AT&T offering extra service for Operation Desert Shield

AT&T recently announced that it has set up a service that enables family and friends of American military personnel serving in the Middle East as part of Operation Desert Shield to send facsimile greetings to the troops free of charge.

AT&T is offering free use of its network to transmit letters and drawings one-way to troops in the Mideast as part of a morale-boosting effort it calls DESERT FAX. The duration of the free DESERT FAX service will depend on several factors, including cost, volume of messages and benefits to military personnel and their families.

Because the fax messages will be sent electronically, the time required to reach their destinations will be significantly reduced.

"DESERT FAX will provide a quick and easy way for family and friends to send a half-page home leave to U.S. service people in Operation Desert Shield," said Robert Datzler, AT&T Vice President — Global Networks. "We are honored to be providing this service in full cooperation with the military postal service."

After the fax messages are sent from the Phone Centers to the Mideast, the military postal service will deliver the messages to service people in Operation Desert Shield at regular mail calls.

The special fax form is now available at Phone Centers. People should fill in the forms with the name of a person stationed in the Mideast, the APO/FPO address, and the person's military identification number.

The addresses of AT&T Phone Centers can be obtained by calling 1-800-555-8111, Ext. 36.

Tiffany's celebrates 10 years

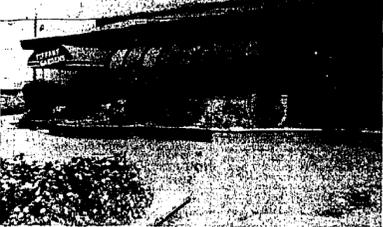

Tiffany's Restaurant on Vauxhall Road celebrating its 10th anniversary after a decade of successful business in Union Township.

Famous for its barbecued ribs, Tiffany's boasts the sale of more than 6,400 racks of ribs each year. In addition to ribs, the restaurant also offers a variety of items, including wings, steaks and Mexican fajitas.

"We guarantee the best ribs around," said Tiffany's manager, Scott. "If our ribs aren't the best around, just let us know by the third rib, and we'll buy back the plate and offer you something else."

Tiffany's Restaurant in Union seats 100 customers and offers daily specials and early bird discounts.

A second Tiffany's, Tiffany's Barbecue Express located on Lincoln Avenue in Madison, recently opened, featuring fast service of their own delicious cuisine.

TIFFANY'S — Tiffany's Restaurant, located on Vauxhall Road, is celebrating 10 years of success in Union Township.

Re-opening a success

A grand re-opening at the brand new Continental Restaurant and Lounge at the Ramada Hotel, 36 Valley Road, Clark, was celebrated June 20 with a ribbon cutting ceremony hosted by General Manager, Ismail Serati and featured honored guest as Mayor Bernie Yarusavage, Deputy Chief of Police, William Duffy and Marie Wolosoff of the Hemisphere Group.

The festivities began at 5 p.m. and was highlighted by samplings from the restaurant's new casual luncheon and dinner menu. The party continued until midnight in the newly renovated Continental Lounge.

The Continental Lounge offers complimentary hot and cold hors d'oeuvres Monday through Friday during Happy Hour from 5 to 7:30 p.m. Tuesday evening is Jazz Night featuring Ken Lauber and Jazz Plus One, each Wednesday through Saturday patrons can listen and dance to a live top 40 band.

The new menu features appetizers and snacks from $1.95 to $5.95, salads, hot and cold sandwiches from $3.75 to $5.50, and entrees from $6.95 to $16.95 including chicken, BB ribs, steaks, veal and seafood.

Springfield Leader

WORRAL COMMUNITY NEWSPAPERS VOL.62 NO.3—SPRINGFIELD, N.J., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1990—2x TWO SECTIONS — 50 CENTS

Kurnos refutes views of his campaign rival

By DAVE WISE
The following is based, in part, on an in-person interview with Mayor Philip Kurnos, although he also declined to write some of his comments in response to remarks made by Steven Firsichbaum, the Democratic contender for his Township Committee seat. This interview is essentially a rebuttal to issues that Firsichbaum raised in last week's Springfield Leader.

Firsichbaum criticized the Kurnos administration for borrowing a significant amount of money to finance major capital improvements in town. The Democrat said the Township Committee was spending the $3.4 million budget surplus as well, in order to maintain this year's zero percent increase in municipal taxes. Kurnos, on the other hand, said his administration saved the Township $220,000 by refinancing outstanding debt at lower interest rates. The mayor blames the past Democratic administration for much of Springfield's current debt.

Kurnos I can't understand why he's not concerned with the speeders who go racing through our town. I get calls every week from concerned parents who are worried about the safety of their children.

It was also ironic to read about my opponent's sudden emergence as a modern-day crime fighter. Ironic, because it's no secret among law enforcement officers that when he was Township Prosecutor — and really had the chance to do something significant in that area — he had the lowest conviction rate ever. He would often come to court totally unprepared. After a while, the police began balking at making arrests, they were so frustrated.

Firsichbaum alleged that the Democratic committee members, Lee Eisen and Marcus Forman, were under-utilized in the Kurnos administration. The mayor, on the contrary, said participation in committee activities is a matter of choice.

KURNOS The involvement is up to them. They are as informed as anyone.

Kurnos Our community service people are not being put in any hazardous positions. We put them in areas where it is safe. We have volunteer auxiliary police officers willing to take over the service.

In spite of what he says, these people are not criminals. All of them are motor vehicle offenders. Either they had a lot of tickets, were without a license, or driving while intoxicated.

The Democratic hopeful remarked that Kurnos is against the Local Government Cap Law, enacted in 1976, which prohibits a municipality from spending more than 3 percent over the previous year's budget. The cap law, according to Kurnos, is not an effective means of controlling local budgets, since a municipality cannot limit many of its expenditures.

KURNOS The cap law is a farce. It's not doing the job. We can use a cap law. I'm not against a cap law as such. I'm against the cap the way it is now. I think Trenton should have a cap law.

Regional BOE examines school district's policies

By SUZETTE STALKER
The Board of Education of Union County Regional High School District 1 reviewed two district policies during its regular public meeting, Oct. 2, in the Instructional Media Center of David Breairely Regional High School in Kenilworth.

The regional district includes David Breairely, Jonathan Dayton Regional High School in Springfield, which enrolls Mountaintop students; Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School in Clark; and Governor Livingston Regional High School in Berkeley Heights.

Regional High School District. "Actually, there are very few requests, but we are obligated to remind them that they have a right to the contents of this folder," he added.

The board also reviewed the Regional District's policy No. 5131.6 regarding drugs, alcohol and tobacco, which Kenney reported has so far proven successful. The board's findings, according to the personnel director, were that the policy is working and no recommendations were made to revise it.

"The focus of the policy is to encourage staff members to be aware of any student behavior that may be indicative of drug and alcohol use," Kenney said, "and that parents must be notified so that the school can work with parents to help these students."

Each of the four high schools has a Key Committee which works closely in conjunction with faculty members in helping to resolve problems related to alcohol or drug use among students, according to Kenney.

The Regional High School District also has a full-time student assistance counselor, Cliff Lauterbach, whose primary function is to help families deal with student alcohol or drug use, the personnel director said.

Kenney reported that the Regional High School District's ban on tobacco smoking in school buildings or on school grounds has "also been very successful in cutting down the use of tobacco among students on school property."

In other news, the Board of Education approved a recommendation by Dr. Donald Morachnik, Regional District's superintendent of schools, to submit an application to the New Jersey Department of Education for the amount of $3,443, which is the district's entitlement under the Dwight D. Eisenhower Mathematics and Science Education Act.

If approved, the funds will be used for in-service training of science and mathematics teachers in the Regional District. The emphasis for training this year will be dealing with the methods of quantitative analysis, empirical and theoretical probability, and techniques of simulation.

When I read in the paper what my opponent said, my first reaction was one of shock and disbelief. However, it later became evident to me that what he said was not entirely his fault. It doesn't seem to matter who is running for local office on that party's ticket, the same Old Guard is still writing the words and pulling the strings.

That's the same Old Guard that left this town in shambles. They left a fire department that was the laughing stock of the state...with equipment so old that it was actually dangerous. That's the same Old Guard that left our roads and entire sewer system in need of repair. They left our parks and playgrounds in a mess. They left an antiquated telephone system that was not only inefficient but costly. They left a Public Works Department with equipment so substandard that much of it was frequently out of service. And against the advice of those who were in a position to know better, they used tens of thousands of taxpayers' dollars to purchase a computer system from a company that was about to go bankrupt. A system so underused that it couldn't do the job anyway. And that's the same Old Guard who went out of office, leaving a $2.4 million debt for us to clean up.

My opponent obviously didn't know that. But then, how could he? I'm sure that it takes to please all him that and he certainly couldn't have learned anything from coming to township meetings. In the almost three years that I've been in office, I have only seen him at two township meetings — and those were just recently.

The Democratic challenger believes the township to be without a viable anti-drug abuse policy. Firsichbaum said the Kurnos administration has not been diligent in pursuing such a course. But the mayor argues that his "Alliance" committee, which 11 appointees will serve, is projected to start a substance abuse prevention program this December.

KURNOS It's not together yet because I don't want it to be another do-nothing outfit. I want people who are dedicated. It's a tough job. We are contacting a lot of people. We're trying to get this group together, but without commitment, we have nothing — it's a waste of time.

But let's look at the other side of the coin. My opponent has lived in town 11 years and hasn't done one single thing for this community for which he wasn't paid.

The bottom line is that this administration has done an outstanding job, and I'm proud to be a part of it. We've actually turned this town

But let's look at the other side of the coin. My opponent has lived in town 11 years and hasn't done one single thing for this community for which he wasn't paid.

Bone marrow is needed

Ronald Cohen, a 32-year-old Union native, is dying of leukemia. However, doctors say a bone marrow transplant may save his life if a compatible donor is found.

To help Cohen find a donor, blood testing for members of the public who are willing to donate will be held Wednesday, Oct. 24, at Temple Emanuel, 756 E. Broad St., Westfield.

The testing procedure is a simple blood test which tests the compatibility of six antigens found in the blood.

Donating bone marrow is a risk-free, non-surgical procedure which is relatively painless — the marrow is extracted from the hip with a hypodermic needle.

 around 180 degrees. We stabilized the local tax rate and increased the financial integrity of Springfield by eliminating waste and increasing revenue. All that with a dramatic increase in services. In short, in spite of what my opponent says, Springfield has never been in better shape.

And when the people vote for me, they won't be pulling the lever for that same Old Guard that left this town in

Kurnos will have party

A campaign fund-raiser is planned for Mayor Philip Kurnos to be held Oct. 18 at Medieval Times in Lyndhurst. More than 30 people are expected to attend the gathering, which will start at 6:45 p.m., according to Kurnos' campaign co-chairman, Committee member Marc Marshall, who shares his duties with Committee member Jeffrey Katz.

Tickets for the fund-raiser may be reserved by contacting Campaign Treasurer Elaine Marshall at 275-5569.

This is the second fund-raiser held on behalf of the mayor. The first was given on Sept. 16 at Marshall's home, where about 75 people attended.

Seniors will have shots

The Springfield Health Department reminds senior citizens that free flu shots will be given Oct. 22, from 9 a.m. to noon, at Sarah Bailey Civic Center, 30 Church Mall. Another immunization session will be provided Nov. 5 at Senior Housing on Independence Way, from 10 to 11 a.m.

Dr. Henry Bimo, director of the Regional Health Department in Summit, said vaccine supplies are limited and "priority must be given to senior citizens and those chronically ill."

Fire safety tips provided by the local fire house

The Springfield Fire Department and the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) are teaming up this fall to promote fire safety measures in the home during Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 7 through 13.

"Last year, 80 percent of the 5,410 people killed in fires in the United States died in their homes," said Captain William Oras of the Springfield Fire Department. "Although it's encouraging to see the number of people who died as a result of fire last year decreased by 13 percent from 1988, the consistently high percentage of people being killed in fires in their homes each year is of particular concern. We must take measures to further protect ourselves, our families and our property from the devastating effects of fire," said Captain Oras.

The Fire Department urges area residents to participate in Fire Prevention Week. This year's theme — "Make Your Place Fire-safe: Hunt for Home Hazards" — was designed to remind the public to reduce the possibility of a home fire by eliminating dangerous behaviors and potential hazards and adopting other prevention and protection measures.

Recommended strategies include:
 • Installing and maintaining smoke detectors on every level and outside each bedroom of your home;
 • Developing and practicing with every member of your household a home fire escape plan that includes two ways out of each room.

 • Checking each room, including the attic, basement and garage, for potential problems. These may include, heating equipment placed too close to bedding or other combustible materials, obstructed exits, overloaded electrical outlets, unattended cooking, excess trash and rag accumulation, frayed electrical cords, matches and lighters left within reach of youngsters, improperly stored flammable and combustible liquids, and clogged chimneys.

For more information on home safety, residents are urged to contact Fire Headquarters at 376-1740.

The NFPA sponsors Fire Prevention Week each year with the support of fire departments, schools and civic organizations across the country, drawing the public attention to the need for fire prevention education.

For more information on home safety, residents are urged to contact Fire Headquarters at 376-1740.

Library will hold exhibit

The Springfield Public Library will present a display of paintings and mixed media by local artist Rosalind Miniman.

This past spring Miniman's work was voted "Best in Show" by the N.J. Visual Arts Association at its art show in Summit.

The display will run through the month of October during regular library hours.

The annual Friends of the Springfield Library Book Sale will be held Oct. 12 and 13 during regular library hours. For further information, one can call 376-4930.

Kenilworth seniors plan birthday bash

The Kenilworth Senior Citizen Club will be holding a birthday party for members on Tuesday, Oct. 16, at the Senior Center on the Boulevard at 1 p.m. The club's last regular meeting, meeting, attended by 155 people, was held Oct. 3.

Guest Althea Gibson, project specialist on physical fitness, spoke on senior modification, as well as stress walking for better health during the meeting.

A senior citizen herself, Gibson spoke on her past athletic life as a basketball player, bowler, golfer, top tennis player and singer, and played a tape recording of the song "So much to live for," which she recorded.

Kenilworth Borough Councilman Joseph Rego, the Republican mayoral candidate, along with Kenilworth Superintendent of Public Works, Frank Plummer, and Public Works foreman Frank DePalma showed slides illustrating, before and after effects of littering, announcing the town will get a grant to aid it in controlling littering.

The Senior Club now has 488 members. The club reported that 890 seniors altogether signed in for the month of September.

AARP meeting is slated

The next regular meeting of Mountaintop Chapter 4498 of the American Association of Retired Persons will be held on Thursday, Oct. 18, at 1 p.m. Members will meet at the Community Presbyterian Church on Deer Path in Mountaintop.

Lois Wien, program chairperson, announced that there will be a musical program featuring the Merry-men of the Westfield Old Guard. The Merry-men are under the direction of Howard Krippendorf and consist of a quartet-singing old-time songs. There will also be novelty acts.

All senior citizens, both members and non-members, are invited to attend the program.

The organization's "Lunch Bunch" will hold a luncheon at the Westwood Fashion on tap.

A Gata Fashion Show by Liz Claitor will be held at Bloomingdale's in Short Hills Mall on Oct. 16 from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. There will be a continental breakfast, makeup presentation and gifts. Reservations and payment of $10 in advance are required.

Proceeds of this fundraiser will go to the Ruth Paper Chapter of the Kidney Research Foundation of N.J. Anyone interested in making reservations may call 687-8751.

ARRAY OF GIFTS — Springfield Ladies of UNICO president Constance Bonadisi, left, and Luncheon Chairman Joanne Flajopol review some of the many gifts which will be awarded at Unico's Masquerade Mystique Luncheon and Fashion Show, to held Oct. 20 at L'Affaire, located on Route 22 East in Mountaintop.

MAC

As a depositor at The Union Center National Bank I have access to my money 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, at literally thousands of locations thanks to my MAC card.

Yes, it's like taking my bank with me wherever I go, even in other places throughout the United States and Canada, wherever there's a PLUS or HONOR system automatic teller machine (ATM).

But that's not all! I can also use my MAC card to make purchases at supermarkets, gas stations, restaurants and other places displaying the MAC card decal. It's faster than writing a check. If they'll even accept one, and much safer than carrying a lot of cash.

You, too, can have The Bank In your back pocket. Visit any office of The Union Center National Bank and open your account today.

The Bonds will be dated as of November 1, 1990, and will bear interest at the rates per annum specified by the terms of the Bonds. The principal of the Bonds will be paid by the Township to Case & Co., as nominee of the Depository Trust Company, New York, New York, which will act as securities depository for the Bonds.

Each proposal must specify (a) a single rate of interest on the Bonds, in multiples of 1/8 of 1% per $100 of principal amount of Bonds, the bidder will accept, which shall be $3,715,000 or any lesser amount which is a multiple of $1,000, the Bonds accepted being the first to mature, and (b) the price the bidder will pay, which shall be not less than $3,715,000, plus accrued interest, not more than $3,715,000, plus accrued interest, a Bidder who does not specify the same rate of interest, the Bonds will be sold to the bidder who offers to accept the lowest rate of interest, and if two or more bidders offer to accept the same least amount, then the bidder offering to pay the highest price, if two or more bidders offer to pay the same highest price, then the Bonds shall be sold to one of such bidders selected by lot from among all said bidders. The purchaser must also pay an amount equal to the interest on the Bonds accrued to the date of payment of the purchase price.

The right is reserved to reject all bids and any bid not complying with the terms of this Notice will be rejected.

Each bidder is required to deposit a certified, treasurer's or cashier's check payable to the TOWNSHIP OF SPRINGFIELD, in the amount of $74,300 drawn upon a bank or trust company, and such check must be enclosed with the proposal. When the successful bidder has been ascertained, all such deposits will be promptly returned to the persons making the same, except that the deposit of the bidder who will be the successful bidder for the Bonds or to secure the Township from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of the Bonds, which shall be not less than $3,715,000, plus accrued interest, is expected to be made within two hours after opening of the bids, but such successful bidder may be required to accept the Bonds at a later date, at which time the bidder offering to pay the highest price, if two or more bidders offer to pay the same highest price, then the Bonds shall be sold to one of such bidders selected by lot from among all said bidders. The purchaser must also pay an amount equal to the interest on the Bonds accrued to the date of payment of the purchase price.

THE WHOLE TOOTH
Feeding Your Teeth

If your teeth could talk they'd tell you they have a big stake in the food you put in your mouth. For one thing, you'd hear they would rather you didn't try to crack walnuts or chew ice cubes! That's in the spirit of elementary self-protection.

Their more important message, however, would bear on the kinds of food you eat. Teeth want to be healthy, and you'd best have a lot to do with keeping your teeth healthy — not to speak of the rest of you.

It takes some doing, linking up diet and dental health. Some of the key questions: How much food with a sugar and starch content you eat... when and how often you eat... what you eat... how long you keep food in your mouth... the combination of foods you eat.

Don't be discouraged. The ground rules are simple, and there are plenty of professionals around to help apply them to your particular situation.

Let's start with the youngest set. To develop decay-resistant teeth, children need protein, vitamins, and minerals — chiefly calcium, phosphate, and fluoride. The needs start early. Teeth begin developing three to six months before birth, so the expectant mother has to supply these essential nutrients to her unborn child.

Adults might want to think about periodontal (gum) disease, which can ultimately lead to tooth loss. It's believed that an inadequate diet reduces the mouth's resistance to infection and so promotes the advance of gum disease. The answer is more vitamins and minerals.

The well-balanced diet? It's no secret anymore with TV food commercials repeatedly touting the four basic food groups you need: fruits and vegetables; breads and cereals; milk and other dairy products; meat, fish, eggs, or legumes.

The key is to find the right combination for you; it's not the same for everyone. That's where the professionals come into the picture — your physician, dentist, or dietitian. Don't fail to consult them.

Regional BOE will meet

The Board of Education of Union County Regional High School District 1 will hold an adjourned regular meeting on Tuesday, October 16, at 8 p.m. in the Instructional Media Center of David Bradley Regional High School in Kenilworth.

The regional district includes Bradley, Johnson Dayton Regional High School in Springfield, Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School in Clark and Governor Livingston Regional High School in Berkeley Heights.

The board is expected to review its policy on equal educational opportunity, including school and classroom practices and employment contract proposals.

It will also review its own district policy, Section 2324 — Policy for Equality in Education. No Discrimination in Education, Programs and Activities. In addition, the latest evaluation of the program by the Commissioner of Education will be reported. Public comments are invited.

All residents of the regional district, parents of students attending district programs and teaching staff members of the four high schools are invited to attend the meeting.

UNITED COUNTRIES TRUST COMPANY

At United Counties Trust Company, our United Home Equity rate is calculated and adjusted monthly to 2.75% over the regularly published One Year U.S. Treasury Securities Index (constant maturity). Other banks typically set their equity programs based on a variable interest rate at a margin over a prime lending rate. Our formula has consistently yielded a lower United Home Equity rate than the "prime plus" rates these lenders have offered.

Welcome TO THE NEIGHBORHOOD

REAL ESTATE & HEALTH CARE

New home vs. old home is big decision

In today's real estate market, especially in New Jersey, prospective buyers have a wide selection of both new and old homes from which to choose. Making the right choice depends on the buyer and the particular home.

As part of its "Discover Homeownership Open House Event," scheduled for the weekend of Oct. 13-14, the New Jersey Association of Realtors (NJAR) offers the following suggestions to help buyers make the right choice.

Older homes tend to offer established neighborhoods with a history you can learn about before deciding where you want to live. There are usually no major construction projects going on with the loud noises they bring. The lawns and landscaping are mature and often require little of the owner's time. Public services have probably developed as the area has grown up. Many older homes have drapes and other amenities added by the previous owners. The yard may already be fenced.

But there can be disadvantages as well. Older homes may need repairs or remodeling to better suit you and your family. You may be stuck with the decorating choices made by previous owners. You may want some modern amenities not yet added. On the other side of the coin are the advantages of new construction. You can usually select the floor plan that suits you from several offered by the builder. You can sometimes pick which lot the home will sit on. In addition, carpet color, counter tops, tile, light fixtures and exterior colors can be your decision. Builders often have a fashionable assortment of materials reflecting current trends.

The latest developments in construction are incorporated into new homes, including energy-efficiency packages designed to hold down the utility costs. There are many better insulation materials in use today that have been developed in recent years.

New homes come with new appliances with warranties. New gadgets like ground-fault circuit interrupters, programmable thermostats and smoke detectors are being used. Many builders offer favorable financing.

The disadvantages of new homes exist as well. Most need lawns and at least some landscaping work. Most do not have fences or drapes. All of these items cost new home buyers money at a time, right after the downpayment and closing costs are made, when they cannot easily afford them. New homes are often built further from the central business district and nearby public services may not be available.

New homes often mean longer commutes to work. These new areas may not yet have any history for buyers to consider in their buying decision. And you really can't know how the overall development will age or what it will look like later. Unfortunately, many new homeowners have been disappointed to find that commercial and/or apartment projects springing up around the area. They also resale home history for the area so buyers can't see how marketable homes are should they later decide to sell.

Free booklet is offered

As part of its "Discover Homeownership Open House Event," scheduled for the weekend of Oct. 13-14, the New Jersey Association of Realtors (NJAR) and its 34 member Boards statewide are offering free copies of the New Jersey Home Guide.

The New Jersey Home Guide is a 32-page booklet that explains how to buy a home — from saving for the downpayment to choosing the right style — and lists referral numbers for local Realtor Boards and financing information. To date, more than 10,000 New Jersey residents have requested copies of the guide.

Coupons for free copies of the guide will be available at local open houses sponsored by Realtors participating in the event. Discover Homeownership Open Houses can be identified by the green and yellow pennants found on local open house signs. The guide can also be obtained free of charge by calling 1-800-YES-IN-NJ Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

St. Elizabeth Hospital's Express Care
 Quick Service for Minor Emergencies
 Comprehensive Service For All Emergencies

St. Elizabeth Hospital's Emergency Department service was designed with you in mind — two separate systems of care depending upon the seriousness of your problem.

Express Care, which operates from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., treats patients with minor emergencies such as sprains, minor fractures and upper respiratory infections quickly. We added extra staff to treat just those types of problems so that we can still provide expert care to patients with trauma and other serious emergencies.

And the best part about St. Elizabeth's emergency service is that if your "minor" problem is more serious than you thought, you're in a full-service Emergency Department with all the support of the hospital.

No one wants to wait hours in an Emergency Department for a minor problem....

Now you don't have to.

Better to rent or buy home?

Making the decision to rent or buy is a question faced by many sooner or later. The New Jersey Association of Realtors (NJAR) offers the following guidelines:

A leading consideration for people is the investment benefits gained when making a home purchase. History proves that the purchase of a home is one of the wisest financial moves one can make. The most common form of purchase is with financing. As inflation continues, which it has done year-to-year, homeowners will pay off their debt with "cheaper" dollars than those which they originally borrowed. They find the value of their home rising without a corresponding increase in their monthly mortgage payments.

Tax advantages when owning a home are extremely beneficial. Real estate taxes and the interest on your mortgage qualify as itemized deductions on federal and state income tax returns. When you pay rent, only a portion is deductible on New Jersey state tax returns and nothing at all on your federal returns.

Permanency is proving to be a decisive factor for people who have gone through years of landlord-tenant arrangements. The desire to be in control of one's dwelling with options to decorate at will and not have to "answer" to a landlord works to take people down the home-purchase path. Owning a home means just that — you own it, you make all the decisions — it is yours.

Buyers can move up to larger home

The current real estate market can provide an excellent opportunity for "moving up," according to Peter J. Degan, president of Degan Boyle Realtime. As reports about the "soft" market continue, now's the time for buyers to look. With a large inventory of available homes, those who have gained equity in their homes now have a chance to buy more house for less money.

Degan noted, "Now is an excellent time for homeowners to consider 'buying up' to a larger home. Sellers are more educated about the realities of the real estate market and are pricing their homes accordingly. We suggest that homeowners interested in taking advantage of the buyer's market arrange for a Comparative Market Analysis (CMA) as a first step. Once a value, and the potential net proceeds, are determined for their present home, buyers will have a good idea of what kind of home they can 'buy up' to."

Addressing seller's concerns, Degan noted: "The impression many people have that homes are impossible to sell today is simply untrue. As in any market, well-maintained, well-priced homes continue to sell in 1990. We have had many sales this year which were accomplished in only a matter of weeks. Once our customers realize a successful sale of their home is possible, they feel more confident about looking for another home."

"Moving Up" workshops, which help to calculate a homeowner's selling and buying potential, are available at any of the Degan Boyle offices located throughout Northern New Jersey.

OPERATION EXODUS
 JEWISH FEDERATION OF CENTRAL NEW JERSEY

Whereas: While new policies within the Soviet Union, under perestroika, have promised increasing freedom to the many Soviet citizens whose rights and freedom have been systematically denied for more than seventy years; and

Whereas: Despite, or precisely because this policy of liberalization and openness was put into practice, Jews are now compelled to emigrate as a result of fears caused by increasing antisemitic hostility; and

Whereas: More than a hundred and fifty thousand Jews have recently left the U.S.S.R with the possibility of up to a million more leaving in the next few years; and

Whereas: "Operation Exodus" was established as a special campaign to help rescue Soviet Jews and to resettle them in Israel and the United States; and

Whereas: The Jewish Community of Central New Jersey has accepted an assessment of $4 million which it must achieve by the end of October with only $3 million raised to date;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: We, the undersigned appeal to the hearts and moral values of our fellow citizens in Union County and beyond to support the life-saving, rescue and resettlement program of "Operation Exodus".

Contributions should be forwarded and checks made payable to: The Jewish Federation of Central New Jersey, Green Lane, Union, N.J. 07093, and designated for Operation Exodus Campaign. If you have any questions please call 351-5060.

Musical world opens up for Jason Taylor

By BEA SMITH
When Jason Taylor, 26, of Hillside was a young boy in East Brooklyn, pounding the kitchen table to the rhythm of Lionel Hampton's records, he never in his wildest dreams believed that he would become Hampton's protégé and be part of Hampton's band. He never imagined that he would be playing the vibraphone at the inauguration of President Ronald Reagan or be accepted as President George Bush.

"All I knew back then," he says during a recent visit to this newspaper office, "was that I loved music, and I made my mother crazy with my pounding. I loved the drums back then, but in my teens I became interested in the vibraphone, then graduated to the vibraphone."

Taylor, a charming musician, is known in the music world as "The Malletman," because he records under the independent label, Mallet Records. He combines rap and funk in his vibraphonist-vibraphonist style. "People classify me as a rhythm and blues jazz artist in urban contemporary music. Especially in my latest album, 'Love Attack.'"

Born in Jamaica, N.Y., Taylor moved to Brooklyn, then to East New York.

"I went to a private school in Queens to improve my grades," he recalls, "so, I commuted a lot. And I played the drums a lot. At 16, I moved with my family to upstate New York, and I attended Marlboro High School there. At that time, I was introduced to a music teacher, Henry Ketterer. He focused on me by helping me to mold myself and become a better vibraphone player. The vibraphone has metal bars. I had been playing a xylophone, which has wooden bars. I had started playing at the age of 15 and had taken lessons for a short time.

"Mr. Ketterer," says Taylor, "prepared me for college. He recommended Suffolk Community College in Long Island, where I had become a music major. I played the vibraphone for three different bands, the Jazz Ensemble, the Concert Band and the Brass Band.

"During my year at college there," he continues, "a saxophone player in Orchard Terrace, Linden, Dr. Karen Mondrino of the Rutgers Cooperative Extension of Union County was a guest speaker.

Club member Mildred Fisher discussed "Mickey Spillane, a local boy who made it big."

THE SUBURBAN MOTHERS OF Twins and Triplets Club will hold a general meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the First National Bank of Central Jersey, 105 East Fourth Ave., Roselle.

All mothers of multiples and prospective mothers of multiples are invited to join the informal discussion group. Light refreshments will be served.

MUSICAL DUO — Jason Malletman Taylor, left, is seen with Lionel Hampton during a performance in Las Vegas, Nev., where they both played the vibraphone. Taylor has since graduated to independent performer and has three albums under his belt.

Newbury, N.Y., where I had once resided, to autograph my pictures and albums.

In 1988, Taylor "did an independent video, and by 1989, I was trying to show my talent to the fullest. I then endorsed some consumer products."

Three years ago, Taylor met "beautiful young woman at one of my performances in New York City, Chanaelyn Cia. We were married in April, and we moved to Hillside. She plays the violin as a hobby. Right now, she's a college student, majoring in economics. Her father, Raoul Cia, is a musical arranger and the leader of a doo-wop group called 'The Hamp-tones.' He wrote three tunes for the musical score of the hit movie 'Goodfellows.'

"I've been getting help to keep musically occupied from three people since I've been here in New Jersey. They are Gail Jackson, a vocalist and booking agent in Newark; Jerry Hall, a promoter from Ashbury Park, and Lou Rosen, a promoter for Giant Stadium at the Meadowlands. He is responsible for all the concerts there."

Taylor has had three releases under Mallet Records. "And I did a 45 under Trib Records, an independent label in Fishkill, N.Y. And before that, at Ulster Community College I did a Big Band Album in 1981."

The young performer also did some television, including a cable show on Channel 17, the "Ingrid Laxcock Show," in 1987. He also did the "Good Day, New York" show on Fox 5 this past June.

"I appeared on the Joe Franklin Show with Weird Al Yankovic, a musical comedian, in July 1989. "This is my life," Taylor states. "I enjoy playing the vibraphone, a rare instrument, which I've also played on radio stations such as WLTV, and listening music of WPAI; also WSPK in Beacon, N.Y.; WFDU in Teaneck, WMOR in Union and WQFM in Albany, N.Y."

Taylor has "one sister, Cassandra. She works for Pan Am, and she and her husband, Richard Albert of Queens, N.Y., contribute to keep my independent label going. They have been very supportive.

"I love jazz," he adds. "But I feel if I get in the now stream and stick to rhythm and blues, more people will pay attention. The good vibes will never die. But you know what? My father-in-law is doing right now, writing musical scores for movies. It would be more of an honor than anything."

Taylor appeared at Black Jack's Lounge in Trenton on Oct. 3. "I'll be back in November and December," he says. On Nov. 2, he will appear in a club called 'Woody's in Manhattan. He says he and his wife like Hillside so much that they may be Hillside proud to have another artist in town. Everybody here has been so nice, at least I'd like to let them know who I am and become friends."

Taylor sighs, "My life has really been wonderful with wonderful people helping me. Now, with 28 years of staying out of trouble and making good music — well, I just can't ask for anything more."

Remington, Charles Dana Gibson, J.C. and F. X. Lovendacker, Cole Phillips, James Montgomery Flagg, Norman Rockwell and Miguel Covarrubias, along with the photography of Edward Steichen, Charles Sheeler, Hoyningen-Huene and Cecil Beaton.

The show will represent a part of the collection of Albert L. Simpson "Treasures in Print." Simpson is a lawyer, former president of the Union County Bar Association. He has been a magazine collector for more than a quarter of a century.

THE ROSE L. SCHWARTZ Group of Hadassah will hold its monthly meeting Sunday at 11:30 a.m. at the YM-YWHA, Green Lane, Union, Rose D'Amico, president, will preside.

The program was organized by Muriel Perlman, a past president.

On the evening of Nov. 17, there will be a bus trip theater party to "Yiddie & His Fiddle" at Town Hall in New York City. For reservations and more information one can call Addie Friedman at 686-9390.

THE RUTH ESTRIN Goldberg Memorial for Cancer Research has planned a trip to the Taj Mahal Casino in Atlantic City, Nov. 11. One can call 687-1784 or 687-3211 for further information. Buses will leave at 8 a.m. from Congregation Israel, Millburn Avenue, Millburn.

A membership party will be held Nov. 14 at the Tower Steak House, Mountaineer. For reservations, one can call 687-9558.

Band in Westfield has expansion goal

"Expansion in terms of personnel, performance and repertoire will be the major goal for the 1990-91 season of the Westfield Community Band," it was announced by Bill Zareva, Director.

Zareva, in his 13th year as director of the 60-member group, known for its annual summer concert series in Westfield's Mindowaskin Park, is interested in attracting oboists, bassoonists, bass clarinet, french horn, trumpet and percussionists to the group.

"Membership in the 77-year-old symphonic band is open to all musicians at all levels of proficiency," Zareva said. "Our band provides a great opportunity for former and present musicians of all ages to re-introduce music into their lives."

Zareva, who is director of music of the Morris School District, also been a member of the adjunct faculty of the music department of Kean College of New Jersey, Union.

The band's first rehearsal of the year was held Oct. 3 at 7:30 p.m. in the band room of Westfield's Roosevelt Junior High School. Rehearsals will continue throughout the year at the location and time, it was announced.

Further information concerning the Westfield Community Band, which is supported by the Westfield Recreation Department and the Summit Trust Co., can be obtained by calling Zareva at 647-3514 or the Westfield Recreation Department at 789-4080.

IN NEW PLAY — Diana Sunrise and Isaac Dostis will appear in "The Story of Solomon Feckelman, a new play by Joseph Cocco, which has been nominated for a Pulitzer Prize, Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in the social hall of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, 301 Tucker Ave., Union, as part of 20th anniversary celebration of the Bus Ministry sponsored by the Rev. Nancy E. Forsberg of the First Congregational Church of Union. See story in religious events on religious page B12.

Magazine covers show prepared by Simpson
An extensive collection of covers, illustrations, ads and photographs from many of America's most prestigious magazines published from 1850 to 1950 will be exhibited and offered for sale Oct. 27 and 28 between noon and 5 p.m. at "The Studio", 44 Elmwood Ave., Union.

Among the magazines represented are Harpers Weekly, Puck, Judge, Saturday Evening Post, Ladies Home Journal, Life, 1883-1936; Vanity Fair, 1913-1936 featuring the talents of such illustrators as Thomas Nast, Howard Pyle, A.B. Frost, Frederic

The Youth Committee of the JCC of Central N.J., 1391 Marine Ave., Scotch Plains, has announced two shows this fall. On Sunday at 2 p.m. at the JCC, the Chemical Magician, Neil Schulman, will perform.

"The success of Schulman's act relies on involving children in experiencing the secrets of stunts such as 'The Sugar Monster' and 'The Boy With the Electric Hair.' His one hour performance of singing and science appeals to children from 5 to 12-years-old."

The second youth performance will be held Nov. 8 Teachers Convention, at 11 a.m. at the JCC. "Jack and the Beanstalk" will be presented by the Happy Times Children's Theater Group for 4-years and up girls and boys.

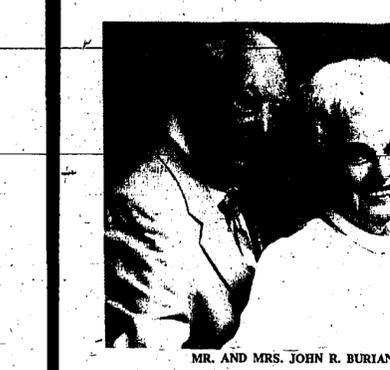

One can contact Linda Shear, Youth Services director, for further information at 889-8800. Tickets can be purchased at the JCC office.

"Little Old New York" set
"Little Old New York," a collection of 36 watercolor paintings of cultural centers and historic landmarks of the Lower East Side, has opened the 1990-91 season of the Art Gallery at the Jewish Community Center of Metropolitan New Jersey, 760 Northfield Ave., West-Orange.

The exhibit, which will be on display through Oct. 21, will include paintings of Little Italy, the Old Ghettos, the German Section, Irish Neighborhood, Greenwich Village and Chinatown. On loan from the American Jewish Museum of Art and Culture, the exhibit is sponsored by the Samuel and Mildred Klein Endowment for the Arts.

Justin Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Balzer of Kenilworth, celebrated his birthday on Sept. 12. Joining him on the occasion were his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Balzer, Mary, and MaryAnne, and Uncle Sal, John and Bob.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN R. BURIAN

Burians mark 50th year
A 50th wedding anniversary dinner party was held Sept. 15 at the Town and Campus, Union, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Burian of Linden. The party was given by their daughter, Carol Ann Gouger, and their son-in-law, Dr. Dale Barclay Gouger, and grandson, Robert Dale Gouger of Mohnton, Pa.

Guests came from California, Florida, South Carolina, New York, Vermont and New Jersey.

John R. Burian and the former Julia V. Kakassy of Summit were married Sept. 14, 1940 in St. Theresa's Church, Summit. They renewed their wedding vows and were blessed on April 29 at the Cathedral of the Sacred Heart, Archdiocese of Newark. The Rev. Theodore E. McCarrick, archbishop, officiated.

Commarato-Soergel troth
Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Commarato of Union have announced the engagement of their daughter, Jolene Marie of Union, to Kevin Bruce Soergel of Franklin Park, Pa., son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth P. Soergel Jr. of Bradford Woods, Pa.

The bride-elect was graduated from Union High School and Pennsylvania State University, where she received a bachelor of science degree in psychology.

Her fiancé, who was graduated from North Allegheny High School, Marshall Township, Pa., and Pennsylvania State, where he received a bachelor of science degree in landscape architecture, is employed as a landscape foreman by K.P. Soergel and Associates, Gibsonia, Pa.

The couple will be married next month.

Bluestein-Cantalupo
Mr. and Mrs. Leon Bluestein of Columbia, S.C., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Barbara, to Jim Cantalupo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Cantalupo of Union.

The bride-elect, who was graduated from the University of South Carolina, is an elementary teacher in Timmerman School in South Carolina. Her fiancé, who was graduated from Union High School and the University of South Carolina, is a commercial loan officer with the North Carolina National Bank, Columbia, South Carolina.

WORRALL COMMUNITY NEWSPAPERS THURSDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1990-2,3,4* SECTION B

Taub sisters on a roll

By MARK YABLONSKY
The following is this week's run-down on Jonathan Dayton Regional High School sports.

GIRL'S TENNIS
Led by the sensational Taub sisters, Susan and Lisa, the Lady Bulldogs keep rolling, following four more wins last week, all by 5-0 scores; over Governor Livingston on Oct. 1, Immaculata on Oct. 2, Roselle Catholic on Oct. 3, and finally, Roselle on Oct. 5. Dayton is now 7-0, not counting last Thursday's rainout with Millburn, a match that was to be televised on TV-3.

In fact, six of Dayton's seven wins all were 5-0 scores, with the exception of a 3-2 verdict at home over Summit on Sept. 18.

Susan, a senior at first singles, has a 14-1 record, including the beginning of individual state championship play. The loss came to Terry Ann Zawacki in the Union County Tournament final two weeks ago in Plainfield. Last week, the younger Taub shut out Immaculata's Laura Kalzorowski, 6-0, 6-0; and also Becky Hotz of Roselle by the same margin.

Meanwhile, sophomore Wendy Saladino is 9-1 at third singles, while the first doubles pairing of junior Staci Messinger and Holly Olarczuk are 7-2. At second doubles, the tandem of sophomore Danielle Oliver and senior Kathy McCabe are 7-2 as well, including a 5-1 record in the regular-season, and a 2-1 mark in UCT competition.

Yet, the big story was Susan Taub's hard-fought victory over Tammy Zawacki of Union this past Saturday in the second round of the state's individual championships at Mercer County Park in West Windsor. Taub, last year's Union County No. 1 singles champion and this year's runner-up to Terry Ann Zawacki, had to rally against the younger Zawacki to win the final two rounds, 6-1, 6-3, thus advancing to a quarterfinal-round match with Vinland's Chris Trayer on Saturday morning.

Susan had dropped the first set, 2-6, to the younger Zawacki, the No. 1-ranked player in the Eastern Tennis Association's 14-and-under category. The younger Taub, Lisa, meanwhile, faced third-seeded Kasee Siegel of Pinyan in the second round and lost, 3-6, 0-6.

BOY'S CROSS COUNTRY
After a two-week period of inactivity, the Bulldogs returned to action and lost to both Ridge and Governor Livingston on Oct. 1, Berkeley Heights, 30-27 and 34-20, respectively, last Tuesday, Oct. 2. The two losses dropped Dayton's record to 4-3.

Prior to that, however, Dayton had won four of its first five meets, including season-opening victories over New Providence and Summit on Sept. 14.

Susan, a senior at first singles, has a 14-1 record, including the beginning of individual state championship play. The loss came to Terry Ann Zawacki in the Union County Tournament final two weeks ago in Plainfield. Last week, the younger Taub shut out Immaculata's Laura Kalzorowski, 6-0, 6-0; and also Becky Hotz of Roselle by the same margin.

Meanwhile, sophomore Wendy Saladino is 9-1 at third singles, while the first doubles pairing of junior Staci Messinger and Holly Olarczuk are 7-2. At second doubles, the tandem of sophomore Danielle Oliver and senior Kathy McCabe are 7-2 as well, including a 5-1 record in the regular-season, and a 2-1 mark in UCT competition.

Kestler qualified for the Garden State Games in both fencing and track this past summer, and placed a surprisingly-high seventh.

Dayton's number two runner has been Sean McGrath, whose time averages between 18 and 19 minutes; his time of 18:38 vs. Roselle Catholic was also a major factor behind that Bulldog win.

Junior Brett Wilkins, who ran a 19:56 against Roselle Catholic, is next in the lineup, and then comes freshman Jeff Garrizzo, who ran a 19:52 against the Lions.

Other team runners include sophomores Jeff Lippman and Ben Schneider, and junior John Schiano, all of whom played a key role in the latter stages of the 27-29 victory over Summit on opening day.

The Bulldogs were scheduled to face Roselle and Immaculata on Tuesday at Warinanco Park.

BOY'S SOCCER
The Bulldogs improved their record to 5-2-1 with a 1-0 win in the rain at North Plainfield last Thursday afternoon, followed by a 4-0 shutout over Roselle Park on Saturday in Springfield.

Senior David Goodman had a fine week, with his goal deciding the contest against North Plainfield, and then adding on another tally against Park in the third period, at that time giving the Bulldogs a 2-0 lead.

Goodman was assisted by teammate Miguel Rodriguez on the play against North Plainfield, before tallying an unassisted goal against Park.

Phil Kolubinski scored twice against the Panthers, with the second coming by way of an assist from Rodriguez at 62 of the 90 minutes. His first opened the scoring at 3:27 into the first quarter via a "penalty kick."

Dayton's other goal came from sophomore Mat Lies at 11:07 of the fourth, assisted by senior Greg Berna.

In net for the shutout, his third in four games, was senior Craig Huitzen, who had also recorded the shutout at North Plainfield.

WHO'S ON FIRST?

This week's question:
Longevity is an admirable trait in baseball, and several players, not counting Miraldo Minoso's return cups of coffee, have played in four decades. But can you name the only player whose 25-year, four-decade career coincided with the terms of no less than seven U.S. Presidents. Sorry, no clues this week.

Last week's answer: The only two men in big-league history to hit home runs before the age of 20, and after the age of 40 were Ty Cobb and Rusty Staub. Cobb, one of the five original Hall of Famers in 1936 — along with Honus Wagner, Babe Ruth, Christy Matheson and Walter Johnson — hit one home run in 1905 for the Detroit Tigers at the age of 18 while hitting just 240, and hit another homer the following year at age 19 for the same team, while hitting 320. Now fast forward 21 years to 1927, when a 40-year-old Cobb — born on Dec. 18, 1886 — hit 5 homers and batted .357 for the Philadelphia Athletics; and to 1928, when the "Georgia Peach" hit one more homer and batted .323 for the A's. Lifetime, Cobb accumulated 4,191 hits, now second only to Pete Rose, and hit 118 homers — a low total until you consider that 1) Cobb wasn't a power hitter, and 2) he played in the dead-ball era.

Staub, on the other hand, broke in at the age of 19 with six homers and a .224 batting average for the 1963 Houston Colt 45's, and 21 years later, at the age of 40, he hit one-round-tripper-for the 1984 New York Mets, while hitting .264. In 1985, Staub's final big-league season, "Le Grande Orange" hit his last homer — and his only one of the season — on June 22 against the Montreal Expos.

Staub ended his productive career with 2,716 hits and 292 home runs, while batting .279. And interestingly, he, like Cobb, spent a portion of his career with the Detroit Tigers, although for a much shorter period of time. And our congratulations go to Bob C. Dilly of Springfield, who has won his first $3 certificate to a local sporting goods store. Please have your responses in our Union offices — at 1291 Stuyvesant Ave. — by no later than noon each Monday. And please send us only one answer per week.

'Dawgs' lose

By SUSAN KRAKOWIECKI
Another game, another big hero. That's the way it seems to be going for the Abraham Clark High School football team. On September 28, the Rams charged to a big 43-21 over Immaculata on the arm and legs of quarterback Baron Miles. This past Saturday, Roselle, now 3-0, rolled over Jonathan Dayton Regional, 33-0, at Misael Field, led by running back Mike Fullman, who piled up 220 rushing yards.

Not to be outdone by his teammate, Miles threw for 86 yards and two more Rams touchdowns.

"We played a good game on defense in the first half," said Dayton head coach John LaDona. "We had a game plan to control the ball, eat up the clock and try and keep Baron Miles off the field. It worked well until they got their first touchdown. That really took the wind out of our sails."

Roselle broke a scoreless tie with 30 seconds left in the first half. On a third-down play, Jon Johnson streaked down the sideline and caught a 44-yard pass from Miles in the end zone. After Miles failed on the extra point attempt, the Rams took a 6-0 lead into the locker room.

The second half was a different story. Fullman came out running through, around and over the tiring Dayton defense and Roselle started piling up the points.

"We play a lot of young players," said LaDona. "We just tried to concentrate on covering the lanes, keeping up with our responsibilities and not let the big play break us. In the second half, we ran out of gas. It was a hot day and our players got tired. We missed a few tackles and, with their speed, they were gone."

Bears saddle Mustangs

By MARK YABLONSKY
Led by Mike Batte's workhorse, 141-yard effort, the Brearley Regional High football team sailed to a 34-0 victory over Manville this past Saturday in Kenilworth, just one week after the Bears, now 2-1 on the season, had sustained a heartbreaking 13-7 defeat to New Providence.

All told, Brearley, which will open its road schedule with a 1 p.m. trip to Ridge on Saturday, outlasted Manville by a convincing 246-83 margin and enjoyed a 319-174 advantage overall, despite being outpassed, 91-73.

Brearley opened the scoring early in the first quarter when the Bears, on their very first possession, took a punt and drove 55 yards in 11 plays, capped by Batte's five-yard plunge. Mark Scuderi added the first of four straight PATs to make it a 7-0 contest. The key play that preserved the drive was quarterback Don Dayton's 10-yard hookup over the middle with tight end Tim Kaufmann.

Then, when Mike Wright recovered a second-quarter Manville fumble 31 yards from the Mustang end zone, Batte went on to cap a seven-play advance by diving over from the one, which along with Scuderi's second placement, enabled the Bears to leave the field at halftime with a 14-0 advantage.

Following a scoreless third period, the Bears put it safely away with three quick scoring drives throughout the final quarter of play, with the first touchdown coming via an eight-play, 53-yard drive that culminated with Dayton going over from the one.

The second TD was a short, two-play, 47-yard advance made possible when the Bears took over in Manville territory after the latter lost the ball on downs. Two plays later, Dayton, who completed three of four passes for 73 yards and ran for 21 yards on five carries, found Kaufmann for a 47-yard TD. Scuderi added his final PAT of the day to make it a 28-0 game.

Finally, two runs set up Bob Cox's 57-yard scoring dash with roughly three and a half minutes to play. Cox, who is a 5-5, 135-pound senior running back, ran practically untouched up the middle to paydirt.

Bulldog Player of the Week

Joe Perez is head coach John LaDona's selection as Dayton Player of the Week. The senior co-captain ran for 85 yards in 23 carries in Dayton's 33-0 loss to Roselle last Saturday.

Tigers boost team unity

By MARK YABLONSKY
On a recent Saturday morning, Linden High boy's soccer coach Andrew Eng organized a "team day," whereby team members arriving at practice competed with one another to see who wore the brightest-looking clothes. This past Saturday, Eng held a continental breakfast of sorts after practice. The idea behind these events is simple: team unity. And for a youthful, inexperienced squad that entered the season without much to look forward to, such unity-building events are all part of the overall plan to help rebuild boy's soccer at Linden High. Thus, even when the Tigers sustain a 7-0 defeat to a county power such as Scotch Plains — as was the case on Sept. 28 — the team learns that one such loss isn't the end of the world. "What it comes down to is that we try to make this a cohesive unit," explained Eng, whose team's record had stood at a surprising 4-2 before that defeat to Scotch Plains triggered a three-game losing streak that dropped the team mark to 4-5 after a 2-1 defeat in Union on Oct. 3. "This is what keeps them from feeling down. And when they become a closer-knit unit, they become a tighter group."

While the possibility is not strong, by any means, the fact remains that entering play this week, Linden actually was in the running to make postseason play. Not counting last Friday's postponement with Kearny, the Tigers had a total of five games remaining prior to the Oct. 19 cutoff, in which teams with records of .500 or better qualify for a sectional playoff spot. "We're at least at the stage now where we're competitive," Eng said. The team's leading scorers are sophomore halfback G.J. Linarducci, whose five goals give him 10 points; and sophomore winger Alfredo Caceres, whose four goals and two assists give him the same amount. Linarducci netted two goals in a 7-0 victory over Rahway on Sept. 24, and then added another tally the following day in a 4-3 win at Summit. Senior midfielder Frank Jaynes has three goals and an assist for seven points, and junior winger Jason Junio has seven points as well, courtesy of two goals and three assists. Others contributing include junior midfielder Jesse Helfrich, whose goal early in the third period of that Summit game provided Linden with a 3-2 lead, and whose goal against Union was the only one the Tigers managed that day. Senior Brian Figuerido has been in goal for seven of Linden's games and has won three of them, including the shutout over Rahway, as well as the win at Summit, in which he stopped eight shots on net.

Three by Eagan lift Brearley

Three goals and an assist from Kim Eagan paced the Brearley Regional High field hockey team to a 5-1 win over Governor Livingston Regional last Tuesday, but strong defense on the part of Westfield stymied the Lady Bears, 2-1, later in the week. Aside from Eagan's hat trick, teammates Cindy Smith and Jessica Saporito also scored goals. At Westfield, Diana Daniels opened the scoring for the home side at 4:45 into the first half, but Brearley tied it at 1-1 when Eagan connected on a corner hit with 7:15 to play in the half. Thirteen seconds into the second half, however, Westfield went ahead for good to claim victory. Both Saporito and Tina Kaufman displayed great defense for Brearley. Brearley, seeded third in Union County Tournament play, will face sixth-seeded Summit this Saturday at 1 p.m. in Kenilworth.

For week of Oct. 14-Oct. 20
ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Anticipate some surprises. Take a good look at your investment strategies over the long haul. Do not make any radical changes. Your energy quotient is about to soar.
TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Recharge your romantic batteries. Put yourself in a loved one's situation for understanding. You will make progress through empathy and kindness. Reconciliation provides some insight.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Abandon any material pursuits. Cultivate more spiritual aspirations. Think about money and family budgets from a different vantage point. Scribble down what your imagination nurtures.
CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Happy days are here. Take some immediate action on the business and personal fronts. Bolster the emotional bank account; invest in new friends. Open your heart to romance.
LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22) Do not get zapped by the mood bug. Drop any lingering woes and act like the natural pleasure seeker you are. Browse through favorite stores. Buy gifts for friends. Plan your Halloween costumes.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22) Plan your monthly ventures with care. It is your cycle to take the initiative. But dangers abound. Look at it from another's perspective. Think before speaking or acting on your feelings.
LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Stop worrying about the things that you cannot change. The past and the future are out of your range now. Focus on the present. Living in the moment will allow you to tap inner power. The love radiator heats up.
SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Tally up a storm. Brilliant ideas will hit you in waves. Do not get way to superficiality, however. You are thinking more clearly. Do not allow others to sway you. Call friends with the good news.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Analyze your dreams for insight into your true character. Let by-gones be by-gones with friends and relatives. You are itching to travel again. Make the move in that direction.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19) Consider new avenues in terms of film, video or television. You have a natural ability to teach others. Get to the heart of a mystery. Watch those miserly tendencies.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18) Show off your latest pursuits. But keep a check on your capricious nature. Not everyone can live up to your expectations. Watch your weight. Sports and diet will help. Be meticulous while shopping.
PISCES (Feb. 19 to March 20) Cast away any nagging doubts or tentative actions. Throw caution to the wind. Take well-reasoned risks. Reinvest yourself; read the classics again; go back to school; plan a second career.

Harmonica to accordion

By MILT HAMMER
Turntable Treat — "When I was 2 years old," Brian Mann recalls, "my father gave me my first instrument — a harmonica. I never put it down. It was never out of my hand or pocket. Everywhere I went I was always carrying it — always, every minute."
"One evening Dad was trying to teach me how to play harmonica. I must have had trouble saying it, because everything but harmonica came out; things like 'homin' or 'armica.' Finally Dad replied, 'harm-on-ka, har-MON-ka-ca,' trying to coach me. After several failed attempts, he remembers me finally saying, 'Dad, I can't say it, but I can play it!' That's me. That's how I got my feelings and energy out."
That outgoing passion for music has kept Brian Mann very, very active for two decades — so busy, in fact, that his schedule has prevented him from fulfilling his lifetime desire to record a solo project. The wait ends with the release of "Cafe du Soleil," "Cafe du Sun," Brian's spirited and wonderfully original debut release for Narada Equinox.
"Cafe du Soleil" not only showcases the many talents of a veteran, writer, arranger and producer who has worked with some of the brightest stars in jazz music: Kenny Loggins, Larry Carlton, David Lee Roth, Michael McDonald and Steve Nicks, it also reveals an expressive musician creatively indulging in his first love — the accordion.
"The accordion has so many human qualities," says Mann. "It is as expressive as the human voice, because it breathes and it sings. And to play it, you hug it — even caress it — and the music you hear is very personal."

Brian's father, Milton Mann, started playing the accordion at a young age, and Brian followed in his footsteps, playing the accordion, piano and harmonica at the age of 3. As a talented teacher, Milton Mann used schools, radio broadcasts and live concerts to promote the accordion. "He was the Music Man of Southern California's Orange County," Brian recalls. "My dad used to have this little motto for his music schools:
