If this duplication of service were avoided—and it's just a matter of consulting the directory before calling "Information"—100,000 unnecessary calls would be taken off busy telephone lines and switchboards, and 300 trained operators would be able to devote their time to giving essential telephone service. OUT OF THE PAGES OF THE BOOK THAT SHOCKED THE WORLD

"You madmen! Remember Attila, the Hun! ... Attila is gone. But the church remains. Remember, the light always outshines the dark." — H. B. WARNER, as the German bishop, to the German Major.

"Ours is a most important calling. The Gestapo is judge, jury, prosecutor—all rolled into one. Only the best minds should be permitted to administer such power." — OTTO KRUGER, as Col. Henkel.

"I choose the state against Christianity. Christianity had its chance, and it failed. And when the time is right, we shall break it up completely—once and for all." — GAVIN MUIR, as the German Major.

"Yours is a world I won't bring a baby into! Torture me! Kill me! But I won't change. I believe something that you can't touch!" — BONITA GRANVILLE, as the American-born, German-raised Anna.

"We, the youth of Germany, shall win the true crown of glory! To die for Adolf Hitler is to live for Germany." — TIM HOLT, as German-born, German-trained Karl, in love with Anna.

"Can we stop Hitler—and Hitler's children—before it is too late? You and I know the answer." — KENT SMITH, as Professor Nichols, head of the American school in Berlin.

Based on the best-seller "EDUCATION FOR DEATH" by Gregor Ziemer and as told to millions in READER'S DIGEST.

Question Usefulness Of Constitution

Lack of usefulness, not age, was the argument for a change of the State Constitution expressed Friday night by State Librarian James E. Downes as he addressed at The Centennial, Passaic Valley Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution, in their annual meeting. The speaker said the constitution is too detailed and "froze the prevailing political philosophy of that time." He declared the constitution symbolized the persistent viewpoint of legislative supremacy over and against suspicion of executive power.

Mr. Downes explained how that in the interim since the State Constitution was put in force, the Legislature has assumed more and more administrative functions. He added that nobody knows how many bureaus there are in the State government.

County Celebrates 86th Birthday

Union County last week celebrated its 86th birthday, with one more municipality "added" in its family than it had a year ago. Winfield Park, new member of the "county family" is in its infancy and experimenting with its first crop of public officials.

When it was first cut off from Essex County in 1857, the county had but six political subdivisions and one public building under jurisdiction of the County Board of Freeholders.

At the beginning, one Supreme Court judge not only handled business for the high court, but cared for most of the minor courts as well. Today there are provisions made for Supreme, Common Pleas and Circuit Courts, the latter being scattered throughout the county's area.

BUY WAR BONDS-STAMPS

SAVE... Freedom of Speech

You live in a little town. The sheriff's your next-door neighbor, and the mayor calls you by your first name. Second Thursday every month there's a town-hall meeting. You get up and have your say: about the teacher being unfair to Willie; or how about paving the street in front of your store; or why aren't there more police around the war plant to safeguard the girls going home from the night shift?

That's Freedom of Speech. You have your say, and you speak your mind. What you say isn't earth-shaking. But it's important because it's a reflection of your thinking about—needing—wanting—one thing or another related to your own or some other person's rights as a human being.

It doesn't matter whether you live in the little town; or a large one; or in one of America's biggest cities. If you don't stand up in a town-hall meeting, you write to your mayor . . . your congressman . . . the President of the United States.

Maybe your criticism goes further than little Willie. It may be about all the textbooks used by the Board of Education; or that pipeline to Alaska; or post-war planning. Any way, yours is the privilege—to have your say and speak your mind. That's Freedom of Speech! You wouldn't want it wrested from you by fascist fanatics; so you've GOT to save it! That makes this YOUR WAR, no matter who YOU have to do to win it. . . .

Ration "hams," formerly banned from the air because of the war, may now serve their country in the War Emergency Radio Service. For further information, write to the Editorial Section, Office of Civilian Defense, Washington, D. C.

Meat ceiling prices, scheduled for April 15, have been postponed until May 17.

Sugar for home canning of 1943 fruit crops will be available to housewives on approximately the same basis as last season. No deduction of blue point stamps will be made from Ration Book No. 2 for canning sugar.

Retail ceiling prices for cabbage, carrots, lettuce, peas, snap beans, spinach and tomatoes will be established beginning April 22. The method of determining prices will be through use of uniform markings over the retailers' net cost.

A farmer who sells not more than $75 worth of foods per month to country shippers or to consumers, is exempt from the ceiling price regulations.

Your butcher's operating inventory of meat beginning in May will be determined by the purchases made by you and his other customers next week (April 25-May 1). This was indicated here in a bulletin issued today by State OPA headquarters advising retailers to keep sales records during that week.

The point value of his sales of meat, cheese, butter, fats, and shortening during those seven days, it was explained, will be multiplied by three to establish his allowable operating inventory. This will be done by local rationing boards when retailers of these foods register from May 2 to 14.

At the same time, he will report on the registration form (R-1501) the point value of all the rationed meats, fats, and cheeses on hand at the close of business May 1. This, together with the points he has collected from consumers and subtracted from his allowable inventory, and the board will give him a point certificate for the difference, permitting him to purchase up to three times his point sales during the specified week.

A new high of more than 7 billion dollars was reached in war expenditures in March, when the average amount spent each day was $263,000,000. To meet these mounting costs of war, Secretary Morgenthan recently disclosed that the 13 billion dollar Second War Loan is only a part of the 70 billion dollars that must be raised during 1943.

A woman's land army of about 60,000 city and town women will be recruited as a part of the U. S. Crop Corps, to help meet the farm labor shortage. Ten thousand of these women are expected to enroll for year-round farm work and about 50,000 for seasonal work of one month or more. Three hundred thousand women will be placed by County Agricultural Agents for short time emergency jobs on farms, women who can spare week-ends, a few days or a few weeks.

The steam pressure canner is the only method recommended by the U. S. Department of Agriculture for preserving certain types of vegetables. Such vegetables as beans, peas, corn, spinach, and asparagus as well as meats, should be cooked in the steam pressure canner to kill organisms which cause food to spoil. Fruits and tomatoes, rhubarb and pickled beets may be safely canned by the boiling water bath method. To be safe, these products should be boiled for at least ten minutes before they are eaten or tasted, even though there is no sign of spoilage when the jar is opened.

Certain types of leather which have been frozen, have been released by OPA for the manufacture of shoes. As a result of the action, more than one million pairs of women's and girls' shoes are expected to be made from genuine and imitation reptile leather. Natural colored men's leather was also released, and manufacture of leather bows for shoes prohibited.
