Air Experiences Over Italy Told By Lieut. Staehle

Lt. Daniel Staehle, just returned from a long period of overseas service, addressed the Springfield Lions Club at their regular meeting Friday night at the Orchard Inn on Route 29. Lt. Staehle, in a modest and courteous manner answered a bombardment of questions coming from the Lions.

He said that in meeting an enemy plane at 40,000 feet there isn't much danger providing you see him first. He was of the opinion that the German Air Force has lost its morale, at least in the Italian theater of war because they refused to fight and often times even though an American plane was outnumbered by the Germans 5 to 1, the Germans would run away.

Lt. Staehle mentioned that on many occasions the American boys have deliberately swooped in on German air bases trying to get the Germans to fight, but they flatly refused.

He said that the reason for the delayed action in the Italian theater of war was simply because in most cases the cities were laid to waste but beneath the waste was an underground network that could not be bombed out but that our infantry had to go down into these tunnels and smoke, and hand grenades the Germans out one by one before they could actually be considered captured.

It appears that all the fine work and effort put forth by Springfield in the past campaigns in supporting such great and noble causes as the USO, Prisoners Relief and especially the Red Cross, has not been in vain because Lt. Staehle reported that these organizations are doing a splendid job and that the Red Cross is right out there in the front lines doing a noble job and that they really are the "mother" of the boys in service.

Business Men In Opening Meeting, Discuss Closing

The first meeting of the Springfield Business Men's Association was held last Thursday in Orchard Inn and was devoted to a general discussion of future activities, discarding actual business during the latter date.

Henry C. McMullen, attorney, acted as temporary chairman. Members agreed the organization would promote the good and welfare of Springfield.

A committee headed by James Funchion was appointed to contact all business men and women and professional men to attend the next meeting on the evening of Thursday, June 22, at a place to be announced.

It was also decided to approach legal business men to determine a closing day during the week during the Summer vacation months. The majority of those present favored all day Wednesday, although several spoke for Monday closing. It will be announced after conferring with the business men by a special committee chosen, which day will be selected.

A discussion of good and welfare followed, during which time Mr. McMullen, as chairman of the Planning Board, outlined how that body could benefit the business men's interests as well as the entire township's. Permanent officers will be elected at a later meeting.

Chairman Appeals For Full Support On 5th War Loan

On the opening of the Fifth War Loan Drive which starts on June 12, Malcolm W. Leonard, chairman of the drive, said, "The Fifth War Loan Drive in Springfield comes at a time when the history of our country and of the world is in the making. We all hope and pray that the invasion will not only be highly successful but that our boys will not have to suffer too high a loss for the victory which must be ours."

"While our brothers, sons and husbands are making a real sacrifice in France at this moment, I am sure every one of us is glad to do everything we can to help. Now that the invasion has started we must not relax in our efforts. To the contrary it is vital that we continue to supply the planes, tanks, guns, ammunition and vast quantities of food to our armed forces to bring the war to its successful and inevitable conclusion. In order to continue the providing of these sinews of war, America asks that we loan our money at good interest to the government. Let us do our part now and help finish this job."

"Between June 12 and July 8 the air raid wardens, assisted by some of their friends will make a house to house canvass of the entire township. You may purchase bonds from these men and women with a check drawn in favor of either the First National Bank of Springfield or The Postmaster, Springfield, N. J."

"You may make your purchase by signifying on the application form that you authorize the First National Bank to charge your account at that bank. You may if you wish, elect to pay for your bonds a few weeks later, but before the drive is over, at the bank or the post office, whichever you may designate. In any case you are expected to collect your bonds at the bank or post office three or four days after the warden calls, presenting the receipt he will give to you. Please do not ask the warden to accept cash."

"The men responsible for this important task in their various Defense Zones are as follows: Zone A, Edward Pearson; Zone B, Fred Braun and George Dunster; Zone C, Charles Fancie; Zone D, Charles Nelson; Zone E, William Young; Zone F, Arthur Marshall; Zone G, Bert Layner; and Zone H, William Grampp."

"Large thermometers for indicating the progress of the drive have been installed, one at the First National Bank and another at the Springfield Post Office. Buy Bonds and Bust the Thermometers."

"The quota for Springfield is $200,000. This means real work for those responsible for raising the money. If you who read this are strongly urged to buy an extra bond at the place where you work, please purchase at least one from your neighbor, the air warden. Most large companies who sell bonds to their employees are willing to credit your purchase to your home town. Probably your company will do so please ask."

"Local Troops 68 and 70 of the Boy Scouts of America have been ordered by William A. Wright, Scout Executive of Union Council, to arrange with the merchants of Springfield for installing Fifth War Loan Drive posters in the shop windows on or before the tenth of June. The Scouts are now delivering hand bills to every home in town telling about the drive. Other duties will be performed by the Scouts later in the drive."

Girl Scouts Ask Aid From Lions

At the weekly meeting of the Springfield Lions Club, Charles F. Heard, chairman of the Boys and Girls Committee, announced that he had been approached by the Girl Scout Organization of Springfield to determine whether or not it was possible for the Lions Club to offer some help in this matter. Immediately upon hearing his request, members of the Lions Club offered as individuals, their services to the Girl Scout Committee, and since the Girl Scout Organization consists of some 80 girls it was the unanimous opinion of the Lions Club that whatever the club could do to help this organization, it would be forthcoming.

Lion Heard then expressed the urgent need for additional Boy Scout Troops in town.

Lion Engle Hovest was appointed to contact the American Legion Post to see whether it wasn't possible for this organization to sponsor a troop. The matter has been brought to the attention of William Wright, executive of the Union Council in Elizabethtown, and it is expected that Mr. Wright will see to it that sufficient and adequate troops will be provided for in the township of Springfield.

SUN Spots

THEY'RE SAYING the ladies of the Methodist Church hit the day right on the head. Yes, their Victory luncheon on Tuesday, came exactly on the long-awaited D-Day.

DURING THE CEREMONY of Miss Elizabeth Sarge and Army Air Corps Lieut. Alfred Schmitt at St. Stephen's Church in Millburn, on Saturday, a band nearby during the Art Center celebration began to peel forth with "Nothing Can Stop the Army Air Corps." Just a coincidence and the band played on.

ANOTHER GALA EVENT is predicted for the Lions Club. A bit of extravaganza indicated it will be a lively affair. There seems to be a lot of smoke around Senora Erlan and Roy Waldeck's past affairs have really been entertaining.

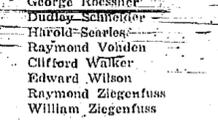

Country Oaks Group Will Meet Monday

A general meeting of the Country Oaks Association will be held at Singers Park on Monday evening, at which time officers will be elected for the ensuing year.

The trustees met Wednesday evening at the home of Eugene H. Hoff, president, at 180 Millway road. The association now holds quarterly meetings, the second Monday of each month.

As of June 1 Young Men of 17 May again join the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve

ENLISTMENT in the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve is once more open to qualified young Americans . . . who want to win their wings on the "greatest team in the world"—an AAF air combat crew.

In April, thanks to the air-mindedness of America's youth, the AAF's personnel program was well ahead of schedule. More than enough men were in training, and in the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve, to meet scheduled quotas for combat crews. At the same time, the need for men in other branches of the army was urgent. Therefore, opportunities to join the AAF—including the 17-year-old Enlisted Reserve—were suspended.

As the Commanding General pointed out, the suspension of enlistments in the Reserve was intended only as a temporary measure. Accordingly, effective June 1, enlistments have again been opened in the 17-year-old Enlisted Reserve in order to insure a sufficient number of qualified individuals for training this fall.

planes and men. The combat crew is a TEAM . . . the greatest fighting team the world has ever seen . . . with Gunners, Bombardiers, Navigators and Pilots flying and fighting TOGETHER, to win.

And any young man who wants AAF wings should keep this ideal of TEAMWORK uppermost in his mind. It is the key to AAF successes in battle. It will be the key to his own success in the AAF.

If you want to fly with the AAF, you may apply at any AAF Examining Board for enrollment in the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve. Upon passing the preliminary physical and mental tests, you will become a member of the U. S. Army Air Forces—ON INACTIVE DUTY. This means that you will not be called for training until you have reached your 18th birthday. If you are at work you may remain on the job until you are 18. If you are in high school, you may elect to finish the semester you are in when you become 18. If you are a high school graduate, not over 17 years and 9 months, you may elect to take advantage of the Army Specialized Training Reserve Program, which provides free college training for men approaching military age.

When called, you will first be given "basic" training. During this period, you will take aptitude tests to determine whether you will be assigned for training as Gunner, Bombardier, Navigator or Pilot.

for the classification that you prefer. But it is important to remember that ALL jobs on the AAF team are vitally important . . . that air combat crews not only are chosen from the very cream of the nation's young men, but that each sent in every plane must be filled by the man BEST QUALIFIED to fill it.

Gunners go into actual combat as non-commissioned officers. In addition to being the world's best aerial marksmen, gunners may qualify as trained technicians—in radio, armament or airplane mechanics. Pilots, Navigators, and Bombardiers are graduated from training as 2nd Lieutenants or Flight Officers.

Your job, and your rank, in the AAF will depend upon your own demonstrated abilities. For full information as to qualifying for the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve, see your nearest AAF Examining Board or local Army Recruiting Station.

The AAF is a Team

Today, the AAF is the largest, most powerful air force in the world. Fighting side by side with the planes of our Navy and our Allies, it has won control of the air in every theatre—and has carried the war to the military and industrial hearts of Germany and Japan. It is daring the enemy to "come up and fight." Yet its losses have been less than anyone had anticipated or even dared to hope.

That all this has been accomplished is due, in large measure, to the fact that the AAF air combat crew is MORE than just

Your Place on the AAF Team

If you have an outstandingly high aptitude rating for a particular position, you may be given an opportunity to compete

For Pre-Aviation Training

Whether or not you have yet reached 17, you can begin now to prepare yourself to qualify for the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve. See your local Civil Air Patrol officers about C. A. P. Cadet Training . . . also see your High School principal or adviser about recommended courses in the Air Service Division of the High School Victory Corps. Both offer excellent pre-aviation training . . . and help point the way to AAF wings.

BETTIQUETTE

SAYS

MEMO TO MRS. HOUSEWIFE

The cans for the armed forces have donned war paint. The reason? Damp tropical climates cause them to rust before used. Also shiny tin cans littering a combat area cause most skillfully camouflaged soldiers to be spotted by the enemy.

Authorities say disregard nylon stockings rumors. The army needs nylon as badly as ever and they do not consider their reserve sufficient to meet needs now and in the future.

Whoever thought of buying precooked meals? But you may be doing just that soon. Tests are being made and if they work there'll be beef pie, creamed potatoes, chicken and noodles among other things ready to heat and eat.

WPE urges that all old clothes and rags stored away be turned in. They're needed to meet roofing requirements for military structures and for home and farm buildings.

The list of dried foods continues to grow—spinach has now been added.

OPA statisticians say rationing must continue for awhile after the war ends. U. S. and British "hide" stocks were about used up last year. Exports from South America will decline in 1944.

The drastic shortage of paper containers is getting worse. Help your grocer by carrying a market

Carteret School To Inaugurate Reading Diagnosis

Summit parents who have a boy attending Carteret School, West Orange, will have an opportunity of having his reading habits scientifically analyzed, according to an announcement made this week by the Board of Directors of the school.

Starting Monday, June 12, the school's reading center will be open for five days. This has been scientifically equipped and is designed after the Reading Center at New York University that is attended by educators from all parts of the country and featured in special school editions of Readers Digest every month.

Each parent will receive a photographic record of the movement of his son's eyes, with an analytical translation made by psychologist Harold S. Linsky, director of the school's reading center. This record, made by an ophthalmograph, will point out any faults in the mechanics of reading that may be handicaps. The report will suggest corrective exercises to overcome common faults.

According to George Douglas Hofe, president of the school's Board of Directors, many common faults are handicaps that cause students to study laboriously because reading is difficult and this, in turn, causes a student to worry about his marks, feel inferior, and are good things; buying pictures is a good thing. These things are not possible without profits. Yet they are not evil things, they are good things. And they can be directed and fostered and understood only by the individuals concerned, not by a centralized, impersonal, insensitive, politically inspired government.

We should not be afraid to say that profit is good, not evil. And to the end that we can say this as well as thousands of other truths that have been bandied of late, we must keep at all and any cost, the freedom of speech and press that has made us people of fearless vision.

Why telephones are hard to get

There are two reasons why we cannot fill orders for telephones service today as fast as we'd like:
The reserve facilities which enabled us to meet the service needs of Army, Navy, war industry and most others since the start of the National Defense Program in 1940 are now exhausted, and no more equipment is being built for civilian use.

All telephone manufacturing facilities and manpower are devoted to making communication and other electrical equipment for our armed forces. Their entire capacity is converted to war production.

We've done all we can to serve as many as possible by:
Reconditioning and using every facility that will give good service.
Converting one-party lines to serve two or more families.
Operating central offices beyond their normal capacity.
Taking extra-good care of equipment that can't be replaced.

If you are waiting for a telephone, we're sorry. The only facilities now available are those released when service is discontinued, and many of these are required for war purposes. We'd like you to know that we will take care of your needs at the earliest possible moment.

An Invitation to Parents to know more about their Sons

Carteret School for Boys invites you to have the reading habits of your sons analyzed at the school's scientifically equipped Reading Center, following procedures established at the renowned New York University Reading Clinic, directed by Dr. Scilla Center, and featured in special editions of Reader's Digest every month.

This is a public service involving no cost or obligation!

You will be given an actual photographic record of the movements of your boy's eyes made as he reads. This will be accompanied by an analytical translation made by psychologist Harold S. Laitz, director of Carteret's reading clinic. The ophthalmograph, tachometer and other instruments will point out to you many interesting facts, and any faults in the mechanics of reading that may be handicapping your boy, causing him to study laboriously, to worry about his marks, to feel inferior, or to "hate" school.

Telephone for an appointment, if possible, or just come in on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, from nine A.M. until four P.M., or Thursday and Friday until noon—only during the week beginning June 12th.

Springfield was settled in the early 1700's. Its township form of government was established April 11, 1791, and was incorporated in 1857.
Springfield is essentially a community of homes, with little industry, except for furniture, nursery and confectionery manufacturing for these 45 minutes from New York City on the Lackawanna R. R., with two stations at Millburn and Short Hill, less than a mile away. It is 10 miles to Elizabeth 7 miles to Newark, excellent bus connections to Newark, Elizabeth, Summit and Plainfield.
The Newark Valley Railroad with a freight station in the township affords service for factories, commercial and industrial purposes. State highway 20 makes New York City convenient by auto in 20 minutes. State of the 19th Union County Regional High School, serving Springfield and Plainfield.
It has good streets, water, gas, electricity and modern sanitary sewerage system, excellent police, fire and school facilities; mail carrier delivery system; and zoning regulations for the protection of the individual property owner.
Of interest in Revolutionary history with its historic Presbyterian church, where the Rev. James Caldwell preached "Give us water, boys!" in the midst of the Battle of Springfield, fought on June 23, 1780. Several colonial landmarks are to be found in Springfield, one of the oldest communities in Union County.

NOW IT'S OUR TURN

The invasion of Europe has begun. The forces of our nation and our allies are committed. Our men—some of them very close and dear to many of us—are throwing themselves into the great battle for Europe.

There is little we can do here at home but let's do that little with force and vigor and patriotism. The war must be financed—and that's our job. Generally speaking we at home are well able to support a financial drive. Sure, there are taxes. Sure, there are many demands upon us. But when our grumbling is done and the totals are added up many of us have plenty of money with which to buy bonds.

On June 12 the Fifth War Loan Drive will begin officially. It will begin a week after invasion. We are being asked to lend (and remember we are lending, not giving) $16,000,000,000.

It isn't much we are being asked to do here at home. At a time like this we ought to do that little with proud willingness.

SEVENTEEN

Civil Air Patrol has sent out letters asking all schools to resume examination of pre-induction boys between the ages of 17 and 17 years 9 months. This is because of the likelihood the supply of those heretofore examined and now of induction age will be rapidly depleted. Those examined and passed will not necessarily be enlisted in the Reserves at once, but they will be ready when the induction call comes.

The AAF thus gets a known group ready for future enlistment, and the young men are able to make plans with the knowledge that they are eligible. They have an option to take two terms of college training before induction.

Boys who join the Reserve and get advanced training are said to make considerably better headway and are advanced in rank more rapidly than those who start Army or Navy life from scratch. Some 8,000 boys will be wanted from this area when enlistment is called for.

The complete story is told in an advertisement appearing on Page 2. The CAP wishes to thank Spencer M. Mabey for his generosity.

FROM GARDEN TO SHELF

FIRST LESSONS IN FREEZING
By MARY W. ARMSTRONG
County Home Demonstration Agent

"Well, when the war is over we keep saying, and then we go on to visions—some of them perhaps a bit fantastic—of a brand-new era of improved living conditions. One thing we can count on, however, is an upswing in facilities for the quick-freezing of fruits and vegetables, either at home or in locker plants.

Quick-freezing is easier than canning. It preserves more of the original, fresh flavor of foods, and it retains more of their nutritive values. Undoubtedly it will gradually take its place as one of the most popular methods for preserving fruits and vegetables.

If you live near a locker plant, or if you have your own quick-freezing cabinet, you may wish to freeze some of the vegetables from your own garden this summer. Here are a few pointers to help you, if you have had no previous experience.

First, choose only prime quality fruits and vegetables for quick-freezing. Freezing will not improve the quality of poor food, so be sure to start right—with food of high quality.

Next, quick-freeze the food as soon as possible after it is picked. An ideal way is to harvest it in the early morning and have it frozen before noon. If for any reason it is necessary to hold the food over for a longer time, keep it in the refrigerator.

Vegetables must be heated (blanched) before they are frozen. After you have cleaned them thoroughly and cut off any inedible portions, here's the way to proceed with the blanching: Place the food in a wire basket or in a square of cheesecloth and immerse it in a kettle holding 8 to 10 quarts of boiling water for every pound of food. The heat under the kettle should be high enough to bring the water back to boiling within a minute after the food has been immersed. The blanching period varies from 2 to 5 minutes. A time chart for the freezing method is available free of charge at your County Extension Service office.

After blanching is complete, remove the vegetable immediately and plunge it into a large container of ice water or very cold water until the food is thoroughly chilled. Now it should be drained, packed in a container, and frozen as quickly as possible.

Fruits Do Better With Sugar Most fruits do not require blanching before being quick-frozen. But fruit retains its flavor, shape and color better if it is packed with sugar or with syrup. Follow the specific instructions for whatever fruit you are freezing. There's an Extension Service bulletin giving free directions.

All these prepared foods must be sealed in moisture-vapor-proof containers. Rectangular cardboard boxes lined with a cellophane bag which can be sealed seem to be proving most satisfactory. These containers can be purchased at some locker plants, farm supply stores, and commercial paper companies.

If you live in a vicinity where there is a locker plant, you may be able to arrange with the plant to have your fruits, vegetables and meats prepared and quick-frozen right at the plant. If not, do the cleaning, blanching and packaging at home, and then mail the packed containers to the locker plant for quick-freezing.

One hundred pounds of newspapers will make 200 containers for blood plasma.

The President's Prayer
JUNE 6, 1944
THE MOST SOLEMN DAY IN AMERICAN HISTORY
"Let Our Hearts Be Stout"
— Almighty God: Our sons, pride of our nation, this day have set upon a mighty endeavor, a struggle to preserve our Republic, our religion—and our civilization, and to set free a suffering humanity.
Lend them straight and true; give strength to their arms, stoutness to their hearts, steadfastness in their faith.
They will need Thy blessings. Their road will be long and hard. For the enemy is strong. He may hurl back our forces. Success may not come with rushing speed, but we shall return again and again; and we know that by Thy grace, and by the righteousness of our cause, our sons will triumph.
They will be sore tired, by night and by day, without rest—until the victory is won. The darkness will be rent by noise and flame. Men's souls will be shaken with the violences of war.
For these men are lately drawn from the ways of peace. They fight not for the lust of conquest. They fight to end conquest. They fight to liberate. They fight to let justice arise, and tolerance and good-will among all Thy people. They yearn but for the end of battle, for their return to the haven of home.
Some will never return. Embrace these, Father, and receive them, Thy heroic servants, into Thy kingdom.
And for us at home—fathers, mothers, children, wives—sisters and brothers of brave men overseas, whose thoughts and prayers are ever with them—help us, Almighty God, to rededicate ourselves in renewed faith in Thee in this hour of great sacrifice.
Many people have urged that I call the nation into a single day of special prayer. But because the road is long and the desire is great, I ask that our people devote themselves in a continuance of prayer. As we rise to each new day, and again when each day is spent, let words of prayer be on our lips, involving Thy help to our efforts.
Give us strength, too—strength in our daily tasks, to redouble the contributions we make in the physical and the material support of our armed forces.
And let our hearts be stout, to wait out the long travail, to bear sorrows that may come, to impart our courage unto our sons, wherever they may be.
And, O Lord, give us faith. Give us faith in Thee; faith in our sons; faith in each other; faith in our united crusade. Let not the keenness of our spirit ever be dulled. Let not the impacts of temporary events, of temporal matters of but fleeting moment—let not these deter us in our unconquerable purpose.
With Thy blessing, we shall prevail over the unholy forces of our enemy. Help us to conquer the apostles of greed and racial arrogances. Lead us to the saving of our country, and with our sister nations into a world unity that will spell a sure peace—a peace invulnerable to the schemings of unworthy men. And a peace that will let all men live in freedom, reaping the just rewards of their honest toil.
Thy will be done, Almighty God. Amen.

SUGAR—Sugar Stamps 30 and 31, each good for five pounds (indefinitely). Sugar Stamp 32 becomes good for five pounds, June 30.

GASOLINE—A-10 coupons good through August 8.

FUEL OIL—Periods 4 and 5 coupons, good through September 30. New period 1 coupons for the 1944-45 heating year may be used as soon as they are received from local boards.

SHOES—Airplane Stamps 1 and 2, good indefinitely.

Country Deposits Up 137 Per Cent—Demand deposits in country banks (consisting largely of ordinary checking accounts) increased 137 per cent from 1940 to April, 1944, according to the Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Such an increasing body of idle funds, more than twice that of four years ago, could cause inflationary trouble if country deposits began using their funds to bid against each other for the purchase of lands at increasing prices, the BAE advises.

Land values have risen almost twofold above their pre-war average—an increase that is inflationary in many areas. Furthermore, in some of the principal farming areas the volume of land sales in 1943 surpassed previous high levels reached in 1919 and the number of farms resold after only a short period of ownership increased.

Following the inflation of land values during the last war, land prices broke sharply in 1920.

The work done by prisoners of war in the United States either in or related almost entirely to agriculture, forestry or food processing, the Office of War Information reports.

No farmer may house prisoners, and prisoners are sent to farms only when there is work for units of 10 or more. The War Food Administration does not generally advocate use of prisoners of war side by side with civilians.

Prisoners are always guarded by American soldiers. Approximately 45,000 prisoners worked on farms in 28 states last year, mostly in the South, harvesting peanuts, rice, cotton and sugar cane.

To facilitate prompt reply and to simplify identification, all mail addressed to the Veterans Administration on matters concerning veterans should give the full name of the veteran, the date of his birth, his serial number, rank and organization and the "C" and "N" numbers on any checks or letters received from the Veterans Administration. The master index of this agency contains more than 19 million names. Among these are over 2,000,000 Smiths, of which at least 12,000 have the given name of John.

Passenger car drivers now receive only 43 per cent as much gasoline as they used in 1941, the Petroleum Administration for War says.

While Americans have reduced passenger car mileage from the peacetime level by about 57 per cent, the English have reduced theirs by 88 per cent.

In a recent nationwide survey of consumer requirements, a large number of the families interviewed said they intend to use their savings for buying or building a house before buying durable goods, the War Production Board announces.

Among durable goods covered in the survey, washing machines are now in greatest demand, with electric irons and mechanical refrigerators next in order.

While one million 1943 income tax refunds have been made by the Treasury Department, it will be several months before all of approximately 18 million taxpayers will get refunds to which they are entitled, according to the Commissioner, however, will include in the rate of 6 per cent per year from March 15, this year.

First attention was given to claims of members of the armed forces. No action is needed on the part of the taxpayer unless he has moved from the address shown on his return, in which case he should send both his old and new addresses to the collector of internal revenue in the district in which the return was filed.

Christmas mail to armed forces overseas this year is expected to exceed last year's record. Plans are now being made by the Post Office, War and Navy Departments to handle this mail. From September 15 to October 15, Christmas gift packages for men overseas will be accepted for mailing if they are no more than five pounds in weight, 15 inches in length, and 36 inches in length and girth combined.

Only one such package will be accepted from the same person to the same address during any one week, the War Department announces.

Round-up—Special consideration will be given returning war veterans who apply for farm machinery, WPA announces.

A total of 6,089 farm-type wheel tractors were produced during the week ending May 27, which represents the highest wartime production rate yet attained, WPA reports.

Synthetic vitamin C, which promotes healing of wounds, may now be made from sugar beet pulp through a new shorter process worked out by the National Bureau of Standards.

SORRY-IT HASN'T COME IN!

How often we go shopping these days and come back empty handed! Manufacture of a lot of peace time commodities has been curtailed, materials are scarce, deliveries slow, and substitutions don't always fill the bill. Then again when you are used to one kind of product it is hard to change.

When it comes to delivery, your utility service is one commodity you can depend upon, and upon its standard quality as well.

As your utility company we are faced with shortages too, both in manpower and materials, especially in coal and oil, but we are bending every effort to maintain our deliveries to your home on time, and in full. Help us by using these services wisely.

WITH THE ARMED Services

A V-Mail letter came to us this week from Sergeant Norman E. Ziegenfuss, stationed with the U. S. Army in the Pacific. The letter reads: "Just a few lines to let you know that I have received your fine paper and let you know of my new APO number. It's swell to get news of home so far out here in the Pacific. I enjoy every copy and hope to keep getting them. The mail service is excellent and I have received several airmail letters in four days, from the East coast. That is almost as good as local service. Note my change of address, as I do not want to miss the SUN. Thanks again."
 Sgt. Ziegenfuss is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ziegenfuss of 387 Morris avenue.

Robert Cubberley of 6 Perry place entered the U. S. Navy two weeks ago and is stationed at the Naval Training Station at Bainbridge, Md. A/S Cubberley is a graduate of the local grammar school and attended Regional High School. He has two other brothers in the service. Storekeeper 2/C Warren, U. S. Coast Guard, stationed at Manhattan Beach, and Fire Controlman 3/C Henry, U. S. Naval Reserve, stationed in the South Pacific.

Private Henry Eberle, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Eberle of 494 Mountain avenue, is stationed at Fort Benning, Ga., and has won the right to wear Wings and Boots

LOCAL
 D-Day was marked by a service held in the Methodist Church at 10 A. M. for the Surgical Dressing-workers, some of whom have been participating in the invasion. Rev. Charles Peterson led the service, which consisted of an invocation, a Prayer for Invasion Day, the reading of the Twenty-Third Psalm, and singing of the hymn "America" using the words "God Bless Our Native Land."

Our Red Cross nurse, Miss Florence Coleman, interviewed Cadet Nurse Wagryn from St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Elizabeth, at Regional High School, on Friday, June 2. Cadet Nurse Wagryn was in full uniform, and was questioned about the tuition, etc., requisite to becoming a Cadet Nurse. The interview is part of the student nurse recruitment program of the War Nursing Council of Union County. A Cadet Nurse is a student nurse in training. She gets free training, a monthly allowance, and her uniforms, all of which are paid for by the Federal Government.

NATIONAL
 The Camp Kilmer Council, of which Springfield is an active member, has recently opened a new club called the "Gay 90s Club," which is reserved exclusively for enlisted men's company or organizational parties. In its first month of operation the Club has been the scene of twenty company celebrations, taking the fancy of the soldiers by storm. The club combines the features of a colorful gay nineties saloon and restaurant with the stage of an old time theater, where the ripe "melter dramas" of grandfather's day held sway.

 According to reports, the jargo ornate bar might have been lifted directly from an 1890 Bowery beer parlor complete with mustachioed bartenders and pickled eggs. The stage is an authentic reproduction even to the imitation asbestos curtain. Twelve water color paintings by Special Service artists depicting the life and times of that never-to-be-forgotten era give the building a gay appearance. Much of the material used to decorate the hall was donated by members of the local New Jersey Chapters of the Camp and Hospital Council of the American Red Cross, which sponsored the building. Entertainment for the parties given is in keeping with the general motif. Special Service and USO Camp Shows performers present old time "earranging dramas," music and song. Community singing with lantern slides is featured, and dancing is enjoyed to the excellent music of the post swing bands. The work and sweat that went into the construction and furnishing of the building are more than justified by the pleasure and entertainment it has given to thousands of GIs.
 Since D-Day is now seventy-two hours old, it might be interesting and comforting to go back to the Red Cross column of April 28, 1944, and reprint some of the "invasion" plans of the Red Cross. "The American Red Cross is ready and waiting to follow the Army on to the Continent. . . . Two Red Cross 'Waves' are planned. Men Field Directors will go in as the first 'Wave.' They are assigned to all sizable units of American troops, have lived and worked with them for months, and so far as the Army allows, will accompany them. The second 'Wave' will be picked Red Cross girls. . . . They will staff clubmobiles and establish 'donut dugouts' for coffee and snacks in buildings or tents in the rear. . . . Each unit will have two clubmobiles, a supply van, a utility vehicle similar to a jeep, and various types of trailers. It will carry a month's supply."

Seaman Melchior is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Melchior of 1633 Edmund terrace, Union, proprietors of the local Community Shoppe, 247 Morris avenue. He will leave on Monday to report back to duty.

MOUNTAINSIDE - Sergeant George Walsh wrote home and said that he had seen the movies of Springfield in the South Pacific. He was quite thrilled since he hasn't seen anything of home in about two and a half years.

Private Sherman Williams graduated from the Army Air Force Meteorology program in February, 1944 at Carleton College, Northfield, Minn. He was then transferred to Grinnell College, Grinnell, Iowa, for an assignment in advanced Engineering. When the program was curtailed, he was transferred to the Signal Corps. He is now located at Camp Crowder, Mo., where he is studying Radio and Radar. This course will last six or eight months, at which time he expects to go overseas.

 Pvt. Williams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil C. Williams of 217 Short Hills avenue. He graduated from Regional High School, class of '42.

ON TOWARD VICTORY!

It takes teamwork to win. To fight victoriously, our armies must be well fed. The more food you grow for your own use, the more farm-grown food can be sent to them. Home-grown food also means:

- More freight space is made available for shipping war weapons.
- Your family will have plenty of vitamin-rich vegetables.
- You will save money—and be able to buy more War Bonds.
- The exercise will be healthful and enjoyable.

So get in there and fight, by raising your own vegetables!
