FRIENDS!!

A representative of the Civil Service Commission made the rounds of Springfield this week checking on the capabilities of the four candidates for the permanent local postmaster appointment. . . in alphabetical order they are Benjamin Denman, present carrier; H. Stanley Glenn, erstwhile Democratic candidate for everything; Timothy Sheehan and George M. Turk, now acting postmaster. . . our conversation with the Civil Service investigator prompted us to believe he had spoken to at least a half-dozen "individuals" throughout town on the "popularity, ability, honesty and general backgrounds of all the candidates. . . he said it was routine procedure before publication of the eligible list of appointees. . . he would admit nothing, but we ventured a wager that Sheehan and Denman far "outshone the others, from the popularity standpoint!"

There will be a few lone boys down in the Juvenile Delinquency court in the next week or so unless their parents take the upper hand immediately and put a stop to the outrageous destruction of township street lights. . . a survey by Jersey Central Power & Light Company reveals that 40 lights were smashed here in the past 48 days. . . it's the worst record in the northern division and Chief of Police Thompson vows to put a stop to the vandalism now.

Congratulations to the Springfield Lions Club for naming the First Aid Squad for its Citizens Award of the year. . . it was felt that no one member of the squad could be singled out for individual achievement and that the entire squad as a unit was worthy of the award for its unselfish efforts toward relieving suffering and speeding medical care to those who are injured or in serious condition.

Mention of A. B. Anderson, president of the Library Board, that there are a number of items of historical importance makes us wonder if some day Springfield might not erect a small building as a museum. . . we could think of a lot of items which could be stored there. . . Particularly memorable of battles. . . Some people believe the Battle of Springfield is the only engagement ever fought here. . . That's what they think. . . We had in mind the Battle of the Pie Vole. . . There's a number of souvenirs of that fight. . . In fact the only relics not available are the chocolate bars the reporters ate.

There are several manifestations of yesterday which no longer are seen in Springfield, or in any other community so far as we can learn. . . one is the hardy gurdy, or street piano. . . No longer are its familiar staccato renditions heard in this town. . . Apparently all the hardy gurdy men have passed into another land. . . And along with them presumably departed their monkeys which used to collect coins in their little cups and their parrots which kept little cards on which people's fortunes were printed. . . Another symbol which has passed on is the tramp. . . In the old days there generally was someone passing through in search of a handout. . . Sometimes they worked for it but generally they preferred not to work. . . But all the tramps either have died, gone to work or retired on their social security.

Another phase of a passed era is the gypsy. . . There haven't been any gypsies in Springfield, we have been told, in several years. . . These days they travel in cars and seem to do less parking in municipal limits. . . Also there are fewer horses to attract them.

Pinkava Renamed PBA President

Vincent A. Pinkava was re-elected president of the Springfield Ladies' Benevolent Association yesterday at a meeting in police headquarters. . . Other officers nominated are: George Joyner, vice-president; George Pursell, secretary; Del Tompkins, treasurer; and Otto Sturm, state delegate. Trustees are Joyner, Louis Quinton and Ivy Haebler. Plans were launched for the annual PBA dance to be held October 17 at Old Evergreen Lodge.

Democrats Rush Appointment Of Town Postmaster

Civil Service Man Conducts Interviews Here

Indications today that appointment of a permanent postmaster will be made by President Truman before the end of the summer. Gathering of information on the four candidates for the post is being completed this week by a Civil Service representative. The facts will be sent to Washington for analysis and ultimate compilation of the Civil Service list.

It was learned that to receive consideration for the appointment a man must finish among the first three in the ratings. The applicants are Acting Postmaster George M. Turk, Benjamin Denman, Timothy J. Sheehan and H. Stanley Glenn.

Turk, Sheehan and Glenn have been active politically in the township. Denman, who is a carrier in the local Postoffice, has been a postal employee for fifteen years. Assistant Postmaster William Corby did not file an application.

The items on which the Civil Service Commission considers in grading the applicants are: Type, extent and success of experience; extent of public contacts and success in meeting and dealing with the public; industry; resourcefulness and initiative; personal attributes and the absence of disqualifying defects in character and physical condition.

The commission is reported to give careful and impartial consideration to all applicants. Fundamentally, the important consideration is to be ranked among the first three. Next to that in importance probably is the recommendation of County Democratic Chairman Edward L. Whelan. He recommended Turk for the temporary appointment, if he has not changed his mind, it appears to be a pretty good guess that Turk is in. If he has, there undoubtedly will be a change in the postmaster.

Town Takes Part In Hospital Program

Richard Martinko, a student at the Raymond Chisholm School, and James Binder, a pupil at the James Caldwell School, represented the township Saturday at the ceremony preceding the laying of the cornerstone of the addition to Overlook Hospital, Summit.

The six-story, $2,000,000 wing is one-third completed. The addition will increase the 47-year-old institution's bed capacity to 296 on its completion next April.

The school children from Springfield and ten other municipalities presented books as "portraits" of their municipalities as they are today-to-deposit in a time capsule behind the cornerstone.

The brightly decorated books contained essays, drawings, photographs, descriptions of school life and classes, pictures of public buildings and data on recreation, libraries, shopping facilities and customs.

Following the ceremony the Summit high school band led a parade from the school auditorium to the new building several blocks away, where the cornerstone ceremonies followed.

The guest speaker was Dr. Mason W. Gross, provost of Rutgers University and head of the State Mediation Board. He urged an increased number of girls to train as nurses.

PTA Lists Speech On Mental Health

Benjamin H. Haddock will introduce the Union County Society for Mental Hygiene's film "Profession to a Life" at a meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association Monday evening at the James Caldwell School. Haddock, who is associated with the Union County Mental Hygiene Clinic, will lead the discussion which will follow the film.

The film shows the effect which the ambitions and desires of parents for their children, have on these children from birth. It explains that parents of happy well-adjusted children, consider their children's capabilities as well as their own ambitions. Haddock, who received his A.B. from the University of Redlands and his M.S. from Columbia University's School of Social Work, has had considerable experience working with both children and adults at the clinic, in the field of education, and in community activities. He taught in the elementary grades of the San Diego, Cal. school system and has had leadership responsibilities in both day and mountain camping. Mr. Haddock has participated in planning community health and recreation facilities.

Otto T. Mueck Services Held

Funeral services for Otto F. Mueck, 63 years old, of 39 Warner avenue, who died Monday at his home after a long illness were held yesterday from the Smith and Smith Suburban Funeral Home. A high requiem mass was offered at 9:30 a.m. at St. James Church, of which he was a communicant.

Mr. Mueck was a native of Brooklyn. He had been a resident of Springfield two and a half years. He formerly lived in Union for twenty-five years. He was a retired statistician for the Fisher-Caldwell Corporation, Newark.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Irene Costello Mueck; two sons, Robert L. of Elizabeth and Raymond F. of Springfield; and a daughter, Miss Irene Mueck of this municipality.

SEALING IT UP—Theodore S. Kenyon, president of the Overlook Hospital board of trustees, and Arthur W. Smith, director, seal the metal "time capsule" containing community portraits of the towns served by the hospital which were compiled by school students for the cornerstone laying ceremony held last Saturday morning. The capsule will be opened in 25 years from now. The placing of the stone climaxed the program which began at the High School auditorium where Dr. Mason W. Gross, provost of Rutgers University, was the principal speaker. (Chell Frantzen).

School Board Prepares for Expansion

Hires Teachers, Janitor, Nurse & Psychologist

The Board of Education at its monthly meeting last night made preparations for an expanded school system which will be marked next fall by opening of the new Florence M. Gaudinier School. The program as developed last night featured the hiring of an additional school psychologist on a two-day a week basis; three new teachers; an assistant to the school nurse and a new janitor.

The psychologist is Miss Alma Levinson. She will be paid $20 a day. New teachers and their yearly salaries are: Miss Ann Rensor, $3,600; Miss Esther L. LePore, $3,000 and Miss Eddythe Rocca, $2,800—Miss Allen—Ann Hart, of Springfield, was engaged as an assistant to the school nurse, Miss Gaudinier, at $2,800. The new janitor is G. Williston French who will receive $3,200. His appointment is effective June 1.

Tax Collector Charles H. Huff was reappointed funds custodian at $400. Magistrate Henry C. McMullen was retained as board attorney at $400 a year retainer. Fred J. Stefany was reappointed auditor at $600.

Bids were submitted for gymnasium equipment. The high bid was $6,500. Most bids were incomplete. A mimeograph machine was purchased for $629. An electric typewriter was purchased for $373. Two teachers of the staff were engaged for summer school.

William Wagner was authorized to attend a building supervisors' course at Columbia University. Sealed bids for equipment for the new school were ordered advertised for submission on Thursday, June 5.

Mobile Blood Bank Visit Set July 1

The Mobile Blood Bank will again visit Springfield on Tuesday, July 1. The Mobile Unit, operating from Plainfield headquarters came to Springfield last December.

Mrs. H. Schoch will be general chairman of arrangements. Dr. Henry P. Deniger will head the group of local doctors; Mrs. Leslie Joy will again be in charge of nurses; Mrs. Charles Phillips, Jr. will direct the recruitment program, and Mrs. A. H. Richards will direct the work of the center.

The Mobile Blood Bank will operate from 1 to 7 p.m. Once again the quota will be 125 pints of blood. All residents who expressed a willingness to donate blood, and who were not called upon to do so during the last visit of the blood bank, will be contacted and a convenient appointment will be arranged. Due to the change of time, many men who are ordinarily out of town during the day, will find it convenient to arrange an appointment after business hours.

Police Launch Drive On Teen-Age Vandals

Township Youngsters in Dance Recital

A score of the Springfield children who program featured nearly 100 children in presented a three-scene dance recital last week at the Regional High School. The direction of Mona A. Jenkins.

Beardsley's Letter Stirs County GOP Controversy

A political controversy has developed among county Republicans following a letter to Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll by Charles E. Beardsley, of 183 Tooker avenue, Republican County Committee chairman. The letter advised the chief executive that Michael Kealy, of Rahway, first vice-chairman of the county committee, would be Beardsley's personal representative at Trenton.

According to reports, carbon copies of the letter were sent to State Sen. Kenneth C. Hand and the four members of the Union County Assembly delegation. A copy of the typewritten letter was published last week in the Elizabeth Daily Journal.

Town Palsy Drive Headed by Layng

Wilbert W. Layng, of 25 Lyon place, Springfield, has been named for the second year to head this community's current fund raising campaign of the Cerebral Palsy League of Union County. Announcement of Layng's reappointment was made today by Freeholder Albert J. Benninger, county campaign chairman.

Resident of Springfield for more than 20 years, Layng is a past commander of Continental Post 228 American Legion and has been county vice-commander of the legion. A World War I veteran he is a member of the 40 and-8 Voltaire 227 of Union County. Layng is a construction equipment engineer with the R. E. Brooks Company in New York.

Urging an even greater demonstration of generosity this year than last Layng pointed out that the needs of the cerebral palsied are greater than ever before.

The highest birth rate of any year in our history was recorded in 1951 with over three million babies born in the United States. Springfield and the remainder of the country have certainly received their share. Since the incidence of children with cerebral palsy from birth is directly proportional to the birth rate this means that our burden and our responsibility will be greater in 1952 than ever before—the children born stated. He emphasized that cerebral palsy is a condition not a disease.

Speeding Fines Leveled in Court

Bertram J. Bertolamy, of 415 Union street, Garwood, was fined $10 by Magistrate Henry C. McMullen in Municipal Court Monday night. He was apprehended for speeding. Other speeding fines were: Raymond W. Smith, 239 Drake avenue, Roselle, $10; William J. Keller, 582 Sherwood parkway, Westfield, $7; Joseph Barcollona, 2789 Carol road, Union, $5, and Mary J. Connolly, 1009 Anna street, Elizabeth, $5.

Other fines included August Rittenbush, 247 Sinclair place, Westfield, $13; Alexander Sykes, 1760 East Second street, Scotch Plains, $13; John J. McCloskey, 143 Harrow road, Westfield, $13 and Frieda S. Krenshner, 501 Topping Hill road, Westfield, $13, all fined for passing stopped school buses. Elbert Simpson, 5 Cross street, Union, was fined $5 for spilling stone from a truck. William S. Minton, 96 Centennial avenue, Cinniford, paid $5 for driving a non-registered vehicle.

Dept. Promises Quick Finish to Bulb-breaking

Springfield has a new distinction—one which probably will not be contested in any other Northern New Jersey municipality. According to James Carver, in charge of the Northern Division of the Jersey Central Light and Power Company, more street light bulbs have been broken here during the past six weeks than in any in the big area from Pompton Lakes to Springfield, which includes large municipalities like Morristown, Summit and Dover.

A total of forty street light bulbs have been broken here in the past forty-eight days, it was revealed today by Carver and Robin Little, public relations representative of the utility.

Carver urged the Springfield Sun to publish an appeal to parents to warn their children to desist from the rampage of vandalism which has permeated—Springfield's nocturnal activities.

Police, apprised of the situation, pointed out that the wholesale and unwarranted destruction of lights, makes their task more difficult.

"If this continues," a department spokesman said, "we cannot guarantee the safety of Springfield children when they walk on darkened streets. We're going to have to crack down on these teen-agers in order to protect life and property in the township."

The following list indicated the destruction of street light bulbs here between April 2 and Tuesday: Baltuorav avenue, nine; Bryant avenue, twelve; Tooker avenue, two; Keeler street, one; Salter and South Street, one; Park lane, one; Short Hills avenue, three; Springfield avenue, one; Batho Hill avenue, one; Brook street, one; Springfield road, six and Colfax road, one.

It was said that Pole No. 802 at Bryant avenue has been a constant target of the marauders. It was learned that police and utility company officials are placing blame for the widespread vandalism squarely at the doorsteps of members of a teen-age organization which meets Friday nights.

A crackdown on the group is scheduled to commence tomorrow night, it was learned.

Juvenile offenders, when apprehended will be given notices to appear before Juvenile Court Judge Libby Sacher in Elizabeth. Some may be sent to reform institutions, it was indicated. Heavy fines may be assessed parents of others, it was said.

Jersey Central officials pointed out that in the event the disks of lights are damaged it is conceivable that street lights could be shorted and all Springfield could be in darkness for varying periods. They said that if the teen-agers continue their campaign to put out lights, this could happen.

Regional Ends UCC Slate With Jefferson, Hillside

Sports In The Sun

Oh, Those Tournaments!

The Greater Newark Tournament, regarded by most observers as the tourney to decide New Jersey's best baseball team, has invited 16 teams to participate in its twentieth annual jamboree, included in that delegation are four Union County teams, three of which are second entries. Receiving the number one berth was Irvington, which holds a 12-3 record. The Campdowners face Newark East Side in the opening round.

Columbia, also 12-3, got the second seeding and it meets Morris-town in the initial round. Englewood (13-4) drew the third seeding and plays Weonawick. The fourth slot was given to Montclair (10-4), which will engage Nutley in the first round.

The last four berths were awarded Roselle Park, Rahway, Bloomfield, and Linden in that order. Those four will meet Summit, Clifford Scott (East Orange), Garfield, and Newark South Side, respectively.

The funny thing about these tournaments is that teams invited sometimes have been beaten-by-other nines that were overlooked. A good example of that fact is Linden's triumph last year in the GNT. Regional turned back Linden last year, 5-3, but were not considered for the GNT. This year, Summit, already beaten by Regional, was invited.

In no instance do we feel that Regional should have received an invitation. Last year, yes, but the '52 Bulldogs are not in a class with Columbia, Irvington, etc.

We do advocate, however, the revision of the system for choosing the tournament fields. Rather than pick teams that are tops in their respective leagues or sections, we feel that the sixteen best clubs in New Jersey should be invited whether they be all from Essex, Union, or any other county.

UCC Schedule Complete
By DONALD ROSSELET
Thomas Jefferson of Elizabeth and Hillside will provide the opposition as Regional winds up its 1952 Union County Conference baseball schedule this week-end. Coach Bill Brown's Bulldog nine have not enjoyed success in UCC competition thus far and hungry for victory. Regional and Jeff square off here tomorrow (Friday) and the Bulldogs play at Hillside Saturday.

Although not a single championship hinges on the outcome of the Jeff-Regional encounter, the Bulldogs are intent on repelling the Tealby invasion for two reasons. The paramount aim is to get revenge on last year's 5-0 shutout defeat at the hands of the Betsy-town nine. Secondly, the Bulldogs would like to share the cellar in the event they do finish there, which seems almost a certainty now.

Jeff came up with a 5-3 surprise over Rahway as the latter was on the verge of clinching UCC laurels. The Scarlets must turn back a hot-and-cold Hillside unit to capture the circuit honors.

Tony Wojciechowski will take the mound against Jefferson, while Bob Thwaites will get the assignment at Hillside. Wojciechowski has a 1-1 record and Thwaites a 5-20 standard.

Following the UCC windup, Regional has two more contests remaining on the agenda. The Bulldogs entertain conference rival Union in a non-loop game here next Tuesday and travel to Summit next Thursday.
