Mrs. Waldt wins election to regional board

Southward president of school body

Mrs. Weisman named vice-president of board

By FRAN DE CRISTOPHER
Robert T. Southward was elected president and Mrs. Ruth Weisman was elected vice-president of the Springfield Board of Education at the annual re-organization meeting held Monday in the James Caldwell School, Southward, vice-president of the board for the last two years, has presided at meetings since October in the absence of August Caprio, who was out during a long illness.

On the matter of the fence at the Florence Gaudinier School, the board rescinded its action taken in December to erect a cyclone fence for part of the distance between the school and private property. The board has decided to erect a split rail fence for 100 feet and no fence will line the property for the remaining distance.

The action was taken following protests voiced at the January meeting by Milton Greenberg, whose property would have abutted the cyclone fence. Dr. Edward Werfel was present at the Monday meeting and expressed satisfaction with a 100-foot split rail fence and said he did not think additional fences were necessary. He also commented that in requesting that a fence be provided he had not intended to create the problem that had developed. His home directly adjoins the school grounds.

The building and grounds committee also proposed to provide $250 in funds for the renewal of the baseball field alongside the Gaudinier School. The field received extensive damage during the construction of an addition to the school. Recreation Department funds will also be used for the project, it was announced.

Under a federal requirement, pay rates for overtime employees will be charged. This board, which previously used an overtime schedule in figuring wages, is now required to pay time-and-a-half.

To compensate for the additional funds that will have to be expended, the board took action to raise the schedule of fees for use of school facilities by $4 across the board. Persons who have already reserved rooms and those who wish to use facilities before July 1 will not be affected by the raise in fees, which will not go into effect until the beginning of the 1967-68 school year.

The board also adopted the 1967-68 salary guide for teachers. According to the new guide, teachers with a bachelor's degree will go from a starting salary of $5,000 per year to a top of $10,500 in 15 annual steps. Teachers with master's degrees will receive from $11,225 to $17,575 over the 1966 figure.

The complete text of Springfield's new municipal budget appears on Page 8 of this issue of the Leader. The Township Committee will hold its formal budget hearing on Tuesday evening, March 14. An informal budget hearing will be held on Saturday morning, March 11.

This budget calls for a total of $4,682,285 to be raised through local taxes. This is expected to bring a new tax rate of $6.59 per $100 assessed valuation, an increase of 56 cents over the present tax rate. The new budget lists $1,121,323 to be spent for municipal operations, an increase of $175,597 over the 1966 figure.

NEW CHURCH BUILDING --- The Rev. Clarence Alston, pastor of Antioch Baptist Church 5; Springfield ave. and Meckes st., Springfield, and officers of the church this week invited the public to dedication ceremonies for the new building, to be held Sunday, March 5, at 3:30 p.m. George Smart heads the dedication committee, assisted by Mrs. Samuel Wright, Harold O'Neal is building committee chairman, aided by Joseph Douglas, Edward Green, Major Brooks and Nathaniel Cole.

Regional Board of Education meeting sees members outnumber spectators

By ABERN GOLD
With disputes over its budget and teachers' salary scale out of the way, the Regional High School District Board of Education on Tuesday returned to its normal practice of having board members outnumber spectators at monthly meetings.

The total number of private citizens at the board meeting at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School was five. Thomas B. Crozier of Springfield appeared to question a point of athletic department policy, and stayed for most of the two-hour meeting. Leonard A. Golden, who was a candidate for the board on Tuesday's local election, watched a portion of the proceedings.

Three ladies from Berkeley Heights asked about board policy on proposed sidewalks for students who walk to Gov. Livingston Regional High School. The board indicated that it stand depended to an extent of agreement with the residents concerned. Once attention turned to other matters, the ladies departed.

Board members approved a change in the pay scale of workers in regiment board elections, from a flat $10 per day to $2 per hour for the seven hours the polls are open. They voted to make the change retroactive to Feb. 7, to cover pay for workers who appeared then despite the blizzard which forced postponement of the election until this week.

The questions raised by Crozier concerned participation by students in authorized athletic events in sports where the regional schools are not officially represented. He noted that his son had been denied permission to represent Dayton Regional in the Union County interscholastic swimming and diving championship meet held this past Saturday.

The board voted approval for the youngster's diver, to enter the state championships on March 10. He will be accompanied by a faculty member. Board members emphasized that permission "should be provided for students to enter any such events, sponsored by the state or county interscholastic athletic associations, even though their schools do not have teams in those sports."

AFTER SOME DEBATE, the board approved a request from Dr. Warren M. Davis, superintendent of schools, to permit a rock and roll concert at Gov. Livingston Regional High School.

Chorale prepares to offer 'Requiem'

The Springfield Chorale, under the direction of Walter J. Carter, is beginning rehearsal of the Brahms "Requiem," which will be presented at a concert during the fall. In addition to the Brahms, which will be sung in German, the repertoire will also include "Benedicamus" from the Mozart "Requiem," "Requiem," by Giuseppe Rossini, "Serenade" by Houston Slight, "Serenade on This Shining Night," with text by James Agee and music by Samuel Barber; and "As Torrents in Summer," from the cantata, "King Olaf," by Edward Elgar.

The Springfield Chorale, under the sponsorship of the Springfield Association of Creative Arts, holds rehearsals at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Room 219, at 8 on Tuesday evenings.

The group announced that it is "in need of all voices - soprano, alto, tenor and bass. While the ability to read music is helpful, it is not necessary for membership. All interested persons are invited to join."

School. The school's Student Council plans to present "Jay and the Americans" in a concert March 10. Proceeds will go to help the Peace Corps build a school in an underdeveloped country and to institute an American Field Service foreign exchange student program at Gov. Livingston.

Several board members questioned the policy of using funds to support a project in a country already receiving U.S. foreign aid funds. Other doubts centered on whether four policemen, and some 15 faculty members would be enough to maintain order with an audience of seven to one, after Dr. Davis stated that additional police supervision would be provided.

Approval was also voted, but without discussion, for the Dayton cheerleading squad to take part in a county competition April 8 at Roselle Park High School.

Resignations were accepted from Mrs. Mary Ellen Verschuren, a teacher now on maternity leave; Mrs. Gladys Root and Mrs. Gloria Simms, secretaries, and Mrs. Elizabeth Stout, a cafeteria worker.

Three teachers were hired to provide basic education instruction in the regional adult school this spring. Costs will be met from a federal grant. They are Mrs. W. R. Donnelly, $225 for 15 sessions; Walter Garwacki, $225 for 15 sessions; and Donald Wayne, $150 for 10 sessions.

Two student teachers were approved for this spring. They are Mrs. Ruth Stefanovich of Jersey City State College, in the field of health at David Brearley Regional, Kenilworth, and Marlene McCormick of Montclair State College, in the French department at Gov. Livingston Regional, Berkeley Heights.

Special transportation was approved for a Springfield student. Home instruction was authorized for two students from Kenilworth and one from Montclair.

The board also authorized continuation of the work-study program this coming summer.

Polls 537 votes in 4-way contest

Mrs. Natalie R. Waldt won election to the Regional High School District Board of Education Tuesday by a margin of more than 200 votes. Mrs. Waldt received 537 votes as a four-way race for the one Springfield vacancy open this year brought virtually 1,200 voters to the polls.

At the same time, the proposed budget for the four regional high schools won by a margin of more than three to one in the six communities making up the district. The $5,483,172 budget was endorsed, 906 to 272, by the voters of Springfield, Berkeley Heights, Clark, Garwood, Kenilworth and Mountainside. The proposed capital expenditure budget also won easily, 876 to 273.

Mrs. Waldt finished on top in the first contested regional board election in Springfield in many years. Behind her 537 votes, Leonard A. Golden was second with 333, John A. Hopping, the incumbent, was third with 280 votes. Henry S. Wright had 46, for a total of 1,196. Hopping, who had been vice-president of the board, departs after two terms of service.

He declared after the election, "I am happy that someone else got on. New ideas are always good. I wish Mrs. Waldt all the luck in the world. I am sure she will promote the same interests in total education for the system. It has been my pleasure to serve for six years with a fine group of men."

IN HER COMMENTS on the election, Mrs. Waldt stated, "The very large number of people who came out to vote in today's hotly contested election can only mean that the people of Springfield care a great deal about their high school."

"I pledge to them I will carry on their trust in me. Now that I am a member of the Regional Board of Education, I will redouble my efforts to heighten the quality of the way in which we educate our high school children and to improve the building in which they are educated."

"My most heartfelt thanks go to the dozens of devoted men and women who worked tirelessly for this victory and for the progress of education on their own home town and throughout the regional district."

Mrs. Waldt, president of the PTA at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School in Springfield, has been a frequent critic of board policies in recent months. Her comments have ranged from charges of over-age furnishings at Dayton to calls for higher faculty salaries and more "quality education."

The PTA board and membership in December endorsed an appeal to the board for action in several matters. These ranged from which-

The Springfield Fire Department reports that Alfred Thomas of Union must be the nation's politest-truck driver. Chief Ormond W. Mesker says that Thomas came into Fire Headquarters Monday afternoon, "looking neat and spotless in his American Van Line's uniform."

The chief quotes Thomas as saying, "I hate to bother you fellows, but something burning in my rig parked outside." After the blaze in the brake linings was extinguished, Chief Mesker adds, Thomas had his brakes repaired, thanked the firemen and proceeded on his way. Thomas resides at 1215 Gray ave., Union.

Campaign to aid Heart Fund to reach climax this Sunday

The month-long 1967 Heart Fund campaign will reach its high point this Sunday, when Heart Sunday volunteers commence a canvass of residences in Springfield. It was announced this week by Donald W. Rinaldo, local campaign chairman. It is anticipated that all residential visits will be completed and that kits will be turned in not later than Tuesday, he added.

The residential canvass will augment the total already collected in the February campaign, which is being conducted to support and expand research, education and community service programs of the Union County Heart Association. It is part of the American Heart Association, the only national voluntary health agency devoted exclusively to combating diseases of the heart and blood vessels.

During the past year, these diseases were responsible for 1,992 deaths in Union County, while in the nation they account for approximately 54 percent of all deaths each year. Each Heart volunteer will call at the homes of 50 to 100 neighbors, distributing information about heart diseases and receiving contributions for the Heart Fund, said Rinaldo.

Emphasizing the "uniqueness of the Heart cause," Rinaldo pointed out that Heart Fund contributions go to fight a "vast complex of diseases, among them heart attack, stroke, hardening of the arteries, high blood pressure, rheumatic fever and inborn heart defects."

He urged Springfield residents to be generous when they Sunday volunteer calls. In case of inclement weather, the Heart Sunday canvass will be postponed until the following week.

Red Cross unit lists procedure for bloodmobile

On Wednesday, March 15, the Springfield Chapter, American Red Cross, will sponsor the semi-annual Springfield bloodmobile visit at the Holy Cross Lutheran Church, 539 Mountain ave. The local group this week offered the following explanation of procedure:

The purpose of the Red Cross blood bank program is to maintain a large inventory of blood and blood derivatives of all groups and all types throughout the year. Supplies of fresh blood need constant replenishing.

By replacing blood through the regional blood program plan, groups of donors and individual donors, can be assured of coverage for normal blood needs in advance. The blood they donate is credited to them, and these credits are good for a full year and are available to the donor whether at home or anywhere in the U.S., Canada, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

Blood credits on record from the March, 1966, visit will expire in March of this year, and therefore those wishing to reestablish their credits must donate again at the coming visit.

Donations of blood may be made through any of the existing donor groups, through any newly-formed group of 20 or more prospective donors or as an individual. Blood credits for each donor group are assigned to the organization, which will formulate its own policy for releasing credits to its membership, as to designation and quantity.

One-third of a donor group's total credits must be contributed to the community blood bank, to be used for disaster and emergency cases, for open heart surgery and for the aged and indigent. Blood donated by individuals establishes credits for themselves or for the township as a whole through the community blood bank.

All donors, in addition to securing credits for whole blood, are entitled to free blood derivatives upon presentation of a doctor's prescription. Such derivatives include gamma globulin for measles and hepatitis prevention.

LAFF OF THE WEEK

"Please try not to tear-stain the contract."

Medical education head appointed at Overlook

Overlook Hospital this week announced the establishment of the full-time post of director of medical education, to be filled by the appointment of Dr. Warren B. Nestler of Summit. Past president of the Overlook medical staff, Dr. Nestler leaves a prominent practice as a leading local internist to take his new position. Dr. Nestler, with a special interest in cardiology, has served as trustee and past president of the Union County Heart Association and was on the Board of the Visiting Nurses Association for eight years. He is an Associate of the American College of Physicians.

"The continuing medical education of all physicians, those in active practice just as much as interns and residents, poses one of the biggest challenges of medicine today," Dr. Nestler commented.

"Millions of dollars are going into research. Every day there are reports of new medical discoveries, new drugs, new diagnostic tests, new techniques of surgery. The problem is to get this information to the level of the practicing physician, where it can be utilized. With the tremendous flow of information today it is almost impossible for the busy doctor to investigate all new areas," he pointed out.

Overlook's new Medical Education Center, a major advance of the new wing, will give the hospital facilities for major seminars by outstanding specialists. Educational programs will be presented by means of modern visual aids and techniques such as closed-circuit television from university medical centers.

Overlook's patients receive direct benefit from such a highly geared program of constant medical education. The director of medical education is the key link between university research, medical literature and the practicing physician, alert for every medical advance that should be brought to the community hospital level.

The attending physicians on Overlook's Medical Staff serve as the faculty for its interns and residents, teaching them their specialties via teaching rounds, special conferences and case history study.

"Teachers often learn more than their students," Dr. Nestler pointed out. "They have to keep up to date, alert for every sign, employing and interpreting every diagnostic tool, to instruct the younger doctors properly. This, in turn, reacts to the patients' benefit and upgrades the quality of treatment at the hospital."

Also, 225 transcripts were sent to colleges, including 56 for former students. December college board scores were given to students; representatives from 15 colleges or industries spoke to interested students; five students were placed in part-time jobs, and an evening orientation meeting was held for incoming freshmen and their parents.

Springfield Library Friends to vote on bylaws for group

The Friends of the Springfield Public Library will meet at the library next Thursday at 8 p.m. to vote on the bylaws and constitution of the newly formed organization.

"Many libraries in New Jersey have found 'Friends' groups a pleasant and helpful adjunct to their public relations programs," according to Mrs. Helen Francis, librarian. She said:

"Because Friends are composed of members of the community, who have a genuine appreciation for the library, word is passed along to other people who thus become interested in the many services the library provides for people of all ages. The more people use the library the more the library reflects their interests and needs. Likewise, the greater the number of borrowers, the wider the variety of services that will be found in any public library."

Blood bank

Prospective donors must be between the ages of 18 and 59, in good health and weigh over 110 pounds. The procedure for donating blood is simple and painless, requiring only about one hour of the donor's time. He should not fast, but eat his regular meals. He is medically screened according to standards established by the National Institute of Health. Temperature, pulse, blood pressure, hemoglobin and weight are checked. Persons with a history of malaria or hepatitis are eligible donors, providing they have had no attacks within two years; their blood is not used as whole blood but is fractionated for valuable derivatives. Approximately one pint of blood is drawn by specially trained nurses. The donor is served light refreshments and is then free to return home.

Transportation is available when needed through the Red Cross Motor Corps, which maintains its station wagon on call throughout the day of the bloodmobile visit.

The goal for the March 15 bloodmobile visit is 150 pints of blood. To help meet this goal and to make sure that the blood needs of Springfield for 1967 will be met, a local chapter spokesman asked:

1. As a member of a donor group, make an appointment with the blood program chairman of your organization.

2. As an individual, make an appointment with a Red Cross representative by calling DR 6-1676.

3. Form a new donor group at your place of worship, business, or club and contact the Red Cross blood program chairman, Mrs. D. D. Kalam, at DR 6-0582.

Concert described as 'outstanding cultural event'

SPRINGFIELD (N.J.) LEADER-Thursday, Feb. 23, 1967-3

By HAZEL HARDGROVE
An outstanding cultural event happened in Springfield last Saturday night, but it could have been in New York, Boston or San Francisco. The audience was in complete agreement, as evidenced by the number of curtain calls and bows taken by musical director Geza Pizsel and the members of the Springfield Symphony Society Orchestra after their performance at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School.

Approximately 400 persons (including teenagers and some exceedingly well-behaved youngsters in the age six bracket and upwards) attended this first concert of the 1967 season. The program included variations as arranged by Arensky on a theme by Tchaikovsky ("Opus 35") skillfully played in the meters of un poco piu mosso, allegro non troppo, andantino tranquillo, vivace, andante, allegro con spirito and andante con moto. Mendelssohn's "Concerto in D Minor" was beautifully performed by the orchestra, with violin soloist Peter Manetto giving a superb rendition in his special measures.

After a short intermission, the program continued with Brahms' "Violin and Cello Concerto" featuring violinist Manetto and cellist Marjorie Slapin in expertly performed solo parts. The latter included the second movement as arranged by director Pizsel. A variety of musical moods were provided with Anton Dvorak's "Serenade, Opus 22" with the entire orchestra proficiently playing in moderate tempo, Scherzo, vivace and Jarghetto, with the finale in allegro vivace.

Musical director Pizsel masterfully conducted the entire program with Manetto serving as concert master. The orchestra's personnel included violinists: Emmett Alt-schul, Louis Berman, Anthony Elgosi, Henry W. Bradbury, Alan Brantigan, Henry Dabrowsky, Rose Deutschman, Ann Gladstone, Maurice Koenigsberg, Dr. Harold Lansing, Sal Locker, Maurice Lutski, Peter Manetto, Albert Paul, Gladys Schmitt, Irving Starr, Jack Torbert, and Harry Zacher.

Playing solos were Betty Brantigan, Raymond Hanes, Leslie S. Kohn, Joseph Rabinowitz, Dr. Maurice J. Small, Cellists were Helen Bolick, Frank Fenwick, Joseph Garfinkel, Marjorie Slapin and Katherine Torbert; and basses were Dr. Norman Reiss, Benjamin D. Slapin and Harold D. Slapin. Serving in other capacities with the group are: Benjamin D. Slapin, executive director; Ruth Garfinkel, librarian; and Hazel H. Hardgrove, public relations.

The affair was cosponsored by the Springfield Association of Parents of Artists, the Springfield Recreation Department and the Union County Regional Adult Schools. Executive director Slapin formed the response of the audience as being "most rewarding and gratifying." The only disappointment of the entire event was the lack of an encore to satisfy the very vigorous applause of those who attended this evening of fine musical entertainment in Springfield.

Services for Lent slated Wednesday by Presbyterians

Dr. James G. Emerson Jr., pastor of the Larchmont Avenue Presbyterian Church, Larchmont, N. Y., will continue the Lenten services sponsored by the Springfield Presbyterian Church and the Wyoming Presbyterian Church of Millburn on Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Wyoming Church. He will speak on "Reconciliation and Morality," defining the church's position in the present social condition often described as a "moral revolution."

Prior to his present pastorate in New York, Dr. Emerson was the pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Bloomfield where he played a major part in the formation of the new Presbyterian Church on the Green, a merger of four churches in Bloomfield. He has a California background but has received his education from coast to coast—an A.B. degree at Stanford University, a B.D. degree at Princeton Theological Seminary and a Ph.D. degree at the University of Chicago.

Early in his ministry, Dr. Emerson served as a worker at the American Assembly of the World Council of Churches and also as a delegate to several World Student Christian Federation conferences in Europe. On his return, he served churches in Philadelphia and Indianapolis.

In addition to his preaching ability, Dr. Emerson is a well-known writer, being the author of "Divorce, the Church and Remarriage" and a new book, "The Dynamics of Forgiveness." Opportunities will be afforded to direct questions to the guest speaker in an informal discussion period which will conclude the meeting.

Strength cannot grow with a double standard

Last week's informative combined PTA program at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, devoted to the subject of sex education, can serve as a reminder that Springfield still operates on an out-dated double standard for the two sexes.

This applies, we hasten to add, in the field of athletics, where local boys are given ample opportunity to develop their skills and strengthen their bodies through participation in many sports, while their sisters are, very largely, relegated to service as cheerleaders, if that.

Our little boys are encouraged to compete in excellent, well-organized programs for football, basketball and baseball, with supervision by the Recreation Department and a host of dedicated men in the community.

With the two shining exceptions of the swimming team at the municipal pool for two months of the year and the Recreation Department bowling program, there is nothing at all comparable for girls. They can ride their bicycles, jump rope -- or spend all their time combing their hair.

Our schools do present after-hours sports for girls of junior-high school and high school age, but only to a limited extent.

Another article on this page, for example, concerns the gentleman who heads the new varsity tennis program at the high school. That's fine, but it is only for boys.

Recent rulings from Trenton now permit high schools to sponsor varsity sports for girls, in such fields as soccer, field hockey, basketball, track, tennis and golf. Our Regional High School administrators, however, have no plans to expand their program beyond the present activities of class teams, playing against similar teams from other schools.

From their point of view, the administrators are undoubtedly correct. There has been no audible demand for a more intensive girls' sports program, and there would probably not be any great response.

For all these lacks, all of us can share the blame. Other communities in the area do conduct a much broader range of girls' athletic programs, from softball and basketball to volleyball and track.

If parents would call for an increased program, as taxpayers and voters, the Township Committee and the school boards would pay attention. Their ears are receptive to the voice of the voters.

Perhaps the long-promised assistant recreation director could be a woman, trained to help with girls' sports activities as well as an expanded cultural program.

Perhaps the schools would find a way to give girls with athletic ability a chance to develop their skills to the maximum, as their brothers do, through varsity competition.

Perhaps we could all encourage our smaller girls to compete in softball or basketball or track as a few now do in swimming and bowling.

Perhaps some day we will all come to realize that a double standard, in anything, is not only out-dated, but unhealthy and immoral.

Keeping tax refunds busy and growing

When you get your '66 tax return form, take a look at the option that lets you take U.S. Savings Bonds instead of a cash refund. You'll find how to hang on to your tax refund, if you're lucky enough to have one coming.

When you check the Savings Bond line, you automatically assure yourself of two advantages: You provide an easy way of hanging on to your money and a sure way of making it grow one-third bigger at maturity.

Here's how that check-mark goes to work for you. If you're entitled, for example, to a refund of $42, you'll get a $50 face-value Series E Bond (cost $37.50), plus a check for $4.50.

Another good thing about that check-mark-- it also helps to strengthen our country's future security. Uncle Sam puts our Bond dollars to good use in safeguarding our freedom.

Think it over. And, if you haven't started that regular savings program you've been promising yourself, here's a good chance to get at it-- with ease, merely by checking the Savings Bond box on your tax return.

TRAFFIC HAZARD As parents of children going to Caldwell School from across the progressing Rt. 78, we are glad to have our youngsters again walking to and from school. However, we believe the new bridge across Morris Ave. (a new 4-lane speedway) presents a very dangerous situation.

In effect, children going to school daily must be "funnelled into a gauntlet" the length of a football field. The several minutes they are in this tube are multiplied by hundreds of children several times each day. The possibility that some of them may be chasing up and down the concrete slopes and during around the 46 pillars over a relatively narrow sidewalk does exist and this activity may cascade or bump one into the last, three abreast oncoming traffic on Morris Ave.

Most people driving on Morris Ave do not know of our local problem and are preoccupied with thoughts of hurrying to get somewhere. It is a well-known fact that grade school children engage in playing and horseplay on the sidewalks. It is also a well-known fact that average stopping distances of cars and trucks at 40 MPH is 149 feet, and at 60 MPH is 287 feet.

Therefore, if a youngster accidentally gets onto Morris Ave, at one end of the tunnel where visibility is not good, a car entering the tunnel at the other end would have difficulty stopping in time to avoid him. Visually, protection is afforded the children from the time they enter the tunnel until they are out of it, and a potentially dangerous situation exists because a high car density exists at the same times the most children will be using the tunnel (the only access route to Caldwell School). Therefore, we, the undersigned, believe for the safety of all concerned, drivers and pedestrians, but especially our children, that a barrier between the roadway and sidewalk is needed, and that a fence or railing should be erected as soon as humanly possible. We want our youngsters to be able to walk to and from school all the way in safety.

MINORITIES, MAJORITIES The smoldering embers of bigotry are polluting the air in Springfield.

Unlike Newton Miller's (Wayne, N.J.) outspoken prejudicial remarks concerning two candidates to their local school board, our perennial hopeful to public office, Henry S. Wright, cringes behind the crude threat, "you will get more taxes, poorer education for your youngsters and a poorer country for their heritage" where minorities will coerce the majority.

Can you, Mr. Wright, speak out-- what's your mind? Which minority group, or groups, are doing the coercing? And to what majority? And by what distorted dogmatic prerogative do you assume that any majority has the right to coerce any minority?

If you seek to serve a common good, sir, it might be well that you take a look at the definition of democracy. Yes, a government by the people, with the consent of the majority, but always mindful of the rights of the minority.

And please, Mr. Wright, don't invoke the name of God when you feel panic-stricken; there appears to be a shrill discordant note of hypocrisy in your fundamentalist note of hypocrisy.

PROFILE--Norman Pollack

By BEA SMITH Something new is being added to high school athletic activity in Jonathan Dayton Regional High this spring--tennis.

According to Norman Pollack, a young man who teaches sophomore English at the high school, and who has been selected to serve as tennis coach, there have been numerous requests from students for a varsity tennis team, and they particularly pointed out that other high schools in the area have tennis teams.

Herbert Palmer, our athletic director, took the proper steps to initiate the sport in this building, Pollack says. "He approached me to serve as coach with the understanding that I'd played tennis before. I'd instructed at Cefwin Camps in Port Jervis, N.Y., for two summers, and prior to that, played varsity tennis at Indiana University for two years."

Pollack explains that when the notice went out for interested participants, "the response was very good. It seems that about 50 boys were interested. And I was very pleased that so many freshmen and sophomores were interested in the sport."

"TWO THINGS attracted their interest primarily," says Pollack. "First of all, our students never had an opportunity to compete as a varsity group in tennis; and secondly, probably, those who have not gone out for the other sports, such as baseball, track and golf, would ordinarily feel left out of spring sports. However, with tennis to look forward to, the students can now feel equally successful and popular."

Pollack explains that "the major problem will be in getting a start. You see, we won't be drawing much of the baseball or track clientele. Actually, we'll have to draw our own."

"Our training program is scheduled to start March 1. Mr. Palmer is still arranging for a court. There are two courts in each area of town, but we don't have a specific area in which to practice yet."

Of the 50 boys or so who have signed for tennis- varsity, Pollack says he'll have to select 15 boys for the varsity squad. "But," he emphasizes, "I'm going to carry many more for practice who will be potential varsity tennis players. We want to give all the boys individual instruction so that the sport will survive."

"And we particularly do not want to discourage freshmen; we'd like to know that they'll be there, now, and three years from now."

The boys, Pollack indicates, "will practice four afternoons a week after school for one hour and a half to two hours."

"OUR FIRST SCHEDULED MATCH is with the Westfield varsity. We have 11 scheduled matches altogether for the season," he says. "Nine are members of the Watching Conference."

How do the girls in the school feel about forming a tennis team? "Well," Pollack smiles, "if enough interest is shown, perhaps something might come from it. But it would have to come from the girls' physical education program. And if there are good tennis tennis players, I see no reason why they don't enter into intermarital athletics."

Pollack, who was born in Newark, lived in Kentwood until he was married a year and a half ago. He attended northern public schools and was graduated from Carteret School in West Orange. He played varsity basketball, track and baseball in high school.

He attended Indiana University for two years, where he played varsity tennis, and was graduated from Upsala College in 1964 with B.A. degrees in English and philosophy. ("I took part in varsity bowling at Upsala.")

"I student-taught here at Jonathan Dayton Regional High during the spring of 1964 and was offered a position to teach English here. I've been here for three years."

Pollack is married to the former Lynn Schwartz of Newark, and they reside in Clark. "Lynn is a school teacher in Rahway. And she plays tennis, too," he muses.

IN HIS SPARE TIME, Pollack serves as a youth director for United Synagogue Youth (USY) at Temple Beth El in Cranford. He and his wife are members of the congregation there. He also is a member of the Knights of Pythias.

"I like to write poetry in my spare time. I've been doing it ever since high school. (Some of Pollack's poetry has been published in "Victory" Magazine.)"

"I play bridge, and I like all sports as a spectator and participant."

For a final word on the initiation of varsity tennis at the school, Pollack says, "I anticipate a very favorable, rewarding season, and I encourage anyone interested in sports to try out."

"This is the best time to learn!"

FIVE YEARS AGO A letter written by Township Committee member VINCENT BONADIES and RUSSELL SHOLE questioning FRANK HAYDU, finance chairman of the Board of Education, about an $40,000 surplus in the 1962-63 budget is assailed by the board. HOWARD S. SMITH is unanimously re-elected president of the Board of Education.

JOSEPH BENDER, chairman of the building and grounds committee of the school board, recommends the possibility of resurfacing the area of the Walton School to eliminate a chronic water condition in the boiler room. EMMUEL S. STEVENS is honored at Stouffer's restaurant for his service to the library board of trustees. The Springfield Shade Tree Commission requests that home owners ask for permission before they plant trees on township property. A full-length feature film, entitled "Jack and the Beanstalk," is shown at the Florence Gaudineer School.

WALTER W. BALDWIN and CHARLES REMLINGER, former official of the school advisory committee, are expected to seek the GOP nominations for the Township Committee. HOWARD S. SMITH, re-elected to a three-year term on the Springfield school board along with GEORGE D. HARRISON II, and THOMAS DOHERTY, is also re-elected president of the board. The annual Washington's Birthday dance of the Springfield Volunteer Fire Department will be held at the Chateau Baltusar. Town Hall is jammed for the Chamber of Commerce sponsored forum on the 1952 budget, highlighted by statements from Mayor ROBERT W. MARSHALL that the lack of proper industrial development in the past years is responsible for the ever-rising tax rate. A Jewish Reform congregation is formed with representatives from Springfield, Summit, and other communities.

Computers are a million to a billion times faster than humans in performing computing operations. (As The New York Times put it, a modern computer's speed is such that it can perform more calculations in an hour than a stadium full of scientists could in a lifetime.) And speaking of the computer's contributions to society, one expert went so far as to say the computers had even begun to make government efficient.

Although there is little doubt that computers have had a fantastic impact on our society, it is possible "we ain't seen nothin' yet." For a third of all the computers now in use were installed during 1966--and there are enough computers currently on order to increase the existing population of computers by more than 50 percent.

In my opinion, the computer industry will be the fastest growing major industry for some years to come, and I recommend that every investor, whose objective is long-term capital appreciation, consider investing in the industry.

Wall Street Notebook

By ARTHUR POLLACK

COMPUTERS The computer is to the 20th Century what the steam engine was to America's industrial revolution. The steam engine made possible the modern railroad--which, in turn, created demand for great quantities of construction materials and labor; and by providing a better, faster means of transportation, it opened up vast new markets for the products of other industries.

Similarly, computers have created various markets as well as a big one of their own. Digital computers have been generally available for only 15 years--but without computers there might have been no nuclear power plants, no fleets of commercial jets, no communications satellites, no space program. Moreover, computers may have even greater impact on more prosaic aspects of our lives; for example, they have greatly reduced the need for many clerical, exacting clerical efforts.

Computers are a million to a billion times faster than humans in performing computing operations. (As The New York Times put it, a modern computer's speed is such that it can perform more calculations in an hour than a stadium full of scientists could in a lifetime.) And speaking of the computer's contributions to society, one expert went so far as to say the computers had even begun to make government efficient.

Although there is little doubt that computers have had a fantastic impact on our society, it is possible "we ain't seen nothin' yet." For a third of all the computers now in use were installed during 1966--and there are enough computers currently on order to increase the existing population of computers by more than 50 percent.

In my opinion, the computer industry will be the fastest growing major industry for some years to come, and I recommend that every investor, whose objective is long-term capital appreciation, consider investing in the industry.

Senator CLIFFORD P. CASE Reports

The Senate will soon complete action on the first major bill of the new session--the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1967.

This is the product of a two-year study by the Joint Committee on the Organization of the Congress--the first since the legislative branch was reorganized in 1946.

Recommendations for strengthening legislative organization and operations add up to the first major overhaul of Congress in 21 years.

As was to be expected, some Senators think our bill goes too far while others feel it does not go far enough. Much of the debate has therefore focused on amendments to strike certain provisions or to add new ones. Most of these amendments have been rejected by the Senate, but a number have been accepted on the recommendation of Senator Monroney, who as co-chairman of the Joint Committee bears major responsibility for managing the bill.

Once the Senate passes the bill, it will go to the House, where I hope it will receive prompt consideration. While it falls considerably short of what I believe to be desirable, the bill is a real step forward.

As a member of the Senate Appropriations Committee, I am also concerned that we give prompt consideration to appropriations for the various Federal aid-to-education programs, especially those affecting elementary and secondary education.

School boards and administrators have been seriously handicapped in making plans by delayed appropriations. Last year, for example, funds were not cleared until late October, long after most schools had adopted their budgets and were well into their opening terms.

SENATOR HILL is chairman of our subcommittee which handles funds for education, of which I am also a member, and he has assured me of full cooperation in seeking the earliest possible decision.

Both the Senate and House Appropriations Committees, by the way, have decided to establish new subcommittees to pass on funds for the recently established Department of Transportation.

Because of my long-standing concern with mass transit and other transportation issues in New Jersey, I have requested assignment to the new subcommittee.

The work of my other committee--the Senate Foreign Relations Committee--is well under way. As we did last year, the Committee is conducting a series of public hearings on the broader issues of American foreign policy with the focus--inevitably and understandably--on our deep involvement in Southeast Asia.

Our first witnesses were George Kennan of Princeton, an eminent authority on Communism and the Soviet Union, and former Ambassador to Japan Edwin O. Reischauer, who returned to Harvard last year after five years in Tokyo.

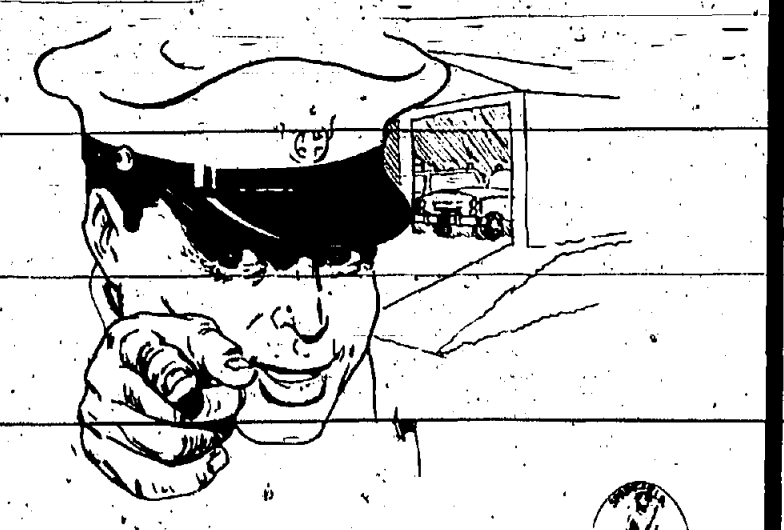

This week we hear Professor Henry Steele Commager of Columbia and General James Gavin, who retired from the Army after a brilliant military career.

As part of my own study of the complex forces we are dealing with in Asia, I am planning an early study mission to Vietnam, where, among other things, I intend to take a close look at the prospects for "pacification"--that unfortunately named process, by which, we are told, security and stability can be restored to the countryside of South Vietnam.

I shall, of course, be making a full report to the people of New Jersey upon my return.

EARLY COPY Publicity chairmen are urged to observe the Friday deadline for other than spot news. Local newspapers, radio and phone number.

Exemptions can reduce payments on income tax

EDITOR'S NOTE: You can and should reduce your tax bill by claiming all your exemptions for yourself, your wife and your children. This is the third of five dispatches on how to make out your federal income tax return so that you pay what you owe—and not a penny more.

By JOHN PIERSON
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI)—To avoid paying more taxes than you owe, be sure to claim all your exemptions.

Each exemption is worth $600. You can always claim at least one exemption for yourself. So right off the bat, you've reduced your taxable income by $600. You may be able to claim other exemptions as well. Unless she files a separate return, you can claim your wife as a second exemption. Each dependent child also counts as an exemption. To illustrate, a taxpayer with a wife and two children can take four exemptions— one for himself, one for his wife and one each for his children. That's $2,400 that he won't have to pay taxes on.

Assume he earned $8,000 last year. By claiming his four exemptions, he reduces his taxable income to $5,600.

You can take another exemption if you were blind on the last day of 1966 and another if you were 65 or over. If you were both blind and over 65, you can take three exemptions for yourself—one regular exemption, a second for your blindness and a third for your age. The same rules apply for your wife.

Babies born at any time in 1966—even the last day of the year—count as exemptions for the whole year. If a dependent died during 1966—even the first day of the year—you may still claim him as an exemption for the full year.

Who's a dependent?
Basically, there are four rules. To qualify as your dependent, a person:

—Either must have been a U.S. citizen or, if not a citizen, must have lived in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Panama or the Canal Zone. If you adopted an alien child and he was living with you abroad last year, you may count him as a dependent.

Must be closely related to you or have been living with you as a member of your household all last year.

—Must have received more than half his support from you.

—Must have earned less than $600 last year. But if your child was under 19 or was still a student, he counts as your dependent, even if he earned $600 or more.

A child who earned $600 or more must file his own tax return. He can claim himself as an exemption on his return at the same time you're claiming him as an exemption on your return. In other words, he's worth a total of $1,200 in exemptions—$600 for himself and $600 for you, as long as you provided more than half his support.

The tax law defines a student as anyone who studies full time at a recognized school for at least five months during the year or who is enrolled full time in an on-the-job training course.

Even if you were only one of several persons furnishing support for another, you may be able to claim him as an exemption. For example, suppose you and two brothers were supporting your aged father last year, each paying one-third. You may claim him as an exemption.

Together you and your brothers provided more than half your father's total support.

Any one of you would have been entitled to claim him as an exemption, if the one alone had furnished over half his support.

Concert set at Rutgers

The world-renowned Juilliard String Quartet will give a concert at Rutgers in Newark on Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the Newark Museum, 49 Washington st., Newark.

The State University concert, which is free and open to the public, is the third of four concerts in the Conklin Concert Series.

The quartet will perform the "Quartet in B flat major," D. 112, Opus 168, by Schubert; Elliott Carter's "Quartet No. 2" written in 1959; and Beethoven's "Quartet in F major," Opus 59, No. 1.

Members of the Juilliard String Quartet are Robert Mann, first violinist; Earl Carlyss, second violinist; Raphael Hillyer, viola; and Claus Adam, cello.

Since its establishment over 20 years ago in 1946 the Quartet has come to be considered the interpretive group without peer for the classics of the Twentieth Century including works by Bartok, Berg, Webern and Schoenberg. The group also performs music from the Classical and Romantic eras, such as compositions by Mozart, Haydn, Dvorak and Debussy.

League to repeat meeting on China

The foreign policy committee of the Springfield League of Women Voters will present a paper at its next meeting on the study of China on Wednesday at 1 p.m. Mrs. Allen Rabin, chairman of the committee, states, "China has a written history that goes back 3,500 years, making China the world's oldest living civilization. Her language is the oldest in the world."

She is the third largest country in the world. Nearly a fourth of all the people in the world live in China, but she barely has enough food to feed these people." Mrs. Rabin further states that through this study, which will explore the background history of China, it is hoped we will be better able to understand China.

The meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Leo Newman at 96 Warwick circle. This is an open meeting and anyone interested in attending may call Mrs. Charles Gerot, membership chairman, at 376-5730.

Motorist accused of drunken driving by township police

Springfield police charged Fred G. Kodel, 59, of Shore Hills with drunken driving, following an auto accident last Thursday afternoon on Mountain ave. near Edgewood ave. Kodel was examined by Dr. Robert M. Kodel, a physician, at Overlook Hospital. The Short Hills man had been taken to Overlook by the First Aid Squad for treatment of a cut on his chin received in the accident.

Police records stated that Kodel was driving south on Mountain ave. when his car struck a parked auto owned by Mary L. Vasta of Roselle Park. Both vehicles were badly damaged, the report stated, and had to be towed away. In another accident, the driver and a passenger in a car which overturned on Rt. 22 were both taken to Overlook by the First Aid Squad. The accident occurred Sunday at 2:05 a.m. in the high-way's east-bound lane, near Dundar rd.

Police said that the car, driven by Harvey R. Gillespie Jr., 37, of Irvington, hit a pole and a guard rail before turning over. It was badly damaged and had to be towed from the scene. Gillespie was treated at the hospital for cuts on the face and scalp. His passenger, Miriam A. Pinkowsky, 32, of Elizabeth, was treated for cuts on the legs.

Two other persons were also taken to Overlook following a crash on S. Springfield ave. Sunday at 5:25 a.m. Leonard L. Curtis, 29, of Plainfield told police that he was driving south when he swerved to avoid a car on the wrong side of the road. The Curtis car then struck a tree. It was later towed from the scene.

Curtis was treated at Overlook for a cut lip. His passenger, Minnie Ann, 33, also of Plainfield, suffered a broken leg. Her condition was reported as fair.

REV. JAMES M. BOYD JR.

The Rev. James M. Boyd Jr., chaplain of the college and lecturer in Philosophy at Drew University, Madison, will present the third in a series of public lectures on "Religion and Contemporary Life" at the Springfield Methodist Church this Sunday evening at 8 p.m. He will address members of the congregation and the public concerning developments among college and university students in recent months, under the subject of "Immediacy and Imminence."

Mr. Boyd received both his A.B. and bachelor of divinity degrees from Drew University. Prior to his present position with the university, he was assistant professor of philosophy and religion and director of religious life at Drew from 1952-57, senior pastor of the Methodist Church, Summit, 1957-1963, and senior pastor of the First Methodist Church, Schenectady, N. Y., from 1963-68, returning to Drew in 1968. As well as serving in the capacity of Chaplain of the college, he is a lecturer in philosophy.

The lecture will deal with a variety of concerns, from the demand for more student participation in the direction of university life, to experimentation with LSD and other drugs. Mr. Boyd speaks widely to university students, having lectured recently to a New Jersey Episcopal convocation of college students during the 1966-Christmas vacation. The lectures will continue on March 5, with Dr. Bertram Vogel, clinical psychologist, and professor of psychology at Newark State College, speaking about "Psychology and Moral Values."

Following each lecture, there is opportunity for questions and discussion with the speaker during a coffee hour.

Meals on Wheels offers assistance for convalescents, elderly persons

Local residents in many situations have benefitted from Meals on Wheels, the new service in the Summit area which brings a hot dinner and cold supper to people who cannot prepare food for themselves, a spokesman said. He added:

"Many of the service's clients are convalescents living alone. They are able to remain in their own homes because assistance can be made for their meals — through Meals on Wheels. Thanks to this service, they do not have to remain in hospitals or go to nursing homes."

For example, the spokesman said: "The service has enabled one elderly couple to stay together in their own home although the wife is confined to her bedroom with severe arthritis, and the husband, with an ailing and phlegmatic, is recovering from recent surgery."

An elderly client who had recently returned from hospital and nursing home after a fall, received Meals on Wheels until a full-time companion could be found.

"In one case, of a man with heart trouble, the fact that a trained volunteer comes in each month with a hot meal enables the wife to teach school and the couple to remain financially solvent."

Meals on Wheels also provides a form of preventive medicine. It keeps some clients out of institutions and free of medical problems by providing proper nourishment to maintain a health level.

"A welfare client under regular outpatient care by the Overlook Hospital Center, receives Meals on Wheels until medical recuperation to help prevent massive stroke and consequent long-term hospitalization."

Meals are brought to two elderly widowers with no family in the area to ensure proper diet and avoid the medical hazards of poor nutrition.

"A friend has arranged for Meals on Wheels to supply two hot meals a week to an elderly welfare client living in a furnished room, to ensure proper nutrition and to help pay financially. Although frail, this woman is able to prepare light meals part of the time."

"In emergencies, the service can also be a big help. "It has helped out four people recovering from severe virus who were too weak to cook the food necessary to regain their strength. "It helped a widow with arterio-sclerosis whose part-time companion was sick."

"It was able to help a couple whose kitchen burned out on Thanksgiving Day. "Anyone needing Meals on Wheels may get information and make arrangements by calling 273-5550."

Boys' choir to sing at church Sunday

The First Presbyterian Church of Springfield will be host to the Choir of Blair Academy Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service. The choir, composed of boys in grades 9 through 12, is under the direction of Nevitt Barlow. The group will sing a capella several selections of 15th and 16th century sacred music.

Blair Academy, located at Blairtown, is the only Presbyterian boys secondary boarding school in the country. Following the service, the 35 boys will be entertained for dinner in the homes of various members of the congregation.

Academy session planned for police

A Union County Police Training Academy session will be held at Union Junior College in Cranford, in May with New Providence Police Chief Carl Ehls serving as dean for the second time.

Ehls, who attended UJC in 1935-36 and was graduated from New York University, is a graduate of the FBI Academy in Washington, D.C. He first served as dean of the Police Training Academy in 1957.

The academy, sponsored by the Union County Police Chiefs Association, offers 205 hours of instruction for new policemen from Union County's 21 communities, the Union County Park Police and the Union County Sheriff's Office. New patrolmen from other counties are accepted when there is room for them. Organized in 1947, the academy was the first to be approved by the New Jersey Police Training Commission.

The new dean is vice president of the Union County Police Chiefs Association, chairman of the Union County Police Examination Board and a member of the public relations and motion picture-television-radio committee of the International Chiefs of Police Association.

Remember Reo-Royale? Editor lists influential autos

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Remember the 1924 Chrysler Model B, the 1931 Reo-Royale and the 1934 DeSoto Airflow?

These are some of the cars that Donald MacDonald, editor of Motor Trend magazine, calls the "ten most influential cars" of the first half of the 20th century.

MacDonald said his selections were not governed by popularity, or by "pretty form or unusual mechanisms," but by the influence and impact on subsequent generations of cars.

"The popular Ford Model T did not make the list, even though its sales topped 15 million," MacDonald said the Model T design had "no direct" influence on any other car manufacturer.

Here are the cars, listed in chronological order with MacDonald's comments:

1907 Rolls-Royce Silver Ghost: "The automobile that gave the industry a goal of consistent quality that has never been matched... a legacy of perfectionism that becomes less approachable with every passing year."

1924 Chrysler Model B: This low-priced car was introduced with the first high-compression engine designed for production. It was one of the three cars of its day to feature four-wheel hydraulic brakes.

1927 LaSalle: "The first time a production car was professionally styled" all the way from radiator to tail light... basic principles evolved in the creation of the first LaSalle stand today as standard operating procedures in all of Detroit's styling studios."

1931 Reo-Royale: The first to be shaped by wind tunnel experiments and "more graceful" even than the custom bodied Packards, Lincolns and Plerces of the era."

1934 DeSoto Airflow: A pioneer in design, but a dismal failure in public sales, its most important legacy was a negative one: "Engineers and stylists learned from it that what they think the public should have, is not necessarily a marketable commodity."

1936 Cord Model 810: "An American classic and the most treasured by collectors." The front wheel drive "put the bloom on the styling, since the car could be lowered to a point still not reached by many of today's models."

1939 Lincoln Continental: "From the standpoint of the drawing-board, no car had more influence on contemporary U.S. styling... the whole industry kept returning to what it loosely termed 'continental styling'."

1946 Cisitalia: A car that "epitomizes the tasteful school of Italian design that emerged after World War II and which ultimately became the model for the automobile industry of every Western country except Germany."

1953 Nash Rambler: The early pioneer in the compact field. "Slow to catch on, its eventual financial success... opened the compact era."

NSC plans celebration honoring Class of 1917

The alumni office of Newark State College, Union, is seeking members of the Class of 1917 to attend a golden anniversary celebration on Homecoming Day, May 6.

Graduates of this class or persons who can provide the addresses of graduates are asked to contact the alumni office. The college in 1917 was still a normal school and was located in Newark. In 1958 the facility was moved to its present campus in Morris Ave., Union, on the site of the old Kean estate.

2 officers named for new company

Two officers have been named for the Unitech Co. of Union, a newly formed division of Union Tank Car Co. of Chicago, Ill., specializing in equipment and systems for the process industries.

They are H. G. Lankenau, who has been appointed vice president, and Anthony N. Chirico, executive vice president.

Lankenau, a graduate of the University of Alabama and a veteran of World War II, began his career in process work in 1945. Chirico, who was graduated from Carnegie Institute of Technology and also is a veteran of World War II, has been in the process engineering field for the past decade.

Egyptian engineer's work earns title of 'master builder of the Arab world'

CAIRO, UAR (UPI) — In Cairo he is building a new sewage system, an annex to the National Assembly and a new Foreign Office. In Benghazi, Libya, it's a sports stadium and in Iraq a canal. And before long he hopes to be building a dam in Thailand.

But above all Osman Ahmad Osman, a stocky Egyptian-born engineer and fervent soccer fan, is building the Aswan High Dam, which he is pushing to completion a year ahead of schedule.

Osman, 49, heads the Arab Contractors, an Egyptian company which he built from scratch armed with a 1940 engineering degree from Cairo University.

"My only capital was my strong will," he said.

Today, with subsidiary companies in a half dozen Arab countries, he qualifies for the title of "master builder of the Arab world."

Apart from the High Dam on the Nile and other vast reclamation and building projects totaling 139 million pounds ($319.7 million) in Egypt, he is building 33 million pounds ($75.9 million) worth of sports systems in Libya, Iraq and Jordan.

Under negotiation are contracts in Syria and Morocco — plus an approach from the Thai government seeking advice and a contractor to build the Phasom dam on the Nan river.

In the past Osman has built airport facilities for the U.S. Air Force in Saudi Arabia, a Municipal Center in Kuwait, Cairo's gleaming modern airport and dozens of plants, apartment schemes and facilities all over the Arab world.

They are pale into significance beside the Aswan High Dam, Egypt's greatest construction project since the Great Pyramid at Giza which it dwarfs many times over.

The Dam gave Osman his biggest headache, not because of its sheer size, but because of the searing climate in Upper Egypt, its remoteness and the logistics of supervising 32,000 workmen and millions of dollars worth of equipment.

But armed with a personal carte blanche from President Gamal Abdel Nasser, Osman plowed through the early difficulties which plagued the dam's beginning back in 1961.

Now he proudly claims "my team" will complete the High Dam one year ahead of schedule and already he's trimming down the work force on the site and transferring them to new projects.

Osman runs his contracting empire from a modest paneled office in downtown Cairo. He spends 10 to 15 days a month traveling, often to the United States, Europe and the Middle East.

In 1961 the Egyptian government nationalized Osman's company. But on Nasser's direct order, he said, he suffers no interference from the government.

"I still run the company as if it were my private property," Osman said.

His salary is pegged at 6,000 pounds ($13,800) a year.

"It's enough," he said, "I still have my private property and I'm comfortable. All I want to see is my name and my firm's reputation remain good. I am very proud of my good name."

But he still recalls with pride his first earnings as a contractor, back in 1941 when he made a profit of six pounds ($13.8) on a building a small garage worth 100 pounds ($243).

"The feeling to have six pounds at that time was more satisfying than six million pounds in my hand today," he said.

George Watt Jr., superintendent of the Southern District of the Northern New Jersey Annual Conference of the Methodist Church, will preside.

Identity quest ends as attorney recalls name of ex-client

The memory of Springfield Township Prosecutor Joseph S. Seidel last week allowed a 75-year-old Newark man to be reunited with his family last week.

The man, Dock Maut, had been picked up by police last Tuesday when he was found wandering, apparently dazed, and wearing dog clothes and having money in his pockets. Police were unable to determine the man's identification or address.

Seidel supplied the clue that led to the establishment of the man's identity. While in police headquarters on other business, he heard of the predicament. He was told by P.D. Robert Taft that all the information the man had given him was some muttering about "Doc Moss."

This name rang a bell with Seidel.

The township prosecutor explained that Maut had been one of 200 cases he worked on in regard to workmen's compensation claims being filed by men who had contracted emphysema while working in several foundries in Newark six years ago. Seidel referred police to the law firm with which he was associated at the time in order to obtain further information.

Checks by police expanded the police department's information, and eventually, Maut's daughter, Mrs. Louise Jackson, also of Newark, was located. She picked him up on Thursday night.

Youth is sentenced in contempt charge

Magistrate Max Sherman found Ronald Given, 18, of Millburn guilty of contempt of court after a stormy hearing Monday night in Springfield Municipal court. He also found Given, who conducted his defense on a plea of guilty of driving and causing an accident. The fine on that charge was $50.

After Given had expressed his dissatisfaction with procedures in the traffic case, at some length, he was then declared guilty of contempt for having addressed the court in a disrespectful manner.

Magistrate Sherman sentenced the young man to 30 days in the county jail, but suspended 25 days of the term. After a further conference on Tuesday with Given and his mother, the magistrate further reduced the actual time to be spent behind bars to three days. He also placed Given on probation for six months.

2 power firms list totals paid in taxes

Jersey Central Power & Light Company-New Jersey Power & Light Company in 1967 paid $20,072,893 in local, state and federal taxes, William H. McElwain, president of the electric companies, announced this week.

Of this figure, $11,773,731 were paid in gross receipts, franchise and real estate taxes to the municipalities in their service territories. The remaining taxes were paid on the state and federal levels, he added.

The taxes paid by JCP&L and NJP&L, McElwain said, represent only a part of the estimated $3.03 billion paid in taxes last by investor-owned electric companies—taxes which play a substantial role in the state's economy by helping to pay for federal, state and local programs and operations.

The utility president noted that of every dollar of JCP&L-NJP&L revenue, about 17 cents goes for direct taxes.

Registration open for bridge classes

PTA units hold joint meeting, feature talk on sex education

The various PTA organizations of Springfield held a combined meeting at the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School last week in commemoration of Founders' Day.

A life membership in the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School PTA was awarded to Mrs. Henry Huenke by PTA President Natalie Waldt for her "unfading contribution to the community and to the school." A pin signifying the honor was presented to her by her husband, Dr. Huenke.

An appeal was made for the continued support of the American Field Service program of sponsoring a foreign student's stay in a Springfield home next year.

The highlight of the evening was an address on sex education in the schools delivered by Dr. Wardell Pomeroy, a board member of the Sex Information and Educational Council of the United States (SIECUS). Dr. Pomeroy's career is marked by a 20-year association with the Institute for Sex Research, Kinsey Institute, in Indiana. He is also co-author of the famous Kinsey Report.

The American sexual tradition is undergoing an evolutionary change, Dr. Pomeroy stated, and "greater freedom and greater openness are resulting from this evolution. People are not afraid to discuss sex."

He stressed that sex education cannot be accomplished by instruction in simple biological facts. It must be considered a basic part of the educational experience, like English or geometry, and must begin in kindergarten. At puberty, the sex education program is ready to deal with the basic questions of the teenager, he added.

Dr. Pomeroy said that his experiences have disclosed that the average child derives the greatest part of his sex education from his parents, with another five percent from his experiences in school.

Summing up, Dr. Pomeroy said that sex education cannot be set apart from one's daily living. The church, the school, and the home will have their part to play in the learning process, he declared.

New non-fiction books listed at township Public Library

A few of the new non-fiction titles available at the Springfield Public Library are listed below with comments by the library staff.

THE SCIENCES

"If the Sun Dies," Oriana Fallaci. A thoughtful exploration of the world of tomorrow as it is being entered by the astronauts and scientists in the United States space program. Intensely human, this document is a thought-provoking experience for readers.

"The Ocean Adventure," by Gardner Souder. In this comprehensive and fascinating account, the author tells of the latest underwater discoveries. We have reached a crucial point in oceanographic history and future explorations may prove to be man's greatest challenge.

"Fantastic Trees," by Edwin A. Menninger. This is a complete survey in an unusual field, rich in insight and information, a combination of text and photography.

FOR COLLECTORS

"European and American Dolls," by Gwen White. This title is self-explanatory and the book itself is filled with description and sketches including marks and patterns.

"Collecting American-Victorian Antiques," by Katharine Morrison McClinton. Victorian furniture and all types of accessories are included in this charming book. Lavishly illustrated but, unfortunately, not in color.

FOREIGN COUNTRIES

"Thailand, Burma, Laos and Cambodia," by John F. Cady. Four Buddhist lands with a history of political rivalry. Professor Cady's study of these neighbors of Vietnam provides a necessary perspective on this complex, turbulent region.

"Tropical Africa Today," by George H. T. Krinkle and Ronald Steel. Through a Twentieth Century First study, the authors show the need of a realistic understanding of this vast mosaic of many cultures, tongues and ethnic groups which is fast emerging into many new nations with as many new leaders.

"A History of Portugal," by H. V. Livermore. Not only is this book considered by far the best history of Portugal in the English language, but it is easily read, comprehensive and well documented.

JUVENILE

"All About Cats," by Carl Burger. Any cat owner will enjoy this book about the cat family. Both tame ones and wild ones are included, with many photographs.

"Project: Scoop," by William D. Hayes. This is a follow-up on "Project: Genius" by the same author and continues the story of Pete and his new project.

COSTLY PARKING
Melvin Kaplan of 40 Briar Hills circle paid a $15 fine Monday for having parked on a "snow street" where parking was prohibited following a snowfall. Magistrate Max Sherman presided in Springfield Municipal Court.

ALL ABOUT PEOPLE

by GENE ROSENFELD
ELGENE TIRE CO.

We AT ELGENE TIRE... HAVE BEEN WRITING ABOUT PEOPLE... THIS WEEK WE WOULD LIKE TO WRITE ABOUT PRODUCTS THAT PEOPLE MAKE!! After all, people and products do get together to become the GROSS NATIONAL PRODUCT of the U.S.A. In last week's column we showed how much money was being spent on KEEPING THE PEACE... this week's column will show how all that money isn't being wasted.

To provide transportation for the goods and material that are so necessary to a mobile army of the 60's, the U.S. Army has had to... not only design its own equipment... but the methods of transporting it!! After many plans that have been revised and rejected... the military have finally come up with THE WORLD'S LONGEST VEHICLE!!

The longest vehicle in the world is the 572-foot-long, 54-wheeled U.S. Army Overland Trailer built by R. G. Le Tourneau Inc., of Longview, Texas. Its gross weight is 450 tons and its top speed is 20 m.p.h. It is driven by a 6-man crew, who control 4 engines with a combined S.H.P. of 4,680 which require a capacity of 7,828 gallons of fuel. It can carry a 150-ton payload at 15 m.p.h. for 400 miles.

SEEING IS BELIEVING... take a look at the photo below... and notice how the rear tire is twice the size of the soldier standing next to it!!!

LONGEST VEHICLE: More than 1/10 mile long, this Army trailer has 54 wheels.

We... at ELGENE TIRE, can if need be, provide you with tires that will carry a 150-ton payload... but until you need tires that big, come into ELGENE TIRE, we're conveniently located on M-111 to the west (Between Route 22 and Morris Ave.), Opposite Farcher's Grove.

NEW CULLIGAN AUTOMATED ELECTRONIC WATER SOFTENER

Exclusive Culligan Mark 8 solid-state Aqua-Sensor recharges only when it senses the need. Saves salt, provides unlimited soft water.

Ultrasonic automatic water softeners are recharged at pre-set times. But because household water usage varies, recharging can be too soon or too late. New Aqua-Sensor keeps pace with your water demands — never lets you run out of soft water, yet never recharges needlessly.

HOW AQUA-SENSOR WORKS

There are two sensors at bottom of resin bed. When hard water reaches upper sensor, the lower sensor is still immersed in soft water. The sensors electronically detect the difference and signal the solid-state controller. At proper time, unit automatically recharges.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

DOING THE JOB No matter how small or momentous the task, one feels satisfaction only in the knowledge that the job has been well done.

We cannot all be bankers, statesmen, leaders of industry. We cannot all be chiefs. What is important is that we find ourselves a place in life, that we perform some useful function and service... that the community or the world benefits because we have passed this way.

Whatever you do, do with a purpose. Let yourself be not content to drift aimlessly through a lifetime, exerting no effort, seeking no new goals.

And remember that one job well done clears the way for a new effort, for a new achievement.

You don't have to aim for the moon or shoot for the stars. Find a job that needs doing—and do it. Even if you do not succeed, there will be benefits to yourself and to others because you tried.

OEO studying plan for poverty center

The Union Township Community Action Organization's proposal for a multi-purpose anti-poverty center is now being reviewed in the Office of Economic Opportunity regional office, members of the board of directors were told recently. Dr. Harry A. Lawrence Jr., chairman, said indications are that the application will receive approval.

He also reported that appointments are being made with New Jersey Congressional representatives to discuss action which might be taken to prevent any cuts in anti-poverty funds. Petitions addressed to leaders in Congress are now being circulated under the direction of Mrs. Norman Frank (686-3998), Mrs. Wimpsey Jenkins (687-3959) and Ernest Miltner (686-2562). Goal of the drive is to obtain supplementary appropriations for the anti-poverty program for 1967 and increased appropriations for 1968.

"WE MUST IMPRESS upon our people in Washington that you cannot lead people to the brink of 'breaking the cycle' and then slam the door closed," Dr. Lawrence said. "If this is done now, it would be twice as hard to get any momentum started again."

Mrs. Jenkins also is serving as chairman of a Neighborhood Community Action Council which meets on the second Monday evening of each month at the First Baptist Church in Vauxhall.

Mrs. Frank is conducting a series of "Let's Talk" planning sessions for senior citizens to programs for the multi-service center. She reported that one meeting was held at the First Baptist Church and another is scheduled for 1 p.m. tomorrow at the same church at 5 Hilton ave., Vauxhall.

She also announced that a lecture series on "How to Get the Most for Your Money" will be held on 10 consecutive Monday afternoons starting in March. Topics to be covered will include nutrition, budget meals, home management, review of Medicare, frauds and quacks and safety in the home.

Two get $30 in hold-up; woman hurt

A Union woman received a knife-cut on her arm from one of two thieves who robbed her store on Saturday evening. Mrs. Rose Runstedt, 66, and her husband, Reinhold, 77, who own and operate the Runstedt Delicatessen at 2053 Springfield ave., Union, reported that two men threatened them with a knife and took $30 from their cash register.

According to police the two men entered the store at about 5:15 p.m. and asked Run-stedt for a certain kind of candy. Runstedt told them she didn't have any and at that point one of the men reached over the counter and grabbed the meat carver, police said.

Runstedt described him as a Negro between 17 and 19 years old, was fitted completely in a 5 foot 6 inches tall, 120 pounds and having "slanty eyes." Runstedt told police that after the youth grabbed the knife he began waving it around, and Mrs. Runstedt was injured slightly on the upper part of her arm. He then said, "This is a hold-up" and ordered the couple to move to the front part of the store, police said. The two rifled the cash register, taking out $20 in bills and $10 in coins, police reported. Runstedt described the second thief as Negro, about the same age, height and weight with a darker complexion and wearing a man's dress hat. They both escaped on foot, police said.

Number of patients admitted last year record for hospital

A record 3,722 patients were admitted to Memorial General last year, John J. Kelly, administrator, announced this week in his annual report for 1966. Kelly said the increase from the 3,387 patients in 1965 was partially attributable to the completion last summer of new $1.75 million wing that doubled the institution's capacity.

The additional rooms helped Memorial General 28,532 in-patient days, up from the 1965 figure of 24,221. The hospital also experienced an increase from 66 to 78 in its average daily census. Kelly said the increase was attributable to the new wing, which was fully operational only during the final months of 1966. The administrator noted that the average census has been running at or near the hospital's 195-bed capacity in recent months.

The average length of a patient's stay during 1966 was 7.6 days, an increase from the 7.1 days recorded in 1965 and 1964. Kelly pointed out that the advent of Medicare on July 1 contributed to the rise.

MEMORIAL GENERAL HOSPITAL treated 1,047 medical cases last year, an increase from the 905 treated during the previous year. There were 1,502 surgical cases and 468 obstetrical patients last year, Kelly reported. In addition, 684 pediatric patients were treated at Memorial General.

A total of 1,017 major operations were performed at Memorial General, in addition to 1,153 minor operations. The hospital also performed 12,135 diagnostic x-rays and 47,760 laboratory procedures.

Memorial General recorded a sharp increase in the number of emergency cases treated last year, Kelly said. The number went from 4,887 in 1965 to 6,516 last year.

There also were 373 babies born at Memorial General Hospital last year. Kelly said the year just ended was a "significant one for Memorial General Hospital, in addition to treating a record number of patients, we opened a new wing that has enabled us to double our capacity to serve the Union County area."

The plaintiff was Nathan Stein of 1701 Walker ave., Union.

A citizen's complaint was also filed by Daniel De Lucia of Irvington against Philip Levanda of 1819 Manor dr. Levanda was fined $15 and $5 costs for careless driving after De Lucia charged that he carelessly backed his car out of a driveway.

A Hillside man was fined a total of $50 for leaving the scene of an accident in which he was involved in Union. He was William Moran. Two persons paid fines after warrants had been sent out. They were Gary Anderson of Irvington, who paid fines of $7 for driving without his license in possession, $7 costs and $15 for contempt of court, and Dragutin Gojovic of 1273 Wildwood ter., Union, who paid $9 on a township parking ordinance, $5 costs and $30 for contempt.

Other Union drivers who paid fines included Daphna Krouk of 714 Garden st., who was fined a total of $25 for traveling at 30 miles an hour in a 25 mile an hour zone; Saul Rosenbaum of 1659 Andrew st., who was fined $15 for careless driving, and Ferrans Sins of 1488 Vauxhall rd., who paid $9 on a township parking ordinance.

Fines of $15 each were imposed on Joseph Lopicolone of Rahway for passing on the shoulder and Steven M. Gilbert of Morristown for careless driving.

Two persons were also arraigned on separate charges of passing fraudulent checks. ### Mine fragments hit GI in Viet

A 20-year-old Union paratrooper, in Vietnam for only five weeks, has been wounded by fragments from an exploding land mine while making an air assault with the 25th Infantry Division.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Isallio of 311 Perry ave., parents of Pfc. Donald Isallio, were notified Tuesday that their son is in the 85th Evacuation Hospital with injuries of the foot, leg and head received in a land invasion last Friday.

According to Army authorities, the young serviceman was "slightly wounded" by flying metal fragments when the mine exploded.

A 1965 graduate of Union High School, where he played basketball and baseball, Isallio has been in the Army for 13 months. He wrote his parents just a week before he was hurt that he has seen heavy action since his arrival in Vietnam, including the capture of about 25 Vietcong prisoners who had been hiding in a cave. His parents received that letter on Saturday.

Living cost for couples can be high

Why plan, asks Mabel G. Stolte, County Home economist. As a young married, you may be more romantic than factual, about the actual cost of running a household. Perhaps your ideas are even a little unrealistic?

This is easy to understand when you may have been living on an income of your own and not have been required to share it. Or, you may have been in school and dependent upon your parents?

Now you find yourself in a new situation—new responsibilities, new friends and new problems. You may know it is smart to live within your income but—the pressures to borrow are so great. You don't know where to begin.

Start by designing your own spending plan. No plan can be used by two couples. A set percentage of income can not be assigned rigidly for each budget category. The old straight jacket budget used this method and failed every time because it didn't allow for individual differences or allow for flexibility in its use. Today, research has learned that no two spending plans can be alike because no two couples are alike.

Varsity wrestlers conclude schedule; Goldhammer, Baskin score in district

By MYRON MEISEL

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School wrestling team closed its 1967 season in the District 11 competition last Saturday at Hillside High School. The Bulldog grapplers finished with a season mark of 3-8.

Bowlers set to compete in county, state tourneys

By MYRON MEISEL

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School bowling team finished its regularly-scheduled winter season last week with a 6-6 record. The team, under the coaching of Peter Socca, will compete this Saturday at Echo Lanes, Mountainside, in the Union County Bowling Tournament. The Bulldog bowlers have also been invited to bowl in the State Tournament on March 11 at Bell-Air Lanes in Montclair.

Leading the squad are senior Ed Turin, juniors Bob Budish, Tom Pozanski, Art Buzin and Steve Shafman and sophomore Lou Stein. Senior Mark Shapiro joined the first team for four of its games.

Buzin, a relatively new addition to the starting team, has the highest average with 169, followed by Turin with 166. Tom Pozanski, third with a 165, nevertheless is considered by Socca to be the "most consistent and outstanding player on the team, despite his average. He had two bad matches, but otherwise has six 200-games, as well as the high game--225--and the high series--

123 and unlimited, respectively, both captured fourth place in the districts, the only Bulldogs to reach the semi-finals. Both are seniors. Also competing were Dave Pierson at 106, Jon Brent at 115, Dale Liss at 130, Stu Cohen at 136, Gary Haydu at 141, Howard Rubenstein at 146, Doug Jayne at 157 and Al Silverman at 168.

Representing the junior varsity at the tournament were two weeks ago, juniors Pierson, 123 and Tom Small at 136 both showed well--Borrus--reaching the finals in his weight class, and Small the semi-finals.

Head coach Tom McCabe stated, "Although we were a little disappointed by the overall record of the team, it is promising to note that some 45 boys ended the season with us, a lot of them underclassmen. This is a good trend, especially since it provides us with more and better experienced wrestlers. Next year we certainly hope for a better record, considering those who are returning."

Co-captains Liss and Goldhammer, Cohen, Rubenstein, Jayne and Silverman are graduating, joined by Ed Camaleri, a varsity man from last season who competed in two bouts; Joe Sarva, who did a fine job for a short time; Larry Johnson, a four-year man on this mats; and Pete Mullin, who competed regularly at 115.

RETURNING VARSITY MEN include Pierson and Haydu, sophomores, and Brent, Borrus and Small, juniors, along with Brian Zabelski, a junior heavyweight who did well until he was injured at mid-season. They will also be joined by promising sophomores Gary Glasberg, Barry Snyder and David May, freshmen Bob Lyons, Mike Poppolillo, and Keith Pressing, and junior Gary Voulburgh.

Also participating this year were juniors Rocky Ienna, Mark Paul and Jeff Ross; sophomores Rick Damiano, Joe Priori, Dennis Insley, Gary Mayer, Ross Pliadon and John Ranney and freshmen Sergio DiLallo, Charlie Kegan, Doug Sedstrom, Gary Jayne, Mike Kipton, Bob McCarthy, Al Russo, Harry Waxman and Robert Sternbach.

Dayton defeated David Hierarchy Regional High School of Kenilworth, Arthur L. Johnson Regional of Clark, and Thomas Jefferson of Elizabeth. The team lost to Westfield, Cranford, Madison, Rahway, Governor Livingston Regional of Berkeley Heights, Summit, Hillside and Plainfield. The scores of last Saturday's district competition were Union, 79; Hillside, 56; Millburn, 50; Columbia of Maplewood, 37; Summit, 36; Thomas Jefferson, 13; Kenilworth, 12; Springfield 5.

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School freshman basketball team, under the direction of coach Jack Palfi, shows great promise for the future. The Bulldog frosh compiled a season record of 6-8, largely because of key injuries which contributed to the final four losses of the season.

They certainly did a good job, and we look forward to seeing them on the junior varsity court next season, when they should do fairly well. The boys still require a lot of work, but so do all freshman teams," commented Palfi. "The leading man on the team was Frank Buccell, the top scorer, and Fred Gold, the lead backcourt man who helped control the team's play throughout the season. When both boys were injured in the ending part of the season, the team missed them."

"Danny D'Andrea, the second highest scorer on the team, also earned the top rebounding spot with Dave Espelino. Woody Young was the defensive standout, and both Charlie Foster and Keith Brownlie developed considerably throughout the season."

The frosh defeated Kawameeb Junior High School of Union twice, and Governor Livingston Regional High School of Berkeley Heights, Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School of Clark and each of the Cranford Junior High schools, Orange Ave. and Hillside Ave.

Other members of the freshman team included Gary Fox, Phil Stokes, Richard Deutch, Donald Lan, Ricky Williams, Tom Campbell, Bob Sasse, Lou Vasilov, Ricky Rawitz and John Edwards. Serving as managers were Barry Mitterhoff and Peter Meiderdieck.

High scorers in the Temple Beth Ahm Sisterhood League at Hy-Way Bowl were Joanne Silverstein, 174-466; Lois Kalish, 156-447; Shirley Kurtz, 166-450; Marilyn Lipton, 150; Fran Golden, 154-417; Rita Cohen, 165-433; Diane Blum, 152-426; Arlene Felt, 141; Bernice Wyman, 164-451; Sylvia Koris, 154; 406; Myrna Wasserman, 163; Pearl Maeder, 177-402; Bernice Kurtzer, 419; Shirley Straus, 405; Joyce Rosenkrantz, 161-403; Babe Greer, 153; Frieda Pedinoff, 164-463, and Doty Weinberg, 154-411.

Dayton to play tonight in state tourney game

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School basketball team will face Long Branch tonight at 7 at Rutgers University, New Brunswick, in the opening round of the State Group III Tournament.

JV squad ends basketball year with 10-8 mark

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School junior varsity basketball team closed its season last week with a 10-8 record, and a 1-1 tournament mark.

According to coach Mike Ianelli, "There has been a steady and continuous improvement since the season's start. This has been due to the keen desire and hard work exhibited by everyone on the squad throughout the year. There is a lot of talent on the team which should serve to help our varsity considerably next year, assuming that the boys continue to improve at the same rate they have."

The JV cageers, throughout their scheduled competition defeated every team in the Watchung Conference at least once, with the exception of Governor Livingston Regional High School of Berkeley Heights in Union County Tournament competition, they did a superb job against St. Patrick's (whose varsity won the UCT), beating them handsily.

In the next game against top-seeded Abraham Clark High School of Roselle, the Bulldogs were down by only three with two minutes remaining, when their defense broke down. If there had not been key injuries to Steve Lips early in the season, and Joel Schwartz later on, the JVs might have done much better.

Leading the squad were center David Margulies, a top rebounder and scorer; Ralph Lozano, high scorer and a tough man on the boards; Denny Lester, Alan Garowitz and Leo Reichold. Also vital was the depth provided by the "second team," comprised of Ken Kufnos, Jim Komzer, Bob Fielding, Dave Cohen, Mark Tenna, Mike Davis, Alan Weisberg and Burton Kravetz. Every boy who started the season stayed with the team throughout.

4 top teams sweep matches for week in league for boys

The top four clubs all swept their matches last week in the Friday Afternoon Boys' Bowling League. The Tigers and the Rangers were tight at the top. The Tigers and the Rangers remain in a tie for first place, while the Falcons and the Warriors are two games away from the leaders. The boys roll at the Springfield Bowl, and the league is sponsored by the Springfield Recreation Department.

With Mike Levine and Steve Harris leading the way, the Tigers won a pair of important games from the Royals last week. Mike Levine rolled his best of the year with a 321 series to lead all bowlers in the match. Steve Harris also effective for the Tigers with a 291 series. Bruce Cohen was the top bowler for the Royals.

Scott Prussing continued his hot bowling of the past few weeks, as he paced the Rangers to their 11th and 12th consecutive victories in league play. Scott rolled a 331 series to pitch the Rangers to the Chiefs last week. The Rangers began their win streak some six weeks ago, and their surge has moved them into a first place tie. Dave Rubin and Drew Shulman also rolled well for the Rangers last week. Dave rolled a 259 series, while Drew topped 252-pins in the match. Gary Neifeld was the leader of the Chiefs last week. Gary rolled a 242 series.

The Falcons won two games last week behind their league-leading bowler, Stuart Liebeskind. Stuart rolled a 290 series last week to pace the sweep over the Hawks. Dave Schaffner's 255 two-game total was also effective for the Falcons. Tom Lowy paced the Hawk attack with a 240 total for the match.

The Warriors remained very much in contention last Friday as they swept an important series from the Chargers. Roy Greenberg paced the Warrior sweep; as he rolled a 279 series total. Peter Koppik with a 263 two-game total was effective for the winners. David Chetkin was the leading bowler for the Chargers. Dave had another good afternoon as he rolled a 264 two-game total.

Stuart Liebeskind continues to pace all bowlers in the race for the high individual average crown. Stuart holds an eight-pin lead over second-place Scott Prussing. Stuart is rolling at a 141 while Scott's average is 133. Prussing, however, has picked up seven pins in the past three weeks with his hot bowling.

Roy Greenberg with a 129 season average is in third place, while Gary Neifeld's 128 average makes him the league's fourth best bowler. Stan Slater is holding down fifth with a 126 average. The remaining five boys among the top 10 are: Robert Goodman, 124; Steve Harris, 124; Howie Levine, 121; Mark Berkowitz, 119; and Mickey Harmon, 116.

California remains unbeaten in basketball league for boys

California continued to roll in State League play, as it rolled by Kansas last week to remain as the lone undefeated quintet in league play. The gold-shirted California squad has defeated all comers in its first seven starts. State League play will be at the Florence Goodinier School at Saturday afternoon. This 10-team basketball league is sponsored by the Springfield Recreation Department as part of its youth basketball program.

California eased past Kansas last week by a final count of 20 to 10. The tall California squad picked up the lead in the second period of the game and rolled to an easy victory. Bob Goodman, returning to action for the league leaders this week, paced the winners with eight points. Bob tallied three field goals and two fouls. Joe Pepe of the Kansas team led all scorers in the contest, as he netted nine points to account for all but one of the Kansas' game total. Joe, a rookie in league play, scored in every period.

Steve Harris played another good game for California in this contest. Steve, who broke a scoring famine last week in the big Utah game, tallied six points last Saturday for California. Mark Berkowitz, also returning to action for California, tallied nine points, while last Saturday's hero, Leon Margules, hit on a free throw for the league leaders. Peter Gelwarg was good from the free throw line for the Kansas team.

FLORIDA SENT Utah down to its second defeat in as many weeks, as the Floridians took the measure of Utah last Saturday by the score of 19 to 12. The victory for Florida moved them into a second-place tie with Utah and Oklahoma. The three quintets have each dropped two games. High-scoring George Robbins paced the fierce Florida attack which carried the team to victory. George scored a game high of 13 points. George scored the seven points in the second period, while his team-mates held Utah scoreless. This surge provided Florida with the margin of victory.

Jeff Sarokin, with a pair of second-half buckets, contributed to the Florida victory, while Mike Klarfeld scored from the field for the winners. Steve Zwillman with six points paced the Chargers, while Gavin Widom, Bruce Rosow and Mike Sanders each tallied two points for the talented Utah team.

ANOTHER GAME last week saw Oklahoma move into the championship picture with a 24 to 14 victory over Iowa. Arnie Blumenfeld had his best game of the campaign, as he paced the Oklahoma team with eight points on four field goals. In all, seven players scored for Oklahoma to provide a well-balanced attack. Vincent Davis and Gary Schulman each scored four points on two buckets for the Okies, while Dave Chetkin hit three points for the winners. Buckets by Gary Neifeld and Mark Weber, and a good free throw

Cornell seizes Ivy lead as Dartmouth tops Yale

Cornell moved to the top of the Ivy League last week, as it obtained sole possession of first place, however, over its high position to a scrappy Dartmouth squad, which knocked over its second consecutive league leader, Dartmouth upset Yale last week to knock the Elis from their lofty perch. The Ivy League plays each Saturday afternoon at the Florence Gaudineer School. The league is the final stage of development in the Springfield Recreation Department's youth basketball program.

Dartmouth which dropped its first five games of the year, had a complete reversal of form in the second round of the campaign. Two weeks ago, it upset Princeton and knocked the Tigers from first place, while last week it turned back Yale by the score of 41 to 17. Yale, which was never in the game, as the score indicates, had been in a first place tie prior to the start of play last week. Dartmouth once again was paced to victory by a strong and determined team effort. Seven players scored for the Big Green to give them a well-balanced scoring attack.

Danny Silverman led the Dartmouth scorers with 13 points. Danny was also a tower of strength on both backboards, as was Billy Schwab for Dartmouth. Bill hit for six points with four coming from the free throw line. Scott Prussing played one of his finest games for Dartmouth. Scotty played his usual fine hustling defense, while contributing 10 points on five buckets. Jimmy Schoch scored three points for Dartmouth, but showed his contribution to the victory with his court generalship and sharp passing. Ray Danziger scored four points in a starting role for Dartmouth, while a rookie, Gary Ties, was good for three points.

Art Weisbrod was most of the struggling Yale offense. Art tallied 13 points for Yale and turned in a fine game. Yale had its hands full attempting to move the ball against the hustling Dartmouth defense. Alan Schlanger hit three points for Yale, and Lee Adler scored one from the free throw line.

33 to 16 verdict over Harvard. Bob Janukowicz of Princeton was once again the outstanding player on the floor. Bob, who leads the league in scoring and who captains the Minuteman team, tallied 21 points in this game. Bob scored seven times from the field and was good on seven of eight foul shots. Bob also controlled both backboards to give Princeton control of the ball throughout this game. Bruce Jefferies tallied five points for Princeton. Bob Karlberg scored three points for Princeton, as did Larry Friedman. Bobby Zucker hit a free throw to complete the scoring for the winning team.

Jay Silverman and Marc Hollander paced the Harvard attack. Jay was good on four long jumpers for eight points, while Marc tallied five points for the Harvard squad. Denny Martino hit a bucket for the Harvard team, and Howie Alexander was good on a shot from the charity line.

The tight battle for the league scoring crown continues between Bob Janukowicz of Princeton and Eddie Graessle of Cornell. Bob has tallied 130 points in his first seven games, while Eddie's total for the same number of games played is 125 points. Alan Schlanger of Yale lost ground in the scoring race last week. Alan is in third place with 89 points. Mitch Wolff of Columbia is the fourth best scorer with 51 season points, while Harvard's Jay Silverman is in fifth place with a season total of 48 points.

Tie for top position continues in action of Sandmeier boys

The Tigers survived a terrific scare from the Pirates last week, while the Rockets rolled over the Chargers and the two teams remained tied at the top of the Sandmeier loop standings with identical records of 5 and 1. The boys in the Sandmeier Small-Fry League meet in active competition each Saturday afternoon at the Thelma Sandmeier School. The league is sponsored by the Recreation Department as part of its youth basketball program.

The Tigers-Pirates match last Saturday was a thriller, with the final verdict going to the Tigers by the score of 11 to 10. The high-scoring league leaders jumped to an early lead in this game, only to see the spunky Pirates coming roaring back with a second-half rally. With the Tigers' league-leading scorer, Bobby Lee, notching the first four points of the game, the Tigers were off fast, and hit a pair of free throws in the final period to finish the game with six points. Mitch Kurtzer tallied four points and played a tremendous second half to lead the Pirate rally which fell short in the final seconds. Other scorers for the Pirates were Mark Pizzuto, Scott Meyerson and Dave Brown, while Leon Rewitz, Mike Nebart and Alan Weisman dented the cords for the Tigers.

THE ROCKETS had a much easier time in maintaining their share of first place. Bruce Hoffman, with five points in the first half and nine in the game, led the Rocket attack which was off fast in this game. The final score was Rockets, 15 - Comets 4. Joe Nattello hit a pair of third-period buckets for the winners, while Rich Goldhammer tallied a field goal for the Rockets in the final period. Mike Marder paced the Comets with a pair of free throws, while Andy Kaplan and Don Hezler each scored from the foul line to complete the Comet scoring.

THE JETS moved into a challenging position last Saturday, as they defeated the Raiders by the score of 11 to 6. Billy Bohrod, who has been a hot scorer in the past few weeks, paced the winner's attack. Billy tallied a game-high of seven points. Bobby Pinn and Jeff Schuler, each scored a bucket for the Jets, while Derek Nardone completed their scoring with a foul shot. Doug DeLeonard was effective from the free throw line for the Raiders. Doug hit on four shots from the charity line. Larry Klarfeld scored from the field for the Raiders.

IN ANOTHER CONTEST last Saturday afternoon, the Chiefs dumped the Chargers by the score of 9 to 5. The Chiefs took an early lead in this game and were never headed. Steve Cohen led the Chief attack with five points, while Ed Hockstein scored four points for the Chiefs. Roger Frank played a strong floor game for the winners. All of the Charger points came as the result of foul shots. Alan Geist with two from the line paced the attack, while David Manteal, Jeff Marshall and Bruce Schuler each hit a singleton foul shot to complete the scoring.

The Nationals and the Aggies continue to impress in the Caldwell-Small-Fry League. The two squads won very easy victories last week to remain deadlocked for first place in league play. The boys meet in competition each Saturday afternoon at the James Caldwell School, as part of the Springfield Recreation Department's youth basketball program.

The Nationals took on the highly rated Celtics in play last week. The Nats turned it a top team effort and took away an easy 17 to 3 victory over the Celts. Mike Levine and Paul Dubbin did the majority of the damage for the league leaders. Mike tallied eight points on four field goals, while Paul hit three points. Eric Greene hit on a second period bucket for the Celtics, while Gene Meyer's free throw in the final session completed the scoring in the contest.

THE AGGIES kept pace with the Nats at the top of the league standings, as they won easily over the Knicks last Saturday afternoon. The Aggies crushed the Knicks by the final score of 19 to 2. Five players were in the scoring column to give the Aggies a well-balanced attack. Jimmy Edwards paced the Aggie scoring with six points, while Frank Zarello and Wayne Rutz each hit four points for the winners. A field goal by Rich Feldman and a free throw and field goal by Howie Forman completed the scoring for the Aggies. Larry Koldorf hit a pair of foul shots to give the Knicks all their points.

THE LAKERS knocked off the Billikens last week in an evenly-played contest. The final score of this see-saw battle was Lakers, 17 - Billikens 15. The Lakers, tallying six big points in the final session, held the Billikens to pull out the victory. Ken Combs and Ed Federovitch paced the winning Laker attack. Both boys hit three shots from the field for six points. John Gartling scored three points for the Lakers, while Carl Melroy scored a bucket. Don Hodstrom's six points were high for the Billies, while Kevin Mercer scored four points for the scrappy Billies' attack. Buckets by Cal Ackerman and Tommy Wisniewski and a free throw by Mitch Hoffman completed the scoring for the Billikens.

IN ANOTHER MATCH last Saturday, the Bullets scored in every period to down the Pistons by the score of 18 to 12 in a hard-played game. Robert Hydock of the Bullets paced all scorers, as he drilled in nine points. Frank Geiger hit on pair of important shots from the field for the winners, while Jim Andrews scored three foul shots. Jim Lofredo with four points on two buckets showed the way for the Pistons. Steve Dysart, John Wachtel, and Gregg Prussing each tallied a scoring for the day.

Minutemen face East Orange team, continue in tournament held in Nutley

The Springfield Minutemen raised their season record to a lofty 11 victories against one loss with a pair of regular season triumphs last week. Last Wednesday evening, the Minutemen turned back previously unbeaten Elizabeth of Elizabeth by the score of 56 to 42. Saturday evening, the Minutemen had no match in a squad from the Millburn Recreation Department. The final score of this contest was Minutemen, 57 - Millburn, 13.

The Springfield boys will meet a team from East Orange tonight at the Florence Gaudineer School. Game time is set for 7:30. They will also continue this weekend in the Nutley Invitational Tournament.

Each member of the Springfield starting unit was outstanding throughout this game. The team captain, Bob Janukowicz, paced the Springfield scoring column, as he pumped in 13 points in limited play. Jay Silverman in Springfield's back court had his highest output of the season, as he scored 11 points. Jay also contributed a top defensive game to the Springfield victory.

Miniman bowls 2-game 362 to feature boys' league action

The Hurricanes continue to roll past all teams in the Thursday Afternoon Boys' Bowling League. The Hurricanes swept another two-game series last week to move their league-leading margin to a full four games. The boys roll in match play each week at the Springfield Bowl in a league sponsored by the Recreation Department.

The Hurricane sweep last week came at the expense of the Hornets. Ronnie Silverman and Todd Herman were the big names in the Hurricanes' scoring column. Ronnie topped 276 pins in the two games, while Todd had a 270 total in the match. Steve Grau was the top performer for the Hornets. Steve rolled a 269 series total.

The Jets pulled even with the Rockets in a tie for third place, as the Jets swept two games from the Rockets last Thursday. Karl Korovity of the Jets rolled his best of the year, as he paced both teams with a 287 total. Bill Schwab, who rolled a 271 series, also bowled well for the winners. Marc Hollander was the top bowler for the Rockets. Marc rolled a series total of 271.

IN ORDER to be effective, programs to discourage and prevent smoking should be initiated before youths reach the age of 15 years. Results from a follow-up study of smoking habits among teenagers by Harvard University indicate that personal attitudes toward smoking tend to be formed before boys and girls reach that age.

ENCOURAGE YOUR CHILDREN to emulate George Washington, but not where dental health is concerned. Our first president had a long history of troubles with his teeth, and later association reminds parents that dental health habits must be learned in childhood. In fact, youngsters should have their first dental examinations at the age of two and one-half to three years -- the time when all their primary teeth have erupted.

A TRANSPLANTED segment of a small intestine survived for more than six months in a laboratory animal, the longest survival time reported -- before it was rejected by the animal's immunological system, a Northwestern University surgeon reports. A combination of azathioprine and prednisone, two drugs that suppress the immunological system, were credited with the extension of life by the transplant. The surgeon warns that the rejection problem still presents too many barriers to attempt intestinal transplants in humans.

"PICKLED" HAMS aren't produced by tipsy porkers, but many hams are pickled during processing by a few of needless injecting a controlled, uniform cure. Allbright-Nell, Chicago, reports this reduces curing time to hours compared to days required by older processes.

A CHEMICAL TREATMENT that makes it possible to process tomatoes into products of practically and desired consistency -- from thin juice to firm gel -- has been developed by U.S. Department of Agriculture scientists. Consistency contributes to the quality of juice, catsup and most other tomato products.

OLD AGE is relative. Evidence from the existence of a new subatomic particle, a three pi resonance, indicates it is extremely short-lived. It exists for only 10 septillionths of a second before it decays into three pi mesons. To visualize how short a time this is, place 22 zeroes followed by the digit one after a decimal point.

THE SPRINGFIELD MINUTEMEN met Kearny in the first round of the Nutley Invitational Tournament last Friday evening at the Franklin School in Nutley. Springfield was victorious in this opening round game, as the team turned back Nutley by a score of 52 to 23. The Minutemen will move against the Raiders in a second round game on Saturday evening at 7 at the same school site in Nutley. The finals will be held Saturday evening.

The quarter-final game against Kearny saw the Minutemen pull away to a first period lead of 13 to 4 and a half-time advantage of 27 to 8, as they were never tested in the game. The Minutemen received a well-balanced scoring attack throughout the game, as the triumph was a true team effort.

Bob Janukowicz paced the team off the boards as he generated 10 rebounds. Bob also tallied 10 points in this big game for the Minutemen. Bob's partner in the front court on the Springfield team, Eddie Graessle, was also effective in this contest. Ed tallied 11 points and cleared the boards six times. Alan Schlanger with seven points also contributed heavily to the victory. Alan was effective with driving shots and played exceptionally well on defense.

Jay Silverman in the Springfield back court played a solid game, both on offense and defense. Jay tallied eight points and accounted for many steals. Marc Hollander played well in a starting role for Springfield. Dave Miniman turned in a strong game from the bench. Dave tallied five points. Jimmy Schoch was very effective for the Minutemen in the second half. Jim played a sound floor game and accounted for two important buckets.

Kearny's problem was moving the ball against the tough Springfield defense. The Minutemen grabbed many free balls, as Kearny was unable to get the ball into the key.

A forward, Tommy Meeks, with seven points, was Kearny's high scorer.

Ask Amy

Dear Amy: On "New Year's Eve" I accidentally dated a wrong number and the most engaging female voice answered. Rather than waste the dime, I struck up a conversation with her and over the ensuing weeks carried on a "correspondence" by phone. I have never seen her nor do I know her real name, but this I know, I have fallen in love with her voice.

Now it has been two weeks since she has last called me and I don't know what to do. I'm always thinking about her voice. I have read many books on psychology and sociology to try to find out how I could be in love with a voice. Could you help me, or tell me please, what is wrong with me? (You know, I can never forget the way she says "Anyway.")

Dear Anyway: Falling in love with a voice via the telephone can be quite frustrating. You're a pretty slow operator if you haven't been able to see the "voice" in the flesh. Invest another dime. If the voice still wants to remain a mystery, you can assume this number is already connected and she is just a "phony."

Dear Amy: I have been going out with a wonderful fellow who took me to all the nice places. He must spend a small fortune on our good times. Suddenly, he just dropped out of sight and I never heard from him again. I finally found out he had lost his job and has no money to take me, or any other girl out.

How can I let him know that I value his friendship more than his ability to afford good times for me?

Dear Shelley: Your fellow, without knowing it, has invested his "small fortune" wisely. Call him up and tell him though there is little change in his pockets, there's no change in the way you feel about him!

Dear Amy: I'm engaged to a man 24 years old. We have no problems except that his mother and mine. His mother will have nothing to do with me. I've seen her twice in the past 4 years that I have been going with Steve (which isn't his real name). She can't get used to me because I'm taking away her son. This doesn't bother him. He says he'll marry whether she likes it or not. My mother refuses me her permission because I'll be marrying out of my religion.

Amy, I want to marry this man more than anything. We plan to be married this summer. I'll be almost 21. Is there any way I can change my mother's mind? We have gotten into so many fights. She has said we go to the Catholic Church. I'm not changing my religion but intend to raise our children his way. He is a strict church goer. I'm not. Can you please help me?

Dear Doris: Family and religious opposition can be pretty tough for a young couple who wish to marry. Newlyweds have enough problems to face without serious ones such as yours. Many marriages end up on the rocks due to the problems you will have to cope with. By the same token, many are successful. I urge you both to visit a marriage counselor for professional advice. You both need to know what you are getting yourselves in for if your marriage becomes a reality and if it is to be a happy one.

Dear Amy: I am a teenager writing this letter for my mother. My mother is in love with a married man. He is in love with her also. She (my Mom) doesn't know how to tell his father, and her beau doesn't know how to tell his wife.

We would like your advice as to how to tell the others. Thank you and sign her... Married and In Love

Dear In Love: Your mother and her beau are running a mutual admiration society and involving a child, no less, to do their dirty work. In my book, they are pretty slick, low-down and disreputable. If you want my advice, your mother needs to tell her problems to a psychiatrist!

Actor praises star of Ormont picture

With almost 100 movie actresses in and out of his arms during 30 years on the screen, James Mason can speak about them with authority. Concerning his leading lady, Lynn Redgrave, with whom he stars in "Georgy Girl" British film, which began its 10th week at the Ormont Theater, East Orange, yesterday, he says: "I don't have to be a prophet to predict that she'll soon become one of the most popular stars the screen has ever presented."

Mason believes the secret of Miss Redgrave's powerful dramatic ability is her brief but impressive background as a stage actress. "She's appeared in everything from Shakespeare to Brecht, working with actors who are dedicated to the art of drama," he says.

Two colleges join UJC in exchange evaluation project

One of the pressing problems in higher education today is how to involve faculties to a greater degree in policy-making in American colleges and universities.

The Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, accrediting agency for this region, shares this concern. In an attempt to involve faculty members in the accrediting process, the association has established an experimental faculty-exchange evaluation involving Union Junior College, Cranford, Mount Vernon Junior College, Washington, D.C., and York Junior College, York, Pa.

Under the experimental plan, the same 12-man team will evaluate in turn the three colleges and all members will participate fully in each evaluation, including that of their own institution. The first visit will begin Sunday at Union Junior College. In 1968, the team will visit Mount Vernon and a year later York.

Although all members of the team will participate fully in each of the three evaluations, there is no further relationship among them, Dr. Kenneth C. MacKay, president of Union Junior College, said. Each evaluation is being prepared separately, will be conducted independently, and will be acted upon individually by the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education of the Middle States Association.

The new plan calls for the three colleges in effect to evaluate themselves and each other. Union Junior College, Mount Vernon Junior College, and York Junior College were selected to try out the new approach, because all were coming up for reaccreditation and all had previously "shown evidence of quality and depth."

The evaluation team, headed by Dr. Charles Laffin, president of the Agricultural and Technical Institute of the State University of New York, includes the president of Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, N.Y., Dr. Richard H. Heinicke of the University of Pennsylvania, Collegeville, Pa., Dr. William S. Pettit, for the Union Junior College visit, the team will include a representative of the New Jersey State Education Department, Herbert F. Holmes of the Office of Community and Two-Year College Education.

Union Junior College's representatives on the team will be Prof. Saul Urkin of Plainfield, chairman of the Social Sciences Department and a UJC alumnus; Dr. Marcella Meyers of West Orange, biology instructor; and Anatole K. Colbert of Cranford, counseling officer.

Over the past two years, committees of the Union Junior College faculty and staff prepared a 200-page self-evaluation report, which was submitted in January to the Commission of Institutions of Higher Education. This effort began on Dec. 16, 1964, at a faculty meeting when seven special committees were appointed to make the self-evaluation.

Headed these committees were: the Nature and Functions of the Institution, Prof. Herman J. Bielefeld of Summit, chairman of the humanities department; the Results of the Educational Program in Design to Produce, Miss Dorothea Wierama of Morristown, registrar; the Students, Prof. Orkitt; the Faculty and Instruction, Dr. Kenneth W. Iversen of Cranford, dean of Curriculum; Prof. Elmer Wolf of Cranford, chairman of the engineering department; Instructional Resources and Facilities, Prof. George P. Marks, III, of Roselle Park, litigation; and Prof. Marion W. Leary of Cranford, nursing coordinator and financial aid officer, and Control, Organization and Administration, Prof. Walter B. Mattimore of Clinton, chairman of the English department.

The new plan calls for the three colleges in effect to evaluate themselves and each other. Union Junior College, Mount Vernon Junior College, and York Junior College were selected to try out the new approach, because all were coming up for reaccreditation and all had previously "shown evidence of quality and depth."

The evaluation team, headed by Dr. Charles Laffin, president of the Agricultural and Technical Institute of the State University of New York, includes the president of Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, N.Y., Dr. Richard H. Heinicke of the University of Pennsylvania, Collegeville, Pa., Dr. William S. Pettit, for the Union Junior College visit, the team will include a representative of the New Jersey State Education Department, Herbert F. Holmes of the Office of Community and Two-Year College Education.

Union Junior College's representatives on the team will be Prof. Saul Urkin of Plainfield, chairman of the Social Sciences Department and a UJC alumnus; Dr. Marcella Meyers of West Orange, biology instructor; and Anatole K. Colbert of Cranford, counseling officer.

Over the past two years, committees of the Union Junior College faculty and staff prepared a 200-page self-evaluation report, which was submitted in January to the Commission of Institutions of Higher Education. This effort began on Dec. 16, 1964, at a faculty meeting when seven special committees were appointed to make the self-evaluation.

Headed these committees were: the Nature and Functions of the Institution, Prof. Herman J. Bielefeld of Summit, chairman of the humanities department; the Results of the Educational Program in Design to Produce, Miss Dorothea Wierama of Morristown, registrar; the Students, Prof. Orkitt; the Faculty and Instruction, Dr. Kenneth W. Iversen of Cranford, dean of Curriculum; Prof. Elmer Wolf of Cranford, chairman of the engineering department; Instructional Resources and Facilities, Prof. George P. Marks, III, of Roselle Park, litigation; and Prof. Marion W. Leary of Cranford, nursing coordinator and financial aid officer, and Control, Organization and Administration, Prof. Walter B. Mattimore of Clinton, chairman of the English department.

There's a bit of the beast in every bug.

It doesn't take much to unleash the savage fury of a Volkswagen.

Take almost any old VW, replace the body, make a few simple adjustments, and you've got a Formula Vee racer.

How can a mild-mannered, practical, everyday Volkswagen convert so easily into something so delightfully impractical?

In the words of the Formula Vee International Manual: "Volkswagen components seem to have been made expressly for use in a racing car."

"The engine, air-cooled and mostly aluminum, is light for its power output and already adapted to the rear engine concept of modern racing cars."

"Its rugged construction provides a power plant which seems to be practically indestructible, even at racing speeds."

"Operating costs are amazingly low. One set of tires will ordinarily last more than a season and one oil change a year is sufficient."

It seems that the same things that make the VW a sensible car for people who aren't in any particular hurry to get somewhere also make the Formula Vee a sensible car for people who are in a big hurry to get nowhere.

Esso summer jobs to go to 4 students from County Tech

Esso Research and Engineering Co. of Linden, will employ four students this summer from the chemical technology program at Union County Technical Institute in Mountainside. The students will undertake their positions in the analytical department, upon successful completion of their first-year program at the institute.

This formal summer training program for technicians is a pilot program undertaken by Esso Research and Engineering and is an extension of their cooperation with schools which train chemical technicians. It provides the students with an opportunity to relate their first year of school to industrial problems and to preview the significance of their second year of studies. For Esso, the program represents an opportunity to evaluate the training of technicians with a view to future employment.

Coordinating the training of the students at school is Harry Sheather of Elizabeth who has the cooperation and assistance of Paul K. Starnes and Robert A. Hofstader of Esso. Starnes has been active for several years as a member of the chemical advisory committee at Union County Technical Institute, while Hofstader is an extension instructor in mathematics and chemistry at the school. Both Esso and the institute are certain that their pilot program will be successful and encourage the participation of other industrial firms in similar programs.

City Federal Savings names new director

Robert E. Long Sr., president of Traveling, Inc. of Elizabeth, Westfield, Summit and Chatham has been elected to the Board of Directors of City Federal Savings and Loan Association. The announcement was made today by Everett C. Sherbourne, president of the $150 million financial institution.

He founded Traveling, Inc. in 1933 and has since lectured on travel at the Elizabeth Adult Education School and served on their Board of Directors. Long is also a past president of the N.J. Chapter of the American Society of Travel Agents.

The program will be held for eight consecutive Fridays from 2:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. Students who are presently in training at Newark State College in the field of special education will work directly with the children. The ratio of instructors to students will be one to three.

Coordinating the program are Dr. Edward LaCrosse of Newark State College, director of the Child Study Center; Henry Douma of Newark State College; Mrs. Jean Olsen, member of the Union County Unit of NJARC; Dom Chlosky, executive director of Union County NJARC, and George Hoffman, branch executive of Five Points YMCA.

The parents and children met Thursday for an orientation program and discussed the purpose and manner in which the program would be conducted.

The program, only one of its kind in the area, is a team effort on the part of the groups sharing in the coordinating and development.

Those interested in the program and those who would like more information may call the Five Points YMCA, 218 Salem rd., Union, 687-5570.

FDU to sponsor institute on Recreation Planning

A Community Recreation Planning Institute will be held at the Florham-Madison campus of Fairleigh Dickinson University, June 17-19, according to Dr. Samuel Prast, Assistant to the President at Fairleigh Dickinson University. The recreation institute, made possible by a federal grant, will provide communities in Essex, Union and Hudson counties with the opportunity of having one of their own civic-oriented representatives trained in becoming a community recreation leader, sensitive to the individual, the community, and the nature of a community recreation program.

Fairleigh Dickinson University's objective is to aid the communities in preparing a recreation program, arising from citizen action and reflecting the needs of all age groups from pre-school to senior citizens. Letters have been sent to community leaders requesting their support in the selection of community representatives who will participate in the recreation program and then return to their communities to plan, stimulate and implement broad-based comprehensive recreation programs for all age groups.

The Community Recreation Planning Institute in June will encompass six major areas: Social Significance of Recreation Today; Methods of Assessment of Characteristics of Communities and Their Recreation; Evaluation of Existing Community Recreation Programs; Methods of Designing and Establishing a Comprehensive Community Recreation Program; Study of a Comprehensive Model Program, and Selected Experience in Components of a Master Plan, including Arts, Social Interaction and Athletic Activities.

These programs will be supplemented with guest speakers, seminars, lecture demonstrations and panel discussions. The faculty will consist of professors from Fairleigh Dickinson University, along with experts from cooperating groups in each seminar area. Emphasis will be placed on the planning of recreation projects in terms of local community resources. The seminar topics will include the following: Painting and Sculpture in Recreation; Music in Recreation; Dramatics in Recreation; Dance in Recreation; Literature in Recreation; Social Recreation; Athletics in Recreation; Recreational Travel; Museums in Recreation; Audio-Visuals in Recreation; Coordination with Outdoor Education Programs of Public Schools; and Procedures and Guidelines for Selecting Recreation Professionals.

The mayors of the municipalities participating in the recreation program have been invited to attend the final sessions of the institute, so that recreation programs may be initiated at the conference. These action programs will then be introduced to the communities by the community leaders.

Among the communities participating in the recreation will be: Irvington, Newark, Kentwood, Linden, Mountainside, Roselle, Roselle Park, Springfield and Union.

Reduction in rates on telephone calls to total $3 million

A reduction in telephone rates which will save New Jersey Bell customers $4 million annually was announced this week by the State Board of Public Utility Commissioners.

William F. Hyland, president of the PUC, said New Jersey Bell Telephone Company agreed to the reduction following a review of the company's earnings initiated by the Commission.

Highlights of the reduction are:

1. Lowering the maximum rate for "after 8" and Sunday intrastate calls from 35 to 25 cents. The charges for all long distance state calls of over 20 miles during these time periods will also be reduced. The reductions will benefit approximately 17,100,000 calls made each year.
2. Expanding from three to four minutes the initial time period for all intrastate station-to-station calls in the 21 through 25-mile range affecting some 11,000,000 calls each year.
3. Reducing charges for almost 500,000 yearly person-to-person intrastate calls of certain distances.
4. Reducing by 50 percent the monthly rate for volume control sets, used by people with impaired hearing. There are about 16,000 of these phones in use in New Jersey at present.

The bulk of the savings for telephone users will come from a $3.3 million annual reduction in charges for "after 8" and Sunday long distance calls within the state. The new rates, which will save customers more than 40 percent on some calls, will apply to practically all customer-dialed station-to-station calls within New Jersey. The reduced rates will be effective March 1.

The increase of from three to four minutes in the basic time period applies to all intrastate station-to-station calls, day, evening or night, in the 21 to 25-mile range. For example, under this new rate schedule, all calls between Newark and New Brunswick, except person-to-person calls, will have a basic time period of four minutes.

The reduced charges will affect more than 17 million calls made annually during the "after 8" and Sunday calling times.

For And About Teenagers

THE WEEK'S LETTER: "I am a boy in the 9th grade. There is a girl in the same class and I like her. She talks to me, but always about her other so-called boyfriend, Jim. I was wondering whether I should ask her, either at school or at a basketball game - or do you think I should call her on the phone? Do you think I should ask her or should someone ask her for me? One more thing, how do I go about asking her?"

OUR REPLY: "What is it that you want to ask her? Does she like you? For a date? To go steady?"

In any event, do your own asking. You do not need a third party to speak for you when you have the opportunity to speak for yourself.

It would be wise to have a few dates before you ask a girl to go steady... if your parents and hers allow dating.

It would be wise to ask her before you telephone her at her home. Some parents do have rules about phone calls and you want to be sure you get off on the right foot.

If you have a teenage problem you want to discuss, or an observation to make, address your letter to FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS, COMMUNITY AND SUBURBAN PRESS SERVICE, FRANKFORT, KY.

Policing air pollution menace Rutgers trains cops in detection

It was just a little over 12 years ago that experts at Rutgers University warned that air-pollution-in-industrial-areas would remain a problem for the next 10 to 15 years despite efforts to curb it.

That prediction has turned out to be notably cautious.

Only recently an expert from the federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare described the suburban pollution problem in the New York-New Jersey metropolitan area

Schedule program on pollution control

A community discussion program entitled "The New Jersey Citizen's Role in Pollution Control" designed to alert the residents of communities in New Jersey to the problems of water and air pollution will be presented by Fairleigh Dickinson University at the Township of Teaneck Library, tomorrow. The program will be sponsored by Mayor Thomas J. Costa and Leo Wilkoczek of the Health Department of Teaneck and will be held at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the Township of Teaneck Library on Paul A. Volcker Municipal Green, Teaneck rd.

"The New Jersey Citizen's Role in Pollution Control" program consists of a videotaped presentation and a discussion period. Dr. Samuel Pratt assistant to the president of Fairleigh Dickinson University is the program director, and Dr. Souron Z. Avedikian is the editor of the videotaped production. Dr. Pratt indicated that the program is part of an overall plan designed to inform the public on the many different types of pollution in New Jersey. The projects already underway or planned include work on visual pollution, noise pollution and odor pollution in addition to air and water pollution. The videotaped community discussion was made possible by a federal grant under the provisions of Title I of the Higher Education Act of 1965. The topics discussed in the videotape include talks by nationally prominent speakers in the fields of science, education, government and industry.

as "the worst, the most critical in the United States."

And federal, state and local governments have started crash programs to fight the mounting air pollution menace to the nation's health.

One New Jersey community is doing something extra about it. Perth Amboy is the first community in the Garden State to take advantage of the offer by the Rutgers Cooperative Extension Service to train policemen in detecting air pollution control law violations.

Franklin B. Flower, the extension specialist at the Rutgers College of Agriculture and Environmental Science who conducts the lecture series, says that police officers fit into an air pollution control program ideally because they are already trained to view complaints objectively and make reports in a prescribed manner.

The course the Perth Amboy policemen took consists of four one-hour sessions. The newcomers and veterans, learned about the overall air-pollution problem, its relation to weather conditions, technical control methods and federal, state and municipal laws on air pollution.

THEY ALSO LEARNED about local conditions from the man in charge of municipal air pollution control who gave descriptions of probable sources. And they also learned how to report possible violations, how to estimate wind velocity and what technical terms they can use to describe odors.

"Police seldom make arrests for violations," Flower said. "Instead they point out a violation to the offender. Or they may draw attention to some simple source of air pollution, such as a car emitting too much smoke because it needs servicing."

"Of course, if the violation persists they refer the case to the community's pollution control officer."

So far Perth Amboy is the only community to take advantage of the offer to train policemen in detecting air pollution control law violations.

"But," said Flower, "the offer stands for any New Jersey community with an air pollution program in effect."

Agency schedules federal job exams

Michael J. O'Keefe, executive officer of the newly formed Interagency Board U.S. Civil Service Examiners for New Jersey, this week announced plans to hold examinations for stenographers and typists to fill vacancies in all federal offices in the state, except in Camden.

Salaries for the positions available range from $3,925 to $4,775 annually. This examination will supersede others announced by individual federal offices.

Persons interested in taking the examination were asked to send applications to the Interagency Board of the U.S. Civil Service Examiners for New Jersey, 1006 Broad st., Newark. Applications are available from this or most other federal offices in the state.

Paperback book described as boon to education by college coordinator

Editor's note: The following article was written by Don Bagin, coordinator of college relations, at Glassboro State College.

GLASSBORO - A paperback book! This exclamation might have been uttered by a frugal parent finding his son buying his reading material at the drugstore instead of the bookstore a few years ago.

A teacher finding his students engrossed in the offerings of the Mickey Spillane-led authors might have reacted the same way. What a difference a few years make.

Paperbacks are rapidly taking their place in the classroom. They are more popular with students than are the traditional hard-bound books. It seems the hard-bound book carries with it the idea of traditional, formal learning. There's nothing wrong with this type of learning, but to some students it is more difficult to swallow than the palatable paperback.

The popularity of the paperback is increasing. More and more schools are using it in classes, as well as for supplementary reading assignments.

Paperback books often produce dramatic and far-reaching effects in the classroom, according to the New Jersey State Department of Education. The Department conducted a study more than a year ago with the help of 8,400 students and 200 teachers in 50 elementary and secondary schools.

Both slow learners and the academically talented liked the paperback books (which is the way many prefer to refer to paperbacks).

Students branded as reluctant readers don't seem so reluctant, teachers claim. Near-literate were reading entire books and enjoying the experience, the study determined. Students generally felt that "paperbacks were easy to read" and that books brought about "exciting" reading time.

Students bought more books from the school and from local bookstores and found more time for leisure reading. They also spent more time discussing books and recommending authors to their friends; the report notes.

A real plus factor, as far as the kids are concerned, is the freedom which ownership permits. Since many of the inexpensive books became the students' property, they could mark them and underline sections without worrying about the end-of-the-year "cleanup campaign" on textbooks.

The adoption of paperback books in a school system is not always an easy undertaking. Their adoption causes administrative and teacher adjustments in budgets and in teaching approaches.

Are paperbacks panaceas? Certainly not. They do not make poor teachers excellent teachers. They do not overcome dull teaching. If they simply replace the hard-bound version of a classic, they don't magically perform wonders. When used in conventional "book report" fashion, they don't change students' reading habits or attitudes.

So what good are they? Individualized reading programs are possible with paperbacks. The oft-quoted "meet each child at his level" can effectively be done by assigning different books to different students.

Students are encouraged to build their own library because of the low cost of paperbacks. Retainers, who possibly had placed hard-bound books in the world of pre-tele- vision, take advantage of paperbacks, when they are available, it is found.

Teachers too have had to do a lot of catch-up reading. Since more titles and authors are available to students, it has become necessary for teachers to read, and in many cases, reread some books.

As even more good books become available in paperback form, the status of the paperback will grow.

Meanwhile, don't down a book just because it fits in someone's back pocket.

Turnpike ranked with 4 safest roads based on fatalities

More than 70 million vehicles traveled in excess of 1.9 billion miles on the New Jersey Turnpike during 1966. Out of this veritable flow of traffic emerged one of the best safety records in the Turnpike's 15-year history. It was announced this week by Turnpike Authority Chairman Joseph Morecraft Jr., who reported.

The New Jersey Turnpike was ranked among the four safest toll roads in the nation on the basis of fatalities. With a rate of 1.7, based on 100 million vehicle miles, it was tied with the Garden State Parkway for third place, according to statistics released by the National Safety Council.

Although the Hutchinson River Parkway, with no fatalities in 1966, and the Delaware Parkway with a fatality rate of 1.1, led the list, the New Jersey Turnpike's rating of 1.7 was achieved despite the fact that vehicles on the Turnpike covered 1,952,141,221 miles - 13,324,720 more than the other three toll roads combined.

The New Jersey Turnpike also maintained a commanding position among the country's 28 toll highways on the basis of all accidents. It placed seventh in this category with an accident rate of .88. It was preceded by six other toll facilities with lower rates but the New Jersey Turnpike's vehicular mileage was almost equal to that of the six other toll roads combined.

4-6 COMBAT DAYS
The famed 45th Infantry Division (Thunderbird), Oklahoma National Guard, fought through four D-Day landings in World War II and engaged a total of 436 combat days in the line. The D-Day landings included Sicily, Salerno, Anzio and Southern France. Early in December, 1951, units of the 45th filed into positions along the Korean battle line and immediately became the first National Guard division to blast the Communist enemy.

Cheaper in the long run.

Gas will never cost you much. (You'll get about 27 miles to the gallon.)
And the amount of oil you use is like a drop in the bucket. (It only takes 2.7 quarts and almost never needs more between changes.)
And the engine is air-cooled, so you don't have to spend a red cent for anti-freeze or rust inhibitors.
And you get more than your money's worth out of a set of tires (around 40,000 miles).
But don't think buying a new Volkswagen is just another get-rich-quick scheme!
You have to wait until the second set of tires wear out.
