Rambling Around Town

SOLILOQUIZING: BANKS MAY BE closed for a week and we're still going... the hoarders will continue to hoard and the Springfielders who never even had money before the "banking holiday" are the only people without cares, don't we know? It comes to our ears that Springfield Republicans are not at this writing all unanimously in favor of supporting Peter H. Meisel for the small Board of Freeholders... the name mentioned but not disclosed last week of a second local candidate for the county position will have to wait a week, we're sorry to hold it up... the Rambling Reporter cares not to tread on the ground of favorable comment on candidates for the Township Committee but the selection of Ebert B. Johnson by local Republicans for primary nomination is a wise choice... a business man throughout, he impresses those who know him as being of the type of executive the Springfield Governing Body will need in the next three years... on the horizon we learn that the newspaper territory is to be increased seriously in the very near future by a new publication from out of the county which will make a drive here for subscriptions, ads, etc... until later, readers, we cannot disclose further information... enthusiasm on the part of a certain director in the Taxpayers Association in its early stages seems to have petered out judging by his absence from association activity... if this particular gentleman has aspirations to public office, he must at least show some interest in the doings of a group for the taxpayers' rights... a telephone call to Emergency Relief quarters not so long ago asked if the clerk in charge was available... informed that Mrs. Helen Smith, the clerk, was out, the indignant caller waxed forth, mumbling words to the effect that relief applicants certainly receive poor service... at least a dozen similar examples of haughty impudence arise to mind but one is enough at this time... sometime this month the case of the protesting property owners in the "south" neighborhood appealing sanitary sewer assessments will be thrashed out and Township officials see a victory on their side.

LIBRARY TO OPEN FOR SCHOOL HELP

Trustees of the Springfield Free Public Library at a recent meeting decided to keep the library open Wednesday from 12 to 1 o'clock, to accommodate school children, particularly those who live at a distance from the center of town and are unable to borrow books during present hours. The trustees have ordered the opening in view of the fact that the local school system is relying on the Free Public Library to obtain the use of certain books required for school purposes.

Republicans Pick Huff and Johnson For Primary Race

Candidates Indorsed For Tax Collector and Township Committee Position

The Springfield Republican Club met in the Legion quarters last Friday night and accepted the recommendations of the executive council to indorse Ebert B. Johnson for Township Committee and Charles H. Huff for Tax Collector at the forthcoming primary election. William Hoppage, present Tax Collector, will not seek reelection. Undersheriff Lee S. Rigby, president, conducted the meeting. A. B. Anderson, chairman of the special law committee, reported his committee had made a careful study of the constitution and by-laws and felt no change should be made at this time. The report was accepted.

The club will take action at next month's meeting on indorsement of Peter H. Meisel for the small Board of Freeholders. A County committee slate with a few changes will be submitted at that time.

The club indorsed the Block-Aid relief campaign and a special entertainment committee was named with Thomas F. Cushing as chairman, assisted by Mrs. G. M. Dutweiler, J. M. Duguid, W. M. Selander, and John J. Kulp. A benefit will be given April 16.

SKETCH OF JOHNSON

Ebert B. Johnson, indorsed by the club for the Governing Body, resides at 99 Short Hills avenue. A resident of Springfield twelve years, he has never held a public office here. He was president of the Springfield Improvement Association about seven years ago, being the last president. Following this, he served on a commission to levy assessments on streets, sidewalks and other construction at that time.

In 1930, he was chosen to the Sewer Assessment Commission, and at present is chairman of the Planning and Zoning Board, having been named to that position last year.

Mr. Johnson is traffic manager for the I. T. Williams Lumber Company with offices in New York City. It is the largest concern in the world handling hard wood material and has offices throughout the world. He has been with the company since the World War and prior to that period was in the employ of the Southern Pacific Lines, serving in the capacity of N. Y. traffic manager before entering the Williams firm.

Former vice-president and then president of the Industrial Traffic League of the metropolitan district which deals with traffic of merchandise by water, rail and motor vehicles, he is now a member of the Newark Traffic Club and is chairman of the speakers and special papers committee for this year. Due to the location of the I. T. Williams Co. dock at Carteret, Mr. Johnson is affiliated with the Newark Club.

His friends point to his valuable business experience and time served in township assessment work as reason for service on the Governing Body. They insist he was not willing to seek the office, having refused the offer last Spring but finally agreed in face of pressure brought upon him in view of prevailing conditions.

Charles H. Huff, who will seek the position of Tax Collector, needs no introduction to Springfield residents, having served in an official capacity here for many years. Present member of the large Board of Freeholders which terminates the end of the year, he will not run for the small board.

He has resided in Springfield twenty-five years. In 1918 he was elected to the Township Committee and served two terms. During the first term he was a member of the building committee which erected the present Municipal Building. He was a

Block-Aid Drive to Open Tonight Following Supper

John Mace, National Director of Near East Relief, to Address Workers

A tentative goal of $6,000 having been set for the Block-Aid Campaign for Emergency Relief, workers for the campaign will assemble tonight for supper at 6 o'clock in the chapel of the Presbyterian Church to get last minute instructions prior to the canvass which will get under way tonight.

John W. Mace of New York City, national field director for Near East relief will speak at the meeting. He formerly was associated with the Rev. William I. Reed, president of the local Block-Aid Committee, in Near East relief work in Maine where Mr. Reed was state director.

The $6,000 goal was chosen at a meeting Monday night in the Municipal Building where Howard G. Turner, representing the New Jersey Block-Aid Committee, outlined aims of the campaign and explained the system provided for each citizen to carry his share of the relief load.

Charles S. Cannon, chairman of the Township Committee, opened the meeting and Mr. Reed presided. About 200 workers and friends attended.

Mr. Turner pointed out that sixty-two campaigns of this type had proven successful in state-wide Block-Aid drives. The state's part in the campaign, he said, was merely to serve in an advisory capacity. The card system of stamps is used, the state director explained, because it is the most simple system devised and is the most economical in operation. Municipalities must do all they are able to, in order that the state pay part of the relief burden, he added.

MATTER OF OPINION The Bank Holiday

Springfield people accepted the situation of the banking moratorium with the same calmness that prevailed everywhere. There was no stampede to draw currency, nor even a feeling of disquiet. In the homes, the family was gathered around the radio, listening to the broadcast of the inauguration. To one family, a caller at about 10:30 A. M. brought the news of the bank closing, but everyone was too absorbed in listening to the description by Ted Husing, et al. of the "drama" being enacted at Washington. It was rather sobering, however, to read in the Saturday-afternoon papers that the banking moratorium was practically nationwide. It was drama, indeed, to usher in a new national administration while the news was flashed far and wide to close banks in all but a few states in the Union.

The unrest of our people during these trying three years of hard times has been caused by the feeling that we had not reached the crisis—had not really struck bottom—and that the real evils which had contributed so greatly to the debacle, were not being corrected. The deflation was not universal; real estate had suffered a terrific drop, but interest rates remained the same and reduction of taxes was infinitesimal; there was a general loss of confidence in the banking system, caused not only by the great numbers of bank failures, but by the evidence that there had been much speculation by bankers "with the money of other people." We are told that the one thing

Banking Holiday Extended; Local Institution Awaits Further News from Capitol

Part of Town Payrolls May Be Paid Here

Action on Checks Due March 15 will Depend Upon Conference Monday

Whether or not Springfield township employes receive their regular payroll checks due March 15 will rest upon government action which develops between now and that time, township officials stated today. A conference with local banking authorities will be held Monday to determine further action in conjunction with new developments. The Township Committee will then get a report for consideration at its meeting Monday night.

It seems probable that part of the amounts due will be paid out provided the move does not conflict with restrictions imposed by Secretary of Treasury Woodin. At least half will be distributed in payroll checks in any event, it has been assured.

In the event the restrictions are lifted by Monday and normal banking is permitted to continue, it does not seem likely that any tie up will be effected in the distribution of any checks whatsoever.

Proclamation Sets No Date For Reopening

The rigid regulations in effect since the declaration of the four-day bank holiday are extended by the proclamation last night of President Roosevelt to keep the banking moratorium in effect until further notice. This may be as late as Monday.

The President had said a large number of banks would open today but this statement was held out as a reason for haste, resulting in such quick action that Congress put into effect yesterday.

Many Springfield residents have been perplexed by statements that have been contradictory throughout the week but the normal routine goes on with a degree of cheerfulness and the absence of signs of hysteria.

The First National Bank of Springfield along with the Millburn bank were the only institutions open all of last Saturday morning in this vicinity after declarations of the bank holiday were first made by Governor Moore. Since that time, the local bank has been open to allow access to safe deposit boxes, make change and handle other services as outlined by Secretary of the Treasury William H. Woodin.

The declaring of the holiday came as suddenly to residents as those of other sections. Small groups gathered around town Saturday to discuss the matter quietly but there was no signs of commotion.

Local bankers are somewhat optimistic that the situation will be adjusted to meet the needs of the community. They are of the opinion that benefits will be realized by changes in banking reform laws and that a different system of credit will be placed into effect when restrictions are finally renewed.

we should be afraid of is fear itself, and that is true. But if the fear of the people, by creating runs on the banks, has brought about the present sentiment which is so complete and united a support of President Roosevelt, that Congress can do no less than give him what might be called extraordinary co-operation, then we can say that even out of fear can come good.

Meanwhile, there is a feeling that the worst has now happened; "big bankers" are already hastening to clean house, before they are ordered to do so. It has been said that instead of locking up the banks, some of the New York bankers should be locked up. That will probably not come to pass; but we may be sure that the banking reforms which the Federal government will carry out will prevent the corrupt practices through which thousands of depositors have lost their money.

Let's not worry about "going off the gold standard," "controlled inflation," "soft money," or any of the other bugaboos. It is true that new money is being printed. That is because the supply of currency, although it should be more than adequate, is not in circulation. People have not been spending money, and have hoarded it, and banks have not been lending money—also hoarding it. This may all be changed before the "new" money is put in use; therefore it may not be needed at all. Let us hope so.

"OUR LIBRARY"

OPEN Monday, 7:30 to 9:30 P. M.
Wednesday, 2:30 to 5 P. M.
Friday, 7:30 to 9:30 P. M.

There will be three new books added to our pay shelf within a day or so, if not already there by the time this article is published.

Our Zane Grey enthusiasts will be eager to read "The Drift Fence." Boundary markers of any kind have been the cause of many nasty situations in the Southwest because the free-living and hard-riding natives resent the inevitable encroachment of so called civilization. Out of a situation of this kind Zane Grey has produced a story which is the height of chivalrous romance.

"The Bright Land" by Janet Fairbank is outstanding among contemporary novels as a panorama of the American scene during the Civil War and the years of reconstruction. The chief character of this book was born Down East in the days when Andrew Jackson was President. In her girlhood she went West to the Mississippi Valley where she realized the fullness of life and played the woman's part in those stirring times.

We said last week that truth was stranger than fiction and proof is promptly at hand. "Mutiny on the Bounty" by Charles Nordhoff and James Norman Hall is a great tale of the seas taken from admiralty records and maps as well as journals of Lieutenant Bligh's and confessions of the mutineers. Instead of being mere fiction, this book should be classed as biography, travel or what-have-you, but nevertheless you will lose sleep if you start it in the evening, for it is not the kind of book one places aside until finished.—F. P. L.

Cabinet Wives Differ in Choice of Pursuits

Golf, Boxing, Farming and Snake-Raising Among Hobbies of New Administration Ladies. All Are Equipped to Fulfill Social Obligations.

The wives of members of President Franklin D. Roosevelt's Cabinet certainly cover enough territory as far as their personal tastes are concerned. Mrs. Cordell Hull, wife of the Secretary of State, likes to study international affairs, a hobby which will stand her in good stead in her capacity as hostess to a large circle of foreign diplomats. Mrs. William Woodin, wife of the Secretary of the Treasury, is a member of the D. A. R. Needless to say her passion is for anything colonial. Another member of the D. A. R. is Mrs. George H. Dern, whose husband holds the portfolio of Secretary of War. Mrs. Dern's one hope is that "we don't have any wars for the next four years." Mrs. Claude A. Swanson, wife of the Secretary of the Navy, likes to do her own marketing. Whether or not she will continue the practice, now that she is one of the nation's busiest hostesses, is another matter. The most unique of the Cabinet Ladies is Mrs. Harold Ickes, wife of the Secretary of the Interior, who is a Republican Representative in the Illinois State Legislature and raises snakes for a hobby. The wife of the Secretary of Agriculture, Mrs. Henry A. Wallace, is, like her husband, a keen student of farm problems. She is also an ardent golf enthusiast. Mrs. James A. Farley, wife of the Postmaster General, is a boxing and wrestling fan, having acquired that taste when her husband, boxing Commissioner of New York State, Mrs. Daniel Roper, wife of the Secretary of Commerce, is one body, who is never happier than when putting around her own kitchen. In addition to the Cabinet, there is Miss Frances Perkins, Secretary of Labor, only woman cabinet member, who, one presumes, will act as her own hostess.

REPOSSESSED CARS AT CROCKETT SALES

The Crockett Auto Sales at 1550 Springfield avenue, Maplewood, is acquiring a reputation among the car-buying public in this vicinity for its bargains in repossessed cars. Most of the models in stock are brand new, but sell at much lower than factory prices.

Robert Crockett, proprietor, announced yesterday that he is expecting a new shipment of low-priced models shortly, which may be purchased through the finance plan. He also has a large stock of second-hand cars available which have been thoroughly gone over by his mechanics and are guaranteed to be in first-class condition.

Block-Aid For Relief Needs Your Support

ACTUAL work of the Block-Aid Campaign for emergency relief in Springfield of which so much has been mentioned, starts to-night after a supper for district workers.

Under its able president, Rev. William I. Reed, the Block-Aid organization appears capable of performing its job. The rest depends on the graciousness of our citizens.

The Fire Truck Donation

THE township can well take pride in the action of the volunteer fire department for its donation of a new fire truck which will be added shortly to the present modern fire apparatus.

It might be well to remind the populace that the firemen, having the smallest of the local municipal budgets, were able to boast of a surplus this year which will result in a lower 1933 tax rate.

The Board of Fire Commissioners, through the co-operation of the efficient Chief Charles Pinkava, have welded an organization in which Springfielders can easily visualize an almost perfect Fire Department.

Make Bottles Sparkle

A good pinch of salt and a cupful of vinegar shaken together in your water bottles and jugs will make them sparklingly clear.

SPRINGFIELD

Population—1933 4,000 (est.) 1929, 3715. Assessed valuations—1933, $5,488,810. Tax rate, 1932—Township, $3.22; state and county, $1.06. Incorporated 1857; settled early in 1700's. Springfield is essentially a township of homes. It is 55 minutes from New York City on the electrified D. L. & W. Railroad and has excellent bus connections to Newark, Elizabeth, Summit and Plainfield.

What the SUN Advocates

Believing that the following improvements are vital necessities to nourish Springfield's betterment and substantial progress, the SUN advocates:

- 1. A high school.
2. Removal of delapidated buildings which are "sorespots."
3. Sidewalks wherever needed.
4. Encouraging clean factories, to increase the ratables.
5. An active Board of Trade to stimulate "Buying in Springfield."
6. Postal-carrier delivery.
7. Reduced bus fare within town limits and to Millburn R. R. station.
8. Full time position for the township clerk's office.
9. Set of Building Zones, before township is developed.
10. A county park.

There are going to be tunnels, trains, mountains, houses, people, lakes, trees, rivers, snow, dogs, cows, and grass. It is going to be a model of Switzerland in the Summer time. We are also making a geography chart in our class. Different pictures of things that grow in the Mediterranean lands will be pasted on a large sheet of white paper.—MARY McDONOUGH, MIRIAM PARSELL, fourth grade.

8A NEWS

A & P OPENS BIG SEAFOOD PLANT

One of the largest privately operated warehouses of its kind in the country, a new seafood plant with a handling capacity of more than a million pounds of fish weekly, was opened Monday at 432nd Street and Locust avenue, on the East River, by the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company.

Special packing equipment and refrigeration devices will also enable the movement of fresh seafood through the new warehouse to points far beyond the metropolitan area, including sections in the Middle West, it was said.

The Atlantic fisheries industry has long sought to widen the demand for seafood throughout inland areas, it was pointed out at the company's offices, and the new A & P plant is regarded as one of the biggest forward steps yet made by any food system toward a general increase in the consumption of seafood.

BASKETBALL

The sixth grade boys made up a basketball team, the Yankees. Our captain is Matthew Edwards and he is also the star player. We defeated the seventh grade last week, 17-11. On Monday we played the eighth grade and won by the score of 11-4. The Yankees haven't lost a game. We are going to play the ninth grade this week and if we win we'll be champions.—PATSY PASQUALE.

GIVE PLAY

The sixth grade gave a play-to-day for Miss Wahl. Several children read poems written by Longfellow. Others read and dramatized stories. We all enjoyed it.—MILICENT SWANSON.

DUTCH BORDER

The fifth grade made Holland scenery. There are twelve windmills and six Dutch girls. They wear aprons, wooden shoes and white hats. The people who made it are Verda Houck, Elsie Ziegenfuss, Dorothy Van Houton and Doris Marshall.—MARGARET JONAS.

EIKE STORIES

We like to hear stories. This week we have heard many of them. Miss Meade told us stories. We liked Cinderella and the Tinder Box best of all.—WALLACE COBURN, first and second grades.

9C ACTIVITY

This week some of the typewriting class had a practical chance to use their knowledge when they typed envelopes for the mailing of letters in the Block-Aid Campaign. They were glad to have this chance to co-operate. The 9C boys continued their winning ways in basketball when they defeated the eighth grade. The final score was 12 to 8.—ARTHUR KASPEREEN.

Lower Bus Fares Here Dismissed

Reduced bus fares for patrons of Springfield and vicinity were not allowed by the Public Utilities Commission in Trenton Wednesday as it dismissed the applications of the Public Service Coordinated Transport and Somerset Bus Company for permission to put into effect proposed fare schedules.

In the case of Public Service the proposed rate affected the Newark-Morristown route between Newark and Springfield Center. A rate of 10 cents was proposed from Newark to Irvington Center and a similar fare from Irvington Center to Springfield Center.

The Somerset company sought to impose a fare of 10 cents from Newark to Irvington center and 15 cents from Newark to Seven Bridges road, on the Newark-Westfield-Somerville route. The schedules were opposed by the Lincoln, Brownell and Ellmas bus companies, Irvington, and independent operators on the Springfield avenue route between Newark and Irvington.

The board expressed the opinion that the service on these two lines was established primarily to carry long distance riders and that the evidence did not indicate any necessity to revise the fare rates as proposed.

Chevrolet Makes Another New Car

Directly on the heels of the most successful new car program since 1929, the Chevrolet Motor Company announced today that a companion car to the present series, to be called the "Standard Six" Chevrolet and priced considerably below the present range, would be shown throughout the nation tomorrow, Saturday. The new cars available at Springfield Center from 8:30 to 9 P. M. to transport persons to the park.

Tickets are fifty cents. A program of entertainment is being arranged by Edward Barnett.

car will be on display at the L & S Chevrolet Co., 1755 Morris Avenue.

About 15,000 of the new models will have been built and dispatched to Chevrolet dealers for a simultaneous showing, W. S. Knudsen, president and general manager, stated.

The new "Standard Six" is built for business use and for that group of private owners who want a car without the deluxe features and extra long wheelbase of the present Chevrolet Master Six, he stated. He emphasized that the new line would offer the lowest priced, full-size, six-cylinder enclosed models the industry has yet seen and would be ideal for severe utility use.

A new and slightly smaller Chevrolet has been rumored in trade circles periodically since April 1932, a circumstance which Mr. Knudsen attributed to the fact that the new line of cars has been under development for two years. It will be a quality line throughout, machined to the same close limits as the present Chevrolet and built of the same raw materials, although it will have a slightly shorter wheelbase and will lack some of the features and improvements of the present Master Six line.

In bringing out the new car, Mr. Knudsen said his company is simply producing a supplementary line which will open up new markets and further entrench the company in its position of leadership.

DATES TOOTHsome, NUTRITIOUS

THE perfect date, colorful, translucent, and altogether delicious, is now an American product, thanks to the untiring effort of our date growers. Arabian dates are still shipped into our country in large quantities, but nothing so far has reached the perfection of the home grown.

It will probably be some time before we can supply the demand with the home product, for the date is so well liked and is used for confections so largely, as well as for ordinary food.

With a handful of nuts and a half dozen dates, a glass of orange juice, one need not worry over calories or hunger.

Dates are enjoyed in bread, cake, cookies, chopped with nuts and molded into bars, stuffed with nuts or preserved fruit or fondant; added to salads they give just the note of sweetness that any salad needs. They take the place of raisins or combine with them in desserts of various kinds.

Date Pie.—Cook one pound of dates that have been pitted, with one cupful of water and one tablespoonful of lemon juice; cook until a thick paste is formed, then add two tablespoonfuls of orange juice and let stand until cold. Bake a pastry shell and fill with the mixture, top with lightly sweetened cream and serve.

As filling for sandwiches to give the children for luncheon, they are perfectly desirable. In stuffed dates, try any or all of the following:

Peanut butter moistened with orange juice and a little cream.

Use fondant to which chopped cherries, ginger, candied peel has been added.

Almonds finely chopped, mixed with a little grated maple sugar and cream to moisten.

ROTH STRAND

"State Fair" with Will Rogers, Janet Gaynor, Lew Ayres, Sally Eilers, Norman Foster, Louise Dresser and Frank Craven will close at the Strand in Summit tomorrow, ending a three-day run. A tent city, typical of those occupied by farm families of the Midwest during fair week was erected for the picture and features the film.

George Brent, Zita Johann and Alice White head an impressive cast in "Luxury Liner" to be presented Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Irene Dunne and Phillips Holmes have the leading roles in the associate feature, "The Secret of Madame Blanche."

John Barrymore in "Topaze" heads the attractions Wednesday and Thursday. Myrna Loy plays opposite the star. The second presentation is "Nagana" starring Tala Birell in a thrilling African drama.

AT-MILLBURN

"State Fair," Fox Film's all-star offering from the novel by Phil Strong, which comes to the Millburn Sunday, Monday and Tuesday is typically an American film. It deals with the experiences of a true-to-life Midwest family during one hectic week at a state fair in which each member realizes his or her supreme desire.

The farmer whose prize hog wins the championship of the fair, his wife whose pickles and mince-meat twice capture blue ribbons, the two youngsters who both achieve romance after their fashion—these characters and the others in the film are all truly American.

With such stars as Janet Gaynor, Will Rogers, Lew Ayres, Sally Eilers, Norman Foster and Louise Dresser heading the cast under the direction of the veteran Henry King, "State Fair" sets a new mark in screen circles.

Other attractions for the week are: Wednesday and Thursday, "Wax Museum" and "No Other Woman" with Irene Dunne and Charles Bickford; Friday and Saturday, "Nagana" with Tala Birell and Ben Lyon and Mary Brian in "Girl Missing."

RKO Music Hall Offering

Katharine Hepburn, filmland's newest star and the most glittering girl-to-come to motion pictures in years, has done it again. "Christopher Strong," her second RKO Radio Picture and her first film as a full-fledged star, is drawing record crowds daily to the Radio City Music Hall, where it had its world premiere yesterday.

The most glamorous youngster of the day, and a type that is proving fascinating to the great film fan army, "Christopher Strong" is adding immeasurably to Miss Hepburn's legion of admirers. Her role in the picture, that of a daring, dashing girl flyer, is admirably suited to her type and talents, and the romance of the film is one of the tenderest and most fascinating the film world has so far seen.

A truly distinguished cast is seen in support of the young star. Colin Clive, remembered for his brilliant work as Capt. Stanhope in "Journey's End," wins new laurels, as does Billie Burke, who won a firm place in the films for herself in "A Bill of Divorcement," which was Miss Hepburn's first picture and the one which gained her stardom. Helen Chandler and Ralph Forbes, both among the most popular of Hollywood's younger players, are prominent in the company. "Christopher Strong" marks another long stride on the road which will make this remarkable girl one of pictures' most famous and admired personalities.

Wright Reelected School President

G. Arnold Wright was renamed president of the Board of Education at the annual re-organization meeting Tuesday night in the James Caldwell School. He was recently reelected for the three-year term with Walter White and T. C. Davidson, Jr.

John Potts was reelected vice-president. Other members of the board include August H. Schmidt, James M. Duguid, Charles T. Smith, Edward M. Cook and Charles Phillips. The board will continue to meet the third Tuesday of each month.

A dinner was held after the meeting at the Blue-Lantern Restaurant in Summit. In addition to board members, District Clerk William Hoppaugh and Supervising Principal Fred J. Hodgson attended.

FORMER SHERIFF Frank R. Emmons of Plainfield, who announced today his candidacy for the Republican nomination for County Registrar.

FOR REGISTRAR EMMONS RUNS

Former Sheriff Frank R. Emmons, of Plainfield, today announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Union County Registrar of Deeds in the coming Primary, May 16.

Mr. Emmons stated that he believes that the experience he has had in public office and his demonstrated ability in administering the affairs of the office of sheriff during the three busiest years in history qualify him for the position he now seeks.

He is affiliated with a number of fraternal organizations, including the Plainfield Elks, of which he is a past exalted ruler; the Anchor Lodge, 149, Tall Cedars, No. 262, Eagles Aerie, No. 866, and others of a civic and patriotic character. He is a first vice president of the Sheriff's Association of the State of New Jersey.

"Singing Night" Plans Furthered

The Springfield Choral Society, which is making plans to hold a "Community Singing" event on March 29 in the Municipal Building, wishes to stress that the affair will not be a concert. The audience will do most of the singing from words flashed on a screen.

Members of the society will present a few specialties and the committee is planning to have dancing after the "Sing."

The affair will be held in conjunction with the Block-Aid Campaign for emergency relief, the proceeds of which will be applied to the relief fund. The committee in charge of arrangements, headed by Mrs. Frank A. Saile, is desirous of communicating with local talent interested in participating.

After the investiture of Scouts Kulp, Schramm, Duttweiler, Kranke and Berries, songs were sung by the entire troop last Friday, as the new type of concluding meetings.

Beaver Patrol elected officers Tuesday and named Scout S. Brown assistant patrol leader, Scout R. Frost hike-master and Scout J. Kulp quartermaster.

Due to the resignation of Edward Chiovarou, Willard Day, former junior assistant scoutmaster, has been named Assistant Scoutmaster. Other changes may be made but are not yet definite.

Troop 66 attended Methodist Episcopal Church services Sunday and Wilbur M. Selander, chairman of the Troop Committee, presented one, two and five roo per cent duty pins to Scouts Schmidt, Briggs, Marshall, Senior Patrol Leader Widmer and the new Assistant Scoutmaster.

The answer to last week's example of a patrol leader who is comically indifferent to all matters is: R. Marshall. This week's question is that of the A. P. L. who is quiet, industrious, sturdy, almost corpulent and always in attendance at Scout meetings.

An officers meeting was held Wednesday to finish up the budget for the year. Merit badge sashes with full merit badges will be presented tonight to Patrol Leaders Buell and Marshall.

Township Engineer Arthur H. Lennox will speak to the boys at the meeting tonight. Instead of a patrol, the eight boys who received the highest number of points during the year, will camp at Swastika on March 18 and 19.

Scout Jennings will receive the Lions Club award for the best camper who improved the greatest during 1932, we are informed. The troop is doing a good turn by aiding the Block-Aid-Relief Committee. It's good turns like these that give Scouting a good name.—THE NEWS-SCOUT.

EPWORTH LEAGUERS PLAN PARTY TUESDAY

The Epworth League will hold its regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening in the lecture room at 8 o'clock. Miss Bertha Parsil is in charge of arrangements for a St. Patrick's Day party which will follow the business meeting.

A report of league officers for the new year will be submitted by the nominating committee which is composed of August Schaffernoth, Grenville A. Day and Edward Hoagland. The league is making plans to hold a pageant in the near future.

SPRINGFIELD MAN APPLYING TO BAR

Phillips M. Goodwin, son-in-law of Township Clerk Robert D. Treat, resides at 26 Bryant avenue.

Taxpayers Group Elect Directors

The Springfield Taxpayers' Association, at its annual meeting last night in the Municipal Building, accepted the nominating committee's recommendation of twelve directors for the ensuing year.

The following will serve as directors for 1933: John E. Gunn, John D. Lee, W. L. Morrison, Wilbur D. Schuster, Waldo M. Brown, Martin B. Cotrell, J. M. Sweeney, Thomas J. Hankins, Jr., Clifford Walker, George Wagner, E. W. Coburn and G. F. Bock.

The directors will meet next Thursday and elect officers. It is expected that Hankins, president, and Schuster, secretary, will be persuaded to again hold office, having expressed a desire to step out in favor of other officers but still retaining places on the board of directors. Lee, treasurer, is slated to be re-named.

A resolution to change the constitution by permitting officers of political organizations to serve as directors instead of merely as members as at present, was rejected. Three additional directors will be chosen from the floor at the April meeting.
