Babyland Contest Beginning Today—Trophy to Winner

Beginning today, The Springfield Sun, in conjunction with merchants and business men of Summit, will launch a campaign to learn the identity of the "King" or "Queen" of Babyland.

Perhaps the winner of the contest will be some merry golden-haired mls, or the rollicking towheaded baby next door or it may even be your own child. In any event, the question will be answered by what is predicted to be the most interesting and fascinating campaign ever conducted in this locality.

This contest sponsored by The Springfield Sun is bound to appeal to all residents of this area whether they are parents or not, for they will determine who will be crowned the "King" or "Queen" of "Babyland."

They alone will decide which of the tiny entrants is to be placed upon the throne and receive all the attendant pomp and glory which accompany the title.

"There will be keen enjoyment in helping to select the ruler, in knowing that some child gained the distinction and renown through their efforts," said F. S. Acker, manager of the Campaign.

"And, furthermore, there will be an additional rich reward in striving for the honor, as $750 in cash prizes and commissions will be distributed among the leading 25 contestants."

Bring in the baby's picture with the official entry blank if you have one suitable for reproduction in the newspapers, said Mr. Acker. If you do not, have a good picture of the baby, get an order upon the official Photographer, from the Who's Tops Editor and have one made free of charge. Babyland Headquarters are at 346 Springfield Avenue.

Over 100 Tables Are Expected At Baltusrol Party

The Springfield Red Cross War Relief Fund will be swelled this weekend from the proceeds of one of the social highlights of the year, the card party which is being held this evening at the Baltusrol Golf Club. More than 100 tables are expected to be in play, with participants attending not only from Springfield, but from neighboring communities.

The use of the clubhouse for the affair is being donated through the courtesy of the governing board and Major Robert A. Jones, club manager. Tickets have been sold for the past two weeks by members of the arrangement committee of which Mrs. John King is chairman. They are priced at $14.00 each.

Assisting Mrs. King are Alvin H. Damant, Richard T. Bunnell, Milton P. Brown, Dr. Stewart O. Burns, Otto Heinz, and Major Jones.

Hostesses for the affair will be the wife of the club's president, Mrs. Arthur Prinz, Mrs. August Schmidt, Mrs. Milton P. Brown, Mrs. Richard T. Bunnell, Mrs. Bert Jones, Mrs. William Ude, Mrs. Alex Jurgan, and Mrs. Alvin H. Damant.

The party eliminates the half way mark of its quota of $4,000 and by way of the way to "going over the top." According to the figures of Charles H. Huff, drive chairman, over $2,800 has been collected.

Mrs. Davis will entertain the past presidents of the association at a luncheon in her home before the meeting. Her guests will be Mrs. Charles Rhukor, Mrs. Robert Laing, Mrs. Thomas Doyle, Mrs. Leslie Leet, Mrs. Edward Menor, Mrs. Fred Spitzkopf, Mrs. Robert Hutchinson, Mrs. Henry Weber, Mrs. Frank Lyding and Mrs. Theodore Munday, present president.

The party eliminates the fourth week of the drive in which the township has already passed the half way mark of its quota of $4,000 and by way of the way to "going over the top." According to the figures of Charles H. Huff, drive chairman, over $2,800 has been collected.

Newcomer To Township Has Contributed Many Stories For National Magazines

"I have someone murder John Astor's wife, Mary Smith, after there, not until I get the legal complications in a awful mess and then that a way travel in mystery writer, Mr. out," explained Dame Francis Bonnell, his two sons, his husband, detective-story writer, and the Head, a member of the New York's Carnegie Hall and the prize-winning training camp circles in nearby Chatham Township, Madam Siddy Bey, died in a Morris-Town Hospital last week.

Best known locally as the operator of a world-famed flight training camp on River road, Madam Bey was also known as a mezzo-soprano and the wife of a former Turkish consul. During her years as owner and manager of the training camp she had such greats and near-greats as Gene Tunney, Max Schmeling, Arturo Godoy, Freddie (Red) Cochran, Lou Ambers, Johnny Wilson, Battling Siki and many others at her camp.

Madam Bey's camp has since 1919 housed flight celebrities from all parts of the world. Because she could speak seven or eight languages, her camp became a favorite for foreign fighters. Her ability to cook foreign dishes also proved popular with the foreign seafarers.

Prior to the first World War, Madam Bey led a non-pugilistic life at her home-on River road. When the war started, Freddie Welsh, who owned a former millionaire's home about a mile away on Long Hill road, decided to join the Army and asked his neighbors, the Beys, to operate his health farm. The Beys changed the farm to a training camp at the suggestion of a Newark newspaper writer and stayed there several years before returning to the River road location.

Even after her husband, Siddy Bey, who was a former Turkish Ambassador and Consul to the United States, died several years ago, Madam Bey continued operation of the camp. Her son, Russell Bey, was recently appointed police chief of Chatham Township.

Anthony J. Triano of Plainfield, well-known locally as a former supervisor of WPA labor, has been named assistant to the area engineer of Mexico with the Pan American Air Lines. Triano is stationed in Mexico City. He was transferred there from Venezuela, where he was resident engineer in charge of construction of a new airport in that city.

Thirty-five Australian flyers on their way to Great Britain visited the New York night clubs recently. Nothing like getting preliminary training on how to be a high flyer.

During his latest sojourn to the voter was the Regional High School budget. The high school itself was nearing completion with its cornerstone already laid. There was strong opposition, particularly in Clark Township and Kentonworth, against the budget; these communities still bearing resentment over the fact that the building was constructed in Springfield. John Potts and James Duguid, Springfield members of the board were urging townfolk to appear at the polls to support the budget.

Looking Backward

10 YEARS AGO

February 6, 1932

Firemen were called out to check a severe blaze in the barn behind a former residence on Baldwin way, caused when an acetylene torch used by prohibition agents to destroy distilling equipment set the building on flames. Despite below freezing weather, people tracked from an area of fifteen miles to see the fire, which the department, under Chief Charles Finn, finally controlled.

The Lions Club were planning to sponsor a cub scout troop for boys between the ages of 9 to 12. William Wagner was to be leader of the troop.

Mrs. Charles D. Horster was re-named chairman of the Red Cross at its annual election meeting. Renamed with her were Vice-chairman Mrs. A. Palmer Brill, and treasurer, Miss Julia Werle.

Plans were being completed for the opening of the Springfield Public Library which was to be located in the Brookside Building in the former home of the First National Bank. Books were being contributed and under the guidance of a number of committees, it was expected to open the library in March.

5 YEARS AGO

February 6, 1937

The Springfield Chapter of the Red Cross was "going over the top" in the flood relief drive. With a quota of $600, the contributors, all of whom found their names in the SUN, were gradually pushing Springfield's total a good distance beyond that figure.

Coming up for approval of the voter was the Regional High School budget. The high school itself was nearing completion with its cornerstone already laid. There was strong opposition, particularly in Clark Township and Kentonworth, against the budget; these communities still bearing resentment over the fact that the building was constructed in Springfield. John Potts and James Duguid, Springfield members of the board were urging townfolk to appear at the polls to support the budget.

The Springfield Reporter shed doubt upon the rumors emanating from the State Highway Department that a new center aisle would be constructed on Route 29 from Newark to Bound Brook, enlarging the highway from three to four lanes.

But then the activities of the State Highway Department are always unpredictable.

1 YEAR AGO

February 6, 1941

The Springfield Volunteer Fire Department was celebrating its 35th anniversary. The SUN featured a two-column cut of the fire trucks, one of which has been replaced during the year with a white and chromium job that could probably put out the blazes in hell.

Featuring the cut was a half-page story describing a Fireman's sacred duty.

The Red Cross elected Mrs. Lessie Joyner as chairman for the year.

Governing along with her have been Vice-chairman Mrs. Henry McMillen, secretary, Mrs. Frank Geiger, and treasurer, Mrs. Stevie Windisch.

Regional matmen were on their way to a phenomenal season by defeating Thomas Jefferson. It was the sixth victory for the Regional matmen, who continued undefeated in the remainder of their matches, and who have continued their record into this season. Coach Brattaglia's men are sure on the glory road.

Plans were being completed for the opening of the Springfield Public Library which was to be located in the Brookside Building in the former home of the First National Bank. Books were being contributed and under the guidance of a number of committees, it was expected to open the library in March.

Additional land in Springfield has been purchased by Diamond Hill Corp., development agency of Edward J. Grassman who is erecting new home communities rising along the Watchung Mountain range southward from Springfield.

The present transaction, comprising 35 acres, was bought from Mrs. Minnie B. Faughte. It fronts on Battusrol road and is part of the old Brook-Sayre estate, in the Faughte family for more than a century. Elliott and Fredericks of Westfield were the brokers in the deal.

Combining up for approval of the voter was the Regional High School budget. The high school itself was nearing completion with its cornerstone already laid. There was strong opposition, particularly in Clark Township and Kentonworth, against the budget; these communities still bearing resentment over the fact that the building was constructed in Springfield. BOY SCOUTS' RANKS GROWING

BOY SCOUT WEEK
February 6-12

The above poster in colors, now being displayed all over the country, announces Boy Scout Week with the slogan "Strong For America." Boy Scouts everywhere in the nation have taken on and are assuming extra assignments from Uncle Sam to do their part in the defense of America. Boys 12 years of age and over who are not Scouts and who wish to share in winning the war by doing these "Good Turns" should get in touch with the nearest office of the Boy Scouts of America.

The Union-Springfield District Committee held its first meeting of the year recently. Benjamin Romano of Union, the newly elected chairman presided. Norman Olm, new District Scout Commissioner, made his first report of the activities of the Scouts in the District. He related incidents showing how the Boy Scout Movement in these communities is accepting its responsibilities in the War Effort. Over 25 tons of waste paper have been collected by Scouts. The area has been divided into districts with a team responsible for each one. A message service which can be mobilized at an instant's notice is being formed. This work will go along with the activities of the Defense Council and will eventually become part of it. The Boy Scouts are going to sponsor the collection of used tooth paste and shaving cream tubes. They have distributed posters for the Red Cross. On February 12, a Tent Caterpillar Hunt will be conducted in the District.

At this meeting plans were made for the recruiting of many additional Scouts in 1942 and the formation of three new Scout Troops and our Cub Packs. At present there are nine Troops and two Cub Packs, with a total membership of 364 boys.

Present from Springfield were Mrs. Eagle Hershey, Roy Field, Kenneth Hogland, and Ernest B. Johnson.

WHAT'S THIS ABOUT SERVING UNCLE SAM—AND SAVING MONEY—BY PROTECTING WATER PIPES?

Just this, mister—

America needs her metal for National Defense. But frozen plumbing and burst pipes require metal replacements. And with plumbing supplies limited your repair costs rise.

So this winter you save yourself extra expense—and help conserve metal—by safeguarding your water pipes.

Right away, stuff all cracks around basement openings . . . wrap exposed pipes . . . shut off and drain outside services.

And in freezing weather let water trickle all night from one faucet (a quart a minute is enough). Costs a few cents—but saves you dollars in damage.

* Conserve metal and you serve Uncle Sam *

COMMONWEALTH WATER CO.

Potatoes—Inexpensive and Nutritious.

When you are planning the job of keeping up your family's health standard, you should not forget potatoes, white and sweet, according to advice from the Consumer Division of the Office of Price Administration.

Both these foods are year-round sources of vitamin C, as well as offering vitamin B. Vitamin A is found in sweet potatoes and iron is also present in both. Nutrition experts recommend using one of these low-cost vegetables at least once a day, or even twice, if you want to stretch your food dollar. Cook before peeling to maintain maximum food value.

There are certain characteristics of good quality potatoes that you can recognize without grade-marks. Good quality is indicated by freedom from marks of decay, such as soggy or rough spots in white potatoes, moist and soft spots in sweet potatoes. Smoothness, shallow eyes, uniformity of size, clean skins are indications of good quality in white potatoes. Smoothness and uniform size to which must be added brightness of color, are to be sought in sweet potatoes. Sometimes it is difficult to detect freezing until a white potato is peeled, when a black film will appear near the skin, although sometimes the potato will appear watery. Freezing discolors sweet potatoes.

One pair of your conservator job will be storage, since you should buy in as large quantity as can be safely stored. For white potatoes, a moist, cool, dark place is best. Sort them over once in awhile to remove spoiled ones, and pick off the sprouts. Sweet potatoes should be kept dry and cool, since they spoil easily. Always avoid rough handling and bruising.

Buy your potatoes for the use you intend them. For boiling, a firm, waxy potato is best. For baking and mashing, a mealy one should be chosen. Experimentation to find the right kind is about the only rule here. Light-skinned sweet potatoes are likely to be the mealy, light-meated ones, and darker skinned types are likely to be the spongy, so-called "yam" variety, better for parboiling before using sliced for candied-potatoes, or with baked meats. The mealy sweet potatoes bake best. Since varieties of both change in the type of their flesh with the soil and plant in the country in which they grow, names of varieties are helpful only in localities where their characteristics are known.

Ask your county or state extension workers for information about the two kinds of potatoes. They will help you make the most of what these companion vegetables can do for national health.

WE DO PRINTING

WHAT'S THIS ABOUT SERVING UNCLE SAM—AND SAVING MONEY—BY PROTECTING WATER PIPES?

Just this, mister—

America needs her metal for National Defense. But frozen plumbing and burst pipes require metal replacements. And with plumbing supplies limited your repair costs rise.

So this winter you save yourself extra expense—and help conserve metal—by safeguarding your water pipes.

Right away, stuff all cracks around basement openings . . . wrap exposed pipes . . . shut off and drain outside services.

And in freezing weather let water trickle all night from one faucet (a quart a minute is enough). Costs a few cents—but saves you dollars in damage.

* Conserve metal and you serve Uncle Sam *

Your Garden This Week

BY FRED D. OSBURN
County Farming Agent

Many home gardeners are now considering the question of what to raise in 1942. Those who are eager to do their bit to help "win the war and write the peace" by growing vegetables should give the matter serious thought before proceeding with the plan, however.

Remember that we have to muster all our production facilities to the best of our ability. It would be unwise for amateur gardeners to hasten into extensive vegetable production, for essential materials should not be denied the farmers who are so much better equipped than amateur gardeners to produce vegetables. There are no excessive supplies of fertilizers and seeds in the first place, and another consideration is labor.

If you have a garden probably it would be a very good thing to raise some of your own vegetables, particularly such high-vitamin ones as greens and snap beans. But if it is necessary for you to hire labor to produce these vegetables, it would be more patriotic to leave food production up to the farmers. The bottleneck in food production will probably be labor, and if home gardeners divert available labor to the rather slow and costly production under conditions that prevail in small gardens, they will really be doing more harm than good. So, in my opinion, do not grow more vegetables than you can take care of properly with your own labor and resources. Think this over in planning your 1942 gardening operations.

Another thing—don't give up onamentals. We need them for their aesthetic value. Remember that England found it essential to keep flowers, shrubs, trees and lawns in good condition to furnish a release to war-wracked nerves and to remind their people that the beauties they had known were not lost.

tator started with the bitter fight which was waged by the late Peter Meisel for the office of freeholder when the small board was created in the early 1930's. Having a high opinion of Mr. Meisel, she offered to campaign for him and, with his election, her destiny as a Republican worker was sealed. She has campaigned in almost every important primary since, not only plugging her candidates, but also emphasizing the significance of the primary election proper. "People do not realize the importance of a primary election," she declares. "The election returns show that. And very often the primaries are as important as the election itself."

She campaigned for Lee S. Riedy for membership in the Board of Freeholders, for Pasco for the Senate, and in the presidential election of 1940, she took the stump for Willkie, joining his party in a tour through the State. In the primaries of last Fall, she worked for the nomination of Mrs. Josephine Levergood of Union Township for assemblywoman from Union County, the only county in the State which doesn't have a woman in that branch of the government.

"It seems impossible to get a woman in the Assembly from Union County," Mrs. Hankins points out. "Although," she adds, "we have been trying for five years."

Asked why the task seems so Herculean, Mrs. Hankins explains seriously, but without any rancor against her sex that "it's because the voting women just aren't interested."

"There is not enough real interest on the part of women in getting a woman from Union County into the Assembly," she says. "I honestly don't think the women realize and appreciate their right of franchise."

Mrs. Hankins was born in Springfield and has lived here all her life. She resides at 38 Washington avenue. After graduating from Newark Normal School, she taught before her marriage, in the James Caldwell School. Her husband, the late Thomas J. Hankins, was also brought up in Springfield and was an active member, until his death last year, of the Springfield Fire Department.

Summarizing her opinion of politics, gleaned from her long years of experience as a party worker, Mrs. Hankins says, "Our politics both county and local, are just about as fine as they could be. The financial standing and balance sheet prove it. As for Springfield," she smiled again, "no many towns have weathered the depression the way Springfield did. We ought to be proud and thankful for it."

COACH BATTAGLIA'S BOYS COP MATCH, 30-18

Continuing their undefeated record, Regional matmen pinned Roselle Park Friday night, 30-18 on the latter's mats. The matches marked the resumption of athletic activities between the two schools after a lapse of two years.

Regional's victory, the fifth consecutive of the season and the twelfth consecutive win, including last season's undefeated schedule, places the wrestlers as serious contenders for the county championship and State honors.

Although their start was poor—the first three lightweight matches going to Roselle Park, Coach Battaglia's men came from behind with a surprising show of strength to down the Park grapplers. In the heavyweight classes, Roselle Park failed to take another match until Tom O'Hearn, his 145-pounder, was injured by Kneehling's illegal back drop and was awarded the match.

Summary of the match: Throwaways—35; pound class—Ventura, Roselle Park, defeated Cardella, by decision, 3-0.

Scouts, Others Are Engaged In Salvage Job

The Boy Scouts are organized for collection of waste paper, old rags, scrap metal and old rubber. Many other organizations, too, are co-operating in the programs and persons may choose the channel through which essential "junk" may find its way back into use.

The Scouts and other organizations collecting materials which in peace time would ordinarily be burned or carted away to dumping grounds by scavengers, sell them to waste collecting business as good profit.

The Scouts use the money to provide camping facilities, buy defense bonds, give to Red Cross funds or other charities.

It is not necessary for residents to turn over their materials to the youth organizations or charities. Defense Council officials point out. The Government is primarily interested in getting the material back into circulation where it can become parts of the vast war machine being strengthened daily to crush the axis nations.

Those who are so inclined may sell the waste to junk dealers directly, having them call for it or taking it to the dealer.

In attics, cellars, backyards, garages and in stores and business places are waste materials that can help in making ships, tanks and ammunition as well as items essential on the home front.

Cast off clothing, burlap bags, draperies, mattresses, discarded carpets can be used. Iron, steel, brass, copper, aluminum and lead are needed. Residents are urged to dispose of discarded tools, metal beds, stoves, railings, tire chains, pots and pans, hardware, batteries and any other metal—except tin cans.

Discarded automobile tires and tubes, rubber and overhauls can be reclaimed for military use and to make new tires and tubes which now are vital because the supplies of raw materials are dwindling.

The Bureau of Industrial Conservation of the OPM gives this advice: "Flatten out cartons and boxes. Tie in neat bundles; keep dry and clean. Pile newspapers separately and tie in bundles. Keep rags, metals and rubber separately—in cartons or bags if possible. Let your children help—it will give them a part to play in the Victory program."

Persons who desire to sell their junk—possibly to buy defense savings stamps and bonds—are advised to get in touch with the professional junk dealer. Those who wish to aid the Scouts or philanthropic organizations in their two-fold purpose of bettering their programs by increasing their capital and at the same time helping the Government may get in touch with the leaders of those units.

Persons are asked to wait until there is a sizeable accumulation of paper before communicating with dealers or other collectors. It takes a five-foot pile of old newspapers to weigh about 100 pounds.

Aliens Can Apply For Cards Feb. 9

Applications for identification certificates will be accepted from enemy nationals 14 years of age and over beginning Monday, February 9 Postmaster Otto F. Heinz has pointed out. The registration will continue through February 28, daily.

Among the instructions issued on registering as an enemy alien are the following:

1—Look up your alien registration receipt card. You must have it to avoid delay when you apply for registration.

2—if you do not have an alien registration card, write immediately to the Alien Registration Division, Washington, stating (a) whether you lost it or never had one, and (b) your nationality and present address and where you registered.

3—Obtain three unmounted photographs with light background, 2 by 2 inches in size on thin paper. These photographs must be taken not more than 30 days prior to presenting your application and must clearly have a front view of the face without a hat.

Those aliens who cannot write plainly may bring with them either a member of their family or a friend who can write well enough to complete the application.

If aliens are not able to get such a person to help them there will be clerks at the post office to help complete the application. It is not necessary to pay any person or organization for assistance.

Expect Bicycle Boom in Spring

When spring comes bicycle dealers hereabouts expect to see some of the "talk" about increased use of bicycles during the war materialize.

For the present, however, most dealers are experiencing the usual winter doldrums. One store reported that it hasn't sold a single bicycle since Christmas. The war shortage of tires and cars has not yet been strongly felt.

The upsurge in the use of two-wheelers is anticipated around April. At that time, when car and drivers' licenses expire and when roads become usable once more, factory workers may put up their cars for the duration and turn to bicycles for transportation to work.

Washington authorities recently have encouraged the production of "Victory" models to be used by workers instead of cars. None of the nearby stores queried expects to receive this particular model, although all of them said that the new stock to be received will be "striped."

"There won't be any more chromium, luggage carriers, lights, horns or balloon tires," said one dealer. He reported that one bicycle had been bought by a factory worker who said that he intended to use it instead of his car. This was the only purchase made for this purpose, however.

Babyland Contest Begins This Week

In Babyland Campaign all the more attractive? There is only one answer to that query. Of course it does!

"Or the grand total of cash awards $200 will be presented to the "King" or "Queen," and the other 24 winners will receive amounts well-worth-working to obtain.

"Undoubtedly you are beginning to wonder just how all this is to be accomplished. The simplicity of the contest will amaze you.

"The campaign will be conducted during the next eight weeks by the progressive business men of this section in conjunction with The Summit Herald.

"Each merchant participating in the contest will give coupons, which are worth a stipulated number of votes, with each 25 cent purchase.

"In each issue of The Summit Herald there will be printed a free voting coupon. Save as many of these as you are able to obtain.

"The baby receiving the highest amount of votes during the campaign will be crowned King or Queen of Babyland.

"Simple—isn't it? Almost too good to be true.

"There are no strings attached. The Who's Tops in Babyland Campaign is, unquestionably, destined to be the most popular ever sponsored here because of the fact that it is so clean.

"The one restriction is that every entrant must be under five years of age and must reside in the trading area of Summit, New Providence, Sterling, Springfield, and Chatham.

"This campaign is for babies; they are to be honored and glorified in a manner which they deserve.

"Turn to page nine for full details. Read the rules carefully and observe that simplicity is the keynote throughout."

EMERGENCY MESSAGE from the New Jersey Defense Council

"When you hear an Air-Raid Warning DON'T TELEPHONE"

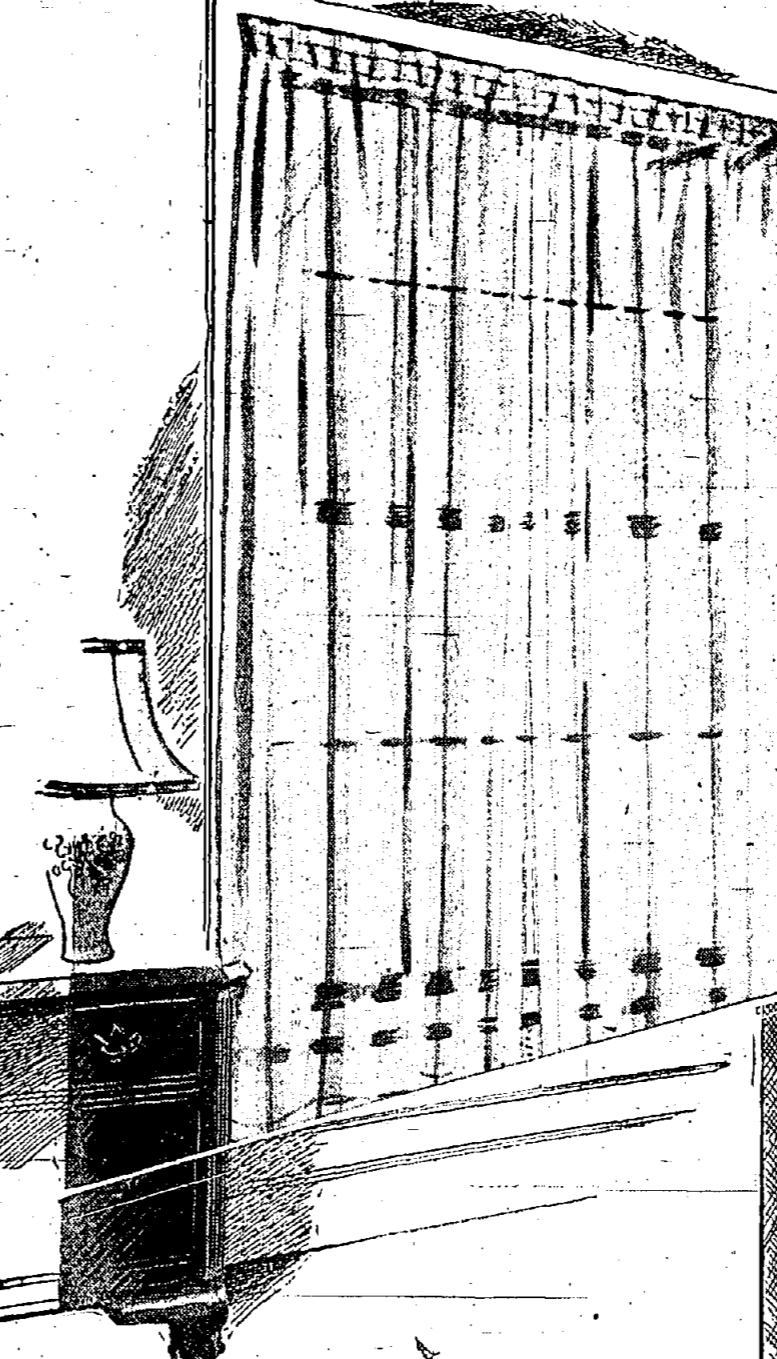

• THE SYSTEM set up to spread air-raid warnings and get reports back to defense centers depends upon the swiftness and flexibility of the telephone system.

"A flood of civilian calls coming at such a time would tax telephone switchboards, perhaps to the point where vital communications would be seriously delayed or even blocked.

"During an air-raid alarm, don't use your telephone. Don't call friends or family to see if they are safe. Don't call to tell them of your own safety or whereabouts. Don't call to report incidents; that is the responsibility of your air-raid warden.

"Only the most urgent calls should be made during an air-raid warning and for some time after the 'All Clear' signal is sounded."

newspaper and babies of the co-operating merchants and employees in the stores of cooperating merchants.

Co-operating merchants will issue votes with each twenty-five cent retail cash purchase.

Right is reserved to cancel all questioned coupons where proof of their proper issuance is not given. Any violation of this rule will subject the merchant issuing same to be withdrawn from the campaign and any coupons issued by him or in his possession will be cancelled.

Votes will be given on Subscriptions to the sponsoring newspaper. Schedule of votes is printed elsewhere in this issue and is hereby made part of the rules.

If entrant is withdrawn, votes credited will be cancelled.

Prizes will be awarded to the babies polling the highest amount of votes upon completion of the Campaign.

In the event of ties, duplicate prizes will be awarded.

Ten per cent. cash commission on subscriptions to the sponsoring newspaper will be paid to babies not winning a prize with this exception—no commission will be paid where the amount due is less than $3.00.

Should a baby win a prize and the amount of the commission earned is larger than the prize, the commission will be paid instead of the prize.

Right is reserved to give extra awards or add to the list of prizes.

Right is reserved to reject any entry without stating the reason for doing so.

Coupons are not transferable from one merchant to another.

A committee of reputable citizens will determine the winners at the conclusion of the Campaign and their decisions will be accepted as final by everyone concerned.

The sponsoring newspaper reserves the right to correct typographical errors or to make additions to the rules that may be deemed beneficial to participants, merchants or the sponsoring newspaper.

An additional payment on subscription turned in previously during the Campaign will be recognized for the vote credits in effect during the period the original payment was made.

F. F. A. Chapter Finished Seventh in Competition

The Pioneer Chapter, Future Farmers of America, of Regional High School resurrected "Farmer Jonathan Dayton" as their entry in the State F. F. A. scarecrow contest held in connection with New Jersey Agriculture Week in Trenton. "Farmer Dayton," proclaimed much too elaborately constructed for a mere scarecrow, nevertheless brought a "shab of bacon" to the Regionals by placing seventh. First place was captured by the scarecrow of Palmyra High School agriculture students.

The winner, picked as the "most unique, most practical, and most effective" of the fourteen entries in the contest, was a towering, denim-draped frame, had limbs and head fashioned from re-clad oil cans and was dubbed the "Tin-Man."

The budget for the year of 1942 has been prepared on a "Cash Basis" in accordance with the Local Budget and Cash Basis Acts.

The Township Committee has no control over the amounts to be raised for Local District Schools, Local Residential High School or State and County Taxes.

The Regional District School Tax is expected to be about $5,600 less in 1942 than for 1941, while the State and County Taxes will increase by approximately $1,000. This increase is due to the fact however, that the Budget Laws make an "estimate" of a School Tax amount lower than the actual amount in the prior year—the taxes for Regional District School Tax, and State and County Taxes have been set at the same figures for the year 1942 as for 1941.

The amount authorized for 1942 Local School Tax is $4,721.00 higher than in 1941.

The total Municipal Appropriations for the year of 1942 shows a net increase of $3,743.00 over the amount appropriated for 1941. The increase is due to the fact however, that due to salary rates voted at the last election; Graduate and Asst. Salaries, because of greatly increased contract price; and Local Defense, due to the National Emergency. Increases in other appropriations were more than offset by decreases in various accounts.

During 1941 a favorable rate was realized as the result of an increase in the percentage of the collection of taxes from receipts derived from the sale of Foreclosed and Acquired Property; Pranchise and Gross Receipts Taxes, and other Miscellaneous Revenues.

The annual budget rate for 1942 is estimated at 4.98 as compared to 4.93, an increase of five (.5%) points.

County H. S. Principals Under Bartholomew Shaping Studies To Fit War Needs

High school principals throughout Union County prepared Monday to shift curricula to war-time footing, to "vitalize" subjects and emphasize their relationship "to our present National situation and our program of preparedness."

The quotations are from Dr. A. L. Johnson, county superintendent of schools, in whose Elizabeth office Monday, principals, superintendents and supervising principals gathered to hear H. S. Principal A. J. Bartholomew, of Summit, as chairman of a special committee to make the study changes.

Chemistry will be taught in its relation to warfare, physics in its relation to bombings, mathematics in connection with artillery, social subjects in relation to causes of war.

An immediate aspect of the change will be the transformation of manual training shops in the schools from scenes of aircraft and cabinet-making to all-out construction of model airplanes of the fifty existent types. These are sought by the War Department, which has established a quota of 10,000 models for New Jersey.

The plane models will be sent to air cadet training stations where army and navy pilots-to-be will study them to familiarize themselves with contour and aspect of the replicas of all nations' planes.

Principals Bartholomew's committee met again Tuesday afternoon at Westfield High School to continue the arrangement of curriculum changes.

Biology students will take up sanitation, study of food values, synthetic substitutes, filtration, water pollution, insects and reptiles which might be encountered by expeditionary forces, precautions to avoid infection, poisonous plants, necessity for cleanliness, ventilation, dampness and its effect on living conditions, drainage, inoculations and bacteria.

Mathematics presents a score of topics, with teachers asked to substitute original problems for those found in texts. Topics include gun
