BETTIQUETTE SAYS

We find entertaining one of our year-round joys. How about you? We wonder that people build homes without dining rooms. The "dining room" is one of the great American institutions. When Thanksgiving and Christmas come, it is indeed a thrill to have all the members of the family gathered around the heavily laden festive board. The "dining room" helps to keep the house less congested and messed up when it comes to serving. Springfielders are blessed in that most of the homes have ground and porches to help keep one cool in the torrid weather. Paper napkins and similar paper items are a help on the laundry which is always heavy. In the summer use all the household tricks you know to lighten household work. A cheerful, cool major dome is greatly appreciated by a hot hard working family. Cool drinks made in gallon quantities, poured and iced as needed, salads prepared ahead and just tossed together either at the table or just before serving, so that they retain their fresh crisp look, tempting light-desserts all help keep the family stomachs as well as those of guests very happy. Self examination is a good thing to do periodically. How many of us are too demanding? How many of us expect many favors from the other fellow, giving back very little in return? We may wonder why we are not so popular. Perhaps that is the reason. Some of us become physically sloppy, so that people avoid us. We certainly don't advocate a new dress every week, but new accessories, tasteful colors, clean clothes all make a person more inviting as a companion. Keeping up with current topics, books, ideas, changes all help to make one an interesting conversationalist. Don't harp upon the war and associated things constantly. We are all worried and don't need any encouragement along those lines. Another thing, don't burden your companions with your troubles. That good old hackneyed expression "Laugh and the world laughs with you; cry and you cry alone" is only too true. All these things if observed will help you as an individual to be better liked. Don't try to force popularity, it is an intangible thing which is self nourishing, and once developed grows on its own momentum. Time—that elusive element that so many of us do not know how to utilize. How many of us do not have the time to do things? We have a little pot theory that every one has the time to do the things they want to do, but little time to do the unpleasant tasks. A truly busy person has a well planned week, each day mapped out according to schedule so that all the little and big things are accomplished. Such a system can be set up for the business person as well as the housekeeper. This columnist can say that without any qualms, as we follow this idea in our personal life. Vacation time is here. Some of our more fortunate brethren will go away to the shore, mountain or lake. Cruises (outside of the Great Lake ones) are most assuredly out for the duration, and for some time to come. Buy your vacation needs with the idea of their practicability and use when you come home. Avoid fancy items, a selection is going to lessen with the length of the war. Check for vacation can be divided in several categories, the morning clothes which include play suits, slacks and halter sets. Try to get some of each, but be sure they are flattering. Don't look like a walking tent or a skinny boat pole! Then of course we need swim clothes. In this evening we present character sketches—with a dressy number for Saturday evening gaily. The Sunday morning church gear will need hats and white gloves. Practically no hats will be worn otherwise, just little hair ornaments of flowers, pins, bows, etc. As for foot gear, good walking shoes, play shoes, and a pair of dressy whites. Under your dark sheer dresses, wear a navy crepe slip. Light colored slips spoil that type of coloring. That idea can be carried over into the dark fall clothes, soon to

Ways To Can Tomatoes

By MARY W. ARMSTRONG,
County Home Demonstration Agent

Everyone realizes the high nutritive value of tomatoes, and fortunately they are so easily canned that every pantry shelf can be well-stocked with them this winter. If there should be a shortage of fruits commonly eaten as a source of vitamin C, the faithful tomato will take care of that requirement in the daily diet.

In order to provide a supply of tomatoes and tomato juice ample enough to serve either one or the other three times a week, you will need to plan on canning 20 quarts for each member of the family. One bushel of tomatoes, weighing 55 pounds, will fill about 15 quarts. Select only sound, firm, but thoroughly ripened tomatoes for canning. It is better to use spotted or decayed fruits on the table immediately than to risk spoiling a whole jar of food. If you want to can whole tomatoes, select medium-sized ones that will slide through the jar opening easily. Tomatoes may be canned either by the hot-pack or the cold-pack method, but in each instance the fruit must be washed and scalded to loosen the skin. Place eight or 10 tomatoes in a shallow wire basket or in a large square of cheesecloth by which they can be lowered into the boiling water for a minute or less—depending upon the ripeness of the fruit. Then plunge them quickly into cold water, drain, peel, and core them, being careful to remove every bit of the core.

Cold-picked Tomatoes
The greatest amount of vitamin C is retained by this method, because all of the cooking is done within the jar in the absence of air. On the other hand, to allow for the shrinkage of the food as it is processed, the cold tomatoes should be packed very tightly. Pressing each tomato down firmly into the jar with a spoon will leave only a few spaces to be filled with hot tomato juice. Add one teaspoon of salt to each quart. Remove bubbles of air by running a knife down the inside of the jar and see that the jars are filled to within one-half inch of the top.

Seal the jars according to the manufacturer's instructions and process them for 35 minutes in a hot water bath. Or process them in a heat-regulated oven set at 250 degrees Fahrenheit for 60 minutes.

Tomato Juice
Tomatoes to be used for juice should be washed well, but the skins should be left on. Cut the tomatoes into quarters or eighths after removing all of the green core. Simmer slowly (at 170- to 180 degrees Fahrenheit) until softened.

Work with only one or two gallons of tomatoes at a time, to prevent any fruit or juice from being exposed to the air for long periods. Some cooks like to add herbs (a crumbled bay leaf, a pinch of thyme or marjoram, some celery seed) to the tomatoes in the first cooking period if the juice is to be used as an appetizer. Spices, however, should not be added until the juice is served, because they discolor it and change the flavor undesirably. Rub the softened tomatoes through a sieve or food mill. Reheat the juice at once to 190 degrees Fahrenheit, which is just below boiling. A candy thermometer will help you to determine this temperature accurately. Bottles, jars, covers, and bottle caps should be sterilized for 10 minutes before they are filled. Put one teaspoon of salt in each quart container and fill it to the very top. Seal the bottles or jars immediately and process for five minutes at a simmering temperature in a hot water bath, or for 15 minutes in a heat-regulated oven set at 250 degrees Fahrenheit.

NEXT WEEK: Jars of Jersey Peaches.

Lesson-Sermon

"Truth" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, July 25, in all Christian Science Churches and Societies throughout the world. The Golden Text is: "It is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth." (1 John 5:6).

Among the Lesson-Sermon citations is the following from the Bible: "I have chosen the way of truth; thy judgments have I had before me. Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; yet, I shall observe it with my whole heart." (Ps. 119:30, 31). Following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The spiritual sense of truth must be gained before Truth can be understood." (p. 272).

Paper-Mill Playhouse Has Large Audiences Despite Gas Shortage

Continued large audiences at "Rio Rita" now running at the Paper Mill Playhouse of Millburn, testify that folks are learning it is not, after all, much of a hardship to take a brief run by train to the Millburn center and then a short walk to the theatre itself. And there are other assets, the grounds by the brook are pleasantly cool in hot evenings, the spacious lobby is a fine place in which to foregather and the picture gallery always has an exhibit to help pass a little time before the show.

Chief credit, however, must be given to the performance itself for it is rare to find a star who is both a singer of high rank and an accomplished dancer as is Suzanne Stone. Her spirited and graceful performance as a dancer is equal to her fine rendering of songs and duets.

"Rio Rita" will continue at the theatre until July 30 when it will be replaced by "The Count of Maritz".

"I Just Followed the Directions in the Book"

"I got a copy of the Public Service booklet on canning and followed the directions to the letter. I never believed it would be so easy to do canning. Just think, I raised those vegetables in my own garden and now I've canned them. I'm so proud of all the jars on my pantry shelf." New Jersey homemakers responded eagerly to the government's request that home canning be done. We expected this generous response and we knew they would want to know the most up-to-date and dependable methods of canning, so we asked our Home Economics Department to compile a booklet on canning. It is given away free at any of our Nutrition and Conservation Centers. Be sure to ask for a copy.

RESPONDS TO EVERY EMERGENCY

Equipped With Latest of Modern Facilities
Contains Provision For Twenty Cots For Patients.

MOUNTAINIDE In a large building back of the Cates Memorial Home, in Highway 29, which 25 years ago was a large barn owned by the Cates Estate, and 20 years ago was used as a dormitory for boys who were brought out from the city for a summer outing, residents of Mountainide have equipped a Casualty Station which contains 20 cots already set up.

At the foot of each cot, there is a sealed container in which there is a blanket two sheets and a pillow case. These are also six extra cots in reserve and 60 extra blankets, which have been loaned for the duration.

Adjoining the main room containing the cots, is the Receiving Room, which contains an examining table, which can be extended out for an examining room. There is also an additional room, containing two inventories, a bathtub and a four-foot porcelain wash tray with faucet; ample closet space, completely equipped with everything which may be needed in case of an emergency. The building can be heated with a large cylinder stove, which is claimed gives out ample heat for the entire building.

The Station is also equipped with the necessary instruments required by the OGB. After an inspection made by a state inspector last November, workers at the Casualty Station were complimented on what they have accomplished at a maximum cost of not more than $80.

Large folding doors form the entrance to the Receiving Room where an ambulance can easily back in, in case of emergency.

On the wall near the entrance to the main room is a large placard on which is written the Casualty Station schedule and the names of the workers, time schedule and duties. Richard G. Keller, a registered pharmacist, residing in Whippoorwill-way, is deputy of emergency medical services. He is also Captain of the Rescue Squad and first aid instructor in the borough.

Dr. Moya Unna is casualty station physician. Mrs. Kathleen Norris, a registered nurse, is in charge of the functioning of the casualty station, and Mrs. Joseph H. Hershey is personal director.

Members of the casualty station are as follows: Mrs. Fred Roderer, Mrs. Russell Knapp, Mrs. Henry Weber, Mrs. Wilfred Twayman, Mrs. Gilbert Pfittenger, Mrs. John M. Pfeiffer, Mrs. Paul Davis, Mrs. Albert B. Volty, Mrs. Charles Belvidere Murphy, Mrs. R. W. Kapke, Mrs. Paul Williams, Mrs. Fred Spitzhoff, Mrs. Howard Beyers and Mrs. William Hasebeck.

In every practice blackout in the borough, the casualty station workers report to the station, and the first person to arrive immediately calls the Central Center on the telephone and reports that the casualty station is manned. After the siren sounds the "all clear" the Central Center calls and a report is submitted as to how many workers were stationed there during the blackout.

Mountainide also has its own ambulance which is owned by the Rescue Squad. The ambulance was purchased in 1933 and made its first call in October of that year. No charges are made for its use, but donations are accepted. The cot in the ambulance was given by the Mountainide Garden Club and bears a plaque with an inscription to the memory of the late Louise C. Rader.

The initial first aid training to the original members of the Rescue Squad was given by George Koehnlich of Westfield.

Once Reported Missing In Action, Now Promoted To Corporal

MOUNTAINIDE—Pvt. Robert E. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forest B. Johnson of 2 Poplar street, once reported missing in action in North Africa, has been promoted to the rank of corporal, Corporal Johnson, who joined the army in April of 1942, spent 12 weeks at Camp Croft and Indiantown Gap, Pa., receiving his basic training. From here he was sent to England and thence to North Africa on November 1. It was shortly following this that he was listed as missing, but on December 15 Mrs. Johnson received a telegram from the war department, saying that her son was alive and in good health.

Corporal Johnson, referring in one of his letters home to the "shoulder" of his uniform, said: "It was given this outfit by the French in 1918 for its gallant fighting and only certain ones are permitted to wear it. It is outstanding and was awarded to me as it has a great meaning and we have a lot to live for!"

A graduate of Thomas Jefferson High School, Elizabeth, Corporal Johnson lived with his family on Lafayette street, Elizabeth, until they moved to Mountainide.

Miss Schaeffer Assumes Duties As Technician

MOUNTAINIDE—Miss Margaret Schaeffer of Indianapolis, Indiana, is the new State Kymy technician at the Children's Country Home. Miss Schaeffer was educated in Germany and is a graduate of the Polytechnic of Berlin University in physiotherapy. She is also a graduate of the Professional Institute in Richmond, Va., and has been at the James Whitcomb Riley Hospital in Indiana for the past one and a half years. There are two other technicians at the Home: Miss Alma Seiber, and Miss Violet Porozekski.

Honor Bride-Elect At Surprise Party

MOUNTAINIDE—Miss Jane Young Rodgers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Greth Rodgers of New Providence road, was the honor guest at a surprise shower given Friday afternoon by Mrs. George Dauenhour, also of New Providence road. Guests included Mrs. Marguerite Rathbone, Mrs. Harry Brown, Mrs. Fred Revaz, Mrs. Wilfred Twayman, Miss Elizabeth Johnston, Mrs. Wm. D. Wallace, Mrs. Russell Knapp and Mrs. H. J. Kazmar, Miss Lily Johnson and Mrs. Charles Wadas.

The very attractive decorations were in yellow and green. A waterfall ran, hung high, had ribbons flowing from it like water and these were attached to the various gifts. The centerpiece was a huge basket of yellow and tangierine day lilies. In the dining room, where refreshments were served, the color scheme was yellow and green with accents of lavender and orchid. The centerpiece was composed of Mexican zinnias, snapdragons, larkspurs and a small lavender flower. Placed cards were miniature and-fashioned bouquets in yellow and green.

Prior to the shower, Mrs. Fred Revaz of Whippoorwill way entertained Miss Rodgers, her mother and Mrs. Richard Liebert at luncheon.

Miss Rodgers and the Rev. Anstey Gerard VanDyke of Toms River, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garret VanDyke of Millbank Park, will be married Saturday at 4:30 P. M. in the Mountainide Union Chapel. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Richard Van Dyke, brother of the bridegroom-elect, assisted by the Rev. S. Thomas Burns. A reception for relatives and friends will follow in the Rodgers' home. Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers will entertain the bridal party this evening.

Borough Levies Many Fines In Traffic Court

MOUNTAINIDE—In Police Court last Thursday night, Recorder Charles Dunn fined several motorists for various offenses. Clarence E. Manzano of Stewartsville, was fined $2.00 for passing a red light. Joseph B. Young of Scotch Plains and Moe Wencil of Lynwood, N. Y., were fined $5.00 and $7.00 respectively for speeding. For passing a stop sign, Frank Schwabner of West Orange had to pay $2.00. Michael Spuder, New York City, who received a summons for having no driver's license, has enlisted in the U. S. Navy, and the case was referred to the State Motor Vehicle Department for disposal.

Daryl Fischman of Grand Course, New York, and George Kish of Newark were fined for speeding, $12 and $13, respectively. The case of Joseph Riccio, New York, was dismissed. He had received a summons to appear for not having the proper license for the State of New Jersey. He showed proof that he was being legally in New York, but was only rooming in Plainfield.

"Before you know it... it's time to go home!"

SAYS THE GIRL WHO WORKS AT WESTON'S Mrs. Gertrude L. Zboray, Linden, N. J.

1 "I WAS BORED to tears around home, but just the same, I decided the idea of working in a big, busy plant. So when my friends bragged about their jobs at Weston's and suggested that I get a job with them, the best I could say was 'maybe'."

2 "THE EMPLOYMENT PEOPLE at Weston's were simply swell. They told me about the ten-hour hours—how I'd get paid even while I was learning—and that I'd be given every opportunity in the world for advancement if I demonstrated ability. I decided to try it."

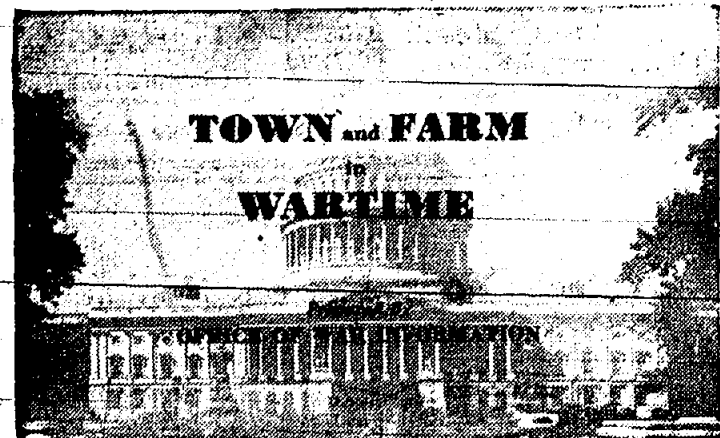

3 "IT'S EASY! And honestly, the time passes before you know it. I suppose that's because the work is so interesting—and because the plant itself is so clean and quiet. Then too, you meet so many grand people."

4 "I FEEL BETTER, too! In the first place, I know I'm doing something worth while to help win this war. That means a lot. And at the same time, I can buy more War Bonds, and have more money to spend on things I've always wanted!"

Yes, there's a job for you at Weston's—a big job in terms of what it will accomplish in helping to win this war—but an easy job in actual working terms. Our plant is light, clean and airy. There's an up-to-date cafeteria to serve you wholesome, nourishing meals at low cost. Hours are reasonable—one of our many shifts should certainly prove convenient. Transportation is convenient—all No. 11, 12, 62 and 24 buses stop at our door. In addition, there are established transportation groups which may meet your needs completely. If you are not now in war work, call at our employment office. You'll get a hearty welcome.

TOWN and FARM
WARTIME

Soldiers at home or abroad are reminded that less than three weeks remain in which they can get National Service Life Insurance without a physical examination. Until August 10, 1943, every application will be accepted regardless of the individual's medical condition. After August 10 a right physical examination will be required.

A program to make clothes rationing unnecessary, recently announced by Donald M. Nelson, chairman of WPB, contains these six points: (1) increased production, (2) orderly and adequate distribution, (3) more "valuable" merchandise, (4) allocation of materials to essential needs, (5) increased imports of cloth, and (6) proper care of clothing by consumers. There is an adequate supply of textiles to meet civilian needs, the WPB has determined.

Farmers are entitled to first call by receiving motor fuel when they present valid "E," "H" or bulk coupons or ration checks which are issued pursuant to Union Order 5-C of the Office of Price Administration. Dealers (whether retail or wholesale) must accord them this privilege. This means that if necessary, the dealer shall not deliver any motor fuel for any non-agricultural or non-military use until those preferred demands have been "satisfied" — statement by Acting Petroleum Administrator for War Ralph K. Davies.

Canned Vegetables and Fruits
Nearly 70 percent of the canned vegetables, and 53 per cent of the canned fruits and juices available in the next 12 months will go to feed civilians. These quantities, allocated by the WPA for the 12 months beginning July 1, constitute about 4 percent more canned vegetables but about 40 percent less canned fruit than were consumed on the average during the 1935-39 period.

American soldiers overseas except those in Alaska, Hawaii, Panama Canal Zone, and Puerto Rico may now send money home by radio. In a recent week more than 9,000 soldiers sent nearly $1,000,000 in amounts of $10 or more, with no maximum limit. Money may be transmitted to an individual payee or to a bank. The process is speedy and sure. If a soldier desires to do so, he may also purchase war bonds by this method.

Corn cannot be used for manufacture of distilled spirits and high wines, a recent directive of the War Production Board says. The action was taken to conserve stocks of corn for essential purposes, although the amount of corn saved is likely to be small because distillers already had shifted largely to the use of wheat.

Farm land values on March 1, 1943 were higher than they were in 1942, the Bureau of Agricultural Economics said, in explaining that the index of average per acre values had risen to 99. (1912-14 equals 100). The index of average per acre values in March, 1942, was 91. A low point of 33 was reached in 1933 in the aftermath of inflation started during the last war. One anti-inflationary force at the present time is the fact that many farmers have been using a considerable part of their cash income to pay off mortgage debts.

American housewives salvaged almost 8 million pounds of waste kitchen fats in May—highest total since the fats and grease salvage program was started. This result surprised government officials who said that a drop might have been expected because meats and fats have been rationed since March. Nevertheless, the 8 million pounds is only about 50 percent of the needed quota of 16,667,000 pounds per month.

Effective July 20, a rollback of about 25 percent in the price of home-made soap in the price of cabbage was ordered by the OPA. This was the first step in a program to curb the excessive prices of fresh fruits and vegetables to keep the cost of living down.

OPA will continue to establish community-wide prices on foods sold at retail, even though it has recently issued over-all fixed mark-up regulations. The housewife cannot easily tell whether a storekeeper has made his prices by the mark-up method, and that is the reason OPA will proceed with community-wide maxima.

Editor's Mail

To the Editor of the SUN: I have been thinking that you might appreciate a detailed description of the course and program undertaken by an aviation cadet in the Army Air Corps in order to pass it on to some of the young fellows who are interested in the air.

Before I start, let me make one thing clear—war is not a picnic. It is a serious affair. To use the word "business" is, I think, too scornful, hence "affair." There is no time for play when war takes hold of men's lives. Those who undertake a war in any part whatsoever and try to play it are in for a huge disappointment, and let no young man make any mistake about that. We are in this for keeps and we must win in order to have homes-and-family relations to return to when the victory and also peace have been won. God knows we all want that day to be soon.

First of all, the cadet program has been changed in some respects since I enlisted a year ago. Now, after enlistment, the fellow is sent to one of the many colleges for what may be termed preflight training. This consists of recitations and drill and physical training in a concentrated form. All designed to prepare the future cadet for the rigorous course which lies ahead. It may also be considered as a period of adjustment from civilian life and includes some of the features of basic military training and future officer training. One attraction of this preliminary course is the introduction to the air that the future "pilot" gets in a ten-hour dual instruction program in light planes of a non-military type. Through all of this and later comes the competitive spirit which is the keynote of the training.

Then from the college you are sent to one of the Air Force Classification-Centers where a series of physical, physical and aptitude tests are given to determine which of the three types of air crew training you are to receive, pilot, navigator or bombardier, depending upon your preference and ability. Physical fitness and mental alertness are the big factors in classification. After being appropriately classified, the young man is appointed a cadet and is sent to the preflight school of his type of classification. As I am in the pilot training course I will stick to that side of the picture.

At preflight the cadet is introduced to the class system, a part of which he underwent at preflight. This is a system similar to that at West Point and Annapolis, designed to fit the concentrated program and to afford a basis of choosing the best possible officer.

Private Norman Ziegenfuss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ziegenfuss, of 387 Morris Avenue, left Saturday after a fifteen day tour of duty with his parents. Ziegenfuss is stationed at Hunter Field, Ga.

The following letter was received this week from William H. Smith, A/S, U.S.N.R.: "I wish to thank you very much for sending me the SUN. To me, the SUN brings news of old classmates at Regional High School and makes me feel like I'm back in the service and news of the interesting events that happen in Springfield. For example, I especially enjoyed your column and pictures of the July 4 celebration. Although I was unable to participate in this celebration, the SUN made me feel as though I had."

Walter Sommer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sommer of Livingstonville, has recently been promoted from Private, 57th First Class Private, Private Sommer, who has been in the service for six months, is stationed at North Camp Hood, Texas.

MOUNTAINSIDE: We received a V. Mail letter this week from Technical Sergeant Michael Guilfoyle, stationed somewhere in North Africa. The letter reads: "For quite sometime now I have been putting off writing to you. It seems I could not decide just what to write about. Now I have made up my mind. "It really strikes a man hard when he hears that some of his former schoolmates have died in service of their country. So I wish you would pass on to the parents of J. Thomas Allen and Cadet Dick Sackal my sincerest sympathies and I'm sure their deaths will be avenged a thousand fold. "Although these men did not die in combat the mere fact that they were in the service of their country when their Maker called will make every alumnus of Regional High School strive a little harder to make this a Total Victory. "In closing I wish to say to the members of your staff: Keep up the good work you are doing in the war effort and thanks a lot for the SUN, it's always shining." Sgt. Guilfoyle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guilfoyle of Central Avenue.
