavoring and spice . . . namely the 'know how' to make the man in your life feel wanted and needed."
"Every right-thinking woman knows the results in marriage are by all odds, her's, so by applying the above mentioned (sans the use of a measuring cup), she stands to reap an abundance of happiness, assuming of course, she has a right-thinking man.

"Faults there are bound to be, but a woman who masters the art of 'getting along' with her man, also knows how to get along with his defects. She adopts them! Mainly because she has no other choice, and they run the gamut from the slob, the clod, the saver, the spender, etc., etc., etc.

"But so what! When he is satisfied to put up with shopping expeditions, women's clubs, rollers, flannel bathrobes, cold feet, etc., etc., etc.

"It's food for thought that could give us all a touch of indignation. But with all their faults — and ours — if we love them enough to share the honey, difficult, but always mutual path of married bliss, who reaps the rewards? WE do, of course!

"I have seen the most fastidious, glamorous woman, intelligent in every possible way, a magnificent housekeeper, who outwardly puzzled the most observant of marriage counselors. And then there was the 'plain Jane' who thought 'Dus and Bradstreet' was an 'introduction to New York, but who learned the basic ingredients of a successful marriage . . . and is divinely happy.

"A sharing of faults, an attentive ear to his likes, dislikes, accomplishments, disappointments and the stout conviction that marriages were made to last are what make them as comfortable as an old shoe that a new one couldn't possibly replace."

Dear Amy:
Everybody seems to feel very sorry for the paper boy. Why, I don't know. They take the job because they want to earn money in their spare time and my paper boy doesn't kill himself earning it.

When the weather is bad, his mother supplies chauffeur service for him. I give him a tip every week for good service, and this is what I get: No paper when he runs short of papers, or else he heaves it so high, it lands on the roof. Soaking wet papers when it's raining even though I've told him at least 10 times to put my paper in the holder by the door (which he obviously doesn't), and he has yet to say "Thank you" for the tip.

These boys do have a responsibility to their customers, don't they?

Steady Reader
(When I get the paper)

Dear Reader:
They most certainly do! You are not obligated to 'tip' the paper boy. He, as part of his job, is obligated to give you good service . . . and most of them do. Cut out the lining and let him know why. If that doesn't help, get yourself a new boy.

PERSONAL TO HANK:
A 'carat,' unlike the carrot, is a unit of measurement by which many a girl estimates a man's love. Address all letters to: AMY ADAMS c/o THIS NEWSPAPER For a personal reply enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

"The efficient handling of tax collections will ensure a stable tax rate, which business and industry desire."
"The automation of the tax collector's office was initiated in 1964, and the phasing out of all manual record keeping and receipting is on schedule," he said. The modern accounting equipment, which will do away with the old pen-and-ink method of making out tax bills and posting tax entries into various books and ledgers should further improve the percentage of tax collections," Braun added that improvement and modernization of the tax collector's office has been his goal since he took charge.

Braun concluded, "The record of achievements in the tax collector's office is proof-positive that my re-election will insure continued positive programs responsive to the needs of our community."

The largest appropriation, $69,000, would be recovered through local assessments against property owners where curbing is planned.

Mayor William F. Koonz called on residents to cooperate in making bundles of tree branches and grass clippings placed at the curb so that the material could be picked up by the garbage trucks.

The mayor proclaimed Sept. 17 to 25 as Constitution Week in Springfield, noting that this period marks the anniversary of the signing of the U.S. Constitution. He said that this document forms the "basis of the American way of life."

He also proclaimed Oct. 16-18 as Christopher Columbus Week in the township. Mayor Koonz said that the mall in front of the Municipal Building will be designated for the week as Columbus Square, at the request of the Springfield Chapter of Unico National.

Ten parcels of town-owned property on Diven, Meekes and Runy streets were offered at auction. Mostly too small for use as separate lots, the sites were offered primarily to enlarge present lots. Four of the parcels drew bids, all unopposed, ranging from $1,700 to $2,500.

The final speaker of the evening, during the public discussion period, was Henry S. Wright. He called for an intensified campaign against ragweed within the township.

LEADER PROFILE

ANDREW ALLAN

This may be Andrew Allan's first experience with Springfield Schools as the new principal of the Edward Walton School, but he comes well-prepared, and filled with a great enthusiasm and much confidence for a successful school term.

Allan, who hails from Boston (and his slight, but attractive Bostonian accent verifies it), has been in the field of education for 12 years.

He taught elementary school — fourth, fifth and sixth grades — at the King Philip School in West Hartford, Conn., served as assistant principal of Duffy School and Norfield School in West Hartford, then "did some time back at King Philip School as assistant principal."

He also was assistant principal at Braeburn School in the same city — and from there he came to Springfield.

"This was my first time in Springfield," he says. "In fact, it's my first time in New Jersey." (He lives in Fanwood with his wife, who is a physical education teacher in Edison Junior High School in Edison.)

"I HAD HEARD of the availability of a position as principal in Springfield," he says, "and I came down to interview for the job. I liked what I saw — and when they decided on me — my wife and I scratched our heads and made up our minds to move to New Jersey."

"It wasn't an easy decision to make," he admits, "because it meant that my wife had to give up her teaching in West Hartford, and we had to look for a buyer for our house, then go on a spree looking for a new house in New Jersey."

"No — it wasn't easy to pull up roots, but we made up our minds. And here we are."

Allan says that there are "certain state requirements in Connecticut and in New Jersey that are very similar. There are certain courses to be completed. And the requirements are quite similar inasmuch as they are both reciprocal on acceptance certificates."

"I had a certificate in Connecticut as an elementary school principal," Allan, who was raised and educated in Boston, was graduated from Northern University in Massachusetts and received a master's degree in education from Boston University.

HE SPENT SEVERAL years in the U.S. Army, stationed principally in Alaska. "My rank?" he laughs, "I got up as high as sergeant. I wasn't looking for those bars."

He completed a year beyond his master's degree in elementary supervision and administration. "I received 33 credit hours beyond those required for a master's degree."

During the first week of registration, while Allan was in the Walton School office getting himself "pretty well set up," he had an opportunity to meet "approximately half the staff," and a number of children, who paused in their playing outside the school building and "stopped in to say hello."

Allan explains that "from what I've observed by looking into the parents' program, it's quite evident that the programs are similar to those in Connecticut." He feels this is one of the many reasons he will be completely at home with the school.

"Also, I've been able to observe the versatility in programs. It's a good idea in teaching to try out new programs, such as the library program we have here. It is typical of this type of system to try out new programs, and under John Berwick, superintendent of schools, and Joseph Anderson, assistant superintendent, and seph Anderson, assistant superintendent, the lead in education. It looks as if it will be augmented every year."

"AND THE STAFF," Allan continues, "is really permanent. The faculty is well known to the community, and in working with the community, in a general sense, we will be able to improve what has already been lauded as a good organization."

"The modern math program, the new reading program — the utilization of new research — well," he smiled, "it's just nice to have this kind of an experienced staff who can maintain such high standards in teaching."

"Actually, there are many schools that don't have this kind of situation. That's why I feel I'm so fortunate. Just the confidence of knowing you have experienced people — and that you can fall back on reliable standards — it's a great boost to this particular school, I can honestly say."

Which does he prefer — teaching or serving as principal?

"I think the only true answer is that I honestly enjoy teaching and being in a classroom, but I also enjoy administration as well. I guess I enjoy both of them, although they're both so different."

Stakes And Chopping Blocks

As the days wane and the russet hues of autumn cover the township, a pungent aroma fills the nostrils. It is the flesh of political leaders being roasted by opponents in the municipal elections, in print and by word of mouth.

We believe that this is the time to enter a dissenting opinion. No one in local political life deserves to be burned at the stake; an occasional hotfoot should suffice. There are no thieves or scoundrels at large in Springfield's political arena.

We are lucky enough to have a choice this year of four capable, qualified candidates for the two seats to be filled on the Township Committee. They do not deserve to have their reputations chopped to bits. There are certainly legitimate issues in the township campaign, and there are others whose parentage is debatable. Policies and procedures in Town Hall, for example, are proper subjects for discussion and debate. Bossism, past or present, seems hardly relevant to Springfield in 1965.

Springfield, as has been said here before, has enjoyed municipal government, under both parties, which has appeared substantially above the level found in many neighboring communities. The goal, the first Tuesday of each November, should be to raise that level even higher. May the better team win.

And Justice For All

Our judicial system operates on the basic principal that everyone is presumed innocent until proven guilty. That venerable truism is one of the keystones of the structure of American justice, but there has also been an undercurrent of suspicion that the defendant who can afford a high-priced lawyer is more likely to be more innocent.

In line with recent decisions, George M. Hillman, president of the N.J. State Bar Association, last week declared at a State Senate hearing that his organization favors establishment of a public defender's office in every county or else comparable steps to insure that every defendant will have adequate legal defense, whether or not he can pay for it.

Speaking for the state's 5,000 lawyers, he declared, "Voluntary, private defender systems must in one way or another, fall short of guaranteeing effective representation for the poor and will only tend to perpetuate the lip service which we have for so long been giving to the whole problem of providing justice for those who cannot afford private counsel in criminal matters."

Hillman told the legislators, "The establishment of tax-supported, professionally-competent legal defender offices is by far the best way to insure effective counsel to all indigent persons accused of serious crimes, at least in metropolitan areas, and probably throughout the state on a county basis.

"Such public defenders can best secure the desired objectives if they have permanent, public status, with adequate staff, including investigators. Such defenders would then be able to represent indigent at all steps in the process of accusation and trial on an equal footing with prosecutors."

He went on to say, "However difficult or burdensome the implementation and financing of such a program may be, the state of New Jersey cannot delay facing up to its obligations any longer. Continued delay will inevitably result in a legal morass of uncertainty in criminal trials, expensive appeals and overloaded courts, as well as denial of essential justice to indigent accused."

Confidence in the judicial process has always been one of the vital elements of American democracy.

The importance of legal counsel for all defendants in order to keep the scales of justice level was well summarized in this declaration by the U.S. Supreme Court, as quoted by Hillman in his testimony last week:

"That government hires lawyers to prosecute, and defendants who have the money hire lawyers to defend, are the strongest indications of the widespread belief that lawyers in criminal courts are necessities, not luxuries.

"The right of one charged with crime to counsel may not be deemed fundamental and essential to fair trials in some countries, but it is in ours."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

PARTY CHANGE

I have never voted Democratic in my life, but this is the year. Every year our taxes go up and up, while our town builds up a big surplus. What good does it do us?

do us?

Now we're going to be stuck with a big bill for garbage collection, and what do the Republicans have to say? Look at our lovely Municipal Pool. That's no municipal pool or it would be open to all residents on a pay-as-you-come basis. They don't even open it until 1 p.m. Anyone with small children couldn't go down if they wanted to. By the time naps are over, it's time to start dinner.

What have all our tax dollars given the residents of Baltarol Top? There was a meeting early in the summer, and Mayor Koch said, "We're not here to decide if there should be a playground on Baltarol Top; we're here to decide where it should go. Well, where is it? I'm tired of empty promises and higher taxes, and I hope the Democrats win."

Rajoppi Addresses Union's Convention

A determined drive will be made by the N.J. Council of Carpenters to obtain State Senate approval of Assembly Bill 455, legalizing use of five-eighths-inch wallboard instead of plaster in high-rise apartment houses, Raleigh Rajoppi, of Springfield, union president, told the 54th state carpenter's convention last week in Atlantic City.

He added that "every effort will be made to obtain Senate support for the measure in the November session, after election." The bill passed the Assembly last May but reached the Senate too late for action.

Rajoppi deplored opposition to the bill by the plastering phase of the industry, declaring that "the industry's wallboard years ago" and now were opposing it "because the carpenters had jurisdiction over its installation." He said that wallboard represents "the same type of construction improvement that the carpenters had accepted years ago in use of power tools, prefabrication and factory-built floor and window units."

"Wallboard is an accepted building material around the country," Rajoppi declared, "and is approved in New Jersey for schools, hospitals, one-family dwellings and garden apartments. Only an ancient tenement house law prevents its use in apartment houses here, although legalized for such construction in New York, Philadelphia and elsewhere. Passage of Assembly Bill 455 will correct this situation."

Rajoppi also called for an end to jurisdictional strikes and recognition of home construction as a separate area of the building trades in an effort to regain part of the home building market. At present, he said, non-union labor is building 80 percent of all homes.

"I MUST SAY that I'm happy in doing what I'm doing now. I'm conducting my administrative duties, and I am still close enough to a classroom to know what the needs of the school are—the teaching system, the teachers, the children—they're almost inseparable from this office."

"I have one habit. I must admit. I like to be close to a classroom," Allan muses.

Allan, who is a member of the National Education Association, the Connecticut Education Association, The West Hartford Education Association, the National Exchange of South Windsor and who was affiliated with the Connecticut State Council as a member of its board of directors, "in addition to a lot of small local associations," lists a number of his hobbies.

"I enjoy reading—that's pretty standard, I guess," he laughs. "And my wife and I enjoy camping, climbing, fishing... and, of course, skiing."

In the past three months, from the time the Allans changed their lives... "From the time we sold our house, looked for a new house in a new state... and met some really nice people in the process—we've felt it's really about as nice a transition we could ever hope for."

"People are just generally friendly—most helpful, sincerely so."

"We are really looking forward to an enjoyable and long stay in this area."

Schreck Family Cited As Swim Club Closes

The family of Lawrence J. Schreck of 1718 was recognized in several categories as awards were presented for the season at Cabana Swim Club, West Orange, this week.

Schreck received a trophy for winning the club's photography contest. His son Michael, 6, received a "best-athlete" trophy for his age group. He also received the National AAU physical fitness certificate. Schreck's daughter Maria, 7, received a certificate for passing the National Red Cross swimming test.

THERESA AGAIN BATTLES PNEUMONIA

'Everything That Can Be Done Has Been Done'

"They come to the house all day long. They never stop. Their hands and pockets are full of pennies, quarters, dollars — anything to help Theresa — and the Gargalowitz family.

"It is so fantastic, so heartwarming to see how good people really are. Calls, letters and notes pile in day after day telling of carnivals, fairs, dances and drives.

"And yet it is not enough. Hospital bills are tremendous, medicine is so costly and intensive nursing care expenses are great."

These feelings were expressed this week by Phillip Portnoy of 2783 Larchmont rd., Union, chairman of the Theresa Gargalowitz Fund.

Theresa Gargalowitz, 20, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander J. Gargalowitz of 2530 Hawthorne ave., Union, remains in a coma for the 16th month in Overlook Hospital. Summit, after being critically injured in April, 1964, when her small foreign car-skidded on unused trolley tracks on Morris ave., Springfield ave., head-on into the front of a Public Service Coordinated Transport Bus from Irvington, according to Springfield police. Her condition remains "critical-poor," said a hospital spokesman.

"You try not to sound disheartened. You try to tell her parents that she will pull through, that their prayers will be answered, that Theresa will come home. But it doesn't work anymore. Everything that can be done for Theresa has been done. The waiting is left," Portnoy said.

THERESA IS fighting another bout with pneumonia and like the last attack, all attempts to move her to Morristown Memorial Hospital, to undergo patterning treatment, have failed. "We keep getting ready to go, but she never makes it. Intensive care nurses are on full time again and this is making the money in the fund grow slimmer and slimmer.

Theresa's father has a heart condition, her mother, diabetes. They are unable to raise any more money for their daughter. Prayers are giving away to despair. I am making a personal appeal to the Social Security office this week to see if anything can be done to help them," Portnoy added.

The Jazz Masters performed at Evergreen Lodge, Springfield, recently at a charity dance and added $344 to the Theresa Gargalowitz Fund. Members of the band are: Ted Wyzleindowski, Joe Pina, Vernon Rondeau and Ken Sommer.

Dave Pierson, Jim and Jerry Spiezbach, Gary Burt, Ken Ott and Carmine Bove contributed $30 collected from a backyard fair held at Linden ave., Springfield. Girls from Alvin and Warren terr., Union, donated $9 to the fund which they collected at a fair. They are: Carol Rogner, Kathy Gartling and Gesline Pasche. Craig Browning of Colonial terr., Union, gave $3.44 to Theresa.

THE COUNT-DOWNS and the Dell Woods, two Union bands, played at a street dance on Carlyle pl., Union, and collected $55.10.

Kathy and Wendy Grotzky of 4 Surrey lane, Springfield, hosted neighborhood children at a backyard carnival, where they collected $15.02. Children that helped were: Laurel Labato, Debbie Cardac, Roberta Oppenheim, Melonie Cartman and Bobby Fischer.

Joan Dershowitz, Randi Myetson and Joan Millman collected $12 from a house-to-house drive in Springfield.

A regular Springfield contributor, who wishes to remain anonymous, has again donated a $25 check.

"All the wonderful donations have certainly helped, but it still isn't enough. Out of $10,000 in the fund, only $5,000 remains, and it's going fast. We need something big, something that will keep us going, something that will put hope back into the family," Portnoy said.

Contributions may be sent to the Theresa Gargalowitz Fund, Box 4, Union, N. J.

The Gargalowitz Fund was also the beneficiary of a carnival held recently in Springfield by Jeff Sarokin, Robert Zucker, Ken Baroff and Robert Rosen. Prizes in the Zucker yard at 17 Christy lane. The proceeds, used to aid Miss Gargalowitz, came to $19.48.

CANCER UNIT DRIVE NEXT WEEK

The Ruth Estrin Goldberg Memorial for Cancer Research will hold its annual fund drive Sept. 20 to 25 in Irvington, Springfield, Newark and several other Essex and Union County communities.

Following the policy of the group, all monies collected will be used expressly for cancer research, said an organization spokesman.

Chairmen for the drive are Mrs. Harris Weiner of Irvington and Mrs. Ralph Leventhal and Mrs. Arnold Socolow, both of Union.

Rinaldo Honored At GOP Reception In Mountainside

Republican freeholder candidate Matthew J. Rinaldo told a rally of friends and supporters Saturday night that he would "continue the policies of efficiency and economy in government that I practiced during my first term."

Speaking before some 500 persons who attended a cocktail party and reception in his honor at the Chi-Am Chateau, Mountainside, Rinaldo pledged to "carry on where I left off." He said that during his two years as a freeholder, in 1965 and 1964, he had "instituted efficiencies and economies that still are benefiting the taxpayers of this county."

Rinaldo's GOP running mates for county office, Freeholders Raymond Moore of Scotch Plains and Jay A. Stemmer of Clark appeared at the Mountainside affair. Others who attended included U.S. Senator Clifford P. Case, and state senatorial candidates Leonard Nelson, J. Stamer of Union and Assemblyman Peter McDonough of Plainfield. Republican Assemblyman Joe Collins of Summit, Frank McDermott of Westfield and Nicholas St. John LaCorle of Cranford were there with their GOP running mates Philip DeFeo of Springfield and William Weaver of Rahway. Charles Labig, candidate for sheriff, also was present.

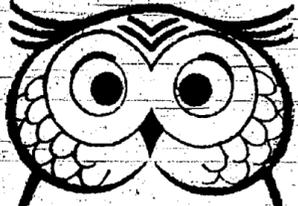

Pool Cover Keeps Water Usable Year After Year

Even at drought, such as the one experienced this year, a pool cover keeps the water usable year after year. In fact, pool owners who have been using a Sylvan pool cover for as many as five years report that they are still using the same water. You can, too, with no danger whatsoever to health. You'll save money, too, because filling a pool each spring costs money — money that you could be saving, because emptying a swimming pool in the winter is unnecessary with a Sylvan pool cover. Not to mention the convenience. No more leaves, insects, and dirt falling into your pool, particularly at this time of year when this problem is most prevalent. No more clogged filters and drains. And you'll save time on maintenance, because a pool that is kept covered in the fall and winter is a snap to start up in the spring. And don't forget the safety factor. With a covered pool you enjoy absolute peace of mind, even when you are away from home. Now is the time to buy your Sylvan pool cover, not only because you need it most right now, but also because you'll save 10% if you buy it from Sylvan Pools before October 1st. A Sylvan pool cover is lightweight for easy handling, won't react to pool chemicals, won't fade, won't rot. It's the nicest, and the safest thing you can put over your pool. For more information, before this special sale ends, call Sylvan Pools at 378-4500 or visit our local showroom at 252 Mountain Ave., Springfield, N. J.

Course To Focus On College Tests

Instruction on how to study for college board examinations will be offered for the third year at the Elizabeth YM-YWHA, 1034 E. Jersey st. High school juniors and sophomores have been encouraged to attend the classes beginning Sept. 26.

Classes meet weekly and are limited to six students each to allow for individual attention. Several classes will be scheduled for Sundays and mid-week.

Saul Keller, a chemistry teacher and vocational guidance counselor at Abraham Clark High School, Roselle, will conduct the classes. The fee is $30 for 10 weekly classes, a spokesman said.

SLOW LEARNERS WILL BE TOPIC OF PARENT PANEL

Union County parents of children with learning difficulties have been urged to attend a meeting Monday at 8:30 p.m. at Cranford Junior High School, a spokesman for the group said this week.

The objectives of the group are:

- To promote educational facilities for these children. To promote recreational facilities. To encourage parental understanding of these children's problems. To obtain public understanding of these children's problems. To obtain teacher, parent and public cooperation.

Increase Slated In Social Security Benefit Payments

Sometime during the last two weeks of September, residents of Union County who get monthly Social Security benefits will receive an extra special envelope in the mail, according to Ralph W. Jones, Social Security district manager in Elizabeth this week.

This envelope will contain a special Social Security benefit check, representing a seven percent increase in cash benefits for the months of January, 1965, through August. The monthly benefit increase is part of the 1965 amendments to the Social Security Act, which recently became law, Jones said.

Early in October, beneficiaries will receive their first regular check at the increased rate. This will be the Social Security benefit for September. Each month thereafter, the check will be in the new amount, he said.

Jones stressed that there is no need for a beneficiary to get in touch with the Social Security district office when the special check arrives. The amount of the check will be for the difference between the old and the new benefit rate for the period January through August, and will not be in the same amount as the regular monthly check.

IN ACCIDENT, FINED $25 Florence M. Ferris, 53, of Haverhill, was charged with careless driving for causing an accident on Short Hills ave., Springfield. A fine of $25 was levied by Magistrate Max Sherman in Monday night's Municipal Court session.

Public Service Helps Its Workers Complete Their College Education

It's becoming increasingly difficult for the nation's top industrial companies to recruit new employees — in the face of stiff competition and spiraling wage rates.

So many firms have taken to paying part of their employees' educational expenses while the employee spends part of his time continuing his schooling.

One of these companies is the Public Service Electric and Gas Company. This fall, approximately 450 employees of the utility company will be attending classes at institutions of higher learning throughout New Jersey.

The Tuition-Aid Plan of Public Service was developed to provide financial assistance to employees taking educational courses outside the company at the college level. Under the plan, the company will, if requested, advance the cost of approved courses. This advance is returned to the company by the employee through part of his salary deductions.

Approximately 4,200 tuition awards have been presented to employees in the last eight years.

Since Public Service inaugurated its Tuition-Aid Plan in 1958, about 200 employees have earned bachelor's and master's degrees by studying at night at colleges and universities in New Jersey, New York and Philadelphia.

VICE-PRESIDENT TO VISIT AREA DURING OCTOBER

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey will visit northern New Jersey on October 14. The announcement was made this week by Robert J. Burkhardt, Democratic state chairman.

Burkhardt said the Vice-President will begin his tour in mid-morning in Union County and continue to Essex, Passaic and Bergen Counties through the day.

"The specific itinerary of Vice-President Humphrey will be announced later when arrangements are completed," Burkhardt said.

"The Vice-President is a good friend of New Jersey and last visited us in February," Burkhardt said. "At that time Mr. Humphrey indicated his desire to return again this fall and his current travel plans offer an excellent opportunity to extend New Jersey's hospitality to the Vice-President," he added.

Tapping Hidden Talents

Rutgers Junior Turns Illustrator

"Myrna Originals" is a trademark one is likely to see gracing a variety of illustrated note cards and greeting cards in specialty shops hereabouts this fall.

"Myrna" is Myrna Lee Rudman of Maplewood, a pretty brunette junior at the Rutgers Newark College of Arts and Sciences.

Until last fall, Myrna dabbled in pen and ink sketches simply because she enjoyed it. Then things started to happen, and within a couple of months the Rudman family was up to its ears in the production of some 10,000 note cards.

Part of the blame lies with Myrna's father, Irving Rudman, a piano tuner by profession and a talented artist on the side. His work had been displayed in the Claremont Registration in Verona, and when he told some people that his daughter had a flair for art, a father-daughter exhibit was arranged in the late summer and fall of 1964.

Myrna's sketches had an immediate impact and she was deluged with praise and inquiries. A representative of the Piccolino children's knitwear firm asked her to do some illustrations for advertisements and brochures.

It was about that time that Myrna hit on the idea of note cards as an ideal medium for her sketches. While Rudman checked into the marketing possibilities, Myrna created four basic illustrations—all pictures of young children at play, inspired to some extent by her work with youngsters at the Newark YMHA's day camp in Watchung.

Ten thousand cards were printed in black and white, and Myrna then spent two weeks hand coloring all 10,000. Word of mouth proved the best advertising and before long the State University student was getting calls from stores interested in displaying "Myrna Originals."

"It's still hard to believe," she says. "I can't get over the excitement of having people interested in my work."

Myrna is majoring in French and plans a career in teaching elementary school, come what may with her cards.

"I find doing the cards a perfect sideline," she points out, "but I'd never want to make a full time career out of it. For one thing, I'd be afraid of losing the spontaneous effect of the drawings if I had to do it day in and day out."

Myrna, incidentally, has never had formal training in art. But she grew up in a house whose walls were lined with paintings by I. Rudman. The artistic gifts of the Rudman family were not lost on her sister, Ina, who teaches art.

The Rudmans moved to Maplewood from Newark, where Myrna was born, seven years ago. She attended Columbia High School in Maplewood where, as a senior, she began the type of sketches she now uses. At Rutgers, her activities led her to becoming an editorial cartoonist for the Observer, the student newspaper at the State University's Newark campus, and designer for Encore, the campus yearbook.

In her spare time, Myrna started on this year's project, which will be a selection of Christmas cards.

"The note cards appealed primarily to teenagers," she said, "but the Christmas cards will have a more general appeal."

REAL ORIGINAL — Displaying some of her "Myrna Originals" is Myrna Lee Rudman of Maplewood, a junior at the Rutgers Newark College of Arts and Sciences. Myrna Rudman is a French major and plans a career in elementary school teaching.

Phonotown, N.J.

THE THIRD LARGEST CITY IN THE STATE.

It's an imaginary town populated by Bell System men and women who live in New Jersey. And it's a big town. If the size of Phonotown surprises you, so perhaps will some of the facts about the people who bring you the world's best telephone service.

200,000 people. Over 60,600 employees and their families. (There are more than 425 Smiths, 150 Joneses, and 2 Zygalas.) They live up the street or around the corner. And the majority of the Phonotown breadwinners are building careers with the phone company.

Opportunity. Expanding Phonotown offers all sorts of opportunities to today's youth. Each year 6,800 people are hired in New Jersey to join in the work of bringing you the world's best phone service.

New worlds. Keeping ahead in communications is a story of constant research and development. This creates or fosters the development of whole new industries. The transistor is a classic example; it was developed by Phonotown people at Bell Laboratories in New Jersey. Another benefit of Bell research: the continuing search for new ways to help hold down costs of service.

They're all spending—and saving—in New Jersey. Most of Phonotown's $475 million payroll goes right into the economy of our state—to buy everything from groceries to appliances to bubblegum.

4,000 quarts of ice cream. In their workday activities, telephone men and women consume huge quantities of locally supplied products and services. The ice cream? One month's supply bought for New Jersey Bell cafeterias. Another interesting figure: 12,000 gallons of gas are used each workday in company cars and trucks.

Jobs for others. Service is expanding. New advanced systems are replacing older techniques. The result? A vigorous telephone company providing jobs and orders in quantity to businesses throughout the state. For instance, each year Western Electric alone spends over $100 million for products and services provided by New Jersey companies.

On the job and off—the significance of Phonotown is people. People and Service.

Governor Is Hit On Hoover Panel
State Senator Wayne Dumont, R-Warren, candidate for governor, this week said that if his opponent, Gov. Hughes "really wants to convince people that he has nothing to hide, he will immediately take steps to give the Little Hoover Commission enough funds to carry on a decent investigation of waste, duplication and inefficiency in his administration."
The Republican candidate charged that Hughes vetoed a bill setting up the committee and later, after the Legislature had established one, allowed "only $5,000 with which to operate instead of the $100,000 requested."

Tips for TODAY'S HOMEMAKER

From MARY ARMSTRONG, County Home Economist

"Money-Saving Main Dishes"
is among the top ten bulletins in demand from the United States Department of Agriculture during the past year. This month the vacation spending aftermath and back-to-school purchasing for young people will, no doubt, combine to deflect many families to food economies. But easy on the budget or not, your meals must be nutritious for your family's health and attractive for your family's enjoyment. It is possible with careful planning to achieve all three aims.

Fresh fruits and varied vegetables abound at this season to provide meal-time variety and interest but protein foods must always be included for dietary adequacy. Meat is usually among the food items of highest cost.

Among the tasty low-cost foods that provide considerable protein are beans and peas. Since the protein is not of the same quality as animal protein, some supplemental protein is needed. Serve milk with the meal, or a dessert rich in eggs, spongy cake or custard. Or add a little meat or cheese to a bean or pea main dish to increase the quality and quantity of protein. Ham, or smoked sausage do wonders for split-pea soup, for example, and beans take well to grated cheese. Cottage cheese also provides low-cost, high-quality protein. It goes well with fruit or vegetable salads, as a mealtime accompaniment or in a dessert dish such as American cheese cake or English cheese and currant pie. Cream cheese, although costing more, is lower in protein and higher in usually unneeded fat than cottage cheese.

The two days' meals suggested below are attractive, economical and nutritious:

1/2 pound ground beef

1 clove garlic, sliced
1/2 green pepper, chopped fine
2 cups cooked or canned tomatoes or
2 1/2 cups raw tomatoes cut in pieces
1/2 teaspoon salt
Onion powder to taste
Boil beans in water two minutes. Remove from heat, cover and cook one hour or overnight. Cook in same water until almost tender. Brown meat in fat. Add onion, garlic, green pepper, tomatoes and salt and cook a few minutes. Add meat mixture and onion powder to beans. Place in baking dish or bean pot, cover and bake at 350 degrees Fahrenheit about 2 hours. Uncover during the last half hour to brown the beans if desired. Or cook the mixture slowly for about 1 hour in a covered kettle on top of the range, stir occasionally.

HOMEWORK AGAIN

The homework season is just starting again for another year. Sometimes homework is included in everyday living without much pain. Other times, it disrupts households and causes parents and children to gnash their teeth in anguish. How is it that some children manage to cope with their homework while others ignore it or fight nightly battles over it?

Homework trouble is dependent upon several things. First is the child's ability to do the work. Slow learners have much more trouble with their homework than quick students. The brighter child just goes ahead and does it. The slower youngster may not really grasp the principles and is working in a fog.

Trouble is also caused by parents' doing the homework for the child. A little help here and there shouldn't be denied. But often parents' help make the work all the more confusing. When parents do the homework, it may benefit the child by enabling him to get that particular assignment finished, but it doesn't help him to learn the work or to accept the responsibility for a job that is his to do.

Much homework trouble can be avoided when the parents and school work together. When a child has trouble with his homework, it doesn't help the situation for the parents to tell the child he should do it faster, or that the teacher shouldn't give him so much to do. Parents can best assist their child by talking to the teacher about his lesson problems. The school function is to teach children and a good school will welcome opportunities to help individual youngsters.

FOOTBALL CLINIC STILL HAS-ROOM FOR ADDED BOYS

Registration will still be accepted Saturday morning for boys aged eight to 14 who wish to join the Springfield Recreation Department's youth football program. The program's second session will begin Saturday at 9 at the Melsel Field, with three more weeks to go.

Each session will consist of individual and group instruction, followed by team play on a clinic basis. Boys will practice and play with others their own age and weight.

Swim Team Tryouts

The Westfield YMCA national championship swim team will hold tryouts for boys eight to 17 years of age on Saturday, Sept. 25, at 3 p.m. at the YMCA pool. Registration blanks must be secured at the Westfield "Y" and filled out before the tryouts. Members of last year's team will try out this Saturday at 5 p.m.

Apgar Leads Best Pharmacy To Triumph In Men's Softball

A Best Pharmacy posted a 9-3 victory over the Springfield P.B.A. last Wednesday evening to add to its regular season laurels by winning the playoff crown of the Springfield Recreation Men's Softball League.

The druggists had annexed the league championship the previous week, and concluded the current softball season with the showdown game with the P.B.A. Jackie Apgar at shortstop played a sparkling game defensively for the champions, with Skip Bechtold in left covering the outfield sector like a blanket. Apgar contributed three timely hits to spark the offense, getting help from Skip Bechtold, Phil LaFond, John Konecny and Joe Pepe.

Jimmie Crowley walloped a line-drive home run in the opening inning for the P.B.A. which cleared the 250-foot barrier, then followed with a double in the third.

This just wasn't enough, as

Scott Donington allowed but six hits, while the Best Team came through with 13 safeties.

Both teams scored in the initial frame, with Crowley's long home run knotting the count in

Bowling Leagues Scheduled Again For Youngsters

The Springfield Recreation Department will again offer a program in boys' and girls' bowling. This program will be entering its third year of activity. The Recreation Department will conduct a bowling league for girls to be held each Tuesday afternoon through the fall and winter months. The boys will form a bowling league to meet each Friday afternoon. Both will meet at Springfield Bowl on Center St.

The program for girls will begin on Tuesday, Sept. 28. The boys will meet for their first session on Friday, Oct. 1. Any boy or girl in the 5th through 8th grade is welcomed to come out and join this recreation bowling league to meet each Friday afternoon. There will be a reduced rate charge of 75 cents per week for bowling and correct bowling shoes.

During the first two weeks, time is devoted to bowling instruction and practice rounds. Teams will then be chosen, and the season of bowling activity will begin. Averages and team standings will be kept and published throughout the year. Awards are presented at the conclusion of the season to top individual bowlers and winning teams.

Registration for girls will be on Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 28, at 3:30. Boys should register at 3:30 Friday afternoon, Oct. 1. All bowlers are urged to meet on these days at the Springfield Bowl on Center St. Because of limited space, bowlers will be placed on a first-come, first-served basis.

Semi-Finals

In the semi-finals last Tuesday, Best Pharmacy scored an easy 12-4 triumph over Millman Distributors. Bill Savarin pitched a seven-hitter, Best accounting for a seven-run rally never headed as the hard hitting Millmans couldn't get their offense in gear. Donington's variety of pitches kept Millman off balance while Best had 18 hits, with Jackie Apgar getting five for five.

In the second game of the twin ball, P.B.A. gained a 10-3 margin over Spring Liquors. Sam Calabrese allowed but six hits to stop the hard-hitting Spring nine. Jim Crowley with three safeties and Mike Pisano and Sam Calabrese with two each, sparked the winners. They earlier in the evening had eliminated Conter's Ball in a quarterfinal game at the Washington ave. diamond.

2 Start Practice On College Squad

Thomas Tonkin, a freshman guard, and Tom Baker, a sophomore halfback, both of Springfield, reported for football practice last week at Missouri Valley College in Marshall, Mo. Tonkin, the son of Allen C. Tonkin, of 85 Seberus ave., and Baker, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker of 39 Henshaw ave., both played varsity football at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School in Springfield before they were graduated.

Pharmacists Top Millburn Tittliss In Softball Game

The softball championship teams of Millburn and Springfield got together for a special exhibition game last Thursday night at the Springfield Municipal Swim Pool diamond, Springfield's Best Pharmacy winning, 6-1, over a highly rated Chubb and Son nine.

Chubb won the Millburn-Recreation Softball League Championship with a 15-1 record; Best Pharmacy took the Springfield Adult League title with an 11-3 log.

Best was rated the underdog to Chubb on the basis of the visitor's fastball pitching staff, also on their known hitting strength. The pitching of Tony Janelli did not faze the Best hitters, as they came through with seven hits.

The Chubb sluggers couldn't solve Bill Savarin's wide assortment of slow pitching which allowed but four safeties. Savarin had a two-hitter and a shutout going after six innings of play. Chubb averted a shutout by rallying for one run in the seventh on two hits, but Savarin closed the door by getting Chick Spelle for the final out on an infield grounder.

Dennis Francis broke the scoreless duel in the third by getting to second on a hit-error at short, then scored when Richie Vedutis singled sharply to center.

In the fifth the locals wrapped up the game by getting four hits and five runs, highlighted by a three-run round-tripper by Billy Erhard which cleared the 250-foot barrier with plenty to spare.

Jimmy Crowley, Bob Interdante and Richie Vedutis all hit safely to preserve Erhard's 100-percentage win.

This game concluded all softball play for the season.

Dayton Soccer Coach Predicts Good Season For Green Team

As Springfield's Jonathan Dayton Regional High School soccer team nears its opening game on Tuesday at Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School of Clark Head Coach Jack Palfi and his assistant, Louis Piccolo, look ahead to a good but difficult season.

Hoping to beat last year's record of 5-3-7, Palfi is unsure about what the team's performance will be this year. "It is still too early to tell," he said. "We have a lot of gaps to fill in, but with a lot of hard work I think we have a very good possibility for another winning season. But it will be very tough."

Dayton has only two lettermen returning, Mike Heinke, at forward, and Mike Kizelevich, a wing, both of Kenilworth. Heinke has good moves, Palfi said, and "shows his experience in every way," while Kizelevich has "strong power and a good foot for shooting, plus great moves."

"Howard Goldammer of Springfield at goalie could really be exceptional. Although only a junior, he has a lot of ability and should have a really good year."

At halfbacks will be Larry Budish, who will be the mainstay at center, and Jordan Denney, who has been out following an operation, but will be back in time for the season. Both are seniors from Springfield.

The other position at halfback will be filled by either Dave Hollander or Gary Simpson, both juniors, or Bob Waldman, a senior, all of Springfield. Bill Murphy, a former halfback, will move back to fullback this year. The coach commented, "He has a lot of drive and a good foot, and his quickness should be a real team asset." Murphy will be assisted by Alen Silverman, "a big fellow," who brings experience from last year.

On the line, Palfi will count a good deal on Derrol Brooks, a sophomore from Springfield, for wing with a lot of promise for development. Ray Glasco, a junior out for the first time this year, is easily in there with his quick moves and strong shot."

Other key men on the front line are Bob Morelles, a senior, and Stu Cohen, a junior. Harvey Jacobs, a junior who plays both forward and goalie, is a "versatile player who is coming up fast." All are from Springfield. Palfi thinks that the opener against Clark will be one of the toughest in Dayton's soccer season. "They're a tough team and it should be a real challenge. Our team will have to prove themselves early, but I think we can do it."

With its first game coming up at Governor Livingston Regional High School of Berkeley Heights on Sept. 25, the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School football squad is having difficulty, according to coach Herbert Palmer.

Scrimmaging against Summit last Thursday and Madison on Saturday, "the team looked as if it needed a lot of work," said Palmer. "Our defense is strong and tough, but our timing and execution on offense need much improvement."

"Illness is creating a bad hole in the tackle position, but all players, barring injuries, will be back for the opening game with Berkeley Heights."

"Right now the game looks pretty close. Berkeley Heights has moved up a lot since last year, and rumor has it that they are tough. There's a lot of natural rivalry between the two teams, so it should shape up into a very good ball game."

Boys, Girls Try For Pool Teams

The Summit YMCA will hold tryouts next week for the boys' and girls' swimming teams. Boys are scheduled for Tuesday evening. Girls will try out Wednesday evening.

Henry Buntin, last year's boys' team coach, will direct both teams in the coming season. A teacher in the Plainfield school system, he is former head swimming coach at Snyder High School, Jersey City.

The YMCA teams work out, compete in statewide YMCA meets, three times a week and compete in regional meets.

Saint John's Lutheran Church, Summit, will install a new minister of Christian education on Sunday at 8 a.m. He is the Rev. N. Peter Units, who comes to the local congregation from Bethany Lutheran Church, North Bergen, where he served for the past seven years.

Pastor Units combines interest in youth and education with his hobbies of magic, extraneous perfection and audacious alibi. By performing as a magician, he earned the money to attend Muhlenberg College, Allentown, Penn., and the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Philadelphia.

He has served as a pastor in the introductory phase of the new long-range curriculum of the board of parish education of the Lutheran Church in America. He has prepared the audio for the Lutheran exhibit at the New York World's Fair and has produced two audios used in the Sunday Church School program of the Lutheran Church in America.

YM-YWHA Serves Springfield Area, Seeks Members

Activities of the new YM-YWHA of Eastern Union County will be demonstrated and explained to about 25 Springfield residents Sunday during a tour of the new YMHA building on Green Lane, Union, adjacent to Newark State College.

The tour on Sunday, which will include a brunch session, is designed to inaugurate a YMHA membership campaign within the township. Township Committeeman Arthur M. Falck and Bernard Sanders head a temporary committee to explain YMHA activities to Springfield families and to organize for the formal membership drive.

The new building, which will replace the old Elizabeth YMHA building on E. Jersey at, has started its operations this week as a meeting place for organizations. Temporary club room facilities are also being provided for Newark State College.

The Springfield group Sunday will tour the entire new building, which is scheduled for complete operation by Feb. 1. Facilities will include 15 class and club rooms, an auditorium and fully equipped stage, drama workshop center, a gymnasium measuring 100 by 70 feet, special exercise room, 25-yard swimming pool, outdoor sun deck and complete dressing and shower facilities for men and women.

Calling for participation by Springfield families, YMHA officials disclosed that plans are being mapped to operate a shuttle bus between the "Y" and Morris Ave., where there are direct connections to Springfield via Public Service No. Eight bus.

Speakers Sunday will include Albert Kessler, YMHA president, and Bernard Meltzer, chairman of the building committee. The brunch will be served by members of the YM-YWHA women's division.

Dayton Student-Driver Course Wins Safety Council's Citation

The driver education program at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School has won another citation — its sixth in six years — from the New Jersey Safety Council.

The council awarded its certificate of extraordinary merit to the school for upgrading standards and continually expanding the driver education program.

The award was presented last week by N. O. Schneider, director of the Safety Council's school and college division, to Principal Robert F. LaVanture. Last year, with two cars operating on a seven-period schedule, 336 Dayton students completed the course. The instructors are Peter Socca, John Swedish, Thomas Santoguida, Joseph Mills, Michael Iannelli, Robert Lummer and Helen Hopper.

The program is directed by John Brown, coordinator, and Herbert Palmer, athletic director. It calls for a minimum of six full hours of actual practice driving by the students, apart from the time they spend as observers of other drivers.

Driver education is one of the most popular elective courses at Dayton, said LaVanture, and is of immense value to the new driver. Statistics released by the Safety Council, which is advocating compulsory driver education in every New Jersey secondary school, indicate that student drivers who complete the course have 47 percent fewer accidents than others in the 16-25 age bracket.

Insurance companies allow a 10-15 percent premium reduction for young people who have had the driver training. High school students who are at least 16 1/2 years old are eligible to enroll if they have successfully passed the 14th grade classroom phase of the program, which runs from Sept. 15 to Nov. 15.

'Minor Miracle' Is Light, Witty Comedy

BY BEA SMITH
Author Al Morgan's stage adaptation of one of his novels, "Minor Miracle," which began its pre-Broadway tryout at the Paper Mill Playhouse in Millburn, Monday night, is a light, witty comedy drama, engulfing a handful of endearing characters. It spins a frothy tale of a strange occurrence in a large city, while poking subtle fun (with a cotton-gloved finger) at the Catholic church in this modern age, and the clergy, in general. It is no "Going My Way" by any means — although occasional reference is made to the film and to Barry Fitzgerald throughout the play — and although the Henry Miller theater on Broadway is awaiting the end of its engagement in Millburn (Sept. 25), it does not appear to be of Broadway-caliber. A little tightening in the third act and the elimination of repetitious dialogic therein, and some smoothing of the rough ends throughout may give it some promising qualities.

Lee Tracy, veteran actor of nearly 40 years, portrays Father Maurice Britt, a 72-year-old priest, addicted to horse-racing (he's not a drinking man, he says), and keeps a file on horses, races, and scores from Aqueduct, in superb. ("Although I haven't heard a new 2 in years in the Question Box.") He is dedicated to his role as priest, his parish and his parishioners, scorns the bishop (Dennis King—who appears to have found more importance in his television show, in which he stars than in his calling. King, another old-time veteran of the stage, is smooth, suave, distinguished, and a mile comical, particularly when he elegantly noses for camera-men and reporters and publicly scoffs the "minor miracle" which has occurred in Father Britt's church. He quotes Killegallon, Wilson (Earl that is) and various other newspaper columnists as eloquently as he would passages from the Bible.

The supporting actors seem to catch the projected excellence from the leading performers, and complement one another.

Robert H. Harris (remember him as Jake in the Molly Goldberg TV series?) as Herman Wekstein, contributes a good bit of comedy to his role as the druggist who has been visiting Father Britt every morning for 12 years, hauling a bag of bagels ("Heathen bread") for breakfast. Pert Kallon, as Mrs. Doody, Father Britt's right hand, whether she's preparing tea, coffee, dinner or the right tending forms, does a pretty neat take-off on Shirley ("Hazel") Booth.

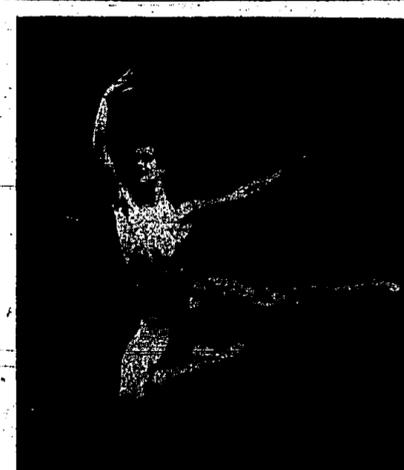

Others in the cast are to be lauded for fine performances. There are Julie Bovasso (as Mrs. Prosser, the sharp-tongued mother of the 11-year-old boy who "swears" by the miracle) he says; the boy, Glenn Scimone; Conrad Fowkes as Father Kincaid; the young curate, who "left business after two years," and Zama Cunningham, the old lady with the "aches and pains."

Zev Burman and Howard Erskine's production, which the latter also directed, has been setting the inside of Father Britt's rectory, and the setting is extremely effective. But the play is re-

Plenty To Do In County Parks After Labor Day

For most people Labor Day usually means the end of the vacation season. But this does not have to be so. There are facilities and activities in the Union County Park System that can be enjoyed throughout the entire year, a Park Commission spokesman said this week.

Many miles of footpaths and trails in the Watchung Reservation offer an opportunity for the family to go hiking, picnicking, boating, visit the old copper mine, "Deserted Village," and the Trailside Nature and Science Center. A group may also enjoy a horse-back ride over some 12 miles of bridle trails in the Watchung Reservation.

Boating will be offered until the middle of October on the Warnanco Park Lake, Upper and Lower Echo Lake, and on Lake Surprise in the Watchung Reservation. Canoes are available at Upper Echo Lake.

A family group may also play a nine-hole round of PITCH-and-PUTT golf at either the Galloping Hill or Ash Brook PITCH-and-PUTT golf courses. The Galloping Hill par-three course is open to 11 a.m. daily. Ash Brook is open to 10 a.m. These facilities are expected to remain open to the middle of November, weather permitting. Golf may also be enjoyed all year, except when snow is on the ground, at either the Ash Brook or Galloping Hill Golf Course.

Tennis is offered all year at the hard-surfaced courts in Cedar Brook Park, Plainfield; Kawamech Park, Union; and Unami Park, Garwood. The 10 Rubber-surfaced tennis courts in Warnanco Park will remain open to about the middle of October.

For those who enjoy shooting at stationary targets or at clay targets the rifle and pistol ranges and the trap and skeet fields, located in the Cranford Section of Lenape Park, offer this activity. The rifle and pistol ranges will remain open on weekends to November 1. The trap and skeet fields are open every weekend throughout the year.

Garden lovers can also find plenty to absorb in the Chatfield Garden in Warnanco Park or the floral displays in Cedar Brook Park. They may also visit the Union County Park Commission's nursery, fern garden, herb garden, and Rhododendron Garden in the Watchung Reservation.

Further information may be obtained from the Public Information Department of the Union County Park Commission.
