GIRL SCOUT CORNER

Dear Folks:

This is the "Birthday Week" of Girl Scouts in America. For their 40th anniversary, the slogan—"A Growing Force for Freedom" has been chosen. What could be more appropriate; as Bernard M. Baruch recently said in his congratulatory message "A Growing Force for Freedom"—"The Girl Scout movement is more than that. From it will sprout not alone the desire for freedom but the desire to 'do unto others' as you would have them do unto you." The Scout Movement will grow into the sturdiness of trees whose shade will protect the weak and whose fruit will strengthen many a deprived one. We know that not one of you will deny that Scouting—Boy Scouting and Girl Scouting—is a vital force today. You can see it gives practical application to those indispensable lessons of democracy, peace, freedom and understanding among people. Scouting makes better citizens—of the nation and of the world. Doesn't it make you feel good too, that you are a part of this youth movement here in Springfield? You may be an active worker or giving your moral and financial support but we are all working together.

This week, too, is that week for which the girls have long been waiting. Already they have had a dress rehearsal for this Friday night's program. The girls have had a lot of fun, for the leaders have done the worrying. Our leaders are a "grand bunch." Do come out Friday night—James Caldwell Gym at 8 p.m.—and we'll let them know how sincerely we appreciate what they do. The Scouts and Brownies want you to see this special program of theirs. So, please try and make it.

Several of Springfield's women have helped with the song rehearsals during the past month. Maybe one is your neighbor? They have done a splendid job and we are indeed grateful. Troop 1 had Mrs. George Staub; Troops 2 and 18, Mrs. Raymond Pierson; Troop 3, Mrs. Wm. H. Laffer; Troop 13, Mrs. Werner Doering and Mrs. E. W. Fuhrer; and Troop 17, Mrs. Junnie Mason.

You will be hearing "Strawberry Festival" during the coming days; for the committee already has plans underway. Mrs. Richard Thompson will handle the special publicity on it. June 14 is the Day. Make it another Scout date. Your In Scouting, The Council Reporter.

Set Women's Club District Meeting

The New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs' Seventh District Spring Conference will be held on Wednesday, March 19, at the Women's Club of Orange, 369 Park avenue, Orange. Mrs. Archie H. Dean, Seventh District Vice-President, will preside at the morning session which opens at 10:15 a.m.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. and the afternoon session will start at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. E. L. Spain, president, will address the meeting. Her talk will be followed by the presentation of two plays by the Drama Department of the Orange Club.

COMPLETES TRAINING
Pvt. Allan J. Zeller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Zeller, of South Springfield avenue, recently completed basic training at the Artillery Center, Fort Sill, Okla.

Women's Club Will Sponsor Seniors

The Springfield Girl Scout Council is very proud to acknowledge the sponsorship that the Springfield Women's Club has offered for the local Senior Scout program. The Scout Council, in extending its program to cover girls of 14 years of age and over, is particularly glad to have the help and support of the Women's Club which has as one of its goals, service to youth.

For some time, it has been an objective of the Girl Scout Council to expand its program so that the girls finishing eighth grade could continue in scouting. These girls, known as Senior Scouts then, go on to new experiences in the 11 intermediate fields of interest, and most important in the Senior program, they learn to give needed service to others and to share their skills and fun. At various times, the older Scouts have organized as Seniors but at no time has continuity been achieved in this particular program field.

A sponsorship in Girl Scouting means the cooperation of another organization whose ideals and objectives are in accord with Girl Scout National policies. Definite responsibilities are assumed by the sponsor and in accepting these, our local Women's Club will do much to help extend and enrich the Senior program for all girls who want it and to put it on a permanent basis. Some of the most important responsibilities are:

Censorship of any kind has always been a controversial subject and it remains one of the dangers for which we must be always on the alert. We must be determined that American literature shall never be subjected to the restrictions under which the literature of many other countries is now stifled. American writers are free to describe whatever they see or feel or think, and the price we pay for this freedom, as we pay for all freedom, too frequently adds up to books that shock the finer sensibilities. We can only hope that, as time goes on, the writers may see more clearly or perhaps with less jaundiced eyes, and so depict both the contemporary scene and the historical one in a more pleasing light or at least in more pleasing language.

Regardless of what we are offered, what to read or not to read remains for the individual to decide. There is always a wide selection in both fiction and non-fiction so if a library book proves objectionable to a reader, he can return it unread; always remembering that the book chairman aims to please hundreds of readers and therefore cannot satisfy each individual with every book.

Among the recent books are—"Son of a Tinker" by Maurice W. Walsh—"The Dowry Secret" by Arthur Mayace—"Bird of Paradise" by Ada Levenon—"The Daughter of Time" by Josephine Tey—"Men of West Point" by Col. R. Ernest Dupuy—"Jane Hadden" by Rosmond Marshall and "Send the Wind" by Kate B. Montague.

LETTERS from Our Readers

HALEY WITHDRAWS Editor, Sun: "After considerable reflection, I have decided to withdraw my candidacy for the office of Freeholder, in order to give my full effort and support to the candidacy of Mr. Ernest S. Hickok, of Summit, and Mr. Sherwood C. Valentine, of Rahway. Both of these men have had a well rounded experience in municipal affairs and both are exceptionally well qualified to perform the functions of the office they seek.

"It is my sincere hope that my friends and supporters will join me in this endeavor to remove from office those who seek to be self perpetuating, and to return the office to the voters and their representatives. Success in this venture will be clear-cut signal that the people do not approve of high-handed, secret appointments to the Board of Freeholders. It is still a public office. "By inference, an obvious attempt to deceive the Republican voter by the present incumbents as shown in their recent letter of March 6, sent to Republicans throughout the county, wherein it is stated, 'We three incumbents are seeking nomination to the Board of Chosen Freeholders in the Republican primary election, April 15th, standing on the 29-year records of the board.' "Only one of the incumbents has been on the board for that period of time, whereas another has been serving for less than four months, since appointment, as has been described by the county's newspapers, as by their own private letter attempted to convey the impression that the three incumbents are members of the Union County Republican Committee. That is contrary to the fact. Not one is a member of that important committee, which important committee they have completely ignored in the past. "By supporting Mr. Hickok and Mr. Valentine, the 'closed corporation' in county government can be opened up and become the business of the people of Union County." FRED E. HALEY, March 11th, 1952

WINTER SPORTS CLOSE AT RHS

Bright Future Seen for Mat, Cage Squads

By DONALD ROSSELET

One of the worst winter sports seasons since the early forties has been completed by the Regional High basketball and wrestling teams, but the crystal ball forecasts a bright future for each.

Combining the records of the two sports, Regional winter teams won only six contests, losing seventeen and gaining two deadlocks.

Lou DeRosa's cage team, with a 5-12 (won-lost) slate, will lose six regulars—Bob Cole, Joe Cannon—Lou DeRosa—110, Bob Francis, Dick Schaffner, and Frank Collins—from the varsity via graduation. Another six, Jim Gantway, will be ineligible. However, there still remains an experienced skeleton. DeRosa has Judd Herman, 6-4 center, who will be playing his third year of varsity ball; John Kelly, who came into his own towards the end of the campaign; and George MacKenzie, who will be only a junior next season. Also returning will be second-stringers, Scott, Donington, Guy Selander, John Kraus, and Dick Applebaugh plus a handful of good junior varsity players led by freshman (this year), Joe Schaffner and Ray Ruff.

Of paramount importance, of course, for DeRosa will be the departure of his sharpshooting guard, Bob Cole. A good defensive performer, Cole finished second to Herman in scoring and might be very hard to replace.

The grappling team, coached by Dave Pavlin, the third inventor in as many years for the sport, finished its season with one win, five losses, and two ties. Out of the eighteen wrestlers who participated in at least one match during the season, only three are scheduled for graduation—Norm Soucek, Bill Cowperthwaite, and Dave Compton.

Al Hector, unbeaten 103-pounder, should come up with another unbeaten season, while two fresh stars, Dick Scorsone and Wray Bailey are expected to improve on their records of 0-5-1 and 3-4-1, respectively.

Iron Scorsone, who won three out of six, will be a senior and could go undefeated next year. Al McElroy is another who might enjoy a spotless slate.

The main trouble with the mat and cage crews that year was a lack of experience, but that should be remedied by next year. Until then, however, two Bulldog coaches will not have a problem to worry about.

Applications for Park Fields Open

Managers of all Union County baseball and softball teams have until April 1 to file applications for the use of fields in the Union County Park System, Superintendent of Recreation F. S. Mathewson has announced.

League teams will again receive first consideration, according to Mr. Mathewson, who states that this policy enables his department to serve the greatest number of players. Following league assignments, independent teams will be dealt with on an equal basis, and field assignments made as soon as possible after the April 1 closing date.

Our All-Star Team

Excepting the State Basketball Tournament entries, Union County's high school cage delegations have dropped the curtain on the 1951-52 season. So, once again, it is time to look back at the individual stars as we choose our 1952 Union County scholastic All-Star five. The SUN's All-Star outfit is well-stocked with scorers. In guard Vernacious "Vee" Grisby and forward Dick Groeneveld, the team includes the county's two highest point-makers. Grisby is from Summit and Groeneveld hails from Scotch Plains. Bob Murawski, Jefferson's big center, has taken the nod as our pivotman. Rounding out the All-Star quintet are St. Mary's high-scoring "Ernie" Rokose and Plainfield's ace floorman, Rico Parenti.

The second team would provide plenty of opposition for our "cream-of-the-crop" squad. Paul Witting, Union's top scoring threat, took the center post. Don Brogan of Hillside and Linden's classy Al Klett are the forwards on the second team. The guards are Jack McDonough of Plainfield and Gerry Goicilla of Sacred Heart.

Our third team also has a formidable lineup. St. Mary's Johnny McNamara and Rahway's George Lewis are the forwards. Judd Herman, Regional's big scorer, took the center spot, while Tom Regan of Plainfield and Justin Lukosius of Edison are the guards.

Represented on our three teams are an even dozen schools. Plainfield leads with three men, with St. Mary's second with two. The other ten teams each placed one performer.

Choosing an All-Star array in a county where twenty high, prep, and parochial schools operate is not an easy task. In fact, it means choosing about thirty of the best in the county and then cutting that number in half. Still more figuring is involved in placing the players into teams.

During this placement, many stars have to be overlooked. This is where the arguments start. One fellow likes this boy and the other guy likes another. And you failed to pick either for the All-Star team. Then they write and tell you about the honors, so what's the use of choosing a team in the first place. Well, it has been a custom for quite a few years, and why not keep with the crowd.

Our selections:

Journal-Chevrolet Derby Registration Opens Today

Registration began today throughout Union County for the seventh annual, Elizabeth Daily Journal-Chevrolet Soap Box Derby scheduled June 21. Race officials said that the contest site will be announced at a later date.

Boys who plan to be contestants are urged to register early and begin preparations for the construction of their racers. Seventy-eight youngsters vied in last year's derby held in Galloway Hill road, Westfield.

The derby is open to boys, 11 to 15 years of age, residing in Union County or within the franchise area of county Chevrolet dealers. Handsome awards will go to each contestant, best winners and finalists. The Union County champion will receive an all expense paid trip to Akron, Ohio, where he will represent the county in the All-American Soap Box Derby. The national winner will be awarded a four-year, $5,000 college scholarship.

Registration blanks are available at any county Chevrolet dealer's showroom. Race rules require an aspirant be accompanied by a parent or guardian; after filling out the application blank the contestant will receive a driver's license and the 1952 official rule book.

Mormon Church Purchases Tract In Short Hills

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (so-called "Mormon") because of its belief in the Book of Mormon as scripture supplementary to the Bible has purchased a seven acre tract of land on White Oak Ridge road, Short Hills, for erecting a church building. The property adjoins the Board of Education tract near Addison drive. It is planned to erect a modern structure with full facilities for worship and recreational activities, as soon as funds can be raised. The area is zoned "Residential A," which permits erection of churches and public schools in addition to single family residences.

Bishop A. James Martin of 80 Great Oak drive, Short Hills, is presiding officer of the ward (congregation). His counselors (assistants) are Loran E. Skousen of Springfield and E. M. Thomas of Short Hills. The ward now has about 450 members and is growing quite rapidly and has largely outgrown its present chapel in East Orange. Local adherents include residents of Summit, Short Hills, Chatham, Livingston, Springfield, Maplewood, Union, and the Oranges. The church has its general headquarters in Salt Lake City, Utah.

The Mormon church has no special pastors or ministers in the ordinary sense. Most of its adult male members hold the priesthood and have some definite responsibility in the church. The women have an efficient and capable Relief Society organization which does much to help all members in times of distress, illness or death. The young people have a mutual improvement association which includes Boy Scouts and Explorers. The Mormon church is reported to have a far higher percentage of active Boy Scouts than any other church and an even higher percentage of Eagle Scouts. Three out of eight new Eagles at the recent Orange Mountain Council Court of Honor were Mormon boys. The church has a comprehensive Welfare Plan which aims at keeping all its members off government relief. It conducts a strong campaign to teach its members to avoid use of tobacco, liquor, tea and coffee. It has an active and far-flung missionary system and is growing rapidly all over the non-communist part of the civilized world.

Detailed building plans are not yet available but the building probably will be brick construction. It will include a chapel, a recreation hall (the church sponsors dancing, drama, etc. in a wholesome atmosphere), Relief Society club room, Boy Scout room, baptistry, and an efficient kitchen, plus class rooms, etc. Parking space will be included on the grounds. Cost probably will be in the neighborhood of $150,000. No Mormon church building is ever dedicated until paid for in full. None of its over 2,000 chapels has ever been mortgaged.

UCC Holds First Pin Tourney

Eighteen teams representing nine high schools participated in the inauguration of the Union County Conference's bowling tournament, conducted by Regional athletic director, Bill Brown last Thursday at Echo Lanes, Mountaineer. Although Jefferson of Elizabeth, which runs an interscholastic bowling schedule, ran away with the awards, the affair was a huge success. Brown has hopes of setting up a county kegling league next year.

Jim Testa was top man for one of the five Regional teams entered, rolling a 540 set including a 214.

Russ Mallett of Jeff bowled the highest game, a 259. He also took top individual honors with a 600 series.
