Voters Approve New Township School

LISTEN FRIENDS!!

The local school election is over and we'll have more to say about the vote and the way it went later on . . . right now, however, we hear there's another education expansion program brewing and it has to do with a Regional High School . . . Springfield won't have to stand all the expense of this one because there are five other communities which help support that school . . . although plans with regard to the Regional expansion program are by no means completed, it is believed the Board of Education is presently working on specifications which would provide for an addition costing approximately $1,000,000 . . . Regional, like local schools, is gradually being financed . . . the influx of residents to this general area has resulted in a serious problem of overcrowding and expansion of present facilities is sorely needed.

Clinton Avenue Residents Battle Regional Board

Resentment toward the project of the Regional Board of Education leading to an expansion program to cost a reported $1,000,000 was expressed today by several residents of Clinton avenue, who face loss of their property as well as having the borders of the proposed annexation area in their back yards.

It has been no secret that the board has been spending many hours in working on plans for an addition to the present building. The Regional board, in addition to Springfield, includes Mountainside, Kenilworth, Garwood, New Providence Township and Clark Township.

Mrs. Walter Albrecht, who lives at 41 Clinton avenue, pointed out that she has only fifty feet which can be utilized as a rear yard. The proposed plan of the school board would absorb that space, she said.

"I feel it will depreciate my property so greatly that if I ever want to sell it or continue to rent that flat which we own, it would be terrible," she said. "There will be no yard space and no place to hang up clothes. The noise from the school is bad enough now but it will be terrible if this goes through. Chalk lines raised by the agriculture department make it very unpleasant."

"We plan to fight this thing and have already notified our attorneys. The $5.00 per foot price offered is ridiculous. We feel the ground, together with the building is worth at least $5,000. And there is resentment among other people here."

Mrs. Norbert Kuffner of 35 Clinton avenue said she and her husband had purchased their home for security. She said the garden offers excellent exercise for her husband and will provide a home for her son when he returns from service.

"I'm entitled to security," Mrs. Kuffner said, "and I feel that my chance to retain it is being affected. We'll fight this move."

The wave of resentment among Clinton avenue residents is believed likely to affect board plans. However, indications are that the board will not change its overall program. There is a possibility that a delegation of residents may confront the board at its monthly meeting in the school tonight (Thursday).

One board official, informed last night of the resentment of Clinton avenue residents regarding the proposed plan, made it plain the education body anticipated no difficulty. He emphasized that the board's ideas were only in the planning stage and predicted an amicable settlement in the final analysis.

Decisive Victory For Referendum Scored On 3d Try

Springfield voters, after twice defeating the proposal of the Board of Education for a new school to relieve crowded conditions in the system, on Tuesday by a decisive margin of better than two to one, approved construction of a $650,000 one-story building. The final vote was 1,108-509.

Despite the two previous setbacks the final result was not unexpected. The pattern was similar in both voting districts. In the first there were 719 voters in favor with 340 opposed. In the second 387 persons favored the project with 189 in opposition.

In striking contrast to the other referendum when many individuals and several organizations expressed opposition, there had been no organized resistance to the proposal during recent weeks. The Township Committee, which has expressed interest in construction of a firehouse, had agreed to hold up any of its projects until the Board of Education was given an opportunity to construct the school.

"Consensus was that the new building was a 'mistake' in the prior referendum there had been opposition to purchase of the Plover tract on South Springfield avenue as a site. Cost of this was $31,000 which included legal fees. It was a part of the $650,000.

Among the groups which played a prominent part in campaigning for the measure were the Springfield Woman's Club and the Springfield Parent-Teacher Association.

Other organizations which endorsed the measure were Continental Post 228, American Legion; Balthasar Civil Association, Chamber of Commerce, Citizens League, Colfax Civic Association, Fieldstone Civic Association, Girl Scout Council, Lions Club, Rotary Club, Shunpike Civic Association, Battle Hill Post, V. F. W., and the Woodcrest Association.

In order to submit the plan it was necessary for the director of local government and for State educational officials to approve procedure which permitted the municipality to exceed its debt limit by approximately $50,000. Reduction of the indebtedness and establishment of a new borrowing cap the year through new ratables.

School board auditors had expressed belief that the project would mean an increase of about 33 cents per $100 valuation. A large increase in ratables than anticipated would lower this figure, it was pointed out.

As a result of Tuesday's decisive vote the Board of Education now is authorized to sell a $500,000 bond issue. Observers are wondering how much money would have been saved had the taxpayers approved the proposal when it was submitted a year ago. In view of increased building costs estimates have varied from 10 to 15 per cent which would be from $65,000 to $97,500.

Opposition to selection of the Plover tract as a site was dissipated with the statement that it was the best centrally located spot that could be obtained. It had been approved by a committee of the Board of Selectors of the township which will reach at least $1,108,000 by 1954. The Citizens' Advisory Committee for Schools headed by Leonard Best, has recommended creation of a lower grades school by September, 1954, on a site owned by the school board.

The school authorized by Tuesday's referendum will house only sixth, seventh and eighth grade classes. It will have sixteen classrooms, including art and science rooms and a library. There will be a combination lunch and music room, facilities for manual training, home economics, health room, teachers' room, principal's office and a combination gymnasium-auditorium.

Only the lower grades will be housed in the James Caldwell school following completion of the new building. That will include kindergarten through fifth grade. Its completion also will end use of basement rooms as well as the Presbyterian and Methodist Sunday School rooms. Double sessions also will end.

Voters had rejected the first referendum, providing for a $650,000 project on May 21, 1950. A second school program which would have cost $305,000 was defeated on September 26 of last year. The first referendum lost by 307 votes and the second by 193.

Fred A. Elmsasser, Union school architect, will design the building and be in charge of its construction.

Fact that Regional High is located in Springfield and is considered to be one of the most beautiful structures of its type in the state is an asset to this community . . . but now that an addition is being planned there are rumblings of dissatisfaction among odd-house-numbered residents on Clinton avenue . . . plots along that street run about 200 feet in depth and Regional Board authorities are asking for 50 feet from the rear of each property in order to further expand program plans . . . the board has offered $5.00 per foot or a total of $250.00 for each lot, but had owners are sure . . . condemnation proceedings have been mentioned, attorneys are being summoned and residents are reported to be banding together to fight the proposed move . . . Mrs. Walter Albrecht of 41 Clinton avenue maintains that section of her land is worth $5,000 . . . we expect to see a nip and tuck battle before the matter is finally settled!

Had occasion to chat with a veteran member of the police department the other day and happily learned that morale at headquarters is at an all-time high . . . to quote him specifically, "We're all in fine spirits and we're working for a grand boss . . . no longer do we have to worry about anyone peering around the corner of a building or from a dark alley to see that we're on the job . . . Chief Thompson explains what is expected of us and we do our job and do it well . . . that's the way a department should be run."

Woman's Club Uses Cars, Baby Sitters, To Rally Votes For School Referendum

A stirring saga of a group of women aroused to action in an all-out battle to preserve for Springfield children the American tradition of a complete education, tells the story of approval of the $650,000 school referendum here Tuesday. Behind the hard-fought struggle were the 200 members of the Springfield Woman's Club, the largest social organization in the township.

Faced with a sentiment which on two previous occasions had resulted in rejection of proposals for a new school, members of the group, aided by other organizations, this time left nothing to chance.

Two weeks before the scheduled date of the referendum the club members registered 300 voters. During the progress of Tuesday's voting they had checkers at the polls to ascertain how many of the persons who had pledged to vote "yes" had appeared at the polls. At approximately 6:30 p. m. (the polls opened at 2 o'clock) sheets were checked.

Then the club members went into action. The names of all who had previously registered but had failed to vote were turned into the yardbus headquarters established for each of the voting districts. Where the voter was unable to get to the James Caldwell or the Raymond Chisholm School to vote, a car was sent for transportation. Where a parent had a child to keep, a baby-sitter was summarily dispatched to the home and remained there until the parent had voted and returned home.

Voters were called by telephone and in the few instances where there were no phones the club went made personal calls.

Care squads composed mostly of members of the Citizens' Advisory Committee for the Schools made a number of calls in an effort to get out the vote. The results of these endeavors apparently were borne out by the heavy voting from 7 p. m. until the polls closed at 9 o'clock.

Virtually all persons who had registered, voted. The turnout of more than 1,600 was considerably heavier than that recorded in the referendum of May 21, 1950 and on September 26 of the same year.

An assist also is due the Springfield Lions Club which conducted a poster contest among the school children.

Veterans Launch Poppy Sale Drive

Members of Continental Post 228, American Legion, Battle Hill Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and their auxiliaries today launched their traditional sale of poppies. The drive will continue to Memorial Day.

The sale was officially opened by the sale of the first poppy to Mayor Robert W. Marshall. The chief executive in purchasing the poppy proclaimed the next six days as Poppy Week. He cited the rehabilitation work of the veterans' posts and pointed out that the proceeds from the sale of the poppies is used to finance this program.

Poppies are made by inmates of the various veterans' hospitals and facilities. All township residents have been urged to contribute to the sale which is held but once a year, prior to Memorial Day.

Mayor Marshall tested the following proclamation:

"WHEREAS, men of Springfield gave their lives in defense of the United States of America in World War I, World War II and the Korean War; and

"WHEREAS, Memory of their service and sacrifice is a source of great inspiration to all citizens as our nation faces new difficulties and dangers; and

"WHEREAS, This memory is kept bright by the annual wearing of memorial poppies in their honor and in honor of all other Americans who died in war service for their country;

"NOW, THEREFORE, I, Robert Marshall, Mayor of the Township of Springfield, do hereby proclaim the week preceding Memorial Day to be Poppy Week in the township of Springfield; and urge that all citizens observe these days by wearing the memorial poppy of The American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary."

Local Police Head Warns Of Memorial Day Hazards

Memorial Day, traditional beginning of the summer vacation season, may also be the start of lists of killed and injured in traffic accidents unless motorists and pedestrians exercise more than usual care. This grim warning was issued today by Police Chief Thompson.

"Since the holiday falls on Wednesday, the peak of traffic will be on the return trip home that night. But the holiday trip need not be inevitable. If motorists and pedestrians decide now to include safety and courtesy in their holiday planning, accidents can be prevented," the chief declared.

The chief said the three main points of congestion are on routes leading to and from seashore points in parts of Middlesex and Monmouth counties, in the northern lake regions in the Singac and Ledgewood areas and in the Camden district on roads to and from southern New Jersey resorts. The peak travel hours to be avoided are: from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays to the resorts, 5 to 8 p. m. on Sundays and holidays and from 7 to 9 a. m. on Mondays returning from resort areas. Alternate routes to avoid congestion have been well marked.

"Motorists planning trips over week-ends or holidays are urged in particular not to make their driving an endurance contest. Too many miles and too much speed bring driver fatigue. That - run-down feeling may mean a collision with another vehicle or a run-down pedestrian," Thompson said. "Summer motoring can be pleasant and safe if every motorist will cooperate."

The umpire, Richard Worrlids, said that Eugene Haggerty was the best sport on the field. The scores were close and all the players played with a true spirit of a sport.

Salary increases for all grammar school teachers receiving less than $2,000 a year were approved by the Board of Education. In submitting its recommendations, the school government committee declared its policy favored $2,000 to be about the top salary the township could afford to pay its teachers. Fifteen teachers were granted raises ranging from $100 yearly to as low as $25.

folks appeared at the polling places it was a sure bet their votes were in the affirmative... considerable credit for the tremendous victory and the heavy vote is due previously to the combined efforts of the Parent-Teacher Association and the Springfield Woman's Club...

Mrs. Thomas Doherty and Mrs. Kenneth Baudomer put in one of the hardest working days of their careers... both are deserving of everyone's applause... others who helped put the new school across are too numerous to mention, but let it be known they have earned the heartfelt appreciation of all who have been so deeply concerned with this all-important subject.

Just in case our local newsstand dealers have failed to read the county paper lately, we'll remind them at this time that Prosecutor Coim has withdrawn his war-against indecent literature by banning additional girls magazines and bird-pokestake novels from newsstand racks... Cohen said he would also crack down on publications which carried suggestive advertisements as well as those who depended on obscene cartoons and indecent stories to make themselves marketable... the prosecutor wanted distributors and newsstand dealers of confessions unless they voluntarily cooperated with his anti-obscene literature drive.

A greater proof of the value of our democracy under the Constitution is the study of our legislative, executive and judicial departments. The Seventh Grade has learned about Congress and its powers, how a law is made, impeachment, the line of succession in the event of the President's removal, resignation or death, the electoral system, the duties and powers of the President, Bill of Rights, and the remaining amendments including the new Twenty-Second.

"The Best Things in Life Are Free" was not written just for a song title; in these days of soaring prices it behooves everyone to look about and prove it. The miracle of spring is on every side; friendship, music, books—all are free. Children accept these things as a matter of course and it is never necessary for them to lack these pleasures, no matter how inadequate the family income may seem. Their minds may have a surfeit of the richest fare, no matter how their bodies are clothed and fed. Your library contains as varied and delightful an assortment of children's literature as you will find in any library of comparative size and better than many.

This is not a hit-or-miss collection of juvenile books that has accumulated through the years, but a progressive, up-to-date list for different age levels, chosen after much thought and planning, and which constitutes the work of the best children's authors and artists.

Munro Lee, Dr. Seuss, Lois Lenski, and Elizabeth Coatsworth are just a few of the names to be found on the children's shelves, with which all educators are familiar. How young parents make the most of the opportunities to acquaint their children with both quality and quantity in reading material that no one family could afford. Their room is sunny and cheerful, and on afternoons and Saturdays, a busy one as well. The beautiful new books that have

Even on display for the Children's Spring Book Festival, are now being to find and are in demand. New books for adults include—"The Center of the World" by Richard L. MORE EDUCATION NEEDED

Some people feel that their education is finished when they graduate from the eighth-grade, high school, college or university while many others who have lacked a formal education have such a thirst for knowledge that they keep studying and learning during their whole lives.

New tools for education are now available such as the motion pictures, radio and television. Unfortunately these have been so largely misused by advertising a deleterious way of life which returns big profits, there is little time, incentive or money available for a constructive educational program.

One of the most important lessons that needs to be taught to boys and girls as well as to people of all ages is the benefits to be derived in overcoming and abstaining from the use of coffee, tea, tobacco, chocolate, colas and alcoholic drinks. Formerly people died at an early age from contagious diseases and unsanitary conditions before the harmful effects of habit forming drugs were apparent.

Those who are in the greatest need of education along this line are the 30's who are uneducated, as shown in the examination of draftees, those who are ill and those who are following a way of life that is destined to lead to a premature death.

General Graham, who is President Truman's physician, recently gave a talk on longevity to the Washington Author's Club in which he dramatically told that one of the patients in the Walter Reed Hospital was deliberately and daily taking a poison into the system which was causing him to lose one foot because of gangrene. As he paused in his remarks, one of the members in the audience burst out with the question "What poison is he taking, General Graham?" "Nicotine," was his reply.

Isn't it a sad commentary upon the physicians of this country to observe that so many of their smoke and use other additives and are therefore blind as to what these poisons are doing to themselves and others.

As soon as more and more of them practice preventive medicine and learn that it is much easier to prevent diseases than it is to cure them, then they will see to it that the Journals of the American Medical Association and the American Public Health Association stop advertising cigarettes as if they were valuable therapeutic agents.

If any medicine on the market was responsible for even a few deaths each year, the Federal Trade Commission would issue a "Stop and Desist Order" at once. Since it is well known that tobacco smoke causes Burger's disease resulting in gangrene and amputation of the foot and legs, also since 20,000 deaths per year are caused by lung cancer due to excessive cigarette smoking, isn't it reasonable that tobacco products should be classed as a drug and each package be required to carry the percentage content of nicotine, the Skull and Cross Bones and a caution that by inhaling air laden with tobacco smoke cancer may result?

More education is needed by the public on these points. You can and should do your part by being an advocate and demonstrator of a better way of life.

Hold 1st Lutheran Services In Town

The first Lutheran church services in Springfield were conducted in the Raymond Chisholm School last Sunday afternoon with forty-eight people in attendance. The school auditorium at Hampshire road and South Springfield avenue was the scene of the first service of the new Lutheran Church which will be established in Springfield. The congregation heard the sermon delivered by the Rev. Henry van Sprickelsen of Union. Miss Betty Haselmann of Springfield, played the piano for the service.

After the service the group was addressed by the Rev. John Weber of Newark, and also the Rev. Howard Schoenfeld of Livingston. The clergymen assured the audience that services will be held regularly every Sunday with every participant of conducting the services at a more acceptable morning hour in the near future.

Several Springfielders accepted temporary appointments as deacons for the new congregation. They are John Haselmann and Walter Gostalt. Victor Reichle is serving as treasurer and Mrs. John Haselmann as Sunday School superintendent.

Sunday School sessions will be conducted next Sunday at 2 p.m. in the school auditorium and church services will be conducted at 3 p.m. The Rev. Mr. Schoenfeld will be in charge of the worship. He announced his sermon topic to be "Gains a Host for Christ."

Elections Board Lists Night Hours

Commencing this evening the office of the Union County Board of Elections will be open each Tuesday until June 11. Members of the board recently adopted this as an experimental program.

The board plans to keep its office open until 7 p.m. It opens at 9 a.m. daily. However, there will be no extra costs involved because the office will be closed Saturdays during the four-week program.

Purpose of the night hours, board members said, is to determine whether the response will be sufficient to merit a regular night registration board in Elizabeth when no evening hours are kept by the city clerk.

Under present registration provisions special night hours for registration are made available only days before the election. Clerks of most of the county municipalities also keep weekly evening office hours.

Adlerbert Chosen Leader of Club

Other officers chosen were: Vice-president, William J. Rathfuss; Secretary, Francis; Treasurer, Robert J. Harley; Westfield and secretary, Milton Koestler, Elizabeth.

Ernest Whitworth, associate registrar of the university, described present day Cornell.

Board President Issues Statement

Howard S. Smith, president of the Board of Education, today expressed the board's appreciation for the efforts of a number of organizations which worked in behalf of the referendum. Following favorable acceptance of the project by a margin of better than two to one, the board president issued the following statement:

"In view of the favorable and momentous decision rendered here today by the voters of Springfield, it is with great pride that we accept that decision as an endorsement not only of the findings of the Board of Education, but also of the outside organizations and individuals who have given of their time and effort so unselfishly in this great need.

"May I, therefore, as President of the Board of Education take this opportunity to thank the voters of Springfield, the Parent-Teacher Association, the Woman's Club, the Springfield Sun and particularly the Citizens Advisory Group who have all been instrumental in making this decision possible.

"Truly, Springfield has this day taken a step forward in providing decent school facilities for our children, who after all are the most important people not only today, but tomorrow."

COUNTY TO OPEN PARK POOLS MAY 30

Swimming pools at Rahway River Park, Rahway and John Russell Wheeler Park, Linden, will begin their 1951 season on Memorial Day.

Both pools will open from 2 to 10 p.m. on weekdays, and 12 to 10 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays until June 30 at which time a summer schedule will go into effect.

Learn to swim campaigns, Junior and Senior life saving classes and competitive swimming events will be held during the course of the swimming season this year.

SPRINGFIELD NAVY VETERAN RETURNS

Charles W. Mink, machinery repairman, first class USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mink of 65 Elmwood avenue Union, and husband of Mrs. Elmer Mink of 67 Bryant avenue Springfield, returned to the United States after more than six months' duty in the Far East.

His ship, the destroyer tender USS Hannu, recently arrived in San Diego, Calif. from Korea, where she equipped and repaired destroyers in the area.

On her way to the Far East last year, the Hannu provided communication service for the conference between General of the Army Douglas MacArthur and President Truman at Wake Island.

Summer Round-up Sessions Set

Another reminder was heard yesterday by school authorities that dates have been set for the Annual Kindergarten Round-up. James Caldwell kindergarten will be registered on Tuesday, May 29, from 1 to 3 p.m. Raymond Chisholm kindergartners will be registered on Friday, June 1, from 1 to 3 p.m.

Parents of kindergartners who were in Springfield at the time of the PTA pre-school census last November will be invited to call through the mail as to the exact time they should report with their children. All others are to come at their convenience.

All registrations will be conducted at the Presbyterian Church School rooms. These are the rooms where the kindergarten classes are conducted.

Woman

Woman's Club also arranged for a group of juvenile delinquents—students at the Springfield schools—who were signs urging voters to vote in favor of the new school and cutting the congested conditions of the Caldwell and Chisholm buildings.

Some persons expressed belief that the children should not have been used in this manner. However, a member of the Woman's Club defended the group's action.

"After all we did it for the children. We felt that any measure we could take to awake the residents of the township to a sense of responsibility in making possible needed school facilities was justified," she declared.

The club, together with members of the Parent-Teacher Association, distributed brochures which described the new school and the pressing need for it. They were delivered to homes in every voting district.

An additional factor in the success of the club, together with members of the Parent-Teacher Association, distributed brochures which described the new school and the pressing need for it. They were delivered to homes in every voting district.

Mrs. Henry Vance, chairman of the merchandise booth, would like all the mothers who are making articles for the festival to give them to the troop leaders as soon as possible.

The Great Problem of Assessments

While people have complained for years about inequities resulting from inadequate assessment procedures, it now begins to appear that something is going to be done about it in New Jersey... Complaints have been widespread...

People close to the problem—necessitating tax and finance officers at the various levels of government, as well as alert taxpayers—say that before there can be any real improvement, the basic procedures must be corrected... The aroused interest in improved assessment administration is indicated by the large demand for copies of the handbook...

Recommending improvements at the bottom of New Jersey's tax structure, the guide advocates better working tools for assessors... The answer to New Jersey's assessment problems, points out the study, lies in broader and deeper understanding of the overall problem by citizens and public officials alike.

Hillside Shades Regional Nine With Three Big Runs In the Seventh Frame, 6-5

By DONALD ROSSELET
Hillside's baseball team avenged a defeat which Regional handed Phil Amato last season, with a 6-5 triumph at the Metal Avenue diamond Tuesday. The County behind Tony Scudiero's three-hit effort, virtually eliminated Regional from both the County Conference and the Group III sectional titles. Hillside capitalized on two Bulldog miscues to score three in the third frame, and a like number in the seventh. Regional reached Don Brogan for three runs in its half of the first on three singles, two bases on balls, and a Hillside error. Hank Pasquale started things going with a single. Art Larson sent Pasquale to third on a single and Brogan passed Richie Tomasetti to load the sacks. Charley Schaffernoth drew a walk to, force in a tally and Frank Festa singled to score two.

at the County field last Friday. Bob Thwaites pitched a one-hitter and limited the Arts team to one run. Schaffernoth also collected a single, a triple, and four RBIs. Regional's Tom Wysocki scored eight runs in the first inning, in scoring his ninth win in 11 outings.

Rahway Tumbles Regional-Track Team By 72-45

By DONALD ROSSELET
Another chapter in the Regional-Rahway athletic feud came to an end Tuesday at Riverside Park. Rahway when the Scarlet posted a 72-45 win over the local track team. Regional battled Rahway six times in five different sports and has but one win, a tie, and four losses to show for its efforts. The win was by the wrestling team in a match which ended up in a 1-1 tie between Al McElroy of the local squad and Al Smith. The tie was in the Thanksgiving Day football game. The score in the grid battle was 7-7. In a home and home basketball series the Scarlet ended a long Bulldog win streak with a 53-48 triumph. The Scarlet repeated in its own court with a 66-65 win in one of the best games at Rahway in a long time. Bob Thwaites and Bill Peterson collaborated to hand Rahway six straight walks and a 3-1 win. The track battle saw the Scarlet overwhelm the Bulldog with seven firsts, eight seconds (plus two ties), and 11 thirds. Lou Dauber and Judd Herman accounted for 21 of Regional's points. Lenny Robinson led the winners with 13 markers. In the county meet held at Plainfield last Friday, Regional tied for wealth spot with six points. Wayne Tennessee finished second in the 440-yard run to account for four and Herman was in a three-way tie for third in the high jump for two more markers.
