THOUGHTS WHILE RAMBLING:
What would be the situation at this time if the high school proposition several years ago had been voted upon favorably? ... there are many residents who voted "yes" at the time whose opinion today would be somewhat different ... the possibility of a reduced police department in 1934 is quite probable, judging from reliable reports received ... in connection with the recent request for a day off each week for each policeman as the law requires but local economy could not provide for, perhaps there will be some time off for some police members, but without pay ... when Springfield had an out-of-town scavenger collect local ashes and garbage, the truck never went as far as the extreme south end near the Springfield-Westfield-Mountainside boundary line ... Committeeman Frank C. Geiger, roads chairman, who lives in the affected area, is superior over the joint road and garbage department together with Committeeman George B. Gaskill, garbage chairman ... that explains why the new municipal truck will go as far as that territory and pick up all garbage ... the Township Committee is expected at next week's regular session to change its meeting night from Monday to Wednesday ... the new police uniforms made an appearance last week ... instead of wearing heavy leggings, the new suits are light in weight and have long trousers ... the comfort is increased considerably ... from a beer garden to a dress-making factory in the Quinzel Building in Morris avenue seems evident following the apparently-rejected application for a beer-drinking establishment ... a concern from Millburn, it is understood, may move into the Morris avenue location ... a very prominent man in town stopped in our office this week to discuss emergency relief in the present State-wide system ... he pointed out that in Berkeley Heights, the authorities there felt that having had needy cases even before the present economic unrest, they could orego State and County relief and handle the situation as cases for the poormaster ... as a result, he explained, the community cares for a negligible number of requests ... such a procedure in Springfield, our friend added, would prove to the satisfaction of taxpayers who pay the bill, that the relief administration is too expensive and is being made a luxury with which the township could do without ... only because the public views of this individual merit worthy attention does the Rambling Reporter publish the feelings of what our friend terms are not only his but those of people he comes in contact with daily.

Announce Winners in Essay Contest

Announcement of prizes in the essay contest in the local public schools conducted by the Women's Christian Temperance Union, was made Tuesday in the James Caldwell School.

The subject was "Total Abstinence As a Help in Athletics." In the absence of Mrs. Walter White, local director of scientific-temperance instruction, the president, Mrs. Edwin D. Pannell, presented the prizes.

In the ninth grade, the award went to Jack Mohler. The eighth grade prize was awarded Joyce Webber and the seventh grade prize was given to Wendell Collins who also received the seventh grade prize in the county competition, competing with essays written by pupils in Plainfield, North Plainfield, Cranford and Roselle Park.

The following were given honorable mention: ninth grade, Eleanor Grey; eighth, Clarice Shack, and seventh, Mary Van-Yeeh. In addition, mention was made of excellent essays written by the following pupils: Harold Ross, Edna Tracy, John Lane, Carmen Ippolito, Dorothy Mayer, June Geiger, Jack Houser, Ruth Hoppin, Ruth Briggs, Maurice Zubatkin and Florence Yeager.

The judges for the contest were Mrs. William I. Reed, Mrs. Walter White and Austin Gridley.

The annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held June 27 in the lecture room of the Methodist Episcopal Church. This marks the union's seventh anniversary. Officers will be elected and dedication of White Ribbon Recruits will be made.

RECRUITS LEAVE FOR REFORESTRATION CAMP

Two new recruits, making eight in all from Springfield, left for Camp Dix Tuesday morning to join the reforestation army. Several members of the Springfield delegation at the camp are scheduled to be sent to Idaho, having already received preliminary training.

U. S. Funds Sought by Sewer Meeting

Representatives of the Rahway Valley Joint Meeting laid a request for $150,000 to complete their sewer disposal plant in Woodbridge before the State Department of Health Monday.

Francis V. Dobbins, of Rahway, attorney for the association, Mayor Charles S. Cannon, and Township Treasurer A. B. Anderson of Springfield, comprised the delegation.

They hope to have the project among those which Governor Moore will submit to the authorities at Washington for inclusion in the three billion dollar public works program.

The cost of the disposal plant is to be $300,000 and bids will be received for the contract on June 22.

Three of the nine municipalities in the joint sewer project, Rahway, Westfield and Cranford, it is believed will be able to sell their own bonds to pay for their respective shares of the cost, but the other six towns will find it harder to finance their portions and for that reason it is hoped to get money from the Federal Government for the contract.

The other municipal partners in the joint sewer and disposal plant are Springfield, Kenilworth, Roselle Park, Clark Township, Garwood and Woodbridge.

article will be returned upon proper identification.

S. A. R. to Hold Service June 18

The 153rd anniversary of the Battle of Springfield will be observed by Passaic Valley Chapter, S. A. R., on Sunday afternoon, June 18, at 4 o'clock, in the Presbyterian Church. Particular interest is attached to the fact that Dr. Mudge is a descendant of "Parson" Caldwell, who distinguished himself at the battle by his enthusiasm and courage. As in former years, neighboring chapters of the Sons of the American Revolution and of the Daughters of the American Revolution will co-operate in the observance of the anniversary.

In the Canadian Rockies

The largest glacial lake in the Canadian Rockies is Maligne, nearly 20 miles long. It is hemmed in by high mountains, few of them climbed, some not even named; great masses that geologists say are older than the Alps; tremendous peaks bearing a burden of snow and ice that never leaves them.

Flag Salute Optional

The saluting of the flag each day in the public schools depends entirely on the regulations of the individual schools.

Senator Kean Explains Bill For Relief of New Jersey Home Owners

Senator Hamilton F. Kean explains the proposed bill for the relief of the home owners of New Jersey, who are in need of help to enable them to keep their homes.

The sub-committee of the Senate Committee on Banking and Currency has under consideration a bill to re-finance home mortgages and to extend relief to owners of homes occupied by them.

While the bill is still under consideration by the committee and is subject to amendment, there will probably be little change in it so far as it relates to the refinancing of a mortgage on a home.

The bill created the Home Owners' Loan Corporation. This Corporation, for a period of three years after the enactment of the bill, may acquire in exchange for its bonds, home mortgages and other obligations on the home, secured by real estate; it may make advances in cash to pay taxes and assessments; it may make advances in cash for necessary repairs.

By an amendment proposed by Senator Kean, the sub-committee amended the bill to include homes valued up to $25,000.

Either the home owner or the holder of the mortgage may apply to the Corporation for the refinancing of the obligation. This is done by the holder of the mortgage exchanging it for bonds of the corporation, the interest on which will be at 4 per cent. to be guaranteed and tax exempt. The Corporation then holds the mortgage, on which interest at the rate of 5 per cent is charged. The mortgage shall be paid off in monthly payments, sufficient to retire the principal and interest within 15 years. Quarterly, semi-annual or annual payments may be arranged. Extensions of payment may be granted by the Corporation. The value of the bonds so exchanged shall not exceed 80 per cent of the value of the home. If cash advances are made as above mentioned, the total of the mortgage and the cash so advanced shall not exceed 80 per cent of the value of the home.

The Corporation may also make new loans on homes on which there is no mortgage.

If a home mortgage has been reduced and the holder thereof will not accept the Corporation's bonds in exchange, the Corporation may advance the home owner up to 40 per cent of the value of the home, so that the mortgage may be paid, the mortgage then to be assigned to the Corporation.

An agency of the Corporation will be set up in New Jersey after the bill becomes a law, to which the home owner or the holder of the mortgage may apply for refinancing.

Go to Church Sunday

They are bright faces, faces with faith shining in them, their burdens are lightened, their joys are increased, because they have stopped for a moment in the House of God. Your church holds the same happiness for you, a happiness in being one with your Creator, a happiness derived from good fellowship and love of mankind, a happiness found in doing good—this is only a part of what your church will instill into your heart. If you want a balanced, happy life, join the happy throng on their way to church next Sunday.

CHEVROLET GAINS

IN TRUCK OUTPUT

With a total output of 68,538 new cars and trucks in May, the Chevrolet Motor Company in the first five months of this year already has built more than 70 per cent as many units as in the full year of 1932, W. S. Knudsen, president and general manager announced today.

May production was higher than at any time since June, 1931, and was the second month this year to exceed in volume any single month of 1932,

Mr. Knudsen said.

The May figure of 68,500 units compares with 50,572 in the corresponding month last year, an increase of 35 per cent, and with 59,953 in April this year, according to the Chevrolet executive.

He said that from the first of this year through May 31 his company had built 276,827 new cars and trucks, or in excess of 37,000 over the same five months last year; this despite the interrupted schedules during the March bank holiday. Production for every month this year for the domestic market exceeded the corresponding months of 1932, he said, with the widest margin of gain over last year occurring in May.

Horse's Pulling Power

In determining the average pulling power of a horse, much depends on the kind of surface over which an object is pulled, its tractive qualities and the resistance of the object to be moved. In actual pulling contests horses have generated more than ten horse power.

THOUGHTS and THINGS

THE BUSINESS OF LIVING, when boiled down and all the froth skimmed off, is just a matter of thinking. Each of us is continually thinking ideas of our own and swapping them for the ideas of others. If there is a famine of outside ideas we shrivel up ourselves. Children with "nobody to play with" are unhappy and unmanageable.

From thinking with our heads to doing with our hands is but a little step and then our thoughts become things.

It is because men of America are so unfettered in their thinking and doing that this country is such a fine place to live in. It is also because these thoughts are freely radiated and spread broadcast, in the distribution of manufactured things and in the distribution of the facts about them (advertising), that this country is such a fine place to live in.

The originator of an idea is not much better off than before he originated it till he gets some one else to absorb it and enjoy it and benefit by it.

The man or woman surrounded by better thoughts and things but who pays not the slightest attention to them is not much better off than the one with "nobody to play with".

The advertisements in the papers are thoughts telling you about the things that other men and women have created for your happiness. Read the ads. They are the voices from hundreds of thousands of looms, shops, foundries, studios, laboratories, where millions of minds are turning pleasant thoughts into worthwhile things for your comfort.

MATTER of OPINION

There never was a time when the personal equation counted for more, in the successful conducting of a small business, than it does today. We recently heard two stories which convincingly illustrate this point. The first was about a man who conducted a diner near several industrial plants in a North Jersey town. Business fell off after the depression cut down the number of factory workers who had patronized the restaurant. He might have weathered the storm, but neither he nor his wife had the necessary qualities to adjust themselves to adverse conditions. They were unwilling to forego the small luxuries to which they were accustomed, and the resentment the man felt over the situation was vented on the customers, of whom there were sufficient to meet the overhead and a small profit. When a customer wanted to light a smoke after his meal, and asked for a match, he was answered by a growl that matches cost money. Suffice it to say that his attitude alienated his most loyal customers, and he is no longer in business.

The second instance shows that if storekeepers would occasionally place themselves, in imagination, on the other side of the counter, they would not say or do the things which drive the buyer away. A young woman recently entered a small independent food store. As the proprietress wrapped up the purchase, she said, gazing searchingly at the customer: "Don't you owe me a penny? You were in here several days ago, and didn't have enough money." The debt of one cent was disclaimed, but the storekeeper was insistent that she was right. Only when the customer plainly showed her irritation, did the woman realize what a bad impression she was making. Admitting that she may have been wrong did not erase the impression.

Springfield is fortunate in having among its residents a goodly number of young married people who are keenly interested in the community activities which have so large an influence on the family and the home. The Parent-Teacher Association, with its program of wide scope, offers plenty of opportunity for worth while community projects which have a strong appeal for these intelligent men and women who want their home town to be a good place in which their children are to grow up and be educated. The association got a good start in its first year, under Alfred G. Trundle, as president, who declined a second term because of his election to the Township Committee. Mrs. Charles G. Nelson has just completed her second year as president, and at the meeting on Monday night, when new officers were elected was lauded for her accomplishments while in office. Mrs. Nelson modestly tried to give the credit to the committee chairmen, who have worked hard to carry out the program mapped out by the executive committee. However, true leadership consists of the ability to inspire enthusiasm and zeal. This quality Mrs. Nelson has to an outstanding degree, and we feel sure that it will continue to be an asset to this community for she cannot help being public spirited. Her successor, Mrs. Herbert R. Day, has been an active worker in the association since its formation, and will without doubt have the same loyal support which was accorded to the past presidents. Mention must be made of the good team work between the principal and teachers, the Board of Education and the officers of the association.

You may not believe in mental telepathy, or thought transference, but surely you have had the following experience: The tune of a song has been running through your head, and suddenly someone in the same room starts to sing or whistle that very tune. Few of us realize how our unspoken thought affects those around us. You can't think your child into being a genius, nor your husband into being a millionaire, but your silent and steadfast faith that they are able to successfully accomplish what they attempt, that they will always meet with resourcefulness the difficulties and problems which the day presents is of incalculable help to them. If our town do not believe in us, who shall? "A man's foes are often of his own household." Likewise, a child's greatest handicaps are often placed by his parents.

Much sympathy and regret is being expressed on the illness of Miss Hazel Leber, who has for a long time been chief assistant to Tax Collector William Hoppaugh. She is sorely missed at her post, but that is not the only reason why her speedy return to good health is wished for. Her friends hope that she will soon be restored to well-being and vitality, after this enforced rest.

School Notes

LESSONS OUTDOORS

The fourth grade is giving a play, "Lessons Out-of-Doors." Tuesday we had groups in the room to practice. In the play there is a boy named Jack, a girl named Janet, a frog, a rabbit, a squirrel, a bird and a fish. They are not ready yet to give the play but will be soon.—EDITH GEIGER, Grade 4.

OUR BOOKS

Our class has read many books this year. The "A" group has read seven books. The "B" group is on their fifth book. All of the books have nice pictures with each story.—HARRY SPEICHER, Grade 2.

FOURTH GRADE NEWS

Our class tried very hard to win the attendance banner at the P. T. A. meeting Monday night. We did not win but we are sure many of our parents enjoyed the meeting. Our class is preparing a program for Flag Day. We are interested in the entertainment and hope our parents will come to see it.

PLAN A PICNIC

Our class is going on a picnic. We intend to play games and run races.—ROBERT VAN RIPER, Grade 3.

9A ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

On Tuesday of this week, the ninth grade gave a one-act play under the direction of Miss Parkhurst. It was a comedy called "A Case of Suspension." The characters were played by Evelyn Gray, Margaret Anderson, Edna Tracy, Edgar Buell Harry Anderson, James Shew, Evelyn Schug, Kenneth Bolger, Lucille Welter and Norbert Ganska. It was a story of three girls in a seminary giving a forbidden "spread" in one of their rooms. The scrapes they got into made the play humorous as well as delightful.—ALBERTA ANDREWS.

AN INTERESTING TRIP

Last Thursday, June 1, our class took a trip to New York. First we went to the Museum of Natural History. We saw huge red wood trees, dinosaurs, meteors, a seismograph and many other things. Then we went to the aquarium and saw fishes of all sizes and shapes. The Aquarium was at one time a fort used to protect the city.

Then we went to the Statue of Liberty. One would never realize how large the statue really is until they climbed it. Finally we arrived home, tired but happy children.—EDITH CULLEN, Grade 5-6C.

5B NOTES

Last week the fifth grade was invited to the Junior High Assembly where we saw an operetta, "The Nifty Shoppe" given by Miss Herche's Glee Club. On May 29, the 5B class gave a Memorial Day play, "Friends in Need."

On June 1, all the fifth grade went on a trip to New York. We went over the George Washington Bridge, down Riverside Drive to the Museum of Natural History and other places. We returned through the Holland Tunnel.—WILLIAM EDWARDS.

WENT TO CIRCUS

We went to the circus. We saw all kinds of animals. There were clowns, too. We will make circus pictures for our room.—Grade 1.

7B CLASS ROLL

Since school began in September, the 7B class has undergone several changes. During the year, two pupils left the class having moved to another district. We also have received other pupils from other districts. These pupils are Antoinette Glacont and William Van Riper. There was also some shifting within the various grades: Our total enrollment in September was thirty-six and now it is thirty-four. However, this change was due to transfers within the school district.—JACK DONOVAN.

THE APPLE TREE

Do you like to see
The blossoms on the apple tree?
They look so bright in Spring
They really make you want to sing.
In the Fall the leaves come tumbling down,
Some in bunches, on the ground.
They make a carpet on which we dance
And for you to sit on if you get a chance.
JEAN HODGSON.

GEORGE WASHINGTON
We have been learning about George Washington in our history. Third grade has made several scrap-books. We are proud of our room. It looks pretty. Each desk has a bunch of flowers on it.—ELEANOR GOLIGHTLY Grade 3.

Love of a Hippo
If a mother hippopotamus traveling with her baby is killed the young hippopotamus will not leave her side but will remain on guard until it is either shot or roped and dragged away from the spot. A similar affection for its mother is displayed by a young rhinoceros.

Living
Merely to breathe freely does not mean to live.—Goethe.
