FRIENDS!!

Like everyone else, we could devote this week's column to a discussion on the storm and what it did to Springfield. . . but we'll let that story be told in our news section and concentrate on other things just to be different.

Starting tomorrow Lieutenant William Thompson becomes acting chief of the Police Department. . . he replaces M. Chase Runyon who has served in that capacity for more than a score of years and who has decided to retire. . . Thompson's assignment will be a tough one. . . we've known Bill for many years and believe sincerely he's very capable of doing a fine job. Springfield's business section Christmas light display, sponsored annually by the Chamber of Commerce, will probably start the early part of next week.

The terms of three members of the Board of Education are up in February. . . they are Mrs. Margaret Pflieger, Robert G. Smith and Clifford Walker, president. . . all are expected to seek reelection.

In just about four weeks the Township Committee will hold its annual reorganization meeting. Mayor Robert W. Marshall again is expected to be voted the chairmanship and all other job holders, faithful to the party, are scheduled for reappointment. . . there has been considerable speculation about the posts of township attorney and township treasurer. . . we've tried to obtain some advance info on what may take place on that score but thus far we've been unsuccessful.

Budget time is approaching fast and members of the governing body already are looking forward to entertaining financial wizards representing the community's various and sundry civic groups.

Gotta hand it to all the Springfield folks who journeyed to Rahway Thursday morning to cheer Regional High's football players. . . the game wasn't the best we've seen, but excitement ran high and the trip was worthwhile.

Lucky for that one Regional Booster everyone was in a jovial mood. . . although somewhat "under the weather," he had the local crowd cheering, but when he tried his hand on the Rahway side of the fence it became necessary for the Rahway cops to come to his rescue.

Fred Sylvester of Bullis Avenue spent a week-end away from home and traveled hundreds of miles on a hunting trip with few friends recently in an all-out effort to bag a deer for himself. . . he returned empty handed. . . and just think. . . last Friday morning a big buck worked its way into Sylvester's backyard and hung around for nearly 15 minutes before scampering off in the direction of the Chanticleer.

Tip of the hat to Mr. Kravitz at Kay's Stationery for selling merchandise at a loss as a result of an advertising error rather than cause any ill feeling with customers.

Regional High's Supervising Principal Warren W. Halsey has a real gripe coming. . . last week's column, stressing civic pride, mentioned that despite the existence of capable local photographers Regional's yearbook pictures were taken by an out-of-town concern. . . Halsey explains the school's position very emphatically in "Letters to the Editor" today.

Book Review
Literature Department of the Milburn Woman's Club will meet Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William McKim, 34 Lakeview Avenue. . . Slaves Hills, Mrs. Albert C. Walker, Mrs. H. Charlton Keyler, Mrs. Walter A. Wentworth and Mrs. McKim, all members of the club, will give book reviews on "The Civilization and Customs of China," Dessert

Thompson Takes Over Police Dept.

Choice of Other Officers Prompts Speculation

Lieut. William Thompson will become acting chief of police at midnight tonight with the retirement of Chief M. Chase Runyon. The latter, who has held the post for the past twenty-four years, recently applied for retirement, refusing to heed the Township Committee's request that he reconsider. The chief, still a relatively young man, is expected to take a post, possibly of a police nature, with private industry. . . However, there are many details to be arranged by the governing board before the complete setup of the Police Department is determined. It is generally expected that Acting Chief Thompson will be named permanently to the post in January, possibly at the organization session. . . Considerable speculation centers about the choice by the Township Committee of his replacement in the post of lieutenant. . . With the acting chief theoretically scheduled for retirement within a period of two years, the new lieutenant pre-

Christmas Light Display Set Here

Christmas lighting under the sponsorship of the Chamber of Commerce is scheduled to make its debut next week at a cost of more than $500. Attractive garlands of multi-colored lights awaited only the restoration of power which had been cut off by Saturday's storm. . . Strung on the garlands were traditional Christmas designs. It will be the third consecutive year the township business section has been arrayed in holiday attire. . . Special ceremonies are expected to be arranged by the Chamber of Commerce when the switch is thrown to turn Morris Avenue into typical holiday electrical garb. . . Turning on the lights is expected to formally open the Christmas shopping season here.

Hiroshima Survivor Tells Of Atom Bomb Experiences

Despite the storm last week-end, a large number of persons turned out at Methodist Church to hear the Rev. Kiyoshi Tanimoto, Hiroshima survivor, tell of his experiences during the catastrophe which struck his city with the dropping of the atomic bomb. His vivid descriptions had a visible effect on those who had assembled to hear him. All were impressed with the humility of his spirit as much as with the stark reality of his words. . . The Rev. Mr. Tanimoto related how he passed the spot where the explosion made its central impact not thirty minutes before he was startled by a blinding flash which made the bright, smoky sky look dim by comparison. A low hill separated him from the center of the city, a fact which probably saved his life. Instinctively, he dove headlong between two rocks and immediately felt a blast of wind pass over him. An interesting phenomenon of the explosion was the fact that none of the

Regional Booster Dinner Is Set

Regional High School Booster Club will sponsor its annual football dinner on December 12. Proceedings will begin promptly at 6:45 p.m. in the Flagship, Route 29, Union. . . The event is held to honor the football squad, coaches, and cheerleaders. The aforementioned are presented with trophies. . . Tickets for the affair can be procured at the high school, or from any member of the club. Admissions may also be obtained at the SUN office. . . The Booster Club has extended invitations to all followers of Regional sports to attend the dinner. After the program is completed dancing and a floor show will be offered to all those attending.

5-Year Garbage Contract Given

Peter Roselle & Sons of East Orange, will continue as Springfield's refuse collectors for the next five years. The Township Committee last Wednesday night awarded a 5-year contract for the concern at a total of $112,000 and $90 additional for each 100 new units. The bid was the lowest of those received. A resolution, recommended by Police Commissioner Albert Binder, authorized payment of one month's salary to Police Chief M. Chase Runyon, retiring tomorrow, in lieu of accumulated sick leave and vacation pay. This was approved unanimously. . . Another letter was directed to the State Highway Department urging that it reconsider resurfacing of Morris Avenue in the business area. Officials said exposed trolley car tracks, long unused, present a hazard to motorists. A recent letter from highway authorities said the expenditure was unwarranted. . . The committee agreed to consider request of Louis W. Pignolet, representing the Citizen's League, for permission to have representatives of that group and other civic organizations in the community assist in preliminary preparation of the 1951 budget.

FIRST AID MEMBER INJURED ON CALL

Mrs. Virginia Watkins of 142 Mountain Avenue, member of the Springfield-First Aid Squad, suffered a sprained left wrist while assisting at a call Saturday night at 80 Diven street. She was treated by Dr. Gabriel Lull and probably will remain at home for three weeks.

Township Completing Repairs After Battering From Storm

A scene typical of the devastation wrought by the windstorm Saturday in the Springfield area. Paced by an 80-mile-an-hour gale, the storm uprooted trees, tore shingles from roofs, wrecked signs and shattered many plate glass windows. Line crews of the Jersey Central Power and Light Company began restoration of utilities and as the Sun went to press still were struggling to put the township back on a normal keel.

Crews Work To Restore Power Lines

The township was nearly back to normal today following the most devastating windstorm Saturday in its recent history. By 5 p.m. yesterday power had been restored to 90 per cent of the homes. . . Virtually all Springfield homes Saturday night were without power and telephone service. Merchants did a land office business in candles, kerosene, batteries and flashlights. Police and fire departments shut off from their power sources, used gasoline driven generators to operate the radio and other equipment. . . Many plate glass windows in the business area were shattered. Throughout the township the scene was one of utter devastation with trees down, roads blocked, signs demolished, shingles ripped from the roofs of many houses and power lines grounded. . . Residents who used oil burners had to gather around their fireplaces if they had them. Those who didn't went to bed and piled on blankets. With power shutoff there was no television for entertainment.

HUGE NEW SAFEWAY STORE IS PLANNED

Information was received before press time today that the Springfield Township Committee looks with favor on application of Peter J. Farley to change the zoning from residential to business at his property in Morris Turnpike, adjacent to Huffman & Boyle, in order to pave the way for construction of a huge super food market by Safeway Stores, Inc., of California. . . Sale of the land by Farley to Safeway Stores through Frank H. Taylor & Son, East Orange realtors, hinges on the zone change. If such action is taken by the local governing body, Safeway would build a store costing approximately $250,000 and having 15,000 square feet of floor space. The super market, it is understood, would be modeled after similar huge suburban stores operated by the company in Levittown, Long Island, and Plainfield. . . The association has urged all interested taxpayers to attend the special hearing Wednesday night.

Colfax Spearheads Apart. Opposition

A concerted effort on the part of members of the Colfax Civic Association in a move to stymie proposed rezoning of the former Flemer Homestead property on Baltusrol avenue for construction of an apartment development was spearheaded this week by publication of a full page advertisement in the current issue of The Springfield Sun. . . Condemning the proposed rezoning of the area, creating a "D" zone for apartments and multiple dwelling areas from an "A" or one-family zone, the group in its advertisement charged that the move would change the character of the neighborhood and would ruin an entire residential area. . . The association has urged all interested taxpayers to attend the special hearing Wednesday night.

Women to Hold Holiday Program

"Christmas Portraits" is the title of the program to be presented by the combined music and drama departments of the Springfield Women's Club at its regular meeting Wednesday at the Raymond Chisholm School at 8:30 p.m. . . The first part of the program will include Christmas readings by Mrs. Bryant Haas, with tableaux by members of the drama department, a series of Christmas carols sung by the members of the choral group, and a piano solo by Mrs. Jack W. Prior. This will be followed by a pantomime of "Twas the Night Before Christmas" by members of the drama department, group singing of familiar Christmas carols by the audience, and in conclusion, (Continued on Page 2)

Storm Damaged Home

The home of Frank Perilli in Morris Avenue, opposite Prospect place, was the focal target of Saturday's combination wind and rain storm, rated the most destructive to ever hit here. A huge tree was uprooted by the wind and fell across the front portion of the house, carrying with it the sun parlor, porch and part of the roof.—(Photo by Bob Smith)

Local Storm Highlights

Although Saturday's smashing windstorm took its toll on virtually every home and property in Springfield, listed below are some of the more serious highlights of the horrible week-end:

The Township Committee met for the first time in history on a Sunday morning and declared a state of emergency existed in Springfield. At the same time it authorized Road Commissioner Fred A. Brown to employ all the assistance necessary in order to make local roads passable.

At 6 o'clock Saturday night, just a few minutes after the wind had died down, Springfield looked like a ghost town. Here and there were a few scattered lights but for the most part the community look-on-a-grotesque appearance with fallen trees blocking roadways, windows smashed and roofs torn away.

Probably the most extensive single piece of damage in town took place at the home of Frank Perilli in Morris Avenue opposite Prospect place. A huge tree was torn from its roots by the gale and blew across the entire front portion of the house carrying with it the porch, sun parlor, windows and opening gaping holes in the roof.

Another large tree on the front lawn of Dr. Watson P. Morris at 193 Morris Avenue also was howled over, landing in the driveway of the General Greene Village. Tons of new lumber being readied for the huge apartment development, were scattered over a wide area on the Liberty Construction Company grounds.

Expensive front display windows were lost at Morris Avenue Motor Car Company, A & P store, Keovic Farber Lumber Company and Sandler & Worth in Route 29. There wasn't a billboard left standing along the highway. A glittering neon sign at a new tourist court in Route 29 was shattered.

Commissioner Brown paid tribute at press time today to Jersey Central Power & Light Company for doing a remarkable job in restoring power to most local homes and businesses. Robin Little, Northern Division public relations director, said today that 90 per cent of Springfield now has normal service. Brown also commended Road Supervisor William Trivett and his men for working round the clock in clearing township streets.

Until a late hour yesterday scores of Springfield homes, including a portion of the police department switchboard, were still without phone service. Emergency power was used by the fire and police departments.

Homes with fireplaces became congregating points in many sections as electrically driven oil burners remained dormant.

A tremendous tree crashed down on an auto in the municipal parking lot. St. James Church goes had to step around the remnants of a fallen tree in order to enter the church for Sunday morning services. The awning at Gibson's Morris Avenue Diner was ripped to shreds by the wind. Television aerials by the hundreds became storm casualties.

Springfield's two hardware stores and Boughner's Variety store did land office businesses Saturday and Sunday in sales of candles, kerosene lanterns, flashlights and batteries.

Common services were performed by the police and fire departments as they removed signs which were menacing traffic and placed lanterns in flood areas or placed blockades in areas in which there was danger from hanging wires. . . No one was willing to estimate the damage in the Springfield area but it obviously amounted to thousands of dollars. Insurance companies started payment for replacement of broken windows, the reinstatement of television antennas from the grotesque angles in which many had been blown by the wind and for repair of roofs, porches and other property damage. . . More than 100 repairmen flown in from points as far west as Chicago and as far south as the Carolinas were brought into Springfield Tuesday by the Jersey Central Power and Light Company as it struggled with the almost insurmountable task of restoring utilities. . . Last night most of the homes here had power again and many had their telephone service restored. However, street lights were still out and there were indications that it might be several days before they would again be in use. . . The Township Committee held an emergency session Sunday, said to be the first ever to take place here on the Sabbath, and authorized Road Commissioner Fred A. Brown to take any emergency steps that the situation required. The department head immediately called in three crews to help clear municipal streets of fallen trees and debris. Streets, generally were cleared by 4 p.m. Monday. . . Older residents of the community were in agreement that in damage Saturday's near-hurricane was far worse than the hurricane of 1944 or the storm of 1938. Property damage was much greater and the damage to utilities was far in excess of that six years ago. . . Despite the tremendous toll of damage to property there were no severe injuries reported. Most motorists, wary of hanging wires and cognizant of the danger involved in falling trees, remained at home. . . Fortunately the temperature was moderate. Had the storm turned to snow as predicted and the township encountered what occurred in Ohio the situation would still have been drastic. As it was students at the James Caldwell, and the Raymond Chisholm Schools as well as the Regional High School had an extra day of Thanksgiving. The buildings were not reopened until Tuesday because of power curtailment.

A bedroom closet that is long, built-in shelves and drawers by two persons should be at least 36 inches deep and 66 inches high.

SCHOOL BUDGET

Chisholm School the school board currently is using the facilities of the Sunday School rooms of the Presbyterian Church and of the Methodist Church. A school which would have cost $550,000 and one that would have been built for $350,000 was rejected. As school commissioners see it, the taxpayers want adequate facilities for their children but do not want to appropriate more funds.

BOOSTER MEETING

Regional Boosters will meet Monday at 8 p.m. in the High School.

It also was claimed that at the listed rentals of from $2,400 to $3,600 a year the area would attract a group of transients who would have no civic interest.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt United States Delegate to The General Assembly of the United Nations says: "To me television offers a magnificent opportunity to increase the education which we make available to the children of today. If parents will supervise carefully the type of show and the time spent by children watching television, they can see the best that television has to offer, which can bring much enjoyment and much that will be valuable in their education. Of course, I am a firm believer in the supervision of children's reading habits, and now that we have television, I think that the same thing should be true for television. It is a parent's duty to see to it that the children get the best in books and the best in television entertainment and education."

PUZZLED? SO ARE WE

Where is Springfield Heading?

We of the Colfax Civic Association plus a goodly number of our neighbors have already registered our strong protest to the township committee concerning the passage of an ordinance creating a "D" zone (apartment and multiple dwelling area) in an "A" zone (one family area) for the specific purpose of building an apartment. Our reasons are given below.

- Because No. 1: An apartment on a site of this sort would change the character of a neighborhood and ruin an entire residential area.
- Because No. 2: Zoning was established to protect and maintain property values and this would be an outright violation of that purpose.
- Because No. 3: It is conceded by all that the property involved presents no hardship to being developed for income producing one-family homes. Under present zoning laws this property would accommodate a fine Fifty-Five (55) home development.
- Because No. 4: Allowing the inevitable devaluation of adjacent neighborhoods to occur is equivalent to confiscating property without due compensation.
- Because No. 5: This would establish a trend leaving no zone untouchable and no home owner safe. This means you!
- Because No. 6: "Spot Zoning" would be encouraged since this is no part of any organized plan.
- Because No. 7: "School Children" per 182 apartments of 5 and 6 rooms will most certainly equal more than those per 55 one-family homes raising education costs and your taxes.
- Because No. 8: The additional town services needed will be greater than for a development of homes, that is, sewers, fire, police, schools, etc.
- Because No. 9: Since town services are on a per person basis, the number of persons in a given area is most important from a point of servicing cost. It is obvious that a 182-family apartment unit would add much greater servicing costs than a 55-home development. Especially when such apartment is on the outskirts of town.
- Because No. 10: At the rumored rental per year of $2,400 to $3,600, Springfield will gain no additional housing facilities for its needy citizens, but rather, spawn a new group of transients with no reason for civic interest.
- Because No. 11: Springfield already has constructed, under construction, or zoned for apartment construction, over 700 apartment units. This represents four (4) times the number of apartment units recommended for a town of our size and character by expert town planners and competent realtors.
- Because No. 12: The lack of any comprehensive plan as to when and where further zone changes might be allowed, proves the need for such a plan before we make any changes. Since this is your town and you pay the bills, you should know how Springfield is to develop without further delay.

We believe these facts should make you realize that on December 6, 1950, at 8 p. m., you should be at American Legion Hall to demand with us that this change of zone be rejected, and that steps be taken to formulate a plan for Springfield's orderly development according to the wishes of its people.

A REPORT TO THE PUBLIC On The Restoration Of Your Electric Service Your electric service is being restored as fast as men, hard work and experience can make possible. The storm, the worst in the company's history, dealt a tremendous blow to homes, utilities and transportation in this and many other areas along the eastern seaboard. The job faced is huge. It literally involves thousands of miles of power lines, thousands of miles of telephone lines, and thousands of miles of gas lines. Some roads, which were impassable, are still in bad condition. To equipt for the emergency we have called in the best men from Boston to Pittsburgh. These men are doing some of the largest Central Power & Light Company who have been fighting the storm and its devastating effects since the emergency began. The immediate job, of course, was to restore service to vital public services such as hospitals, convalescent homes, sewer plants, water plants and institutions. This has been done. Work on other services continues without letup. Thousands of homes were affected by this unprecedented and unexpected storm. Within 24 hours, weather permitting, we hope to have a very large majority of them back into service. The job of restoring service to these homes is our great responsibility and concern. Please refrain from calling more than once to report service interruptions as repeated call-ins only hinder operations. We know it is hard to be patient under these trying conditions. We know how important electricity is to modern living. For a great many of our own families are without service, too. Thank you for your cooperation and we again assure you that we are acting with all possible speed to get your electric service back to normal. JERSEY CENTRAL POWER & LIGHT CO.

LETTERS from Our Readers

About Photographers
Editor, Sun:
In your "Listen Friends" column I note your effort to have a local photographer take the pictures for the yearbook because, in your opinion this business should be left in town. I believe in patronizing local enterprise when their products or services are of comparable quality to those obtainable elsewhere. Over a period of years we have changed yearbook photographers several times to improve the quality of the pictures but we have always selected a photographer with yearbook experience. I do not recall that a local photographer has ever asked to be considered for the yearbook. If a local photographer can do a better job than the present photographer, I am sure that he will receive consideration.

We at Regional take pride in the quality of our yearbook which has consistently been rated in the first division by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and National Scholastic Press. We wish to do everything possible to maintain the high quality of our yearbook of which the pictures are a very important part.
Very truly yours,
W. W. HALSEY,
Supervising Principal

Lands' Police

All too often, the man who serves even though at a sacrifice to himself goes unthanked. During this emergency, the Police Department of Springfield, even though it had its regular duties to perform, every last man of it, kept their courteous manner and patience.

When your family is without heat, power, etc., one is inclined to become impatient. With all that the personnel of the Department had to take, considering that their own homes were without the same services that most of us lacked, every one of the department patiently listened and went out of their way to take care of the citizens of Springfield. I know this to be a fact, because I noticed they had lists of places to be taken care of and were with the utility crews at all hours of the day and night, even though it wasn't that particular officer's "trick". Thanks for a very efficient Police Department.

Sincerely thankful,
H. A. KUVIN

Looking Into Yesteryear

From Files OF THE SUN

TEN YEARS AGO

Regional's Bulldogs stood in the path of an unblemished Rahway High School eight-game winning streak, in the annual "Ties to Win" Day contest, which was to be played at Riverside Park, Rahway.

Richard J. Mull, chairman of Selective Service Board No. 2, Springfield and Union, announced that 25 men were given physical examinations at Regional High School. They either were unmarried or had wives who were not dependents.

Agriculture students at Regional High School, who were members of Pioneer Charter, Future Farmers of America, started their second annual drive to collect old toys for Christmas. The toys when collected were to be repaired or refinished and distributed to the needy children of the six communities comprising the districts of Regional High School.

Miss Charlotte D. Mueller, daughter of Edward A. Mueller, of 404 Mountain Avenue, and Robert E. Grant of New London, Conn., were married in the study of the Rev. George A. Liggett, local Presbyterian pastor.

Carlyle H. Richards, cashier of the First National Bank of Springfield, announced that a total of $28,500 was paid to members of the 1940 Christmas Club.

No objections were raised at a hearing of the Board of Adjustment in the Town Hall, to an application by Peter J. Farley of Millburn, to operate a roller skating rink at Morris turnpike, near the Summit line.

buried in the debris of their house. After extricating them and caring for their needs, he raced toward the center of the city where his church was located. The procession of escapees, whom he met along the way, filled him with horror and pity. Most of them were naked, having had their clothes blown off or burned off, and many were severely injured, their bones broken and their scorched skin peeling away.

"Someone rushed up to me," Mr. Tanimoto continued, "and pleaded with me to go with them to where a friend was dying on the floor of a bomb shelter. The dying man proved to be one who had persistently accused me of being an American spy during the war. He asked my forgiveness and sought the consolation of my Christian faith. I knelt beside him there and prayed."

Mr. Tanimoto observed that practically all Japanese Christians were viewed with suspicion by military authorities. During the war, he pointed out, his congregation dwindled to about 12 persons. Now, today, his congregation is numbered in the hundreds. Even Buddhist priests have requested him to present the claims of Christianity in their temples. Much of the credit for the present reception of the Christian Church in Japan, he said, was the result of the good discipline of American armed forces and the characteristic kindness and generosity of the American soldier. "What guns and bombs could never do," he concluded, "these manifestations of Christian love have done. They have turned enemies into friends."

THOMPSON

Probably would be the logical choice as his successor. Actually there have been reports that a chain of command may be established with designation of a deputy chief, a lieutenant and three sergeants. If this should be an actuality, it is said, there could be a superior officer in charge of headquarters for each shift with a rounds sergeant supervising men on radio patrol and on foot beats.

Reports indicate that considerable skirlinging has resulted from the recent changes with several persons interested in being named the No. 2 man in the department. There have been reports that Sgt. Wilbur Selander, recently named a superior officer, will be the choice of Police Commissioner Albert G. Binder and of the governing board. Selander is proposed the move is "officially certain" to arouse considerable controversy. Sgt. Albert A. Sarge has been a superior officer for more than a decade and overlooking him would unquestionably alienate certain factions. Sgt. Harold D. Searles, ranking next to the acting chief in seniority, also merits consideration in the opinion of many observers.

Reports are to the effect that the Township Committee will pass over Searles in view of the fact that he will be eligible for retirement at the same time as the acting chief. But one of the angles which perhaps has been overlooked by township committeemen is that a provision in the statutes permits the chief to remain in the post until he is 70. That would allow Thompson to remain as chief for seven years.

Likewise, assuming that Thompson will be named chief early next year, the governing board presumably would consult him in regard to appointment of a deputy chief. The acting chief has not indicated whom he would recommend in such an instance. In previous years the Township Committee generally leaned heavily on Chief Rawson for advice on department policy.

However, it is generally conceded that it would be difficult to overlook Sarge's long tenure both as a sergeant and as a department member. Sarge would have fourteen more years of service in the department.

Both Sarge and Selander are veterans, the former of World War I and the second of World War II. Indications are that the American Legion, considered quite potent here politically, will keep hands off the appointment because of that fact. Some observers see a way out for the committee through procedure which would see Sarge named deputy chief and Selander a lieutenant. In this way a chain of command would be established and Chief Thompson would be followed by Sarge as department head and he in turn would give way to Selander when he retires.

EMPLOYEE WELFARE plays a big part at Public Service

Ask a Public Service employee about his welfare benefits. He can tell you that his company offers group insurance, sick benefits, a pension plan, death benefits, workmen's compensation, a service to facilitate loans. Then add the payroll deduction plan for U. S. Savings Bonds, educational courses and hospitalization and you'll know that Public Service employee welfare stands close to the top in any community.

It's a nice feeling for employees to know that they are safeguarded in so many directions. It's a nice feeling for Public Service to know that it is again fulfilling its role as a good citizen of this great state.

Rahway Darkens Regional's Championship Claims With 7-7 Turkey Day Deadlock

By DONALD ROSSELET

The fourteenth chapter of the traditional Regional-Rahway grid war unfolded before a gathering of about 8,000 spectators at Rahway Thanksgiving Day. An early morning snow made the field sloppy thus explaining the low score. Rahway authorities tabbed the contest a financial flop, as they expected close to 15,000 fans. Most followers of this rivalry proclaimed a favorite, but few conceived a tie between these two great football powers. A cold, cloudy day greeted the hardy fans who braved the elements to witness the 7-7 tie, the first deadlock since the series started back in 1937. Regional won the toss and elected to receive. Frank Vicendese scurried back to his 45 with the opening kickoff before being dumped. Failing to gain Vicendese was forced to kick, but due to a low pass from center the boot was partially blocked and recovered by Regional.

Jack Huskell raced 30 yards through the secondary in an attempt to grab a Vicendese pass, but was tripped and the play was ruled as interference with the pass receiver. A first down on the 30 yard line was wasted when Vicendese tumbled on the Rahway 28. When the Scarlet called to move, Chuck Amasio punted to the Orange and Blue 28. Vicendese hit Gobelzik with a pass on the 45 and Sandy bulled his way to the Rahway 30. It was at this point that Regional drew first blood on a 39 yard TD run by Dick Sherry, around right end. Dick Scheffler's conversion split the uprights and Regional led 7-0 after eight minutes of play. Nate Smith carried the piskin to his 30 on the kickoff and Rahway again stalled, forcing Amasio to punt to the Bulldog 42. The latter then intercepted Vicendese's pass intended for Huskell. Amasio tossed to Smith for a first down as the period ended.

An Amasio to Smith pass was just short of a first down opening the second half and Regional took over on the 15—Balling to gain they punted to the Rahway 40. The ball went over to Regional when Rahway failed to move through the solid Bulldog line. Vicendese went 30 yards for a first down as Amasio was injured mauling the tackle. A clipping penalty set Regional back 15 yards and after a Vicendese punt Rahway was forced to kick on fourth down. Sherry ran the boot brilliantly 40 yards to the Rahway 20. Vicendese romped to a first down inside the 10 and the Bulldogs were threatening to score as the gun went off ending the first half.

Rahway received the second half kickoff but lost it on the Regional 25. Sherry went for two first downs, but Vicendese fumbled, with Ferd Polacco recovering for the homesters. Amasio plunged for a first down. Bill Marsh tossed Amasio a pass on the Regional 8. Two plays later Amasio scored on an off-tackle slant. Smith came off the bench to kick the extra point, his placement barely clearing the cross bar. Tom Noone returned the Scarlet kickoff to his 36 as the third quarter ended.

Vicendese punted out of bounds on the Rahway 43 and Regional recovered a Garfield Lewis fumble on their 32. They had to kick to the Rahway 30 with Lewis returning it 10 yards. Rahway moved to the Regional 45 as an Amasio-Leonard, Robinson pass clicked. The Red and Black moved another twelve yards for a first down, before Judd Hernum intercepted a pass on his 7. After one-plunge play the game ended. The final score: Regional 7, Rahway 7.

DOGGETT & PFEIL CO.

SMITH AND SMITH (SUBURBAN)

We have always held the beauty of Springfield in our minds. It is gratifying to have been selected as winners by The Garden Club of New Jersey in its fourth annual highway beautification survey. Judging was on the basis of general attractiveness, landscaping, absence of unsightly signs and conformity to state standards of health and safety.
