LISTEN

Opening gun of the Eisenhower primary campaign in New Jersey will be fired here in Springfield tomorrow (Friday) night when U. S. Senator Leverett Saltonstall will address hundreds of Republicans from this area who are expected to jam Regional High School auditorium. . . . The event, a credit to Springfield for a change, is sponsored by the Township Republican Club together with the "1952 Associated Suburban Republican Clubs" . . . both Charles Runcie and Charles Boardley have worked long and hard to make the local affair a success . . . voters from Maplewood, Short Hills, South Orange, Summit, Millburn and other nearby communities, as well as those from Springfield, have been invited to attend. . . . admission will be free.

Once again an appeal has come from the First Aid Squad for volunteers. . . . several vacancies exist on the squad and the line of present members is being taxed to capacity in order to fill in the gaps. . . . efforts for help come all hours of the day and night and the squad to this point has done a remarkable job, but unless more members are added, its efficiency may be impaired. . . . anyone interested should contact Mrs. Bruce Linck at Millburn 6-1272-J.

Last week it was an important special delivery and this week just a couple of ordinary letters which ended up a long way from their destination. . . . in order to stop continuance of this apparent infidelity, we're contemplating sending via registered mail a message to the editor postmaster calling attention to the fact that The Springfield Sun is located in the same building as the postoffice. . . . mailmen here for nearly a year. . . . meanwhile investigation on "THE OTHER MATTER" continues!

Hints off to local officials for following through on the traffic signal light at Morris Avenue and Satter Street. . . . it took a long time to move state authorities into action on the matter but the situation is cleared up and the light appears to be working to everyone's satisfaction now.

Just another half-dozen or so store closings and we'll no longer have to use the expression "Morris Avenue business district."

Regional Board of Education this week is fishing back at Mayor Eister of Kenilworth and the Borough Council there because of the attack on the board's move to gain approval of purchase of a 150-acre tract in the Mt. Airy area. . . . the board has plenty of fault to find with the site proposed by Kenilworth because of the legal complications involved in obtaining a portion of it.

This time last year Springfield was involved in a hot and heavy freeholder primary campaign. . . . it all ended when Lee S. Rigby went down to defeat. . . . the 1952 primary isn't nearly as interesting from a local standpoint as Springfield will get solidly behind the candidates being backed by Al Bonninger of neighboring Mountaintop. . . . they are Ernest Hickok of Summit, and Sherwood Valentine of Rahway. . . . incumbents, Harry E. King of Union, and Mrs. Helen Glasser of Clark Township, are the Bonninger targets.

Attendees at Overlook Hospital at press time today said the two-pound, 15-inch girl born to Mr. and Mrs. John Holt, of 22 Alvin Terrace, Springfield, last week was doing "very well" and that her condition was "good."

We must have strong and willing Republicans in every possible position." . . . "It is widely known that the old-line Freeholders, who have again spurned the rank and file of the party by offering their own handpicked candidates, possess the unenviable reputation of never having helped any other Republican win public office," Benninger stated. . . . You Can Save a Life

In 1951 throughout the United States, ninety-three thousand people were killed and nine million, one hundred thousand others were injured in all types of accidents...

Automobiles were the instruments of death for thirty-seven thousand, five hundred of the victims of fatal accidents; they were responsible for the injuries suffered by one million, three hundred thousand more.

Home accidents killed approximately twenty-seven thousand people in 1951 and disabled some four million more. Industrial accidents were only a little more than half as heavy in their toll than home accidents...

In a list that embraces all types of accidents productive of death and injury, from firearms to natural catastrophes, it is noteworthy that in the commonplace family sphere of the home and the automobile the greatest terror and tragedy lurk. For each of us there are in these statistics both a warning and a challenge.

Man possesses the gift of intelligence, let us each determine to use it. Before we act, let's try to estimate the physical danger involved for ourselves and other people. In the matter of wanting-what-we-want-when-we-want-it, let's grow up and exercise some intelligent self-discipline.

SHUNPIKE SOCIAL. The Shunpike Association will hold its annual Winter Social, Saturday night at the Plazhyn, Route 29, Union. The affair will begin at 8 p.m. Dinner reservations may be made with Frank Wehrle, chairman.

Thank you, Chief Pinkava and members of the Springfield Volunteer Fire Department.

REGIONAL ANNOUNCES SPRING SCHEDULES

Sports In The Sun

Major League Forecasts

While they are changing scenes on the Regional sports stage, this writer would like to present his ideas concerning the coming major league-baseball races.

In the American League, the Yankees will miss the services of Joe DiMaggio, Bobby Brown, and Gerry Coleman; and the Bomber veterans are getting along in years; but a fine rookie crop topped by Andy Carey, Bob Cerv, Jim Bridewiser, and Kal Segrist should take up the slack. The Yanks also have a reputable sophomore group including Mickey Mantle, Gil McDougald, and Tom Morgan. The Bombers have the Most Valuable Player in the AL (Yogi Berra), a fine shortstop in Phil Rizzuto, a standout hurling corps in Vic Rashi, Allie Reynolds, and Ed Lopat. Despite a probable sincere effort by the Cleveland Indians, we will string along with the World Champions.

Cleveland needs another great year—from Bobby Feller, and at his age, we cannot see another 20-game winner in Mr. Feller. However, the Tribe still has a top-flight pitching staff in Bob Lemon, Mike Garcia, and Early Wynn. Luke Easter and Larry Doby need a big improvement on their 1951 play for the Indians to get pennant consideration.

Red Rolfe's Detroit Tigers will be a contender if Art Houtteman can regain the form he showed before an Army stint. Vic Wertz and George Kell are two bright lights in the Bengal array, but catching and pitching are weak spots. Boston's Red Sox could not win with Ted Williams, and it's doubtful if they can without him. The Fenway Park nine, with good pitching from Mel Parnell, Bill Wright, Walt Masterson, and Ray Scarborough could cause serious trouble, but we cannot see them as winners. The Sox plugged up a receiving weakness with the addition of Gus Niarhos.

The White Sox from Chicago possibly were hurt by winter trades, but Jim Busby, Orestes Minoza, Ed Robinson, Nelson Fox, and Chico Carrasquel might go all the way.

An article in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch a few days ago amused us. It read, "Bill Corum, Picking Browns to win American League Pennant, Says That He's of Sound Mind." In due respect for a great front-office man, Bill Vecek, we figure the Browns to improve a good deal over last year's "midget" season, but first place is inconceivable. Vecek and Rogers Hornsby are building and might do it in a few years. The Philadelphia Athletics, we feel, are due for the cellar.

In the National League, the pick from this desk is the New York Giants. The Dodgers will miss Don Newcombe and Preacher Roe cannot be counted on to carry the whole burden. But, still the Brooks cannot be counted out altogether for Roy Campanella, Andy Pafko, Jackie Robinson, Gil Hodges, Carl Furillo, and company can hit with the best of them.

The Giants, defending NL champs, remain the same, despite the loss of Willie Mays, Chuck Diering should be an able replacement, especially in the field.

The Polo Grounders astounded the baseball world last season with a last-moment rush for a regular season tie. The Dodgers and the Giants engaged in the National League's second playoff in recent years, a do-or-die affair. The Giants did it!

Eddy Stanky, rookie manager should pop-up the St. Louis Cardinals. Rookie Elmer Mizzel should bolster the hurling corps and the Cards should finish second.

The Boston Braves, always with a good, if not great, team will come close, but we do not figure they will be at the top.

The Philadelphia Phillies, the Cincinnati Reds, the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Chicago Cubs, in our book, are destined for second division berths.
