LISTEN FRIENDS!!

Another election comes round the bend this Tuesday with the local situation giving way in importance to the race for freeholder. . . the big question is will Lee S. Rigby of Springfield continue to hold his push $6,000-a-year job-down at the county or has the voting public decided it's time to make a change. . . according to Freeholder Albert J. Benninger of neighboring Mountainside, backer of Nelson L. Carr and Elsie L. Scheideler, Mr. Rigby is through. . . he'll be defeated in the county-wide struggle by upwards of 2,500 votes. . . Rigby, on the other hand, is said to have admitted that he has a tough fight on his hands this time, but he's confident of victory. . . Tuesday will tell the story!

Locally Rigby is the topic of conversation at every meeting. . . the unenthusiastic support he is alleged to be receiving from Mayor Robert Marshall and Township Committee member Fred Brown has prompted folks to begin to wonder why there isn't an all-out knock-down campaign underway here, particularly in view of the formidable opposition Rigby is facing. . . anti-Rigby voters claim he will bring up the race when the ballots are cast in Springfield. . . they must have a reason for that prediction!

Now let's take the view of Charles Beardley, chairman of the Springfield Republican County Committee. . . "I feel that if the representation that the present freeholder has given Springfield in his official capacity is indicative of what he has done for the rest of the county, then we can well afford to relinquish the empty distinction of having a member of the Board of Freeholders from our town." Beardley's statement continued. . . "I have looked into the qualifications of all of the candidates for freeholder, their qualifications both as to the discharge of their duties in that position and as to their loyalty to the Republican party. I am convinced that I will be rendering both a service to the public and to the Republican party by working for and voting for both Mr. Carr and Mrs. Scheideler. . . "I am particularly impressed by the prospect of having a woman serve on our county governing body. I feel that it is time that we avail ourselves of the services of a woman who possesses a sense of civic responsibility and adequate experience in public and business life. I feel that Mr. Carr's educational background and his experience in business give us a candidate of worth; in addition, he is a veteran of World War II and can appropriately represent the thousands of veterans in our county in the county's administration. . . "I also feel that unless we give the younger people in the party the opportunity they deserve to advance themselves and to serve in responsible public office, we will fail in maintaining the drive and enthusiasm we must have, particularly next year, when we Republicans in Union County, in company with those in the state and in the nation, must turn out the greatest majority in history for the Republican Presidential candidate. I am satisfied that the Republicans will be doing the best thing by supporting Nelson Carr and Mrs. Scheideler at next Tuesday's primary," Beardley's statement concluded.

Take the case of the proposed 400 per cent increase for the Springfield Sun. . . you will see the complete story elsewhere in today's paper (and in other newspapers). . . we say again on this score, draw your own conclusions!

Anyhow, going back to Tuesday's election and what it means from a local standpoint. . . the two candidates for Township Committee are veteran officeholder Fred A. Brown, Republican, and persistent H. Stanley Glenn, Democrat. . . unless a write-in candidate comes out of the blue then neither Brown nor Glenn will have any difficulty. . . come November, however, Brown once again will undoubtedly steamroll to victory.

The hard-working Citizens Advisory Committee will file its recommendations on the school building program. . . members claim every effort will be made to remain within the $650,000 limit for the first school even though additional classrooms may be contained in their final recommendation. . . Finally the duilies have come forth with stories with regard to George Turk's chances of becoming Springfield's next postmaster. . . according to a quote in one of the papers from Edward Whelan, Union County Democratic chairman, Turk will not be opposed down at the county if the local Democratic County Committee recommends him for the $4,770-a-year position. . . The Sun broke the first story on the subject way back around the first of the year!

Rigby Is Flayed As Beardley Supports Carr

GOP Chairman Hits Service Of Freeholder

"As Springfield's Republican municipal chairman, I find it a difficult thing, but the honest thing, to reject the candidacy for renomination of Lee S. Rigby and urge my friends in Springfield to support Nelson L. Carr and Mrs. Elsie L. Scheideler for nomination as freeholder. It is always difficult to make such a decision against a fellow townsman but doing otherwise, solely on those grounds, would be a disservice not only to all the members of our party in Springfield but to all Republicans in Union County," said Charles F. Beardley today.

Local Man Killed In Auto Accident

Funeral services for Harry Peak, 58 years old, of 79-Diven street, who was killed instantly last week when struck by a car while walking in Route 29 near Glenfield, Scotch Plains, were held Monday at the Judkins Colonial Home, Plainfield. Rev. James E. Carrington, pastor of the Wallace A.M.E. Zion Chapel, Summit, officiated. Interment was in Fairview Cemetery, Westfield.

The driver of the car, traveling east in the super highway, was Richard B. Obermuller, 25 of 164 Race street, Elizabeth. He told police he did not see Peak until he suddenly appeared in front of the car. He was arraigned on a charge of causing death by operation of a motor vehicle.

Peak was a former employe of the General Motors plant in Linden. He had retired because of illness. He lived with his wife, Mrs. Ruth V. Peak, at the home of a sister-in-law, Mrs. Toes Nobel. Relatives were not certain what Peak was doing in Scotch Plains at the time of the fatality. They believed he had been taking a long walk.

Other survivors include his mother, Mrs. Sarah Peak and a sister, Miss Viola Peak, both of Richmond, Ind. He had lived here seven years.

School Unit Sets Building Limit

Members of the Citizen's Advisory Committee at a special meeting at the Best Pencil Company Tuesday night decided to change their recommendation from a fourteen-room to a sixteen-room upper grade school. The recommendation, however, will be that the listed construction cost of $650,000 not be exceeded.

Board members pointed out that they do not feel warranted in placing an additional financial burden on township taxpayers. Because of that viewpoint they will urge that the $650,000 be the top figure for the junior high school. Earlier reports had indicated that they would recommend an eighteen-room school be constructed at a cost of approximately $800,000.

Board members said the $650,000 figure will include the cost of the property as well as the architect's fee. Queried as to how two rooms could be added at no extra cost, a board member pointed out that previous estimates had been on the basis of a two-story building. Better was expressed that less fireproof material would be needed in a one-story building and that the saving possibly (Continued on Page 7)

Red Cross Drive Exceeds Goal

Howard Casselman, chairman of the Springfield Chapter of the American Red Cross, announced to the Board of Directors of the local chapter that Springfield has exceeded its goal of $2,500 for the 1951 fund drive. A few collections have not been made so a final figure is not obtainable. However, Casselman estimated that the goal would be exceeded by $200 or $300. Of the total collected, approximately $1,300 will be sent to National Headquarters.

An addition will be made to the Home Nursing Course. A supplementary handbook on atomic burns will be used.

Richard Allen, chairman of first aid, reported that with the completion of the second class, all teachers in the elementary schools will have had first aid training. He also stated that he had been contacted by several local organizations requesting first aid training and that at least 150 to 200 people in Springfield would like to have this instruction.

The board authorized Allen, with the aid of several other qualified instructors, to organize classes so that all those desiring such instruction would be able to take first aid training. The board also voted to buy all handbooks and equipment needed in this course. This action is in conjunction with the work being done by the Red Cross for the Civil Defense Council of Springfield.

LOCAL P.T.A. HOLDS CARD PARTY

The Springfield Parent-Teachers Association held its annual Card Party last Monday night at the Balthusrol Golf Club. The affair was attended by over 600 members, and their friends. It was a success both financially and socially.

No exact figures can be given as to the net profit, but it is closely estimated as over $650. The Association is considering several ways to use the proceeds for school needs and will take action at its meeting on April 30.

The P.T.A. has extended its appreciation to the local merchants who supported the party. The list of donors will appear in the next issue of the Sun.

Civilian-Defense Workers

More than fifty members of the Springfield Defense Council were inducted Tuesday night at a mass meeting in Town Hall. The session was arranged by A. B. Anderson. The group was sworn by Magistrate Henry C. McMullen. Air raid wardens, first aid workers, and police and fire department reserves were among the group. The session constituted another phase of the Springfield defense program which is rapidly gathering momentum. It was announced that many enlistments are on file and are being classified. Additional volunteers are needed so that in event of a disaster a trained force of residents will be available for an emergency call.

Sun To Move Offices As Rigby Hikes Rent; Figure Is 400% Higher

RIGBY'S Springfield New Jersey

March 2, 1951

The Springfield Sun will move to new offices in the Postoffice Building; it was revealed today by Raymond Bell, publisher of the newspaper, on May 1. Decision to move was made, it was said, following receipt of a notification from Freeholder Lee S. Rigby, owner of the building at 206 Morris avenue, that the present rent of $40 is being raised tentatively to $200 a month, an increase of 400 per cent. A letter outlining provisions of the proposed increase was received from Rigby.

Text of the communication, dated March 2, 1951, is as follows: "Gentlemen: "After due and careful consideration, I have decided to change the renting plan for my store located at No. 206 Morris Avenue, Springfield, New Jersey, as follows:

You, The Springfield Sun, will be required to pay a rental of $200. per month, payable the first day of each and every month, for one-half of the store, namely, the existing space now occupied by you.

The rental and occupancy of the other half of the store, now occupied by Baker & McMahon, is to be free and independent of you.

Very truly yours

Turk Strengthens Postmaster Bid

Indications today were that former Township Committeeman George M. Turk has virtually a clear path to Springfield's Postmastership when Postmaster Otto F. Heinz retires on April 30. Edward L. Whelan, Democratic County Chairman, today revealed that he will not block Turk's nomination if it is presented by local Democratic county committee members. News that Turk probably would get the post first appeared in The Springfield Sun in January.

The local Democratic committee's recommendation of Turk appears to be a foregone conclusion. Whelan said today that the committee, headed by Emmanuel Holmes, recently nominated Turk for the post. However, the county chairman said he withheld his approval because he felt the recommendation should come from the Democratic municipal committee which will be elected in Tuesday's primary.

The township will vote in six districts this year instead of four. However, only two newcomers have filed petitions for committee seats. The second district is not represented in the petitions which have been filed for committee seats. The newcomers are J. Leo Moran in the sixth district and Turk in the fifth. Under the previous four-district setup Turk was registered in the first district. However, two openings exist in the second and one each in the first and fourth.

Whelan emphasized that his statement is not a premature endorsement for Turk. He said he probably would back any nominee for the post assuming he were qualified and had the support of the local Democratic committee.

Heinz receives $4,770 as postmaster. He is 73 years old. He has been ill for several months. A Democrat, he was appointed acting postmaster April 16, 1950.

Paper Uncomplimentary To Rigby

Receipt of this communication by registered mail on Friday, March 2, 1951, followed by one-day publication in the Sun of a front page editorial entitled "Listen Friends" outlining Rigby's unsuccessful opposition to Fred A. Brown's reelection to the Township Committee in 1948. Bell stated that both this editorial and a news article headlined "Huge Party Break Seen as Freeholder Battle Loser" were definitely uncomplimentary to Rigby. The news item dealt at length with the strength of the opposition being furnished by the independent group headed by Freeholder Albert J. Benninger of Mountainside.

One week earlier, on Thursday, February 22, 1951, there appeared in The Sun a front page story headed "Benninger's Chief Target Is Lee Rigby in Battle to Unseat Freeholder Ticket." This article was accompanied by a reproduction of a photograph of Mr. Rigby. It was this story that generated the first and marked departure from prior editorial policy. Bell related that up until that time his paper had not supported Rigby but never actually opposed him.

The publisher phoned the Freeholder on Wednesday, February 21, 1951, to advise him of the story and to elicit whatever comment the candidate had to offer. In response to the information that the article contained an attack by Benninger on his stand with regard to veteran legislation, Rigby volunteered that he had favored as much veterans' legislation as he had defended. Beyond that, he said he would not comment until he had consulted with his colleagues. (Continued on Page 7)

LETTERS from Our Readers

Clarifies Stand
Editor, SUN:
I wish to correct a statement in the "Latin Friends" column of your issue of April 5, 1951, to the effect that I was reportedly working hard to prevent the re-election of Freeholder Lee S. Rigby in the coming primary election on April 17th.

When this primary contest started, my intention was to remain neutral in as much as I am a senior officer of a Union County veteran's organization. As some of the election statements by the candidates concern veteran's assistance, I felt that any action or statement on my part might be misunderstood.

Since this article in your paper came out, I now find it necessary to make my position understandable clear to all.

I have never had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. L. Scholders.

I met Mr. Nelson L. Carr once at a Springfield Republican Club candidates meeting.

I have never circulated a petition or endorsed the candidacy of any of the above two candidates.

I haven't seen or heard from Mr. Benninger in at least six months.

This letter should explain my position, but I further urge the support of the people of Springfield for the re-nomination of the present incumbent candidates, Charles L. Bauer, Jr., R. Story Rowland and Lee S. Rigby to the Union County Board of Freeholders.

This statement should be construed as mine individually and should not in any way reflect the opinions of any organization in which I may be a member or officer.

The power of spiritual Truth to dissolve human belief in sin, sickness, and death, and bring healing will be brought out in Christian Science services next Sunday. The Lesson-Sermon is entitled, "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?"

The Golden Text is from Paulms (65:20): "He that is our God is the God of salvation; and unto God the Lord belong the issues from death."

The following statement, from Paul's letter to the Romans, is among the selections from the Bible: "Be not conformed to this world; but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God" (Romans 12:2).

Passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following: "To hold yourself superior to sin, because God made you superior to it and governs man, is true wisdom. To hold yourself superior to sickness and death is equally wise, and is in accordance with divine Science. To fear them is impossible, when you fully apprehend God and know that they are no part of His creation" (p. 231).

Ever solve a puzzle with 4800 pieces?

George Hackney lives in Absecon, N. J., and is attached to the Atlantic City office. A real veteran, George has been a New Jersey telephone man since 1912. He is one of the 22,000 of your friends and neighbors who are constantly striving to give you better and better telephone service.

George Hackney solves such problems all the time! Telephone cable such as he's working on—no larger than a man's wrist—contains up to 2400 tiny wires. The two ends of each must be matched and spliced together. He does it so deftly that the eye can hardly follow the swift movement of his hands. And when he's done, the completed cable can serve up to 1200 telephones at the same time.

George and his fellow Splicers are mighty busy these days, working on the big construction program we started in 1945. This program furnishes additional telephone facilities to hundreds of busy Defense plants and to our State's many military establishments. New Jersey's civilian requirements have doubled in the past 10 years, and these, too, are being taken care of as rapidly as scarce materials are available.

ON A PARTY LINE?
Splicing your calls help every one get better service—makes it easier for people to call you.

"The Voice of Yesterday Says We Have Kept Your Tax Rate Down":

BUT—THAT IS NOT THE FACT!

The present Freeholder Organization seeking renomination has made no genuine contribution to you in their administration of your public affairs. They base their claim to re-election on two hackneyed phrases. They maintain that they are to be credited with the "lowest tax rate in the State" and with the "practice of economy."

Compare This With the Facts

We quote from recent speeches by our candidates, Nelson L. Carr and Elfie L. Scheideler, a most important statement that has gone unchallenged: "The fact is that in the last five years, your county expenses have soared from $4,477,735 in 1946 to $6,166,014 this year. This is an increase of 37 per cent—$1,688,279."

"The Tax rate has risen but it does not reflect the full impact of the vast increase in spending because, in these same five years, new building construction in Union County's municipalities has added almost . . .

to our ratables. Further, county revenues from sources other than direct taxation, have increased by $476,000 in the same period."

"To summarize, between that tax increase and new revenues, the freeholders are spending better than $2,000,000 more than in 1946."

SCHOOL NEWS

Raymond Chisholm

Grades 1 Mrs. May Busch Mrs. Mildred Thurber Last week we made picture dictionary booklets in Mrs. Busch's class. Some of them are hanging up in our room. Tom Conlon and Nicky Stas's booklets are on the display table. Mrs. Thurber writes a daily newspaper for us, using words we had in reading and words we can build. We feel very "grown-up" reading our morning news. Nancy Thurman visited South Carolina during the Easter holiday. She sent the class a card from Cypress Gardens. Barbara Brown and Pamela Clair had their tonsils taken out during vacation, but they have come back to school again.

Grades 2 Mrs. Anne Waters Mrs. Alice Rieg Both Second Grades enjoyed a pleasant Easter vacation and came back with 100 per cent attendance. The Second Grade pupils made April calendars in art class and have them on display on the bulletin board. The following pupils in Mrs. Waters' class deserve special commendation for progress in penmanship: Sherry Lou Dykio, Myron Neal, Panna Smith, Sandra Smith, Linnea Weil, and Rosalie Sherman. Ronnie Carney is back after a tonsillectomy. Karen Buckley spent the vacation in Springfield, Massachusetts, with her grandmother, and Alice Roberts spent her vacation in Florida.

Grades 3 Mrs. Ruth Arey Miss Claflor Hoopmann Miss Marjotta Parkhurst Mrs. Arey's class enjoyed singing with the Fourth Grade in the auditorium. We, too, are learning "The Turkey in the Straw." Our favorite song for the day was "April Showers." We enjoy our weekly readers and our little book, "Food Trails." We are keeping a list of the birds seen this year and are learning to tell birds by their songs. The members of Miss Parkhurst's class have been making alphabet booklets. After cutting out and pasting a picture to represent each letter of the alphabet, the letter was both printed and written (in cursive). The spelling words which have been studied so far this year were listed in alphabetical order and placed in the booklet, as they would be found in a dictionary. We hope this work will help us when we have a dictionary of our own next year. Miss Hoopmann's class welcomes its two newcomers, Lawrence Atkins of 48 Kow-drive, who has moved to Springfield from Irvington, and George Seltzer of 32 Sherwood road, formerly of Newark. We were also pleased to have Charlotte Bodner back again and well after being ill with whooping cough.

Grades 4 Mrs. Florence Kouwenhoven Our class looked through a View Master. There were slides about Sydney, Australia, Yellowstone National Park, and the Grand Canyon. In the pictures it seemed as if you were right there. In one I saw a mountain cliff and I was very dizzy. I thought I was there. Jeff Mantel brought some electrical equipment. He made frictional electricity. He rubbed a metal stick on a cloth. It picked up pieces of paper. He also showed us how to wire a complete electrical circuit. -By Barbara Aman

Grade 4 Mrs. Lucy Forsyth Our class made booklets of poems to give to our parents for Easter. There were thirty-four poems. Five poems were made by the class group. These poems contributed poems of their own for the booklet: Judy Vance, Diana Bouchard, Henrietta Greene, Joan Doering, Kathleen Clark, Jim Applegate, John Helinger, Charles Stevens, Ruth Hastings, Brenda Parker, Bob Zeall, and Richard Pancani. We made a booklet for Mrs. Sandmeier, Mrs. Schneider, Mrs. Arey, and Mr. Newswanger. (My booklet is very attractive, too. There are three ditties on the cover made of yellow construction paper. The flowers have crepe paper centers. The booklet is hanging in the office where I can see it and read it often. -Mrs. Sandmeier.)

Grade 5 Mrs. Priscilla Butler (Group II) The following people have shown good improvement in Arithmetic: Audrey Pfeiffer, Granville Weston, and Raymond Walsh. The extra work in Phonics has helped the following people attain an "A" average in Spelling for the past week: Carl Haubold, Betty Jane Gurski, Chester Albinowski, and Alfred Parker. Bobby Deller, Ray Walsh, Adelbert Kuenzel, and Audrey Pfeiffer are now ready for new Practice Readers.

Grades 6, 7 and 8 Mrs. Isahol Nelson Miss Helene Kosloski Miss Patricia Guerin Mrs. T. L. Sandmeier The Raymond Chisholm Playhouse (the Dramatic Club) will soon present their play, "Who's Afraid?" for assembly. The programs are nearly finished, the scenery is ready and anticipation is high. It is the first mystery-comedy to be presented this year. Miss Guerin is coaching the play. The recent Katcher hearings have made the Current Events classes exceptionally interesting. The purpose of the hearings, the biography of the men on the panel, and the backgrounds of the witnesses have been discussed. Howard Chickenger related one of the hearings almost verbatim. Conjugation of verbs and the writing of the Safety Essays have made Mrs. Sandmeier's Eighth Grade-English class unusually busy. The winning essay will be entered in town and county contests. Herbert Helmrich was one of the lucky winners last year. Congratulations to the James Caldwell newspaper group for their latest issue. It was thoroughly read and enjoyed.

Grade 1 Mrs. Anderson With spring coming, we have noticed greener grass, budding trees, and more and more birds. We have learned a new spring song, also a song about a robin. Our Weekly Reader has brought us spring stories, poems, and riddles. Edward Franzoso brought a sweet potato to school. We put it in a glass of water. Now we are waiting for the pretty green vine to grow. Susan French and Holly Hoffman have had birthdays. We sang "Happy Birthday."

Grade 1 Mrs. Sulder We have planted seeds this week. We plan to watch the little seeds sprout and grow. Some of the children brought wooden boxes, some brought dirt, and some brought the seeds. The children who helped are Evelyn Bush, John Flemer, Edwin Brakine, Robert Olechnicko, Clifford Murphy, Sally Little, and Peter Puntingam. We learned a song called "Little Seeds," too.

Grade 1 Mrs. Corby We all made "Get Well Cards" for Nancy Woodring. Everyone misses her and hopes she will be back soon. Many of us are trying to name birds we see around our homes. Teacher read about "The Phoebe" and "The Cedar Waxwing." We are getting ready to write our own.

Lunch Room Menu The menu next week at the Raymond Chisholm lunchroom will be: Monday Macaroni and cheese, lettuce salad, apple, peanut butter and jelly sandwich and milk. Tuesday Baked picnic ham, cranberry sauce, scalloped potatoes, buttered corn niblets, bread, butter and milk. Wednesday Tomato juice, baked beans with bacon strips, cold salad, cake, bread, butter and milk. Thursday Sausage and noodle casserole, Harvard beets, baked apples, bread, butter and milk. Friday Baked fish fillet, stewed tomatoes, oven fried potatoes, apple, bread, butter and milk.

He has sent his class a pretty job of the Cypress Gardens. We are looking forward to having Howard back with us soon.

Grade 2 Mrs. Smith We had a spelling match in our room. Stanley Vogel was the one remaining on his side. Linda Schreihof, Joyce Holmberg and Edmund Smith were the last three remaining on their side.

Grade 3 Mrs. Cross We are all glad to see Buddy Stewart back after being out for so long. Our class has been talking about birds. We have been drawing bird pictures. We have a new book we are reading now. It is a Geography Book called "In Country and City."

Grade 3 Mrs. Dunn Our class had a nice surprise on Friday afternoon. Andy Byam and Ross Longfield (fifth grade) put on a puppet show for us. The name of the play was "Haunted Castle."

Grade 3 Mrs. Cross's class We invited Mrs. Cross's class to see it. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed it.

Grade 3 Miss Van Arsdale Our class has nearly two dozen plants and vegetables growing on the window sills. We are learning about soil, and planting depth, and growing time. Birds, too, seem to be in the room, but since they are only drawings suspended from strings, the singing is done by the children.

Grade 4 Mrs. Ryder How people live in other lands in the Torrid zone shall follow our study of Africa. "Living an African Adventure" might be a better way to put it. We all remember it with pleasure. As Gary Ern pointed out, the more arithmetic you do, the more you like it. And we have had arithmetic this term—until we feel like crying "Uncle." However, our group one in Arithmetic will be ready for more advanced work soon.

Grade 5 Mrs. Selzwage The theme in our room for the past week has been the study of birds and flowers. The children are able to recognize the pictures and names of quite a few of the birds, and have learned many interesting things about flowers. Friday afternoon we make bird houses.

Howard Selander has been in Florida for the past three weeks.

Grade 5 Miss Purcell Mrs. Walf Miss Purcell's class has challenged Miss Walf's class to a Spelling Match to take place in the auditorium, Friday, April 13, at 2:00 p.m. Both classes will select a team of ten members to represent them. May the best team win!

Grade 5 Douglas Woodring took his circus picture to his sister, Nancy, in the Hospital. The nurse framed the masterpiece and hung it in the Children's Ward. Douglas is the first fifth grader to have his picture hung.

Grade 6 Mrs. Dimpugno Mrs. Nuvanna Our English classes have been making a study of the interests and needs of "Safety in the Home, in the Street, and School." With this information, we plan to enter the state-wide American Legion "Safety Essay Contest."

Grade 6 Diane Krey and Carol Layercraft received a letter from their classmates, Carol Lorenz, who is visiting relatives in Germany. She said her plane trip over was quite pleasant except for some roughness at the end. We are all looking forward to her return in June to tell us of her experiences.

Grade 7 & 8 Mr. Winberry Mr. Schneider Mrs. Jacobsen Mrs. Shauder This week was marked by another appearance of the school newspaper "Super Scissors." This paper is written and published by a staff of seventh and eighth graders, aided by Mrs. Jacobsen, the typist for the paper. This issue, edited by Roger Wales and Bruce Harrison, had a number of sections. It included a section on sports news, dancing, interviews, fashions, riddles and jokes, and a "Kiddie Korner." The paper is filled with clever cartoons and headings, drawn so well by the Art Editor, Alvin Dammig. We feel that this paper shows a great deal of effort and achievement by the staff. They decided to show a movie from the proceeds of the sale of the newspaper to all readers of the paper. Special Class Mrs. Lushner Marjanne Betz came to our class this week. We are very glad to have her. So far, Alfred Niedermaier and Richard Worrells have perfect attendance.

WINS CONTEST Joan Hiller, a Regional High School student, was one of the winners of the oratorical contest held recently at Montclair High School by the New Jersey International Relations Forum. There were three other winners.

Strike Back!

Will You Save a Life?

YOU may be the indirect means of saving many lives. 200,000 Americans died of cancer last year. 70,000 might have been saved had they known the danger signals and sought treatment before it was too late. A widespread work of education must be carried on.

By contributing to the cancer fund you help to spread valuable information. You help to provide more training for scientists and physicians. You help to purchase more laboratory equipment. You help make available more and better treatment for those already stricken by the disease. To fight cancer costs money. Will you give?

Rigby Hikes Rent

Approximately six months ago, Bell approached Rigby relative to purchase of the Morris avenue property by The Sun. At that time, Rigby was not favorably disposed to the sale of the building, but granted Bell a chance to bid should the property be placed on the market. Three months later, Bell was advised that the property was to be sold in accordance with the agreement. The Sun now had the opportunity to bid. Bell had turned down the opportunity.

To end his problem, the publisher has negotiated a lease with the owner of the building which hinges the new Post Office. Provisions of that agreement, presently in an informal and un-ten stage, call for a payment by the owner of $65 per month including the cost of utilities. Action on this negotiation was not initiated until after receipt of the March 2 communication from Rigby.

As intimated by a front page Sun editorial of Thursday, January 25, 1951, there was a prior dispute between The Sun and Rigby, then Undersecretary of the County. At the time, Rigby took exception to an editorial in support of the action of the Board of Education in regard to a matter pertaining to the then proposed Regional High School. Shortly thereafter, the newspaper was no longer used for the printing of Sheriff's foreclosure notices. It is provided by law that these shall appear in the county seat newspaper, and one other paper in the county.

Through this action, The Sun became virtually the only newspaper that did not carry the notice of Sheriff's foreclosures, those concerning persons in the circulation area of the paper. Milton Keston, the editor, then responded with the biting January 25th editorial denouncing Rigby, and blaming him for the act causing deprivation. The Township Committee as a matter of public record petitioned the sheriff's office to restore the advertisements.

Local Hero Receives Citation

Harry Burt, left, 170 Linden avenue (SR) Springfield, Jersey Central Power & Light Co. customer representative who saved infant Allen Bryant and his five-year-old brother, Kenneth Bryant, from gas poisoning in Morrilton last week, receives from Charles Hickman, the company's commercial office manager there a letter of congratulations from the utility's management. Having detected strong gas odor at locked front door, Mr. Burt managed to look inside the Bryant apartment, saw the children

Candidates Stress Increase Reasons

Five factors over which the Board of Chosen Freeholders has little control, but for which it must provide the money, account for the increase this year of $1,813,044 in the county budget over 1946. Freeholder Lee S. Rigby, Springfield, told the Cranford Republican Club last night in the Casino. Freeholder Rigby, with Charles L. Bauer, Jr., Elizabeth, and R. Story Rowland, Plainfield, is seeking the Republican renomination next Tuesday.

Except for the effectiveness of the freeholders' policy on reduction of the bonded debt, the increase would have been much higher, Rigby explained. The cost of debt service, responding to the board's guidance, dropped $122,765 in the same period.

The Republican freeholder charged that irresponsible candidates for the nomination have been endeavoring to mislead the party on the county's financial program. These are the facts, said Rigby, on the 1946-1951 comparison made by rival speakers.

"These figures show you this year's actual increase over 1946. In welfare items it is $601,247; for district courts, $20,505; for our county park system, $49,757; for our employees' pension system, adopted by you voters, $188,442, and for supplies and allied services—road materials, fuel oils, and similar necessities—$71,600.

would permit construction of two more rooms.

At present no architect will give a definite construction figure, it was pointed out. No decision will be reached until the opinions of several architects have been received. Appointment of an architect for the building is expected to be made by the Board of Education shortly.

It is expected that after the architect has been designated he will be asked to provide plans and estimates for both one and two-story projects with the accompanying costs.

The group is tentatively scheduled to meet next week with the Township Committee to discuss the situation. It is expected that the township's borrowing capacity will be outlined.
