THEY TELL AN INTERESTING story concerning the successful Republican rally Tuesday night in the Municipal Building . . . it seems when the subject was broached several weeks ago to hold a rally, several leaders frowned upon the scheme . . . one worker, however, insisted it would go over and set out to accomplish his purpose to that end . . . after the affair was finished and the 300 spectators or more in the audience were leaving, the leading rivals in discussion were satisfied and everybody was happy . . . we understand the large tree in front of the old Springfield hotel in Morris avenue will be torn down early next week . . . the elm threatens at any time to fall on passing cars and pedestrians . . . much as we'd like to see it removed, the danger element must be removed . . . Almost at Top in Scout Drive

As a result of its quota being reduced from $300 to $240, Springfield in the Boy Scout drive for 1933, campaign funds, stands as having collected ninety-five per cent of its goal, or $230.

Due to a cut in the combined quota of Union Council from $15,000 to $12,000, the local quota is reduced to the point where Springfield is far ahead of every municipality in the council in collections, the closest being Kenilworth with a goal of $80, sixty per cent collected.

Clarence W. Gillis is chairman of the local committee in the campaign and W. R. Tracy is campaign manager for the entire drive.

Taxpayers Group Opposes Issuance of Relief Bonds

Local Association to Hold Special Meeting Monday Night on Subject

By E. M. CUNNINGHAM
Publicity Chairman, Springfield Taxpayers' Association

The Springfield Taxpayers' Association will hold a special meeting in the James Caldwell School auditorium Monday evening, November 7, at 8 o'clock. This meeting precedes the election Tuesday and has been called to discuss the taxpayers' views and vote on the two state bond issues concerning the issuance of $20,000,000 in bonds for state unemployment relief.

The local association has seriously considered this issue and its Board of Directors have unanimously approved the recommendations of the State Taxpayers' Association which urges all taxpayers to vote "Yes" on the referendum to reduce highway bonds and to vote "No" on the referendum to issue emergency relief bonds. The State Taxpayers' Association is unanimously opposed to bond issues to meet emergencies.

The state organization insists that the necessary amount needed for unemployment relief can be easily raised in other ways and without in any way increasing

Republicans Think Hoover's Vote Will Pull Entire Ticket to Success

UNREST FACTOR IN DEMOCRATIC DRIVE

With this year's election registry figures showing a total of 2,120 or an increase of sixty-nine over last year, Springfield interest in the coming election appears to be as exciting in the local ticket as in the national, state and county voting.

Locally, Springfield will elect two members of the Township Committee Tuesday, and the balance of power rests upon the results. There are four Republican members of the board and one Democrat, with two Republican vacancies to be filled. The naming of two Democrats will give them control and a Republican victory will assure a G. O. P. majority as is now in power.

Frank C. Geiger, Republican committeeman, is seeking reelection after serving a three-year term. His running mate is Wilbur C. Selander. Lewis F. Macartney, present Republican member, is not running for reelection.

The Democratic candidates are Otto F. Heinz and John M. Sweeney. The local campaign lacks the vigor on the face of it's comparison to last year's election, in line with the policy of local Democrats to ride along on general unrest and support from the county, state and national slates.

The Republicans are confident that this rock-ribbed stronghold, which withstood the state-wide upheaval last year to remain in the Republican ranks, will again be in the fold when the results are posted next Wednesday.

It is an almost certainty that President Hoover will be ahead of Governor Roosevelt in the local Presidential vote. This is expected to carry along the remainder of the Republican vote.

Should this even occur, the Democrats, it is reported, feel that the number of disgruntled Republicans will join with independent voters, to elect their ticket.

present taxes. Come to the meeting Monday night and learn first-hand just how this important matter affects your tax bill for 1933.

The local association will also have some facts and figures relative to the "small" and "large" Board of Freeholders and will recommend the method of voting on this issue to prevent further tax increases.

The meeting Monday night will be 100 per cent local—local speakers—local interest—local savings. Every taxpayer and renter should attend. It is one opportunity you have to help keep your tax bill from increasing next year and we know you are vitally interested. Be sure to come.

Relief Quarters Asks For Clothing Contributions

TOTAL OF 953 ARTICLES DISTRIBUTED DURING FIRST TWO WEEKS STORE HAS OPENED IN MORRIS AVENUE STATION

Seek Shoes Particularly As Second Drive For Clothes Is Being Planned

Interesting information on the amount of clothing distributed in the new relief station in the Wallhauser building, Morris avenue, through co-operation of Springfield Red Cross, is contained in a report submitted the SUN yesterday by Lewis F. Macartney, municipal relief director of emergency relief.

In the two weeks quarters have been opened, from October 17 to October 31, Mr. Macartney reported a total of 953 articles have been given members of seventy-six needy families.

The tabulated list of articles follows:

- | | |
|---------------|-----------------|
| 2 Aprons | 34 Blouses |
| 1 Hand bag | 1 Blanket |
| 4 Bathrobes | 76 Coats |
| 18 Caps | 5 Raincoats |
| 2 Corsets | 2 Rubbers |
| 203 Dresses | 5 Scarfs |
| 25 Hats | 73 Shoes |
| 1 Leggings | 25 Shirts |
| 1 Mittens | 127 Stockings |
| 1 Overalls | 67 Sweaters |
| 4 Overshoes | 46 Suits |
| 13 Pajamas | 18 Ties |
| 26 Boys pants | 16 Trousers |
| 1 Pillow case | 108 Underwear |
| 16 Skirts | (underclothing) |
| 5 Vests | 13 Gowns |
| 4 Curtains | |

From the list, it may readily be seen that the greatest source of merchandise, dresses, shoes, sweaters, underwear and stockings, is slowly being exhausted.

Residents are asked to co-operate in contributing articles to the relief station, particularly shoes. It is reported that many pairs of shoes are thrown away in garbage collection.

The articles donated will be greatly appreciated. Mr. Macartney states that plans are being made for a second drive for clothing as was held some time ago. Meanwhile, it is urged that residents prepare for the drive by collecting their articles and holding them in readiness, or deposit them at headquarters.

The troop held an informal meeting last Friday night. Tests were passed, first aid and judging pointers taught and patrol leaders' reports read from the four patrols. During the last proceeding, the boys gave out to a burst of laughing at the appearance of James Thomas in a full Sea Scout uniform.

George Spinning took a picture of the entire troop and a second picture was taken of the officers from the Deputy Commissioner down to the NEWS SCOUT.

Attention, Scouts—The special mystery meeting planned has been called off unless some lagers show improvement in advancement. This doesn't refer to all troop members but to the ones who are coasting until they get the ambition or persuasion to pass tests. Didn't it ever occur that it's that kind of fellows who spoil the troop's record? Not only that but by their own laziness they are taking from the troop such entertaining programs and meetings as the "mystery meeting" planned. They are, in reality, holding back the more ambitious members. So, if you're one of these lagers, think it over and let's see some action.

Meeting tonight, 7:30 sharp. — THE NEWS SCOUT.

Republican Club President Asks For Support

To the Editor of the SUN:

Upon considering the unqualified success of the Springfield Republican Club rally last Tuesday evening I feel that I must express publicly my thanks to our Rally Committee, Messrs. Peter H. Meisel,

The annual ball of the Springfield Patrolmen's Benevolent Association will be held next Thursday evening, November 10, in the United Singers Hall, Immergruen Park.

Music will be furnished by the Vikings. Tickets are one dollar and admit both gentleman and lady.

Alfred G. Trundle, Reuben H. Marsh and John Courtney for the hard work and hearty expenditure of their time, that our citizens might have more light on this campaign, both national and local.

One point not stressed at the rally was the need for every Springfield citizen to support—vote yes—on public question No. 2 and public question No. 3 because this town is now maintaining its relief work entirely on state funds. With this in mind it can readily be seen that to vote yes on question No. 2 and question No. 3 is to continue the $1,000 and more per month for our own unemployed. Without State aid we would be unable to even approximate the work now being done.

The Springfield Republican Club has guaranteed the expense of the relief clothing store on Morris avenue and the Red Cross are giving their time and effort to carry on clothing distribution to the less fortunate. Stores and private citizens are doing their utmost to fill in any need not provided by this state fund. Therefore to vote yes on public question No. 2 and public question No. 3 is to support a complete program for this town.

With our annual masquerade dance Saturday evening, tomorrow, we close our active campaign work as usual with a good time and in good spirit.

Let me urge on all Republicans to not only support the whole ticket from Herbert Hoover for President straight down to Wilbur M. Selander and Frank C. Geiger for township committeemen, but also to vote early, before noon if possible. This will materially lighten the work of the election boards and our workers as well as avoid the last minute congestion at the polls.

Thank you for the courtesy of your paper in publishing this and other matters of vital political interest to our voters.

Sincerely yours,

LEE S. RIGBY,

President Springfield Republican Club.

Thanks Aides in Relief

To the Editor of the Sun:

I wish to take this opportunity to thank the individuals and organizations that have so cheerfully given their services in the distribution of relief to the needy in Springfield.

The building used for relief work has been secured free of charge. However, there are necessary expenses such as light, heat, water, etc., which have to be paid. The Springfield Republican Club has assumed the responsibility for these expenditures.

Starting Monday, October 17, and on every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday during the month of October, wearing apparel, such as overcoats, suits, underwear, shoes, dresses, sweaters, etc. has been distributed. From October 17 to October 31, inclusive, 930 articles of wearing apparel have been furnished the needy.

LEWIS F. MACARTNEY,

Director of Emergency Relief.

Intelligent Voting on the Election Referendums

THE registered voters of this community have received their sample ballots, and presumably have studied them with care. If they have not been looked over, and a great deal of thought given to them, from top to the bottom, we urge that you do so at once.

We refer particularly to the three public questions at the top, and to the one public question at the bottom. These are vital to our welfare, and no one should go to the polls unprepared and uninformed.

First is the question on the Hobart Prohibition Act. This act is the State act for the enforcement of Prohibition. If you favor the continuance of this act, vote "No". If you do not believe in prohibition, vote "Yes". Let your conscience be your guide.

Second is "An Act to reduce the debt of the state of New Jersey." This Act proposes to lower an $83,000,000 bond issue already approved by the voters to $63,000,000.

Third is "Emergency Relief Fund". This act proposes to take the $20,000,000 out from the State Highway Bond issue of $83,000,000 noted in the preceding paragraph and devote it to Relief work.

The second and third proposals are inexorably bound together. One is no good without the other. If you are in favor of continuing the relief work of the State of New Jersey, if you believe in taking care of our poor and indigent, vote "yes" on both proposals. The money must be raised somewhere,

SPRINGFIELD

Population—1930 census 8,725; 1920, 1715. Assessed valuations—1931, $5,493,274. Tax rate, 1932—Township, $3.22; state and county, $1.06. Incorporated 1857; settled early in 1700's. Springfield is essentially a township of homes. It is 55 minutes from New York City on the electrified D. & W. Railroad and has excellent bus connections to Newark, Elizabeth, Summit and Plainfield. The railroad stations at Millburn and Short Hills are less than a mile from Springfield. The Railway Valley Railroad has a freight station in Springfield, giving service for factories, commercial and industrial purposes. State Highway Route 20 makes it convenient to reach New York in thirty minutes by car when completed. Numerous state and county highways pass through the township. It has good streets; water; gas; electricity and a newly opened sanitary sewer system. Of interest in Revolutionary history with its historic Presbyterian Church where Rev. James Caldwell cried, "Give 'em warts, boys," in the midst of the Battle of Springfield fought on June 23, 1780. Several colonial landmarks are to be found in Springfield, one of the oldest communities in Union County.

What the SUN Advocates

Believing that the following improvements are vital necessities to nourish Springfield's betterment and substantial progress, the SUN advocates:

1. A high school.
2. Removal of dilapidated buildings which are "sorespots."
3. Sidewalks wherever needed.
4. Encouraging clean factories, to increase the ratables.
5. Establishment of a Taxpayers' League.
6. Postal-carrier delivery.
7. Reduced bus fare within town limits and to Millburn R. R. station.
8. Full time position for the township clerk's office.
9. Set of Building Zones, before township is developed.
10. A county park.

and we firmly believe that it is better to use money already authorized than to increase the public indebtedness at this time. The two acts are simply to transfer funds from one account to another, and will not increase the bonded debt of the state in any way. On the other hand, if these acts do not pass, then the money will have to be raised, probably by direct taxation. Do you want your taxes raised? Vote "Yes" on these two proposals, take care of our unfortunates, and save yourself money. These acts have the approval of both Democrats and Republicans, and are absolutely non-partisan.

The fourth and last public question is found at the very bottom of the ballot. It vitally concerns you, the citizens of Springfield Township. Do you want representation in the Board of Freeholders? Do you want an economical County administration? If you do, vote "NO" on this question. It has been conclusively proven that this proposal is a scheme of the larger cities to control Union County. Under the provisions of this act, the control of the Board would be centered in Elizabeth, way at the other end of the County, and which is predominantly Democratic. Springfield would have no representation. Fanwood would have no representation. What do the politicians of Elizabeth care about our two little towns? Nothing. One hundred and fifty years ago our forefathers fought that we might be freed from "taxation without representation". If this bill passes, that is exactly what we would have.

Now, as to economy. The present large Board of twenty-four members, over the past five years, has cost an average of $36,500 per year. This sum includes all expenses. The proposed small Board would, by law, draw salaries alone of $36,500, and this does not include expenses. We all know what kind of expenses the small board could run up. Does this sound like economy? By all means, if you would keep your present representation on the Board, and are in favor of economy, vote "NO".

Midnight Begins Day

Astronomers formerly began the day at noon, but recently it was decided advisable for the sake of uniformity to use the same day in astronomical work as is used in civil life and, commencing with 1925, all the national almanacs began the day at midnight.

CLUB TO MEET

The Mixed Bridge Club will meet tomorrow evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. McGrath of 57 Severn avenue. Dinner will be served and three tables of bridge will be in play.

MATTER of OPINION

A Woman Looks at Springfield

Let us, this week, look at the Township of Deerfield, a community so much like our own that they might be called twin towns. Deerfield is a town of modest homes. There are probably less than ten families who can afford a maid. In the "East Neighborhood" is a small colony of houses of the cheapest kind. In this part of the town, unemployment always strikes before it does in the nicer sections. Here there is always some privation; and while there are some homes where there is an attempt to attain cleanliness and order, there are also squalor and neglect; and always sickness and disease. Deerfield is progressive in many ways. The Parent-Teachers Association started a movement some years ago for a school nurse. This movement grew mightily, and the Board of Education is now providing a fine program for the health of the school children. The school doctor and nurse are doing wonderful things to prevent sickness among the pupils. But of course disease cannot entirely be wiped out even by eternal vigilance, and for those who are ill and in need of care, the school nurse can devote no time, for she is also the truant officer, and her time is entirely taken up with daily examination of pupils, visiting the homes of absent pupils, and assisting the school dentist and school doctor in their work. And so, in order that there might be a skilled nurse to make visits in the homes and nurse the sick, and to show mothers how to take care of the health of their families the Red Cross nurse came to Deerfield. There are high qualifications which a Red Cross nurse must meet. She must be a graduate of a training school in a hospital having a minimum daily average of fifty patients. She must have had an additional course in public health nursing, or have secured the equivalent experience on a public health nursing staff; she must be a member of the American Nurses' Association, and also be enrolled as a volunteer Red Cross nurse, ready to serve on call in disasters. Such qualifications command good salaries. There were a few hundred dollars in the treasury of the Deerfield Red Cross from previous Roll Calls, but not nearly enough to warrant the starting of a nursing service. However, the officers of the Chapter, nothing daunted, received advice and co-operation from the Red Cross Nursing Supervisors; contracts were made with two insurance companies providing free nursing care to certain types of policy holders; a modest appropriation was received from the township officials. From these sources it was estimated that about half of the expense budget would be realized; and there was the confident hope that in the annual Roll Call the people would recognize the absolute necessity of supporting the nursing service, by generous contributions. For the Red Cross nurse gives skilled nursing in the home to all who need it; those who cannot pay, receive it freely for nothing; but it is not a charity service and those who are able to pay do so to the extent that their means permit. The full charge is $1.00 or $1.50, according to care given, but as little as twenty-five cents or ten cents is accepted.

Let us now follow the nurse on her rounds during a typical day's work. Arriving at her office, she finds there is a new call—an emergency maternity case. She quickly plans her schedule; after which she goes immediately to the new case. The young mother, unmarried, is sullen and unresponsive; the relatives, disheartened by the trouble that has come to them, are equally so. There is not one article of baby's apparel in the home, the tiny infant girl is wrapped in a piece of blanket, nor are there any of the essentials which every prospective mother gathers for the coming event. The nurse hurriedly drives back to her office, snatches a layette from the emergency closet, adds a number of medical supplies, and returns to bathe the mother and baby. Next she makes a quick run to the home of the president of a charitable organization, suggesting that some needed articles be supplied in this case. Her next stop is another maternity case. The twelfth child has been born to a couple of foreign birth. As she steps from her car she carried, in addition to her nurse's bag, a bed pan and an ice-bag. This mother is threatened with a sore breast and the doctor has ordered the ice-bag; these sick room articles are being loaned. She is welcomed with appreciative smiles; everything has been placed in readiness and hot water is bubbling in the kettle on the stove. This is an insurance company case, receiving post natal care at the expense of the company.

On her way to her next case, the nurse steels herself to patience and forbearance, for the patient is neurotic, irritable and self-centered. The treatment is a bath and an alcohol rub. There are aches in a dozen places—it seems. Worried by the thought that this is clinic day and the time is short, the nurse dare not appear hurried, lest an avalanche of reproaches be showered on her. She is finished at last, and stops next at a service station and calls her office "phone. A message has come, she is informed, from the school nurse. She is asked to call at a certain address. There she finds a girl aged nine years, in bed, but not seriously ill. The mother works daily, and when she left in the morning she had ordered her little son, twelve years old, to stay at home with his sister. Thus the school nurse found them. The Red Cross nurse takes the child's temperature, washes face and hands, combs her hair, straightens the bed, and tells the boy she will stop in again the next day, and he must tell his mother that if Evelyn is worse toward evening, the doctor should be called.

Two more calls must be made before the clinic. The first is at an attractive home where everything is harmonious in furnishing and atmosphere. An enema, and colonic irrigation to follow, have been ordered by the attending physician. A wait is necessary between the two, and after the first treatment, the nurse goes to a squalid home a few blocks way. Here there is no order, cleanliness nor comfort; the bare kitchen floor is unbelievably dirty. The little boy has a troublesome gland which the township doctor has lanced; it must be dressed daily. Back to the previous patient, and the irrigation is completed. This is a pay case and the patient promises to send a check.

It is now past time for the clinic, and when she reaches headquarters, the nurse finds that her volunteer assistant has already begun weighing and measuring the babies. There are ten of them to-day, and the mothers chatter and ask questions of the nurse and receive advice. Their faces beam or fall, according to the story the scale tells. Meantime, another call has come, from the town doctor, this time. She is asked to immediately take a very critical case to the hospital in the next town. As she is about to enter the house at the address given her—in the "East Neighborhood"—she is accosted by a man who gruffly informs her that there is sickness next door, and the people need attention. "I must take a woman to the hospital first," she replies over her shoulder. Returning from the trip to the hospital, she goes out to the house where there are "sick people," and finds two of the small children have colds and slight temperatures. "No need to call the doctor today," she tells the mother; "I will stop in again tomorrow morning." This family is one of the fifty odd who are getting "work relief," as she knows from her daily contact with the director of relief.

It is past her usual hour for "calling it a day," and she is weary with the strain of it all. Going home in the bus, her thoughts are alternately depressed and cheerful. Roll Call is approaching. The Red Cross committee, all volunteer workers, are wondering if the people of the town understand the vital need of the nursing service, and will give sufficiently generous donations to make deficiencies in the budget. Then she thinks of the compensations. That little struggling mother on Campbell Street shall be given tomorrow an order for Red Cross

She may also have up to twenty yards of government cloth to make into garments for her children and herself. And then she goes on to plan the Christmas parties for the babies of the clinics. The Town Doctor yesterday impressed upon her that this year they must be real parties; she is to go ahead and make all the arrangements, and adds the assurance that "It will be taken care of." Doubtless the Red Cross Juniors will enjoy having a hand in the party arrangements. Is there any fun in being a Red Cross nurse in Deerfield? Foolish question!

The registry for the general election in Springfield shows a total number of voters this year at 2,120. In 1931 the registry totalled 2051, or an increase for 1932 of sixty nine.

In 1928, at the last Presidential election, Springfield's registry was 1,822. Increases in recent years has led to the addition of an extra district this year. This election marks the first general election with four districts here, the primary last May having been the first time the new district was used.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY HELD LAST NIGHT

Local Democrats put finishing touches to their campaign with a rally in the Municipal Building last night, under the auspices of the Springfield Democratic Club. Over 125 were present. A delegation of automobiles parading through the township, preceded the rally.

The speakers were Ray E. Mayham of Westfield, candidate for State Senator; Fred C. Hyer of Rahway, Congressional candidate; Mrs. Sarah V. Ackerman and Walter E. Cooper, candidates for state assembly, and James A. Ward, candidate for sheriff.

Vincent Shea, chairman of the local County Committee, presided. He introduced Otto F. Heinz and John M. Sweeney, candidates for Township Committee.

Hyer deplored the attempts of Republicans to predict disaster if Democrats are elected to the national government. He cited examples of achievements of administration under Democratic presidents.

John F. Ryan of Elizabeth, a counsellor-at-law, spoke on the Board of Freeholders issue, and explained reasons in favor of a "small" board.

A rally in honor of Percy H. Stewart of Plainfield, candidate for United States Senator, was held Friday night at the club's former headquarters, Morris avenue and Keeler street. The rooms were overcrowded and it was necessary to seat some spectators out in the streets.

Flying Family Has New Air Castle

Colonel George Hutchinson, noted airman, his wife, and two little daughters, and the flying lion cub compose the Flying Family. A dandy new home is being made ready for them—a 10-passenger, two-motored amphibian plane equipped with all the latest gadgets for safety, comfort and entertainment.

THE experience of an airman is rated by his time in the air and those with 1,000 hours rate as veterans. The two little daughters of the Flying Family, Blanche Kathryn, 8, and Janet Lee, 6, have done far more flying than most of the commercial pilots of America. In the last five years, in which they have made all trips with their noted father, Kathryn has logged 1,040 hours in the air, and Janet 800. Colonel Hutchinson has flown more than 2,700 hours.

On a recent air tour they visited each of the 48 states and were guests of the governors of each state in a 21,000 mile flight which resulted in greatly increasing confidence in the safety of aviation throughout the nation.

The Flying Family spends so much time in the air that they have no home in the sense that landlubbers do. Their airplane is their home. Their newest air bungalow is a large and powerful Sikorsky amphibian, with a load capacity of ten passengers and two pilots. It is equipped with a two-way radio set which can send voice messages within a radius of 150 miles, and dot and dash messages 1,500 miles. Like the magic carpet, this new air castle can go anywhere in the world.

DEFENDS LARGE BOARD FOR ECONOMY AND TRUE REPRESENTATION OF ALL

As an appointee of the present is no doubt that the Small Board Board of Freeholders, I am naturally interested in the outcome of the referendum affecting the status of that board, to be voted upon next Tuesday.

The question to be decided is whether the present board shall continue to function or a small full-time board, consisting of nine members, shall replace the existing efficiently managed board of twenty-four members.

Under the Small Board system, eight of the nine members elected shall receive a salary of $4,000 per annum, the Director receiving $4,500. The cost of the aggregate salaries of the Small Board will therefore be $36,500, exclusive of the members' expenses. Under the present system, the members receive $7 per day, only while in performance of the work their respective committee entails. The full-time officials would be necessary travel about their duties in county-owned automobiles and would have representatives under various titles throughout the county in the communities not having membership in the board. Such representatives are not necessary under the administration of the Large Board because each municipality, being represented thereon, is assured of its needs being looked after by its respective Freeholder. There would be in its maintenance by far the more expensive proposition.

The Union County tax rate today is the fourth lowest of the 21 counties in the State. Of the three counties whose rates are lowest, two have Large Boards. The other county is Essex, which has a Small Board and whose rate is 59c per hundred valuation as against Union County's rate of 63c. However, Essex County has three and one-half times more taxable ratables than Union County has. There are fifteen counties in the State governed by Small Boards; fourteen of these counties have higher tax rates than Union County.

Another comparison: Union, Passaic and Bergen Counties have about the same population—302,000 to 364,000. As of December 31, 1931, Union County's bonded indebtedness, eliminating bonds issued for park purposes (over which the Freeholders have no control), was the lowest bonded indebtedness of the same three counties, the other two, Passaic and Bergen, being governed by Small Boards.

The total debt of Union County is $15,600,500, of which sum $5,000,000 in bonds were issued for park purposes; the people of Union County having authorized by vote the issuance of these bonds. Union County is in sound financial condition, no difficulty being experienced in selling bonds on short term basis.

The City of Elizabeth is represented in the present board by four members. While Elizabeth pays only 33.1-3% of the county taxes, the city is more than equitably dealt with under the Large Board system and the following is a partial summary of what it receives in return:

For hospitals for care of sick, 73% of entire amount appropriated; for widows' pensions, 71% of entire amount appropriated; for care of insane and epileptics, 49% of entire amount appropriated; for widows' feeble-minded, 70% of entire amount appropriated; for care of tubercular at Glen Gardner, 72% of entire amount appropriated; for care of tubercular at Bonnie Burn, 66% of entire amount appropriated; for care of poor children under supervision of State Bd. Children's Guardians, 94% of entire amount appropriated.

In view of the facts as above given, I am sure you will agree that the Large Board system has proved its worth to Union County and to Elizabeth, and that from an economy point of view the Small Board is not desirable—notwithstanding all of the propaganda that has been spread against the present board.

May I, therefore, ask you, as a favor to me as well as an obligation to yourself, to vote "No" on Question No. 4 appearing at the foot of the Ballot on Election Day?

JOHN F. MARTIN.

A TRIP TO BRITAIN

Last week Miss Smith told us about her trip through Great Britain. She said when she went to bed in Glasgow at 11:15, it was still light. In Edinburgh the houses have no steam heat. They have a fireplace in every room. They have many flues coming out of one chimney. She told us about changing the guard at Buckingham Palace. She said there is no light in the Tower dungeon except at a small window at the top. She took a trip on the Thames River where there are many lock docks. The guards at Buckingham Palace, she said, have big feet. They dress queerly. She saw Shakespeare's home. It was an interesting talk.—EDITH MOLLITOR, Grade 5 and 6.

Continuing an undefeated and unscored upon record, the Springfield F. C. took the measure of the Chatham F. C. at Flemington Oval last Sunday afternoon before the largest crowd of the year, 12-0. It was the locals' fourth straight win.

The crack passing combination of Bryon to Klein which has been consistent in scoring to date, put across the first touchdown in the second period on a 30-yard heave across the goal. In the final period, Lyon went through center twenty yards to credit the second touchdown.

Chatham threatened in the last quarter to score, but the local defense tightened and the locals kept their line uncrossed. Bryon suffered a leg injury in the game which forced him to leave. He has since recovered and will play Sunday against the Summit F. C. at home.

Harry Welter played a fine game when he came in the late stages to substitute for Lyon. In four plays he smeared three plunges and blocked a pass almost in the hands of a Chatham receiver over the goal. Springfield will play Chatham a return contest at the latter's gridiron Election Day for the benefit of charity.
