Town Budget Adopted As Taxpayers Make Protests

Rain Will Dampen Everything, even to the extent of the number of taxpayers at a public hearing on the budget as the expected large gathering failed to materialize Tuesday night at the Township Committee session on its budget for 1933. Although ten citizens, largely directors in the Taxpayers' Association were present, at least twice or three times that number would have been on hand with clear weather. However the few in the audience made themselves heard in a well-prepared protest. It seems the committeemen themselves didn't do so bad themselves in being prepared for the taxpayers' remarks. Their defense of the main items in question, the library appropriation and the zoning expense, appeared to answer the objections logically. It is understood several town officials were embarrassed in advocating zoning by comment of the library appropriation. Undersheriff Lee S. Rigby of Springfield will no doubt swing support of Springfield votes on the Republican County Committee to his superior, Sheriff C. Wesley Collins, a candidate for the chairmanship now that County Register Edward Bauer, present chairman, seeks to relinquish the post. A local Democratic leader declares he will get the support of the Union County organization and several other county groups for the "plum" of Collector of Internal Revenue of this district or another choice post in the department. We wish him luck. Springfielders are getting somewhere these days. Shortly before the expiration of the term of President-elect Roosevelt, the appointment of a Democratic postmaster in Springfield will be open. The incumbent, Mrs. Belle H. Smith, was among the last of the Federal appointments approved by President Hoover. It's a long time off, however, and we will have to discard the subject for at least three years. Wonder whether there will be a contest at the Board of Education election next Tuesday? We go to press too early to learn whether petitions were filed last night in opposition to the three candidates for reelection.

Park Commission Plans to Repair Flood Condition

Letter From Engineer Tracy Explains Body Will Put Unemployed at Work

The Union County Park Commission, heretofore unwilling to assist in placing unemployed of the county at work in cleaning out the east branch of the Rahway River, has assured residents of the area which suffers occasional flooding by rains, that it will co-operate in relief.
A letter confirming this sent this week by the engineer of the commission, W. R. Tracy, to Mrs. Elwood Carmichael of Battle Hill avenue, reads as follows:
"This will acknowledge receipt of your recent communication relative to flood control conditions along the Rahway River in Springfield in the vicinity of Morris avenue and Battle Hill avenue which I have read with great interest. I regret exceedingly that this Commission is not in a position to continue the development of this section of the Park System along the river so that these inconveniences and unsanitary conditions at times of high water could be eliminated.
"To carry out these plans would require first the acquirement of portions of the Treiber property near Morris Avenue and the Broeker property along Milltown Road on which latter property is located the remains of the dam which probably is the cause of much of this flooding. We are concerned about this situation and since the last high water have been in conference with engineers of the State as regards the removal of the dam, but they find that they are without authority to have the dam removed.
"As a result of recent conferences with your Township engineer and Mr. Macartney, your Unemployment Relief Director, we have worked out a plan which, if it could be carried out, should give some relief. This plan provides for utilizing the services of the unemployed in digging a new and wider channel for the stream which should greatly facilitate getting the water away faster and thereby substantially reduce the amount of flooding at times of high water.
"The Commission is without funds for this purpose but if these men can be obtained, we propose to furnish the engineering, supervision and necessary tools so that fifty or more men can be put to work on this project. Mr. Macartney is endeavoring to make arrangements for obtaining the

Block-Aid Plans Made at Initial Confab in Drive

Rev. William I. Reed Chosen Chairman of Committee by Mayor Cannon

The Springfield Citizens' Committee, organization for raising emergency relief funds discussed plans at a meeting in the Municipal Building Wednesday night for a "block aid" campaign which will get under way here in the near future.
The Rev. William I. Reed, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, presided. He was recently appointed chairman by Charles S. Cannon, chairman of the Township Committee.
Several suggestions and proposals were heard and discussed. The committee will organize a group to canvass effectively all parts of the township. Subcommittees will be named later.
The executive committee will meet next Friday to further plans. Dr. Stewart O. Burns is vice-chairman under Mr. Reed. Other executive members are Mrs. Nicholas C. Schmidt, Mrs. Charles G. Nelson, John E. Gunn, Lee S. Rigby, A. B. Anderson, secretary, and Louis J. Wiman, treasurer.
Township Committeeman Alfred G. Trundle and Mr. Cannon are honorary members ex-officio. Overseer of the Poor Lewis F. Macartney, relief director, is also an honorary member.
men for this purpose and we are ready to start this work just as soon as these men are provided.
"In view of the fact that the above mentioned plan is all that we are in a position to do at the present time and as we have discussed this plan with Messrs. Macartney and Lennox, it does not seem necessary to further discuss it at the forthcoming hearing of the Township Committee.
"Please be assured of our interest in this matter and of our desire to be of assistance to the fullest extent that circumstances will permit."
Mr. Macartney when questioned declared as soon as possible men will start work at the river in the vicinity referred to in the letter.

No Contest in School Election

G. Arnold Wright, Walter White and T. C. Davidson, Jr., will be candidates for reelection to the Board of Education for three-year terms at the annual district election next Tuesday. The polls will be open from 7 to 9 o'clock in the evening and as later as needed to enable all voters to cast their ballots.
No last-minute petitions were filed last night, the deadline for submitting petitions, William Hoppaugh, district clerk, announced this morning.
Wright, president for two years, has been a member of the board for six years. White, finance committee chairman, has also served six years and Davidson, building and grounds chairman, is seeking his second term.
The voters will also be called upon to approve the 1933-34 budget which lists $62,400 for current expenses and $720 for repairs and replacements.
please notify the branch chairman, Mrs. A. P. Brill, whose telephone number is Millburn 6-0450-W. Even if the machine can be repaired, should it be old, the Red Cross will be grateful and feels any response will be of valuable assistance in this worthy volunteer work.

Despite objections by representatives of the Taxpayers Association who protested against new appropriations for a library and zoning, the Township Committee adopted its 1933 budget Tuesday night. Committeeman George B. Gaskill, sole Democrat, moved "no," declaring he was in sympathy with the taxpayers' group.
The current budget authorizes appropriations totalling $136,218.38 or a net increase of $28,072. The amount to be raised by taxation, $82,533.38, is $12,127.60 over that of last year.

Wilbur D. Schuster, secretary of the Taxpayers' Association and Thomas J. Hankins, president, spoke at length and urged that the library and zoning items be eliminated at this time.
Other speakers were John M. Sweeney, a director in the association, William White and Emanuel O. Holms.
Mr. Schuster first asked for information on a breakdown of administrative and executive items, Board of Health and assessment and collection of taxes.
He pointed out that salary reductions already effected were not as the taxpayers had anticipated. He said he did not personally oppose the library or zoning and zoning but stressed the appropriations were not needed and that the projects could function without the appropriations at this time.

Charles W. Weeks, township counsel, explained maps to describe properties were necessary in zoning and that the suggestion of Schuster, to restrict partly by ordinance, would be just as expensive since it would be necessary in advertising to describe different zones and the length of description will be the same.
Schuster said it is inconsistent to make cuts in salaries of wage-earners and apply the savings to new undertakings such as the library and zoning board.
Committeeman Wilbur M. Selander took exception to the library as a new appropriation and explained that the Board of Education had left out a $250 item for a school library this year to make way for a municipal appropriation.
Charles S. Cannon, committee chairman, told Schuster the funds for the library and zoning will not be expended until after June 1, when the first payment of 1933 taxes is due. "If the money is not there, it will not be spent," he said. Salaries and current expenses will be handled first, he added.

He said the board had cut to the limit in its appropriations and that it was by reason of letters from local civic organizations that the library appropriation was inserted at this time.
Regarding zoning, Cannon said the $800 to be spent in zoning is doing the work of $3,500 in value compared to ordinary things. The rank and file were not opposed to the original ordinance authorizing a board at its hearing, he said.
"We are trying to avoid the condition of roadstands, gasoline stations and undesirable buildings in Springfield," he added, "and this is the proper time."
Mr. Hankins said that in view of suspension of mandatory laws of the state, the tax collector's salary should be reduced from $2,000 to $1,500. The Taxpayers' Association is in favor of such a move, he said.
The committee went into a fifteen-minute recess, excused the audience and proceeded to vote upon the budget. Committeeman Alfred G. Trundle, finance chairman, moved its adoption on final reading and with the exception of Committeeman Gaskill, it passed.

Wednesday, 2:30 to 5 P. M.
Friday, 7:30 to 9:30 P. M.

We make every effort possible to have on our pay shelf some of the new books, particularly if requested. "Ann Vickers" by Sinclair Lewis is one of our recent additions. This book is not just another novel. It more nearly becomes a composite biography of the successful feminist who in the last thirty years has lived a century in the history of women.

Lloyd C. Douglas has given us a new novel "Forgive Us Our Trespasses." When youth is born to hatred because of injury to his own mother by the world, there comes an attitude of mind which feeds upon imagination and thereby becomes bitter. Time brings regeneration but the book is untainted by sentimentality. Its characters live the modern life and live it to the end. "Forgive Us Our Trespasses" has already been declared the marker of a definite movement of the pendulum away from the ultra-sophisticated novels of recent years.

Through the efforts of our friends we have been given more than 500 volumes of modern literature. Of these, there is a large number of mystery stories, fiction and very desirable works of non-fiction classifications. These are all for the free shelves. They will be made available as soon as possible.—F.P.L.

The School Election

NO CONTEST will be held at the annual school election which will be held Tuesday in contrast to recent years when unusual interest was shown.

G. Arnold Wright, president, Walter White and T. C. Davidson, Jr. the candidates for reelection, merit serving on the board for another three years. They played an important part, along with the other six board members, to effect considerable savings in this year's appropriations, which will result in an approximate drop in the local tax rate of twenty points.

It is with satisfaction to these men and those interested in the school system that there will be no opposition in the field. On the other hand, it is important that the 1933-34 budget be overwhelmingly approved. It is not at all uncertain that forces might tend to defeat the budget should the usual number of voters interested in no-contest elections turn out as is expected.

The duty of every resident, parent or otherwise, is to come out to the polls, vote for the three candidates seeking reelection and indicate their satisfaction of the excellent work performed in drafting the school budget by expression of a favorable positive vote.

MATTER of OPINION

For the sake of keeping the record straight, it should be stated that some day the unpaid liens for sewer assessments, which are now swelling the general taxes in Springfield, because part of the sewer bonds must be paid out of the general tax levy, contrary to the expressed intention will, in more favorable times, be paid up in full. When that time comes, whether the day be near or far, those moneys when received, should be used for the reduction of taxes, just as the non-payment of these assessments is now adding to the general levy. Let us forget.

Certain municipalities in Essex County have failed to pay their share of the cost of operation of the trunk sewer system and discussion in the press has centered around the problem of raising revenue in these towns to meet the charges, one suggestion being the levying of a service charge for discharging sewage into the sewer with reference to the volume of sewage. A very common sense letter was printed in the Newark Evening News last night. To quote from it, "The larger the amount of sewage leaving a dwelling, the more important it is to the neighbors and the rest of the community that it be disposed of quickly and at any cost, because of the vital importance to the community of its standard of health. The owner of unimproved property is just as much interested in that question as the resident home-owner. If sewerage facilities are available, unimproved property should bear its proportion of the maintenance and amortization costs. If such a proposition levying a service charge is acceptable to the tax authorities, it opens the way to objection, on behalf of unimproved property owners, to paying any portion of the cost of lighting streets, police protection and fire protection."

No matter how hard you have been hit—unless, of course, you have completely lost your sense of humor—you will get a laugh out of Will Rogers' latest wise-crack. He tells of the report that a number of senators are buying a new shirt for the inaugural ceremonies on March 4th, and adds—"The people can't come, because they haven't got a shirt."

There is a bright side to the darkest problem. Never have the poor and under privileged been so healthy. Reports indicate that their resistance to disease is increasing, and that the toll of death has been reducing steadily during these hard times. This is due to the intelligent supervision over the food which they are receiving as emergency relief. Food articles permitted to be purchased on the orders comprise all the elements necessary for a well-rounded ration, including fruits and vegetables, while expensive specialties of no particular food value are excluded from the orders—which are severely scrutinized by the relief administrator. In Springfield, the Sunshine Society has supplied a quantity of cod-liver oil to the Red Cross Nursing Service, and this has been distributed where most needed. What with the splendid team-work between the township health director, the relief administrator, and his assistant, the two nurses and the volunteers who have helped in the new and used clothing distribution and the giving out of flour, there is no want of privation here nor any uncared-for sick among our unemployed.

A & P INCREASES BAKERY PRODUCTION

Effective immediately, production in the Eastern Division units of the company's national networks of baking plants will be stepped up 15-25%. It was announced recently by The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company. Three baking plants located in the Bronx, Brooklyn and Newark will be affected by the order, it was said.

It was said at the company's offices that the increased production would be coordinated with an effort to stimulate consumption to the point where the larger output would be absorbed. The permanency of the arrangement is dependent upon the degree to which retail activity can keep pace with the new production scale, it was said.

DEPENDENCY LIST INCREASES 75%

The number of New Jersey unemployed and their dependents receiving aid from the State and municipalities rose more than 56,000 during December. It has been reported at the headquarters of the New Jersey Emergency Relief Administration.

The increase in the relief roster from 317,810 in November to approximately 375,000 at the end of December represents a rise of more than 17 per cent in the relief load, which it is anticipated will reach its peak for the year in March. The figures are based on reports from approximately 75 per cent of the municipalities in the State.

In Union County the dependency list increased 1,988, from 27,045 to 29,033.

A & P REDUCES PRICE OF COFFEE

A general reduction of two cents a pound on its three brands of quality coffee establishing a new regular price range, was announced today by the Eastern Division of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company. The three blends were reduced as follows: 27 cent coffee to 25 cents per pound; 23 cent blend to 21 cents and 21 cent blend to 19 cents. The coffees affected by the reduction have a larger sale than any one brand in America and the organization through its national network of roasting plants distributes approximately 15 per cent of all the coffee sold in the nation.

General readjustments in its coffee operations were responsible for the price cuts, it was said.

Sweep From Indians Gives Five Aces Bowling Lead

Winners of First Half Lose Three In Big Surprise

The Five Aces, heavy favorites to cop the second half championship in the Municipal Bowling League removed an obstacle in their path by sweeping three games Tuesday night from the Diner Indians, first-half champs. The latter will take part in the play-off at the close of the season with the second half winners and the clean win of three games caused somewhat of a surprise, the Indians being expected to win at least one of the games.

Other unexpected results found Recreation, formerly tied for first with the Aces, losing one game to Battle Hill by virtue of a brilliant 242 game for Elmer Smith. Another shock was brought about by the Junior Order who dumped the A. & P. Gypsies twice after losing the initial game by almost 200 pins.

The Hose Company pulled back into the race and won two from the Hook and Ladder.

The Five Aces are climbing in averages and will no doubt be far ahead with a standing of over 900 in team score average when the season ends. Their sensational pinning the second half has been way up in the 900's.

Lack of practice is causing the league bowlers no little trouble this season, judging by comparisons here and there.

Next week's matches conclude the third quarter and then the schedule takes in the final quarter.

Through the efforts of Scribe Adolph Shubert the troop was entertained last Friday by a few reels of motion pictures which included "shots" taken at Newark Airport by Howard Day, brother of Commissioner Day. There were also films of Camp Swastika, several cartoons and a group of old Westerns. In one of the latter there was a scene in which a heroic pioneer rescuing a fair damsel, strongly resembled our dashing Scoutmaster! The troop enjoyed the program.

COURT OF HONOR tonight at 7:30 in the James Caldwell School.

Patrol Leader Edgar Buell of the Flying Eagles joined the troop in January, 1931 and became a first class Scout in May of last year. He was promoted to patrol leader in November and is a Star Scout, with five merit badges. He is an all-around scout and camper and his flaming top knot is seen at all Scout gatherings, especially when his own troop meets.—THE NEWS SCOUT.

"Frisco Jenny" on Millburn Screen

FRISCO—Ruth Chatterton comes to the Millburn Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday in "Frisco Jenny" in which she has a typical "Diamond Lil" role.

The polished and dignified actress turns entirely away from her recent society roles in her latest vehicle and reverts to such character parts as she portrayed in her early successes, such as "Madam X" and "Sarah and Son."

In "Frisco Jenny" she appears as the Queen of the Demi-monde, who rules her kingdom with an iron hand, an unscrupulous and hard woman, yet with an underlying tenderness and so unsurpassable a love for her only son, that she goes to the gallows with sealed lips rather than acquiesce with the mother's shame.

The story is a stirring and glamorous tale of the old Barbary Coast of San Francisco and covers the period of the great earthquake and the years following, including the quake itself, the fire scene following and a dramatic court scene.

Donald Cook, James Murray, Louis Calhern, Noel Francis and a large cast of stars are seen in supporting roles.

AT THE STRAND

Walter Huston in "American Madness" with Kay Johnson in the leading feminine role and "The Monkey's Paw" with Ivan Simpson and Louise Carter comprises a double-feature bill at the Strand Theatre in Summit tomorrow, one day only.

"No More Orchids" starring Carole Lombard, her second picture, in which Walter Connolly has the leading supporting role, will be presented Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. "Tom Mix in 'Flaming Guns'" is the associate feature. A Laurel and Hardy comedy, "The First Mistake" rounds out the program.

"Strange Interlude" from the widely-publicized Eugene O'Neill play, with Norma Shearer and Clark Gable in the lead, comes to the Strand Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week. Miss Shearer, through the screen aid of recording which makes it possible for thoughts to be spoken, hums gaily in one scene while at the same time speaking her thoughts. In the picture, as well as on the stage, all of the characters' thoughts as well as spoken words are audible.

LIONS HEAR PLANS OF BLOCK-AID DRIVE

The Rev. William I. Reed, president of the club, and Committeeman Alfred G. Trundle, finance chairman, also a member, added remarks on the proposed drive.

Seeks $25,000 For Bus Crash

Service was made upon State Motor Vehicle Commissioner Hoffman, for injuries O'Hara alleges he received on December 9, 1932, when he was a passenger in a bus of the Somerset Company on Route 20 in Springfield, and the bus was in a collision with a machine owned by the Vandermays.

Judge John W. Lyness of Plainfield, represents the plaintiff. The case will be listed at the May term of the court.

To Display New Ford Tomorrow

The first of the new Ford V-8 cylinder, 112-inch wheelbase motor cars will be displayed in Summit tomorrow, Saturday, February 11, in the show-rooms of the Summit Auto Sales, 324 Borad Street.

The new V-8 is the largest and most powerful Ford ever built. It has new and distinctively modern lines, a most attractive front end, longer wheelbase, larger and roomier bodies, faster acceleration, increased power, and speed and is exceptionally economical in operation. With its 75-horse-power, V-8 engine, the New Ford is capable of a sustained speed of 80 miles an hour.

The styling of the fourteen body types expresses the new mode in motor car building. The modern note is found in the sloping V radiator grill, the skirted fenders, newly designed headlamps, cowl lamps and bumpers, the curved roof header, the reverse curve of the rear quarter and the backward sweep of the apron masking the gasoline tank.

The improved V-8 engine is fitted with all-aluminum cylinder heads, one of the most noteworthy forward steps in motor design in many years. Because aluminum dissipates heat more rapidly, the use of the aluminum cylinder heads permits higher compression pressure and results in increased speed, power and smoothness, faster acceleration and added fuel economy.

Smooth engine performance results also from the basic 8-cylinder design and the 3-point rubber mounting. Cylinder blocks are set at a 90-degree angle. The engine is fitted with down-draft carburetor, air-intake silencer and a diaphragm-type fuel pump.

Features of the 112-inch wheel base chassis includes an extremely rigid double-channel, double drop X-type frame, torque tube drive, a straddle-mounted rear axle pinion, transverse

Firemen Save Boy in River

Two fire alarms and an emergency call to rescue a ten-year old boy who had fallen in the Rahway River kept the fire department busy this week.

The boy, Chester Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Smith of 19 Maple Avenue, received nothing more than a dripping and suffered no injury.

Playing with two companions, William Gilligan, eight, and his brother, Frank, six, of 27 Colonial Terrace, the Smith boy slipped from the bank of the river at the foot of South Maple Avenue Wednesday at 5 o'clock where the river is about thirty feet wide.

He managed to reach the middle where a pile of rocks afforded safety but the current was strong and the Gilligan boys saw no way to rescue their friend. It commenced to rain and they called a neighbor.

Police were notified and Chief Runyon and Patrolman Phillips, together with members of the Fire Department, came to the rescue. Fire Chief Charles Pinkava waded into the river and lifted the boy out. He was wrapped in blankets and sent home.

Firemen were called Monday to a shed adjacent to a barn owned by Claudius Baker of Mountain Avenue and Shunpike road where damage was estimated at $500. The blaze was thought to have started from a boiler at the end of the shed which is used as a creamery.

Another call to a chimney fire Wednesday afternoon to a residence in Morris Avenue near the Summit line, resulted in slight damage.

cantilever springs, internal expanding mechanical four wheel brakes, 17-inch welded steel spoke wheels and tires of 5.50-inch section.

The frame is cushioned by four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers which are both automatically and thermostatically adjusted for every variation in weather or road surface conditions. The shock absorber links are insulated in rubber. The rear fuel tank has a capacity of fourteen gallons.

The transmission is of the synchronized type, with helical constant mesh gears, and functions unusually quietly both in second speed and during speed changing. The clutch is of the double-disc type and is spring-cushioned for soft engagement.

Dahlia Cultivation

Our present-day dahlias have little resemblance to the original wild forms first found in the higher altitudes of Mexico. Horticulturists have changed the original small single flowers into large blooms of extraordinary beauty through cross-hybridization and cultural methods.
