FRIENDS!!

Some years back Charles R. Geddes, who died in Florida recently, wasn't given a ghost of a chance to be elected to the State Assembly from Union County. . . he was virtually unknown and his opposition had organization backing. . . but a couple of days before election Geddes fell from atop an elephant, the GOP standard bearer, at a Republican rally. . . he suffered a broken shoulder and the papers went wild over the unusual story. . . Geddes controlled to victory. . . Now for the reason behind this review. . . Freeholder Lee S. Rigby, local candidate for reelection, reportedly should have little difficulty in sliding back to his plush $6,000-a-year job. . . most people believe he has organization backing and his name is well known because he's been a politician for many years. . . but the Geddes story in reverse may take place in Rigby's case. . . the Springfield freeholder has pulled what may be a hand-dangle of a political boner, right over his own signature. . . and all of Rigby's horses and all of Rigby's men will never stop the press from this closing the story when the proper time comes!

Happened to be on hand Tuesday afternoon when a pedestrian was struck by an auto while crossing Morris avenue in front of the Postoffice. . . warnings have been issued time and again something dreadful would happen at that spot unless efforts were made to have a traffic light installed to slow down traffic. . . fortunately the accident wasn't fatal. . . but the next one could be. . . we again urge the Township Committee to have the state install its plans to erect that much needed light.

Last week's headline said "Democrats Still To File Before Midnight Deadline" . . . and just before that hour last Thursday night Town Clerk Treat's office began to buzz with activity. . . H. Stanley Glenn will be unopposed for the Democratic Township Committee nomination. . . assisting him with the filing of his petitions was Mrs. George Turk and mammal O. Holms.

Ran into two ex-officials at the post office this week. . . one was former Balder Chief M. Chase Runyon who was scouting along as usual and said he was too busy to talk. . . the other was George M. Turk. . . the latter appeared to be giving the postal building the once over (with a gleam in his eye), probably in anticipation of his expected appointment as postmaster to replace Otto Helms.

Turk, under questioning by this correspondent, however, came forth with his usual "No Comment."

As an afterthought, just in case Turk doesn't get the postmastership, he'll be a long time getting over it and explaining why!

Rumor has it that local folks haven't done so well in connection with the 1951 Red Cross fund drive. . . in years past Springfield went over the top in a matter of hours and beat out all other towns in the county. . . but this year, according to representatives in the field, we haven't even begun to meet our quota. . . campaign leaders will release final figures next week - meaning there's still time to get your contributions in for a most worthy cause.

Beyond the rumor stage at this point is a reported move on the part of local Republican forces to have Magistrate Henry McMullen named as assistant prosecutor in the county in the event a change is made by the governor in the leadership of that office. . . mentioned prominently as his successor on the bench here is Max A. Sherman, former president of the local GOP Club. . . hmmm!

Rigby Anxious For Good Spot As Draw Nears

Freeholder Faces Veterans' Wrath In All-Out Fight

Freeholder Lee S. Rigby was on the anxious seat today as County Clerk Henry G. Nulton prepared to make the traditional draw-for places on the primary election ballot. Paced with formidable opposition by a two-candidate ticket being supported by a faction led by Freeholder Albert J. Benninger, the first place spot never was more important to Rigby and his running mates.

The incumbent freeholders are bracketed as are Nelson L. Carr, of Elizabeth, and Mrs. Effie L. Schneider of Roselle. First place on the ballot does not mean victory but many observers believe that it can account for 5 per cent additional vote. As a result, the drawing, scheduled for 3 p.m. today, was awaited anxiously by Rigby and R. Storz Rowland, of Plainfield. They are the focal point of the campaign being waged by the opposition which seems to be disregarding the candidacy of Charles L. Bauer Jr., of Elizabeth, third incumbent. Bauer, traditionally, an excellent vote getter, will not officially be

Films, Ex-Players Mark Ball Clinic

Former big league baseball players and scouts will be the principal speakers at the baseball clinic to be held in the gymnasium of the James Caldwell School on Saturday, March 24, at 1:30 p.m. It was announced today by Edward J. Rigby, municipal recreation director.

Several films including "Double Play Kings," "Pitching Stars" and "The Empire in Baseball" will be shown. Among the speakers who will be on hand to pass tips to the diamond enthusiasts is Eddie Madjed, former catcher for the New York Giants, Chicago White Sox and Philadelphia Athletics. Several hundred youths are expected to participate in the clinic.

A more detailed program will be announced in next week's paper.

Springfield Resident Died In This Highway Crackup

TOWNSHIP DRIVER FATALLY INJURED

Jerome Kenmore, 32 years old, of 19 Kipling road, died yesterday afternoon in Alexian Brothers Hospital, Elizabeth, of injuries suffered at 8:18 a.m. yesterday when the station wagon he was driving jumped the safety line in Route 29, Hillside, and headed into a giant truck-trailer. The big ten-ton truck vehicle had been traveling east at the Lehigh avenue intersection with the station wagon traveling in the west-bound lane.

Kenmore, who was an engineer at Radio Station WOR, Hillside police believe, was on his way home from the studio in New York. There was no indication as to why the station wagon entered from the westbound lane into the path of the truck. Kenmore never regained consciousness. His injuries included a skull fracture.

The truck driver was Joseph Accola, 25, of 99 Wyoming street, Wilkes-Barre, Pa. The truck was owned by the Friedman's Express, Inc., 556 Market street, Newark. The station wagon was demolished. It was towed to a garage. Kenmore was married. He had two children, Marilyn, 6, and Dennis, two. The Kenmores have been residents of Springfield for five months. A neighbor, Mrs. Dorothy Magnusen, stayed at the home yesterday, comforting the children, while Mrs. Kenmore maintained a lonely vigil at her husband's bedside.

Hard to Believe - But It's True!

Education Springfield version! This is a graphic picture of how some classrooms are conducted in the Raymond Chisholm School. Students have their desks in the corridor and their classes are conducted there. However, don't blame the Board of Education or the school administration. It wasn't their votes which put the taboo on the proposed school expansion program. Think of what it will be like next year when the enrollment is even larger. (Photo by Bob Smith.)

COURSE SET FOR BROWNIE LEADERS

Training course for prospective Brownie leaders will begin Tuesday, March 20, at 7:30 p.m. at the Methodist Church, Mrs. Anna Lipincott, a volunteer trainer from Westfield, will conduct the program. For further information call Mrs. Frank Leonard, MI. 6-1184.

Postmaster Turk Looks Sure Now!

Failure of Former Township Committeeman George M. Turk to file as a candidate in this year's contest for a governing board seat has been interpreted as proof of reports that he will be Springfield's next Postmaster. A story to this effect appeared exclusively in the Springfield Sun early this year.

Turk, since his defeat in the 1949 election and again last year, has been active in township politics. He seldom has missed a meeting of the Township Committee and on numerous occasions has criticized the all-Republican governing board. Under ordinary circumstances there is little doubt but what he would be the Democratic standard bearer in the general election in November.

However, as forecast in The Sun, he did not file a petition. Instead the candidate of the

Pencil Official Is Auto-Victim

Edward Schenck, 38 years old, secretary of Best Pencil Co., Springfield, of 2387 Davis avenue, Union, is in Overlook Hospital, Summit, with injuries suffered, police said, when he was struck by a car while crossing Morris avenue near Satter street Tuesday afternoon.

The intersection has been listed for a traffic light but it has not been erected. The light finally was obtained after months of negotiation.

School Committee Report Will Be Ready Next Week

Brown Promises Meisel Paving

Permanent paving of Meisel avenue in the vicinity of Milltown road and South Springfield avenue soon was promised at last night's Township Committee meeting by Road Commissioner Fred A. Brown.

Brown made the announcement in response to a written request from the Country Dicks Association for repair of the highly traveled roadway. The official said he had conferred earlier this week on the subject, had visited the scene with county authorities and received their assurances the road would be permanently repaired and paved.

Acting on recommendation of Fire Chief Charles Pinkava, the board voted to ask Commonwealth Water Company to install three hydrants along Wabena ave., which cuts through General Greenell Village, in order to afford that development sufficient protection. Building Inspector Reuben H.

Tract Approval, 1/2 Million Building, Is Anticipated

The long awaited report of the Citizens' Advisory Committee on the project of school expansion will be made next Wednesday night at a special meeting of the Board of Education. The document also will be submitted to the Township Committee and will be published in complete detail in next week's issue of the Springfield Sun.

Sustains Penalty On R. J. Pfitzinger

Russell J. Pfitzinger of 73 Severna avenue, Springfield, has lost a two-year-old legal battle to avoid a suspension of 18 months from his $3,000-a-year job in the State Highway Department for being active in the local Township Committee election of 1948. His wife, Mrs. Margaret Pfitzinger, recently was re-elected to the Board of Education.

McNair Steps Out of Race To Back Anti-Rigby Ticket

ELIZABETH—Tax Assessor Robert J. McNair, independent candidate for Freeholder and secretary of the Union County Republican Committee, today delivered a terrific jolt to the Republican Freeholders seeking re-nomination with the announcement of his withdrawal from the race and his support of Nelson L. Carr, of Elizabeth, and Mrs. Effie L. Schneider, of Roselle, backers of Carr and Mrs. Schneider look to a vastly increased vote for their two candidates as the result of McNair's action.

McNair, in announcing that he will support Carr and Mrs. Schneider, said that their nomination is essential to "giving the Board of Freeholders back to the people of Union County." The Elizabeth assessor, long a popular figure in the county, praised the qualification of the two Regular Republican Organization candidates, adding that their abilities "equal those of any of the present members of the board."

"Mr. Carr has had a long and valuable experience in investment

In conceding that it has reached a decision on the plan which it feels is most desirable, the twenty-five member group, headed by Leonard Best, today also made public the results of the disinterested appraisal of the Fiemer Tract for which three members of the Board of Realtors of the Orange and Maplewood were paid $200.

The appraisal of the tract cited its value at $25,500. The appraisal committee members, Donald W. Willett, George M. Dunn and Louis D. Stratton, pointed out that the basis of appraisal included comparable sales, existing improvements, building restrictions, economic conditions and zoning restrictions with no consideration given to existing worth of present plantings—and no consideration given for specialized use.

The tract, which is located on South Springfield avenue at Shampike road, consists of 8.35 acres of cleared ground and some nursery plantings together with improvements consisting of an old two-and-a-half story frame asphalt shingle roofed one-family dwelling, a frame storage shed and a frame combination barn and storage shed.

The Citizens Committee, in submitting the appraisal, points out there are approximately 30,000 flowering shrubs growing on the site. If stated it would cost at least $3,000 to remove them. About one-third of the shrubs are now marketable and the other two-thirds, due to being transplanted, will require a year longer to mature, and this would represent a loss of $10,000 in a normal operating program. This might vary slightly, it was stated, but a loss of at least $8,000 could be expected.

It is believed the Citizens' Advisory Committee will recommend purchase of the site at the price offered to the Board of Education, which is $30,000. The board points out that actual value of the land on the basis of the report is from $26,500 to $38,500.

The Citizens' Committee also is expected to recommend construction of a school costing in the neighborhood of $500,000. It is believed it will urge that steps be taken to launch construction immediately of the new school before the anticipated scarcity of building materials stifles the expansion program.

It is not considered likely that any reasonable recommendation will be rejected by township voters. Two proposals, one providing for a school costing about $500,000 and the other for a structure which involved $398,000 were defeated. Purchase of the Fiemer Tract for a site was involved in the considerations.

The school situation currently has reached such a point that virtually everyone concedes that immediate steps are necessary. In some instances classes are being held in corridors. A picture of such a class in the Raymond Chisholm School appears in this issue of The Sun. Classes are on part-time schedules and are being held

Sunday School
Wednesday Evening—Testimonial meeting 8:15 p.m.

Reading team open to the public daily 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Also Friday evening 7:30-9:30; and Wednesday evening after service, to 10 p.m.

The imperishable substance of Spirit and of the spiritual universe it creates will be brought out in Christian Science services next Sunday. The Lesson-Sermon is entitled "Substance."

One of David's psalms of rejoicing provides the Golden Text: "The glory of the Lord shall endure for ever: the Lord shall rejoice in his works" (Psalms 104:31).

Included in the Bible readings is the following: "Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said, . . . Where wast thou when I laid the foundation of the earth? . . . Knowest thou the ordinances of heaven? Canst thou set the dominion thereof in the earth?" (Job 38:1,4,33).

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "Spirit is life, substance, and continuity of all things. We tread on forces. Withdraw them, and creation—man's collapse. Human knowledge calls them forces of matter; but divine Science declares that they belong wholly to divine Mind, are inherent in this Mind, and so restore them to their rightful home and classification." (p. 124).

Henry Kern will accompany the girls on the piano. Boy Scout Troop 66 will be in charge of lighting. Mrs. Kathryn O'Neal, chairman of the Juliette Low Program, has been assisted by Mrs. Vance and Mrs. Frank John.

Scouts on Television
This is our Birthday Week. On various Radio and Television shows, Girl Scouts and Brownies gave some very interesting talks about their activities. The bulletin which listed the programs given to Scouting came a bit too late for the paper, but many heard their no doubt.

Next year, perhaps, some of our scouts may be fortunate enough to be heard as well as seen on some of these programs. The Howdy-doody program is the beginning of possible Brownie troop participation in television shows. Scouts troops have been honored guests each Saturday on the Big Top Circus show.

Monday, March 19, 8:15 p.m. Summit Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Leo F. Tilly, 25 Fairview avenue, Tope, "Letters from an Argentine." Tuesday, March 20, 7:30 p.m. Boy Scout Troop 69.

Town Women Hear Talk on Diamonds

George Fitzgerald, manager of Wlas Brothers, Jewelers, East Orange, was guest speaker last week at the meeting of the Springfield Women's Club at Fitzgerald's topic was, "Diamonds," and in his talk he described the composition and properties of diamonds.

Fitzgerald, who is a registered jeweler, explained the function and purpose of the American Gem Society, to which he belongs. He displayed a collection of colored diamonds and also a diamond as it came from the mine.

The following new members were welcomed into the organization: Mrs. Roger Shotwell of 536 Mountain avenue, Mrs. Carl Sayer of 54 Henshaw avenue, and Mrs. Victor Luff of 51 Fieldstone drive.

Rigby

opposed by the Benninger slate, it has been indicated.

Rigby unquestionably is faced with the most severe competition he has encountered since he backed the freeholders a dozen years ago and became a member of the board. Most of the primaries previously have seen only scattered opposition. This year's promises to be an all-out campaign with Benninger, the only man who had defeated the freeholder group in recent years, as the campaign director.

Prominent in the campaign to date has been Rigby's attitude toward veterans' legislation. Benninger had charged Rigby with being an "opponent of the veteran." In fact his actual description was of a stranger-nomenclature.

Benninger charged that Rigby constantly opposed legislation which would have aided veterans. The Mountainside freeholder said that the Springfield man only this year, in the face of an approaching primary election, has changed his tactics and now is supporting pro-veterans' legislation.

Should the so-called "insurgent" slate contact all veterans' groups and urge formal opposition to Rigby on his record as described by Benninger, it could have serious consequences for Rigby. Many persons are closely watching Battle Hill Post, VFW, and Continental Post, 222 American Legion, the two local posts to see what their attitude will be. Certain members of Continental Post are unquestionably very friendly to Rigby but whether they actually control a majority of the post's votes is a question.

From the local angle of considerable interest is the attitude of Mayor Robert W. Marshall, himself a World War II veteran. Marshall frequently has considered Rigby—a power in local politics but his disastrous attempt to keep the nomination for township committee from Fred A. Brown three years ago detracted from the freeholder's lustre. Marshall, as a veteran, may have to make a decision which would not be favored by Marshall, the politician. However, if Marshall opposed Rigby and the latter lost the Mayor, unquestionably would gain recognition as the real GOP political leader here.

Many persons feel that Rigby will not run as well in the township as he has in the past. It would be ironical, observers point out, if he lost the county by a small figure, equivalent to what he lost by in Springfield.

Benninger charged that Rigby constantly opposed legislation which would have aided veterans. The Mountainside freeholder said that the Springfield man only this year, in the face of an approaching primary election, has changed his tactics and now is supporting pro-veterans' legislation.

Should the so-called "insurgent" slate contact all veterans' groups and urge formal opposition to Rigby on his record as described by Benninger, it could have serious consequences for Rigby. Many persons are closely watching Battle Hill Post, VFW, and Continental Post, 222 American Legion, the two local posts to see what their attitude will be. Certain members of Continental Post are unquestionably very friendly to Rigby but whether they actually control a majority of the post's votes is a question.

ago detracted from the freeholder's lustre. Marshall, as a veteran, may have to make a decision which would not be favored by Marshall, the politician. However, if Marshall opposed Rigby and the latter lost the Mayor, unquestionably would gain recognition as the real GOP political leader here.

Many persons feel that Rigby will not run as well in the township as he has in the past. It would be ironical, observers point out, if he lost the county by a small figure, equivalent to what he lost by in Springfield.

From the local angle of considerable interest is the attitude of Mayor Robert W. Marshall, himself a World War II veteran. Marshall frequently has considered Rigby—a power in local politics but his disastrous attempt to keep the nomination for township committee from Fred A. Brown three years

LETTERS from Our Readers

THANKS SUPPORTERS
I want to take this opportunity to express my gratitude and appreciation to all those who signed my petitions for Republican nomination to the Township Committee and especially to those workers who carried these petitions throughout this community for signatures. I have served this township faithfully for many years and will continue to do so in the future as long as my health and ability to do so enable me.
Sincerely,
FRED A. BROWN,
Road Commissioner.

Announce Openings For Federal Jobs

The Director of the New York Office of the U. S. Civil Service Commission announced an examination today for stenographers and typists who are urgently needed by defense agencies in the Metropolitan New York City area. Any person over 17 years of age may apply. No specific experience or education is required. A written examination which includes a general test, as well as a test of typing and stenographic ability, is required. Stenographers are expected to take dictation at the rate of 80 words a minute.
Starting salary for Typist is $2,450; for Stenographers $2,650 for a 40-hour week. A few appointments may be made at higher salaries.

Further information on the examination and the necessary card for application may be obtained from the Commission Secretary, Ralph Swanson at the Springfield Post Office or from the U. S. Civil Service Regional Office in the Federal Building, Christopher Street, New York City. Applications will be received in the Regional Office until the needs of the service have been met.

Sustains Penalty

Judge Smith who ruled that State employees under Civil Service, who work in departments receiving funds from the Federal Government, are prohibited from taking part in any political campaigns.
Judge Smith held that only elected officials and non-Civil Service workers are exempt under the Hatch Act from taking part in elections. He also decided against Pfitzinger's argument that his constitutional privilege regarding self-incriminatory testimony before an examiner of the U. S. Civil Service Commission had been violated.

Although Pfitzinger was compelled by a subpoena to appear before the examiner, Judge Smith said he did so with a lawyer and had failed to invoke his constitutional guarantee. Such failure, the judge ruled, was a waiver of the protection. Going beyond this constitutional ground, Judge Smith took the view that Pfitzinger's testimony "did not expose him either to criminal prosecution or the imposition of a penalty under Federal law."
Dismissal or suspension from a job, although of serious consequence, may not be regarded as a forfeiture of a right, but merely the withholding of a privilege, the court stated.

Pfitzinger has been in the State Highway Department 31 years. On finding him guilty of violating the Hatch Act, the U. S. Civil Service Commission directed the state highway commissioner, June 16, 1949, to suspend Pfitzinger without pay for 18 months or forfeit $5,760 in Federal aid, representing the equivalent of Pfitzinger's salary for that period. He was suspended.

The Springfield man then filed an appeal in Federal Court, and Judge Smith stayed the suspension pending his decision.

School Report

In the Sunday School sections of the First Presbyterian Church and the Methodist Church.
There is no additional space available and parents are protesting. They realize that failure to inaugurate a building program will result in a chaotic situation.
Their attitude is best characterized by the action of the Springfield Parent-Teacher Association in sending the following communication to the Township Committee this week:

"At the February 23 meeting of the Springfield PTA the members expressed deep concern over our present school needs and the urgency that they be met at an early date. Upon motion made and unanimously carried, the officers were authorized to write you, our town governing board, to this effect:
"The Springfield PTA recognizes our urgent need of additional school facilities. The Association feels that the solution of this grave problem is of such paramount importance that it should receive preference over any other matter. Until such time as our school question is satisfactorily met, the Association earnestly hopes that the PTA's express opinion, that the 'school solution comes first,' will have the Township Committee's utmost consideration and fullest cooperation."

Wilkins to Speak

of Elementary Schools in Short Hills before becoming dean at the state college.
Born in Texas, he received his Bachelor of Arts degree from North Texas State College, his Master's degree from Teachers College, Columbia University, and his Doctorate from Columbia University. He has two young children, and now lives in Short Hills.

The School Choir will supply the principal portion of the evening's program under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Osborne, school music director. Hostesses for the evening will be the second grade class-mothers from both schools, working under the supervision of the Raymond Chisholm Hospitality chairman, Mrs. George Rau.

Brown vs. Glenn

tradition of keeping the township clerk waiting almost until midnight. Several petitions for Democratic county commissionmen and women also were filed at that time.
Some observers were inclined to attribute the fact that Brown had no primary opposition to luck, based on the fact that the freeholder situation worked in his favor. However, one reporter recalled a statement made by Brown several years ago. He told the reporter, "Some of these township committee members think that I'm all washed up because of my age. Well, when they've been off this committee for years I'll still be running and I'll still be elected."
There are those who think that Brown wasn't talking just to hear himself when he made that prediction.

Republican filings for the county committee include: First District, Daniel Wendland and Deloy L. Johnson; second, Charles Bourdely and Margaret Runcie; third, Max Sherman and Joanne M. Hays; fourth, Robert J. Anderson and George McMullen; fifth, Wilbert W. Layng and Julia S. Brown and sixth, Albert Millet and Amy Bandemer.
Democrats who filed were: First District, Louis Wilkes; third, Emmanuel O. Holms and Mary L. Holms; fourth, Herman Scribe; fifth, George M. Turk and Anna M. Turk; sixth, Erna Hoppli and J. Lee Moran.

Salary Ordinance

receives $200 per month. Playground leaders are paid $25 per week.
In addition to the salary stipulated for the building inspector, the ordinance states he shall receive, out of fees collected, $1.00 per $1,000 of permits issued for making his inspections, and $2.00 for each inspection of all burers. The plumbing inspector also receives $2.00 for each sewer connection inspection and the tax search officer receives fees collected for tax searches up to a maximum of $500 with any excess to be paid over to the township treasurer.
Public hearing on the ordinance will take place March 28 in the town hall.

McNair Withdraws

from the fact that I know that Mrs. Scheideler has the backing of more than 80 per cent of the interested Republican women of the county, I think Union County men consider the number of county government functions that could be improved if a competent woman's judgment was brought to bear on such matters as child welfare, care of the indigent and aged, juvenile delinquency and such an important matter as the operation of the county's tubercular hospital, Bonnie Burn. Proof that such is the case is to be had in the fact that women have served with the greatest credit on the boards in Essex and other major counties in the state," McNair's statement continued.

"There is no question in my mind that replacements on the Board of Chosen Freeholders are important for the good of our party and of the county," said the Tenth Ward assessor, quoting from a recent editorial in the Elizabeth Daily Journal. "The Journal was never closer to the truth than when it asked the following questions, among others: 'Is the Freeholder set-up an autocracy? Is it Republican or a third party? Is it a public or private concern?'
"The editorial also stated, McNair added: 'Where the Freeholders are vulnerable is in the thoroughness of their insulation—in the aloofness that makes their business none of your business.' My thoughts coincide completely with those expressed editorially. We cannot wait a day longer to rebuild the Republican party. We must act now, not decisively on April 17."
"After having entered the Freeholder race, I learned that several other active workers in the party are candidates as well. I therefore deem it desirable to withdraw from the contest in favor of Mr. Carr and Mrs. Scheideler. They have served the Republican party, long and faithfully. They deserve the support of the voters."
"I also wish to thank the many signers of my petitions and the interest they demonstrated in my behalf. I will appreciate their support for Mr. Carr and Mrs. Scheideler on April 17."

Brown Promises

Marsh reported total operations for February were $104,720 and for the year to date, $277,946.
The committee adopted the new wage ordinance following a public hearing and also ordered installation of street lights on Kew drive following receipt of a survey report by Jersey Central Power & Light Co. Finance Commissioner Handville served as chairman in the absence of Mayor Marshall, reported III.

Pencil Official

tations by the township officials headed by Police Commissioner Albert G. Blander.
Police said the car that struck Schenck was operated by Mrs. Lillian Pel, 85, of Southern Boulevard, Chatham. Patrolman Leslie Joyner investigated.
The injured man was taken to the hospital in the First Aid Ambulance in charge of Bud LeCraft, of the Rescue Squad. His injuries included a compound fracture of the lower right leg, and shock. Hospital authorities said he underwent an operation after admission. They described his condition as good.

Postmaster Turk

minority party will be H. Stanley

Glenn, who was Turk's running mate last year. Turk has filed a petition as Democratic county commissionman in the fifth district. However, in the event of his appointment as Postmaster he can immediately resign from that post.
Had Turk been a township committee candidate the situation might have been more complicated. In the event he were named postmaster, under the provisions of the Hatch Act he would have to cease all political activity and as a result would have to withdraw his candidacy. Should his successor might offer complications. With Glenn making the run there will be nothing in Turk's way should he receive the appointment. Actually what opposition within the party to Turk appears to have dwindled. Indications are that no other party member has any chance of becoming Postmaster. It is generally conceded that no one can match the record of service to the party that Turk can present. In addition to having three years in the Township Committee, he was a candidate for the governing board of several other organizations. Despite his failure to be elected he has chosen to carry the attack to the GOP.

In the event Turk receives the postmastership on retirement a Postmaster Otto F. Thomas, it is likely to have the Democratic party in a hot way. Glenn will be the banner candidate but he has yet to prove to be the equal of Turk in either strict or energy. But with new people moving into the township the Democratic party may get some injections of new political blood shortly.
Turk was observed making a casual survey of the Post Office one morning this week. It would not be surprising if he soon starts to familiarize himself with its routine work. Rumor has it that the post is based partially on volume of business but is in excess of $4,000 a year.

THE STRENGTH OF OUR NATION
lies in the financial security of its people
OUR nation is in a state of emergency. The threat of inflation is growing every day. We must keep our nation economically strong by checking that inflation. It CAN be done if we:
INCREASE OUR PRODUCTION to meet defense needs, reduce our civilian demands.
SUPPORT INCREASED TAXES to put our defense effort on a "pay-as-you-go" basis.
INSIST THAT NON-MILITARY EXPENDITURES BE CUT TO THE BONE.
ACCEPT CURBS ON CREDIT. Credit restrictions reduce competition for commodities.
INCREASE SAVINGS AND LIFE INSURANCE to reduce spending for consumer goods.
BUY ONLY WHAT WE NEED. Otherwise, we bid against ourselves for scarce goods.

Secretary Course For Junior College

Union Junior College will offer secretarial courses in September and will establish a placement bureau to work with professional, business and industrial executives whose specifications for secretarial personnel will be reflected in the two-year curriculum.

This step, without precedent in a liberal arts college in this area, was announced today by Dr. Kenneth C. MacKay, president and dean. He described it as another step in the institution's development as a community college. Students at the Elizabeth General Hospital School of Nursing have had their laboratory sessions and collateral studies at Union Junior

Market Bowlers Now in Top Spot

Springfield Market bowlers took undivided possession of first place Monday night when they won two games from Russell's Men's Shop. The Rau Five team, which lost three to the second place Senators, dropped to a third place tie with Nelson's Texaco, after having led the league for most of the season. Seven Bridge Tavern won two from Nelson's Texaco. Bunnell Bros. won two from Geljacks. Hershey won two from American Legion and Battle Hill won the odd game from Keller's Five.

High single game was the 232 rolled by Mike Marcketta. Norman Argast had 210.

Although 60% of New Jersey's telephones are now "dial", it requires 10,000 telephone operators like Barbara J. Ashley, of Princeton, to give you the kind of telephone service you want—and we want you to have! And it takes another 12,000 telephone men and women to help them do it!

We're Handling 7 Million Calls a Day!

- ... that's 2 1/2 million more calls a day than were going through 5 years ago at this time. And, as New Jersey's defense industries expand and the Armed Forces grow larger, there will be more and more calls—with more and more of them "urgent".
- Operators like Barbara Ashley are doing their best to handle these calls and handle them promptly—for to telephone people every call is urgent. To help them do it, they have nearly twice as many telephone facilities to work with today as they did just 5 years ago—thanks to our $241,000,000 construction program. That construction program is continuing, too, as rapidly as scarce materials permit.

LOCAL RECRUIT IN BASIC TRAINING

Being indoctrinated into the traditions and color of Naval life is Herbert H. Rolfe, seaman recruit, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percival and Roland Rolfe of 104 South Maple avenue, Springfield, who is receiving his first military instruction at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill., under the Navy's recruit training program.

At Great Lakes, the world's largest recruit training center, the training is designed to benefit the recruit through personal experience and by academic lectures in such diversified subjects as signaling, navigation, gunnery, basic ordnance, Navy customs and terms, and seamanship.

Following the successful completion of recruit training, he will be assigned to a fleet unit on active duty, or be enrolled as a student at one of the Navy's specialized service schools for further training.
