Girl Scout Festival To Be Broadcast

Event Expected To Draw Large Crowd Saturday

Highlights of the Girl Scout Strawberry Festival which will take place on the Municipal Green Saturday from 1 to 9 p.m. will be broadcast directly from that area by WNJR, Newark radio station, by "Farmer" Will Peigelbeck. He is a former agricultural instructor at Regional High School and now conducts a radio program for farmers.

Peigelbeck will act as auctioneer for the "country fair" booths which will offer products donated by Springfield merchants and (Continued on Page 8)

Local Scouts Hold Court of Awards

More than 200 parents, relatives and friends attended the annual Court of Awards program presented by local Girl Scout Troop 3 recently in Raymond Chisholm School. Pay Last Respects

Members of the Holy Name Society of St. James Catholic Church here paid their last respects to a deceased member last Sunday when they visited the Joseph Wagner Funeral Home in Irvington to pray for the repose of the soul of Fred Miller, of 21 Alvin terrace. The men went in a body to the funeral home and there recited the Rosary and other prescribed prayers.

Entertain Relatives

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Gunn of 59 Morris avenue are entertaining their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Murray R. Koonz and son, Murray John, who recently arrived by plane from Bogota, Colombia, S.A. Other guests at the Gunn home during the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Fuller and sons, Paul and Roger, of Bogota, who left Monday for Manitoba, Canada, where they will spend the summer.

Oil Fire-Fighting Demonstration Here

Deputy Chief Nicholas Coppola of Rahway directs demonstration of 2 1/2 inch low velocity water fog weapon in fighting oil fire blazes. The drill, sponsored by the Union County Firemen's Training School and participated in by more than 120 firemen, was held Sunday in Route 29, Springfield.

Demonstrations on how to extinguish oil fires with more than 120 firemen participating, were held at the Elm Construction Company property, Route 29, Springfield, on Sunday.

Sponsored by the Union County Firemen's Association Training School, the exhibition was in charge of Deputy Chief Nicholas Coppola of Rahway. Firemen Ormond Mesker of Springfield served as assistant director.

Bulldozers were used to dig deep pits about 18 feet square and 300 gallons of fuel oil was poured into the pits. Gasoline was ignited to start the fuel oil and then the firemen went to work to extinguish the stubborn blazes.

They used water, fog lines, foam lines, liquid foam and a new type of dry powder. Effects of water sprays, both low pressure and high pressure, were demonstrated. Using a hopper of the Rahway Fire Department, the superior effectiveness of foam was shown. The Fanwood Fire Department used liquid foam.

Apparatus was supplied by Fanwood, Cranford, Springfield, Roselle, Roselle Park and Rahway fire departments.

Among those participating were Deputy Chief Edward Deignan of Elizabeth, dean of the fire school; Gilbert G. Anthony, Roselle, president of the Union County Association; Herbert Fay, Springfield, chairman of the training school committee; Chief Walter Ritzman, Rahway; Chief Warren A. Metzler Sr., Roselle Park; Chief Ernest Haer, Fanwood; Chief Thomas Brittain, Garwood; Captain Theodore Chamberlain, Cranford, and Captain Clarence Vanderbilt, Westfield.

Howard A. Christenson, 94 Colfax road, told the Township Committee last night that it should give serious consideration to limiting the issuance of building permits for private homes and apartments in Springfield until such time as the community's facilities are expanded sufficiently to handle the influx.

Citing the needs for a new school, a new firehouse, additional playground areas and other municipal improvements, Christenson declared Springfield has already exceeded the limits of its capacity.

Although the governing body agreed to take the matter under advisement, members of the board, including Township Attorney Robert Darby, pointed out that construction permits could not be refused if applications showed compliance with current restrictions.

82 Colfax road, that consideration be given to the establishment of a play area in the west end of the township brought a remark from Committeeman Baldwin that "for once we're ahead of you." Baldwin said two sites in that section and one in the south end were being considered.

Acting on recommendation of Committeeman Binder, the board authorized drawing of an ordinance which would make Center street, from Morris avenue to Hannah street, one way going south. Binder also recommended that Public Service Co-ordinated Transport be asked to change its Morris avenue bus line terminal from Center street to the Huffman & Boyle Furniture Company Showrooms at Morris avenue and Morris turnpike.

All present holders of liquor licenses in the township were granted renewals. Building Inspector Marsh reported operations last month totaled $336,000 and for the year to date new construction had exceeded the million dollar mark.

Recreation Program Set For Summer

Township's Four Play Areas Will Open June 26th

A greatly expanded recreation program will be offered Springfield children for eight weeks this summer, commencing Monday, June 26, according to an announcement this week by Edward Ruby, recreation supervisor.

Parents in the community have been urged to take advantage of the opportunity of supervised play for their children and to make a note on their calendars of the registration date, June 26.

Announcement was also made (Continued on Page 8)

TOWNSHIP SCHOOLS TO CLOSE NEXT WED.

Springfield schools, including Regional High School, will close for the summer on Wednesday, June 21. They will reopen on September 7.

July 4th Program Nearly Complete

Final arrangements for Springfield's annual Independence Day celebration were nearing completion today. Every effort is being made by the committee in charge to make the day interesting enough to keep residents safely at home instead of on the state's highways where scores of persons are usually killed and injured in motor accidents.

According to Louis W. Pignolet, publicity chairman, applications for the baby parade, feature attraction of the July 4 fete, will soon be available in all local stores. In a release to this newspaper yesterday, Pignolet declared: "An added evening attraction is (Continued on Page 8)

73 Students To Graduate Town Schools

Ceremonies At Caldwell Fri.; Chisholm Mon.

Springfield's two grammar schools, James Caldwell and Raymond Chisholm, will graduate 73 pupils tomorrow (Friday) and Monday nights, respectively, at the schools' annual commencement exercises. Clifford Walker, president of the Board of Education, will award the diplomas on both occasions and Rev. John Mahon, rector of St. James Catholic Church, here, will give the benediction.

Exercises at the James Caldwell School will begin promptly at 8:15 p.m. tomorrow (Friday) with a processional march by the combined school orchestras followed by the salute to the flag and the singing of the national anthem. Musical numbers by the graduating class will precede and follow an address of welcome to be given by Bette Haselmann.

Commencement activities will also include the presentation of the scholarship by Mrs. Thomas Doherty, president of the Parent-Teacher Association, and the awarding of the American Legion prizes by Raymond Basini, Commander of Continental Post, 228, American Legion. Copies of the Constitution of the United States will be distributed by Wilber S. Eno, vice-president of the Springfield Board of Education, prior to the introduction of the graduating class by the Supervising Principal Benjamin F. Newsawanger. Benediction by Father Mahon and the recessional march by the combined school orchestras will conclude the exercises.

A similar program will be enacted at the Raymond Chisholm School at 8:15 p.m. Monday. Jack Wyckoff will deliver the address of welcome on that occasion and Thelma L. Sandmeyer, principal of Raymond Chisholm, will present the graduates to Benjamin Newsawanger, who in turn will present them to Clifford Walker. Candidates for graduation are:

Church Breakfast Draws 100 Members

The Holy Name Society of St. James Roman Catholic Church here held its first annual communion breakfast at Orchard Inn last Sunday morning. One hundred members of the Society received Holy Communion at the 7:30 o'clock Mass and immediately following the Mass proceeded to the Inn for breakfast.

After the breakfast the men were addressed by prominent clerical and lay speakers. Guests seated at the speakers' table were Rev. Father Burke, pastor of St. James; Father John Mahon, rector and Spiritual Director of the Society; Father Edward Looney, Director of the Catholic Protectory, Arlington; Bart Boyle, former Hudson County prosecutor and now attached to the Superior court; Frank Ott, president of the Society, and Timothy Sheehan, chairman of the breakfast committee who presided and introduced the speakers.

Father Looney discussed the activities of the Catholic Protectory and the important influence, both spiritual and material, which it exerts upon the lives of the boys in its care. Referring to the institution as the "Boys' Town of New Jersey," Father Looney emphasized that the goal of the Protectory is to preserve and develop the individual dignity of each boy and prepare him for a better life as a useful citizen fortified by a sound religious and material training.

Bart Boyle addressed the group on "The Two Great Perils Confronting the United States Today." Pointing out that the danger world is alert to the emergence of athletic communism, he drew attention to another danger which is creeping into our American life, the trend toward secularism. The speaker remarked that secularism denies the need to seek Divine guidance. Government leaders, he said, and others guiding our destinies have come to rely solely upon their own human abilities to solve all problems confronting the world regardless of their magnitude.

Boyle recalled that the founders of our country frequently paused in their tasks to "seek Divine assistance and he contrasted that practice with the present day method which completely overlooks Almighty God. He specifically referred to the United Nations Organization which bowed to Russia's demand that all reference to God be omitted from its deliberations.

In conclusion Boyle remarked that the leaders of all faiths recognize the danger of secularism and called upon his audience to become alert to the problem and seek every opportunity to forestall its advance.

Township Building Exceeds Capacity, Resident Declares

Howard A. Christenson, 94 Colfax road, told the Township Committee last night that it should give serious consideration to limiting the issuance of building permits for private homes and apartments in Springfield until such time as the community's facilities are expanded sufficiently to handle the influx.

Rotary to Induct New Slate Tuesday

Supervising Principal Benjamin F. Newsawanger will be installed as president of the Springfield Rotary Club at its weekly luncheon meeting Tuesday at Baltusrol Golf Club. Other new officers to be seated are: Vice-president, Kenneth E. Bandomer; treasurer, Milton Elliot, and secretary, Carl T. Holmstrom.

A talk on "Insect Control" with slides was shown at the Tuesday meeting by E. T. Thompson of Andrew Wilson, Inc., arranger through Adam EnSata, program chairman for the day. The birthday of Charles Moore was observed.

A contribution was voted for the annual Girl Scout strawberry festival. Guests included: John Harney, Walter Coffey and William DiTullo of Cranford; Carl Z. Alexander of Madison, Ros E. Bolen of Plainfield, Harry Casperisen of Newark, the Rev. Gerald Cover of Kenilworth, and Louis Vandericks of Springfield.

Police Team Loses To Revolver Club

The Springfield Revolver Club defeated the Springfield Police Department pistol team in a match at the local revolver range on Baltusrol way Sunday morning by a margin of 75 points.

Five high scorers on each team follow:

Revolver Club, Bailey, 284; Perrelli, 282; Jones, 280; Orr, 277, and Chisholm, 268. Police, Selander, 286; Siles, 266; Joyner, 258; Pinkava, 258, and O'Shea, 251.

Other contestants scored as follows:

Park Commission Okays HS Request

Approval of request of Regional High School to provide heating facilities and hot water for showers at the field house, near the athletic field, was granted last week by the Union County Park Commission.

The approval was granted with the stipulation that high school authorities assume the cost of fuel, light, water and janitorial services. Better access as well as fire protection will be made possible by development of a pedestrian entrance, including construction of a footbridge leading from Oakland and Waverly avenues.

7-Point Industry Program Outlined

Robert C. Brumberger, head of the new Industrial Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, today announced a seven point program as the basis for future industrial development of Springfield.

Brumberger, general manager of Andrew Wilson, Inc., declared his committee's first step would be to request details of the Town Planning Board regarding what areas are available for various classifications of manufacturing and what areas could possibly become available by zoning changes.

Brumberger declared "Aside from the advantages to be gained by the community and its residents in the location of high types of light industry, the town itself has unusual benefits to offer the average small manufacturer which I can enumerate from actual experience.

1. "Excellent labor market — both skilled and unskilled.
2. "Commuting — train, bus lines, automobile — excellent.
3. "Unusual shipping facilities — sandwiched between the D. L. & W., Pennay, Jersey Central and served directly by the Rahway Valley Railroad. Directly on the well-traveled Routes 24 and 29 and only a stone's throw from Route 25. Regular Railway Express service to and from your door. All leading truck lines serve the area.
4. "Housing plentiful either in the higher or lower brackets for all pocketbooks. Schools, recreational and shopping facilities outstanding.
5. "Rural atmosphere conducive to satisfied, healthy employees.
6. "Located close to metropolitan area and the wealthiest potential sales market in the State.
7. "Suburban trend toward smaller towns such as Springfield in keeping with economy minded Corporations wishing to locate in tax minded communities who value their presence."

Local CYO Units Slate Breakfast

The Catholic Youth Organizations of St. James Church here will hold their first annual Communion Breakfast Sunday at the Cannon Ball Inn. Toastmaster for the affair will be Frank Ott, Jr., president of the Senior CYO, of the Marian Club, as it is also known.

Guest speakers will be Rev. John Kiley, director of all Catholic Youth activities in Essex County; James Kelly of Union, adult advisor of Essex County CYO units, and Frank Ott, Sr., and Mrs. Theodore Post, respective presidents of the Holy Name and Rosary Societies of St. James Church. Rev. John Mahon, spiritual director of the youth organizations, will also speak.

Immediately following the Communion Breakfast, members of the organization, in conjunction with the Rosary Altar Society, will journey by chartered bus to Greymour, N. Y., to visit the nationally known shrine conducted by the Franciscan Fathers of Atonement. On their way to Greymour, they will visit the Archdiocesan Seminary of the Immaculate Conception at Darlington, N. J.

Committee in charge of arrangements consists of Tony Graziano, George Roesner, Miss Dorothy Wayne, Miss Ann Forgive, Miss Virginia Wood and Mrs. Theodore Post.

Former Teacher's Memorial Planned

This past spring the Springfield School System lost a teacher, loved by all who knew her. The Teachers' Association and the Parent-Teachers Association are working toward plans for a memorial to Mrs. Alice Hart.

This year, at the Eighth Grade graduation in the James Caldwell School and the Raymond Chisholm School, a twenty-five dollar savings bond will be given to the graduate considered the best—all-around American citizen. The award will be known as the "Hart Memorial." The boys and girls in both schools have been given an opportunity to contribute to a fund toward this memorial.

The committee is formulating plans, to be carried out next Fall, for a permanent memorial to Mrs. Hart. Miss Frances Wahl is chairman of this committee. Members of her committee are: Mrs. Clifford Zimer, Mrs. W. Lilo Fleetwood, Mrs. G. W. Rupp, Miss Florence Gaudineer, and Mrs. H. E. Forsyth.

Maplewood Man Pays $53 Penalty

Charged with allowing a non-licensed driver to operate his car, John Molendriks, 42, of 86 Oberlin street, Maplewood, was fined $53 Monday night by Acting Magistrate Howard Casselman in Springfield Police Court.

The driver, Edward A. Benjamin, 22, of 15 Florida street, Maplewood, was assessed $18 for driving without a license.

Patrolman Parsell made the arrest June 12 in Morris avenue at Main street after he became suspicious. Both pleaded guilty.

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Girl Scouts of the Township of Springfield, will hold their second annual strawberry festival on Saturday, June 17, and

WHEREAS, the Girl Scout organization, nationwide and locally, is a worthy and desirable group, and

WHEREAS, the proceeds derived from this occasion will be used to further benefit and aid in the work of the Girl Scout movement, now therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, that Saturday, June 17, be proclaimed Strawberry Festival Day in Springfield, and that householders, homeowners and residents alike be urged to gather at the town green, site of the affair, to lend every effort possible to make the event a huge success.

ROBERT W. MARSHALL,
Mayor,
Township of Springfield.

Hundreds of local folks and scores of out-of-towners will join the municipal green Saturday when township Girl Scouts hold their second annual strawberry festival. . . probably the most novel portion of the program will be the strawberry shortcake contest. . . present arrangements call for a valuable prize for the winner, but how the decision will be made is still a matter of concern. . . judges (the tasting variety) may find it rather difficult if the number of entries run over the dozen mark!

Why some people never win at CANASTA!

Why do they always lose? Because they have no plan for winning. They don't think ahead. So, when their opponent suddenly "goes out," they're left holding cards that count against them.

Some people, too, can never save money—even though they make as much as the next guy who has plenty tucked away.

Trouble is, they have no plan for saving. And when the next guy's retired with children in college, they may still be trying to make ends meet.

Fortunately, if you're one of these people, there's still time to sign up for one of the easiest plans ever invented for saving money regularly—the Payroll Savings Plan.

Just tell the cashier where you work to put you down for so much. Then, like millions of others, you'll have money automatically set aside each payday. And it will grow fast—by 1/3 in ten short years.

So, before you know it, you'll be talking about sending your children to college—and choosing a garden spot for later years.

Automatic saving is sure saving—

Looking Into Yesteryear

From Files OF THE SUN

Five Years Ago

Committeeman Fred A. Brown won the Republican nomination for the Township Committee over his opponent, Allyn C. Beardsell. Brown received 769 votes and carried every district with the exception of the fourth.

Cecil M. Benadom, campaign chairman of the Red Cross drive, announced that Springfield residents had contributed $9,273 toward the 1945 War Fund drive. This amount represented 129 per cent of the quota that had been assigned to the town.

Among the participants in the one-act comedy presented by the graduating class of the Raymond Chisholm School were Edward Leonard, Erwin Baber, Elizabeth Cowsky, Marilyn Rein, Jean Fucherm, Eleanor Hutloff, Sonia Fischer, Earl Rump and Henry Scott Hart.

Election of officers was held at the meeting of the Springfield Lions Club and the following were chosen as the executive board: Augustus B. Anderson, president; Harry Nulph, vice-president; Robert Poppendick, vice-president; Paul Jones, secretary; Morris Lichtenstein, treasurer; Paul Volker, Hon. tamer; John Decker, twister; and Herbert Higgins and Warren Halsey, directors.

Ten Years Ago

Sale of 41 township owned lots in Henshaw avenue to the Chesces Construction Company was approved by the Township Committee, when the concern indicated its willingness to erect homes to sell for not less than $5,800.

Regulations to supervise pinball machines in Springfield, providing for a $200 license fee on each machine and prohibiting school children from playing the games during school hours, were included in an ordinance discussed by the Township Committee at its regular meeting. Police Chairman Macartney introduced the ordinance and explained that he knew from complaints and personal observation that the machines were being played extensively by school children, who talked of "losing $1 or 75 cents in one day."

Miss Evelyn R. Zwigard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Zwigard of 13 Rose avenue, received the degree of Bachelor of Arts at the commencement exercises of the College of Saint Elizabeth, Convent Station. Miss Zwigard was advertising manager of the Elizabethan, the senior publication, and held membership in the Economics and International Relations Clubs.

DAG Delegate

Mrs. Chester E. Francis of 113 Linden avenue, attended the annual Spring Party of the New Jersey Society, Daughters of the American Colonists, which was held yesterday in Short Hills. An active member of the organization, Mrs. Francis is also president of the Children of the American Colonists.

Township's Swim Program All Set

Sponsored by the township's recreation department and held under the supervision of the American Red Cross, Springfield's swimming program for boys and girls will get underway again at the Rahway Pool on Monday, June 26.

There will be ten consecutive days of instruction under Red Cross supervision. The bi-weekly bus trips to the pool start Tuesday, June 27, and will continue for eight weeks to August 17.

On Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays during the instruction period, buses will leave from the town hall at 11:30 a.m. Buses with children taking instruction always return at 1:30. On Tuesdays and Thursdays buses leave town hall at 9:45 returning at 12:30.

Permission slips for the swimming classes will be sent home with the children, to be signed by parents or guardians, and returned, not later than June 19. Additional information may be obtained by calling Millburn 6-4180-W.

HOLD SERVICES FOR FREDERICK MILLER

Frederick L. Miller of 21 Alvin terrace died last Thursday at St. Michael's Hospital, Newark, after a long illness. He was 44 and had been employed at the Celanese Corp., Newark, where he was a foreman, for 20 years. Born in Newark, he lived in Springfield for two and one-half years.

Mr. Miller leaves his wife, Mrs. Helen Fitzpatrick Miller; a daughter, Ellen, at home; two brothers, Elmer of Newark and Raymond of Elizabeth, and a sister, Mrs. Vincent Brown of Belleville.

The funeral was held Monday at 8 a.m. from the Joseph J. Maner & Son Funeral Home, 1200 Clinton avenue, Irvington. A high requiem mass was offered in St. James' Church, Springfield. Burial was in Gate of Heaven Cemetery, East Hanover.

In the scenic Division, Robert L. Wood of 188 Bryant avenue, Springfield, won first place with a print called "Springtime," second place went to Dennis L. Crow of Roselle, third place was garnered by Karl Dunkelman of Elizabeth, and another of Dennis L. Crow's prints got favorable mention.

In the Animal Life section, Robert W. Chamberlin of 282 South Plains avenue, Westfield, had a first place print which was followed in second place by a print by Karl Dunkelman of Elizabeth. A Robert Sberge of Plainfield, received the third place award and honorable mention went to William A. Pluemer of Plainfield.

The Children's Class was won by J. P. Guntner, M.D., of 6 Berkeley place, Cranford. Second place went to Henry Franks of Garwood, Robert L. Wood of Springfield received third place, and Erich Von Nozditz of Westfield honorable mention.

Regional Surplus Question Solved

The Regional Board of Education at its monthly meeting last Thursday night ended its "Battle of Surplus Funds" as suddenly as it had been started—at the May session. Finance Chairman Raymond Forbes made a brief announcement that his committee "recommends no change in present depositories." No comment was forthcoming on the statement. However, the board had just completed a lengthy executive session.

Commissioner Joseph Boninvento of Kenton originally had suggested that $30,000 surplus be placed in a savings and loan institution where it could draw a fair rate of interest. Some board members had expressed interest in the project but had urged that the funds be deposited in a savings bank. Commissioner Thomas Nolan, of Clark, said if there were surplus funds they should be returned to the taxpayers. Mrs. Helen Smith, district clerk, at last month's sessions, had explained that the surplus constantly is being used and that it could not remain on deposit for any length of time.

The board appointed Gail B. Koplin, of Hightstown, Pa., to teach general mathematics and general science at $2,650 a year. He is a graduate of Muhlenberg College. Miss Carol Fraut, guidance instructor, was employed during August to consult with students and arrange schedules for the opening of school. She will receive one tenth of her annual salary.

Receipt of seven scholarships by regional students was announced by Mr. Halsey Kenneth Belliveau, Warren Ousterman and John Coles will receive athletic scholarships for four years. Belliveau to the University of North Carolina and Ousterman and Coles to Wake Forest. Partial scholarship included: Richard Watt, Dartmouth; Emory Egler, Stevens Institute; Janet Layng, Marietta College and Edward Tyjowski, Drew University.

Receives Degree

Egon Stark, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Stark of Baltusrol way, received a Bachelor of Science degree in mechanical engineering last week at the commencement exercises of Newark College of Engineering. A graduate of Arts High School, Newark, Stark is employed by the Springfield-Tool and Die Company, as a mechanical engineer.

The German poet Schiller was trained as a surgeon and once served as a doctor to a regiment, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Week-End Traffic Keep You Porch Bound? Then Try These Alternate Roads to Resorts

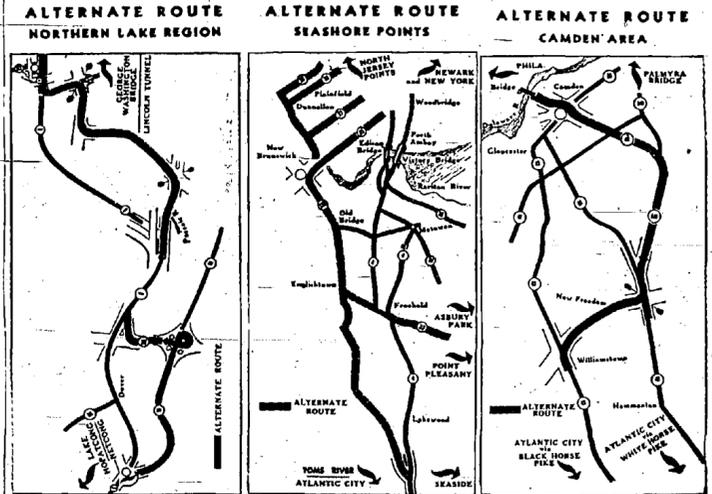

The State of New Jersey has acted on the problem of summer week-end congestion, and through Attorney General Theodore D. Parsons is calling upon motorists to help in this traffic improvement program.

"Steps have been taken toward relieving the situation by designating alternate routes of travel. Motorists can help by using the marked routes to and from resort areas and by staggering their mouth and Middlesex counties." He pointed out that motorists can save time and avoid congestion to and from the northern lake areas by using the marked alternate route which bypasses clogging points between Singac and Netcong. Vacationists in the Camden area will find travel expedited by using the White Horse Pike (Route 43) and Marlton Pike (Route 40) as marked alternates to the Black Horse Pike (Route by using the alternates that have been carefully signed and by staggering his travel hours. The west hours for resort-bound traffic on Saturday, and often on Sunday, are between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m.

"Schedules should be arranged so as to avoid the congested areas at these hours," Mr. Parsons declared. "The most critical hours for homebound motorists are between 5 p.m. and 8 p.m. on hours of travel," Mr. Parsons announced. "Surveys have shown that the three areas where most congestion develops are near Dover and the Caldwell, in the northern part of the state on routes leading to and from the lake district; in the vicinity of Camden on roads leading to resorts in the southern parts of the state, and in sections of Mon-

42). Alternate routes have been marked at the southern end of the Edison Bridge in the vicinity of South Amboy and via Dunellen and Englishtown.

Slagger Travel Hours

"In the absence of additional highways in these areas, everything is being done to make the most efficient use of present roadways. In this respect, the individual motorists can help most Sundays and holidays and between 7 and 9 a.m. on Mondays. Travel conditions can be improved by arranging to leave for home earlier or later than these more popular hours of travel. Everyone will agree that New Jersey's tremendous summer traffic cannot be accommodated when squeezed into these few hours even with a new highway system."

LEARN-TO-SWIM SCHOOLS TO OPEN

Learn-to-swim schools will open at both the Rahway River Park pool, Rahway, and the Wheeler Park pool, Linden, on Monday, June 26. The Union County Park Commission has announced. Classes will be held daily between 9 and 11 a.m. for one week. The classes are free and registration is at the pools. Boys and girls seven to thirteen years, inclusive, are eligible as students.

Instruction at the Wheeler pool will be under Alfred Nogi and Michael Grossman, both of Linden. Nicholas Bova of Rahway and Abe Smith, Plainfield, will be in charge at the Rahway pool. Those passing the tests will receive "King Neptune" certificates as well as American Red Cross certificates. The latter organization is cooperating with the Union County Park Commission on the program.

JUNE OUGLIEY, Editor

Residents Mark 35th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Freeman of 82 Tooker avenue were guests of honor Saturday evening at a 35th wedding anniversary buffet supper given by their daughters and son-in-law at the Kenilworth Inn, Kenilworth. All arrangements for the supper which was attended by eighty guests were made by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moon of Shunpike road, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Condon of 2 Tooker avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Swan of Bricon Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman were married June 2, 1915, in the rectory of the Clinton Avenue Presbyterian Church. They moved to Springfield twenty-four years ago and have lived there ever since.

Mr. Freeman has been employed by the Art Metal Works of Newark for the past thirty years.

Regional Graduate Is Bride at Mass

The marriage of a Regional High School graduate and a Newark man took place Saturday morning in St. Anne's Church, Newark, when Miss Dolores Elizabeth Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Jones of 337 Hazel avenue, Newark, became the bride of Edward P. Pasick, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Pasick of 303 New York avenue, Newark. Rev. Fr. Peter J. Walsh, pastor, officiated at the nuptial mass and a reception followed at the Robert Trent Hotel, Newark.

Escorted by her father, the bride had her sister, Mrs. John O'Neil of Union, as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were two other sisters, Mrs. Joseph Cato of Plainfield and Mrs. August Conrad of Irvington. Best man was Edward Kleski of Irvington and ushers were Theodore and Gene Russen of Belleville. Miss Jean Monaghan of Westfield played the nuptial music.

The bride's gown was fashioned of Chantilly lace with beaded neckline and bustle back ending in a long train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was clasped to a Juliet white cord and a prayer book. The couple will motor through the western states to Dallas, Tex., where they will make their home.

Prior to her marriage Miss Pasick was employed as a receptionist at Brunner's Opticians in Elizabeth. Her husband was graduated from Seton Hall College, South Orange, and attended the graduate school of New York University. He served in the Army Air Force in Italy and North Africa for three years and is employed by Hoffman-La Roche Pharmaceutical Corporation of Nutley as a sales representative in Dallas.

Local Girl Earns Nursing Diploma

Miss Nancy Hart

Miss Nancy Hart, daughter of Harry S. Hart of 67 Tooker avenue and the late Mrs. Alice A. Hart, was one of 94 student nurses who received graduate nursing certificates June 1 at the closing exercises of the nursing school of Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center, New York. Following the graduation exercises Miss Hart entertained her relatives and friends at a reception in Maxwell Hall, student nurses' dormitory, located on the heights overlooking the Hudson river near the George Washington Bridge.

An honor graduate of Regional High School in 1945, Miss Hart won a state scholarship to New Jersey College for Women, New Brunswick, where she took a two-year pre-nursing course. In September, 1947, she entered the Columbia University School of Nursing at the Presbyterian Hospital and began the three-year nursing course.

Later this month she will receive a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing from the university.

Miss Hart's remark of a recent borrower while carefully choosing books on foreign travel. Added proof was the observation of a parent to a little child, "Books are wonderful things Susie, they can take you anywhere you want to go." In some measure books can do as much for everyone for there is a type to meet all needs whatever the age or preference.

New books include—"White Pine and Blue Water" by Henry Beston—"Elder's Green" by Ernest Gann—"The Circle of the Day" by Helen Howe—"The Last Cruise" by Com. William J. Lederer—"The Marx Brothers" by Kyle Creighton—"Assignment to Austria" by Herbert and Nancie Mathews.

The monthly Story Hour will be held at 10:30 a.m. on the fourth Friday of the month during the summer, starting on Friday, June 30.

Mildred Frank's Bridal Performed

Miss Mildred Emily Frank

Miss Mildred Emily Frank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nicholas Frank of 32 Mapes avenue, became the bride Saturday afternoon of Melvin Homer Barefield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Barefield of 29 Simpson avenue, Linden. The ceremony took place in the rectory of St. Michael's Church, Elizabeth, with the Rev. William Reinhold officiating. A reception followed in the Holiday Inn, Elizabeth.

Miss Gladys Lee Barefield of Linden, sister of the bridegroom, was honor attendant and Charles Richard Frank, of Springfield, brother of the bride, was best man.

Escorted in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ivory satin gown trimmed with lace. Her fingertip scalloped lace veil was attached to a crown of seed-pearls and she carried a prayer book with white orchids and streamers of lilacs of the valley.

For her honeymoon trip to Fla., the bride chose a navy blue suit with pink accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Barefield was graduated from St. Michael's Grammar School, Elizabeth, and attended Batlin High School there. Prior to her marriage she was employed by the Rayed Company, Elizabeth. Her husband attended Linden schools and is stationed at Langley Field, Va., with the Army Air Corps. The couple will make their home in Hampton, Va.

Son to Henry Cubberley
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cubberley of 19 Rose avenue are the proud parents of a son, Donald Henry, born June 7 at Overlook Hospital. They also have a daughter, Patricia Ann, 3 1/2. Mrs. Cubberley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McDonough of the Rose avenue address.

Peggy Morrison Plans Trip Abroad

Miss Peggy Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edgar Morrison of 34 Morrison road, will leave New York Harbor July 8 aboard the Queen Mary on a six weeks' tour of Europe. She will be accompanied on the trip by Miss Maureen Cunningham of Larchmont, N. Y.

Recent graduates of the Academy of Mount St. Vincent, Tuxedo Park, N. Y., the girls plan to visit England, France, Italy, Germany, Austria and Switzerland. They will return home via the Mediterranean on the new Italian liner Conte Biancamano and will arrive in New York on the 22nd of August.

LETTERS

Merchant's Answer
 June 14, 1950
 Editor, Sun:
 If you have space in your paper, I should like to reply to Mrs. Webster's letter of last week. Mrs. Webster stated that she could not be forced to shop in our town because during the war she had to leave town to get butter, etc.

 As a merchant in town, doing business for the past twenty years, I feel something should be printed in defense of the merchants.
 No merchant wants to force people to shop in town, but rather, through his efforts and manner of conducting his business, wants to create a desire in his customers, and make them want to trade at his particular place of business. During the years we have increased our patronage, through the good will of our customers.
 During the war we allotted our meager supplies of meat and butter and other short items to the best of our ability to our customers, at the correct O.P.A. prices.
 It was not an easy job spreading our short supplies over the number of customers we have, and it was not easy to refuse to sell butter, etc., to people who drifted from store to store trying to get more than their share.

Nevertheless, when a person approached us with this in mind, we did refuse to sell such items to them.
 I know that in some towns anyone could buy all the scarce items at a price, but we did not conduct our business that way.
 Our surrounding towns have prospered and will continue to prosper until our townspeople create within themselves a real desire to shop in town. When all of the residents of Springfield create this desire, you shall see this town grow and be the envy of other towns. After all, it takes many to make improvements to one's place of business, and before any merchant can think of enlarging his building and building facilities he must know where the money is coming from.
 We are proud of our store, Mrs. Webster. We believe that if you were to give us a fair trial, in time you would be proud of it, too.

Know Your Government
By N. J. Taxpayers Association

THAT ADDITIONAL $700 BITE
 Americans have known for many years that they're paying a lot of taxes for the cost of government. Economists estimate that the average American family pays $25 to $30 in taxes for every $100 of income.
 If you're in doubt, and if your family income is average, (around $4,500 a year), sit down sometime and multiply your weekly withholding tax by 52 weeks. Then add what you pay in property taxes. After that, add another $700, which is what the average American family pays in hidden taxes.
 Actually, most Americans don't know that the $700 bite is being put on them. They pay it in the cost of the goods and services. Every product, from baby powder to the family car, which goes to make up the American standard of living is taxed. Here are some examples to show how taxes raise the price of products. According to one widely published study of the subject, if there were no tax on the items you buy:
 A $2,100 car could be priced at $1,400.
 A 47 cent can of baby powder, 30 cents.
 A 15 cent loaf of bread, 10 cents.
 A $21 lawn mower, $14.
 A $10,000 house, $7,500.
 A $9 pair of shoes, $6 and
 A $225 refrigerator, $150.
 These are just a few examples.

A-Bomb Cannot Insure Short War Scientists Told
 One of the bubble-pricking aspects of possible atomic warfare using present weapons or those of the foreseeable near future, is that these weapons cannot insure a short war, according to the facts marshalled and presented by Dr. John K. Galt to the Summit Association of Scientists at their meeting June 6, at Memorial Field House.
 From information available to the public today several scientists in the audience gave it as their opinion that the hydrogen bomb would not be a very major addition to United States military strategy. "It might or might not be such to that of an enemy nation," they thought. Dr. Robert R. Williams and Dr. Conyers Herring contributed to this idea.
 The explanation for this was that if the hydrogen bomb is to be delivered by air on Russia, it would be more effective to deliver A-Bombs in that manner, as far more could be so carried. The use of hydrogen bombs would be most effective as a "planted" weapon, i.e., as sabotage.
 Alan N. Holden introduced the evening's discussion of "Military and Political Consequences of Atomic Bombs," by outlining the American and Russian proposals for the control of atomic energy. He concluded by saying that probably any plan made would be out of date by 1960, due to the constant technological developments in that field.
 The political position taken by M. S. Blackett, Nobel prize winner, in his book, "Foes, War and the Bomb," was analyzed by William J. Myles. The very anti-

American book questions the sincerity of America in proposing atomic control, he said. His (Blackett's) most spectacular statement was that the dropping of the first bomb on Japan was not as a necessary last move in the war against that country but as a first move in the cold war against Russia. Mr. Myles stated that the book was very well received in Russia.
 H. O. Klineke summarized the nature of the present impasse on atomic control in the UN, the result of Russia's refusal to accept the American plan and the refusal of the Commission to accept Russia's plan. The most hopeful outlook for the near future is that this country acquire a more equal "horse-trading" position as soon as possible.
 In the general discussion it was stated that Russia's position on atomic control is based on her professed interest in its use in peace. Prospects of such use are very slim at present, according to the preponderant opinion among those present, and Russia either does not understand this or pretends not to understand it.
 Dr. Herring, president, was in the chair. The program was in charge of Dr. Galt, chairman of the cultural and education committee, whose members took part.

SCHOOL NEWS

Grade 1
We all have a new story book to keep in our desks. When we finish our seat-work, we can read the stories by ourselves. The books are called "Tags and Twinkle" and the stories are about Jim and Judy, their dog Tags, their cat Twinkle, and their family and friends.

We are very proud to be able to read a new book like this without any help and to be able to figure out the new words without asking our teachers.

Last Wednesday we were invited to join the upper grades at Assembly and enjoyed the style show put on by the big girls, who made their own clothes in sewing class. We also enjoyed the fairy tale cartoons that we saw that morning and most of us were able to go to the Pinocchio movie in the afternoon. It was a very entertaining day.

Grades 1 and 2
We have finished our basic readers, so we have been rereading and dramatizing some of our favorite stories. We have new supplementary readers which we are reading for enjoyment.

Miss Gaudner said we are the only class that has a 100 per cent "Pinocchio" certificates for good work. Last Thursday we all enjoyed a movie as a reward.

Second Grade is drilling on review of number facts and spelling words.
Loris Roettger brought into school a branch from a tulip tree that grows in her yard. The beautiful yellow blossoms and leaves resemble the shape of a tulip. We learned that telephone poles are made from tulip trees because their trunks are so tall and straight.

Grade 2
We had a grand time when we had our picnic at Echo Lake. Mrs. Euzawski and Mrs. Miller took the boys and Mrs. Betz, Mrs. Wendland and Miss Rieg took the girls-in-cars. We found two large tables near the lake where we could enjoy our lunch. We drank cold milk we had taken with us from school.

After lunch we got back into the cars and went to the Trailside Museum near Surprise Lake. We had lots of fun looking at the turtles, the fox, the owl and the possum. The skunk was asleep. We saw snakes, squirrels and bunnies in the museum. Mrs. Rullson told us how to walk in the woods and how to use our eyes. She showed us pictures of some of the birds we might see. She also let us listen to some bird calls on the victrola.

Then we had a fine walk on one of the trails through the woods. From the time we left the Museum until we returned, we heard fifteen different birds. We saw a number of them. Mrs. Rullson also showed us a wild orchid or the flower we know as the Lady Slipper. There are very few of them around here.

We returned to school before two o'clock so that twenty-five of us could see the movie for those who had Pinocchio slips. We were sorry that eight of us could not go because our teeth had not been fixed.

Grades 2 and 3
During our fifteen-minute story period our teacher has been reading us "The Boxcar Children," a story by Gertrude Chandler Warner and published by Scott, Foresman and Company. We like the story so well that we are planning to depict some of the things which have impressed us most. Edward Cardinal has already constructed a boxcar from paper and James Applegate has made a background for it.

Grade 3
Last Wednesday twenty-seven of us enjoyed a movie while the rest of our class worked. We were able to go because each had a dentist certificate for this school year. The following people went: Dorothy Ann Boehm, Diane Bouchard, Kathleen Clark, Henriette Green, Sue Kisch, Ruth Ann Toomey, Doris Walker, Emily Kent, Joanne Porter, Judith Belsbart, Ruth Rawlins, Bob Sluam, Karen Rogers, David Eger, Ronald Barz, Tel Ganska, John Pettinger, Donald Booker, Richard Pancaul, Edwin Prichard, Alfred Felhardt, Charles Rothbard, Charles Stevens, Skip Skoussen, Stephen Wells, Norman Multer and Archie Argyria.

Many of us have just had our first trip to the Circus. These people gave fine reports on the Circus: Jeff Manuel, Edwin Prichard, Ruth Ann Toomey, Charles Rothbard, Barbara Aman, Emily Kent and Richard Pancaul.

Grade 4
Our class enjoys music very much. Several of us play instruments. For the past several weeks we have been learning to play the song flute. Our teacher takes us at quarter of one each day. We have learned to play Lullaby, Hog Drovers, Old Grumbler and Jingle Bells. We have been practicing American Elizabeth Walker, Sandra Taylor, Beverly Marcholl, Joyce Olesosky, Carol Fox, Sue Keano, Clara De-Freytag, Lou Ellen Martin and Ray Welsh belong to the song flute band.

We have finished our review tests in spelling. Gall Temple came out in first place, Sandra Taylor in second and Joyce Olesosky in third place.

Grade 5
On Wednesday in Assembly, the Fifth Grade girls modeled the aprons they made in sewing class this year. Those who participated in the fashion show were Nancy Bolles, Barbara Burns, Pat Carney, Myrna Chesler, Nancy DeLeonard, Theresa Graziano, Doris Helmstetter, Marylou Merkel, Audrey Pfeiffer, Pat Princee, Joan Roland, Joan Wagner and Ann Workman.

Perfect attendance for May was noted for the following people: Nancy Bolles, Barbara Burns, Pat Carney, Audrey Franklin, Theresa Graziano, Barbara Kent, Joan Roland, Joan Wagner, Anne Worthman, Dick Anderson, Richard Battelle, Bill Charles, George Haupt, Alfred Parker, David Picheard, Warren Watkins and David Zeller.

The Fifth Grade examinations were held on Friday, June 9th and Monday, June 12th.

A special movie, "Law and Order," was presented in the gym for those students who held Pinocchio certificates for good teeth. The people from the Fifth Grade who had this privilege were Dick Anderson, Richard Battelle, John Moscaritolo, Ronald Pettinger, Bud Quinzel, Harold A. I. Brecht, Warron Watkins, Barbara Burns, Pat Carney, Nancy DeLeonard, Doris Helmstetter, Barbara Kent, Marylou Merkel, Audrey Pfeiffer, Pat Princee, Joan Roland, Joan Wagner, Elaine Worrlids and Ann Workman.

Grades 6, 7 and 8
These days are really busy ones, in fact a little busier than we might care for at times. The Eighth Grade is rapidly winding up the good "ole" days in Raymond Chisholm. With their examinations now completed, most of their activities are centered around graduation. Mrs. Sandmeyer and Miss Corcoran have been working especially hard with them. Mrs. Nelson, Miss Guerin and Mrs. Towner have also rehearsed their graduation exercises with them.

Some of the upper grade boys have been very busy checking and storing new supplies that have come in for next year's use. A few of those who have done an especially nice job include Fred Mills, Bob Jamison, Arthur DeBloss, Willard Fischer, Warren Smith and Richard Elshof. Arthur DeBloss is the man in charge.

The farewell party given for the Eighth Grade by the Seventh was a great success. The new arrangement of sitting in groups was novel and successful. Entertainment during the refreshments was provided by Howard Clinkinger, Bob Shaw, Roger Smith, Joan Ann Glannatasio, Sue Charles and Mary Richelo.

The girls and boys each had a baseball game during club period on Tuesday. It seemed almost too nice out to stay inside so everyone took advantage of the weather and went outside. The Eighth Grade rehearsed for graduation instead of playing ball. Because the Eighth Grade sacrificed their club period for a rehearsal, they were given a chance to see a number of cartoons on Wednesday with the lower grades. They proved to be very entertaining. Those who held "Pinocchio" certificates are Bob Couch, Willard Fischer, Gerard Richelo, Warren Smith, Jack Wyckoff, Nancy Battelle, Dolores Deh, Mary Lou D'Elis, Glenda Drake, Vivian Fisher, Gail Keane, Mildred Booker, Evelyn Pedersen and Betty Wehrle. A movie entitled "Law and Order" was presented especially for them last Monday.

Caldwell School
Kindergarten both James Caldwell and Raymond Chisholm

Mrs. Chandler's class has been having interesting puppet shows. Some of the children made cute puppets with potatoes. Edward Franzese celebrated his sixth birthday by having a party in school.

Mrs. Dunn's group is studying the flowers that are in bloom now. We have made daisy pictures. We all walked over to the James Caldwell School to be weighed and to enjoy the slides and swings.

On Thursday, Joan Steets celebrated her sixth birthday. We had ice cream and cake.

Grade One
Clifford Murphy brought a chameleon to show us. A chameleon looks like a little lizard. It changes color all the time. We put it on some grass and it turned green. We put it on our desk and it turned brown. We showed our chameleon to the other classes. They enjoyed it too.

Mrs. Corby and Mrs. Snider took their first-grade classes to Trailside Museum on Wednesday, June 7. The children saw the animals at the museum. They went on a nature trail to look for plants and birds. Then they had a picnic lunch. Classroom mothers provided transportation. It was a beautiful day and we enjoyed it very much.

Mrs. Snider's class gave a play for Flag Day in the Primary Assembly on Friday. Don Drumm and Nancy Marshall were the announcers. Howard Selander was the policeman, Leonard Lindahl the fireman, Robert Brucker the storekeeper and Phillip Ritterbacher was the mail carrier. Thomas Hellman was our "President Truman." The flag bearers were: Marilyn Eno, Allice Malmont, Marilyn Furst, "Jan" Gleim, Carol Lawler, Edith Johansen, Joan Arnold Merrill Post, Kurt Wambach, Bobby Grimmor, Gary Stecher, Billy Trivet, Bobby Edwards, Ricky Harker, Eddy Stevens, Toddy Schuss, Don Drumm, Richard Buckner, Eugene Mittenicht, Clark Pringle, Robert Brucker and Michael Kuvin.

This was the last assembly program for this year. We will be looking forward to some more next year though. We like to help Miss Corcoran, our music supervisor, to plan them.

Grade Two
Bobby French brought his rabbit to school on Thursday. We enjoyed learning how Bobby cared for his pet.

The class is planning a picnic on Monday, June 19. Children and mothers will go to Echo Lake Park.

Robert Holst found some snails. They are now living in our fish bowl.

In Miss Smith's class most of us have finished our basal reading books and are reading a fine new book.

Kenneth Dreher had been to the circus in Newark and told us about it in class.

Grades Two and Three
We finished our Science book this week. We hated to see it end for it was very interesting and we learned a lot from it. We had our last Science lesson out on the playground under one of the big trees.

Friday we sang "Playmates" for assembly. We had fun doing it and hoped the other classes enjoyed it.

We visited Mrs. Corby's first grade toy exhibit and enjoyed it very much.

Bob French brought in his pet rabbit and we learned about rabbits and than saw the real one.

Joe Proto brought in his pet turtle. We read about turtles in Science and then saw the real thing. We enjoy that kind of a lesson very much.

Grade Three
We are learning a new step in arithmetic — division. It seems quite easy. Our multiplication facts help us do division.

A group of boys and girls are going to play their flutes in the auditorium. They will play "Long Long Ago." Miss Corcoran will accompany us at the piano.

Mrs. Ryder's class gave the play "Cinderella" to a few classes. The classes seemed to enjoy it.

The boys are trying to see who is the best marble player. Phillip Little is the best so far.

Grade Four
We learned several new songs this week and had a reading lesson out under the trees on Wednesday.

On Thursday we played Miss Friedman's fourth grade in soft ball.

Fifth Grade
The girls in the fifth grade science class enjoyed a picnic at Echo Lake on Wednesday afternoon. They hiked, played games and studied nature.

cooked over an open fire. Seven p.m. time for starting home, came very quickly.

The boys in Miss Purcell's class had their secret date last Saturday when they saw a double header baseball game at Yankee Stadium with Chicago White Sox.

The teams were quite evenly matched, but we felt that the Yankee's were better players in the field. Our favorite player hit a home run which caused much excitement.

Long Live the King; The King is DAD!

Well, folks, another year's gone by; Time to buy Pop another tie! Yes, we are happy to say It is again Father's Day. Of course Mother—she is really great; But Pop ain't such a bad old skate. Maybe he can't cook or bake, you know, But he generally brings home the dough. So, instead of the tie which he won't wear, Give him something for which he will care— A bottle of Spiritus Fermentii, just for Pop. Wrapped real pretty in store for this year. Good professional entertainment, the kind the youngsters (old youngsters too) will not want to miss, was arranged at the committee meeting last Monday. This is slated for 8 p. m. on the Fourth, assuring a full evening in combination with the large fireworks display, the band and outdoor dancing. "Something for everyone is in prospect with plans for the all day celebration progressing rapidly. In addition to the evening program and the morning baby parade, now an established yearly feature, there will be included a patriotic service, ball game, athletic events and prizes (events for adults too), and free kiddie rides (sorry no adults), providing, all in all, a bang-up day.

GRAND UNION SALUTES FATHER AND PAL

This week Grand Union salutes the American Father, the best family man in the world. He dedicates his life to building our nation's future.

Francis X. Duffy At His Work

Francis X. Duffy At His Home

Francis X. Duffy At His Hobby

*PAL - Police Athletic League, a recreation program for youth sponsored by Police Departments in many communities, whose members are known as "PAL's".

Sunday June 18 is Father's Day

Francis X. Duffy, Worker Father of the year, is a laboratory tester at the Philadelphia refinery of the Gulf Oil Corporation. He is married and the father of two children. Francis Duffy is devoting his life to his home, his family, and his hobby, boxing, which he feels is a great factor in teaching young men initiative and self-confidence. He has been active in Philadelphia's PAL since it started and spends a great deal of his time and money contributing to the welfare of children.

About SUBURBIA'S Cover

On the cover of Suburbia this week is Pat Bamed of Union.

Pat, who graduates from Union High School next week, has set her post-graduation sights on the life of a career girl. She hopes to become a professional model and, in fact, already has a good start in that direction. She has modeled for some of the larger Newark department stores and her picture has appeared in the fashion sections of some of the daily papers in this area. Pat still recalls with a good deal of pleasure the time she modeled in the same show with B. B. Shappe, "Miss America, 1949."

Looking back upon her high school career, Pat says she enjoyed gym, dancing and sports the most. Outside of school she likes to ride horseback and swim.

About the people who helped produce this week's cover:

Bruce Nett of Madison whose photograph of Pat Bamed appears on Suburbia's cover will have one of his pictures on the cover of an early issue of Newsweek Magazine.

Homer Hill of Livingston, illustrator who designed Suburbia's cover, has recently completed a cover design will appear in a July issue of Liberty Magazine.

Our Neighbors

Cats will find the darndest places in which to raise their families.

Two mother Tabbies in East Orange last week gave evidence of this cantankerous characteristic. One of them climbed into a large cavity in a tree, 12 feet above the ground, and gave birth to a family of three. A second expectant mother gave birth to kittens in the front display window of a liquor store on East Orange's busiest street.

Both families are reported doing well, despite their unusual surroundings.

In Bound Brook last week a gentleman who knew when he had had enough, told policemen that if they didn't lock him up he would break a window. The cops were unimpressed and sent him on his way.

A few minutes later the inebriate demonstrated that he was a man of his word. Carefully selecting "just about the largest show window in town" he pitched a brick right smack through center of it.

Several squadrons of bees described by one observer as "a big, black cloud" last week disrupted traffic and pedestrians on Main and Harrison streets, East Orange. According to reports, pedestrians scattered rapidly before the approaching swarm of bees flying three to ten feet above the ground.

A local bee keeper explained to puzzled residents that only one queen bee may reign over a hive. If a second appears, a fight ensues and the loser departs for other climes with a retinue of workers.

Apparently it was a vanquished queen bee who was leading her workers through the center of East Orange, much to the discomfort of passersby.

The Washington Star (N.J.) last week reported a fish story with a new twist. It seems that two of their readers drove 700 miles, far into the wilds of Canada to whip up a mess of fish.

They headed for a little lake in Quebec by the name of Lake Polgan. Reportedly this charming body of water was so full of fish that all the fishermen would have to do, would be, and we quote, "stand by the shore with a baseball bat, whistle, and bat the fish on the head when they jumped out."

The local nimrods returned five days later with this account of their experience:

"The scenery was very pretty, the temperature over 95. They didn't catch so much as an old inner tube.

The New Jersey Poll Reports

By KENNETH FINK
Director, The New Jersey Poll
The legal top driving speed in the state is 45 miles per hour, and that's exactly what the New Jersey adult public believes it should be.

Forty-five miles per hour was the median average figure named by New Jersey voters all over the state in a survey just completed on the subject.

Analysis of today's survey findings reveals one thing clearly and unmistakably—the great bulk of New Jersey people don't want auto drivers on New Jersey highways to go more than 50 miles per hour at any time. Four out of every five people questioned in today's survey named a top driving speed of 50 miles or less.

When New Jersey Poll staff reporters asked the following question of an accurate cross-section of 1,000 men and women located in 17 of the state's 21 counties and in 44 different communities:

"What do you yourself think the maximum (top) speed should be for automobiles on an open-country highway?"

Here are the driving speeds named:

Under 40 miles	11%
40 miles	14
40-44 miles	3
45 miles	23
46-49 miles	3
50 miles	27
50-59 miles	8
60 miles	6
Over 60 miles	1
Undecided	4

(*The median average of all speeds named is 45 miles per hour.)

New Jersey,
The "Mighty Mite"

New Jersey is the fourth smallest state in the Union. It is 166 miles long, has 125 miles of coastline and a total area of 8,224 square miles.

According to the 1940 census, New Jersey ranks ninth in population among the 48 states. Estimates put the 1950 population at over 4,435,000.

New Jersey has more railroad trackage per square mile than any other state in the Union. It also ranks first in the nation in the ratio of multi-lane highways to total state highway mileage.

There are 563 municipalities in the state, six cities with populations of more than 100,000 and thirteen with more than 50,000.

And among the forgotten towns of south Jersey are such names as: "Bread and Cheese," "Apple Pie Hill," "Alligator Ridge," "Double Trouble" and "Loveladies."

Spinning Records

By DICK GERSH

Suburbia can be mighty proud of Paul Brenner! In addition to a four hour daily session on WAAT that is one of the most popular record-programs in the entire East, Paul is the personality host of the

PAUL BRENNER

WATV "Talent Search" show.

How did all this come about? Well, a good part of understanding it comes with meeting the general disc jockey who is one of the best liked men in the music business.

The origins of his "Requestfully Yours" program reach far back into Paul's school days at Syracuse University where young Brenner studied journalism and worked in one of the local radio stations on the side.

After his graduation in 1937, Paul auditioned for an announcing job at WNEW and wound up spending the next two years as understudy for the dean of disc jockeys, Martin Block. Paul looks at you and grins when he says that they used to call his show "Brenner Batting For Block". He and his ex-boss are still great friends.

In 1939, WAAT beckoned and Paul accepted a one year contract. That's one marriage, three children and eleven years ago, to say nothing of a beautiful home in South-Orange.

On the side there's the publishing company, Brenner Music, in partnership with Ed Burton. For the last two years Paul has been president of the Metropolitan Association of Disc Jockeys and right now he's all excited over a new singer whose career he's "sort of helping along." His name is Jerry Sellers. He records for Mercury and his newest release, "You've Got To Make Someone Happy" looks like a big hit.

When you add to that his television show and his four hours a day of "Requestfully Yours" I think that it would be safe to say that Paul Brenner is what you could call a very busy man.

Huffman-Boyle Home Furnishings

The Story of a Retail Firm that Has Grown Up in New Jersey By Bringing Pleasant Living Within The Means of Everyone . . .

Arthur C. Huffman
President
HUFFMAN-BOYLE CO., INC.

When the BERGEN EVENING RECORD first reminded us that its Mid-Century Edition was being planned, it was suggested that we take this occasion to tell the complete background story of Huffman-Boyle Company for both those who may have visited our store, and those who may have seen Huffman-Boyle advertising in the RECORD. We are especially pleased to be able to do this, since a community retail firm seldom has this opportunity to pause for a moment to explain its situated within two blocks of the main store, was built to our own specifications to service the North Hackensack store and the New York store's floor covering trade.

THE NEW YORK STORE

Our New York operation consists of floor coverings for hotels, institutions, industrial organizations, and interior decorators. This business has grown consistently, and now supplies the floor covering requirements of many large firms.

NEW SPRINGFIELD STORE

Believing that the same aims and objectives of the North Hackensack store could be applied to a second Huffman-Boyle suburban location, it was decided to open a similar operation on Route 24, Springfield, N. J. This store is centrally located between Newark and Morristown, N. J., and is within 28 miles of North Hackennecessary to feature sales other than two semi-annual clearances yearly. While this policy is not regularly used by others, it is felt by the company that this manner of operation creates customer confidence.

Great emphasis is placed in the buying of furniture at markets throughout the country each year.

Huffman-Boyle buying is under the capable direction of John Campbell. At various times during the year, Mr. Huffman and Mr. Campbell travel many thousands of miles to home furnishings markets, always selecting new merchandise with regard to basic value, styling and quality. Mr. Huffman, because of his extensive background in this field, is floor covering buyer for all three stores. Owing to the small room areas of present-day new homes, low grades of floor covering are not carried because of heavier and more concentrated wear of rugs or carpets in such rooms.

Budget priced clothes for a summer vacation: A red-and-white dotted marquisette dance dress and Oxford gray chambray sun dress with cover-up bolero.

Budget Vacation Clothes

Imagine having a wonderful time in a fifty-dollar vacation wardrobe. Then go right ahead.

The attractive, inexpensive clothes many a girl wants to make the most of her two-weeks-with-pay may cost even a little less than $50, but need cost no more. With a variety of New York fashions to choose from, she will discover that she can easily figure on a pretty new bathing suit, a sundress with cover-up jacket, a gay little afternoon dress, and an evening dress—all totaling within the amount mentioned.

The early shopper, having her pick of New York's fresh and varied vacation fashions, is likely to have no trouble finding exactly the clothes she has contemplated packing. But it's smart not only to shop early, but with an open mind. You may discover, for instance, that an adorable little dinner dress that you'd ordinarily shy away from because of its strapless bodice is unexpectedly becoming to you.

Many of the coolest sightseeing dresses are sleeveless, but the majority have cover-up jackets. One very gay and crisp dress cut all of a piece has a sleeveless red pique top and flaring white pique skirt, and comes with a collarless short-sleeved bolero that fits under the winged revers of the dress bodice.

An extra bathing suit is always a joy on a vacation, and makes choosing easier. The girl who can take only one, however, might consider such a quick-drying flatterer as an allover shirred black nylon suit with cuffed and strapless top. Other, equally eye-catching New York suits include a white pique one-piece suit with halter piping and cuffed legs; and a dress-maker suit in printed pique, the skirt cut circular over white jersey panties.

News for the golfer is the return of the soft silk dress, easily packed and useful not only for the game, but for casual wear. One such New York dress is in beige silk shirting, its bodice buttoned from a pointed shirt collar and the skirt fastened fly front. Short sleeves have a top inverted pleat buttoned neatly in place. For tennis, the short, spanking white dress continues first favorite.

Grows Two Where One Grew Before

Congressmen's worry over Government "experts" is no new phenomenon. Rep James Wadsworth (R.-N.Y.) recalled that in 1905 his father, then chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, was worried over a $15,000,000 appropriation for the Agriculture Department. (Prospective appropriation: $784,000,000.) Said elder Wadsworth:

"Son, do you know what an expert in the Department of Agriculture is?" The son said he wasn't sure. "I'll tell you," continued his father. "He is a man who makes two dollars grow in an appropriation bill where one grew before."

GRADUATION

Has it worked? If it hasn't worked 100 per cent, it at least has afforded the youngsters in school a better picture of the world than they have ever had before.

As Betty put it, "One of my teachers kept repeating that we should read current periodicals. I took his advice. Now I feel good just because I know what is going on in the world."

365-DAY CHRISTMAS TREE

Christmas trees are a year-round fixture in the oil industry. "Christmas Tree" is the name given to the assembly of pipes, throttles and valves which control the flow of oil or gas at the well-head.
