BAMBERGER WOMANPOWER COUNCIL

YOUR RED CROSS

The regular monthly meeting of Springfield Chapter, American Red Cross, was held Monday evening at Red Cross headquarters in the Town Hall, Charles Hall, chairman, presided.

Mrs. H. G. Morrison, chairman of staff assistants, reported that the future junior staff assistants, would help collect funds on Overlook Hospital Tag Day, Saturday May 15.

Mrs. Charles Phillips, Sr., announced that the Mobile Blood Bank Unit will visit Springfield on August 19. This will be the third time and Mrs. Phillips hopes that there will be at least 150 donors this time. As on the two previous occasions, luncheon will be served to the unit staff and light refreshments will be prepared for the donors, by the Canteen Corps.

The board voted to give the usual $5 donation for cigarettes for the Veterans' Hospital at Lyons. This amount is donated every year.

A letter from William H. Young, of Continental Post, American Legion invited the Chapter to participate in the Memorial Day parade May 31. A committee was appointed to make plans to do so.

Mrs. Henry G. McMullen reported that the Production Committee has been asked to accept a special quota of hospital articles and garments, funds for which are to come out of the local treasury. As this is a war-time service, it was felt that at least a part of the quota should be accepted. The items listed include such articles as hot-water bag covers, bed pan covers, bed jackets for men, fracture pillows, etc.

Mrs. Phillips offered to accept the responsibility of shopping for the materials needed and arranging to give out the work to neighborhood sewing groups. Mrs. Charles Nelson, Junior Red Cross Chairman, stated that some of the work could be done by Juniors.

Letters of appreciation from service men were read by Secretary Mrs. Frank Gojcek. In answer to the letter and gift that are sent to each resident from town who enters the armed forces.

The board accepted with regret, the resignation of Mrs. George Morton.

Now it can be told! The Canteeners who went to Camp Kilmer Saturday night to serve refreshments to convalescents at the hospital recreation hall—there came back with a feeling of having done a fine job and one that was greatly appreciated. They took fourteen layer cakes and a lot of cup cakes, coffee and cocoa. The assistant Red Cross Field Director in charge of hospital activities, and the convalescents themselves said that they had never seen such an array of good things to eat. The re-tion the Canteeners got, was that if all the women in Springfield could see how those cakes were appreciated, others of cakes and sandwiches for the succeeding weeks in May, would simply pour in.

In the midst of their enjoyment, many of the soldiers remembered their less fortunate comrades who were still bedridden, and asked if they could please have a piece of cake to take to their buddies.

Sandwiches are in order for this Saturday, May 8. The following people have already offered to make some: Miss Carolyn Leiby's cooking class from Regional High School, Mrs. Charles Phillips, Sr., Mrs. Paul Voelker, Mrs. LeRay Morrison, Mrs. K. Dutzler, Mrs. W. W. Halsey, Mrs. A. H. Schmidt and Mrs. Herbert Fay. Additional donations will be welcomed and if Mrs. Richards is notified any time up until Saturday morning arrangements will be made to have the sandwiches picked up.

On the following Saturday, May 15, more cakes will be needed. However, no cookies, not even home-made ones, can be used.

The third staff-assistants' lecture last Tuesday night was a most interesting affair. Before the arrival of the guest speaker, Harry Mullen, Assistant Field Director from Newark area, an instructive talk on the activities of Camp Kilmer Council was given by Enrie E. Hershey, Chairman of the Council, and Mrs. Lewis F. Macarney gave a brief but complete account of the surgical dressings program carried on in this Chapter. Mrs. McMullen spoke briefly on the Canteen Corps activities in the absence of Mrs. Richards, Nutrition Chairman.

Mr. Mullen's topic was "Services to the Armed Forces", and his talk was highlighted by the accounts of many interesting cases, some on the humorous side, some pathetic, some tragic, but each one individual in its circumstances and all requiring the aid in research. Information of material provided by the respective local chapter involved, without which, no field director can function for very long. It was this point which Mr. Mullen emphasized over and over again, that while the local chapter has to work behind the scenes, so to speak, that work is the very life blood of the organization.

MOTHER

Her hair may be silver—or blonde, or brown, black or Titian. She may be old, tiny and wrinkled with the years—or just out of her twenties. She may be old-fashioned—or very modern, gay and independent. For there are just as many kinds of mothers as there are kinds of women! But whatever type your mother may be, just think of the sacrifices she can look back on; the troubled waters she's calmed for you; the philosophical way she's been able to face engulfing problems; the way she's pitched right in, and made an all-out effort to, in her own way—work and fight for the Victory that will mean freedom round the world. INSIDE SWEDEN

Life in a Nazi-dominated neutral country ... observed, reported and cabled by RAY CLAPPER

Close friend of princes and paupers, genial Ray Clapper, our "cosmic" columnist, has hopped the Atlantic in three jumps—U. S. A. to Bermuda—to Lisbon—to Stockholm, to write the "Inside Story" of Sweden. Encircled and dominated by Nazi intrigue, its small army mobilized to the last man, Sweden has watched, waited, survived while the Axis bombed and invaded its less fortunate neighbors. No country today is a better Listening Post... for when the Big Push in Europe starts, Sweden will be sitting on the 50-yard line.

During the past quarter century, Ray Clapper has written the story of America's coming of age. On the steps of Warren Harding's front porch... in the dusty Courthouse yard at the Scopes evolution trial... in the pelting rain in front of the Capitol during Franklin D. Roosevelt's first inauguration... in a White House ante-room as Japanese Envoys stalled for time while their planes were bombing Pearl Harbor... Clapper has faithfully recorded the passing show for millions of loyal readers. Hitch-hiking in a cargo plane last year, he sent dispatches that reflected the true story of British India seen through the shrewd eyes of Nehru... the crying need of China for more planes, guns and tanks to blow the Japs to Kingdom Come! His colleagues call Clapper "the one man invasion!"

The Ball-Burton-Hatch-Hill Resolution

calls upon the United States Senate to exercise a positive role in preparing for the future peace.

We lost the peace after World War I because 33 men in the U. S. Senate sabotaged all legislative efforts toward international co-operation and organization, refused to allow the United States of America to take her place and responsibility in the League of Nations, and so built up the "Magical Line" of isolationism.

AND WE THE PEOPLE LET THEM DO IT!

33 MEN IN THE U. S. SENATE CAN DO IT AGAIN IF WE THE PEOPLE DON'T WATCH OUT!

is the initial machinery for winning the peace.

HERE IT IS quoted in full from the Congressional Record:

RESOLVED, That the Senate advise that the United States take the initiative in calling meetings of representatives of the United Nations for the purpose of forming an organization of the United Nations with specific and limited authority:

- (1) To assist in coordinating and fully utilizing the military and economic resources of all member nations in the prosecution of the war against the Axis.
- (2) To establish temporary administrations for Axis-controlled areas of the world as these are accepted by United Nations forces, until such time as permanent governments can be established.
- (3) To administer relief and assistance in economic rehabilitation in territories of member nations needing such aid and in Axis territory occupied by United Nations forces.
- (4) To establish procedures and machinery for peaceful settlement of disputes and disagreements between nations.
- (5) To provide for the assembly and maintenance of a United Nations military force and to suppress by immediate use of such force any future attempt at military aggression by any nation.

That the Senate further advise that any establishment of such United Nations organization provide machinery for its modification, or the delegation of additional specific and limited functions to such organizations, and for admission of other nations to membership, and that member nations should commit themselves to seek no territorial aggrandizement.

HELP PUSH THE RESOLUTION THROUGH!

THE SENATORS REALLY WANT TO HEAR FROM THE PEOPLE ON THIS RESOLUTION.

Write to as many of them as you can—especially to the Senators from your own state—and to the U. S. Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Senator Tom Connally, Chairman, Washington, D. C. Today, wherever you shop, rationed items have the same point "costs". A No. 2 can of peas costs the same number of points the country over! But rationed items are lower priced in some stores than in others . . . wider in variety, too! That's why there is good reason for you to come to your A&P Super Market! A&P Supers have made special efforts to have on hand a wide variety of rationed foods . . . to give you a wide selection. In addition, we offer a large assortment of satisfying alternates for foods that have gone to war. And A&P Supers have made a special effort to keep prices down. It will pay you to make A&P your Headquarters for your entire food needs!

Science And Invention

If you had $1,000,000.00 in the bank, you would probably have a real feeling of security that would banish many fear thoughts. Such a huge sum would be a benefit to you if you used it wisely to help others through spending, investment and loans.

As an American, you are the inheritor of vast wealth, not in dollars, stocks and bonds but rather in the ability to use science and inventions—that have provided an improved standard of living. Your ancestors, and many of the present generation, have, through experiment and testing, of millions of good and bad ideas, made tremendous progress by discarding the lower for the higher, and screening out the less desirable things of life. As new things have come into use, they soon make obsolete the things replaced. For example, see how completely fountain pens have replaced the quill and Spencerian pens. The electric lights have replaced oil lamps and gas mantels; automobiles and buses have replaced the horse and buggy, the horse car, the cable car and most of the electric street cars. These are but a few of the things universally discarded.

Many new and beneficial ideas have been adopted as, for example, screen doors. Such a door serves its purpose best when equipped with a spring that will keep it tightly closed against insects and vermin, but will permit the entrance and exit of people. Science and sanitary engineering, soon after the Civil War, pointed the way to this improvement, and when people learned that by screening out insects and disease-carrying vermin they could live longer and more comfortably, screens soon became standard equipment for every home.

Wars naturally lead to many improvements and changes in social customs. In this war, the rationing of tea, coffee and chocolate has brought about very beneficial and far-reaching results. For the first time in the lives of millions of people in all walks of life, in all parts of the country—even the occupants of the White House—have found that the less coffee they drink the better they feel. As a result of this experiment, made necessary by the U boats sinking our ships, millions of people are now drinking more water, milk and other things containing vitamins and essential food elements free from habit-forming drugs. If it's a good thing to cut down on the use of tea, coffee, chocolate, liquor, tobacco and colas (everyone who has tried the experiment admits the benefits), we can guarantee that it is far better to screen out completely the use of all the habit-forming things. The mouth is the screen door and the will power is the spring that needs to be connected and used to keep it closed to all poisonous and deleterious foreign matter.

By using this modern, scientific conception, as millions of people are doing, you will not only be helping yourself but, by your wise and timely action, you will be helping countless others who are daily watching and following your way of life.

People all over the world admire the great progress made by the American people through Science and Invention. Through missionaries, and now through our armed forces on land, sea and air, they are being introduced to our way of life. Through the radio, movies, illustrated magazines and newspapers, our habits and customs are being vividly portrayed.

Let us help our good neighbors by first helping ourselves to find a better way of life. Intelligent self control is needed to eradicate every so-called disease. Try it, and if you have some discomfort in making the change, it will be only temporary. After a few days' break from the old habits, you will be delighted with the new.

Only a Free Press Can Tell the Truth

FREEDOM to think, to talk, to publish, is a priceless boon to mankind. It is a privilege too many of us take for granted. We do not properly appreciate its importance.

There are those in this world, however, who risk their lives—those who die—that the truth may be told. In enslaved Europe Hitler's Gestapo cannot stamp out Free Press. They may kill men and women but others spring up to carry on their underground journalism.

The retention of our Freedom of the Press, as well as Freedom of Speech, of Religion, of Assembly, and of Individual Enterprise, is essential to the preservation of this nation. And when the postwar era dawns we shall appreciate the value of these Freedoms in the rebuilding of a world torn by conflict.

BETTIQUETTE

SAYS

We were spending some time home with our young family recently, perhaps more than usual, and had occasion to watch our "young miss" during her play time. It is amazing how the most inconsequential things become play toys of the young mind. We observed a pot and lid, an old spoon, several cardboard boxes, an old tin snuff, a dish towel, a doll bed since birth all being actively played with by the child.

On the side, mounted high were expensive, humpies, dolls, etc., barely looked at, and for the most part completely ignored. Our conclusion after this, was that sometimes gifts for children are bought which appeal to the adult rather than the young recipient. We notice that young children love highly colored objects, and things they can handle easily. They also love to emulate their elders, and this can be done with smaller copies of items which compose daily life—miniature dishes, furniture, etc. Try to put yourself, if possible, in the position of the youngster, who may be mechanically or domestically inclined, then make your purchase. You will be more than gratified at the pleasure of the child and how long the gift will be in favor. However, don't be lured if the child's attention doesn't remain so long on the gifts as children are notoriously fickle in matters of attention and of course their inability to concentrate too long on an object or subject.

Proper amusement will help develop the mind of the child. Skills can be developed, of course do not try to make a genius or a virtuoso out of ordinary infancy. So many people rush the childhood of their children. Let them enjoy this to the fullest extent, as adulthood with its various problems compose the major part of one's life span.

If you notice quirks or tendencies to colds, or poor posture, don't nag, or harp on the matter; try to correct the fault sanely and intelligently. Don't call your child peculiar names. "You make the name, they'll play the game." If you call your child "bad," they will become "bad" soon enough, so try the psychology of calling the child "good," and see if that works. Try not to lose emotional control in front of the observing child. You will find an unfortunate echo often reported if you don't take that bit of advice from this sage.

If you punish the young offender, be sure the punishment immediately follows the crime. Don't save the punishment for Daddy. So often the young mind forgets his misdeed and the punishment becomes dissociated from the original cause. Hitting, slapping only cause pain, crying, sulkiness and doesn't solve the problem of the frequent wrongdoer. Intelligent handling, sometimes the use of the psychiatrist, or sometimes a good physio will cure the child. Remember there is always a "cause and effect." Sometimes the plant mind of the child absorbs the bad habits of neighboring children. Be sure the child has all playmates—rather no playmates than those of bad moral and sexual habits. A child's whole outlook can become warped by frequent association with such unfortunate and non-guided children. Know the playmates of your child!

THOUGHTS

We have been observing the patriotic advertising of the large utilities of the country—as well as the food companies. Notice how effectively they word their public messages. They try to encourage public morale and at the same time encourage the use of their product without offending the government idea of little spending and bond buying.

Well, the magnolia trees in Springfield are in full bloom this week. Aren't they breath-takingly lovely? We are not one of those individuals that go "gaga" over high mountains and green trees, but we sure do love those magnolias. It brings to mind our early childhood when our grandparents owned a home with a large grape vine and magnolia tree. This tree was the dream of childhood come true, with a large spreading branch, and seat enough for us to sit and enjoy the passersby. We often think this garden prevented us from having the type of children that children do who are cliff dwellers (live in apartment houses).

Well, now that Spring seems to be here to stay, we hope, it is the time for all the clothes, covers, curtains to emerge for their annual Spring rejuvenating process. Wouldn't it be nice girls, if we could go to sleep and wake up the next morning with it all completed during the night by the Pixies? Dream on, Macbeth, dream on...

Reports From Sweden In World Telegram

The New York World-Telegram last week started an advertising campaign in suburban newspapers. A half-page ad appearing in this week's Herald announces that Ray Clapper, columnist, left several days ago for Stockholm, Sweden, where he will report the way of life in a Nazi dominated neutral country.

Clapper is among the country's most noted newsmen. In 1930, he covered the London Disarmament Conference, and he was the first to get the story of the selection of Wavon G. Harding as presidential candidate and of Gen. Hugh S. Johnson's retirement as head of the NIRA.

In 1941, he flew to London and observed the wartime condition in the British Isles for several weeks, and last year he flew more than 33,000 miles and recorded his impressions of war around the world.

Victory gardeners planning to cultivate plots away from their homes will be eligible for extra rations of gasoline this summer if they can show need for extra mileage. Mileage rationing regulations are amended to provide up to 200 miles for six months for victory garden travel, if the car owner: (1) is regularly cultivating a tract of vegetables of 1,500 square feet or more; (2) cannot get to his garden any other way and shows his labor is necessary to it; and (3) arranges, if possible, to share his car with other gardeners.

With rationing regulations of gasoline this summer, one extra gallon will be given for one extra acre. These extra gallons are not applicable to the 100-gallon limit which was previously set for drivers with motor-vehicle licenses over 250 in a city.

To help high school students find their proper place in the army or in war industry, each will soon be issued a card record of his school and job history. These educational experience summary record cards will contain such information as a student's reading standing and achievement, vocational and pre-induction preparation.

Effective May 4, passenger car bon, were carrying experience records, points on license and car country number.

Replacement tires with about 10000 miles on them are eligible for one extra gallon. These extra gallons are not applicable to the 100-gallon limit which was previously set for drivers with motor-vehicle licenses over 250 in a city.

Maximum prices for used washing machines sold by dealers, and those owned by individuals have been established by OPA. Rates for retail of used washers limit prices to $1.50 for the first month and $2.50 monthly thereafter, regardless of the type of machine rental.

Retail selling prices for beef and lamb will be reduced one to three cents a pound below the ceiling originally scheduled to take effect April 15. The new prices become effective May 17 and will be uniform throughout the country for steers of the same type.

An orientation book for high school students planning to enter one of the armed services has been published by the U. S. Office of Education in cooperation with the U. S. Infantry Association. The book, "Our Armed Forces," gives the history, background, and traditions of the Army, Navy, Coast Guard, and Marine Corps, and answers many questions. It may be ordered from the Infantry Journal, 115 17th Street Northwest, Washington, D. C. The price is 35 cents per copy; or to applicants, teachers and schools, 25 cents per copy in quantities of four or more.

Press Helps Bond Drive

To the Editor of the SUN:

Dear Sir: This is to thank you for the cooperation you rendered in publicizing the Second War Loan Drive during the month of April. New Jersey surpassed her goal and this great achievement, of which we are very proud, would not have been possible had it not been for the consistent cooperation of your newspaper and the New Jersey Press in general.

To thank you for your assistance during the April Drive is not enough, for you have been constantly helping in promoting War Bond and Stamp sales since the very inception of the program back in May 1941. This has meant not only the spreading of the message "Lead not Spend" but it has also reflected itself in increased Bond purchases from month to month.

I hope this letter will in some

REGIONAL TRACK MEET

When the Summit High School-Regional High School track was postponed last Friday because of the rain, it marked the second postponement within a week. Summit coach, N. H. McGilvin, is not very hopeful that the match can now be held, although he has tentatively planned to hold it here, May 20. Conflicting dates with other of the school's athletic contests may preclude its being held at all.

MOUNTAINSIDERS Five Mountainside boys, Privates Gilbert P. Bauer of Central avenue, Harry Bellan of Central avenue, Charles Homaker of Locust avenue, Charles Layton of Summit avenue, and Bill Lenchau of Apple Tree lane, are expected to soon complete their basic training at Camp Wheeler, Georgia.
