Committee Seeks Further Move on Police Budget

25-Point Tax Rate Jump Looms Unless Economies Are Effected -- Trundle

Finance Chairman Trundle, in Lengthy Statement, Shows Financial Situation

A picture of the financial situation in Springfield for this year is contained in a lengthy statement presented by the SUN herewith which was forwarded to the Board of Education and Fire Commissioners late last week by Committeeman Alfred G. Trundle, finance chairman on the local governing body.

It is dated January 6, and reads as follows:

"As you are no doubt either already considering or will very presently be considering your 1933 Budget Mayor Cannon has requested that I give you a composite view of the conditions which confront us so that the Township Committee, the Board of Education and the Board of Fire Commissioners will have a mutual understanding of the problem and see eye to eye those things which will be necessary to carry on affairs of the Township without serious embarrassment.

"Two problems are paramount and I shall endeavor to treat them separately. First, the credit and good name of the Township must be preserved even in the face of adverse economic conditions of staggering proportions. Our problem in this respect

Rambling Around Town

IN SOME OF THE LARGER CITIES, the Mayor or certain officials, masquerade among the masses to discover public opinion on controversial matters. We recommend that procedure be done right here in Springfield. Ever since a statement appeared in a Newark newspaper last week that salary cuts were being contemplated for local police, questions have been fired about town to everyone and from all sources. "Will the police salary be reduced thirty per cent?" and is it true that "So-and-so wants to cut the cops' salary to the limit?"

Committeeman Trundle at the gathering of townfathers Monday assailed false rumors that he was responsible for such statements. What really transpired, it was brought out, was suggested that a report be submitted the governing body showing how the department would operate if its budget were reduced thirty per cent. The purpose, further explanation mentioned, was to see what sacrifices would be made. Now the question resolves itself into what would be reduced if such a cut in the budget was made. Salaries, which now make up eighty per cent of the present expenditures, would most naturally be affected the hardest from all sources.

Taxpayers Hear School Cost to Be Cut $10,200

John Gunn Tells Association Delegates Given Warm Reception Monday

The Springfield Taxpayers Association met last night in the Municipal Building and heard a report from John B. Gunn, chairman of the school expenditures committee, that the Board of Education at a special budget meeting Monday night "treated us as if we were members of the board ourselves." He referred to Thomas J. Hankins, Jr., president of the taxpayers group, who also attended.

Tentative figures revealed by Gunn indicate a saving of $10,200 from last year's budget figures. This is in view of the twenty-four per cent increase in Senior high school enrollment which will cost $5,000 additional this year for transportation and tuition for about thirty pupils.

Salary reductions of 10 per cent for teachers of $1,500 and 5 per cent for under that sum were agreed, Gunn said. Certain items were reduced temporarily in view of conditions, he emphasized.

Discussion was heard about items in the budget of the Township Committee. Hankins said the association can do nothing now until the budget is made up.

Recommendations of the directors on salaries were in cases satisfactory while in others the governing body did not go as far "as we had asked," he mentioned.

Wilbur Schuster, secretary, said that since the taxpayers had asked for a 2 to 10 per cent cut in police salaries, the department had done well in taking a higher reduction of 10 to 20 per cent.

John M. Sweeney and William White reported on having attended the budget hearing of the Board of Freeholders in Elizabeth. In contrast to "four citizens last year," Sweeney said, "there was almost 500 this year." That, he said, shows the taxpayers are interested in a movement to reduce taxes.

Letter Behind Pay Cut Moves Is Made Public

Reveals Township Committee Had Plans to Seek 30 Per Cent Reduction

Behind the scenes of the voluntary offer made this week by members of the police department to take salary cuts of 10 to 20 per cent appears several enlightening events which throw light on the happenings at the Township Committee meeting which, to many spectators, appeared hazy and incoherent.

Committeeman Trundle, finance chairman, spoke of a member of the board who had "misquoted him and placed him in a bad light" for advocating 30 per cent salary cuts when the actual fact, he further stated, was to get a picture of what would take place if a 30 per cent reduction in the budget was effected.

Trundle claimed that at a special budget meeting of the entire board January 4, the police committee was requested to get from Chief Runyon a 30 per cent reduced budget. The report submitted Monday night, Trundle said, was "not what he had asked for."

A newspaper article last Friday stated Chairman Charles S. Cannon as announcing reductions. The article further mentioned that Trundle would introduce tentative figures Monday night.

The next move was a request in letter form sent to Runyon by Gaskill, police chairman. It follows:

"At a budget meeting of the Township Committee January 4, I was directed to inform you of the following:

"1. That the sum of $12,000 was to be placed in the police budget.

"2. That a thirty per cent reduction in salaries was contemplated.

"3. That also some staggered method of employment was to be instituted.

"4. The discontinuance of 24-hour service in headquarters was advocated.

"5. No uniforms to be purchased by the township.

"I am giving you this information in compliance with the board's wish and also for the purpose of clearly indicating the position the police face from a budgetary standpoint.

"I recommend that you meet with the members of the department and secure some proposition in regard to salaries that I may present to the board to, if possible, counteract the present status. I request this be considered carefully as it may not be final."

In view of the newspaper article and Gaskill's five-points outlined above, the police got busy and after much discussion between themselves, virtually "upset the applecart" and volunteered to take cuts for the year 1933. All nine members signed a statement to that effect.

Thus, the police proposed to go the limit, in their estimation, to assist in drastic economies of town expenditures.

From excellent authority, Committeeman Geiger and Selander, other members of the police committee in addition to Gaskill, have been reported to not deny the contents of Gaskill's letter although they admitted it was "not put that way."

The Township Committee will meet tonight to hear the further report of Chief Runyon as requested by the board. Meanwhile, Runyon and the eight police members are undecided as to whether their generous salary offer will be further reduced.

Send in your personal notes to the SUN. This is your home newspaper. Help make it more interesting.

Governing Body Requests Offer Be Reconsidered

Further slashes than the recommended $4,317.05 reduction in the 1933 police budget were ordered by the Township Committee Monday night. The report of recommendations of Chief M. C. Runyon was referred back to the police committee to seek a lower budget.

Committeeman Trundle, finance chairman, said it was "not what we asked for,"

Voluntary Cuts Range From 10 to 20 Per Cent

In submitting recommendations of the 1933 police department budget to the Township Committee Monday night, Chief M. C. Runyon has lopped off $4,317.05 from the total last year of approximately $25,876.45 or almost a drop of seventeen per cent. The proposed total for 1933 will be $21,559.40 provided the governing body accepts the report.

but he appreciated the spirit of the police, who in letter read before the chief's proposal had been heard volunteered to serve for this year with cuts ranging from twenty per cent to ten per cent. Salary cuts are provided in the police budget submitted.

"If we cut one-third of the police budget would the safety of our residents be jeopardized? That is what we want to find out," Trundle said.

He denied emphatically that he favored 30 per cent salary cuts in the department and explained he wanted a picture of what sacrifices would have to be made if the police budget was cut a third. Trundle said he was being misrepresented and misquoted "by a member of this board."

Charles S. Cannon, committee chairman, said he wanted Runyon's opinion on what effect curtailing twenty-four hour desk service would have on the department's efficiency in regard to Springfield residents.

"We may even have to cut as much as 50 per cent," he said. "What should be on hand is an idea of the sacrifice to be made."

The police committee members, consisting of Committeeman Gaskill, chairman, and Committeemen Geiger and Selander, said they had studied every detail of the expenditures of the department "from every angle" and were satisfied the budget was the best possible under existing conditions. Geiger pointed out the men work ten hours a day.

A letter from the Springfield Free Public Library Association asked the board to consider a $500 appropriation in the 1933 budget. The association, which started in March, 1932, has been supported thus far by subscription and volunteer service. It

School Budget To Be Adopted Tuesday Night

A tentative budget of the school system for the 1933-1934 year will be ready for adoption by the Board of Education next Tuesday night. Although no figures were announced, it was reported that as a result of a special budget session Monday night, a considerable saving will be made. Police Chief M. C. Runyon appealed to

The chief's recommendations are submitted yearly in compliance with Section II of a township ordinance and several sections of the regulations of the department, adopted May 25, 1925, which provides it shall be his duty to so do.

The board Monday night did not approve the recommendations, which include voluntary pay "cuts" ranging from twenty to ten per cent. Instead, it was referred back to the police committee for further consideration. Committeeman Gaskill is chairman of the committee and his fellow members are Committeemen Geiger and Selander.

The principal saving of salaries totals $2,068.72. Chief Runyon will take a twenty per cent reduction from $3,000 to $2,400. Sergeants Thompson and Searles have agreed to a sixteen per cent reduction from $2,500 to 2,100. First-class Patrolmen Day, Sorge and Selander will be reduced fourteen per cent from $2,300 to $1,978 and Patrolman Stiles, second-class, will take a twelve per cent drop from $2,080 to $1,830. Patrolmen Phillips and Joyner, third-class, will be reduced ten per cent from $1,800 to $1,620.

In addition to the above voluntary percentage reductions each officer is required to contribute an additional two per cent to the township pension fund, to which the township as a whole contributes four per cent. Patrolmen Stiles, Phillips and Joyner, by reason of length of service, are entitled to advance to higher promotions and receive yearly salary increases as provided by township ordinance but instead, get not only reductions but no increases.

The "special police" item recommended by the chief for 1933 will be $300 as compared to $1,249.23 in 1932 and this will eliminate police crossing service of 190 days per year at the Raymond Chisholm School. Only such miscellaneous service, impossible to provide as a result of limited personnel, will be accommodated such as the board at the meeting, as a representative of the local American Legion, Post, not to make cuts which would "impair the efficiency of the school system."

G. Arnold Wright, president, assured the chief and others present that the board would attempt no economies that will "harm the organization of the schools or cause any impairment of its efficiency."

Sees Tax Increase

is acute due to the burdens imposed by the sanitary sewer. You will recall that in 1929 bonds in the amount of $249,000 were issued at six per cent interest to finance this project. Of this amount $775,000 was provided for the cost of the local sewer and $174,000 was provided for the expense of construction of the joint trunk sewer in conjunction with other municipalities in the Rahway River Valley. The cost of the local sewer was assessed (and the assessment was confirmed on March 28, 1932) against the properties benefited and collections were made to apply against the maturing serial bonds in the amount of $60,000 in 1932, $60,000 in 1933, $65,000 in 1934 and in increasing amounts until 1939. In addition to these principal amounts the interest is payable semi-annually on June 1 and December 1. The local sewer was completed in 1930 and for reasons with which you are familiar permission of the State Board of Health to use the sewer was withheld until the early part of 1932. As the assessment could not be levied against the properties benefited until the sewer was usable assessment was necessarily delayed until the date above mentioned. Had it been possible for your Governing body to assess this proposition in 1930 and thus collect the assessments for two years prior to the date of the first maturity of $60,000 very probably no difficulties would have been experienced. The annual amount of assessments due the Township is $87,780. Due to inability of property owners to pay and due to the appeal taken by the owners of a considerable amount of property we were able to collect by June 1 approximately $48,000 against our maturities of $60,000. It is apparent that the ability to pay is decreasing however we anticipate enough receipts in 1933 to meet our principal obligation. The matter of meeting the interest however presents a different problem. The total amount assessed accrues interest at the rate of six per cent after the due date of the first installment and eight per cent on the unpaid balances of the first installment. Obviously if we receive only fifty per cent of the installment payments due during this year we will receive only fifty per cent of the interest which otherwise we might anticipate as revenue and it is this item that had a considerable bearing in the formation of our 1933 Budget since the difference between the interest charges and the interest which we receive must be provided through taxation. In addition to this difference we must provide in our Budget for interest on the joint trunk sewer obligations from September 1933 to the end of the year and at least 3 per cent of the portion of the sewer assessed against the Township at large by reason of undeveloped property not abutting the sewer in the amount approximating $86,000. These figures do not include the interest on the Townhall Bonds and the payment of principal obligations on those bonds nor does it include cost of temporary financing on tax revenue or anticipation notes.

"Second, the cost of running Governmental units must be kept within limits which can be realized by cash received in the form of taxes and anticipated revenues. We have experienced a material decrease in receipts of taxes assessed for 1932 and our tax lien items are considerably larger than the item at the closing of 1931 which indicates that we must expect to receive a small amount for Governmental purposes in 1933 than in 1932 and in view of the financial market generally we will be unable to meet deficiencies through borrowing on temporary notes. Expenditures therefore, cannot exceed cash received.

"You have no doubt observed that we have already taken steps to provide economies in our operating expenses. Every appropriation has been carefully gone over and in most cases has been boiled down as much as possible. We still have in contemplation further moves which will further cut our appropriations and thus provide as far as possible for an item to offset these increases brought about by our debt service and we hope to carry our savings to the furthest point without impairing governmental service. Latest indications are that unless further economies can be made our tax rate for Township purposes would probably increase 25 points. This we hope to avert. I have written at some length due to the necessity of conveying to all interested parties the important position which our debt service will occupy for the next several years and I think it will be obvious that other services must be subservient to this debt service. The cost of our other Governmental appropriations must therefore be held at an absolute minimum if we are to avoid a sharp increase in taxes which in my opinion would hinder rather than help us in our present situation."

The Library Appropriation

TRUSTEES of the Springfield Free Public Library Association are seeking an appropriation in the 1933 budget of $500 to carry on the valuable work which residents have enjoyed since its inception last Spring.

The Taxpayers Association has gone on record opposing a library appropriation. That is most natural in these times of "hysterical cutting." On the other side of the picture, six civic groups have recommended that the project be aided by municipal means.

Some persons doubt the benefits libraries accomplish in present conditions. They believe such "extravagant" luxuries should be temporarily removed to bring about a tax bill a few pennies per person cheaper in computing the cost of each individual necessity.

An excellent illustration of the service the Springfield library is performing and will continue to do, should it receive municipal aid, is its ability to serve not as a haven merely for the bookworm or the ambitious student, but for Mr. Taxpayer, himself!

This strange line of thought may appear fantastic but it is best explained by the presence on local library shelves of three volumes chock full of information on municipal planning and zoning. Its effects, reactions in other places, court decisions concerning rights of landowners and other data, all this is found in the books. Thus, this indispensable information is made understandable to Springfield residents. No excuse of ignorance of the law is open to a taxpayer to complain of zoning when it becomes effective, should he have failed to seize the chance to read up on so important a project for our township.

Absence of such information was sorely felt on the recent building of a sanitary sewer system. Must such headaches and inconveniences again present itself?

Perhaps Mr. Taxpayer has not thought of how important a library could have

What the SUN Advocates

Believing that the following improvements are vital necessities to nourish Springfield's betterment and substantial progress, the SUN advocates:

1. A high school.
2. Removal of dilapidated buildings which are "sorespots."
3. Sidewalks wherever needed.
4. Encouraging clean factories, to increase the taxables.
5. An active Board of Trade to stimulate "Buying in Springfield."
6. Postal-carrier delivery.
7. Reduced bus fare within town limits and to Millburn R. R. station.
8. Full time position for the township clerk's office.
9. Set of Building Zones, before township is developed.
10. A county park.

been in the B. S. days (Before the Sewer). For so reasonable a sum as $500 must we sacrifice the overhanging need of a library? Must the volunteer community service given the library within the last ten months be torn down? No, that should never be permitted. The Township Committee should reflect in the wishes of the intelligent taxpayer and grant the appropriation.

READERS' FORUM

MUD SLINGING IS RESENTED

To the Editor of the SUN: I have lived in Springfield for thirty-nine years and I love this little town. Never in all those years can I recall there ever being such back-biting and mud-slinging as there has been in the past few years and why?

For instance, all this talk about our township clerk. Petty and personal dislikes. That's all—not one of you can come out against the way his job is done. He may not have the most beautiful personality in the world but when it comes to his job for this town, it is 100 per cent and after all, he is as honest as the day is long, and if those two things do not count then what do you want in your township clerk?

Another man who has been tapped at is our tax collector. I have heard him called "an old foggy." Well, I just hope twenty years from now I will have the keen brain that man has. We should be proud to support a man who can, through years of experience, help this town as he has, no matter how many years he has to his credit.

Now we are making up the yearly budget. There is a lot of talk about cutting salaries of the town's unemployed. Well, if it must be it must be, but let's make it low-wide, taking in everyone, including the school principal and teachers, that is, not reducing the efficiency as teachers and no one department will feel it quite so badly.

A few years ago, our leading insurance company put out a calendar with a poem on it about boosting the town you live in. It was a dandy poem but it can't be done by slinging mud at the men who are doing the town's work, so forget your personal dislikes and boost until we pull out.

MATTER of OPINION

A Woman Looks at Springfield

Township Committeeman Trundle, chairman of the finance committee, could do no less than call for drastic reductions in the services under the direct control of the Township Committee, taking a lead which the pressure of financial conditions cannot fail to force the two local boards to follow in planning municipal expenditures in this township in 1933. On Mr. Trundle as finance chairman, falls most of the responsibility for "preserving the credit and good name of the township, even in the face of adverse economic conditions of staggering proportions." It is a good guess that he longs for the day when the governing unit which has to raise the money will have the right to say more about spending of it. He clearly analyzes the entire situation, the main points of which are the sewer debt, the delay in assessing the cost, the interest meanwhile piling up and the inability of the Township Committee to set aside any money toward meeting the maturity of the first bond issue, in the face of an increasing percentage of delinquency on the part of taxpayers. Of course Mr. Trundle knows, as does every intelligent official, that adding twenty-five points to the local tax rate will add little to the revenue, but will add to the number of tax delinquents. He doubtless mentions this alternative to stress the serious difficulties which impend unless there is immediate retrenchment on a large scale. In a few words Mr. Trundle tells the whole story, "Expenditures cannot exceed cash received."

Enlightened self interest is credited with much of the progress that is made by humanity. One wonders whether or not a little enlightened self interest would change the attitude of the property owners who have appealed the sewer assessment levied against them. Probably a number of these objectors are swayed by various reasons other than a real belief that the courts will decide in their favor, and yielding to what might be called mass sentiment, have joined the movement for appeal. A feeling of resentment, whether justified or otherwise, does not lead to a reasoned consideration of the matter in dispute, nor a counting of the cost of taking action in the courts. Even in the event of a successful appeal, the costs of the suit would probably wipe out the benefits received by a reduced assessment. And should the appeal for reduction be denied, the interest on the defaulted assessments would add greatly to the expense to be borne by the objectors. Meantime, the financial standing of the community is jeopardized by the burdens which are added by reason of the failure to receive revenues which were calculated to meet the incurred obligations. Sober thought should convince these objectors that while it is true that most of them will have to hold their vacant lands for some time before the real estate market recovers, on the other hand they have not suffered the depreciations in values which have been the misfortune of owners of improved property. Land in the south neighborhood will come back, but can the same be said of the values of homes and buildings in the center of the town? Let "enlightened self interest" be the guide; possibly a change of heart will follow.

The 1932 estimated telephone bill of $798.31 will be $600 this year, according to the report. This is made up of a monthly rental charge of $49.66 for the use of Millburn 6-2600 at headquarters, switchboard, extension call boxes and cost of local calls. The average monthly toll charge of calls to neighboring communities is about $12 or a total monthly charge of $52.06.

Traffic signals will be $608, itemized as follows: electricity, $20; bulbs, painting and repairs, $50; crosswalk paint, $20; beacon light, corner of Morris and Mountain avenues, $18, and installation of light at corner of Morris and Mountain avenues, $100. At present there is a signal light for traffic traveling north in Mountain avenue to Morris avenue and for traffic south in Morris avenue. Vehicles making a left turn toward Summit from Mountain avenue are endangered since there is no light visible to traffic moving west in Morris avenue. The $100 cost is considered extremely reasonable. The signal department will be $337.75 less this year.

An item of $1,400 for transportation is compared to $746 in 1932 at first appears a gross increase but the debt of $640 on a new police car, a needed addition for 1933, is included. Other costs distributed are $60 yearly on gas, oil, grease, tires and repairs on two cars and $250 for insurance.

The division of $115 for supplies and equipment is almost cut to the bone in that uniforms, raincoats or tear gas equipment are not listed. Ammunition will cost $20, printing and forms will run at $75 and office supplies for the year will be included in a $20 item.

The final department sundry items, comprises $50 for prisoners' meals and $20 for expenses, travel, stamps, fees for county judge endorsements, etc.

CHILD STUDY GROUP TO DISCUSS 'LEADERSHIP'

The Child Study Group will meet Tuesday at 8:15 in the evening in the kindergarten room of the James Caldwell School to discuss the topic, "The Evolution of Leadership." This was the subject at the last Leader Group meeting in Elizabeth under the direction of Miss Flora B. Thurston.

Mrs. Marion F. McDowell will give a talk on the school-age child over station WOR at 2 in the afternoon, next Tuesday. The subject will be "Understanding Your Child." On January 24, Mrs. McDowell will speak on "Traits that Take Training" at the same time and on the same station.

Club Meets Here

Mrs. Paul Prince of South Springfield avenue entertained members of the Heliotrope Circle at cards this afternoon. Members were present from Newark and Irvington.

Assistant Scoutmaster Lawrence Selander next among biographies of scout officers Troop 66. He joined Troop 1 here in 1925. Next year he was promoted to tribe. Then he became an associate scout for a year and a half. Upon his return was made patrol leader and was promoted to junior assistant scoutmaster, the position he held before his present one.

He is a Star Scout, having been awarded merit badges and is also eligible to the Veterans Scout Association, having served five years.

A new idea in meetings was introduced at Friday when junior officers conducted a meeting. Beaver Patrol held a meeting this week. Troop 66 will take part in the annual flag-raising game at Surprise Lake Washington's Birthday.

By winning three games against the Juniors, the Recreation team is tied for first place in the Municipal League with the Hose Company who continued their brilliant pinning to beat the Five Aces in two out of three.

The latter had a chance to shoot a high team score in the second but three misses in the last frame gave them 994.

Jim Rae of the Indians had a 257 in his last game, just four pins shy of high score of 260 held by Smith, Hose Company anchor man.

The A. & P. team is not the same "soft mark" as the team which rolled in the first half. Minus a regular, they succeeded in winning two from Battle Hill with a handicap in each game of being credited with a blind score of 125.

A meeting of league captains will be held at the alleys Monday night to discuss important business. This column understands mention will be heard about substitutions being added without permission from other teams, that of Recreation. It is reported the Juniors will protest at the meeting since a second substitute rolled without official "o.k."

Hillside Defeats Local Five, 37-35

Hillside Junior High School's basketball quintet journeyed to Springfield last Friday afternoon to nose out Coach Nies' five by a narrow margin of 37 to 35. It was the locals' first defeat of the year, the Caldwell Junior High quintet having defeated the Westfield graduates in the opener.

While the winners had their scoring distributed among the players, Art Kasperen led the locals with twenty-two points. The contest was fast throughout.

In a second game, the Hillside second stringers defeated the locals, 7-6.
