

RIGBY LOSES COUNTY POST

Springfield Man Is Defeated In Freeholder Bid

The end of the political trail, a long trail as measured by years and remuneration for public jobs, apparently came for Freeholder Lee S. Rigby Tuesday when an aroused Union County electorate decisively rejected his bid for renomination.

Rigby Spends $1,000 To Lose

Freeholder Lee S. Rigby who failed in his bid for renomination to the county board Tuesday spent more than $1,000 in his fruitless effort to win favor from the Union County electorate, a survey of election expenses filed last week with County Clerk Henry G. Nulton reveals.

Rigby spent a total of $1,036.61. His running mate, Freeholder R. Story Rowland of Plainfield, who also was defeated in the primary, spent a similar sum. Freeholder Charles L. Bauer, who led the ticket and who was not a victim of the attack waged by the independent ticket, spent $1,036.63. The freeholder post pays $6,000 a year.

Nelson L. Carr and Mrs. Elsie L. Scheideler, who were victorious in the contest with Rigby and Rowland spent $400 and $200, respectively. The total of $3,109.90 spent by the trio of freeholder incumbents was far in excess of outlays by any other candidates for county posts.

Education Board Launches Drive For New School

Machinery was put in motion last night for a referendum in which township voters will be asked to authorize construction of a one-story, 14-room school on the Plover site to alleviate the congested school housing situation.

Board President Issues Statement

The following statement was issued by Howard Smith, president of the Board of Education, last night following approval by the board of details of a plan to build a $650,000 upper grade school: "It seems appropriate for me to inform the very much interested public of the school expansion program as it now stands. The decisions of the Board have been taken after careful thought and weighing of the many and various factors surrounding the problem.

The Citizens Advisory Committee has been an invaluable aid in checking on every point under consideration and independently arriving at their own decisions. Their opinions have been principally incorporated in the final decision of the Board as follows: 1st. The minimum appropriation should be $650,000.

2nd. This can provide a one-story school building in which will be combined the 6th, 7th, and 8th grades, thereby leaving in the Chisholm and Caldwell Schools sufficient room space to properly accommodate the Kindergarten and 5th grade pupils. Also that there will be no need for "outside" school rooms anywhere.

3rd. Mr. Elsassor who has served this community well, is now employed by several nearby school districts and has all the qualifications to build any type of school building designated by the Board, has been chosen from a field of five architects recently interviewed by the Board.

The Board has given much time and thought to all points under consideration and is in agreement that the proposed solution is the comprehensive answer to the urgent needs of the community. They thank you to all who have served so faithfully. I would urge their continued support until the referendum is successfully concluded."

A petition was presented to the board at the March meeting urging that the board change its decision. It was held in abeyance. These had been planned for the Regional High School auditorium. Previously the schools have held separate exercises.

Supervising Principal Benjamin Newsavanger recommended separate ceremonies in view of the request which bore the signatures of fifty-seven parents. The principal argument of parents had been that the joint exercises would stifle a "naturally developed school pride."

Group Disclaims School Proposal

Publication of a proposal for construction of additions to the James Caldwell and Raymond Chisholm Schools by Joseph Shepard, president of the Citizens' League, was not authorized by the group, it was revealed today by Mrs. Henry M. Wasung, chairman of the league's school committee.

The proposal, published recently in a daily newspaper, was not considered by the committee nor by Harry Monroe, league delegate to the School Advisory Committee, Mrs. Wasung asserted.

According to Mrs. Wasung it had been agreed there would be no publication of any proposal which was reached until there had been general consultation. She said the proposal for additions to the two schools was news to her, to members of her committee and to Monroe. The education committee chairman said she understood the project for additions had been considered by the Citizens' Advisory Committee but had been rejected as inadequate.

In the proposal, Shepard was quoted as stating that the plan was being submitted as an alternative to the proposal for construction of a school for $650,000. He said, the additions would be less expensive.

According to Mrs. Wasung the Citizens' League and the Citizens' Advisory Committee knew nothing about the proposal and were surprised when it was published.

LISTEN

FRIENDS!!

Another election has gone by the boards and Springfield has lost a favorite. . . despite this fact, however, there doesn't appear to be too many sorry faces visible on the "broad" highways and byways of our fair community. . . Actually, Lee S. Rigby wasn't beaten Tuesday. . . on the contrary he was licked long before the campaign got under way. . . all he did to assure his final defeat was to pull what seasoned politicians refer to as "fatal honors." . . Al Benninger is the man who did the trick. . . Al planned his smashing victory for Nelson Carr and Elsie Scheideler months ago. . . he worked hard, had the entire county organization behind him and then killed the goose that laid the golden egg in ruthless fashion. . . the fact that Benninger is going places in official life both in the county and state goes without saying. . . we predict a brilliant future for Al.

Now let's take the case where he just managed to elude out a miserable tie with Nelson Carr. . . when your neighbors and friends are against you then it's time to retire. . . we wonder about those alleged politicians who claimed they were out to aid Rigby and then stabbed him at every turn. . . either you're for a man or against him, but this madness of straddling the fence until the wind blows is plain obvious. . . and there are many in this town who fall into that category. . . Republican Chairman Charles Beardsley had the courage to say what was on his mind, and he is to be commended.

The celebration which followed the stunning victory for Carr and Scheideler was something which will long be remembered. . . the party continued well into the night and untold hundreds of well-wishers and "hand-wringers" . . . shook the hands of the victors. . . State Senator Kenneth Hand along with many other county and state officials participated in the feast. . . there were at least a dozen Springfield faces including Mrs. Any Bandemer, Mrs. Kenneth Bandemer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beardsley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ranclo and a host of others. . . they were really whooping it up and we don't blame them. . . after all, they were on the successful side of the fence all along.

Jumping back to Springfield's results for a moment, we recall having predicted that Township Committee President Fred Brown's followers, despite the so-called support by Brown for Rigby, would be out to null the freeholder for his attitude to "our Fred" back three years ago. . . remember? the results Tuesday bear that out to the hilt. . . Brown's total vote here was 742 against Rigby's 457. . . Just goes to show you that even unbeatable Fred Brown couldn't puff Rigby out of a hole locally.

RIGBY

Throughout the county, ran approximately 6,000 behind the unopposed Sen. Kenneth C. Hand, indicating that no freeholder escaped unscathed.

In Springfield Rigby polled his sixty votes in the third district, his home district. Carr had sixty-six votes there. Butler had sixty-five in that district. Rigby was well under 500 in the second where he had sixty-two to the Elizabeth man's eighty-one. He also trailed him in the fifth. He vote fifty to eighty-one. He topped Carr and Mrs. Scheideler in the first, fourth and sixth.

The Springfield totals found Township Committee man Fred A. Brown polling 742 votes for re-election by the GOP. H. B. Benning, also unopposed for the Democratic nomination for the governing board, and less than sixty votes.

County committee winners who had opposition were: First District, Daniel Wendland; second, Charles Beardsley; third, Max Sherman and Mrs. Jeanne M. Haas; fourth, Robert J. Anderson; fifth, Wilfred W. Layng and Mrs. Julia S. Brown; sixth, Albert Millet and Mrs. Amy Bandemer.

Assemblyman Fred E. Shepard, of Elizabeth, was high man in the balloting for the Assembly. He had 651 votes. G. Clifford Thomas had 518. Assemblywoman Florence P. Dwyer, 503 and Donald D. Mackay, 410. All four incumbents were re-elected to the county. The votes locally for the others were: Mrs. Iroya T. Griffin, 348; Arthur B. Lloyd Jr., 324 and Miss Ethel M. Towner, 274.

Figuring prominently in the decision Springfield voters made at the polls was Charles Beardsley, G. O. P. municipal chairman, who in an outspoken statement last week backed the Carr-Scheideler ticket. He expressed belief that Rigby had done Springfield no service as a freeholder and said that if Springfield was to lose a freeholder there was little loss in view of the results rendered.

Apparently Beardsley's statement carried weight. Obviously the electors were not in agreement with the leaders who met at Rigby's home and made plans to wage an all-out battle to renominate the freeholder. However, the sincerity of some of Rigby's professed backers was questionable, observers be-

Some indications that these political figures simply were rendering lip service to the freeholder and apparently did little to attempt to help him.

Rigby in defeat congratulated his victorious opponents. He indicated he would support the Republican ticket in the November election.

The township today buzzed with talk that Rigby might be offered a political post next year by the freeholders. However, most persons were inclined to discount this, pointing out that Freeholder Albert J. Benninger, undoubtedly would oppose a move of this nature.

Most observers believe the freeholders' henceforth will give Benninger no ammunition for future primaries. Instead of appointments, it is said, there is more likelihood that political heads may roll come January.

As one observer said, "The new Union County slogan is likely to be 'Clear It with Al,' indicating Benninger's new status."

LISTEN FRIENDS!

agrees with the position taken by the five members of the Township Committee insofar as their endorsement of Rigby was concerned. We do nevertheless understand their official position which required them to try to preserve for Springfield its representation on the Board of Freeholders... what each did personally in the ballot box, or among their friends, is another question!

A. B. Anderson, for whom this newspaper has the greatest respect and always will have, was Mr. Rigby's local campaign manager... he's known and been friendly with Lee for many years and therefore took on the herculean task of running the local show... A. B. did a fine job against tremendous odds and don't let them tell you otherwise!

By the time next Monday rolls around The Springfield Sun, as you all know by this time, will be moving from its present Rigby-owned building to new and modern offices in the Post Office building... our rent will be $85 per month... if we stayed here it would be increased from $100 for the whole building, part of which we sublet, to $200 for half... great stuff, eh?

Regional Tracksters End Pre-Season Drills; 3 Men Top Big Crop of Hopefuls

By DONALD ROSSELET
A sensational high jump artist, a crack dash man, and a holdover hurdler form a nucleus around which John Brown and Ed Ruby will build the 1951 version of the Regional track and field squad. Brown takes over for Lou DeFonse, who guided last year's team to a good season. The schedule, which opens tomorrow, Friday, promises to be a tough one.

The brightest light among the crop of about 40 is a sophomore high jumper, Jud Herman. Herman placed second with a leap of five feet, 11 inches in the County meet last year. He was then a freshman at Cranford High. Wayne Tenneson, a senior speedster, has looked good in both the quarter mile event and the hundred yard dash. Tenneson was clocked at 0:53 for the quarter mile race in a trial heat. Lou Dauber, who returns from last year's combine, tops the list of hurdlers with Douglas Bird in a runner-up spot.

Ed MacSillis and Ed Collins are fighting it out for the mile slot, with MacSillis the better to date. Cliff Smith, Bob Rittweger, and Al MacElroy have been tossing the weights (discus, shot-put) and Bob Tuzik has been given the job in the javelin throw. Ben McElenna and George Schwarz top a comparatively weak half mile field. Dave Schramm's efforts have been good in the broad jump, but Dauber might get the nod as he did some jumping last campaign. Art Curtiss, a freshman-product, Milan Havala, and Don Eichhorn have performed creditably in the pole vault.

Three Springfield freshmen with a little experience behind them could figure in the Regional meeters' plans. "Buddy" Mesker and Jim Lambert are practicing for the quarter mile and Herb Heimbuch is running with the hundred yard men.

The schedule:
April 20—Summit, home; 25—Linden, home; 27—Hillside, away; May 2—Edison Warinanco Park; 5—Newark Board of Education, Newark City Stadium; 9—Westfield, away; 11—Pingry, home; 15—Union, home; 18—Union County Meet, Plainfield; 22—Rahway, away; 25—Cranford, home; 26—Spotch Plains, home.
June 2—New Jersey State Meet, Rutgers University.

700 Youngsters See Final Play

Approximately 700 children filled the Regional High School auditorium on Saturday afternoon to see "Hans Brinker," a three-act play presented by the Salome Gaynor Theatre for Children. This concluded the program of legitimate plays for youngsters which was sponsored this season for the first time in Springfield by the Children's Theatre Group of the local P.T.A. Other plays included "Pinocchio" and "Tom Sawyer."

Mrs. Bruce F. Linck, chairman of the Children's Theatre Group, has stated that the new venture has been a financial success and that a final, complete announcement will be made at the regular P.T.A. meeting on April 30.

Parents have enthusiastically expressed their desire for a continuance of this sort of program for Springfield children. In especially for good theatre designed especially for children. It has been the aim of the local P.T.A. to open wide the gates into the land of make-believe, bringing story-book people to life for each and every child in the community.

Give to Conquer

The Fight Is On

THE TRIUMPH over cancer can come only through continued research. Skilled physicians and experienced scientists must continue to work and to experiment. Expensive laboratory equipment must be purchased and maintained. Educational programs must be expanded. All this costs money.

Your contribution to the Cancer Fund may help to protect someone you know, someone in your own family, for no one can tell where this grim killer will strike. Every year thousands of Americans die of cancer. Many of them might be saved, if they learned to recognize the danger signals and were given treatment in time. It is of vital importance that information about cancer be given to every family and that more services be made available to those already stricken with the disease.

This is a great and worthwhile crusade, one you will be proud to join. Will you give—and give generously—to the 1951 Cancer Crusade?

EVER MEET A TELEPHONE DOCTOR?

26 years of experience are behind Edward J. Forsthofer, Sr., test Deskman in the Trenton office. And the average experience of all New Jersey telephone men is more than 16 years! Experience is a big reason why the 22,000 telephone men and women are able to give you such good telephone service.

- Edward Forsthofer, Sr., is one—and there are nearly 150 throughout the State. On the rare occasion when your telephone is "out-of-order" (an average of less than once in 2 years) he "diagnoses" with the special equipment you see here. He "prescribes" the treatment to the repairman in your neighborhood, and your telephone is back in service—usually in less than two hours!
- Keeping your telephone service efficient and dependable is an important job. It's important, too, that the telephone system be enlarged even more—to take care of those waiting for service and the thousands who apply each month. We're sparing no effort in continuing the construction program which started 5 years ago—and has already added more than 600,000 telephones here in New Jersey.

SCHOOL NEWS

James Caldwell

Grade 1 Miss Anderson We are enjoying some new records. Mrs. Osborne brought them to us. They are "Growing Up," "Chug, Chug, Engine," It is fun to sing along with the records. Many of us can write our numbers to 10 without help from our number chart. Our papers are very neat, too. Larry Cyrc celebrated his birthday. We sang Happy Birthday!

Grade 1 Mrs. Suffer

We are happy to know that our Fifth Grade children are learning how to borrow books from our own Springfield Free Public Library. The children who have read books from the library are Evelyn Bush, Christine Curwood, Geraldine Curran, John Egan, Jimmy Huggert, Kathy Huppington, Joy Hinkel, Peter Puntigam, Linda Richards, Jean Ryder, Connie Shields, Hank van der Linden, and Alan Wyckoff. They like the library very much.

Grade 1 Mrs. Corby

Mr. Post taught us a lesson in flower design. We were all trying to do our best. We liked the lesson. Our papers were so beautifully designed and colored that Mrs. Corby said we might hang them in the hall for others to enjoy.

Grade 2 Mrs. Selvaenge

This past week we varied our reading classes by acting out the stories. The children who acted out the parts of the characters would read the conversational part of the story and the child who was a narrator would read the rest of the story. It proved to be a very interesting change to the children.

In Science the children have started a little booklet and are writing an interesting science story to put into them. Howard Selander who has been in Florida for the past three weeks is back in school—sporting a nice healthy tan.

Grade 2 Mrs. Hill

This week we have been reading about Psychomys. We drew some pictures to illustrate a poem about spring.

We have spent some time looking at bird pictures as we listened to bird call records. This will help to prepare us for our trip to Tradliffe Museum next month. Today we will talk about Thomas Jefferson because it is his birthday. We will have some pictures to show.

Some of us are planning to write illustrated book reports which we will share with the class.

Grade 2 Miss Smith

We had our usual weekly spelling test. One child was absent. Everyone present had every word correctly spelled and we are very proud of our record.

We have missed Stephanie Ryder this week. She has been at home ill with the grippe.

Grade 3 Mrs. Cross

This week we learned something very new in arithmetic. We learned about division. Because we know our multiplication facts, it makes division easier. Our class and Mrs. Dunn's class are planning a trip to the Zoo on May 9th.

Grade 3 Mrs. Dunn

The 3D class are studying about magnets. George Rupp and Marilyn Danks brought in Horseshoe magnets and Robert French one that works with a Dry Cell Battery. We did many experiments but the one we liked best was the boy floating on water.

Grade 3 Miss Van Arsdale

Miss Derivaux's class now belongs to Mrs. Ames. Miss Derivaux was married to Paul Ames on March 24th, 1951. Susan Oakman, Sandra Penard, Leonard Joseph, Barbara Schmidt, Joyce Field, P. Uty Dresher and Norman Orsard were able to go to the wedding in West Orange. Mrs. Ames went to Charleston, S. C. and stopped in Washington and saw cherry blossoms on her wedding trip.

Birthday wishes go to Raymond Martin, Kurt Christenson, and Wes Zimmer. Our class filled two Red Cross Boxes this week. The girls filled one box and the boys filled one.

Grade 4 Mrs. Ames

This week we saw a movie about sharks. Sharks are usually found around Queensland, Australia. Since we are studying Australia, we were very interested in this.

We are studying about the Platypus, Crane, Cockatoo, Dingo, and other Australian animals. We find Australia a very interesting place to study, because some animals that live in Australia, live in no other place in the world.

We also have been working hard on Arithmetic, Spelling, Reading and History.

Grade 4 Mrs. Ryder

Grade 4 Miss Purnell

The Fifth Grades in our school had a Spelling Match in the auditorium Friday. The ten best spellers in each class were chosen to be in the match. All twenty participants proved themselves to be superior in spelling and we had difficulty in selecting words that they couldn't spell correctly. Finally the five best were: Patty Graham, Stella Byam, David Freedman, Bobby Burt and Eric Darlymoh. Finally Stella proved herself to be the best of all and was declared the champion.

Grade 6 Mrs. Dimpugno

The sixth grade numbers are carrying on some very interesting experiments. They are using chickens and other animals in these experiments.

Sam Wronsky, Ralph Mellok, Alfred Bowman, Walter Kraft and Ricky Glaser have displayed much originality and good thinking in carrying out the project.

Carol Holst has done some very interesting work with clay.

Grade 7 & 8 Mr. Winter

Mr. Winter—Mr. Schneider Mrs. Jakobson—Mrs. Shander -RS had an interesting and informative debate Friday morning. It was on the current controversy in international affairs involving General MacArthur. They invited the sixth, seventh, and eighth grades to share their experiences and opinions. Several participants quoted newspapers and articles from magazines. Participants were arrayed on two sides: the Generals and the Senators. Speaking for the Generals were Ian Steuther, John Allen, Jim Allen, Jan Howarth, and Roger Wells. Speaking for the Senators (defending President Truman's actions) were Don Miller, Vincent Cimprone, Bruce Harrison, Billy Brooks and Kenneth Brauster. Audience participation was excellent.

patron by students followed the debate. We feel that the debate showed a keen interest in current affairs and a real ability to think matters through.

Special Class Mrs. Lushour Every pupil in the Special Class looks forward to Friday afternoon. That is because Mrs. Lushour brings her radio then and we listen to music as we work. It makes a good ending to a week of school.

Raymond Chisholm Grades 1 Mrs. May Busch Mrs. Mildred Thurber We have made drawings of spring flowers in Art class. We have hung them up and they give our room a cheerful spring look.

The following are doing best writing in Mrs. Thurber's room: Nancy Worthington, Barbara Brown, Barbara Smith, Patty Andrew, Charlotte Komp, Ellen Weaver, Della Sperling, Larry Schrupp, Richard Carlson, Edith Schull, and Richard Mueller. George Bayton, Eugene Black, Eddie Bullock, and Herbert Drolshagen have shown the greatest improvement in writing this year.

The children in Mrs. Busch's room welcomed two new boys. They are Bobby Seltzer of 32 Sherwood Avenue and Ben Scou of 15 Cambridge Terrace.

Last week we made beautiful free hand drawings of spring flowers. We showed them to Mr. Newmanger when he came to visit us. The following children had very fine drawings: Rose Wasson, Gloria Taddeo, Judy Gross-wieschede, Tom Conlon, Joe Taddeo, Diane Yanger, Audrey Mar-cetti, Doris Kuznetz, Debby Carner, Richard Weston, Mickey Siles, Edythe Montanari, and Ben Scou.

Miss Alice Reg Mrs. Anne Waters Miss Rice's class welcomed James Wright from First Orange. He lives on Meekes street.

John Rux and Karen Buckley each celebrated their birthdays with parties at school.

The children have been filling Red Cross gift boxes. Miss Rice's children brought money and went to the center to buy snakes, handkerchiefs, tooth brushes and tooth paste, toys, combs, needles and thread, and other articles. Mrs. Waters' children brought the articles from home.

Grade 3 Mrs. Ruth Arey Miss Claire Hoopmann Miss Marietta Parkhurst Dick Niedermoler entertained Miss Hoopmann's class last Tuesday when he showed us very attractive colored slides about wild animals, caves, Niagara Falls, and the Cinderella story. We hope Dick will give us another treat soon.

Those who had very good spelling papers were: Patty Ball, Charlotte Bodner, Caryl Cantelmo, Ed-ward Cardina, Maria Inamorato, Phyllis Kaplan, Terry Karlin, Marilyn Kuller, Lorie Keppner, George Bellizer, Richard Spickler, Billy Younger, and Peter Zurawski.

Mrs. Arey's class made bird pictures in Art class. The following have their pictures on the bulletin board: Sally Querques, John Kisch, Barbara Savage, John Keller, Barbara Havala, and Sandra Rae. In a mastery test in arithmetic recently taken, the following had very good papers: Carolyn Kordalski, Bruce Goldstein, Rusty Sileo, Ellen Poinhardt, Barbara Havala, Barbara Bass, Janet Rawlins, Sandra Burns, Irene Zidenki, and John Kisch.

The boys in Miss Parkhurst's class made a block of concrete last Friday. Peter Miller measured out the cement, yellow sand, and gravel in parts, one, two, and three, respectively and placed them in a tin can. Billy Franklin poured in water while Frank Zurawski and Richard Haupt took turns stirring the mass with a trowel until it was soft enough to pour into a small bucket. Mr. Newmanger, coming in at the time, advised us to cover it with a damp cloth so it would solidify more slowly. We did this, and on Monday found as good a piece of concrete as you might find in a basement floor. Now we understand what goes on in the concrete mixers we see working at the houses under construction in our vicinity.

Grade 4 Mrs. Lucy Forsyth Last week these people were complimented upon their oral reading: Tom Battelle, Doris Walker, David Allardice, Diana Bouchard, Judy Vance, Chip Skousen, John Hettlinger, and Bob Sluam.

We have been working very hard to improve our writing. We have been working for neat papers and carefully formed letters. These people have had their papers displayed: Kathleen Clark, Teddy Gansko, Bob Sluam, Bob Zeoli, David Eger, Chip Skousen, David Allardice, and John Hettlinger. The papers were chosen because improvement was made in writing.

Grade 4 Mrs. Florence Kouwenhoven Michael Peraleo brought in fossils he found in Pennsylvania.

They had prints of ferns in their Don Hooper brought an egg-box stone collection. He put numbers on the stones. Then he put the numbers and names of them on the lid of the egg box. We also saw a collection of stones in the Science room. The members of the Science class had found the stones in Springfield.

We all decided fossils and stones are very interesting. They tell us the story about the earth we live on.—By Charline Collins and Edward Prichard.

Grade 5 Mrs. Margaret McGarrath, Mrs. Priscilla Butler The first group shared some of the reading experiences they have had with the class. Sue Koona-gave a very good report.

A discussion of various types of books aimed to arouse interest in more than one kind. The historical novel was discussed and examples used to show their value. Beverly Marchell reported on "The Biography of William Penn." Grades 6, 7 and 8 Mrs. Joseph Nelson Miss Helene Kosloski

Miss Patricia Giorin The Seventh Grade Science class dissected fish. The group was divided into groups of four—Each group had to locate the various (Continued on page 8)

State Rejects Bid For School Aid

If Springfield builds additional school facilities, it apparently will be done without assistance from State officials. Letters from Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll and Assemblywoman Florence E. Dwyer, read Tuesday night at the monthly meeting of the Board of Education in response to appeals, sent to them by the school commissioners indicated there can be no State assistance to the municipality other than funds customarily dedicated to educational aid. "The governor, pointing out that he recognizes the pressing need for expansion of school facilities here, said that nevertheless at present it is impossible for the State to undertake any new services at this time on its available revenue."

Mrs. Dwyer wrote that she already has urged Congressman Clifford P. Case to back Federal aid to education.

The board has cited the high tax rate in Springfield and the limited borrowing capacity of the township in its appeal for assistance. However, it is expected to present a plan for school expansion to the State. "I and my father are one" (John 10:29).

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the passage in a referendum this spring.

Belief has been expressed that the school board will follow the recommendation of the Citizens' Advisory Committee for Schools, headed by Leonard Best, for construction of an upper grade school at a maximum cost of $650,000. The committee has been studying the school problem for a number of months.

has and had to determine the function of each fin. The operation, scales, sense organs and fins of the White Perch and Whiting were studied. They then proceeded to dissect the fish and studied the internal organs. The class had to draw pictures of the structures and label them. The experiment was very successful. The following people performed their dissections like surgeons and their drawings and labeling were excellent: Thomas Kean, Robert Schwartz, Richard Walker, Nancy Brown, Dorothy Augenstein, Bucky Moen, Addie Talbot, and Pat Matthews.

The Eighth Grade class is studying Angio sperms or flowering plants. The class dissected tulips and gladiolus and saw the reproductive structures of the flower. The following parts were located: sepals, calyx, petals, corolla, stem, pistil, stigma, ovary, receptacle and ovules. The class has discussed the planting of flowers in front of the building. First the soil must determine whether the soil is acidic or alkaline before they can proceed.
