Remembering

While every such holiday is special because of its solemn significance, Memorial Day 1985 is even more so.

Memorial Day is a time for all Americans to remember, everyone who made the ultimate sacrifice while serving the country.

In World War II, the objectives were clear. The fascism of Nazi Germany and brutal expansionist objectives of Japan were clear threats to the peace-loving nations of the world.

Soldiers who went off to fight 40 years ago had the full support of America. As troops headed to Southeast Asia, U.S. citizens took to the streets to protest America's involvement in Vietnam.

What both wars had in common are combat's grim realities - young men and women are killed and maimed, families are disrupted and destruction is widespread.

No one home?

The Springfield First Aid Squad, which is constantly called upon to deal with life-and-death situations, currently faces a life-and-death situation.

The squad, which is almost in constant need for volunteers, is really in desperate straits now. Because some volunteer squad members have other commitments, such as day work, and others are moving away from the township, the First Aid Squad may no longer be able to respond to emergencies on a seven-day-a-week, 24-hour-per-day basis.

This is not a selfish call. The squad is perhaps the least selfish organization in Springfield. Its members work without compensation and often without thanks.

One can show that he or she cares by contacting the squad and volunteering. Volunteers need only be 18 or older and possess a valid New Jersey driver's license.

U.S. agriculture problems affect world

By MARTY NOVICH
My longtime friend and tylist, Kathy Brady, approached my desk with the manuscript in her hand.

"Because it's so out of character for you. Politics, economics, that's always been your bag - but farming? What ever gave you that idea?"

As a commodity broker, I have watched grain and meat prices plummet steadily for the past two years while brokers like myself and speculators have turned our attention to the financial futures where all the action is.

In the judgment of those we call commodity speculators (people who share the risk of the farmer and put up their money in search of a share of the profit), agricultural trading is not profitable at the present time.

In 1980, 64 percent of all trading in the futures market took place in farm goods and financial futures made up 18 percent. From January to September 1984, agriculture was almost 35 percent of the futures market activity.

Low commodity prices were signaling problems that we must face in American agriculture, and that have national and international political ramifications.

Let me start in New Jersey. New Jersey's farming industry is not quite as important on Chicago's Board of Trade as say the farms of the Midwest. New Jersey products of blueberries, apples, tomatoes, just to name a few, are not traded on Marty Novich, who works in New York City with a commodity firm, has lived in Springfield for 25 years.

Washington report

By REP. MATT RINALDO, R-7TH DISTRICT

The Senate's proposal to impose a financial means test for admission to Veterans Administration hospitals is a phony budget cut that would unfairly penalize veterans while producing little or no savings for the Treasury.

With a growing number of elderly veterans in need of health care services, this is the worst time to be talking about tightening the criteria for essential services provided by the Veterans Administration.

the futures market because of their highly perishable nature. They cannot be stored for as long as any grains such as wheat or corn or soybeans.

New Jersey farmers have the advantage of being close to a huge market for their products, better next to the mass population of New York and New Jersey than has to be found elsewhere.

In addition to the market that is so near, New Jersey farmers have the advantage of being close to a huge market for their products, better next to the mass population of New York and New Jersey than has to be found elsewhere.

Farmers in other areas of the United States do not have these advantages. Transportation to seaports is costly for them because of distance, and drought has intermittently parched the earth for the past several years.

During the 70s, the American farmers planted narrow to turnrows to produce, and produce they did, exporting all over the world.

In 1985, their abundant production and low demand for their farm goods have not enabled farmers to meet their financial obligations.

The proposed means test is unfair, and it's anticipated cost-savings have not been improved. In fact, Office of Management and Budget estimates have been estimated to be $200 million.

It is estimated that the number of veterans over the age of 65 will increase from the current 2.5 million to 3.5 million by 2000.

With a growing number of elderly veterans in need of health care services, this is the worst time to be talking about tightening the criteria for essential services provided by the Veterans Administration.

gain the true perception of money and its insignificance against the natural forces that surround us.

Perfect weather in other parts of the world and in other areas of the United States for growing similar crops have produced agricultural products in abundance, keeping farm prices low.

The only country that has not improved is Russia and that is due primarily to its management system. In addition to that, the Russians have had extremely bad weather, further impairing their crop production.

Other farm leaders know it too, and in a food world of plenty with low prices, it would seem impossible that people face starvation in Ethiopia, or malnutrition exists in some New Jersey communities.

Another point to be considered, and one that has been made by veterans groups, is that the denial of VA eligibility to certain veterans would put pressure on state veterans programs such as Medicare.

rapidly turning into a side show. Earlier this month, Sissy Spacek, Jessica Lange and Jane Fonda testified before the House Democratic Agricultural Task Force.

The farmers must feed the hungry, and the hungry must have the food. In my opinion he is trying to make a perfect Roosevelt-type coalition for votes combining these two groups, the bankrupt or nearly bankrupt farmer, and the hungry ethnic minorities.

The farming and hunger problem, although it may be politicized, has at its base technology, for technology is responsible for overproduction and subsequent government subsidies to bolster prices.

These loans were granted at a 13- or 14-percent interest rate and were urged upon the farmers by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

A hero of the Holocaust's life

By ROSE P. SIMON
The following are reviews of books currently available at the Springfield Public Library.

"A Refuge From Darkness," by Naomi Shepherd. This is a history of a young German-Jewish man's life and of his inestimable contributions to the protection and salvation of both Jews and non-Jews during the Nazi persecutions.

Born in London in 1899, he was a descendant of an English rabbinical family and successful conservative Berlin businessman (department store owners). Wilfred's home life was not particularly happy.

He travels extensively in Europe, the Middle East, the Far East, worked indefatigably to help the persecuted. Nearly 40 years after the tragic death of Wilfred, he did the author, after painstaking research, begin to reveal the character and experiences of this enigmatic, courageous and dedicated life.

On his return from a special mission to save more thousands of refugees encamped in Spain and Portugal, Wilfred's life - along with 17 others - was snuffed out when his plane was shot down by the Luftwaffe on June 1, 1943.

With wide experience as a psycho-therapist, family counselor, radio and TV personality at home (mostly in California) and abroad (chiefly in England), the author offers a stimulating recipe for positive thinking and success in the business world and on the home front.

Kassarin divides the world into winners and losers, pessimists and optimists, introverts and extroverts. She hopes to take people out of the doldrums, get them thinking and doing and "going for it." To pave the way for transformations, or at least to make some progress, the author has laid out specific goals and exercises to achieve them. She cites many real instances of patients with problems and how they overcame those barriers in order to improve. She also includes cases of people known to us. Those who have reached success in spite of early failures.

She impresses with the fact that one has the potential to improve, to gain self-confidence, and to transform losing patterns into winning skills. She concludes each chapter with two lists - one revealing the thoughts of a "loser," the other, that of a "winner."

Teen leaders visit capitol

Three area teen-agers participated in the third annual Teen Leadership Mission to Washington, D.C., recently. The program is sponsored by the YM-YWHA of Metropolitan New Jersey and made possible by a grant from the Martin Lehman Fund.

The program is designed to enhance the activities of Jewish youth groups, synagogue teens and unaffiliated Jewish teens through community-wide projects.

Participants in the Teen Leadership Mission included Springfield residents Paul Keister and Sam Scheinmann and Robert Shapiro of Mountaineer.

The Teen Leadership Mission included two days of intensive training in Washington, with briefings by government officials and Jewish leaders on the foreign and domestic issues confronting the Jewish community. The group met with representatives of the American Israel Public Affairs Committee, American Jewish Congress, State Department, National Conference of Soviet Jewry and the Israeli Embassy.

Teens who were accepted for the mission have demonstrated leadership qualities in the community. Forty nominees were proposed by rabbis, youth advisors, program directors and community leaders. An interviewing process was conducted to select the 26 teens to fill the available spaces.

Religious leaders, town officials, teachers and parents invited.

Following this special ceremony, advancement and achievement awards were presented to 56 Cub Scouts, the largest number in some years.

The Religious Medal Award of merit through Scouting encompasses every denomination. This year, six Scouts earned the Parvelli Dei Award (Catholic Medal): David Bernosky, Patrick Deberry, Joseph Fiech, John Schiano, Brian Sedlak and Steve Stalker. They are parishioners of Saint James Church, Caldwell, and Gaudineer School, the Alpha Award (Jewish Medal) was awarded Seth Eisen and Steve Kleinman. They are members of the congregation of Temple Shaarey Shalom and attend Gaudineer School.

Upon completion of written work which included a family trip of religious interest, research and interviews, these scouts undertook the outdoor clean-up project at St. James which sponsors Springfield's Scout Charter, Pack 73.

Sandle Hilliard, committee chairperson, announced the completion of a very successful scouting year. "With the increase in the number of boys joining the Scouting program, we may have been pressed for time and space this year, but through the continued cooperation of our Scout chaplain, Father Koch, and our pastor, Father Waldron, and the spirit of sharing and cooperation shown by the congregation of Temple Shaarey Shalom, we have accomplished a good deal. Our thanks to them and to all the parents who have worked together to give Springfield this program."

Dems set sights on Trenton

On June 4, registered Democrats throughout the state will have a chance to demonstrate their choice for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. The field of candidates for the nomination are former U.S. Attorney Robert Del Tufo, Newark Mayor Kenneth Gibson, Elliot Greenstein, State Sen. John Russo, Essex County Executive Peter Shapiro and former State Sen. Steve Wiley.

Former U.S. Attorney Robert Del Tufo said that organized crime is not the only issue of his campaign. "I am speaking out on all the issues, not just organized crime. A synopsis of the last four years has shown a lack of leadership in all areas of government, including the handling of the toxic and solid waste problems in the state. Failure in law enforcement has led to the spread of organized crime throughout the state."

The governor is a favorite, riding high on popularity. He has spent a lot of time promoting himself. "The New Jersey voters are relying on these perceptions of what they have seen over the last four years. And that has been an administration that has been over-spending."

Del Tufo added, "Of course an administration cannot be all things to all people. However, the infrastructure of the current administration is losing 40 percent of its effort through holes in the pipes. We need to see improvement in alleviating the unaccountable amount of waste."

A resident of Morris township, 51-year-old Del Tufo began his career as an assistant prosecutor for Morris County from 1982 to 85. He served as the first assistant prosecutor for Morris County from 1985 to 87.

From 1974 to 77, Del Tufo was first assistant attorney general for New Jersey. During the last two years of that tenure, he served as the director of Criminal Justice.

As United States Attorney for New Jersey from 1977 to 80, Del Tufo's office was responsible for successfully prosecuting several of the state's organized crime figures.

In reference to the state Democratic Party, Del Tufo said that the party "needs a lot of retooling."

"The state party is a party in debt and where their effectiveness is limited. This isn't a comment on the people in the party. Part of the fact is that they're not in office right now. The state party needs to gain strength and spread out representation."

Del Tufo added, "The Democratic Party is perceived as a party of special interest groups. This image has to be broken, and attention has to go back to Middle America. With the proper leadership," Del Tufo added, "the party has to indicate to the entire population that it is a party for everyone, and not 'hired segments.'"

When Congressman James Florio announced that he was not going to seek the Democratic nomination, the field was left wide open for the other candidates. Del Tufo said that Florio's decision "changed the race entirely."

"Florio commanded a large following," Del Tufo said. "By pulling out of the race, he left the undecided voters to the five people from Montana. As far as name recognition, we're all in the same boat."

John Russo believes that his experience in Trenton makes him the best candidate.

"I think my campaign and my experience have shown that I have overcome challenges," Russo stated. "It was the first Democrat in 100 years to be elected from Ocean County, which is traditionally Republican. I think that shows I'm a real fighter and a proven winner. I have tackled problems in the Legislature, and have done something about it."

Russo said that the Kean administration was like a football team on a field without any opposition.

"The governor is very popular. He has not had to make tough decisions and has not addressed controversial issues. He is a total lackluster who has an excellent PR department."

Russo added, "I am running on my record, supporting spending limits, lower taxes and the death penalty for unusually aggravated crimes."

"For the last 12 years, I have been tough on law and order, been in favor of aid to the cities and liberal on environmental issues," Russo stated.

Activists' visit to Rinaldo pays off

A group of Union County residents representing business, labor, education, doctors, scientists and housewives recently met in the office of Rep. Mathew Rinaldo in Washington as part of the "April Action for Jobs, Peace and Justice" April 22.

They had participated the prior Saturday in a massive march through the streets of Washington, D.C., walking three miles to the Capitol. More than 100,000 people, according to police estimates, carried banners urging a "freeze" and "reversal of the arms race," "cutting the military budget to build a more humane society," "no intervention in Central America, and other parts of the globe," and "opposition to apartheid and racism in South Africa and at home."

In a subsequent action in Congress, Rinaldo voted against funding the contras in Nicaragua.

His vote was hailed by the N.J. Coalition for Peace Jobs and Justice, meeting at the UAW Hall, Cranford, May 9.

Sue McNevin, chairman of the Union County Freeze Campaign, and Charles Henry of Summit were part of the delegation to Rinaldo. They made note of the congressman's letter to President Reagan urging a halt to further MX funding after the initial 21 are built. McNevin asked for a copy of the letter so that the group could study it further and respond with their own recommendations.

"Star Wars," or the Strategic Defense Initiative, funding was another item dealt with by the visiting delegation. They urged that no further funds be given and that a comprehensive test ban treaty be passed for support of future arms control measures in space as well as in other areas where increasing

HOW IMPORTANT IS CREDIT HISTORY?

You are not alone if you were affected adversely by the last deep recession. Unemployment reached its peak and many families had trouble paying bills. Say this was your position. Your credit rating had sunk to a new low. However, you are back at work and have saved enough for a downpayment on a home. Will your poor credit picture prevent you from getting a home loan?

Maybe and maybe not. The lender will look at many factors, especially the appraisal of the home to determine its value as collateral. Also looked at will be the amount of the down payment, your total family income and, yes, also your past credit history. So, your credit history is only one of many factors to be considered.

If your credit has improved markedly, it would be to your advantage to contact your local credit agency for a copy of your file. If there are discrepancies, have them cleared up. When you approach the bank, be honest and forthcoming and your chances for approval will be enhanced.

A special treat for special children

Celebrities kick off telethon by visiting hospital

JOHN AMOS

MARIE OSMOND

By SHAWN EVANS
Children's Specialized Hospital is designed to provide its patients with unique attention for their special needs.
But recently, the children and staff as well received more than a special treat when two national celebrities graced the corridors of the facility on New Providence Road in Mountsides. As the children were wheeled into a large physical therapy room, anticipation filled the air. Although conversation was evident — the comments were minimized as the children pushed closer together for their honored guests.
"There she is," yelled an anxious viewer, as the double doors of the hospital room opened.
Enter, Marie Osmond.

Osmond, national co-chairman and host of the National Children's Miracle Network Telethon, was accompanied by talented actor, director and writer John Amos, best known for his portrayal of Kunte Kinte in the television mini-series, "Roots."
The two joined with local participating hospitals to kick off the 1985 Telethon which will air in the Metropolitan area on Channel 9, June 1 and 2.

Other hospitals visited by the two included Children's Hospital (United Hospitals Medical Center) in Newark, Schneider Children's Hospital (Long Island Jewish Medical Center) in New Hyde Park, N.Y., and Babies Hospital, a division of the Presbyterian Hospital (Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center) New York City. The Children's Miracle Network Telethon is produced by the Osmond family as the charitable arm of the family organization. It joined forces in 1982 with the National Association of Children's Hospitals and Related Institutions.

This year's telethon will air for the third consecutive year. The first annual telethon raised in excess of $4.7 million for Hospitals for Children, with the second raising $12,017,000, with more than 100 stations and nearly the same number of hospitals represented throughout the United States. Officials also noted it is the second largest and fastest growing telethon in the nation.
Richard Ahlfeld, executive director of Mountsides' CSH, presented Osmond with a child size T-shirt from the hospital.

"With us today, are the leaders of the telethon, the people who are making this all possible. I'd like to present this shirt to Marie to give to her own little boy, and whenever she looks at it, she'll think of us," Ahlfeld said.

"It's a pleasure to be here," Osmond said. "We've spent most of the day going through all of the hospitals, and the best thing about this telethon is that 100 percent of the funds raised stay here in the local area; this is volunteerism at its best," Osmond said to the group.

The theme of the show, "Make a Miracle

SPECIAL GUEST—Marie Osmond, national host of the National Children's Miracle Network Telethon, shares a smile with little Joey Reyes, a patient at Children's Specialized Hospital, along with Physical Therapist Christie Carson. Children's telethon

(Continued from page 1) Happen," will air live for 21 hours from the Osmond Studios in Orem, Utah. Amos, also a former pro-football player, said he was asked to participate in the telethon two-years ago when he himself was a patient at a Newark hospital for a leg injury. "I'm glad to be back and I'm looking forward to this year; I think the success will double and even triple with all of your help," he said. Amos will host the New York segments of the show. Osmond said the telethon started because they wanted to do something to help children in need. "We realized, when it boils down to it, what better place is there than a children's hospital, which treats the entire child," Osmond said. She told the group there are 35 grandchildren in the Osmond family. "We just love kids. Children, no matter what color, what race, what religion, deserve a chance at life. We're out to give it to them," Osmond said. Although the duo only stayed for 15 minutes before venturing off, it was evident that the visit instilled hope in the children. "Mom, look! Marie gave me her autograph," said one patient. "I wonder if she'll give me a kiss." His dream was answered, as the personable young lady brushed against his face before being escorted out.

These trips are 'by the book'

BY ALAN CARUBA Are you thinking about doing some traveling now that the spring has arrived? Planning a summer vacation? Well, I have the usual tone of travel books on my desk, so let's look through them and see if one may be useful to you! Reader's Digest has published "Our National Parks," ($24, Reader's Digest Assn.), a 322-page tribute to our nation's wilderness heritage. There are more than 600 photographs and illustrations in this book which draw on the talents of the country's best outdoor writers, nature photographers and artists. The nation's parks from Acadia in Maine to Zion in Utah are all here. A wonderful coffee table book or as a gift for someone. Talking about Utah, one of the funniest spoofs of a state is "Utah: Gateway to Nevada!" by three Utah lads ($6.95), Dream Garden Press, 1199 Iola Ave, Salt Lake City, Utah 84104 which begins by telling you that the state was named from the Indian word for "bird that hawks from provoked." You just howl from page to page after that. "Country Inns of New York State" for a perfect excuse to get away for the weekend or longer, ($7.95, 101 Productions, 834 Main St, San Francisco, CA 94103, softcover.) The publisher has a series of country inn books listing those in the far West, old South, California and Great Lakes areas. I once received "Biking the Great Lakes Islands" but believe it or not! This book by Kathleen and Lawrence Abrams

($8.95, Entwood Publishing, P.O.B. 208, Wausau, WI 54981) surely is information and photos. And who else could have written on this subject? Planning to live on both coasts or maybe move to the West? Well, pick up "The Bicoastal Bible: A Survival Manual for the New York/Los Angeles Computer or Transplant." It will save you days of distress, solving all kinds of problems as to where to find housing, how to get around, where to buy and what to do in your spare time, if you have any. (From Walker and Company, in softcover, $8.95) To Britain & Beyond If you're heading across the Atlantic, pick up "The New Shell Guide to Britain" ($22.95, Salem House, Merrimack Publishers Circle) which is widely acknowledged as the finest reference book for all types of travelers. You'll know more about Britain than the British and, if you head north, you'll want "Scotland: The Light and the Land" ($19.95, Salem House) which features the haunting photos of Colin Baxter as a reminder of your visits to the rolling hills of Orkney or the twinkling lights of Edinburgh. You don't even have to go. Just get the book. Across the channel you'll benefit by reading John Bertram's "How To Old South, California and Great Lakes areas. I once received "Biking the Great Lakes Islands" but believe it or not! This book by Kathleen and Lawrence Abrams

Volunteers linked to telethon efforts

Volunteer effort is not strange to Edgar and Eleanor Wallace of Westfield, but they never thought counting baby food labels would be helpful to anyone. The Wallaces, both veteran volunteers at Children's Specialized Hospital, are chairing an unusual fund-raising effort linked to the Children's Miracle Network Telethon to be aired June 1-2 on WOR-TV, Channel 9. According to Mrs. Wallace, every label from Heinz Baby Food or Instant Baby Food returned to the hospital by June 1 will be redeemed by the H. J. Heinz Company for six cents. Children's Specialized Hospital is participating in the national telethon for a second year. All monies raised in New Jersey will be shared by the pediatric rehabilitation hospital and Babies Hospital at United Hospitals Medical Center. Both retired Westfield teachers, the Wallaces devote many hours to volunteer work at the hospital. "We look forward to going," Wallace said. "It's an inspirational place to be. Watching the staff work with the youngsters gives the work a genuine sense of importance." Wallace retired in 1980 after a career as a music teacher in Westfield High School and he now conducts the Westfield Men's Glee Club. His wife taught at Wainwright School. The Wallaces urge area residents to mail the baby food labels to: Heinz Baby Food Label Savings Program, Children's Miracle Network, Telethon, 150 New Providence Road, Mountaintide, New Jersey 07021. "And plan to watch our kids on television June 1-2," they said. * * *

Musical revue due for Seton Hall run

The Celtic Theater Company's production of "The Emigrant Journey," a musical revue, compiled by Dr. James P. McGloone and arranged by Stephen Yates, which deals with the adventure of the Irish in America, will be presented on the South Orange campus of Seton Hall University tonight through Saturday, May 30 to June 1 and June 6 through 8. The production, divided into two acts, will include songs, recitation and dance composed by Irish-Americans during the latter half of the 19th Century and the beginning of the 20th. Members of the theater company will be joined by Jack McCarthy, Irish-American, who has served as host for the St. Patrick Day Parade for many years. Acting as narrator, McCarthy will tell the story of "The Emigrant Journey." Tickets are on sale at the Seton Hall University box office in the Bishop Dougherty Student Center, or can be purchased on the night of the performance. Free parking is available. Reservations or more information can be obtained by calling 761-9100.

Israeli violinist to play

The Livingston Symphony Orchestra will present its final concert of the season Saturday at 8:30 p.m. featuring Israeli violinist Sergiu Schwartz. The free concert will be presented in the Livingston High School auditorium. The soloist will be heard in the violin concerto in D by Beethoven. An international performer, he also conducts master classes in the United States, West Germany and England. The orchestra is concluding its first season under the direction of Istvan Joray. Hungarian-born musician, who conducted in England and Canada before coming to the United States in 1967. The orchestra is comprised of non-professional musicians, supplemented for the four principal concerts of each season by professional performers. The concerts are all free and open to the public, with operating funds derived from donations by individuals, foundations and corporations. Financial support in the form of a grant from CIT Financial Corporation has made possible the appearance by Sergiu Schwartz with the orchestra on Saturday. The concert also is supported in part by a grant from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts.

Hannig featured in chorale

Marian Hannig of Union was the featured soprano soloist with the Rutgers University Chorale in their annual spring concert April 28. The chorale consisted of 106 members and was conducted by John Eric Floren. The program was in celebration of the 300th anniversary of the birth of Johann Sebastian Bach and George Frideric Handel, and the 40th anniversary of Heinrich Schubert. In addition to choral works by the composers, the chorale was featured in the American East Coast premiere of the Cantata on Psalm III by Johann Friedrich Doles, a student of Bach. Hannig was the soprano soloist for the premiere performance of the Doles Cantata. Hannig is the daughter of Irene M. Hannig of Union and the late Mr. Ernest J. Hannig. She is a graduate student at Rutgers, and is presently working towards a master's degree in medical surgical nursing.

Klymaxx: Six female rockers

By MILT HAMMER Pick of the LPs, "Meeting in the Ladies Room" by Klymaxx (MCA/Constellation Records). Look out world! It's time for Klymaxx. And, before your imagination starts wandering, be advised that Klymaxx is a band with six rockin', rollin' women out to reduce the world into a "Meeting in the Ladies Room."

Disc & Data

implies, and bask in "Fenderella" supplies the fierce groove. "It's basically talking about the experience of a woman going out and being noticed by men," says Bernadette. "Wherever she goes, men stop and take notice." The title track, "Meeting in the Ladies Room," is a sparkling showcase for the band's unique, woman's-eye view of the world: ironically enough, this funky little dance groove wasn't put together by a woman. "That particular tune," notes keyboardist Lynn Malsby, "was written and produced by Reggi Calloway of Midnight Star." "Klymaxx had a lot of creative input in this particular album," notes Bernadette. "We produced, we did a lot of writing, and we play all of the instruments." "The bottom line: female rockers is slightly less outlandish these days than it was six years ago when Bernadette first organized the band that would become Klymaxx. "I had played in a couple of groups with guys," she explains, "and it was the same old thing, so I wanted to try something different." Early on, the turnover rate in Klymaxx was high, but in recent years, the band's line-up has stabilized. "We get along better," says Bernadette. "We've grown up a lot. We had to make some changes for the group to be successful, and we made those changes. We're down to the nucleus of the group now. Everybody is very, very essential. Everybody is good at what they do."

'Crimes' due in Montclair

The Studio Players will present Beth Henley's Pulitzer Prize-winning comedy, "Crimes of the Heart," June 1 through 15 at the Studio Playhouse, 14 Alvin Place, Upper Montclair. The play will be directed by Steve O'Donnell. It was announced that the box office will open for reservations on Monday, and information can be obtained by calling 744-9752 from 11 to 4 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m. Performances will be at 8:30 p.m. on week nights and Saturdays and at 7:30 p.m. on Sundays. The Studio Players is a not-for-profit community theater and has been producing shows in Montclair since 1957.

By BEA SMITH Loni Ackerman, who appeared as Evita on Broadway, is portraying the title role in "Evita," which opened last evening at the Paper Mill Playhouse, Millburn, and will run through June 30. Donna Marie Elio will play the role on Thursday an Saturday matinees during his Millburn run. Also starring are John Herrera, who played Che on Broadway and opened the national tour of "Evita" in Chicago, and David Brummel, who also played the role of Peron in the first national company opposite Ackerman. "Evita" is based on the life of the legendary Eva Peron, the second wife of Argentine dictator Juan Peron. The Paper Mill began its spring celebration with a party on May 16 to honor members of the community, subscribers and celebrities "who have played an important role in the theater's 50-year history." Among those present were Richard White and Judith McCouley, who appeared in the past musical production, "Show Boat," members of the press, subscribers, business community representatives and the Gateway Tourism Council, staff, donors and trustees. During the celebration on May 16, Angelo Del Rossi, Paper Mill executive producer, announced plans for the new season, which will include "Carousel," starring (the Paper Mill's answer to Nelson Eddy and Jeanette MacDonald) White and McCouley; "Windy City," a new musical, and "Run For Your Wife," a new farce, which is being staged in London, England. "Windy City," based on the Ben Hecht and Charles MacArthur play "The Front Page," will open the new season at the Mill. It will run from Sept. 18 through Oct. 27. David Bell will serve as director and choreographer. "Carousel," which will run from Nov. 6 through Dec. 15, will be directed by Robert Johnson ("Show Boat"). "Run For Your Wife" will be staged Jan. 6, 1986, through Feb. 8. Rounding out the season, says Del Rossi, will be two more musicals and one play to be announced this summer. Leading the list of possibilities, he says, are "The Great Waltz," "Brighton Beach Memoirs" and "Upper Broadway," a new play, to star either Nanette Fabray of Beatrice Arthur ("Maude"). Additional information can be obtained by calling 379-3717 or 376-4343.

Rebecca's forecast

For Week of May 23 through May 29

ARIES (3/21-4/20) You can expect to be busy now and in coming weeks. Much of the activity will revolve around local travel, communications, and everyday dealings. Later, the social and romantic theme dominates; you continue to bask in the limelight. Refuse to let work anxieties dampen your spirits.

TAURUS (4/21-5/21) The coming weeks will intensify matters related to insurance, legal or joint financial interests. You can reap the rewards for job efforts and firm up influential alliances. Later, domestic issues are touchy; social invitations are indicated; and romance flourishes by week's end.

GEMINI (5/22-6/21) The coming weeks bring you in the limelight; career interests improve; and new alliances should be considered. Double check all communications; errors could be costly! Later in this week, expect some turbulence on the home front; others may hurt your feelings. Resolve to let others handle their own problems.

CANCER (6/22-7/23) The weeks ahead will intensify work, health and private matters. Goings on behind the scenes in any of these areas should be profitable. Later in the week, convincing others will be difficult; put off decisions if possible; and things are looking up in home and family matters.

LEO (7/24-8/23) Friendships, group alliances and social events will highlight the coming weeks. Co-workers may be particularly to read carefully. Later in this period, catch up with neglected chores or obligations and work out home and outside inter conflicts. Consider new financial sources.

VIRGO (8/24-9/23) The early portion of this period may find you a bit reclusive or secretive concerning private or personal matters. This is a good week to clear the decks of lingering or unfinished work. Later, a romantic evening lifts your spirits; financial transactions are favored; and expect drop in visitors.

LIBRA (9/24-10/23) Career interests are most promising early in this period; social life continues to be exciting; and important alliances may be made during this week. Get work quietly behind the scenes; you can accomplish more than you think. Be wary of the unfamiliar and creative talents emerge.

SCORPIO (10/24-11/23) Business, community and family interests dominate the early portion of this week. Thus it's time to relax and enjoy some leisure or recreational activity. Don't allow a money difference to end a friendship and be aware that others may be intentionally misleading at this time.

SAGITTARIUS (11/23-12/21) This is a good week to consider a short trip; a change of scenery can work wonders. You continue to feel the pressure of career or health demands and progress may be slow for the time being. Later in the week, continue to firm up long-term security and spend extra time with children.

CAPRICORN (12/22-1/20) Avoid disagreements in financial areas; this will straighten out in the coming months. For now just keep things balanced. Later in this period, a romantic theme dominates. Plan time with special someone and continue to take opportunities and challenges in career areas.

AQUARIUS (1/21-2/19) Iron out the differences on the work scene and don't allow yourself to bring the job home. You're likely to leave all the tension behind and plan a short trip. Later in this period, you may have to make some rather difficult decisions; keep everyone's best interests at heart or you won't be happy.

PISCES (2/20-3/20) The weeks ahead will intensify matters related to home, property and family. Make money decisions carefully and be tactful as others may push you beyond your limit. Later in this week, you may be feeling a bit down-hearted; it may be time to mend a certain fence and start all over.

Summer best time for body shapeup

(Editor's note: The following article was prepared by Lean Line, Inc.)

Summer is the best time to diet. It's not too late to look good in your bathing suit. There's still enough time before summer for you to shape up.

Lean Line, Inc., an innovator in weight reduction, offers the following tips for getting-in shape this summer:

Take advantage of summer bounty of fruits and vegetables. Summer is a good time to lighten up menus with salads and fresh fruits for desserts.

Use an outdoor grill. Cooking on the grill is a great way to save calories because the fat falls onto the coals. Cook chicken, lean red meats and fish on the grill.

Be aware that many of summer temptations can be automatic responses for the overweight. Stop and think before you stop and eat. How will that ice cream cone look on you hips?

JOYCE YANOWITZ, director of Dietrion, with offices in Clark and Westfield, is available for free consultations on the fastest growing weight loss program based on proper nutrition. Results of 10-25 pounds and usually in excess of an inch per pound may be lost in just six weeks.

Yanowitz said. More information is available by calling 789-3399 or 382-8820.

Center seeks funds

The Union County Arts Center Project, which involves restoration of the old Rahway Theater on Irving Street, Rahway, has continued to receive unsolicited donations from several quarters despite the current lack of a major fund-raising campaign.

Though the project has recently received cash gifts ranging from a few hundred to $15,000, most have been of the relatively modest "grassroots" variety, in the $1 to $100 bracket.

Donations have been received from Alberta Bullock of Rahway, whose two brothers-in-law, Barney Engelman and David Oltarsh, built the Rahway Theater in 1927-28. In addition, local artist Mike Harriet has been donating eight percent of his income from the sale of a limited series of reproductions of historic sketches depicting familiar sites in and around Rahway.

These cash donations are supplemented by dues for membership in Rahway Landmarks, the theater's non-profit corporate owner, and by various fund-raising efforts. The latter include the sale of souvenir items such as T-shirts, caps and key chains. The hottest souvenir item at the moment is "Encore," a 50-page illustrated history of the Rahway Theater.

Rahway Landmarks is planning a flea market for the summer, an auction for the fall and occasional bus trips to Atlantic City.

Anyone interested in contributing to the Union County Arts Center Project, or becoming directly involved in it, may write or phone Rahway Landmarks, P.O. Box 765-D Rahway, phone 738-7768.
