Prepare for 1st plunge of togetherness season

Another season of community togetherness will get under way with the opening of the town swimming pool on Saturday. As the sages had said down through the ages, "The municipality that swims together, keeps it cool."

Before taking the plunge, however, the summer-minded family should check carefully to make sure that all preparations have been completed properly.

Have the children been trained and rehearsed adequately for the chair-collecting race? With teamwork, three families can spread enough old towels and outdoor bathing suits on chairs to establish a monopoly before anyone else even gets to the pool.

Is everyone properly fitted for the outdoor season? All new bathing suits should be modeled and examined from every possible vantage point, and a few which are normally impossible, to make sure that the more mature members of the family follow Shakespear's injunction to look "neat, but not gaudy." At the same time, of course, they should remain true to themselves.

The more youthful and more symmetrical members of the community are certainly entitled to greater latitude both north and south of the equatorial regions.

Even though the bikini is named for the locale of a major atomic explosion, some care should be taken to control fall-out.

Getting back to the checklist: Has the head of the family built up his supply of $20 bills, to be used to pay for one ice cream cone at a time at the snack bar? This tends to encourage a stimulating level of high blood pressure among cashiers, and thus comes under the heading of recreation.

Has everyone learned to identify all members of the Township Committee at distances up to 100 yards? This facilitates the lodging of complaints and the asking of questions, and reminds the elected officials that it is easier for the leopard to change his spots than for the office-holder to shed the cares of office with his clothes.

Has everyone learned to remember faces, even when the attire is entirely seasonal? The gentleman who tells a lady at a formal function in September that he didn't recognize her with her clothes on deserves whatever he gets.

Once all preparations are completed and everything is packed and ready, including five changes of bathing suit for all members of the family, cards, Scrabble sets, sneakers and tin whistles for summoning all children at departure time, now is the time for all good townsmen, women and accessory members of the family to enjoy their summer.

We have, as everyone knows, a wide range of activities at the pool, for all people of all interests. The important thing is just to have fun, even if we can't tell the difference between a bocce ball and a matzoh ball.

Voice of the people

In the words of President Johnson, "the voices of the few must no longer prevail over the interest of the many." The President was talking about the dire need for tighter gun law than the one passed and signed into law the day of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's tragic death.

"The voices of the few" refers to the National Rifle Association, which, from its nine-story building in Washington D.C., has all but successfully lobbied against any effective federal gun law.

The results of an apathetic Congress and its counterparts in the various state capitals, is tragically etched in America's newest Hall of Shame:

President John F. Kennedy Medgar Evers
Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Sen. Robert F. Kennedy
The federal gun law which is contained in the omnibus anticrime bill, outlaws interstate mail-order sales of hand guns — BUT DOES NOT BAR THE INTERSTATE MAIL ORDER SALE OF RIFLES.

New Jersey's version of a gun law, although it requires that application for purchase of a hand gun, shotgun or rifle be made through the local police department, does not control the purchase of a gun through the mail.

I have just returned from a five-day trip called "Experiment in Living" at Stokes State Forest.

I wish to thank the eighth grade teachers at the Florence Gaudineer School who made this trip possible.

It was the greatest.

GOOD REPORT CARD
As the outgoing president of the Springfield Teachers' Association, I wish to thank you for the very adequate news coverage which you afforded our professional organization during the past two years. Teachers in each of the five township schools have commented very favorably upon the articles of news which have been released by the Springfield Leader for the STA. Past and recent teacher retirees have praised the Leader for helping them to keep in touch with association news.

Thank you for your cooperation with the STA publicity committee chairman during the past two years. They, too, have been grateful for the news coverage and the space afforded to the STA news articles by the Springfield Leader.

MARY EDNA SNIDER
STA Past President

Also, it cannot stop a potential purchaser from driving to New York State or Pennsylvania and buying a gun.

We urge everyone to write their Senators and Representatives and demand more effective legislation to help stop the carnage in our streets.

President Johnson said: "What in the name of conscience will it take to pass a truly effective gun control law in Congress."

It could take the voice of the people.

Again we repeat, the voice of the few must no longer prevail over the interest of the many.

Letters to Editor

Since the adoption of a gun control law in 1966, 1,600 persons were refused permits to buy weapons in New Jersey. Yet we have no assurance that any or all of these 1,600 persons did not go to another state to purchase a weapon.

Although I believe this to be a good law, its vociferous critics charge that it is unworkable and should be repealed. I agree that it is unworkable, but this is the case only because of the absence of effective and strict regulations on a federal level.

The tragic death of Senator Robert Kennedy at the hands of an assassin last week underscores the crying need for tight controls at the federal level. Only the federal government is capable of imposing and enforcing safeguards against lethal weapons reaching irresponsible hands through legitimate channels, if such a law were on the books, there would be no possibility of any of the 1,600 persons getting a weapon legitimately in the United States.

As a New Jersey State Senator, as an American citizen and as a grieving human being, I urge all of my constituents to write their Senators and Congressmen in Washington demanding that action be taken. How much more must we accept before sanity and civility once again are restored to our land? All decent Americans share the grief of the Kennedy family in their hour of tragedy. We have been asked to accept the incredible stop the unbelievable when two brothers from the same family have been the victims of political assassinations. President Kennedy urged his fellow Americans to "ask not what your country can do for you, but what you can do for your country."

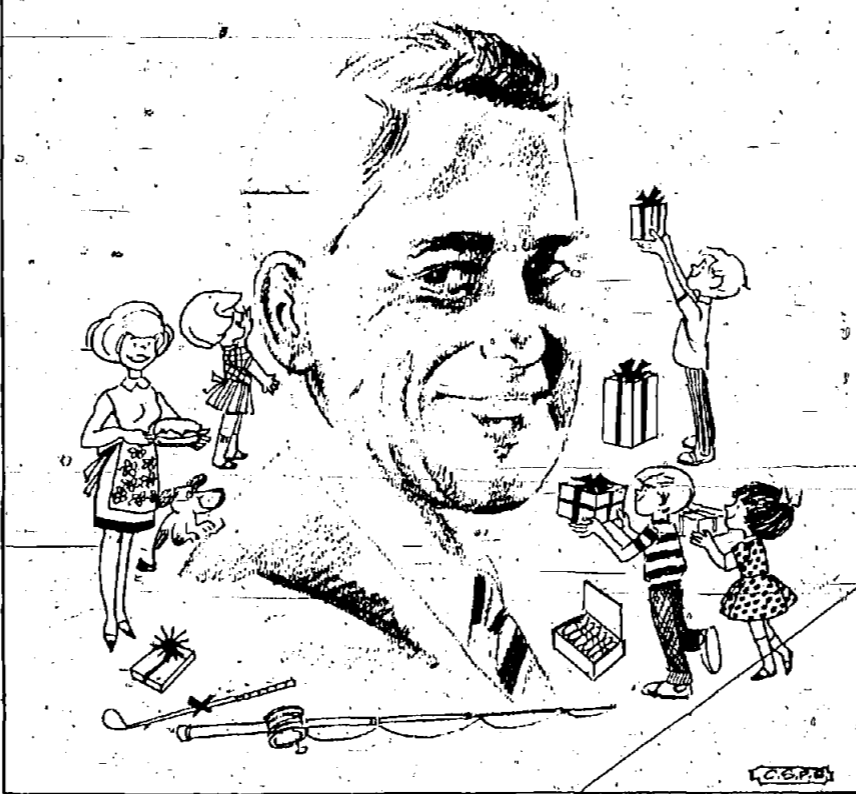

His family has twice been asked to make the ultimate sacrifice by giving up to senseless bullets two of its young men in the prime of their manhood and service to the nation. How many more men like President John Kennedy and Senator Robert Kennedy must be assassinated before we make some serious attempt to halt the illicit traffic in guns.

The anti-gun control forces contend that guns don't kill people, but people do kill people. They also argue that criminals will find a way of circumventing any gun control law. Although this unfortunately may be true, it does not alter the need for an effective way of governing our citizens under a rule of law. The sad fact that some people are bent on violence and that some people will commit murder does not lead us to conclude that we should repeal the law against murder.

We are also told by anti-control elements that the gun law would be an infringement on citizens' rights to bear arms and that it would require inconveniencing many innocent people. However, an effective law that might spare the life of one John Kennedy, one Martin Luther King or one Robert Kennedy would be worth all the inconvenience that it might impose on the gun fanatics.

It is ironic that the state licenses and tests automobiles and their operators with relatively little question or protest. An effective federal gun control law would abridge no one's freedom. It would in no way prevent a rational, responsible person who so wishes to purchase and keep a gun. But it could stop the irrational, irresponsible person from purchasing one legitimately. Other laws should be employed to seal off the illegitimate channels.

DAD'S DAY- JUNE 16

U.S. Senator HARRISON A. WILLIAMS Reports

Senator Kennedy is dead, and we are left now with an infinite sadness and the futile gesture of bringing to trial the perpetrator of this atrocity. I cannot, at this point, find anger in my own heart and I do not detect it in those to whom I have talked.

Feelings that is because the anger would have to be directed inwardly, in part, because each of us bears some measure of guilt for the national climate which makes this sort of thing possible, and we must resolve to change that national climate.

The Congress can help. Certainly a stricter gun control law is called for, both to restrict the traffic in potential murder weapons and as a symbol to the nation of our grave concern over the rise of lawlessness.

We are right to extend Secret Service protection to the Presidential candidates, again both for the protection it will afford and for the symbolic value of the act.

CERTAINLY PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S appointment of an eminent panel to seek the causes of violence in our society and to point the way toward remedies is a constructive step. The news media bear their share of the responsibility.

Movies are better than ever:
"The Devil's Brigade is a Sock-it-to-'em War Movie"
"The Last Challenge... Their law -- kill or be killed"
"The Savage Seven... Blessed by the Devil Himself"
"We Still Kill the Old Way"
"Nevada Smith... He hated... He killed"
"Wild in the Streets... Zings you Right Where it Hurts"

Or television:
"The Wild, Wild West"
"The Rifleman"
"Guns of Will Sonnett"
"Wanted: Dead or Alive"

Let us now heed President Johnson's passionate appeal to the nation:
"Let us -- for God's sake -- live under the law."

PROFILE--Myron Meisel

Although the future course of the 1968 presidential campaign has been thrown into a state of confusion by the murder last week of Sen. Robert Kennedy, perhaps the outstanding characteristic of the campaign until that time was the spontaneous mobilization of young people around the banners of Sen. Eugene McCarthy.

Typical of these young people is Myron Meisel of 45 Janet lane, Springfield, 17-year-old publicity director and youth chairman of the local Volunteers for McCarthy. Meisel, a bright, energetic youth, has been very active locally in campaigning for McCarthy.

"I support Sen. McCarthy," he says, "because I feel he's a man of intelligence, courage and integrity. He will be able to provide this country not only with leadership, but more important, with a sense of direction that is badly needed today. Sen. McCarthy, in my opinion, recognizes the nature of our nation's problems and what our priority should be in solving them."

"I believe," Meisel continues, "that he can be the most effective of any of the candidates of putting necessary programs into action. Above all, he has demonstrated that he can best unify this country in a common purpose -- for both young and old, conservative and liberal -- for anyone can rally behind a man whose courage, integrity and common sense he respects, regardless of differences of opinion."

"I support McCarthy," Meisel repeats, "only because I feel he would be more effective than any of the other candidates."

HOW DID MEISEL, who will graduate this week from Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, become involved in the Volunteers for McCarthy?

"Early this year -- I believe it was in March," he says, "an announcement appeared in the Leader for Volunteers for McCarthy. A public meeting was held at the National State Bank in Springfield the Tuesday after the New Hampshire primary. Father Elmer Sullivan of Roselle was the speaker, and he has since been elected as a convention delegate."

The meeting, Meisel indicated, "was very well attended. There were approximately 100 adults and 50 young people. They mentioned that they wanted articles written in the newspaper, so I volunteered to write the articles. Then the group appointed me the publicity chairman."

"June Thielerger, a junior at Jonathan Dayton, and I went about organizing a Jonathan Dayton chapter of Springfield Volunteers for McCarthy. We were authorized by Mr. Robert La Ventura, the school's principal to have meetings and organization within the school provided that we did not carry on direct political activity within the school. This has never been done before."

Meisel explains that his group is "immediately indebted to Mr. Paul Karis, one of the school's history teachers, who gave us considerable assistance in planning and encouragement."

"OUR INITIAL TURNOUT," recalls Meisel, "was about 30 students or approximately five percent of the student body. That really shows a profound interest in McCarthy and what he is trying to do."

"Even more important than the interest was the fact that everyone was willing to donate the time and energy to help make the McCarthy campaign a success."

Meisel says that his group was "strictly an ad hoc group, and it's conceivable because whenever help was needed there was more help than we expected."

"Our members were all students of Jonathan Dayton, and we've had valuable assistance from Arthur Thielerger and Marvin Heller."

Meisel says that the group's major problem in Springfield "was not to persuade voters to support Sen. McCarthy as much as it was to convince his supporters of the importance of voting in the primary."

"The youth organization was responsible for most of the distribution of literature in Springfield. And in order to distribute the literature," Meisel continues, "on two occasions we esablished booths in all the major shopping areas in and around Springfield. "Again, on two occasions, we delivered literature to the door of almost every house in Springfield. I personally feel that the house-to-house 'Operation Front Door' conducted in the final days before the election, in which we distributed sample ballots, contributed immeasurably to the large voter turnout of the polls."

"WE ORGANIZED a drive to cover every house on 24-hour notice, and it's a tribute to the dedication of everyone involved that the drive was so successful."

Meisel says that "as a group, with the New Jersey primaries past, our work in Springfield is basically over. However, I know that many of the people who helped me here will be willing to help again both in August and in November to aid Sen. McCarthy's campaign. Right now, though, we have no definite plans."

Meisel, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip L. Meisel, was born in Washington, D.C. He came to Springfield 11 years ago, and was graduated from the Florence Gaudineer School.

He will represent the state of New Jersey this week at the National Forensic League's National Student Congress to be held at Macalester College in St. Paul, Minn. ("where, incidentally, Mr. McCarthy was a professor of economics. That's a very funny coincidence," he smiles.)

MEISEL HAS BEEN very active in high school. He won citizenship awards from the Optimists, the Lions and the DAR.

"He was a varsity debater for four years and won many debates and contests. He was vice-president of the Student Council in his junior year, and he reports on Dayton Sports for Springfield Leader."

The youth also notes that he is a "professional magician. I have been for over eight years."

Meisel has three brothers, Lee, 15, Robert, 13 and Neil, 8.

"They're politically concerned," he says, "and they've been of invaluable assistance in contributing to my services."

Meisel plans to attend the University of Chicago in the fall. He will major in economics. As far as the possibilities of McCarthy's nomination for the president of the United States are concerned, Meisel says, "I feel he has a definite chance, but whether or not he can get the nomination, I feel it is essential for one to work for what one thinks is right, regardless of the chances of success."

"And I further believe that that is the message Sen. McCarthy is trying to bring to the American people."

Price level higher than real wages

WASHINGTON — Hourly earnings rose again in April, but a small drop in weekly hours, coupled with the continued rise in prices, caused a further decline in the purchasing power of the nation's rank and file workers, the Labor Department announced last week.

With hourly earnings moving up two cents to $2.79 in April, gross weekly earnings rose to a record $104.63 despite a small decline in weekly hours. Net spendable earnings gross pay minus Federal taxes and Social Security deduction averaged $93.09 for a worker with three dependents and $85.50 for a worker with no dependents, an increase of 16 and 15 cents, respectively, over March.

Rising prices, however, more than offset the April increase in take-home pay.

'Yellow sub' really museum Shows wonders of sea depths

A new approach to traveling museums for children was described in a recent number of the American monthly "Museum News." Devised by the Children's Museum in Nashville, Tenn., the mobile exhibition is called "The Yellow Submarine." Its theme is the sea.

Intended for children who have grown up in the space age, it introduces visitors to such ideas as the current uses of mineral resources left by the sea which once covered most of Tennessee, the ever-growing demand for fresh water, and the exploitation of the sea's resources as a solution to many world problems.

position ranging from electronic music to the Beatles. Another feature is a parakeet apparently living with fish in an aquarium, but in fact separated from the water by a thin silicone rubber membrane which allows free exchange of oxygen and carbon dioxide — a membrane which may one day enable man to live for long periods under the ocean.

A tour of the "Yellow Submarine" lasts about eight minutes. So far it has met with enthusiasm and apparent success, and would seem to bear out the organizers' belief that the young museum visitor today, brought up on television, likes involvement: he is not much interested in a lecture without reaction. — UNESCO FEATURES.

Flag Day tomorrow

Old Glory, The Star-Spangled Banner, The Stars and Stripes — your country's flag. Fly it every day, if you wish, but be sure to fly it tomorrow. That's Flag Day.

It was on June 14, 1777, that the Continental Congress passed this resolution: "Resolved, that the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

No one knows who designed this flag, or who made the first one. William J. Canby said in 1870 that his grandmother, Betsy Ross, made the first one, but historians doubt it.

The Continental Congress

left no record to show why it chose red, white and blue for the flag, but in 1782 the Congress of the Confederation chose these same colors for the newly designed Great Seal of the United States.

The resolution on the seal said red is for hardness and courage, white is for purity and innocence, and blue is for vigilance, perseverance, and justice.

And the flag itself? World Book Encyclopedia says: "The Stars and Stripes stands for the land, the people, the government, and the ideals of the United States, no matter when or where it is displayed."

Fly it proudly.

Short wave aids doctors

A system whereby doctors in remote areas of Latin America and elsewhere can obtain advice over shortwave radio from consultants at Duke University, North Carolina, is shortly to be extended to the processing of electrocardiograms. A grant from the Langley Trust of New York City will enable Project MED-AID (Medical Assistance for Isolated Doctors) to use part of the University's computer complex for re-translating the shortwave signals into the language of the electrocardiograph. The electrocardiogram of a patient thousands of miles away can thus be studied and interpreted by specialists within hours of its being recorded.

The shortwave radio station, call-sign WB4BLK, has been on the air since August 1966, providing consultation to isolated doctors in foreign countries. Operating eight hours a day seven days a week, the station has so far answered more than 320 calls for help.

MED-AID also hopes to be able to provide the necessary shortwave equipment to doctors who lack it, with the co-operation of the Women's Auxiliary of the American Medical Association who are arranging to collect and distribute equipment from amateurs who no longer have need of it. (UNESCO FEATURES)

Signs certify approval of bathing lakes in state

Persons who enjoy lake bathing in New Jersey have been urged to seek places which have been certified by the New Jersey State Department of Health. Approved lake bathing places are given signs which read: "This Bathing Lake meets standards of the New Jersey State Department of Health." In cooperation with local health officials in lake bathing areas, the Department is evaluating lake bathing places for the 1968 season. The Department carries on the inspection service through its four district offices, a spokesman said.

Lake bathing places participate in the program on a voluntary basis. Those which meet guides on general sanitation, bacteriological quality of bathing waters, and on safety equipment and practices receive certificates of compliance and the sign which the proprietor may post on his property. Participation and compliance require some investment on the part of the proprietor of the lake bathing place, the department said.

Battin High class planning reunion

The 1943 graduating class of Battin High School, Elizabeth will celebrate its 25th anniversary with a reunion in October. The committee has tried to contact all members of the class. Those who may not have been reached are being asked to call Ruth Stender Gorringer in Cranford, Dorothy Wilhelm Salter in Union, Alice Polowchak Senchy in Elizabeth, or Elinor Whaley Barry in Linden.

The State Department of Health will announce the names and addresses of approved places in a few weeks. Seventy-four lake bathing places in 13 counties received certificates in 1967.

Integrated camping praised

Parents unanimous in 'Y' poll

"Y" camping has changed since the good old days — and many parents of today's campers believe that young people of the last generation didn't reap the full benefits of camp life.

The YM-YWCA of Newark and Vicinity, which will open its camp season on June 23, has released findings of a poll taken of parents of last summer's campers.

Campers have come from such communities as Irvington, Vailsburg, Union, Mountaineer, Roselle, Roselle Park, Springfield, and Linden. During the last camp season the residence camps in Sussex County, Klamath for boys and MacDonald for girls, were completely diversified from an economic, cultural, racial, religious and geographic viewpoint. In all camp periods last summer the camps had a racial mixture of about 48 percent Negro children and 52 percent white.

Of 75 Negro and white parents replying to the poll conducted by the Camping Services Branch of the Newark "Y," all commented favorably on the question, "How do you feel about having your son (daughter) living with boys (girls) of different races, religious faiths, cultural backgrounds and economic levels?"

A mother observed, "I think it is a good idea, because it helps them to understand that we all live and do about the same things no matter who and what we are." This parent also noted, "I think camp helped him a lot, because not having a father, he was able to do some things he would never get a chance to do otherwise."

A former camper himself, an East Orange father writes about the culturally mixed program, "I think it's swell, and I also feel that if more people had had this experience, this would be a better country to live in."

Another enthusiastic parent comments, "We really like this, because it is right that they should really live together and treat one another as they would like to be treated."

Yet another parent observed, "It helped him to learn about different people and what to look forward to in life." From another, "I feel that he has to learn to live with all kinds of people."

"This way he can see how folks act," one parent commented, "and if they act differently. And if he likes how they act he can improve himself; and if he doesn't like it, he can go on as before."

A Newark mother, approving the arrangements, says, "We should not judge on hearsay."

A Montclair father praises the opportunity "to practice realistic democracy and to learn to appreciate those who come from different cultures."

If your son's present school has not helped him to achieve as you would like, might we suggest your investigating

National Guard captain to receive Army medal

CAPT. JOSEPH A. EVANGELIST

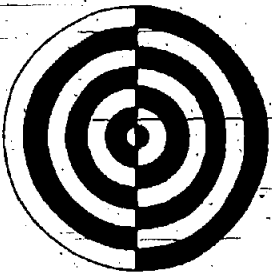

Capt. Joseph A. Evangelist of 2822 Audrey ter., Union, is scheduled to receive the Army Commendation Medal tomorrow for meritorious service as Battery Commander of the New Jersey National Guard's 112th Artillery in Livingston, from July 1965 to December 1967.

Wright statement discusses change of party allegiance. Henry S. Wright, long an insurgent in local Republican politics, who was elected as a Democratic county committeeman in Springfield's Fourth District last week, by one written vote, this week issued the following statement discussing his change of party:

"I believe the Democrats and Republicans comprise a one-party monopoly in the U.S.A. and in New Jersey as proven by the recent unilateral special 'election' for delegates to the re-apportionment convention. There is very little freedom of independent choice outside of this coalition, known as the Establishment of Status-quo.

"In the top echelons of 'society,' the exclusive New York City club known as the Council on Foreign Relations recently contained this illustrious mixture of Republican and Democrat members: Lucius Clay, John Connor, Tom Dewey, Adlai Stevenson, Dean Acheson, George Ball, Dwight Eisenhower, Hubert Humphrey, Jake Javitz, John Lindsay, Henry Cabot Lodge, Nelson Rockefeller, Dean Rusk, Art Schlesinger, Richard Nixon, Cliff Case, Harold Stassen and Stuart Symington.

Artists plan 'Paint-the-Park' picnic

Echo Lake Park in Mountainside will be transformed into an artists' colony on Sunday when Academic Artists, Inc., holds a novel "Paint-the-Park" picnic, along the brook across from the Pavilion Building. In the event of rain, the event will be held Sunday, June 23. All members, senior and junior, have been invited to bring their palettes and families to spend a Sunday in the park. Professional members will be on hand during the day to advise and give guidance to non-professional members.

Included in the group of professional advisors will be: Albert Bross, Jr. and Adelaide Johnson of Summit, Dorothy Kelly of Union, Pauline Lorentz of Berkeley Heights, Stephen Potasky and Perry Zimmerman of Cranford, S. Allyn Schaeffer of Fairwood and Mary Ellen Silkotch of Piscataway. Chairman of the picnic is Mrs. Laurence G. Holland of Cranford, president of Academic Artists, Inc. Assisting her will be Mr. and Mrs. Harry Conay of Rahway, Mrs. J. G. Johnson of Summit, Mrs. Anthony Eldrosch of Roselle Park, and Mrs. Morton Rappoport of Cranford. Inside the pavilion building visitors may view a display of art work by professional instructors who teach Academic Artists, Inc. summer classes. These include Wayland Gregory, N.S.S. (sculpture); Adelaide Johnson (Juniors); Dorothy Kelly (oil for beginners); S. Allyn Schaeffer (oil, water colors and pastels); Mary Ellen Silkotch (oil and water colors and portrait for beginners); Perry Zimmerman (drawing, oils and pastels).

County park pools to operate soon on full-time schedule

The swimming pools operated by the Union County Park Commission, located at John Russell Wheeler Park, Linden, and Rahway River Park, Rahway, will begin operating at the full-time summer schedule next Thursday, June 20. The pools opened on a part-time schedule on May 30.

Beginning next Thursday, the pools will open weekdays, including Saturdays, and holidays, at 10 a.m. On Sundays the pools will open at 11 a.m. The pools will remain open on weekdays until 8 p.m., and on Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, until 7 p.m., weather permitting.

Children 13 years of age and under may swim free of charge from 10 a.m. to noon, each Monday, except holidays.

Boys and girls, eight to 14 years of age, may now register at either pool for the annual "Learn to Swim" school which will be conducted daily from 9 to 9:45 a.m. beginning Monday, June 24 at both pools. Union County residents may still take advantage of the "family membership plan" now being offered at both pools. A family may apply for a special rate of $25 for the entire swimming season and this will include husband and wife, and all their children, 18 years of age and under, to swim in the pools without additional charges during the summer. Applications are now available at both pools. Each pool has a sand beach and a refreshment stand.

Summer programs at 'Y' reported filling rapidly

Registration for the Five Points YMCA summer programs is continuing. The programs are expected to be filled by the middle of June, Howard Merrick, branch executive, said this week.

The Learn to Swim program this year operates for eight weeks with three separate times to choose from and is filling rapidly, Merrick said. The swim program operates in the Whale at Five Points YMCA and is geared for beginner boys or girls four years of age and up. Classes are kept small for more concentrated instruction with about eight to 10 in each class. Seventy-five different boys and girls are already enrolled for one week or more of instruction, he said.

The Fun Club program that served more than 120 different boys and girls last year operates four two-week periods beginning July 1 for children K-4. Registration for the second period is almost closed. The first period is two-thirds filled and is expected to close in one week. The program will operate, rain or shine, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m.-3:30 p.m. Trips to interesting places geared to the age level interest and abilities will be part of the program. Swimming instruction and fun swims, arts and crafts, stories, and singing will also be part of the program with games of all types added. Special events each week with occasional family programs in the early evening is being scheduled, Merrick said.

THE BICYCLE DAY CAMP program is getting a good response, he said. Designed as a small group experience for boys and girls 4-7 grade it will offer a day camp experience with camping skills taught. At least two meals per week will be planned and prepared over open fire, an overnight campout each period, and conservation and nature science skills will be emphasized.

Call the Five Points YMCA for information or application for any of the Summer Programs at 687-5570, Merrick added.

Why we don't call the Volkswagen on the left the Volkswagen Station Wagon.

Just because the Volkswagen on the left looks like a station wagon, some people have concluded it actually is the Volkswagen Station Wagon.

Its storage capacity is much too modest. (Even with its seats folded down it's just 42 cu. ft.)

Its seating capacity is much too conventional. (4 passengers is nothing to write home about.)

And the size of that door in the back is much too commonplace. (A mere 42.7" by 25.4".)

But unstartling as these features are in a station wagon, they're very startling in a sedan. And that's exactly what this squared-off car on the left is. A regular sedan for people who irregularly need a little station wagon.

We call it the Volkswagen Squareback.

Now look at the monster on the right. Its loading capacity is an incredible 176 cu. ft. It can seat up to nine—yes, nine—very tall passengers. And it doesn't content itself with just having a door in the back. It also has a kind of sliding side gate that measures an awesome 3 1/2' by 4'.

Now that's what we call a station wagon. Settled?

Travel film at Trailside

"Tennessee Holiday," a color, sound film, will be shown at the Union County Park Commission's Trailside Nature and Science Center, in the Watchung Reservation, on Sunday at 2 p.m.

The film, a travelogue, takes the viewers to the land of the Bluegrass Basin thoroughbreds. The viewers will also see a Mississippi stern-wheeler; the Tennessee Valley Authority projects, Oak Ridge, Cumberland Gap, and other historic and scenic areas.

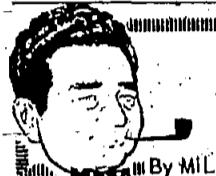

On Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, June 20-24, at 4 p.m., each day, Donald W. Mayer, director of Trailside, and Miss Irma H. Heyer, educational assistant at Trailside, will present one-half hour nature talks for children. The topic selected for the four days is "Life in a Pond." The lectures will be illustrated with color slides and admission is free.

The Trailside Nature and Science Center is open to the public each weekday, except Friday, from 3 to 5 p.m., and on Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays from 1 to 5 p.m. The public is invited to visit the Nature and Science Center, view the thousands of indoor exhibits and participate in the scheduled programs.

By MILT HAMMER
Joey Bishop has signed an exclusive recording contract with ABC Records. His first project for ABC will be an album of Country & Western material. This marks Joey's initial recording venture.

Bishop chalked up one of the most important milestones of his career during 1967 when he returned to television as the star of his own late-night "The Joey Bishop Show" on the ABC network.

Despite the opposition of firmly entrenched competition, Bishop not only quickly carved himself a solid position on the television scene but drew such outstanding critical and audience reaction that, within a year, ABC-TV extended his contract into 1969.

A native Philadelphian, Bishop entered show business with an act known as the Bishop Brothers Trio although the other two members of the group were unrelated. They became professional burlesque entertainers and eventually Joey became a single-act Cleveland night spot and entered the Army where he served in the Special Services division for four years. Resuming his night club career after his discharge, his reputation rapidly built him into one of the most successful wits in show business.

CHANNEL CHATTER—The 14th annual "National College Queen Pageant" will be seen live from Palm Beach, Fla., via NBC on June 17. Co-ed beauties from 30 states will participate. Then on the eve of June 28, via ABC, 50 of the best graduate football stars of the 1967 season compete in the Coaches All-America game to be played in Atlanta, Georgia—Speaking of football, CBS plans to do an hour special Sept. 15, on Vince Lombardi, long-time coach and general manager of the champion Green Bay Packers, entitled "Lombardi".

"The California Girl" special, narrated by Sally Field, is repeated on ABC July 1. Nancy Sinatra guests on a Jackie Gleason Show in the fall. ABC launches its telecasts of the Summer Olympics from Mexico City with two hours of the opening ceremonies on Oct. 12. On the same network, the final seven holes of the PGA championships from San Antonio, Texas, will be aired on each of three days, July 19, 20 & 21.

A quiet and somber week at the United Nations

By TRUDINA HOWARD
Kennedy, King, Kennedy—the "K's" seem to be ill-omened.

At the United Nations the Arab members seemed to be ill at ease after the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy. It was difficult to find an Arab who would even speak. As the week wore on they were hardly to be seen at all. A spokesman for the UN stated there would be no special guards assigned to Arab members but later it was reported that it was thought advisable and the order was changed to arrange for guard protection. The rumor was that the Arabs might be in danger.

In speaking to a man who is an interviewer for a radio program, I asked what reactions he had received to the assassination. I fully expected the usual sorrowful reply, but he said, "Well, it rained full scale!" In sheer surprise, I turned and queried, "You mean you have found anyone who is GLAD?"

"Hmph," he said, "Have you talked to any Arabs?"

So it might seem that there were some whose hearts were not heavy, but it was not generally so. The Jordanian Mission was among the first to issue a press release of sorrow and shock. It read:

"The Jordan Delegation was shocked to learn of the tragic death of Senator Robert F. Kennedy. The Jordan Government strongly condemns this criminal act committed against an outstanding American and a leading public servant. We in Jordan have already expressed through our King, our horror at this murder and our condemnation of acts of violence of this kind. The Jordanian people are dismayed, and in their name and in the name of my Government as well as in my own name and in the name of the Jordan Mission to the United Nations, I wish to offer to the bereaved Kennedy family, and to the American Nation, the expressions of our sincere sympathy and condolences.

"The following message of condolences was cabled to Mrs. Robert F. Kennedy today:

"We are deeply shocked and dismayed to learn of the tragic assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy, an outstanding American and a leading public figure. In the name of the Jordan Mission to the United Nations, I wish to extend to you the expression of our sincerest sympathy and condolences."

"Ambassador Muhammad El-Farra, Permanent Representative of Jordan to the United Nations."

ON THE WHOLE, the mood at the UN was one of sorrow, sadness and concern for both the Kennedy and the U. S. Many people simply shook their heads and said nothing. It was a quiet and somber UN this week.

By order of Secretary-General U Thant the UN flag flew at half staff. Several committees held two-minute sessions of silence or interrupted their routine to hear short tributes to the late Senator. Some meetings were cancelled; others were shortened. In the Security Council where Rhodesia is under discussion and where U.S. Ambassador to the UN Arthur Goldberg is this month's president, a brief tribute to the Senator was given Wednesday, and at the opening of the UNICEF executive board meeting, U Thant spoke on behalf of Robert Kennedy.

In response to the many messages of sympathy on the assassination of Senator Kennedy, a Book of Condolences was opened at the United States Mission to the United Nations. It was available for signature by members of Missions and the Secretariat on June 6 and June 7, and the president of the General Assembly, Corneliu Murescu of Romania, was among the first to walk across the street to the U.S. Mission to sign the book. Messages of sympathy were sent to Mrs. Kennedy by the Secretary General, the president of the General Assembly, Ambassador Goldberg and other officials at the UN. Also, they or their representatives, attended funeral services at St. Patrick's or at the Holy Family Church near the Robert Kennedy New York apartment at UN Plaza, which the Senator and his wife attended when in New York. No one at the UN spoke of "plot" or "conspiracy" except a Negro taxi driver who drove me to UN Headquarters. Said he, "I think the Communists hired Sirhan Sirhan. He wasn't angry enough to shoot in rage. He was paid to do it."

And that was the week at the UN. No matter whether you agreed with Robert Kennedy or not, no matter what your politics, it was an ill-fated, ill-begotten week.

N.J. Residents Find Poconos Perfect Retreat

Long a favorite with vacationing Pennsylvanians, the Pocono Mountains have become a lure for more and more Jerseyans over the last few years... and as land in the Metropolitan area becomes scarcer and more expensive, it is expected that the trend to the Poconos will continue.

"There's no question as to what motivates the hundreds of N.J. residents who have made the Poconos one of the prime second-home markets in the East," says a noted land developer.

"These families, weary of the pressures, clamor and hustle-bustle of city living are seeking a leisure-time haven... rustic and secluded... on-a-way-from-it-all spot from which they can return to their work-a-day environment relaxed and refreshed."

"This is what we have for them high above the Delaware Water Gap in the green-forested Poconos. It is among the last of the region's mountain sanctuaries."

"Because of their high altitude, up to 2,500 feet above sea level, their magnificent mountain scenery, their many lakes and their pure, dry health-giving air, the Poconos are often called 'The Colorado of the East'. Folks in North Jersey are just beginning to realize that this wonderful mountain region can be reached over new super highways— within two hours and is available for low-cost summer and winter vacations."

"This combination of accessibility, good air, spacious surroundings, and a variety of summer and winter sports activity, has made the Poconos an increasing favorite retreat for New Jersey residents."

Wall Street Notebook

By ARTHUR POLLACK

One of my customers recently asked a most provocative question: Shouldn't I take more profits here? Hasn't the market run ahead too fast (and perhaps too far)? After all— isn't the good news all out?

"Good questions. And no easy answers. But searching for answers stimulates thinking. In the first place, answers to questions such as 'Should I take profits here?' depend upon the individual investor's point of view. For those who are short-term oriented... it seems difficult to argue against 'taking profits.' Wasn't it Mr. Morgan who said: 'No one ever goes broke taking profits?'"

My customer has a good point in the third question: Certainly much of the good news is out. Many of the things which investors have been awaiting out recently have been resolved. Or at least appear near resolution. For example, at long last, the site for Vietnam peace talks has been agreed upon... and actual peace talks have begun. Second, much of the concern over a possible squeeze on margins (as a result of escalating wage costs) and a consequent shrinking of profits— has disappeared. First quarter profits reflected a near 13 percent increase.

THIRD—FIRST QUARTER balance of payments figures reflect a two thirds reduction in our BOP deficit... from $1.8 billion to $600 million. Fourth—despite continued foot-dragging by congress (and a sort of yo-yo phenomenon with respect to the tax increase; it's on—it's off...we will—we won't...etc.) we do seem nearer general agreement with respect to actual tax increases.

A consensus has been achieved with respect to a possible $10-billion increase income taxes... the hangup at the moment revolves around whether or not a $6-billion cutback in Federal spending may be "too much." Certainly, concern over all of these problems has been responsible for much of the lack of investor enthusiasm... prior to April 1. But we must agree with my customer's observation that much of the good news is now out.

At this point, many investors appear to believe that further upward progress by the Market will have to be predicted on favorable news developments in either one or both of two principal areas: 1) progress in the Paris peace talks... and 2) progress in our efforts to reduce substantially the nation's "dual deficit" (in the Federal budget...and in our balance of payments).

IN ADDITION, OF course, there is the election in November. However, all of this involves—in my judgment—basically short-term considerations. It is a medium-to-longer-term view... I believe this is no time to be "out of the market." Of course, all investors continue to face economic problems. Doubtless there will never be a day when investors need have no concern over economic problems. But today's problems (much like those of prior years) will be resolved.

For example, it is virtually unthinkable that our lawmakers will continue to dally and differ indefinitely with regard to gravely needed fiscal restraint. And certainly when higher taxes—and low spending become a fact rather than fiction... much progress will have been made toward reducing our Federal budget deficit—and curbing the present rate of galloping inflation.

Flea Market, test run feature antique car meet

Two special events will highlight the Eastern Spring Meet of the New Jersey Region Antique Automobile Club of America, which will be held on the grounds of the Memorial Co., Hanover avenue, Morristown, tomorrow and Saturday.

At 10 a.m. on Saturday, a number of the cars will take part in a Flying A run over a pre-arranged route. The drivers must adhere to all traffic regulations, including lights and stop street signs, and must return to the field within the specified match time.

Nearly 600 automobiles are expected, according to Samuel Albert of Madison, chairman of the event. Buses from 16 states will drive their cars to the Mennen field. A member of the host club anticipates 4,000 members to attend the meet. The total expected attendance is estimated from 8-10,000 visitors.

For those who are in the charge of Kiwanis members, ample space will be available through the courtesy of neighboring businesses and industry.

A flag-raising ceremony will be held at noon. Judging will take place on Saturday between noon and 3 p.m. Thirty different classes of automobiles will be entered for judging.

Production cars are those specially built between 1930 and 1949. Some cars will begin to disperse for the home trip following the judging, but the main exodus will take place on Sunday, starting at 8 a.m.

A 'Greenbelt' for nature lovers

'Ice-age' forest blooms in a living laboratory

Despite encroachments of "megalopolis," Rutgers University has managed to retain a "greenbelt" for the enjoyment of nature lovers and for scientific research.

Within easy driving distance of the State University campuses here are several places of interest to those who appreciate natural beauty.

One of the last stands of primeval "ice age" forests, Hutcheson Memorial Forest, which serves as a "living laboratory" for Rutgers students, is located in East Millstone, a few miles from this city. The 65-acre tract, formerly known as Mettler's Woods, is surrounded by 70 acres of open fields which also serve as a valuable research site.

The forest, purchased for Rutgers in 1955 by the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners and named for the union's late president, William L. Hutcheson, serves as an invaluable source for the study of forest ecology.

The gardens serve as a testing ground for the well-known All-American ratings for new varieties of annuals as well as for other horticultural studies. Each year certain types of annual flowers are featured, Begonias, snapdragons and white petunias are sharing the spotlight with the 1967 and 1968 All-American winners.

The public is invited to view the gardens daily from sunrise to sundown. One Saturday a year the Department of Horticulture holds an open house at which department staff members are available to answer questions. A similar open house is held on the same Saturday on the Vegetable Farm where research is conducted on new varieties of vegetables.

The 1968 date for the event is July 27. In addition to display gardens, one of the most popular attractions is the lilac, azalea and rhododendron grove with its complement of flowering trees. This grove is at its best in early May while the display gardens start blooming at the end of June.

Other sources of greenery and natural beauty may be found in the apple and peach orchards on the college grounds. They serve as a source for experiments in breeding, pruning and spraying. The garden of small shrubs also draws visitors and is used in horticultural research.

A place for pleasant walks and independent study is Helyar's Woods, a 42-acre tract at the college named for the late Dr. Frank C. Helyar who served as director of resident instruction at the college from 1907 to 1953. The forest is used and managed by the forestry section of the college for teaching, research and demonstration. Brochures have been provided for a self-guided nature walk and guided tours may be arranged.

In fact, guided tours of the other "greenbelt" facilities at the college are again available. For several years the guided tours were abandoned in favor of self-guided ones, but now they have been resumed during the academic year when college students are available to serve as guides. Arrangements for such excursions may be made through Dr. Westervelt Griffin, assistant dean of the College of Agriculture and Environmental Science.

Edward T. Pearson of Westfield is the new president of Amateur Astronomers, Inc., succeeding Anthony Paone, also of Westfield. Pearson was elected at the organization's recent annual meeting at Union College, Cranford.

John F. Shea of Westfield was reelected vice president, Allen Stearns of Bound Brook was reelected corresponding secretary, and Samuel Hecht of 908 Peachtree rd., Union, was reelected treasurer.

Volkswagen introduces the automatic stick shift.

After 10 these many years our humble little bug has gone automatic.

One is the clutch. One is the wifely whine. "It's cute, but I can't drive it."

One is an era of Volkswagendom. Sniff. And in its place?

"A Volkswagen you can drive all over town without shifting.

Only on the highway do you shift.

Once. (This is an economy move. Which, after all, is still the name of the game.)

But you do have a choice in the matter: you can drive it the easy way described above. Or you can start out in low and take it through the gears like a regular stick shift.

The automatic stick shift is an option you pay a little more.

But you do a little less.

Registration open for Union CYO's summer day camp

Raymond S. Molnar, Union County CYO Program Director, announced this week that registrations are now being accepted for the 1968 Day Camp season.

The season will begin on Monday, June 24, and close on Friday, Aug. 16, with camp open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 3:15 p.m. Bus service will be provided at an extra charge, Molnar said.

A staff of 51 people will supervise the activities, according to Molnar. It will include 22 adult instructors and 29 junior counselors. They will serve at two campsites: St. Michael's in Elizabeth and St. James in Springfield.

Norbert G. Van Bergen, assistant program director, will coordinate the activities for both camps. Directing the Elizabeth camp will be Thaddeus Leonard, a teacher in the Elizabeth school system. Assisting Leonard will be Miss Susan Crystal, swim director and Eddie Smith, arts and crafts director.

Directing the Springfield camp will be Rudy Fender, a teacher in the Bond Brook school system. Assisting Fender will be Miss Carol Downey, Swim Director and Melvin Weiss, arts and crafts director.

Again this year, the CYO program will offer four week enrollments for campers who do not wish to complete the full season program. The first four week session will run from June 24 to July 15 and the second from July 22 to Aug. 16.

The camp program includes games, arts and crafts, shows, swimming, tours and trips to Sandy Hook State Park and Lake Hopatcong. A new addition to the program this year is Miss Anje Lucco, Music Director.

"Call 354-4747 for a free brochure. Registration is limited," Molnar said.

The best reason for buying a Volvo is because it lasts so long. Exactly how long we don't guarantee. But we do know that over 95% of all the Volvos registered in the United States in the last 11 years are still on the road.

The best reason for buying a Volvo now, is because we have a few in stock. And frankly, we don't expect to have them around too long.

Which brings up an interesting paradox about Volvos. Our customers like to buy them because they last. We like to sell them because they don't.

"Information" is dead.

Long live "Directory Assistance"

We called this telephone service the wrong name. So, many people called for the wrong reasons.

Information Operators spent most of their time looking up numbers in local directories. They've also been called for train schedules, baseball scores and whatnot.

So, we've changed the name of this service. It's now Directory Assistance.

We think this new name is much better. After all, that's what the service is for. To assist you with numbers not in your directory: numbers outside your directory area and new numbers not yet listed.

How do you call Directory Assistance? The same way you called Information before it died.

But whenever you have to call Directory Assistance, it's always helpful to have a pencil and your personal phone list handy so you can jot down the number. Then, you won't lose time when you want to call the same person again.

If you'd like a handy booklet to keep your personal numbers in, or a directory for other areas you call often, just call your Telephone Business Office. We'll be glad to send them to you.

Directory Assistance: to help us serve you better.

UC to hold institute in astronomy

A summer institute in astronomy for high school students will be offered in activities at the Sperry Observatory at Union College, it was announced this week by Anthony Paone of Westfield, director.

The institute will run from Aug. 12 to 23. About 20 students who will be entering their senior year in high school will participate, Paone said.

Each high school in Union County has been invited to nominate a student to participate in the institute, which will be financed under Title III of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965. There will be no tuition or fees. The institute will be held daily, Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. to noon and several evenings.

"During the two-week institute, each student will develop an original project in astronomy under the guidance of members of the Sperry Observatory staff," Paone said. "The aim of the institute is to determine the scientific interest of each student, to provide an opportunity to go into one aspect of astronomy in some detail, and to become acquainted with equipment available in an astronomical observatory."

The institute is part of the Cranford public school system's Title III project, "Operational Astronomy: The Earth and Beyond."

Outlook bright after golf team finishes 7-8-2

By MYRON MEISEL

Despite youth and inexperience, the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School golf team, under the direction of Adam LaSota, finished with a 7-8-2 record.

With no seniors on the squad, sophomores and juniors had to carry the load and the fine job they did bodes well for next season. Harvey Cohen, Bob Frank, and Gary Katz served as anchor men this season. Cohen and Frank are juniors; Katz, a sophomore.

Several other promising golfers emerged this year. Craig Andrews, in his first year of playing the sport, did a surprisingly good job. If he keeps up the strong work, he should do quite well for the Bulldogs in 1969. Alan Garawitz, Jay Silverman and Mike McCourt also will be valuable assets in coming years. Sophomores David Epstein and Donald Lan, although erratic, should help considerably. In addition, there is a sizeable corps of freshmen who gained valuable experience this season and will be heard from in the future.

Although traditionally a power in the title tournaments, Springfield this year did not compete in the Union County or state events, although several individual golfers competed. Cohen and Frank in the state, and Frank and Andrews in the county. In addition, Frank, Andrews, Garawitz, and Katz will compete as individuals in the Metropolitan Junior Championships beginning in Bernardsville June 27.

Coach LaSota commented on the team and its prospects for next year. "We have all of our lettersmen returning, and I certainly hope to have a better season. We will definitely be back in competition for all titles.

"Next year will be our final shot at the Watching Conference title before Dayton withdraws, and I would like to win that again. There will be another opportunity to win the Union County championship, which has always eluded us, even during the years when we were state champions. Next year could be the year."

Bulldogs' victories give Westfield title

By MYRON MEISEL

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School baseball team closed its 1968 season last week with three victories that determined the Watching Conference championship. By defeating first-place Cranford High School twice, and then the new first place team, Rahway High School; two days later, the Bulldogs backed Westfield High School into the title. Although Dayton, with its final season record of 10-3-3 (7-5-3 Watching Conference), finished fifth, its superlative closing showing provided a strong argument that Springfield may once again be back as a conference power.

Dayton split decisions this season with the first-place Blue Devils, as well as with the second-place Rahway squad. The Bulldogs twice beat Cranford (which tied Rahway for second). Against the best teams in the conference, Dayton made its strongest showing. Furthermore, most of the young squad will be back next season, making the outlook strong for a possible conference title in 1969.

The first Cranford contest was reported here last week. The next day, Dayton trounced the Cougars again, 6-3. Tony Gromek, going all the way, received the victory.

Springfield took an early lead, scoring one run in the first as Steve Jupa, after walking and stealing second, scored on Rich Sellkoff's long double to right field. Dayton tallied two more in the second on four hits. Joel Millman led off with a single and moved to second on a pitcher's error. Jupa (who went two-for-two for the day) then singled him home. Later in the inning, with Gary Kurtz on second and Sellkoff on first, Fred Volherst singled up the middle to score Kurtz.

In the third, however, Cranford took advantage of weak defensive ball by the Bulldogs to tie up the game. Dayton rebounded in the fourth when, with two out and Millman on first, Jupa walked. Kurtz then stepped to plate and landed a solid blast into right field for a triple and two RBI, giving the Bulldogs a 5-3 edge.

Dayton stretched that lead to 6-3 in the sixth. Alan Fridkis walked and advanced to second on Gromek's sacrifice. Then, with two away, Jupa got his second single of the day to score Fridkis.

RAHWAY PROVED a fitting conclusion to the season, as Jupa, concluding with a fine mound record of 7-2-1, hurled a perfect game for six innings, yielding only one hit in the seventh. Jupa should be one of the finest pitchers around next season.

Dayton scored its one run in the fourth. Kurtz smashed a double to center field. The next batter hit a short ball to the left of the center fielder, who quickly threw it to the third baseman. Kurtz successfully slid under the tag and scored on a fielder's choice on the next play.

Ed Jasinski is head coach for the Bulldogs, with Mike Ianelli serving as assistant and junior varsity coach. Mark Quinn was the team manager.

Dayton's victories came over the following teams: Millburn, Rahway-Westfield, David Brearley Regional of Kenilworth (2), Governor Livingston Regional of Berkeley Heights, Hillsdale, Arthur L. Johnston Regional of Clark, Edison Technical of Elizabeth and Cranford (2). It lost to Rahway, Westfield, Clark, Scotch Plains-Fanwood (2), Summit, Whippany Park and Union.

Chamber wins two in National, boosts streak to 9 in row

Chamber of Commerce won its eighth straight game in the Youth Minor National League, defeating Concrete Block of Irvington, 11-6. Ken Stelnach pitched two-hit ball to win, with good support from Michael Greenberg, Bobby Maguire, Michael Mitch and Marc Buzin. Eddy Zurav took the loss, Dan Halsey was the leading hitter for the losers, with two base hits.

Conte's defeated Sam's Friendly Service, 19-6, with Tim Merkel collecting the victory, and Dave Kessler, the loss. Billy Francis got on base four times for Conte's, and made a great catch in left field. Eric Green was the leading batter for Sam's, rapping out a single, double and triple in three times at bat. Andy Armour, Conte's catcher, played a great game behind the plate, tagging out two of Sam's runners as they tried to score.

Chamber of Commerce won its ninth straight, beating the Fire Department, 13-9. The Fire Department took a 9 to 3 lead in the third inning, but Chamber came right back with seven runs in the bottom of the third. Hitting stars for the Fire Department were Mark Caprio and Ron and Larry LaPoint, who was the losing pitcher. Tommy Moore was the winner, with some fine clutch pitching. Michael Blackman and Robby Cohen helped Chamber, batting in key runs.

Wesley Jewellers scored three runs in the last inning to defeat Bunnell Brothers, 13-10. Steve Pepe was the winning pitcher for Wesley, and Dave Armstrong went three for four at the plate. Alan Wyman, the losing pitcher, went three for three. Gene Meyer and Jeff Marshall had home runs for the losers.

The Fire Department defeated Wesley Jewellers, 17-7, sparked by Rich Calabrese's three hits. Jim Botta was the power hitter for Wesley with three hits, one a grand-slam homer. John Kronert was the winning pitcher, and Steve Pepe, the loser.

BUNNELL BROS. gained an 11-9 victory over Elkay Products behind the pitching of Don Fishelin. Mark Bloom homered for the winners, and Jeff Marshall tripled. Marvin Wright hit a triple for Elkay, and Barry Segall hit two singles. Mike Hirsh was the losing pitcher.

Conte's Dell lost to Elkay Products, 17-11. Ken Stewart was the winning pitcher, and Michael Davis, the loser. Pat Pree tripled and doubled for Elkay, and Eric Geist got three hits. Marvin Wright did a great relief job for the winners. Michael Davis, the losing pitcher, had two doubles, and Tony Francis two singles.

Sam's Friendly Service swamped Bunnell Bros., 23-9. Joel Gelwarg went three for three for Sam's, while Ira Brown had an unassisted double play, and Ned Erran played the defensive ball in center field. Mick Martin had a single for Bunnell. Dave Brown was outstanding at shortstop. Joel Gelwarg was the winning pitcher; Alan Wyman, the loser.

Sam's Friendly Service overpowered the Fire Department, 21-14. Brian Mercer had two hits for Sam's, including a home run, and Joel Gelwarg had a single and a double. Nick Morris pitched well in relief for the Fire Department, and Sis Kaufmann played a strong defensive game at first base. Dave Kosler was the winning pitcher, Sam Kaston, the loser.

JERSEY QUEEN—Maureen E. Higgins of East Orange, a student at Newark State College. Union, unpacks supplies she will utilize in competition at the National College Queen Pageant, to be held now through Monday in New York City and West Palm Beach, Florida. Miss Higgins was selected New Jersey representative in the contest.

Fund allows programs for children at Center

The Garden State Arts Center this week announced establishment of a special fund from contributions to finance programs especially designed for the young people of New Jersey.

Executive Director D. Louis Tonti said the Garden State Arts Center Fund, created and administered by the New Jersey Highway Authority, is dedicated to providing "cultural enrichment to our young people and particularly to the disadvantaged."

The fund is to be built up in the first instance with contributions made by purchasers of box seats for the first season of the Arts Center at Telegraph Hill Park on the Garden State Parkway. The Center opens this week.

In conjunction with the fund planning, a series of special matinee programs at the Arts Center for children from low-income areas is being arranged this summer.

As an initial step, underprivileged children from New Jersey's larger cities will be brought to the Arts Center to listen to rehearsals for scheduled night performances.

Dr. Henry Lewis, the newly-appointed musical director of the New Jersey Symphony, has given the Authority permission to invite such youngsters to rehearsals he has scheduled for the orchestra at the Arts Center in late June and July. Clinton C. Crocker, special assistant to Tonti and a former music instructor in Newark schools, is handling arrangements for the special matinees.

Tonti said the fund is intended to advance and sustain the cultural life of the young citizens of New Jersey, and towards that end the Center will provide programs especially designed for youngsters by outstanding professional and amateur musicians.

Ask Amy

By AMY ADAMS

Dear Amy:
I need your help! I've always gotten along well with my mother, but now there's something I find hard to tell her.

I'm pregnant! I'm a 15-year-old student and my marks are good, I don't even date much, although I do have a boyfriend who comes to the house often.

My mother appears to like him quite well, but she'd never forgive him if she knew the truth, how can I tell her?

Troubled

It's quite obvious that you have a boyfriend who comes to the house often... to offend you are responsible for this unfortunate situation as is the boy. Tell your mother immediately. You need her help... NOW!

Dear Amy:
I am 17 years old and I've been married one year and we've always lived with my mother-in-law. Well, my husband and I bought a farm which we've had about 7 months. But my mother-in-law took the house over; she took the yard over; she took the garden over. She's taken over everything but my husband and she's almost got him, too.

I want what every married woman wants. I want a home that's mine and to live alone with my husband. We do not have any privacy here in our supposed "home". Many times I have wanted to tell my mother-in-law off but I haven't the nerve to say anything, and it's driving me crazy. I liked her a lot when we were married, but when she claimed my house, I felt myself beginning to hate her. I've tried and tried to get along with her but I can't.

She has other children with whom she could live. But she doesn't. Please tell-me-what-to-do!

Had It!

Dear Had It:
According to the results of a recent survey, young marrieds were warned to watch out for that marriage wrecker - MILT - mother-in-law trouble!

Urge your husband to put his mother-up elsewhere... far enough so that she can't visit too often. The sooner done, the better, (It's surprising, but distance lends enchantment.)

Dear Amy:
I have been dating a certain boy for three months. We are both college seniors. We get along very well as our backgrounds and religions are similar. My only complaint is that he never calls during the week to ask me out,

Arts Center opens tomorrow night under the stars

The Arts Center opens an inaugural season of music from and under the stars this week.

Set atop Telegraph Hill Park here on the Garden State Parkway, the roadside home for the performing arts will begin its first season with an official preview Wednesday evening and the public premiere the next night.

Eugene Ormandy and the Philadelphia Orchestra with pianist Van Cliburn as guest soloist, will strike the first note in a season of classical and popular music at the Center's 5,000-seat covered amphitheater and spacious surrounding lawn.

The same celebrated artists will appear during each of the three nights in the Arts Center's inaugural week, the Ormandy-conducted orchestra and Cliburn are performing at the preview as well as at the two classical subscription series opens today and Saturday.

They will be followed in subsequent weeks of the premier season by such performers as Judy Garland; Royal Philharmonic Orchestra of London; Diana Ross and the Supremes; Jeffrey Baller; Harry Belafonte; Roberta Peters and Jan Peerce; Victor Borge; Peter, Paul & Mary; and Andy Williams.

The $6 3/4-million cultural complex was designed by famed architect Edward Durrell Stone and built by the New Jersey Highway Authority as a Parkway roadside development under terms of the 1952 law which created it.

Accessible only from the 173-mile Parkway both north and south, the Arts Center is the first recreational-cultural establishment of its kind to be built along a superhighway. The Authority operates the toll road and will administer the Parkway's Arts Center.

New Jersey Governors past and present are due to head the audiences of first-nighters during the opening week, Gov. Richard J. Hughes being scheduled to take the pre-performance stage for the public premiere on Thursday.

While season subscriptions are closed—both classical series were sold out several weeks ago, there remain single-evening tickets for all performances. All 3,500-to-4,000 reserved lawn spaces and a number of amphitheater seats in all areas were kept out of the subscription offer to be left for single-ticker sales.
