LEGION TO HOLD PIG ROAST DEC. 7

Anthony Schaefer Chairman of Committee in Charge

Summit Post 138, American Legion will hold its regular bi-monthly business meeting Tuesday evening in the new home at Park avenue and Elm street. There are about twelve local residents who are members of the Summit Post. Many more ex-service men in Springfield are eligible to join, and they are urged to get in touch with Anthony A. Schaefer of Battle Hill avenue, who will furnish them with applications. Mr. Schaefer will also cart away any old show-cases which residents wish to contribute to the soldiers' home. They will be used in an exhibition room, where all war-time souvenirs and relics will be stored and displayed.

Thursday evening at the Roth-Strand theatre, a Philco Radio set will be raffled off, for the benefit of the Post.

A pig-roast, under the auspices of Summit Post, will be held Saturday evening, December 7, in the home at 7 o'clock. Tickets for the roast may be obtained from Mr. Schaefer who is chairman of the committee arranging details.

COUNTY TEMPERANCE UNION MEETS TODAY

The annual fall luncheon of the Union County Women's Christian Temperance Union will be held this afternoon, in the Hotel Winfield Scott, in North Broad street, Elizabeth, at 1 o'clock.

Fifteen tickets have been sent to the local W. C. T. U., and it is expected that the entire allotment will be disposed of. Mrs. Edwin D. Pannell, president of the local union, is chairman of the decoration committee for the luncheon.

Mrs. Edith Currie, president of the union, will preside and William Callahan, New Jersey prohibition enforcement director, Prosecutor Abe J. Davin and others will give addresses.

SCHUSTER-McDOWELL

The marriage of Virginia L. McDowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. McDowell, of Newburgh, N. Y., to Wilbur D. Schuster, of Warner avenue, this township, took place Tuesday afternoon in the Good Shepherd Church of Newburgh. The Rev. Matthew Schew, pastor of the church, officiated.

Mr. Ruth A. Leysen, of Alvin Terrace, Springfield, cousin of the bride, was best man, and Mr. Edward Young, of Newark, was best man.

At the wedding reception which followed at the bride's home, twenty-five guests, including Mayor Jay Trow of Newburgh, and relatives from Doverport, Ontario, Canada, New York and Springfield, were present.

The couple will spend several months in Europe and will return to Springfield in the latter part of the year.

JOINS SALES FORCE

Bunnell Bros. announce the addition to their sales force of A. B. Anderson, who will represent both Springfield and Millburn offices in their enlargement program for Springfield, Short Hills, Millburn and vicinity.

CREDIT MAN TALKS AT LIONS MEETING

Highway Report Due at Next Meeting Today

Before seventeen members and six visitors at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Springfield Lions Club, held at the Villegiani Inn last Friday afternoon, Edward McKinley, of the Intercounty Credit Bureau, of Chatham, gave an address on "Commercial Credit."

President Charles H. Huff was in charge of the meeting. The visitors present included Westfield Lions T. Griffin, H. Cole, F. Bardwell, I. Windfeldt, and R. Chalfield. Mr. McKinley appeared as the guest of Joe Galightly.

In his speech, Mr. McKinley stressed the faults of the credit system and suggested possible remedies, saying that it is better for the merchant to weed out his undesirable customers and sacrifice volume for surety. Speaking as one who has had knowledge of credit dealings with at least 40,000 persons in this vicinity, Mr. McKinley stated that there are many persons who are professional "deadbeats," running up huge credits with various houses.

Little articles brought by members, were raffled off, and the proceeds, about $9, was turned over to the Christmas fund of the club. One member won a large box, and on opening it found wrapped in many newspapers a lemon.

Drs. William G. Huff and Stewart O. Burns, who attended the second annual New Jersey Street and Highway Conference in Newark on Wednesday afternoon, as delegates from the Springfield Lions Club, will give a report of the activities of the conference, at the meeting this afternoon.

MORTON ARRAIGNED AS DRUNKEN DRIVER

Raymond Morton, 15 Remer avenue, a new resident in this township was fined $200 and $9 costs, and his license suspended for two years by Recorder Everett T. Spinning in police court Monday evening, on a charge of operating a car while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

Morton was arrested by Patrolman Wilbur C. Schauder several weeks ago, about 4 o'clock in the morning on Mountain avenue, near South Springfield avenue. Dr. Henry P. Tengler pronounced him unfit to drive and he was released in $250 bond. Records showed later that in the past he had been arrested and a driver's license only two weeks previous.

Harry O'Hara, Jr., 87 Darcy street, Newark, was fined $50 and costs for allowing a non-licensed child to operate his automobile. He was arrested by Patrolman Schauder the day of his arrest at 3 o'clock on North Broad street. O'Hara is a resident of Springfield.

Who's Who In Springfield

CHARLES H. HUFF
—(Courtesy, Newark News.)

In the course of a long and varied career, much of which has been spent in Springfield, Charles H. Huff, prominent local merchant has shown himself jack of all trades but not necessarily master of none.

As township committeeman, printer, auditor, bowler, fireman, fraternal officer, hardware merchant—"Charley" Huff has had versatile experiences.

He has resided here for 21 years. In 1918 Mr. Huff was elected to the Springfield Township Committee and served two terms for a period of six years. During his first term he was a member of the building committee to erect the present Municipal building. He was a strong supporter of this project.

Before opening his present hardware store here six years ago, Mr. Huff was an auditor for the National Aniline Company of New York City. At one time he was in the printing business in Newark.

But besides his many active duties, Mr. Huff has found time for recreation. His main hobby is bowling, having made many a "strike" in the thirty years he spent on the alleys. At present he is the captain and one of the mainstays of the Springfield quintet in the Lackawanna Bowling League.

Two important civic posts held down by Mr. Huff are president of the Springfield Lions Club, an organization of which he has been a member for two years, and president of the newly organized Springfield Business Men's Association.

Mr. Huff is a member and Past Master of Continental Lodge, F. and A. M. of Millburn; secretary of the Battle Hill Building and Loan Association; and a member of the Exempt Fireman's Association.

TO TALK ON FINANCE

The speaker at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Lions Club, to be held this noon in the Villegiani Inn will be Charles F. Tompkins, of the Phila. Tomer & Company, of New York City. Mr. Tompkins, who is a resident of Millburn, will speak on "Finance."

BECOMES DIRECTOR

A. M. Henshaw, of Morris avenue, was elected to serve on the board of directors of the First National Bank of Springfield, according to a statement given out by the bank recently.

MADISON TAKES 3 FROM PINMEN HERE

Only Two Games Keep Locals Out of League Celler

As a result of losing three games to Madison in a Lackawanna League contest in the Woodruff alleys on Center street last Thursday night, Springfield bowlers are now fighting to keep out of the cellar. Only two games separate Springfield from the cellar team, Union.

Against Madison, Rac, Schmidt and Huff bowled good scores, but not good enough. In the standings of the teams, the individual averages and scores, it is interesting to note that Rac, bowling but 9 games, is listed among the leaders, with an average of 183.5.

NEW YORK BURGLARS ARE ARRESTED HERE

Wanted by the South Plainfield police on a charge of burglary, Joseph Paterra, 24, of 329 East 142 street; Charles Dnomo, 24, of 304 East 111th street; Frank Coreo, 24, of 319 East 112th street; and Frank Meije, 23, of East 111th street, all of New York City, were arrested by Patrolman Harold D. Searles on Mountain and Flermer avenues last Friday morning at 5:15 o'clock.

Paterra was driving a sedan along Flermer avenue when he was stopped by the patrolman for not having his lights turned on. He produced a driver's license and a registration license, but the patrolman became suspicious when he saw a slot machine in the rear, partly hidden by Coreo and Meije. He questioned Paterra and when the latter failed to produce a key for the machine, the four were taken to headquarters. After getting in touch with the South Plainfield police, it was learned the New Yorkers were wanted there for breaking and entering a store and stealing a slot machine. Later in the same day the South Plainfield department sent the two men here and took the four away. Records showed that neither of the suspects had a criminal record in New Jersey nor New York.

PLAYS HARMONICA FOR RADIO FANS

Ethel Adams, of Morris avenue, may be heard on radio station WNJ on a special program any Tuesday again, from 11 to 11:30 p. m. The lady, who is an excellent harmonica player, will be accompanied by Louis Blum, of Morris avenue, and Frank Paterra, of Battle Hill.

GIRL SCOUT LEADER RESIGNS WORK HERE

Community Committee Seeks Captain for Troop

Mrs. Helen Galland, captain of the Girl Scouts of Springfield, has found it necessary to resign her work in this organization, due to the pressure of personal affairs. Mrs. Galland has served as leader of the Girl Scout troop for the past two years, raising the membership at one time to fifty girls. Her resignation leaves a vacancy which makes it necessary to discontinue a troop in Springfield, unless another leader is willing to carry on.

It is rather to be regretted that this step is necessary at the present time, inasmuch as the women of Springfield were asked to become interested and were becoming interested in this movement.

Should there be a reader of this article who is interested in the leadership of a troop or who could lend assistance to the Girl Scout movement in this town, or should anyone know of a person who might be interested, kindly communicate with Mrs. G. M. Lutzweiler, temporary chairman of a Community Committee recently proposed for the backing of the Girl Scouts in Springfield.

JRS. TO NOMINATE AT NEXT MEETING

Sixty-four members were present at the bi-monthly meeting of Battle Hill Council No. 120, Jr. O. E. S. M., held Friday evening in the Municipal Building. There was little business transacted in the Union County Post Councilors' Association to meet after their regular session. Union County Councilor Raymond, of Elizabeth, was in charge of the county meeting.

At the next meeting of the local council, to be held Friday evening of next week, first nominations of officers will be held.

LOCAL D. OF A. TO HOLD DANCE TONIGHT

A dance, under the auspices of Pride of Battle Hill Council No. 17, Daughters of America, will be held tonight in the Municipal Building at 8:30 o'clock. Mrs. William Baetzel, assisted by Mrs. Philip J. Meisel, Mrs. Harry C. Stewart and Mrs. Mae Smith, is in charge and tickets may be obtained either from her or any of the members. Music for dancing will be furnished by Allen's Pennsylvanians.

A short business meeting will precede the dance. A card party for the benefit of the council was held Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. John J. King of Tooker Avenue.

MAIL THEM NOW

It is not too early to send out your Christmas packages. To insure their reaching their destination before December 25, mail them now. The Post Office is closed on Christmas Day. If packages are to be mailed to foreign countries, they must be mailed before December 10 or they will not reach their destination before New Year's Day of post-ponement.

SPRINGFIELD SOCIALS

Mrs. William MacIntosh, with her baby daughter, Lois, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Anna Murphy, in Red Bank.

Mrs. E. E. Clayton of Morris avenue, who has been spending several weeks visiting Mr. Clayton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Clayton of Freehold, returned home Sunday evening.

Mrs. A. D. Williams of Youngstown, Ohio, is expected to arrive Sunday to spend three weeks here as the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Kohler, of Bryant avenue.

The Tau Gamma Phi Sigma Society met Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Celia Dunleavy in Vaux Hall.

The Wednesday Evening Mixed Bridge Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Pfitzinger, in Severna avenue. The members are Mr. and Mrs. B. Harry Fox, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Beyer, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McGrath and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Moulton. The next meeting will be held December 4 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Moulton, in Glen avenue, Millburn.

A. M. Henshaw of the Henshaw Lumber Company, in Morris avenue, and J. Neil and Frank Jakobsen of Morris avenue were present at the meeting of the New Jersey Electric Association held Monday evening at the Washington Restaurant in Newark. A report of the flower show held in the Sussex Avenue Armory, Newark, several weeks ago was given.

A delegation of Springfielders went to Irvington Monday to visit Hilton Chapter, 203, O. F. S., and witness the initiation of Mrs. Hilda Schramm and Mrs. Louise Kreutzer, both of Pompkins lane. Those in the party included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ross, Mrs. Thomas Hankins, Mrs. Hannah Schramm, Mr. and Mrs. William Benkard, Mrs. Frieda Schramm, Mrs. Charles Kreutzer and Albert A. Schramm.

The Smart Set Card Club will meet Monday evening at the home of Miss Ruth Brogger, in Severna avenue. The members of the club include Mrs. Paul Cannon, Miss Gladys Chennells, Mrs. Gordon C. Christensen, Mrs. Erwin S. Doerries, Miss Alice Reed, Miss Betty Smith, Miss Jessie Ruby, and Miss Alice Sickley of Springfield; Miss Dorothy Barnes of Bloomfield, and Miss Caroline Nuse, of Summit.

The Foreign and Home Missionary Societies of the Methodist Church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert Ferguson, in Short Hills avenue.

A card club will be organized Friday evening of next week at the home of Miss Evelyn Day, in Salter street.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Warner and daughter, Ann, of Seyerna avenue, who left the early part of last week for Pine Bluff, N. C., where they were called, due to the serious illness of Mrs. Warner's grandmother, returned to their home Sunday. On their trip to North Carolina, they were accompanied by Mrs. Warner's sister, Mrs. C. G. Farrell and her daughter, Esther, of North Carolina, who have been visiting here for the past month. Mr. and Mrs. Warner and daughter returned alone.

Lieut. Herbert Anderson, of the U. S. Navy, who returned to his home in Warner avenue the early part of last week after a trip to Washington, D. C., with his daughter, Virginia, left Wednesday evening to join his ship, the U. S. S. Florida, stationed at Norfolk, Va.

Mrs. Joseph Collier, of Millburn, entertained members of her Lunch-club-Bridge Club in L. Bamberger & Co., in Newark, yesterday afternoon. Members present were Mrs. Joseph Tonkin, Mrs. Russell J. Pfitzinger, Mrs. George W. McGrath, Mrs. B. Harry Fox, Mrs. Henry H. Beyer and Mrs. Joseph Moulton. Mrs. Collier will entertain her Thursday Evening Bridge Club at her home in Millburn avenue, Millburn, Monday evening. Due to the Thanksgiving holiday next week, it was necessary to change the date of the meeting.

The Chatterers' Club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edward J. Costello, in South Fourteenth street, Newark. Mrs. Theodore Naumann and Mrs. J. F. Poling, of Warner avenue, are both members of the club. Other members are from Newark, Irvington, Glen Ridge, and Hasbrouck.

Two building and loan association, one bank, and two schools, as well as excellent fire and police protection are afforded.

Four churches: First Presbyterian, Methodist-Episcopal, St. James Catholic, First Colored Baptist.

THE PUBLIC TARGET

Since men began to assemble in communities, the public man has been the public target. The relationship between leaders and public has not always been the best. The leader is apt to look with disdain on the people, having in mind their occasional proneness to be taken in with plausible generalities, their penchant for champions who tell them nice pleasantries instead of unwelcome truths.

There is room for strengthening the tie between the public and the men entrusted with the affairs of the public. There will always be contention between persons who make public activity a personal business. The general public, however, can well afford to stand aloof from the battle between those who possess power and those who desire power, its interest being solely in the proper use of power.

A forward step would be the reduction of public gossip, propagation of rumor. Public officers have always been considered fair game, anybody's target. But it need not, and should not be so. A public officer is entitled to the consideration which other people expect and receive.

Public men are entitled to be credited with honest intentions, with fair purposes and motives, until the contrary is proved by fact, not guess or rumor. The Bible tells us not to bear false witness; it warns us against thinking evil out of thin air. No adverse exception is made as to public men.

This attitude has its inevitable result, just as every error brings its reckoning to the person who makes it. In the first place, a certain callousness is bred in public men, a resentment and indifference to criticism, which lessens fine discrimination, and weakens the response that should come from public comment.

We have made some progress. There was a time when public office meant its retention against sword and gun. Then this was somewhat softened into words, becoming the era of mud-slinging, vilification and abuse. We have cleared politics of a good deal of this, but there is still ample field for correction.

Let us free public life and public men from baseless rumor, from furtive whispering, from judgments formed without evidence. The man in public life is entitled to no more, but also no less consideration, courtesy, and fair-mindedness than we are ready to concede to persons in private life.

Rambling Around SPRINGFIELD

1 a. m. Raining in Springfield—lights out on left side of Morris avenue, opposite the post office—power company at work on repairs—streets deserted—long shadows from street lamps flood scene—cats screaming and howling.

2 a. m. Unfamiliar person walking about town—some panicky person on Fleder avenue sends in an alarm that a suspicious character is roaming about Morris avenue and Main street—policeman rushed to see—false alarm, only some fool reporter who missed last bus to Newark, and was marooned for the night, in his office—back to drudgery—no excitement as expected.

3 a. m. Stroll to diner on Morris avenue, near Mountain avenue—lights not working yet—milkman appears with a lamp—this, together with two candles, serves the purpose—now one can read his favorite news medium, the newspaper, and eat at the same time—A force of habit, but not a good one. One might choke on a piece of steak while reading a libelous statement about oneself—yes, a very bad practice.

4 a. m. All quiet on the streets—a murmur from the distance of from Seven Bridge Road becomes a roar when a ten-ton truck appears—fog beginning to descend.

5 a. m. Electric lights in running order—no difference, anyway, it'll soon be daylight—can't sleep on hard-wood desk, too uncomfortable—next time, one wouldn't miss the last bus to the city—it doesn't pay.

6 a. m. Getting lively—persons going to work—post-office opens soon.

7 a. m. Day's work begins—high school children, waiting for bus, in post-office—all roads lead to the diner—wife's not awake yet, let the reliable substitutes of the kitchen table revive you and give you energy with their famous wheat-cakes and coffee.

The Springfield bowlers in the Lackawanna League are sinking further down each week to the cellar—C'mon boys, a little action, put Springfield a little higher up in the standing.

At the meeting of the Township Committee last week, the committee of the Springfield Business Men's Association, appointed to find the solution to the traffic congestion here, gave its report—in it, it recommended that Morris avenue be widened 8 feet, that curbs be rounded to give more width at intersections, but most important of all, that a civic center be established at Morris, Fleder avenues and Main street. The Township Committee will take up the matter with the State Highway Commission and we may expect some action soon.

Although the Springfield Postal Department is rated as a second-class office, due to its heavy sale of money orders, registered letters, and stamps, nevertheless it is not granted carrier service, since it is the order of the Postmaster at Washington that a certain percentage of the sidewalks of the township must be paved—about a year ago, an agent from the government made an inspection here, and reported that less than half of the sidewalks of the streets in Spring-

The Lyons-Conley Company, at 277 Morris avenue, established recently as the Motor Vehicle Bureau for Springfield and vicinity was rushed last Friday with the avalanche of applications for license plates for 1930. The plates may be used from December 15th on, and on that date, driver's licenses are first issued, to be used from January 1. To avoid inconvenience, why not go to the Lyons-Conley office now and get your plates—the early bird catches the worm—avoid the rush.

AMERICA'S poor rich boy, William W. Willcock, Jr., and his second chambermaid bride are in hiding. It is reported there was a brief but touching interview between the unconventional youth and his ultraconventional father concerning the young groom's mother. "Your mother's health has been shattered by the notoriety which your act has brought upon us all. I ask you, man to man, please slip away somewhere for a while until the notoriety which you have caused subsides." Father and son shook hands. And shortly thereafter, William W. Willcock, Jr., and his bride, who was Adolphe Engbrechtsen, slipped quietly out of the limelight.

Chains Cannot Hold Any Man Who Wants to Answer Opportunity's Knock

"If I wasn't chained to my job I'd—"

How often have you heard this explanation for failure! How many young men have used it as an excuse to fail to reach higher positions!

"If I wasn't chained to my job!"

Well, young man and young woman, nobody chains you to your job except yourself.

THERE are many jobs that are mighty important, but there are few jobs that occupy 100 per cent. of any person's time.

As a matter of fact, it is almost inevitable that the bigger the jobs the bigger are the men that occupy them.

And the bigger the men the greater opportunities do they find for doing something more than their job.

Only those of smaller ability fail to rise from the humdrum of routine.

They are held tight by a chain whose links are made of weaknesses rather than of strength.

But it is not a real chain, after all. It is merely a vicious chain of thought. It needs no blacksmith or electric torch to remove it. Nothing but the power of a fine, strong will. A will to get up and do rather than to sit still and wait.

BE big enough to look over the top of your job.

Find time enough to expand your job.

It is a slow process to become great by sticking fast to one place. Oak trees grow big in that fashion. But who wants to be an oak tree, spending centuries developing to full maturity?

Man grows great by moving and by doing. In a few short years any normal boy baby becomes wise enough and strong enough to cut down the mighty oak, with all its hundreds of years of experience and sturdy fiber.

AMERICA must not be selfish about Thanksgiving.

Our annual festival on the last Thursday in November has come to mean much to us.

It is a day which is observed in numerous ways, largely by joyous family reunions.

Boys and girls, now grown up, return to their childhood homes.

Devout worshippers attend church to offer thanks in accordance with the traditions of the day.

Large numbers of people seek recreation in various ways.

It is made the occasion of gatherings of a friendly nature from one end of the country to the other.

The real spirit of the original American Thanksgiving can still be found wherever Americans gather on this day and what-

THE man who fails to grasp opportunity is a slave. A slave who has a hard, unrelenting taskmaster. A taskmaster who compels him to grind away hour after dull hour at the fierce and deadly monotony of unsatisfactory experience.

The taskmaster of every such slave is the man himself. The man who all the time sits holding the chain that restricts his own liberty.

Throw away the chain! It is of no use.

If you are too weak to throw it away carry it with you and walk toward success anyway. By doing so you will find the chain has no power to bind you.

MANY men are like moles who burrow through the earth and venture into the sunlight so seldom that they have lost the power of sight.

Too many mole men grub blindly along in underground tunnels.

They never see the sunlight.

Brilliant, dynamic life goes on all about them, but it means nothing to them because they cannot see it. Mole men tied to a job who say (when they talk at all), "Gee! I wish I had a little luck."

But luck comes only to those who run out and catch it.

REMEMBER the next time you say that you are chained to your job that no one is holding you there but yourself.

You are the only one who can free yourself.

Do not let failure deter you. Some of the world's greatest men have become great only through rising superior through failure after failure. The first successful airplane made its waver- ing flight after many unsuccessful airplanes had crashed.

There is no miracle in all this. Nothing but the application of consistent, steady purpose and a determination to win.

ever they may be doing.

It is a spirit that is worth passing on to other lands.

TO make Thanksgiving Day a day of thanks for the entire world should be the constant effort of the people and the government of the United States.

We should never neglect to emphasize the fact that prosper- ity, happiness and peace go hand in hand.

There can be no thanksgiving in a world drenched recur- rently in floods of blood.

President Hoover, indicated clearly the way in which the other nations might take advantage of the lesson taught by America, and follow the principles of peace and harmony suggested by Thanksgiving.

"SPEEDWAY" TO BE SHOWN AT ROTH-STRAND THEATRE

A crowd of a hundred thousand of more gasped in amazement at the Indianapolis race, when famous drivers whirled around the track in the grandstand with face-strangely painted in brown and black.

"What's the matter?" went about the grandstand.

Finally the announcer explained the solution.

"The drivers," he told the audience, "are wearing face-paint make-up."

William Haines was driving in the race in his role in "Speedway," a vivid drama of auto racing, as was Frank Torrence, John Miljan and Karl Bang. They all wore the brown panchromatic make-up. So Jimmy Barker, the make-up man with the paint, was asked to induce the regular drivers to do the same for photographic purposes.

"Some of them didn't want to put on greasepaint like movie actors," explains Jimmy. "But I told them the idea that it was great protection from the dust and wind in the race, and that way I got them to do it."

The new picture, a sound synchronized production, which will be the big Thanksgiving Day attraction at the Roth-Strand Summit, Wednesday and Thursday of next week, shows all the thrills of the speed classic, including several spectacular accidents, as a background for a pretty romance between Haines and Anita Page. A thrilling airplane fight, with daredevil stunts and a sensational parachute jump, add to the thrills. Harry Beaumont, director of "The Broadway Melody," directed the new play from a story by Byron Morgan and Ernest Torrence. Karl Bang, John Miljan, Paul Moran and Eugene Besserer and others of note are in the cast as well as famous race drivers.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY PLANS FOR CHARITY

Plans were completed at the bi-monthly meeting of the Millburn-Springfield Sunshine Society, held last Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. John Romano, of Duncan street, Millburn, for the annual Thanksgiving contribution to the Arthur Sunshine and Kindergarten Home for Blind Babies at Summit. The school children of both Millburn and Springfield will be asked to contribute a small sum, and anyone may help the cause by giving their donations to the members of the society.

Sixteen members were present, and Mrs. William Stockie, president, conducted the meeting.

A social party will be held Thursday afternoon, December 5, at the home of Mrs. George Lindabury, 44 Whittingham Terrace, Millburn, for the benefit of the society. Mrs. Raymond Bartram and Mrs. Franklin M. Marshall, both of Millburn, were appointed a committee to arrange the details.

It was planned that the society meet at the home of Mrs. Harry Hooley, in Ridgewood road, South Orange, last Thursday afternoon, but due to illness in the Hooley home it was changed. The next meeting will be held December 12.

CYCLE IN CRASH

Driving a motorcycle east on Morris avenue late last Friday afternoon, Charles M. Capelon, of Ross avenue, the township, collided with the rear of a light delivery truck operated by E. J. Clayton of 245 Morris avenue, and he and his machine Capelon escaped unscathed, but the front of his cycle was seriously damaged.

SOCIAL NOTES

Mrs. W. Louis Morrison will entertain members of her bridge club at her home on Misch avenue Tuesday evening, November 2. Members of the club include Mrs. J. Edgar Morrison, Mrs. Carol McVahan, Mrs. Alexander Ferguson, Mrs. Robert C. Harter, Mrs. Richard C. Horner, Mrs. Fred Wepler, Mrs. J. M. Duguid, Mrs. H. H. Spencer, Mrs. George W. McGrath, Mrs. Donald A. Leach, Mr. E. P. Swisher, and Mr. Russell J. Finzi.

The election of Stat. Board of Health Clerk Lewis L. ... of Morris avenue, who was taken to Orange Memorial Hospital with an attack, is said to be serious.

Mr. Frederick A. Drake, of Short Hill avenue, who has been in Overlook Hospital ... for the past seven weeks, is improving rapidly.

The First National Bank of Springfield will open its new Christmas Club Savings Account on December 9.

Richard S. Bunnell, Robert T. Bunnell, Louis J. Winian, A. M. Henshaw and Nicholas Schmidt attended the air circus held Saturday afternoon at the Hadley airport.

The Whoopie Boys of Millburn will hold their annual Thanksgiving dance in the Municipal Building Wednesday evening at 8.30 o'clock.

The marriage of Lillian Brandt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Brandt, of Irvington, to Frederick Hildebrand, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hildebrand, of Maplewood, was held in the First Presbyterian Church Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The Rev. Dr. George A. Liggett, pastor of the church, officiated.

The regular business meeting of the Continental Chapter, O. E. S., was held Wednesday evening in the First National Bank Building in Millburn. In connection with the ninth anniversary of the institution of the chapter entertainment, under the direction of Mrs. Violet Day, was furnished. G.G.s from Mrs. Kettering's dancing classes gave several exhibitions. Dancing followed.

Fame Ends in Charity

FORGOTTEN by the world which acclaimed her ability as a pilot, Viola Gentry (above) today lies on a charity cot in the Hospital for Ruptured and Crippled in New York city, and bravely hopes to fly again. She was seriously injured and Jack Ashcraft killed in attempt to set new endurance record four months ago. (New York Graphic Photo)
