MEMO TO HOUSEWIFE
Take care of your timepieces! Some clock repairs won't guarantee return for three or four months. U. S. manufacturers are making no new watches for civilians.

Washington hears that poultry cages and tobacco are not going to be rationed.

It's possible your post-war language will be made from synthetic rubber. Experiments show it's long wearing, waterproof, highly resistant to effects of high temperatures.

More gasoline is burned every day in this war by the United States war planes than the United States military machine used for all purposes during the last year.

Tread lightly on your rug! Authorities say unless fast dissolving wool supply is replenished, there will soon be no rug-making business. Biggest sources are India, China and Argentina.

Commercial food and vegetable pack will be about 30 per cent less than last year's supply. Artichokes, berries, spinach, asparagus, prunes and fruit cocktail will be particularly hard to get.

How would you like a "brewed" steak? One large brewing company is producing a synthetic beefsteak made by mixing molasses, water and yeast.

You're going to have your own clothes this fall. Everything except their ties will be hard to get, with underwear scarest of all.

Surveys show that eight out of ten men ask for red roses when they buy flowers. Which reminds you, roses are fewer and higher priced this year.

Civilian butter supply has been cut 20 per cent and ration points have been increased 10 points.

Good news! Maybe we'll be getting nylon soon. This unworked Army overhought nylon for parachute making and some may be released for civilian use soon.

TOWN and FARM in WARTIME

Stay off trains and inter-city buses over Labor Day week-end—this is the plea of Joseph B. Eastman, director of the Office of Defense Transportation. Mr. Eastman, in asking the public to spend Labor Day week-end at home, said that failure to follow this advice might result in travel congestion worse than that experienced over the Fourth of July week-end. Mr. Eastman pointed out that transportation equipment formerly available for holiday travel is now in troop service or used to handle the greatly expanded military and essential civilian traffic.

After October 1 when drafting fathers begins, those in non-deferred activities or occupations, regardless of their order numbers, will be the first fathers called for military service. Those who transfer to essential occupations and thus release single men for military service help to decrease the need for drafting fathers. Generally speaking, after October 1, the occupation of an eligible registrant will determine whether he will be inducted or deferred if his number is called. However, the question of hardship to dependents must be given consideration in each case.

Christmas gifts to Naval and Marine personnel overseas should be sent before September 15 and November 15, respectively—this is the plea of the Navy Department in cooperation with the Post Office Department. Parcels must not exceed five pounds in weight.

With millions of pounds of waste kitchen fats still needed to meet war demands, Paul C. Cabot, Director of WPI Salvage Division, recently urged housewives to remember that even if accumulated fats become rancid, they still contain a majority of the valuable glycerine that goes into war production. Some housewives, believing that rancid fats are valueless, have not been turning them in for salvage. This has resulted in the loss of thousands of pounds of glycerine that could have been processed for these fats.

It is estimated that enough waste fats are salvaged in Army camps within the continental U. S. to make 1,500,000 pounds of dynamite each month, and still leave a residue of rancid grease from which 5,000,000 pounds of soap stock may be made.

Because more than 10 percent of the mail destined for overseas is incorrectly or insufficiently addressed, the War Department has asked that the sender be sure to give the soldier's rank, name, Army serial number, organization, and Army Post Office number. Following is a model address:

Pl. John Doe, ASN 1234567890
Battery B, 27th Field, Artillery
Battalion
APO 29, c/o The Postmaster, New York, N. Y.

The War Department also asks that families and friends of soldiers send clippings instead of periodicals whenever possible to save cargo space.

Harvesting America's war-time food and fiber crops will require the employment of at least 750,000 more persons on farms by October 1. The farm labor force on August 1 was approximately 11 million. Throughout the country, business men, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, townpeople, women, and high school students have been helping farmers. To insure that there will be no important crop losses because of labor shortage, farmers will need the help of many thousands of U. S. Crop Corps volunteers. The Crop Corps is established now in most agricultural counties, and civilian groups in most large cities have the machinery for outfitting volunteers. Recruitment of workers is handled locally by the agricultural extension workers and the U. S. Employment Service. Volunteers are paid established wages.

Many American hospitals cannot maintain normal standards of service today because of the lack of nurses, according to reports made to the U. S. Public Health Service of the Federal Security Agency. A year from now America will need 250,000 nurses—or 100,000 more than are now available. Of this number 60,000 will be needed for military service and 250,000 for civilians. Because of limited facilities, the maximum that can be trained within the period is 65,000.

LOOKING BACKWARD

Ten Years Ago

AUGUST 27, 1933
Falling power and telephone lines, made of cross-strawed about streets and lack of current in many local homes marked the height of one of the worst storms in the history of the Atlantic coast. With a terrific northeast wind blowing from the sea, considerable damage amounting to thousands of dollars left its wake throughout the state and country. At times the gale reached a maximum speed of 60 miles. It caused the worse damage to the telephone poles and wires ever seen by W. R. Whittington, manager of the Jersey Central Power and Light Co. in Millburn in his 35 years of service with the Company. Poles blocked off the area around the old Siskley hotel in Morris avenue as falling bricks from a chimney threatened pedestrians and passing automobiles.

Skidding on a wet pavement, a car operated by Mrs. Fannie W. Swan of Naneeth, N. Y., crashed in Mountain avenue, into a greenhouse owned by Leon C. Rubin, florist, causing considerable damage to the machine and building. Police reported there were no injuries.

Playing at the Roth-Strand Theatre in Summit were "The Strangers Return" with Lionel Barrymore, Miriam Hopkins and Franz Scherz, and "Destination Unknown" with Ralph Bellamy, Betty Compson and Pat O'Brien.

Five Years Ago
AUGUST 27, 1938
Regional High School's football candidates assembled for their initial practice. Outstanding members of the 1937 team, who were returned in '38 were Bill Glowacki, John McGeehan, Nick Druzek, John Parze, Tom Allen, Charles Adams, Stanley Roll, Al Henry, Alby Davis, Jim Neville and Charles Roll.

Announcement was made by the Works Progress Administration at Washington that a total list of sidewalk, curb and gutter projects for Springfield had been approved in the amount of $96,992.

Because of objections raised by Public Service Co.-Ordinated Transport and Jersey Central Railroad, the proposed combination bus fare rate of Somerset Bus Co., announced last week to go into effect September 1, was temporarily delayed.

One Year Ago
AUGUST 27, 1942
Two residents of town—and one Mountainside man was arrested by the FBI agents in what was part of a net among 100 New Jersey enemy aliens, believed to be the largest roundup of aliens so far in the East.

Louis Ernest Karch, 27, a painter and also a machinist, of 230 Morris avenue was picked up by the FBI. A local housewife was also picked up by the FBI, but was released to the custody of the agents. The Mountainside man, William Fremuth, 28, of Central avenue, a resident of the borough for two years, was taken by FBI men.

Five boys who were home recently on leaves from the U. S. Navy were Robert Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wilson of 57 Tooker avenue; Edward J. Galvin, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Galvin of 98 Tooker avenue; Philip Cull, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Cull of 236 Morris avenue and Pat and Carl Sacco, sons of Mr. and Mrs. P. Sacco of 46 South Maple avenue. A five-year-old boy was given to Edward Beyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Beyer of 99 Battle Hill avenue, who joined the U. S. Navy.
