Assault case dismissed

By VICTORIA VREELAND

A complaint filed against two Springfield teachers for allegedly assaulting a sixth-grade Florence Gaudineer student was dismissed on technical — rather than substantive — grounds in Summit Municipal Court Monday.

The case was dismissed when Donald Rinaldo, attorney for complainant Sue DiNorscio, failed to appear.

DiNorscio had filed a complaint charging Gaudineer teachers Joe Blanda and Jo Ann Pieper with each assaulting her son in two incidents on Feb. 5.

According to accounts of the alleged assault, Pieper initially grabbed the boy by the hair after he refused to report to the office for falling on the playground.

As the student was returning from the office, sources said, he was allegedly grabbed by Blanda, picked up by the collar and shaken. Sources said the boy broke free and ran out of the school building, but was pursued by teachers who returned him to the office.

The student's mother was contacted and he was suspended from school for a week. The suspension was reduced to "in-house" after a parent conference with members of the administration.

Superintendent Dr. Fred Baruchin was directed by the Board of Education to investigate the incident. He was censured by the board five weeks later for allegedly failing to investigate the incident and report to the board.

Yale Greenspoon, board attorney, who took written statements from students who witnessed the incident, has stated the contents of the statements will remain confidential.

DiNorscio signed the complaint in Springfield Municipal Court, but the case was subsequently transferred to Summit when Springfield Municipal Court Judge Robert Weltcher disqualified himself.

After dismissing the case, Summit Municipal Court Judge Russell Hulstizer said that he would be "very disinclined" to reopen the case unless Rinaldo had been subject to "a severe illness or possible automobile accident" which would have prevented him from appearing in court.

Richard Usian, attorney for Blanda, told the court that he was prepared with 15 witnesses. Township Committeeman Philip Feintuch was scheduled to testify as a character witness for Blanda. Among others in the courtroom were Springfield Recreation Director Joseph Rappapano, Helene Koslofski, principal of Gaudineer, Juvenile Detective Edward Kisch, a number of teachers and PTA representatives. The two teachers were congratulated by their colleagues and appeared pleased by the dismissal.

At the conclusion of the hearing, Greenspoon asked the court to impose sanctions on Rinaldo to recover approximately $800 in expenses the board would incur for the day. Greenspoon said three to four substitutes were hired to replace teachers who were subpoenaed as witnesses, as well as the two teachers charged, in addition to his fee and the two defendants' legal fees.

Greenspoon said preliminary research has uncovered a state statute which provides that in cases of this type, the employer is responsible for the legal fees of employees who are acquitted. By sanctioning Rinaldo, Greenspoon believes the board may be able to recover some of its expenses. He called Rinaldo's no-show "without excuse and approaching the unconscionable," and said the board will be a total throwing out of money.

According to Katherine Walde, Rinaldo's secretary, when the attorney discovered he would be tied up in court in Union Monday morning, he advised her to contact the Summit court clerk's office and request an adjournment. Walde said when she contacted the court and received a recording, she gave her message to the Summit township clerk. Walde said she was assured that the message had been relayed to the court clerk and that the adjournment was granted.

It was not until late in the afternoon when Rinaldo received a call asking where he was that morning, that Walde realized there had been a foul-up. "No one told me that the adjournment was not granted, or that the case would be dismissed," Walde explained. In the event she was advised that the adjournment was not going to be granted, Walde said she would have told Rinaldo it was necessary for him to appear.

According to the Summit court clerk, the only message he received was that Rinaldo would be there. The defendants and their attorneys were unavailable for comment Tuesday.

Judge Hulstizer advised Greenspoon that a formal motion would have to be filed if the board wishes to impose sanctions. According to Greenspoon, the board was expected to discuss the measure last night.

Two units set up for cop talks

By VICTORIA VREELAND

For the first time in the history of the township, two bargaining units will be set up to negotiate with the township.

Mayor Edward Fanning said the township committee has approved the creation of two bargaining units for police and firefighters.

Deputy Mayor Stanley Kalish said the two units will increase the township's cost for itself, but Stephen Kuznetsov, township labor attorney, will negotiate both contracts, Kalish said.

"It is an expensive process from everyone's point of view," he commented. However, Kalish said the committee is expecting total duplication of negotiation costs.

Kalish said it is hoped the major contract terms for both units will be worked out in the patrolmen's contract, which will require a smaller portion of time to be spent on different issues in the supervisory officers contract.

Committeeman Philip Feintuch said Feintuch said he recommended the removal of supervisors from the bargaining unit because it was "illegal." According to Feintuch, state statute prohibits supervisors from being in the bargaining unit, "with the people they supervise."

"In the final analysis, I think the employees will also be pleased. They can be concerned only with the issues that are unique to their bargaining unit," Feintuch said. In another police matter, the committee authorized advertisement for the department.

According to Fanning, the specifications call for separate weapons for patrolmen and detectives. The former will be equipped with 9-millimeter handguns, the type most departments in the state use. They will have a 14-round or higher capacity.

Smaller 9-mm guns, with a 12-round capacity, will be purchased for the detectives.

Equipment at I-78 site stolen over weekend

Thieves preyed on two construction trailers at the Interstate Route 78 construction site in Springfield sometime over the weekend and made off with more than $20,000 worth of computer equipment.

According to Dennis Panchyshyn in the Union County Police Information Office, the theft of the equipment — two monitors, two keyboards, two printers and a coffee machine valued at $45 — was reported to county police by a manager at the job site, the final link of the Interstate highway through the Watchung Reservation.

The theft occurred sometime between 8 p.m. Friday and 8:30 a.m. Monday, when the manager discovered that the locks had been forced off the two trailers, which belong to the Yonkers Construction Company Inc., he said.

Panchyshyn said that the company claims that a security firm was retained to patrol the construction site. A spokesman for the security firm reportedly said, however, that it was not responsible for guarding the trailers that were robbed.

The site is located on what was once the old Houdaille Quarry, through which the final 5.5 mile section of the highway is under construction.

Panchyshyn said the investigation of the robbery is being headed by Union County Police Detective Dennis Marillo.

No curbs on water, yet

Although a drought emergency has been declared in Northern New Jersey, township residents, who are serviced by the Commonwealth Water Co., will not immediately be affected by the situation.

With major reservoirs less than two-thirds full, Gov. Tom Kean yesterday declared an emergency restricting the use of water in most towns in Bergen, Passaic and Morris counties.

A "dry" spell has left the state's major reservoirs at 61.7 percent of capacity. At this time of the year, reservoirs are normally 90-percent full.

According to Shirley Howell, public relations spokesman for Commonwealth, located in Short Hills, "the supply is adequate. Our reservoirs are 90-percent full, which is normal for this time of year."

Mrs. Howell, however, urged customers to be cautious in their use of water at all times "because it is a natural resource" and rainfall has been below normal since last August.

"But there are no restrictions for our customers at this time," she emphasized.

Two Dems get nods for Assembly race

The legislative district encompasses Hillsdale, Garwood, Cranford, Hemletworth, Springfield, Union, Westfield, Roselle and Roselle Park.

Rucolo, a partner in the Westfield law firm of DiRienzo and Rucolo, previously served as an assistant U.S. Attorney from 1981 to 1984.

In announcing his candidacy, Rucolo said that he is committed to the best traditions of the Democratic Party, which embrace an "active government" committed to social and economic justice." Rucolo added, "However, as a progressive Democrat, I disdains programs dependent on unresponsive bureaucracies. I favor programs which seek to address the problems facing New Jersey by harnessing the energies and expertise of the private sector."

Murder suspect still in county jail

Hannah Ghanem, the 23-year-old Palestinian, who has been charged with the murder of Springfield resident Sylvia Karpovics, remains in the Union County Jail, although her bail was set at $1 million to $200,000.

Accepting it as certain that Ghanem's bail will be paid by her attorney, the county prosecutor's office has set a date for her trial.

Prosecution officials said that Ghanem was arrested in Springfield on March 11, 1982, after a search of her apartment in Springfield revealed the murder weapon.

Should he be arrested on such charges, he would be held in a detention center in New York City.

Ghanem was arrested at his attorney's home in Plainfield in December by Springfield police and transferred to the Major Crimes Unit of the United County Prosecutor's Office. He was charged with the 1982 slaying and beating death of Karpovics, the 36-year-old wife of her husband, who was also a resident of Springfield.

The murder of Karpovics was reported in the Springfield Leader on March 12, 1982. She was reported to have been murdered in the presence of her husband.

Rotarians plan benefit

The Springfield Rotary Club will hold a flea market Sunday from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. on the grounds of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Mountain Avenue, Springfield. The rain date is April 23.

The benefit event will feature games, prizes, antiques, handcrafts, general merchandise and collectibles. There will be a white elephant sale and a raffle. Hot dogs and soft drinks will be sold.

The flea market will help raise money which the club will be able to donate back to the community through scholarships and other "worthy causes."

The Springfield Rotary, which is made up of local businessmen, rotarians and professionals, who meet weekly to "learn more about their community through local speakers," work together to make their community a better place to live.

The funds which they donate to help children and charities are raised through a series of annual fund-raising events. It is estimated that about $100,000 has been donated to charity since the club's inception. It also has donated funds to other causes, such as the Children's Specialized Hospital and college funds for the Springfield Public Department.

Additional information about the flea market can be obtained by calling 378-3319.

Town library hikes its fees

The Springfield Public Library has increased its fees for overdue books from the current $1.00 to $1.50.

According to Library Director Curtis Moore, the increase is necessary to help defray the cost of the library's operating expenses.

The new fees, which went into effect Monday, are 50 cents per day for overdue books from the current $1.00 to $1.50.

Genova to keep office in Cranford

Newly-elected 21st Legislative District State Assemblyman Peter J. Genova will keep the district office in Cranford at 26 North Ave. East. This office was formerly occupied by the late Assemblyman Edward K. Gill, whom Genova succeeded.

Genova, 40, a Union Township committeeman, was sworn in Monday. He was elected to fill the vacancy in a special election held March 23.

Genova said the decision to keep the office where it is "was based on some very important considerations. There is no justification in spending additional taxpayer monies on a relocation to another office and community. Cranford, geographically, is centrally located among the nine communities in the 21st Assembly District, and it is accessible.

"With State Sen. Louis Basano's office in Union, Minority Leader Chuck Hardwick's office in Westfield, and mine in Cranford, this will allow for easy access and accommodation for the people of the 21st District, to contact their state representatives," Genova continued.

"Additionally," Genova concluded, "the Township of Cranford is

Drivers fined in town court

The man, Fernando Goncalves, 31, pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $1,015 and a $100 surcharge, in addition to 90 days in jail, 90 days of community service, and a 10-year revocation. Goncalves also pleaded guilty to driving while on the revoked list and was fined $1,015, 10 days in jail, and a six-month revocation. He received a year's probation when he pleaded guilty to possession of less than 25 grams of marijuana.

Bruce Pinelli, 34, of Warren, was found guilty of driving while under the influence of alcohol. He was fined $285 and a $100 surcharge, in addition to a six-month revocation and 12 hours in the Intoxicated Drivers Resource Center.

Campaign presses for bottle bill vote

The Can and Bottle Bill Campaign has called on the state Assembly to vote on A-2005, the Can and Bottle Bill, Monday, the 15th anniversary of Earth Day. The "Call for Assembly Consideration" was signed by more than 250 leaders of environmental and community groups, public works and recreation directors, and environmental commissioners.

"Enough is enough," said Cameron Johnson, president of the New Jersey Environmental Lobby. "The legislature has avoided the Can and Bottle for 14 years. It's time for a vote."

Recycling experts to gather Tuesday

Recycling does pay for business, as many firms, large and small, are proving throughout New Jersey. On Tuesday, the second annual state-wide business recycling seminar, co-sponsored by the New Jersey State Chamber of Commerce and the New Jersey Department of Energy, Office of Recycling, will demonstrate how.

The comprehensive seminar will be held at the Holiday Inn, Garden State Parkway exit 82, in Tom's River. The Ocean County-Toms River Chamber of Commerce will serve as host.

Pros offer the tool of the '80s

The austere, professional facade of Westwood Computers in Springfield may mislead the average computer user. Behind the facade, which resembles an office building, a computer-seeker will be treated to the largest variety of computer systems and equipment on display in the area, as well as to a discount.

Sandwiched between the billboard businesses of Route 22, Westwood Computers, which stretches some 17,000 square feet, is the site of the retail store, warehouse, repair center, and a training center for both customers and Westwood sales personnel.

In business for 20 years, Westwood moved from one highway location to its present, but remained in Springfield.

The company stocks products from major computer distributors such as Texas Instruments, Hewlett Packard, AT&T, Olivetti, and Esprit, along with some specialized products developed in its own engineering department.

Reed Porter, national marketing manager, said Westwood has been successful in computer interfacings - using different brands of equipment together. Porter said the Westwood engineering department steps in to determine workability when customers want to purchase equipment separately from different manufacturers.

The customer-support department plays a key role in the business, Porter said. Not only do customers need advice and guidance at the time of a purchase, but they also rely on the department for assistance with follow-up questions.

"Professionals" make up the sales team at Westwood. Each sales representative boasts a background of 15 to 20 years of computer experience. Porter said the first question customers shopping for computers at Westwood are asked is, "What do you want to do with it? Then, we offer the solution."

After the customer's needs are determined, the sales staff helps to find the tailor-made computer. Customers are also offered free computer instruction. In Westwood's training center, the staff receives the same training on new models because

Westwood Computers

"No two computers are exactly the same," according to Porter.

Westwood offers more than 61 types of personal computers, business computers, modems, software, paper peripherals, cables and discettes. It also sells used equipment.

The company runs a full service department and will repair any computer brand and regardless of where it was purchased, either on site or at the Route 22 headquarters. It keeps a fleet of servicemen on the road who are dispatched expeditiously by computer.

Westwood's service department covers New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Connecticut and Delaware. It ships computers to sites across the nation and across the ocean.

Westwood's clients include the U.S. Army and Navy, major universities and colleges, and local school systems. It also has been awarded a number of Government Service Administrative contracts to equip government agencies with computers.

Westwood features specially designed programs and office management systems for architect and realty firms. It has also developed its own software for insurance brokerage firms.

Computer leasing is also available at Westwood. Agreements range from a one-year minimum to a flexible maximum, with average agreements running one to five years. Leasing arrangements include free servicing for the extent of the contract.

New equipment is guaranteed for a minimum of 90 days and extended warranties are available.

In 1982, Westwood won a $16,000 award from Texas Instruments for the highest sales record in the country. Lou Tischler, founder and president of the company, proudly reported the bonus was distributed to Westwood employees.

Other executives include David Micalis, vice president, and Arthur Jones, vice president of engineering.

Westwood Computers, located next to The City on Route 22 East, Springfield, is open 8:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Friday and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturdays.

Summit YMCA set for April 29 classes

The Summit area YMCA is now registering for an 8-week session of classes to begin the week of April 29. The YMCA offers an extensive schedule of after-school programs for children and adults.

honored sports celebrities, both professional and amateur, male and female, who have proven outstanding in their fields. The awards and income generated by these banquets have increased tremendously, due primarily to the active role played by the volunteer committee, comprised of business men and women and sports celebrities.

According to Bill Pestinger, Public Relations Executive of the North Jersey Chapter, "the award winners are chosen strictly on their performance from the previous year."

Many of the athletes, including some of the award winners from previous years, have remained active in their work for the March of Dimes.

All Haji-Sheikh, who was the Giant of the Year in '84, is now a member of the Sports Award Banquet and does other work for the North Jersey Chapter.

The Jet of the Year, Freeman McNeil, said, "It's an honor to be involved with the March of Dimes." He is active in the North Jersey Chapter and finds the work very rewarding. "It's hard to explain what I get out of it, but it's a special kind of feeling."

Every year in the United States, thousands of children are born with birth defects. Both mental and physical. A large percentage of the children, as well as their parents, will carry the effects throughout their lives.

The courage that it takes for a gifted athlete to come through with a winning effort in a championship contest, admirable as it is, rates a notch below the courageous attitude with which these people face everyday life.

The sports stars themselves recognized that some of them could not win if it were not for the physical. A large percentage of the children, as well as their parents, will carry the effects throughout their lives.

MS golf tourney to be played May 6

Paul Zuckerman, chairman of the 12th annual Multiple Sclerosis Spring Golf Classic, has announced that this year's tournament, benefiting the Mid-Jersey Chapter of the National MS Society, will be sponsored in part by Doyle, Dane and Bernbach, one of the most prestigious advertising agencies in the country. This year's all-annual tournament will again be held at Plainfield Country Club in Edison on May 6 and will be limited to 54 foursomes. The events of the day will include the challenge of playing at one of the top 100 courses in the country as rated by Golf Digest magazine. Prior to the 8 a.m. shotgun start, a continental breakfast will be served starting at 7 for the morning round golfers. A buffet luncheon will be served between 11 a.m. and 12 noon, followed by the 1 p.m. shotgun for the afternoon round. A cocktail hour, followed by the awards dinner, begins at 7 p.m. The $200 entry fee covers greens fee, cart or caddy, continental breakfast, buffet, cocktail hour and dinner, favors and prizes. These participants who elect to golf during the morning round, will have full use of the club's facilities for tennis, squash and paddleball for afternoon relaxation. Arrangements can be made to play an additional nine holes of golf on the public course adjacent to the club for those who wish to do so. Because of last year's enthusiastic response, all 1984 players have priority. All reservations must be received with checks by tomorrow. Contributions are tax deductible and will be individually acknowledged. Further information may be obtained by calling 681-2322, 682-1455 (both 201 numbers) or (609) 588-5406.

Nets game aids education program

When the Midlantic Bank, as part of the New Jersey Nets Corporate Education Program, donated a block of tickets to the New Well Rehabilitation Center for the March 8 game against Seattle, it was not a typical game at the Meadowlands Arena. On top of the exciting night out as a professional basketball contest, which for many of the kids was their first over, the New Well Rehabilitation Center was a big winner. As it turned out, the Nets were holding a special promotion that evening where they gave away 10 gift certificates worth $200 from Fleming's Furniture and a grand prize of a Fleming's Fur Coat, valued at $7,500. When the ticket stubs were selected, the grand prize winner was a representative of New Well and the organization won the fur coat. "It was a blessing, winning that fur coat," said an ecstatic Ken Jones, youth organizer and computer controller of New Well. "We were simply delighted being able to attend the game. We owe Midlantic Bank one big 'Thank you.'"

Linden girl cagers struggle

By PETER SALMON
First year coach Santa Goleme experienced a tough first season as head coach of the Linden High girls' basketball team, going 7-14. The starters were Juniors Janet Tushy, Sheri Kranick, Dori James, Christina Weiss and sophomore Stephanie High. The bench consisted of three freshmen: Jackie Wall, Shonda Smith and Isabella Smalera. "Our season was disappointing in perspective, considering the youngsters," said Goleme. "There were five games I believe we should have won. We improved and the players got better during the season. It was my first year and it was hard for the girls to get used to the new team rules." Goleme does see a bright future, especially with all her starters coming back next year. Tushy led the Lady Tigers with a 13.4 scoring average, while Kranick was the top rebounder, averaging 10 a game.

They've got 'heart'

By RAE HUTTON
 Why would an otherwise typical teen-ager want to spend an extraordinary amount of time at school — even when classes are not in session?
 One reason might be that he or she is a member of Linden's award-winning Madrigal Singers, 10 talented and dedicated high school students who have sung their hearts out during this past year, bringing cheer to area senior citizens, civic groups and the hospitalized.
 Formed by Tom Pedas, vocal music director at Linden High School, the Madrigal Singers will represent Union County at Talent Expo '85 at the Garden State Arts Center in Holmdel April 27. The group won the county Talent Expo earlier this year.
 Members of the group, who say they see more of each other than they do of their families, often stay at school until 9 or 10 p.m., rehearsing, participating in extracurricular activities and even eating a quick dinner with each other and Pedas, who has affectionately come to be known as "Uncle Tom" to his family of singers.
 The original Madrigal Singers consisted of five students from the Concert Choir who performed at the high school's spring concert. After the concert, Pedas held auditions and chose 11 students from the 40-member Linden High School Concert Choir to become the Madrigal Singers.
 Three of the original five, Sue Stewart and Nancy and Debbie Pohl, have been joined by brothers Khayan and Omar Garner, brothers James and Jonathan Parham, Andy Pekosz, Anna Maria Asie and Jill Seeburg to form the present "family" of madrigals. The 11th member, Stacy Hays, was forced to drop out because of a lack of time, something on which Pedas and the others are also running low.
 Since there are only 10 members in the group, each must be a gifted and talented musician and must be able to read music well in order to learn a large variety of music quickly, according to the director.

Linden's Madrigal Singers

They've all got 'heart'

 Pedas explained that the singers' large repertoire consists not only of the difficult madrigals, which are non-religious vocal pieces sung without accompaniment, but also current show tunes performed with choreography. Cheri Gonor, who has worked with Pedas on Linden Summer Playhouse productions, is the choreographer.
 In the repertoire are a 1920s medley, "Somewhere" from "West Side Story," and "Over the Rainbow" from "The Wizard of Oz." The less well-known madrigals, Pedas explained, are the songs sung in the Elizabethan era, in King Arthur's Court.
 Each member must be totally independent in his part. At times, the singers are in motion while singing. Many of the songs sung by the Madrigals are in French, Hebrew, Polish, German and Latin.
 The singers must be extremely dedicated since all rehearsals are held after school and on weekends. In addition, the singers get no compensation for their efforts and must provide their own transportation to and from performances. Danc's Tuxedos in Linden provides tuxedos for the boys, and Linden's Choir Booster Club bought material for the girls' dresses.
 Debbie and Nancy Pohl noted that "We don't see our families very often. And they often get mad because we forget to tell them where we're going."
 The sisters recalled the day they were at the Linden Library and spontaneously sat in on a children's program which began while they were there.
 Nancy, who is ranked first in the junior class, said with rehearsals, the performances, Concert Choir programs and other school activities, she is sometimes up until "all hours" doing homework.

 The group's performing schedule has steadily increased to the point where it must now turn down requests. During this past Christmas season, the Madrigal Singers gave 25 performances at nursing homes, hospitals, senior citizen complexes, basketball games and various church and civic organizations in the county.
 Despite a heavy exam schedule during December, the Madrigal Singers performed to a standing ovation at Peach Orchard Towers Senior Citizens' Complex in Linden, where they remained after the show for dancing and socializing with the residents. On Jan. 1, they performed at swearing-in ceremonies for the Union County Freeholders.
 "We sometimes get three or four requests a night," said Pedas. "It's impossible to go everywhere. They've gotten so popular, they have to say no."
 Although Pedas is in charge of booking the singers' engagements, Pecos remembers one evening when the high schoolers took it upon themselves to do their own booking: "We were performing for one group and when we were finished, we went over to another room in the same building to sing for another group that was there," he said.
 All 10 members are involved in a variety of activities and the fact that they have any time at all is amazing.
 "We do it because we love to sing," said James Parham, who also is president of the Concert Choir. "We've gotten really close. We like to spend cheer."
 Perhaps the best answer to why the high schoolers do what they do comes from the 11th member of the group who dropped out earlier this year. "It takes a lot of dedication, a lot of time and energy. You have to make personal sacrifices. Each and everyone of them loves what they're doing or they wouldn't be in the group," said Hays, adding with a smile that "they're all entertainers, all hams."

 "They give 100 percent of themselves," she added. "It's a healthy competition. They push each other to their best."
 "They really do care for each other," echoed Pedas, recalling that joy suddenly turned to tears when some members of the madrigal "family" were chosen for All-State Chorus and others were not.
 "It's a healthy atmosphere," the director said, "and I'm proud of that."
 In addition to their singing talent, each of the Madrigal Singers is an honor student and a member of the Linden Summer Playhouse. All but one had roles in this year's school play, "Annie."
 Four of the singers — the two Garner brothers, Stewart and Debbie Pohl — performed in Atlantic City with the All-State Chorus. Nancy Pohl, an accomplished flutist, was selected for the Central Jersey Region II Band and the Garner brothers, Stewart, Pecos and James Parham are members of the Central Jersey Region II Chorus.
 Stewart, who played the title role in "Annie," attended the Governor's School for the Performing Arts last summer and also was selected for the All-Eastern (United States) Chorus. Both Seeburg, who also competes with some 10 or 12 other show choirs at Jersey City State College in a "tough" competition for the eastern United States.

 Where do these teen-agers find the time to take part in so many activities?
 "If you want to do something badly enough, you do," answered Pedas, who recently had to give up his spot with the New York Choral Society because the Madrigal Singers had become so popular.
 Perhaps Nancy Pohl's answer wraps up what the group is all about: "You have to set your priorities."

Parenting

Newsletter to aid working parents

The 1980 census revealed that there are 300,000 children under the age of six years in New Jersey who have employed mothers. The same census also reported 40,000 children living in single parent male headed households. The movement of large numbers of women into the workplace has placed additional pressures on parents raising children today.
 To help parents cope with their dual role of work and parenting, a newsletter series, "Working Parents of Pre-Schoolers," has been developed. This series is available free to the public without regard to race, color, national origin, sex or handicap.
 Topics included in the newsletter series are as follows:
 Letter I, Why Are More Parents Working Today? Letter II, Who's Watching Our Children? Letter III, Time Management Letter IV, Mealtime: Letter V, Money Management; Letter VI, Which Comes First—The Child or The Job?

The letter series is being made available by calling the Cooperative Extension office at 233-9366.
 THE RESOURCE CENTER for Women in Summit is planning a four-week discussion workshop series for those women who have recently had a baby and are now mothering more than one. Discussions will include some specifics on growth and development, dealing with the emotional needs of the expanding family, what are realistic expectations of your loved ones and anything else you may want to share with the group.
 The group leader will be Anne Keyser, R.N., M.S.N., with training in family therapy. The series will be at The Women's Resource Center April 25, May 2, May 9 and May 16 from 9-5 p.m. The series will cost $25. There will be babysitting for older children and babies will be welcome in the room with mothers. Space is limited, so early registration is recommended by calling the Center at 273-7253.

Paper Mill 'shows off' with some old friends

By BEA SMITH
 It's a wonderful feeling to be transported from the harsh music of today into yesteryear's era of romance through the lovely musical tunes of Jerome Kern and Oscar Hammerstein 2nd — even if it's only for a few hours. And the transportation can be considerably heightened by the magnificent voices enhancing the Kern-Hammerstein offerings at the Paper Mill.
 One can experience all this and more at the Paper Mill Playhouse in Millburn, which can proudly boast that its current production, "Show Boat," is one of the best musicals it has ever presented to the public.
 Just imagine listening dreamily to such songs as "Make Believe" (and believing) or "You Are Love" or "Why Do I Love You?" or "Bill." And when you've had your fill of the romantic tunes, how about something more robust, such as the classic "Ol' Man River," or the bouncing "Goodbye My Lady Love," "Life Upon the Wicked Stage" or "After the Ball." Then, of course, there's the famous "Can't Help Loving Dat Man of Mine."
 "Showboat," which is a show with so much appeal, is based on Edna Ferber's novel of the same name, and it is set down south on the Mississippi from 1880 to 1927. It stars veteran actor Eddie Bracken as Cap'n Andy, whose showboat, "Cotton Blossom," is the theme and backdrop of the story. And seeing Bracken on stage is almost like greeting an old friend from the movies of the 1940s and 1950s. He's amazingly unchanged; his style of comedy happily has endured all these many years, and his physical appearance is virtually the same. (Great to see you again, Eddie, old friend!)

 And speaking of old friends, some of the stars of the Paper Mill's "Show Boat," Judith McCauley, Richard White and Leigh Deery, are old friends of the Playhouse's patrons. And they are quite fantastic in their respective roles of Magnolia, Cap'n Andy's daughter; Gaylord Ravenal, the handsome gambler, who sweeps Magnolia off her feet; and Julie, the unhappy mulatto, who is driven away from the showboat when her identity is discovered.
 With so much excitement and goings-on at the Paper Mill, the one truly outstanding performer, who probably brings the house down at every performance (He certainly did on press night) is Raymond Bazemore as Joe, whose marvelous voice can make the theater's walls shudder when he sings "Ol' Man River."
 The featured cast of this huge production is equally wonderful, particularly Alyce Webb, who plays Queenie; Isabelle Farrell as Ellie and Buddy Vest as Frank, and Marsha Bagwell, Larry Gray, Phillip Edwards Hall, Kenneth Kantor and Sam Kressen.
 Robert Johanson, another old friend of the Paper Mill, does a fantastic job of directing such a huge production, and credit must also go to Jim Coleman, musical director, Sharna Halley as choreographer, and Michael Anania, scenery supervisor. The realistic scenery, especially the huge show boat, and the company's method of maneuvering it on stage, has an appeal all of its own.

 Despite the fact that the first act runs a bit over long, "Show Boat" makes up for this flaw by giving its nearly-sold-out houses with its hungry audiences a fulfilling gift of the kind of music and entertainment that is much sought-after these days, and not often, if at all, found.

Treatment can prevent heartworm

By DORIS BENSCHAR
 Summer is just around the corner and "we blood thirsty mosquitoes are ready for their prey."
 Heartworm disease is becoming a very serious problem in dogs in almost every area in the United States. Because the infection is transmitted from dog to dog by mosquitoes, the disease was initially prevalent only in the warm southern coastal states. However, with the free movements of dogs today, due, largely to a more mobile human population, the disease has become rampant throughout the country.
 Now is the time to take your dog to your veterinarian for a simple heartworm blood test. If the dog test is negative, your vet will recommend a preventative medication to be given to your dog daily from April to December. By law this drug is only available from a licensed veterinarian.
 The treatment of heartworm disease, if found in your dog, is costly and most of all very harsh, unpleasant and can be fatal.
 Total elimination of heartworm disease is not possible as long as infectious mosquitoes are left uncontrolled to transmit them. But you can prevent your dog from falling victim to this dreaded disease through a continuous treatment-preventative program under the direction of your veterinarian. For more information, consult your veterinarian or write to Club-Pet Kennels, 135 East Highland Parkway, Roselle, 07068.

HEARTWORM CYCLE—The four major stages of the heartworm disease are shown in above diagram, clockwise from upper left. Mosquitoes infect healthy dogs by sucking their blood; larvae are then produced which mature within five months into adult worms in heart and adjacent large blood vessels of dog; microfilariae then form in the blood and in the final stage, mosquitoes ingest microfilariae while sucking blood from infected dogs beginning a new cycle of the disease which will be carried on to other canines.

Klem in New York play

Kenneth Klem of Roselle will open in "Cheese In the Crisper, Apples in the Bin," a new drama mystery play by Janet Bruders of Irvington. The play will run in Eccentric Circles Theater's annual festival of one-act plays tomorrow through Monday at 158 West 23rd St., New York City.

Klem has been active in community and college theater, including the Cranford Dramatic Club, the Ethical Players of Maplewood, the Revelers of Rahway and Seton Hall University, from which he was graduated last year. Among the plays in which he appeared are "Camelot," "Lion in Winter," "Charley's Aunt" and Agatha Christie's "Go Back For Murder." Klem met Bruders, one of the four producing directors of Eccentric Circles Theater, four years ago when she was teaching drama at the Ethical Culture Society in Maplewood. After writing the play, she discussed him with her director, and after one audition, Klem was chosen to play a supporting role in the show.

Rebecca's forecast

For week of April 18 through 25
ARIES (3/21-4/20) The emphasis begins to shift early in this week to money matters for most. Pay careful attention to your long-term security in making decisions in the weeks ahead. Later, local dealings escalate; short trips are on the agenda; and everyday people may get on your nerves. Be tactful!

TAURUS (4/21-5/21) Your new birthday cycle begins this period; put your best foot forward and prepare yourself for a pleasant surprise - perhaps a long-awaited pay increase. Later, know your own limitations; important relationships continue to generate tension; and final agreements of some sort are indicated.

GEMINI (5/22-6/21) The coming weeks will intensify private, health and career matters. Expect to be doing your share of probing, questioning thinking. Personal obligations also seem to mount for many and others may find they can no longer duck important decisions. Later, misunderstandings are more than likely.

CANCER (6/22-7/23) Social, creative or romantic aims will be high on your list of priorities now and in coming weeks. The key to success lies in being selective and sticking to your true priorities. Avoid too many irons in the fire. Later, you may be feeling rather low. Are you over sensitive right now?

LEO (7/24-8/23) This is no time to disregard the rules of fair play; steer clear of schemes especially in career or community regards. Guard your public reputation scrupulously; others may be watching more than you realize! Later, the need for more personal freedom overtakes many and changes are imminent.

VIRGO (8/24-9/23) It seems likely that much activity will center around legal, financial or personal aims in the coming weeks and none of these areas will be smooth sailing. Relatives, friends or neighbors could provoke conflicts and maybe its time to clear the air once and for all. Later, work matters erupt!

LIBRA (9/24-10/23) Coming weeks will intensify matters related to financial, tax, insurance or pension issues and many long-term changes are in the air. Later, intentions are likewise postponed; and look for good news in property matters. Many will have to remain conservative financially a while longer.

SCORPIO (10/24-11/23) Important alliances, mail/joint interests and contracts or agreements will assume importance for many in the weeks ahead. You may have to iron out differences in any of these areas. Later in this week, another's feelings come to the surface and certain pairings will result for some.

SAGITTARIUS (11/23-12/21) You will have to focus attention on health, employment and professional relationships now and in coming weeks. Dealings with medical personnel are slated for some and others may have to seek help for emotional problems or illnesses. Later, romantic alliances are cold and distant.

CAPRICORN (12/22-1/20) The coming weeks will intensify interests related to children, romance and creative ventures and easily aggravated situations will surround these areas. Steer clear of negotiating or mediating in these areas. Later, you may have the opportunity to settle an ongoing problem once and for all.

AQUARIUS (1/21-2/19) You may need all the tact and diplomacy you can muster in domestic, family or property matters in coming weeks. Any of these areas could see sparks fly early. Later in this period, avoid emotional outbursts; romantic ties strengthen; and another may just push you a bit too far!

PISCES (2/20-3/20) The coming weeks will intensify matters related to financial issues, other resources and joint assets. Complications or confusion may arise in any of these areas if you're not careful. Later in this period, transportation troubles may dictate a change in your schedule so keep it flexible.

Women's talk on sales jobs

National Volunteer Week will be celebrated in Union County with an address by Joan M. Wright, director of the Division on Women of New Jersey's Department of Community Affairs. The talk will be sponsored jointly by the Junior League of Elizabeth-Plainfield, the Greater Westfield Section of National Council of Jewish Women and the Westfield Area League of Women Voters. National Volunteer Week runs from Monday through April 29, 8 p.m. Tuesday at Union County College's Campus Center Theater, Cranford.

HIGH-PAID CAREERS for women in sales will be high on your list of priorities now and in coming weeks. The key to success lies in being selective and sticking to your true priorities. Avoid too many irons in the fire. Later, you may be feeling rather low. Are you over sensitive right now?

David King, president of Careers for Women Inc., will speak on "The Best Way in the World for a Woman to Make Money: A Career in Sales," which is the title of a book he wrote. Registration is through the Services office, 201-527-2210. The fee is $20.
