Springfield man some years ago who had a ticket in Millburn taken back after two friendly policemen had persuaded a third cop to withdraw the charges of speeding at a fast clip . . . then the local man, whose name we couldn't actually publish, went ahead and told township authorities of Millburn what the kind officer had done. . . he gets the prize of the meanest man we've ever met. . . unless our readers can tell us a meaner one . . . come on, send in your descriptions. . . the Rambling Reporter will never be able to understand why township officials take pleasure at times in blocking new businesses to open here by pushing obstacles in the way . . . buildings on vacant lands cause a jump in taxable property and taxes, on business property, by a much greater percentage than residences, are paid quicker. . . some cops must have eaten frankfurters or hash after the turkey shoot Tuesday. . . Patrolman Stiles and Joyner won the two turkeys and should have given the bones to their buddies as souvenirs. . . by the way, "town auditors-at-large" in a recent story as applied to the Taxpayers Association in town, a certain gentleman should learn, is a compliment, not a knock. . . take off the chip, kind reader, we know you. . . if the services of former Mayor Gabriel Larsen could be made to act on the proposed planning and zoning board, Springfield would undoubtedly be benefited. . . his past experience in township matters makes him an ideal candidate. . . we understand Mr. Larsen is glad to have a rest after six years on the Township Committee. . . that might keep him away but no effort should be made in appointing members to this important body without first seeking the former chairman of the Township Committee to serve.

Nelson Stiles Wins Police Turkey Shoot

Patrolman Nelson Stiles won the annual turkey pistol shoot of the police department at the old Quarry grounds Tuesday afternoon with a score of 95 out of a possible 100 points at slow fire, twenty-five yards. His prize was a fifteen-pound turkey.

Patrolman Leslie Joyner took second prize, a ten-pound turkey, with an 88. Sergeant William J. Thompson, in charge of the shoot, lost by one point and Patrolman Wilbur C. Solander, who finished second in the county pistol shoot championship recently lost out by two points. The turkeys were put up by a resident.

Joint Community Service is Held in Pres. Church

Four Pastors Have Part Here in Thanksgiving Program Yesterday Morning

The first community Thanksgiving service held in this township in late years, took place yesterday morning at 10:30 in the Presbyterian Church, when members of the Methodist, Episcopal Church co-operated by uniting for a joint service. In recent years, members of the local Protestant Churches attended joint community services in Millburn.

The Rev. William I. Reed, Methodist pastor, gave the sermon, the topic being "Memories of the Past." The Rev. D. W. Gridley of New York City, former pastor of the Methodist Church, returned to the township for the services. The Rev. William Hoppaugh, retired, pastor of the Presbyterian Church twenty-seven years and the Rev. Dr. George A. Liggett, pastor, also took part.

Special music was heard, arranged by the choir.

Furthering Arrangements For "The College Flapper" Dec. 8-9

Arrangements are being furthered for the presentation of "The College Flapper" on the evenings of December 8 and 9 in the James Caldwell School, under the auspices of the Springfield Amateur Actors Club.

The story concerns college life and centers about one character, Jerry Watson, star football player, found in a sorority house making love to his girl when he should have been at practice. To save himself from suspension, he masquerades in the clothing of the housemother and then the riot begins.

Several rich alumni of the college, including the big "butter and egg man," propose to him and funny situations arise throughout. Finally Jerry succeeds in playing in the big game and everything ends well.

One of the high spots in the production, which requires an entire cast of about 150 local actors, is the "flapper chorus" of Bula Bula College, composed of business men in town portraying the beauties and grace of the fair sex. This is the climax of laugh hits.

An entertaining part of the program is devoted to the Alumni Glee Club of the college, composed of local trained voices, singing a number of old time college songs. Keaney.

To Start Monday In Cleaning Bed of Rahway River

Relief Administration Shall Have 40 Men Working to Give Immediate Aid

Aside from proposed action toward cleaning out the bed of the east branch of the Rahway River which has overflowed twice within the past two weeks, the SUN was informed this morning that forty unemployed men, ten of whom will be Springfield residents, will start Monday morning to remove the sludge and mud in the river.

The entire job will be under the supervision of the county park commission in co-operation with the emergency relief administration, both of the county and Springfield.

It is understood this will in no way conflict with plans of joint action of both the local Governing Body and county government.

Lions Hosts at Regional Meeting

Springfield Lions will be hosts December 7 to clubs of the Orange District at the semi-annual session in the Half-Way House, Mountainside. The district includes the following clubs: South Orange-Maplewood, Summit, Vailsburg, the Oranges and Springfield.

Speakers will be George Anderson of Plainfield, immediate past district governor; Walter C. Sedam of New Brunswick, district governor; George Bannwert of Newark, state secretary, and Alfred S. Clark of East Orange, deputy district governor.

A silver cup, now held by Springfield, will be awarded the visiting club with the largest delegation present. This will mark the first meeting Springfield has acted as hosts. Donald B. Palmer, secretary of the local organization, is secretary of the Orange district.

CASE AGGRAVATED BY SECOND RAIN STORM, WORST IN 4 YEARS

Soft Drink Dispenser to Seek Beer Permit

Paul Maddelena who conducts a soft drinks store at Morris and Millburn avenues, has placed himself as the first to apply for a permit to sell beer in Springfield—if the Volstead Act should be modified. His application was made to the Board of Health Monday night and filed. It was the opinion of the board members that should the enforcement act be repealed, any person now possessing a permit to sell soft drinks, could also sell beer. However, should beer be legalized a new permit fee would, perhaps, be levied.

Small Committee of Citizens to Discuss Problems With Officials, Is Report

The east branch of the Rahway River last Saturday reached its highest level since 1928 due to heavy rains and as a result, the flood condition which caused protest from residents to the Township Committee several weeks ago, was again aggravated.

Residents had not contemplated improvement since their appeal to the Governing Body, but the unexpected downpour of only a week later caused residents in the vicinity of Angell, Battle Hill, Washington, Marion and South Maple avenue and Riverside drive to organize as a group in seeking redress.

The latest flood was about a few inches lower than the worst storm in the neighborhood four years ago. Last week the lower ends of Battle Hill avenue and Marion avenue suffered a severe flood as experienced at each storm.

Citizens met Monday night at the home of Elwood Carmichael of Battle Hill avenue and it is reported a small committee will discuss the problem with town officials, instead of a large disorganized delegation as heretofore.

Engineering data is being compiled on the condition of the river for the purpose of a joint conference of local officials with the Union County Board of Freeholders and Union County Park Commission, owner of land adjoining the river, in correcting the damage caused by occasional floods.

Connections to Sewer Discussed by Health Board

Total of 667 Out of 898 Are Hooked to System; Third Notice Is Proposed

Out of a total of 898 possible connections in the sewer system 667 have already received permits, it was reported by the Board of Health Monday night. Of those who failed to connect upon two written notices, there are 135 temporary unable to bear the cost, fifty-three cases in litigation from the "south" neighborhood delaying due to assessments levied, and forty-three in Springfield Square, the Negro section, who are in dire financial straits.

Alfred G. Trundle, board member, said that as long as there are no unsanitary conditions existing "it is no crying shame to play along with these people who are unable to connect."

Dr. Henry P. Dengler, health officer, believed all who could do so had connected. The dealing of the fifty-three delinquents in the "south" neighborhood was referred to Charles W. Week, township counsel, for further action.

A resolution providing recommendations of a special milk committee headed by Mr. Trundle was adopted. The recommendations included no change in the $25 license fee, inspections every six weeks instead of four to save inspection expense, and that no license be granted without written reports on inspection of the source of the milk having been approved by the board.

Action on application of Stieckel and Stahl to construct a gasoline station at Mountain and Clinton avenues was held over until November 28, pending investigation of two petitions, one in favor of a station and the other opposed.

BASKETS DISTRIBUTED TO NEEDY BY O. E. S.

Continental Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, distributed sixteen Thanksgiving baskets to needy families in Springfield and Millburn Wednesday. Mrs. Robert D. Treat, of this township who has been in charge of the work since inaugurated by the chapter eight years ago, again supervised the welfare aid.

P. T. A. To Hear Speaker Monday

Mrs. Ethel C. Taneyhill, field secretary of the New Jersey Medical Society, will speak on "You Are What You Eat" at a meeting of the Springfield Parent-Teachers Association Monday evening at 8 in the James Caldwell School. Mrs. Charles G. Nelson, president, will be in charge of the meeting.

Mrs. Taneyhill will be remembered for her interesting talk to the P. T. A. two year ago on "Mental Hygiene," and also for her remarks before the child study group since that time.

Refreshments will be served under the direction of Mrs. Alfred G. Trundle, hospitality chairman. A class of students in the James Caldwell School, led by Miss Herche, music teacher, will be heard in several selections.

JAKOBSEN — WIDMER

Mr. and Mrs. J. Niel Jakobsen of Mountain avenue, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marion Elwood Jakobsen, to Arthur Dean Widmer, son of Mrs. Harry Widmer of 60 Mountain avenue, Springfield, and the late Dr. Widmer. The marriage took place Saturday evening at the bride's home in the presence of the immediate family.

Mr. and Mrs. Widmer have left on a motor trip and on their return will reside in Warner avenue.

Criticisms are welcome. The publishers are open at all times to constructive suggestions in making this paper more interesting.

Letter to the Editor

To the Editor of the SUN:

You have always been so generous with space for Red Cross News, that I am sure you will be glad to print this appeal for us.

We need more residents to sew for our garment program. The school nurse, Red Cross nurse, Relief Directors, all are asking for garments, and so far we have been able to supply only a small quantity. If 100 or more women would undertake to make one complete garment each in their homes, each week between now and Christmas, we should be able to complete our garment program before the end of the year. Groups of not more than ten should be under the charge of one sub-chairman who would see that the cut garments are delivered to the workers, and returned promptly each week to the general chairman at Red Cross headquarters. Mrs. William Young, of the Parent-Teacher Association, has already endorsed this plan. The garments are easy to make, consisting of bloomers, slips, night-gowns, pajamas, simple dresses and suits for boys and girls, etc. They are being cut in quantity, ready to be delivered to volunteer workers. The emergency is so urgent, that I am confident the women of Springfield will only need to realize the situation, in order to be willing to give a little time and effort each week, even if it does mean a sacrifice of time which would ordinarily be devoted to amusement or diversion.

May I also point out here another problem which we must solve? We need a volunteer motor corps. Our nurse finds it impossible, especially at this time of the year, when sickness is more prevalent, to do the many errands of mercy which are asked of the Red Cross. Just now we have the case of a young boy who must be taken regularly to Overlook Hospital to receive

What the SUN Advocates

Believing that the following improvements are vital necessities to nourish Springfield's betterment and substantial progress, the SUN advocates:

1. A high school.
2. Removal of delapidated buildings which are "sorespots."
3. Sidewalks wherever needed.
4. Encouraging clean factories, to increase the rates.
5. Establishment of a Taxpayers' League.
6. Postal-carrier delivery.
7. Reduced bus fare within town limits and to Millburn R. R. station.
8. Full time position for the township clerk's office.
9. Set of Building Zones, before township is developed.
10. A county park.

care for a leg which was broken and is now in a cast. There are other demands for motor service in connection with our sewing program. If the women who drive their own cars will register with Mrs. Charles A. Mundy, chairman of motor service, the hours when they are free to offer the use of their cars, they will be filling a real need.

There is one more appeal I must make—and that is all at this time. We expect to acquire a filing cabinet, to keep our correspondence, and also records. I feel sure that some young business woman will find an hour one evening a week, to keep our files in good shape, or perhaps some home-keeper skilled in this work, will come to the office once a week for this purpose.

There has been such generous co-operation given us by those who have trucks, that I must take this opportunity to again thank the following firms for transporting our Red Cross flour from Newark: F. & F. Nurseries, Andrew Wilson, Inc., Union County Coal and Lumber Co. and Union Co. Park Commission. Also, we don't know how we could manage without the kind assistance of Edward J. Hoagland. He has carted furniture for us on numberless occasions and does it so cheerfully that we are afraid we are imposing on him. George W. Parsell has also loaned us his truck.

It will be seen that Springfield Branch is engaged in many types of service, and we are very grateful for all the help that has been given us.

Sincerely,
MRS. CHARLES D. HORSTER,
Branch Chairman.

MATTER of OPINION

A Woman Looks at Springfield

There was a feeling in the air, yesterday, that the real spirit of Thanksgiving prevailed to a greater extent than has been the case for some years. There is hardly one of us who cannot look around, and see, among our neighbors, families whose present state is much more serious than our own. We become ashamed to bewail our own losses of resources or income, as we note the adversities with which others are bravely struggling. In our community, not only are the poor helping the poor, but every effort is made by the Relief Administration in the persons of Lewis F. Macartney and A. B. Anderson to seek out and help those in distress, to the fullest extent that the assistance given by State funds permits. Thanksgiving baskets, as usual, cheered many homes. The Winter is before us, and there is a general tightening up of the co-operation between the groups whose aim it is to alleviate distress and need. Any individual who has something to offer, whether it be money, goods, or services, to help win the battle against want, and does not do so, is missing a great opportunity for doing good.

If we could only understand how much we ourselves have to do with the shaping of our environment, by our thoughts. Perhaps something is wrong with us physically.

If it happened in Springfield, read it in the SUN.

All healing is a matter of faith, but our own family doctor can not help, because our "faith" is that the symptoms can only mean some serious disease. Our "faith" is really a fair, and as with Job "the thing we fear comes upon us." "Thoughts are things," says the apostle. With our thoughts we are constantly shaping our lives. What we thing today, we reap tomorrow. We can make our own choice every minute of the day, fear or courage, disbelief or faith, failure or success.

SPRINGFIELD
Population—1930 census 3,725; 1920, 1,113. Assessed valuations—1931, $5,381,771. Tax rate, 1932—Township, $3.22; state and county, $1.06. Incorporated 1857; settled early in 1700's. Springfield is essentially a township of farms. It is 55 minutes from New York City on the electrified D. L. & W. Railroad and has excellent bus connections to Newark, Elizabeth, Summit and Plainfield. The railroad stations at Millburn and Short Hills are less than a mile from Springfield Center. The Railway Valley Railroad has a freight station in Springfield, giving service for factories, commercial and industrial purposes. State Highway Route 23 makes it convenient to reach New York in thirty minutes by car when completed. Numerous state and county highways pass through the township. It has good streets, water, gas, electricity and a newly opened sanitary sewer system. Of interest in Revolutionary history will be the 1809 Presbyterian Church where Rev. James Caldwell, called "Give 'em watta boys," in the midst of the Battle of Springfield fought on June 25, 1780. Several colonial landmarks are to be found in Springfield, one of the oldest communities in Union County.

NOTICE OF SPRINGFIELD TAX SALE

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that the undersigned, the Collector of Taxes of the Township of Springfield in the County of Union, will on the thirtieth day of December, 1932, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, in his Tax Office in the Municipal Building, Springfield, New Jersey, expose for sale the following described lands situate in the said Township of Springfield, on which taxes or assessment installments for the year 1931, together with interest and costs, remain unpaid and in arrears.

This sale is made under the provisions of an Act of the Legislature concerning unpaid taxes, assessments and other municipal charges on real property, approved March 4, 1918, to make the amounts chargeable against said lands on the first day of July, 1932, and on the first day of July, 1933, in the date of sale, and the costs of sale.

Certain of said lands listed hereunder are to be sold subject to assessment installments for benefits for municipal local improvements not yet due, amounting to the sums indicated in a special column therefor under the heading "Assessment Installments Not Yet Due", and interest thereon.

The said lands, the names of the persons in arrears, the amounts due to July 1, 1932, and said assessment installments, not yet due, as appears on said Unpaid Tax Sales List, are as follows:

Table with columns: No., Name, Location, Block Lots, Taxes, Assessments In Arrears, Interest, Total Due July 1, 1932, Assessment Installments Not Yet Due. Lists various property owners and their tax details.

HOLIDAY TIMES

This is Thanksgiving week. We have made turkeys. We made pumpkins filled with fruit. We studied about the first Thanksgiving in America. We had our Thanksgiving program with Miss Harvey's class. We brought lots of food for the blind.—Grade 1 and 2, Raymond Chisholm School.

POEM OF NOVEMBER

We have a new poem to recite in our class every month. November's poem was "When the Frost Is on the Pumpkin," by James Whitcomb Riley. Erna Hopkin was the first to recite. — VERDA HOUCK, Grade 5.

THANKSGIVING ASSEMBLY

Wednesday morning at the Thanksgiving assembly program we gave all things we could afford to the Blind Babies Home. We wanted them to feel they were getting something for Thanksgiving. — AUDREY HAMBROCK, Grade 6A.

GAVE PLAY

We gave the holiday play Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock. The whole class was in it and everyone enjoyed it. We made it ourselves. It had seven scenes.—LILLIAN WEIS, Grade 4, R. C. School.

MAKING NOTE BOOKS

Each pupil in our class is making a geography and history notebook. Half of the book is for one subject and the other half for the other. In it we are putting important things we have studied. We hope these books will help us do our work better.—KARIN NELSON, Grade 4.

TO FORM CLUB

The "6B" class will organize a Nature Club. We are to study birds and how to take care of them. When our Christmas tree is old, we are going to put it outside, and put sweet popcorn and other food in it for birds to eat.—IDA SMITH.

"OUR LIBRARY"
Monday, 7:30 to 9:30 P. M.
Wednesday, 2:30 to 5 P. M.
Friday, 7:30 to 9:30 P. M.

When one finds that prominent authors are not merely great names but really fine folks like ourselves, books begin to take on a personality which makes their message more engaging. Not long ago friends of the Cather family were telling of lovely things Willa had done for her sister-in-law who is an elocutionist. Just like we would do for our families. "The Song of the Lark" and "Shadows on the Rock" are two of her writings we have on our shelves. There are those who think that Anne Arliss is one of the generation's keen observers with unusual ability for portraying life with its weaknesses and inconsistencies. "Roads of Love" is one of her best as the frequency of borrowing will testify. When a mother becomes a self-appointed foil for her son's personal relations, there is setting for great happenings when he is in love with two girls at once. "Tammany Boy" by Dermot Cavanagh, romance and a political career, of course, written in an impersonal manner. We wonder how much of this book is based on the life of a recently resigned political figure. This will give the reader another angle on the great American pastime of politics.

Closely aligned with the political game several large cities is said to be large "buckets" of various types. These, if of importance, are ruled by some one, more or less, secretive though notorious individual. V. R. Burnett, in an author's note, says "Little Caesar" that the "characters and events in this book are entirely imaginary." Well, we will believe him but his facts nevertheless line up closely with what has purported to be true in various press accounts not so long ago.—F. P. L.

PICTURE STORIES

We made pictures of the Pilgrims. Each picture is a little story. The first picture showed the Pilgrims leaving England. Another landing in the Mayflower from Holland. Other pictures showed the Pilgrims meeting the Indians, growing corn and potatoes and going to church. When all was done, the Pilgrims invited the Indians to their Thanksgiving dinner. Everybody was happy.—PAULINE LEIBRAND, ROBERT NUMRICH, VITO STRICCHIOLA, Grade 2, R. C. School.

JR. HIGH ASSEMBLY

The Junior High School Thanksgiving program was given in the auditorium Wednesday. "The Origin of Thanksgiving" was told by Jean Fleming. There were also a few songs, piano solo by Mary Van Veen and a poem by Robert Hoernig. Thirty members of our class were in a play. Miss Hess directed the play. We also heard a song by Ida Curcio.—LILLIAN SEARLES, Grade 7A.

AID IN TEACHING

The girls of the 8A hygiene class have named a committee for teaching the class. There is a poster committee, dramatic committee, and a poem committee, all of which will contribute to better teaching of our projects.

We have a safety poster in our room which we hope everyone will take as an example.

Red Cross Group to Hear Speaker

A visitor to the clothing headquarters of the Red Cross, 230 Morris avenue, next Thursday morning at 11:30, will be Mrs. Louise Baker, National Red Cross Director of garment making. Mrs. Baker is coming from Washington, D. C., to address a large audience in Newark in an effort to mobilize woman-power to expedite the Red Cross sewing project making garments of government cotton material. Her only visit outside of Newark will be to Springfield headquarters, to review the work which is being done here.

While some of the Roll Call workers have completed their collections, others have not yet turned in their reports, according to the Roll Call chairman, Mrs. Hattie Doerries. Miss Ila B. Hess, Junior High School teacher, enrolled twenty-four members of the school faculties. Miss Hess also reports that all the pupils in the two schools have joined the Red Cross, their contributions totalling more than $22. Mrs. Phoebe Quick has collected $26, and Mrs. Clarence B. Meeker $32. The largest donation was given by Mrs. William Flemer, $25 in addition to $1 membership. A completed report will be published next week.

About thirty-five new garments were distributed by the Red Cross on Thanksgiving, Miss Florence Gardiner, school nurse, taking the clothing to the families where the greatest need exists. Furniture given to the Red Cross for distribution this week consisted of a sewing machine, two beds, springs and mattress, dresser and table. All the articles were placed in homes where they were needed and were greatly appreciated.

-Girl Scout Notes-

Last Monday's meeting in the James Caldwell School was the last in which Captain Margaret Hinze conducted. We now have Captain Reimier (Mrs. Max Reimier), the wedding having taken place Wednesday.)

Scouts were invited and did they spread rice? An electric iron was presented the captain Monday night. An Officers' meeting was held last week at the home of Lucille Welter and plans made for a cake sale December 3 as means of raising funds for registration fees next month. Each girl will bring a cake and serve at counters. SCRIBE.

PETER RABBIT'S FEELINGS ARE HURT

Loafer, loafer at your ease
Learn a lesson from the bees!

THIS is what little Striped Chipmunk had shouted at Peter Rabbit when Peter tried to get him to come and play with him. Peter just grinned as he watched Striped Chipmunk scamper about on the edge of the Green Forest and presently start for home with the pockets of his cheeks stuffed with bechnuts. It seemed to Peter that it was no time at all before Striped Chipmunk was back after more nuts. It was very clear that he had no time for play; he was too busy.

Peter watched him a while, and then growing tired of seeing Striped Chipmunk work so hard he went on. Presently he spied Chatterer the Red Squirrel in a chestnut tree. "Come play with me!" cried Peter. "It's a splendid day for a frolic."
"You mean it's a splendid day to work," shouted Chatterer. "I can't afford to be a loafer like you." With this Chatterer stuffed his mouth full of nuts and whisked out of sight to hide them in his secret storehouse.

"Let's Play Hide-and-Seek!" Cried Peter.

Once more Peter grinned and went his way until he met Happy Jack the Gray Squirrel. "Let's play hide-and-seek!" cried Peter.

"Some other day," replied Happy Jack, hunting among the fallen leaves for nuts. "I can't afford to be a loafer like you such fine weather as this."

This time Peter didn't grin. It was the third time he had been called a loafer. At first he hadn't minded, but now he was beginning to feel a wee bit hurt. You know a loafer is one who sits around and does nothing. He never works. Peter could see no reason why he should work. He would much rather play or take his ease. He couldn't understand why others should work as they were doing, but that was their affair, not his. If they got pleasure from work all well and good but they needn't call him a loafer. He would leave them to their labor and go down to the Smiling Pool.

So he left the Green Forest and started across the Green Meadows lippy-lippy-lippy as fast as he could go to the Smiling Pool. By the time he got there he had quite forgotten that he had been a little hurt in his feelings. The instant he poked his head over the bank he saw Jerry Muskrat. Jerry was hard at work on the roof of his house. He saw Peter as soon as Peter saw him.

"Hello, loafer!" shouted Jerry. "Did you ever know finer weather for work? Why don't you get busy and do something?"

"I've nothing to do," mumbled Peter, and without another word he turned and started for home. He would have liked to stay and watch Jerry, but Jerry had called him "loafer," just as had Striped Chipmunk and Chatterer and Happy Jack, and somehow he began to feel that these busy workers looked down on him and the feeling wasn't a comfortable one. As he happened along toward the dear Old Brier Patch where he could sit and doze and dream to his heart's content with no one to call him unpleasant names, he met Danny Meadow Mouse hurrying as if he had no time to lose.

"What's your rush?" demanded Peter.

"I'm making the most of this fine weather to fill my storehouse with seeds for the winter," replied Danny Meadow Mouse. "I can't afford to be a loafer like you, Peter."

This was too much. Even little Danny Meadow Mouse called him a loafer. Perhaps none of them really meant anything, but just the same Peter's feelings were hurt. All the brightness of the beautiful fall day was gone for Peter. When Striped Chipmunk called him a loafer he hadn't minded, but when one after another his other friends had called him the same thing it had hurt. The more he thought of it the more it hurt. Could it be that they looked down on him because he never worked? It certainly looked that way. He reached the dear Old Brier Patch and crept in to his favorite resting place without letting Mrs. Peter know that he had returned. He wanted to be alone to think.

Springfield F. C. in Scoreless Tie Here Yesterday

Strong Irvington Squad in Holiday Battle Thriller

The Springfield Football Club, minus many of its regulars, played the Irvington Pheasants at Flemer Oval yesterday in a Thanksgiving contest arranged at a late period and emerged in a scoreless tie with the strongest visiting team to be seen at home this year. The locals record of eight straight wins was slightly marred but they played well.

Originally no game had been scheduled as out-of-town members of the Springfield eleven asked a holiday on Turkey Day. Early this week it was decided to give all Springfield men a chance to play and a late booking made.

A large crowd was on hand. Ted Ganska, Ken Niebuhr and Harry Welter were outstanding on the defense, the local offense being weak although the visitors could not pierce the line of the Springfielders.

The Pheasants will play a return game here December 4 and the Newark Trojans will visit Springfield next Sunday. The lineups:

SPRINGFIELD		PHEASANTS
Ganska	R.E.	Sauro
Bolger	L.T.	H. Drake
Ruby	L.G.	Burnard
Bucklew	C.	Hartner
Scriba	R.G.	Smyth

Callahan	L.H.B.	Krauss
Niebuhr	R.H.B.	Preblick
Pariso	F.B.	Martin

Substitutions: Springfield, Pierce for Bolger, Buckner for Hanson, LeBart for Callahan. Referee, Ronald G. Pannell, Colgate; umpire, H. Widmer head linesman, A. Schaefer.

Stud A. C. Victims of Local Eleven

The Springfield Football Club stretched its winning streak to eight straight at home Sunday against the Stud A. C. of Newark, 19-0, the first contest in which the opposition has scored this year.

The locals scored touchdowns in the first, second and third quarters, playing loosely in the final period, which enabled the Newarkers to record a touchdown.

Klein, Bertoli and Lyons carried the ball across the line for Springfield. Wekestein counted for the lone touchdown of the visitors. Sol Lifson, former South Side High School star, who played with the Newarkers a short time, played well for the losers. The lineup:

Woman's Club of Millburn Plans Three Day Low Cost Food Exhibit

How $5 can be made to provide a family of five with well-balanced meals for one week, will be shown in a low-cost food exhibit of the Woman's Club of Millburn, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, December 1, 2 and 3, in a vacant store at 354 Millburn avenue, Millburn, several doors from the Millburn Theatre. Mrs. Margaret C. Shepard, home demonstration agent, will preside.

Mrs. Frederick N. Schierbaum is general chairman of arrangements. Mrs. Lewis F. Macartney of Springfield is chairman of the planning committee and Mrs. George W. McGrath, also of this township, is chairman of the food committee.

The exhibit will include breakfast, luncheon and dinner weekly grocery orders as suggested by the Home Economics course of the State Extension Service.

The advantage of economical buying will be stressed in a display showing savings that can be realized by purchasing in bulk rather than in packages. Fat that otherwise would be wasted will be used as the basis of a home-made soap display. For the family of five with $10 to spend, a similar set-up will be shown.

Although the $5 weekly menu will maintain child growth and adult life, it does not provide as great a quality of milk nor as varied a supply of vegetables and fruit as does the $10 menu.

The exhibit will be open on the following hours: Thursday, 1 to 5 p. m.; Friday, 9:30 a. m. to 5 p. m., and Saturday, 9:30 a. m. to 6 p. m.

A special diet list of Italian foods will also be displayed. Residents of Springfield are invited to attend the exhibit.

First Mississippi Levees

When the first levees were built along the Mississippi river is not a matter of record, says Pathfinder Magazine. Such levees have been constructed in that region since early in the eighteenth century. At first individuals built levees to protect their own land property in time of flood and later local authorities, county and state, aided in the work. In 1879 congress created the Mississippi river commission and the first appropriation for improving the river was made the following year.

I AM always free to go out when I please. I never have to stay at home and wait for packages to be delivered. No, not since I opened a charge account at Kresge's. I never realized before how nice it is to merely say, "Charge it", when shopping at Kresge's and not have to wait at home until C.O.D.'s arrive. I would never again be without the conveniences a Kresge charge account offers.
