Rambling Around Town

FOR WEEKS THE CIRCULATION department has been trying to discover the reason for increased sales of copies of the SUN and after long consideration to a few facts, the Rambling Reporter has been informed it is due to the bowling scores published weekly . . . it's very simple . . . wives and sweethearts find it rather convenient to check the activities of their respective husbands and boy friends by checking the list of bowlers at the local alleys who participated for the week . . . this is not for the purpose of opening the way to bribes in publishing wrong names but the "graft door" to the SUN office is in the rear of the building, right next to the cellar and please get here before we close . . . hereafter the title of residents in the vicinity of the troublesome Rahway River are to be known as "flood sufferers" as suggested by a citizen living in that section . . . there's business to be had if one looks for it as two local merchants can vouch . . . one bought out his partner, improved the service, fixed up a few needed improvements and is doing nicely . . . the other took a long chance, changed his location a short distance away from an established spot and he finds it difficult to handle all the business coming his way . . . as a tip, they are both in the gasoline profession . . . it should be easy to recall their names . . . who makes all the masculine hearts from ten to eighty flutter when she strolls each afternoon in the vicinity of the post office? . . . do you recollect the young gang of hoodlums (now respectable grown men) who used to play such naughty pranks in the neighborhood of the mountain back of Baltusrol not so many years ago? . . . their favorite prank was to remove tires from autos, drain gasoline and engage in other playful sport . . . petters in that part of the country never came back for more . . . the cast of business men in "The College Flapper" to be given in the James Caldwell School by the Springfield Amateur Actors Club next Thursday and Friday will be a "wow" . . . there is a treat in store for the audience so be sure to see it . . .

Plans Submitted to Give Relief in River Flood

Estimate Cost of $17,595 to Remedy Situation of Rahway River Overflowing

A relief plan to remedy flood conditions after heavy rains along the east branch of the Rahway River, was offered to the Township Committee Monday night by Arthur H. Lennox, township engineer. The cost to repair the condition was estimated at $17,595. The plan was referred to the engineer and sewer committee for further consideration.

The river bed should be widened from thirty-six feet to fifty feet, the report stated. The average width is now twenty-six feet. It gave seven feet as the minimum depth for the stream without added expense. Raising of grades on roads near the stream before improvements was advocated.

In a second report the engineer told of a conference with the Union County Board of Freeholders. He said that board could give no financial aid, but could have the county engineer draw plans for future control of the stream.

Bordering land along the river is owned by the Union County Park Commission. In his second report Lennox stated the commission had promised to raise the grade of Riverside drive and Angell avenue and to clean the river bed. The commission was anxious to obtain land east of Angell avenue to have more jurisdiction in river control, he said.

The engineer pointed out that flood conditions November 11 after heavy rains had been equaled only four times in the last eight years. Committeeman Macartney, municipal emergency relief director, said ten township unemployed were cleaning the river.

The committee passed on final reading an ordinance creating a five-man planning board and zoning commission. Committeeman Gaskill, voting against, favored zoning, but opposed giving the committee chairman power to appoint three of the board's members.

The committee granted an application from Stieckel & Stahl for a two-pump gasoline station at Mountain and Clinton avenues. A petition from eighteen objectors because of "ample facilities" was read.

Charles S. Cannon, committee chairman, stated a petition signed by twenty-five nearby residents favored the application. He argued the committee's hands were tied because the application had been approved by the building inspector, chairman of the police committee and Board of Fire Commissioners.

Hermann Scott and Mrs. S. T. Merritt, who operate gasoline stations in Mountain avenue, objected. Scott said he was thinking of the applicants, who he believes could make no money on the site. Stieckel replied he would take that chance.

Township Counsel Weeks reported that the new owner of five vacant stores at Morris avenue and Center street, long criticized by residents as an eyesore, had agreed to renovate the building.

Election of a committeeman to serve on the five-man zoning board was deferred to December 12.

THE ALUMNI CHORUS

One of the features of "The College Flapper," to be presented in the James Caldwell School next Thursday and Friday nights under the auspices of the Springfield Amateur Actors Club will be the Alumni Glee Club characterized above. Men of the Springfield Choral Society will take the role of the singers and there will also be other novelty numbers in the show. Entire proceeds will be given to reduce the debt incurred in the recent marathon bi-centennial celebration.

Parade Tomorrow Will Herald Comedy, "The College Flapper"

One of the most comical shows to be given here in years has been heralded in "The College Flapper," scheduled for the James Caldwell School Thursday and Friday of next week, to be given by the Springfield Amateurs Actors Club, proceeds of which will be used for the deficit of the George Washington Bi-Centennial Committee which staged a marathon race here last summer.

The story concerns college life and centers around Jerry Watson, to be played by Kenneth Niebuhr, a star football player, who is found in the sorority house of his girl friend when he should have been at practice. He masquerades in the clothes of the house mother and then the suspense begins.

The other principal characters are: Jean, Jerry's girl, Janet Reger; Mary, president of the sorority, Anna Hinz; football coach, Herb Day; butter and egg man from Omaha, Vincent Shea; Brick, red-headed freshman, Ronald Pannell; Mrs. Seamore, wife of college president, Mrs. Manning Day, Jr.; freshman Bill, Brick's buddy, William McClement; Monk, physical trainer, Alvin Warner; Professor Gaddis, Louis J. Wiman; (Continued on page three).

Xmas Concert to Be Presented by Singing Society

In Presbyterian Church Instead of Town Hall As Previously Stated

The annual Christmas concert of the Springfield Choral Society will be held in the Presbyterian Church, instead of the Municipal Building as previously announced, on Wednesday evening, December 31.

As the program consists entirely of Christmas music, the officers and directors of the society realized that atmosphere appropriate for the Christmas season would not prevail except in a house of worship. It is obvious that the "old church on the corner" is uniquely appropriate for the concert.

In addition to the cantata and anthems to be rendered, it is the plan of Herald A. Jones, society director, to have the audience join in singing the familiar Christmas carols.

Outstanding soloists of the community have been selected for the solo parts of the cantata, with one exception, where it was found necessary to obtain the services of a soloist from out of town.

Residents of Springfield and neighboring communities are invited to attend the concert. Expenses incurred in efforts of the society to give the township a commendable concert will be defrayed by a silver offering.

G. O. P. WILL ELECT OFFICERS TONIGHT

The Springfield Republican Club will meet in the Lions Club Rooms in Flemer avenue tonight at 8 o'clock and elect officers for the coming year. Lee S. Rigby, president, will preside. Reports will be heard and other business transacted. Members are urged to attend.

Local Man "Dark Horse" at G.O.P. Caucus Yesterday

Leads Candidates in Recommendations of Executive County Committee

Sheriff C. Wesley Collins announced this afternoon that he will name Lee S. Rigby of Springfield undersheriff, following the recommendations of the executive committee of the Republican County Committee which last night ended a long controversy over applicants for the position when Rigby, a "dark horse" led in the choice of names submitted.

The executive committee of the Republican County Committee last night recommended to Sheriff C. Wesley Collins that he appoint Lee S. Rigby, of Springfield, Richard J. Harrigan of Plainfield or R. E. English of Elizabeth as under-sheriff.

The selection of Rigby, Harrigan and English was made by balloting, in which, it is understood, each member of the executive committee indicated his choice of three men out of the entire field of candidates.

The following, although obtained from unofficial sources, is believed to be the correct number of votes received by each candidate: Rigby, 27; Harrigan, 23; English, 21; Luftman, 15; Mink, 11; Rankin, 11; McGilvray, 8; Tool, 7; Simmons, 6; Wilgus, 3.

Pay $25,000 in Christmas Club

Over $25,000 was paid this year to members of the 1932 Christmas Club by the First National Bank of Springfield, Louis J. Wiman, cashier, has announced.

There were 1200 accounts, Mr. Wiman stated, and the greatest proportion of money paid is expected to pay taxes and secure holiday gifts. Although there is a decrease in total saved, the membership in 1932 was about the same as that of 1931. Many persons retain a percentage for saving accounts, he added.

The 1933 Christmas Club has opened this week and applications may be made at the bank. There are weekly classes of twenty-five cents, fifty cents, dollar, two dollars, etc. to be saved for fifty weeks.

TAXPAYERS INVITED TO DISCUSS BUDGET

Directors of the Springfield Taxpayers Association have been invited by the Township Committee to sit with that body Monday night in the Municipal Building, to entertain suggestions of expenditures for the 1933 budget. The taxpayers' group has accepted the invitation to attend the joint meeting.

$25,000 in Christmas Checks Indicates Good Record

THAT $25,000 should be paid to members of the Christmas Club by the First National Bank of Springfield last week reveals an excellent showing for our township. Although smaller than many of the neighboring banks, the local institution points with pride to the fact that Springfield residents are thrifty in setting aside each week a small amount, which at the end of the year, indicates a tidy sum. The club has opened this week for the new year and it is expected that an equal number of members, if not larger, will be recorded next November when the 1933 Christmas Club checks are mailed.

Letter to the Editor

Seeks Merchandise

To the Editor of the Sun:
The volunteers who have been sewing garments for the Red Cross have turned out very attractive garments, as will be seen by an inspection of the dresses in the show window of the clothing headquarters at 330 Morris Avenue. The white collars which trim the dresses are made of bits of white material which the sewers have had on hand in their homes. As these are now exhausted, they would very much appreciate donations of odd ends and small pieces of white lawn, broadcloth, pique, or poplin. They may be left at the sewing room any afternoon except Saturday between 2 and 4 o'clock.

MRS. FRANK R. KOHLER,
Red Cross Clothing Chairman.

The SUN is on sale at the following newsstands: Shacks, Morris and Mountain Avenues; Buckalew, 247 Morris Avenue; Matorino, 161 Morris Avenue, and 19 Morris Avenue.

MATTER of OPINION

A Woman Looks at Springfield

Three weeks from Christmas. Will the true Christ spirit be displayed. Is there now in evidence that universal love and good will, which is the foundation on which the teachings of Christ rest? As we look around us, we see evidences of real good will manifested. Everywhere there has been shown a spirit of helpfulness and frequently of sacrifice. Less selfishness is apparent, less whining, and a greater understanding of the trials of neighbors and friends. When people cannot give of money they have shown themselves eager to give of themselves, a far more valuable gift. Christmas in Springfield will be good this year, measured in terms of happiness which comes from giving.

The workers at Red Cross headquarters have been furnished several laughs caused by the bewilderment in the faces of people who came into the store believing that it is a haberdashery or dry goods store. Things are not being sold, but wonderfully warm new underwear, knickers, trousers and stockings for all members of distressed families are being given out by the Red Cross, to say nothing of the charming dresses fashioned by clever fingers. It's a very happy place these days, and it is hard to say which are the happiest, the workers giving so generously of their time and skill, or the children and adults receiving this fine clothing.

Mother's Dream

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

MOTHER does not dream of fame
So much, how great, how far;
Mother thinks about your name,
Yet only what you are.
She would rather have you known
For kindness to a few,
Than to have you on a throne,
And have men hating you.

Mother does not dream of gold
So much, if great or small:

She would rather have you hold
Your honor first of all,
She would rather have you poor
Than have you rich in sin;
All the wealth that will endure
Is the wealth within.

Mother does not dream of place
So much, of social ends;
Gentle women, men of grace,
She would have your friends,
She would rather have you one
All you meet esteem.

Just a good and loving son—
That is Mother's dream.

TO GIVE PROGRAM
The 8B class is preparing to give an Assembly program December 13. The class has elected this committee for the event, Rose DeBlasi, Dorothy Cook, Jack Lane, Dorothy Mayer and Doris Mainwaring.—DORIS MAINWARING.

CONVALESCING
Arlous Culver of the 7B class broke his leg in gymnasium. He is improving rapidly and we hope he will be back soon. It is very unfortunate for Arlous but this is the fourth time he has broken the same leg, the four times being in the same place.—MARGARET STAEHLE.

GRADE 3-4 NOTES
Hartley Ferguson made a nice Indian print for our class. We have brought money for the Red Cross. We are learning songs about Christmas and making presents for our fathers and mothers. Wallace Burnett is in the hospital.—JOHN TEUSCHER, class reporter.

WHAT WE'VE DONE
We have played a story about Johnny and the North Wind. We learned a song about "Candy Lion." We will soon have a Christmas program. What do you think we are going to do? We're going to find a story and play it on the December 23rd. program.—JUNE RICE, Grade 3.

SANTA CLAUS CLUB
The 5th and 6C classes are organizing clubs are: presidents, Anna White and Kenneth Springle; vice-presidents, Peggy Nelson and Elliot Lichtenstein; secretaries, Annabel Cunningham and Evelyn Sippell, and information committee, Elizabeth Teuscher and George Smith. The activities of the club are very interesting.—ANNABEL CUNNINGHAM.

COLLECTING MATERIAL
We are collecting Christmas stories and pictures.—Grade 1, Miss Bolle's class.

HAVING SHORT TALKS
In English class we have been having short talks which have proven interesting. Those which we have enjoyed were given by Rudyard Jennings, Edgar Buell, Walter Gogel, Jack Mohler, Marjorie Hartwell, Helen Freeman and Margaret Anderson.—Grade 9A.

AWAIT HOLIDAY
We are getting ready for Christmas holiday in our room.—DERWENT CARTWELL, Grade 2.

THE APPLE
Miss Gabriel read us a story about an apple. It said that if you take the skin off an apple it will become brown and like rubber. We peeled it and after Thanksgiving it was smaller. It was brown and wrinkled, because the air took the juice out. The apple skin keeps the apple clean and juicy.—ELEANOR BERGER, DOROTHY LAKE, JOHN SWEENEY, MARY MAAS, Grade 1.

When one has the time and inclination to browse among the many and varied titles on our shelves, pleasure is to be found for leisure hours. Philosophy is a long word and usually books on the subject are considered above the home reading type of literature. Yet it is possible to enjoy this kind of books if the author has the ability to state his subject matter in an interesting fashion.

Will Durand has given readers a very valuable work in his "Mansions of Philosophy." It will help a lot in making adjustments to the changing times.

Somewhat along the lines of thought is the study of heredity and the effect of certain combinations families may have. "The Fruit of the Family Tree" by Albert Edward Wiggam, is a research and speculation worth the time needed for its reading.

Many people think anything Dr. Van Dyke produces is worth-while reading. His reputation deserves this compliment and we are inclined to agree. "Days Off" is a volume recently added to our shelves, containing short stories of which the author is a capable teller.

The Book Committee reports several new books in a short time, not only for adult but children borrowers: F. P. L.

Regional Meet of Lions Wednesday

Plans have been completed by Springfield Lions to entertain about 100 persons in the Half-Way House next Wednesday night at the Regional meeting of Lions Clubs of the Orange District which includes the following groups: South Orange-Maplewood, Summit, the Oranges and Vailsburg.

Br-r-r-r, it was cold at Brookside last week-end when Troop 60's scouts and scouters spent the week-end at camp. But it didn't stop the fun the boys had on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The group huddled together Sunday morning debating whether or not to quickly dress or lie in warm (?) blankets. It was ten degrees above and back they went to bed until Scoutmaster Ed Hoagland lifted a few scouts out, thereby stirring ambition in the other fellows.

The high spot of the trip was the kick Scout Johnny McGeehan gave the NEWS SCOUT in the middle of the nose. At times, the dishwasher discovered frost crystals in the bottom of a cup of hot steaming water just a few minutes before. Several boys, however, were "hot" by passing twelve tests and qualifications for three in merit badges.

Don't forget—meeting tonight in James Caldwell School at 7:30 P. M. THE NEWS SCOUT
