Foreign students finish teaching stints

Two of the three foreign students at Newark State College, Union, moved one step closer to graduation last week when they completed a two-month assignment in senior student teaching. The third, a junior, will begin student teaching next year.

They are part of a growing foreign student program, according to Dr. Herbert Samenfeld, dean of students. The college traditionally welcomes foreign students but this year it became an educational associate of the Institute of International Education, which maintains offices at 809 United Nations Plaza, New York City. The Institute facilitates the mechanics of foreign study by screening and selecting through its overseas counseling services those students who can be expected to benefit from the experience.

At Newark State room and board at the men and women's dormitories are provided by scholarships from the Student Council. Tuition fees are waived by the State Department of Education in Trenton.

Ernesta Manuwalke, who comes from Nigeria, is studying to be a high school English teacher. His student teaching assignment has been at Union High School.

He is a graduate of a two-year teachers' training college and studied for six months at the University of London, where he had a Commonwealth scholarship. His preference in literature are "Tennyson" and the Russian writers; American pleasures, hot dogs and raw vegetables. He writes short stories in his free time.

GRACE ONIREMU, A major in general elementary education, is also from Nigeria and brings with her two years of experience as a teacher of first- and second graders in her hometown of Oro-Ago. She also attended a two-year training college there.

"I came to the United States in search of wider experience," she explained recently.

"I think that the people you meet, the places you visit, and the experiences you have make you a better teacher." She is winding up a student teaching experience with a class of fourth graders in School 12 in Elizabeth. Mizpah Nayo, a junior, is majoring in science. At first the young lady from Ghana wanted to become a doctor, but she decided upon a career in science teaching instead

Delay enlistments begun by Marines

The Marine Corps has begun its 120-day delay enlistment program, according to the corps recruiting office in Elizabeth. The program enables high school seniors to enlist in the Marine Corps while still continuing in school until graduation, and then leaving for active duty within 120 days after graduation.

Under the program, the 120 days of delay are credited toward the enlistee's total active duty time so that the military obligation is lessened, and promotions and pay increases come earlier in the enlistee's active duty. Further information on the program may be obtained from Gunnery Sgt. Hutter at the Marine Corps Recruiting Office in the Court House in Elizabeth (355-3009), or Sgt. Milton P. Dye, at the Five Points recruiting station, Union (686-8424).

French teacher to visit France in summer as chaperone for high school students' tour

A teacher of French at the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School in Springfield is going to jet across the Atlantic this summer with a group of students to attend classes at a campus in France.

From John F. Kennedy International Airport in New York on July 16 for Paris. They will drive from Le Bourget Airport by sightseeing bus to visit the Palace at Versailles, then continue to St. Malo.

LOCATED ALONG the coast of Brittany, St. Malo, with its beaches and yacht basin, is a modern tourist center. The University of Rennes, which Miss Rubinstein's group will be attending, was founded in 1466 by the Duke of Brittany.

The American Institute for Foreign Study is a non-profit membership association of high school teachers and students interested in international education. Last summer, under the auspices of AIFS, more than 250 chaperones accompanied some 2,500 students from all over the United States to study at 18 different university campuses in seven European countries.

Although Miss Rubinstein will do no teaching in Europe — all instruction will be by local university staffs — her role as chaperone will be to act as a combination of guardian, advisor and friend. All student life in Europe will revolve around her, and she will help her group make the necessary adjustment to European life.

Among the students from this area who are planning to go with Miss Rubinstein are Brenda Braverman, Marcia Friend, Lucy Kelly, James McNulty, Nancy Olski, Carolyn Serrett, Gail Specter, Margaret Soderbin, Martha Minchak, Jean M. Brown and Gail Greenberg.

Tranquilizers serving as 'escape' for parents. TULSA, Okla. (UPI) — Some parents are using tranquilizers to escape from themselves, just as some young people are using LSD, reports a University of Oklahoma psychiatrist.

Dr. Boyd K. Lester, who specializes in the relationship of brain waves, drugs and sleep, said the parents and children are trying to escape everyday reality.

WATER for BETTER LIVING

Ever get a hankering for the "good old days"? Of course. The trouble is we like to recall only those things that made us happy. And the "good old days" of outdoor plumbing was not one of them. Many of the conveniences of modern living were science fiction in grand-father's day.

Peace Corps tests for area placement set for next week

Union and Essex County residents have been invited to take the Peace Corps placement test at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, March 18, at the main post office in Newark.

According to a statement this week, the Peace Corps uses the placement test to determine how applicants can best serve overseas. The test measures general aptitude and the ability to learn a language. It does not measure education or achievement. If results show a limited language learning aptitude, the Corps will place the applicant in an English-speaking country. The test requires no preparation, and is non-competitive.

According to the Peace Corps statement, the application form, not the placement test, is the most important factor in selection of volunteers. Persons taking the placement test must have previously filled out an application form, and present it to the tester at the time of the test. Application forms are available at local post offices. The placement test takes approximately 90 minutes.

Area psychologist to speak at meeting

The Essex-Union Section of the New Jersey Association for Brain Injured Children will meet on Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. at the Taylor Park Recreation House, Millburn.

The guest speaker will be Dr. Leslie Willis, a psychologist who is the head of the Special Education Department for the Bloomfield school system. His topic will be "Recent Legislation in Special Education and its Implications for the Brain Injured Child."

The New Jersey Association for Brain Injured Children is an organization of professionals and parents interested in establishing private and public facilities for research on and education of the perceptually handicapped child. A campaign is now under way to increase the membership to include representatives from the general public and interested industries. Those interested in helping these youngsters may contact the membership chairman, Mrs. Milton Stein, at 731-4749. Help is currently needed particularly in the area of fund raising.

Ask Amy

Dear Amy: I am 22 years old and happily married. My problem is my father-in-law who is 45 years old. This man has a little more feeling toward me than just what our relationship calls for... and he has told me so. I don't dare be alone with him for fear he might get fresh with me. He has made passes more than once, and I've told my husband and mother-in-law all about him. Although I try to keep away from him, he manages to keep close to me whenever we go to visit them. If it weren't for our two children, I would be able to avoid seeing him. I've tried most everything to keep him in line without hurting my mother-in-law any more than I already have. In such a case as this, I hope you can give me some sort of advice on what to do. Young Stuff

Dear Young Stuff: Your father-in-law is a revolting devil. Words won't change him, but I wager a good sharp hat pin will. Visit as seldom as necessary, stay with the crowd, but be armed and ready to go into action when he does. Dear Amy: This friend of mine has been telling me about a little 6 year old girl who lives next door to her, and that her parents treat her like dirt. They keep her locked up in a room which contains no bed, so she has to sleep on the floor with straw, rugs, etc. The police have been contacted, but will not do anything. Could you help so we could find a way to get her out of that house. My friend also told me that when the little thing comes over, she smells so terrible because she goes to the bathroom in that room, too. A couple of times she sneaked out of there and came next door, and my friend fed her because she was starved. Please Help Dear Amy: For heaven's sake, contact the Juvenile Authorities immediately before it's too late. "Parents" you call them! They are criminals! Legal action should be instituted against them.

Dear Amy: I have been going with a fellow for 4 1/2 years. This past year he went to Viet-Nam and I wrote the whole year he was gone. He has been sending me all kinds of gifts for the "future" (as my mother puts it), but I'm not sure if I want a future with him. I know it's terrible to think this way, but I'm not positive about getting married, J.M.

Dear J.M.: Why go with a fellow for 4 1/2 years if you don't want a future with him? Until you make up your mind, it would be unkind to keep the gifts. Send them back and be honest with the guy. If his absence hasn't made your heart grow fonder, then your heart is waiting for another. Dear Amy: I'm asking your advice because I never see my family to ask them. My husband and I have been married four years and all this time we have lived near his family. The last time I saw any of my family was three years ago. My husband's family is not very friendly toward me. When I go over there, I feel like I'm in the way because they make me feel this way. I have asked my husband to move. He uses the excuse we have too many bills, but I know we don't have that many. An Outsider: "Moving" is not the answer to your problem. They are "your" family now also, and I'm inclined to think that you have made little effort to accept them. Until you are friendlier, you will not be truly content, nor will your husband. There is no reason not to visit your parents, is there? By all means, if you are suffering homesickness pangs, make arrangements to see them soon... and more often. Address all letters to: AMY ADAMS c/o THIS NEWSPAPER For a personal reply enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

1,194 police attacked, new state survey shows

The first statistics compiled through the new State Uniform Crime Reporting System show that 1,194 of the 11,867 police officers who represent the 425 organized municipal police departments in New Jersey were assaulted in the line of duty during 1966. The totals were announced this week by

Colonel D. B. Kelly, State Police superintendent, who reported that they do not include the two police officers murdered in the line of duty last year. Of the 1,194 cases of assault, 558 involved personal injury requiring medical attention, Colonel Kelly said. He added that the total represents one case of assault for every 10 police officers. The survey for the first time reveals "the extent of a deplorable situation which strikes at the very heart of law enforcement," the State Police superintendent said, stating: "Any young man who considers law enforcement as a profession should also seriously consider the very strong possibility of being assaulted at some time during his career."

crime statistic reporting mandatory did not become effective until Jan. 1 this year, "these statistics concerning 1966 were submitted on a voluntary basis by the 425 organized municipal police departments in New Jersey in the interest of public understanding."

Warsaw Ghetto

commemoration

The 24th Annual Warsaw Ghetto Uprising Commemoration has been scheduled at Weequahic High School, Newark, for Sunday, April 17. Featured speakers will be Rabbi Ely E. Plichik, spiritual leader of Temple Sinai, Stamford, Conn. A program of poetry readings, cello recital, choral presentations and candle-lighting ceremony, honoring the memory of the Jews who perished in the Nazi holocaust, will be presented.

A reception will follow, at the YM - YWHA of Essex County, 255 Chancellor ave., Newark. The commemoration and reception is open to the public at no charge.

Colonel Kelly added: "This heretofore undocumented problem should provide a new viewpoint for those who are prone to cry 'police brutality.' The fact is that a police officer is not a brute. He is the man who lives next door or down the street who cares for his family and property. He spends free time on youth service programs just as any good citizen does because he knows first-hand the effects of juvenile delinquency as well as adult crime. "The municipal police officer, who goes to work every day knowing that his is a dangerous profession for which he is compensated at considerably less than the $10,000 per year salary that Attorney General Silles feels he deserves, must be a dedicated member of his community. "In making this report public, Colonel Kelly emphasized that, although the UCR law making

Vietnam's children to be subject of talk

Pepper is executive director, Commission on Human Rights, New Rochelle, N.Y., and the author of "The Children of Vietnam" in the January issue of "Ramparts" magazine. Barbara Deming, author of "Chorus of Peace" will also give an eye-witness account. Miss Deming is one of the four American women who went to Hanoi, and talked with Ho Chi Minh. Minutemen take 2nd straight tournament

Defeat Summit Y at Florham Park

The Springfield Minutemen won their second consecutive tournament championship in as many weeks Saturday night as they were crowned champions of the fourth annual Florham Park Invitation Tournament with a 54 to 51 come-from-behind victory over the Summit YMCA team. The Springfield eighth graders had defeated Lakeland on Friday evening by a 54 to 46 score to move into the championship game.

The Summit contest for the tournament championship saw the Minutemen trailing throughout the contest. The first lead the Minutemen gained was in the final seconds, as they surged to the front on an Alan Schjanger foul shot, 52 to 51. Two last-second free throws by Eddie Graessle gave the Minutemen their final points and put the championship in their hands.

This was another true team victory for the powerful Springfield team. The Springfield boys have earned a season record of 17 triumphs against a single loss, and have gained two tournament championships in different parts of the state. The Minutemen are proving to be the finest grammar school quipster among the many North Jersey communities.

The Springfield boys opened the final period with a full court pressing defense. This all-over guarding seemed to unsettle the previously solid Summit offensive attack. With the Springfield hard-core five of Janukowicz, Graessle, Schjanger, Silverman and Hollander stealing passes and harassing the Summit boys, the Minutemen pulled to within two points, with Summit ahead by a score of 51 to 49.

The Springfield pulled to within two points on a pair of clutch free throws by Janukowicz. Summit worked for a shot and missed on a driving lay-up. A quick bucket by Schjanger brought the game to a 51-51 tie with a minute and a half remaining.

Summit's Charlie Ebrond led all scorers with 17 points, while the "two quick" back-comers, O'Dell and Mahoney, hit for 13 and 15 points respectively. Summit's tall center, Tucker Collins, scored only three points but cleared the boards on numerous occasions to give the Summit team control of the boards for the first three quarters of the game.

Janukowicz led Springfield scorers in the game as he tallied 15 points and grabbed seven rebounds against the taller Summit team. Graessle hit for 44 Springfield points and cleared the boards nine times to give Springfield its usual one-two punch in the front court.

Summit's Charlie Ebrond led all scorers with 17 points, while the "two quick" back-comers, O'Dell and Mahoney, hit for 13 and 15 points respectively. Summit's tall center, Tucker Collins, scored only three points but cleared the boards on numerous occasions to give the Summit team control of the boards for the first three quarters of the game.

The Springfield boys met their most formidable opponent of the 1967 season when they took the floor against a team representing the Summit YMCA last Saturday evening in the championship game of the Florham Park tournament. The Summit squad took the floor lead by 6-4, 250-pound Charlie Ebrond and 6-6 1/2 Tucker Collins up front and a pair of quick, top-scoring guards in Tom O'Dell and Mike Mahoney in the back court. The Minutemen started their usual strong first five with Bob Janukowicz at center and Eddie Graessle and Alan Schjanger at forwards. Marc Hollander and Jay Silverman opened at the guard positions.

Summit reached the final round by disposing of the Linden PAL and the East Rutherford Wildcats in quarter-final and semi-final rounds. Summit crushed both teams by more than 20 points in the two contests. The Minutemen had played the two quintets in the recently concluded Nutley tournament and had come away with narrow verdicts. The Summit team was a heavy favorite as the crowd readied for the opening tip-off.

The hard-fighting Springfield team fought from as far back as 12 points at one point in the game to pull out a come-from-behind victory by the final score of 54 to 51. Bob Janukowicz paced the Springfield attack as he tallied 15 points. Bob also led the Minutemen in garnering rebounds. Bob hit the boards 14 times to give Springfield control of the back-boards. Eddie Graessle played another strong game for the Minutemen in this semi-final game. Ed scored a game total of 14 points and grabbed 11 rebounds. Ed led the team until he was put in foul trouble early in the third quarter. Ed eventually fouled out of the contest.

Alan Schjanger's four big buckets in the second period kept the Springfield boys in the lead when things were going badly during the second stanza. Alan hit on four consecutive jumpers during this stretch. Jay Silverman was effective throughout the game for Springfield. Jay was a tower of strength on defense and netted eight points on four jumpers.

Marc Hollander again played a strong floor game for the Minutemen, as did Mitch Wolff, who replaced Graessle in the closing line-up. Mitch hit the boards well and scored three points. Dave Miniman and Scott Prussing were very effective for the Minutemen, coming off the bench. Both boys hit important points for the Minutemen when they were needed the most.

Ranger-bowlers run winning streak to 16 in league play

The Rangers made it 15 and 16 winning games in a row last week and increased their league lead in the Friday-Afternoon Bowlers Bowling League to a full three games. The Rangers began their amazing streak some two months ago and have moved from the league cellar to become firmly entrenched in first place. The boys meet each week at the Springfield Bowling Center in a league sponsored by the Springfield Recreation Department.

Cornell quintet clinches lead position in week's Ivy League basketball play

With one week remaining in the Recreation Department's Ivy League season, the Big Red Cornell team clinched the regular season championship by turning back its closest rival, Princeton, in a game played last Saturday. With only second place remaining to be determined, the team will meet this Saturday at the Florence Gaudinier School in the final games of the Ivy League schedule for this season. The teams will follow with play-off competition.

Cornell and Princeton, playing without their respective star performers last Saturday, met in a big game. Cornell came away with a 39 to 19 triumph. Both Ed Graessle of Cornell and Bob Janukowicz of Princeton sat out this game in preparation for the Minutemen engagement last Saturday evening. Dave Miniman picked up the pace for Cornell in this contest. Dave tallied 14 points to lead the team to the championship, clinching victory. Bobby Reichman played his finest game of the season for Cornell. Bob tallied 11 points and did some fine floor work. Gregg Spector saw limited action for Cornell in this contest and tallied seven points.

'Romper Room Rejects' score in Dayton volleyball tourney

The "Romper Room Rejects" are the winners of the Girls' Athletic Association-volleyball championship in the playoffs held recently at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School. The team, made up of sophomore girls from Dayton, defeated two junior teams in the play-offs to take first place.

The "Tibit-Tibous" and "That Team" were second and third place winners.

Members of the "Romper Room Rejects" were Janet Andrew, Terri Chin, Patti Cole, Sherri Hanklin, Debbie Hagerty, Mary Kilmko, Anne Marie Sciarino, Jill Williams, Ginelle Ziegenfuss and Nancy Oshar.

THE FINAL GAME of the day saw Yale turn back Harvard by a 28 to 17 score.

Yale played the game without the services of its high scorer, Alan Schjanger, who was resting for Minuteman action. Harvard played the contest without Jay Silverman and Marc Hollander, who were also sitting this one out because of Minutemen action.

Harvard received a fine effort from a rising star throughout the game.

Kenny Haroff, one of the few sixth graders elevated to Ivy League play, netted seven points for the Harvard team in the game. Herbie Alexander played a fine game for Harvard and scored six points. Danny Marino and Karl Manda completed the Harvard scoring as each boy hit a bucket.

Leading Teams in St. James-Rosarians at 4 seasons were the Swingers, 36-24; Try Hards, 34-26, and the Stinkers, Toppers and Tigers, all at 33-27.

Close behind were the Spare Ribs, 40-29, and the Five Specs, 38-30. Top scorers were Wilma Johnson, 186; Helen Cannon, 188; Verna Anderson, 154-153; Jinny Banner, 150-162; Jackie Glassen, 160; Eleanor Rebel, 160; Nancy Burkhardt, 157; Jean Esposito, 156-155; Ruth Adams, 151; Allie Herman, 151; Millie Douglas, 150.

Leading ladies in Temple Beth Am Sisterhood at Hy-Way Bowl were Shelley Wolfe, 168-456; Arlene Fein, 173-447; Frieda Pedlino, 169-424; Fran Golden, 163-432; Joyce Rosenkrantz, 167-425; Natalie Herman, 163; Sue Sanders, 161; Irene Geller, 163-413; Rita Cohen, 152.

Also, Diane Blum, 167-402; Claire Gerstein, 160-421; Doty Weinberg, 404; Bernice Kurtzer, 152-418; Millie Hodas, 415; Arlyne Baum, 401; Shirley Kurtz, 170-415; Rose Widom, 152; Bella Neifeld, 152; Marilyn Lipton, 403.

Basketball teams have been chosen in each class at Dayton.

Teams will compete with other schools in the district after school. Each class has a team of about 12 girls chosen at special tryouts in the gym. The girls were chosen by gym instructors Mrs. Lois Conley and Mrs. Helen Hooper on the basis of skill and accuracy.

WFFH ONE GRAMM remaining in the regular season Princeton's Bob Janukowicz seems to have an unreachably lead in the individual scoring race.

Bob, who has played in eight of his team's nine games, has tallied 148 season points. Bob is attempting to garner the scoring title for the second consecutive season. Eddie Graessle, who has been in the scoring race all season, has tallied 129 season points. Eddie plays for Cornell. Bob's boys are also big point producers on Springfield's Minuteman team.

Cancer Society's special gifts dinner to feature Bob Considine as speaker

Bob Considine, a leading figure in contemporary journalism, will be the guest speaker Tuesday night at the $50- and $100-a-plate special gifts dinner of the Union County Chapter of the American Cancer Society, it was announced this week.

The fifth annual dinner, to be held at the Suburban Hotel in Summit, will help kick off the annual Union County Cancer Crusade which seeks a goal of $155,000 this year to help finance a continuing program of research, education and service. The dinner goal this year is $12,000, some $2,000 more than the event raised a year ago.

Dr. Alexander D. Crosett Jr. of Summit, dinner chairman, will be master of ceremonies. His committee, drawn from volunteers in the cancer fight throughout the county, includes Albert Stender Sr. of Plainfield, a member of the chapter's board of managers who developed the special gifts dinner and was its chairman for four years.

Considine, writing for International News Service on the progress of medical science in the fight against cancer, was the first news service journalist to receive one of the Lasker Medical Journalism Awards, administered by the Nieman Foundation for Journalism at Harvard University. The articles were widely praised by cancer authorities.

pleted a tour with Loner Hampton, daughter of Cab Calloway. Cris has appeared in Catskill resort hotels, at Greenwich Village clubs and in summer stock.
